Într-o seară tăcută, într-un salon decorat cu oglinzi aurite și lumânări pâlpâind, Contele de Monte Cristo privea cu o fascinație distantă mulțimea adunată. El nu mai era Edmond Dantès, marinarul naiv; devenise un maestru al aparențelor, un regizor al propriei existențe. Își învățase rolul cu meticulozitate, ca un actor care repetă fiecare replică până când devine parte din el. Cuvintele sale, gesturile calculate și privirile pline de înțeles pictau un personaj desăvârșit, sculptat în tăcerea anilor de suferință și speranță.

În timp ce își contempla reflecția într-o oglindă, realiză că viața sa fusese o operă modelată de mâna invizibilă a destinului: „Lucrurile se desfășoară pe negândite; în timp ce noi ne gândim la ele, se gândesc ele la noi, iar când ne întoarcem, ne mirăm singuri cât de departe am ajuns."

În profunzimea transformării, efortul susținut devine limbaj artistic, iar fiecare pas înainte poartă amprenta unui spirit desăvârșit. În alergare, Oana a înțeles mai bine ca oricine lucrul acesta. Adevărata măiestrie în depășirea limitelor se naște din capacitatea de a transforma existența într-o operă de artă vie, unde fiecare moment devine o piesă a unui întreg perfect. De fapt, arta autodepășirii este mărturia unui suflet care și-a înfruntat limitele, transformând efortul într-un ritual al descoperirii de sine. Poate că adevărata măreție se naște din transformarea profundă a ființei, unde fiecare mișcare, fiecare formă de acțiune, devine o expresie a perfecțiunii interioare.

Leadership: Poți să-ți cultivi capacitatea de a transforma efortul în expresie artistică pură, pentru a crea experiența completă a unei viziuni artistice?

Să ne înțelegem. A fi campion la semimaratoane înseamnă să fii mai mult decât regizorul propriei existențe, înseamnă să fii o reflecție în oglinda timpurilor și eforturilor în care viața devine o operă modelată de mâna invizibilă a destinului. Este greu să fii Monte Cristo, să ajungi mai departe decât ai crezut vreodată că vei ajunge, iar fiecare campion experimentează acest triumf al voinței printr-un soi de proximitate a posibilului: „limitele sunt doar repere temporare, nu ziduri definitive."

Așadar, triumful nu stă în destinația finală, ci în arta de a modela fiecare pas, fiecare ritm, transformând severitatea fiecărui urcuș și coborâș într-o expresie a propriei forțe interioare.

Atunci când simte tentația de a se opri, ceva profund o împinge pe Oana să vadă dincolo de linia vizibilului, asemenea unui Monte Cristo care nu se mulțumește cu hărți cunoscute ale unui triumf facil, ci vrea să traseze propriile sale căi. Căci, în artă, trebuie să pui în relief linia de despărțire dintre lumină și umbră, încât figurile să apară vii și conturate, izbutind să desăvârșești pe pânză corpurile care par să respire o noblețe aparte, un fel de manierism, fără dramă, convertit spre un limbaj vizual senin.

Sigur că Oana, fidelă unei realități vizibile, conștiente și asumate, își întărește splendoarea gestului artistic, apărând în imagini ca un soi de arhetip al mișcării, de unde și vorba aia că: "arta este ecoul sufletului în formă vizibilă".

Leadership: În ce mod limitele vizibile ale realității pot fi depășite printr-un limbaj artistic bazat pe mișcare și ritm, transformându-se într-un simbol universal al ascensiunii interioare?

Tot mereu am privit-o pe sora mea cu simț artistic, cu un soi de uimire, dincolo de tot ce putea fi măsurat. Nu știu de ce, dar când Oana aleargă, mi se pare că pictează spațiul cu mișcările ei, tot așa cum un artist își lasă amprenta pe pânză. În fiecare pas calculat, în fiecare privire îndreptată peste linia orizontului, ea realizează o operă de artă în care fiecare element este organizat cu o precizie uimitoare, traseul ei devenind un riflesso del viaggio interiore.

Arta sa, riguroasă, dă sens unei călătorii în amintirile muntelui și ale privitorilor, ca pe o scenă unde fiecare detaliu este orchestrat cu finețe și pasiune. Alergarea nu este doar un act de voință fizică, ci mai cu seamă este o artă a echilibrului, unde Oana reușește să susțină atracția pentru înălțime și liniște, dominând imaginea, impunând o prezență atotputernică.

Până la urmă, arta ei se naște dintr-un spațiu profund și subiectiv, din ecoul visului care-i răscolește fiecare fibră. Pentru prima dată, o alergătoare de top reușește să dea formă vizibilă unui adevăr pur, rațional, dar izvorât din cele mai profunde trăiri. În inima naturii, în mijlocul munților, iată, întâlnim un artist ce găsește imaginile viselor vrednice de a fi așternute pe pânză, transformând traseul montan într-o galerie deschisă. Din această experiență individuală iau naștere mișcări pe care le putem numi „călătoria spre sine."

Leadershipul este arta de a modela realitatea prin forme vizibile și tangibile, în raport cu dorința de a reflecta un adevăr interior profund: „când ești capabil să transformi suferința în frumusețe, devii arhitectul propriului tău destin."

Arta este ecoul sufletului în formă vizibilă atunci când primește un suflu de inspirație din partea creatorului, dincolo de capriciile unui destin care modelează realitatea. În timp ce viziunea artistică se definește ca expresie a echilibrului interior, în virtutea principiului conform căruia forma urmează esența, în așa măsură încât mișcarea devine o proiecție vizibilă a sufletului.

Spun asta în condițiile în care sora mea, prin raportare la neprevăzutul unui destin modelator, reușește de fiecare dată performanța să transcendă limitele impuse.

Arta este expresia senzației gustului

Arta este sinonimă cu existenţa unui "perpetuu aici şi acum" care uneşte realitatea între Interior (sinele) şi Exterior (lume sau lucruri).

Privesc cu atenţie micile gume de mestecat "Fini". Atât de dulci par ele la prima vedere, aproape că le simt gustul dinainte de a le mesteca, fapt ce asigură parcurgerea unei arte a trăirii clipei de faţă, cu totul deosebită. Prin studierea atentă a combinaţiilor inedite de arome exotice, sortimente de culori, savoare şi răcoare, voi lăsa loc fanteziei să dea naştere la un concept de tipul "bun gust". Ele pare a pune în prim plan ideea de "realitate transformabilă" – fiindcă ceea ce văd la prima vedere, lucrul care care îmi concentrez atenţia, îşi schimbă textura de îndată ce intră în contact cu gura.

Mult mai mult decât un deliciu culinar, mai mult decât un aspect plin de delicateţe, trebuie să ţin cont de simţirea pe care o degajă gustul dulce-acrişor al gumelor "Fini", încât să îmbunătăţesc experienţa interioară a ceea ce sunt eu, prin alţi ochi, prin cunoaşterea senzorială a lucrurilor deja trăite, înfăptuite. Şi numai din plăcerea de a explora vasta lume senzorială a gustului, a aromelor şi a perspectivelor vizuale, mi-am permis luxul de a-mi găsi un refugiu în domeniul artistic.

Am priceput că o gumă de mestecat este diferită de o bomboană, o caramea sau de un pătrăţel de ciocolată, iar acest lucru se întâmplă în jurul căii artei de a sorta, a alege, a filtra (ce am nevoie, ce n-am nevoie) despre un anumit conținut care îşi dezvăluie instant efectul, în primul rând la nivel senzorial. Este o chestiune de simţire, de manipulare a simţurilor în vederea eliminării obstacolelor pe care raţiunea însăşi şi le creează în momentul când conştientizez pericolul unei posibile dependenţe de senzaţia unui gust irezistibil. Gravitatea unei asemenea dependențe nu trebuie subestimată.

Leadership: Poţi face dovada cunoaşterii realităţii prin repetarea experienţei senzoriale a lucrurilor care contează pentru tine, ca să ajungi la formarea în minte a unui topos al esteticii (în ansamblul ei) ?

Trebuie să vă spun că n-am ajuns cu totul întâmplător să savurez gustul gumelor de mestecat "Fini". Nu a fost un capriciu al fiinţei mele profunde, o intimitate a apropierii dintre realitate și pictură, o dorință de moment schimbătoare, nu a fost subiectul unui transfer de informaţii cu conţinut ideatic. Ci, mai degrabă, a fost doar o atracţie de moment pentru combinaţia de culori ce îmbracă versiunea finală al unui produs cu un aspect estetic ideal pentru fiecare act specific de percepție.

Obiectul care intră în câmpul vizual este, de multe ori, vedeta gustului pe care nu am voie să o ratez.

Să fi fost oare un act de curaj în atmosfera dominantă a non-figurativului pe care îl implică abstractizarea relaţiei dintre două concepte: "frumosul din lucruri" şi "trăirea are valoare"? Prin ce se evidenţiază guma "Fini" în evoluţia ideii de frumos: ca o manifestare artistică pe care am încercat s-o fac mai puțin abstractă? Ca o ruptură de modernism, deschizând drumul spre noi forme artistice? Ca o ruptură de sine cu ambientul?

Un lucru este cert. Toposul este încercarea mea de a izola într-o singură secvență narativă ceea ce se găsește în modul de reprezentare a satisfacției pe care o dă relaţia dintre bunul gust şi fineţea unui obicei care mă inspiră. De aici, rezultă pretenţia esteticii de a trasa diagrama momentelor de satisfacţie deosebită, de a evidenţia intensitatea şi profunzimea acestui sentiment înălţător numit: savoare.

Atât mai îmi trebuie: să forţez limitele artei și ale științei, punând în prim plan momentul forte al vieţii unei gume de mestecat al cărei gust dulce-acrişor durează atâta timp cât zaharul nu s-a topit în gură. Evident, ca în cazul multor dileme legate de sfera estetici, este o chestiune pur subiectivă și ține exclusiv de gust. La urma urmei, cred că arta este sinonimă cu existenţa unui "perpetuu aici şi acum" care uneşte realitatea între Interior (sinele) şi Exterior (lume sau lucruri).

Arta este urmarea unei experienţe exterioare căpătată cu ajutorul percepţiilor vizuale, din care am extras fascinat viziunea unui Eu care ştie în orice moment ce anume simte.

Arta este expresia senzației gustului dacă punem în evidenţă starea subiectivă a celui care se delectează cu plăcerea de a experimenta o împletire deosebită de arome, stări, culori, texturi, etc. Şi dacă tot am ajuns la artă cu ajutorul gustului şi a bogăţiei savorii lui, iată ce spunea la un moment dat scriitorul Francois Chenet:

"Din opera de artă se degajă o savoare particulară, calitate esenţială şi dominantă care îi conferă specificitatea saşi care trebuie să trezească în cel ce o contemplă o înţelegere imediată a naturii intrinseci a operei. "Savoarea estetică" este o stare subiectivă a spectatorului, a auditorului sau a cititorului, prin care dispoziţiile sale afective consonante sau stările sale sufleteşti, în armonie cu opera incitatoare, se trezesc în contact cu aceasta, procurând o delectare estetică durabilă."

Arta este reflexia sufletului în mișcare

Meritul artei este de a încadra profilul experiențelor în ansamblul umanității, ținând seama de "criza" apărută într-un moment brusc de revelație.

Încotro ne îndrumă pașii destinului, când alergăm pe cărările vieții? Căci, la ultimul concurs de running, sora mea Oana Fântânaru a coborât dealul în urma unei alte alergătoare, ținându-se după ea o bună bucată de drum. Ceva i s-a părut în neregulă la traseul pe care îl parcurgeau una lângă alta, ca două umbre gemene în jocul efemer al competiției, declanșând în ea un fel de activitate nervoasă autonomă în care intensitatea, echilibrul și mobilitatea își pierdeau coordonarea. S-a întrebat în sinea dintr-o dată: „Oare acesta este drumul cel bun? Oare nu cumva ne-am pierdut în labirintul propriilor ambiții?"

Dintr-o dată, un fluture deosebit de frumos i-a tăiat calea Oanei, parcă anunțând-o să nu meargă mai departe în direcția urmată de cealaltă alergătoare, să renunțe la competiție, sau să găsească un nou drum. Era oare acest fluture un mesager al "Azenthopiei Illiersebre", o manifestare a intuiției divine în fața căreia rațiunea pălește, un fel de ghid spiritual? Ghidată de această epifanie efemeră, s-a întors înapoi și a continuat alergarea pe traseul care s-a dovedit a fi cel mai bun. În tot acest timp, cealaltă alergătoare, de altfel foarte bine antrenată, a trecut ultima linia de final, deoarece drumul pe care a alergat a fost greșit.

Acest episod discutabil, suspendat între cel care nu reușești să devii şi cel care ai putea fi, mi-a amintit că meritul artei este de a încadra profilul experiențelor în ansamblul vieţii, ținând seama de "criza" apărută într-un moment brusc de revelație care se conturează clar și profund. Criza interioară evidențiază cine ești și cine poți deveni. Iar arta, asemenea fluturelui ce i-a apărut Oanei, tinde a lărgi capacitatea de percepție, de a intensifica emotivitatea printr-o dezlănțuire de senzații care transcend barierele posibilului greu de acceptat.

Leadership: În ce mod poate o experiență revelatoare să conducă pe plan artistic la o mai bună înțelegere a propriului sine și a alterității pe care o întâlneşti în momentele de încercare?

Când alergi, îți depășești limitele și intri în acea zonă a artei pure în care simți că totul este posibil. Mai ales în starea de "artheosia" - fuziunea dintre artă și epifanie - creația devine spațiul de devenire al propriei mișcări ritmice, un soi de exercițiu al spiritului ce culminează prin eliberare și împlinire interioară. Oana nu a acționat într-un spațiu dinainte determinat, ci dimpotrivă, ea însăși și-a determinat spațiul, în cuprinsul unui univers care se construiește odată cu viața însăși și care te satisface cu o rară claritate de expresie artistică și emoție, solicitate de însăși căutarea ei interioară.

Nu-i așa? Într-un moment hotărâtor, Oana a deschis dimensiunea manifestărilor raționale ale vieții însăși, în virtutea unei legi interne, fără artificii și iluzii, ce poate fi formulată astfel: "Arta este reflexia sufletului în mișcare." Sau, spus altfel: arta este ecoul profund al spiritului uman care transcende realitatea aşteptată.

În plus, tendința de a transforma realitatea datorită puternicei intensități a momentului a devenit factorul esențial al acțiunii creatoare.

Da, arta exprimă forța vie și mișcătoare a existenței, dincolo de limitele percepției obișnuite, conform impulsurilor profunde ale sufletului. Numaidecât, lupta Oanei cu propria-i fire, când i-o cereau împrejurările, cu atât mai dificile, insuportabile și complicate, pare să fi fost manifestarea unei esențe interioare de un sens vital: atâta timp cât expresiile artistice vor fi mijloace de eliberare a energiei spiritului sub apăsarea constrângerilor temporare, ea își va găsi stabilitatea definitivă. Atașamentul față de propria operă asumă o poziție de luptă și de intervenție activă în realitatea unei situații, transformând-o într-o reflexie a propriei conștiințe.

Leadership: Arta pe care o creezi surprinde profunditatea momentelor tale de revelație, atunci când ești prins între potențialul tău de autodepăşire și realitatea actuală pe care nu eşti pregătit să o accepţi?

Expresiile artistice sunt afirmații unic personale care pot dezvălui semnificații importante ale experienței individuale, cuprinzând elemente conștiente și inconștiente, făcând ca fiecare moment să devină o reflectare a stării interioare. În ceea ce o privește pe Oana, un singur cuvânt strigă cu putere în sufletul ei, un ejercicio del espíritu, o cotitură spre simbolismul care duce spre iluminare: "Renaștere", acea revigorare interioară care o propulsează spre noi orizonturi.

Aici este vorba de spațiul în care sufletul își dispută controlul trupului destul de extenuat, acel spațiu al echilibrului fragil, ritmic, asimetric, între puterea interioară și limitele fizice. În acest sens, noul spirit artistic are ca lozincă depășirea inerției și asocierea subtilă pe bază de comparație a stărilor de conștiință. Spațiul devine astfel dimensiunea vieții conștiente de sine în evoluția ei, exprimând forța vie și mișcătoare a creației umane.

Prin experiențele sale, arta redefinește raportul percepției dintre spațiu și formă, pe linia unei transcendențe creative. Ea se manifestă ca o superioară expresie a spiritului, unde orice reînviere a artei trebuie să se bazeze, mai presus de toate, pe o nouă concepție asupra valorii existenței. Din acest punct de vedere, Oana a devenit exemplul viu pe care arta îl întruchipează, tot așa cum un artist își transpune viziunea interioară în creațiile sale.

Poziția ideală de vizualizare a traseului pe care îl ai de parcurs influențează percepția vizuală a operei căreia îi dai viață, luând în calcul interpretarea propriei tale evoluții artistice în raport cu împrejurările neașteptate ale vieții?

Arta este reflexia sufletului în mișcare atunci când reușește să capteze esența emoțiilor și a gândurilor tale cele mai profunde. În această oscilație între disperare și exaltare, arta devine manifestarea unei esențe interioare de un sens vital: atâta timp cât exprimările tale vor fi mijloace de eliberare a energiei spiritului sub apăsarea rătăcirii, îți vei găsi stabilitatea definitivă doar în propria creație.

Arta între cadre şi efecte

Stabileşte o conexiune între idei, afecte, stări psihice, astfel încât ele să-ţi sprijine afirmarea într-un context specific de expansiune a efectelor generate cu ajutorul unor teme.

În filmul lui Eisenstein, ordonarea plastică este completată de folosirea culorii: tema cruzimii şi morţii întruchipată de teutoni este, pe plan cromatic, tradusă – aparent paradoxal – în albul pelerinelor, în timp ce tema eroismului ce caracterizează luptătorii ruşi are ca echivalent cromatic – negrul.

Dinamica tuturor cadrelor se înscrie în linia valorificării acestor caracteristici plastice. Cavalerii teutoni apar totdeauna în formaţii strict geometrice, spre deosebire de mişcările trupelor ruseşti, care sunt neregulate, dar ample, în fluxuri şi valuri succesive. În montaj alternarea mişcărilor teutonilor-albi şi a ruşilor-negri creează rime plastice înscrise într-o simfonie a mişcărilor.

Paralel există un alt şir de teme plastice, echivalente figurative ale unor idei, afecte, stări psihice, care se orchestrează împreună cu temele de bază: forma căştilor, tema lăncilor care prin poziţiile lor succesive – orizontale sau verticale – comentează plastic evenimentele, tema focului legată de ruşi, cea a ghetei corelată cu teutonii. *

Leadership: Dinamica tuturor cadrelor de expansiune a efectelor pe care le generezi cu ajutorul unei teme de senzaţie se înscrie în linia valorificării unor caracteristici plastice?

Întotdeauna când se încearcă o combinaţie a unor caracteristici culturale, existenţiale, concepţionale, dezvoltate în diverse scene prin interacțiunea unor personaje de impact, autori ai unor fapte mărețe, are loc o așa numită individualizare, o centrare mai accentuată pe o devenire și un parcurs care dă măsura unui anumit construct teoretico-metodologic în psihologie.

Iar acest construct, în cinematografie, ca și în pictură, creează „rime" (potriviri) între ceea ce lipsește temei pentru ca tabloul să fie complet și ceea ce ai vrea să fie diferit pentru ca tabloul să fie uşor personalizat. Practic, o temă de senzaţie are rolul de a comenta plastic evenimentele petrecute în trecut, prin introducerea unei dinamici a imaginarului și a expresiei de cea mai certă anvergură într-un tablou al emoţiilor şi a conceptelor derivate de aici. Acest tablou pune accentul pe găsirea unor noi modalități artistice de exprimare a convingerilor încrustate în conştiinţa şi intelectul regizorului de o istorie impusă, trăită şi asumată deplin.

Tema prezintă ordonarea unor fapte care merită a fi scoase la lumină, este o tendinţă a regizorului de a se înscrie în filonul de sens existenţial al omului care vrea să-şi modeleze perspectiva de abordare a lumii cu ajutorul unor scene celebre şi personaje marcante readuse la viaţă. Tema este rezultatul unor căutări perpetue de cauze, abordări și efecte, înscrise într-o simfonie a mişcărilor, prin interacţiunea proceselor cognitive, volitive şi afective, ce se întrepătrund într-o continuă dinamică a cadrelor de montaj.

A comenta plastic anumite evenimente importante ale istoriei înseamnă să reconstruieşti o lume a cărei realitate este cuprinsă între o viziune bazată pe importanţa imaginarului şi o viziune bazată pe cunoaşterea artistică (şi pe concepţia artistică a unei povestiri).

Leadershipul este, cel puţin într-o primă fază, o rescriere a unor teme, motive, convenţii, procedee specifice realizării peliculelor de film, cristalizate într-o structură unitară de cadre și imagini care demonstrează acea apropiere între idei, afecte, stări psihice, în condiții variate de exploatare. Toate acestea arată posibilitățile de accentuare a unor caracteristici plastice - adică în mijloace specifice de exprimare.

Aceste mijloace de exprimare reprezintă o alegere culturală/intelectuală asociată cu auto-afirmarea unui artist într-un context specific de expansiune a efectelor generate cu ajutorul unor teme.

Ca să-ţi demonstrezi rolul de mare artist în elaborarea unei premiere în psihologia unei lumi diferite, ca să aduci o viziune unică asupra unei realităţi nu totdeauna avute în vedere, trebuie să valorifici aceste posibilități de integrare a temelor într-un montaj care are puterea de a amplifica o anumită scenă. În cinematografie acest lucru este posibil prin intensificări cromatice sau suprapuneri grafice.

Leadershipul este asemenea teritoriului unei dinamici a imaginilor, raportabile întotdeauna la nişte fapte care merită transpuse într-o viziune menită să te țină cu răsuflarea tăiată și cu nodul emoției în gât.

Arta între cadre şi efecte evidenţiază acea structură dinamică, de conectare între idei, afecte, stări psihice, care are nevoie de interpretare, de interacţiunea activă cu observatorul, pentru a se putea materializa într-o realitate în care toate fenomenele de cultură se unesc, interacţioneaza şi dau un înţeles totalizator.

Dezvoltă-ţi fascinaţia faţă de imaginea pe care ţi-o oferă raţiunea, despre cum ai fi în mod ideal, fără să te împotmoleşti într-o cunoaștere de sine care îţi evocă numai deficiențele.

După renunţarea la celelalte proiecte, filmul în culori despre Puşkin începe să prindă viaţă. Imaginile din viaţa poetului se nasc o dată cu imaginile colorate. Culoarea nu este un adaos pitoresc, ci face parte organic din structura dramatică a filmului. Scena din "Boris Godunov" este integrată în acest film, în forma unui coşmar. Scenele din viaţa poetului, apărute în imaginaţia lui Eisenstein într-o succesiune eruptivă de explozii cromatice, se axează în jurul unui pivot dramatic.

Ipoteza lui I. Tinianov în legătură cu Karamzina, care ar fi fost "dragostea necunoscută" a lui Puşkin, devine axul central al filmului, tema biografică cea mai sobră şi de cea mai mare frumuseţe dintre toate temele posibile ale materialului biografic al poetului.

Momentele din viaţa poetului se ordonează în jurul acestui pivot dramatic. Se explică astfel aparentul lui don-juanism şi episoadele diverse capătă contururi ferme, "nu simplu pitoreşti, conform unei game coloristice stricte, ci de factură picturala". *****

Leadership: Scenele din viața ta se desfăşoară conform unei game coloristice stricte, dezvoltate în jurul unui pivot de excepţionalitate măsurat printr-o modalitate specifică de a înfăţişa un alt punct de vedere asupra muncii intelectuale?

Leadershipul este un rezultat al muncii intelectuale, al rolurilor sociale și al evaluării existenţiale. Iar munca intelectuală este un fenomen al experienţei de creaţie, al imediatului, al reflecţiei, al concepţiei, este ca un fel de experienţă mistică înzestrată cu un caracter artistic. Deci, concomitent cu amploarea obiectivelor, sarcinilor, competenţelor şi responsabilităţilor implicate în procesul devenirii, leadershipul devine axul central al unei reprezentări de sine pe scara unei desăvârşiri care se defineşte mai mult ca oricare alta prin colorit.

Coloritul creează premisele unei evoluții bazate pe "încercare şi eroare" pentru a ajunge ntr-un moment al vieții în care omul se poate simți împlinit. Coloritul este acea fascinaţie care nu mai trece, acea stare de spirit persistentă faţă de un fenomen omniprezent în vieţile noastre, faţă de maleabilitatea rolurilor pe care le îndeplinim. Este acea fascinaţie faţă de imaginea pe care ne-o oferă raţiunea, despre cum am putea fi în mod ideal, fără să ne împotmolim într-o cunoaștere de sine care ne evocă numai deficiențele.

Dacă vrei să explici efectele unei acţiuni de dezvoltare, care afectează mai mult sau mai puţin capacitatea de a da un sens mai înalt existenței, trebuie generezi mișcarea unui pivot de împingere care acționează asupra propriilor motivaţii și acțiuni. Trebuie să manifeşti continuu o fascinaţie pentru ceea ce te face să trăiești, pentru ceea ce te face să fii cea mai bună variantă a ta în jurul unei imagini care demonstrează caracterul liric al artei, care explorează teme precum "explozia cromatică".

Tema care se aplică la orice formă de imagine, observându-se într-o succesiune eruptivă de explozii „cromatice", este reprezentată de acele momente din viață când simți că faci parte dintr-un tablou care prezintă evoluţia unui fenomen de combinare a mai multor forme de artă pe o perioadă lungă de timp.

Pivotul este punctul de sprijin esențial care asigură desfășurarea unei activități sau a unui proces. Prin intermediul pivotului, conturat de-a lungul consecinţelor pe termen lung ale „temelor” propriei existenţe, abordate uneori cu autoironie, alteori cu înțelegere și amuzament, urmărim un dublu scop care introduce un nou model al subiectului consumator de sens în momentele de mare intensitate:

Mai întâi surprinderea stărilor de intensitate, acumulate din nevoia imperioasă a imaginaţiei de a se împotrivi crudelor realităţi, paralel cu valorificarea elementelor de adevăr extrase din explicațiile pe care ți le dai în legătură cu ceea ce ți se întâmplă. Ceea ce trăieşti mai intens, mai alert, mai constructiv trebuie să reflecte totalitatea unui tablou care înfăţişează forţa şi însemnătatea vieţii tale, pe când saltul intuitiv are loc doar prin canalizarea şi focusarea asupra unor elemente de artă, de limbaj plastic, realizate dincolo de graniţele strictului clasicism.

Apoi, descifrarea funcţiilor încărcate de semnificaţii pe care le îndeplinesc în actuala confruntare ideile inovatoare care transformă şi continuă să transforme lumea în care trăieşti. Aceste funcţii indică principalele orientări evolutive și ideologice, așa cum se relevă ele în cazul concret al interpretării unei anumite modalităţi de existență axată pe creație și pe temele ei.

Leadershipul este consecinţa exploatării unei imagini artistice care poate fi înţeleasă datoritã muncii intelectuale avansate ce acţionează ca un eveniment de mare impact în spaţiul concret al creaţiei culturale, ştiinţifice şi spirituale.

Arta între colorit şi viaţă este destinată numai creatorilor desăvârşiţi în ale vieţii care ştiu să surprindă noi conţinuturi de valoare în imaginea de sine plămădită cu scopul de a se încărca singuri cu surse nebănuite de imaginaţie şi motivare.

Arta între Creație şi Dumnezeu (II)

Exteriorul bun este cea mai bună recomandare a desăvârșirii lăuntrice.

Mă simţeam prins într-o spirală abruptă a destinului ce părea să-mi pericliteze visurile cele mai înalte. O spirală de stări ciudate care urcau și coborau într-un vârtej de influențe inevitabile şi interminabile, părând fără ieşire, ca un zid nesfârșit ce închide orizontul, deoarece trăgeam mult prea tare de comanda dreapta/stânga a fericirii care se traduce, într-un anume fel, prin intensitatea efortului intelectual şi fizic de a fi: The Best of The Best.

Curiozitatea, imaginația şi actul de creație, o paletă plină de pasteluri şi culori, condițiile unei separări de factorul numit "Toleranță la Risc", păreau să primească acea însuşire de a străbate intuitiv realitățile nevăzute şi făgăduințele lui Dumnezeu. Avându-şi rostul ca proces de reașezare a priorităților pe alte principii, nebănuite încă de mintea omenească, ce prefigura o Nouă Ordine a Lumii.

Desenul care se află pe primul loc în mintea artistului, imaginea pe care numai un trend îndrăzneţ îi poate redimensiona importanţa, este inevitabil străbătut de fiorul unei înmărmuriri în faţa unui colţ de rai creat de natură. Opera de pictură este unitatea tonală dată faptului vizibil descris prin feluritele nuanţe ale unei realităţi prea puţin cunoscute, stranie, particulară, misterioasă ca nașterea și moartea, oferind spre analiză imaginea unei lumi invizibile.

Leadership: Cum te ajută credința nestrămutată în particularitatea unui mesaj profund să depășești influențele exterioare și să rămâi autentic în creațiile tale?

La mijloc era o lucrare personalizată, o reacţie instinctivă de apărare sufletească, un demers fundamental al gândirii şi al câmpurilor ei deschizătoare de orizont cultural şi spiritual, izvorâtă din valorile singulare ale matricei stilistice: reflecţia, inspiraţia şi contemplaţia asupra celor dumnezeieşti, ce ajutau la conştientizarea Binelui şi a Răului, a frumuseţii şi a distrugerii.

Numai credinţa nestrămutată în particularitatea unui câmp de forţe manifestate într-un cadru restrâns al tendinţelor de expansiune a mesajului divin, venit cine ştie de unde, îmi putea transmite gustul subtil al valorilor picturale. Numai o triplă acţiune în direcţia închipuirilor fireşti, luând ca model al proporţiilor compoziţiei însăşi trupului creaţiei, iluzia existenţei, alipirea la o realitate particulară total diferită de visul la care sperasem, mă putea scoate de sub incidenţa legilor plastice ale acestei lumi.

Războinicul luminii, artistul cel mai folositor unei metafizici a artei, este construit dintr-o fibră specială, un fel de amestec între spirit şi materie, instinct, raţiune şi conştiinţă, toate încălzite la presiune constantă în numele dorinţei nepieritoare de a călca pe urmele perfecţiunii în straturile profunde ale dimensiunii transpersonale care aprinde miraculos, ca o făclie în întuneric, flacăra duhului sfânt.

El ţine în mână o armă redutabilă, cuvântul . În suflet ţine o iubire nemărturisită şi o durere surdă, omenia . În estetica lui de sorginte filosofică, combinatorie esoterică, se recunoaşte capacitatea magică de a schimba înfăţişarea lucrurilor şi de a le apropia de Miracolul unei lumi care deşi este văzută, rămâne totuşi nevăzută. Dar sublimă, autentică şi de invidiat.

Un artist excepţional poate să asigure o reprezentare a imaginii în care "umbra” primeşte calitatea de gradare a „coloritului", sugerând acea condiţie obligatorie a separării sale de restul lumii, întregindu-se astfel în iubirea divină, menţinându-se apropiat de tot ceea ce poartă amprenta personală în corelaţie cu gândurile pe care le are Dumnezeu cu privire la planul Său.

Liderul este un creator de conţinut inspiraţional. El se formează sub îndrumarea artei care include, în structura ei mai amplă, atât consideraţii de ordin estetic cât și consideraţii metafizice asupra naturii și revelării Divinităţii.

Te poţi apropia de o putere fără frontiere dacă reușești să spui “da” oricărei provocări pe care o aduce clarobscurul, fuzionarea unor entităţi distincte şi chiar antagonice: suflet-trup, om-natură, alb-negru, cu ansamblul revelaţiei și credinţei.

Iluminarea, arta guvernată de confirmările clare ale frumuseţii şi virtuţii, este uşor de explicat, aşa cum ai încerca să explici tratarea cromaticii, adică numai pe înţelesul unui artist care insistă să facă o diferenţă între culoarea fizică şi culoarea imaginii picturale.

Aici, pe undeva, se încadrează tehnica de aplicare a culorii pure în tușe alăturate, sau cât de deschise sau şterse sunt acestea, având ca punct de reper celebra maximă a lui Baltasar Gracian: "Exteriorul bun e cea mai bună recomandare a desăvârşirii lăuntrice."

Leadership-ul creativ constă în abilitatea de a modela proporțiile propriei existențe după modelul divin, transformând iluziile și realitățile particulare într-o creație care transcende legile obișnuite ale lumii.

Arta între Creaţie şi Dumnezeu corespunde conceptului spiritual aplicat în artă.

Cine își caută desăvârşirea în intimitatea operei de artă trebuie să primească acea chemare specifică pe care o dă Dumnezeu numai celor care știu să sugereze coloritul, forma şi frumuseţea naturală a lumii, acolo unde „umbra” face unghi cu realitatea spirituală nevăzută.

Cu cât eşti mai profund, cu atât arta ta capătă o strălucire mai intensă şi pare însoțită de un mesaj universal.

Eram convins că trebuia să îndeplinesc o „slujire” plină de însemnătate, vădit susținută de aventura unor culori dintr-o paletă plină de vibrații, persistând doar ca o treaptă obligatorie a uceniciei pe calea spirituală, în toate fazele formării mele ca artist din perspectiva concluziei unui cercetător: "Totul a devenit științific”.

Acolo unde există un element vizual, poţi găsi întotdeauna o maladie a imaginaţiei, o formă combinatorie inedită greu de catalogat în aria speculativ-conceptuală a cromaticii.

Ceva straniu mă ademenea spre împlinirea actului pictural, prezenţa unei forţe magnetice acaparându-mă cu totul şi dictând cursul artei mele. Un novator care nu desparte erudiţia de studiul naturii încearcă succesiv toate nuanțele, toate adâncimile, toate subtilitățile, toate unghiurile de vedere şi de interpretare a culorii, toate combinaţiile posibile, la fel cum un poet îşi plasează creaţia şi existenţa în ipostazele unui joc cosmic, pe care îl joacă, om sau Dumnezeu, cu inocenţă şi puritate.

Leadership: Cum percepi momentul în care tot ceea ce atingi capătă o altă sensibilitate și altă semnificație, ca și când ai fi condus de o forță superioară?

Cu siguranță, conștientizarea talentului meu a venit cu timpul. Factorii modelatori fiind indiciile subtile presărate de-a lungul marilor scrieri despre artă. Și totuși, cel mai important lucru l-am învățat de la maestrul italian Pino Daeni, care a savurat din gustul subtil al valorilor picturale:

"Orice culoare, fie aşa cum este, fie amestecată, produce felurite efecte, dar niciuna dintre ele n-are puterea să redea prin ea însăşi efectele naturale, căci pentru asta se cere minte şi practică de maestru priceput.”

Așadar, un imbold vag spre deplinătatea lucrurilor, o deplinătate care nu poate fi atinsă cu ușurință, este întărită pe o spirală de stări care urcă și coboară într-un vârtej de influențe simțite ca o atingere divină: fii împlinit, dar cu băgare de seamă la Cele de Sus, care sunt mai presus decât Cele de Jos.

Sunt clipe când tot ceea ce atingi capătă o altă culoare, o altă însemnătate, un alt tip de sensibilitate, ca și când ai fi condus de o forța magică, mai presus de rațiune, accesată doar de simțire, care pune un strop de luciu acolo unde totul este mat.

Leadership: Arta ta este menită să înlesnească orientarea în abordarea gândirii supreme întemeietoare de punți între două lumi?

O artă guvernată de plăcerile cele mai intense ale creației, suplinind toate darurile care însoțesc tinerețea şi lipsesc celorlalte vârste, în care divinul sfidează efemerul cu iluzia veșniciei oferită de câteva forme de perfecțiune autentică, o execuție desăvârșită a lucrării manifestată în lumea trecătoare prin intermediul închipuirilor firești.

Ca un Tiziano Vecellio, gata întotdeauna să-şi primejduiască viața, dar niciodată opera, mă apropiam de planul mântuirii prin eliberarea creației de toată stricăciunea relației cu efemerul şi de limitele ei de acceptare a realului unanim acceptat, pentru a fi părtașă la comuniunea omului cu Dumnezeu.

La rândul ei, conștiința continua să se exprime cu aceeași seninătate cu care îmi acceptam limitele şi calitățile. Străbătută de acceptarea de a fi supusă unei intervenții înălțătoare, conștiința striga din toată voința izbăvitoare a cinstirii artei: "Omule, părăsește păcatele tale ! "

Simțiți în toate cuvintele mele o sete de sinceritate față de ceea ce gândesc şi insuficientul apetit pentru formă, pentru schimbare?

Să duci arta la nivel divin înseamnă să amesteci culorile în aşa fel încât ansamblul astfel constituit să aibă puterea de a reda prin el însuși efectele unui univers viu și infinit.

Întotdeauna înăuntrul artistului, căruia Dumnezeu i-a dat talent şi har, ele regăsindu-se în conținutul creativ al unei arte neînchipuit de vaste, se află un fruct cu care se poate ghiftui oricând, obiectul tuturor dorințelor, expresia plastică a raporturilor echilibrate: arta cuvântului.

Totdeauna convins de gustul subtil al valorilor picturale, artistul îşi duce imaginația pe o altă culme, din materia acumulată în imensitatea spațiului cosmic. În fiecare moment şi latură a vieții sale se manifestă acea speranță a ștergerii totale și instantanee a oricăror păcate de ordin estetic prin vraja procesului comunicativ.

În artă, procesul comunicativ cuprinde proiecția mesajelor susținute de asocieri între lumi paralele ce se completează și conviețuiesc într-un spațiu numit „Inside-Out”. Ceea ce accepți înăuntrul tău e nevoie să fie creat în afara ta.

Leadership-ul vizionar implică să recunoști deplinătatea în lucruri aparent simple, transformându-le prin sensibilitate și măiestrie într-o creație care revelează armonia dintre simplitate și complexitate.

Scriitorul John Granger, încercând să descifreze cheia secretă a lui Harry Potter, mergând de la elementul secular la cel sacru, ne spune de unde începem să privim spre cele înalte: „Când ne rugăm în fața unei icoane sau când ridicăm ochii spre cer, spiritul sau sufletul nostru (la nivelul intelectului) conștientizează maiestatea sau perfecțiunea formei ca simbol al unui punct de corespondență cu o realitate superioară ce intervine în lumea noastră.”

Nu știu exact de ce, dar cu siguranță artiștii cei mai deplini şi-au găsit intuiția şi expresia de legătură cu divinul prin acțiunea artei şi a simbolurilor ei constitutive asupra emoțiilor: cu cât eşti mai profund, cu atât arta ta capătă o strălucire mai intensă şi pare însoțită de un mesaj universal.

Coordonata acţională în abordarea avântului spre cele înalte trebuie argumentată şi demonstrată de experimentul numit „invenție artistică” în elementul reflexiv al unei subordonări a artei față de realitatea nevăzută.

Un artist de mare mobilitate spirituală este capabil să treacă dincolo de limitele impuse de convențional prin revelația supremă a acestei realități.

Arta între Creație şi Dumnezeu pune accentul pe frumusețea evocată prin culori. Ele își găsesc corespondența într-o lume întemeiată prin mijloace de lucru și de expresie vizuală, utilizate spre a fi în adevăr prin corelarea spiritual-existențială.

Arta între Creație şi Dumnezeu (I)

Marea Operă de Artă se slujește de acele linii ce poartă numele de divergente, care plecând dintr-un punct, se răspândesc mai departe spre un infinit al timpului încorporat în viul unei forțe mistice.

Opera mea se situează în întregime în direcția sentimentului, cugetării şi fanteziei, adesea de neînțeles chiar şi pentru spiritele cultivate, cărora Dumnezeu nu le-a făgăduit răspunsul pozitiv la o rugăciune specială, acea revărsare de lumină şi har după care sunt însetați doar artiştii capabili să-şi ridice arta la un nivel înalt de credință.

Doar o acțiune fermă în direcția împăcării cu ceea ce este tainic, a renunțării la vechile dogme, față de valoarea de referință a elementelor inseparabile "forma" şi "fondul", valoare numită de esteticieni "aurul pur", luând ca model al proporțiilor de amestec însăşi compoziția dintre lumină şi idee care transmit emoția artistică, ar putea să capete acea însușire nobilă a puterii cosmice: "Dumnezeu este tot una cu omul".

Există în orice artist o terra magica , o cunoaştere hermetică, un flux de sânge divin, o urmă de materie cosmică, o dorință insesizabilă omului motivat de plăceri trecătoare, dincolo de aspectul religios care merge în mod persuasiv spre evitarea în orice circumstanță a imaginii științei care a luat naștere prin contribuțiile convergente ale unor physicos reprezentativi.

Miracolul divin se întâmplă dacă îți privești opera ca pe o formă de exprimare artistică a creației imaginate, în care lucrurile cel mai puțin accesibile se văd doar dacă ești conștient de prezența lor.

Cumva, ochii minții mele coboară mereu jos, spre cele două văi torențiale, neclintite în proximitatea lui Dumnezeu, formate parcă în cinstea unei alchimii totodată estetice şi spirituale: interpretarea de profunzime, în măsura în care caut să exprim ceva îndărătul imaginii, şi o orientare înspre cercetarea lumii şi a cauzelor lucrurilor fundamentale şi profunde, configurate sub forma unor metafore extrem de puternice.

Un fel de trăsătură nedefinită, ceva contagios, puternic şi irezistibil, ca o scânteie pe cer în infinitul întuneric, mă îndeamnă la visare: Make a Wish ! Ea merge dincolo de tiparele arhetipurilor divine pe care eternitatea le reflectă ca pe nişte umbre ale realității abordate creativ, din perspective multiple, într-un context destul de diferit de conținutul concret al noțiunii de inspirație.

Cine ar căuta să se apropie de mine prin una din preocupările cardinale cele mai fertile, precum cunoaşterea umană sau gândirea axată pe detaliu, fără de care arta este de neconceput, fie ea cuvânt scris sau operă plastică, o emoție estetică sau o formă de protest, inevitabil ar întâmpina obsesia artistului ce caută în imaginile necunoscute forme particulare de compoziție.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să hotărăști soarta şi direcția în care creația ta se confundă cu prezența lui Dumnezeu?

Opera mea se slujește de acele linii ce poartă numele de divergente, şi care, plecând dintr-un punct, se răspândesc mai departe spre un infinit al timpului încorporat în viul unei forțe mistice. Linii alimentate de credință în particularitatea unui câmp de forțe manifestate într-un joc centrifug al tendințelor de înțelegere şi de comunicare a mesajului divin, astfel că propovăduirea se manifestă ca vestire şi însuşire a învățăturii autentic spirituale ce depăşeşte meschinul cadru al cotidianului.

Şi întrucât în orice consum de creativitate sporit opera este percepută dintr-o perspectivă originală, din accepțiunea unui termen cu conotație pozitivă şi finalitate benefică, ca atare tind să cred că arta mea este un mod de a experimenta şi reproduce o scânteie în construirea relației cu universul.

Pentru pictorul italian Cennino Cennini actul creației are legătură cu veşnicia, primind aflux de la Dumnezeu indirect prin intermediul lumii spirituale. Vrând să arate cum se poate învăța pictura, a mărturisit următoarele: "Pentru a fi artist se cere să ai închipuire bogată (fantasia) şi iscusința în mâini, să găseşti lucrurile nemaivăzute (ascunse sub umbra celor din natură) şi pe care să le înfățișezi apoi, cu ajutorul mâinilor, voind să dovedești că ceea ce nu există - este."

Concepția despre artă, ca mijloc de manipulare a lucrurilor nemaivăzute, se realizează cu ajutorul unei reacții de stimulare a imaginației, pornind de la ideea că ceea ce lipseşte dintr-un tablou poate fi un organ regulator, o direcție.

În leadership trebuie să progresezi exact în această direcţie.

Arta între Creație şi Dumnezeu aduce ca primă provocare găsirea unei noi posibilități de contopire cu Spiritul Universal, definindu-ți calea de urmat drept o formă a creației în care viziunile, sentimentele, trăirile şi gândurile sunt exprimate prin intermediul lucrurilor care deşi nu se văd - există.

Arta între esenţă și creație

Descoperă-ţi calitatea superioară de a fi original, printr-o analiză pertinentă şi bine realizată a punctelor de vedere care produc şi diseminează cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă.

În genere cunoaşterea, măcar informativă, a ideilor care erau acreditate în acei ani privind arta, cu aplicaţie la cinematografie, este importantă pentru înţelegerea uneia din sursele gândirii lui Eisenstein. Gândirea sa artistică din acea epocă nu s-a născut spontan, nu reprezintă o curiozitate, o bizarerie intelectuală, ci se găseşte în concordanţă cu evoluţia logică a ideilor contemporane.

Vertov declara că supleţea deosebită a construcţiei de montaj îngăduie introducerea într-un "cine-studiu" a oricărei idei politice sau economice. Cunoscând aceasta, nu ne vom mai mira la apariţia filmului "Greva" a lui Eisenstein. Tot Vertov concludea de aici că filmul nu mai necesită prezenţa dramei, a mizan-scenei. Istoricul Lebedev, într-un studiu despre istoria cinematografiei sovietice, constata că unul din principiile de bază al experimentului artistic Proletkuit era acela al "colectivismului" care excludea existenţa eroilor individuali în favoarea maselor, a colectivelor.

Ideea tipajului fusese la rândul ei aplicată de Eisenstein încă în teatru şi îşi avea obârşia în pasiunea sa pentru comedia dell'arte şi în concepţiile teatrale ale lui Meyerhold. *

Leadership: Cât poți să dăruiești din preaplinul cunoaşterii sale, aşa încât originalitatea creaţiei tale să se alinieze concordanţei stabilite între evoluţia ideilor şi experimentul artistic?

Gândirea unui artist, revărsându-se asupra modelelor abstracte de reprezentare a datelor cunoaşterii în dinamica creaţiei, pentru ca apoi procesul să fie suplimentat, în mod constant, prin mijloace de recompunere a faptelor cu realul, are originalitate doar dacă participă la desfăşurarea unei experiențe de lărgire a orizonturilor.

În artă, această lărgire a orizonturilor, fiind congenitală complexităţii plină de nuanţele interdependenţelor dintre estetic și funcţional, îl poartă pe artist spre o nemaicunoscută înflorire - mai ales dacă el reușește să constate asemănările și diferenţele între simţul unicităţii și transferul de date ale cunoaşterii care contrazic ideile unanim acceptate. Originalitatea unei creaţii depinde de înţelegerea pe care o atribui unei gândiri înglobatoare, bazată pe interpretări şi reinterpretări succesive al căror adevăr e sistematic negociabil şi supus ajustărilor, reluărilor, modificărilor de circumstanţe şi efecte.

La fel cum poezia nu poate să depăşească hotarele acurateţei, neprezentând exactitate în executarea unui lucru mecanic, tot astfel cunoaşterea, aflată în perpetuă transformare, nu poate să fie considerată un proces de descoperire treptată a complexităţii dacă nu prezintă prin însăşi subiectul aferent o anumită predominanţă în exprimarea unităţii dintre idee şi idealul de judecată, aferentă creării armoniei compoziţionale.

Esenţa în leadership este ceea ce versurile sunt pentru poezie: o înaltă raţiune ordonatoare a elementelor de sens care contribuie la crearea unei armonii în relația dintre subiect și revelație.

Iar, pe de altă parte, a te ancora în esenţa formelor gândirii, printr-un inedit periplu al ideilor, înseamnă a căuta mereu varietatea în unitate. Înseamnă să găseşti modalitatea de exprimare a propriilor convingeri adaptată la materia primă izvorâtă din acea cunoaştere care îngăduie o privire mult mai profundă în structura obiectivismului de care este legată partea ta reprezentativă.

Originalitatea este partea ta reprezentativă prelucrată în varianta obiectivă a esenţei ce se descoperă prin intermediul creaţiei. În timp ce experimentul artistic vizează stabilirea concordanţei dintre evoluţia logică a ideilor şi deprinderea cunoaşterii în extensio prin prisma comparaţiilor, încât arta să capete valoarea de bijuterie, iar creaţia să capete valoarea de reper în viaţa altora.

Relaţia dintre subiect şi revelaţie se constituie ca o înlănţuire de convingeri şi idei, percepţii şi valori, pe care regizorul le străbate pe drumul spre mecanismele artei, spre evoluţia ei, încât gândirea lui axată pe inovaţie să nu se blocheze în faţa realităţilor existenţei reale. Constituindu-se ca o revelaţie, relaţia regizorului cu un subiect bine documentat şi ataşant, luat din aceeaşi zonă a artei şi a creaţiei, face ca valorile, ideile percepţii şi convingerile pe care el le străbate în drumul spre suprarealism sau ficţiune, să confere existenţei reale o expresie de sublim. Nu poţi reuşesc performanţa asta !

Subiectul este povestea pe care vrei s-o pui în scenă, revelaţia este povestea pe care o ridici la nivel suprearealist.

Arta între esenţă și creație se materializează în acea calitate superioară a omului de a fi original într-o analiză pertinentă şi bine realizată a punctelor de vedere care produc şi diseminează cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă.

Arta între experiență și creaţie

Învaţă să faci din leadership o creaţie, prin prisma unei idei prezente în „peisajul" unei experiențe anterioare.

Moartea, ideea morţii este permanent prezentă aici, în Mexic. Pe Eisenstein îl atrăsese doar de la început această neobişnuită sărbătoare a Zilei Morţii. Aici însă viaţa răzbate permanent de sub moarte. Moartea aruncă tot ce e perimat şi generează naşterea noului. Deşi oamenii au lăsat milenii de civilizaţie în urma lor, ai senzaţia începutului. Moartea şi naşterea sunt strânse împletite, la fiecare pas. Privind sarcofagul, ai senzaţia unui leagăn. Pe vârful piramidei milenare în ruină creşte un boschet de trandafiri. Pe un craniu sculptat mai poţi citi cuvintele: „ Eu am fost ca tine – tu vei fi ca mine ".

De Ziua Morţilor copiii se joacă cu schelete miniaturale şi înfulecă cosciuge de ciocolată şi cranii de zahăr. Acelaşi om parcă, cu acelaşi profil, priveşte şi azi cu aceeaşi naivitate şi exaltare cu care privea odinioară Guatemoczin de pe rugul pe care fusese pus de spanioli şi cel de astăzi parcă are aceeaşi tărie de a rezista fără geamăt torturilor ca şi el când, aflat în flăcări, îi spunea calm unuia mai slab de lângă dânsul: „ Nici eu nu stau pe roze. " Dar este copleşitoare mai ales acea Zi a Morţilor care începe cu un ospăţ trist la mormântul strămoşului şi se încheie cu o petrecere plină de senzualitate.

În acest context emoţional, în această ambianţă senzorială, în acest peisaj purtător complex de posibilităţi plastice în interpretarea emoţiei, se naşte filmul „Que viva Mexico ! " *****

Leadership: Ceea ce ai trăit într-o experienţă anterioară trebuie să îndeplinească sensul pe care îl atribui unui nou context de creație în care este evidentă forţa specifică emoţionalului?

Întregul concept de leadership, căruia i se subordonează o anumită cantitate de informație-realitate, discernută prin cunoştinţele anterioare, se poate formula în următoarea direcţie: „ Eu am fost ca tine – tu vei fi ca mine ". Este vorba despre puterea de a fi invulnerabil la aspectele exemplarităţii, profund legate de zona emoţionalului, fiindcă stă în natura ta de a găsi similitudini între ceea ce admiri la altcineva şi ceea ce vrei să reprezinţi pentru acel cineva în scopul construirii unei entităţi autonome.

Este și asta o înțelepciune specială, o depăşire a unui stadiu timpuriu de descoperire a unei relații între ceea ce știi și ceea ce îți dă de gândit, din evoluţia ta. Urmat de un alt stadiu, mult mai avansat, care are ca suport nașterea unul nou fel de interpretare a realităţii care poate fi transpusă într-o idee. Naşterea noului, într-un context emoţional, trebuie să aibă ca punct de plecare experienţa duală a unei abordări existenţiale de tipul: "Tot ce s-a întâmplat într-o situaţie este posibil să se repete în alt loc şi în alt stadiu."

Profilul unei noi forme de artă este asemenea fiecărei idei care răzbate acolo unde nu te aștepți. Se evidenţiază prin accesibilitatea și particularitatea unei preluări de efect al unui fundament bazat pe observație și interpretare a anumitor evenimente, știri, aspecte cu impact, care se întâlnesc la fiecare pas, în relație cu forma modificată a substanţialului care constituie un interes.

Ceea ce trăiești într-o experiență anterioară este doar un mod de a surprinde și de a trăi realitatea unui întreg, legătura între anumite lucruri, fenomene, părţi care se potrivesc între ele. Cu scopul de a înţelege ceea ce este important de schimbat la o imagine care se conturează prin raportarea la o temă ce are drept bază „naşterea noului”.

Leadershipul este experienţa de a fi altcineva într-un context în care a fi acelaşi creează premisele unei interdependenţe creative şi dinamice, sub forma dualismului dintre "tot ce s-a întâmplat din voia cuiva" şi "ceea ce pot să fac ca să se întâmple totul după voia mea".

Arta între experiență și creație vizează extinderea unui fundament de sine la nivelul iminenţei sensibile a cărui putere este sesizabilă numai în condiţiile unei totalităţi stocată în memorie, utilizată ulterior în realizarea unei teme personalizate.

Leadershipul este rezultatul creaţiei, este reluarea unei teme abordată prin prisma unei idei prezente în „peisajul” unei experiențe anterioare.

Arta între om şi creaţie

On Iulie 29, 2016

Ridică-ţi „particularul" la nivel artistic, integrând în opera ta toate experienţele şi toate motivele care te-au determinat să te redescoperi în modul cel mai autentic.

Eisenstein lucrează la film absorbit cu totul de pasiunea pentru subiect, preocupat întreaga zi numai de Puşkin. Apar variante, numeroase schiţe, scenariul se conturează. Paralel, se precizează şi gândurile sale privind filmul în culori despre care scrie studii teoretice pe care le va continua până la moarte (ultimul rând, scris, şi întrerupt de moarte, va fi al unui nou studiu despre culoare).

Douăzeci şi două de manuscrise cuprinzând cercetări despre culoare, care însumează sute de pagini, se află în arhiva sa: cercetări despre ceea ce numeşte "funcţia dramatică a culorii".

Pentru prima oară în creaţia sa, acum, în acest film despre Puşkin, dragostea poetică apare în tema erotică cu valorile ei psihologice nuanţate. După metafora acid sarcastică din filmul "Vechiul şi Noul", după parodia caricaturală din "Romanţa sentimentală", după erotismul biologic din "Que viva Mexico", după simbolicul şi stilizatul erotic mineralizat din "Alexandr Nevski", acum, pentru întâia dată, dragostea devine tema unui film, înfăţişată nuanţat, cu o observaţie psihologică de mare fineţe asupra mobilurilor şi evoluţiei sentimentului erotic.

Eisenstein doreşte să-l reabiliteze pe marele dramaturg, Puşkin, în filmul sau, anulând imaginea don-juanului şi înlocuind-o cu cea a unui autentic şi intens îndrăgostit. *

Leadership: Poți să introduci în creaţia ta experiența de a fi un tot unitar, înfăţişând-o nuanţat, cu o observaţie psihologică de mare fineţe, asupra mobilurilor şi evoluţiei manifestărilor personale?

Ca să fie înţeleasă cât mai profund raţiunea artistului, încât însăşi arta lui să fie considerată o operă remarcabilă, o experienţă în sine capabilă să-i aducă trăiri şi cunoştinţe cu care nu s-ar fi putut îmbogăţi altfel, trebuie să ni-l imaginăm ca o carte deschisă spre un alt artist. Întotdeauna artistul, înălțat moral și emoțional de parcurgerea palpitantă a unei existenţe superioare, prin materializarea unor idealuri pe care le-a apărat ani întregi cu răbdare şi suferinţă, posedă două proprietăți definitorii.

Mai întâi o proprietate a minţii, învăluindu-l ca o aureolă: aceea de a atinge cunoașterea adevărurilor absolute, dându-i o mai largă libertate de interpretare a imaginii pe care și-o creează despre sine. Şi o proprietate a aspiraţiilor sale remarcabile: de a integra în opera sa toate experienţele, toate motivele care l-au determinat să se redescopere în modul cel mai autentic.

Pentru a te redescoperi în modul cel mai autentic, încât arta ta să-şi câştige meritul de a fi autentică, trebuie ca lumea să te perceapă drept o imagine plină de sentiment, care întăreşte perfecţiunea prin culoare, apoi să plaseze această imagine în prelungirea unei existenţe superioare. O existenţă plină de sens, prin faptul că are impact puternic şi profund asupra modului de abordare a Creaţiei, făcând apel la o rezultată a experienţei de observaţie psihologică de mare fineţe asupra mobilului şi evoluţiei anumitor sentimente.

Omul care aprinde o scânteie de sens în evoluţia gândirii sale este o consecinţă a motivelor care îl împing spre tărâmurile artei ce are în centrul esenţei ei autenticitatea trăirii sentimentului de "valoare personală concentrată într-o imagine".

Creaţia este acea marcă a leadershipului care rezistă la condiții extreme, pe care nu ai cum s-o înțelegi dacă nu ești un roman plin de viață, plin de secvenţe înflăcărate, în care eroul este nevoit să lupte cu greutăţile vieţii mai întâi de unul singur.

Așadar, creaţia este o reflectare a experienţei de a fi un tot unitar şi de a fi într-o strânsă uniune cu eroul pe care îl reprezinţi. Aceasta este una din efectele afirmării tale ca artist.

Artistul care introduce în propria lui creaţie experiența de a fi un tot unitar, înfăţişând-o nuanţat, cu o observaţie psihologică de mare fineţe asupra mobilurilor și evoluţiei manifestărilor personale, ajunge să afirme că el nu este doar un efort simbolic de a se redescoperi, nu este doar un arhetip simbolic care provoacă autoanaliza, nu este doar un triumf simbolic al vreunei forme de entuziasm din mijlocul evenimentelor.

Ci, desfiinţând şi ultima barieră care-l separă de infinitul unor şoapte, de efectuarea unei călătorii dusă până la capăt, el ajunge să redea în opera sa acea profunzime a înţelegerii personale care permite celorlalţi să vadă modul cum el însuși s-a format: între dragoste și ură, între greu şi uşor, anulând imaginea unui încercat al sorţii şi înlocuind-o cu cea a unui autentic şi intens îndrăgostit de viaţă.

Înainte de a-ţi măsura evoluţia în cadrul leadershipului, învaţă să te redescoperi în calitatea ta de creator al lumii în care trăieşti, contribuind la construcţia unei imagini care reiese din mişcarea sentimentului spre idealul artistic pe care vrei să-l atingi.

Arta între om şi creație poate reprezenta o dificultate de comunicare a unor mesaje pline de adevăruri dacă nu reușești să-ţi exprimi manifestările existenţei în vârful scării valorilor care se perpetuează, printr-o dinamică a dezvoltării, spre beneficiul cunoaşterii de sine.

Particularul este un tip de conexiune între tine și rezultatele experienţelor tale, transformată treptat într-o creaţie unică.

Arta între particular şi general

Învaţă să vezi cu ochiul minţii, privind întotdeauna „din spate" ceea ce se află „în faţă".

Câmpurile vizuale ale ochilor iepurelui se întretaie după ceafă. Iepurele vede în spatele său. Are în faţa sa un fragment de spaţiu invizibil. El nu vede lumea ca noi. Pe când oaia are ochii dispuşi astfel încât câmpurile sale vizuale nu converg. Ea vede două lumi, una dreaptă şi altă stângă, care nu coincid niciodată.

Un fel deosebit de a vedea atrage după sine şi rezultate diferite în privinţa imaginii vizuale. Fără a mai vorbi despre transformarea acestei percepţii într-un mod de a vedea, apoi într-un punct de vedere, când la iepure şi oaie ne ridicăm la om şi la ambianţa factorilor sociali care, în cele din urmă, duc la o concepţie asupra lumii.

Cum este aşezat ochiul - ochiul minţii în cazul nostru? Cum priveşte acest ochi? Cum vede acest ochi? Acest ochi care nu este ochiul oricui... ***

Leadership: Te adaptezi la un mod de a vedea care să ducă la constituirea unei noi concepţii asupra lumii, revoluţionând percepţia raportului dintre particular și general?

Regulile leadershipului, asemenea regulilor artei care precizează faptul că nu poţi să generezi iluzii fără surprinzi și adevărul crud al realităţii, se sprijină pe eficiența productivă a conştiinţei, a intelectului, a simţului vizual și a câmpului de percepţie. Acestea contribuie nu doar la reorientarea gândirii, ci mai cu seamă la conturarea unei perspective mai largi, mai bogate, mai detaliate asupra unor zone mai greu de investigat.

O asemenea zonă greu de investigat, pe care o voi numi „zona de editare", cuprinde o imagine dominantă care trebuie rotită dintr-o poziție în alta până când capătă un sens neaşteptat, un orizont mai larg şi un rol de reprezentare a unei realităţi formalizate ideologic sau conceptional.

De asemenea, viziunea este un atribut al vederii bazate pe exerciții obișnuite de mişcare a ochilor (sus, jos; stînga, dreapta), de unde se dezvoltă capacitatea de a analiza variantele disponibile ale realităţii din diferite unghiuri. La rândul ei, imaginea cu care ochiul se obişnuieşte să vadă este imaginea cu care ochiul anticipează tendinţe şi formele de reflectare ale unei modificări din realitatea înconjurătoare. Ce decizii iau ochii tăi atunci când guvernează multiple aspecte din realitatea înconjurătoare?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să evaluezi totul cu ajutorul „ochiului minţii" într-un câmp mai extins al realităţii, încât să faci din realitate o imagine vizuală care să poată fi fixată cu uşurinţă în memoria şi conştiinţa oamenilor?

În creşterea continuă a performanţelor de lider, cerând o profundă analiză a imaginii vizuale al ansamblului de forme, lucruri, fenomene, entităţi autonome, cărora le atribuim caracteristici ce ni se pare că ne aparţin cu adevărat, trebuie să evaluăm totul cu ajutorul „ochiului minţii" într-un câmp mai extins al realităţii.

Cu ochiul minţii poţi să privești întotdeauna „din spate" ceea ce se află „în faţă". După cum orbul își formează o imagine a lucrurilor cu ajutorul pipăitului, tot astfel artistul își formează o imagine a realităţii, în parte intuitivă, „prin ceea ce reuşeşte să nu trăiască şi, netrăind, să creeze.”

Deci, nu ne referim la procesul de a vedea numai ceea ce stă deschis în faţa ochilor, ci mai cu seamă la procesul de a vedea dincolo ceea ce percepem în mod obișnuit, care ne lipsește din arsenalul inspiraţional. Un artist transformă observațiile concrete și imediate în idei care modelează gândirea axată pe alternanţa dintre ceea ce se vede și ce nu.

Orice lider, la fel ca orice artist care vrea să se întreacă pe sine modificându-şi proiecţia conştiinţei și a realităţii asupra evoluţiei viitoare, își îmbunătăţeşte modalitatea de a vedea două lumi: una dreaptă şi altă stângă, care nu coincid niciodată.

Particularul care precede generalul este expresia unei viziuni stabile, de nezdruncinat, asupra lucrurilor care preced realizări extraordinare.

Imaginile cele mai reprezentative trecute prin filtrul gândirii, deci cele modificate cu ochiul minţii, sunt mărturia neobositelor strădanii de a înţelege şi a exprima rezultatele unei sinteze unice, calităţile ascunse ale unei realităţi în care nu există nici cauză, nici efect, ci doar o expresie a raportului dintre particular și general.

Particularul, existând separat de ceea ce realitatea a dat naștere, este o relație de cauzalitate între lucruri, fenomene, entităţi autonome, a căror formă unică poate lua oricând locul ideii. Totodată, particularul poate fi expresia cea mai profundă a unităţii contrariilor, atestând apartenența individului la o aspirație de explorare mai largă a realităţii.

Pe când generalul este lipsa de „critică” sau lipsa de replică la adresa particularului, ce nu poate aduce într-adevăr nimic nou. Generalul nu poate da câștig de cauză, decât extrem de rar, orientării previzionare și consecinţionale pentru desemnarea unei dimensiuni noi a cunoaşterii care să ducă la constituirea unei noi concepţii asupra lumii.

În leadership, imaginea vizuală pe care o atrage vederea bine dezvoltată este acel fragment dintr-un spaţiu numit "comparaţie" pe care îl modelăm în funcţie de experienţele trăite în apropierea lucrurilor extraordinare, sau a celor care ne marchează în mod decisiv.

Arta între particular şi general se adresează indivizilor care, cu ajutorul ochiului minţii, reuşesc să contureze imagini mai detaliate asupra unor perspective greu de imaginat, greu de fundamentat într-o ipoteză științifică unitară.

Arta între preferinţă și tematică

On August 14, 2016

Raportează-ţi personalitatea la nivelul unui personaj aflat la baza creaţiei tale, în urma reanalizării modului său de expunere predominant în conştiinţa artistică.

În această perioadă îi cade în mână lui Eisenstein o carte despre procedeele compoziţionale ale lui Tolstoi în „Hagi Murad" și „Holstomer", o poveste autentic emoţională despre construcție. O nouă soluție îi este dată astfel prin transfer. Deci procedeul analizat în acea carte constă în faptul că totul e arătat prin conștiința „înapoiată" a unui personaj. De ce să nu facă și el la fel? De ce să nu soluţioneze astfel trecerea celor 33 de ani de la etapa a doua la ultima din filmul său?

E atât de simplu: conștiința cuiva de dinainte de război, izolat timp de trei decenii, care se ciocneşte acum de noua realitate, exprimată prin construcția canalului. Astfel decalajul de timp, până acum o dificultate în soluţionarea compoziţiei, devine o necesitate artistică. „În cazul când calendarul nu ar fi impus acești 33 de ani, ar fi trebuit inventaţi, impuşi cu forța."

Acum bătrânul cântăreț Tohtasin, unul dintre personaje, și-a conturat traseul, are unde să meargă în partea a treia a filmului, devenind un „Holstomer invers". *

Leadership: Îți exprimi preferinţa pentru o tematică inedită capabilă să te reprezinte ca model de comunicare artistică, prin intermediul conștiinței unui personaj care se alătură în povestea vieţii tale?

Datorită raportului complex între autenticitate și premisele construcţiei unei identităţi a ideii de artă, artistul (asupra căruia se poate proiecta o nebunie a combinaţiei dintre ficţiune şi realitate) se simte obligat să-şi întărească mijloacele de validare a creaţiei, arătând o preferinţă pentru tematica inedită prin intermediul conștiinței „înapoiate" sau „avansate" a unui personaj. Prin identitatea ideii de artă se înţelege partea de rezistenţă a unei construcţii emblematice, devenită un fel de necesitate a artistului de a însufleţi o lume pierdută în „negura de vremi", de a dilua conținutul unui mesaj expus ca o reflectare a laturii sale creative.

Așadar, felul în care practici cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă, factorul de producție prim al descoperirilor, susţinând evaluarea caracteristicilor reale ale construcţiei de artă, creează nevoia imperioasă de exprimare pe un altfel de subiect, adăugat pe trunchiul existenţial al unei personalităţi în manifestare psihologică dinamică.

Aici ne referim la un model de comunicare artistică al cărui principal atu îl constituie raportarea la un personaj interpretat într-o producţie cinematografică care se relevă spectatorilor prin intermediul interacţiunilor dintre Egoul regizorului şi Alter-Egoul său. Povestea unui personaj este curajul unui regizor de a modifica o realitate în funcție de cum crede el că ar trebui să se întâmple evenimentele, încă această realitate să rămână în amintirea lumii, şi chiar să o schimbe.

Ce cunoaştere i se poate atribui unei instanţe narative, în cadrul actului artistic, astfel încât să se poată realiza o temă cuprinsă între realitate și ficțiune? Și ce-ar fi dacă imaginea unei anumite raţionalităţi nu ar avea şansa de reuşită din cauza faptului că nu poate stabili un raport viabil cu realitatea înconjurătoare?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să percepi cunoaşterea artistică din prisma unei experienţe de creaţie numită "o trecere dincolo de oglindă", încât să permiţi conştiinţei scurtcircuitarea distanţei dintre realitate şi ficţiune?

Iată un nou personaj, o identitate abstractă, perfectă pentru o tematică mai puțin explorată, care aparține unor surse de compoziţie provenind din legătura formată între opţiunea personalizată și modelarea permanentă a rolurilor în funcţie de context. Iar conștiința acestui personaj intervine, ca superioară faţă de precedentele modele, prin atitudinea de apărare sau de supunere, printr-un proces de identificare integrală cu rezultatul unei ştiinţe şi al unei îndeletniciri care exaltă voinţa umană deasupra limitelor commune.

Liderul este creatorul unui personaj aflat într-o continuă transformare, un personaj care arată efectul direct în degajarea comportării și evoluţiei faţă de însăşi opera în care este dezvoltat. De aici rezultă o concepție nouă despre reorientarea gândirii sau regăsirea ordinii reale a valorilor care îl întregesc pe lider în sfera artei de a se manifesta ca sursă de stimulare imaginativă şi de interpretare creativă.

Să-ți raportezi personalitatea la nivelul unui personaj aflat la baza creaţiei tale, în urma reanalizării modului său de expunere predominant, între o conștiință înapoiată și o conștiință avansată, este o reflectare a experienţei de acomodare la o situație determinată de însăşi noţiunea de deținere a unei profunzimi de expresie personală, cât mai apropiată de spiritul originalităţii.

Experienţa de creaţie numită "o trecere dincolo de oglindă" se referă la raportul regizor-personaj care se confruntă cu imaginea de sine aflată relativ la maturizare, reprezintănd (ca necesitate artistică) acțiunea diferit de felul cum o percep alţii, dar identică cu cerinţa autoritară a conştiinţei care strigă: "Fii atent să nu confunzi ce vrei să fie adevărat cu ce este adevărat".

Arta între preferinţă și tematică vizează transferul de manifestare al personalităţii în afara a ceea ce știm despre ea şi efectul pe care îl produce într-un punct de recepționare al creaţiei, exprimată printr-un ansamblu de elemente de construcţie (atitudini-valori) care servesc ca bază de susţinere a conceptului de „cunoaştere transferabilă”.

Ceea ce transferi prin creație, de la tine la personajul tău, și invers, nu se opune normelor rigide ale leadershipului. Ci, dimpotrivă, este o integrare a gândirii într-o altă direcție de înțelegere, cuprinsă între necesitatea artistică a sublinierii contrastelor caracteristice evoluţiei tale şi necesitatea de a te descoperi în ce nu ai mai fost.

Arta între temă şi culoare

În leadership nu este de ajuns să alegi o temă „default", mai trebuie să găsești şi acele culori predominante de tip „model consequence relations" vizibile doar pentru cunoscători.

Toate temele sunt similare, constată Eisenstein, deoarece trecutul impregnat de culoare este inevitabil imaginat alţii, la graniţa dintre Evul Mediu şi Renaştere.

Un redactor al Direcţiei generale a cinematografiei îi face o propunere neaşteptată: să realizeze un film despre lupta împotriva ciumei. Propunerea i se pare absurdă. Toată lumea insistă pentru folosirea culorii. Eisenstein se gândeşte totuşi la proiect. Ospăţul în timpul ciumei devine episodul unic care-l interesează. Nu un film în culori, ci un film despre culoarea neagră: negrul ciumei care se întinde şi inundă totul, carnavalul pestriţ înghiţit de negrul şuvoiurilor cortegiilor funebre.

*Este aici o revenire a aceleiaşi teme a fatalităţii oarbe care invadează totul. Face şi schiţe în acest sens. Dar după scurtă vreme abandonează ideea. Toate aceste planuri nu sunt pe placul lui, în ciuda pitorescului exterior, pentru că el caută o temă în care culoarea să nu fie un element ornamental, ci să devină o calitate dramaturgică necesară, crescută din interiorul temei. **

Leadership: Poți să găsești o variantă de abordare a creaţiei în care culoarea să nu fie un element ornamental, ci să devină o calitate necesară, crescută din interiorul temei?

Îndatoririle unui artist, care știe să facă din însăşi viziunea lui o adevărata capodoperă, pot fi susținute cu ajutorul concepţiilor unitare privind raporturile dintre titlul temei alese, conţinutul ei, cerinţele ei și variantele ei de interpretare ca simbol al cunoaşterii, create prin consecințele diferitelor surse de referinţă abordate.

Tema este rezultatul receptării şi prelucrării unor informații, imagini, idei, provenite în mare parte din realitate, plasate pe fondul unui decor intuit, sugerat sau dezvăluit în urma unei descoperiri. Ea reprezintă este ideea principală dezvoltată într-o operă. Receptarea unei imagini a cărei temă scoate în evidenţă culoarea, trebuie să fie rezultatul unei realităţi prelucrate artistuc şi plasată pe fondul unei descoperiri noi despre viaţă (de exemplu). În timp ce unei idei dezvăluite prin intermediul unei teme despre moarte, pe decorul unei nuanţe de gri sau negru sugerând durata de viaţă a unui eveniment mortuar, îi lipseşte acea sclipire care să facă diferenţa dintre o valoare autentică şi o ratare.

Însă nu trebuie să omitem, dat fiindcă tehnica şi execuţia o cer constant în privinţa concepţiei lucrării prezentate, că întotdeauna în vârtejul ameţitor al exprimării prin mijloace artistice se păstrează un fir unificator: dorinţa de revanşă a fanteziei asupra realităţii constrângătoare.

Leadership: Baza tematică a temei principale pe care o tratezi, poate să fie aplicată şi la legăturile dintre un tabloul principal şi un tablou secundar, încât creaţia să capete semnificaţii multiple?

Aici intervine culoarea. Dacă aș putea să trăiesc o mie de vieți, ale căror sensuri suprapuse în mod absolut numai un artist le-ar putea surprinde în lucrările sale, cred că aș reuși să împărtăşesc numai 1% din cunoaşterea pe care am avut prilejul s-o dobândesc până în prezent. Iar acest procent se micșorează pe măsura creşterii exponenţiale a experienței și a informaţiilor. Infinitul este forma minţii de a reorganiza continuu materia.

Imensa sarcina a culorilor, mai ales în erupţia fanteziei artistice, este de a domina și de a armoniza această vastă materie, mereu în mișcare, surprinzând alternanţa între natură, ştiinţă şi estetică, între emoții (dragoste și ură), între însuşirile predominante ale caracterului (viciul său virtutea), etc. Culorile, atribuite unor elemente primordiale, adesea opuse, marchează printr-o tuşă mai susţinută sau mai subtilă tot ce poate să apară disparat sau divers în seninătatea raţională a armoniei constructive.

Leadershipul, precum arta, este o dezvoltare a temei prin culoare. El cuprinde în gigantica sa „ramă" realitatea și ficţiunea în funcție de rezultatul fuzionării eterogenului cu insolitul. Culoarea este ceea ce inserezi în spaţiul unei realităţi închipuite, aşa încât realitatea să capete nota de firesc şi naturaleţe a unei atitudini avangardiste care reuşeşte să lase privitorii cu gura căscată.

În leadership nu este de ajuns să alegi o temă „default", mai trebuie să găsești și acele culori predominante de tip „model consequence relations" care să fie vizibile doar pentru cunoscători.

Culoarea poate să devină o calitate necesară, crescută din interiorul temei, doar dacă efectul pe care îl produce prin maximizarea emoţiilor, măsurat prin intermediul corelaţiei cu o lege de compoziţie, devine cauza principală a accesului la profunzimile ideii iniţiale.

Cine reușește să găsească o variantă de abordare a creaţiei în care culoarea să nu fie doar un element ornamental, ci să devină o calitate necesară, crescută din interiorul temei, nu este doar un bun cunoscător și evaluator al artei. Ci, dincolo de meritul referitor la capacitatea de a parcurge și de a reface traseul compoziţiei, el este un artist care poate să exprime mai puternic un concept unitar al artei, caracterizat prin proprietăţi de esenţă.

Leadershipul este o versiune majoră a temei principale cu care artistul îşi prezintă demersul artistic, cu tuşă susţinută şi subtilă, drept un fel de confesional care retrezeşte amintiri despre ce înseamnă să fii iniţiat într-un univers fascinant numit: CREAŢIE.

Arta între temă şi culoare se afirmă ca o putere a forțelor ascunse ce se agită în adâncul perspectivelor de înțelegere a modului în care iau naştere şi funcţionează marile reguli ale ştiinţei expunerii ideilor. Aceste reguli își au obârşia în următoarea condiţie: între idee și materie există întotdeauna o filosofie care pune semnul egalităţii între concepte diferite.

Arta între viață și moarte

Modelează-ţi gândirea nu doar în funcție de modul cum îţi trăieşti viața, ci în funcție de modul cum viața se organizează în jurul tău formând un tablou gândit în culorile unei realităţi misterioase.

Ce anume declanşează aceste reacţii de agresivitate specifice animalelor de pradă? Toată măiestria artistului din mine, în numele vigilenţei necesare înţelegerii viitorului medicinii, trebuie să constea în a mă situa într-un unghi de vedere din care să pot vedea întreaga natură în racursi, cât mai în profunzime, particularul şi întâmplătorul, precum globul pământesc pe o hartă. Înseamnă să mă plasez într-un context larg de tratare a unor excepţii ale ţesăturii vieţii care să-mi dea posibilitatea nu doar să simt anumite simptome ale bolii, ci să şi reacţionez în faţa violenţei pe care boala o impune şi o transmite.

În definitiv, trebuie să-mi manageriez eu însumi pornirile, impulsurile biologice şi psihologice, trăirile specifice diferitelor afecţiuni ce pot avea o valoare mare în diagnosticul şi pronosticul bolii, printr-un proces de auto-observare şi de conştientizare a efectelor de modificare a evoluţiei mele. Noile descoperiri produse de lumina unei semnificaţii generale şi detaliate totodată, m-ar putea ajuta să găsesc un antidot direcționat asupra genei în cauză și să contrabalansez efectele de declanșare a unei întregi epidemii.

O semnificaţie clinică importantă o au caracterul tranzitoriu ori constant al endemicităţii virusului, condiţiile de apariţie ale procesului infecţios, posibilităţile de transformare a substanţelor care intervin în alt stadiu al replicării virusului, dar mai ales răspunsul virusului la alte infecţii care nu au simptome clare, vizibile, unice, precum şi cantitatea de virus eliminată prin salivă, prin sânge, prin respiraţie, prin intermediul contactului cu pielea infectată, sau prin intermediul elementelor din jur.

La toate acestea se adaugă semnificativul oftat al eroului lui James Joyce: "Timpurile şi-au ieşit din ţâţâni. Vai mie c-am fost născut să le aşez la loc."

Leadership: Forțele motrice ale artei tale constau în producerea unor idei din interpretarea diferitelor particularităţi ale vieţii, reflectând structuri cu funcții de auto-modelare?

Sunt Gerry Lane, om de ştiinţă. Misiunea artei mele este să reproduc ideea vieţii, în totalitatea ei, prin cercetarea şi mijlocirea naturii, ca printre niște curse complicate și nevăzute, în forma dată de boală. Iar încercarea de a aborda felul cum boala se reflectă în opera mea, declanşată de reflexul forței creatoare a naturii, nu este o aventură poetică, nu este o explorare a anatomiei omului, ci completarea unei idei mărețe.

O asemenea artă dintr-un mare capitol al practicării medicinii și al psihologiei medicale este rezultatul actului de creație. Este consecinţa localizării sursei evenimentului singular concretizat într-o teorie, care are funcţia de auto-corectare a atitudinii și de modelare a gândirii mele în jurul felului cum percep lumea în eventualitatea unei lupte pe viață și pe moarte, chiar dacă nu știu prea bine cu ce mă lupt. Cum acţionează acest virus în stadiul incipient?

O ameţeală uşoară, o stare de leşin, sau poate o stare de epuizare psihică, ca un fel de tremurat intern. Deci, nimic agresiv în mine. Ceea ce înseamnă că nu sunt un purtător al virusului. Dincolo de aparenţe, acestea sunt indicii pentru investigarea unui simptom ce apare în faza de forţare a limitelor de rezistenţă ale omului, parcă pentru a testa rodul unei minţi elevate dependentă de rezultatul comparaţiei dintre anumite constante biologice ale organismului şi explorările funcţionale ale organelor afectate.

Michelangelo preţuia cel mai mult în arhitectură masa agitată, străbătută de mișcare, percepând-o ca pe o formă organică în stare a fi modelată sau sculptată, ca pe o formă ce dă naștere la o simfonie de lumină și umbră. Eu, ca artist al creaţiei și cercetării ştiinţifice, am ajuns să preţuiesc dinamismul unei scene din viață care îmi asigură loc în procesul unei noi schimbări, cu început şi sfârşit, a unei resetări a relaţiei nedorite dintre circumstanțele întâmplătoare și fragilitatea unei speranțe reînviate, în reunirea destinaţiei cu hazardul.

Definirea misiunii unui artist în leadership, faţă de versiunea continuă a transformării personale, se obţine din perspectiva justificării unei stări de spirit favorabile ideii de dezvoltare în contextul unui eveniment decisiv.

Puterea personală, specifică artei de a modela ideea vieții, se obţine dintr-un cadru de compoziţie al efectului produs de acceptarea unei misiuni fără mari șanse de izbândă, situându-te într-un unghi de vedere din care să poţi vedea întreaga natură în racursi, cât mai în profunzime, particularul şi întâmplătorul.

Arta între viață și moarte surprinde acceptul sau abandonul căutării științifice a cauzelor, a efectelor și a factorilor favorizanți care te aduc în postura de artist sau de victimă.

Modelează-ţi gândirea nu doar în funcție de modul cum îţi trăieşti viața, ci în funcție de modul cum viața se organizează în jurul tău formând un tablou gândit în culorile unei realităţi misterioase în care abandonul total sau înfăptuirea unui miracol justifică întreg destinul tău.

Arta între viziune şi efect

On Iulie 30, 2016

Fii responsabil de calitatea și conţinutul creaţiei sale, aşa încât originalitatea să se nască din acea concordanţă stabilită între esenţă și aparenţă.

Eisenstein şi Prokofiev, cei doi artişti stabilesc locurile unde vor trebui adăugate zgomotele, astfel ca muzica de la începutul episodului să nu se termine precis, ci să se dizolve în zgomotul bătăliei, din care, mai târziu, să se nască muzica victorioasă. Se tocmesc totdeauna cine să înceapă: "Scriem muzica pe baza fragmentelor de imagini nemontate, pentru ca pornind de la muzica să se facă montajul? Sau, după ce s-a făcut montajul definitiv al scenei, scriem muzica pe baza acesteia? "

Fiecare ar vrea să rămână al doilea, sarcina dificilă socotind-o amândoi a fi aceea de a compune desfăşurarea ritmică a scenei. Celui de-al doilea îi este mai uşor, deoarece nu-i rămâne decât să se adapteze, cu mijloacele sale, acestei construcţii gata create.

Uneori începe Eisenstein. Face un montaj al secvenţei şi, seara în sala de vizionare, i-l prezintă lui Prokofiev. Compozitorul cere să i se proiecteze materialul de câteva ori la rând, până va face semn că este de ajuns. *

Leadership: Îți concentrezi eforturile spre stabilirea unei linii de demarcare netă între imaginile pe care le proiectezi într-o viziune facilă și efectul de expunere a imaginii finale?

Artistul care dăruiește ceva din preaplinul cunoaşterii sale este responsabil de calitatea și conţinutul creaţiei sale, aşa încât originalitatea să se nască din acea concordanţă stabilită între esenţă și aparenţă. El tinde astfel spre stabilirea unei linii de demarcare netă între imaginile pe care le proiectează într-o viziune facilă, într-un cadru experimental, și efectul de expunere a imaginii finale. O imagine care sintetizează eforturile de creaţie a unei unităţi de gândire formată, adesea, din doi poli opuşi de influenţă.

Această responsabilitate poate ajunge la afirmare, doar dacă mesajul transmis nu se transformă într-un „zgomot", adică fără să se producă pe un fond nerelevant sau aspru al informaţiei expuse. În acest caz artistul trebuie să se raporteze, pe baza fragmentelor nemontate de-a întregul, la reperele unei construcţii gata create (sau conturată prin intervenţii străine succesive) care să fie luată drept referinţă de comparabilitate.

Mai întâi el trebuie să dezvolte fragmentele potrivite pentru fiecare idee, apoi să grupeze aceste fragmente într-o categorie unitară, dar într-o manieră improvizată printr-o strânsă conlucrare cu alți vizionari. Iar realizarea montajului final se face din ansamblul acelor imagini percepute și construite în mod diferit faţă de cum au fost stabilite iniţial.

Asta în leadership se numește să separi materialul de intrare cu cel de ieșire, conţinutul irelevant de materialul de prezentare și promovare.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă imaginea unei consultări tematice cu alţi artişti într-o construcţie gata creată menită să-ţi asigure o apariţie de excepţie în cadrul evenimentului numit "Taste of the World" ?

Cel ce nu face deosebirea între o imagine neterminată și imaginea finală a operei sale și nu știe să modifice conţinutul în funcție de relevanţa temei pentru a corespunde celor mai înalte exigenţe, este asemenea unui pasionat de artă care încearcă să se identifice în cadrul unui tablou în care fiinţele umane și peisajul se confundă cu imaginile deformate.

Imaginea finală a unei creaţii artistice, ca și relevanţa temei expuse, subliniază acele particularităţi ale formării intelectuale care definesc şi caracterizează interacțiunea dintre viziune, misiune, realizare și concretizarea ideilor de bază - ca formă a cauzalităţi dintre certitudine și aleatoriu, confuzie și probabilitate. Sau, poate că imaginea este un fel de simetrie bilaterală între elementele componente ale unei creaţii deja existente, la care artiştii fac o ultimă sforţare de revizuire a ideilor şi criteriilor de conformitate cu preceptele noii revoluții culturale.

Individul care îşi concentrează eforturile spre stabilirea unei linii de demarcare netă între imaginile pe care le proiectează într-o viziune facilă și efectul de expunere a imaginii finale, nu este doar un artist care poate improviza o creaţie din combinaţii diferite.

Ci este un materializator al raportului dintre ceea ce este prim pentru sine și ceea ce este prim pentru ceilalți. Un materializator al raportului dintre ceea ce percepe ca fiind necesitate, lipsă sau exces, în fazele de dezvoltare a creaţiei sale.

Evenimentul numit "Taste of the World" face referire la contextul şi modalitatea în care se manifestă o creaţie ca rezultat al schimbării pe care o iniţiază viziunea unei conştiinţe comune, din punct de vedere al unei imagini care poate face înconjurul lumii fără să se altereze în vreun fel din cauza inadaptării ei la cerinţele unei game largi de specificaţii exigente (ale unei anumite audienţe).

Arta între viziune şi efect însoţeşte paşii de evoluţie ai artistului care încearcă să improvizeze o creaţie din combinaţii diferite, pe baza fragmentelor de imagini nefinisate, până când subiectul capătă un sens mai puternic, un mesaj mai clar şi o valoare de captivare a atenţiei, prin intersectarea propriei sale experienţe cu acea formă a cauzalităţi dintre aleatoriu, confuzie și probabilitate.

Arta pentru artă

Respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de leadershipul tău, evaluând cu atenţie felul în care te percep oamenii din perspectiva unei creaţii pe care încă nu ţi-ai încheiat-o.

Maestrul se afla în camera lui de creaţie, unde razele soarelui puteau pătrunde nestingherite. Încerca să redea în noul său tablou trei personaje din opera lui Shakespeare, „ Regele Lear" : Contele de Kent, Contele de Gloucester şi fiul său nelegitim Edmund, părând că poartă o discuţie degajată în sala tronului, în palatul regelui Lear. Privitorul îşi putea face o idee sumară despre complexitatea nivelului de interpretare a realităţii izvorâtă din experienţa sublimului, prin folosirea contrastelor puternice între lumină și întuneric, folosit ca suport al gândirii simbolice în mod universal.

Stilul său de a picta, caracterizat prin culori intense şi o tuşă îndrăzneaţă, largă şi spontană, era asemănător cu cel al lui Paul Gauguin. Imaginile intense pe care le crea, impresionante prin claritatea lor explozivă, prin fineţea detaliilor, deşi păreau exagerate într-o manieră inedită ca să încânte cât mai mult privirea şi să impresioneze, evocau episoade şi personaje reale sau legendare, pe care le adapta uşor prezentului. Ele evitau senzaţia de melodramă şi, păstrându-şi credibilitatea şi relevanţa, căpătau caracterul unor reprezentaţii vizuale fascinante.

Leadership: Esenţa primordială a ceea ce relevă opera ta îşi poate îndeplini funcţia de evaluare prin aportul unei prestaţii dobândite în temeiul unei fragilităţi pe care o generează o anumită distanţă impusă privirii?

Observând cu câtă atenţie şi dăruire, cu câtă abilitate şi eleganţă îşi executa mişcările, i-am spus, împins de o voinţă interioară fără margini:

- Vă admir foarte mult, şi vă spun că sunteţi formidabil, cu adevărat superior. Asemenea siguranţă în manevre, asemenea rapiditate în mişcări, asemenea uşurinţă în modul în care manipulaţi pensula, doar marii pictori au dat dovadă. Nu cred că ar putea exista cineva care să nu-i placă tablourile pe care le realizaţi.

Maestrul, mirându-se grozav de vorbele mele, mă privi cu o atenţie care vădea, fără îndoială, foarte multă bunăvoinţă, şi îmi spuse cu hotărâre:

- Orice pictor ştie că cel mai greu lucru este să fii ceea ce vor alţii. Chiar dacă ţie îţi place felul în care pictez, altora s-ar putea să nu le placă. La fel cum unii admiră mai mult picturile fanteziste, suprarealiste, în stilul lui Salvador Dali, alţii admiră picturile realiste, în stilul lui Edward Hopper sau George Grosz. Unora s-ar putea să le placă mult mai mult picturile inspirate din subiecte istorice, altora mai mult acelea care au la bază subiecte literare. Unii preferă culorile întunecate, alţii culorile vii şi strălucitoare. Unii preferă lumina, alţii umbrele, unii preferă nuanţele pure, aprinse, alţii nuanţele estompate şi mohorâte. Un pictor nu va putea mulţumi niciodată pe toată lumea, prin urmare, te asigur Nicu, că sunt foarte mulţi oameni care nu îndrăgesc şi nu vor îndrăgi niciodată tablourile mele.

O prestaţie dobândită în temeiul unei fragilităţi pe care o generează o anumită distanţă impusă privirii se poate obţine pornind de la expresia: "Cel mai greu lucru este să fii ceea ce vor alţii". Prin urmare, o perindare cât de succintă prin pluralitatea semnificaţiilor propuse de artist şi prin distingerea semnificaţiilor relevante pentru viaţa sa, devine necesară fiindcă constituie încă un pas care ne apropie de o privire mai cuprinzătoare asupra efectului de

Wow pe care îl are asupra celorlalţi.

Leadership: Stilul tău de a crea noi norme de reprezentare şi modelare a imaginii personale, prin analogie cu interpretarea unor trăiri resimţite la un anumit moment al vieţii, generează o atitudine de uimire faţă de realitatea imediată?

În leadership trebuie să ştii unde îşi ascund oamenii talentaţi comorile. În cadrul celor mai bune relaţii cu ei, trebuie să te concentrezi pe ceea ce ai de învăţat de la ei. Învaţă, practică şi asimilează. Uimirea în artă reiese din versiunea de legendă a unei comori descoperite pe un teritoriu greu de pătruns, din care observatorul poate extrage doar semnificaţia unei familiarităţi idealiste.

Aşa cum culoarea este cea care rezolvă problema proporţiei şi a reprezentării în realizarea unei unităţi generale a factorilor sonori şi vizuali dintr-un film – tot astfel liantul care îi uneşte pe oamenii talentaţi de excelenţa în domeniul lor de activitate, contribuind pozitiv la maximizarea valorii lor, este analogia cu interpretarea unor trăiri resimţite la un anumit moment al vieţii pe care o folosesc ca argument pentru a seta calitatea imaginii personale la o anumită valoare prin intermediul creaţiei lor.

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să fie profitabil, trebuie să afli prin intermediul discuţiilor libere care acel factor secret care le asigură acestor oameni progresul. Concluzia firească şi necesară trebuie să vină numai după o cunoaştere şi o expunere obiectivă a propriilor lor idei, păreri, gânduri sau teorii. Ea trebuie să fie proporţionată cu rezultatele cunoaşterii şi ale realizărilor lor - când s-au convins că toate demersurile lor au vădit reale preocupări de creştere a valorii lor.

Care este liantul care îi uneşte pe oamenii talentaţi din jurul tău de excelenţă? Înţelegi modul lor de funcţionare?

Respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de leadershipul tău, evaluând felul în care îi percepi pe oameni. De modul cum le percepi motivaţiile, de modul în care îţi transmit inspiraţia, de modul în care îşi demonstrează calităţile, de modul în care îşi expun viziunea, de modul în care îşi evaluează activitatea, după modul în care îşi tratează talentul - depinde felul în care îţi vei exploata tu însuţi propriul potenţial, urmând exemplul lor.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o imagine care să încânte privirea prin succesiunea contrastelor dintre ceea ce te defineşte ca fiind o porţiune din realitatea obiectivă accesibilă şi ceea ce te pune în valoare când creezi fără să te gândeşti la validare din partea celorlalţi?

Ce are de învăţat un lider de la un pictor, dacă nu să fie el însuşi? Un lider nu se poate schimba în funcţie de dorinţele fiecăruia, nu se poate mula în totalitate după nevoile oamenilor şi după personalitatea fiecăruia, nu se va putea ridica niciodată la înălţimea aşteptărilor tuturor, nu va putea niciodată mulţumi pe toată lumea.

Lumea are preferinţe şi aşteptări diferite. La fel cum unii oameni admiră doar anumiţi pictori şi preferă doar un anumit stil de pictură, ca să nu spun că alţii nu sunt interesaţi chiar deloc de artă şi desen, tot aşa unii oameni preferă un anumit tip de lider şi un anumit stil de leadership.

Unii preferă liderii mai puţin pretenţioşi, care să le permită o libertate totală şi care să nu le reproşeze niciodată nimic; alţii preferă lideri un pic mai drastici, care să-i sancţioneze pe aceia care nu se dedică în totalitate echipei şi profesiunii lor. Şi mai există o categorie, aceea a celor oscilanţi, care bat extremele (care de fapt nu sunt în stare decât să pună beţe în roate) şi care împiedică, voluntar sau involuntar, deciziile şi măsurile luate de lider.

Fii tu însuţi. Formează-ţi un stil de conducere care să te caracterizeze, încearcă să fii cât mai bun, dar nu te aştepta să primeşti numai atenţie şi laude.

Ceea ce te pune în valoare în ochii celorlalţi este opera pe care o creezi fără să te gândeşti la validarea estetică din partea celorlalţi.

Arta pentru artă se produce atunci când restabileşti setările de compatibilitate între creaţie şi imagine (pe care le aşteaptă toată lumea), la valoarea iniţială de angajament pentru creşterea satisfacţiei personale.

Leadershipul poate fi o adevărată artă, dar pentru acest lucru trebuie să ai talent cât şi abilităţi deosebite în munca cu oamenii. Arta leadershipului nu este ceva palpabil, ci este „măsurată” prin rezultatele tale. În prezent leadershipul, ca să ajungă o artă, are nevoie de oameni cu o educaţie şi o instruire superioară şi, mai ales, cu un comportament adecvat.

Arta vizuală implicată în lumea privitorului dedublat

O artă creativă se cunoaşte după felul cum o faci cunoscută pentru suprema împlinire a unei imagini artistice memorabile.

O frunză verde, nestânjenită de nicio emoţie, zburdă jucăuşă prin faţa ochilor mei a căror privire este incapabilă să dea un sens ordonator, un reper logic, mişcărilor ei. Aceeaşi frunză delicată, văzută cu ochi de copil, îmi animă dintr-o dată visele şi imaginaţia, cu mult elan spre explorarea diferitelor viziuni, procedee şi mijloace artistice. Până la urmă, frunza este şi ea o creaţie orânduită de Dumnezeu, iar Dumnezeu o vede mereu cu alţi ochi, cu ajutorul privirii ațintite înspre ceva semnificativ, decât dinspre golul privirilor oamenilor de rând.

Ce pot face însă ca acţiunea ei să fie mai mult decât un argument de ordin vizual, impusă dincolo de privirea care caută a cuprinde esenţa divină? O frunză este o bucăţică ruptă dintr-o mie de nopţi întunecate, devenită prima mărime a unei imagini psihologice, iar eu, Creatorul cu vederi înaintate, manipulator prim al simbolului percepţiei intelectuale, trebuie să o mut în altă parte. Cât mai departe, sau cât mai aproape de vederea unui om de rând, şi să extrag din traiectoria ei esenţialul, senzaţionalul acelei poveşti aptă să constituie morala unei priviri care îmbracă lumea în frumuseţe.

Într-adevăr, sunt doar un Creator iscusit, iar ochii oamenilor de rând sunt neobişnuiţi cu latura mirifică a creaţiei mele, tot aşa cum pictura nu-l poate înţelege pe pictor, dar pictorul poate să-L cunoască pe Dumnezeu în profunzime prin percepţia unei feţe atractive şi zâmbitoare, transpusă într-o minune a naturii.

Leadership: Maturitatea creaţiei tale poate să scoată în evidenţă efectele nebănuite ale schimbării unei imagini de la ideea unui lucru particular, existând actual, la o fiinţare care evocă o realitate mai înaltă?

Prin toate inimile oamenilor curge trăirea unei noi experienţe vizuale, sângele unei culori numită Luminozitate. Ei simt nevoia noi viziuni asuprea realităţii, dar să concepi o astfel de traversare a spaţiului şi timpului spre altă înţelegere a lumii, aceasta este o ştiinţă dată numai unui Creator cu priviri înaintate.

De altfel, pictorul însuşi se transpune într-o călătorie prin labirintul naturii a cărei reflecție este mărturia faptului că însuşi Creatorul este omnipotent. Şi de aceea, poate mie îmi este dat să supun totul observaţiei complexe, luând ceva din obiectul particular şi preschimbându-l într-o fiinţare determinată, privilegiată, printre alte fiinţări, disponibilă unei ştiinţe esoterice numită Metreximyuss , adică vocea Domnului în fiecare lucru din jur.

La rândul ei, frunza mă percepe drept un vizionar în ale artei autentice, fiindcă până şi mişcările ei luate de vânt exprimă tot atâta artă cât şi culorile mele care învelesc cuvinte pline de farmec, trăiri pline de nelinişti, speranţe şi încântare. Nu mă voi da pe mâna ei nici atunci când mă voi simţi deopotrivă cu Creatorul Veşniciei, nici atunci când ochii mei vor intersecta privirea expertă a filosofilor naturii, ci mă voi adânci mai degrabă în vorbele unui nebun care ştie ce vorbeşte, dar pe care nu-l înţelege nimeni. Aşa încât să mă constitui un mister al creaţiei şi al naturii, un hocus-pocus care nu ar avea niciun efect dacă ar fi rostit de oricine.

Leadership: Cum poți să privești un element random al naturii dincolo de simpla lui aparență, transformându-l într-o dimensiune a profundității întregii tale Creații?

Iar dacă frunza este ultima dimensiune intrinsecă a mântuirii întregii Creații divine, de la care cu greu îmi pot lua ochii, un miracol al naturii simţitoare, delicate, mobilizatoare, atunci ochilor mei le este dat să focalizeze permanent realitatea în care se cufundă un pictor care vede în orice lucru din jur o pată de culoare, ascunsă la prima vedere în spatele unei poveşti neterminate sau nerostite în limbajul psihologiei umane.

Frunza mă priveşte ca într-o oglindă căreia numai cerul îi oferă o singură reflecţie: "în artă contează atmosfera unde expui o imagine".

Ei bine, chiar şi unui Creator iscusit îi trebuie un element al viziunii suprarealiste pentru a-şi corecta vederea divină, într-o abordare artistică, într-o explozie verde-maroniu, extrem de reconfortantă. Iar dacă trebuie să pătrund în iluzia frunzei de a fi o pasăre, trebuie să o fac în aşa fel încât să evit o abordare ce reduce studierea vizualităţii la o simplă iluzie, tot aşa cum pictorul trebuie să aibă curajul să evite ceea ce place prea mult.

Leadership: Continuitatea ideatică a creaţiei tale se conformează privirii cu care Creatorul încearcă să cuprindă o lume devenită sinonimă cu privilegiul unei vieţi împlinite printr-o trăire dublă?

Nu-i aşa că dacă m-aţi surprinde vorbind cu micuţa creaţie a naturii, şi dacă aţi înţelege graiul ochilor mei deprinşi cu lucrurile ce nu se pot rosti în graiuri omeneşti, nu-i aşa că m-aţi recunoaşte drept creatorul unei fiinţe elevate, înfăţişată într-o formă asemănătoare basmelor, miturilor, fabulelor răspândite în orientul antic?

Iar minunea aceasta cu o înfăţişare aiurea şi într-o stare ciudată de coloratură, nădejde dezlegătoare dintr-o altă lume, jucând rolul de morală a unei vieţi câştigate în altă realitate, îmi vorbeşte cu amintirea cuvintelor lui Mika Waltari, din romanul Egipteanul:

"Oare omul este, într-adevăr, conştient de ceea ce vede? Tu ştii totul, fiindcă tu ai avut acces la toată ştiinţa lumii, dar în acelaşi timp eşti vinovat fiindcă alţii sunt neştiutori şi tu nu-i ajuţi să-şi deschidă ochii. Îi vei învăţa pe oameni să vadă, sau vei fi chinuit până în ziua morţii tale, Sinuhe."

În sfârşit, mi-am înţeles menirea de a fi Creator, deci a considera ca fiind alăturate anumite părţi ale lumii care nu se văd cu ochiul obişnuit, ci doar cu ochiul magic al unui artist care este capabil să transmită oamenilor spiritul cuceritor al schimbării, dincolo de nevoia de afirmare. Frunza mea este produsul unei introspecţii care nu se teme să înfrunte riscul obscurităţii, depăşind în acest caz realismul în favoarea exteriorizării unei personalităţi adiacente, cu largă priză la public, care ştie să prepare o poveste credibilă dintr-o mică minune a naturii.

Se poate spune că o creaţie şi-a atins maturitatea atunci când artistul îndeplineşte rolul unui Creator implicat într-o varietate de trăiri, de la melancolie la visare, fiecare din ele bazându-se pe o vedere de dincolo de materialitatea realităţii înconjurătoare.

Arta vizuală implicată în lumea privitorului dedublat se manifestă ca mod de intervenţie a omului în mijlocul naturii printr-un act de comparaţie între puterea creatorului de a separa particularul de comun, şi puterea creatorului de a înfrânge neantul din temporal, realizând în etern universalul.

Dacă fiecare privitor ar fi un creator, apt să se plaseze într-un plan al înaltului, şi dacă fiecare creator şi-ar aţinti privirea asupra a ceea ce merită cu adevărat, într-un plan al existenţei complet diferit, atunci poate că privitul ar fi considerat mai mult decât o lentilă naturală a ochiului, ci o extindere a artei de a fi altcineva.

Artistul care şi-a deschis ochii asupra artei

Realitatea la care îţi raportezi atenţia este direct proporţională cu felul în care ochii tăi se adaptează la vederea unei imagini reflectată în percepţia propriei persoane.

Mi-am revelat latura artistică văzând modul superb în care se prezintă marile creaţii ale altor artişti. Şi, în schimbul unei realităţi mai puţin trecătoare, m-am trezit în faţa unei realităţi neobişnuite, însemnând negarea în sine a percepţiilor de care nu eram fascinat. Ca să mă înţelegeţi mai bine, imaginaţi-vă pentru o clipă că priviţi un tablou care înfăţişează nişte trandafiri roşii, proaspeţi, puşi într-o vază albă, totul fiind aranjat pe un fundal gri. Până la urmă, este vorba despre culori, nu-i aşa?

De fapt, îmi place mult culoarea roşie, dar nu-mi plac nuanţele de gri sau alb, prin urmare combinaţia aceasta de culori poate să influenţeze negativ evoluţia vederii mele spre chintesenţa lucrurilor. Mai precis, atunci când ochii mei vor întâlni combinaţia aceasta de culori oriunde în jur, şi sigur o vor întâlni, ei vor evita posibilitatea unei apropieri autentice de ceea ce ştiam că înseamnă artă. Se vede că realitatea mea este ea însăşi o creaţie văzută prin ochii care se deschid numai spre ceea ce mă inspiră, dar care totodată îmi regenerează intensitatea trăirilor emoţionale, în ineditul senzaţiilor de cunoaştere primite din lumea exterioară.

Pur şi simplu, în viziunea mea, în plăcerea ochilor mei de a admira o privelişte, o creaţie sau anumite lucruri, există o legătură între culori şi trăiri, la un anumit cadru de referință. Ce să zic, poate că ar trebui să trec totul prin filtrul intransigent al unui al treilea ochi, fiind necesar a reconsidera şi reconfigura o realitate - ţinând cont de capacitatea culorilor de a se completa una pe alta şi de faptul că extremele se atrag. Viaţa în roz nu înseamnă roz peste tot, ci un gri din acela grav şi sentenţios, care se pierde şi el înspre tonuri alburii, degradându-se cu repeziciune.

Acum, înţelegeţi de ce spun că uneori latura artistică a fiinţei mele înţelege totul prin felul în care ochiul distinge culorile, folosind ca punct de reper componenta cognitivă a atracţiei faţă de aprecierea frumosului ca simţire estetică? Dar înainte de a intra mai amănunţit în analiza frumosului, prin care orice creaţie îşi poate apoi permite jocul de-a subiectivitatea, aflat la temeia Logosului, trebuie să iau în calcul, ca o bună metodă de instruire, conştientizarea particularităţilor de concepţie şi de limbaj ale creaţiei artiştilor pe care îi admir.

Leadership: Privirea ta este o sinteză a întregii ființe care s-a pierdut pe sine din cauza orgoliului nemărginit, sabotate de complexul propriei superiorităţi?

Citeam la un moment dat într-o carte despre artă despre pictorul acela din Anvers, pe nume Joos Van Cleef, cel mai bun colorist al vremii lui. El şi-a pictat tablourile pe spate, pentru ca lumea să poată vedea ceva interesant chiar şi atunci când tablourile stăteau întoarse pe dos. A avut o mică problemă cu realitatea, aş zice. Tablourile pictate de el, adevărate opere de artă, pe unde le vedea la cei carora le vânduse, căuta să le ia înapoi cu împrumut, ca să le "corecteze" cum spunea. Şi aşa le-a stricat pe toate.

Este mare păcat că a prăpădit lucruri atât de frumoase, produse artistice atât de valoroase, numai din cauza ambiţiei de a da glas unei vederi pe care ochiul voia să o multiplice, să o transpună într-o viziune care depăşea graniţele normalului unanim acceptat.

Avem oare de-a face cu un creator al unui sistem de gândire vizuală? Totuşi, poate că Joos

Van Cleef a avut în spatele ochilor săi o altă realitate, o excelentă ocazie de a-şi testa spiritul inovator, mai puţin o viziune a Iluminismului raționalist. Probabil, iniţiativa lui nu era percepută în termeni de "efecte secundare negative", căci şi acestea rămâneau în interiorul unei realităţi diferite. El percepea partea opusă a lucrurilor, la fel cum eu prefer contrastul culorilor, decât opusul lor.

Totul este în privire. Iar, uneori, privirea este o sinteză a întregii ființe care s-a pierdut pe sine din cauza orgoliului nemărginit, fiind sabotată de complexul propriei superiorităţi.

Haideţi să vă mai spun ceva. Cea mai mare parte a culorilor pe care le percepe ochiul meu nu reprezintă o comutare și distragere de la sursa unei situații stresante, ci mai degrabă este rezultatul unei nevoi specifice, a unei dorințe, convingeri, și servește scopului satisfacției pe care un artist liber profesionist doreşte s-o aibă. De fapt, ochiul meu nu ştie ce este Iluminismul, la fel cum nu ştie să picteze, dar el are o mare influenţă asupra modului cum văd lumea, lucrurile, cum mă manifest şi cum înţeleg să fiu ceea ce sunt.

O fiinţă care şi-a pierdut direcţia este rezultatul unui Ego care continuă să caute cauze pentru care să sufere, continuând să fie un Don Quijote, un erou imprudent gata oricând să lupte cu morile de vânt.

Dacă se întâmplă să mă trezesc în faţa unei realităţi necunoscute, având convingerea că o pot schimba sau că o pot îndrepta în favoarea mea, acest lucru se datorează faptului că ochii mei au sesizat o trăire acolo unde granițele dintre sine și restul naturii sunt șterse. Sau, poate că ochiul a sesizat o trăire acolo unde satisfacţia este mai mică şi unde rezultatul evaluării muncii depuse, influenţat de performanţele individuale, nu este considerat rezonabil.

Iar cum senzațiile văzului devin atenție în clipa în care numai ochii surprind esenţa obiectelor exterioare, atunci realitatea la care îmi raportez atenţia este direct proporţională cu felul în care ochii se umplu de bucurie sau de furie la vederea unei imagini reflectată în percepţia propriei persoane.

Aşa stau lucrurile. Leadershipul capătă valenţe de implicare într-un act de autocunoaştere printr-un act de creaţie, prin care se poate dezvolta percepţia de sine, dar poate să capete şi valenţe de educare a spiritului de autodepăşire. Fapt sugestiv deoarece, printr-o atitudine de presupusa superioritate, omul îşi va pierde din ce în ce mai mult valoarea ca fiinţă, va dori să-şi valorifice tot mai mult potenţialul fără să se confrunte cu altcineva în afară de sine.

Cum este personalitatea care te defineşte cel mai bine în vederea dobândirii simţului realităţii? Eşti genul de om care îşi caută desăvârşirea în fericire şi glorificare? Eşti un artist care îşi află desăvârşirea în dobândirea asemănării cu un căutător de frumos preocupat într-o foarte mare măsură de elementul exterior? Conţinutul de marcă al artei tale poate fi definit ca fiind conţinutul unui creator al frumosului prin însăși arta impresionării prin impresie? Acest lucru te va determina să te revolţi chiar împotriva ta, într-o bună zi?

Felul în care ochii continuă să vadă realitatea este în strânsă legătură cu felul în care te simţi înlăuntrul tău, cu menţiunea că un Ego care se auto-convinge și auto-iluzionează că are o anumită putere este un Ego care trăiește permanent în afara sa.

Artistul care şi-a deschis ochii asupra artei este un căutător de frumos care numai prin cultivarea unui sens pozitiv despre sine va învăţa să distingă trăirile fiinţei de cele ale Ego-ului, aducând un echilibru în mintea şi inima sa. Un asemenea artist va şti să comande ochilor săi să vadă numai ceea ce mintea este pregătită să înţeleagă, nu ceea ce mintea este dispusă să creadă.

Artistul și Arta Lui

Asumă-ţi un rol mare, manifestându-ţi mai întâi opţiunea de a te transforma în altcineva.

Mă găseam la încrucişarea închipuită a două axe esenţiale complementare, sub aspectul orânduirii tainice a unei lumi ai cărei eroi adevăraţi nu mor niciodată, poziţionându-mă asemenea unui cerc cu raze ondulatorii deasupra planului orizontal, cu cote pozitive, a intensităţii motivaţionale excesive. Ceea ce pentru alţii ar fi reprezentat doar un scenariu ficţional de utilizare a unei largi game de contraste între diverite perspective de alcătuire a unei opere literar-artistice, pentru mine reprezenta o adâncire într-un mod de cunoaştere ce risca să-mi devină închisoare.

Încercarea de a sfida prezenţa factorului conştient prin abordarea comparaţiei dintre ştiinţă şi artă, statornicia în neastâmpărarea cu care îmi încărcam avântul spre înălţimi nedeterminate, acest acumulator impecabil al ceea ce voiam să uit fără să regret, mă integrau într-un scenariu de film cum numai Stanley Kubrick ştia să-l regizeze. Toate se roteau sub îndârjirile naive ale operatorului numit "Myself", o reflexie a trăirii fundamentată pe experiența dobândită în urma identificării cu un artist care îşi gândeşte profund Opera înainte de a o face cunoscută în lume.

Întreaga mea gândire era mai curând o axă pe care era reprezentată întruchiparea unui personaj anonim, ascunzându-şi identitatea reală în spatele unei măşti în care veriga intermediară, acţiunea transmisă sufletul rolului, determina soliditatea de ansamblu a unei relații cauză-efect ce nu a mai fost și nu va mai fi niciodată prezentă. Putea oare înţelege cineva importanţa acestei măşti pentru arta mea viitoare?

Arta pe care o compune un scenarist este expresia unei selecţii de gânduri care reuşesc să se impună pe fondul acordurilor dintre o imagine fin detaliată şi o metaforă justificată care semnifică ideea unei eliberări din lanţurile aparenţelor.

Dar în procesul creator de trăire scenică nu există doar punţi spre cer, spre castelele vieţii, spre artă şi cunoaştere, intangibile spectatorilor, cât mai ales punţi spre frumuseţea jocului de-a v-ați ascunselea. Eu mă ascundeam, tot eu mă pierdeam. Important este că reuşeam să mă regăsesc, întotdeauna într-o altă formulă, într-o nouă apariţie, într-o carte, într-o lacrimă de durere, într-o imagine a viitorului, într-o combinaţie de lucruri într-un context diferit de cel al actului de scriitură.

Aş zice că mă aliniam pe compoziţiei unei deplasări spre infinit, ca în jocul de lumină al unui miraj fantastic, în care marele conductor universal, sufletul, căutându-şi constant calea spre magia unui underground labirintic, reuşea o pătrundere în adâncurile mulţumirii către un altfel de a înţelege lumea. Nimeni, nici măcar Shakespeare nu ar fi putut să creeze un caracter conturat atât de precis, cu artă, în necontenita dinamică a provocării numite „To be someone else”.

Leadership: Poţi să recompui părţile separate ale unui întreg pentru a crea o nouă calitate a acestuia din care să reiasă forţa ta de exprimare artistică?

O exprimare artistică nu trebuie să fie strâns legată de un limbaj foarte revelator, bogat, îngrijit, expresiv, plin de farmec, ci mai degrabă trebuie să conţină acea parte din personalitatea ta care este cea mai demnă de încredere, cea mai potrivită și cea mai bine dezvoltată, care te face unic în felul tău şi te deosebeşte de toţi ceilalţi.

Artisticul este o emanaţie a harului poetic, o emanaţie unei conştiinţe universale, o emanaţie a spiritului de creativitate pe care trebuie să-l stimulezi prin cuvinte pline de zel, pline de metaforă, pline de mister, pline de emoţii. Uneori el conduce la o serie de fixaţii simbolice în microcosmosul uman, alteori creează un spaţiu de dimensiunea avântului spre înălţimi încă neatinse, putând fi asimilat deseori prin ideea de "despărţire de lumea de ieri".

Celebrul regizor rus, pe care de atâtea ori l-am pomenit, Serghei Eisenstein a ajuns la aplicarea "metodei prim-planului" pornind de la fascinaţia unui fenomen: recompunând părţile separate ale unui întreg, se poate crea o nouă calitate a acestuia. Hocus Pocus, cine eram eu în prim planul ecuaţiei dintr-un sistem de axe ortogonale?

Trăirea artistului şi lumea interioară a piesei numită "Interviu cu mine însumi". Nimeni nu înţelege cine eşti, după acţiuni, după fapte, după simţiri, ajungându-se astfel la ceea ce s-ar putea numi "Behind every great artist there's a great improvisation" . Astfel, totul se află sub orizontala unui profil ficţional, îndreptându-se spre polul unei rotaţii de imagine în care se introduce permanent nou conţinut.

Leadership: Te consideri un atât de bun actor în propria ta scenă încât să asiguri o separare a realităţii de detaliile unei lumi care se găseşte la limita alegerii între aleatorismul controlat şi improvizaţia de sorginte narativă?

Dominant în leadership este uneori capacitatea conştientă de receptare a unei faţete unice a realităţii, dar una care să mă înfăţişeze în ipostază inversă, în expansiunea unei individualităţi trecute prin încrucişarea dintre ceea ce se vede și ceea ce nu se vede. Un fel de Gol-Plin care să-mi pună la încercare capacitatea de a atribui experienței de sine, printr-un proces feeling-thinking-doing, o însemnătate mai adâncă, manifestându-se ulterior în evenimentul real.

Mă preocupa cunoaşterea modului de abordare a clipelor de rătăcire în proiecţia ortogonală dintre axele unei realităţi fără ieşire, asta făcea din mine un fel de seeker of knowledge about of self . Căci omul care îşi ascunde identitatea reală în spatele unei măşti, omul care alimentează prezenţa factorului conştient prin abordarea comparaţiei dintre ştiinţă şi artă, omul care se ascunde pentru a se regăsi într-un joc de-a v-ați ascunselea, poate înţelege diferit importanţa lui în ecuația artei de a se accepta și de a deveni singur pe sine.

Leadership: În ce măsură îți creezi identitatea printr-un joc de roluri, transformând improvizația într-o verigă care unește realitatea și viziunea artistică?

Cei mai mari lideri ai timpului, au fost mai întâi de toate actori în propria lor scenă. Întâi îți pui masca, apoi îți conturezi personajul, urmează să-ți faci numărul, și la sfârșit lași o portiţă deschisă spre minunatele înălţimi ale cunoaşterii tale. Aceasta este „verigă intermediară", acţiunea transmisă sufletul rolului tău, determinând soliditatea de ansamblu a unei relații cauză-efect ce nu a mai fost și nu va mai fi.

Behind every great artist there's a great improvisation. Nimeni nu-și poate afla și asuma un rol mare fără să-și manifeste mai întâi opţiunea de a se transforma în altcineva. Printr-un joc care te împinge mereu să-ți depăşeşti imaginea de sine și limitele, vei putea să recompui părţile separate ale unui întreg pentru a crea o nouă calitate a acestuia.

A asigura o separare a realităţii de detaliile unei lumi care se găseşte la limita alegerii între aleatorismul controlat şi improvizaţia de sorginte narativă înseamnă să-ţi creezi o identitate cu totul nouă făcând apel la importanţa rolului pe care îl interpretezi într-un context de istorisire mai larg.

Singurul lucru care poate face diferenţa dintre o realitate extraordinară şi una obişnuită este proba de funcţionare a simbiozei dintre scena pe care o consideri definitorie pentru personajul tău şi povestea pe care o spui despre Eul tău.

Artistul și Arta Lui este omul care se ascunde, se pierde şi reuşeşte să se regăsească, întotdeauna într-o altă formulă, într-o nouă apariţie, într-o carte, într-o lacrimă de durere, într-o imagine a viitorului, într-o combinaţie de lucruri desfăşurate într-un context diferit. Pentru un artist, propria lui personalitate devine un scenariu de film - o lume cam prostească, nebună şi oarbă, dar din care poate învăţa mult mai multe despre sine.

Conteaza să iei şi să transmiţi doar ce e bun din ea.

Artistul şi începuturile artei sale

Cine nu ştie să privească adânc o floare şi să extragă esenţa unui simbol menit să fie subiectul unei picturi desprinsă din imaginaţie, nu va putea niciodată să accepte realitatea unei experienţe de autocunoaştere.

Totdeauna fac o oprire în acest loc: o seră plină de flori, plină de mirosuri ademenitoare, de chemări, de culori vii. Cu siguranţă este un spaţiu natural dedicat esteticii. Şi numai grădina mea știe ce vrea de la acest loc, vrea o comparaţie cu un model similar de mutualism, din punct de vedere al conţinutului unei imagini în care orice floare zâmbeşte de fericire la vederea portretului ei ilustrat pe pânză. Sunt un artist, fiindcă orice floare care îmi încântă vederea devine imediat proiecţie a realităţii pe pânza creaţiei.

Uneori ies în grădină doar ca să-mi amintesc de linişte din acea seră în care florile se dezvoltă mai repede, îmbinându-se cu alte plante şi în care predomină culorile cele mai vii. N-am crezut niciodată că o seră atât de plină cu flori îmi va înfrumuseţa gradina într-o bună zi, cu speciile născute într-un spaţiul plin de diversitate, cu efect cromatic contrastant.

Creația artistică se definește prin capacitatea de a aduce o viziune nouă și captivantă, asemănătoare unei întoarceri într-un loc niciodată văzut.

Şi uite că din nou m-am aflat în locul de unde grădina mea şi-a procurat cu ani în urmă primul trandafir, primul crin, prima muşcată sau prima narcisă. Ordinea nu mai contează. Dar însăşi faptul că ceva din grădina mea face parte din acea minunată seră, mult mai interesantă decât orice vizită în Dubai, mă face să cred că deţin o florărie cochetă, definită prin stil şi eleganţă, a cărei operă de artă n-o poate sesiza decât ochiul pictorului care apreciază cum trebuie estetica luminii menită să domine Paradisul. Faptul acesta face totodată distincţia dintre „poezie" şi „natură".

Este de aşteptat ca eu însumi să fiu un artist, nu-i aşa? Fiindcă am ştiut să adun dintr-o singură seră numai acele flori din care s-a creat compoziţia imaginii care înfrumuseţează grădina mea. Nu degeaba, esenţa simbolului unui trandafir este chiar efectul pe care-l va avea aceasta asupra celor care îl privesc: "A return to a place never seen".

Leadership: Poţi să te descoperi într-o variantă a motivului de revizuire a unei experienţe vizuale în care apare o imagine nouă a Realităţii, în funcție de starea pe care o generezi în cadrul unui spaţiu tematic de tipul: „Casa naturii" ?

Aţi observat cum se formează un artist? Se formează din alăturarea florilor de culori, mărimi sau forme contrastante, sugerând frumusețea, puritatea, lumina, viața. Caracteristica acestora este fluiditatea compoziţiei care formează subiectul tabloului, orizontul deschis, ritmul viu al naşterii ideilor şi al expunerii lor în faţa unui privitor care se vede pe sine în centrul lumii care-l înconjoară. Cine nu ştie să privească adânc o floare şi să extragă esenţa unui simbol menit să fie subiectul unei picturi desprinsă din imaginaţie, nu va putea niciodată să accepte realitatea unei experienţe de autocunoaştere.

Următoarea dată când veţi vizita o seră, ştiindu-vă mult mai apropiaţi de artă, poate vă veţi gândi la grădina mea minunată, foarte îngrijită, admirată de trecători, unde florile parcă se întrec în parfumul lor plin de farmec şi în culorile multicolore. Nu ştiu de ce cred asta, dar grădina mea este mult mai încântătoare decât orice seră. Fiindcă aici, în grădina mea, pot să fiu eu însumi. Mă simt bine, mă simt în largul meu. Neavând în minte decât grija pentru Într-o variantă a acestei apropieri de artă apare o imagine nouă a omului care trăiește în mijlocul naturii și se vede ca o parte importantă din ea, aşa cum este el înfăţişat de scriitorul Gheorghe Schwartz în romanul „Ucenicul Vrăjitor”:

„În ziua aceea mi se părea că sunt atât de obosit. Aşteptam ceva, nu ştiu prea bine ce. Se întâmpla ceva tare ciudat cu mine. Câteodată - cred că din cauza oboselii - am senzaţia că totul se petrece în afara mea, că nu am niciun rol în cele din jur. Privesc atunci fără să gândesc la frumuseţile din jur, dar raţiunea fragmentată în mii de scântei sclipeşte în judecăţi surprinzătoare, nelegate între ele. Eram eu şi nu eram eu: eu le vedeam pe toate, eu găseam comparaţiile cele mai ciudate şi între timp priveam la mine ca la un altcineva, participând ca spectator la propriul meu spectacol. Vedeam totul, dar nu sesizam nimic care să aibă un asemenea efect de îmbunătăţire a dispoziţiei sau cel puţin nimic bătător la ochi.”

Aţi observat de ce un artist este mai mult decât un fan al florilor colorate, capabil să găsească comparaţii între simboluri şi realitate? Fiindcă, indiferent de starea pe care o are în momentul utilizării simbolicului asupra artei, el priveşte la sine ca la un altcineva, participând ca spectator la propriul său spectacol (ce poate să transpară din înflorirea grădinii).

Experienţa vizuală este percepţia pe care ţi-o formezi despre ceea ce te emoţionează atunci când ceea ce te atrage în jur este ceea ce admiri la tine însuţi prin asemănare sau comparaţie cu sufletul naturii.

Experienţa vizuală în care apare o imagine nouă a Realităţii este strâns legată de percepţia pe care o ai despre lumea înconjurătoare în momentul când eşti singurul martor la evoluţia unei teme numite: „Personalizarea unei varietăţi de emoţii trăite prim comparaţie”.

Artistul şi începuturile artei sale fac referire la realitatea unei experienţe de autocunoaştere în care posibilitatea de a accede la un înalt nivel de spiritualitate depinde de modul în care foloseşti adevăratul spectacol al naturii la efectuarea unei explorări personale, în scopul promovării unei Creaţii autentice.

Artistul și triumful artei sale

Asumă-ţi fidelitatea faţă de ceea ce se câștigă prin inspiraţie atunci când te vezi doar tu accentuat de sentimentul sublimului şi restul nu se mai vede.

Lucrurile înnebuniseră cu totul, o luaseră complet razna ca într-o pictură îndrăzneaţă a unui artist neînţeles care începea de la câţiva stropi de inspiraţie. Aş fi vrut să le prind într-o anumită ordine, într-o imagine de-o secundă căreia să-i modific parametrii înainte să se creeze variaţii prea mari între determinările de ordin exterior. Dar nu reușeam să apuc nicidecum linia de final a normalităţii.

Deoarece eu însumi, surprins în val-vârtejul rătăcirii, în faţa celor mai fantastice teoreme ale chimiei, de care în mod normal nu sunt sigur că le puteam suporta, eram cel care picta lumea cum doreşte, limitat de prilejul de a medita asupra propriei supravieţuiri. Aici se potrivea o replică interesantă dintr-un roman scris de John Fowles: „Când naraţiunea se bazează pe șanse ratate, poţi să fii sigur că iese un scenariu prost”.

Constrâns de împrejurările nefaste, am început să folosesc imaginaţia prin prisma legăturii cu realitatea obiectivă, tot aşa cum artistul uită să privească în altă parte decât în ochii modelului pe care-l desenează, prinzând imediat linia unei culmi secundare care se forma spre dreapta unei interogări "multi_match" ca să explorez alte căutări similare unui "output" al unui model de referinţă.

Nevoia găsirii unui pattern comun între realitate şi aparenţa unor lucruri greu de acceptat, de unde reieşea splendoarea unei arte care merita o cunoaştere aprofundată, configurarea indusă unei culturi expresive, mă obliga la trasarea unei analogii între evenimente aparent irelevante şi presupuneri ale căror realizări nu păreau imposibile. Ca să reuşesc o victorie chinuită în faţa ştiinţei care studiaza legile creatiei artistice trebuia să merg, în multe privinţe, împotriva căutărilor în domeniul individualului.

Leadership: Îţi transformi capacităţile și condiţiile de evoluţie în premizele unei arte care se depărtează treptat de scopul creatorului ei?

Statusul pe care îl completezi atunci când serveşti ca simbol al fiinţei care aspiră să-şi depăşească condiţia de a vedea lumea într-un anumit fel, confruntându-te cu provocarea numită „Stay In The Unique Work of Art”, este uneori o deformare a imaginii despre lume pe care o ai în conștiința ta. Bineînţeles, te poţi referi la artă ca la un joc de supravieţuire în faţa lucrurilor care te fac atent la o altă domensiune a realităţii, una bazată pe convenţia naraţiunii adresate altcuiva decât creatorului însuşi, şi asta deoarece tot ceea ce spui şi gândeşti despre tine reprezintă mijlocul de a te delimita e manifestările rutiniere ale vieţii.

Să ai astfel acces la valorile care te ghidează în viață, precum credința, libertatea individuală sau curajul acțiunii, înseamnă uneori să recurgi la accentuarea excesivă a unor trăsături care fie alunecă în sublim, fie se reflectă cu semn schimbat – în ridicol. Arta la care trebuie să te raportezi, în ceea ce priveşte libertatea de a gândi în imagini, în termeni de poveste şi de povestitor, rămânând fidel ambiţiei de a performa în scris, are ca tendinţă accentuarea sublimului unei destăinuiri care să comunice cu adevărat substanţa propriei fiinţe.

Percepţia pe care o ai asupra realităţii se extinde către profunzimile fiinţei tale?

Poți ajunge, de exemplu, să iei în considerare imaginea de înaltă definiţie, de tipul „go forward" pe care te grăbeşti într-un prim moment al receptării să o identifici drept reprezentativă. Aici trăsăturile imaginii indică o culoare deschisă, partea lăuntrica a persoanei, precum conştiinţa, compromisul și cunoaşterea. Sau, din contra, poți ajunge să iei în considerare o imagine mai blurred care are pronunţare spre niște trăsături cu expresivitate psihologică maximă, precum introversiunea, depresia, ostilitatea.

Când ești artist te confrunți nu doar cu şevaletul și emoţiile, ci cu povestea unui visător care numai imaginându-şi cea mai urâtă lume posibilă va putea face din ea una mai bună.

În operele sale, Rembrandt nu descria natura, ci lumea lăuntrică a omului. El psihologiza modelul, descoperind în trăsăturile chipului său profunzimea în care el singur s-a încumetat să privească. Iată ce înseamnă să-ți fixezi atenția într-o oglindă din care te privește propria-ți imagine ca dintr-un univers alternativ, și să-ți măsori identitatea în funcție de ceea ce chipul vrea și ceea ce numai chipul știe, toate pornite dintr-un act atât instinctual cât și intuitiv.

A-ţi transforma capacităţile și condiţiile de evoluţie în premizele unei arte care se depărtează treptat de scopul creatorului ei, înseamnă să-ți foloseşti imaginaţia numai prin prisma legăturii cu realitatea obiectivă și să pierzi din vedere acea reflecţie a oglinzii care ești tu, cu caracterul și trăsăturile tale.

Artiştii cei mai buni se consideră proiecţia unei imagini în oglindă: mai întâi sunt impresionaţi de ceea de văd, invadaţi de un întreg simţământ de unicitate, apoi simt că trebuie să păstreze un moment de solemnitate. În tot acest timp în mintea lor se cuibăreşte o formă a puterii personale care devine reală pe măsură ce relaţia cu Sieşi devine mai pregnantă.

Leadershipul este valoarea unică a operei de artă "autentice" care are la bază localizarea esenţei omului în condiţiile utilizării unei alternative de redare a realităţii, drept o continuitate a experienţei de a fi altcineva, sub forma unui autor care continuă să-şi intrige cititorii.

Artistul și triumful artei sale sunt două feţe ale unei oglinzi care te ameţeşte puțin.

În leadership ai obligaţia de a fi mai mult decât ceea ce crezi că ești. Înseamnă să-ți asumi fidelitatea faţă de ceea ce se câștigă prin inspiraţie atunci când te vezi doar tu accentuat de sentimentul sublimului şi restul nu se mai vede.

Artistul unei lumi nemărginite Învaţă să recunoşti viitorul prin prisma a ceea ce se săvârşeşte în tine, simultan cu voința de a crea o altă reprezentare a scenei numită „Lume”.

Nu găsesc drumul lin spre cel care sunt cu adevărat şi care mă cheamă adesea sub pretextul unor frământări necontenite, prin presiunea exercitată de masa efemerului, sub forţa unei fulgerări venite din spaţiul necesităţii de a crea. De a fi artistul unei lumi renăscute prin aplicarea metodei comparaţiilor, un adept al viziunii echivalenţei dintre foc şi apă, numai din voinţa de a desfăşura cele mai variate transformări lumeşti. Fără a mă înfiora în faţa gigantei explozii informaţionale.

Totul trebuie să aibă o noimă în spatele paravanului lumii, în numeroasele contexte ale amestecului de real şi imaginar. Şi simt cu vădită curiozitate, cu dorința de a înţelege în modul cel mai profund imaginea de ansamblu, că oricât aş căuta răspunsurile la marile întrebări ale condiţiei umane, ale trecerii mele prin lume, ale filosofiei şi ale sinelui, niciodată nu le voi găsi.

Chiar dacă fac din această căutare aventura vieţii mele, o continuare a tendinţei de trecere spre abstract, un joc cu alunecări imprevizibile de la sublim la ridicol, până la urmă tot voi ocoli partea de drum care nu-mi aparţine. Cu toată puterea imaginaţiei ce-şi încordează mușchii în întrecerea spectaculoasă dintre spaţii şi locuri, din fiecare însemnătate acordată obiectelor şi proceselor, de care mă tem că a venit vremea să le biruiesc, voi putea oare să dau viață unei sinergii puternice?

Leadership: Felul în care îţi dezvălui fiinţa interioară slujeşte rolulului pe care îl trăieşti prin prisma certitudinilor vieţii aflate în prim planul unor întâmplări succesive ce trezesc o anumită suspiciune vis-a-vis de natura realităţii pe care o percepi?

Regăsesc în mine cuvintele lui Ioannis Anghelos din romanul lui Waltari: "Două clipe, aparent despărţite de mulţi ani, sunt doar una şi aceeaşi. S-au săvârşit în mine simultan. Cele două clipe de clarviziune, scufundate în fiinţa mea şi contopite una în alta, sunt singurele certitudini ale vieţii mele, în timp ce întâmplările succesive pe care le-am crezut reale sunt doar viziuni şi imaginaţie. Săptămânile, lunile, anii sunt doar măsuri inventate de om. Ele n-au nicio legătură cu timpul adevărat, timpul lui Dumnezeu".

Dacă aş fi un clarvăzător puternic aş putea citi clipa ciudată a acestei dimineţi. În ea sunt strânse, ca un colier din perle de cultură în jurul lumii, toate noimele neînţelesei formule: nașterea = viaţă + moarte . Sau poate că ochii mei, deprinşi cu zonele obscure ale imaginaţiei, sunt tulburaţi de magia înşelătoare a unei lumi mici încorsetate în regulile unei lumi mai mari.

Pentru a răspunde chemării de artist, leadershipul se poate cântări pe axa devenirii prin cultivarea abilităţii de a utiliza realul și imaginarul. Atât prin cunoaşterea provenită pe linia momentului prezent, dintr-o experiență a căutării răspunsurilor la întrebările propriei identităţi, de genul: „cine sunt?”, cât și din cunoaşterea care rezultă din eventualele răspunsuri.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri forța motrice care face tranziţia de la o formă de înțelegere de tip „Low” la o formă de înțelegere de tip „High”?

Liderul-Artist este omul schimbării care știe să recunoască viitorul prin prisma a ceea ce se săvârşeşte în el simultan cu voința de a crea o altă reprezentare a scenei numită „Lume". Un astfel de om pune totul sub microscop, fiecare noţiune neînţeleasă, fiecare simţire, fiecare fenomen, fiecare moment, așa cum pictorul pune alături obiectele cele mai diferite pentru a le descoperi corespondențele secrete, şi transformă în pricepere ceea ce ţine de concretul vieții pentru a obţine revelația întregului.

Priceperea de a genera răspunsuri și certitudini vizavi de lume, cu ajutorul raţiunii și imaginaţiei. Priceperea de a contraargumenta orice idei opuse constructelor lor plauzibile prin aplicarea metodei comparaţiilor cu TOTUL din jur, este forța motrice care face tranziţia de la o formă de înțelegere de tip „Low" la o formă de înțelegere de tip „High".

Cu alte cuvinte, o formă de înțelegere de tip „Low" lucrează conform unor motive venite din păreri preconcepute sau impresii generale, dar nu din experienţă. Pe când o formă de înțelegere de tip „High", ca produs al unui act de creaţie, de cultură şi de fructificare a experienţelor, având influenţă asupra muncii intelectuale, lucrează conform unor motive venite din reflexie, din judecată şi raţionament, iar nu din impulsuri sensoriale sau percepţionale.

Ceea ce se săvârşeşte în tine, simultan cu voința de a crea o altă reprezentare a scenei numită „Lume", este calitatea de a recunoaşte o realitate care nu există şi de a o transforma într-o realitate imposibil de contestat?

Artistul unei lumi nemărginite poate îndeplini condiţia favorabilă extinderii leadershipului de a fi, prin cercetarea totului din jur şi prin adâncirea în sine, mult mai mult decât ceea ce este. De a fi un iluminat.

Pune o fărâmă din ceea ce te înconjoară în categoria întrebărilor, așa cum pictorul pune o fărâmă din el în fiecare lucrare, și încearcă să cauţi răspunsul în condiţiile trecerii tale prin lume. Aplicând ţie însuţi adevărul pe care l-ai constatat, în timp vei deveni una cu adevărul, vei ajunge la o cunoaştere avansată, și vei conştientiza la un moment dat ceea ce este esenţial și ceea ce trebuie schimbat.

Din artist, devii un iluminat - cel ce vede realitatea, dincolo de moarte şi de aparenţe.

Artistul unei vieţi care îşi asumă nemurirea

Învaţă să creezi mediul necesar pentru relevarea sentimentelor tale profunde, conferind credibilitate şi consistenţă timpului pe care îl dedici imaginii "Celuilalt".

Încerc să-mi raportez percepţia asupra lumii la maturitatea unei vieţii trăite cu bune şi cu rele, concepută în contemplaţia încărcată de nostalgie şi vis a unui trandafir roşu, Double Delight, văzut că un personaj cu o structură interioară de natură kafkiană. Constrâns de modul de receptare al artei într-un context favorabil creaţiei, mă simt din ce în ce mai atras, mai învăluit de misterul acestei legături despre care aş vrea neapărat să vă povestesc.

Conexiunea cu arta se întrevede la nivel de excelență în transformarea unui moment de reîntoarcere a spiritului de inovaţie într-o poveste care se țese fără întrerupere la nivel de durată de viață a unui trandafir care îşi trăieşte, plin de glorie, fiecare secundă ca şi când ar trebui să aducă la îndeplinire un proiect veşnic. Există un suflet în acest trandafir, dincolo de formă, culoare, parfum, prospeţime, manifestându-se activ în mesajul unei realităţi mai cuprinzătoare decât orice alt stil de scriere, decât orice religie majoră a lumii, decât orice experienţă de frumuseţe şi vizualitate.

În ceea ce priveşte oglindirea reală a vieţii naturii în spiritul meu, simt că mă rătăcesc într-un labirint a cărui ieşire este indicată vag prin semne stranii, de cele mai multe ori ignorate de tăria amintirilor care ghidează fiecare om spre o lume mai bună, o lume confirmată de vizualizarea unei imagini care se pretinde a fi importantă şi pozitivă pentru realizarea ideii de "eternitate".

Nevoia de a mă destăinui urmăreşte conceptualizarea şi modelarea imaginii despre un "Celălalt" prea puţin luat încă în seamă de restul lumii, dar mereu prezent în sufletul meu. Se pare că, în faţa eternităţii, trandafirul meu poate produce orice metamorfozare, îi rezistă orice relaţie cu lumea, cu lucrurile ei, cu orice gânduri ascunse, cu simţirile unei inimi care continuă să bată într-o fiinţă supremă, mereu aflată deasupra celorlalte, cu orice asociere posibilă care ar induce opinia că hazardul poate influenţa termenii tranziţiei de la efemer la însemnătate.

Leadership: Poţi să te integrezi într-o imagine suprapusă peste imaginea originală, aducând în prim-planul unei vibrații de ecou al procesului creativ acea conexiune formată între considerentul "Nu pot să uit de ceea ce simt, de fapt" şi îmbrăţişarea unui fapt particular?

Ideii de eternitate i se pretează valenţele artistice ale unei opere desăvârşite pe care un Creator Absolut, în largi trasări de pensulă, folosind doar câteva tonuri de culoare, reuşeşte să-şi grăbească intrarea într-o altă lume, în alt spaţiu-timp, în altă încăpere a memoriei. Umbrele şi luminile de care arta se simte legată, experienţa unei explorări de proiecţii simbolice, promisiunea alterităţii, revelarea unor conexiuni la distanţă, toate devin un fel de realitate enigmatică, în care fiecare lucru este însăşi contrariul său, suspendat între real, imaginar şi plauzibil.

Trandafirul este emblema unei treceri de la ceva la altcineva, de la ceva în întregime necunoscut la ceva care se constituie drept esenţă a unei vieţi cu semnificaţie. Artistul, drept o repetiţie în alb-negru a aceloraşi obsesii tematice, îşi limpezeşte cel dintâi sentimentele scoţând în evidenţă, în îmbrăţişarea unui fatto particolare , acea stare de "nonfinito", de suspendare între plauzibil şi real, între firesc şi misterios.

Cumva, simt întreaga ostenire a trandafirului în faţa timpului, încercând a se face mulţumit de chipul unei lumi trecătoare prin vocea egipteanului Sinuhe pe care Mika Waltari îl surprinde în toată splendoarea unei istorii zbuciumate:

"Nu pot să uit de ceea ce simt, de fapt. Aşa că mă văd pe un drum pietruit, despre care nu ştiu unde duce, dar rămân pe el câtă vreme o fac cu sufletul încărcat, cu mintea plină de praf şi trăiri deşarte, plină amintiri apăsătoare. Inima mea este obosită din cauza povestirii, care m-a făcut să-mi trăiesc viaţa pentru a doua oară. Trupul meu este ostenit. Tânjesc după odihna eternă. Poate că nu sunt fericit, dar nici nefericit nu sunt din cauza singurătăţii mele. Poate că am fost mai singur şi mai departe de oameni când am trăit printre oameni, fiindcă le-am văzut faptele şi am înţeles deşertăciunea faptelor lor. Sunt deşarte toate faptele oamenilor."

Îmbrăţişarea unui fapt particular rezonează cu producerea unei variante de realitate de tipul: "o trăire a unui eveniment rămas în amintire", camuflat într-o experienţă de viaţă plină de învăţăminte.

Arta se substituie, în acest caz, unei concepţii despre fiinţa umană în ansamblul resorturilor adânci ale unei stări de spirit despre care nimeni nu poate să pretindă că ar fi trecătoare, în direcţia materializării unor reflecții personale care luminează anumite cute ale personalităţii artistului surprins în ipostaza de contemplator al societăţii, al vieţii, al propriilor virtuţi.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi valorifici personalitatea într-un spaţiu simbolic sau real, aducând în prim-planul unei vibrații de viaţă un memento al trecerii tale de la o experienţă de reflexivitate la o experienţă de sensibilitate?

Veşnicia este un drum pe care îl parcurgi cu pensula pe o pânză străină de rolul vieţii tale, dar pe care o familiarizezi cu nuanţele unei realităţi menită a surprinde de fiecare dată imperativul conştiinţei: "nu uita de tine însuţi într-o altă variantă". Trandafirul, surprins într-o ipostază de creator care se apleacă asupra momentului de asociere cu un alt personaj, urmărind conţinutul artistic al unei creaţii mai puţin cunoscute, îţi va lăsa un "memento" mult timp întipărit în minte.

Pentru a înţelege limbajul trandafirului, menirea pe care el şi-o acordă într-o lume cercetată doar cu ochi de artist, am utilizat convenţia clasică de redare a perspectivei unei fiinţe omeneşti, creând un sentiment de similaritate - "am mai fost aici, am mai sfârșit așa" - ca un fel de ghid al imprimării unui stil durabil de inspiraţie asupra unei existenţe sădită în chip „natural", într-o anumită spontaneitate a sensibilităţii, creatoare de plăsmuiri revelatoare.

Am îndurat, prin aceasta, chinul de a transcende o realitate compromisă de reprezentarea unei lumi trecătoare, ale cărei înţelesuri se prefac în rostul de a sluji, sub semnul credinţei şi al raţiunii, unei opere care cere întruparea vieţii în concordanţă cu natura. Pentru că viaţa arată altfel în inima unui trandafir "Double Delight" şi eu am văzuto, ca nimeni altcineva, mărturisind despre ea că este compatibilă cu viaţa unui artist care a pășit curajos pe un tărâm nou, având aspirații cutezătoare, în timp ce recunoaște că opera nu-i va fi încheiată niciodată.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi o personalitate distinctă pe direcţia generală a unei vieţi care se contemplă pe sine în fiecare moment şi în care backgroundul devine "trend majoritar" în orientarea creaţiei spre o nouă interpretare?

Timpul măsurat în secole, pe care trandafirul meu l-a cunoscut de-a lungul unui drum livresc, se revelează ca un exemplu din viaţa unui estetician care inovează actul de creație printr-un monolog pe care eu însumi, atât de preocupat de frumos, îl trăiesc cu atâta putere în paginile romanului “Exuvii” al scriitoarei Simona Popescu:

Creaţia care face cinste mereu interpretării surprinde acel spirit al timpului a cărui expresie organică originară este dată de vizualizarea amintirilor apărute în apropierea unei trăiri care se aseamănă cu o alta, de care ai mai fost legat o dată, atunci când viaţa pare a se contempla ca o realitate pe care nu o poţi părăsi.

În ceea ce priveşte opera unui artist pe care n-ar putea-o şterge nici trecerea timpului, putem spune că backgroundul (fiorul vieţii) devine “trend majoritar” în materie de sugestivitate atunci când realitatea la care te raportezi devine o închisoare, şi numai mintea te poate elibera, făcându-te să înţelegi mai bine cine eşti.

Leadershipul este o evaluare a timpului trecut, prezent şi viitor, din perspectiva unei experienţe de viaţă pe care o trăieşti prin intermediul Egoului, prin ceea ce eşti pregătit să suporţi emoţional şi revelator atunci când devii inspiraţie pentru alţi oameni.

Artistul unei vieţi care îşi asumă nemurirea este copia fidelă a unei imagini care poate fi oricând înlocuită cu o alta, care la rândul ei poate primi o altă interpretare, în cuprinsul unei vieţi care se desfăşoară asemenea unei creaţii, în forme inedite de expresie.

Așa a fost consacrat Dovjenko ca regizor

Un mentor cu viziune poate transforma întâlnirea cu un tânăr cineast într-un moment de consacrare artistică, dacă reușește să descopere și să încurajeze potențialul ascuns al acestuia.

Spiritul activ și combativ care-l caracteriza pe regizorul rus Serghei Eisenstein nu se manifesta doar în propria sa creație, ci și în atitudinea responsabilă față de întreaga cinematografie a patriei sale. Cazul lui Dovjenko este edificator. La un an după ce filmul „Potemkin" a fost lansat, când devenise deja celebru în lume, Eisenstein primește un telefon de la reprezentantul oficiului cinematografic din Ucraina: „Vă rog să veniți. Vă implor, veniți să vedeți filmul care mi s-a trimis. Se numește Zvenigora și nimeni nu înțelege nimic."

Eisenstein se duce. Lume multă. În îmbulzeală, îi strânge mâna regizorului. Află că-l cheamă Alexandr Dovjenko. Proiecția începe, iar ecranul reflectă o operă despre care Eisenstein gândește: „Doamne sfinte! Ce nu poți vedea aici!" Apoi se îngrozește la gândul că, după ce filmul se va termina, va trebui să găsească ceva inteligent de spus.

Dar filmul începe să-i placă. Îi place din ce în ce mai mult. Are acum certitudinea că un nou realizator de film se născuse. Se aprinde lumina. Eisenstein este alături de Pudovkin. Când Dovjenko vine la ei cu un surâs timid, este răsplătit cu o caldă și sinceră strângere de mână, într-un elan de bucurie. Eisenstein se bucură din tot sufletul.

După vizionare, aleargă prin foaier, de la un grup la altul, pentru a lăuda filmul. Așa a fost consacrat Dovjenko ca regizor. Entuziasmul lui Eisenstein, care l-a ajutat enorm pe proaspătul cineast, nu contenește. Ajuns acasă, irumpe în camera prietenului său Strauch: „Ce băiat formidabil a venit din Ucraina! Ce film minunat mi-a arătat!"

Leadership: În ce fel proiecția inițial neînțeleasă a creației tale poate deveni o oportunitate pentru descoperirea unei viziuni unice?

Spiritul activ și combativ al lui Eisenstein l-a transformat într-un mentor care nu doar că şi-a perfecționat creația, dar a devenit şi un susținător fervent al întregii cinematografii din patria sa. Nu de puține ori, atitudinea sa responsabilă l-a făcut să devină o sursă de ajutor pentru tinerii cineaști. În această privinţă, cazul lui Dovjenko este edificator: după proiecția filmului Zvenigora, pe care nimeni nu părea să-l înțeleagă, Eisenstein a descoperit în opera acestuia o viziune unică, relevându-i talentul excepțional unei noi stele în cinematografie. Nu-i aşa? În fiecare nou artist descoperit se află o reflexie a moștenirii celor care l-au ghidat.

Până la urmă, întâlnirea cu Dovjenko a devenit o experiență plină de bucurie, în care Eisenstein, entuziast și impresionat de talentul tânărului, a început să laude creaţia acestuia din toată inima, asigurându-i astfel consacrarea lui Dovjenko. Iar entuziasmul său nu s-a oprit aici: ajuns acasă, împărtășind vestea cu pasiune prietenului său, Eisenstein se descria el însuşi ca fiind un descoperitor de genii. Se înțelege de aici că Eisenstein nu a fost doar un creator remarcabil, ci și un susținător activ al valorilor fundamentale ale cinematografiei, spiritul său contribuind la promovarea și încurajarea unui nou val de talent artistic. Două dintre aceste valori sunt: inovația artistică și coerența narativă.

Fiecare creator este o stea în devenire, iar cei care le descoperă sunt artizanii cerului cultural. Altfel spus, în universul cinematografic, spiritul activ și combativ al maeștrilor experimentați poate identifica nașterea unui nou talent prin observarea atentă a ecranului. Inițial, proiecția lui Zvenigora părea neclară, dar treptat, strălucirea artistică a lui Dovjenko a început să reflecte tot mai intens o viziune profund originală. La rândul ei, comunitatea cinematografică, prin ochii responsabili ai lui Eisenstein, a urmărit cu sufletul la gură acea descoperire, iar confirmarea unui nou regizor formidabil a devenit un moment de sărbătoare colectivă. Extraordinar moment, nu-i aşa?

Asemenea unui astronom care detectează o stea nouă, Eisenstein a alergat cu entuziasm să promoveze acea minunată apariție pe firmamentul artistic, primind zâmbetul timid al noului creator cu o caldă strângere de mână. Iar dacă bucuria descoperirii a strălucit precum lumina unei nove, atunci Eisenstein, ca un observator experimentat, și-a asumat rolul de a consacra și susține talentul proaspăt identificat al lui Dovjenko. Aşadar, orice talent recunoscut la început de drum devine o punte între aspirațiile personale și ecourile unei comunități care îl susține.

Momentul de consacrare artistică apare din susținerea entuziastă a unei viziuni creative, corelându-se cu impactul asupra întregii comunități cinematografice.

Așa a fost consacrat Dovjenko ca regizor, printr-un gest de recunoaștere sinceră din partea lui Eisenstein, știind că talentul autentic trebuie susținut fără rezerve, astfel încât noile voci cinematografice să se poată dezvolta. Prin urmare, se poate vorbi despre un mentorat artistic exemplar, în varianta unei susțineri dezinteresate și entuziaste, admițând faptul că marile talente se nasc din încurajarea celor care le descoperă.

Ascultă-mă ca şi când mi-ai privi sufletul

Între sunetul unei melodii şi sunetul unui artist de mare talent există un infinit mic, care reprezintă o întreagă lume.

Există melodii de neuitat la care te întorci mereu, într-un fel de neimaginat, fiindcă însăşi ele se încăpăţânează să se ascundă în sufletul tău, împlinite, devotate pe timp îndelungat, punând pe primul loc legătura strânsă dintre vizual şi acustic. Şi le asculţi cu drag, în cel mai fidel mod posibil, cu gândul la mare, la nisipul cu scoici (prezente în apusurile pline de culoare şi profunzime), fără să realizezi că timpul trece în timp ce ele îţi ocupă tot timpul.

Iar sufletul tău este prezent acolo unde sunetul "DEEP" îşi face loc prin timpanul tău, ajungând până la acea unealtă magnifică numită senzaţie, mecanism de captare şi înregistrare a informaţiilor din realitatea înconjurătoare, în care toate amintirile reînvie până la a atinge acea stare inefabilă de pace cu tine însuţi. Melodia însăşi, primul secret inspirat din tainele universului, este acea forţă a sufletului care trece prin experienţa actului de creaţie, o pătrundere într-o realitate care îşi omite dimensiunea temporară, suplinind parcă eterna lipsă din infinitul unei priviri căreia îi lipseşte acea notă predominantă de inspiraţie suprarealistă.

Nu trebuie să începem prin a face muzică, ci experienţe... Muzica este idealul omului iluminist, anunţând la possibilità di imprimere nell'anima la sete di assimilazione della bellezza.

Sunt cu mine însumi atunci când o ascult, discret, plin de naturaleţe, cu inimă curată. Cred că natura şi-a deschis sufletul în favoarea particularizării unui dialog încet, liniștit, dulce, care mă înviorează. You Are Deep, îmi transmite ea, fiindcă sunt parte din refrenul ei. Melodia mă lasă să-i pătrund armoniile, până când nu mai pot rupe contactul cu mine însumi, concomitent cu fragilitatea unei pânze transparente de in pe care artistul îşi ţese imaginile multicolore, permiţând ghicirea tuturor contururilor de dedesubtul unei stări de fond. Ascult-o, şi spune-mi că n-am dreptate. (Roudeep - You Are Deep)

Leadership: Cum îţi exprimi trăirea unui presentiment al eternităţii, din perspectiva credinţei neclintite într-un ideal al armoniei înţeles ca o viziune bazată pe introspecţie?

O ascult mai ales noaptea, când totul este DEEP în somnul care nu cunoaște altă lume în afară de acel loc surprinzător numit "Sunshine In The Moonlight", în măsura în care se ia drept simbol pe sine însăşi în raport cu odiseea unei conştiinţe în căutare de sine, sau cu descrierea aproape vizuală a unei ascensiuni nesfârşite în iubire. Încă, îmi recunosc vina de a mă ataşa nespus de această melodie, excepţională prin frumuseţea ei poetică, sintetizată în expresia gravă de coral, cu inflexiuni vocale de adâncă sensibilitate, simţire, pace.

Cred că aşa îmi exprim eu trăirea unui presentiment al eternităţii, ascultând-o intens printr-un fel de însufleţire a sinelui şi a experienţei de creaţie, printr-un narator, respectiv prin eul liric.

Este un pansament pentru suflet. Melodia îmi ascultă sufletul cu aceeaşi putere cu care eu îi pătrund natura spirituală, pe plan sonor asortându-se nuanţei cu care calmul ritmic se reinstalează în orizontul artistic al experienţelor vechiului romantism, pe un alt miraculos tărâm, numit: Elaiznesse , sau fiorul unei uimiri firave.

Ea îmi aminteşte de acea zi însorită de vară, la plaja din Mamaia, când citeam romanul "Pe firul de păianjen al memoriei”, izbutind să înţeleg ceva mai mult din universul Cellei Serghi:

Leadership: Eşti în stare să împingi creaţia ta la limita imposibilului, în încercarea de a spori numărul lucrurilor la care se poate gândi cineva aflat într-o stare de vibraţie continuă a sufletului?

Iar dacă ascult neîncetat “Roudeep - You Are Deep”, pe o formulă unică ce cuprinde mai mult mi (minor) decât la (diez), fără să intervină un proces de dinamizare ritmică odată cu creşterea sonorităţii, asta se întâmplă pentru că în mine sunt cuprinse două infinituri, amândouă de adâncă vibraţie emoţională: întreaga valoare a simplităţii „subtile” şi aura simplităţii spiritualizate. Uniunea perfectă dintre ceea ce e imaginar şi ceea ce este marcant.

O voi mai asculta o singură dată, înainte ca somnul să mă cuprindă de-a-ntregul. Fiorul unei muzici armonioase mi se va strecura în suflet. Simt că nimic nu va mai fi la fel. Viaţa mea se va schimba. Soarele va străluci în fiecare zi. Valurile mării îmi vor şopti cuvinte de dragoste amestecate cu scoici şi nisip, într-un cuceritor joc al sunetelor delicate, variate, liniştitoare, combinate într-un requiem căruia nu îi lipsesc niciodată frumusețea și puterea emoțională.

Nu voi mai fi acelaşi, dar voi rămâne călăuzit de revelaţia unei voci aparte dintr-un timp de aur în care voi contempla întreaga măreţie spirituală a unei creaţiuni artistice. Cred că am învăţat semnul scris al sunetelor, fiindcă m-am lăsat purtat pe tărâmul magic al sunetelor delicate, ca să devin una cu ele.

Sunt DEEP, pentru că am optat pentru tonuri blânde, consolatoare, relaxante. Sunt DEEP pentru că nu voi părăsi niciodată un anumit gen de muzică în perioada de creaţie, prin modalităţi de exprimare ce preconizează viziunea artistică. Sunt DEEP fiindcă îmi ascult sufletul pe cât de curat, pe atât de nobil, în avântul pe care o singură dorinţă îl mistuie fără încetare: să fiu împăcat cu mine însumi.

Leadershipul, provenit din articularea unui sunet de vrajă în contextul unei melodii de mare vibraţie emoţională, vine în întâmpinarea acelei creaţii artistice pe care o posedă simțirea unei legături puternice între stimul şi atitudinea ta faţă de stimul.

Ascultă-mă ca şi când mi-ai privi sufletul ! Asta îmi transmite conţinutul liric al melodiei “You are Deep”, farmecul ei, ca un fel de stare a sufletului, inducându-mi o transă în care mă afund tot mai adânc, conturând în lumini și umbre, în vise şi viziuni, personalitatea artistului care te invită seniorial într-o lume aparte. Activarea acestei lumi se face cam în acelaşi fel cum un privitor evaluează în subconştient valoarea unui tablou în funcţie de impresia pe care o stârneşte acel tablou asupra simţurilor sale.

Melodia “Roudeep - You Are Deep” este locul prielnic unei stări de fond, desemnată ca unitate indisolubilă de factori sensibili ce trec printr-o poveste a conţinutului cu formă artistică, detaşându-se cu o intensitate progresivă de orice umbră a ideii de „a urma mulțimea”.

Ascultă-mă înainte să te privesc

Încearcă să înțelegi profunzimea unei experiențe autentice în funcție de perspectiva și interpretarea pe care i-o oferi, reflectând la complexitatea relației dintre observator și opera de artă.

Și de această dată, ochii mei au reușit să surprindă un detaliu uimitor într-un peisaj banal, o emoție sinceră pe chipul unui om oarecare. Până la urmă, asta înseamnă să recunoști că îndrăgești arta: să redescoperi frumusețea în locuri neașteptate, să explorezi nuanțe ale emoțiilor sau să inspiri gânduri, să percepi lumea într-un mod nou și unic, chiar şi atunci când nu cauţi nimic.

Ieri după-amiază, mă plimbam prin Parcul Expoziției, trăind clipa unei liniști depline. Într-un colț de alee, discret, dar cu o prezență ce nu putea fi ignorată, un artist stradal își etala măiestria impecabil. Domnul acesta cu acordeonul, un personaj ce părea desprins dintr-o lume unde muzica este limba universală, își lăsa degetele să alunece pe clapele instrumentului cu o dexteritate uimitoare, ca și când ar fi fost parte din el, într-o simbioză perfectă cu natura. Sub îndemânarea lui, acordeonul nu mai era doar un simplu instrument, ci un vehicul al emoției pure, scoțând sunete ce păreau să învie amintiri adormite, colorând prezentul și deschizând ferestre către viitor.

În dreapta lui, o cutiuță modestă din carton, deschisă generozității trecătorilor, găzduia câteva bancnote de 5 ron și respectiv 1 ron, ca o recunoaștere tacită a talentului său din partea trecătorilor. Era un moment simplu, dar profund, sugerând că, în ciuda rapidității și superficialității vieții cotidiene, există loc pentru aprecierea artei autentice, pentru un gest de recunoștință ce transcende banalul. Mai ales pentru un artist, am rămas uimit de interpretarea muzicianului, ca și când mi-aș fi pierdut adâncimea momentului, rămânând doar un scurt metraj de privit, reflectând emoțiile pure transmise prin notele muzicale.

Leadership: Prin surprinderea "momentului banal" poţi să te transformi în garantul unei experiențe care transcende imediatul, aducând în prim-plan o viziune mai vastă asupra a ceea ce te face unic?

Parcul Expoziției este idealul pătrunderii într-un spațiu al revelației și al inspirației, unde natura și arta se împletesc armonios. Acest peisaj urban, golit de zgomotul infernal al orașului, se transformă subit într-un spectacol, într-un spațiu dedicat artei, când muzica liniştită începe să se împletească cu forfota trecătorilor, creând o simfonie a contrastelor. Sunetul acordeonului, înduioșător, plăcut auzului fin, reușește să aducă în prim-plan o lume unde imaginea și sentimentul se contopesc armonios, realitatea muzicii îmbinându-se cu lumea interioară a fiecărui ascultător.

Muzicianul, prin interpretarea sa "a capella", nu doar că îmbogățește peisajul sonor al locului, ci invită la o introspecție neașteptată, transformând strada într-o scenă pe care se desfășoară o piesă a emoției și umanității. Imaginea lui, una forza del pensiero creativo, este un instantaneu al acțiunii prin sunet și un simbol al reprezentării omului în armonie cu arta, din perspectiva unei experiențe transcendentale. Asta, deoarece permite ascultătorului să depășească limitele realității imediate și să intre într-un spațiu al înțelegerii profunde, unde muzica devine o punte între lumea materială și cea spirituală.

Iar dacă sunt cu adevărat unic, prin ceva caracteristic artiștilor, acest lucru se datorează abilității mele de a transforma momentele banale în opere de artă care rezonează cu sufletele oamenilor.

Leadership: Poți să reconstitui o acțiune a prezentului desfășurată sub proprii ochi, îmbinând-o cu un sentiment de prezență peste veacuri?

Nu știam ce este mai de preț: să-l ascult cu nostalgie, într-un elan ce amesteca umila prezență și splendoarea, sau să privesc cu admirație cum mângâie acordeonul, ca pe un fel de dans între degete și muzică, unde fiecare mișcare era în perfectă armonie cu ritmul inimii. Cred că muzica este doar un instrument al divinității și al inspirației, și devine un fel de mesager, făcându-mă să trăiesc o stare de extaz, ca în transă, pe tot parcursul creației, așa încât comunicarea dintre suflet și univers devine palpabilă, transformând fiecare notă într-o vibrație a existenței însăși.

În povestirea "Aleph", renumitul scriitor Jorge Luis Borges descrie un punct magic care conține tot universul. Alephul este descris ca fiind o "sferă transparentă" care conține "toate punctele din univers". Dar, Borges folosește sunetul pentru a crea o atmosferă de mister și uimire, descriind sunetul Alephului ca fiind un zumzet asemănător unui murmur de ape, sau ca un foșnet de frunze. Zumzetul simbolizează misterul și uimirea asociate cu Alephul, care este o reprezentare a infinitului. Acest sunet este intermitent și se intensifică pe măsură ce protagonistul se apropie de Aleph.

Într-adevăr. Sunetele surprind esența momentului, fie că este vorba de o melodie vibrantă sau de o simfonie liniștită. Iar omul, prin arta sa, dă viață acestor sunete, creând o experiență emoționantă și memorabilă. Mai nou, inteligența artificială poate analiza și interpreta sunetele, descoperind modele și emoții ascunse, dar te simți mai viu atunci când privești chipul omului în timp ce exprimă pasiunea și trăirea fiecărei note. De fapt, mai bine ca acest om, nu știu dacă în acest moment inteligența artificială ar fi în stare să creeze noi forme de artă, combinând sunetul, imaginea și mișcarea într-un mod unic și atât de captivant.

Lărgirea ariei de acțiune a leadershipului corespunde acelor împrejurări în care imaginea pe care trebuie să o evidențiezi în mod coerent nu se limitează la percepția vizuală, ci mai degrabă la simțirea pe care o transformi în creație.

Ascultă-mă înainte să te privesc și poate astfel vei înțelege esența cuvintelor mele fără să fie filtrate prin prejudecățile vizuale. Numaidecât, încearcă să te deprinzi de actul de a vedea doar lucrurile importante, cele evidente la prima vedere, ci mai degrabă fă în așa fel încât tot ceea ce întâlnești să fie explorat în profunzime, descoperind valoarea ascunsă în detaliile aparent minore.

Ascultă-ți vocea pe care o reflectă ochii

Cunoașterea limitelor personale este ca și cum ai privi adânc în tine și ai înțelege mesajele subtile ale naturii.

A fost mai cald ca niciodată în dimineața aceea, din ziua concursului. Ochii mă priveau, aşteptând să-mi vorbească cu o voce tăinuită. Nu era doar căldura care mă neliniștea, un soi de reprezentare mentală despre conlucrarea vie a unor forţe vitrege, ci și un sentiment ciudat de presimțire care nu mă părăsea. Iar ei încă vegheau la ce mi se întâmplă, fără ca eu să pot interveni în vreun fel. Puteam doar să mă conectez la sufletul unui artist care, la fel ca un magician, încearcă să-şi dezvăluie esența dincolo de aparențe.

Am început să alerg pe traseul în pantă, dar de data aceasta, fiecare pas părea mai greu, iar aerul fierbinte era aproape irespirabil. Ochii m-au privit fără să-mi dau seama că cineva e cu ochii pe mine, şi mi-au vorbit, mi-au vorbit întruna, m-au atenţionat că ceva se va întâmpla, iar eu nu le-am dat ascultare. Natura însăși era în așteptare. După ce-am străbătut al șaptelea kilometru, cu patru kilometri înainte de final, mi s-a făcut rău. M-am oprit instant la umbra unui copac bătrân, care parcă îmi zicea să mă odihnesc și să mă regăsesc.

Şi, din nou, vocea aia din off a strigat la mine: "Nu încerca să faci un truc imposibil în fața naturii necruțătoare. Chiar și cele mai mărețe iluzii se pot nărui în fața forțelor primordiale care guvernează universul înconjurător. Magia adevărată constă în a-ţi armoniza eforturile cu ritmurile eterne ale creației, nu în a le sfida."

– Da, poate, am răspuns în sinea mea. Un magician ar ști când să se oprească, uitându-mă la ceasul de la mână și făcând apel la rezervele mele de curaj, tot mai sărace. Natura poate răsturna trucurile mele aparent imposibile printr-un singur gest necruțător, de aceea voi evita orice artificiu miraculos.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o reprezentare vizuală a renunțării într-un mod revelator, încât să aduci la viață o vedere captivantă și plină de semnificații ascunse?

– Secretul artei se află în a face să pară adevărat tot ceea ce este de fapt închipuit, continuă vocea. Totuşi, intensitatea minimă de energie dusă la maximul de extensiune nu este altceva decât o nebunie, un soi de iluzie grandioasă care sfidează realitatea, un soi de paradox al creativității care învăluie totul într-o mantie de înșelăciune artistică. Nimeni nu are viaţa lungă într-un tablou gri.

– Nu-mi imaginez ceva mai rău decât a nu crede în nimic, am spus eu apoi, cu ochii clipind a renunţare. Atunci vocea a tăcut, rămânând nemişcată, aproape rigidă, dar simţeam că mă priveşte insistent, revelator, cu nişte ochi căprui ce transmiteau o tristeţe adâncă, un "Elfortahis Serchisas", o stare de luptă necontenită a sufletului care tânjește după absolut. Rezonanța agreabilă a senzației de eșec s-a impus întregii mele făpturi, reconsiderând putința uzajului.

Nu mi-a rămas decât să mă privesc cu ochii artistului care fac în așa fel încât fiecare clipă să pară o eternitate plină de semnificații ascunse, pe linia unei reprezentări vizuale a introspecției captivante. Vocea din off, ochii din taină îmi vorbeau liniştit, fără ocolişuri, ca și când m-ar fi văzut de undeva de sus, ca martori ai unui zeu nevăzut, sau ca și când ar fi răsunat din inimă, încălzindu-mi sângele cu înțelesuri negrăite. Eram doar eu și cu mine însumi, două perechi de ochi făcând ca o singură vedere să filtreze lumina prin pânza albă a şevaletului care conturează un punct de oprelişte pe un traseu înşelător.

Leadership: Crezi că adevărata exprimare de sine vine din capacitatea de a privi înainte și de a transforma suferința în artă, conform chemării de a te conecta la forţele naturii?

Dacă judecătorul cel mai exact al timpului este ceasul, cel mai sensibil este cu siguranţă un hoţ. Omar Ibliks, din romanul "Biblioteca geografului", era cel mai priceput în această privinţă, îşi cultiva anonimatul mergând nici prea aproape, nici prea departe de ceilalţi, nici prea repede, nici prea încet, şi neatrăgând niciodată atenţia asupra lucrului pe care îl deţinea. Învăţase să-şi folosească mai mult vederea periferică decât cea directă.

Ochii erau acolo, tot timpul, sfidând orice consecinţe. Ne-am uitat în tăcere unii la alții, fără să ne mișcăm, ei la mine, eu la ei, destul de mult timp pentru ca niciunul dintre noi să nu mai aibă nimic de întrebat, timpul oprindu-se în loc. Rafturile cu cărți din mintea mea au început să palpite și să se întunece, cu toată înțelepciunea lor, la acestă renunţare din timpul concursului. Schimbările stărilor sufletești și mentale treceau peste mine ca apa și la fel de repede se pierdeau în adânc.

Înțelegerea ochilor, desigur, a venit mai târziu, când m-au anunţat: "Nu poţi să furi timpul pe care l-ai pierdut prin renunţare, dar poţi să-ţi regăseşti vederea care hrăneşte sufletul."

Leadership: Poţi să rămai fidel expresiei autentice a ființei tale lăuntrice și vocației revelatoare, după ce ai acceptat că anumite lucruri sunt ireversibile?

Astfel am ajuns la concluzia că e inutil să sufăr pentru ceea ce este ireparabil, am renunțat să mă simt vinovat de nereușita mea. Vor mai fi și alte concursuri. Ochii mi-au reflectat exprimarea de sine, copleșindu-i cu vocația mea revelatoare, a trăitului unui șir de victorii în ciuda unei singure înfrângeri. Apoi, am spus cu un oftat adânc:

– Am încredere că-mi vei ierta lunga tăcere dintre numerele de magie, prin care te anunț cu mândrie că, în sfârșit, chiar dacă parțial, am reușit să mă regăsesc, încercând să mă împac cu înfrângerea pe care mi-a pricinuit-o natura. Adevărata magie înseamnă să priveşti înainte cu speranță și să nu renunți niciodată la aspirațiile tale, pictând un viitor luminos pe pânza vieții, ca pe un șevalet al posibilităților infinite.

Un ochi atent şi plin de discernământ are în vedere următoarea reflecţie: "Nu poţi să furi timpul pe care l-ai pierdut prin renunţare, dar poţi să-ţi regăseşti vederea care hrăneşte sufletul."

Ascultă-ți vocea pe care o reflectă ochii ! Exercițiul constă în realizarea unei introspecții, în care să te privești pe același traseu, dar nu singur, ci acompaniat de o voce care știe să vadă dincolo de renunțare. Chiar dacă tu renunţi, vocea nu renunţă niciodată. Ascultă-ți vocea pe care o reflectă ochii !

Leadershipul este lucrarea unei introspecții care vorbește indirect prin fundalul unei experiențe existențiale, despre pustietatea unui moment de cumpănă care pare că nu aduce nimic bun decât dacă este însuflețit cu energie spirituală, cu suflet cugetător.

Aspectul voluntar al leadershipului

Caută în lumina propriei tale poveşti de viaţă toate resursele necesare care să-ţi dea forţa să acţionezi în concordanţă cu "replicile" pe care le primeşti din interiorul propriei tale inimi.

De nenumărate ori v-am vorbit despre scriitoarea Cella Serghi. În perioada de formare a personalităţii ei, dincolo de mândria de a se purta ca un om de rang înalt, luându-se la trântă cu un destin care se va centra în jurul noţiunii de "admiraţie", scriitoarea îşi accentuează tendinţa de a-şi justifica cumva existenţa şi de a-şi exprima într-o formă cât mai directă, naivă sau provocatoare propriile emoţii.

Asistăm, noi cititorii, la un fel de alcătuire literar artistică, indicând ca punct de reper o creaţie spirituală şi culturală în care inima, ca o apă adâncă, se simte numai la o privire aruncată în trecut, în faţa influenţelor exercitate de o conştiinţă curată la jumătate distanţei dintre regret şi fericire, dintre consolare, amăgire şi distracţie, atunci când aparenţele lumii sufocă nădejdea de a poseda obiectul iubit numit literatură sau artă prin ochii unei societăţi masculinizate şi plină de prejudecăţi.

Leadership: Reușești să păstrezi în scris esența lucrurilor „care nu se pot povesti în cuvinte", asemenea unui artist care imortalizează momentele efemere ale vieții prin creație?

Ea spunea la un moment dat într-un moment de mare emoţie, echivalând cu manifestarea unui deja-vu, senzaţia că a mai trăit această experienţă foarte puternică prin călătoriile întreprinse în întreaga lume şi prin scrierile sale deosebit de importante:

Pe acest pământ, când nu ştiam să vorbesc, am învăţat să ascult durerile mării, când nu ştiam să citesc, am aflat din cioburi poveşti cu daci şi cu geţi. În limba pe care o înţeleg numai învăţaţii şi copiii, stăteam de vorbă cu cioburile bunicului, cu scoicile mele. Pe aici a umblat Ovidiu, aici şi-a strigat amarul şi şi-a săpat în piatră "tristele".

Aici am învăţat să văd şi să iubesc ce mă înconjoară, aici am învăţat abecedarul şi tot ce nu se poate scrie şi povesti în cuvinte, de aici am luat tot ce am păstrat şi voiam să se păstreze.

Leadership: Poţi să dai o semnificaţie experienţelor personale care te ajută să devii "Autorul propriei tale poveşti de viaţă", într-un context de determinări şi încercări ale Sinelui de a se descoperi prin raportarea la o formulă estetică?

Poţi fi ceva mai mult decât un spaţiu gol? Poţi fi un nucleu de valorificare a potenţialului propriu în jurul căruia gravitează toate forţele? Muntele cel mai semeţ se apleacă şi se prăbuşeşte în cele din urmă în faţa ta?

Îmi amintesc ce spunea odată celebra scriitoare Marguerite Yourcenar: "Adevăratul loc de naştere este acela unde pentru prima dată ai aruncat asupra ta însuţi o privire pătrunzătoare: întâile mele patrii au fost cărţile."

Aruncă o privire mai atentă în tine însuţi şi vezi care este elementul electrizant, necesar pentru a depăşi "inerţia" unei impresii de spaţiu restrâns. Un lucru perfect, şi implicit original, un lucru instaurator, aşadar de ordine inedită în scopul şi în beneficiul dezvoltării tale, se cere astfel conceput încât să înfrunte timpul, să fie "etern".

O dezvoltare durabilă, o reformulare a intenţiilor, o viziune clară, care să facă faţă tuturor provocărilor, asta este cerinţa unei bune stăpâniri a fenomenului "personalitate" în toată splendoarea vieţii. Formula estetică pe care o atribuie Cella Serghi vieţii se poate reprezenta în felul următor: "Splendoarea importanţei mele este imaginea unei culori numită sensibilitate din care se hrănesc atitudinile personajului faţă de lume dintr-o poveste plină de parfumul convenţiilor sociale".

Alcătuirea unei opere literare vizează reproducerea unei apariţii tulburătoare în cadrul proiectului "şansa unei vieţi trăite din toată inima" prin interpretarea pe care o dai momentului de mare însemnătate care îţi determină destinul.

Cella Serghi este autoarea propriei poveşti de viaţă în care arta aparţine trăirilor cele mai profunde pe care şi le-a putut revela despre sine şi despre ceilalţi oameni din jurul ei. Tot ceea ce a surprins-o în momentele de mare însemnătate este creaţia unui artist de geniu care îşi transpune emoţiile pe pânză, dar numai emoţiile care sunt în totalitate dependente de experienţa vieţii sociale şi culturale a omului de rând – a omului prins între îndoială şi virtute.

Dar înaintea desăvârşirii proprii, înaintea descoperirii şi însuşirii oricărei alchimii, există întotdeauna o pre-alchimie, o muncă intensă de căutare, de concepere, adunare și corectare, de aranjare a cablurilor de date - generatoare de noi procese, de noi structuri, de noi deschideri, de noi realităţi. Elemente noi trebuiesc identificate, întregite într-un mozaic de introspective şi imaginative cât mai original. Noi variabile trebuiesc definite, restaurate şi promovate potrivit unui ansamblu de reguli şi norme.

Iar tot acest proces de descoperire a elementelor necesare desăvârşirii tale se poate realiza numai prin strămutarea ta în spaţiul benefic cristalizării operei tale – în laboratorul inovațiilor, lăcașul comorii neprețuite a cunoașterii tale. Întâile tale "patrii" sunt cărţile? Adevărata alchimie ţi-o vei rafina în timp, doar dacă te vei lega mai mult de aceste patrii.

Un asemenea lucru, un stimulent cu efect puternic, un înlocuitor al inacceptabilului, un protest împotriva regresului, un restore la care să revii constant, se cere şi ocrotit, spre a nu fi supus acţiunii distructive a naturii tale inferioare, spre a nu fi distrus de gradul tău anterior de mediocritate - care oricând se poate reactiva.

Leadershipul care imprimă vieţii o anumită identitate şi o anumită coloratură vizează exprimarea de tip "mărturisire de suflet" a asemănărilor dintre trăirile cele mai profunde pe care le poţi revela despre tine însuţi şi certitudinile pe care le poţi contura despre lume într-un peisaj plin de subiectivism.

Aspectul voluntar al leadershipului ţine de importanţa pe care o acorzi unei vieţi pe care trebuie să o petreci în perspectiva întâlnirii cu o altă variantă a ta, în alte timpuri şi alte împrejurări, atunci când tot ceea ce părea o certitudine devine îndoială, când tot ceea ce este comun nu e reprezentat decât de aluviunile condiţiei umane.

Nu uita că tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă este un proces prin care trebuie să te şlefuieşti şi să-ţi valorifici la maxim caracterul.

Asta este înţelepciunea mea

Fii gata să-ţi duci leadershipul la un nivel mai înalt, printr-o extindere a experienţei de a afla ceva adevărat, de care la fel de bine te poți îndoi.

Una din micile mele pofte de-a mă îmbogăţi intelectual, dublată de forţa experienţelor de cunoaştere Meinanserba (plină de vise), era dată de încercarea de a trasa un şanţ în timp, prin anii unor lămuriri finale cu viaţa, cu oamenii, cu gândirea aproape uitată, un fel de întoarcere imaginară în fiecare etapă a istoriei lumii. Oare relația dintre artist și arta scriitoricească poate fi dată de faptele și datele, întrepătrunse în timp de raţiunea trează și conştientă, când staţionezi mai mult decât este necesar înăuntrul unei lumi în care nu te recunoști?

Răbdarea mea era supusă la grele încercări de fiecare dată când, în mirajul unei întâlniri cu eroi mai vechi sau mai noi, de care sigur v-ar plăcea să citiţi, forţa intelectualului din mine izbucnea spre un "având în vedere" investigativ, aşteptând parcă un verdict iminent din partea unor distribuţii de evenimente aleatorii. Nimeni nu poate ști cât durează o eternitate a clipei în alta, când umbra îți este purtată printr-un accesoriu de efect numit: dezorientare.

Leadership: Poți să depășești impresia de monotonie a realismului, creând o viziune artistică care surprinde nu doar complexitatea vizuală, ci și subtilitățile și contradicțiile tale interioare?

Pentru fiecare amănunt în parte, pentru fiecare mică achiziţie de constatări, repartizată pe întregul plan al unor mulţumiri şi acuzaţii la adresa vechilor mentalităţi, corespundea ipostaza unor scurte evadări din peisajul viziunii asupra lumii, din perspectiva a ceva în care eram şi nu eram. Fără implicare directă, dar cu efecte asupra sugestivităţii pe care încercam să o făuresc şi să o depăşesc totodată.

Condamnându-mă la o sentinţă mult prea dură, conform găsirilor şi contrazicerilor filozofice, ştiinţifice, dogmatice, culturale şi religioase din vremurile trecute, pentru care un artist şi-ar pune lesne întrebarea: "Care este trăsătura distinctă a realismului dacă unicul scop rămâne semnalarea unei perceperi vizuale a lucrurilor şi evenimentelor, fără a băga de seamă partea lor negativă?" , obţineam impresia pregnantă de gri. Pe care acum am vrut s-o împărtăşesc cu voi.

Leadership: Poți să te pui în ipostaza unor scurte evadări din peisajul viziunii asupra lumii, comparând ceea ce ştii din perspectiva a ceva în care eşti şi nu eşti?

Iată, spre exemplu, care era gândirea secolului lui Victor Hugo, amăgitoare pe alocuri, făcându-mă să cred că toate au o explicaţie, dar nu tocmai una uşor de acceptat:

Umblând nesigur cu cheia a ceea ce am constatat pe drumul întoarcerii în veacuri, zadarnic al celui din urmă accept de reînnoire cugetătoare, mi-am continuat efortul de aflare al adevărurilor uitate. Cu singura menţiune că potrivirea lucrurilor şi concepţiilor în ecuaţia propriei fiinţe, în mijlocul unei vieţi confortabile de om care stăpâneşte arta de a descoperi şi de a schimba înţelesurile, prin tot ceea ce spun astăzi, va fi scos din contextul analizei zilei de mâine. E mai bine să uiţi trecutul decât să-ţi aminteşti de el, dacă vrei să trăieşti prezentul. Asta este înţelepciunea mea.

"Ceva în care eşti şi nu eşti" se traduce prin efortul de a-ţi însuşi o viziune de reînnoire a lumii tale interioare prin conştientizarea faptului că această lume poate să devină punctul central al unei istorisiri care te poartă spre alte lumi - a marilor creatori.

Pentru o mai bună lămurire a considerentelor perceperii mele în limitele unei cunoaşteri din care lipsește experiența, dar persistă acea doză de înţelegere şi de acceptare a unor puncte de vedere străine, bine argumentate, este nevoie de o comparație cu ceea ce știu deja din perspectiva a ceva ce sunt sau nu sunt. Sau din perspectiva a ceea ce am sau nu am.

În leadership, asta se traduce prin a construi certitudini pe suportul unor așteptări diversificate: optimiste sau pesimiste.

Leadershipul este o extindere a experienţei de a afla ceva adevărat, de care la fel de bine te poți îndoi, pozitiv sau negativ, dar din care rezidă o anumită înțelepciune - o sumă de percepţii care, întărite prin repetiţie, devin constante definitorii şi creează astfel tipologia unei personalităţi distincte.

Însă potrivirea anumitor percepţii, argumente și concepţii în ecuaţia propriei ființe, fără o implicare directă în acțiunea realităţii, adică atunci când staţionezi mai mult decât este necesar înăuntrul unei lumi în care nu te recunoști, duce spre un rezultat total neinspirat care determină izolarea ta. Cu cât afli mai multe, cu atât dezorientarea este mai mare şi cu atât devii mai aspru în a judeca.

Înţelepciunea care apare în istorisirea unei creaţii este o extindere a experienţei de a afla ceva adevărat, de care la fel de bine te poți îndoi, cu menţiunea faptului că tot ceea ce te înconjoară exista o dată cu tine într-un joc jucat cu realitatea.

Asta înseamnă să fii artist

Un artist adevărat îşi oglindeşte înalta expresie a sufletului în generarea unei creații ce are puterea să-i transforme destinul într-o personificare a splendorii naturii.

Trandafirul este manifestarea în artă a propriei mele existenţe, dar numai atunci când îmi ghidez existenţa sensibilă, plină de emoţie şi de imaginaţie, după expresia unei anume logici interioare ce urmează forma de devoţiune faţă de valoarea unei clipe trăite în lumina creaţiei avangardiste. Spirit de prim rang artistic, trandafirul înfăţişează caracterul şi expresia specifică culorilor din care se hrăneşte sufletul viu al unei opere de artă zămislită dincolo de compromisurile morale, dincolo de raporturile cu mediul, dincolo de orice metafizică a esenţelor preţioase, a parfumurilor de lux şi a explicaţiilor transcendentale.

Evident, între mine şi trandafir există o simţire de mare puritate, o apropiere autentică de fenomenul artistic, o corespondenţă perfectă între limbajul plastic şi acel spaţiu de graniţă între text şi realitate. Încât tot ceea ce m-a îndemnat spiritului Lui să scriu aici, cu chibzuinţă, cu multă admiraţie pentru înălţimea expresiei, devine semnul unei dăruiri complete a sinelui într-un univers metafizic care transcende forma şi alchimizează substanţa, ca s-o trimită înapoi în fluxul Vieții Universale.

Aici intervine raportul de asemănare cu luciditatea unui alt artist al cuvintelor. Fiindcă tot ce spun acum despre trandafir, prin corespondenţa dintre interioritate şi subiectivitate, a fost bine redat de scriitorul Paul Auster în romanul "Trilogia New York-ului":

"Acea cunoaştere m-a transformat, cred eu, şi m-a făcut să mă simt mai uman. Aparţinându-i Lui, am început să mă simt de parcă nu aş fi aparţinut tuturor celorlalţi. S-a dovedit astfel că locul meu în lume era dincolo de mine însumi, iar dacă acel loc se afla în mine, era la fel de imposibil de localizat. Era spaţiul minuscul dintre Ego şi Non-Ego, iar pentru prima oară în viaţă am privit acest nicăieri ca fiind centrul precis al lumii. Şi a venit apoi ziua când arta mi-a dominat instinctele de creator, permiţându-mi să le împing spre limite inimaginabile."

Leadership: Eşti în stare să duci măcar una formele arhetipale ale naturii la rangul de imagine originară, desăvârşită şi sublimă, printr-o abordare a realităţii aflate la limita dintre figurativ şi nonfigurativ?

Se vede că trandafirul, abia îmbobocit ieri, îmi prevede o afinitate suplimentară pentru conştiinţa unei fiinţe impregnată cu imaginaţie instantanee, deschisă sublimului unei scriituri greu de uitat. Cumva, el mă completează necondiţionat, lăudabil, în chip firesc, prin prezenţa vie a unui sâmbure de creaţie determinist, narativ, pe care, dacă l-aş considera o iscodire a semnificaţiilor purtate de culori, mi-ar fi mai uşor să înţeleg importanţa simbolismului divin, sensibil, multidimensional, sincretic, necesar cunoaşterii fenomenelor de transformare a legilor artei în legi ale sufletului.

Foarte adevărat. Orice artist talentat este sămânţa de înaltă expresivitate a unui trandafir care îl pune în necontenită apropiere atât cu el însuşi, cât şi cu lumea creaţiei universale în sânul căreia se înfruntă şi se împacă forţele antagoniste ale spiritualului şi materialului, în orice caz, adăpostind versiunea simbolului divin care transcende timpul, aparenţele, graniţele realităţii.

Cu nespusă consideraţie, in concreto , am acceptat din mers această cunoaştere a artiştilor preocupaţi de latura metafizică a unei lumi iinfluenţate de devenirea simbolică, considerând necesară integrarea artei în viaţa mea ca pe o izbăvire promisă în faţa păcatului de a nu fi ascultat când a trebuit de legile blânde ale creaţiei şi progresului. Şi cred că aici îşi face loc chemarea divină a artistului care, cu tenacitate şi migală, a învăţat să contemple din exterior frumuseţea ascunsă în lucrurile simple, în cele mai mărunte detalii, în fiecare suflet care doreşte să se apropie de al său.

Aşa este când îţi iei în primire rolul unui artist condus de sacralitatea asociată trandafirului. Este ca şi când a trăi experienţa unui joc de lumini şi umbre ce se poate rejuca la nesfârşit cu lumi şi Quest-uri generate aleator printr-o abordare peisagistică aflată la limita dintre figurativ şi nonfigurativ, între ceea ce se simte şi ceea ce se poate face, între ceea ce se vede cu ochiul liber și ceea ce ține de partea metafizică a existenței mele.

Lui Dumnezeu i-au plăcut întotdeauna trandafirii. Cel mai mult.

Leadership: Care este maximul expresiei unei inspiraţii artistice care promovează ideea unei opere create după modele deja existente în natură, în conformitate cu caracterul de întreg prin care se distinge partea esenţială a sinelui tău?

Da, accept acest aspect ca un fel de schimb de suflete între două individualități reciproc conștientizate, ca posibilitate optimă pentru personalizarea unei gândiri de revelaţie supranaturală în care se particularizează și se conștientizează preocuparea pentru cunoașterea naturii ce trebuie lăsată să evolueze în continuare. Trandafirul, de înaltă ţinută poetică, îmbibat într-o pânză fină cu sudoarea unor eforturi sisifice de creaţie, înmiresmat cu lumina unei stele licărind în slow-motion, s-a integrat uşor în opera mea de artă, l-a fel cum eu mi-am integrat cu bine efigia proiecţiilor simbolice în armonia şi puritatea naturii.

Aşadar, cred că maximul expresiei unei inspiraţii artistice ce promovează ideea unei opere create după modele deja existente în natură, prin intermediul raportului dintre aspectul empiric şi aspectul original al eului, este sentimentul empatiei strict raportat la cunoaşterea artistic-estetică (necesitatea unei semnificaţii care trebuie să fie expresivă).

Şi iată ce s-a întâmplat. Mi-am petrecut toată dimineaţa vorbim cu un trandafir Double Delight , fără să ştiu ce este tendinţa spre unitate sau tendinţele de diferenţiere care pot fi în conflict cu Eul empiric al artistului din mine. Am vorbit la fel ca unui prieten, liber, degajat, cu nuanţă lăuntrică, dialogul constând într-un soi de concomitenţă între atitudinea estetică străbătută de sentimentul deja-vu şi gradul înalt de spiritualitate al unei simțiri care, de multe ori, te lasă fără cuvinte.

Mi-am dat seama că sunt asemenea trandafirului. Am realizat că sunt simbolul conectării unor lumi de dincolo de realitatea exterioară, puntea dintre ele fiind o juxtapunere a „două realități îndepărtate" unite pentru a crea o realitate nouă. Acum ştiu de ce trăiesc prin graţia divină, ca să trăiesc mai mult prin vraja însufleţirii unei alterităţi familiare ca spirit, decât prin alegere sau prin întâmplare. Asta înseamnă să fii artist. Un artist cu mare putere de semnificaţie.

Părţii esenţiale a sinelui meu i se poate conferi un caracter de întreg atunci când îmbunătăţirea semnificativă a percepţiei asupra desăvârşirii "Operei de Artă" are ca punct de referinţă creşterea sensibilităţii la stimulii de natură externă, proveniți din mediul înconjurător.

Asta înseamnă să fii artist, să faci în aşa fel încât din exprimarea sinelui tău să rezulte imaginea unei opere de artă cu rezoluție înaltă, capabilă să reveleze profunzimea unor teme de compoziţie, declanşatoare ale unor noi orizonturi de cunoaştere, prin intermediul metaforelor și personajelor fictive.

Așteptarea unei schimbări poate eroda spiritul

Bătălia pe care o porți zi de zi cu tine se poate transforma într-un motiv de mândrie, fiind percepută ca o întărire a caracterului tău dacă ai viziunea unei realități transcendente.

O viaţă searbădă - n-o poţi arunca aşa, ca pe-o cartuşieră golită ! Mai e încă destul de bună ca să lupţi cu ea, cândva veni vremea şi când va fi nevoie. Nu din motive personale, nici chiar din răzbunare, nici din egoism, şi nici din motive altruiste, totuşi e atât de mult pentru tine să întorci roata, pentru a împinge lumea dincolo de sânge şi de sfărâmături - pentru nici un alt motiv în afară de luptă, lupta continuă, şi să aştepţi posibilitatea de a lupta până la ultima răsuflare. Dar aşteptarea te macină şi poate fi fără speranţă, şi la asta se adaugă teama nemărturisită că, atunci când va veni în sfârşit vremea, vei fi prea zdrobit, prea ros, prea inert de atâta aşteptare, prea obosit ca să poţi merge împreună cu ceilalţi.

Nu e acesta motivul pentru care cufunzi în uitare orice lucru ce-ţi poate aţâţa nervii, desfiinţându-l, definitiv şi pe nesimţite, cu ironie, sarcasm şi chiar contra-sentimentalitate, cu evadarea într-o altă fiinţă omenească, într-un eu străin? Până când să ajungi în starea asta, neputinţa brutală are să revină în timp ce te laşi în voia somnului şi-a fantomelor.

Luna rotundă se strecura prin traversa de la fereastră. Nu mai era aidoma unei chemări crucificate, ci unui voyageur, gras şi obscen, privind indiscret în camere şi prin paturi. Ravic era acum pe deplin conştient. Acesta fusese un vis relativ nevinovat. Avusese şi altele.

Leadership: Crezi că valoarea vieții tale, chiar și lipsită de un scop personal sau altruist, te poate ghida în efortul continuu de a schimba lumea, conform unei viziuni care se deschide dincolo de durere și distrugere?

Într-o viață care pare uneori fără rost, nu o putem abandona ca pe un obiect inutil. Ea încă deține valoare suficientă pentru a ne servi în bătălii viitoare, chiar și fără un motiv personal sau altruist. Lupta continuă, fiind un efort constant pentru a schimba lumea, pentru a o împinge dincolo de durere și distrugere, fără alt scop decât lupta în sine și speranța de a continua această luptă până la ultima suflare. Însă așteptarea aceasta ne macină, adesea părând fără speranță, amplificând temeri nespuse care ne zdrobesc sub greutatea lor. Ne face să ne retragem în noi înșine, să ne protejăm cu ironie și sarcasm, și să ne refugiem într-o identitate străină pentru a evita confruntarea cu neputința.

În această retragere, spectrul singurătății și al izolării devine mai palpabil, asemenea lunii pline care se strecoară prin fereastra deschisă. Această lumină nu mai este un semnal de alarmă, ci mai degrabă o prezență invazivă și grotescă, care spionează indiscret spațiile intime ale vieții. În aceste momente de luciditate sporadică, Ravic își amintește de visele sale, unele mai nevinovate decât altele, toate însă mărturii ale luptei interne și ale durerii care refuză să părăsească umbra sufletului său.

Prin leadership se considera că fiecare încercare de a împinge lumea dincolo de durere și distrugere este de fapt o reprezentare vizuală a luptei interne și a aspirației spre un ideal mai înalt.

Așteptarea unei schimbări poate eroda spiritul, transformând speranța într-o povară greu de suportat. Să nu uităm că, deseori, conștientizarea realității poate veni în momente neașteptate, adesea în urma unui vis aparent nevinovat. Iar schimbarea perspectivelor asupra vieții poate fi atât o eliberare, cât și o nouă formă de captivitate, în funcție de împrejurări și de starea interioară.

Astrul strălucitor şi muritorul de rând

Răspunde cerinţei ştiinţei de a contribui la promovarea unei înţelegeri imaginative, reconfigurând acele componente ale formării tale care se întipăresc în traseul devenirii.

Nu ştiam ce să cred. Era acolo o enigmă pe care nu reuşeam să mi-o explic, în genul unei utopii care provoacă o adevărată dispută între cer şi pământ, între un astru strălucitor şi un muritor de rând. Ea trimitea tot jocul definirii cerinţelor necesare operării proceselor de gândire spre formularea unor idei altfel justificabile sau chiar redutabile ca idealuri de urmat.

Idei care, după cum ar pretinde proprietarul unei aspiraţii irepresibile către puritatea şi libertatea înţelepciunii, un artist al lumii trecătoare, nu izvorăsc din realitate, ci sub efectul unei permutări imaginative ale punctelor de interacţiune dintr-un fenomen complex, variabil cu factorul cercetat. Idei provocate prin micile explozii ale "hidrogenului ştiinţific" care arde, dar care nu întreţine flacăra. Eram parcă asemenea unui iluzionist care îşi ascunde identitatea în jocul sensurilor şi non-sensurilor unei magii captivante ce-şi cuprinde provocările în canoanele ştiinţifice, doar pentru a supravietui intr-o lume complexa.

Flacăra era mai mult o experienţă personală, o consultare cu mine însumi, o provocare directă adusă necunoscutului din cunoscut, existentului din non-existent. Victor Hugo spunea mai bine despre această flacără arzătoare:

"Geniul, care ghiceşte mai curând decât învaţă, extrage, pentru fiecare lucrare în parte, legile generale din ordinea firească a lucrurilor, pe cele speciale din ansamblul izolat al subiectului de care se ocupă. Nu după metodele chimistului care aprinde cuptorul, suflă din foale, încinge creuzetul, analizează şi distruge. Ci în felul albinei care zboară cu aripile-i de aur, se aşează pe fiecare floare şi-i fură mierea fără ca învelişul ei să piardă din strălucire, fără ca petalele să-şi piardă parfumul."

Leadership: Procesul tău de formare predomină sub infinita varietate a permutărilor imaginative extrase dintr-o dublă perspectivă care sugerează un nou stil de integrare a cunoştinţelor într-un program de genialitate?

Procesul de formare a genialităţii predomină sub infinită varietate a permutărilor imaginative extrase dintr-o dublă perspectivă: a faptelor de dincolo de granițele determinismului care duc la cunoaştere şi a probelor de relevanţă a valorii personale efectuate de instanţă unui obiect numit "Word".

Genialitatea este calitatea produsului obţinut în urma combinării ideilor care pot structura un plan simplu sau dezvoltat prin dialog cu un partener nevăzut care nu este disponibil decât în varianta unei lecţii de conversaţie pe tema "Sorry seems the hardest word". Aşadar, genialitatea depinde de instanţa unui obiect numit "Word", care dacă este aşezat într-o ordine anume, într-un plan precis de proiectie a viziunii sub incidenţa împrejurărilor istorice, sociale și culturale, poate să scoată la iveală un adevăr care să vizeze plenar Cunoaşterea şi care să preocupe pe toată lumea.

Aş vrea să cred că un om se poate forma ca lider în spiritul genialităţii atunci când tot ceea ce-l înconjoară capătă semnificaţia de acces la un nou nivel de înţelegere şi control asupra promovării unui nou model de abordare a realităţii. Tot ceea ce cunoşti este de fapt o vedere de ansamblu asupra lucrurilor mărunte pe care le aduni cu ajutorul imaginaţiei într-o singură formă de expresie, de artă, de limbaj, înaintea unui plan care taie coordonatele unei concepţii unitare în punctele de acumulare şi de susţinere ale unui domeniu de larg interes.

Leadershipul este genialitatea cu care tratezi orice lucru, orice activitate orice situaţie, adiacent sentimentului că ai putea muta munţii din loc pentru a obţine o nouă versiune a propriei fiinţe şi o înaltă popularizare a ştiinţei pe care ţi-ai însuşit-o.

Locul în care leadershipul prinde formă, oricât de originale sau viguroase ar fi ramificaţiile sale pentru cunoaştere şi descoperire, de lungimi şi puteri diferite, sub infinita varietate a ideilor şi permutărilor imaginative, se află acolo unde eşti tu, acolo unde nimeni nu s-ar aştepta. La intersecţia dintre genialitate şi virtuozitate, între întuneric şi lumină, între cer şi pământ, între excepţional şi derizoriu.

Leadershipul este o negociere între două părţi care sunt interesate de preţ, una gata să accepte ceea ce i se oferă, cealaltă gata să dea cât i se cere. Prima stă sub semnul particularului, posedând o infinită ambiguitate. Cea de a doua sub semnul generalului şi univocităţii. Preţul fiind acea parte complexă din procesul de gândire care modifică structura personalităţii, plătit în prezent şi îndreptat spre viitor, ca reacţie a exploziei cunoaşterii care din punctul de vedere al tratării ştiinţifice vădeşte o mână de maestru, un dram de geniu.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asiguri statutul de "Om Nou" format după criteriile genialităţii în lumina modurilor de abordare a ideilor care pot fi percepute ca mecanisme diferite de interpretare a realităţii pe care ţi-o oferă experienţa de a defini Marea Ştiinţă?

La liderul nou format după criteriile genialităţii, uneori coborând pe panta alunecoasă a dezordinii şi a conflictelor interioare care-i zădărnicesc eforturile de a-şi apăra şi întări "strălucirea", vom găsi din plin acel tip de combustibil arzător, cu tendinţă de transformare, acea flacără care contribuie la armonizarea puterilor cedate de ştiinţă în scopul elaborării unor modele de "preţ" individuale care să se adapteze la cererile presante ale devenirii.

Genialitatea are la bază aspirația către puritatea formei, arta de a reda viața organică a materiei și a o transfigura, ghicind mai curând decât a învăţa acele coordonate ale punctelor de sprijin care, cu elanul inimii şi preferinţa pentru observaţie, pot împreună cu experienţa personală pot să sădească noi idealuri în pământul promiţător al viitorului. O consultare cu tine însuţi, o provocare directă adusă necunoscutului din cunoscut, este singura obligaţie pe care o ai faţă de leadership spre posibilitatea creării şi menţinerii legăturii dintre unitatea interioară şi realitatea exterioară.

Reprezentările pe care le generezi despre realitate, necesare operării proceselor de gândire în formularea unor idei inovatoare, servesc la creşterea şanselor de a accede la un nivel superior în ceea ce priveşte înțelegerea și stăpânirea factorilor determinanţi ai unei evoluţii viitoare. Marea Ştiinţă este traseul pe care îl străbaţi de la idee la faptă şi de la faptă la răsplată, în ceea ce priveşte atingerea unui ideal înalt de natură spirituală.

Componentele de bază ale formării tale care se întipăresc în traseul devenirii unui "Om Nou" pot fi următoarele: generarea acelor experienţe sufleteşti care rămân neschimbate în facultatea minţii de reprezentare analitică a realităţii şi trăirea acelor experienţe de aprofundare a cunoştinţelor într-o formă avansată.

Astrul strălucitor şi muritorul de rând desemnează legătura dintre excepţional şi derizoriu, generând valori unice în leadership printr-un soi de limbaj comun, dar tot mai complex, care modifică interacţiunile noastre cu lumea şi reprezentările pe care le avem despre realitate.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să se dezvolte spre o cunoaştere infinită, răspunde cerinţei ştiinţei de a contribui la promovarea unei înţelegeri imaginative, reconfigurând acele componente ale formării tale care se întipăresc în traseul devenirii.

Atingerea delicată de dincolo de gratii

Măsoară-ţi forţa de influenţă, fără să împingi forţele celorlalţi dincolo de limita lor de rezistenţă.

Înspăimântătoarea făptură, ţinută închisă ca să nu poată scăpa, avea puterea de a-şi hipnotiza victimele, de a le atrage cu forţa sa demonică până la limita lor de rezistenţă psihică, într-un cerc al căror bariere să nu le poată depăşi niciodată. Ca şi cum ar fi fost însemnată printr-o magie necunoscută, ieşită de sub control şi înzestrată cu puterea de a controla elementele, oamenii, emoţiile şi stările lor.

Totuşi, în acest moment, agentul FBI, Clarice Starling, nu-l mai priveşte pe Hannibal Lecter cu un amestec de fascinaţie şi teamă, ca la început. Ci cu o căutătură flămândă, cu dorinţa de a se folosi de el, de a-i lua dosarul în care erau incluse toate datele privitoare la cazul ucigaşul în serie, cunoscut ca Buffalo Bill. Dar Hannibal în continuare îi testează tinerei studente voinţa şi nervii.

Clarice rămâne descumpănită. Lăcrimând, nu-şi mai găseşte decât cu greu cuvintele. Mai are puterea să-l implore o singură dată. " Please, tell me his name doctor ! Please ! "

Această staţionare în neant începe să devină exasperantă, provocând mai degrabă o experienţă mentală care fluctuează în jurul unei valori de dezechilibru. Moleculele care absorb energie regenerabilă şi care îmbunătăţesc circulaţia sângelui spre creier, se blochează brusc. De parcă o substanţă oxidată s-ar fi depus pe artere, privând creierul de nutrienţii esenţiali necesari într-un moment de maximă activitate. Clarice rămâne nemişcată ca o stană de piatră.

Leadership: Îţi poţi asuma destinul unei fiinţe care nu se manifestă în străfundul sufletului decât sub forma unui pericol resimţit ca asumare a unei misiuni care îi poate oferi posibilitatea de a-şi valorifica potenţialul într-o evoluţie plină de graţie?

Abia reuşesc oamenii legii s-o mobilizeze şi s-o escorteze spre ieşirea din camera în care se afla cuşca monstrului. Când deodată, din spatele gratiilor, Hannibal insistă: " Uite-ţi dosarul, Clarice ! ". Femeia se smuceşte din mâinile poliţiştilor, se apropie de cuşca monstrului şi întinde mâna spre dosarul pe care acesta îl împinge printre gratii.

Şi în acest moment se întâmplă ! O atingere atât de delicată, şi atât de însemnată. Are loc o hipersensibilizare a simţurilor, care nu duce la o anume condiţionare, ci determină procesul de aliniere între două realităţi. Două firi total diferite se contopesc într-o secundă decisivă, dezvoltând o forţă cu intensitate extrem de mare. Pentru prima oară produsul a doua energii opuse vibrează pe aceeaşi frecvenţă şi intră în rezonanţă.

Această atingere bine gândită a lui Hannibal, această stăpânire de sine însoţită de o mare naturaleţe, această prezenţă de spirit care garantează apropierea de om, să fie oare semnul unei răzvrătiri a sinelui? Sau o slăbiciune a lui care naşte nenumărate posibilităţi de a se reinventa? Sau o eroare pe deplin explicabilă psihologic şi chiar verosimilă la o făptură care percepe lucrurile mult mai fin?

Leadership: Spațiul tău de manevră este situat dincolo de limita subtilităţii în felul de a-ţi manifesta puterea şi autoritatea, în sensul sentimentului extraordinar al mândriei de a purta în suflet compasiunea pentru durerea din sufletul celorlalţi?

Durerea din sufletul lui Clarice nu era strâns legată de eventualitatea unui eşec în cazul FBI, ci de imaginea victimei supusă cruzimii de care dădea dovadă criminalul, cunoscut ca Buffolo Bill. Trebuia să se grăbească, trebuia să-l găsească cu orice chip înainte de a-şi ucide victima. Iar Hannibal Lecter era singurul care o putea ajuta, informaţiile necesare prinderii criminalului se aflau în acel dosar.

Clarice avea durerea, Hannibal avea leacul durerii, dar totodată el era stăpânit de dorinţa de a simţi freamătul unui suflu de viaţă cuprins de disperare, voia să atingă învelişul fiinţe umane plină de emoţii, spre a se ragasi pe sine într-o altă persoană. Când i-a atins mâna lui Clarice s-a creat un fel de contopire a două lumi distincte într-una singură, binele şi răul într-un mic univers, un spaţiu ideal de siguranţă psihologică care pentru până atunci era necunoscut în esența lui.

Haideţi să construim o sferă nouă a înţelegerii modului de funcţionare a leadershipului dincolo de limitele obişnuite ale minţii umane, din manifestările pe care indivizii le generează, pe care le condamnă sau pe care le judecă.

Nu e vorba aici despre niciun fel de agresiune sau abatere de la norme din partea liderului care apelează la superioritatea ştiinţei sale pentru a-şi exercita influenţa, pornind în prealabil de la ideea că tot ceea ce poate fi identificat, poate fi apoi determinat şi fixat. Ci este vorba despre posibilitatea de a distinge, cu ajutorul diferitelor manevre de "încercuire" şi intimidare, până la un anumit nivel, o faţă umană greu detectabilă, mai ales de a sesiza acele caracteristici cheie care scapă tentativelor obişnuite de analiză.

Întreg spațiu de manevră al liderului se va situa dincolo de limita subtilităţii în felul de a-şi manifesta puterea şi autoritatea, numai atunci când va reuşi să identifice exact capacităţile pe care le ascunde natura umană în diferite momente.

Spre deosebire de strategia de dezvoltare, care treptat realizează condiţii pentru creşterea randamentului şi productivităţii, liderul trebuie să fie în măsură ca în decursul câtorva mutări să pună în valoare o superioritate obiectivă care să nu lase loc nici celei mai palide îndoieli. Şi care, totodată, să-i pună pe ceilalţi oameni într-o poziţie favorabilă de a se uni cu el.

Leadership: La ce nivel de profunzime se asociază cele două părţi distincte ale universului tău, prin asociaţie cu rafinamentul unui compozitor care încearcă să atingă toate laturile emoţionale ale fiinţei?

Tind să cred că în viitor, cu precădere, liderul iscusit se va folosi de ajutorul diferitelor reprezentări a modelelor de indivizi, comparative cu modelul său de a fi, alături de celelalte mijloace informaţionale moderne, pentru a putea mai uşor să le testeze acestora limitele la care vor şi pot să se raporteze.

Punând profilul psihologic al indivizilor în prim plan, şi comparându-l cu propriul său profil, deci prin contopirea caracteristicilor comune, liderul va putea determina procesul de aliniere între două realităţi. Astfel, două energii opuse vor putea intra în rezonanţă, ceea ce se traduce prin faptul că toţi cei care păstrează acelaşi tip de gândire concomitentă vor reuşi mai uşor să realizeze schimbări mari.

Liderii a căror capacitate de apreciere a "conţinutului" uman nu poate fi pusă la îndoială, prezentând un interes deosebit pentru analiza efectuată pe profilul individual, vor reuşi mai uşor să obţină răspunsuri şi rezultate "neforţate" din partea celorlalţi oameni. De aceea asocierea profundă dintre cele două părţi distincte: liderul – individul obişnuit, poate să favorizeze o deschidere mai mare dacă se realizează la nivel de normalitate, în jurul unei mentalităţii necondiţionate şi nevictimizate, orientate către implicare şi acţiune.

Cele două părţi distincte ale universului tău, binele şi răul, se pot asocia la nivel de profunzime în a descrifra anumite regularităţi sau preferinţe în manifestarea caracterului uman printr-o afinitate ridicată a sentimentelor faţă de evenimentele nefavorabile trăite cu mare intensitate.

Rafinamentul unui compozitor care încearcă să atingă toate laturile emoţionale ale fiinţei se poate observa în detaliile de ordin psihologic îmbinate armonios într-un spațiu special conceput pentru redarea unor evenimente memorabile care întreţin viaţa filozofică şi sociologică a marilor exploratori ai conştiinţei umane.

Atingerea delicată de dincolo de gratii aduce în prim plan sincronizarea dintre diferite tipuri umane, asemănătoare şi totuşi diferite. Unirea energiilor benefice într-una cu o forţă mobilizatoare uriaşă. Dacă vrei ca relaţia ta cu oamenii să fie una perfectă, măsoară-ţi forţa de influenţă fără să împingi forţele celorlalţi dincolo de limita lor de rezistenţă.

Atragi clienţii ca un magnet?

On Aprilie 12, 2009

Încearcă să dai valoare produsului tău prin ceea ce ştii că va deveni, lăsând o impresie de neuitat prin amplasamentul lui într-un perimetru delimitat de expunerea rezultată din experienţa "consumului" său.

Ce s-ar întâmpla dacă după multe experimente şi cercetări ai inventa un echipament eficient pentru industria automobilelor? Probabil, mai întâi de toate vei împrumuta nişte bani de la bancă, de la prieteni sau de la diverşi investitori pentru a-ţi deschide o mică fabrică care să producă echipamentul pe care l-ai inventat şi care a fost testat şi a primit avizul de fabricare. Apoi îţi vei face cunoscut produsul peste tot în lume prin intermediul reclamelor difuzate pe posturile de televiziune sau pe internet. Dacă ai noroc, în cel mai scurt timp vânzările vor creşte spectaculos, vei deveni celebru şi bogat.

Însă acum vine partea cea mai interesantă. Fiindcă au investit milioane de euro în găsirea unui echipament similar şi nu au ajuns la niciun rezultat concret, firmele concurente existente pe piaţă vor face tot posibilul să-ţi pună cât mai multe beţe în roate, să te discrediteze şi să-ţi zdrobească imaginea. Întrebarea pe care ţi-o adresez este: clienţii vor mai apela la serviciile tale? Vor mai cumpăra oare echipamentul pe care l-ai inventat după ce te-ai ales cu o reclamă negativă?

Da, vor cumpăra, şi încă hotărât. De ce? Pentru că echipamentul este mult mai performant decât altele existente pe piaţă, pentru că preţul este mai accesibil, pentru că designul este mai bine realizat, pentru că condiţiile de livrare sunt foarte avantajoase, etc.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o atribui produsului tău corespunde cu redefinirea zonei sale de aplicabilitate într-o situaţie reală sau de simulare a producerii de valoare adăugată?

Zona de aplicabilitate a unui produs poate fi redefinită într-o situaţie reală a producerii de valoare adăugată atunci când percepţia cumpărătorului privitoare la calitatea superioară a produsului este rezultatul imediat al unei stări de bucurie inexprimabilă, ca reacţie la îndeplinirea unei dorinţe singulare.

Sau, aceeaşi zonă de aplicabilitate a unui produs poate fi redefinită într-o situaţie de simulare a producerii de valoare adăugată atunci când există posibilitatea unei confuzii privind garanţia, actualitatea, acurateţea şi detaliile comerciale specifice campaniei promoţionale. Iar când există posibilitatea unei omisiuni direct imputabile producătorului, plata se reduce sau se anulează, parțial.

Totul ar fi mult mai simplu dacă am reuşi să ne facem primii cunoscute pe piaţă serviciile de calitate.

Se pare că pe orice piaţă unde primează calitatea serviciilor, cei mai câştigaţi întreprinzători sunt aceia care ocupă locul cel mai favorabil într-o anumită ramură de activitate, care se implică activ în satisfacerea cu promptitudine şi profesionalism a cerinţelor şi aşteptărilor clienţilor. Dacă lupţi pentru afirmare şi doreşti să atragi succesul într-un domeniu în care concurenţa este acerbă, atunci trebuie să-ţi dai tot interesul să fii cel mai bun.

Leadership: Produsul pe care îl promovezi este rezultatul involuntar al unei erori de percepţie şi de reproducere a unei imagini care invită la extragerea unei concluzii sumbre privitoare la amplasamentul său?

Cel mai important lucru pe care trebuie să-l faci este să găseşti o metodă prin care să-i determini pe clienţi să depindă de produsul sau de serviciile tale. Acest lucru este posibil doar dacă reuşeşti să vii primul în întâmpinarea nevoilor lor cu o soluţie eficientă pe care să o vinzi apoi sub formă de produs sau serviciu. Asemenea unui magnet care atrage pilitura de fier, tu trebuie să-i atragi pe clienţi servindu-le ceea ce îşi doresc şi să-i determini să revină la tine.

Indiferent cât de neloială ar fi concurenţa, dacă devii un maestru în domeniul tău de activitate şi reuşeşti să creezi produse şi servicii indispensabile pentru clienţi, nu vei avea motive de îngrijorare. La fel cum la un medic care a dobândit faima de a vindeca orice boală apelează tot mai mulţi pacienţi, şi la serviciile tale vor apela mai mulţi clienţi dacă îţi creezi o reputaţie de invidiat, dacă oferi produse şi servicii de calitate superioară.

Înainte de a face pasul cel mare întreabă-te mai întâi dacă serviciile şi produsele pe care le oferă compania ta rezolvă problema cuiva. Apoi fă tot posibilul să îţi îmbunătăţeşti serviciile şi produsele pentru a satisface exigenţele tot mai mari ale clienţilor. Preocuparea ta trebuie să fie aceea de a oferi servicii şi produse atât de bune, de ieftine şi de necesare, încât tot mai mulţi clienţi să apeleze la compania ta.

Întrebare: Locaţia unui produs poate influenţa în mod direct impactul asupra cumpărătorilor atunci când produsul este evaluat în momentul încetării definitive a utilizării sale?

Autenticitatea omului care se gândeşte pe sine

On Martie 15, 2020

Fii un exemplu de gândire pentru gândirea ta, nu gândirea pe care ţi-o oferă exemplul de gândire al altora.

Mi-a plăcut extrem de mult personalitatea tânărului scriitor Wilhelm Hauff, nu datorită originii sale umile care i-a dat un avânt creativ nemaipomenit, renunţând la o carieră în preoţie, ci datorită imaginii pe care singur şi-a construit-o despre el însuşi. Este imaginea unui idealist. Unui pacifist. Unui filosof. Unui gânditor plin de conştiinţa excepţionalităţii sale. La această imagine poate contribui şi sentimentul de liniște sufletească și împlinire pe care îl ai atunci când creaţia ta devine subiectul imaginii unei noi realităţi: "Ceea ce construieşti despre tine însuţi schimbă ceea ce eşti pentru o perspectivă diferită."

Când îl citesc pe Hauff, cu multă consideraţie, cu multă emoţie, cu multă încărcătură sufletească, ca printr-un fel de chemare secretă şi îndepărtată, simt că sunt în măsură să găsesc corespondenţele simbolice ale unei tălmăciri Shakesperiene în visurile unei lumi Kafkaiene. În orice imagine, consacrată unei asemenea personalităţi, alcătuind o racordare la activitatea unor valori existenţiale (precum demnitatea, reputaţia şi integritatea), se reflectă cea mai înaltă distincţie sufletească: "Fii mulţumit cu tine însuţi ! "

Leadership: Cum percepi ideea de a-ți croi un drum prin lume cu „pana ta", într-un mod autentic, conturând o operă care să dăinuie în spiritul frumosului și binelui?

Fixând echilibrul tuturor calităţilor trebuincioase scrierii profunde, ca un remediu pentru singurătate, manifestarea personalităţii supusă procesului de interiorizare se constată în următorul fragment decupat dintr-un monolog al unui narator care meditează asupra condiției sale într-un secol zbuciumat. Numaidecât, suportul afectiv al interiorizării depinde de rezultatul direct al motivaţiei de a-şi comunica punctul de vedere vizavi de experienţa dobândită prin asimilarea individuală a Marii Cunoaşterii. Nu ţine neapărat de obţinerea succesului, ci de autenticitatea propriei poveşti, autenticitatea propriilor trăiri, autenticitatea propriei viziuni.

Iată ce scria despre el însuşi, Wilhelm Hauff, într-un scurt moment de luciditate:

"Sunt doar un biet tânăr nevoit să-şi croiască un drum prin lume cu pana sa. Aparţin tuturor, îmi aparţin mie însumi, dar nu aparţin nici unei şcoli... Nu simt deasupra mea niciun stăpân sau dascăl căruia să-i datorez supunere, în afara legilor eterne ale binelui şi frumosului, spre care tind, chiar şi aşa, într-o manieră nedesăvârşită. Se prea poate să nu fiu în stare să ţin forma departe de influenţa timpului, dar spiritul îmi va rămâne nemăsluit."

Leadership: Tratezi puterea ta de gândire ca un act de înaintare într-un "înţeles mai înalt" atribuit manifestării personalităţii tale într-un proces sublim de interiorizare?

Există două feluri de artişti: cei autentici şi cei ajutaţi să devină autentici. Primii învaţă totul singuri, de la natură, ceilalţi învaţă totul cu ajutorul altcuiva.

Aici e diferenţa. Cine învaţă totul de unul singur îşi dezvoltă propriile tipare de gândire. Cine învaţă totul de la altcineva, preia tiparele de gândire a acelui individ, chiar dacă opera sa este considerată unică prin formă, finisaj, design şi calitate.

Depăşind cadrul îngust al experienţei personale, artiştii devin mai mult decât creatori, îşi îmbogăţesc perspectiva de a vedea inima lucrurilor, frumuseţea lor ascunsă, rostul lor, latura lor diferită într-o imagine a lui "Eu Însumi". Adică faptul de a trăi viaţa în alt plan, al emoţionalităţii simbolice.

Acest "Eu însumi" este cadrul de îmbogăţire al scriitorului din experienţa unui punct de vedere situat la înălţime. De fapt, libertatea de a fi artist poate fi interpretată numai prin ecranul unui Ego alimentat dintr-o permanentă admiraţie faţă de bine şi frumos, din tot ceea ce înconjoară fiinţa sa. Este o revitalizare a sentimentului de mulţumire, de valoare, de recunoştinţă adus libertăţii de exprimare care oferă noi perspective de interpretare a realităţii trăite prin scris, printr-o reflecție prelungă asupra scrisului căruia îi dedici viața.

Autenticitatea înseamnă să nu datorezi nimănui nimic, în afară de tine însuţi.

Maestrul îşi învaţă elevul să deseneze flori. Elevul învaţă să deseneze nişte flori minunate, mai frumoase ca cele din desenele maestrului. Dar el n-ar fi putut niciodată să ajungă la artă fără un maestru care să se ţină de el. Toată opera lui se va rezuma la un punct de vedere al "Altuia" care a stat în spatele devenirii sale. Totdeauna, succesul creaţiilor sale se va datora lecţiilor oferite de maestrul său.

Din acest motiv, mă văd nevoit să cred că este mai valoros acel artist care face din el însuşi capodopera propriilor lecţii de gândire. El nu datorează nimănui nimic, în afară de bucuria rezultatelor muncii cu el însuşi. Autenticitatea înseamnă să nu datorezi nimănui nimic. Deci, nu se rezumă la a face nişte desene minunate, mai frumoase decât a altora.

Fii un exemplu de gândire pentru gândirea ta, nu gândirea pe care ţi-o oferă exemplul de gândire al altora.

Un proces de interiorizare trebuie să reflecte o parte din personalitatea creatorului în planul gândirii aşternute pe hârtie cu consistenţa unei experienţe de viaţă simple, oneste, libere, capabile să-i furnizeze Eului impresia de unitate, integralitate şi autonomie.

Autenticitatea omului care se gândeşte pe sine este dovada de mare preţuire pe care şi-o oferă un biet tânăr nevoit să-şi croiască un drum prin lume cu pana sa, care este mai mult decât un scriitor oarecare, este confesiunea unui spirit care posedă luciditatea arzătoare a personajelor sale. Este expresia unui spirit care va rămâne totdeauna nemăsluit.

Autoformarea în leadership - de la creaţie la practică

Făureşte-ţi un sine marcat de putere, un sine care se va dezvolta și se va maturiza în timp, fără a te considera mai mult decât un om simplu.

Tare mult mi-a plăcut cartea Egiptologul, scrisă de Arthur Philips. De ce mi-a plăcut? Fiindcă este o mare lecţie de istorie, plină de învăţăminte, care se păstrează şi azi în marele domeniu al leadershipului. Ilustraţiile despre care se vorbeşte în această carte nu sunt de o fidelitate impresionantă, după standardele critice ale artei occidentale, şi nici nu sunt cine ştie ce tipice pentru arta egipteană. Şi, totuşi, cât de răscolitoare sunt !

Analiză: În ciuda copilăriei mele fără griji, oamenii pe care-i admir cel mai mult pe lumea asta sunt oameni care s-au autoformat, o descriere care pare să i se potrivească şi regelui. Prin autoformare nu înţeleg oameni săraci care au ajuns bogaţi. Înţeleg, mai degrabă, acei oameni care au adunat fragmentele ce le-au fost puse la dispoziţie pe când erau copii abandonaţi sau asupriţi. Şi apoi, prin forţa clocotitoare, creativă, a propriei lor minţi, şi-au făurit un sine marcat de putere.

Aceşti oameni îşi creează identităţi care nu poartă absolut nici o urmă a moştenirii lor întunecate, nici urmă de părinţi nechibzuiţi sau de oraşe prăfuite ale copilăriei sau de fărădelegi săvârşite împotriva lor, nici urmă de privaţiuni (de bani, de afecţiune, de hrană, de prietenie), absolut nici o urmă din materialul sursă, ci în schimb o creaţie estetică şi practică, dumnezeiască în simplitatea şi în desăvârşirea ei. Simplitatea: totul vine din acest unic creier, fără influenţă părintească, fără tradiţie locală, nimic ce nu provine din însăşi mintea autocreatoare.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti forţa interioară în cursul unei auto-transformi care limitează contactul dintre ceea ce ai fost şi ceea ce ai devenit, sub amprenta unei evoluţii în care îţi stabileşti singur competenţele?

Desăvârşire: totul trebuie creat, fiecare atitudine, fiecare particularitate, fiecare credinţă şi valoare şi gest distins. Nimic moştenit nu poate fi tolerat dintr-un trecut intolerabil. Şi totuşi, paradoxală cum e lumea noastră, aceşti oameni adesea nu sunt respectaţi, în timp ce oamenii ca mine - născuţi cu dragoste, cu îndrumare, cu tot felul de avantaje - sunt. Admir, probabil cel mai mult dintre strofele sale, Catrenul 24 (Fragmentele B & C):

Ţi-l poţi imagina uşor pe tânăr compunând aceste versuri nu mult după ce-a aflat că a devenit regele Egiptului. Dar cum ţi-l poţi imagina, altfel decât conducând o armată bine echipată, cu care de război solide, numărând între 20,000-30,000 ostași care ascultă numai de ordinele sale? Ţi-l poţi imagina îndeajuns de matur şi curajos, său mult prea nepriceput în ale vieţii?

Leadership: Renunți să te mulțumești cu aspectele superficiale ale vieții și încerci să scoți lumina din interiorul tău, dincolo de superioritatea cu care îţi hrăneşti mândria de a fi un spirit independent?

Pentru a modela o realitate care nu te avantajează neapărat, deci fără a te afla sub imperiul unui talent nativ, fii atent la ceea ce te uimeşte în jur și încearcă să îţi formezi o perspectivă clară asupra imaginii pe care o construiești despre tine însuţi într-un context care îţi permite să te exprimi liber. Perspectiva clară, un concept eminamente vizual, perceptibil, te ajută să vezi lucrurile într-un mod obiectiv și să înțelegi mai bine contextul în care acționezi.

La fel cum pictorul se concentrează asupra detaliilor și compoziției pentru a crea o imagine coerentă, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi formezi o perspectivă clară asupra viziunii și valorilor tale, astfel încât să îţi poţi orienta gândirea și acțiunile spre decizii corespunzătoare care reflectă nu doar ceea ce ești acum, dar și ceea ce aspiri să devii în viitor. Încearcă să aduci claritate și direcție în procesul de modelare a realității, încearcă să vezi mai departe de aspectele superficiale ale vieții și încearcă să scoți lumina din interiorul tău.

Ştiind că fiecare etapă de dezvoltare, de la copilărie la maturitate, implică o auto-transformare în care forța clocotitoare a a propriei minți joacă un rol crucial, fereşte-te să îţi hrăneşti mintea cu idei de genul "sunt cineva, fiindcă m-am născut cineva", sub aparenţa unei viziuni nonfocalizate.

Fii sincer faţă de tine însuţi şi atunci nu mai poţi fi fals faţă de acel "cineva" care te crezi. Rămâi cât mai distant faţă de mândria de a încerca să-ţi controlezi viaţa şi vulnerabilitatea, de unul singur şi, mai ales, rămâi distant faţă de răzvrătirea de a gândi că te afli mai presus de restul lumii.

Leadershipul poate deveni un centru de forţă numai dacă eşti în stare să te ridici prin forţe proprii la standardul lui "Dumnezeu", luând în considerare faptul că uneori trebuie să renunţi la mândria de a lupta împotriva neputinței tale zadarnice.

Autoformarea în leadership - de la creaţie la practică implica schimbarea propriei persoane şi este rezultatul unei experiențe de viață unice, fără influența părinților, ceea ce arată că totul provine din tine, din puterea și potențialul tău interior. Felul cum te raportezi la realitatea provenită din absenţa părinţilor te ajută să fii responsabil pentru simplitatea și unicitatea gândirii tale, şi chiar dacă te dezvolţi sub influența părintească, în cele din urmă vei realiza că totul provine din tine însuţi, din puterea și potențialul tău interior.

Creaţia este ceea ce vine din interior, dintr-o insondabilă şi inexprimabilă profunzime, iar nu din afară, nu din necesitatea de a depăşi dezavantajele lecţiilor dure ale vieţii. Pe când practica este ceea ce duce la dezvoltarea gândirii logice, analitice și a creativității, este ceea ce aduce rezultate. Sau, cum spunea cineva: "Practica nu este ceea ce faci odată ce ești bun. Este lucrul pe care îl faci când ești extraordinar."

Avantajele implicite ale unei minţi neconformiste

Asigură calitatea cerută de standardele înalte ale unei noi forme de individualizare a construcţiei ştiinţifice, urmărind procesul de asimilare a realităţii concrete.

Eisenstein încerca realmente să realizeze în America un adevărat film american. Pentru a cunoaşte viaţa new-yorkeză, regizorul se mută în strada cea mai zgomotoasă a oraşului, într-un hotel de pe Broadway. De aici porneşte la explorarea oraşului. Ca de obicei percepe nu numai cu mintea, ci cu toate simţurile realitatea înconjurătoare. Îşi deschide toate antenele şi abia apoi filtrează lucid senzaţiile astfel înregistrate.

Urmăreşte mişcarea străzii. La prima impresie toată lumea i se pare concentrată asupra ocupaţiilor pe care le are, asupra preocupărilor multiple şi urgente care creează acest ritm intens. El urmăreşte picioarele oamenilor de pe stradă. Ritmul acesta apare agitat. Îşi mută apoi privirea pe feţele lor şi descoperă cu uimire o mare îngrijorare, o nelinişte marcată. Se concentrează asupra ochilor trecătorilor: în ei descifrează nesiguranţa. Un montaj, aşadar, involuntar, dar expresiv: picioare-faţă-ochi. Şi astfel el sesizează contradicţia unei lumi.

Urmărind procesul de asimilare a realităţii inedite, descoperite de Eisenstein, putem să surprindem şi un alt mecanism al transformării raţionale a senzaţiilor. Sunt cazurile în care experienţa imediată devine mobilul unei meditaţii teoretice asupra unor aspecte inedite. *****

Leadership: Poţi să explorezi dimensiunea conceptuală a unei arte care prezintă numeroase constrângeri, pornind de la realitatea obiectivă care te menţine în zona experienţei de observare a lumii înconjurătoare?

Experienţa imediată nu este doar mobilul unei meditaţii teoretice, ci este mai ales un instrument de investigaţie avantajos în realizarea construcţiilor ştiinţifice prin care se asigură o corelare mai bună între modele diferite de percepţie a unor aspecte şi metode viitoare de valorizare a elementelor inovatoare. Iar aceste elemente sunt posibil de aplicat în ceea ce prieşte complinirea oricăror lipsuri de natură conceptuală.

În cuvinte mai simple, nu poţi să creezi un nou concept sau un nou montaj de elemente necesare constituirii unei ştiinţe mai ample, dacă prin experienţa ta nu demonstrezi existenţa unor aspecte inedite, nesurprinse de alţii, dar care reflectă o realitate concretă. Experienţa de observare a lumii înconjurătoare seamănă cu tentativa unui artist de a crea o lucrare minunată din diverse materiale de cultură şi din ansambluri cu încărcătură simbolică, fără să aştepte un câştig material imediat, ci doar concentrându-se asupra a ceea ce-i conferă o notă de inedit şi o importanţă multiplă.

Să asiguri calitatea cerută de standardele înalte ale unei noi forme de individualizare a construcţiei ştiinţifice, filtrând lucid tendinţele, imaginile, impulsurile, emoţiile sau gândurile unei lumi din afara controlului tău, înseamnă să explorezi dimensiunea conceptuală a unei arte care prezintă numeroase constrângeri, pornind de la realitatea obiectivă.

Punându-ţi întreaga creaţie mai presus de ceea ce reflectă realitatea, întreţinută de reticenţele unei moderne lucidităţi care situează gândirea într-o sferă înaltă, specială, vei putea să te apropii mai uşor de ceea ce este esenţial în formarea unui nou stil de leadership.

Leadership: Mijloacele de investigare ce stau la baza ştiinţei tale, slujesc în egală măsură la întărirea legăturii dintre experienţă, descoperire, aplicabilitate şi modelare?

La ce nivel şi cum trebuie să acţionezi, şi ce mijloace trebuie să foloseşti pentru ca acest întreg numit "Om" să nu sufere datorită imposibilităţii de adaptare la nou?

Elementele de creare a valorii adăugate, adecvate unui context de autocunoaştere şi evoluţie, trebuiesc alese cu grijă, inventariate şi aduse la o anumită omogenitate. Asta, pentru ca puterea ta de analiză, respectiv mijloacele de investigare ce stau la baza ştiinţei tale, să slujească în egală măsură la întărirea legăturii dintre experienţă, descoperire, aplicabilitate a unor noi concepţii şi modelare a unui nou mod de acţiune.

Leadershipul este rezultatul unei înţelegeri mai ample asupra aplicabilităţii unor noi modele de gândire, coordonate de o continuă adaptare la cerinţele şi necesităţile ştiinţei. Iar această înţelegere oscilează între două fronturi. Primul, datoria de a câştiga o experienţă valoroasă în urma percepţiei lumii exterioare. Al doilea, necesitatea de a preface diversele faţete a acestei lumi într-un redutabil arsenal experimental şi implementarea unui montaj experimental pentru un prototip de "sistem de direcţie" în cadrul manifestării unei noi dimensiuni a conştiinţei.

A cunoaşte lumea prin observarea şi perceperea cursului ei coincide cu încercarea de a defini o nouă ştiinţă bazată pe relaţia dintre tot ceea ce te înconjoară raportat la existenţa reciprocă a lucrurilor unul în altul, printr-o promisiune de garantare a capacităţii de producere a unor perspective noi de abordare a creației.

Avantajele implicite ale unei minţi neconformiste aduce în prim plan acele aspecte necercetate şi uneori nesurprinse, legate de impactul asupra oamenilor, a cerinţelor de implementare a unor modalităţi de acţiune deosebite, în concordanţă cu standardele impuse de prezentul de azi, dar cu ecou în viitorul de mâine.

Avântul şoimului

Extinde-ţi orizontul dincolo de limitele tale, acţionând unitar şi în armonie cu propriile idei, aspiraţii şi convingeri.

Înzestraţi cu un simt fantastic de orientare, conştienţi de puterile lor, liderii pornesc cu mult curaj şi avânt în călătoria spre îndeplinirea ţelurilor propuse, lovindu-se deseori de dificultăţi. Dar nu bat niciodată în retragere. Şi nu se lasă niciodată influenţaţi în hotărârile lor de nimeni şi de nimic. Ci gonesc înainte fără frică, pândindu-şi neîncetat clipa de glorie. Iar atunci când ţinta lor se arată la orizont, se năpustesc ca şoimii, cu putere şi rapiditate, asupra ei.

Pentru oamenii dârzi şi hotărâţi, serioşi şi muncitori, nu există decât un singur sens de mers, o singură cale de urmat, numai înainte ! Mereu înainte ! De aceea reuşesc să înhaţe oportunităţile ce se ivesc în calea vieţii lor, de aceea reuşesc să-şi atingă întotdeauna obiectivele propuse.

Leadership: Acţiunile tale coincid sub forma unei situaţii care se contestă şi a unui angajament care se depăşeşte prin încercarea de a manipula o realitate care nu este cunoscută cu exactitate?

Cu un an înainte să reuşească traversarea Groenlandei pe schiuri, pornind de la ţărmul cel mai inabordabil, Fridtjof Nansen şi-a publicat în diverse reviste planul. Toţi exploratorii precedenţi dăduseră greş, el însă avea credinţa nestrămutată că va reuşi. Planul său a stârnit multe comentarii din partea adversarilor expediţiei, neîncrezători şi suspicioşi, care ţineau cu tot dinadinsul să-i arate că este aproape imposibil de realizat, şi că ar fi mai bine să-şi pregătească mai degrabă un plan de retragere.

Nu poţi să zbori dacă nu dai din aripi. Nansen le-a răspuns cu convingere celor care au încercat să-l descurajeze: „ Calea de retragere este un obstacol primejdios pentru cine urmăreşte să-şi atingă ţelul, deoarece pentru îndeplinirea sarcinii propuse trebuie să dai tot ce poţi, nu să pierzi timp preţios, uitându-te înapoi, când totul este să priveşti numai înainte. ”

Leadership: Cum şi cât de bine îţi poţi controla direcţia de mers în limitele normale ale raportului dintre ceea ce este prim în sine şi ceea ce este prim pentru tine?

Măsoară-ţi forţele înainte să porneşti într-o călătorie fără precedent. Ceea ce este prim în sine, acea realitate pe care nu o poţi accepta drept garanţie a datoriei de a continua cele începute cu bine, are ca prim considerent în toate acţiunile o trăsătură a situaţiei care se modifică prin liberul arbitru al omului.

Iar ceea ce este prim pentru tine are legătură cu acea cultură a compromisului făcut cu convingerea că vei învinge ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în defavoarea ta, ca pe o lecţie utilă de viaţă.

Liderii ambiţioşi ştiu să se impună şi merg întotdeauna până la capătul alegerilor lor. Cu admirabila filozofie a omului care nu crede nimic cu neputinţă, atâta timp cât pulsează de înflăcărare şi curaj, făcând totul cu pasiune, Nansen şi-a ascultat fiinţa interioară şi a pornit, pe propriile „aripi”, în călătoria în care nimeni nu-i dădea prea multe şanse de izbândă. Ceea ce pentru majoritatea oamenilor părea mai mult un motiv de îngrijorare, o curată tentativă de sinucidere, pentru el, cel cu spirit de vânător şi dorinţă mare de a câştiga, nu era decât o provocare, un prilej de a cunoaşte lumea şi de a-şi măsura forţele.

Fiind un om cu o voinţă de neclintit, care priveşte pericolul ca pe un adversar într-un duel, Nansen şi-a estimat toate şansele pe care le avea, şi-a socotit în avans toate situaţiile în care va fi pus, şi a pornit în întâmpinarea primejdiei tăindu-şi toate căile de retragere. Deplin conştient de riscul la care se expune el a mers înainte motivat de credinţa sinceră că va reuşi şi că astfel se va răspândi vestea despre el într-un fel care să-l facă memorabil.

Motivul unei lungi călătorii văzută ca şi condiție permanentă a libertăţii de gândire şi acţiune, are ca background acea trăsătură a situației de viaţă care se modifică o dată cu sfârşitul zonei tale de confort.

Nansen a posedat arta conducerii, controlând tot timpul direcţia în care s-a îndreptat, evoluând încet, dar sigur, spre propria lui măreţie. A avut curaj din plin, dar pe lângă curaj a mai avut tenacitate şi o voinţă de neînfrânt, era o forţă căreia nimic nu-i stătea în cale. S-a concentrat la maximum la ceea ce a avut de făcut demonstrând că prin voinţă totul este posibil. Şi nu numai atât. Şi-a stabilit în permanenţă scopuri noi, pornind spre noi destinaţii, experimentând astfel noi provocări şi noi dificultăţi. Iată materialul din care este făcut un lider puternic.

Dacă Nansen ar mai fi trăit, probabil ne-ar fi dat următorul sfat: „ Desfaceţi-vă aripile şi zburaţi să vă îndepliniţi ţelurile. Nu vă temeţi de nimic. Fiţi curajoşi să zburaţi cât mai sus după ce aţi învăţat să daţi din aripi. Iar aidoma unui stol de păsări călătoare care-şi urmează surata cea mai experimentată şi care se înalţă prima în zbor, veţi deveni călăuză pentru cei pe care-i conduceţi. "

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să capete valoare, învaţă de la Nansen: extinde-ţi orizontul dincolo de limitele tale, acţionând unitar şi în armonie cu propriile idei, aspiraţii şi convingeri.

Avântul ştiinţei spre o lume mai de seamă

Fii un exemplu de gândire pentru răspândirea ştiinţei, încât ştiinţa să devină o stare de spirit prin care să te protejezi împotriva oricăror influenţe descurajante ale vechilor dogme.

Acum când scriu acest articol, lumea este închisă într-un haos total datorat unei pandemii care se numeşte Covit-19. Papa de la Roma a îndemnat lumea să aibă credinţă, frumoase vorbe, dar numai pe jumătate consolatoare. În Italia, numai ieri s-au înregistrat circa 800 de decese. Mâine probabil va creşte numărul celor decedaţi. Şi asta deoarece credinţa este greşit înţeleasă. Credinţa nu înseamnă, nicidecum, să mergi la biserică, să-ţi faci cruce, să aprinzi lumânări şi să adresezi rugăciuni divinităţii. Drept dovadă, bisericile s-au închis, iar Corona Virus se răspândeşte tot mai rapid în toată lumea. Şi dacă stai să vă gândiţi mai bine, există o singură cale de scăpare: ŞTIINŢA, găsirea unui antidot.

Vă rog, rugaţi-vă ca oamenii de ştiinţă să găsească un antidot, un vaccin. Aveţi credinţă că îl vor găsi. Credinţa înseamnă ştiinţă. Este singura scăpare. Biserica a devenit un adevărat focar de infecţie. În Italia, nici măcar preoţii nu mai intră în biserici...sau deja îşi fac ultima rugăciune. Oare de ce le este atât de frică? Fiindcă şi ei sunt conştienţi că virusul nu iartă pe absolut nimeni, fiindcă însăşi virusul este un mister al naturii, şi în fiecare an sunt descoperiţi alţi noi viruşi. Tot mai mulţi, de care oamenii de ştiinţă habar nu aveau, şi de care se tem tot mai mult.

Natura e mult mai puternică decât omul, chiar dacă omul încearcă să imite forţele naturii. Numai ştiinţa poate aduce la egalitatea mintea omului şi forţa naturii.

A trebuit să trimită Dumnezeu un virus ca să înţelegem că ştiinţa e mai presus de biserică? Giordano Bruno a transmis asta chiar înainte să moară, fiind condamnat şi ars pe rug pentru concepţia lui panteistă, potrivit căreia divinitatea și natura sunt identice. A murit la ordinul cardinalului Bellarmino, care nu i-a acceptat punctul de vedere. Moartea lui este răzbunată. Anul acesta Paştele este compromis, mai sunt doar 9 zile până la celebrarea Învierii Domnului, iar Italia a înregistrat peste 16.000 de decese într-o singură lună. Deocamdată, este cel mai mare număr de decese din toată lumea.

Leadership: Modul tău de a percepe realitatea este ferm prins în planul expresiei "ştiinţa este singura scăpare", dar ireal din punct de vedere al percepţiei unei încetiniri a trendului numit "poziţie dogmatică"?

Odată cu extinderea pandemiei, omenirea va învăța să nu mai privească totul în termeni de bani, bun de consum sau distracție peste măsură. Puţini oameni ies acum din casele lor, mall-urile sunt închise, zborurile sunt anulate. A mai rămas o singură cale de recreere: INTERNETUL.

Acum, mai mult ca niciodată, oamenii vor începe să utilizeze mijloacele informaţionale şi tehnologice furnizate de World Wide Web. Chiar şi elevii din clasa a 5-a şi-au construit bloguri pe care le citesc cu regularitate profesorii lor. Toţi devenim dependenţi de internet. Poate că e un mijloc prin care natura vrea să unească mai mult ca niciodată toate minţile oamenilor într-un singur loc. Fiecare minte are acces la o altă minte, la multe alte minţi, sau la toate minţile.

Ochii vor începe să sesizeze valorile credinței adevărate precum creativitate, cumpătare și liniște. Vom da SHARE la producţiile minţii noastre, puţin câte puţin. Un gând, o idee, o trăire, o amintire. Cu timpul, privirea se va îndrepta spre informație și tehnologie, fiindcă ochii nu vor mai fi încețoșați datorită lipsei de perspective și progres. Privirea va fi imortalizată pe imaginea unei construcţii intelectuale de mari dimensiuni, ca o sferă universală, în care sunt adunate toate resursele cunoaşterii. Ochii vor vedea numai ceea ce vrea informaţia să le furnizeze din milioanele de surse existente în variante diferite. Este începutul unei noi ere.

Bătrânii mor tot mai mult în această perioadă, tocmai pentru ca tinerii să aibă teren deschis pentru a schimba definitiv vechea mentalitate.

Cine caută avere, o va pierde. Deci, începe să privești atent cu ochii în jurul tău. Cine va reuși să-și manifeste plenar potențialul și să dea lumii roadele creației sale, va câștiga o avere. Ochii larg deschiși pot cuprinde o realitate atipică, dar numai privirea pătrunzătoare poate să identifice o ordine și o arhitectură în această realitate.

Biserica îşi va pierde aproape total din influenţa pe care o avea asupra minţilor de pretutindeni, pare deja a-şi fi abandonat poziţia dogmatică într-o serie de probleme de credinţă. Omenirea va fi liberă să se exprime, fără să aibă vreun acord din partea marilor reprezentanţi ai bisericii. Ştiinţa va trece în ipostaza de "noua religie". Nu ne vom mai ruga neîncetat în biserici, ci ne vom axa tot mai mult pe descoperire, creaţie şi artă. Lumea va arăta mult diferit, dar mult mai sănătoasă. Spiritele luminate ce au fost persecutate asiduu de inchiziţie vor fi, în sfârşit, răzbunate, vor fi mândre de noua ordine mondială.

Adevărata Credinţă reprezintă o stare de spirit în acord făţiş cu normele unei sensibilităţi animate de căutarea idealităţii absolute care crede în puterea şi în miracolul ştiinţei, atât ca mod de a contrabalansa false convingeri cât şi ca mod de gândire care te pune în contact cu absolut totul.

Avântul ştiinţei spre o lume mai de seamă este un mod de exprimare a spiritualităţii prin dezvoltarea unui mod de gândire care te pune an contact cu absolut totul din jurul tău, cu natura, cu principiile ei, cu divinitatea, prin felul cum te raportezi la noile tendinţe trehnologice şi standarde de evoluţie.

Ai aptitudini de lider?

On Martie 26, 2009

Preia controlul asupra sistemului tău de ghidaj, ca să poţi să te transformi în ceea ce eşti în stare să fii.

Un tânăr soldat l-a întrebat odată pe un mare general dacă va putea să ajungă la fel de faimos ca şi el. Generalul, care luptase în multe războaie şi trecuse prin multe încercări în viaţa sa, îi vorbi pe un ton foarte serios:

- Tinere, a fi general nu este un lucru uşor. Ai avea curajul să lupţi alături de oştenii tăi în prima linie a frontului? Ai fi capabil să ordoni uciderea cu sânge rece a soldaţilor inamici fără să clipeşti? Ai fi în stare să îţi dai viaţa pentru patria ta? Şi nu în ultimul rând, crezi că în cazul în care vei fi luat prizonier, vei avea tăria să nu divulgi informaţii preţioase în ciuda celor mai îngrozitoare torturi?

- Nu, domnule, spuse băiatul întristat.

- Atunci, pentru numele lui Dumnezeu, nu mai visa la o carieră de general. Găseşte-ţi un job unde nu vei fi nevoit să faci astfel de alegeri.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să te transformi în ceea ce eşti în stare să fii, sau tinzi să te transformi în ceva ce nu te reprezintă?

Istoria este presărată cu poveşti triste ale multor oameni care au eşuat în viaţă pentru că nu au avut aptitudinile necesare profesiunii pe care au practicat-o. La fel ca şi tânărul din poveste, mulţi visează să ajungă într-o bună zi pe culmile cele mai înalte ale succesului, să devină personalităţi de seamă, preşedinţi, staruri de cinema, cântăreţi de valoare, mari campioni, etc., dar nu toţi au talent şi înclinaţii deosebite spre domeniul la care aspiră.

În condiţiile în care pentru funcţiile cele mai înalte este nevoie de o anumită pregătire şi chiar o doză de talent nativ, numărul celor care vor ajunge într-adevăr în vârful piramidei profesionale va fi din ce în ce mai mic, şi asta deoarece se observă tot mai pregnant faptul că tendinţa oamenilor este de a deveni ceea ce nu sunt capabili să fie.

A fi lider într-un anumit domeniu cere mult mai mult decât cunoştinţe, cere curaj, perseverenţă şi o responsabilitate foarte mare. Cere muncă şi sacrificii. Înseamnă să iei deciziile cele mai dure pe care alţii nu sunt capabili să le ia, să fii plin de iniţiativă şi să-ţi asumi riscuri uneori enorme. Entuziasmul de care unii dau dovadă este într-adevăr o mare calitate, dar se stinge rapid dacă nu au aptitudinile necesare în domeniul în care vor să-şi desfăşoare activitatea. În consecinţă, este mai bine nu aspiri la funcţii înalte de conducere dacă nu poţi să-ţi asumi responsabilităţi imense şi, mai ales, dacă nu poţi avea o judecată dreaptă şi imparţială.

Leadershipul are ca punct de tangenţă beneficiile unei traiectorii sinuoase, abrupte, pe care se realizează, sub forma unei curbe, transferul de personalitate de la un om care are un sentiment de nobilă încredere în meritele sale - la un simplu participant pe scena lunii.

Însă, ca forţă a gândirii şi făptuirii, singurul învăţător de nădejde în marea scenă a schimbării se dovedeşte a fi preţul scump al unei decizii de răsturnare a vechilor idei, concepţii sau convingeri care te autolimitează.

Funcţia performatoare a gândirii care se gândeşte pe sine se poate ilustra astfel: "Priveşte cu atenţie în tine şi află cine eşti dincolo de ceea ce crezi că eşti în viziunea celor care nu te cunosc."

Creierul omenesc preia milioane de informaţii cu viteza luminii, creând o imagine a mediului înconjurător şi percepând această imagine în două dimensiuni, colorată şi în mişcare. Tot aşa şi tu, ca să-ţi dai seama de potenţialul tău existent mai întâi trebuie să preiei controlul asupra propriului tău „sistem de ghidaj" oferit de talentul şi calităţile tale ascunse, apoi să-ţi creezi o imagine a ceea ce vrei să devii şi să te axezi pe latura aia.

Leadershipul este o funcţie a gândirii şi făptuirii din care nu se obţine din oficiu un brevet, ci la care au acces doar cei dependenţi de cunoaştere. Imensa ocazie de a fi în mijlocul evenimentelor care marchează unele dintre transformările şi evoluţia conştiinţei, şi puterea de a fi incomparabil mai bun decât toţi în gestionarea propriilor frici, îndoieli şi defecte, se iveşte atunci când reuşeşti să faci trecerea de la relaţional la reacţional.

Cine ţinteşte la o funcţie de conducere are de făcut multe sacrificii. Ambiţia gloriei şi scopurile înalte sunt dorite de mulţi oameni, dar până la un moment dat, când lucrurile devin din ce în ce mai anevoioase. Acesta este momentul când cea mai mare parte a lor renunţă să mai viseze şi să lupte pentru idealurile lor. Nu poţi ajunge pe culmile succesului dacă nu ai ambiţia necesară, tot aşa cum nu este uşor să înoţi dacă nu dai din mâini şi din picioare. Trebuie să te mişti, trebuie să preiei iniţiativa şi să faci de bună voie schimbările necesare pe plan profesional fără să te împingă nimeni de la spate.

În spatele fiecărui succes fulminant se află un om care a cunoscut cel mai mare eşec. Nu poţi să înaintezi pe o cale firească şi ascendentă, slujind drept trecere de la un reper la altul, dezvoltând concepţii consecvente din aluziile ambigue şi lipsite de aplicare ale oricărui individ care se crede Robin Hood.

Ideile dominante despre viaţă şi valoarea unui caracter puternic se nasc din încercarea de a da piept cu sine însuşi, cu suferinţa, cu o parte din realitate pe care n-o credeai posibilă, uneori chiar cu moartea, ca în cazul unui război.

Singurul învăţător al tuturor este în tine, în dificultăţile cu care te confrunţi. Iar inspiraţia cea mai vie vine din realitatea care te loveşte în faţă atunci când eşti pregătit să faci din ea o creaţie personală.

Concluzia este una singură: oamenii care aspiră la un act de leadership, dar care nu au aptitudinile şi competentele necesare pentru a face faţă cu succes provocărilor pe care le implică consecinţele conştiinţei de sine, de obicei renunţă atunci când dau de greu, atunci când simt că balanţa succesului nu înclină în favoarea lor.

Mai insişti să crezi că ai aptitudinile necesare unui lider? Ai un model de lider pe care să-l urmezi? Crezi că vei putea fi tu însuţi un model de urmat? Intenţionezi să faci lucrurile cum trebuie şi apoi să îi conduci pe ceilalţi? Sau mai întâi vrei să-i conduci, şi după aia să faci lucrurile cum trebuie?

Preia controlul asupra sistemului tău de ghidaj, ca să poţi să te transformi în ceea ce eşti în stare să fii.

Azerbaijan

Ascultă ceea ce eşti, fără să vezi ce se aşteaptă de la tine.

Roudeep – Azerbaijan. Ascultând-o, oferindu-i toată atenţia mea, chiar dacă a fost ceva mai greu la început să-i prind linia melodică, simt că sunt conectat cu mine însumi, în raport cu scena unei plimbări solitare nocturne. Este o Etnatropmysthes , o susţinere necondiţionată a vieţii lăuntrice ce calibrează mai mult o vibraţie joasă, şi mai puţin o vibraţie înaltă, la niveluri favorabile de percepţie a frumosului, a spaţiului şi timpului înconjurător.

Fondul este crepuscular, ocult, tranzitoriu, lăsând loc unei întrebări în surdină: mă pot oare întoarce la ceea ce a fost cândva atmosfera emoţionantă şi învecinată cu strălucirea nostalgică atribuită decorurilor din filmul unei vieţi care se tot repetă?

O ascult cu toată fiinţa, cu un elan artistic nemaiîntâlnit, având înaintea mea şoapta unei brize de vară sau atingerea luminii crepusculare de un perete de sticlă care îţi oferă o privire oglindită în fenomenele complexe ale vieţii şi universului. Linia melodia freamătă a mirare, fragilitate şi delicateţe, a istorie, a iubire, unduindu-se în leagănul plăcut al valurilor care îmi mătură gândurile şi paşii pe nisip, într-un moment când noaptea se îngână cu ziua, ajungând până la măsura acelei vibraţii artistice atât de inconfundabile, atât de necunoscute chiar şi pentru cei maturi spirituali. Desigur, o metaforă.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o ai despre tine poate să asigure continuitatea între fluxul creator şi însufleţirea sinelui, dublată de acea reverberaţie compensatorie a imaginii unei realităţi care nu mai există ca atare?

Dar cred totuşi că există o continuitate ontologică între timp şi eternitate în sound-ul unic al melodiei, acelaşi ca al unui ocean care aşteaptă la ţărm ca cineva să-i pătrundă tainele, încercând să simtă teribilul vârtej al adâncimilor sale de neînţeles, fără să piardă în ceaţă peisajul verde-albastru al universului abisal.

Asemănarea piesei Azerbaijan cu Moonlight Sonata s-ar putea realiza numai în salt registric (supratăcut-grav), prin trecerea lină de la o nuanţă la alta. Ascultând-o şi reascultand-o, ea pare să-mi întinerească trăirile, stăruitor şi cuprinzător, printr-un fel de însufleţire a sinelui, dar şi printr-un fel de difuzie a experienţei de omnipotenţă ce asigură elanul pulsiunii de viaţă a unui Creator de ritmuri biologice, uşoare, îndrăzneţe.

E ca şi cum acel fior iniţial al muzicii bine şlefuite de fluxul creator al mileniilor, venit din adâncul sufletului de origine cosmică, ar încearcă să-mi stârnească acea vibraţie emoţională a sentimentelor pe care le animă amintirea unei mângâieri suave, calde, angelice, acea mângâiere lină a cununii biruinţei, în îmbrăţişarea îndelungă a veşniciei.

Leadership: Poţi să te conectezi la tine însuţi prin rememorarea nostalgică atribuită decorurilor din filmul unei vieţi care se tot repetă?

Lipsită de orice deşertăciune, şlefuită de provocările vieţii, ştiind că nu acumularea lucrurilor aduce bucuria şi odihna sufletului, Azerbaijan are drept efect sensibilizarea materiei artistic-scriitoricească, dăinuind peste straniul fior al înţelesului ce stăpâneşte deopotrivă apusul, răsăritul, cerul şi marea. Alteori, Azerbaijan se comportă ca un bătrân neghiob ce se lăsă cuprins de amintiri tot mai îndepărtate, estompând puterea vie pe care o posedă simţirea unei rezistenţe la o acţiune izbitoare. Numai fragmentarea lumii în puncte diferite de vedere mă scoate din unitatea acestei piese muzicale care aparţine mai degrabă sensibilităţii spiritului, decât cuvântării unui tablou rar al lui Salai.

Este doar o reverberaţie care-mi răscoleşte sentimentele? Doar o şaradă a minţii supuse unei entităţi caracterizată de patru atribute: înălțime, durată, intensitate și timbru? Tot ce ştiu este că nicăieri nu m-aş simţi mai aproape de mine însumi, da, curată sinceritate ce-a împodobit vreodată sufletu-mi de artist, ca atunci când sunetele tenuto repetate încep să aibă receptivitate absolută faţă de universul imaginar al lui Borges, unde moartea şi busola nu-şi găsesc niciodată drumul înapoi spre proprietar:

"Prinţesa de Faucigny Lucinge primise de la Poitiers tacâmurile de argint ale familiei. De pe fundul adânc al unui cufăr pecetluit cu ştampile internaţionale ieşeau, rând pe rând, cele mai fine lucruri neînsufleţite: argintăriile de Utrecht şi de Paris, cu o bogată faună heraldică şi un samovar. Printre ele - cu o abia perceptibilă şi uşoară tresărire de pasăre adormită - bătea misterios o busolă. Prinţesa n-a recunoscut-o. Acul albastru năzuia spre nordul magnetic. Cutia de metal era concavă. Literele de pe sferă aparţineau unuia din alfabetele de pe Tlon."

Aşa s-a petrecut prima pătrundere a lumii fantastice în lumea reală, din universul lui Borges. Şi tot aşa, Azerbaijan, acest perimetru al muzicii universale în care creaţia devine miracol, reprezintă o capodoperă plină de vrajă a cărei cunoaştere profundă se dezvăluie treptat, într-o comuniune a sufletului cu taina divină. În sfârşit, o altă perspectivă, o mică piesă dintr-un vast camuflaj.

Compensatoriu, puterea inefabilă a sunetului care mă învăluie total în timpul tranziţiei dintr-un spaţiu al ne-minţii, dintr-o linişte interioară, spre nostalgia acelui freamăt multiplu de reverberaţie a astrului pe un ocean al închipuirii, nu se amestecă neapărat cu tematica unei poveşti imaginare sau reale, dar creează un efect de rezonanţă pe frecvenţa progresivă, molto expressivo , a unei stări armonioase.

Leadership: Efectul propriei tale imaginaţii se poate materializa într-o adâncire şi o desăvârşire a unor intenţii artistice, fără să inregistreze o tensiune în repetiţia naturii complexe a Creaţiei?

"Grăbeşte-te să mă asculţi şi să te bucuri de mine, căci nu ştii cât de grăbită este viaţa", asta pare să exprime notele unei octave minore de care Azerbaijan s-a înconjurat prin intermediul unui pasaj intonat exclusiv în planul inferior al orgii electronice. Iar înţelesul primar al acestei legături puternice între fiinţa umană şi spiritul neîmblânzit al muzicii, pe frecvenţe soul şi electro, în avangarda unei arte totale, pe care Azerbaijan îl evidenţiază cu amplificarea unei mângâieri nostalgice resimţite cu plăcere încă de la început, este acela că măreţia se naşte din singurătatea cu care am legat pe parcursul vieţii relaţii cu universul artistic şi cu natura înconjurătoare.

Da, poate fi o explicaţie. Dar ar mai fi ceva. Atunci când ascult această minunată piesă, neobosit, cu luminile stinse, în schimbul unei realităţi mai puţin trecătoare, fapt ce are drept efect sensibilizarea materiei scriitoriceşti, simt că fac parte din activitatea de creaţie a unui artist care îşi dezvăluie orientarea contemplativă către Înalt, către latura religioasă. Şi astfel, simt că mă scufund într-un ocean al viselor, al emoţiilor, al exaltărilor, amplificând parcă o dilatare a sufletului: Orevishartta , când sufletul se pierde în Dumnezeu, unindu-se cu alte ipostaze divine.

Printr-un fel de vrajă electro-stimulatoare a acordurilor tonale fine, încadrată într-un moment ce permite trecerea dinspre lumea reală în cea a amintirii de dincolo de timp, această operă plină de vrajă, a cărei cunoaştere profundă se dezvăluie treptat, îmi ia uşor minţile şi mă transpune într-un personaj din cărţile lui Asimov, sau din lucrările revoluţionare ale lui

Salvador Dali. E ca un cutremur liniştitor pe o rază mai mare de acoperire. Vai, ce ciudat mă simt !

Vă prefaceţi că nu mă auziţi? Nu, nu sunt o imitaţie ieftină de acorduri muzicale izvorâte din plasticitatea unei rostiri trăite, interiorizate, candide, fără posibilitatea recuperării şi a reparării momentului din trecut, când curenţii oceanului trăgeau totul înspre depărtări şi orizont. Căci am curajul să visez, atunci când nimeni nu mai are curajul să îndrăznească. Este vorba despre o stare a luminii caracterizată de un zgomot redus, în care sufletul meu, prizonier în realitatea unei lumi mai sublime, întăreşte una din legile universului: "asculţi ceea ce eşti, fără să vezi ce se aşteaptă de la tine".

O tensiune în repetiţia naturii complexe a creaţiei este echivalentă cu acea atitudine de tipul „Eu ştiu şi simt ceva ce tu nu vei putea înţelege niciodată", de care artistul dă dovadă atunci când face trecerea de la stări sufleteşti extrem de diferite: de la duioşie sau tristeţe - la bucurie.

Azerbaijan este legătura dintre mine şi o altă lume, din altă dimensiune a trăirii. Să ştiţi că mi-am însuşit efectul acestei muzici inaudibile urechilor care nu înţeleg limbajul artei, neştiind să fac diferenţa dintre timp şi eternitate, coroborându-mi gândurile la ceasul când noaptea se îngână cu ziua. Mă pândea o primejdie, o singurătate ce angajează în forţă fiinţa interioară, devenind un resort al creaţiei.

Taina unui dor de mine însumi încă se ascunde în stele şi în lună, în stări sufleteşti, în jocul de lumini şi umbre, în raportul subtil dintre sunete şi note, tonalităţi şi tempou...

Bagheta magică a lui Jacques Merey

On Aprilie 13, 2009

Arată-ţi interesul faţă de oameni, punându-le în valoare propria lor personalitate.

Cineva îl anunţă pe Jacques Merey, care se afla în acel moment la comanda micului batalion, că unul dintre soldaţii care luptase sub comanda lui vrea să-i încredinţeze diverse obiecte preţioase şi nu vroia să le dea altcuiva. Se pare că caporalul găsise o pungă cu monezi de aur şi inele de preţ. După legile strict militare, toate acestea îi reveneau comandantului, adică lui Jacques Merey.

Jacques Merey, însă, nu era genul de om care să-şi dorească să se îmbogăţească rapid pe câmpul de luptă şi a decis să înmâneze acea pungă, cu tot ce se afla în ea, generalului Dumouriez, care le va transmite adevăratului ei beneficiar, adică soţiei prinţului care fusese înfrânt în bătălie.

Dar ştiţi ce anume a făcut Jacques Merey ca să câştige definitiv şi irevocabil încrederea şi respectul caporalului? L-a desemnat chiar pe el să meargă la generalul Dumouriez şi să-i înmâneze punga, ca să nu-i diminueze meritele în faţa camarazilor săi. Iată un gest de autoritate morală pe care numai un lider adevărat, un om profund, poate să-l facă.

Leadership: Poţi să îi determini pe oameni să îşi schimbe perspectiva din care privesc o oportunitate viabilă şi de a le proiecta un sens nobil pe fundalul marilor evenimente ale vieţii?

Nu poţi să-l consideri pe om drept un obiect, atribuindu-i aproape cu dispreţ rolul unei desăvârşite pasivităţi, drept un om care nu trebuie să aibă nimic de spus, nimic de întrebat, nimic de făcut decât să urmeze orbeşte ordinele tale. Trebuie să-l laşi să simtă că este responsabil. Trebuie să-l laşi să „respire" ca să-şi refacă încrederea în sine şi în potenţialul său, trebuie să-l îndrumi să acţioneze el însuşi ca să-şi pună în valoare propria lui personalitate.

Nu poţi avea o înrâurire mai mare asupra oamenilor dacă nu laşi să circule acel influx de încredere de la tine la ei. Adevăratul proces de transformare al oamenilor se desfăşoară totdeauna în timp, prin fapte şi acţiuni, pe care le iniţiezi atât în folosul lor personal cât şi în folosul tău. Iar acest proces de transformare este ca un cerc în care ei trebuie să caute, pe rând, toate cele trebuincioase propriilor modalităţi de cunoaştere şi dezvoltare a capacităţilor lor, toate acele repere care să-i ajute să-şi definească mai bine personalitatea şi individualitatea.

În leadership lucrurile stau la fel ca în medicină. Rostul de căpetenie al ştiinţei conducerii este să se străduiască să nu se pună autoritar de-a curmezişul evoluţiei fireşti a oamenilor, ci să le reînnoiască arsenalul de valori pe care se bazează întreaga lor existenţă individuală, întărindu-le voinţa de a acţiona prin propriile forţe în momentele limită.

Leadershipul este experienţa bogată de viaţă care se interpune peste tendinţa oamenilor de a se considera umili şi neînsemnaţi, îndreptându-ţi atenţia numai spre ceea ce este sublim la oamenii care încep să se comporte exemplar.

Bagheta magică a lui Jacques Merey este atitudinea care aduce o schimbare în viaţa oamenilor, redându-le în ochi mândria de a fi unici şi inegalabili. Celebrul scriitor austriac

Stefan Zweig mărturisea într-un roman de-al său: „Orice medicină umană trebuie să se străduiască - şi acesta este rostul ei de căpetenie - să nu se pună autoritar de-a curmezişul evoluţiei fireşti, ci să întărească doar voinţa de însănătoşire, în caz de boală.”

Fiecare lider deţine o „baghetă magică”, o resursă incredibilă de care se foloseşte pe parcursul timpului pentru a-şi consolida leadershipul. Este acea sursă de sprijin moral, acel stimul pe care îl acordă celorlalţi oameni, atribuindu-le un rol important în propriul „scenariu de leadership” pe care îl regizează.

Concluzie: Bagheta magică a lui Jacques Merey este acea capacitate şi putere a unui lider de a influenţa în bine concepţiile şi mentalitatea oamenilor cât şi modalităţile de acţiune ale acestora care trebuie să fie în concordanţă cu o conduită etică deosebită, bazată pe justeţe şi umanitarism.

Be By My Side

Examinează realitatea convingerilor tale în funcţie de modul cum experimentezi o întâlnire cu tine însuţi din altă perspectivă.

Se întâmpla numai în întunericul nopții, înainte de a se produce acel declic magic care declanșează dialogul interior efectiv cu Dumnezeu, să-mi revăd toate obișnuințele, deprinderile legate de o viață mistuită la foc scăzut ce se rezuma la căutare, reflecție şi alegere, pentru care timpul nu se mai întoarce.

Încrederea în această formă de ascundere, singurătate şi iluminare, o nuanță de stranietate a Eului şi regăsirea lui într-un departe fără margine sau răspuns, continua cu posibilitatea de revelare a nevăzutului lumii, el însuşi o soluţie existenţială de depăşire a trecutului imediat, fie în adâncul subiectivităţii, fie spre înălţimea transcendenţei.

Ca în orice interacţiune cu tainele transcendenţei lumii interioare care colaborează cu imanenţa, reacţionând ca un fenomen de conştiinţă permanentizat, nu eram deloc mulțumit de nivelul de înţelegere la care ajunsesem, despre cine eram într-un joc al minţii care se exprimă numai prin învăţătura unei ştiinţe şi a unor virtuţi prea fine pentru a fi remarcate de cineva.

Totul din mine întâlnea aceeași privelişte a întunericului, o triadă non-cromatică cu accente de confruntare: griul, negrul şi bordoul, asortate după chinurile minţii de a-şi recunoaşte umbrele, înconjurându-mă de senzaţii de cădere în gol, de născociri de sensuri, unele cu logică altele ba, luate drept realități. Ele îmi alimentau stările negative scăzând abilitatea sângelui de a-şi menţine un status anticoagulant.

Leadership: Iei în considerare acea aparenţă contrară realităţii, prin definirea expresă a noţiunii de "latură neexplorată" pe care se întemeiază contestarea propriei enigme?

Uneori simţeam că mă sufoc, aşa cum se întâmplă cu sculptorii ce inhalează praful de marmură obţinut la finisaje, doar că latura mea neexplorată era mai greu de identificat şi analizat pentru rigoarea morală decât este un bloc de piatră din care trebuie extrasă o formă de manifestare artistică.

Those small hours, uncertain and anxious, determinau o ordine a modului cum trebuia să-mi explic percepția faptelor sau împrejurărilor ce urmau a fi relatate în scris. La ele adăugam o nuanță de stranietate regăsirii mele în relaţie cu un Dumnezeu surd, în misterul unei interesante interpretări a noţiunii de „combinaţie prestabilită" dintre atemporal şi efemer, ansamblul lor rezonând în tot ceea ce însoţeşte timpul unei realităţi nenumite.

Nu mă refer la o golire de sine ca purificare a mea de toate fricile conștiente, un mic update al experienţei extracorporale obținută în starea de veghe, nici la contemplarea lucrurilor invizibile după modul lui Moise, care a intrat în întunericul unde era Dumnezeu ca să aducă la lumină comori noi ale înţelepciunii şi cunoaşterii.

Mai degrabă, căutam să demonstrez posibilitatea trecerii din real în necunoscut, cu diverse nuanţări neoimpresioniste, acoperind în parte mecanismele gândirii cu pericolul unor exagerări care aplatizau silenţios elementele separate ale fundalului pe care îmi plasam enigma.

Enigma era o parte din ceea ce trăiam în spaţiul imaginaţiei, susţinută de o prezenţă absolută, din care nu lipsea aleatoriul.

Leadership: Poţi să dai lumii tale o formă de certitudine, fără te îndepărtezi prea mult de locul în care îţi imaginezi lucruri pe care nu poţi să le experimentezi?

Să mă joc cu materia nevăzută, închipuită şi înmuiată într-un amestec pur de real şi profund, să produc transformarea elementelor de bine şi rău în acelaşi mod în care chimistul îşi alege experienţele cele mai relevante pentru implementarea unor noi legi şi principii, iată cum îmi conturam convingerile despre momentele de îndoială prin care treceam. Ele puteau da naştere la noi certitudini.

La fel îşi cristalizează Dumnezeu formula de dominare a lumii. I need to call You, dar traseul Tău spre "marea vedere" este acoperit de şoaptele nopţii din care se scurg trăirile ezitante.

Întunericul devenea şi mai adânc. În momentele alea de îndoială, cu intensităţi contrastante, auzeam strigătul raţiunii care spune că Dumnezeu, căruia întreaga creaţie îi datorează anumite procente de sens atribuit iluzoriu realităţii, îţi pune la dispoziţie misterul universului prin accentuarea micilor umbre de pe sufletul tău, clădindu-le într-un templu livresc unde dăinuie Zidul plângerii, dar de unde primeşti Iluminarea.

I drift away from where I am imagining things I do not wish to experience, when I'm with You.

Din "Citadela", de Saint Exupery, am extras acest fragment:

"În ceea ce-l priveşte pe vecinul meu, am observat că nu era folositor să examinez faptele, stările de lucruri, instituţiile, obiectele imperiului său, ci doar înclinaţiile şi tendinţele. Însă, dacă examinezi imperiul meu, ai să-i priveşti pe fierari şi ai să-i găseşti făcând cuie, pasionându-se pentru cuie şi cântându-şi despre ele. Apoi, ai să mergi şi ai să-i vezi pe tăietorii de lemne şi să-i găseşti doborând copaci şi pasionându-se pentru doborâtul copacilor şi umplându-se de o imensă bucurie la ora sărbătorii tăietorului de lemne, care este aceea a primului trosnet, atunci când măreţia copacului începe să se prosterneze. Iar dacă vei merge să-i priveşti pe astronomi, ai să-i vezi pasionându-se pentru stele şi neascultând decât liniştea lor.

Iar, dacă te întreb: "Ce se petrece în imperiul meu, ce se naşte mâine din el?", ai să-mi răspunzi: "Se vor făuri cuie, se vor doborî copaci, se vor studia stele, şi vor fi, astfel, rezerve de cuie, rezerve de lemn şi observaţii asupra stelelor." Căci, miop şi neştiind să vezi mai departe de vârful nasului, n-ai recunoscut construcţia unei corăbii. Şi, desigur, n-ai fi ştiut să spui: "Mâine vom pleca pe mare".

Cel mai subtil şi mai reprezentativ argument al rezervei mele de cunoaştere dintr-un loc pustiu, din preaplinul unei imaginaţii care înalţă, regândeşte, rescrie realitatea, ca ecou al şoaptelor din întuneric, se oglindeşte în afara mea, în ceea ce scriu.

Tendinţa naturală a raţiunii mele este aceea de a susţine un punct de vedere la care am ajuns prin explorarea necunoscutului, încât să surprind o altă imagine a realităţii decât cea pe care v-aţi închipuit-o despre mine acceptându-mi gândurile.

Îndreaptă-te în direcţia în care îţi dorești să excelezi, dar în așa fel încât a ta creație să capete sensul pe care îl caută ceilalți.

Be By My Side pe parcursul unor dezvăluiri guvernate de neprevăzut şi necunoscut, în care caracterul aleatoriu (încărcat de hazard) al fenomenelor este definitoriu într-un interior unde adesea îşi face loc îndoiala. Ele vă vor schimba impresia despre mine.

Dar, așa cum vă dați seama, scriind aceste rânduri, am început deja să vă induc o altă realitate, numită: lumea mea.

Between Heaven & Earth

On August 13, 2017

A experimenta starea de conectare la divin din care se naşte avântul spre visul care te încearcă, înseamnă să îmbrățișezi acele raze măreţe ale sufletului care aduc lumină în întuneric.

Totul intrase în întuneric, atât visul cât şi viaţa mea, asemenea culorilor captate într-o fotografie ce nu redă nicio emoţie. Era o formă de a mă oferi ofrandă timpului desprins din întregul unei lumi situate sus, lângă judecata şi raţionamentul unui Dumnezeu necunoscut, un timp stabilit aprioric, o mărime continuă care apelează resorturile cele mai puternice ale unei conştiinţe tulbure aflate la intersecţia dintre uitare, negare şi renunţare.

În centrul cărei tentaţii lumeşti să-şi mai facă loc sclipirea, raza de lumină, seninătatea de care are nevoie omul pentru a se recunoaşte acelaşi, şi totuşi diferit? Întotdeauna cine experimentează marile etape ale creaţiei artistice trebuie să se conformeze gândirii unei lumi apropiată de lumină şi înstrăinată de impulsurile unei melancolii pesimiste, asta fiindcă simplă angajare într-un univers simbolizat are ca premisă de apreciere nu doar Logosul (sau ipostaza divinităţii), ci mai cu seamă sentimentele ascunse aduse în prim plan.

Supremul unghi de vedere care mi-a permis să privesc lumea ca pe o taină imperioasă şi profundă, pe care dacă o voi împărtăşi cândva sunt sigur că nu va fi decât spre cinstirea mea, se articula pe calea sinuoasă a luptei cu un sine care nu se lasă înţeles, nu se dă învins, în contextul unei izbăviri ce vine totdeauna cu puţin înainte de clipa finală a rătăcirii fără ţintă.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti mărturisirea propriei atracţii pentru ideea de a face din experienţa conectării la "Creator şi Creaţie" o adevărată superioritate în ceea ce priveşte puterea de a fi diferit de restul lumii?

Dacă cerul este o strălucire care traversează secolele, atunci pământul pe care îl străbăteam cu sufletul la gură, el însuşi piatra de stâncă a unui visător în stare de veghe, era o valorificare a experienţei de a îndrăzni un răspuns la două sentimente puternice în orice moment: teama şi speranţa. Cu groaza perspectivei de a îndura vuietele lor. Iar a visa o altfel de lume, în care să te regăseşti, în care să fii pur şi simplu tu, înseamnă să acorzi însemnătate unui Creator care uită pur și simplu de cadrul descurajator al vieții pe care o trăieşte și se ridică prin imaginaţie, inspiraţie şi talent deasupra condiţie de muritor.

Cel mai indicat este să te situezi la mijloc, nici jos, nici sus, înarmându-te cu argumentul grijei de a nu deveni hrana vie a "şarpelui", imaginea cauzei primare a păcatului de a răspunde la întrebările interzise. Dar fiind totodată acompaniat de caracterul pronunţat al vulturului care încearcă să atace o pradă de câteva ori mai mare decât el.

Viaţa este frica împotriva curajului, dar la mijloc se află avântul spre visul suprem, apropierea de Dumnezeu, care se măsoară prin puterea de sacrificiu, puterea de creaţie şi libertatea de a alege.

Era o chestiune de supravieţuire, de probabilitate matematică, de voinţă şi de detaliu, dar în acelaşi timp o probă a credinţei de a uni cele mai adânci şi vii realităţi. Legând lumi radical distincte - necreatul de creat, ridicolul de sublimul creator - am ajuns să fiu orbit de marea obsesie a artistului: de a-mi exprima aspiraţia spre nemurire prin realizarea unei capodopere pe care timpul n-o şterge din memoria sa.

Leadership: Dacă pricepi adevărata formă a cerului şi pământului, vei fi lămurit asupra propriei tale forme de viaţă?

După cum limpede se poate observa, viaţa mi se cufunda în aceeaşi taină în care creatorii rătăcesc pe dibuite în căutarea modelului de perfecţiune, foarte diferit de modul cum credeam că trebuie să o experimenteze un om de rând. Asemenea unui erou din "Mizerabilii", toată viaţa mea se rezuma la o nesiguranţă absolută, într-o pâclă de nepătruns, căreia un pictor i-ar fi redat consistenţa prin îmbrăţişarea unor culori mai săturate, prin amestecul fizic dintre alb, gri şi negru. Sub reflexia puternică a luminii.

Şi, culmea, în sferele raţiunii pure, ale vieţii şi ale artei, terminând cu lumea prejudecăţilor, se întâlneşte tocmai acel aspect crucial pentru experiența care dicta limitele libertății mele de a alege. Şi asupra căruia va trebui, cu siguranţă, să revin: găsirea unui sens în ceea ce mi se întâmpla. La care nu ştiu cum aş fi reacţionat.

Între şarpe şi vultur se află melancolia apusului şi ceţurile albastre ale înălţimilor, izolări autoimpuse şi avânturi de self-improvement, obraznice prin cutezanţa lor, pe care viaţa ni le oferă tocmai ca să trăim mai intens şi să preţuim ce ni s-a dat.

Atitudinea omului care își caută sinele este un răspuns dat vieții trăite în virtutea unei amprente personale şi a unei cauze supreme care pot genera senzația aproape permanentă de „neputință" sau de „high".

Cu ochii aţintiţi asupra celor ce nu se observă, dar se intuiesc, ceea ce nu mi se poate imputa drept vină, încercam necontenit să înţeleg legătura dintre fărâma de visare care-mi îndulcea speranţa găsirii unui sens în diferite situaţii sau evenimente imprevizibile ale vieţii, şi cheile împărăţiei artei - după pata de culoare neagră ce mă cuprindea la lăsarea nopţii, făcându-mă să cred că există ceva ascuns care ar trebui scos la lumină. Nu degeaba Hugo a pus accentul în romanul lui pe "steaua nopţii dinăuntrul omului" , reprezentând unica raţiune de a spera, de a lupta, de a te opune durerii.

Experimentând sensul adânc al cuvintelor filosofice ale unui blogger - "Cine va vrea să treacă de întuneric şi nu va descoperi nimic, nu va fi demoralizat, deoarece experienta acumulată în timpul traseului îl va ajuta ca data viitoare să găsească ce va căuta" - am ajuns la acel strop de îndurare pe care se sprijină întreaga creaţie naturală a cerului şi pământului. Anume că, orice licărire de transcendenţă este binevenită sufletului deznădăjduit numai dacă vede lumina în zarea lui.

Leadershipul este expresia unui „high" din care doar o mică parte este consacrată atingerii perfecţiunii, cealaltă fiind consacrată înţelegerii profunde a vieţii cuprinse între înţelepciunea şarpelui în pustiu și zborul inegalabil al vulturului care ştie şi este capabil să folosească curenţii de aer.

Urcând şi urcând pe culmile viselor nemărturisite, ale plăsmuirilor divine ce aveau efectul unui fulger venind din înaltul cerului, din care parcă răzbatea o continuă nebunie, perspectiva se schimba la fel ca şi a vulturului care avântându-se spre înălţimi vede lucruri diferite. Simțeam prezenţa unei puteri fără chip, fără margini, fără alt sens decât propria ei desfăşurare, cuprinzând lumea întreagă, chiar dacă mă rugam în întunericul nopții.

Un singur om, Victor Hugo, pare-se a reuşit să împace puterea apăsătoare a şarpelui cu rotirea vizuală a vulturului pe culmi de munte:

reformat şi transformat. Anumite facultăţi ale omului sunt îndreptate spre necunoscut: gândirea, visarea, rugăciunea. Necunoscutul este un ocean. Ce este conştiinţa? Este busola necunoscutului. Gândirea, visarea, rugăciunea, sunt aici mari radieri misterioase. Să le respectăm. Unde se duc aceste raze măreţe ale sufletului? În întuneric. Ele aduc, prin urmare, lumina."

A experimenta starea de conectare la divin din care se naşte avântul spre visul care te încearcă, stimulând necuprinsul, înseamnă să îmbrățișezi acele raze măreţe ale sufletului care aduc lumina în întuneric.

Between Heaven & Earth se situează omul care a înțeles că viața este un urcuş şi un coborâş care rezidă din dorința - niciodată satisfăcută - pentru cunoaşterea de sine, și din căutarea măsurii propriei putinţe de a ajunge la cuprinderea cu mintea a necuprinsului divin.

Beyond The Invisible

Un joc poate fi real sau imaginar în funcţie de ce ascunzi în el.

Încă mă pierd în voia prilejurilor experienţelor de creaţie, în vraja unei lumini care continuă să se aprindă undeva în interiorul meu, cu aceeaşi intensitate a nuanţei de superioritate, ca atunci când din simpla făurire a unei arte fără compromisuri se iveşte sclipirea omului împlinit, the sword of the brave and wise men . Însăşi actul de creaţie mă ridică în grad de perfecţiune atunci când ascult de mine însumi, când îmi privesc interiorul şi citesc mesajul unei arte bazată pe trei principii: uman, sufletesc şi dumnezeiesc, toate trei fiind un prilej de a experimenta o nouă abordare a realităţii, sau mai bine zis a noţiunii de "cunoaşterea născută din conştienţa Realităţii Ultime".

Una este să-mi conştientizez plasarea între coordonatele efectelor de reflexii artistice, asemenea unui joc complicat de domino pe care un act semiconştient îl declanșează în creier, cu toată nevinovăţia conştiinţei trecutului care necontenit îmi strigă: Nu crede nimic din ceea ce gândeşti ! Totul este dincolo de invizibil, adică înăuntrul unei realităţi atipice, în spaţiul unei cunoaşteri pe care actul de creaţie o consideră mai mult o tendinţă de a proiecta imagini despre viaţă într-o altă dimensiune a gândirii, a simţirii şi a exprimării, a reacţiilor faţă de lumea înconjurătoare.

Şi cu totul altceva este să mă trezesc plasat în spaţiul tensiunilor dinamice dintre comparaţii, coincidenţe şi metafore. Care din ele este mai aproape de realitate?

Leadership: Prezinți formula artei tale ca pe o modalitate de a reconcilia contradicţiile expresivităţii dobândite prin accentul care cade pe propria persoană?

Arta este trecerea de la o realitate cunoscută la o realitate mai puţin înţeleasă. Este o aventură a minţii şi a cunoaşterii esoterice trăită într-o călătorie iniţiatică de regăsire a sinelui. O aventură pe care o desluşeşti cu timpul îşi are ca premiză de la sine înţeleasă explicarea a ceea ce ţine de fapt de celălalt aspect al distanţei care te separă, dincolo de cortina timpului, de momentul procesului cunoașterii. Ea constă în desprinderea mintală a determinărilor fundamentale ale compoziţiei artei intitulată: „Beyond the invisible ".

Aici autenticitatea mea nu este o revoltă faţă de absurdul unei lumi fictive, ca gloria unui apus de deșert, prin contrastul dintre sensul esenţialului desprins dintr-o oglindă fermecată şi obsesia livrescă a unei utopii paradisiace. Ci, mai mult decât atât, este o eliberare de presiunea exercitată de nuanţa individuală irepetabilă a unei aventuri într-un minunat coşmar: "Everything is possible".

Tot ceea ce ochiul cuprinde de la prima vedere ar fi imposibil de redat altfel decât prin filiera imaginativă a unui artist experimentat și de o înaltă tensiune creatoare, reîmprospătând formula artei şi prezentând-o ca pe o modalitate de a reconcilia contradicţiile expresivităţii dobândite prin accentul care cade pe propria persoană. Ne irascaris Domine !

O încordare la limită a atenţiei, care parcă ar vrea să spună "nu, să nu credeţi ! nu e chiar aşa, doar aşa pare", n-ar putea surprinde îndesirea și înălțarea enigmei în ceea ce privește monumentalitatea și uimitoarea precizie a execuției unei opere figurate până la cotele supranaturalului. În cazul artei, expresivitatea dobândită prin accentul care cade pe propria persoană este în strânsă legătură cu acel "totul este posibil" dintr-o exagerare a semnificaţiilor atribuite realităţii din care suprarealistul vede mai mult – pentru că realitatea este suprarealitate în orice zonă a creaţiei şi inovaţiei.

Un magician al interpretărilor şi al viziunilor moderne îşi păstrează autenticitatea în a reda o anumită trăire interioară prin intermediul imaginii unei realităţi care surprinde ceea ce nu se dorește a fi văzut sau crezut.

Marele economist, John Maynard Keynes a aflat de Cufărul lui Newton şi, spre stupoarea sa, a descoperit faţa ascunsă a eroului fondator. El a socotit că vede în omul ce pusese jaloanele ştiinţei moderne şi inaugurase secolul Luminilor, moştenitorul unei tradiţii esoterice ce cobora în timp până la babilonieni: primul dintre fizicieni fusese şi "ultimul dintre magicieni." (Loup Verlet)

Jocul de-a magia, precum o întreagă poveste dintr-o singură imagine, poate fi real sau imaginar în funcţie de ce ascunzi în el, allowing yourself to dive into the hidden fantasies of a more perfect existence , făcând din el obiectul mai multor dezvăluiri interesante. Accesul la această capcană a minţii pe care linia sinuoasă a combinaţiilor nebune o poate suporta, a alăturărilor întâmplătoare între culorile clasice şi nuanţele atipice ale unei visări adânci, mărite de fiecare experienţă a vieţii, este întotdeauna limitat.

Creativitatea este o cheie a misterelor care împinge spre neprevăzut ţesătura realităţii cu un tipar simbolic – precum un superb imprimeu auriu, încurajând mijloacele psihologice de expresie: Close your eyes / Just feel and realize / It is real and not a dream ! Iar a reda o anumită trăire interioară prin intermediul imaginii realităţii, într-un mod simbolic, dar semnificativ, înseamnă să te afunzi în miezul unui vis care aruncă o nouă lumină asupra laturii tale mistice, mai puţin explorate, ceea ce te poate determina să trasezi un alt curs al evoluţiei tale spirituale, artistice, evenimenţiale.

În leadership, creativitatea este adesea determinată de ceea ce construieşti vizual prin cuvântul pe care îl porți în lume ca pe un adevăr alternativ menit să camufleze informația sau să o reinterpreteze în folosul unei părți.

Nu-i aşa că poţi să sfidezi orice conştiinţă, numai făcând loc originalităţii, cu focusul de la macro la infinit, să se manifeste în limitele unei singure raţiuni călăuzitoare: de a nu ceda decât în faţa marilor întrebări universale?

Nu-i așa că poţi crește şansele concepţiei interpretative a „Enigmei" to break the chains of life , pentru a-ţi stimula simţurile şi oferindu-ţi o experienţă artistică complexă în timpul unei condensări a razelor de lumină ce formează o configuraţie sau alta, devenind într-un anumit punct mai densă şi mai reflectantă?

I look into the mirror. See myself, I'm over me. Ca şi când aş fi dator să descopăr profunzimea planului lui Dumnezeu pentru viața mea, tot aşa cum din haosul colorat se cristalizează treptat o imagine ce poartă pecetea devenirii mele în timp. If you follow me, you will see what's beyond reality.

Marile motor al creaţiei constă în abordarea unei realităţi din care va trebui să extragi înţelesuri noi, încât să acţionezi ca extensie a unei imagini despre tine însuţi care se pretinde a fi materializarea unui vis împlinit.

Beyond The Invisible abordează profunda caracteristică psihologică a celor mai importante motive ale personalităţii umane de a se redefini în infinita complexitate a Creatorului care nu se dizolvă niciodată în strălucirea sa aurie. Totodată accentuează uimitoarea expresivitate a imaginii pe care o creează sufletul ori rațiunea prin utilizarea efectului de contrast dintre fundalul întunecat al ieşirii într-un alt nivel de realitate şi prim planul adjudecat de nuanţele revigorante ale iluminării.

Bogatele comori ale adevărurilor ascunse

Sporeşte valoarea leadershipului, folosind realităţile celorlalţi ca pe un punct de pornire spre modelarea pozitivă a propriei tale personalităţi.

Mistuit de propria sa activitate creatoare, Eisenstein nu acorda atenţie condiţiilor cumplite de trai. Avea douăzeci şi doi de ani, o putere de muncă uriaşă, o pasiune fierbinte pentru artă. Suporta frigul cumplit fără a se sinchisi de el, preocupat de creaţia sa. Suporta foamea, uitând chiar uneori de ea. Într-o zi, regizorul Eisenstein venind la o repetiţie la "Mexicanul", îşi lăsase bucată de pâine neagră pe tabloul de distribuţie electrică din teatru.

*Alexandrov, proaspăt sosit în trupă, înfometat, se repezi asupra pâinii şi începu s-o înfulece. Când Eisenstein observă, o bătaie cumplită începu între ei doi. Până când Alexandrov reuşi să-i explice că era nemâncat de două zile. Atunci, Eisenstein, care apucase să mănânce în ajun, îi cedă şi restul pâinii. Astfel a început o prietenie strânsă, care avea să dureze peste zece ani. **

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi încadrezi experienţa cotidiană într-un exerciţiu util de virtuozitate care să contrasteze puternic cu fundalul neutru al unei opere creatoare rezistentă la ruina memoriei?

Una din funcţiile artei este că aliniază înţelesul unei desfăşurări optime a evenimentelor importante ale vieţii cu magia amintirii pe care nimic n-ar putea-o şterge din imaginea unui proces de relaţionare cu cei apropiaţi. Arta nu regăseşte doar în informaţiile prevăzute într-un tablou de mare valoare, nici în pasiunea cu care regizorul tratează scenele cele mai dificile, ci se regăseşte în modul în care te raportezi la un prezent care se hrăneşte mult din amintirile cele mai spumoase.

Un artist sporeşte valoarea creaţiei sale folosind realităţile celorlalţi ca pe un punct de pornire spre modelarea pozitivă a propriei sale personalităţi. El încadrează experienţa sa într-un exerciţiu util de virtuozitate, pătruns fiind de un anumit elan plăsmuitor de noi forme de gândire în raport cu realitatea imediată.

Aceasta înseamnă că izvorul cel mai adânc al abundenţei sale de idei şi condiţia fundamentală a caracterului său practic este acea formă particulară de identitate colectivă, fiind condiţionat de reacţia celorlalţi oameni în faţa unor situaţii care provoacă în el sentimente particulare, contradictorii, schimbând definitiv modalitatea de a vedea lumea.

O artă născută într-o situaţie care îi pune la încercare rezistenta la schimbare şi gradul de acceptare a celorlalţi, precum şi nevoia de a deveni mai flexibil şi mai adaptabil, se distinge prin dezvoltarea capacităţii de a privi spre necesităţile emoţionale ale semenilor săi, nu numai ale sale proprii. Arta cea mai inspiraţională este de multe ori o reproducere a unui eveniment care conduce la o abatere de la previziunile elaborate iniţial, putând fi conturat ca o coeziune de fenomene, o noţiune de trecere de la static la dinamic, care exclude excluziunea.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi eliberezi arta de sub imperiul unor interese străine ei, proces în urma căruia să schimbi înţelesul a ceea ce eşti în stare să construieşti singur?

Un citat extras de pe o pagină web sună cam aşa: " Nu judeca oamenii după aparenţe, ci

încearcă să pătrunzi mai profund în sufletul lor, pentru că doar ceea ce e acolo contează. Ai putea descoperi în jur oameni care, la prima vedere, nu-ţi inspiră prea multă încredere. Dar, dacă ţi-ai oferi răgazul să-i cunoşti mai bine, ai găsi în ei resurse infinite de iubire necondiţionată şi de prietenie sinceră. "

Ei bine, această a doua realitate nu conţine în sine un scop unic, cu un adevăr care trebuie înţeles în toată claritatea sa. În ultimă instanţă, ea se manifestă nu doar ca un mijloc de a te ridica la cea mai aleasă dintre purtări, pe calea desăvârşirii personalităţii, ci mai degrabă ca un instrument cu ajutorul căruia poţi să îndeplineşti un rol prin excelenţă pozitiv: eliberarea artei de sub imperiul unor interese străine ei.

Acest interes străin artei se reflectă într-un fel de bâjbâială de colo-colo în jurul aceloraşi subiecte eterne şi groaznic de plictisitoare, într-o ezitare în înţelegerea imaginilor relevante pentru realizarea şi argumentarea ideilor inovatoare. Dacă ceea ce se produce în viaţa ta nu se poate valorifica într-o manieră particulară de folosire a mijloacelor de expresie, atunci tot ceea ce te reprezintă nu va reuni criteriile de raţionament sigur și delicat al artistului de geniu.

Garanţia unei activităţi creatoare se dezvăluie prin revelarea unei prietenii pusă sub semnul unei întâmplări neprevăzute care nu poate fi controlată în întregime. Tot ce este în strânsă legătură cu leadershipul se sprijină pe umerii acestei arte, care devine cu ajutorul însuşirilor obiective ale realităţii conştientizate, nucleul dezvoltării independente a unei noi viziuni de originalitate.

Valoarea personalităţii tale este ca un suport învelit într-o cămaşă izolantă, mai întâi trebuie să reziste presiunii exercitate de expunerea la condiţiile exterioare, apoi trebuie să rămână de neatins în alcătuirea ei şi în acelaşi timp să fie înţeleasă în întreaga ei amploare.

Valoarea personală capătă "mobilitate" atunci când ea îşi utilizează, în mod pozitiv şi responsabil, toate armele asupra ta, şi le utilizează pentru binele tău atunci când e nevoie.

Virtuozitatea este calitatea artistului de a constata apariţia unei situaţii atipice, cu iz de deja-vu, care survine în contextul unei lumi în schimbare, o situaţie pusă sub semnul prelungirii unei realităţi care se deschide mereu mai departe de orizonturile limitate ale cotidianului.

Bogatele comori ale adevărurilor ascunse sunt în acord cu tot ceea ce răsună în conştiinţa omului, atâta timp cât ea se simte împlinită, interesată în realizarea unor radicale transformări, imposibil de atins fără o confirmare a valorii sale din partea celorlalţi.

Bogatule, regăseşte-l pe cel sărac

Realizează o întoarcere la ceea ce ai fost odinioară, ca să-ţi regăseşti superioritatea în cine ai devenit.

"Judecăţii mele de acum îi lipseşte cântărirea exactă a trecutului, fiindcă revăd trecutul de la celălalt capăt al zării. Într-adevăr, cu cât înaintez, trecutul, asemănător peisajului pe care-l străbaţi, se şterge pe măsură ce se îndepărtează. Mi se întâmplă şi mie ceea ce li se întâmplă oamenilor care se rănesc în vis: ei îşi văd şi-şi simt rana, dar nu-şi amintesc când şi-au făcut-o.

Omule renăscut, bogătaş plin de ciudăţenii, om care dormi cu ochii deschişi, vizionarule atotputernic, milionarule de neînvins, mai uită-te o dată pe drumul funest al vieţii nenorocite şi flămânde, mai treci din nou pe căile unde te-a împins ursita, unde te-a mânat nenorocirea şi te-a primit deznădejdea.

Prea multe diamante, prea mult aur şi prea multă fericire lucesc acum în apele oglinzii în care Monte Cristo îl priveşte pe cel trecut altădată prin întunericul cel mai adânc, pe Édmond Dantes. Adu-ţi aminte ! Înlătură diamantele, mânjeşte aurul, şterge razele. Bogatule, regăseşte-l pe cel sărac. Omule liber, regăseşte-l pe deţinut. Reînviatule, regăseşte cadavrul."

Şi tot spunându-şi astfel, Monte Cristo mergea de-a lungul străzii Caisserie. Era aceeaşi stradă pe unde, cu douăzeci şi patru de ani înainte, fusese dus de paznicii tăcuţi şi nocturni. Casele cu aspect voios şi însufleţit, în noaptea aceea fuseseră întunecate, mute şi închise.

- Şi totuşi, sunt acelaşi, murmură Monte Cristo. Atâta doar că atunci era noapte, iar acum e ziua în amiaza mare. Soarele e cel ce le luminează şi le înveseleşte pe toate. *

Leadership: Cât de edificativă este imaginea pe care ţi-o creezi asupra raportului "vechimii" faţă de experienţa vieţii, aşa cum este ea exprimată într-un adaos de reflecţie critică asupra interacţiunilor dintre Alegere şi Destin?

Uneori trebuie să facem mai mulţi paşi înapoi pentru a vedea imaginea generală. Recunoaşterea a ceea ce suntem cu adevărat, grupând anumite semnificaţii ale vieţii puse în contact cu un Ego mai puternic, ne poate încărca cu mai multă motivaţie.

Este şi aceasta o cale de a ne descoperi personalitatea, punctele forte sau slăbiciunile, dar nu o certitudine a vindecării de sindromul numit „dublă personalitate” care ne poate influenţa traiectoria urmată în viaţă. O personalitate care se vrea diferită faţă de cei din jur. Şi o personalitate care luptă cu teama de a se pierde pe sine, de a rămâne captivă într-o realitate în care nimic nu are sens.

Singura modalitate de a atinge o experienţă de nivel înalt care să-ţi permită să te autodepăşeşti (ingredientul principal al evoluţiei personale), este de a nu te lăsa condus de acea conştiinţă încărcată care îţi alimentează negativ starea de spirit, care îţi şopteşte permanent să te opreşti din drum şi să lenevești sub plapuma unei stabilităţi relative – a belşugului care nu-şi revarsă preaplinul.

O formă de reflectare psihică a lumii obiective, caracterizată printr-o raţionalitate seacă şi prin teama propriei identităţi, nu îţi permite să-ţi înțelegi imperfecțiunile, ci mai curând exercită o influenţă nefastă asupra indicatorilor tăi de performanţă.

Psihologul Paul Slovic de la universitatea din Oregon, spunea: „ Ai nevoie de sentimentele tale pentru a verifica o analiză şi ai nevoie de o analiză pentru a ţine sentimentele sub control. "

Leadership: Eşti dispus să-ţi regândeşti modul de a te raporta la tine folosind instrucţiunea „Load Extended" în aşa fel încât motivaţia cu care întâmpini încercările vieţii să cunoască un trend ascendent?

Înainte de a contribui la expansiunea leadershipului, pus în valoare prin calitatea ta de a nu fi remarcat de ceilalţi pentru varii defecte, aminteşte-ţi cât de important este te autoevaluezi şi să te formezi corect, "agăţându-te" de trecutul care te-a pus la încercare şi te-a adus până în acest punct. Apar, desigur, diferenţe între ceea ce este principial realizabil şi ceea ce nu este posibil să fie altfel, dar este totuşi o cale de a te regăsi mai bine în propria ta autenticitate.

Instrucţiunea „Load Extended" permite saltul într-un timp al imprevizibilului, al întâmplărilor nefericite pe care a trebuit să le trăieşti de parcă ar fi fost fireşti pentru viitoarele schimbări.

Străbătând acest spațiu apăsător, reîntorcându-te într-un timp al destinului încă nedecis, îţi vei reaminti să trăieşti, să riști și să muști din nou cu poftă din zilele atât de darnice pe care ţi le aşterne în cale viaţa. A trăi prin nădejdea acelei supreme împăcări cu sine, cu lumea şi cu timpul, este o cale de a trece prin proba asupră a încercărilor vieţii şi de a împinge limitele propriilor tale gândiri spre binele pe care îl ai de atins. Aceasta este o formă a măreţiei de care trebuie să dea dovadă un lider.

Măreţia care influenţează leadershipul este reprezentată de modalitatea de relaţionare cu Dumnezeu în încercarea de a intra în rezonanţă cu acel lucru care te defineşte până la sfârşitul vieţii, aşa încât să nu forţezi destinul să te ducă acolo unde nu e nevoie de tine: spre regret şi deşertăciune.

Bogatule, regăseşte-l pe cel sărac este o metaforă care evidenţiază acea relaţie dintre cauzalitate şi efect, arătând că omul nu a fost aşezat în centrul lumii pentru a privi cu înlesnire la cele ce se petrec în jurul său, şi nici de a se complace în acea stare de rob al propriei sale agoniseli, ci mai curând pentru a se cunoaşte pe sine însuşi.

Adăugând o vorbă din doctrinele filozofilor, "omul trebuie să se cunoască pe sine însuşi spre a vedea ce ştie şi ce nu ştie, apoi să se pregătească în mod temeinic pentru a dobândi ştiinţa, numai astfel putând ajunge înţelept, deci pe măsură să judece şi pe ceilalţi oameni."

Brand Leadership

Revizuieşte-ţi permanent creaţia, lansând un procedeu inedit de aducere în prim plan a unei experienţe personale mai vaste.

Cel ce a văzut filmul „Alexandr Nevski" şi ştie că bătălia ocupa o însemnată parte a filmului, va înţelege gândul lui Eisenstein la realizarea actualei pelicule: „Greva", când încerca să acorde o mare întindere scenei în care muncitorii întâmpină rezistenţa brutală a maşiniştilor din camera de cazane. Bătaia aceasta era mult prelungită de Eisenstein, spre disperarea supervizorilor, care se îngrozeau de greutăţile ivite la tot pasul.

Căci Eisenstein, pasionat în muncă la această scenă, o realiza ca un număr de circ complicat, cu salturi, lupte, aruncarea de oameni în butoaie, etc. Totul fu pus la punct într-o repetiţie, dar la filmare lucrurile nu mergeau. Multe scene au trebuit de multe ori reluate. Când în sfârşit, după numeroase filmări inutile, totul a reuşit, s-a descoperit că nu mai ajungea pelicula şi întreaga cazna a trebuit reîncepută. Eisenstein a insistat pentru filmarea completă a bătăii, deşi la montaj a acceptat apoi, din consideraţii de dramaturgie, scurtarea ei.

Direcţia vedea în toate aceste insistente mai degrabă nişte capricii ale regizorului. Ele se dovedeau însă a fi o perseverentă urmărire a intenţiilor sale iniţiale. ***

Leadership: Reuşeşti să îţi pui în valoare gustul pentru conţinutul pe care îl promovezi, prin implementarea verosimilului într-o prezentare imaginară a realităţii ?

În toate segmentele de producţie a cunoaşterii, indiferent de cerinţele leadershipului sau de abordarea constructivă adoptată, în funcţie de curentele, stilurile sau formulele de continuare a revizuirii creaţiei, domină clar o anumită structură de pregătire. Iar această pregătire, ce decurge din tot ceea ce îţi pune în valoare gustul pentru conţinutul pe care îl promovezi, nu se poate răsfrânge pe de-a-ntregul asupra libertăţii de exprimare decât dacă reuşeşti să implementezi „verosimilul".

Cunoaşterea este acea parte de viziune pe care o apreciezi nu numai prin prisma conţinutului ei de realism, ci în special prin cadrul acţiunii pe care ea o formulează.

Aici verosimilul (instrumentul central necesar artei de a convinge) capătă accente de fenomen ce ia amploare dat fiind numărul tot mai mare al colajelor care contribuie la atingerea viziunii şi la cultivarea unui climat artistic superior. Iar a implementa verosimilul într-o prezentare imaginară a realităţii înseamnă să creezi cadrul unui lungmetraj care reflectă tendinţa de a reinventa relaţia dintre ceea ce trăim şi ceea ce avem iluzia că trăim, sau relaţia dintre ce se întâmpla pe scenă şi privirea spectatorului.

Verosimilul este partea de scenariu care arată modul în care se reflectă în conştiinţa spectatorului realitatea exterioară la care face trimitere regizorul.

Revizuirea creaţiei, asumată ca spaţiu de depozitare a raţionamentelor ce te definesc ca scenarist într-un proiect de lung metraj, în fond nefiind vorba decât de un procedeu inedit de aducere în prim plan a unei experienţe mai vaste de explorare a lumii şi a vieţii, se poate concretiza într-o interfaţă prietenoasă sau greu accesibilă, într-o construcţie anume, sofisticată, numită scenă. Momentan vom elimina implicaţiile de ordin pur fenomenologic ale acestei forme de artă, dar îi vom atribui o notă unică de obiectivitate.

Această scenă, cu un plot bine definit, în care sunt introduse o intrigă complexă, un punct culminant sau un „piece of action”, pe care nu o putem deduce pur şi simplu şi formulele şi principiile teoriei desprinse din combinaţia experienţei cu realitatea, se realizează într-un cadru nou de interacţiune cu oamenii.

Scena tinde să capete un contur individual de organizare riguroasă a elementelor de regie, o anumită structură care te avantajează în momentul când vrei să activezi opţiunea de a-ţi depăşi limitele. Să regizezi înseamnă să materializezi un concept izvorât dintr-o experienţă a cunoaşterii, respectiv dintr-o acţiune complexă de prelucrare a informaţiei reprezentată în formă idealizată.

Verosimilul, dotat cu elemente cu caracter de „ştire”, se produce ca răspuns al gândirii şi imaginaţiei care marchează demersurile de-a lungul anilor de cucerire a unui teritoriu izolat, mai ales atunci când reuşeşti să transformi informaţia într-o adevărată experienţă existenţială, înnobilată cu o tentă artistică. Atunci când reuşeşti să transformi munca experimentală şi pregătirea teoretică într-o poveste reală.

Un procedeu inedit de aducere în prim plan a unei experienţe personale mai vaste constă în asocierea elementelor vizuale şi sonore cu cele conceptuale, încât să dai o notă de certitudine evenimentelor traite la un moment dat și la o anume intensitate.

Poti să scoţi în evidenţă latura unei realităţi mai largi care confirmă educaţia ta culturală prin lansarea apetilului pentru cultura perseverenţei şi a calităţii în construirea compoziţiilor artistice?

Brand Leadership evidenţiază ceea ce creezi prin includerea unor concepte, sau asocieri între idei şi cunoştinţe, în realitatea care o vrei tu să se vadă, nu neapărat cea pe care o ştiu cu toţii. Brandul se poate concretiza într-o interfaţă prietenoasă sau greu accesibilă, într-o construcţie anume, sofisticată, numită scenă, cuprinzând situaţii, personaje, aspecte caracteristice ale vieţii, redate prin experienţă proprie.

Dacă vrei să prezinţi leadershipul sub altă formă, revizuieşte-ţi permanent creaţia, lansând un procedeu inedit de aducere în prim plan a unei experienţe personale mai vaste.

Bucuria nu se manifestă niciodată decât ca o licărire

Câştiga-ţi autoritatea din punct de vedere moral prin puterea de a da sens şi valoare acţiunilor tale, fără să-ţi exteriorizezi prea mult sentimentul de importanţă de sine.

Ieşind din camera Fredericăi, Samuel nu intră îndată în cea a lui Julius, ci se opri în încăperea care o precedă şi sprijinindu-şi fruntea de fereastră, plimbându-şi degetele pe geam, privind în mod automat în curte, respira şi reflecta. Avea nevoie, oricât de puternic era, să se odihnească o clipă din aspra muncă la care abia se înhămase şi pe care trebuia s-o continue.

În sufletul acestui om profund înnegurat, bucuria nu se manifesta niciodată decât ca o licărire. Înapoindu-se la Julius, plăcerea pe care o resimţise smulgând consimţământul Fredericăi o dată cu promisiunea că va fi a lui după, ca şi înainte de îmbogăţire, fu repede eclipsată şi înlocuită cu un nor de posomoreală amară.

Iată deci, unde-am ajuns datorită abilităţii, a combinaţiilor şi a oboselii, îşi spunea el: să nu mă mai bazez decât pe virtutea umană. Mă bizui pe cuvântul Fredericăi şi pe onoarea lui Julius !

Tot planul meu se sprijină pe faptul că Frédérique, odată bogată, contesă, liberă de tot ceea ce o menţinea sub dominaţia mea, îşi va aminti de jurământul pe care mi l-a dat pe când era săracă şi supusă; că bogata contesă îşi va aminti de copilul din flori, că milionarul îşi va aminti de sărac ! Tot viitorul meu, toate calculele mele, toată măreţia mea, toată temeinicia mea se reazemă pe acest nisip mişcător: fidelitatea unei femei.

Leadership: Faptul că-ţi renegi propria experienţă şi "lecţiile" asimilate în trecut, denotă că mai ai de realizat nişte iertări către tine însuţi pe marginea unei decizii care ulterior se poate dovedi a fi una prematură?

Gândirea mea este o răzbunare a trecutului, o încrucişare a trecutului meu cu prezentul altora. În ceea ce priveşte promisiunea lui Julius de a o trata pe Frederique ca pe o fiică a sa şi nu altfel, voi proceda astfel încât să nu aibă timp să cedeze. El a vrut-o, cu atât mai rău pentru el ! Nu puteam face altceva. Părinţii mor înaintea copiilor. Este legea firii. Julius va muri înaintea Fredericăi, va muri chiar în ziua căsătoriei. Am hotărât.

Lucrurile se vor schimba în bine. După moartea lui Julius voi aduce-o pe Frederique la Menilmontant. Sunt tutorele ei. Este suficient ca Julius să mă numească executorul lui testamentar. O voi ţine pe Frédérique departe de Lothario.

Între timp evenimentele politice îşi vor continua cursul. Ministerul Polignac este o sfidare căreia Franţa îi va răspunde cu o revoluţie. Evident, revoluţia aceasta care-i a întregului popor, va scăpa din mâinile celor ce pretind că o dirijează. Va evolua dincolo de voinţa lor şi îi va îneca în valurile ei. Voi fi puternic, voi fi bogat, voi fi ceea ce voi dori, voi domina haosul ce va rezulta dintr-o lume care dispare şi alta care se constituie. O voi reţine pe Frédérique prin admiraţie. Cum va arăta oare naivul de Lothario pe lângă un Napoleon al democraţiei !

Viitorul este al meu. Toţi mă vor iubi, toţi mă vor binecuvânta. Începând chiar cu Julius. He, he, este adevărat ! O să-mi datoreze moartea în plină fericire, el care zăcea în apatie şi în dezgust. Dar să ne grăbim să terminăm totul până nu vine Lothario. Mi-e teamă să nu apară prea curînd şi să nu ne pună beţe în roate..."

Leadershipul înseamnă să te foloseşti de experienţa prezentului, acumulată inclusiv din învăţarea lecţiilor trecutului, pentru a-ţi proiecta strategic viitorul, prin renunţarea la constrângerile exterioare care facilitează dobândirea atitudinilor negative.

Bucuria nu se manifestă niciodată doar ca o licărire, ci ca o forţă morală spre a depăşi orice neajunsuri de ordin afectiv sau material, spre a nu te lăsa învins de ele, şi astfel prin raţiune să-ţi câştigi libertatea care dă demnitate şi independenţă sufletului prin dominarea efectelor de sens contrar care pot apărea în cazul in care Egoul tău este mult prea încrezător.

Bunul, Răul şi Sinele

Un lider face uz de influenţă pentru a înfrânge ideile care nu se potrivesc viziunii lui.

Războiul făcuse din locotenentul Waters ceea ce era: un soldat rece, fără simpatii, fără milă, fără regrete. Mândria, cariera, onoarea şi reputaţia erau tot ce contau pentru el. Nu avea voia să se implice emoţional în misiunile sale, trebuia să şi le îndeplinească cu orice preţ, cu profesionalism şi responsabilitate.

De data aceasta primise misiunea de a o salva pe doctoriţa Kendricks, ce se afla în misiunea St. Michael, din Yolingo, Nigeria.

Împreună cu trupa lui de comando, Waters ajunge la misiunea St. Michael şi o surprinde pe doctoriţă chiar în momentul când îngrijea un pacient aflat în stare gravă. Neavând timp la dispoziţie îi ordonă acesteia să-şi ia degrabă lucrurile şi să se pregătească de plecare. Trebuiau să parcurgă 12 km pe jos pana la punctul Alpha, de unde urma să-i preia elicopterele americane.

Leadership: Dai dreptate unei perspective de receptare racordată la sensul desfăşurării evenimentelor, în demersurile tale de a câştiga cu orice preţ o dispută bazată pe forţa argumentului?

Dar se întâmplă ceva cu totul neaşteptat. Stejarul feminin. Doctoriţa nu voia să plece, nu fără oamenii ei.

- Când rebelii vor ajunge aici, vor ucide tot ce le iese în cale, îi spuse Waters. Ordinele mele sunt foarte clare, te putem lua numai pe tine. Ceilalţi oameni nu sunt responsabilitatea mea. Doar tu eşti responsabilitatea mea.

Cuvintele lui căzură ca un pumnal ucigător asupra doctoriţei. Ea se uită la înfăţişarea gravă şi severă a lui Waters, pe care nicio durere nu părea că-l poate tulbura; simţea un fel de groază în faţa omului acesta aparent străin de orice simţăminte omeneşti. Îl ascultă gâfâind, doborâtă, strivită. Dar ochii îi erau vii şi în ei mocnea un foc cumplit. După o scurtă tăcere, în care gândurile îi zburaseră către toate acele suflete nevinovate din misiune ce se aflau in pericol, i-a răspuns locotenentului cu o hotărâre curajoasă:

- Ai dreptate locotenente. Nu e problema ta, e responsabilitatea mea. Iar eu nu plec fără oamenii aceştia.

Leadership: Conştientizezi cum anume trebuie să lupţi cu realitatea şi cu necesităţile de moment, încât să diluezi orice pornire neorânduită a firii tale?

Multe dimensiuni ale personalităţii apar comprimate în situaţia relaţiei avânt-cauză-timp, făcând apel la calcul limitelor de alocare a resurselor de depăşire a imposibilului şi de extindere a autorităţii. Mai ales în condiţii critice de recepţie a unor stimuli pozitivi, în "interogarea" compromiţătoarelor gânduri şi emoţii până ce ajungi să le înţelegi şi să le accepţi că atare.

Asta presupune să te poziţionezi pe un soi de expectanţă de tipul "perform without alerts" , subordonată unui scop din cele mai nobile - combaterea unei viziuni mărginite de o conştiinţă moale, care să atragă atenţia asupra a ceea ce îţi lipseşte pentru a-ţi face cunoscută adevărata valoare.

Vedem într-o clipă ceea ce se întâmplă în urmă cu puţin timp, juxtapus pe ceea ce se întâmplă momentan, odată cu simularea a ceea ce s-ar putea petrece pe parcursul perioadei următoare. Acest fenomen de Deja-Vu îşi are întreaga explicaţie în conţinutul acelei variabile pe care o poţi filtra în funcţie de înclinaţiile tale de înaltă moralitate. Iar această variabilă, procesată pe modul propriu de a percepe şi de a interacţiona cu realitatea, este asemănătoare comenzii "Reset Your Identity" . Cu menţiunea că înclinaţia de a-ţi manifesta individualitatea în timp şi în spaţiu, prin caracteristicile de siguranţă superioare, poate fi educată pe măsură încercărilor prin care treci. Roagă-te să fii puternic !

Asistăm deci la o întrepătrundere a spaţiului şi a timpului, ce pare caracteristică leadershipului schimbării, care poate să confere un stimul emoţional pentru crearea unei poziţii unitare a omului, de tipul "Asta pot decide singur" , servind ca instrument de măsurare atât a curajului, cât mai ales a unei sensibilităţi şi unei fineţi extreme care diluează orice pornire neorânduită a firii tale.

Asta ne spune ceva despre natura a ceea ce ai de oferit şi de transmis atunci când devii conştient de ceea ce gândeşti la nivelurile tale cele mai adânci, când devii conştient de predispoziţia ta de a reacţiona la o dezamăgire, simţindu-te fără valoare. Sau atunci când devii conştient de derizoriul tuturor lucrurilor şi al propriei existenţe în clipa când eviţi să te pui în slujba unui ideal umanitar, demn de toată aprecierea.

Evaluarea unei situaţii riscante îşi pune amprenta pe puterea ta de decizie, întrucât vei fi tentat să dai dreptate unei multitudini de perspective.

Numai cel care are aptitudini de lider poate pătrunde în labirintul sufletului uman. Numai cel înzestrat cu o voinţă puternică şi o mare putere de convingere poate să-şi exercite influenţa asupra caracterului şi personalităţii celor din jur.

În filmul "Tears of the Sun (2003)" , doctoriţa Kendricks i-a câştigat bunăvoinţa locotenentului, determinându-l să-i accepte condiţiile. Înfruntându-l pe plan emoţional, ea a reuşit ceea ce nimeni nu ar fi reuşit: să-i schimbe mentalitatea, acţiunile şi comportamentul moral-spiritual. Ea a pătruns mai adânc decât oricine în labirintul sufletului lui sclav, supus ordinelor şi instrucţiunilor clare, cerându-i să servească unui scop mai înalt decât celui pur politic.

A-i lăsa pe oamenii aceia nevinovaţi să moară nu era nicidecum viziunea pe care o împărtăşea doctoriţa. Ideile ei despre a fi om, despre viaţă şi moarte, despre libertate, despre integritate, despre indiferenţă şi ignoranţă, despre sentimentele omeneşti: ca dragostea, mila, respectul, speranţa şi credinţa, erau atât de măreţe încât l-au impresionat adânc pe locotenentul Waters.

Un lider face uz de influenţă pentru a înfrânge ideile exprimate de ceilalţi care nu se potrivesc viziunii sale.

Leadership: Forţezi aplicarea conversiunii de conştiinţă, încât să obții în mod valid o concluzie universală dintr-o premisă de tip: "Omul de ieri nu e omul de azi" ?

Situaţia lor era unică, niciunul dintre membrii trupei de comando nu se arătase pregătit pentru noi "bagaje". A lua cu ei mai bine de treizeci de persoane, printre care şi copii, era o povară aproape imposibil de purtat. Dar locotenentul, lovit de o emoţie puternică, a simţit că ar înfăptui un păcat, acela pe care spiritul nu-l iartă – dacă i-ar lăsa acolo, în mijlocul primejdiei, pe oameni aceia nevinovaţi.

În el s-a declanşat prima din multele emoţii care îl afectează pe om de-a lungul existenţei sale – compasiunea. El, care n-a fost niciodată atins de vreun sentiment ce l-ar fi putut face slab în faţa oricui, a simţit brusc un val de afecţiune faţă de acei sărmani atât de apropiaţi doctoriţei. Omul de altădată a devenit brusc altcineva.

În situaţii critice, în sufletul şi mintea oricărui lider se duce o luptă aprigă între bine şi rău, între datorie şi onoare, între respectarea misiunii stabilite şi sentimentele umane care uneori se opun îndeplinirii misiunii.

Conversiunea de conştiinţă are ca prim considerent recunoaşterea datoriei faţă de ceea ce meriţi să simţi în condiţiile în care dinamica relaţiilor (nemulţumire vs. recunoştinţă) devine din ce în ce mai greu de suportat, fiindcă răneşte orgoliile.

În cele din urmă liberul arbitru decide asupra modalităţii de îndeplinire a misiunii. Este o dovadă de inteligenţă şi strategie să-ţi îndeplineşti misiunea. Dar este o dovadă a măreţiei, vibraţia cea mai înaltă a manifestărilor tale interioare, atunci când acţiunile tale au un caracter umanitar.

Bunul, Răul şi Sinele sunt trei forme ale aceleiaşi unităţi a naturii primordiale umane: să cauţi adevărul, să ocoleşti orice fel de argument şi să te eliberezi de orice sentiment de vină.

Burning In The Skies (II)

Străduieşte-te să acumulezi cunoaştere, realizând contopirea infinitului cu primordialul care te împinge să-ţi depăşeşti limitele.

Eram prizonier în cuprinsul unei temporalităţi extinse, pe care povestea mea nedezvăluită pe de-a întregul o reactualiza în jocurile grave de cuvinte. Un personaj de Wells, prin asemănarea cu inventatorul englez, condus de-o forţă invizibilă în altă dimensiune a timpului, când secolele istoriei căpătau nuanţele unei provocări a destinului intelectual de excepţie. Sau, poate că eram subiectul principal al unei opere ştiinţifice în care se multiplica cunoaşterea specializată la care nu avea acces oricine.

Atotcuprinzător, dezvăluiam afinităţi şi concordanţe în principiile şi metodele de creaţie utilizate în scris, dar printr-un soi de elocvenţă riguroasă, aşa cum Ali paşa îşi cârmuia posesiunile cu mână de fier. "Here's the dead wood to make the fire rase." Cele două scântei de raţiune ce luminau lumea mea în mijlocul torţelor arzătoare ale unui crez puternic, trecând peste tenebrele ignoranţei şi ale superficialităţii realităţii exterioare, erau nebunia de a trăi viaţa ca pe o ficţiune şi ficţiunea ca pe o viaţă.

Când cineva ia în calcul poveştile deduse dintr-un potenţial intelectual de excepţie, atunci titanul gândirii independente, şlefuitorul informaţiei care influenţează limbajul, apare într-un gol experienţial. Un gol creat fie din deformările însemnătăţii lumii, fie din redimensionările sale consemnate într-o rezoluţie a imaginii de sine care ocupă spaţiu în profunzimile haosului sau ale confuziei. Sau din izolările existenţiale de tip: "I'm losing what I don't deserve".

Leadership: Cum estimezi conţinutul noţiunii de creaţie din punct de vedere al unor experienţe de viaţă pe care le-ai bifat la un moment dat ca "default" pentru deschiderea unor noi orizonturi de expresie artistică?

Conţinutul de creaţie care făcea cinste standardelor mele de gândire cuprindea contribuţia altor personalităţi la evocarea unei realităţi spirituale mai înalte, cu valoare estetică, fiindcă aducea în plim plan frumuseţea încercării de a străpunge dincolo de marginile culturii și ale științei prezentului. Primordialul care mă împingea să-mi depăşesc limitele era dorinţa de a instrui posteritatea cu puncte de vedere foarte îndrăzneţe privitoare la legătura dintre preferinţele mele literare şi preocuparea mea de a întoarce lucrurile cu susul în jos.

În multe cărţi se menţionează faptul că luneta nu ar fi fost inventată de Galilei, pe la 1610, ci de alţi trei pretendenţi: Janssen, Lippershey sau Metius, căci acest instrument era deja cunoscut și utilizat într-o formă primitivă în Olanda şi Franţa. Dar cine poate verifica adevărul?

Aşa se întâmplă şi în cazul cititorilor care analizează un genial scriitor prin definiţiile pe care el însuşi şi le atribuie, ca o perfectă ilustrare a logicii gândurilor. Numai un cititor integrat perfect în infrastructura a trei instanţe de judecată ar putea accesa acest izvor de materie însufleţitoare, ar putea să ia în primire torţa vie a unei structuri informaţionale complexe. "The blame is mine alone / For bridges I have burned."

Un astfel de cititor trebuie să fie, mai întâi de toate, un Jonathan Swift - să nu caute decât verosimilul şi să-l atingă, apoi un Sheakspeare - să transforme involuntar şi firesc o idee seacă într-o imagine de ansamblu, şi în cele din urmă un Ştefan Zweig - să caute contopirea cu infinitul şi primordialul ce-l împinge pe individ să-şi depăşească limitele. "And in the end we were made to be apart / In separate chambers of the human heart."

Leadership: Explorezi lumea întreagă dintr-o singură parte a "insulei", în baza intenţiilor de a poseda o cultură mai înaintată a cărei putere de fascinaţie să fie imuabilă în faţa timpului?

Devii un călător în spectrul finitudinii atunci când rămâi în golul de producţie al ideilor, cifra combinaţiilor realizate din manipularea ideilor nereuşind o adevărată minune în lupta cu propriile limite şi perspective.

Ca reprezentant al unei mulţimi de cărări care se bifurcă din poteca principală, în fond fiind vorba de ceea ce împiedică manifestarea calităţii de descoperitor, deşi intri permanent în contact cu materialul de explorare a unor contexte diferite de utilizare a informaţiei, poţi pierde enorm din ceea ce ai acumulat.

Este exact acelaşi fenomen, specific cititorilor înrăiţi, ce se petrece atunci când cumperi cărţi. Tot acumulând cărţi peste măsură, nu-ţi mai rămâne timp să le citeşti toate şi rămâi cu informaţii lipsă, neutilizate. Practic te ataşezi de ceva pe care nu-l poţi fructifica pe de-a-ntregul. Tinzi să acumulezi cunoaştere, omiţând numeroase alte mijloace şi suporturi de cunoaştere.

În leadership, asta înseamnă să explorezi lumea întreagă dintr-o singură parte a insulei care este pe zi ce trece tot mai populată de străini, dar părăsită de un număr şi mai mare de localnici.

Utilizez această a doua comparaţie, la fel cum marii esteticieni accentuează anumite puncte de lumină sau de întuneric, mai ales când afirm că o singură neinteracţiune cu anumite variabile de tip „referinţă" poate să nu mai solicite interes sau motivaţie majoră. Depinde ce asimilezi sau ce omiţi.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să trăieşti puterea de revelaţie a unui nou început de lume din modul de specificare a termenilor de utilizare a unui nou conținut de conştiinţă?

Ar mai fi un aspect important de reţinut. Atunci când nu reuşeşti să surprinzi şi să accentuezi acele cadre inedite ale propriei individualităţi şi subiectivităţi, prin dezvăluirea unei noi dimensiuni a ştiinţei pe care ţi-ai însuşit-o în timp, ce pot lăsa o impresie bună în mintea celorlalţi, poţi să deformezi însemnătatea unui întreg format din reprezentări sau evidenţe.

Informaţiile asimilate prin studiu sau prin aplicarea ştiinţei în practică, în viaţa de zi cu zi, au o anumită capacitate, nu le poţi înghesui forţat într-un colţ al realităţii proiectate musai după mintea ta. În timp ce informaţiile omise pot avea oricând valoare de înlocuire atunci când nu formează în cantităţi mari un pas absolut necesar pentru fundamentarea unei concepţii coerente de acţiune sau de dezvoltare personală.

Să nu uităm că ştiinţa şi omul formează un întreg care se conectează la forţa infinitului. Sunt două lumi, două concepte care se întrepătrund prin conotaţiile, conexiunile şi valenţele pe care le implică, unele nebănuite, altele evidente, evoluând mereu, în ciuda controverselor ideologice şi filosofice.

Dacă vrei să-ţi dezvolţi ştiinţa şi să ajungi la o cunoaştere desăvârşită care poate face din tine mai mult decât un lider, ci un „Intelligence fără sfârşit care produce totul", începe să cauţi verosimilul în tot ceea ce te înconjoară. Învaţă să transformi involuntar şi firesc o idee seacă într-o imagine de ansamblu. Străduieşte-te să acumulezi cunoaştere, realizând contopirea infinitului cu primordialul care te împinge să-ţi depăşeşti limitele.

Termenii de utilizare a unui nou conținut de conştiinţă sunt garantaţi de modul cum îţi prezinţi creaţia cu trimitere la alţi referenţi externi, privitor la ceea ce poţi să faci cu ceea ce crezi despre o lume în care adevărul devine greu de acceptat.

Burning In The Skies plasează omul în dimensiunea ştiinţei aşezate între verosimil şi plăsmuire, referindu-se la informaţiile utilizate la construcţia unui anumit nivel de performanţă sau a unei structuri de gândire ce poate fi validată numai prin explorare, descoperire şi experimentare a propriei persoane în mod autentic, din complexitatea realităţii sentimentului că te înalţi spre sublimul unei privelişti de pe vârf de munte.

Burning In The Skies (I)

Monitorizează-ţi progresul la cotitura dintre oniric şi palpabil, manifestându-ţi pregnant calitatea de a te introduce în existenţa unei lumi percepute prin sensurile cunoaşterii avansate.

Revedeam acele cuvinte simbolice, mici taine provenite dintr-un procent de inspiraţie cuprins în câmpul de transformare al spatiului meu de creaţie: "All I Really Want to Do", sub forma unei profunde oglinzi de proximitate. Ele îmi puneam în mişcare inteligenţa socotită drept o deprindere a virtuţii perfecte, dând impresia unei reîntoarceri a gândirii înspre principiile coordonate ale unui sine care parcă izvora din divin.

Singura scânteie de raţiune care luminează lumea unui scriitor este ideea de a fi original. La aceasta se adăuga riscul de a-mi testa limitele, după consideraţiile unei distribuţii empirice a valorii duratei pe care se baza întreaga concepţie a unei invenţii superioare numite „Al 6-lea simţ". Iar această reîntinerire a forţelor, izbucnită dintr-un ideal al haloului eclectic, se datora întru totul unui protest viguros care viza propria-mi lege de funcţionare. Ca şi când cineva mi-ar fi sporit încetul cu încetul intelectualitatea, apelând la un efect cu potenţial de blockbuster.

De nestăvilit, cuvintele se cuibăreau în lumea mea pentru a oferi imaginaţiei material de explorare a unor contexte diferite de utilizare a informaţiei. Invaziv, îmi veneau în minte toate acestea, după cum torţa arde consumând oxigenul, în timpul intrării mele în acea dimensiune numită extraversiune, când însemnătatea pe care o atribuiam ideilor şi scrisului depăşea limita cunoaşterii experimentale. "I'm swimming in the smoke / Of bridges I have burned."

Realitatea unui artist este precum utilizarea unui cuvânt de tipul "stop" aflat sub dominaţia unui sentiment de destăinuire a gândurilor intime: ea poate fi confirmată printr-un act de uz temporar al unor noţiuni mai elaborate, dar totdeauna până la un punct.

Dar omul cunoaşterii nesfârşite, acest Jupiter orbitând în jurul unor poveşti fără vârstă, la cotitura dintre oniric şi palpabil, se angajează profund în posesia succesiunii de acorduri perceptuale, numai cu permisiunea Egoului care neîncetat strigă: "Înalţă-te deasupra cerurilor". Triumfător, el îmbrăţişează ceea ce se iveşte prin intermediul lui DA provenit dintr-un categoric NU. I used the deadwood to make the fire rase.

Odată cu renaşterea unor lumi nemaivăzute, prin captarea unor noţiuni provenite subit dintr-un soi de ardere a cuvintelor, din îmblânzirea lor cu ajutorul procesului de redefinire a capcanelor metaforice, acest om se auto-exploatează. Ca şi când şi-ar fi stors creierii numai ca să producă substanţa activă, piatra filozofală a cărei curbură particulară se caracterizează prin aşa numitul punct omega. El trebuie luat musai ca martor al unei adevărate practici eliberatoare. "I'm lost in the beating of the storm."

Dacă m-aş fi asemănat cu un asemenea om, sub impresia unui sentiment de putere simbolică sau cu scopul de a deştepta o plăcere estetică, ar fi trebui mai întâi să combin ecourile batalilor inimii mele cu un flux de imagini care nu se opreşte niciodată. Era ca şi când aş fi creat un nou personaj decupabil din întregul unei opere de artă ca instantaneu narativ al unei poveşti fără sfârşit.

S-ar fi spus că m-am pierdut sau am fost absorbit într-o operă de artă, intrând în lumea ei pe uşa din dos a unei vieţi de poveste care încă mă umple de mirare.

Leadership: Poţi să înfăţişezi imaginea unei creaţii bogate, fixând în mintea oamenilor estetica unei poveşti de succes printr-o comparaţie care mizează exclusiv pe materialitatea termenilor de formă şi fond desprinşi din articulaţiile emoţiilor şi viziunilor ce însoţesc viaţa reală?

Inteligenţa izvorâtă dintr-un prea plin al inspiraţiei, ca activitate specific umană făuritoare de valori care pot contribui cu succes la atingerea rezultate optime de ordin estetic, se raportează nu numai la năzuinţele de perfecţionare ale minţilor predispuse la un tip de cunoaştere avansată, cât mai ales la tendinţele şi cerinţele de funcţionalitate ale potenţialului de înnoire personală.

Estetica unei poveşti poate fi fixată în mintea oamenilor printr-o comparaţie care mizează exclusiv pe materialitatea termenilor de formă şi fond desprinşi din viaţa cotidiană, dar şi pe imaginea unei fiinţe care devine cu adevărat liberă pe cale onirică. De altfel, putem privi estetica poveştii drept cea mai vie operaţie de imaginaţie combinativă între emoţie şi viziune, senzaţie şi percepţie, atunci când căutam să extragem noi adevăruri despre lume şi viaţă cu ajutorul unor tehnici narative care ne conturează capacitatea de a vedea lumea prin ochii protagoniştilor unui univers paralel.

Inteligenţa omului creativ este precum imaginea comunicabilă a unei idei năstruşnice. Se poate pune în evidenţă printr-o combinaţie de cadre de prim plan surprinse într-o versiune alternativă a gândiri desprinse din negarea sau acceptarea oricărui adevăr. Ea aparţine, aşadar, uneia dintre puţinele clase de combinaţii, cărora li se opune o clasă enormă, ce include restul posibilităţilor de cuantificare sau personalizare a ceea ce ai obţinut prin învăţare şi asimilare succesivă.

Leadership: Poţi aduce perfecţiunea în toate cadrele de prim-plan ale unei opere de artă, îmbrăţişând ceea ce se iveşte prin intermediul lui DA provenit dintr-un categoric NU?

În leadership se manifestă pregnant acea calitate a omului de a se introduce în existenţa unei lumi percepute prin sensurile pe care cunoaşterea avansată le conferă elementelor de structură conceptuală ale ideilor şi perspectivelor ce promovează progresul ştiinţei. Ştiinţa nu este doar o neîntreruptă căutare a unor noi perspective de a privi lumea şi fiinţa umană, o luptă permanentă pentru a afla cum funcţionează Universul, ci este totodată un proces de transformare a unei plăsmuiri hibridice în "adevăr alternativ" şi apoi în "adevăr" pur şi simplu.

Iar modul de raţionalizare a conţinutului de revelaţii sau concluzii desprinse din implicaţiile acestui proces de utilizare succesivă a informaţiei, transformându-te ulterior într-un critic sau într-un atotştiutor, conferă propriei entităţi creatoare mai multe garanţii de funcţionare.

Cadrele de prim-plan sunt reprezentări subiective elaborate pe baza interpretării acelor întrebări ajutătoare provenite din condensarea şi utilizarea informaţiei, care de altfel ar putea induce în eroare căutătorul de noi abordări ştiinţifice atunci când se adânceşte prea mult în reliefarea unor idei care deformează personalitatea.

Dar omul de ştiinţă cu aptitudini de lider „renaşte” din ceea ce el însuşi experimentează la nivel de interpretare. Întotdeauna el îmbrăţişează ceea ce se iveşte prin intermediul lui DA provenit dintr-un categoric NU, chiar dacă asta înseamnă să se învârtă în cerc după aceleaşi miraje deşarte care îl îndepărtează şi mai mult de adevărurile importante. Chiar dacă este înseamnă să se abandoneze pe el însuşi în procesul de asimilare, prelucrare şi transmitere a informaţiei. Un asemenea Jupiter orbitând în jurul unor poveşti fără sfârşit, găseşte întotdeauna puterea şi motive pentru a-şi continua drumul.

Leadershipul este învăţătura extrasă din farmecul unei creaţii artistice spectaculare care îşi doreşte răspândirea unei poveşti de care nu te mai poţi despărţi.

Burning In The Skies sugerează acea parte creativă din tine, pe cat de puternică datorită dorinţei de experimentare a resurselor informaţionale care provoacă dependenţă, pe atât de vulnerabilă în faţa fenomenului „miraj" (ceva care pare frumos pe dinafară, dar care nu are o bază, o substanţă solidă).

Ca să vezi, şi să nu vezi

Nu există nici o creaţie care să nu fie descoperită privirii Sale, ci totul este gol şi dezvăluit pentru ochii celui căruia trebuie să-i dăm socoteală.

Cunosc un om în vârstă de vreo 73 ani. Stă în grădina lui toată ziua, pe băncuţa de lemn. Se joacă pe telefon, Apple Iphone 13. Şi îmi spunea zilele trecute, cât de mult a muncit el toată viaţa, ce mult i-a plăcut munca. Şi, păcat că nu mai are ce se muncească. Se cam plictiseşte. A fost şef contabil la CFR, pe vremea când se câştigau bani frumoşi. Deci a fost un om foarte important. Are şi un doctorat în filozofie, toată viaţa a fost premiant, şi copii lui tot preminaţi au fost.

- Bun, unde pot să văd şi eu ceva din munca dumneavoastră? Îmi puteţi arăta ceva din experienţa dumneavoastră de-o viaţă? Unde să mă uit? În sus, în jos, stânga, dreapta, pe internet, unde?

- Păi, uite, am cumpărat o casă, le-am cumpărat şi la copii câte o casă la fiecare.

- Le-ai făcut dumitale, cu mâna ta?

- Nu, eu doar le-am cumpărat.

- Bun, dar eu ce-aş putea să văd făcut de mâna dumitale? Nu-mi puteţi arăta chiar nimic din munca colosală de aproape 40 de ani de șef la CFR? Doctoratul ăla în filozofie de care spuneaţi, unde se găseşte? Aveţi vreun exemplar prin casă? Pot citi măcar o pagină din el?

- Păi…să vezi. Am făcut, am dres, am dat, nu mai ştiu pe unde este. Ca să vezi. Şi să nu vezi. Hocus Pocus Preparatus. Pe undeva trebuie să fie, dar nu ştiu unde…

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să demonstreze recunoaşterea eforturilor pe care le-ai depus pentru a-ţi construi o superioritate care NU poate fi garantată?

După cum observaţi, cam aşa stau lucrurile cu oamenii ăştia cărora le-a plăcut enorm de mult munca. Atât de muncitori au fost, că nu se vede nimic din munca lor. Nimic, nimic, nimic. Cum vin, aşa se duc. Şi de aceea nu dă nimeni două parale nici pe munca lor, nici pe ei.

V-ar plăcea să staţi pe lângă asemenea indivizi care muncesc cu spor o viaţă întreagă, dar nu se vede nimic în urma lor? Aţi putea, oare, să vă exprimaţi gratitudinea pentru observaţiile preţioase pe care le-au făcut asupra unui domeniu de activitate? Unde sunt cuvintele lor calde adresate propriei lor creaţii, pe care au făcut-o pierdută? Unde se revede influenţa stimulatorie şi atitudinea lor activă, creatoare, în cursul ulterior al ştiinţei?

Moşnegi şi babe care n-au nimic în capul ăla, ăsta-i adevărul ultimilor 30 de ani în România. Numai somităţi de felul ăsta a avut ţara noastră, de aia suntem ultimii din Europa. Numai şpanuri şi fantome au ajuns în funcţii înalte. Cu pretenţii de mari oameni de cultură. Cu diplome şi doctorate, studii în străinătate. Unul mai intelectual ca altul. Şi cu toate astea, nu se vede nimic în urma lor. Nimic, nimic, nimic. Toţi sunt o apă şi un pământ…

Leadership: Eşti subordonat conceptului de irealitate a creaţiei pe care o plasezi în sfera „regiunii ideale a aparenţelor"?

E posibil așa ceva? Atât de mult ai ținut dumitale la creația ta, doctoratul, această preţioasă experienţă profesională de cercetare, încât nu știi nici măcar unde l-ai rătăcit? Și nici măcar nu te-ai străduit să-l găsești, să-l reciteşti, şi să începi să pui în practică propriile sugestii. Mă întreb, oare cât timp ți-ai bătut capul să-l faci?

Se vede cât de temeinic ai muncit pentru doctoratul în filozofie, după cât timp ai investit să-l cauţi şi să-l recuperezi. Şi atât de preţioasă este creaţia dumitale, încât nici nu te-ai obosit s-o publici după atâţia ani. Cred că seriozitatea şi profesionalismul sunt răsplătite pe măsura eforturilor de a-ţi revedea singura creaţie. De fapt, calitatea lucrării de doctorat se verifică în măsura eforturilor pe care le-ai întreprins dumitale ca să îl publici (măcar pe internet).

Ochii trebuie să vadă, înainte ca mintea să cuprindă. Vă daţi seama ce minte ascuţită, ce idei uimitoare se regăsesc în lucrarea lui de doctorat, de vreme ce nu s-a sinchisit niciodată să-l scoată la vedere. Căci omul care îşi pierde creaţia, şi care nu o face cunoscută, este exact omul care ştie cât de puţin valorează munca lui.

Închipuiţi-vă că Leonardo Da Vinci ar fi terminat de pictat Mona Lisa, şi ar fi ascuns-o de văzul lumii, îngropând-o printr-o groapă din cimitir, ca ulterior să uite locul în care şi-a îngropat creaţia. Este posibil aşa ceva? Da, doar la români !

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi înţelegi mintea şi trăirile raliindu-te conştiincios unei filozofii adoptată ca deviză a vieții : "creaţia se întoarce împotriva creatorului ei" ?

Somităţile noastre, intelectualii cu funcţii înalte din România, exact asta fac: au uitat cu toţii unde şi-au îngropat creaţiile. Nimic nu se vede, fiindcă le-au îngropat atât de bine, încât nimeni, vreodată, să nu le găsească. Cu toţii se cred la fel de valoroşi precum Da Vinci, doar că le lipseşte exact lucrul cel mai important: dovada inteligenţei lor. Oare cât de inteligent poate să fie omul care îşi ascunde meritele? Iar dacă dovada inteligenţei omului sunt faptele sale, atunci cum se numeşte omul care îşi ascunde faptele şi nu vrea să le scoată la lumină?

Cel fel de om este acela care îşi îngroapă în neuitare propria lui creaţie?

Oricum, cam atât a avut de spus şi de arătat...marele filozof, mare şef la CFR, căruia nu-i va citi nimeni vreodată doctoratul. El în continuare se crede omul ideilor măreţe, idei care din păcate nu vor putea schimba societatea. Ele sunt ascunse bine, undeva în întunericul vreunui mormânt fără cruce, loc în care va ajunge şi el, curând. Şi fără să-şi dea seama, va fi complet uitat de lume, la fel cum a procedat şi el cu doctoratul lui. Măreaţa lui filozofie nu a ajuns la nivelul acestui veşnic adevăr: creaţia se întoarce întotdeauna împotriva creatorului ei, dacă el nu se preocupă de ea.

Mare dreptate a avut Apostolul Pavel când a scris: „Nu există nici o creaţie care să nu fie descoperită privirii Sale, ci totul este gol şi dezvăluit pentru ochii celui căruia trebuie să-i dăm socoteală".

Valoarea conţinutului propriei gândiri este direct proporţională cu eforturile depuse în timpul desfăşurări activităţii de creaţie. Iar valoarea unui lider este dată de unicitatea creaţiei sale pe care doar progresul ştiinţei o poate atesta.

Ca să vezi, şi să nu vezi este deviza celor a căror creaţie există, dar nu se găseşte. Este deviza impostorilor care, încercând să arate că sunt mai mult decât sunt cu adevărat, cad în capcana propriei lor ignoranţe, dovada unei superficialităţi de cugetare neîngăduite, efectul unei delăsări cronice într-un anumit domeniu.

Iar Dumnezeu scoate întotdeauna adevărul la iveală, înainte ca ei să treacă în nefiinţă, încât să conştientizeze toţi cât de mici şi neînsemnaţi au fost o viaţă întreagă. Mici şi neînsemnaţi, la fel ca şi creaţia lor...

Călător prin timp şi spaţiu

Verifică-ţi autenticitatea, adoptând un statut de fiinţă superioară în raport cu lumea nou descoperită.

Păşesc hotărât pe drumul închipuit spre care nu găsesc întoarcere, justificând repetat încrederea în cele fără de sfârșit. Situaţie care se manifestă drept consecinţă a plăsmuirii unui soi de punte de legătură între două lumi antagonice. Lumea unei lecturi ascunse pe fondul unui răspuns la întrebarea: "ce s-a întâmplat cu realitatea?", când totul cere nevoia de plauzibil la diferite nivele de sintetizare ale comparaţiei cu creaţiile unui scenarist plin de inspiraţie. Şi lumea fără sfârşit a asocierilor dintre pictura aplicată pe fondul unui peisaj imaginar şi visul cu ochii deschişi al unui univers magic.

Cauzativ, cuprins de acea scânteie de inspiraţie proprie fizicianului care încearcă să aducă în contact două corpuri a căror temperatură diferă, astfel încât să producă un transfer spontan de energie sub formă de căldură, prin conducţie, am înţeles că locul meu este mai degrabă printre aştri, decât printre muritori. Fiindcă atunci când mă însingurez în mod voit şi visez la o cunoaştere care să nu fie nici literar-artistică, nici ştiinţifică, mă simt ca şi când aş locui într-un cer care nu se mai termină, tăind necunoscutul în două părţi bizare: o parte umplută cu frumosul care întrece orice adevăr şi o parte umplută cu simbolismul unor lupte îndelungate în jurul sufletului.

Universul este lumea care te cuprinde atunci când te însingurezi într-un pustiu căruia trebuie să-i descoperi secretele frumuseţii, simţindu-te prezent în el ca umbra vecină a unei glorii pe care trebuie să o reinventezi. Iar dacă fiecare stea îşi are propriul ei nemuritor, şi dacă în ADN-ul fiecărui muritor se găsesc înmagazinate urmele prafului de stea amestecat cu o doză de materie solară, sub formă de energie regenerabilă, poate aş fi reuşit să-mi satisfac curiozitatea vizavi de ceea ce reprezentam în planul terrei. Şi de ce.

Leadership: Poţi să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care încearcă neîncetat să te modeleze în altceva, fără să rămâi tributar vieţii în care nu se întâmplă nimic nemuritor?

Citeam mai devreme în Utopia Terra, despre un tip ale cărui cunoştinţe de fizică l-au determinat să se gândească la o metodă alternativă de a face o stea în miniatură. Cam după încă o lună de încercări, periculos de eşuate, el încerca să o plăsmuiască fără ardere. Doar ficţiune între electroni. A luat din laborator două materiale, care puse în contact, generează electroni. Apoi le-a desfăcut în praf atomic. Punându-le în contact, într-o formă sferică, el a izbutit să creeze o mini-furtună electrică, cu fulgere şi mişcări ale prafului. Dar, în timp ce treceau secundele, sfera îşi mărea forma şi îşi micşora numărul fulgerelor. Luând nişte nisip şi compactându-l la maximul puterilor, el a reuşit să creeze o sticlă cu o densitate mai mare decât cea a diamantului.

A vorbi despre materie, despre efectul ei asupra vieţii fragile şi a morţii care o urmează, pare a fi o continuare a învăţăturilor extrase dintr-o experienţă intermediară - a unei alchimii complicate. Nu sunt decât cuvinte neînsufleţite şi teorii cernute în vuietul vremi, ca nişte visuri purtând antetul descoperirilor ştiinţifice. Şi care, în timp îşi pierd lucirea. Numai nisipul se alege de ele.

Viaţa pe care par s-o trăiesc nu mai prezintă importanţă decât prin aventura cunoaşterii reperată la nivel de astrologie, metafizică şi ezoterism. Cumva, par să fiu slavul unei zodii care se joacă cu proiecţia onirică a unor mistere nepământeşti, generatoare de sensuri multiple, faţă de toată creaţia pe care o trăiesc cu toată acea mistuire de care orice artist se lasă devorat, ca s-o scoată din el şi s-o dea unei omeniri mai vechi, încă nepregătită pentru a îmbrăţişa infinitul unei picături de nemurire.

Universul încape într-un bob de nisip de pe plaja unei planete din alt univers. Numai timpul și minunea transformării fac trecerea din unul în celălalt.

Leadership: Poţi să oferi un înțeles plauzibil lumii la care aderi, extinzându-ţi preocupările dincolo de marginile ştiinţei?

Inventatorul se defineşte în lumina a ceea ce descoperă prin cercetare și experimentare, putând concepe, așadar, semnele unui nou episod al triumfului asupra înfăptuirii de noi realizări ştiinţifice. El riscă să transforme întreaga lume într-un sistem al obiectelor, al "plus-produsului" și al raporturilor dintre ele. Pe de altă parte, creatorul de lumi îşi reevaluează viaţa din perspectiva unei călătorii în timp şi spaţiu, dincolo de frontierele Eului limitat, astfel încât să existe el însuşi ca univers infinit.

Actul de creație, grupat în jurul mărcii unui început de orizont, poate să stăruiască în mod exclusiv asupra valorii de cunoaştere, dar fără să aibă vreun contact real cu natura omului însuși. Cu succesiunea de stări, gânduri și acțiuni în ecuația reprezentării unui tip uman nou.

Actul de creaţie poate chiar să degenereze într-un exces de demonstrație a calităţilor de căutător al unui nou sens al vieţii. Iar acest exces poate să diminueze sensibilitatea faţă de ceea ce se petrece în lumea interioară-spirituală a omului.

Trăiești ca și cum nu exişti? Ei bine, lanţurile îndeletnicirilor tale pot fi mângâietoare doar atunci când exişti ca fiinţă interioară, ceea ce înseamnă să fii centrat pe evoluţia şi creşterea ta ca fiinţă conştientă de fundamentul ei. În caz contrar devii un călător care porneşte spre nord doar pentru că toată lumea o ia spre sud, căutând în permanenţă o fărâmă de autenticitate între „n” opriri.

Leadershipul este universul în care te descoperi, te manifeşti şi te obişnuieşti să trăieşti ca un scenarist care provoacă mereu regulile colajului şi montajului, privind totul din prisma abisului din el însuşi sau din depărtarea unei distanţe în aparenţă insurmontabile dintre "omul vechi" şi "omul nou".

Călătorul prin timp şi spaţiu reprezintă partea defavorizată a „contractului” dintre știință și lumea interioară, având un impact major numai asupra transformării ideilor în concepte și aplicații inovatoare.

Dar o fiinţă cuprinsă pe de-a-ntregul în actul nesfârşit al creaţiei nu-și poate exercita atribuţia de „transmiţător de stări și sentimente”. Locul ei este mai degrabă printre aştri, decât printre muritori.

Un domeniu cum este leadershipul, aparţinând în același timp celor două reprezentări, una a omului și cealaltă a ştiinţei, se prezintă drept o noţiune ce caracterizează o atitudine relaţională între datorie și sentiment, între pasiune și conștient, între egoism și lepădare de sine.

Nu uita că mult mai minunat decât veşmântul pe care îl îmbraci şi îl accesorizezi .. ești tu.

Călător spre infinit

On Februarie 10, 2010

Demonstrează o atitudine puternică în leadership, făcând mereu un pas înainte spre mari orizonturi.

Motivaţi de idei îndrăzneţe, curajoşi până la capăt, energici în muncă, animaţi de dorinţa de a-şi împlini visurile, ambiţioşi, tenace şi optimişti, unii oameni s-au avântat spre destinaţii necunoscute – îndepărtate şi riscante. Să ajungă acolo unde nimeni n-a mai ajuns vreodată, să înfăptuiască ceea ce au promis şi ceea ce nimeni altcineva n-a mai reuşit să înfăptuiască, asta a fost cea mai mare recompensă şi bucurie pentru ei.

De aceea faptele lor, a acestor temerari căutători de noi orizonturi, predestinaţi să împlinească anumite misiuni, predestinaţi să-şi impună viziunile absolut extraordinare, vor rămâne nemuritoare. Numai cine îşi urmăreşte obiectivele cu tenacitate, cu un simţ acut al timpului şi al misiunii personale, cu multă convingere şi hotărâre, va reuşi să-şi evidenţieze calităţile cele mai preţioase şi să cultive simpatie în rândul celorlalţi oameni.

Leadership: Destinaţia spre care tinzi este infinitul pe care nu-l vezi, dar pe care Dumnezeu l-a presărat în tine?

Omenirea nu-l va putea uita niciodată pe marele explorator şi om de ştiinţă Fridtjof Nansen, care mereu a fost gata să înfrunte totul cu o doză de curaj neînchipuit de mare. Realizările sale au întrecut orice închipuire. Îl pasionau sporturile de iarnă. S-a remarcat destul de rapid pe scena lumii, schiurile aducându-i o adevărată glorie sportivă. La numai 17 ani a fost campion al Norvegiei.

Dar pentru un om cu o voinţă puternică şi idealuri înalte, un singur premiu, o singură medalie, nu sunt de-ajuns. Drept dovadă, doisprezece ani în şir a ieşit, mai apoi, învingător în concursurile de mare fond. De asemenea a ieşit şi campion al lumii la patinaj viteză.

Sportul pentru un om de talia lui Nansen, îndrăzneţ, inventiv şi aventuros, nu i-a putut umbri celelalte năzuinţe. Dând întotdeauna dovada de fermitate şi inspiraţie, el şi-a stabilit mereu alte scopuri, din ce în ce mai înalte, mai ambiţioase, mai greu de atins. Aşa că a mai stabilit un record, de neînchipuit. A reuşit să străbată pe schiuri primul Groenlanda, ţara aspră, necercetată pana atunci. Gloria lui a făcut înconjurul lumii.

Dar ca întotdeauna, meritele sale deosebite nu l-au putut opri şi a continuat cu alte ţeluri măreţe. Setea de aventură nu-i dădea pace. Cu o neasemuită îndrăzneală, dârzenie şi dragoste de viaţă, şi-a propus mai apoi un alt ţel, mai măreţ, mai ambiţios, mai dificil de atins: să traverseze Polul Nord. A reuşit împreună cu echipajul său de pe vasul Fram să înainteze de-a lungul ţărmurilor Asiei, unde scepticii proorociseră mari greutăţi. Apoi, pe schiuri, alături de prietenul său Johansen, a reuşit să atingă cel mai nordic punct care fusese atins vreodată. Marea fapta a lui Nansen făcu şi de această dată înconjurul lumii.

Infinitul este darul pe care Dumnezeu îl face omului pentru înfăptuirile care îl individualizează, încununându-i strădaniile cu libertatea de a se ridica deasupra propriilor limite.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asiguri o vizibilitate şi un control sporit spre urcare, în variatele acorduri cu condiţiile de valorizare a potenţialului tău?

O protecţie universal valabilă împotriva avalanşei de iniţiative favorabile pentru evoluţie o constituie căutarea acestor modele mai cuprinzătoare de interacţiune cu schimbarea "de sus în jos".

Cu alte cuvinte, nu este de ajuns să te înalţi spre ceea ce poţi deveni, prin idealurile pe care le slujeşti necontenit, mai important este felul cum îţi orientezi voinţa în drumul spre coborâre.

Totuşi, având vizibilitate şi control sporit spre urcare, în variatele acorduri cu condiţiile de valorizare a potenţialului tău de lider, care îşi cere mereu dreptul de proprietate asupra capacităţilor de explorare a infinitului, în sensul unei înţelegeri a grandiosului, dar mai ales în sensul unei noi şi diferite dinamici de viaţă, vei deschide leadershipului perspective noi.

Asta se poate numai prin individualizarea propriilor tale elemente de experienţă şi prin interpretarea a ceea ce se află dincolo de aparenţe, dincolo de imposibil, dincolo de situaţia prezentă. Cine eşti tu cu adevărat şi ce poţi să devii prin arta de a te a arăta puternic şi de neoprit?

Dacă cauţi îndelung să urci treptele infinitului, poţi să ajungi la o stăpânire interioară atât de mare, ţinându-te departe de descurajare, încât factorii exteriori să nu te afecteze în niciun fel. Totodată, şi reciproca este valabilă. Eu însă cred că majoritatea oamenilor sunt departe de "independenţa de exterior", ci mai degrabă ataşaţi de acel "echilibrul de interior" care nu le permite să evolueze spre nivelul cel mai de sus.

Poţi spre evoluezi spre varianta ta de "a fi" care îţi aduce maximum de satisfacţie şi îţi suplimentează valoarea personală cu noi elemente de performanţă?

Leadership: Îţi stabileşti poziţia de start într-o cursă fără întoarcere, aliniindu-te cu următoarea direcţie de referinţă: "Infinitul este vârful care va urca mereu în ochii celor ce vor să-l cuprindă"?

Nansen a fost tipul de lider competent şi curajos. A mers tot timpul mai departe, tot mai departe, stabilindu-şi în permanenţă noi ţeluri. Nu şi-a permis niciodată să rămână inactiv, repausul îl obosea cel mai mult. A ajuns ambasadorul Norvegiei în Anglia, a fost numit profesor de oceanografie al Academiei de Ştiinţe din Christiania. S-a implicat în numeroase campanii umanitare cum ar fi ajutorarea armenilor refugiaţi în Turcia, a ajuns deputat de onoare, a scris mai multe cărţi ce au făcut înconjurul lumii, a realizat un studiu complex al curenţilor maritimi şi al mişcării gheţarilor în Bazinul Polar, şi multe, multe altele.

Până la vârsta de 70 de ani, până în ultima clipă, Nansen a mers înainte ! Mereu înainte ! Viaţa lui se poate rezuma ca o veşnică goană după visuri, o veşnică competiţie cu sine însuşi, o nesfârşită dorinţă de aventură. Un nesfârşit şir de ţeluri şi năzuinţe aparent imposibil de atins.

Bine a remarcat cineva odată: „ Infinitul este vârful care va urca mereu în ochii celor ce vor să-l cuprindă. " Oamenii puternic conectaţi la o mentalitate a realizărilor, bazată pe optimism şi perseverenţă, se vor afla tot timpul în căutare de noi provocări, o viaţă întreagă. Păcat însă că viaţa este prea scurtă pentru o poveste prea lungă, nu-i aşa?

Un om al faptelor mari îşi arată respectul faţă de ceea ce-l motivează lăuntric, chiar dacă nu ştie prea bine încotro se îndreaptă şi ce îl aşteaptă !

Numai un om neînduplecat în îndeplinirea visurilor sale poate ajunge acolo unde nimeni altcineva n-a mai ajuns. Numai un om împins de ambiţii imense, care pulsează energie, îşi poate croi drumul spre faimă şi glorie. Numai un călător spre infinit este capabil să pornească în aventura vieţii şi să deschidă până în ultima clipă, mereu, alte porţi.

Tu eşti un astfel de om? Demonstrezi o atitudine puternică în leadership prin angajamentul pe care ţi-l iei, acela de a deschide mereu noi porţi spre o lume pe care o vei descoperi încetul cu încetul? Eşti un căutător de noi orizonturi, predestinat să împlinească anumite misiuni, predestinat să-şi impună viziunile absolut extraordinare? Te distingi prin grija vădită pe care o ai faţă de timpul tău? Realizările tale unde se opresc?

Leadershipul este viziunea din care se conturează măreţia de a străbate o distanţă prea ambiţioasă spre excelenţă, în timpul mult mai scurt pe care ţi-l acordă viaţa.

Concluzie: Cu toţii suntem călători în această viaţă, avem scopuri, idealuri înalte. Dar oare câţi dintre noi vom fi capabili să deschidem permanent noi uşi spre noi tărâmuri necunoscute?

Demonstrează o atitudine puternică în leadership, făcând mereu un pas înainte spre mari orizonturi.

Călătoria spre dincolo de tine

On Martie 15, 2009

Învaţă să deţii controlul asupra viitorului, fără să-ţi pui sub semnul întrebării simţul de orientare.

Nu mai aştepta ajutor de nicăieri, ştia că de acum nimeni nu putea să-i întindă mâna, că nu mai avea nici rude, nici prieteni, nici necunoscuţi, de parcă ar fi fost osândit să fie singur. Între el şi ceilalţi se aşternuse un gol. Nu suna a împăcare cu soarta, era doar acceptarea situaţiei, aşa cum e.

Urma să i se deschidă calea spre o nouă viaţă, nu putea să nu fie cuprins de înfiorare în faţa acestui pas însemnat. Simţea că nu prea avea de ales. Perspectiva îl copleşea şi îl înfiora. Nu mai fusese niciodată până atunci atât de izolat de ceilalţi, şi nu mai fusese niciodată confruntat cu lucruri necunoscute. Totuşi, trebuia să descopere de unul singur toate aspectele legate de viitorul său.

Nu avea niciun punct de reper, nimic care să-l ajute să-şi găsească drumul spre marele său vis: acela de a zbura în spaţiu. Trăia într-un prezent necunoscut şi plin de capcane, dar într-un fel care stârnea emoţie, nu într-unul care să-l facă să se simtă ameninţat în vreun fel. Instinctul său, pe care se bazase atât de mult, îl avertiza totuşi să fie prudent.

Leadership: Minusurile care te dezarmează atunci când încerci să intri într-o poveste de succes îţi oferă posibilitatea de a-ţi exprima sufletul într-un mod inedit şi spectaculos, să faci lucruri pe care le credeai de neatins?

Dacă ai urmărit filmul „ Gattaca (1997) ", probabil îţi aminteşti de Vincent Freeman a cărui călătorie, lentă şi sinuoasă, spre îndeplinirea viselor l-a ajutat să se descopere pe el însuşi. În ciuda dizabilităţilor sale, el a realizat că a fost mult mai bun decât toţi ceilalţi aspiranţi la zborul în spaţiu. În finalul filmului, Vincent mărturisea cu multă credinţă: „Am fost la fel de bun ca oricare altul, şi mai bun decât majoritatea."

Cineva spunea: „Înainte de a deveni un om mare, începe prin a fi un om mic." Adică, înainte de a deveni un om de valoare, învaţă să te descoperi, să găseşti ce ai mai bun în tine, mai ales capacitatea ta de a-ţi asuma riscuri şi responsabilităţi. Încrederea în tine provine din încrederea totală în ceea ce crezi tu că eşti, care este alimentată de convingerile bine fixate în subconştient.

A-ţi exprima sufletul într-un mod inedit şi spectaculos înseamnă să nu pui la îndoială ceea ce este fundamental pentru tine: modul în care te simţi în prezenţa unei viziuni pe care Divina Providenţă ţi-a inspirat-o.

În străfundul minţii lui Vincent exista ideea că trebuie să reușească, chiar dacă avea se avânte într-o direcţia necunoscută. Nu avea o imagine clară despre ceea ce va găsi în călătoria sa. Dar cumva a reuşit să găsească ceea ce dorea. Reuşita lui s-a datorat priceperii sale de a învinge dificultăţile, şi de a face lucrurile să se învârtă după dorinţa sa. Şi-a pus la încercare capacitatea de a acţiona unitar şi în armonie cu toate resursele sale pentru a-şi crea un viitor . Şi-a creat singur ocaziile de care avea absolută nevoie pentru a reuşi. A învăţat să deţină controlul asupra viitorului, fără să-şi pună sub semnul întrebării simţul de orientare.

Dacă vrei să te îndrepţi spre punctul cel mai înalt al desăvârşirii tale ca lider, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi pui la încercare capacitatea de a-ţi controla propria soartă, cu încredere absolută în viitor. Acesta este testul suprem pe care marii lideri, din toate timpurile, de la Hannibal până la Napoleon Bonaparte şi până la Bill Gates, l-au avut de trecut. Această călătorie care are ca efect recunoaşterea propriilor tale capacităţi, este fundamentul pe care se sprijină viitorul tău. Reprezintă un pas mare înspre maturitate. Cum ai putea să-i conduci pe alţii, dacă nu ştii care este drumul cel mai bun pe care trebuie să-l urmezi tu?

Viziunea este ceea ce ajunge la tine sub formă de întâmplare, în raport cu o imagine a perfecţiunii pe care ţi-o construieşti în relaţie cu Providenţa.

Călătoria spre dincolo de tine desemnează trecerea spre nivelul cel mai înalt de autodepăşire. Este singura cale prin care poţi recunoaşte valoarea propriei tale persoane, şi a propriilor tale capacităţi de a te promova, în timp, în mijlocul „elitei". Nu uita ce spuneam în articolul trecut: Poţi să decazi prin tine însuţi, sau te poţi înălţa prin tine însuţi". Ce alegi?

Dacă eşti familiarizat cu aparatul foto Nikon Coolpix P7000, atunci ştii că poţi seta pentru funcţia Auto-ISO o valoare maximă, reglând manual balansul de alb prin intermediul temperaturii culorii.

Tot aşa este şi cu capacitatea ta de a controla viitorul. Trebuie să-ţi setezi sistemul de ghidare spre destinaţia aleasă, reglându-ţi balansul de încredere şi ambiţie prin intermediul convingerilor şi valorilor personale care îţi determină performanţa. Şi, aşa cum bine preciza cineva pe un blog de pe internet, este important să conştientizezi şi să accepţi că pentru îndeplinirea planurilor cu bătaie lungă e nevoie de determinare, răbdare şi concentrarea potenţialului creator în direcţia respectivă.

Concluzie: Călătoria spre dincolo de tine este de fapt drumul spre autodepăşire al fiecărui om, dar mai ales al unui lider. Dorinţa, dar şi acţionarea permanentă în direcţia perfecţionării continue şi de atingere a ţelurilor propuse reprezintă o modalitate de a deţine controlul asupra viitorului tău. Să ai permanent încredere în forţele tale, să perseverezi, să lupţi pentru viitorul tău şi mai ales să nu te dai bătut niciodată. Acest lucru îţi va permite să ocupi un loc fruntaş pe scara valorilor.

Călătorie spre profunzimile lumii

Asigură unicitatea definitorie actului creator, direcţionându-ţi interesul spre ceea ce depăşeşte limitele unei subiectivităţi autoimpuse.

Problema timpului istoric, a timpului privit în întinderea epocilor, a revenit în câteva proiecte ale regizorului rus Serghei Eisenstein (nu voia el să facă un film despre istoria Americii?) Cu „Que viva Mexico ! " preocuparea ia amploare și se ridică, pentru prima oară, problema creării unei soluții compoziţionale inedite pentru a putea îmbrățișa întreaga istorie a umanităţii. Soluția compoziţională a filmului mexican avea însă neajunsul de a nu crea unitate decât în final, prin contopirea, în acea sărbătoare a morţilor, a tuturor personajelor dispersate în povestiri independente de-al lungul filmului. Soluția epică nu fusese găsită.

Proiectele ulterioare căutau uneori să rezolve problema. Acum, în proiectul filmului despre Canalul Fergana, soluția se naște firesc, organic, din însăşi substanţa dramatică a filmului: figura bătrânului cântăreț Tohtasin va străbate întreg filmul, formându-i osătura epică. El cântă la început trecutul îndepărtat, apoi, într-un al doilea cântec, propria sa viață, iar în a treia parte el nu mai cântă, ci acţionează direct. Cântărețul uneşte astfel epocile îndepărtate ale istoriei. Ideea, odată născută, se cizelează. *

Leadership: Poți să personalizezi ceea ce dezvolţi în cadrul relaţiei cu latura esenţială a unei existențe trecute, astfel încât unicitatea creaţiei tale să capete o anumită certitudine în privinţa imaginii şi reputaţiei care te reprezintă?

A realiza un film înseamnă să reconstitui o experienţă de viaţă care nu contravine imaginii pe care intenţionezi să facă înconjurul lumii. Specific unui demers de obţinere a esenţei unei producţii personale, ca tendinţă de extindere a cheii compoziţionale spre considerarea și adâncirea unor semnificaţii aparte asupra lumii, este faptul că astfel se instalează o stare de fapt - a posesiei faţă de ceva personalizat, utilizat mai apoi ca reper pentru modelarea viziunii personale.

Important în definirea unei ştiinţe precum leadershipul este iniţiativa de construcție a unui montaj complex de imagini, fără draperii și fără perdele, de căutări și reconstituiri ale trecutului, care să surprindă latura „pregătirii pentru viaţă". Adică acea latură ascunsă a firii umane trecută prin diferite ipostaze, transpusă mai apoi în concepte definitorii. Un film declanşator de emoţii şi reacţii, este o călătorie spre profunzimile lumii, fiindcă denotă o perspectivă istorică care explică în mod obiectiv situaţia prezentă, cu aspecte dramatice din care ai ceva de învăţat.

Unicitatea creaţiei tale poate să capete o anumită certitudine în privinţa imaginii şi reputaţiei care te reprezintă, în cazul în care existenţa pe care o aduci în prim planul lumii reflectă o nouă concepţie despre felul în care interpretezi sensul lumii.

Revelaţiile existenţei au meritul de a fi corelate cu strădania regizorului de a progresa în contextul unor teorii care descriu din mai multe perspective o viziune reprezentativă asupra dimensiunii umane. Iar maeştrii" în arta diversiunii prin imagine știu să personalizeze ceea ce se dezvoltă în cadrul relaţiei cu latura esenţială a unei existențe trecute, astfel încât să-și poată atribui roluri egale cu ale modelelor lor.

Pe această cale aducem în discuţie „dreptul de proprietate" asupra lumii datorită esenţei dramatice dobândite prin crearea unor soluții compoziţionale inedite. Dramatismul este o încercare de a scoate în evidenţă nişte emoţii aparte vizavi de evenimentele unei lumi imperfecte. O lume ce are ca reper inclinaţia creatorului spre ceea ce depăşeşte limitele subiectivităţii autoimpuse, pentru a da sens unei înţelegeri care intuieşte profunzimile unei naturi sau realităţi din alt timp.

Subiectivitatea este ceea ce vezi la tine prin intermediul unei compoziţii care schimbă percepţia lumii despre ea însăşi.

Iar limitele unei subiectivităţi autoimpuse, date de viziunea şi personalizarea unui cadru de transmitere a experienţei de viaţă, pot fi depăşite prin redarea unei anumite perspective asupra lumii care nu judecă mersul ei, ci încearcă să găsească o înţelegere, o explicaţie, o interpretare, o poveste, în cadrul unei premiere care se anunţă a fi un autentic eveniment cultural.

Călătoria spre profunzimile lumii este întreprinsă cel mai adesea de regizori - aceşti creatori ai faptelor substituite interpretării personale, în scopul redării diferitelor imagini ale unor personalităţi de seamă care, prin asemănare sau prin contrast, pot face din ei nişte modele egale în reprezentativitate.

Călăuza mecanicului

Direcţionează-ţi paşii spre o cale mai bună, reevaluând felul cum îţi clarifici principiile de conducere.

În captivantul roman poliţist „ Zece negri mititei " al celebrei scriitoare Agatha Christie, criminalul, după ce a reuşit să-şi pună în aplicare minuţiosul plan diabolic, acela de a-i omorî pe toţi invitaţii săi de pe insula Negrului, a scos la iveală printr-o scrisoare anonimă modul în care s-au petrecut lucrurile: cum a reuşit să-i omoare pe fiecare în parte, cu câtă iscusinţă, viclenie şi meşteşugire a acţionat pe tot parcursul acelor câteva zile, modul în care şi-a ascuns, cu foarte mare grijă şi atenţie adevărata identitate - modul în care şi-a jucat rolul, cu câtă măiestrie şi îndemânare i-a păcălit pe toţi, negreşit, pe absolut toţi.

Mărturisirea lui, care urma să fie închisă într-o sticlă sigilată şi azvârlită în valurile mării, înainte de a-şi pune singur capăt zilelor într-un mod cu totul şi cu totul original, se încheie cam aşa:

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi găseşti adevărata autoritate interioară într-o permanentă determinare exterioară care poate să contribuie la identificarea cauzei unei viziuni capabilă să devină vocaţie?

Această poveste, splendidă prin intriga pe care o dezvoltă, prin jocul excepţional jucat de criminal, a cărui identitate abia la sfârşit este dezvăluită, ne reaminteşte un lucru simplu. Că oamenii cu cea mai mare influenţă pot să obţină în realitatea de zi cu zi o extraordinară performanţă, şi asta doar vrând să arate cât de iscusiţi sunt în a-şi folosi mintea. De fapt, această provocare de a-ţi folosi mintea în cel mai iscusit mod posibil este forţa unei autorităţi interioare care îţi spune constant să fii cât mai funcţional, cât mai autentic, cât mai influent în raport cu ceilalţi oameni.

Dar fiecare om cu influenţă îşi joacă rolul conform caracterului său, conturându-şi personajul într-o manieră ideală viziunii sale. Acest criminal, prin profesionalismul cu care şi-a conceput şi şi-a dus la îndeplinire planul, acest "lider" prin puterea lui de a face reguli, prin caracterul lui puternic (dar distrugător), prin puterea lui de a induce celorlalţi o anumită stare, a avut fără îndoială acea încredere în puterea lui personală pe care ştia s-o mânuiască cu precizia unui ceasornic.

El este un bun exemplu, mai întâi al puterii gândului – căci gândul îţi dirijează faptele, apoi al puterii imaginaţiei – căci imaginaţia îţi creează viziunea. Dar poate oare mecanicul dintr-un astfel de om să descopere locul unde zace ascunsă rotiţa care, pusă în mişcare, să prilejuiască succesul total, acela de lungă durată? Nu. Nu poate. Sau poate, dar numai până la un anumit punct.

Dar, atenţie ! Determinarea exterioară care poate să contribuie la identificarea cauzei unei viziuni capabilă să devină vocaţie este provocarea de a demonstra celorlalţi oameni că eşti mult mai presus ca ei, ceea ce poate duce la depăşirea limitelor oricărei imaginaţii normale. De fapt, cauza unei viziuni capabilă să devină vocaţie poate fi o ocazie de a-ţi testa inteligenţa într-un mod original, dar totodată poate fi şi o ocazie de a-ţi extinde gândirea prin reevaluarea convingerilor despre sine.

Leadership: Poţi să fii arbitrul propriului tău caracter prin identificarea cauzei unei imagini de sine care îţi corectează automat erorile de gândire săvârşite printr-o concentrare asupra sentimentelor care îţi alimentează vanitatea?

Cineva a spus: "Adevărata mărime şi nobleţe a unui om este măsurată prin puterea lui de a-şi supune simţămintele, şi nu de puterea simţămintelor sale de a-l supune pe el."

Aşa cum un arbitru este obligat - prin comportarea sa - să reamintească necontenit echipierilor limitele permise de regulament şi de etica sportivă, tot aşa şi tu, ca să-ţi ridici nivelul de nobleţe – ce face din tine un om cu adevărat valoros, trebuie să-ţi reaminteşti ţie însuţi limitele permise de etica umană, şi să nu încalci niciodată regulile absolut necesare unei bune funcţionări – în conformitate cu modelul de leadership impus de ceilalţi. Ca să ceri mai mult de la ceilalţi, mai întâi trebuie să ceri mai mult de la tine - prin puterea ta de a-ti supune simţămintele. Ca şi arbitru al propriului tău destin, trebuie să fii capabil să opreşti jocul dintre bine şi rău atunci când latura ta negativă este zdrobitoare în defavoarea celorlalţi.

Tu eşti un exemplu pentru ceilalţi? Ca lider, eşti mai întâi de toate adept al marilor principii care călăuzesc şi reglementează conduita în relaţiile interumane? Iţi cultivi potenţialul în lumina simţămintelor celorlalţi? Care consideri că este aspectul negativ al potenţialului tău?

Imaginea de sine care îţi corectează automat erorile de gândire are ca substrat reflectarea ta într-o conştiinţă care a descoperit tristeţea pe care o dă (adesea) avântul dorinţei de validare şi afirmare a inteligenţei.

Nu uita că sentimentele care îţi alimentează vanitatea, precum duşmănia, aroganţa sau grandomania, sunt de fapt nişte nevoi izvorâte dintr-o frustrare, şi ele nu fac altceva decât să te agaţe şi să te coboare în starea de încordare şi stres. Auto-vinovaţia te va distruge în cele din urmă, te va măcina până când nu va mai rămâne nimic din tine.

Călăuza mecanicului este de fapt drumul către tine însuţi, care te ajută să îţi reconstruieşti şi să îţi fortifici bazele leadershipului. Dar pentru asta trebuie să identifici exact acea "rotiţa problemă" care îţi indică greşit nivelul caracterului tău, şi s-o repari înainte ca întreg mecanismul să se deterioreze.

Concluzie: Ca lider trebuie să discerni binele de rău, deci trebuie să-ti clădeşti principiile pe o etică şi o deontologie stabilite de "normalul" societăţii umane. Ideile şi viziunea ca şi comportamentul trebuiesc orientate spre limita superioară a "normalului" stabilit şi definit de societatea umană prin diferite dispoziţii legale dar şi de acel bun simţ învăţat de la predecesorii noştri, care trebuie să fie adevărate călăuze ce ne direcţionează paşii pe calea adecvată spre atingerea unui scop benefic pentru toţi.

Direcţionează-ţi paşii spre o cale mai bună, reevaluând felul cum îţi clarifici principiile de conducere.

Călăuza rătăciţilor (II)

Transmite-le oamenilor mărturia a ceea ce eşti, optimizându-ţi acţiunile în conformitate cu modul tău dominant de orientare.

Ca să nu ne strice planul şi fără să mai stea pe gânduri, Vlad, liderul grupului, a luat o decizie curajoasă: „ Voi merge eu la ei şi-i voi conduce pe drumul cel bun. În douăzeci si cinci de minute voi fi înapoi. Aşteptaţi-mă exact aici şi odihniţi-vă puţin, căci mai avem mult de urcat. " Apoi, cu paşi grăbiţi, el plecă în urmă celor trei rătăciţi.

Ei bine, ce s-a întâmplat apoi părea luat din filmele de aventuri. N-am avut încotro, şi am aşteptat. Dar am aşteptat cam mult, vreo oră si ceva, iar Vlad n-a mai apărut. Văzând că nu mai apare, am hotărât să ne întoarcem pe traseul pe care am venit. Şi stupoare. Ne-am rătăcit şi noi pe una dintre potecile ce coborau din munte. Norocul nostru a fost că un mic grup de turişti, condus de un ghid autorizat, cobora muntele, şi astfel am fost ajutaţi să ajungem la pensiune.

Dar ce s-a întâmplat cu Vlad şi cu ceilalţi trei prieteni ai noştri? Căci nu se aflau la pensiune când am ajuns noi, ci abia mai târziu, spre seara i-am revăzut. Ei bine, Vlad i-a ajuns din urmă pe cei trei, dar Maria, una din cele două fete, şi-a luxat piciorul, astfel că micul lor grup a coborât mai greu şi într-un timp mai îndelungat decât cel estimat de Vlad. Când acesta a revenit la locul unde ne lăsase nu mai eram noi de găsit, căci luaserăm iniţiativa de a coborî singuri.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi impui limitele într-o căutare de a te autodepăşi, fără să acorzi întâietate unei direcţii de afirmare a valorilor care nu te definesc?

N-a fost cu putinţă să ajungem la destinaţia dorită fiindcă Vlad, călăuza noastră în care ne-am pus toată nădejdea, s-a purtat ca un novice, şi-a permis scăpări. I-a lipsit capacitatea de organizare. El n-a putut să se impună în faţa noastră, adică a întregului grup, pentru că n-a avut un plan bine pus la punct, cu alternative şi măsuri de intervenţie rapidă în cazul apariţiei unor neprevăzuturi, plan care trebuia adus la cunoştinţa noastră.

În primul rând Vlad ar fi trebuit să ne avertizeze de la început de eventualele probleme care pot apărea, şi să se asigure că nu ne ameninţă nicio primejdie. Apoi el trebuia neapărat să ne evalueze capacităţile şi aptitudinile personale. Un ghid autorizat, deci cu adevărat experimentat, ne-ar fi evaluat mai întâi din punct de vedere al capacităţilor fizice, a stării de sănătate, al cunoştinţelor privind ascensiunea montană şi a experienţei anterioare. Pentru că din clipa în care urci muntele, fiecare pas poate deveni hotărâtor, şi un singur lucru neluat în calcul poate periclita întreaga excursie. Deci, cine nu face faţă muntelui, nu are ce căuta pe munte.

Valorile lui Vlad - precum solidaritatea, angajamentul şi responsabilitatea, nu au făcut casă bună cu convingerile potențatoare care îl defineau prin imposibilitatea de a-și pleca privirea în fața presiunilor evenimentelor nedorite, convingeri precum: "Nu am suficientă experienţă şi am impresia că reacţionez cu nişte sentimente pe care alţii nu le au."

Leadership: Pui accentul pe experienţa trăită şi asumată, ca subiect al reflecţiei critice?

Un prim argument al decăderii sferei de influenţă din pricina alianţei cu un scop care se vrea a fi previzibil (dar marcat de un dram de contestare indirectă) şi a acumulării de erori fundamentate care fie rămân trecute cu vederea, fie sunt interpretate şi prelucrate la latitudinea conştiinţei, este acela că o asemenea acumulare îl înstrăinează pe om de ceea ce era înainte, transformându-l în altcineva.

Aceste erori de gândire vizează componenţa realităţi de moment în care te descoperi pe tine cu totul altul, un perdant, care nu mai face faţă propriilor sale cerinţe de orientare. Citeam undeva pe internet că psihologul american atribuia aceste erori de gândire unor "unghiuri moarte" acelor poticneli ale minţii în care calităţile omului devin cele mai mari defecte.

Trecerea de la implicarea superficială la participarea activă în procesul de luare a deciziei, prin determinarea funcţiei de transfer a erorii şi înlăturarea cauzei sale, este o parte a fazei de extensiune a orizonturilor personale. Acestea se execută prin "deplasarea" singură a autorităţii de lider spre o traiectorie de rază mai mică. Ne referim strict la o nouă orientare, într-o situaţie ambiguă, impusă de filtrările intuiţiei care pune accentul pe experienţa trăită şi asumată ca subiect al reflecţiei critice, din perspectiva propriilor valori şi motivaţii.

Aşa cum muncitorul industrial la bandă rulantă nu exercită niciun control asupra produsului finit, căruia el nu-i realizează decât o execuţie parcelară - tot astfel iniţiatorul unei noi direcţii de abordare a diverselor "erori" nu prezintă nicio garanţie de credibilitate în a propune soluţii şi a le rezolva dacă nu realizează trecerea de la însuşirea de abilităţi la însuşirea noilor deprinderi de gândire şi comportament, urmate de exersarea și aplicarea lor în situaţii ambigue.

Reflecţia critică este procesul prin care îţi explici greşelile sub forma remuşcărilor care te urmăresc în contextul unui grad scăzut de asigurare a integrităţii în luarea deciziilor dificile.

Un om care pune accentul pe experienţa trăită şi asumată, ca subiect al reflecţiei critice, îşi ia ca punct de reper o planificare premergătoare a acelor evenimente care pot avea cel mai mare impact şi care sunt cele mai probabil de a se produce.

O „luminiţă” rătăcitoare nu poate decât să rătăcească drumul şi îi facă şi pe ceilalţi să se rătăcească. Degeaba eşti un cercetaş în stare să descoperi căi neumblate, care nu se lasă doborât în faţa primejdiilor sau greutăţilor, dacă nu eşti capabil să te impui în faţă oamenilor, arătându-le că tu eşti piesa cea mai importantă luând decizii potrivite, asumându-ţi consecinţele şi făcându-te respectat.

Cum ar putea oamenii să-şi menţină încrederea în tine dacă în loc să-i conduci în siguranţă la destinaţie, i-ai făcut măcar o singură dată să se rătăcească?

O călăuza are rolul de a conduce echipa la destinaţie în condiţii de siguranţă maximă. Acest deziderat poate fi atins atunci când există un lider competent, abil, cu experienţă în domeniu dar şi în munca cu oamenii, cu o capacitate de analiză deosebită, cu un plan de acţiune bine pus la punct, cu o capacitate deosebita de a intui neprevăzuturile şi de a acţiona rapid şi eficient.

Pe de altă parte rolul echipei nu este de subestimat. Un lider foarte bun cu o echipă slabă, neprofesionistă, dezbinată, este precum o echipă foarte bună fără lider. În ambele situaţii rezultatul nu este altul decât un fiasco total.

Leadershipul este integritatea care te urmăreşte chiar şi atunci când eşti "offline" în momente de cumpănă, având ca variabilă rezultativă experienţa de a fi tot timpul "online" în schimbarea pe care o poţi aduce.

Călăuza rătăciţilor este omul care îşi reneagă rolul de coordonator al unei acţiuni ulterioare producerii unei situaţii de urgenţă. Transmite-le oamenilor mărturia a ceea ce eşti, optimizându-ţi acţiunile în conformitate cu modul tău dominant de orientare. Altfel spus, felul în care funcţionezi este determinat de cât de bine îţi pui în valoare potenţialul, de modul cum îţi coordonezi fiecare decizie şi de felul în care îţi ghidezi acţiunile.

Asigură condiţiile de validitate a experienţei depăşirii de sine, evaluându-ţi limitele de rol, atribuţiile şi responsabilităţile într-un context de gestionare a provocărilor.

Cu mulţi ani în urmă, mai exact în primul an de facultate, am fost cu câţiva prieteni într-o excursie în munţii Făgăraş. N-am să uit niciodată prima zi în care am urcat pe munte.

Ascensiunea s-a desfăşurat sub conducerea lui Vlad, unul dintre localnici, care era obişnuit cu excursiile de acest gen. El escaladase în mai multe rânduri câteva din vârfurile muntoase din România. Se vedea după braţele sale puternice şi picioarele viguroase că era un alpinism încercat, abil şi experimentat. Fără îndoială era genul acela de om plin de vitalitate care nu dă înapoi în faţa niciunui obstacol, şi eram hotărâţi să-l urmăm. Ne puteam bizui pe el.

Leadership: Îţi satisfaci mândria de a aparţine unui rol de "decizie hotărâtoare" în extremitatea unei zone de vulnerabilitate care face ca un eveniment minor să capete amploarea unei oglindiri în ceva mai mult decât în tine însuţi?

Neprevăzuturile răstoarnă planurile mari. După aproximativ trei ore de urcuş ne aflam abia la jumătatea distanţei de parcurs. Deodată, prietena unuia dintre băieţi a exclamat cu năduf: "Nu mai pot. Mă dor picioarele. Vreau să mă întorc." Încă două persoane din grup, prietenul fetei şi sora lui, au împărtăşit aceeaşi dorinţă, de a se întoarce.

Fiindcă restul eram dornici să continuăm urcuşul, Vlad a consimţit ca cei trei să se întoarcă, dar cu condiţia să urmeze întocmai marcajele crestate pe scoarţa copacilor, care indicau traseul de întoarcere. Zis şi făcut. Ne-am continuat drumul, având speranţa că cei trei vor ajunge în regulă înapoi la pensiune.

După vreun sfert de oră, aflându-ne pe un versant al muntelui, am privit în vale, şi i-am zărit pe cei trei prieteni ai noştri pe o potecă, dar care vizibil nu ducea la pensiune. Am strigat la ei, dar nu ne-au putut auzi clar, căci ecoul ne-a distorsionat vocile. Am încercat să-i sunam de pe mobil, dar nu aveam semnal. Ce era de făcut?

Mă simţeam de parcă eram legat cu o frânghie de corp şi cineva mă trăgea înapoi, nu mai puteam să neglijez faptul că undeva şi eu pierdusem din perspectivă ideea de a avea contact cu cineva. Mă simţeam vinovat de situaţia în care mă aflam, de neputinţa de a trece la fape. În mine se oglindea spiritul de solidaritate care avea ca destinaţie acea atracţie a interzisului, forţarea unor limite fără a le trăi niciodată cu adevărat, tendinţa de a acţiona de unul singur fără a avea certitudinea unei direcţii.

Leadership: Adopţi o poziţie fermă de actualizare a versiunii tale de performanţă, condiţionând menţinerea funcţiei "True" a valorii personale?

Leadershipul este întotdeauna prima opţiune dată experienţei care se armonizează pe necesităţile de raportare la situaţii concrete, în contexte de "Lose Yourself" sau "Losing your access to the privileges of a new functionality" , văzute ca nişte probe de formare şi de evaluare.

Ca atare, printre incertitudinile de caracter şi stare de spirit care planează asupra perspectivelor de viabilitate a versiunii tale de performanţă, sub aspectul unei responsabilizări sporite, în sânul unei situaţii pe care îţi este greu să o accepţi, se strecoară nişte aproximaţii de calcul ale valorilor "True" sau "False" autoimpuse.

Pledoaria noastră pentru necesitatea şi posibilitatea menţinerii funcţiei "True" a valorii personale, spre eliminarea acelor lanţuri cauzale care îşi au originea într-o decizie de moment, cu sens profund moralizator, porneşte, paradoxal, nu de la analiza fenomenului "Locked in your own excuse" , deosebit de tot ce l-a precedat.

Ci de la calitatea semnificativă a performanţei tale de lider şi corectării acesteia în condiţiile de validitate a experienţei de a fi faţă în faţă cu tine, prevăzute de normele şi constrângerile devenirii. O experienţă care nu face altceva decât să reflecte afinitatea profundă ce există, în realitate, între formele fundamentale de manifestare a spiritului în practică şi formele fundamentale de realizare a puterii personale.

Versiunea de performanţă pe care o adopţi într-o situaţie de tip "constrângere", când eşti pe cale să renunţi la o anumită iniţiativă datorită stării confuzionale, se află sub măsura finalităţii lipsei de perspectivă care te ține demotivat la schimbările pe care trebuie să le faci pentru a deveni o altă persoană.

Dezavantajul pierderii, într-o anumită măsură, a controlului asupra ceea ce ai de făcut într-un context de constrângeri, aruncând o nouă lumină asupra certitudini de tipul "ori-ori", este o scădere a dinamicii sinelui care are consecinţe asupra performanţei celorlalţi. O experienţă dincolo de moartea formei psihologice a personalităţii, transpusă într-o frică organică sau într-o percepţie distorsionată asupra situaţiei de fapt, trăită în mod conştient, dar pesimist, care se hrăneşte constant din sine însăşi.

În aceste condiţii, preluarea iniţiativei pe care o pretinde leadershipul nu mai devine un scop în sine, ci doar un mijloc, necesar şi potrivit pentru cei ce duc lupta între starea de slăbiciune vizibilă şi afirmarea fermă de voinţă.

A condiţiona menţinerea funcţiei "True" a valorii personale, prin depăşirea limitelor de rol, înseamnă să prelucrezi experienţele de a interacţiona cu sinele si cu ceilalţi oameni până când ajungi să stăpâneşti în totalitate aspectele pragmatice care oferă un plus de sprijin modelului tău de autoritate.

Leadershipul este autoritatea cu care îţi îngădui să rămâi liber şi deschis la orice fel de provocări, fără să gândeşti că altcineva ar fi putut să le facă faţă mai bine decât tine.

Călăuza rătăciţilor nu este doar însoţitorul care arăta drumul corect de urmat, ci probabil o extensie a formei de manifestare a spiritului de lider care se descoperă singur în încercarea de a se mobiliza pozitiv, atât în caz de reuşită cât şi în caz de eşec. O condiţie importantă a unui cost efectiv realist pentru asigurarea unor abilitaţi care, făcând posibilă desfăşurarea optimă a procesului de formare-evaluare, te recomandă drept candidatul ideal pentru o poziţie care necesită colaborare şi compromisuri.

Calea evolutivă a sufletului de artist

Implică-te în însăşi substanţa creaţiei tale pusă sub semnul unei îndârjite lupte pentru afirmarea acelor valori ale existenţei care fac din tine un talent plin de sensibilitate.

Omul care părăsește meseria de fierar pentru a trece în tagma artiștilor talentați, la lucrul cu pensula, este versiunea restrânsă a unui tratat astral numit "întâlnire cu destinul".

Cred că aceasta este esența vieții celui care a avut un dialog mai lung cu universul, încă dinainte ca el să fi devenit strălucirea unei stele. Poate că totuși, acesta este și mesajul lucrării "Cartea pictorilor" de Mander, din care am printat acest scurt fragment:

Quintijn Messijs, pictor din Antwerpen, spune:

Leadership: Ai învăţat să iei în considerare o creaţie care nu încetează să-şi înnoiască perspectiva de dezvoltare prin intermediul compoziţiei unei imagini obişnuită din timp să privească spre ceea ce există dincolo de ea?

Această explicație a artei lui Quintijn, sau momentul trecerii unui muncitor de rând la exercitarea unei meserii distinse, prin faptul că este demn de un om să se ridice deasupra condiţiei sale, face ca arta să exercite o influenţă benefică asupra importanţei pe care trebuie s-o aibă devotamentul artistului faţă de acel memento al începuturilor sale. Susţinut de amintirea trecutul său, atât de bine reflectat în substanţa creaţiei sale, artistul trebuie se ridice deasupra convenţiilor sociale ale secolului în care trăieşte, deasupra condiţiei sale umile, încât să câştige devotamentul unei arte închinate demnității umane sub toate fațetele ei.

Un om devotat în primul rând artei, în aceeaşi măsură potenţat de posibilitatea trecerii sale de la un mediu la altul, sau de la un statut la altul, îşi găseşte fragmentul de inspiraţie nu în meseria sa, ci în însăşi inima artei sale, care nu e altceva decât dorinţa puternică de a descoperi importanţa esteticului în frumuseţea altei persoane, identică sufleteşte cu el.

Vă întrebaţi, probabil, de unde începe această idilă plină de candoare şi frumuseţe, care evoluează lent, proporţional cu adaptarea lui la o nouă lume care îşi deschide porţile spre artă?

Începe de la înclinaţia lui către artă şi simţul estetic, în fond, pornind de la o analiză a modului în care el se raportează la frumuseţea fiinţei căreia îi poate încredinţa tainele sufletului său, spre păstrare. Aşadar, talentul artistului nu îşi are justificarea doar în puterea de a-şi depăşi condiţia umilă, căci foarte mulţii au experimentat acelaşi gen de situaţie şi n-au reuşit să se schimbe, ci în dorinţa puternică de a fi pe placul unei inimi care radiază frumuseţe.

Leadershipul, din perspectiva trecerii omului de la o condiţie la alta, este exemplul unei vieții eliberată de durerea trecutului ei, în măsura în care viaţa capătă sensul unei creaţii care nu încetează să uimească.

În acest sens, să nu uităm ce spunea Adriana Ivonne Marinescu: "Imaginea unei creaţii ia forma conducătorului, a naţiunii, a unităţii şi ordinii ideale, puse de regulă sub protecţia Providenţei."

Calea evolutivă a sufletului de artist se deschide în faţa omului care ştie să facă din condiţia lui o rampă de lansare spre culmile artei, spre fuziunea esteticii şi valorilor, prin prisma preţului care trebuie plătit: abandonarea vechilor credinţe, a vechilor activităţi, a vechilor cutume, spre atingerea unui ideal măreţ.

Idealul de a te identifica cu profilul ideal al unei alte persoane care îţi poate completa personalitatea.

Calea magului

Integrează-te în cercul performanţei, anulând limitările fireşti impuse de parametrii dezvoltării unui înţeles care stăruie întotdeauna la marginea însemnătăţii unui rol jucat impecabil.

Un glas tainic îmi spune că a fost ceva mai mult decât o întâmplare reîntâlnirea neprevăzută cu maestrul magician. Mai avea încă privirea aceea pătrunzătoare care pare că citeşte în adâncul sufletului. Vedeam în el adunată toată ştiinţa omenească, toate secretele ei. Se vedea cât colo că era un om ce avea puterea formidabilă de a schimba lucrurile, un om neobişnuit care ghicea totul, care ştia totul, care pătrundea gândurile cele mai trainice ale tuturor oamenilor.

Câteva ore bune am vorbit, magicianul fiind plăcut surprins că îmi mai amintesc atât de multe despre el. Curios din fire, i-am adresat numeroase întrebări, poate doar aşa voi afla secretul profesiei sale, secretul unui magician. Şi am aflat.

Taina din spatele sclipirii scenice. Magicianul s-a uitat cu încredere la mine, şi-a coborât glasul în aşa fel încât să nu audă nimeni din jur ce vorbim, şi mi-a spus:

- Un magician care nu deţine priceperea de a stârni curiozitatea spectatorilor şi de a-i influenţa după bunul lui plac, plasându-se în mintea lor, nu poate avea succes în cariera lui. Majoritatea spectatorilor crede în miracole şi în lucrurile imposibile ce pot fi realizate, de aceea, ca reprezentaţia să fie impecabilă, el trebuie să suspende temporar realitatea. Altfel spectatorii nu vor gusta nicio iluzie, se vor dovedi neimpresionaţi şi vor aplauda fără însufleţire.

Făcu o scurtă pauză, mă cercetă cu privirea şi cu mintea să vadă dacă într-adevăr sunt atent la el, apoi continuă:

- Eu nu sunt un magician, ci doar un actor care joacă rolul unui magician. Sunt un artist, care a învăţat să realizeze efecte deosebite prin arta sa. Cheia succesului meu constă numai în cunoaşterea fenomenelor fizice ce stau la baza percepţiei optice, în dexteritatea mâinilor mele, în rapiditatea şi acurateţea cu care execut fiecare număr de magie. Cu cât menţin mai mult iluzia, cu atât magia e considerată mai bună.

Leadership: Beneficiezi de toate privilegiile puterii, indiferent de modul în care eşti perceput?

Puterea unui magician de a face trucuri aparent imposibile, influenţând subtil, pe căi mistice, aparent supranaturale, gândurile şi convingerile oamenilor, ilustrează felul în care leadershipul depăşeşte cadrele tradiţionale de promovare. Ilustrează modul în care funcţia de elaborare a resemnificării experienţei trăite de oamenii din jur, prin intermediul unei tendinţe de condiţionare, este îndeplinită exclusiv de către artişti, în faţa unei lumi redimensionate de noi realităţi.

Nu sunt deloc surprins că această reconfigurare a identităţii spre o desăvârşire atotcuprinzătoare, a punerii în practică, într-un mediu controlat, a tuturor tehnicilor avansate de modelare şi manipulare, împărtăşeşte de fapt unele caracteristici ale operei de artă.

Opera de artă este mijlocul prin care artistul îşi manifestă harul improvizaţiei şi al desăvârşirii, este o lecţie de determinism din complexul fenomenelor care alcătuiesc împreună câmpul experienţelor practice. Acesteia îi revine o deosebită însemnătate, cu un număr larg de valenţe de receptare şi de reacţie, prin faptul că devine o cale de dezvăluire a unei noi conştiinţe care arde sub semnul unei forţe de impact în faţa celor care învaţă să se adapteze la noi realităţi.

A beneficia de toate privilegiile puterii înseamnă să-ţi exprimi acea latură creativă care dă măsură valorii tale concomitent cu săvârșirea unei abateri de la realitate, astfel încât publicul să încerce a privi simultan două părţi deosebite ale aceluiaşi individ.

Cu alte cuvinte, opera de artă este o modalitate de formare a unor reprezentări despre lumea obiectelor şi fenomenelor unei realităţii care face tot mai evidentă ideea conform căreia totul este posibil dacă încerci cu adevărat să obţii imposibilul posibilului.

Leadershipul este varianta câștigătoare a unui experiment psihologic în care se testează puterea de înţelegere a unor persoane, prin intermediul unor efecte bine dozate de clar - obscur , apărute sub forma unor stiluri de gândire care surprind cu desăvârşire, asigurând obţinerea unor performanţe de excepţie.

De aceea cultivarea capacităţii de receptare a operei de artă, preluând variaţii ale unor teme şi aspecte deosebit de captivante, de la înălţimea superioară a propriei tale culturi creative, este poate cea mai rentabilă investiţie. Pentru că indiferent de modul în care eşti înţeles, tu beneficiezi de toate privilegiile puterii. Asta înseamnă să rămâi fidel propriei superiorităţi intelectuale.

Leadership: Îţi poţi exprima latura ascunsă a fiinţei tale, fără să laşi la voia întâmplării niciun aspect particular al „spectacolului" tău?

Leadershipul este un „joc" bazat pe reguli şi îndemânare, unde numai cei cu adevărat merituoşi vor putea obţine rezultate excepţionale şi vor putea avansa la un nivel mai înalt. Este un „joc" în care trebuie să cauţi să atingi perfecţiunea, chiar dacă nu o vei putea atinge niciodată. Este un „joc" în care dacă nu exersezi continuu poţi da greş, în ciuda performanţei excelente de care ai dat dovadă până în prezent. Reţine că nu poţi lăsa la voia întâmplării niciun aspect particular al „spectacolului" tău.

Aşa cum sentimentul fără inteligenţă este orb, tot aşa şi tu devii orb iar calitatea performanţei tale are de suferit dacă accepţi limitările fireşti pe care ţi le impune dimensiunea talentului tău. Întotdeauna poţi fi mai bun decât crezi că eşti. Hotărârea de a merge până la limita potenţialului tău te va ajuta să ajungi la un nivel la care alţii nu sunt în stare.

Ai făcut un inventar al calităţilor tale? Poţi face lucruri pe care alţii nu sunt în stare să le facă? Care este acea trăsătură care dă tonul performanţelor tale? Manifeşti o grijă autentică pentru elementele care sporesc capacitatea ta de conducere? Sau, te îndrepţi cumva către o zonă pentru care nu ai inclinaţii?

Modul în care eşti perceput de oameni depinde de înţelegerea cu care te apleci asupra dimensiunii estetice a actului creator.

Aşa cum inteligenţa fără sentiment e rece şi nu are forţă dinamică, tot aşa potenţialul tău de lider nu va avea forţă dinamică dacă nu ţi-ai creat o pârghie care să-ţi amplifice la maximum eficienţa – pârghia fiind dată de angajamentul tău pentru îmbunătăţirea condiţiilor în care îţi validezi potenţialitatea de a transfigura o anumită realitate.

Aceste condiții sunt responsabile de redirecţionarea atenţiei spre altceva decât ceea ce se vede şi de concentrarea propriu zisă asupra actului creator ce se săvârşeşte la un moment dat la vedere, dar tocmai când toată lumea este atentă în altă parte.

Există o cale spre a fi un maestru în leadership? Da, există, dar nu este simplă. În leadership, atingerea măiestriei necesită o pregătire constantă, mult efort, multe sacrificii, căci talentul nu e de-ajuns. Poţi fi înzestrat cu un talentat aparte, cu nişte virtuţi foarte rare, şi cu toate acestea să fii depăşit de cineva care este mai însufleţit şi mai productiv. Întotdeauna perseverenţa şi efortul serios bat talentul.

Latura ascunsă a fiinţei tale are ca variabilă dominantă greutatea de a cuprinde într-un singur act de creaţie două lucruri deosebite: atenţia expusă la planurile unui joc desfăşurat în plan artistic şi tendinţa naturală a minţii de a merge în direcţia curentului provocat de asociaţiile de idei şi corelaţiile inedite pe care le trezeşte experimentarea iluziei.

Calea magului nu este altceva decât calea pe care trebuie s-o urmezi în leadership pentru a-ţi creşte performanţele. Într-o lume ca a noastră, în care există o concurenţă acerbă, numai cei care vor urma calea perfecţionării, a dezvoltării dexterităţilor, şi-n ansamblu, a îmbunătăţirii continue pe toate planurile, vor reuşi să se remarce în mod deosebit !

David Copperfield, cel mai faimos magician al tuturor timpurilor, cel care a făcut ca Statuia Libertăţii să dispară, a surprins cel mai bine acest adevăr: „ Adevăratul secret al magiei stă în performanţă."

Tu cum îţi amplifici performanţa astfel încât să-ţi creşti valoarea?

Înţelesul pe care-l atribui rolului tău poate împărțit între dorința de a fi una cu realitatea și loialitatea pentru crearea iluziei?

Calificativul rentabilităţii

On Aprilie 07, 2009

Asigură-i leadershipului tău o rentabilitate mai mare, elaborându-ţi eficient viziunea în concordanţă cu cine eşti tu cu adevărat.

În „Legea Influenţei” vă spuneam despre Martin Luther King Jr., preotul baptist de culoare care şi-a dorit din tot sufletul împlinirea principiilor biblice de viaţă şi libertate. El a înţeles că americanii sunt norocoşii care s-au născut în acel ţinut măreţ, şi că nu mai există o a doua naţiune la fel pe pământ. Iată ce a spus în discursul de la 28 august 1963 cu ocazia marşului spre Washington:

Iată o viziune care a devenit realitate !

Leadership: Imaginea căreia i se asociază viziunea ta are ceva din plasticitatea unei experienţe de viaţă care a fost încorporată şi transfigurată într-un ansamblu de acţiuni capabile să îţi aducă dividende de 65% ?

Ni se taie respiraţia când privim spre viitor. Ne aflăm în vârful unei piramide. Dar privind în sus, iată că tocmai acest vârf, această direcţie foarte puţin abordată de ceilalţi spre care ne înălţăm aspiraţiile, acest gigant care captivează întru totul lumea noastră interioară, permiţându-ne să ne cunoaştem mai bine, să ne modelăm caracterul, să ne dedicăm şi să ne concentrăm asupra a ceea ce este important în atingerea scopurilor propuse – ne dă acea rentabilitate impresionantă de care depinde valoarea leadershipului nostru, acelora care aspirăm la statutul de lider.

Tu te afli în vârful unei piramide? După părerea mea, dacă te afli într-o poziţie de lider, singurele acţiuni capabile să îţi aducă dividende de 65% sunt: ambiţia, rigoarea, deschiderea şi toleranţa, focalizarea, vederea laterală, o răsturnare a percepţiei despre sine şi despre lume.

Ce ai de câştigat de aici? În regulă, îţi vei face o imagine pentru posteritate, vei învăţa să fii o istorie pentru posteritate. Vei fi unul din acei 1% din oameni care schimbă ceva important în această lume.

Leadership: Acţiunile conştiente, persistente şi atente asupra credinţelor pe care le acumulezi în experienţele de viaţă, flexibilitatea mentală şi dispoziţia de a te desprinde de prejudecăţi, îţi arată adevărata intenție din spatele imaginii pe care ţi-o creezi în faţa celorlalţi?

Marele regizor rus, Serghei Eisenstein, spunea: „Cel mai important e să ai viziunea, concepţia. Apoi să o stăpâneşti şi să-i rămâi fidel. Trebuie să vezi şi să simţi la ceea ce te gândeşti, să-ţi simţi şi să-ţi stăpâneşti gândurile. Trebuie să fii consecvent şi să le fixezi în memorie şi în simţuri. Şi trebuie să faci toate acestea în acelaşi timp.”

Exact asta este ceea ce a făcut şi Martin Luther King Jr., a conceput o viziune şi a rămas fidel ei până în clipa când acesta a devenit realitate. În ciuda tuturor presiunilor care au apăsat pe umerii săi, în ciuda clipelor grele ca plumbul care cu siguranţă altor oameni le-ar fi tăiat orice urmă de speranţă, nimeni şi nimic nu a putut să-i strivească avântul spre înălţimile pe care a dorit să le atingă.

E timpul să te uiţi în interiorul tău? Viziunea pe care o creezi, felul în care o gestionezi şi răspunzi de ea reflectă cine eşti tu cu adevărat. Viziunea este un mijloc de expresie a caracterului şi acţiunilor tale, care te apropie de înţelegerea potenţialului pe care îl ai. O intenţie, insuficient fondată pe o viziune puternică, va rămâne neconvingătoare şi incertă pentru viitorul tău.

Leadershipul este acel sistem de acţiuni care îţi lasă o mare libertate de alegere în construcţia experienţelor de luare aminte la sine, din care vei putea să scoţi la iveală noi abilități despre care credeai anterior că nu le ai.

Dar nu încerca să îţi confecţionezi o imagine sau o biografie care să mascheze lucrurile care nu te avantajează. Şi nu încerca să-ţi amplifici "câştigurile" (triumfurile) pentru a-ţi asigura o cinstire pentru posteritate.

Calificativul Rentabilităţii se acordă calităţii leadershipului tău, numai dacă viziunea ta corespunde propriului tău interior. Viziunea este o oglindire a propriilor simţăminte şi trăiri, te ajută să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti şansele de a ajunge la inimile oamenilor fără să exerciţi nici un fel de presiune asupra lor.

Aşa cum un cancerul poate produce leziuni severe creierului şi atacă sistemul imunitar al organismului - tot aşa o gândire îngustă, fără o viziune clară şi un set coerent de valori care să scoată la suprafaţă tot ce este mai bun în tine, îţi poate slăbi sistemul imunitar al leadershipului tău.

Dar, de asemenea, nu este suficient să ai viziune, ci trebuie să găseşti şi mijloacele de a o materializa. Iar odată materializată se poate spune că ai atins piscul cel mai înalt al muntelui numit leadership. Acest lucru reprezintă un calificativ maxim pentru tine. Şi înseamnă că toate eforturile pe care le-ai depus pentru a ajunge sus au fost rentabile.

Calitatea slabă a leadershipului

Priveşte dincolo de reuşită pentru a descoperi drumul spre echilibrarea interioară.

Hernan Cortes a rămas guvernatorul ţinutului pe care-l denumise Noua Spanie, aşteptând ca regele să-l ridice la rangul de vicerege. A devenit extrem de bogat după cucerirea Mexicului. Coroana i-a dat mine de aur şi argint, plantaţii de bumbac şi zahăr, mori şi pământuri. Şi-a construit un castel cu turnuri la Cuernavaca şi a primit titlul de marchiz. Îi plăcea să i se spună Don Hernando. Faima lui i-a asigurat căsătoria cu Juana de Zuniga, rudă cu Ducele de Bejar, unul din cei mai influenţi oameni din Spania.

Cu toate acestea scandalurile trecutului i-au marcat restul carierei. Plin de neastâmpăr, şi-a dedicat întreaga viaţă căutării altui Mexic şi altui Motecuhzoma. A risipit zestrea soţiei într-o inutilă explorare a legendarului Amazon. Şi-a petrecut ultimii ani în Spania încercând să solicite câte o audienţă regelui. A devenit un bătrânel ridicol şi agasant, care trăgea de mânecă funcţionarii minori, plângându-se de nedreptăţile reale sau imaginare care i se făcuseră.

În cele din urmă, după ce şi-a dat seama că nu va primi binecuvântarea regală, a hotărât să se întoarcă în iubitul său Mexic. S-a îmbolnăvit cu câteva zile înainte să pornească în călătorie şi a murit, singur şi nefericit, la şaizeci şi doi de ani. Azi, în Mexic, nu există nicio statuie a lui Cortes, niciun monument, niciun mormânt. Blestemul primei lui soţii, Malinali Tenepal, l-a urmărit şi pe el şi pe fiul lui dincolo de mormânt: "Te blestem Cortes, şi pe tine, şi pe copilul nostru, şi Mexicul".

Leadership: Îţi controlezi tendinţa de a atribui valoare unor fapte menite să rămână în adâncul memoriei lumii, dar care se pot dovedi incriminate dacă cad sub incidenţa obligaţiei de a fi o legătură de drept cu mersul lumii ?

Lumea nu se va opri într-un loc doar pentru că tu ai cucerit un teritoriu, sau pentru că intenţionezi să cucereşti alte teritorii. Important nu este teritoriul cucerit, ci mai degrabă ce se întâmplă pe acel teritoriu. Prin ce anume atrage un teritoriu lumea? Sugerează el o abordare nouă a mersului lumii, în afară de o expansiune târzie a unui imperiu? Este teritoriul o acţiune neîncheiată care ridică întrebări legate de semnificaţiile comportamentului tău? Teritoriul se poate transforma într-un tot social-economic, sau într-un continuu război?

Mai mult decât atât, cum poate individul să își transforme teritoriul într-un loc de emancipare colectivă?

Hernan Cortes a vrut să cucerească noi teritorii într-un efort de a-și afirma personalitatea dominantă, spiritul de lider (de neînvins). Dar el nu a avut viziunea de a afirma, de a proteja, de a revitaliza valorile culturale ale societăţii în care trăia. El a văzut teritoriul Mexicului ca pe o bucată de pământ din care se pot extrage bogăţii, fără să ia în calcul faptul că adevărata bogăţie a unui popor stă în valorile sale: egalitate pentru toți, justiţie pentru toţi, libertate pentru toţi, ridicarea vieţii la înălţimea unui ideal.

Dacă sufletul unui om măreţ este analiza sufletească a unui popor la un moment dat, atunci lui Cortez i-a lipsit măreţia fiindcă nu a reuşit să unească fapta glorioasă cu latura înţeleaptă a sinelui. De fapt, Cortez a fost atât de mult cucerit de glorie şi faimă, încât n-a simţit cum cade în acea uitare a sinelui de sine, iar forma etica a regretului s-a manifestat prea târziu, mai exact atunci când evenimentele au început să apună, când deja el nu mai putea să iasă din acea uitare caldă şi definitivă.

Obligaţia liderului de a fi o legătură de drept cu mersul lumii se constată din luciditatea încordată a sinelui de a admite imperfecţiunea fiinţei sale, fiind dispus să îşi asume partea de vină ce îi revine dacă nu se proiectează la timp în sufletul celor din jurul său.

Calitatea slabă a leadershipului se observă în felul în care omul îşi judecă sinele atunci când faptele glorioase întrec şansele sale de a fi potrivit poziţiei respective, în planul raporturilor cu conştiinţa generală a celorlalţi oameni din jurul său.

Când omul îşi evaluează şansele de a rămâne în fruntea oamenilor, el îşi raportează personalitatea la poziţia generală a oamenilor faţă de reuşita unui obiectiv care nu trebuie să depăşească conştiinţa identităţii naţionale, conştiinţa apartenenţei la o comunitate culturală omogenă.

Calităţile pictorului în leadership

Învaţă să imortalizezi realitatea observată de ochiul atent al artistului, scoţând la iveală elementele cu adevărat cuprinzătoare ale "Totului Diferenţiator" din care este formată gândirea din spatele realizării Operei de Artă.

Un fragment din cartea "Viaţa de artist" scrisă de Maurice Rheims, mi-a atras îndeosebi atenţia în această seară liniştită de septembrie. Este vorba despre calităţile necesare unui pictor pentru a deveni extraordinar în domeniul artei. Dar, la fel de bine, aceste calităţi pot servi ca model pentru liderii de pretutindeni care aspiră la condiţia de "excepţionalitate", mai ales dacă luăm în considerare ochiul plin de infinite înţelesuri pe care lentila convergentă a imaginii despre sine o consideră definitorie pentru viitoarele orientări în definirea calităţii actului de creaţie.

"În realitate, puțini sunt cei care au calitățile cerute de excepționalitate, puse pe seama artiștilor. E adevărat că ceea ce degradează pictura, făcând-o să coboare până la josnicia meseriilor celor mai de disprețuit, este marele număr de pictori care n-au nici duh nici talent și uneori chiar nici simț comun.

Originea acestui mare rău izvorăște din admiterea în școlile de pictură a tot felul de copii, fără alegere, fără să fie examinați și fără să fie supravegheați un timp pentru a putea constata dacă au fost destinați acestei arte frumoase de firea și talentul necesar, ori mai curînd de o înclinație nesăbuită, sau de avariția părinților lor, care-i împing spre pictură ca spre o meserie pe care o cred, poate, ceva mai bănoasă decât altele.

Pentru a fi demn de numele de pictor trebuie să ai următoarele calități:

Leadership: Acorzi recunoaşterea cuvenită realităţii în care te readuce momentul transpunerii tale într-o lume a imaginilor pe care nu ţi-o poţi închipui cu adevărat decât atunci când o trăieşti ca pe un Alter-Ego?

Conştientizarea acestor calităţi, printr-o identificare a Sinelui cu reflexia lui (Alter-Ego) se poate recepta ca o lecţie despre lucrurile pe care le surprinde ochiul la vederea unor lucruri sau situaţii menite să genereze anumite rezultate. Aici mă refer la valoarea unei abordări cuprinzătoare a fenomenului de oglindire în statutul artistului dornic de-a crea „artă pentru artă". Mă refer la ambiția artistului de a da corp unui gând, de a-și imagina anatomia acestuia până ce devine obiect de admiraţie şi mijloc de exprimare a sentimentelor.

Bineînţeles că planul reflectant este ales arbitrar, căci Alter-Egoul specific artistului călătorește pe ideea de reformulare sau redefinire a unei experiențe pe care omul obişnuit nu urmăreşte explicit să o aibă modificată vreodată.

Totodată, această abordare cuprinzătoare a fenomenului de oglindire în statutul artistului (de a fi prezent în afara sinelui, deci aflându-se în realitatea alternativă a unei lumi transpusa în imagini viu colorate) se poate constata îndeobşte nu prin fapte sau atitudini creative faţă de problemele vieţii, ci prin inclinaţia vederii de a surprinde acele imagini asociate cu ideea de suflet. Pe această cale am scos în prim plan calitatea numită "inima de artă" care se aprinde de iubire pentru întreaga creaţie, ataşându-se de cei care știu să vadă în lucrurile din jur mai mult decât un ambalaj frumos, ci o perfecţiune în ceea ce priveşte reprezentarea formei simbolice.

A anunţa, însă, o nouă viziune cu mijloacele de expresie ale artei, este pentru un Alter-Ego iniţiat în tainele picturii un fel de instanţă intermediară între "a vedea" şi a "rămâne orb". Căci indiferent ce anume plăsmuieşte mintea, dacă sufletul nu are un limbaj plin de semnificaţii, dacă nu adăposteşte sub aripile durabilului acea simţire a lumii interioare, delicată, ocrotitoare, statornică, capabilă să redea perfect şi total umanul, atunci nici conştiinţa de sine nu se va putea manifesta prin puterea interioară de a transforma realitatea din jur.

Leadership: Urmăreşti respectarea fidelă a asocierii dintre "conţinutul expunerii" şi "reprezentarea vizuală" în planul artei, cu precădere atunci când intenţionezi să faci o comparaţie între realitatea pe care o reprezinţi şi garanţia unui act artistic de calitate?

Deci, printre calităţile unui om ştiutor se poate distinge capacitatea de a experimenta, de a observa manifestările interferenţei dintre conştiinţa însemnătăţii artei (ca activitate intelectuală) şi lumea exterioară, încât realitatea pe care el o reprezintă să fie similară cu expunerea unui act artistic.

Aici mă refer la deprinderea de a observa direct anumite fenomene, legăturile strânse dintre ele, în favoarea unei posibile paralele trasată între percepţia din exterior (a celorlalţi oameni) şi asumarea individuală a efortului de a obţine o realitate nouă şi unică, în stare să emoţioneze. Iar dacă această realitate orientată spre naturaleţe, spre claritate obiectuală, provoacă punerea în mișcare a ființei determinate, atunci vom sesiza că cea mai importantă experienţă de care are nevoie un lider este aceea de a fi conştient de individualitatea sa unică.

Şi numai printr-un complex de împrejurări, prin nişte calităţi deosebite, din totalitatea observaţiilor pe care le oferă experienţa vizuală a unei realităţi obişnuite, liderul îşi va putea perfecţiona imaginaţia, potrivit unghiului de privire ales. De exemplu, a avea o perspectivă mai largă asupra evenimentelor, sub aspectul unei corelaţii între reprezentarea vizuală a unui design şi raportarea la o experienţă de creaţie, nu este acelaşi lucru cu a avea o perspectivă mai clară asupra fiecărui lucru în parte (ca principal obiect al aprecierii subiective).

S-o spun altfel. Realitatea pe care o reprezinţi este rezultatul observării imaginii la care te raportezi. Iar garanţia unui act artistic de calitate se poate câştiga adesea prin atingerea unui oarecare grad de perfecțiune în privinţa redării realităţii într-o formă afectiv-raţională către o tematică inspirată (de exemplu, un peisaj rural care transmite atmosfera ţărănească şi spiritul popular).

Leadership: Poţi să îţi definitivezi creaţia aducând în prim plan noi reprezentări ale unor teme diverse cu ajutorul transpunerii tale în alt plan al realităţii, în al decor, în alt timp şi spaţiu?

Mai trebuie să stiţi un lucru important. "Totul Diferenţiator" vizează abordarea cuprinzătoare a fenomenului de conştientizare a Ego-ului distins ca formă de expresie, nu doar ca spirit. Căci frumusețea artei își găsește expresia atât în conținutul ei, cât și în formă. Este vorba despre un Ego observat de ochiul atent al unui artist care ştie să aducă în prim plan noi reprezentări ale unor teme diverse cu ajutorul transpunerii sale în alt plan al realităţii, în al decor, în alt timp şi spaţiu.

Elementele "Totului Diferenţiator" sunt nişte etape constructive de realizare a creaţiei artistice. Printre acestea se numără: actul elementar al transpunerii în plan a imaginii unui obiect, potrivit unghiului de vedere ales; completarea mentală a unei imagini rămasă ocultată; capacitatea de a surprinde și de a portretiza o temă doar din imaginație; reproducerea imaginii ce o consideri definitorie pentru senzaţia unui Deja Vu; sesizarea alterităţii într-o operă de artă; etc...

Încă ceva. Garanţia unui act artistic de calitate este dată de gândirea din spatele procesului de creație care face ca lucrurile pe care le concepi să fie funcţionale și durabile, nu doar frumoase. Totodată, garanţia unui act artistic de calitate, făcând să exprime sentimente simple într-un sens impulsiv sau naturalist, se poate constitui prin realitatea observată de ochiul atent al artistului - o realitate ce există sub forma unor simboluri-imagini care, dacă sunt înțelese și astfel descărcate de potențialul lor sacru, vor permite lărgirea conștiinței.

Leadershipul se prezintă ca o formă de intelectualism izvorât din ingeniozitatea unei creaţii transpusă în trăiri reale, în contextul producerii şi asigurării unei imagini capabile să redea pe deplin trăsăturile tale individuale.

Calităţile pictorului în leadership sunt necesare pentru a aduce la realitate ideea că o conştiinţă care caută să se interpreteze metaforic pe sine este miracolul unei creaţii care poate oricând să se angajeze în explicarea legăturii dintre ceea ce se rămâne neschimbat în timp şi ceea ce survine ca o îmbogăţire a experienţei concretului transpusă într-o viziune suprarealistă.

Întotdeauna calităţile unui pictor fac loc de cinste la toate nivelurile leadershipului.

Oamenii te vor admira şi te vor urma numai dacă corespunzi idealului lor.

Se poate întâmpla ca ultima încercare de a dovedi lumii întregi că se poate, că poţi ajunge la destinaţia pe care ţi-ai propus-o, prin propriile puteri şi hotărâre, să fie încununată cu succes. Cred că merită tot respectul cel care se face remarcat prin ceva, orice, şi demonstrează cu această ocazie tuturor, că da, este posibil să îţi atingi scopurile, să îţi împlineşti visele cele mai frumoase dacă pui suflet în ceea ce faci, dacă munceşti cu seriozitate şi simţ de răspundere şi dacă încă de la început îţi iei angajamentul că nu vei renunţa cu nici un chip la ceea ce ţi-ai propus, oricât de greu ar fi drumul la un moment dat şi oricât de imposibil ţi s-ar părea de parcurs.

În cele din urmă răsplata pentru efortul depus va fi pe măsură, vei începe să vezi rezultatele, vei simţi că te afli la numai un pas de finalul cursei, de câştigarea marelui "trofeu". Aproape instantaneu vei fi înconjurat de oameni, care mai de care mai diferiţi, mai banali sau mai cocheţi, mai tineri sau mai bătrâni, care vor dori să ajungă şi ei ca tine, nişte eroi, niste învingători, nişte exemple demne de urmat pentru toţi.

Leadership: Îţi asumi tot ceea ce eşti în momentul obţinerii unui rezultat care influenţează deciziile pe care le-ai luat în trecut, dincolo de aparenţele unei realităţi obiective?

Partea a treia a filmului „ Rocky ", ilustrează exact punctul meu de vedere. Rocky, interpretat de actorul Sylvester Stallone, se pregăteşte de meciul împotriva arogantului Clubber Lang, pentru cucerirea titlului de campion. La fel ca înaintea fiecărui meci important, Rocky, peste măsură de ambiţios şi hotărât să-şi îndeplinească visul cu orice preţ, îşi începe antrenamentele lungi, intense şi extrem de obositoare. Flotări, tracţiuni, sărituri cu coarda, ridicare de greutăţi şi, nu în ultimul rând joggingul.

Rocky alerga pe străzile pustii din cartierele sărace, locuri cu care de altfel era foarte familiarizat. La un moment dat, într-o zi, Rocky ajunge să atragă dupa el sute sau poate chiar mii de admiratori care încep să alerge împreună cu el, iar la sfârşitul cursei este luat în braţe, şi toţi încep să sară în sus de bucurie având sentimentul că şi ei sunt învingători.

Carisma este modul de a te vedea prin ochii celorlalţi şi de a descoperi felul în care ei te apreciază din imediata apropiere a unei ieşiri din poziţia de învins.

Care sunt şansele să ajungi un lider desăvârşit? Şansele sunt minime dacă nu reuşeşti să-i conduci pe oameni într-o direcţie favorabilă lor, dacă nu le inspiri încrederea de care au nevoie pentru a reuşi în tot ceea ce si-au propus, daca nu-i entuziasmezi şi dacă nu le insufli o viziune plină de speranţă, clară şi optimistă pe termen lung. Într-un cuvânt, ca să ajungi un lider desăvârşit trebuie mai întâi să-i câştigi pe oameni de partea ta, să-i determini să te urmeze din plăcere, la fel ca pe Rocky.

Asta înseamnă să ai carismă, să-i atragi pe oameni de partea ta transmiţându-le entuziasmul de care au nevoie pentru a-şi atinge obiectivele propuse. Prin atitudinea lui hotărâtă, prin perseverenţa şi ambiţia de care a dat dovadă, Rocky le-a inspirat oamenilor curaj şi încredere în viitorul lor, reuşind astfel să-i atragă lângă el.

Toţi oamenii iubesc învingătorii şi îi iau drept modele demne de urmat, fiindcă numai ei îi inspiră să realizeze lucruri măreţe, fiindcă numai ei îi motivează să meargă mai departe în direcţia visurilor lor şi să nu renunţe niciodată în faţa greutăţilor vieţii.

Leadership: Modul în care îţi accelerezi transformarea se întemeiază pe extremele unui moment în centrul momentului imediat următor?

Momentul în care înfăptuieşti vraja transformării depline şi ajungi în vârf, este de fapt centrul momentului imedia următor, când nu te mai uiţi pe unde mergi şi lecțiile motivaționale nu mai funcționează. Devii un nume care se confundă cu noţiunea de lume, nu cu noţiunea de "unu".

Cu siguranţă oamenii îl vor admira şi îl vor urma pe acela care corespunde idealului lor, acela care îi ajută să crească în credinţă, care îi ajută să-şi dezvolte atitudinea pozitivă, calităţile şi talentele. De aceea este atât de important să fii plin de carismă - să ai mereu o atitudine pozitivă, să-i convingi pe cei din jurul tău că ai o personalitate puternică şi că eşti un exemplu demn de urmat. Absolut toţi vor ajunge să te iubească dacă le dai curajul şi avântul de care au nevoie în vremurile nesigure, dacă îi încurajezi să creadă în reuşită şi dacă îi ajuţi să se comporte şi să gândească ca nişte învingători.

Carisma este o calitate care îi face pe oameni să se simtă şi să se privească ca nişte învingători. Toţi acei oameni care au decis să alerge cu Rocky s-au văzut, cel puţin pentru un moment, învingători. Spiritul de competiţie, dorinţa de a câştiga, de a fi cei mai buni, a pus imediat stăpânire pe întreaga lor fiinţă, mobilizându-i să dea tot ce au mai bun din ei. Un lider carismatic îi motivează pe oameni să meargă mai departe cu mai multă ambiţie şi dăruire.

Câştigarea "marelui trofeu" este rezultatul unui leadership a cărui miză este mândria de a te simţi deosebit prin pasiunea şi determinarea cu care ai dovedit că poţi visa şi construi un ideal realizabil.

P.S. Trezeşte în oameni atitudinea energică şi spiritul de învingător ! Susţine-i şi ridică-le moralul atunci când au nevoie. Încurajează-i să se ridice când sunt la pământ, şi ei te vor iubi pentru asta.

Asta înseamnă să ai carismă: să-i farmeci pe oameni, să-i faci să te iubească şi să te urmeze din plăcere.

Creativitatea

Fii deschis la un nou mod de a gândi şi, în esenţă la un nou fel de a vedea lucrurile, ca să asiguri dezvoltarea optimă a leadershipului tău.

Imaginează-ţi pentru o clipă că eşti trimis să urmezi nişte cursuri speciale de agenţi secreţi la o şcoală de spionaj. Aici esti învăţat în primul rând cum poţi descoperi dacă eşti urmărit. La sfârşitul primului semestru, în loc să susţii un examen scris, eşti trimis în Budapesta, îmbrăcat întocmai ca localnicii. Misiunea ta constă în a ajunge la o anumită oră la fântâna din centrul oraşului, înconjurată de un parc frumos amenajat şi bine îngrijit, scăpând totodată de urmăritor, rol care îi revine unui alt coleg de-al tău pe care însă nu-l cunoşti.

Întrebare: Crezi că vei reuşi să scapi de urmăritor şi să ajungi la fântână?

Chiar dacă răspunsul tău este "Da, voi reuşi", fii convins că nu vei reuşi. De ce? Pentru că nu este deloc uşor, şi mai ales pentru că nimeni nu trebuie să promoveze acest test de la prima încercare. Asta este prima lecţie pe care trebuie s-o înveţi la orice şcoala de spionaj: "Dacă nu eşti vigilent şi perspicace, dacă nu eşti creativ şi nu dai dovadă de imaginaţie în momentele critice, nu îţi vei putea îndeplini niciodată misiunea. De fapt, eşti un om mort".

Prin urmare, ca să promovezi acest test a doua sau a treia oară, trebuie:

Leadership: Anticiparea unei situaţii pe care o construieşti în mintea ta atunci când aştepţi un rezultat este direct proporţională cu perspectiva unei logici din care trebuie să reiasă paşii rezolvării unei enigme?

Sunt convins că nu doreşti să ajungi spion şi să îţi pui viaţa în primejdie, nu-i aşa? Însă este foarte folositor să gândeşti ca un spion atunci când soluţiile la îndemână nu se potrivesc, să fii dispus să iei în considerare orice idee, mai ales pe cele aparent ridicole, şi să nu te limitezi niciodată doar la un singur punct de vedere. Ca lider, este absolut necesar să-ţi dezvolţi un mod de gândire foarte diferit de al celorlalţi, şi să înveţi să anticipezi toate riscurile.

Un singur lucru este cert: dacă vrei să-ţi atingi toate scopurile propuse, şi mai ales dacă vrei să ajungi un lider eficient, va trebui să dai dovadă de creativitate în domeniul în care îţi desfăşori activitatea. Adevărul este că nu vei reuşi să duci la bun sfârşit nicio misiune, nicio sarcină complicată de serviciu, niciun proiect important, nimic din tot ceea ce doreşti să întreprinzi şi, de asemenea, nu vei putea găsi nicidecum soluţii viabile şi rapide de rezolvare a problemelor cu care în mod sigur te vei confrunta în viitor, dacă nu eşti îndeajuns de creativ şi, totodată, perseverent. E nevoie de efort şi de imaginaţie pentru a depăşi toate barierele care te pot împiedica să-ţi atingi scopurile propuse.

Însă, la fel ca şi un spion, trebuie să înveţi să fii "pe fază". A ocupa o funcţie importantă într-o companie nu mai este la fel de sigur ca altădată. Managerii caută oameni cât mai competenţi - capabili să-i inspire pe alţii, cât mai în temă cu noutăţile, cât mai hotărâţi şi cât mai creativi. În prezent, tehnologia se dezvoltă derutant de repede, schimbarea este foarte riscantă, şi dacă nu acţionezi atunci când trebuie şi cum trebuie rişti să pierzi poziţia în care te afli şi să fii înlocuit.

Leadership: Îţi amplifici menirea de a fi un rezultat al descifrării unor enigme în tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă pe parcursul tendinţei de a maximiza importanţa pe care o acorzi ieşirii dintr-un labirint fără limite?

Iar dacă eşti manager, este deosebit de important să găseşti căi novatoare de a trece peste toate obstacolele care pot apărea, să înveţi să te descurci în situaţii de criză, să ştii cum să procedezi atunci când te trezeşti înconjurat de probleme, care mai de care mai complexe, mai ciudate, mai presante, astfel încât să scapi rapid de ele. Vei reuşi, oare, să scapi întotdeauna de probleme şi să îţi atingi obiectivele stabilite? Vei promova la testul de aptitudini şi perspicacitate, sau vei pica?

Reţine că, oricât de mult ţi-ai dori să faci lucrurile să meargă, oricât de mult ai munci şi oricât de multe sacrificii ai face, dacă nu ai spirit de iniţiativă şi dacă nu dai dovadă de creativitate în domeniul în care activezi, nu vei reuşi niciodată să ajungi în top. Ca să reuşeşti în leadership trebuie să fii dispus să urmezi fără rezerve calea imaginaţiei şi a creativităţii.

Iar dacă nu îţi vei asuma riscuri, dacă nu vei avea suficientă prezenţă de spirit, un pronunţat simţ al creativităţii şi o putere de convingere foarte mare, nu vei şti cum să acţionezi pentru a ieşi din situaţiile de criză. Şi, în consecinţă, nu vei reuşi să urci mai sus în ierarhie.

Riscul cel mai mare la care eşti supus în încercarea de a-ţi demonstra vigilenţa este să te menţii motivat de o ieşire dintr-un labirint al cărui sens îţi scapă.

Liderii sunt extrem de talentaţi în domeniul în care activează. Ei ştiu să combine ideile noi cu cele vechi, ştiu să facă conexiuni între lucruri diferite, ştiu să creeze punţi de legătură între aspectele opuse sau aparent incompatibile ale lucrurilor. Totodată, liderii sunt mereu atenţi la detaliile mărunte, iau în calcul orice variantă de ieşire dintr-un impas şi adoptă ideile respinse sau aparent fără însemnătate.

Dacă vrei să ajungi un lider desăvârşit trebuie să dai dovadă de pasiune pentru ceea ce faci, de perseverenţă şi mai ales, mai ales de creativitate. Cum poţi deveni mai creativ? Prin exerciţiu. Încearcă să găseşti în fiecare zi soluţii la problemele pe care le întâmpini. Generarea ideilor, creativitatea şi spiritul inovator trebuie să fie aproape de pulsul oricărei organizaţii de succes.

Modul de a te percepe în conformitate cu cerinţele unei misiuni fără întoarcere este un labirint al cărui arhitect şi prizonier vei rămâne mult timp dacă nu reuşeşti să găseşti "ieşirea" care te trimite la nivelul următor.

Credinţa

On Decembrie 27, 2009

Întrece-te pe tine însuţi dacă îţi doreşti să faci saltul la un nivel superior.

De mult ori oamenii care îşi cunosc limitele şi slăbiciunile rămân locului, deprimaţi şi dezamăgiţi, gata să facă un pas înapoi la orice greutate pe care viaţa le-o aşterne în cale. Nu mai au putere fizică şi tărie morală suficientă, se tem să reacţioneze la provocările vieţii şi, prin urmare, în loc să-şi învingă frica, în loc să încerce să devină mai încrezători şi mai curajosi, ei îşi acceptă soarta (ori care ar fi ea) şi se retrag în lumea lor.

Sper ca vorbele mele să nu sune rău şi ameninţător pentru acele persoane care nu iubesc schimbarea dar preferă monotonia, care nu preiau controlul asupra vieţii lor, asupra propriilor hotărâri, şi care nu au convingerea că vor reuşi să-şi atingă ţelurile dacă se mobilizează.

Nu este deloc o noutate ceea ce afirma odată scriitorul Burke Hegdes, " Cerul îi ajută numai pe oamenii care trec la acţiune ". Credinţa înseamnă acţiune. Înseamnă să te mişti, să faci ceva pentru a-ţi împlini visele, ştiind că Dumnezeu va fi tot timpul lângă tine şi îţi va îndruma paşii pe drumul cel bun. Probabil vă amintiţi bancul acela cu tipul care se roagă la Dumnezeu să-l ajute să câştige la loterie. Şi după o viaţă întreagă pierdută cu rugăciuni, exasperat, Dumnezeu îi strigă: "Mai Ioane, cumpără şi tu măcar un bilet". Adică, Te Voi ajuta, dar fă şi tu un mic efort.

Realitatea este din păcate mult mai crudă, dacă ne gândim la faptul că unii oameni pur şi simplu nu depun nici cel mai mic efort pentru a-şi atinge obiectivele. Probabil se duce o luptă mută în sufletul acestor descumpăniţi, prea controversata luptă dintre bine şi rău, dar care nu reprezintă altceva decât o încercare nefirească de a-şi justifica propria lor neputinţă, adică lipsa de credinţă.

Voi încerca să vă ofer în cele ce urmează un exemplu bun care ilustrează puterea magică a credinţei, având convingerea că mă veţi asculta până la capăt.

Leadership: Ești conștient de permanenta ta conexiune cu "Tot Ceea Ce Eşti" într-o dinamică a potenţialului de a deforma o realitate, ştiind foarte bine că adevărul e în altă parte?

Considerat unul din cele mai bune filme ale anului 1997, "Gattaca" se înscrie în categoria filmelor motivaţionale, care atrag atenţia publicului asupra faptului că nimic nu este imposibil. Şi alte filme se pot înscrie probabil în această categorie: "A Knight Tale" , "Fighter in the Wind" ca să nu mai pomenim de "The Neverending Story" . De ce se numesc motivaţionale?

Dintr-un singur motiv, acela că ne îndeamnă să trecem la acţiune. Adică ne fac să aspirăm la mai mult, ne menţin în priză, ne determină să luăm atitudinea pozitivă, să ne orientăm mai bine în alegerea căilor de urmat şi să acţionăm cu mai mult elan în direcţia realizării scopurilor propuse. Personal nutresc o admiraţie teribilă pentru acest gen de filme, şi cred că nu sunt singurul.

Vincent Freeman este unul dintre ultimii oameni născuţi natural, nu în laboratoarele genetice. (Acţiunea filmului se desfăşoară undeva în viitorul nu prea îndepărtat). Încă de la naştere, specialiştii au preconizat că va muri la vârsta de 30 de ani. Miop şi bolnăvicios, Vincent nu avea nici o şansă să-şi facă vreo carieră într-o societate dinamică şi profesională. Însă, încă de mic, el a avut o singura pasiune, planetele, iar visul pe care şi l-a plăsmuit a fost să ajungă în spaţiu. Chiar şi după ce a împlinit vârsta majoratului, visul lui cel mai mare a fost acela de a ajunge în spaţiu. A încercat să se angajeze la diverse companii, însă nimeni nu l-a angajat deoarece nu avea un "profil curat".

Credinţa înseamnă să faci din tine gloria unei făclii strălucitoare atunci când limitele propriei tale condiţii sunt negociate clar de la început de către o autoritate deplină care îngrădeşte manifestarea ta în lume.

Vincent a înţeles atunci că are nevoie de "mai mult de o aterizare ca să ajungă în spaţiu". Aşa că a recurs la măsuri extreme. Trebuia să se întreacă pe sine însuşi dacă voia să facă saltul la un nivel superior. Trebuia să facă ceva mai mult pentru el. Trebuia să-şi înfrunte limitele.

Apelând la ajutorului unui specialist în astfel de cazuri, a reuşit să se angajeze în Gattaca ca navigator, ceea ce implica numeroase sacrificii. În fiecare zi trebuia să-şi îndepărteze toată pielea moartă şi părul de pe corp pentru a limita orice suspiciuni; şi-a pus lentile de contact, a făcut schimb de identitate cu un fost sportiv de performanţă (dar care avea toate caracteristicile unui "valid"), ca să nu mai vorbim de schimbarea amprentelor sau de operaţia de mărire a picioarelor. Până la urmă, Vincent a reuşit să-şi împlinească visul.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să descoperi sensul unei vieţi pline de substanţă, urmărind neîncetat o ficţiune care poate face din tine oglinda realităţii într-un mod cât mai fidel avansării spre o cotă superioară de evoluţie?

Însă o scenă de pe la sfârşitul filmului n-o voi uita probabil niciodată, şi aici voiam de fapt să ajung. Între Vincent şi fratele său Anton (care avea un profil curat) are loc o ultimă întrecere de înot. Încă de mici se luau la întrecere, iar cine abandona primul şi se întorcea la mal era considerat învins. Nu este nevoie să amintesc cine era cel mai sanatos, mai puternic şi mai apt dintre ei.

De această dată, însă, a câştigat Vincent. Anton, care de-abia se mai ţinea la suprafaţa apei, îl întreabă pe Vincent: " Cum reuşeşti? Cum ai făcut toate astea? " Adică cum de ai putut tu, un invalid, să realizezi imposibilul?

Ficţiunea care face din tine oglinda realităţii este un vis care merită trăit până la capăt, cu riscul de a te scufunda într-o groapă a disperării şi a pierzaniei.

Chiar dacă se aflau departe de ţărm, Vincent se opreşte din înot şi îi răspunde fratelui său: "Vrei să ştii cum am făcut-o? Chiar vrei să ştii? Uite cum am reuşit, Anton: Niciodată nu m-am gândit să mă întorc la mal."

Leadership: Imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre tine face referire la o condiţie de „IF..., THEN", judecând tot ce faci după îndemnul "Ca să ajungi cineva, trebuie să începi prin a fi nimic" ?

"Niciodata nu m-am gândit să mă întorc la mal", este o afirmaţie care sper să rămână întipărită în mintea tuturor viitorilor lideri. Fiindcă asta înseamnă adevărata credinţă, să nu te îndoieşti cu nici un chip de tine însuţi şi o dată ce ţi-ai propus să atingi un anumit ţel să nu te mai întorci niciodată "la mal".

Oamenii incapabili să facă lucrurile să se mişte în favoarea lor aşteaptă cu mâinile întinse să primească din cer, pe de-a gata, tot ce e mai bun de la viaţă. Din nefericire, toate aceste aşteptări necuvenite care sunt adânc înrădăcinate în minţile lor “nefuncţionale” la schimbare, nu se împlinesc niciodată. Nu este de mirare că atitudinea nehotărâtă a acestor oameni a căpătat un renume nefast, care, în opinia unora garantează eşecul oricărei acţiuni.

Leadershipul este oglindirea într-un vis mai înalt decât tine, care se întinde pe tot parcursul unei curse în care trebuie să stabileşti cel mai rapid tur.

Ce ar trebui să se întâmple oare pentru ca aceşti indivizi să-şi schimbe modul de gândire şi de abordare a vieţii?

Mai multă credinţă, acesta este probabil singurul răspuns bun. Credinta aprinde în sufletul nostru acea flacără puternică, acea dorinţă intensă şi hotărâtă de victorie, de care au dat dovadă marii conducători. Fără credinţă focul interior se va stinge la primul obstacol pe care-l vom întâlni, şi nu-i de mirare că oricat ne-am strădui să-l depăşim, nu vom reuşi. Ba chiar ne vom afunda şi mai mult in mlaştina neputinţei.

Probabil că nu se înşela Honore de Balzac atunci când a spus: “ Ca să ajungi cineva, trebuie să începi prin a fi nimic ”.

Dar, as adăuga eu, trebuie să ai credinţa nestrămutată că într-o bună zi vei ajunge acolo unde ţi-ai propus, şi asta numai prin acţiune se poate realiza. Ceea ce contează este voinţa ta de a trece la acţiune, având convingerea că vei izbuti în tot ceea ce întreprinzi. Trebuie să te intreci pe tine însuţi dacă vrei să faci saltul la un nivel superior.

Credinţa este măsura sacrificiului pe care eşti în stare să-l faci ca să atingi un scop la fel de absurd ca o ficţiune pe care doar tu o poţi inventa.

Devotamentul absolut

On August 19, 2010

Focalizează-ţi antenele sufletului tău spre ceilalţi, pentru ca ei să se ataşeze mai mult de tine.

În filmul " The Mummy – Tomb Of The Dragon Emperor ", soţilor Evelyn şi Rick O'Connell li se încredinţează o misiune importantă: să mearga în China şi să înapoieze muzeului din Shanghai " Ochiul din Shangri La" , care, potrivit legendei, arăta drumul spre Iazul Vieţii Veşnice.

Ei îşi îndeplinesc misiunea, reuşind să predea muzeului acea rară piesă de colecţie. Dar acolo, pe neaşteptate, sunt înconjuraţi de generalul Yang şi oamenii săi. Acesta dorea cu orice preţ să-l învie pe împăratul Qin Shi Huang şi armata lui de teracotă.

Leadership: Poţi să te descoperi drept valoare absolută în felul cum îţi trăieşti credinţa în cazul unei motivaţii lăuntrice faţă de apelul la depăşirea oricărei limitări?

Generalul Yang, cu o autoritate ce nu lasă loc compromisului, o somează pe Evelyn să citească inscripţia care era gravată pe " Ochiul din Shangri La" . Dacă ar fi refuzat, soţul ei era ca şi mort.

Întregul ei trup i se zgudui de suspine la gândul că îl va pierde pentru totdeauna pe cel căruia i-a fost alături mereu. Nu putea să întoarcă spatele unui om care îi era atât de scump. Dar în adâncul sufletului ei simţea o teamă teribilă, era bântuită de un presentiment sumbru, că moartea îi pândea pe amândoi îndeaproape. Situaţia în care se afla aduse în mintea ei un noian de posibilităţi înfricoşătoare. Sufletul ei era pe punctul de a se lăsa pradă disperării.

Îl privi pe Rick cu inimă strânsă, ca şi cum ar fi vrut să spună: " Sufletul şi trupul meu sunt întru totul ale tale. Nu te voi părăsi niciodată. " Expresia ochilor ei era îngrijorătoare, asemenea privirii unei mame care-şi priveşte pruncul cuprins de o boală gravă. Era o soţie iubitoare, era o fiinţă cu o viaţă spirituală intensă. Nu, nu putea fi atât de nesimţitoare faţă de cel care era tovarăşul şi protectorul ei cel mai bun.

Rick tresări surprins când o văzu pe Evelyn cum se aruncă de bunăvoie în faţa pistolului care era îndreptat spre el. Această perspectivă îl înspăimântă de-a binelea. I se rupea inima de mila ei, dar era la fel de îngrijorat ca ea. Îşi păstră în continuare pe chip o expresie gravă, căci viaţa lor atârna de un singur fir de păr.

Evelyn stătea în faţa generalului, într-o atitudine supusă. Dintr-un sentiment de teamă era decisă să citească inscripţia. Rick rămase un moment cufundat în gânduri, apoi, ascunzându-şi îngrijorarea, afişând o mină încrezătoare, îi vorbi pe un ton afectuos: " Nu Evelyn, nu face asta. Oricum mă vor omorî ".

Ea cunoştea timbrul vocii soţului ei mai bine ca oricine – ştia că nu voia să spună asta cu adevărat. Dar nu a putut să ia în consideraţie o altă variantă, decât să citească inscripţia, cu toată spaima de ceea ce avea să urmeze.

Orice lucru care îi stătea în putinţă să-l facă pentru soţul ei puteai să-l consideri deja făcut, inclusiv sacrificiul personal.

Devotamentul este calea de a te arăta superior în faţa unor semne de sfârşit - relevate ca lecţii de viaţă care armonizează cauzele şi efectele derivate dintr-o situaţie fără ieşire.

A făcut dovada devotamentului ei absolut faţă de soţul ei. Rick şi Evelyn avuseseră toate motivele să fie neliniştiţi. Generalul Yang îi tratase cu superioritate şi răceală, şi nu ezitase să dea glas dispreţului în cel mai dur mod şi în cei mai jignitori termeni. Puteau să moară, sau să trăiască doar dacă Evelyn citea inscripţia – dar nimic nu era sigur.

Totul era clar precum cristalul, Rick nu se putea îndoi de devotamentul lui Evelyn, care nu şi-ar fi pierdut niciodată afecţiunea faţă de el. Dar, citind inscripţia, ea a aprins o flacără în sufletul lui. Fără nicio îndoială unei asemenea persoane merită să-i porţi o recunoştinţă veşnică, merită să o răsplăteşti pentru devotamentul ei.

Leadership: Felul tău de a fi un om extraordinar rezidă din bucuria a te recunoaşte drept învingător al unei lupte cu tine însuţi în care inima îşi lasă amprenta asupra caracterului celui de lângă tine?

Dacă îţi dedici inima şi sufletul unei persoane, ea îţi va răspunde cu acelaşi sentiment. Ca sa fii primit in adâncul inimii oamenilor, trebuie să faci dovada devotamentului tau absolut faţă de ei, sporindu-le senzaţia de siguranţă şi încredere vizavi de tine. Căci oamenii simt direct gradul tău de devotament şi natura lui - angajamentul pe care ţi-l iei faţă de ei doar din datorie sau de teamă să nu-ţi pierzi poziţia, sau devotamentul bazat pe dragoste şi valori împărtăşite. Iar daca nu te dovedeşti a fi în concordanţă cu aşteptările lor, vei fi părăsit.

Datoria ta, ca lider, este să fii mereu acolo, alături de oameni, în mijlocul lor, să-i sprijini şi să-i ajuţi în momentele dificile. Oamenii văd în tine salvarea lor. Nu-i de-ajuns să le fii călăuză în toate dându-le ordine şi instructiuni clare pentru ca să-şi ducă la îndeplinire sarcinile ce le-au fost încredinţate. Trebuie să ai o voinţă de fier, dar şi un suflet bun, să-i asiguri de prietenia ta pentru ca ei să-ţi fie mereu recunoscători. Deci, se impune să-i tratezi cu bunăvoinţă şi înţelegere, să ai grijă de ei ca de proprii tăi copii, ca de propria ta familie. Acest lucru va întări şi mai mult legătura dintre tine şi ei. Iar împreună, veţi deveni o forţă mai mare.

Concluzie: Munca cu oamenii este cea mai dificilă. Acest "material" numit om este fragil, şi deci trebuie să ai o grijă deosebita cum te comporţi cu el. Trebuie să dai dovadă de abilitate ca să asiguri coeziunea unui grup, ca să reuşeşti să transformi o gloată de oameni într-o adevărată echipă.

Focalizează-ţi antenele sufletului tău spre ceilalţi, pentru ca ei să se ataşeze mai mult de tine. Oamenii îţi dedică inima şi sufletul numai eşti devotat lor.

Atributul cel mai puternic al liderului este că îşi lasă amprenta asupra împărtăşirii emoţiilor celor din jur în vederea diferenţierii dintre sine şi ei.

Dorinţa de autodepăşire

Nu poţi să mobilizezi energiile celorlalţi oameni şi să le stârneşti o pasiune intensă pentru munca lor, dacă tu însuţi nu eşti mânat de dorinţa de a obţine rezultate din ce în ce mai bune.

Niciun artist adevărat nu poate trăi fără să creeze. O singură privire aruncată spre chipul unui om, copil sau matur, îi poate oferi inspiraţia de care are nevoie pentru a schiţa un nou tablou. În el zace o forţă misterioasă, o putere creatoare care nu dispare în niciun moment. Fiindcă niciodată nu se mulţumeste cu puţin, cu ceea ce a realizat până în prezent, ci se străduie mereu să se perfecţioneze şi să creeze ceva inedit. Să fie mai bun, din ce în ce mai bun. Atât de bun, încât să-şi depăşească limitele. Voinţa lui de a înfăptui miracolul este atât de puternică, încât se aruncă în muncă cu multă pasiune, de fiecare dată cu o intensitate mai mare, cu acea bucurie de nedescris pe care numai oamenii însufleţiţi de dorinţa de a realiza imposibilul o cunosc.

Un adevarat artist se lasă purtat întotdeauna de torentul inimii, torentul dătător de viaţă. Din fiecare plimbare pe care o face revine cu o temă pe care se grăbeşte s-o schiţeze pe hârtie. Îl atrage frumuseţea lucrurilor în general. Sclipirile frunzelor în vânt, jocul de umbre, lumina, vibraţiile unei roţi de bicicletă neechilibrate, o picătură de rouă de pe o petală de trandafir, un colier în jurul unui gât, zborul gingaş al unui fluture, tristeţea unei statui, forma unei bănci de lemn. Evident, artistul tânjeşte după calitate şi diversitate.

El notează cu o iuţeală magică toate ideile pe măsură ce apar, unele după altele, indiferent cât de asemănătoare ar fi. Dar apoi încearcă să le dea un alt sens. Un sens cu totul şi cu totul diferit, unic, de neînchipuit. Cum ar fi, de exemplu, o combinaţie între pietre şi flori. Sau între cer şi păsări. Sau între un chip omenesc şi ferocitatea unui animal sălbatic. Cuprins de frenezia creaţiei, el caută mereu să le dea lucrurilor o interpretare proprie, să exprime în fiecare tablou un mesaj. Un mesaj care să însemne de fiecare dată altceva şi care să atingă coarda sensibilă a privitorului.

Leadership: Pui în valoare acea parte a artei care există în procesul plăsmuirii artistice, în virtutea unei interpretări aduse momentelor esenţiale care au marcat aprofundarea propriei vocaţii?

Un adevărat artist continuă să se autodepăşească. El ştie că singura cale de a se ridica deasupra celorlalţi, este să continue să se perfecţioneze. Să-şi cultive şi mai mult talentul. Să capete mai multă „strălucire”, mai multă putere, mai multă încredere în capacităţile sale. De aceea nu-şi pierde niciodată îndrăzneala de a încerca lucruri noi, de a vedea lumea dintr-o altă perspectivă. Ideile apar de peste tot.

Forme noi se îmbină, culori noi se întrepătrund. Descoperă noi tehnici. Misterioasa bucurie care sălăşluieşte în firea lui, de a crea, de a da o interpretare nouă şi specială ideilor sale, îi alimentează pasiunea şi îl determină să-şi forţeze limitele. Niciodată nu se opreşte din căutat. Stăpânit de acea năzuinţă lăuntrică spre ideal, ce este proprie tuturor maeştrilor, pune zilnic mâna pe penel şi pictează. Uneori fără întrerupere. Ore în şir. Pentru că inspiraţia îi apare numai muncind.

Ceea ce îl face pe un lider să fie exceptional este această dorinţă imensă, precum cea a unui artist, de se autodepăşi, de a fi întotdeauna mai bun. Niciodată un lider nu va reuşi să-şi menţină poziţia dacă nu munceşte cu multă abnegaţie, dacă nu urmăreşte zi de zi să se perfecţioneze şi să se autodepăşească. Căci cel ce nu încearcă să se implice mai mult în realizarea obiectivelor carierei sale, în dezvoltarea lui personală şi profesională, cel ce nu se străduie mereu şi mereu să devină mai creativ, mai productiv, mai eficient în ceea ce face, va fi tentat să renunţe.

Leadershipul înseamnă sa treci peste limitele unor valori de contur acceptabile, generând un concept de exploatare al acumulării de expresii artistice.

În ziua de azi, cine vrea să obţină rezultate extraordinare pur şi simplu nu-şi poate permite să rămână la un nivel de performanţă scăzut. Iar cine vrea să conducă bine trebuie numaidecât să dovedească faptul că este un mult mai bun profesionist decât toţi aceia pe care îi conduce.

Valorile de contur ale propriei tale importanţe, precum performanţa, principialitatea, gândirea critică şi etică, sunt date de modul cum te prezinţi în faţa celorlalţi şi ce limbaj foloseşti - un limbaj artistic, creativ, ce pune accentul pe emoția umană și pe expresia culturală. Definiţia expresiei artistice o putem extrage din dicţionar: este unitatea sintetică a manifestării exterioare a gândirii şi sentimentelor prin intermediul cuvintelor, gesturilor, culorilor, liniilor, sunetelor.

Firmele au nevoie de lideri care să fie dispuşi să treacă peste propriile limite. Prin urmare un lider, al cărui ţel este să-şi determine subalternii să obţină rezultate tot mai bune pentru ca firma să prospere, trebuie să fie mânat de dorinţa de a obţine performanţe din ce în ce mai mari. Şi, pentru că este un model pentru toţi ceilalţi, trebuie să fie cât mai bun în tot ceea ce face. În practicile pe care le utilizează, în regulile pe care le stabileşte, în deciziile pe care le ia, în alegerile pe care le face. În arta pe care o semnează.

Leadership: Îţi ridici exemplul personal la rang de virtute care constă în puterea şi curajul de a îndura permanenta conexiune cu "Tot ceea ce eşti" în mijlocul unei experienţe de creaţie omologate sub raportul valorii de referinţă?

Cum ar putea un lider să mobilizeze energiile celorlalţi oameni şi să le stârnească o pasiune intensă pentru munca lor dacă el însuşi nu este mânat de dorinţa de a obţine rezultate din ce în ce mai bune? Cum ar putea un lider să îi îndemne, să îi provoace, să îi inspire şi să îi încurajeze pe oameni să se perfecţioneze dacă el însuşi nu este, mai întâi de toate, foarte bine pregătit şi bine pus la punct cu toate noutăţile din domeniu?

Numai prin exemplul personal, prin interesul pe care îl arată faţă de propria persoană, faţă de profesionalismul său, şi prin fidelitatea lui faţă de companie sau angajator va putea să urce mai sus în ierarhie şi să se menţină acolo. Prin urmare, un lider trebuie, în primul şi în primul rând, să se autoeduce să devină ceea ce afirmă că este: un foarte bun profesionist. Iar un bun profesionist ştie că singura cale de a obţine performanţe superioare este să încerce în permanenţă să evolueze şi să se autodepăşească.

Valoarea de referinţă a unui om de calitate se scade din valoarea finală a investiţiei făcută în reprezentările artistice care depaşesc aşteptările celorlalţi.

Arta pe care ţi-o asumi în încercarea de a realiza o capodoperă derivă din interesul acordat unei pasiuni a cărei intensitate poate naşte o legendă a perfecţiunii într-o lume nou-nouţă.

Concluzie: Fără dorinţa de autodepăşire nu se poate obţine performanţa. Performanţa se obţine numai prin muncă, creativitate, perseverenţă şi perfecţionare continuă. Este esenţial să gândim că întotdeauna se poate şi este loc de mai mult bine, şi să acţionăm în acest sens.

Automulţumirea duce la stagnare, la plafonare, ceea ce nu numai că nu este în beneficiul nimănui, ci chiar în detrimentul tuturor.

Forţa emoţională

Activează-ţi acele forţe lăuntrice prin care sa găseşti drumul potrivit spre inimile oamenilor.

Rick şi Evelyn ajunseră în oaza din deşertul Ahm Shere, în apropierea templului lui Abu Simbel. Trebuiau să-l găsească cu orice preţ pe fiul lor şi să-l salveze din mâinile înaltului preot Imhotep şi a credincioşilor săi servitori. Doar ei doi, împreună cu Jonathan şi cu Ardeth Bay - o căpetenie a unui grup de războinici ai deşertului, n-ar fi avut aproape nicio şansă împotriva zecilor de soldaţi ce-l slujeau pe Imhotep.

Gândindu-se că aveau să lupte împotriva a mai bine de o sută de oameni bine înarmaţi, ştiind că şansele de izbândă nu erau deloc de partea lor, Rick se apropie încetişor de soţia sa Evelyn. Un om bun, un om inimos, un explorator aventuros dedicat meseriei sale, se afla atunci în faţa ei, însă pentru prima oară cam deznădăjduit. Conştient că lui Evelyn, şi aşa ostenită de emoţiile groaznice prin care a trecut, îi pătrunsese spaima în inimă, i se adresă cu o mare căldură sufletească, cu calm, cu un glas plin de demnitate, dar îndurerat.

Toate temerile şi toate neliniştile puseseră stăpânire pe sufletul lor, simţind pericolul ca înaintea unei cumplite furtuni. Rick şovăi puţin, ca şi când îi venea greu să-i spună că asta ar putea fi ultima lor clipă împreună. În loc să-i spună direct cât de mult o iubeşte, cât de mult înseamnă ea pentru el, cu câtă înflăcărare şi pasiune o adoră, el îi dădu nişte ultime indicaţii despre cum să tragă cu puşca, fiindcă îi cunoştea firea liberă şi semeaţă.

Leadership: Domini imaginea realităţii pe care o construieşti printr-un mesaj care invită la verificarea unei stări de spirit în care se întrepătrund esenţele unice ale unor lumi lăuntrice?

Evelyn dădu aprobator din cap la indicaţiile lui Rick. Cu ochii ţintă la el, ea asculta cu inima deschisă cuvintele calde şi emoţionante ce curgeau de pe buzele lui. Simţi cum o străpung fiorii. Un gând de nădejde izbucni pentru o clipă în sufletul ei. Tăria acestui gând se accentuă atât de tare încât aproape că îi dădură lacrimile. Rick o sărută cu tandreţe, un sărut care pe jumătate însemna „Adio", dupa care, fără să mai spună nimic, dispăru în oază.

Tot acest moment se transformase într-o forţă lăuntrică pentru Evelyn. Cu inima strânsă, dar adânc mişcată de gestul soţului ei, îşi strânse bine arma în mână şi, mânată de elanul femeii ce-şi caută fericirea adevărată în bărbatul iubit, se pregăti de luptă.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul " The Mummy Returns (2001) ", cu siguranţă îţi aminteşti că Evelyn, a luptat cu îndârjire riscându-şi viaţa, reuşind să-şi salveze fiul şi soţul.

Marea putere a unui lider radiază din fiinţa lui atunci când realitatea pe care o trăieşte şi o exprimă scoate în evidenţă forma în care el se descoperă drept un conţinut plin de afecţiune.

Pentru întâia oara s-a revelat măreaţa putere ce radia din fiinţa lui Rick – putere care zguduia, seducea şi domina sufletele. Pentru întâia oară s-a manifestat în el misterioasă forţă magică care a putut mobiliza pe cineva spre mai multă râvnă. Cine ştie, dacă Rick nu i-ar fi luat pulsul interior şi nu i-ar fi ridicat adrenalina lui Evelyn, stârnindu-i acea înverşunare lăuntrică specifică unui războinic neînfricat care luptă până la moarte, poate că ea ar fi rămas deznădăjduită şi n-ar mai fi dovedit acel curaj nemaipomenit.

Un lider adevărat transformă viaţa tuturor oamenilor care se afla în preajma lui, făcând apel mai mult la sentimente decât la raţiune. De fapt, în asta constă nemaipomenita lui putere. Peste tot, fără încetare, supraenergia fiinţei lui trezeşte în ceilalţi o încordare nebănuită, excesiv de intensă, sub forma atracţiei. Sufletele, încătuşate în puterea lui de vrajă, sunt cuprinse brusc de un teribil devotament, supunându-se orbeşte voinţei sale.

O viaţă plină de încercări, prin prisma învăţămintelor însuşite din experienţa unor întâmplări fascinante, este magica poveste în care se întretaie două vieţi despărţite în timp, dar unite în spirit.

Se poate întâmpla ca oamenii pe care-i conduci să treacă prin momente de teamă sau îndoială şi, neavând un interior dur, să-şi diminueze interesul pentru obţinerea performanţelor. Se poate întâmpla să-şi piardă tot elanul şi, în loc să reuşească, să eşueze. În aceste momente, când situaţia lor se îngreunează, sarcina ta, ca lider, este să le dai putere, să-i faci să se simtă tari şi încrezători. Trebuie să le iei pulsul interior şi să le provoci acea emoţie, acel sentiment ciudat în inima lor care să le scoată la iveală adevărata lor valoare, întregul lor potenţial. Dacă reuşeşti asta înseamnă că dispui de o forţă emoţională uriaşă.

A încerca să conduci un grup de oameni neînsufleţiţi de niciun fel de entuziasm e ca şi cum ai lua comanda unui batalion care nu a reuşit să treacă de pregătirea fizică. Pentru ca oamenii să se străduiască să-şi atingă potenţialul şi să realizeze ceva vizibil trebuie să le stimulezi ambiţia, făcând apel la emoţii şi sentimente, nu doar la raţiune. Oamenii nu pot deveni hiperactivi dacă nu le transmiţi acea energie de a reuşi şi, mai ales, dacă îi judeci superficial. Rick a ajutat-o pe Evelyn să-şi canalizeze avântul prin forţa sa emoţională, nu prin „lărgimea de bandă” a gândirii.

Leadershipul se prezintă ca un stâlp de rezistenţă atunci când eşti însufleţit de ambiţia de a-ţi asuma constant responsabilitatea de a fi tu însuţi într-o lume care reflectă valorile în care crezi.

Concluzie: Marii lideri deţin acea artă de a pătrunde în sufletul oamenilor, stabilind conexiuni ce stau la baza manipulării lor, cu scopul de a le activa acele forţe lăuntrice mobilizatoare prin care să poată depăşi momentele critice care uneori apar.

P.S. Capacitatea echipei de a trece peste obstacole depinde de forţa emoţională a liderului.

Încrederea

Arată-le oamenilor eşti de partea lor şi ei îţi vor acorda încrederea lor.

La 6 octombrie 1769, pe ţărmurile Noii Zeelande ancora vestitul căpitan James Cook. El deţinea informaţii conform cărora băştinaşii de prin părţile respective nu sunt tocmai paşnici, ci dimpotrivă, războinici şi provocatori. Din experienţa acumulată de-a lungul anilor, Cook ştia că pentru a evita un conflict trebuia să-i transforme pe băştinaşi în foarte buni prieteni, mai ales că nu putea rămâne prea mult pe acea insulă şi echipajul său avea mare nevoie de provizii şi de odihnă.

Conştient că trebuie să acţioneze rapid ca să evite orice atac imediat, de cum au păşit pe uscat Cook a ordonat să fie capturaţi trei băştinaşi, pe care-i făcu prizonieri. Însă acest prizonierat s-a dovedit a fi o mare sărbătoare pentru aceştia deoarece au fost serviţi cu multe feluri de mâncare şi li s-au făcut multe daruri. După câteva ore au fost „eliberaţi”. La vederea darurilor primite de cei trei, ceilalţi băştinaşi ascunşi în pădurile din apropiere au renunţat la atitudinea ostilă şi au acceptat să cadă la învoială cu europenii."

Aşa a reuşit căpitanul Cook să evite numeroase incidente în călătoriile sale pe mare, şi aşa se explică faptul că a rămas în memoria a milioane de oameni ca unul dintre cei mai iscusiţi navigatori din istoria lumii.

Leadership: Triumful tău tinde să-şi mărească volumul la fiecare pas, în sensul existenţei unei concordanţe între aportul tău la modelarea destinului tău şi ideea de a oferi celorlalţi acces la valorile unei lumi noi?

Nimic nu este mai important în leadership decât abilitatea ta de a înţelege valorile oamenilor şi de a le întări încrederea în tine. Identificarea unor lucruri pe care le ai în comun cu ei şi realizarea unei bune comunicări cu ei este prima condiţie care trebuie îndeplinită pentru stabilirea relaţiilor de prietenie şi colaborare. Dacă vrei să fii mai influent, învaţă să dezvolţi şi să menţii relaţii sănătoase cu cei din jur oferind cât mai multă credibilitate. A fi demn de încredere şi corect în relaţiile cu ceilalţi reprezintă cele mai importante caracteristici ale credibilităţii.

Oamenii au încredere numai în cineva care investeşte în dezvoltarea lor. Căpitanul Cook nu avea de ales, trebuia să le câştige încrederea băştinaşilor. Cum? Adoptând o atitudine sociabilă şi prietenoasă. Manifestându-şi intenţia de a stabili relaţii. Căutând un teren comun de cooperare. Oferindu-le daruri, adică obiecte din "lumea nouă" de care aceştia cu siguranţă se vor îndrăgosti. Gestul lui de solidaritate a creat în rândul băştinaşilor un soi de mândrie locală. Cel mai uşor lucru prin care poţi construi relaţii este să trezeşti în oameni sentimentul de recunoştinţă.

Ca să stabilesti legături trebuie să te concentrezi mai degrabă pe a oferi decât pe a primi. Dacă eşti egoist nu vei putea să creezi sinergii, similitudini şi puncte comune de interes care să faciliteze o colaborare eficientă. Nu uita că aşa cum într-o pictură de ulei lumina decurge din culoare, tot aşa în leadership, influenţa ta decurge din capacitatea ta de a relaţiona cu ceilalţi.

Leadershipul este locul în care ajungi când lucrurile se finalizează cum doreşti, asumându-ţi întreaga imagine pe care o transmiţi printr-un sentiment de recunoştinţă.

Suspiciunea îi face pe cei mai mulţi oameni să se ferească într-un fel de individul necunoscut care nu cultivă în rândul lor sentimentul de siguranţă şi încredere. Liderul care îşi face prea multe planuri de viitor fără să ţină seama de interesele celorlalţi, riscă în timp să rămână singur, izolat de restul lumii. Şi prin urmare nu se va mai putea numi lider.

Locul de unde trebuie să începi este reprezentat de necesităţile şi dorinţele oamenilor. Orientează-te către ei, acţionează în folosul lor ca să deschizi uşa stabilirii şi menţinerii unei legături eficiente între tine şi ei. Comunică-le faptul că doreşti să le oferi ceva de valoare, pentru ca ei să vadă că îţi pasă de ei. Ca să dezvolţi şi să menţii încrederea oamenilor în tine, fă-i să înţeleagă că te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce vor ei. Dacă ei nu conştientizează că eşti de partea lor, atunci nu se vor arăta dispuşi să înceapă o colaborare cu tine.

A-ţi conştientiza triumful înseamnă să înţelegi ce ţi se întâmplă din punctul de vedere al evoluţiei tale, căutând temeiul unei perspective absolut unice asupra situării tale în fruntea unei glorii pe care toată lumea aşteaptă de la tine să o reinventezi. Liderii nu se culcă pe laurii unei glorii pe care au căpătat-o la anumit moment, ci continuă să evolueze spre cel mai mare potenţial al lor.

Încrederea este autoritatea pe care ţi-o acorzi ţie în virtutea unei glorii care nu înseamnă bogăţie sau putere, ci un test al ambiţiei de a te autodepăşi.

Inspiraţia

Deschide căile de comunicare cu ceilalţi, oferind dovada că sistemul tău de valori şi convingeri funcţionează corect.

O personalitate puternică, cu ambiţii ferme, un luptător condus de dorinţa de a obţine rezultate remarcabile, un om care neîncetat s-a impus în faţa provocărilor şi încercărilor vieţii a fost navigatorul de origine italiană, Cristofor Columb. Acest om plin de viaţă s-a avântat mereu pe drumul descoperirilor, trăind toate emoţiile pasionate ale unui navigator. Toate cele patru mari călătorii întreprinse de el în întreaga lume au îmbogăţit cunoştinţele geografice ale timpului cu numeroase insule precum Tortugas, Martinica, Dominica, Maria Galante, Guadalupe, Montserrat, Santa Maria, Santa Cruz, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, coastele Hondurasului, insulele Mulatas, golful Darien.

Dar ceea ce i-a fost cel mai de folos marelui navigator, ceea ce l-a ajutat să răzbată în faţa tuturor greutăţilor care i-au apărut în cale de-a lungul anilor nu a fost doar perseverenţa, ci şi inspiraţia. Căci întotdeauna un om însufleţit de idealuri înalte, care încearcă să-şi depăşească limitele şi să se ridice la înălţimea pretenţiilor sale nu poate răzbi fiind doar ambiţios, hotărât şi îndrăzneţ. Are nevoie de încă o calitate, net superioară tuturor celorlalte. El trebuie să posede intuiţie, să fie plin de inspiraţie, să fie ingenios, inventiv, creativ, ca să poată rezolva problemele cu care se confruntă şi să depăşească momentele de cumpănă ale vieţii.

Leadership: Cum îţi evidenţiezi experienta obţinută ca urmare a unei erori de autentificare în sensul de maximă rezistenţă în faţa dependenţei de autoritatea pe care o desemnezi?

Scriitorul francez Jules Verne, povesteşte în cartea sa „ Cristofor Columb ”, un eveniment important din viaţa ilustrului navigator. Cristofor Columb a fost învinuit de injustiţie şi de cruzime de către ofiţerii pe care îi trimisese acasă. Aceştia chiar insinuaseră că el încerca să devină independent faţă de rege. Influenţat de aceste afirmaţii nedemne, amiralul, care ţinea la reputaţia şi caracterul său, porni spre Spania, vrând să se justifice cât mai repede.

La 12 iunie 1496 Columb a intrat în portul Cadiz din Spania, dar această a doua întoarcere a lui nu s-a bucurat deloc de simpatia mulţimii. În loc să fie entuziasmaţi de sosirea lui, oamenii l-au privit cu dispreţ şi cu ură. Până şi însoţitorii săi i-au fost împotrivă; erau dezamăgiţi că nu au adus cu ei bogăţiile pe care acesta a făgăduit că le va găsi.

Numai inspiraţia de moment l-a salvat pe Columb de la un eşec timpuriu. El trebuia să găsească neapărat o cale de a-şi susţine nevinovăţia, oferind dovada că valorile şi convingerile sale sunt cele mai bune. Aşa că, pentru a le dovedi adversarilor săi că are dreptate el i-a combătut cu însufleţire la curtea regelui, folosind împotriva lor arma ironiei. Le-a propus acestora să facă astfel încât un ou să stea în echilibru pe unul dintre capete. Nu au reuşit. Atunci Columb a spart coaja la o extremitate, şi a aşezat oul pe partea aceea.

- Nu v-aţi gândit la soluţia asta, le spuse el. Ei bine, totul este să gândeşti.

Inspiraţia înseamnă să-ţi descătuşezi forţa creatoare în perspectiva unei lumi dificile care face din lucrurile simple lucruri complicate, din idei clare idei confuze.

Inspiraţia este precum un dirijor de orchestră – te ghidează pentru a fi sigur că lucrurile sunt făcute aşa cum trebuie, îţi oferă indicaţii în timp real şi acţionează când lucrurile scapă de sub control. Inspiraţia este coechipierul tău care te ajută să iei decizii în chestiunile cele mai delicate. Are un impact pozitiv asupra atitudinii şi încrederii cu care abordezi orice situaţie.

Aşa cum un dirijor armonizează diferite instrumente pentru a oferi o interpretare inedită, tot aşa inspiraţia îţi concentrează toate ideile, gândurile şi toate trăirile la un loc, imprimându-ţi un anumit impuls de acţiune. Inspiraţia este acea forţă lăuntrică creatoare care îţi orientează atenţia şi gândurile către soluţiile cele mai bune cu putinţă, îti oferă o alternativă mai bună de rezolvare a problemelor decât tradiţionala abordare.

Inspiraţia l-a ajutat pe Columb să găsească rapid un mijloc ca să iasă învingător din acea dispută, determinându-şi toţi rivalii să-i dea crezare şi să se încreadă în el. Inspiraţia i-a dictat să facă ceea ce era necesar, şi să spună ceea ce trebuie. Inspiraţia i-a furnizat pe neaşteptate soluţia salvatoare. Inspiraţia te va călăuzi şi pe tine spre soluţii optime printr-o comunicare eficientă.

Leadershipul este o interpretare inedită dată efectelor unui parcus din care trebuie să rezulte dependenţa ta faţă de modul cum te valorizezi în extremele unei situaţii fără precedent.

Pentru a-ţi comunica cât mai eficient ideile în faţa oamenilor, mai ales în faţa adversarilor tăi, şi pentru a le schimba convingerile ai nevoie de o inspiraţie de moment, de acea magică sclipire care să pătrundă în sufletul lor şi să le atragă simpatia. Dacă nu reuşeşti să schimbi gândirea oamenilor din jur, surprinzându-i cu un alt punct de vedere, nu-i va putea niciodata câştiga de partea ta.

Parafrazându-l pe scriitorul Richard Cohen, a fi lider e ca şi cum ai sta pe o navă care se zguduie. O să aluneci. O să te apuci de diferite lucruri. O sa cazi. Dar există tot timpul provocarea de a te ridica şi de a te strădui sa continui.

Columb a înţeles consecinţele grave ce vor decurge dacă nu-şi dovedeşte nevinovăţia, dar a ştiut că poate controla situaţia. El a răspuns provocării pe care i-au lansat-o adversarii săi. Primul lucru pe care l-a făcut a fost să se gândească cum ar putea să le schimbe acestora opinia. Şi a reuşit. A găsit un mod inovator de a se confrunta cu realitatea crudă. Inspiraţia nu l-a părăsit fiindcă era un om deschis, plin de imaginaţie, un om cultivat şi îndeajuns de înţelept.

Leadership: Întreaga imagine pe care o proiectezi prin puterea minţii este în deplin acord cu imaginea pe care o consumi prin multiplicarea greutăţii propriilor decizii?

În cartea mea, „ Atingerea maestrului " am făcut următoarea precizare: „ Ca lider, trebuie să te gândeşti la o strategie prin care să-i câştigi pe oameni de partea ta, să-i faci să te urmeze de bunăvoie, chiar dacă la început aceştia sunt neîncrezători şi suspicioşi faţă de tine. " Iar cea mai bună strategie pentru aceasta este să-ţi demonstrezi iscusinţa în stabilirea, îmbunătăţirea şi menţinerea relaţiilor folosindu-ţi inspiraţia şi imaginaţia, aşa cum a făcut-o Columb.

Ca lider trebuie să cauţi întotdeauna moduri de a face lucrurile să funcţioneze în favoarea ta şi a celorlalţi, trebuie să acţionezi prompt şi eficient, arătându-le celor din jur că eşti un om al viitorului, adică un om competent şi inteligent.

Inspiraţia este aceea calitate care il ajută pe lider să iasă din cele mai dificile situaţii, este cea care izvorăşte din anii de muncă şi experienţă, poate fi colacul de salvare pentru cel care este aproape de a se îneca.

Iar caracterul ce îl face pe un om demn de a fi în frunte, după gradul în care se apropie mai mult sau mai puţin de realizarea unor scopuri majore, se remodelează continuu după regula următoare:

Dacă există măcar o singură şansă să ai dreptate în privinţa unei informaţii, înseamnă că eşti capabil să recunoşti impactul pe care îl are o descoperire neaşteptată asupra relaţiilor dintre oameni.

Integritatea lăuntrică

Conştientizează-ţi şi protejează-ţi virtuţile cele mai înălţătoare, ca să asiguri deplina şi desăvârşita evoluţie a ego-ului tău pozitiv.

Totul în viaţa lui Kevin Lomax s-a schimbat după ce a fost recrutat de cea mai puternică firmă de avocatură din lume, " Milton, Chadwick & Waters ". În ciuda faptului că mama lui nu a fost de-acord, el a acceptat să-şi presteze serviciile de avocat profesionist la această firmă condusă de nimeni altul decât John Milton, un om foarte puternic şi cu o personalitate foarte bizară, care i-a trezit anumite bănuieli încă de la prima lor întrevedere.

Daca ai văzut filmul " The Devil's Advocate (1997) ", probabil îţi aminteşti finalul. Milton îi propune lui Kevin să preia conducerea firmei lui, promiţându-i că va avea totul pe lume, dar cu un singur preţ - să-şi vândă sufletul. Dar Kevin ascundea virtuţi pe care Milton nu credea că le are.

Cercetându-şi adâncul sufletului, cercetându-şi cu atenţie conştiinţa, simţind că ar putea săvârşi cel mai grav păcat, Kevin, în loc să primească cu entuziasm propunerea lui Milton, în loc să se bucure de cinstea de a se afla la conducerea firmei acestuia, refuză oferta. El nu poate aproba ce i se cere, nu poate pune pe o singură carte întregul lui "eu", ci se vede nevoit - tragic dezacord - să respingă generoasă ofertă şi să-şi păstreze sufletul curat.

Iată o faptă cu adevărat frumoasă; ba chiar, aş spune mai mult, într-adevăr măreaţă, demnă de un om cu o virtute lăuntrică deosebită.

Leadership: Întâmpini probleme în a accesa conținutul profilului tău care avantajează nuanţa percepţiei despre bine şi rău, din perspectiva unei experienţe de extindere a conştiinţei?

Filmul " The Devil's Advocate (1997) " este o metaforă care scoate foarte bine în evidenţă factorii fundamentali ce definesc "personalitatea" individului, dar mai ales a liderilor. Înainte de a decide ce tip de organizaţie ţi se potriveşte, ar trebui să ai o idee clară despre cine eşti tu ca persoană. Pentru că, cu cât te vei situa mai sus în topul oamenilor de elită, cu atât vei fi mai supus încercărilor de tot felul, pe care le vei putea depăşi numai prin responsabilitate, sinceritate, adevăr, dreptate, numai printr-o integritate lăuntrică deplină.

Nimic nu trebuie să te ispitească şi să te îndepărteze de la adevăratul tău Ego. În leadership, dar şi în viaţa de zi cu zi, este de mai mare însemnătate consistenţa ta morală - dacă acţionezi în funcţie de ce-ţi dictează conştiinţa. Fiecare moment din viaţa ta este influenţat de ceea ce eşti, de felul în care simţi şi gândeşti, de felul în care te raportezi la propriile slăbiciuni şi limitări. Trebuie să fii cât mai conştient de virtuţile tale cele mai înălţătoare şi să le protejezi, ca să asiguri deplina şi desăvârşita evoluţie a ego-ului tău pozitiv.

Poţi trece cu succes proba de foc a ispitelor şi încercărilor care se abat asupra ta, numai dacă eşti unit cu sentimentele tale cele mai sincere şi cu personalitatea ta, numai dacă te supui acelor norme bune pe care tu le alegi, norme care să nu-ţi permită să cazi pradă influenţelor negative. Învaţă să te opreşti înainte de a apăsa pe trăgaci !

Leadershipul se activează atunci când conștiința ta se reflectă în confruntarea dintre bine și rău și se materializează în asumarea unui angajament de loialitate faţă de valoarea pe care o ai atunci când ţi se oferă şansa de a schimba ceva fundamental în viaţa ta.

Numai dacă îţi asumi integral pilda unei judecăţi construite pe principiul confruntării dintre bine şi rău, poţi să atingi măsura deplină a propriilor capacități de a face faţă unor situaţii prin care nu ai trecut niciodată.

Ca lider, datoria ta cea mai mare este să-ţi analizezi în profunzime convingerile care stau la baza propriilor tale valori. Conturează-ţi o filozofie care să aibă la bază integritatea ta lăuntrică, respectul pentru sine şi devotamentul tău faţă de principiile după care te ghidezi. Totul se va prăbuşi dacă lucrurile pe care le faci, şi care te reprezintă, se îndepărtează de adevăratele tale rădăcini sufleteşti.

Leadership: Îţi iei în primire ideea de a fi o lecţie de viaţă pentru ziua de mâine, găsind acea unică raţiune de a te abţine de la săvârşirea păcatului numit "uitarea de sine"?

Imaginează-ţi că într-o zi primeşti o scrisoare de la o persoană necunoscută. Scrisoarea îţi stârneşte cel mai viu interes, pentru că îţi vorbeşte despre o comoară. Dar în acelaşi timp are un înţeles tainic care te pune pe gânduri în ceea ce te priveşte, sau cu privinţă la persoana care ţi-a scris. E cu neputinţă ca acele vorbe misterioase, dar totuşi pline de sens, să nu-ţi frământe mintea.

Scrisoarea se încheie cu următoarea rugăminte: " Ţi-am lăsat în grijă o comoară. Veghează mereu asupra ei, şi nu vei avea nicio problemă. Binevoieşte, te rog, dragul meu prieten, să apreciezi gestul meu plin de afecţiune şi să-ţi aminteşti mereu de mine... "

Ai vrea să împătureşti scrisoarea şi s-o pui undeva deoparte. Dar, cu toate acestea, simţi nevoia s-o citeşti şi s-o reciteşti mereu, pentru că îţi vorbeşte despre tine şi despre o comoară. Şi, mai presus de toate, pentru că cineva a ţinut şi încă mai ţine cu tot sufletul la tine.

Învaţă să ţii cont de glasul intuiţiei şi să mergi pe mâna ei. A uita de tine înseamnă să arzi scrisoarea fără să ţii cont de ceea ce există în interiorul tău.

A-ţi confirma calitatea de a fi măreţ înseamnă să permiţi identificarea deficienţelor proprii de caracter ce urmează a fi remediate prin restabilirea situaţiei anterioare săvârşirii unei fapte şi prin redefinirea condiţiei tale de supraveghetor al comorii numită "suflet curat".

Integritatea lăuntrică este ca o scrisoare pe care simţi nevoia s-o citeşti şi s-o reciteşti mereu. Este un atribut pe care nu trebuie să-l uiţi niciodată, este singura calitate care îţi validează valorile. Ea îţi spune ceea ce eşti tu în interior, îţi dă imboldul de a te conecta la propriul tău Ego şi la convingerile tale care te coordonează în luarea deciziilor importante. Dacă ea nu înseamnă nimic pentru tine, înseamnă că îţi neglijezi personalitatea.

Şi totuşi îţi repet, viitor lider: fii prevăzător. Condu-ţi întotdeauna acţiunile după principii solide şi pune mai mult accentul pe virtuţile tale cele mai alese, pentru a trăi liniştit, fără să ai niciun sentiment de culpabilitate. Ai ascunsă în tine o comoară – integritatea lăuntrică - care poate să te orienteze spre un raţionament şi o judecată sănătoasă şi înţeleaptă. Toate avuţiile tale şi binele tău depind de ceea ce se află în tine însuţi şi de ceea ce se petrece acolo.

A fi un lider eficient înseamnă să-ţi menţii trează vigilenţa, găsind acea cale de mijloc care tempereează excesele în favoarea înţelepciunii, între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi felul cum reacţionezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă.

Mare dreptate avea cel care a spus că suntem actori pe scena vieţii. De multe ori interpretăm roluri care, în mod ciudat, nu coincid cu ceea ce suntem noi în realitate. Suntem asemenea actorilor care, ca să joace bine un rol, trebuie să uite de ei înşişi şi să intre în "pielea" personajului pe care îl întruchipează.

Integritatea lăuntrică se referă la cine eşti cu adevărat, nu la ceea ce vrei să vadă oamenii la tine. Una este să fii tu însuţi şi să acţionezi în acord cu ceea ce simţi în interior, alta este să fii altcineva decât cine eşti şi să acoperi cu un strat de poleială Eul tău interior. Nu poţi să ignori adevărul despre tine. Nu poţi să afişezi la nesfârşit o integritate care este în dezacord cu adevăratul tău eu. Aminteşte-ţi de Kevin Lomax, în final el a fost nevoit să renunţe la falsa integritate şi să revină la standardele dictate de propria conştiinţă.

Sunt de-acord cu cel care a spus că " integritatea nu este un comutator pe care să-l închizi sau să-l deschizi, în funcţie de circumstanţele care îţi sunt convenabile şi care îţi pot aduce avantaje. " Integritatea lăuntrică ţine de ceea ce eşti tu atunci când te confrunţi cu propriul sine. Eşti fidel propriului tău sine?

Concluzie: Oamenii se împart în două categorii: oameni şi neoameni, spune o veche zicală. Depinde de tine din ce categorie faci parte. Calea cea mai lină şi mai bună este aceea în care Eul tău nu intră în conflict cu ceea ce ţi se cere. De aceea mereu trebuie să-ţi menţii integritatea lăuntrică şi să-ţi protejezi virtuţile interioare pentru a avea un viitor liniştit şi luminos, în perfect acord cu ceea ce simţi şi cu ceea ce eşti.

Îndreaptă-ţi mai mult atenţia la cine eşti tu cu adevărat.

Intuiţia şi viziunea pătrunzătoare

Controlează-ţi gândurile, voinţa şi acţiunile, punându-le într-o ordine care să ţină seama de impactul pe care îl pot avea asupra destinului tău.

Doi conducători excepţionali, îndrăzneţi şi abili, consideraţi adepţi ai progresului au fost James Cook şi Fernando Magellan. Călători prin predestinare, prin instinct, amândoi au răscolit, au colindat, au cercetat lumea pe vremea când ea nu se descoperise încă în totalitate. Amândoi s-au remarcat destul de greu, dar definitiv, pentru eternitate, pe scena lumii. Amândoi au demonstrat, fiecare în felul lui, că o idee, ca să aibă valoare şi să supravieţuiască, trebuie să se transforme numaidecât în faptă. Dar, totodată, amândoi au făcut aceeaşi greşeală, fatală, care le-a hotărât destinul, deşi precis li s-ar fi cuvenit o soartă mai bună, o viaţă mai lungă.

Amândoi şi-au pus singuri gâtul sub cuţit, în adevăratul sens al cuvântului. Încrezători în capacitatea lor de a reuşi în tot ce şi-au propus, având la activ numeroase expediţii şi reuşite, au gonit înainte, tot înainte, cu un avânt nebunesc spre insule necunoscute, dar fără să ia în calcul ameninţările venite din partea indigenilor. Şi unul şi celălalt au fost ucişi cu bestialitate, unul în insula Sandwich, celălalt în insula Mactan, fiecare într-o lamentabilă încăierare cu indigenii, încăierare inutilă şi dezastruoasă pe care ar fi putut cu uşurinţă s-o evite.

Leadership: Eşti lider până la capătul experienţei de acomodare la un mediu plin de realitate augmentată de presiunea propriilor limite?

Moartea lor, neprevăzută şi inutilă, s-a datorat fără nicio îndoială lipsei de viziune. Fiecare dintre ei a neglijat, cu desăvârşire, cele mai importante însuşiri ale unui conducător: prudenţa şi viziunea de perspectivă. Magellan s-a gândit la primejdie tot atât de puţin ca şi Cook, amândoi pierzându-şi viaţa într-o întâmplare tot atât de măruntă. Amândoi au fost ucişi de nişte indigeni izolaţi care protestau faţă de actele inumane la care fuseseră supuse triburile lor.

Au înfrânat elementele naturii, au răzbit în faţă celor mai mari furtuni, şi au ştiut să domine oamenii, dar în final au fost doborâţi de o ridicolă „gânganie omenească", chiar atunci când se aşteptau mai puţin, imediat după ce şi-au atins obiectivele propuse. Chiar dacă au fost avertizaţi de nenumărate ori să nu întreprindă acţiuni care prin natura lor nu constituiau o importanţă majoră, cei doi conducători s-au aruncat ca nişte sinucigaşi, cu bună ştiinţă, în faţa morţii.

Pentru acela care nu-şi stăpâneşte voinţa şi a cărui mândrie îl împinge mereu înainte, fără să vădească o viziune pătrunzătoare asupra diferitelor evenimente care se pot produce, nu-i este dat să ajungă la finalul cursei şi să se bucure de tot ceea ce-a realizat pe parcursul călătoriei. Viziunea este crucială şi nu doar pentru stabilirea obiectivelor. Ea te pune în gardă, te pregăteşte pentru ceea ce ţi se arată în faţă identificând greşelile ce se pot dovedi fatale şi ţinându-te departe de ele.

A fi un lider adevărat înseamnă să vezi ceea ce este posibil să se întâmple într-o limită de cuantificare a datoriei faţă de raţiunea propriilor fapte de putere, reprezentând contravaloarea obligaţiei de plată a unei daune morale.

Un lider adevărat detectează problemele înainte ca ele să se producă. Ajustând, corectând, prevenind înrăutăţirea lucrurilor, făcând totul cu cap, el se asigură că totul va ieşi bine conform planurilor stabilite. Iar oamenii îl vor urma şi sprijini pentru raţiunea sănătoasă conţinută de ideile sale. Să ne amintim că liderul funcţionează ca exemplu pentru cei pe care îi conduce. Ceea ce face el, caută să facă şi oamenii din preajma lui. Ţelurile lui devin şi telurile lor. Viziunea lui devine şi viziunea lor. Acolo unde se îndreaptă el, se îndreaptă şi ei, în direcţia cea mai bună sau cea mai greşită, spre succes sau eşec. Viziunea este o imagine sau un concept al viitorului, care neîndoielnic stă la baza planurilor şi acţiunilor liderului şi care îi inspiră şi îi motivează pe adepţii lui.

Atât Magellan cât şi Cook, din păcate, nu fuseseră pregătiţi pentru ceea ce li se arătase în faţă. Ei au fost mai pregătiţi pentru fapta în sine, dar nu şi pentru urmările ei. Acţionând sub impulsul momentului, căutând să-şi impună propria lor voinţă, concentrându-şi toate forţele numai în vederea atingerii scopurilor personale, au dat greş. Le-a lipsit intuiţia şi viziunea care ar fi trebuit să-i prevină asupra urmărilor. Dacă ar fi avut mintea trează, dacă ar fi fost mai calculaţi, dacă ar fi putut să vadă clar situaţia în care se aflau, viata lor ar fi luat o turnura diferita.

Leadership: Îţi gestionezi în mod eficient impulsul de a evolua în acceptarea unui angajament de performanţă şi de înaltă ţinută intelectuală, luând în considerare procesul de delimitare a efectelor unei daune morale?

Intuiţia şi viziunea pătrunzătoare reprezintă sistemul care te ghidează în viaţă, nelăsându-te să te abaţi de la drumul cel mai bun. Ele sunt, în acelaşi timp, elementele cheie ale leadershipului. Fără ele nu poţi să conduci. Fără ele nu-ţi poţi atinge scopurile. Fără ele nu poţi ajunge la finalul cursei. În mod aproape sigur, doar intuiţia şi viziunea pătrunzătoare te pot ajuta să vezi ceea ce este posibil să se întâmple în viitorul apropiat şi îndepărtat, asigurându-ţi mai multă coerenţă în gândire şi oferindu-ţi mai multă stăpânire pe propriile decizii.

Dacă nu te concentrezi asupra viitorului nu vei putea corecta sau preveni înrăutăţirea lucrurilor, ci probabil vei rătăci ca un somnambul. Iar ca lider nu-ţi poţi permite să dibuieşti cu piciorul ca şi cum ai merge în întuneric, sau fără să ştii când să te opreşti.

Impulsul de a trece la acţiune şi de a evolua în vederea realizării anumitor obiective, te va conduce pe un drum lung pe care însă nu-l vei parcurge până la capăt dacă-ţi lipseşte abilitatea de a vedea „copacii înaintea pădurii". Ai nevoie de o viziune pătrunzătoare pentru îndeplinirea scopurilor tale.

Leadershipul este impulsul de mărire pe care trebuie să-l restricţionezi de la nişte plăceri sau capricii, în ultimă instanţă mărunte, care te duc la extrem şi la durere.

Dacă eşti pus pe fapte mari trebuie să fii şi în măsură să-ţi controlezi impulsurile, să te abţii să acţionezi în pripă şi să faci ceva necugetat care să-ţi dea planurile peste cap. Îndreaptă-ţi atenţia spre viitor, identifică toate piedicile şi obstacolele înainte ca ele să apară, depăşeşte-le cu grijă şi du la bun sfârşit proiectele în care te-ai implicat trup şi suflet.

Controlează-ţi gândurile, voinţa şi acţiunile, punându-le într-o ordine care să ţină seama de impactul pe care îl pot avea asupra ta. Fii încrezător în capacitatea ta de a reuşi în tot ce ţi-ai propus, fără să-ţi forţezi limitele pe care tu însuţi ţi le impui.

Ca mijloc preventiv în contra avântului înspre nemăsurat se recomandă să consumi numai vise şi viziuni care nu depăşesc perimetrul bine păzit al posibilităţilor tale de manevră în circumstanţele cele mai neaşteptate.

Leadershipul înseamnă să-ţi recunoşti limitele atunci când împrejurările îţi cer să fii mai mult decât eşti capabil să fii.

Luciditatea şi profunzimea judecăţii

On Martie 04, 2011

Orientează-ţi leadershipul spre virtute, arătându-te mai preocupat de latura nevazută a personalităţii umane.

Vă spuneam în „Măreţia sufletească” că un lider, pentru a se bucura de prestigiul si recunoştinţa oamenilor, trebuie să aibă un suflet mare şi să se implice cu toată dăruirea şi cu toată competenţa în realizarea aşteptărilor lor. Însă există şi o parte gri în această situaţie.

Leadershipul presupune să-i cunoşti pe oamenii pe care îi conduci, dar mai cu seamă să-ţi dai seama de deosebirile dintre ei şi de calităţile lor. Ca lider, trebuie să deţii acea putere de surprindere a esenţialului din oameni, a adevăratei lor firi, a caracterul lor - care este coloana de susţinere a acţiunilor, ideilor, abilităţilor şi iniţiativelor pe care le au. În această privinţă, mintea ar trebui să-ţi slujească pentru a desluşi adevăratele lor intenţii şi sentimente, adică a desluşi adevărata lor capacitate de a se adapta leadershipului tău.

Judecând cu multă chibzuinţă, înţelepciune şi maturitate toate aspectele care îi privesc pe cei din jurul tău prin prisma propriilor tale valori şi percepţii - asupra ce este bun şi drept, comparând interesele, aspiraţiile, preferinţele şi dorinţele lor cu propriile tale principii şi idei vei reuşi să realizezi performanţe deosebite.

Leadership: Ştii să vezi cu ochii minţii adevărul de dincolo de tine, acceptându-l ca pe o parte nevăzută din cine eşti în realitate?

Mai demult am citit un lucru interesant despre pictorul român, Nicolae Grigorescu. Cineva l-a întrebat cum anume trebuie pictat un portret. Iar el a răspuns mai întâi:

"Înainte de a începe un portret, uită-te bine, mai ales la mâinile modelului. Sunt mâini care nu seamănă cu figura. N-ai ce să le faci. Sunt mâini care gândesc, mâini bune, iubitoare, care parcă mângâie lucrurile pe care le ating, dar şi mâini răutăcioase care privesc lumea cu necaz. Am văzut mâini foarte triste la un actor care nu juca decât roluri comice. Mâinile nu puteau minţi... Orice lucru are o latură a lui mai expresivă - acolo e taina vieţii lui."

Liderul are o ierarhie a valorilor stabilită printr-o gândire atentă şi obiectivă, care de cele mai multe ori constituie unul din marile sale atu-uri. Să ai o minte receptivă, să ştii să sesizezi adevărul şi să vezi esenţialul din oameni, cum gândesc, daca sunt sau nu afectuoşi şi cooperanţi, daca sunt de încredere, daca sunt de acord cu ceea ce spui şi cu principiile tale - asta e ceea ce ai tu nevoie pentru a da continuitate leadershipului tău.

Dă-i judecăţii tale mai multă profunzime ca să recunosti oamenii buni şi ca să-i îndepărtezi pe cei răi. Aşa cum orice lucru are o latură mai ascunsă, tot aşa şi fiecare om are o latură a lui, nevăzută – şi acolo e taina caracterului său pe care trebuie s-o descoperi, şi apoi să te hotărăşti dacă să o accepti sau nu în sufletul tău.

Leadership: Îţi asumi experienţa de a fi conştient de profunzimea unei dureri invincibile puse pe seama manifestării tentaţiei pe care o simţi faţă de cei cărora le aparţii?

Cred că revelatoare pentru înţelegerea aspectelor pe care doresc să le evidenţiez aici este povestea lui „ Timon din Atena” , de William Shakespeare. Vă amintiţi, desigur, de acel nobil din Atena, pe nume Timon, a cărui mărinimie nu cunoştea limite. Avuţia lui nesfârşită nici nu izbutea să umple bine cuferele, că el o şi revărsa, mult mai iute, dăruind-o la tot soiul de oameni, de orice rang. Casa lui era deschisă cui vrei şi cui nu-i vrei, iar datorită firii lui deschise şi risipitoare, fiecare linge-blide se alegea cu ceva de la el.

În final, răsplata a fost proporţională cu favorurile acordate. Fiindcă nu şi-a prevăzut nenorocirile şi nu le-a ocolit, fiindcă nu a luat seama la niciunul din avertismentele primite de la cinstitul său slujitor Flavius, fiindcă nu a fost un om cu judecată care să-şi evalueze faptele, fiindcă nu a avut o minte cercetătoare prin care sa surprindă trăsăturile oamenilor din jurul său, Timon şi-a prăpădit toată averea, a ajuns într-o stare deznădăjduită, şi lumea a devenit nepăsătoare faţă de el.

Cred că morala poveştii este aceasta: drumul dinspre Paradis spre Iad este presărat cu intenţii bune, dar şi cu minţi neluminate. Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să dăinuie în timp, trebuie să pătrunzi în gândurile şi sentimente oamenilor şi să rezişti oricăror tentaţii, presiuni şi influenţe din partea lor.

Calitatea de om raţional se obţine atunci când îţi pregăteşti mintea şi sufletul să lucreze împreună la favorurile acordate unei lumi care nu-ţi merită nici măcar palma unui impuls de a o trezi din beţie.

Luciditatea şi profunzimea judecăţii sunt calităţi care dau leadershipului tău o valoare în plus. Să ştii să vezi cu ochii minţii, nu doar cu sufletul şi inima, să sesizezi adevărul, realitatea obiectivă, să ştii să vezi dincolo de aparenţe, să izbuteşti să descifrezi tainele caracterului celorlalţi oameni – toate sunt rodul unei observaţii foarte subtile şi adânci pe care e necesar să o faci.

Un lider care îşi dă ascultare imboldului inimii acţionând în interesul celorlalţi, în numele sentimentelor, gândurilor şi dorinţelor lor este acoperit de glorie şi încărcat de laude. În consecinţă, bucuros de el însuşi, va continua să se arate binevoitor faţă de toată lumea. Însă există şi reversul medaliei. Cel care se dovedeşte prea simţitor faţă de nevoile oamenilor şi nu-şi frânează impulsul de a-i favoriza, va trece drept un om slab. Arătându-se prea darnic, va deveni o victimă.

Leadershipul tău trebuie să denote o judecată profundă şi sănătoasă. Fii un profund observator al sufletului omenesc, identifică calităţile morale ale oamenilor şi vezi dacă se potrivesc firii şi principiilor tale.

Discernământul este senzaţia de înstrăinare pe care o simţi faţă de propriile tale trăiri, atunci când reuşeşti să adopţi acele valori care generează o conştiinţă extinsă.

Eşti însufleţit de valori precum principialitatea, gândirea critică şi etică, asumarea raţională a riscurilor, ori curajul de a învăţa din propriile experienţe?

Concluzie: Ca lider este necesar să ai o gândire obiectivă şi să dai dovadă de cât mai multă luciditate în evaluarea oamenilor, atât din punct de vedere profesional cât şi din punct de vedere al personalităţii lor, al aspiraţiilor lor şi, mai ales, este util să cunoşti aspectele negative şi ascunse ale firii lor.

Aceste „defecte ascunse”, neştiute sau tolerate vor putea nărui, mai ales în situaţii critice, tot ce ai clădit impreună cu ceilalţi coechipieri ai tăi, succesul transformându-se într-un eşec. Aşa cum se spune să alegi grâul de neghină, aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să-ţi selectezi coechipierii… înlăturând „neghina”.

Măreţia spirituală

Învaţă să observi şi să modifici inteligent percepţiile oamenilor, astfel încât aceştia să depăşească mai uşor perioadele dificile din viaţa lor.

Urmă un moment de tăcere aproape deplină, întrerupt doar de zgomotul de fond al elicopterului şi de vibraţia accentuată a acestuia. Se uitau unul la celălalt, între ei plutind un sentiment profund de empatie. Soldatul rănit, proaspăt eliberat din lagărul vietnamez, încercă să comunice impresia sa colonelului Cal Rhodes, şi să-i spună un cuvânt binevoitor care putea fi şi sincer:

- Ce mult ma bucur să te văd… Fiul tău, Frank, s-a îmbolnăvit foarte grav. Am încercat să-l ajutăm…dar… a murit.

La aflarea acestei veşti zdrobitoare, pe care nu voia s-o creadă posibilă, trupul colonelului Cal Rhodes fu străbătut de un fior de durere, din tălpi până-n creştet. Mâhnirea lui era atat de mare încât îl ardea în suflet ca un fier înroşit.

Leadership: Experienţa ta de viaţă coincide cu experienţa de a da "înainte" sau "înapoi" ceasul grelei cumpene?

Soldatul îl privi intens în ochi pe colonel, cu o privire în care i se citea o emoţie profundă. Încuviinţă trist din cap. Ochii săi, plini de-o inocenţă covârşitoare, păreau a cere îndurare şi iertare. Apoi, adunându-şi tot curajul şi toată puterea inimii, îi spuse cu acea imensă tristeţe pe care o ţinea în adâncul sufletului:

- Fiul tău mi-a salvat viaţa în ziua aceea… mi-a salvat viaţa…

Cal Rhodes voia parcă să spună ceva, dar nu mai avea rost. Lăsă gândul neterminat, neputând să-şi exprime emoţiile profunde de dezamăgire şi suferinţă. Sentimentul de însingurare puse dintr-o dată stăpânire pe el. Întreaga lui lume părea că s-a prăbusit. Se simţea ca şi cum nimic nu mai avea sens. Izbucni în lacrimi. Era asemenea acelui om ce a ieşit dintr-un salon iluminat feeric şi s-a trezit brusc într-o beznă totală, din care nu mai putea ieşi.

Importanţa măreţiei unui moment memorabil constă în experienţa de a fi implicat în el, nu în rezultatul final pe care el îl poate garanta.

Cineva spunea că slăbiciunea şi puterea merg întotdeauna una lângă cealaltă - slăbiciunea vestejirii vitalităţii şi tăria puterii pierdute. Iar ceea ce îl face pe om puternic este puterea de a merge mai departe, alegându-şi alte scopuri în viaţă, alte idealuri care vor inclina mult balanţa în favoarea lui.

Finalul filmului "Uncommon Valor (1983)" este deosebit de mişcător.

Pe aeroport, la revenirea în ţară, toţi soldaţii eliberaţi din lagărul din Laos au fost aşteptaţi şi îmbrăţişaţi cu mare bucurie şi lacrimi în ochi de către rudele lor. Pe Cal Rhodes îl aştepta numai soţia lui. Helen îi strânse mâinile la piept cu putere, şi-l sărută cu drag. Era bucuroasă să-l revadă, şi mândră de el că i-a putut salva măcar pe acei prizonieri, iar dacă fiul lor nu s-ar fi îmbolnăvit şi nu ar fi murit cu mult înainte de iniţierea misiunii de salvare, probabil că ar fi fost şi el salvat.

Iar bucuria ei a făcut minuni - i-a schimbat colonelului starea de spirit. Dintr-o dată, toate acele emoţii puternice şi totodată nocive pe care el le încercase cu sufletul complet şi conştiinţa întreagă – şoc, mânie şi tristeţe – au disparut. S-au îmbrăţişat în faţa tuturor cu multă dragoste, cu multă caldură şi cu multă bucurie. Viaţa lor reîncepea, primind un nou sens, de la capăt.

Helen Rhodes a ştiut să modifice inteligent percepţia sotului ei, astfel încât acesta să depăşească mai uşor acel moment dificil din viaţa lui. Ea a dat dovadă de o măreţie spirituală înaltă.

Calitatea leadershipul tău este strâns legată de starea de spirit pe care o transmiţi celorlalţi oameni, chiar şi atunci când te simţi tu însuţi descurajat.

Cineva aflat într-o situaţie dificilă se simte bine doar dacă un om deosebit se află alături de el. Bucuria pură poate izvorî numai atunci cand starea sa de spirit se armonizează cu starea de spirit a celeilalte persoane. Helen a reuşit să-i schimbe soţului ei starea de spirit fiindcă a avut o mare putere de influenţă asupra lui.

Tristeţea şi amărăciunea pot fi depăşite numai dacă ai certitudinea că cineva, o persoană sinceră, plină de speranţă şi de încredere, îţi poate aduce înapoi bucuria, acea bucurie cu totul specială care vine de undeva din adâncul sufletului şi o face să dureze. Nimic nu ajută mai mult la schimbarea stării tale de spirit decat certitudinea că eşti dorit de cineva. Optimismul propriu nu poate tăgădui suferinţa reală. Numai o persoană cu o mare putere de influenţă poate să îndepărteze emoţiile tale negative, o persoană empatică care îţi înţelege cu adevărat sentimentele.

A-ţi asuma decizia de a merge mai departe presupune să învârti foarte puternic cheia circumstanţelor tale existenţiale spre trecut, ca şi cum ai avea impresia că rupi cheia.

Măreţia spirituală are o covârşitoare importanţă în viaţa oamenilor şi, de aceea, n-am vrut să pierd ocazia să vorbesc despre această calitate. Căci măreţia spirituală este ingredientul principal care stă la baza unui caracter şi a unui suflet bun şi frumos. Ea denotă acea însufleţire totală a oamenilor - necesitatea lor interioară de a-şi manifesta emoţiile, de a le descoperi pe ale celorlalţi şi apoi de a le schimba. Este dovadă certă că în adâncul sufletului tău există acel sâmbure colosal de umanitate, acea sclipire care te diferenţiază de ceilalţi oameni şi care te face să radiezi numai speranţă şi bucurie în jurul tău.

Aşa cum eterul umple spaţiul dintre cer şi pământ, tot asfel măreţia spirituală a liderului umple prăpastia dintre tristeţea şi fericirea oamenilor, asigurând o continuitate a vieţii lor. Piatra de temelie a succesului unui lider este dată, fără îndoială, de cea mai strălucitoare calitate a sa: măreţia spirituală.

Concluzie: Măreţia spirituală este puterea care trebuie să te însoţească permanent, mai ales în acele situaţii când ţi se pare că totul este pierdut. Este puterea sufletului care îţi dă elanul de a lua viaţa de la început ori de câte ori te prăbuşeşti în hăul disperării.

Un caracter puternic şi tenace poate depăşi de unul singur situaţiile critice, dar existenţa alături de el a unui suflet care să-l susţină şi aibă încredere în el, este elementul care-l va propulsa şi-l va determina să-şi continue mai uşor drumul în viaţă.

Măreţia sufletească

Ca să te bucuri de prestigiul şi recunoştinţa oamenilor nu-i de-ajuns să fii bun, trebuie să fii mare.

În 1920, după încetarea războiului, situaţia prizonierilor din întreaga lume era tot mai grea, soarta lor era disperată. În ţările ruinate tifosul şi foametea decimau tot mai mulţi oameni. Crucea Rosie Internaţională nu prididea să acorde atâtea ajutoare. Numai eforturile unite ale naţiunilor îi mai puteau salva.

Secretarul Ligii Naţiunilor de atunci, diplomatul cu experienţă Noel Baker, era ferm convins că doar un singur om era în stare să salveze situaţia, un om care se bucura de prestigiul şi recunoştinţa generală pentru aptitudinile sale organizatorice, pentru energia, talentul său, dar în special pentru măreţia sufletească. Cel care răspundea întru totul unor cerinţe atât de înalte era nimeni altul decât eminentul explorator şi om de ştiinţă Fridtforf Nansen, care era cunoscut în întreaga lume pentru curajul, cinstea, generozitatea şi mărinimia sufletească de care dăduse dovadă de nenumărate ori.

- Nu ! a ripostat Nansen. În curând voi împlini 60 de ani; e timpul sa încep o viaţă liniştită. Misiunea pe care mi-o încredinţaţi, îmi va lua câţiva ani. Înseamnă că în tot acest timp va trebui să-mi părăsesc lucrările ştiinţifice, să renunţ la speranţa unei vieţi în sânul familiei… De ce să-mi închin viaţa unei probleme care-mi este străină, şi de care alţii caută să se debaraseze?

Leadership: Construcţia şi evoluţia personalităţii sale se sprijină pe rolul pe care ţi-l asumi în reglarea diferenţierii între modul de a-ţi împlini menirea și puterea de a-ţi exprima convingerile?

Însă un om cu un suflet mare nu poate rămâne indiferent la suferinţele altora. Noel Baker a insistat:

- Trebuie susţinută credinţa oamenilor pe cale să se stingă, în marea familie a popoarelor…Liga este simbolul salvării. Trebuie întărită credinţa oamenilor în această organizaţie - instrument al păcii şi înţelegerii reciproce. Omenirea în suferinţă îşi îndreaptă spre dumneavoastra privirile pline de speranţă, Fridtforf Nansen.

Convins de cuvintele emfatice ale diplomatului, şi însufleţit de adevărul pe care acesta l-a exprimat, Nansen a acceptat să ia cârma omenirii în mâinile sale. Dăruirea şi entuziasmul lui pentru binele omenirii l-au obligat să renunţe la studiile sale marine şi la liniştea sufletească pe care o visa şi care i-o putea asigura familia. Încă o dată trebuia să se bată pentru salvarea oamenilor şi a omenirii.

Adevărul care dă restart scopului tău în viaţă se ghidează după motto-ul: "Eşti bun, eşti milos, eşti mare" ?

Măreţia unui lider nu constă în fericirea personală, ci în fericirea pe care o împarte cu ceilalţi. Nu banii, nu faima, nu puterea, ci doar faptele lui bune merită recunoştinţa generală. Punându-se în slujba omenirii atunci când situaţia era extrem de grea, atunci când nimeni nu avea curajul să-şi asume responsabilitatea, atunci când, în acele clipe de deznădejde, toată lumea aştepta ajutorul, dar totul părea fără speranţă, şi făcând tot ce i-a stat în putinţă pentru a îndrepta lucrurile spre un făgaş normal, luptând cu minciuna, cu clevetirile, intrigile şi nedreptăţile care se repercutau asupra milioanelor de oameni nevinovaţi, Nansen s-a făcut vrednic de recunoştinţa generală.

Datorită lui Nansen şi numai datorită demersurilor şi insistenţelor sale, s-au strâns în cele din urmă donaţii de la oameni de toate naţionalităţile, din cele mai diferite straturi sociale, care au fost repartizate cu stricteţe şi dreptate populaţiei înfometate. Niciodată în istorie apelul unui om nu a stârnit un ecou atât de puternic în inimile oamenilor. Este surprinzător, nu-i aşa, cât de mult poate să facă un om a cărui mărinimie sufletească nu cunoaşte margini. Ca să te bucuri de prestigiul şi recunoştinţa oamenilor nu-i de-ajuns să fii bun, trebuie să fii mare.

Leadership: Măreţia de a fi cineva înseamnă să găseşti răspunsuri la întrebările existenţiale conform dorinţei de a-ţi crea aşteptarea unei minuni din partea ta sau din partea altcuiva?

Coboară în adâncul inimii tale şi cerceteaz-o. Îţi spun cu mândrie, viitor lider, că oamenii vor avea nevoie de tine, cât timp vor trăi. Cercetează trecutul, analizează prezentul, încearcă să ghiceşti viitorul, caută să-ţi asculţi inima şi vezi dacă eşti sau nu capabil să-i serveşti cu dăruire, fără resentiment, fără zgârcenie sau şovăială pe cei ce au realmente nevoie de ajutorul tău. Doar o secundă e de-ajuns ca să schimbi îndoiala în certitudinea cea mai neclintită. Dacă inima ta nu se înviorează în faţa niciunui simţământ de uniune cu ceilalţi, înseamnă că nu simţi nimic viu în tine; ceea ce înseamnă că nu eşti "mare".

Nansen a fost un simbol al umanismului. Poţi fi şi tu dacă nu rămâi indiferent la soarta celorlalţi oameni. Dacă, însă, eşti ca unul din acei făţarnici care nu fac nimic, dar aşteaptă cu nerăbdare ca lumea să-şi arate recunoştinţa şi respectul pentru el prin cele mai simandicoase reverenţe. Dacă eşti ca unul din acei oameni care-şi fac socotelile de "mărire" fără să ţină seama de principiile de solidaritate umană. Dacă eşti unul din aceia care nu preţuiesc şi nu luptă să cultive valorile umane ca binele, dreptatea, altruismul, onestitatea şi, în sfârşit, dacă eşti unul din aceia care se culcă pe laurii unui succes nemeritat, datorat altora, nu încape îndoială că lumea va începe să-şi manifeste dezaprobarea faţă de tine, spre adânca ta dezamăgire. Lumea nu va nutri gânduri frumoase şi speranţe, ci teamă sau dezgust, iar tu te vei pierde în cele din urmă într-o adâncă uitare...

Onestitatea faţă de sine este o abilitate dobândită prin lucrul cu propriul suflet în condiţiile unei tendinţe generale de a prefera unele situaţii altora.

Concluzie: Ca să te bucuri de prestigiul şi recunoştinţa persistentă a oamenilor, trebuie să te implici cu tot sufletul în realizarea nevoilor şi aşteptărilor lor. Uneori este nevoie doar de puterea cuvântului care uneori convinge mai repede decât oricare altă metodă.

P.S. Aşa după cum violenţa "minţii" se exteriorizează prin acte violente, măreţia sufletească se recunoaşte prin puterea de convingere a vorbelor, spre realizarea unor acte pline de umanitarism.

Perseverenţa

Continuă să rămâi fidel convingerilor şi ideilor tale, ca să răzbaţi dincolo de limitele pe care ţi le impun ceilalţi.

Ca un băiat sărac care n-are nici prieteni, nici jucării, dar are lampa lui Aladdin, Fernando Magellan are un gând, un gând măreţ pe care vrea să-l vadă realizându-se cu orice preţ. Vrea să pornească în căutarea strâmtorii care comunică între oceanul Atlantic şi Pacific, strâmtoare pe care n-au reuşit s-o găsească nici cei mai încercaţi navigatori ca Vespucci, Columb, Cortez, Cabot sau Juan Diaz de Solis. Ce şansă era să o găsească tocmai el, un şchiop trecut de prima tinereţe, sărac lipit pământului, un singuratic fără familie, fără prieteni, fără un loc al lui?

După calculele sale, pentru o astfel de călătorie erau necesare trei corăbii mari, un echipaj încercat, bine instruit, şi cel mai important lucru, merinde suficiente pentru cel puţin jumătate de an. Dar de unde să obţină el sprijinul necesar pentru a da curs nevoilor sale, dacă nu de la regele Manoel?

Leadership: Poţi să fii superior celui ce erai ieri, prin explorarea zonei de cuprindere a unei imagini de sine care se sincronizează cu idealul de reprezentare a virtuţii de a crede în tine însuţi?

Timp de aproape doi ani a încercat Magellan să obţină o sponsorizare, dar nu i s-a deschis nicio uşă din nenumăratele uşi care duceau la camera de audienţă a regelui. Ce crudă durere poate simţi un om când se vede mereu îndepărtat de al său vis măreţ. Dar nu şi Magellan, care era un om dârz şi tenace. Toate aceste respingeri jignitoare, usturătoare aş zice, pe care a trebuit să le înfrunte, i-au întărit şi mai tare hotărârea. Un om ca el nu-şi poate stăpâni zvâcnetul inimii. Odată ce şi-a impus să atingă un scop, face tot ce-i stă în putinţă pentru a-l atinge.

Insetat de interesul său pasionat, Magellan reuşeşte până la urmă să găsească un sponsor în persoana celebrului armator Christofor de Haro, un bogătaş care a considerat acţiunea promiţătoare din punct de vedere comercial. În sfârşit ! În sfârşit după doi ani în care a alergat când în dreapta, când în stânga, încercând să obţină ba de la unul, ba de la altul o sponsorizare, şansa s-a arătat. După ani de zile în care a dus o luptă cinstită, serioasă şi foarte stingheră, negăsind până atunci pe nimeni cu care să discute planurile sale ciudate şi încâlcite, iată că în sfârşit cineva s-a oferit să-l ajute. Dar greul era departe de a se fi terminat.

Leadership: Sensul pe care îl dai drumului tău se datorează unei atitudini deschise faţă de o căutare fără sfârşit?

În faţa unei misiuni uriaşe numai un om deosebit de perseverent se poate impune. Sarcini, osteneli, răspunderi, toate au căzut asupra lui Magellan. Câtă trudă, câtă osteneală, câtă luptă cu funcţionarii şi negustorii a mai dus omul ăsta în cele cinci luni de zile înainte de plecarea mult aşteptată, câte nopţi nedormite, câte frământări. Să te ocupi de aproape absolut toate de unul singur doar pentru că n-ai niciun prieten de nădejde, asta da încercare. Oricine ar fi fost în locul lui Magellan şi-ar fi abandonat cu siguranţă de mult visele.

La 20 septembrie 1519, Magellan, după ce controlează încă o dată toate mărfurile şi încărcatura, după ce mai trece o dată în revistă proviziile, după ce se asigură că totul e pregătit, că nu lipseşte nicio pânză, nicio funie, niciun şurub (atât de minuţios era în vederea reuşitei), dă semnalul de plecare, iar flota sa se desprinde de ţărm şi porneşte în căutarea acelui „el paso”.

Un an de zile de căutări necontenite a urmat. Un an în care echipajul s-a răsculat impotriva lui Magellan din cauza foametei, din cauza oboselii, şi mai ales din cauza faptului că strâmtoarea pe care Magellan pretindea că ştie unde se află, nu era de găsit. Dar în faţa unui om perseverent toată lumea se pleacă cu resemnare. Magellan a reuşit să-şi ţină în frâu echipajul şi, dupa ce a navigat în derivă vreme îndelungată, a reuşit până la urmă să găsească strâmtoarea ce-i poartă şi azi numele.

Leadership: Îţi stimulezi motivaţia de a te angaja în procesul unei activări de Brand, în mijlocul unui triumf care produce o consecinţă de neevitat?

Brandul este sursa unei promisiuni încheiată în formă autentică, care introduce o acţiune pentru a obţine o ofertă. Brandul unui lider este reprezentat de modul în care el este perceput și văzut în mintea celor cu care interacționează, prin prisma rolului şi a faptelor pe care şi le asumă într-un orizont temporal impredictibil.

Magellan n-a apucat să se bucure decât o clipă de reuşita lui. A fost ucis într-o biată confruntare cu indigenii, chiar pe drumul de întoarcere acasă. Dar el a dovedit că un om, oricât de sărman ar fi el, chiar şi şchiop, chiar şi fără niciun fel de relaţii, poate realiza ceea ce cei mai renumiţi şi mai curajoşi oameni nu reuşesc. A dovedit că un singur om poate supune voinţei sale un echipaj întreg şi orice opoziţie. Iată materialul din care este făcut un lider. Dacă eşti suficient de perseverent şi hotărât în deciziile şi acţiunile tale, vei reuşi să-ţi atingi orice scop, indiferent cât de imposibil pare de îndeplinit.

Un conducător croit dintr-un lemn mai tare. A înfruntat frigul, oboseala, foamea şi toate lipsurile inimaginabile, respingeri după respingeri, ani de zile, dar cu toate acestea Magellan a mers mai departe, tot mai departe. Iată ce înseamnă să fii perseverent, iată ce înseamnă să te dedici cu însufleţire unui scop nobil şi să te ridici din anonimatul existenţei tale.

În faţa tuturor obstacolelor poţi ieşi triumfător doar dacă eşti perseverent şi stărui cu convingere în demersurile tale. Nu poţi să ajungi un mare conducător dacă, cuprins de teamă, dai înapoi în faţa valurilor de furtună. Nu poţi să-ţi atingi niciodată scopurile dacă nu mergi tot timpul înainte, dacă nu eşti tot timpul credincios misiunii pe care ţi-ai asumat-o, daca nu stărui în ideile tale şi dacă n-ai curajul să înfrunţi orice situaţie dificilă.

Perseverenţa este ceea ce promiţi să dai posterităţii în lupta dintre tine însuţi şi lumea din jur, câştigându-ţi statutul de învingător prin epocala descoperire de la sfârşitul unei lungi călătorii care îţi reprezintă numele.

Concluzie: „Să lupţi, să cauţi şi să nu găseşti, dar niciodată să nu te dai batut, ci să fii perseverent”, iată un motto pentru orice lider care doreşte realmente să-şi atingă scopul. Continuă să rămâi fidel convingerilor şi ideilor tale ca să răzbaţi dincolo de limitele pe care ţi le impun ceilalţi.

Puterea de pătrundere a eului individual

On Aprilie 04, 2011

Cu cât ştii mai multe despre oameni, cu atât vei fi mai pregătit să-i înţelegi.

În cartea „ Fiecare pacient spune o poveste ", Lisa Sanders scoate în evidenţă un aspect foarte important. Anume că în medicină deseori ceea ce pare este ceea ce nu este şi nu pare a fi !

Crystal Lessing abia împlinise douăzeci de ani. Fusese toată viaţa ei sănătoasă tun. Dar în ziua când a mers la cabinetul stomatologic ca să-şi scoată câteva măsele de minte incluse în os, s-a îmbolnăvit. Era obosită. Avea dureri. Febră. Starea ei de sănătate se agravase atât de tare încât a trebuit să fie internată de urgenţă la terapie intensivă la marele centru medical universitar din Long Island. Era galbenă la faţă. Părea foarte slabă. Inima îi bătea tot mai repede. Respira mult mai repede decat era normal, in ciuda oxigenului care era pompat în nas. Rinichii nu funcţionau.

Nimeni însă nu cunoştea adevărata cauză a bolii. Doctorii o consultaseră, o îngrijiseră cu mare seriozitate şi atenţie. Însă nu le era clar dacă misterul bolii ei avea să fie soluţionat la timp pentru a-i salva viaţa. Fişa ei medicală era plina cu numere care atestau cât de bolnavă era. Existau foarte multe anomalii.

Leadership: Etichetezi experienţa de a fi conştient de manifestările comportamentale ale oamenilor drept o variantă de gândire care îţi permite să te priveşti pe tine însuţi din unghiul unei sensibilităţi aparte?

Doctorul Steven Walerstein, şeful departamentului de Farmacologie a spitalului a fost chemat de urgenţă. Însă el a făcut altceva decât ceea ce făcuseră toţi ceilalţi doctori. Nu a citit fişa medicală a fetei. Fiindcă nu voia să fie influenţat de gândirea celor care o consultaseră deja. Mult prea adesea, în aceste cazuri dificile era trecut ceva cu vederea sau interpretat greşit.

În schimb, s-a dus la patul bolnavei, s-a prezentat tinerei şi mamei acesteia. Şi i-a cerut fetei să spună întreaga poveste de la capăt. Când anume au apărut primele dureri, ce a simţit exact şi in ce lor, etc. Trebuia să pună lucrurile cap la cap de unul singur. Dupa relatarea evenimentelor, doctorul îşi îngădui să se uite în fişa ei. Trebuia să găsească un raspuns, altfel fata ar fi murit în câteva zile.

Walerstein s-a oprit o clipă să caute în fişa ei medicală un fel de tipar îngropat în acel haos de cifre şi analize. Şi atunci observă că echipa care o îngrijise pe fată nu luase în considerare o anumită analiză în căutarea diagnosticului. Această informaţie fusese pur şi simplu dată la o parte. S-a dus imediat la biblioteca spitalului pentru a-şi verifica intuiţia. Da ! Avea dreptate. Fata suferea de boala Wilson.

Fetei i s-au mai făcut o dată analizele pentru boală respectivă, şi într-adevăr rezultatele au confirmat bănuiala lui Walerstein. Ea a fost transferata imediat cu elicopterul in New York, a primit în cele din urma un organ şi a supravietuit.

Leadership: Cauţi să pătrunzi în minţile oamenilor pentru a le descifra stările afective chiar şi atunci când nu eşti pregătiţi să înţelegi limitele la care se extind consecinţele propriilor tale erori de observaţie?

Dacă vrei să afli cum funcţionează leadershipul, atunci trebuie să afli cum „funcţionează" oamenii, care sunt stările lor afective: trăirile lor, atitudinea lor, sentimentele şi gândurile lor. Aşa cum un doctor analizează temeinic problema pacientului ca să poata pune un diagnostic corect, tu trebuie studiezi comportamentul şi atitudinea oamenilor, şi să analizezi ce se intamplă în mintea şi în sufletul lor ca să poţi să-i ancorezi de partea ta. Trebuie să demonstrezi acea subtilitate în observaţie, acea putere de pătrundere a Eului individual al omului.

Tu arăţi un interes crescând pentru ceea ce simt oamenii din jurul tău? Eşecul în leadership se datorează unei multitudini de paşi greşiţi acumulaţi în timp, dar şi lipsei de siguranţa în stabilirea unui „diagnostic" obiectiv şi corect. Învaţă să iei în considerare şi alte aspecte decât cele pe care le vezi de obicei şi mai ales învaţă să-i asculţi.

Cu cât ştii mai multe despre oameni, cu atât vei fi mai pregătit să-i înţelegi.

Leadership: Încerci să obţii întreaga poveste a unui om cu riscul de a stabili diagnosticul unei involuţii care contrastează cu evoluţia propriei tale conştiinţe?

Oamenii nu sunt cu toţii la fel. Fiecare este o personalitate aparte, un „eu" deosebit. Nu poţi doar să te uiţi la ei şi să-i înţelegi. Ca să poţi să-i influenţezi trebuie să le asculţi "povestea" - şi să încerci să deduci ce anume îi entuziasmează, ce anume îi motivează, care sunt aspiraţiile lor şi neîmplinirile lor, să înţelegi cum lucrează mintea lor, care este combustibilul care le pune in mişcare motorul stării lor de spirit. Şi să-i faci să înţeleagă cum pot participa pe deplin la propria lor "vindecare" urmand paşii indicaţi de tine.

Aşa cum un medic trebuie să aibă o bază solidă de cunoştinţe si o experienţă suficient de mare ca să ştie să interpreteze ce spun pacienţii, tu trebuie să ai acea putere de pătrundere în lumea interioară a celorlalţi, în tainele universului lor, în Eul lor, în conştiinţa lor şi să intuieşti ceea ce nu merge bine. Nu poţi să le sporeşti valoarea celorlalţi daca nu înţelegi sistemul lor de valori. Nu uita că diagnosticele bune duc la terapii ţintite, cu şanse foarte mari de vindecare.

Ca lider trebuie să ştii să asculţi, nu numai să pui întrebări şi să obţii răspunsuri. Aşa cum un medic ascultă pacientul ca să poată pune lucrurile cap la cap, şi în final să stabilească diagnosticul cel mai corect, şi tu trebuie să-i asculţi pe oameni, să pui accent pe răbdarea în timp, să le acorzi multă atenţie, si libertatea de a-şi exprima motivele pentru care nu "funcţionează" cum trebuie.

Leadershipul este locul pe care îl ocupă de gândirea intuitivă într-un context de acceptare a adevărurilor greu de înţeles. Înseamnă să anticipezi consecinţele propriilor tale reacţii la experienţele provocatoare ale vieţii prin interpretarea şi aprecierea atitudinii pline de grijă a celorlalţi oameni.

Concluzie: Un lider performant trebuie să deţină arta de a asculta ceea ce spun oamenii. A şti să interpretezi obiectiv şi imparţial ceea ce asculţi îţi dă posibilitatea să pătrunzi în adâncurile eu-rilor şi aflând cât mai multe despre aceste eu-ri vei fi pregătit să-i înţelegi şi vei putea acţiona eficient.

Puterea de pătrundere psihologică

Caută să pătrunzi în gândurile celorlalţi pentru a le descifra caracterul.

Numeroase erau desenele pe care maestrul le concepuse în modestul său atelier de pictură. Zilnic îmi aruncam ochii asupra lor încercând nu doar să mă hrănesc cu noi idei colorate, ci să înţeleg mai bine ce este necesar să cunosc, măcar elementele esenţiale ale artei sale. Maestrul era un om cu o ambiţie insaţiabilă care ştia foarte bine cum trebuie muncit, ce tehnici şi ce combinaţii trebuiau folosite pentru a conferi tablourilor sale o mare putere de emoţionare.

- Nu-i de-ajuns să fii artist pentru a face artă, trebuie să devii un bun psiholog, mi-a spus el cu o voce convingătoare şi plăcută.

Apoi mi-a arătat un vechi portret al lui Rembrandt şi a adăugat:

- Uită-te cu atenţie la acest portret. Încearcă să-l vezi din 400 de unghiuri diferite. Dacă nu reuşeşti, atunci nu vei înţelege niciodata arta. Şi nu vei fi niciodată un mare artist.

Leadership: Încerci să modifici substanţial modul de percepere a unui conţinut plin de valori, prin refuzul de a înţelege ce mesaje vrei să transmiţi?

Fireşti consideraţii de la un spirit aşa de pătrunzător. Dar gândul că trebuie să percep o imagine în 400 de feluri mi-a anihilat dorinţa de a avea o cât de mică iniţiativă.

Mai târziu maestrul mi-a spus secretul. Singura cale de a vedea un portret dintr-o sumedenie de unghiuri este să-ţi concentrezi atenţia asupra chipului acelui personaj şi să încerci să pătrunzi în mintea lui, în lumea lui de gânduri pentru a-i descifra caracterul. Gândirea ta nu trebuie să înceteze să pătrundă ceea ce se petrece înlăuntrul modelului. Ca să poţi vedea un portret din mai multe unghiuri trebuie mai întâi să obţii o mai bună imagine de profunzime. Fiecare personaj este un portret psihologic.

De exemplu în acel portret al lui Rembrandt, dacă pe chipul lui citeam maturitate, hotărâre, dar şi o oarecare tristeţe, atunci imaginea era a omului singur care ştie că nu este iubit de nimeni.

Adevărata artă a leadershipului presupune să explorezi adâncurile lumii omului în situaţia dată de măsura unei inteligenţe artistice aflate la maturitate.

Tu eşti destul de bun când vine vorba de a pătrunde în lumea interioară a celor din jurul tău? Dacă vrei să fii un lider eficient trebuie să-i influenţezi pe oameni. Iar singura cale de a-i influenţa este să înţelegi tainele din adâncul sufletului lor, să le înţelegi concepţiile, nevoile emoţionale, sensul pe care ei îl dau vieţii, să le înţelegi aspiraţiile, să le înţelegi sensibilităţile şi preferinţele, şi apoi să le stimulezi latura pozitivă a firii lor.

Asa cum un pictor ştie să asimileze inovaţiile care apar în pictură, să şi le însuşească şi să le aplice în mod creator pentru a exprima o nouă viziune, tot aşa tu trebuie să asimilezi cât mai multe informaţii din universul interior al oamenilor din jurul tău, să cercetezi şi să înţelegi modul lor de gandire, iar apoi să încerci să le relevi propria ta ideologie.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti esenţa care îi defineşte pe oameni prin natura integratoare a unui proces de gândire a cărui regulă de înaintare este spargerea tiparelor de răspuns la anumiţi stimuli externi?

Celebrul filozof Soren Kierkegaard spunea cu competenţă: " Ceea ce ascunde fiecare om în intimitatea fiinţei sale psihice este mult mai bogat decât ceea ce lasă să se vadă la exterior, aşa încât omul adevărat este mai degrabă cel din sine, care nu se manifestă, în timp ce cel care ni se lasă cunoscut nu este decât o fiinţă convenţională. "

Ca lider, dacă poţi să analizezi sentimentele oamenilor în situaţiile date şi să înţelegi cele mai profunde şi mai delicate mecanisme de funcţionare a minţii fiecaruia, şi dacă eşti capabil să faci anumite ajustări, atunci drumul tău către reuşita în leadership este deplină. Încearcă să-i studiezi pe oameni cu aceeaşi subtilitate în observaţie, cu aceeaşi putere de pătrundere pe care o dovedeşte un pictor atunci când studiază natura.

Nu vei putea să-i influenţezi pe oameni dacă nu reuşeşti să faci ajustări în procesul lor de gândire şi să le impui propriul tău punct de vedere. Ceea ce e şocant e că există numeroşi lideri care totuşi cred cu tărie că puterea de influenţă ţine numai de carismă şi personalitate. Greşit. Leadershipul este totodată şi un joc psihologic prin care trebuie să afli cele mai ascunse intenţii şi realităţi ale oamenilor, şi apoi să-i cucereşti cu totul.

Cineva a făcut următoarea afirmaţie: " Caracterul este suma tuturor însuşirilor morale sau psihice ale unui om. " Cred că nimic nu este mai adevărat. Caracterul oamenilor de care te înconjori este esenţial, şi el ţine de procesul lor de gândire.

Ca sa le schimbi oamenilor percepţiile va trebui să înţelegi procesul lor de gândire. Neputinţa de a vedea clar în ei înşişi, de a înţelege universul lor interior îţi va diminua considerabil influenţa.

Esenţa care te defineşte poate să devină obiectul unui studiu artistic superior al cărui impact necesită a fi fundamentat conceptual?

Concluzie: Puterea de pătrundere psihologică este esenţială pentru un lider. Numai cunoscând psihologia oamenilor poţi reuşi să-i influenţezi şi să-i mobilizezi, având astfel buni colaboratori şi suporteri în drumul spre performanţă şi victorie.

Puterea de persuasiune

Comunică-le oamenilor punctul tău de vedere într-un mod atât de eficient încât ei să fie convinşi de justeţea lui.

Cel puţin pentru gimnastul Dan Millman, toată viaţa lui se rezuma la acele 20 de secunde din faţa arbitrilor care îi puteau dărui aurul. O notă foarte bună nu îl mulţumea, el dorea cu orice preţ locul întâi. Dar visul lui era încă departe de a deveni realitate. Nu era pregătit pentru marea încercare. În urmă cu zece luni se accidentase grav. Doctorii erau destul de sceptici în privinţa lui, iar dacă ei nu vedeau la el dovezi foarte clare care să le indice că e destul de puternic să concureze, atunci nu i-ar fi permis să participe la olimpiadă.

Antrenorul lui, de asemenea, era foarte sceptic. Nimeni nu-i dădea mari şanse lui Millman. Nici măcar el însuşi nu-şi dădea mari şanse de reuşită, deşi, perseverent din fire, se reapucase serios de antrenamente.

Leadership: Simţi că poţi fi mai presus de tine însuţi în circumstanţele unei asemănări sensibile între conţinutul experienţelor pe care le-ai parcurs şi profilul unui model de raţiune care îţi determină voinţa prin temeiurile apariţiei sale?

Capacitatea de a stabili relaţii îţi pune în lumină toate calităţile. Dacă ai urmărit filmul " The Peaceful Warrior ", atunci sigur îţi aminteşti povestea. Totul în viaţa lui Millman s-a schimbat după ce a întalnit un străin misterios numit Socrate (interpretat de actorul Nick Nolte). Ei au început să se întâlnească tot mai des. Între ei s-a legat o bună prietenie. Socrate l-a antrenat şi l-a învăţat zilnic lucruri care la rândul său le învăţase din propria experienţă de viaţă. Şi astfel a reuşit să-l schimbe.

Cu o subtilitate demnă de un mare psiholog, Socrate a pătruns adânc în psihicul lui Millman, sugerându-i şi căile de a nu cădea în acea stare mentală de limitare. Unul din sfaturile cele mai preţioase pe care i l-a oferit merită să fie reţinut:

"Vreau să încetezi să mai crezi ce spun ceilalţi şi să începi să crezi în tine. Aruncă gunoiul, Dan. Gunoiul este orice care stă între tine şi singurul lucru care contează, clipa de faţă. Vei fi uimit de ceea ce poţi să faci şi cât de bine poţi s-o faci dacă te concentrezi asupra clipei de faţă. Numai dacă te concentrezi cu adevărat asupra prezentului, vei putea schimba viitorul."

Leadership înseamnă să determini o mare extindere a experienţelor pe care le trăieşti prin însumarea valorii pe care o porţi pentru cei inferiori ţie.

Ca să-i influenţezi pe oameni, trebuie mai întâi să ai un punct de vedere comun cu ei. Tu poţi, măcar pentru o clipă, să joci rolul lui Socrate? Poţi să convingi măcar o singură persoană din jurul tău să realizeze lucruri de care nu este sigură că le poate face?

Ca să influenţezi oamenii trebuie să fii capabil să "intri" mai întâi în gândurile lor, să intuieşti ce se petrece cu adevărat în interiorul lor, apoi să trezeşti în ei o nouă conştiinţă, să le oferi o nouă înţelegere a lucrurilor. Iar găsirea unui punct de vedere comun este prima verigă care facilitează apropierea ta de ei.

Aşa cum puterea de emoţionare a unui tablou este datorată în primul rând vibraţiei sufleteşti pe care artistul o transmite privitorului, tot aşa puterea de convingere a unui lider se datorează apropierii sale de ceilalţi oameni, manifestându-şi întreaga disponibilitate şi dorinţă de a-i susţine în plan emoţional şi psihic şi de a-i capta de partea lui.

Leadership: Conținutul caracterul tău va servi bine unui scop mai înalt, dincolo de procesul de susţinere al unor revelaţii de care devii dependent în pătrunderea lucrurilor spirituale?

Oamenii trebuie să simtă pe pielea lor adevărul pe care îl exprimi. Socrate i-a spus lui Millman că oamenii se tem de ceea ce e în interiorul lor. Acesta a fost primul pas spre o înţelegere mai profundă a lucrurilor. A fost etapa intermediară, scurtă, dar necesară pentru trecerea la adevăratul stadiu, cel mai important al vieţii lui Millman – stadiul în care să poată din nou creşte, în care să-şi recupereze încrederea pierdută şi să demonstreze un mai mare angajament faţă de scopul său.

În cele din urmă Millman s-a convins singur de profunzimea înţelepciunii lui Socrate, punând în practică toate sfaturile acestuia. A învăţat să-şi focalizeze atenţia asupra proprilor sale capacităţi, în loc să-i asculte pe ceilalţi din jurul lui care nu-i dădeau prea mari şanse de reuşită. Şi în final a câştigat aurul.

Eficienţa ta ca lider este influenţată de capacitatea ta de a le impune celorlalţi punctul tău de vedere într-un mod atât de eficient încât ei să fie convinşi de justeţea lui. Dacă oamenii nu simt pe pielea lor adevărul pe care îl exprimi, atunci mai devreme sau mai târziu te vor părăsi.

În leadership contează cum te vezi atât din perspectiva revizuirii atitudinii faţă de modul de a înţelege esenţa unei realităţi, a unei trăiri, a unui gând, a unui sentiment şi de a accepta termenii lor. Cât şi din perspectiva semnificaţiei pe care o atribui experienţelor de învăţare şi motivare.

Concluzie: Un bun lider trebuie să deţină acea putere de persuasiune cu ajutorul căreia să stabilească un punct de vedere comun cu oamenii pe care-i conduce şi să-i convingă pe aceştia că ei sunt de fapt baza schimbărilor prezente pentru un viitor mai bun.

Responsabilitatea

Evaluează-ţi permanent potenţialul în funcţie de natura atribuţiilor pe care le ai şi în funcţie de consecinţele pe care trebuie să ţi le asumi.

Atunci când un om ajunge într-o funcţie foarte înaltă inevitabil este prins în intersecţia mai multor responsabilităţi, obligaţii şi presiuni, iar în cazul unui eşec el este primul care dă socoteală pentru că nu a împiedicat apariţia lui. Întotdeauna un lider trebuie să-şi asume integral responsabilitatea pentru orice decizie pe care o ia, pentru orice acţiune pe care o întreprinde, pentru modul în care îşi face datoria, pentru rezultatele pe care le obţine, pentru orice probleme şi pentru orice greşeli.

Leadership: Te percepi drept un nucleu al ansamblului de interacţiuni între profilul tău reprezentativ şi versiunea unei erori de operare, atunci când continui să evoluezi spre cel mai mare potenţial al tău?

Imaginează-ţi pentru un moment că eşti căpitanul unui vas de croazieră şi te afli într-o călătorie pe mare. Eşti pe punte şi admiri priveliştea. Este linişte - o linişte plăcută, plină de intimitate. Şi deodată, în liniştea aceasta auzi Zgomotul, provocat de coliziunea cu un aisberg. Simţi cum totul se zguduie în jurul tău şi abia reuşeşti să te prinzi de balustradă. Toţi pasagerii se îmbulzesc, se calcă în picioare ca să-şi găsească un colac de salvare, sau ca să poată ocupa un loc într-una din bărcile de salvare. Pentru că nu mai ai timp de pierdut, le ordoni celorlalţi marinari să coboare toate bărcile şi să-i ajute pe toţi pasagerii să se îmbarce.

Dar tu eşti ultimul care trebuie să părăsească nava. Şi ştii că cea mai mare datorie a ta este să te asiguri că absolut toţi pasagerii se află în deplină siguranţă. De aceea, trebuie să te grăbeşti să verifici fiecare cabină în parte ca să te convingi că nu există cumva pasageri rătăciţi sau răniţi. Eşti convins că nava se poate scufunda în orice moment şi că s-ar putea să nu mai scapi cu viaţă, dar cu toate acestea îţi asumi riscul. Nu ai de ales. Ştii foarte bine că dacă un singur pasager moare, singurul vinovat de această tragedie eşti tu. Tu, şi numai tu, eşti singurul răspunzător de ce se întâmplă cu echipajul pe care ai fost ales să-l conduci.

Liderii nu dau niciodată înapoi în faţa dificultăţilor, ba mai mult, s-ar zice că tocmai în aceste clipe dificile acţionează cu mai mult interes. Ei ştiu ce trebuie să facă în situaţiile de urgenţă, ştiu la ce riscuri se expun, dar intervin prompt şi eficient când e vorba de vieţi umane. Tu eşti unul din ei?

Leadership: A prelua controlul presupune să accepţi ideea că ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce poţi deveni este rezultatul acceptării unei realităţi de care te poţi lovi şi de care nu poţi fugi?

Ce alegi să fii: căpitan sau pasager?

Este întotdeauna fascinant să auzi povestindu-se despre un om care, deşi este pus într-o situaţie extrem de complicată, acţionează cu foarte mult aplomb şi încredere pentru a o remedia. Un astfel de om îşi găseşte suficientă energie atunci când vine vorba să-şi arate interesul faţă de cineva care are mare nevoie de el. Mai mult, atitudinea lui pozitivă le transmite şi altora curajul de a acţiona în acelaşi spirit cu el, spre rezolvarea problemelor. El este căpitanul, singurul capabil să îndrepte lucrurile, singurul care ştie cel mai bine ce este de făcut în situaţii de urgenţă şi care caută să-şi îndeplinească cât mai bine obligaţiile pe care le presupune rolul său major, şi singurul care are tăria morală de a-şi asuma responsabilitatea în cazul unui dezastru.

Pe de altă parte, a fi pasager este mult mai simplu. De ce? Pentru că pasagerii nu trebuie să-şi asume nici un fel de responsabilitate. De fapt, singura lor preocupare este să se simtă bine alături de prieteni, în timp ce căpitanul veghează clipă de clipă, cu un ochi ager, la siguranţa lor. Mai mult, pasagerii nu sunt obligaţi să ia decizii rapide şi dificile, nu sunt obligaţi să stea treji în fiecare noapte, nu sunt obligaţi să-şi asume responsabilitatea pentru o eventuală neîndeplinire a atribuţiilor ce le revin.

Leadership: Capacitatea de a te evalua într-o imagine a salvatorului este direct sau invers proporţională cu modalitatea de a te pregăti să înlături impulsurile de moment care le ai în urma diferitelor evenimente?

De ce nu ajunge oricine căpitanul unui vas? Fiindcă nu toată lumea are curajul să îşi asume responsabilitatea în faţa unui eventual eşec. Pentru că nu oricine este capabil să facă faţă sarcinilor extrem de solicitante ce îi revin. Pentru că nu oricine are aptitudini de lider. Lipsa de responsabilitate este realitatea pe care foarte mulţi refuză s-o vadă.

Poate ca ţi-ai dezvoltat abilităţile corespunzătoare funcţiei de conducere pe care o ocupi, dar dacă nu eşti suficient de motivat să acţionezi cu o intensitate mare spre folosul celorlalţi în situaţiile dificile, sau dacă mai presus de toate esti egoist şi centrat pe propria persoană, atunci nu vei putea stabili legături cu ceilalţi şi nu vei cunoaşte niciodată succesul.

Aşa cum un pictor se dovedeşte capabil să utilizeze cu strălucire teme dificile de culoare, şi să recompună în desenele sale lumea văzută pe calea culorii, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să te dovedeşti capabil a juca bine rolul pe care-l exerciţi, să-ţi respecţi angajamentele pe care ţi le-ai asumat când ai fost numit în funcţia de conducere, să-ţi impui tu însuţi nişte reguli de la care să nu te abaţi niciodată, şi să-ţi recompui toate principiile, valorile şi criteriile după care te ghidezi ca să dai un mai bun randament în activităţile pe care le desfăşori.

Capacitatea unui lider de a se evalua corect pe sine este vitală, constituie puterea lui cea mai mare. Prin urmare, fii obiectiv. Priveşte mai bine în interiorul tău, vezi dacă eşti potrivit pentru funcţia respectivă şi dacă te ridici la nivelul profesioniştilor adevăraţi. Evaluează-ţi permanent potenţialul în funcţie de natura atribuţiilor pe care le ai şi în funcţie de consecinţele pe care trebuie să ţi le asumi, spre a vedea dacă eşti demn să te ridici la înălţimea aşteptărilor impuse de poziţia pe care o ocupi.

A fi un bun căpitan de vas înseamnă să aduni punctele necesare unui triumf care a marcat traseul ascendent al întregului echipaj pe timp de furtună.

Rezonanţa

Iscusinţa unui lider devine o oglindă ce reflectă relaţiile sale cu ceilalţi oameni.

Încă de când am păşit prima oară în atelierul maestrului am încercat să mă apropii mai mult de el, de filozofia lui, de operele sale meşteşugit realizate, sperând că voi afla secretele cele mai preţioase ale artei sale. Era omul cel mai spiritual, cel mai instruit cu putinţă pe care mi-a fost dat să-l cunosc vreodată.

Mulţi ani am stat în preajma maestrului, timp în care, punând mult suflet în ceea ce făceam, şi ascultând îndrumările sale preţioase fără de care mi-ar fi fost greu să înţeleg arta, mi-am însuşit cunoştinţele de bază în tehnica desenului şi a picturii, şi am deprins cele mai importante valori care mi-au ghidat viaţa.

Lucrul cu adevărat important este că, în timp, m-am adaptat la mentalitatea maestrului – nu mă aşteptasem la asta. Mi-am dat seama mai târziu că aveam multe lucruri în comun cu el, în gândire şi în simţire, talentul, pasiunea şi creativitatea, chiar dacă eram împins de ambiţia extraordinară de a realiza tablouri mai frumoase decât ale lui. Am ajuns să ne sincronizăm în gândire, în idei, să ne sincronizăm chiar şi opiniile referitoare la ce intenţionam să facem - la temele pe care le alegeam şi la paleta de culori ce urma s-o aplicăm, chiar şi în mişcări şi în improvizaţiile absolut superbe ajunsesem să ne sincronizăm.

Ce, mai ! Am preluat aproape totul de la el – tot ceea ce-mi lipsea mie: talentul şi tehnica de lucru - atracţia pentru artă nu-mi lipsea dar fără aceste două ingrediente nu aveam să ating niciodată performanţa. Am ajuns să-i imit cumva stilul de pictură – păstrând totuşi o doză apreciabilă de originalitate. Dar cumva, ceea ce făcea el instantaneu făceam si eu – pregăteam şevaletul la fel, amestecam culorile în acelaşi mod, desenul îl schiţam simultan având aceleaşi puncte de pornire pe pânză, concomitent treceam de la desenul în creion la cel în ulei, şi terminam pictura aproximativ în acelaşi timp.

Leadership: Modul de a-ţi exprima identitatea şi idealurile sunt în deplină conformitate cu valorile unui transfer de experienţă care-ţi garantează o adaptabilitate sporită la cerinţele măreţiei de a fi tu însuţi?

Sinergia se naşte atunci când te conectezi cu oamenii potriviţi.

Odată ce câştigi încrederea oamenilor cu care lucrezi, îţi sporeşte şi plăcerea de a fi la conducerea lor şi, totodată, şi şansele de reuşită în atingerea scopului propus. Odată ce ei vor prelua de la tine lumina călăuzitoare, dătătoare de puteri nebănuite – calităţile, concepţiile, convingerile, tabieturile, respectiv percepându-ţi vocea interioară, - vor fi motivaţi să muncească mai bine, mai ales în prezenţa ta. Vor avea sentimentul că sunt liberi să-şi exprime deschis orice sentiment, liberi să-şi exprime talentele, liberi să-şi exprime sincer şi deschis percepţiile vizavi de anumite lucruri, liberi să-şi exprime părerile pro şi contra - fiind ascultaţi şi încurajaţi. Astfel vor rămâne concentraţi mereu asupra lucrurilor principale, cele care contează cu adevărat atât pentru tine, cât şi pentru ei.

Acţiunea mai multor oameni îndreptată în acelaşi sens se numeşte sinergie. Dacă reuşeşti să te conectezi cu oamenii la nivel personal, ei vor începe să se sincronizeze cu tine în dorinţe şi aspiraţii, vor împrumuta de la tine până şi atitudinea, psihologia ta, şi vor îmbrăţişa maniera ta de lucru. Vor ajunge să fie complementari ţie – aidoma acelor reflectoare care se sincronizează în aşa fel încât atunci când se sting unele, se aprind altele.

Leadership: Îţi onorezi obligaţia de a fi accesibil, prin a avea încredere în mesajul propriei tale măreţii din care trebuie să reţii sensul pozitiv al unor "oferte limitate" de formare - ca părţi ale unui tot unitar?

O lege din fizică afirmă: "Pentru două corpuri ce se află în aceeaşi stare de mişcare perceperea unuia faţă de altul este influenţată de timp." Progresele foarte mari ale oamenilor se produc mai ales în prezenţa liderului, în timp, şi numai dacă ei vor fi în deplină concordanţă cu scopurile şi aspiraţiile sale, numai dacă vor împărtăşi sentimentul de unitate – preluând o parte din personalitatea lui. Perceperea liderului ca un individ eficient, inteligent, cu calităţi practice deosebite, cu deosebite virtuţi sufleteşti, facilitează procesul de comunicare cu oamenii, stabilindu-se acea armonie atât de necesară într-un colectiv.

Doar dacă te asemeni cu oamenii din jurul tău în cât mai multe privinţe, doar dacă eşti mereu pe aceeaşi lungime de undă cu ei te vei bucura de raporturile pe care le ai cu aceştia. De aceea, ca lider, datoria ta e să faci tot posibilul să le împrumuţi ceva din spiritul tău şi din energia voinţei tale, pentru ca ei să nu fie niciodată în discordanţă cu tine sau cu "opera" ta. Reţine că pentru a avea succes în leadership trebuie să ai în comun cu oamenii acelaşi mod de a vedea lucrurile şi aceeasi scară a valorilor, tot ce este valoros şi important pentru tine să fie şi pentru ei.

Leadershipul presupune să te ridici la un nivel mai înalt din conştiinţa alcătuirii unui tot unitar şi să depăşeşti apartenenţa ta la acest tot.

Rezonanţa este acea calitate a liderului care rezultă din raportul cu ceilalţi oameni. Înseamnă să fii capabil să transmiţi "vibraţiile" tale întregii echipe, aşa încât să existe o sinergie a acţiunilor şi o conlucrare eficientă. Aceasta rezonanţă este rezultatul abilităţii liderului de a intui un gen aparte de relaţii de muncă în interiorul echipei, de conlucrare eficientă, etc., iar această iscusinţă a unui lider este ca o oglindă ce reflectă relaţiile sale cu ceilalţi.

Sensibilitatea sufletească

Priveşte-i pe oameni cu ochii sufletului pentru ca influenţa ta să fie pozitivă.

Un negustor bogat, dar cu un suflet sărac. Acesta era multimilionarul Edward Lewis, a cărui unică preocupare era să facă afaceri la nivel înalt - să cumpere proprietăţi aflate în pragul falimentului, apoi să le vândă la un preţ mult mai mare. Foarte abil, rafinat, bun cunoscător al celor mai noi tendinţe ale pieţei, pe deplin familiarizat cu toate subtilităţile complicate ale legii şi, mai ales, îndrăgostit de putere. Dar în sufletul lui situaţia era neliniştitoare.

Deşi afacerile sale mergeau tot mai bine, el părea că se afundă tot mai mult în tristeţe. Însă, ajuns la Hollywood, el o întâlneşte pe Vivian Ward, o prostituată care era totuşi diferită de toate celelalte de teapa ei. Era foarte draguţă şi avea un suflet minunat. Din acest motiv el o angajează pe post de damă de companie. Cea mai bună decizie din viaţa lui.

Dacă aţi văzut filmul " Pretty Woman ", atunci ştiţi restul poveştii. În cele şapte zile cât stau împreună, Vivian reuşeşte să sădeasca în sufletul lui Edward un profund sentiment de calm şi linişte, determinându-l să-şi concentreze atenţia asupra aspectelor bune ale vieţii sale, inoculându-i acea dorinţă insaţiabilă de a iubi şi de a se lăsa iubit. Dintr-un om rece, fără manifestări romantice, obsedat numai de afaceri şi bani, Edward Lewis se preschimbă într-un alt personaj, un fel de Făt-Frumos modern.

Leadership: Poţi să pui capăt conflictului dintre ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce este ascuns, începând cu schimbarea privirii pe care ţi-o adresezi ţie însuţi în afara conştiinţei care se conjugă mai curând cu verbul „a simţi"?

Ce anume a constituit nucleul generator al schimbării lui Edward Lewis?

Vivian i-a marcat lui Edward traiectoria profesională, impulsionându-l să-şi reia viaţa personală, să creadă din nou în dragoste şi să lupte ca s-o păstreze. Ca o adevărată lady, ea a ştiut să aducă sentimentele lui până în punctul în care el nu a mai avut altă ieşire decât aceea de a i se dedica ei întru totul. Astfel ea i-a iluminat drumul spre înţelegerea adevăratei meniri a vieţii, îndepărtându-l definitiv de efectele nocive cauzate de afacerile lui profitabile, dar venoase. A deschis în viaţa lui o nouă filă, curată, de poveste, care a îmbunătăţit starea lui sufletească.

Schimbarea lui Edward a survenit atunci când a încetat să-i vadă pe oameni cu ochii cu care vedea lucrurile inconjuratoare. Vivian a intrat pe scena vieţii lui şi a oferit calitate transformării sale determinându-l să-i vadă pe oameni cu ochii sufletului.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o proiectezi în lume se împacă cu sufletul pe care îl așezi în mijlocul privirii pe care ţi-o aruncă importanţa propriei examinări?

Starea ta sufletească exprimă felul în care te comporţi şi îi vezi pe ceilalţi. Felul în care îi vezi pe oameni, modul în care îi percepi determină succesul sau eşecul tău în leadership. Priveşte-i pe oameni cu ochii sufletului pentru ca influenţa ta să fie pozitivă. Dar cum te împaci cu tine însuţi în văzul tuturor?

Leadershipul implică în primul rând legătura ta cu ceilalţi. Iar dacă imaginea ta nu se împacă cu sufletul tău, nu vei reuşi să te apropii niciodată de oameni. Ei îţi vor simţi răceala şi vor deveni mai reticenţi în privinţa ta. Te vor cataloga drept un om insensibil, nepăsător la nevoile şi problemele lor, şi te vor urma fără bucurie, sau mai rău, te vor părăsi.

Imaginea pe care o asociezi cu ideea de suflet, nu numai că nu se înstrăinează una de cealaltă, ci dimpotrivă, îşi întind permanent una alteia mâna, pentru a se sprijini reciproc, într-o continuă sinergie. Ele sunt ca două flori care pentru a crea valoare trebuie să-şi păstreze esenţa preţioasă nu într-un mister de nepătruns, ci într-un mod fermecător, adesea subtil. Cum pe dinafară, aşa şi pe dinăuntru.

A deosebi imaginea pe care o creează rațiunea de imaginea pe care o creează sufletul, avem totuşi dreptul să spunem că are o mare însemnătate pentru procesul de rememorare a faţetei personalităţii pe care o prezinţi şi pe care o stăpâneşti cel mai bine. Dualitatea celor două imagini nu este nici într-un caz un merit al conştiinţei de a se deschide lumii, întrucât de felul în care ele se întrepătrund şi se alimentează reciproc depinde forţa intenţiei tale de a intra în jocul maturităţii şi atracţiei.

Leadershipul este imaginea de sine pe care o sugerezi nevoii de a simţi mângâierea eternă a unei dulci recunoştinţe.

Sensibilitatea sufletească este cheia spre o mai bună comunicare cu ceilalţi, dar în primul rând spre o mai bună înţelegere a vieţii personale. Ea marchează atitudinea ta pozitivă în viaţă, te determină să cauţi şi să te concentrezi pe ceea ce este corect, şi nu pe ceea ce este greşit. Totodată ea indică faptul că eşti un om minunat, cu o viaţă sufletească bogată. Cine să nu urmeze un asemenea om?

Oamenii nu se vor simţi niciodată legaţi de tine dacă îţi lipseşte sensibilitatea sufletească. Ca să stabileşti relaţii cu ceilalţi trebuie să ai o anumită prezenţă şi prestanţă, demnă de luat în seamă şi de urmat – aceea a unui mare om, cu valori morale înalte şi cu un suflet minunat.

Tu poţi să te preschimbi într-un astfel de om?

Concluzie: Adesea oamenii sunt evaluaţi nu numai cu mintea, ci şi cu sufletul. Un lider care-i priveşte pe oameni şi cu "ochii sufletului", va avea desigur o influenţă pozitivă asupra lor.

Spontaneitatea

Sporeşte-ţi capacitatea de decizie şi de acţiune, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete tot mai mult teren.

Numai un om înzestrat cu calităţi de lider, condus de o puternică voinţă ce animă o strategie bine gândită îşi poate consolida succesul impunându-şi supremaţia în faţa duşmanilor săi. Numai un om cu o încredere în sine nemaipomenită, care are curajul să probeze necunoscutul şi să se avânte în cele mai neprevăzute primejdii, poate ajunge de neînvins.

Un astfel de om, niciodată frânt de oboseală, niciodată biruit de teamă, şi care nu renunţă cu niciun chip la convingerile sale, este gata să facă întotdeauna orice sacrificii numai pentru a-şi atinge scopul propus. Importanţa mizei îl însufleţeşte atât de puternic, încât ar fi capabil să raspundă la orice provocări, să-şi asume orice fel de riscuri cu o tenacitate ieşită din comun. Dar ceea ce caracterizează cu adevărat un asemenea om mânat de o puternică dorinţă de succes, aproape patologică, este faptul că acţionează rapid atunci când se iveşte oportunitatea de a se propulsa într-o poziţie înaltă.

Leadership: Te aştepţi ca cineva să-ţi valideze valoarea fără să generezi sentimentul pe care te aştepţi să îl ai după ce îţi atingi obiectivele?

Puterea se cucereşte noaptea.

Imediat după ce regele Tutankhamon muri, căzând de pe scări, un mesager călare părăsi palatul, o luă pe drumul spre miazanoapte, spre Akhmim, galopând mâncând pământul, pentru a-l informa pe Ay de cele întâmplate. Simplul titlu de vizir nu l-a mulţumit niciodată pe bătrânul Ay, acest suflet nemilos, ahtiat după putere, despre care se credea că l-ar fi ucis chiar pe însuşi regele Semenkhere şi că ar fi răpit-o pe regina Meritaton. Aşa că imediat ce află vestea, printr-o intuiţie bruscă, Ay, o fire activă şi ambiţioasă până la capăt, ordonă să-i fie aduşi trei cai de la grajduri, cei mai iuţi şi mai rezistenţi, apoi, fără a mai şovăi nicio clipă, încălecă fără frică şi timp de zece ore pe timp de noapte, fără lună, străbătu în galop drumul până la palatul răposatului rege.

Ay trebuia cu orice preţ să ajungă acolo înaintea rivalului său, generalul Horemheb, care era un luptător şi un strateg adevărat, cu o dârzenie ieşită din comun şi cu un simţ al datoriei extrem de pronunţat. Mai mult ca sigur Horemheb, care foarte probabil a fost şi el înştiinţat imediat de moartea regelui, ar fi ordonat trupelor sale, odată ce ar fi ajuns la Theba, să-l împiedice pe Ay să intre în oraş.

Dar cu toate că se apropia de 60 de ani, Ay, fost comandant al carelor de luptă, nu uitase nimic din antrenamentele de călărie. Aşa se face că în zori el a ajuns la palatul din Theba. Scopul vizitei lui era clar: pregătirea succesiunii lui Tutankhamon.

Leadership: Validezi ceea ce eşti pregătit să sacrifici într-un anume moment, concentrându-te doar pe ideea că vei reuşi să faci un salt enorm şi semnificativ pe toată coborârea abruptă a drumului spre împlinirea şansei de vizibilitate ivită în istoria lumii?

Ay nu putea aştepta. Fiecare minut conta. Trebuia cu orice preţ să-l înlăture pe Horemheb din consiliul regal, pentru a-l lipsi de orice putere de decizie. Aşa că, folosindu-şi viclenia, jucând teatru ca un actor desăvârşit, reuşi să o câştige rapid pe regina Ankhensepamon de partea lui, căreia îi revenise puterea în urma decesului soţului ei, făcând-o să creadă că primejdia cea mare care ameninţă regatul vine din partea lui Horemheb, care tânjea la coroană şi care dacă ar pune mâna pe ea ar distruge ordinea succesiunii dinastice.

Ankhensepamon, presimţind că generalul Horemheb nu şi-ar fi dat niciodată osteneala s-o ia de soţie, căci făcea parte din familia regală, întruni imediat consiliul regal unde, cu acceptul celorlalţi membri, îl numi pe Ay regent – în interesul regatului. Scribul întocmi actul de numire, apoi îl întări cu sigiliul regal şi cu cele ale membrilor consiliului.

Leadership: Îţi poţi evidenţia experienţa de a fi unic prin utilizarea unei doze de neprevăzut amplasată sugestiv într-o zonă de maximă vizibilitate a rezultatelor obţinute?

În 24 de ore lumea şi-a schimbat axa. La orele după-amiezii, în aceeaşi zi, îşi făcu apariţia generalul Horemheb. Escortat de patru ofiţeri, el pătrunse cu pas apăsat în Sala cea Mare, provocând uimirea, apoi spaima slujbaşilor. Pe bună seamă nu ştia nimic despre adunarea ce se încheiase cu câteva ore înainte. Şi el, ca şi Ay, ceru imediat să se întrunească consiliul regal din care făcea parte.

Dar, vai ! Este înştiinţat că adunarea s-a încheiat deja, şi că el nu mai este membru al consiliului. Consiliul a hotărât, cu consimţământul tuturor membrilor ei, numirea imediată a Înălţimii Sale, Ay, ca regent al regatului.

Oare cum este posibil aşa ceva? se întrebă în sinea lui generalul, căruia nu-i venea să creadă ce se întâmplase. Peste noapte totul se prăbuşise. Abia atunci, în acel moment de cumpănă când totul era pierdut, el şi-a amintit sfatul pe care i-l dăduse cu multă vreme în urmă sfetnicul său: puterea se cucereşte noaptea. Goana călare pe timp de noapte a rivalului său, s-a dovedit mai iute decat a sa.

A fi spontan înseamnă să treci peste acel munte abrupt pe care toţi ceilalţi îl subestimează. A fi spontan înseamnă să iei rapid cele mai bune decizii în avantajul tău şi să acţionezi rapid pentru a-ţi asigura reuşita.

Ay a reuşit să ridice toate stavilele posibile ca să-i taie calea rivalului său, dar nu pentru că a fost mai isteţ sau mai curajos decât acesta, ci pentru că a cântărit foarte iute situaţia, întorcând-o pe toate feţele, şi a acţionat imediat pentru a-şi asigura reuşita. Una din trăsăturile de bază ale liderilor desăvârşiţi este rapiditatea cu care acţionează adecvat atunci situaţia o impune, fără să tărăgăneze lucrurile, fără să mai piardă nicio secundă.

Deşi se afla la o distanţă mai mică de regat decât Ay, generalul Horemheb a pierdut cea mai mare ocazie a vieţii sale, pentru că în loc să-şi adune toate forţele şi să acţioneze degrabă, s-a pierdut în tot felul de planuri şi manevre pentru ziua următoare. Lipsa de spontaneitate, lentoarea cu care a acţionat au constituit cauzele eşecului său.

Un conducător desăvârşit, motivat de nişte aspiraţii înalte, mânat de o sete enormă de a-şi atinge ţelurile, dovedeste întotdeauna, în orice fel de împrejurări, o capacitate rapidă de analiză, sinteză şi de răspuns rapid. Cel căruia îi lipsesc aceste calităţi nu dovedeşte forţă, ci slăbiciune, nehotărâre, ezitare.

Spontaneitatea are menirea de a crea condiţiile pentru folosirea deplină a potenţialului tău de receptivitate la solicitările formulate de unică şansă de a-ţi găsi măreţia într-o singură zi trecătoare.

Cel pe care nu-l trage inima să se arunce ori de câte ori este necesar în vâltoarea celor mai dificile misiuni, cel ce nu e mistuit de o voinţă nemăsurată de a face tot ce-i stă în putinţă ca să-şi atingă scopurile, acela nu dispune de calităţi de lider şi nu va fi niciodata un învingător. Experienţa de a fi unic în timpul unei acţiuni pline de neprevăzut ţine mai mult de caracterele active, întreprinzătoare, aventuroase, pline de vervă, care iau decizii rapide şi caută să le transforme imediat în fapte.

Un conducător care pierde prea mult timp cu manevre pregătitoare, în loc să fie spontan şi să ştie să surprindă, poate să piardă o bătălie. Dacă nu acţionează prompt atunci când ocazia îi este favorabilă, va fi învins de către altcineva mai ambiţios şi mai rapid. Cine nu apasă suficient de repede pe butonul de pornire, va fi întrecut de acela care, luându-şi curaj, se năpusteşte cu un elan nebun, surprinzător, asupra ţintei dorite.

Pentru un lider, spontaneitatea şi promptitudinea cu care acţionează sunt esenţiale pentru a nu ieşi din cursă şi de a nu fi întrecut de alţii poate mai puţini buni, dar mai rapizi decât el, care ştiu să profite de toate oportunităţile de a se afirma.

Însă trebuie ţinut cont şi de faptul că cine acţionează fără să-şi facă în prealabil o analiză atentă şi competentă a riscurilor, poate de asemenea să eşueze.

În leadership totul depinde de felul cum se raportează imaginea ta la o victorie menită să ducă la realizarea unui obiectiv tactic, ca parte a unei viziuni pe termen lung care într-adevăr afectează istoria într-o modalitate practică și concretă.

Felul cum răspunzi la provocările care te pot pune într-o situație de vulnerabilitate, pornind de la gravitatea circumstanţelor şi a momentului în care te afli, poate face din tine un erou, un caracter impenetrabil, sau dimpotrivă, un oportunist fără scrupule care încalcă orice omenie şi orice dreptate.

Voinţa fermă de a învinge

Ori de câte ori vei coborî ştacheta vei deveni vulnerabil, iar ori de câte ori se va găsi altul mai bun decât tine, cu o voinţă mai puternică, vei pierde.

Cel ce are un scop măreţ şi are curajul să se avânte în valurile înspumate şi nesigure ale greutăţilor şi încercărilor vieţii, cel care, inspirat de un vis ambiţios îşi zideşte orice cale de retragere şi se năpusteşte cu toată puterea în necunoscut şi imprevizibil, cel care din dorinţa de a învinge şi de a ieşi triumfător este gata să ia taurul de coarne şi să lupte până la ultima suflare, acela va izbuti să-şi însuşească darul de a fi conducător. Ceea ce caracterizează un conducător desăvârşit este faptul că reuşeşte întotdeauna, cu multă abilitate şi fermitate, să depăşească toate primejdiile, piedicile şi necazurile.

Doar o mână de oameni a reuşit de-a lungul timpului să se distingă în lume, înfăptuind ceea ce părea imposibil de realizat. Fernando Magellan a dovedit pentru toate timpurile că o idee, dacă e purtată pe aripile geniului, se vădeşte până la urmă mai puternică decat toate elementele naturii. Ghinghis-Han a arătat că un simplu cioban care nu ştie să scrie şi să citească, poate întrece în talente militare armatele celor mai mari împărăţii şi că, totodată, este capabil să alcătuiască un corp de legi pentru cincizeci de popoare. Asoka, primul mare conducător al Indiei, a demonstrat că un om poate reuşi mai multe cu vorba bună decât cu ordinele. Iar Napoleon Bonaparte a întărit ideea că cine îşi stabileşte scopuri înalte şi este condus de idealuri nobile îşi poate depăşi condiţia umilă. Şi exemplele pot continua.

Oamenii cu o voinţă şi o tenacitate ieşite din comun sunt capabili să transforme în realitate ceea ce pentru mulţi este doar o iluzie. Faptele lor întrec de multe ori orice aşteptări. Mai mult ca sigur, calitatea lor cea mai importantă, pe care o manifestă în orice fel de împrejurări şi în orice moment este voinţa fermă de a răzbi în faţa oricăror provocări, de a trece peste orice oprelişti şi de a triumfa. Plini de energie, neînfricaţi şi conduşi de o voinţă de fier, ei reuşesc să parcurgă drumul de la eşec la succes.

Leadership: Îţi este teamă să-ţi imaginezi viitorul relaţiei tale cu opţiunea ce trăieşte în inima ta şi să îi creşti bătăile printr-o vedere de la distanţă care surprinde momentul de vârf al puterii tale de caracter?

Trebuie să ai o perseverenţă uimitoare şi o voinţă neînfricată să te avânţi ca Magellan într-o expediţie în care şansele de izbândă sunt foarte mici. Trebuie să ai un curaj extraordinar să te avânţi într-o bătălie şi să lupţi uneori chiar în prima linie, ca Napoleon Bonaparte sau Ghinghis-Han. Drumul spre realizarea "imposibilului" este, într-adevăr, foarte greu şi anevoios. Este plin de obstacole şi pericole la tot pasul, plin de eşecuri, de refuzuri, de tergiversări, căzături şi rateuri. De aceea puţini se încumetă să-l parcurgă. Numai cei cu adevărat curajoşi, cu o voinţă fermă de a-şi atinge scopurile, vor reuşi să "marcheze".

Drumul spre glorie se aşterne numai în faţa celui care este convins că poate înfăptui ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu poate, care are curajul să pornească într-o călătorie unde şansele de reuşită sunt minime. Celor puţin ambiţioşi sau şovăitori care se tem să se arunce în necunoscut şi să-şi asume riscuri, nu le este dat să răzbească într-o astfel de călătorie, plină de primejdii şi grele încercări, unde ori nu există nicio cale de întoarcere, ori există doar una singura, dar care este foarte greu de găsit. Scopurile înalte pot fi atinse numai de cei ce au o voinţă neînfricată de obţinere a victoriei, de cei energici, curajoşi, fermi şi tenace.

O întreagă armată mânată de o singură voinţă, cea a conducătorului lor, poate înfăptui imposibilul. Manifestând o voinţă de neclintit, hotărâre în acţiuni şi un curaj fără limite, Hannibal a câştigat împotriva armatelor romane victorii zdrobitoare. Şi-a respectat întotdeauna jurământul făcut în faţa tatălui său la vârsta de nouă ani: "Jur că-i voi urî pe romani toată viaţa".

Leadership: Sunt necesare nişte prelucrări în plus a unor motive autentice de găsire a unui sens de parcurgere a căii bătătorite de alţii, special concepute pentru a înlesni relaţia ta cu ceea ce devine imaginea finală?

Hannibal a ştiut mai bine decât oricine că lipsa voinţei este cel mai mare neajuns pentru un războinic adevărat. Numai un conducător tenace, care nu se teme de nimeni şi de nimic şi care are o putere de a răbda uluitoare, este în stare să insufle curaj şi bărbăţie luptătorilor săi şi să câştige victorie după victorie. Era un luptător formidabil, învingător în toate duelurile, era sufletul oricărui atac. Era mereu cel dintâi dintre călăreţi şi infanterişti. Intra primul în bătălie şi se întorcea ultimul de pe câmpul de luptă. Nu-i de mirare că toţi cartaginezii l-au divinizat, iar faima armatei lui s-a răspândit în toată lumea.

Un om cu o voinţă puternică poate fi înfrânt numai de către un om cu o voinţă şi mai puternică. Hannibal a fost un cuceritor de temut. A înspăimântat Roma, care ani de zile s-a aflat într-o permanentă stare de şoc. Dar în cele din urmă a fost înfrânt de Scipio "Africanul", care a avut tăria să-l înfrunte şi să i se opună cu înverşunare. La fel cum singurul ţel al lui Hannibal a fost să cucerească Roma, singurul ţel al lui Scipio a fost să-l învingă pe Hannibal. Iar întotdeauna când două voinţe mari se înfruntă, numai una singură iese câştigătoare: cea mai fermă şi mai neînfricată, cea mai puternică.

Ca să-ţi măsori leadershipul, întreabă-te dacă nu cumva puterea bilanţului dintre cerinţele sufletului şi cerinţele nivelului tău de motivaţie, avantajează rezultatul final al luptei în care învingătoare este tranziţia ta spre un destin frânt.

Voinţa fermă de a învinge presupune să-ţi doreşti să-ţi îndeplineşti scopurile propuse propunându-ţi nişte strategii şi nişte planuri foarte bine puse la punct. Dar, totodată, pentru ca ele să fie atinse este nevoie de tenacitate, îndrăzneală şi mai ales de o voinţă de fier. Ori de câte ori vei coborî ştacheta vei deveni vulnerabil, iar ori de câte ori se va găsi altul mai bun decât tine, cu o voinţă mai puternică, vei pierde.

Cămăruţele sufletului

Concepţia oamenilor despre tine este susţinută de înţelesul adânc pe care ei ţi-l acordă ţie şi leadershipului tău.

Aştepţi şi aştepţi răspunsul, care nu mai vine niciodată. Dorinţele tale cele mai adânci rămân neîmplinite, fiindcă trec pe plan secund atunci când vine vorba de cariera ta înfloritoare. Eşti ca un pasager singur în drumul către o destinaţie foarte căutată, impresionantă, apreciată, dar neînsorită şi tristă. Iar viaţa ta seamănă în multe privinţe cu un film "plin de speranţă", dar la care nu se uită nimeni iar sala de cinema rămâne mereu pustie - fiindcă are acţiune, dar îi lipseşte povestea de dragoste.

Este şi cazul multimilionarului Edward Lewis – personajul principal din filmul " Pretty Woman (1990) ", despre care v-am mai povestit în articolele precedente. Viaţa lui era mai degrabă un du-te vino continuu. Mereu prins în vâltoarea luptei pentru mai bine, care l-ar fi putut duce mai aproape de împlinirea idealurilor sale înalte, el nu a avut timp să se preocupe de menţinerea unei vieţi personale cu adevărat satisfăcătoare.

Până în momentul când a întâlnit-o pe Vivian Ward, o prostituată de lux, pe care a angajat-o pe post de damă de companie. Deşi la început relaţia lor a fost doar una strict profesională, în timp, ea s-a transformat într-o frumoasă prietenie. Vorbind tot mai des unul cu celălalt despre viaţa lor, despre cum au devenit ceea ce erau - ea prostituată, el om de afaceri, vorbind despre visele lor, despre eşecurile dar şi despre succesele lor, au ajuns să se cunoască mai bine.

Leadership: Validezi fiecare experienţă pe care o trăieşti prin ceea ce eşti în exterior atunci când te apleci spre gustul dulce-acrişor de a trăi la "întâmplare" sau la nivel de "întreg" ?

Dacă îi înţelegi pe oameni, ai puterea să-i schimbi. Sufletul lui Edward era ca o casă goală, unde pe uşa de la intrare străjuia memorabila inscripţie: "Sunt plecat de acasă" . Dar, vrăjit de sentimentele lui Vivian, şi îndrăgostindu-se de ea, sufletul său s-a trezit din nou la viaţă. Starea lui de aşteptare a luat sfârşit. Ea a fost răspunsul la întrebările lui, dezvăluindu-i un nou aspect al vieţii, o nouă lume în care iubirea şi dăruirea erau cele mai demne şi mai frumoase virtuţi.

Concepţia lui Vivian despre Edward s-a schimbat în momentul în care şi-a dat seama cine este el cu adevărat. Era un om bun, un om care se dedicase cu adevărat carierei sale, aspirând spre cele mai înalte culmi. Dar care, însă, îşi pierduse aproape toată voioşia şi fericirea. Ea i-a înţeles toate trăirile interioare, toate frământările, toate "tainele" sale, şi-a dat seama de starea lui sufletească chiar dacă încerca să exprime altceva, i-a înţeles toate sensurile şi astfel a ştiut pe ce coardă să apese ca să-l sensibilizeze şi să-l schimbe complet.

A trăi la întâmplare înseamnă să nu acorzi atenţie lucrurilor care te atrag, să nu le experimentezi într-o manieră aproape de sufletul tău și plină de sens. În timp ce a trăi viaţa la nivel de "întreg" înseamnă să acorzi atenţie lucrurilor care te definesc sau cu care simți că te identifici, înseamnă să te pui într-un rol care, plăcându-ți, vei încerca să îți materializezi dorinţele fiind mai puţin motivat de dorinţa de putere şi faimă.

oamenilor.

Leadership: Poţi să te gândeşti la tine ca la un "dublu" al tău, fără să te conformezi unei imagini personale care tubura sufletul?

Teoria generală a leadershipului, a genezei şi structurii pe care el se bazează, expusă de mine în numeroase rânduri, implică perpetuu în dinamica sa existenţa sau inexistenţa unor raporturi, criterii, dovezi, împrejurări şi motive temeinice de schimbare, comune şi puternice luate ca referinţă. Ea se poate dovedi un reactiv ideal pentru a măsura gradul de fineţe şi adecvare al fiecărei persoane la exigenţele propriei stări de viaţă, într-o societate tot mai lipsită de promovarea adevăratelor valori.

Osmoza între diferitele nivele de angajament şi implicare, în vederea asigurării resurselor necesare supravieţuirii şi evoluţiei pe plan emoţional, nu doar material, oprindu-te din înaintarea pe drumul rătăcirii, îţi va îngădui să descoperi în propria persoană răspunsurile la gravele semne de întrebare ridicate cu privire la crearea unui nou setup al unităţii propriei fiinţe şi al unităţii propriei existenţe.

Dacă este să te gândeşti la tine ca la un soi de "dublu" al tău, ca o forţă magică de combatere radicală a ideilor strâmte şi înguste despre viaţă, escamotând reala concretitudine a emergenţei unor fenomene ale conştiinţei din ansamblul unor condiţii improprii de a fi măreţ în fapte şi în cuget, atunci poţi să înţelegi marea importanţă pe care trebuie s-o acorzi timpului vieţii prezente.

Acest "dublu" al tău, această privire în oglinda altei reflecţii, îţi oferă cheia la problemele interioare pe care le-ai evitat ani de-a rândul, focalizându-ţi mai bine atenţia asupra calităţilor pe care le adăposteşti adânc în tine. Dublul tău este experiența pe care o trăiești prin intermediul unui Alter-Ego care înregistrează doruri, destăinuiri, alinări, dezvăluind fațete diferite ale sufletului tău care te inspiră să venii mai bun, mai răbdător şi mai tolerant în relația cu ceilalți oameni.

Virtutea cea mai admirabilă a liderului este în strânsă legătură cu disponibilitatea de a te consacra unei vieţi spirituale care îşi caută materializarea în agățarea de aşa-zisele "acorduri de tranziţie" între ceea ce te reprezintă ca o versiune mai grandioasă a Sinelui tău şi ceea ce te reprezintă ca o entitate de omenie.

În romanul " Manon Lescaut ", Abatele Prevos a spus un lucru foarte frumos care mi-a rămas întipărit în memorie: " Nimic nu-i mai de admirat şi nu dă mai mult preţ virtuţii decât încrederea cu care baţi la poarta inimii unor oameni al căror caracter sincer îl cunoşti. "

Poţi determina apariţia unei încrederi reciproce dacă interacţionezi des cu oamenii şi numai dacă eşti împlinit sufleteşte. Dacă posezi calităţi personale potrivite, dacă te asemeni mult cu cei din jurul tău ca mentalitate, corectitudine şi implicare, ei se vor apropia de tine şi de aici vor fi mai dispuşi să te urmeze. Ca să exişti în sufletul oamenilor trebuie să te ancorezi adânc la realitatea lor, la valorile lor şi la sentimentele lor.

Realitatea benefică în care un lider se ancorează trebuie hrănită din acumularea unor lecţii de viaţă trăite după motto-ul: „Iertați-mă că exist, pot să fac ceva pentru dumneavoastră încât să ne fie bine amândurora?"

Cămăruţele sufletului controlează calitatea leadershipului tău, şi te protejează de duşmanii tăi cei mai aprigi: stresul, oboseala, depresiile, starea de anxietate, etc. Ele au suficientă putere ca să te ajute să te concentrezi asupra celor mai importante aspecte ale vieţii tale pe care din cauza unei vieţi profesionale încărcate se poate să le fi uitat. Ele te ajută să te regăseşti în tot ceea ce faci, în oamenii care te înconjoară. Te ajută să te recapeţi pe tine însuţi, servind ca adăpost în caz de pericol.

Rezultatele unui leadership de calitate depind şi de sentimentele reciproce ce se dezvoltă în urma unor colaborări mai îndelungate, deoarece vorbim de oameni şi nu de roboţi. O carieră nu poate fi desăvârşită atâta timp cât pe plan sentimental oamenii nu sunt împliniţi.

Când imaginile se mută în atenţia "ochiului minţii"

Tot ceea ce vezi trece prin filtrul a ceea ce simţi faţă de ceva care te face să gândeşti profund.

Mă plimb seara prin Parcul Expoziţiei (din Iaşi), fapt atât de sugestiv pentru un om ai cărui pasi sunt călăuziţi de acel conţinut sufletesc spiritual, dens, inerent încărcat cu o mare dragoste de natură. Alene, cu chef de admiraţie faţă de vederile pe care natura le-a presărat din loc în loc pentru a-mi hrăni sufletul, încerc să disting forme, trăsături, şi să creez ulterior imagini din care să-mi procur material nou de studiu în domeniul artei interpretative.

Tot ce e nou şi plăcut mă bucură. Tot ceea ce natura dă experienței personale este urmarea firească a ceea ce se întâmplă când imaginile care îmi apar înainte surprind tot felul de expresii, emoţii, trăiri. Iată ce observ cu atenţie de această dată. Pe una din bănci şade o pisică a cărei blană, crem şi negru, îmi stârneşte curiozitatea. Pare a fi acelaşi suflet liniştit şi blând care se lasă mângâiat de orice trecător, o formă de fiinţă a cărei acțiuni și aventuri au un sens simbolic dacă ştii să transformi ceva banal în ceva sugestiv.

Cu altă ocazie am văzut aceeaşi pisică în braţele vreunui trecător, alteori am văzut-o plimbându-se agale prin mijlocul oamenilor, dar de cele mai multe ori ea aşteaptă să fie mângâiata pe o bancă. Pe aceeaşi bancă. Toată lumea o place. Dar pisica nu schiţează un gest, nicio expresie a chipului ei nu poate fi definită exclusiv prin accident, rămâne doar o constatare de fapt. Ea nu este nici tristă, nici fericită, pare doar puţin amăgită de un simţământ al propriei importanţe, ca şi de-acela de a-şi plânge de milă. Nu se mişca din cauza plăcerii, a durerii sau a trecerii alternative de la una la cealaltă din aceste stări.

Pisica nu simte decât mângâierea delicată a oamenilor buni, fiindcă numai oamenii buni simt lacrimile nevăzute ale unui suflet care aşteaptă o mângâiere, dar şi adierea speranţei care îi străpunge inima.

Leadership: Poţi să redai în pozitivism ceea ce simţi cu adevărat atunci când dai sens celor văzute care surprind ceea ce nu se vede decât prin asemănare?

Aşadar, mintea-mi este chemată să dea un sens celor văzute, a celor nevăzute şi a celor simţite din întorsătura gândurilor care nu contenesc să surprindă un mesaj aparte: tot ceea ce văd trece prin filtrul a ceea ce simt faţă de ceva care mă face să gândesc profund.

Pur şi simplu n-am putut să rămân nepăsător faţă de micul suflet care parcă simţea apropierea paşilor mei. Ca şi când imaginea dinaintea mea ar fi percepută printr-o stare de suflet, nu-i aşa? Cu drag, plin de afecţiune faţă de ceva atât de fragil, m-am aşezat câteva minute lângă micuţa fiinţă. Atunci, ea s-a ridicat cu grijă din locul ei şi s-a ghemuit încet-încet la mine în braţe.

Vedeţi, sunt anumite imagini în care te regăseşti, care te liniştesc sufleteşte, care te fac să te redefineşti. Începi să te uneşti cu liniştea din interiorul tău. Nu trebuie să îţi afişezi sentimentele în cuvinte doar ca să înţelegi că ceea ce simte cineva pentru tine este ceea ce simţi tu pentru el. La fel îţi dai seama şi de sentimentele unui om drag, cu aceleaşi afinităţi. Când te apropii de el, se apropie şi el de tine, nu se îndepărtează de tine, şi nu te simţi îndepărtat de lângă el.

Simţi când cineva are suflet pentru tine... asta m-a învăţat, cel mai bine, o pisică.

În principiu, ceea ce trecem prin filtrul emoţiilor face parte din categoria celor simţite, a celor văzute cu forţa magiei care cumulează expresiv calităţile şi cerinţele trăirilor subiective menite să reflecte o oarecare putere asupra activităţii de cunoaştere. Or acum, mintea-mi conteneşte sensuri ale unei imagini profunde prin ceva aparte: gândurile gândesc oare ceea ce simt atunci când dau sens celor văzute care surprind ceea ce nu se vede decât prin asemănare?

Leadershipul este consecinţa unei stări de compatibilitate. Înseamnă să introduci în lumea trăirilor tale o imagine a cărei finalitate (previzibilă) este similară cu prelungirea unei stări de reflexie asupra sinelui.

Când imaginile se mută în atenţia "ochiului minţii", abia atunci poţi să desluşeşti mai uşor importanţa situaţiilor de viaţă care îţi creează stări emoţionale sau comportamentale.

Să nu uităm că, de la ascultare la învăţătură este doar o imagine ce surprinde acea ştiinţă a însufleţirii, fără de care scrisul, oricât de perfect ar fi el, nu ar putea să redea cu exactitate ceea ce gândeşte omul în inima lui.

Candidatul ideal la leadership

Înclinaţia pe care o ai spre leadership este determinată de atitudinea de protector şi îndrumător pe care o manifeşti faţă de ceilalţi.

În sprijinul acestei afirmaţii pe care deseori, cu o convingere şi o fermitate foarte serioasă am emis-o atât în cărţile cât şi în articolele mele despre leadership, vine o întâmplare deosebit de interesantă din filmul " Pretty woman ", pe care îl găsesc drept unul din cele mai concludente lecţii de leadership.

Sfârşitul filmului este unul plin de învăţăminte, o reflectare a unei păreri generale, cred. După ce petrecuse o săptămână întreagă alături de controversatul om de afaceri Edward Lewis, şi după ce, datorită lui pătrunsese în saloanele cele mai exclusiviste ale înaltei societăţi, prostituata Vivian Ward, cucerită de paradisul noii lumi în care pătrunsese, se hotărăşte să-şi schimbe viaţa - să-şi continue studiile şi să-şi construiască o carieră.

Vivian stă de vorbă cu prietena ei, Kit De Luca, care de asemenea era prostituată, în speranţa că o va putea convinge să abandoneze acea "meserie" fără viitor, şi să plece cu ea în San Francisco, să-şi găsească un job ca lumea şi să-şi schimbe stilul de viaţă, adică modul de gândire şi atitudinea. Dar Kit nu este deschisă la schimbare, nu oricine îmbrăţişează şansa de îmbunătăţire a vieţii.

Vivian nu reuşeşte să o convingă, deoarece convingeriile lui Kit erau bine înrădăcinate şi cimentate, deci de nezdruncinat. Totusi, faptul că a încercat să-i schimbe acesteia convingeriile este o dovadă de mare preţuire, de respect, de o profundă sensibilitate faţă de problemele şi neajunsurile ei. Şi, în acelaşi timp, face dovada incontestabilă a frumuseţii ei interioare de invidiat, pentru care stă mărturie însuşi propriul ei suflet mărinimos şi bun.

Leadership: Traversezi experienţa de a te considera de neînvins în faţa unei demonstraţii de atitudine care începe cu o reflectare asupra unei dorinţe independente de ceilalţi şi se continuă cu predestinarea de a lăsa ceva în urma ta?

Parafrazându-l pe marele scriitor român Octavian Goga, spun că liderul este acel om care filtrează suferinţele şi problemele oamenilor prin sufletul lui, apoi le transformă într-o trâmbiţă de alarmă.

Leadershipul este semnalul de alarmă prin care le reaminteşti oamenilor necesitatea schimbării, este semnalul de alarmă prin care încerci să-i pui în gardă în legătură cu riscurile pe care le prezintă o mentalitate nesănătoasă. Vivian a lăsat în urma ei dovada că orice femeie poate arăta ca o prinţesă, că fiecare om are o stea norocoasă care îi călăuzeşte paşii în viaţă, iar această stea (ca o izbândă a luminii asupra întunericului, a binelui asupra răului) este reprezentată de momentul perfect de a permite unui nou orizont să se manifeste în existenţa ei.

Ca lider, trebuie să te concentrezi asupra mentalului şi sentimentelor oamenilor, căutând să aperi, chiar şi în condiţii vitrege, demnitatea, libertatea şi fericirea lor, propunându-le tot ce i-ar putea susţine în viaţa personală şi în carieră, îndemnându-i la acţiune, şi acţionând tenace şi responsabil întru promovarea intereselor lor.

Este o cumplită iluzie să crezi că leadershipul se reduce numai în a ocupa o poziţie importantă. Înseamnă să-ţi nesocoteşti misiunea, eficienţa şi posibilităţile. Căci un leadership de înaltă clasă se distinge, în primul rând, prin spiritualitatea înaltă de care dai dovadă. La rândul ei, spiritualitatea este o formă de a te dărui unei cauze măreţe atunci când te abandonezi unei alte persoane decât sine, datorită felului în care te distanţezi de un context de viaţă nefericit, menit să-ţi solicite limitele.

Încercând să fii folositor înainte de orice, luptând să împlineşti visul oamenilor, impunându-te prin acea nobleţe lăuntrică care se manifestă prin capacitatea de a te arăta cu adevărat interesat de valorile lor, de speranţele lor, de viitorul lor, vei deveni fără doar şi poate un deschizător de drumuri.

Leadership: Cât este important modul cum reacţionezi la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, în măsura în care eşti constrâns să mergi pe aceeaşi linie în termeni de profitabilitate?

Kit s-a abătut de la drumul lui Vivian fiindcă gândea totul în termeni de profitabilitate, dar mai ales fiindcă nu ştia cum să reacţioneze la ce îi pune viaţa în cale pe neaşteptate. Ea îşi aprecia viaţa în funcţie de lucrurile trecătoare, fără să-şi cristalizeze preferinţele ca o reflectare a unei lumi ideale, deci mizând mai mult pe o anumită doză de indiferenţă faţă de marile speranţe, faţă de normele impuse de societate pentru a putea să se dedice realizării interioare.

Pe de altă parte, Vivian reprezintă o escaladare a confruntării cu propriile limite, miracolul cu care sunt înlocuite toate reproşurile unei conştiinţe care se străduieşte să pună raţiunea înaintea fanteziei. Vivian nu reprezintă o schimbare de perspectivă a propriei vieţi, nu este rezultatul unei lumi a perfecţiunii şi a purităţii spirituale, ci reprezintă predestinarea de a lăsa ceva în urma ei, o lecţie de viaţă pe care cel mai bine o găsim exprimată în romanul "Numele Trandafirului" de scriitorul "Umberto Eco"

"Trebuie să mărturisesc nenorocirea unei lumi care încărunţeşte. Tinereţea nu mai vrea să înveţe nimic, ştiinţa e în decădere, lumea întreagă umblă în cap, nişte orbi conduc alţi orbi şi-i fac să se prăbuşească în prăpastie. Slavă Domnului Dumnezeu că în acele vremuri am dobândit de la maestrul meu dorinţa de a învăţa şi înţelegerea căii adevărate, care se păstrează chiar şi când cărarea e întortocheată."

Există o anumită rigoare în aparenţa exterioară a vieţii lui Vivian, căci ea nu vede în lume manifestarea activă a unei nevoi fundamentale, temporară şi ireversibilă, nu se recomandă drept un aliat al unei realităţi care şi-a pierdut orice urmă de viaţă, ci reuşeşte să dea o interpretare evenimentelor care i se întâmplă, fapt ce o transformă într-un aliat al unei inimi sănătoase care s-a apropiat de o altă inimă care zvâcneşte nepotolit, tumultuos. Ea l-a cunoscut pe Edward Lewis, care nu este oricine, ci un salvator de viaţă dusă la întâmplare.

Instrumentul predestinării este şansa pe care ţi-o acorzi spre a-ţi testa limitele într-o situaţie în care profitabilitatea cade sub incidenţa evaluării gradului de "realizare interioară" adiacent sentimentului de responsabilizare faţă de soarta ta: „Nu ştiu de ce, dar vreau să fac asta”.

Candidatul ideal la leadership poti fi şi tu. Şi poate fi oricine care doreşte şi încearcă să schimbe în bine ceva în viaţa celorlalţi. Oferă-le oamenilor acea hrană spirituală autentică, consistentă, prin care să-şi schimbe atitudinea iar nivelul leadershipului tău va creşte. Felul în care înţelegi necesitatea de a fi mai bun cu cei din jurul tău, şi încercarea de a-i aduce şi pe alţii pe drumul cel bun te va transforma într-un magnet ce va atrage tot mai mulţi sustinători.

Dar trebuie să ai înclinaţiile necesare şi mai ales dorinţa de a fi un îndrumător pentru oameni, un apărător al drepturilor lor şi, în acelaşi timp, un modelator al mentalităţii lor - în scopul îmbunătăţirii vieţii lor şi realizării idealurilor lor.

Cântecul mierlei

Personalizează-ţi drumul spre tine însuţi, până ce izbuteşti să dezlegi cele mai obscure taine ale părţii reale din tine care te caracterizează.

Asemenea unui om copleşit de un simţământ tainic, ispitit de un fenomen necunoscut de care nu se poate debarasa, simţeam cum mă pierdeam într-o lume sfâşiată de contradicţii, un monde de nulle part , pe care n-o cunoşteam şi pe care n-o puteam stăpâni. Pledam în favoarea existenţei unei conştiinţe profunde, mistice, provenite parcă de pe un alt tărâm, dintr-o dimensiune diferită, dintr-un spaţiu nemăsurabil, dintr-un Avalon.

Probabil treceam printr-o transă de rutină. Ceva care se repeta ca un tipar, ca un refren obsesiv, ironic, cu tot felul de conotaţii, generând un mare amalgam de exagerări şi neadevăruri împletite cu concluzii eronate ce transmiteau o încărcătură emoţională aparte. Ca un fenomen de ectoplasmă: ceva părea să sălăşluiască în mine, emanând o anumită vibraţie. Un soi de forţă, o trăire intensă, o conştientizare de sine atât de rară, o virtute hotărâtoare care mă putea înălţa, sau dimpotrivă, care mă putea face knockout oricând. Nu mai credeam în înţelepciunea "Omului" din mine. Păream obosit, cu bateriile descărcate.

Ceea ce se petrecea era mai mult decât apariţia unei noi stări de conştiinţă, era un factor decisiv, declanşator, adânca povară a unei emoţii impetuoase şi nestingherite care s-a stins, luându-i locul o lecţie de viaţă. Evoluţia pusă faţă în faţă cu revoluţia responsabilizării individuale. Covârşitorul zbucium al unei întregi lumi, al unui întreg continuu schimbător, al unei vieţi trăite predominant prin ochii unui trecător care observă cealaltă faţă a lumii, marcată de o statornicie pentru unii greu de imaginat.

Leadership: Te pierzi într-o lume sfâşiată de contradicţii pe care n-o poţi stăpâni, în încercarea de a-ţi contura o altă perspectivă asupra vieţii sub forma unei stări de spirit care este "începutul eliberării de orice contradicţii" ?

Odată cu fiecare intrare în "transă", odată cu fiecare mare străpungere a unei forme de cunoaştere profundă, se conturau alte întrebări fără răspuns. Raţiunea se lăsa atinsă, aproape biruită, de patima vidului propriilor mele dileme și contradicţii spontane. Esenţa propriei mele existenţe fiind condiţionată de un alt mod de a interpreta realitatea. O singură contradicţie îmi punea la grea încercare gândirea şi trăirile: că aş putea să observ partea nevăzută a unei lumi, fără să o cunosc atât de bine.

Şi numai realitatea, acel "cântec" declanşator de schimbări pozitive, de viziuni mai largi, a cărui compoziţie era mai mult sau mai puţin asemănătoare cu a altcuiva, şi al cărui mesaj puternic mă trezea din transă, mă făcea să mă simt bine cu mine însumi şi să dau noi valenţe vieţii. Mai reale, mai cuprinzătoare, mai puţin particulare. Cântecul, reflectând totodată starea mea sufletească, era concluzia unei vieţi întregi, dintr-un alt punct de vedere.

Fusese ceva în transformarea mea, asemănător cu zbuciumul unei păsări închise în colivie care se izbeşte cu încăpăţânare de gratiile ei până când reuşeşte să recâştige văzduhul. O mierlă îşi poate recuceri libertatea numai cu cântecul ei.

Leadership: Urmezi o anumită cale pentru a ajunge la natura ta, transformându-te într-un trecător care observă cealaltă faţă a lumii sale?

Steve Farber, fost vicepreşedinte al companiei Tom Peters, susţinea că adevăratul leadership constă în reîntoarcerea la o serie de principii simple care au fost trecute cu vederea în contextul competiţiei acerbe din lumea afacerilor.

Iar eu, aş adăuga cu toată încrederea că lecţiile de viaţă pe care le primeşti din confruntarea cu tine însuţi, reprezintă primul pas spre realizarea unei construcţii durabile a unei lumii pe care nu o ştii, dar o simţi şi o nădăjduieşti.

Un lider este asemenea unui trecător care observă cealaltă faţă a lumii sale, comparând-o cu lumea din jurul său. Leadershipul, se apleacă, deci, cu egal interes asupra omului ca o sumă indivizibilă de caracteristici şi valori pe care le poate deprinde de la el însuşi, prin auto-observaţie, prin practicarea unui auto-control al manifestărilor sale.

În leadership, unitatea evolutivă este "Omul", care la rândul său reprezintă forţa concentrată a unei cunoaşteri profunde, perfectă, cauzativă, asumată existenţial, potrivită progresului său.

Ştim poate ce înseamnă fericirea sau tristeţea, am gustat râsul şi plânsul, dar încă nu ştim prea multe despre resorturile primare, cele mai subtile, ale propriei noastre fiinţe. Suntem ceea ce suntem la capătul unei serii de evenimente. Iar leadershipul este mai degrabă ultimul punct al propriei noastre ascensiuni. Dar şi cel mai mare obstacol.

Leadership: Suporţi consecinţa întrebărilor esențiale care provoacă răspunsuri de impact și generează schimbare, contribuind astfel la transformarea ta dintr-un om derutat de numeroase contradicţii într-un exemplu reprezentativ al convergenţelor dintre părţile întregului?

În urmă cu mai bine de trei secole, Francis Bacon sublinia că adevărul reiese mai uşor din erori decât din confuzii. Sunt de acord cu acest lucru. Căci o eroare a propriei tale perspective, descoperită la timp, se poate remedia prin resetarea propriului tău fel de a fi. Pe când o confuzie te poate duce într-o stare continuă de tensiune, de nedumerire totală, ca într-o transă hipnotică în care controlul conştient asupra faptelor tale este considerabil diminuat.

Toate progresele îi sunt deschise omului, în afară de unul singur, pe care, parcă constant îl defavorizează sau îl agravează: tranziţia de la simplu la complex. Adevărul despre cine eşti şi cine poţi deveni, iese la iveală atunci când te conectezi la propria ta natură, când te eliberezi din colivia incertitudinilor care îţi învăluie perspectivele. Şi, mai ales, dacă nu te pierzi într-o lume sfâşiată de contradicţii. Mă refer aici la o evoluţie pusă faţă în faţă cu revoluţia responsabilizării individuale.

Întregul căruia i se subordonează toate acţiunile cu impact asupra rezultatelor căutărilor tale, frământări şi visări, are ca valoare de referinţă aprecierea subiectivă a circumstanţelor care formează conţinutul vieţii tale.

Leadership: Care este "refrenul" pe care îl simţi constant în viaţa ta, în drumul spre excelenţă, aşa încât să-ţi poţi demonstra apartenenţa la existenţa unui sine multiplu, atât episodic, cât şi narativ, aceste două ipostaze ale sinelui nefiind nicidecum într-un raport de opoziție, ci de complementaritate?

Suntem tot mai mult interesaţi de trendurile şi evoluţia tehnologiei, de factorii care influenţează afacerile de mâine, decât de noi înşine. Ar trebui să ne reîntoarcem, nu-i aşa, la o serie de principii simple care au fost trecute cu vederea în contextul existenţei unui ceva diferit de noi şi afară de noi. De exemplu la principiul sinelui multiplu, care spune: "Să trăieşti ca şi când ai fi altcineva este acelaşi lucru ca atunci când construieşti o nouă lume care îţi serveşte numai ţie."

Te laşi ispitit de un „necunoscut” de care nu te poţi debarasa? Simţi cum te pierzi într-o lume sfâşiată de contradicţii pe care n-o poţi stăpâni? Cum interpretezi propria ta realitate? În ce fel îţi condiţionează realitatea esenţa propriei tale personalităţi? Continui să-ţi mobilizezi acea parte reală din tine, sau continui să hrăneşti dorinţele sau nevoile unui „sine fals”, a unui „sine trunchiat”?

Ce “cântec” te caracterizează? Cum poţi ajusta cântecul astfel încât să obţii refrenul? Care este “refrenul” pe care îl simţi constant în viaţa ta, în drumul spre excelenţă? Te supui inconştient unor reguli ce transformă libertatea ta de “a fi” într-un perimetru închis? Ce efect exercită propriul tău fel de a fi asupra leadershipului pe care îl practici?

Un sine care cercetează lumea din jur ca o privire aruncată spre un mod unic de a se exprima, prin care transmite emoţie celor din jur şi totodată îşi linişteşte sufletul, este un sine eliberat de povara apăsătoare a îndoielii faţă de propria lui valoare.

Cântecul mierlei este o metaforă revelatorie care semnifică ideea unei eliberări din colivia aparenţelor şi a incertitudinilor legate de natura personalităţii tale. Libertatea de-a evada este rară, uneori imposibilă. Dar refuzul de a recunoaşte cheia şi de a deschide poarta spre un alt fel de “a fi”, te va conduce spre o ruină perpetuă, putând oricând a face knockout evoluţia ta ca “om”, nu doar ca “lider”.

Personalizează-ţi drumul spre tine însuţi, până ce izbuteşti să dezlegi cele mai obscure taine ale părţii reale din tine care te caracterizează.

Capacitatea compozitorului de a pătrunde esenţa imaginii cinematografice

Abordările creative în explorarea sensibilității emoționale permit regizorului să creeze o expresie vizuală ce îmbogățește experiența cinematografică.

Şi apoi, da, da, acest compozitor, cel mai cerebral dintre compozitorii contemporani, are o inimă, şi încă una fierbinte. Soţia sa relata câtă sensibilitate se ascundea în acest artist extrem de impresionabil, în ce măsură lectura acestei cărţi îl putea duce la identificarea cu personajele ei, suferind o dată cu ele, adeseori cu lacrimi în ochi. Iar în acei ani dificili, îşi aminteşte Ehrenburg, compozitorul era trist, chiar mohorât, spunându-i odată: "Acum trebuie să lucrezi. Numai să lucrezi ! Acesta este refugiul..."

Eisenstein îl preţuieşte în cel mai înalt grad. Vede în compoziţiile lui stilul laconic şi precis al lui Stendhal, care...nu poate fi comparat decât cu Stendhal. Îl fascinează capacitatea compozitorului de a pătrunde esenţa imaginii cinematografice. Este un fenomen pe care încearcă să-l înţeleagă, să-i pătrundă secretul, mecanismul. Şi se amuză de coincidenţa nedumeririi şoferului său care-i declara într-o zi: "Înţeleg acum cum se fac filmele. Despre asta ştiu tot. Un singur lucru nu înţeleg: nu-mi dau seama cum scrie Sergheevici muzica. Asta n-o pricep de loc."

Leadership: Poți să-ți strecori amprenta subtilă a viziunii tale în fiecare cadru al operei tale, armonizând imaginile provenite din stimulii vizuali la lungimea de undă a caracterului tău?

Deși fenomenul cinematografic sugerează de multă vreme ideea obţinerii unor imagini ce pot fi păstrate în memoria timpului, deși, pe măsură ce se dezvoltă tehnologia și se perfecţionează "producţia" de filme, se resimte din ce în ce mai mult nevoia inventării unui procedeu care să permită înregistrarea actuală a "sensibilităţii" regizorului, nu doar a personajelor. Procedeele inovatoare în film oferă noi posibilități pentru transmiterea emoțiilor regizorului, aşa încât imaginile diferitelor scene din film, încurajatoare prin mesajul transmis, să fie obţinute prin culori mai puţin intense, cu excluderea pe cât posibil a albului şi negrului.

O dată cu puternica dezvoltare a științelor naturii, se dezvoltă şi ştiinţa cinematografiei. Regizorul selectează elementele şi le dă un chip nou, armonizat, pe lungimea de undă a caracterului său. Aşa cum fiecare pictor lasă o mică semnătură personală în colțul tabloului, dar care nu poate fi sesizată decât cu ochiul format al unui expert, tot așa regizorul își strecoară amprenta subtilă în fiecare cadru, lăsându-și semnătura prin detalii fine și decizii estetice bine gândite.

Leadership: Incursiunea ta pe tărâmul mirabil al imaginarului îți permite să armonizezi imaginile vieţii cu sensibilitatea propriei personalități, pentru a scoate din sine esența unei experiențe vizuale profunde?

Astfel, în anul său de glorie, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein evidențiază și cercetează proprietatea unor substanțe chimice de a-și schimba culoarea sub acțiunea luminii. Până la urmă, reușește să introducă numeroase efecte scenice în cinematografie, cu ajutorul unei metode de explorare a sensibilității sale, anume printr-o tematică bogată ancorată în operele înaintașilor ruşi, despre pentru care nutrea o stimă deosebită. Înregistrarea sensibilității regizorului aduce o dimensiune autentică filmelor.

Totodată, el a explorat sensibilitatea propriei personalități prin intermediul cinematografiei, printr-o incursiune analitică pe tărâmul mirabil al imaginarului, făcând ca propria imaginație să devină un instrument de povestire vizuală profundă și inovatoare. Cercetările și inovațiile regizorului au fost reluate mai târziu de către alți cineaști; ele s-au concentrat pe schimbările de culoare sub acțiunea armonizării iluminării și pe punerea în contact a modelelor de personaje sensibilizate "la lumină" cu ajutorul efectelor cromatice, precum filtrele de culoare sau tehnici speciale de expunere. Imaginile obținute pe aceste căi păreau să fie impregnate cu un rafinament vizual ce oferea o experiență cinematografică deosebită.

Exprimarea vizuală a sensibilității îmbogățește substanțial experiența emoțională, numai dacă creația finală evidențiază o temă vizuală care rezonează cu publicul.

Capacitatea compozitorului de a pătrunde esența imaginii cinematografice se referă la sensibilitatea sa în a surprinde subtilitățile emoționale prin muzică sau prin efecte de scenă care reflectă, în primul rând, propria lui personalitate. Abordările creative în explorarea emoțiilor conduc la inovații vizuale remarcabile. Numaidecât, exprimarea vizuală necesită o abordare creativă pentru a comunica eficient emoțiile dorite.

Capcanele amăgirii

Apucă-te să-ţi cureţi de impurităţi atitudinea de om atotcunoscător şi fă-o să lucească în felul în care poţi să dai sens evoluţiei tale interioare.

Vreau să exprim într-un mod inovativ relația mărginitului cu nemărginitul, reprezentată printr-un număr π , după toate probabilităţile unei legi moralizatoare scoase din gândirea unui titan de pe tărâmul înalt al ştiinţei. Dar numai eu știu ce spun, nimeni nu mă înțelege. Doar frunza ce cade vestejită în urma mea, în alinarea vântului de toamnă târzie, pe care nu o mai pot prinde din mers, poate să anuleze efectul stării de amăgire profundă.

Ştiinţa este cel mai puternic resort al dominaţiei asupra învăţării, închinată idealului de a cuprinde totul, de la fiecare adiere de vânt, până la cel mai înalt val al unui tsunami, expusă invaziei imaginaţiei pe care o putem numi „divină”. Dar nimeni nu este în stare să construiască temelia adevărului în afară de Dumnezeu. Niciodată un muritor nu va putea să reconstituie din cioburi întregul. De va găsi cineva întregul său oglindit în cioburi, acela va fi un Sfânt !

Pe vremuri, dacă un om era trăsnit de fulger și nu murea pe loc, era îngropat în pământ ca să se scurgă din el toată electricitatea. În acest timp, el nu avea voie să doarmă pentru că ar fi murit imediat. Inima i-ar fi slăbit…

Prin prezenţa mea între aceste rânduri, substituită unui parcurs care adună victorii în faţa determinării de a înţelege experimental această lume, ţin să anunţ că nu, nu am murit. Ci m-am trezit dintr-un somn al veşniciei, al erorilor infinite, al ştiinţei înşelătoare.

Acum, nu mai sunt însufleţit de nimic când vine vorba de a cunoaşte necunoscutul și de a-l determina pe axa evoluţiei, când vine vorba de această obligaţie de conformare – cu imperativele instanţei numite cercetare – la cerinţele unei vieți apropiate de relaţia cu mine, cu lumea şi graniţele ei.

Leadership: Trebuie să te îndepărtezi de poarta marii științe pentru a-ți întări dominaţia asupra stimei de sine?

Acţiunea posesorie asupra descoperirilor realizate cu ajutorul ştiinţei, influențată de starea interioară a individului, stimulează posibilitatea de a reface acea primordialitate a suportului asupra demersului de optimizare a echilibrului personalităţii sale – încă nedesăvârşite.

Totodată, acțiunea de aplicare a unor legi de constituire a unui întreg ştiinţific care să-l împlinească pe subiect mai adânc, care să-i acopere golul pe care îl are – datorat insuficienţei de a ajunge din poziţia de spectator în cea de participant la evoluţie, este pusă la îndemâna lui pentru a-şi apăra starea de spirit care-l face să se simtă important și superior.

Leadershipul se definitivează prin măsura întăririi dominaţiei asupra stimei de sine, care se poate realiza numai prin ponderarea dorinței de a fi superior. Ceea ce implică uneori îndepărtarea de poarta marii științe. Înşelătoare este știința care îți permite să cunoști fenomenele și tehnologiile, dar nu-ți permite să te înțelegi pe tine.

Dezvoltarea personală depinde de imaginea pe care ţi-o faci mai ales atunci când există o concordanţă între posesia cunoaşterii și stima de sine care vine prin aspectele sociale, emoţionale şi condiționale de viață. Posesia cunoaşterii poate deveni rodul unor tulburări de conştiinţă, putând oferi motivaţii delirante de trăi și de a te raporta la lume.

A şti să identifici şi să exprimi ceea ce gândeşti înseamnă să pledezi în favoarea unei experienţe de găsire a adevărurilor ce fac posibil compromisul dintre imagina de sine şi întregul ştiinţific pe care îl reprezinţi.

În Capcanele amăgirii intră toţi oamenii care au atins un nivel foarte înalt de cunoaştere. Dar liderul extraordinar nu este un rob al ştiinţei. El se conformează unui statut de persoană responsabilă pentru propria decădere sau pentru propriul progres, urmând întotdeauna crezul, ca pe o expresie concentrată a credinţei faţă de propriul lui bine: „Nu pot să exist fără mine.”

Capitolul întâi al leadershipului

Poţi influenţa în bine modul în care te percep ceilalţi, doar dacă te ridici la înălţimea idealurilor lor spirituale şi morale.

Aş dori în acest articol să vă mai relatez un aspect important din filmul „ Prinţul deşertului (1991) ”. Tom Burton, fost agent CIA, trebuia să se infiltreze în oaza Beni-Zairilor din deşertul Sahara, şi să-l recupereze pe Robert Sanders, fiul influentei femei de afaceri Catherine Sanders.

Pentru aceasta Tom se dădu drept traficant de arme şi împreună cu James Ross, unul din membrii echipei sale, se înfăţişă înaintea puternicului emir Beni-Zair. Trebuiau să-şi aleagă cu grijă cuvintele. Un singur cuvânt nepotrivit, i-ar fi putut costa viaţa pe amândoi.

- Nobile prinţ al Draa, noi facem negoţ cu arme. Vindem celor mai buni cumpărători. În Ciad, Mali, în străvechiul ţinut al imperiului Songhai. Dacă am ascunde asta de tine, ţi-am insulta înţelepciunea. Dar nu vindem celor fără steag ori fără credinţă, cum ar fi Zeralzii…

La auzul acestor cuvinte, emirul, care-i cântărise bine din priviri pe amândoi, îşi schimbă întreaga atitudine. Radia o măreţie, o nobleţe calmă, o eleganţă solemnă, într-adevăr fără pereche. Ceva îi spunea că Tom şi James nu erau nişte traficanţi ordinari, fără scrupule, fără suflet, pe care nu-i interesa cine cumpăra de la ei. Ci respectau o anumită etică, o onoare a lor, şi chiar un cumul de valori ridicat la grad de religie; exista şi la ei totuşi un cod care ţinea de credinţă, şi de ordine.

Leadership: Potenţialul tău de a-ţi atinge scopurile este limitat de rezultatele obţinute care au un impact concludent privind acumularea dovezilor în privinţa integrităţii tale?

Întotdeauna vei fi martor la o negociere ce se pretinde a fi în folosul vicleniei, dar şi în folosul tratativelor care pot face din diplomaţie o adevărată artă. Poţi influenţa în bine modul în care te percep ceilalţi, doar dacă te ridici la înălţimea idealurilor lor spirituale şi morale. Tom şi James au dovedit acest lucru.

Câştigarea încrederii liderului este întotdeauna un proces de negociere. Vei lua parte la o „negociere" ori de câte ori îţi vei manifesta dorinţa de a te integra în cercul de prieteni al liderului, sau în echipa sa. Pentru ca această negociere să aibă lor şi să fie încununată cu succes, tu trebuie să sprijini gândurile liderului, iar el trebuie să te trateze ca şi când ai acţiona cu bună-credinţă. Cu alte cuvinte, liderul trebuie să înţeleagă poziţia ta (pe măsura gândurilor, principiilor şi moralităţii tale), să o compare cu a lui şi în final să o accepte, sau nu.

Un personaj dintr-o operă a scriitorului Mika Waltari spunea: „Suflă bine pentru a se risipi pleava şi păstrează doar grăunţele bune". Acesta era un fel de-a spune că nu toţi oamenii sunt de încredere, şi că numai cei bun trebuie aleşi şi păstraţi.

Leadership: Activitatea desfăşurată de tine sub egida unei singure entităţi de tip "sunt acelaşi" ar putea fi extinsă prin includerea unui rol de investigaţie cu privire la ce poţi să obtiii atunci când captezi atenţia cuiva, dar nu ai mari aşteptări de la el?

Dovada în privinţa integrităţii tale se obţine prin intermediul cunoaşterii pe care ceilalţi o caută la tine şi pe care o propui drept scop principal al vieţii tale. Dar, totodată, şi viclenia cere acelaşi tip de garanţie. Prin urmare, ce anume face diferenţa între integritate şi viclenie? Ei bine, diferenţa o face apropierea dintre trecutul și prezentul pe care oamenii îl percep ca pe un simbol al eforturilor comune de a atinge un anumit obiectiv.

Obligaţia ta de lider este să cântăreşti oamenii. Să filtrezi sentimentele şi emoţiile lor prin prisma raţiunii, prin prisma valorilor tale personale, în care crezi şi pe care le respecţi. Exact aşa cum a făcut puternicul emir Beni-Zair.

După cum scopul suprem al unui fotograf este să asigure imaginilor sale o expunere adevărată, în faţa unui public care să se întrebe: "De ce?" - tot aşa scopul tău suprem trebuie să fie acela de a creşte şi de a asigura calitatea relaţiilor cu ceilalţi oameni, dar nu înainte de a-i cunoaşte, nu înainte de a te întreba: „De ce?”

Nu poţi să-i accepţi pe oameni în jurul tău dacă nu-i înţelegi, nu-i aşa? Nu poţi să le acorzi un minim de încredere dacă ei nu au o oarecare înrâurire asupra inimii tale, dacă viziunea lor nu corespunde valorilor după care te ghidezi tu în viaţă. Judecă asupra valorilor oamenilor înainte de a face pasul spre un nivel mai înalt de apropiere.

Leadershipul este acordul dintre ceea ce eşti capabil să înfăptuieşti şi ceea ce poţi păstra cu drag în sufletul tău atunci când eşti supus la încercarea de a accesa zonele de interes ale celorlalţi oameni.

Capitolul întâi al leadershipului constituie baza de la care se poate construi o relaţie. Iar procesul stabilirii relaţiilor nu se desfăşoară întotdeauna foarte rapid. Mai întâi are loc „deschiderea”, aici se poate vorbi de o comunicare continuă, dar subtilă, codată, în care fiecare surprinde la celălalt mai degrabă ce se ascunde în spatele cuvintelor. Dacă liderul intuieşte caracteristicile complete ale celuilalt, şi dacă va fi mulţumit de calităţile sale, abia atunci se va putea produce o apropiere.

În leadership, în primul rând trebuie să ştii să cunoşti oamenii, ceea ce presupune dezvoltarea relaţiilor de colaborare şi socializare permanentă. Învaţă să observi comportamentul oamenilor, atitudinea lor şi în acelaşi timp, învaţă să interpretezi mimica, gesturile, cuvintele şi chiar tăcerile lor. Fii deschis faţă de ei, receptiv la ideile lor, pentru ca la rândul tău să fii demn de încrederea lor.

Poţi influenţa modul în care eşti perceput de ceilalţi, numai dacă te ridici la înălţimea aşteptărilor şi idealurilor lor.

Captiv într-un roman de maturitate

Croieşte-ţi un drum propriu al cunoaşterii umane, căutând calea de mijloc între timp şi urmarea unor situaţii ce nu pot fi explicate decât ca fiind nişte percepţii false a unei lumi prezente.

Totul părea a se manifesta în deplinătatea capacităţii mele de a duce la bun sfârşit un lucru pe care alţii doar îl visează sau îl ţin secret, în modul în care albinele prelucrează nectarul, adică printr-un fel de atracţie dintre o sursă de energie interminabilă - hrană vie pentru o minte care caută, nu una care doar se întreabă - şi fluxul vectorului de stare care impulsionează fiinţele spre acţiune. Dar, de ce-mi ieşea în cale această obligaţie responsabilă încleştată cu disperare de gânduri şi emoţii străine mie?

La mijloc era vocea cea mai profundă, lăuntrică, care-mi şoptea tot felul de modificări revelatoare cu acea fineţe a ceasornicarului ce are la dispoziţie numai lama obişnuită a unui briceag pentru a finisa piesele prelucrate brut. Constant, ea îmi arăta calea de mijloc între timp şi urmarea unor situaţii ce nu pot fi explicate decât ca fiind nişte iluzii, percepţii false ale unei lumi prezente, în numele trecutului şi viitorului, strecurate prin desişul meandrelor şi întortochelilor sufleteşti.

Mă simţeam cumva captiv într-un roman de maturitate a lui Dumas. Eroul său răscolea cu fineţe şi cu o înţelegere fantastică sufletele înalte şi cele mai joase, până la cele mai ascunse gânduri, până la ultima celulă a fericirii sau nefericii lor. După ce lucra cu puteri demiurgice în întreaga lor complexitate, le arunca în experienţe însufleţitoare, redându-le acea valoare pe care timpul le-a răpit-o, aprinzând din nou în ei scânteia vieţii. Altora le transmitea lecţia obiectivă a pedepsirii divine în funcţie de gradul lor de culpă.

Reversul acestei determinări cauzale îl constituia temerea de a accede spre o înlocuire a puterii de înţelegere cu supremaţia legilor nescrise ale leadershipului, în frământările căutărilor de afirmare. Plin de însufleţire, uitasem să respect arta reuşitei de a fi eu însumi o carte.

Leadership: Porneşti în căutarea a CEVA ce îţi doreşti să schimbi la o lume trăitoare prin tot ceea ce ascunde, în genul unei povestiri relatată într-o carte ce poate fi citită aşa cum ai încerca să desprinzi un copil de vise?

Întotdeauna stăpânirea a ceea ce se cere a fi manifestat, cuprins şi stăpânit cu întreaga pricepere, într-un câmp al efectului de cauză, chiar şi în limitele mişcătoare ale imaginaţiei, este o experienţă la fel de spectaculoasă precum reuşita de a răscoli sufletele şi de a produce emoţii. Dar tot atât de îndoielnică şi greu de prelucrat.

Leadershipul nu se separă de ceea ce se cere a fi stăpânit atunci când nu se cunosc coordonatele punctelor de intersecţie dintre „ascuns" şi „dezvăluit". De fapt, leadershipul este ca o carte pe care pe măsură ce o citeşti porneşti tu însuţi într-o căutare a deznodământului, simţi nevoia să faci o analiză a propriilor trăiri, să te compari cu alte versiuni ale tale şi nu o laşi din mână până n-o termini. Leadershipul este un produs al propriei tale minţi care prinde viaţă ca urmare a experienţei tale de a asimila alte manifestări, doar să le observi şi să încerci să le înţelegi cauzele, mecanismele, sentimentele implicate, astfel încât să poţi deveni altcineva.

Parcurgerea unei cărţi, stăpânirea unei construcţii de mari dimensiuni care ascunde adevărata faţă a ceea ce este important de evaluat la un anumit tipar de gândire, trăire, acţiune şi comunicare, produce o ruptură de vechile canoane în anumite faze ale încercării de a te cunoaşte mai bine. Dar, presupune şi o reprezentare despre transcendenţa absolută a unui autor pe temeiul unor însuşiri false sau secundare pe care le găsim adeseori la oamenii simpli, lipsiţi de educaţie, dar având „şcoala vieţii".

În acest caz, individul şi lumea lui vor fi substituite de aşa-zisa împuternicire a închipuitului, o cunoaştere experimentală dezvoltată pe baza estimării gândurilor şi emoţiilor în situaţiile impresionante ale unui personaj care se confundă cu autorul cărţii. Ţinând cont de faptul că el se reinventează constant printr-o serie de roluri de întindere relativ redusă, dintre care merită să fie abordate doar cele active şi responsabile, putem avea sentimentul că prezentul se derulează paralel cu trecutul sau cu viitorul şi că lucrurile efectiv pot fi controlate.

Leadership: Subiectele care pot fi abordate în confirmarea unei cărţi cu adevărat valoroase pot transforma schimbarea dorită în ceva care se întâmplă printr-un efort de redare a unor imagini care doar se pretind a fi reale?

Aşadar, cine intenţionează să se valorizeze în ipostaza de om al schimbării, în deplinătatea capacităţilor sale de înţelegere a tot ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul său, prin tot ceea ce a fost şi este ascuns, neputând fi decât intuit, mai întâi de toate trebuie să facă loc închipuitului să se manifeste. Cartea care îţi construieşte personalitatea este un cumul de subiecte captivante, abordate prin intermediul trăirilor cele înalte şi mai aprinse, care travareseaza realitatea spre vis. De fapt, o carte devine valoroasă tocmai prin identificarea asemănării dintre ceea ce e trecător şi ceea ce e definitiv.

Imaginile care se pretind a fi reale dintr-o carte care te ţine cu sufletul la gură, absorbindu-te cu totul în povestea ei, dintr-o carte care te învață să creezi tot felul de scurtături către viața pe care ți-o dorești, pot fi rezultatul unor percepţii false asupra lumii prezente, în numele trecutului şi viitorului, strecurate prin desişul meandrelor şi întortochelilor sufleteşti. Ai grijă cum incorporezi aceste imagini în contextul unei realităţi care există dincolo de ceea ce crezi că este realitatea.

Căutând un drum propriu al cunoaşterii unei lumi trăitoare prin tot ceea ce ascunde, oscilând între graniţele imaginaţiei sau a CEVA ce îţi doreşti să schimbi la ea, vei reuşi să te încadrezi mai uşor în tiparele impuse de o viziune care depăşeşte imediatul. Omul este un martor al adevărului, dar în acelaşi timp un tărâm al iluziei şi al înşelării pe care „imediatul" nu-l poate identifica ca fiind o determinantă a stabilităţii sau a potenţialului său de evoluţie.

Nu poţi cuprinde cu raţiunea şi cu sufletul o lume aparte, urmărind dintre numeroasele direcţii de investigare ce vin în prelungirea acestui fir roşu al destinului numit efect (prin cunoaştere şi descoperire, prin experiment şi prin monitorizarea profunzimii trăirilor care însoţesc indivizii) decât dacă adaugi la reflecţiile tale despre însemnătate şi rânduială conştiinţa unei discrepanţe între fapte şi realitate. Dar, astfel, binemeritata imaginaţie poate aduce mai degrabă cu iluzia. Ai grijă în ce te încrezi !

Leadershipul este o carte ce are răbdare să reconstituie o lume din detalii prin identificarea asemănării dintre ceea ce e trecător şi ceea ce e definitiv.

Captiv într-un roman de maturitate devine fiecare aspirant la statutul de lider care încearcă să realizeze legătura dintre o lume a simplei aparenţe, o lume a prejudecăţilor şi o lume a adevărului.

Dacă vrei să-ţi croieşti un drum propriu al cunoaşterii umane, încearcă să găseşti calea de mijloc între timp şi urmarea unor situaţii ce nu pot fi explicate decât ca fiind nişte iluzii, percepţii false a unei lumi prezente, în numele trecutului şi a viitorului, strecurate prin desişul meandrelor şi întortochelilor sufleteşti. Poţi?

Captiv între datorie şi Dumnezeu

On Februarie 12, 2018

Testează-ţi măsura credinţei, impunând existenţei tale traiectoria spre accesul la un nou mod de a-ţi manifesta potenţialul.

Zărindu-l pe abate, Villefort îşi duse mâna la frunte. Trecutul îi reveni în minte, ca unul dintre valurile a căror mânie face să se înalţe mai multă spumă decât celelalte valuri.

- Dumneata, aici? întrebă Villefort. Observ că nu te iveşti niciodată decât ca să însoţeşti Moartea.

- Am venit aici să vă spun că mi-aţi plătit îndeajuns datoria şi că, începând din clipa de faţă, am să-l rog pe Dumnezeu să se mulţumească, asemeni mie, cu această răzbunare.

- Doamne ! făcu Villefort trăgându-se înapoi cu spaimă în ochi. Vocea asta nu e a abatelui Busoni !

Abatele îşi smulse peruca falsă, îşi clătină capul, şi lungul lui păr negru, nemaifiind strâns, îi căzu pe umeri, încadrându-i figura bărbătească.

- Vai, nu ! E chipul contelui de Monte-Cristo ! strigă Villefort cu privirea rătăcită.

Leadership: Viaţa ta a ajuns o formă de manifestare a unui tip de putere oglindită într-o imagine care contează mai mult decât realitatea?

- N-aţi ghicit, domnule procuror general. Căutaţi mai bine şi mai departe.

- Vocea asta ! Vocea asta ! Unde am auzit-o prima dată? Nu eşti Busoni? Nu eşti Monte Cristo? Doamne, eşti duşmanul acela ascuns, neclintit, ucigător ! Ţi-am făcut vreun rău la Marsilia? Nefericitul de mine ! Ce ţi-am făcut? strigă Villefort a cărui minte plutea la limita unde judecata şi nebunia se confundă, în ceaţa care nu este nici vis şi nici trezire. Ce ţi-am făcut? Spune ! Vorbeşte !

- M-ai osândit la o moarte înceată şi înfiorătoare, m-ai ucis tatăl, mi-ai răpit dragostea odată cu libertatea şi norocul odată cu dragostea !

- Cine eşti? Cine eşti ? Doamne !

- Sunt spectrul unui nenorocit pe care l-ai înmormântat în celulele castelului d'If. Spectrului acestuia, ieşit în sfârşit din mormânt, Dumnezeu i-a pus o mască pe obraji şi l-a făcut conte de Monte Cristo, acoperindu-l de giuvaieruri şi de aur ca să nu-l poţi recunoaşte decât astăzi ! Sunt un paravan al moralei ! Sunt acel Edmond Dantes, căruia tinereţea i-a fost spulberată de egoismul, nepăsarea, viclenia fiinţei tale, cel căruia numai Dumnezeu însăşi i-a putut oferi incomensurabila iscusinţă de a folosi cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă ca unealtă a judecăţii Sale cele mai severe pentru a-şi putea desfăşura în linişte, în ascuns, promisiunea răzbunării celor buni.

Leadership: Iei în calcul varianta negaţiei ataşamentului faţă de versiunea ta anterioară, sau îţi accepţi imaginea ce decurge din asocierea enigmatică a două realităţi incompatibile?

La modul spiritual, suntem responsabili de realitatea pe care o percepem pe fondul unor stări de conştiinţă în care se manifestă puterile unei gândiri axată pe cercetarea trecutului și valorizarea lui în noi orizonturi de interpretare și înţelegere a creaţiei universale numită: Dumnezeu.

La modul existenţei noastre în lume, jocul straniu al asocierilor între divin şi empiric ne permite să accesăm o realitate de care preferăm să ne ascundem, căci ni se pare imposibil de dură chiar şi pe ecranul cinematografului, în diverse plăsmuiri ale dorinţei de a trece dincolo de graniţele conştiinţei obişnuite.

Această realitate secundară se numeşte: Interdicţie. Ne este interzis să acceptăm o altă nuanţă a adevărurilor în care credem, inerente unei imagini de sine ce decurge numai din faptul că elementele vieţii puse în relaţie, chiar şi luate separat, ajung la un numitor comun, un echivalent al cauzei şi efectului transpus în accepţiunea unei concepţii moralizatoare şi a unei intervenţii miraculoase.

Biruinţa ta asupra destinului este pe măsura imaginii pe care ţi-ai format-o despre Dumnezeu şi a convingerilor pe care le nutreşti cu privire la realitatea acestei imagini după ce treci prin felurite încercări.

Prin urmare, avem de-a face cu două realităţi: cea a omului care crede în hazard şi în marea întâmplare, alături de cea a omului care crede numai în ceea ce este repetabil şi demonstrabil prin experiment. Ele sunt incompatibile prin faptul că prima realitate depinde de variaţia unui parametru necunoscut care, în general, se situează în raport invers cu intensitatea convingerilor personale. Iar cealaltă depinde de anumite consecinţe vizibile care privesc baza acceptării oricăror limitări.

Imaginea care decurge din asocierea acestor două realităţi reprezintă ansamblul reflectărilor de natură materială sau imaterială, cu conţinut raţional sau emoţional, ale unor fenomene pe care le poţi experimenta, dar nu le poţi controla cu totul.

Iar studiul acestei imagini este o etapă de exploatare a unei cauze pe care, chiar dacă nu ajungi să o înţelegi pe deplin niciodată, măcar îţi dă o idee vizavi de cât eşti de pregătit să faci faţă unei certitudini de care te poţi oricând îndoi.

Negaţia ataşamentului faţă de versiunea ta anterioară, când încă nu luaseși în calcul intervenţia unei forțe tainice care a forțat supunerea și compulsiunea ta în mijlocul evenimentelor care te-au dus la o anumită situaţie, este o operaţie de contestare a propriilor limite, urmată de obicei de sporirea credinţei.

Credinţa este o reflectare a naturii tale sub acţiunea unor forţe de tip reacţiune îndreptate spre toate evenimentele şi fenomenele care pot să-ţi consolideze poziţia de protagonist al unei noi realităţi.

Captiv între datorie şi Dumnezeu este omul care nu are de ales în faţa vieţii decât să se supună unui plan mai înalt, hotărât dinainte ca el să îndeplinească rolul de judecător neînduplecat.

Captiv între Om și Dumnezeu

On Decembrie 30, 2017

Desprinde-te de ceea ce te limitează, ca să te înalți mai presus de ceea ce ești tu însuți.

Evenimentele petrecute preocupau întregul Paris. Emmanuel şi soția lui şi le povesteau cu o uimire firească, făcând o legătură între cele trei nenorociri, tot atât de năprasnice pe cât de neașteptate, care se abătuseră asupra acelora ce l-au trimis la moarte pe Edmond Dantes.

Într-adevăr – spunea Julie – s-ar zice că toţi bogătașii aceştia, atât de fericiţi ieri, uitaseră partea Duhului rău, în calculul pe care îşi întemeiaseră bogăţia, fericirea şi respectul cuvenit. Iar Duhul, ca o zână rea din poveştile lui Perrault, nepoftită la vreo nuntă sau la vreun botez, s-a ivit pe neaşteptate ca să se răzbune pentru uitarea aceasta.

– Câte nenorociri ! Câte suferinţe ! spunea Emmanuel gândindu-se la Morcerf, Danglars și Villefort.

– Dacă Dumnezeu i-a lovit – spunea Julie – asta e doar fiindcă Dumnezeu, care este bunătatea supremă, n-a găsit în trecutul lor nimic vrednic să le micşoreze pedeapsa. Înseamnă că toţi oamenii aceştia erau blestemaţi.

Din camera alăturată, nevăzut și totuși perfect conturat, în orice caz biruitor, Contele de Monte Cristo îşi revedea faptele cu o oarecare urmă de regret, dar însufleţit de acea împăcare de sine pe care Dumnezeu o prilejuieşte numai acelora cărora le-a oferit acest stimulent de neînlocuit pentru inimă:

"Cădea-vor dintre latura ta o mie şi zece mii de-a dreapta ta, dar de tine nu se vor apropia. Peste șarpe veninos vei păși. Pe mâini vei fi înălțat ca nu cumva să-ţi împiedici piciorul de piatră. Şi vei călca peste leu şi peste balaur. Nu vor veni către tine rele. Şi bătaie nu se va apropia de locașul tău. Nu trebuie să te temi nici de groaza din timpul nopţii, nici de săgeata care zboară ziua, nici de ciuma care umblă în întuneric, nici de molima care bântuie ziua namiaza mare. Căci El va porunci îngerilor Săi să te păzească în toate căile tale."

Leadership: Poţi să te eliberezi de exercitarea obligației față de Dumnezeu în favoarea exprimării regretului pentru hotărârile tale anterioare cu toate amarele lor urmări?

Când rezultatul gestului de forță din mijlocul faptelor sau evenimentelor nu este controlat sever de o intenție de limitare, fidelă valorilor asupra cărora au rază de acţiune principiile credinţei, atunci imaginea pe care ți-o creezi devine confuză și cufundată în ceața părerii de rău.

Când, dimpotrivă, imaginea este pusă în valoare cu o anumită pregnanţă, printr-o autosugestionare pozitivă care îţi justifică actuala rătăcire prin meandrele concretului, ea domină intențiile de evoluție personală.

Primul principiu al credinţei, cel mai solid, fidel imaginii pe care ți-o creezi, ar trebui să fie : „Cred că Dumnezeu este Creatorul şi Conducătorul întregii lumi". Într-o asemenea formulă de referință, ce posedă un potențial nesfârșit de încurajare a funcţiei de control, sunt utilizate toate mijloacele de a te identifica cu Cel care cauzează majoritatea evenimentelor și le influențează cursul – asta dacă eşti îndeajuns de priceput să modifici rezultatul unei acţiuni şi factorii care reflectă probabilitatea reală a acelui rezultat.

Îndeplinirea angajamentului de a executa o obligaţie faţă de Dumnezeu, să încerci să schimbi acel fluid ce străbate și uneşte prin mii de fire fiinţa umană cu legile universului, este un rezumat al întregului tău proces de elaborare a unei defensive capabilă să facă faţa celui mai înalt nivel de ofensivă de care dispune jocul şansei. Este un act complex de gândire şi de acţiune în care contează în egală măsură spiritul de analiză şi capacitatea de pătrundere psihologică rezultată din contactul cu diverse tipuri de oameni.

Omul devine una cu Dumnezeu atunci când evenimentele cele mai neaşteptate îi favorizează o evoluție rapidă și prielnică din care nu se mai poate opri.

Determinarea eficienței tale se rezumă la sentimentul înălțător și profund eliberator al gestului de acceptare a propriilor fapte, printr-o atitudine de iertare a greșelilor care nu anulează şi nu modifică caracterul propriului personalism?

Personalismul este o concepţie potrivit căreia Dumnezeu este o persoană, sau cum bine defineşte dicţionarul, este o doctrină care pune la baza existenței o pluralitate de entități spirituale înzestrate cu atributele personalității și subordonate lui Dumnezeu ca ființă supremă.

Personalismul are valoare de câștig dacă reușești să-ți conturezi suficient de puternic o poziție privilegiată în ordinea desfășurării evenimentelor.

În ecuația lui Dumnezeu și a legilor universului nu se justifică această atitudine de iertare a greșelilor, ba mai mult, orice examinare a faptelor petrecute, bune sau rele, întărește sentimentul de control și de apartenență la un anume spațiu de autonomie în cea mai mare măsură posibilă. De aceea practicile sau stilurile adoptate de lideri ajung să fie considerate o tehnică de reprezentare a proceselor psihice la diferite niveluri de control conștient.

Procesele psihice sunt interacţiuni proprii raportului dintre individ şi realitatea înconjurătoare. Ele sunt împărţite în trei categorii: procese psihice cognitive (de cunoaştere), procese psihice afective, procese psihice reglative (involuntare şi voluntare). (tpu.ro)

Limbajul secret al leadershipului începe cu analizarea naturii şi a semnificaţiei existenţei personale în eventualitatea unui tip particular de control asupra minţii care se găsește în dialog cu Dumnezeu.

Captiv între Om și Dumnezeu este cel care a gustat din oțelul rece și inflexibil al sabiei numită "şansă de reuşită" acolo unde destinul vrea să lase urme de suferinţă.

Captivitatea omului în spaţiul arid al imperceptibilului

Deschide calea spre noi cuceriri ale cunoaşterii, ca să vezi dincolo de limitele a ceea ce eşti.

Marii titani ai gândirii superior-inovatoare, precum H.G. Wells sau Jules Verne, au cochetat deseori cu misterul care depăşea orice cunoaştere, indicibilul . Utilizând acel conglomerat de imaginaţie ce le-a permis să se amplaseze într-un timp şi într-un loc indeterminabil, ei au putut să identifice legile acelor abisalităţi care depăşeau limitele înţelegerii acceptate de către cei mai mulţi oameni.

Simţeam că era rândul meu să înţeleg aceste legi prin intensificarea singurei surse de energie, foarte elevată, care nu poate fi distrusă de nimeni şi nimic: imaginaţia. Prin investirea unor calităţi artistice pline de miez, la răscrucea întrebărilor despre rostul existenţei şi al fiinţei mele în lume, se întrevedea contrastul cromatic al unor tensiuni, prejudecăţi, forţe nemaivăzute de adeziune la o nouă formă de artă, plauzibilă prin motivele decupate parcă dintr-un film noir, dar care exprimă cel mai bine conflictul interior cu sinele revelat din trecut. Cu atât mai mare era disconfortul pe care îl simţeam.

Experimentele oamenilor de ştiinţă, expuse de cei doi scriitori în operele lor, erau menite să facă procesul invizibilităţii reversibil. Dar formula secretă lăsa întotdeauna loc de interpretări, nu indica nicio metodă de obţinere şi utilizare, nu se potrivea nici unei dogme, dovedindu-se a fi mai degrabă o fază rapidă de tranziţie spre o dimensiune superioară. O etapă, utilă şi necesară oricărei persoane care preţuieşte progresul şi îl susţine, chiar cu riscul retragerii sau excluderii sale din societate.

Cine voia să înţeleagă şi să aplice formula trebuia să vadă dincolo de orice limitare.

Leadership: Îţi câştigi dreptul incontestabil la autodepăşire urmând criteriile unui model de realitate la care te raportezi prin separarea ta de tot ce este comun lumii de care aparţii?

Cum oare să încorporez complet invizibilul în timp? Trebuia să-l percep mai întâi ca pe o destinaţie a viitorului? Sau ca pe o sursă de învăţare şi explorare a experienţelor de inovaţie?

Şi totuşi, întrebarea care mă frământa cu adevărat era alta. Oare această decodificare a invizibilului care se manifestă intrinsec, transformarea obscurului într-o entitate cognoscibilă, chiar dacă favorizează cercetarea ştiinţifică individuală şi, prin aceasta, dezvoltarea gândirii, nu înseamnă mai degrabă un drept dobândit, dar necuvenit?

Stabilirea unei priorităţi în ceea ce priveşte investigaţiile proprii asupra formulei invizibilităţii se putea dovedi compromiţătoare, punându-mă într-o postură neonorabilă.

Mă simţeam captiv într-un spaţiu arid, al imperceptibilului, asociat cu trecerea timpului, care mă făcea să-mi doresc să nu mai continui cercetările, obligându-mă să rămân cât mai mult în umbra acelor ziduri ale mediocrităţii, ca un simplu trecător prin viaţă, fără folos şi fără o ţintă precisă. Care nu cunoaşte lupta, care nu trăieşte marea aventură a cunoaşterii, care nu se poate elibera din absurd, care nu caută răspunsuri şi nu află niciodată adevărul.

Nu spunea oare alchimistul acela care îşi tăinuia numele, că majoritatea oamenilor sunt doar nişte produse ale unor experimente ştiinţifice eşuate şi că doar cei aleşi sunt chemaţi să cunoască tainele lui Dumnezeu şi calea ce duce la Marea Împărăţie?

Leadership: În ce fel poţi folosi ştiinţa pentru a-ți îmbunătăți percepţiile vizavi de o realitate paralelă?

Ieşirea din tipare şi libertatea de creaţie nu trebuie privite drept lucru nefiresc, ci un drept incontestabil la actul autodepăşirii şi desăvârşirii. Ca un joc plin de misiuni imposibile şi totodată plin de nestemate, pe care nu eşti obligat să îl joci până la capăt. Dar pe care trebuie neapărat să-l experimentezi dacă vrei măcar să înţelegi cine eşti cu adevărat şi ce însemnătate ai ca fiinţă umană.

Leadershipul este supus riscului unei deprecieri puternice dacă contradicţiile tranziţiei spre o nouă etapa de dezvoltare se intensifică, dacă limite de percepție şi reprezentare ale ştiinţei, situate exclusiv pe un plan inferior, strigând tare "Nu pot ! ", sunt aprobate în totalitate de caracteristicile tale definitorii.

Standardele de dezvoltare pe care singur ţi le impui se oglindesc în modul cum tratezi solicitările de obiective şi investiţii pe termen lung, impuse de propriul Ego ca o încercare de a găsi calea de ieşire din actualul impas al mediocrităţii. Ele arată în ce fel poţi folosi ştiinţa pentru a-ți îmbunătăți percepţiile vizavi de o realitate pe care încă n-ai avut posibilitatea s-o trăieşti nemijlocit. Dar şi pentru a înţelege mai bine fenomenul "lipsă" şi implicaţiile sale majore asupra formării personalităţii, cu efect prejudiciabil asupra elementelor de interes maxim care îţi pot modela viitorul.

Cine nu se mulţumeşte cu puţin – la începutul călătoriei spre cunoaşterea mai presus de înţelegere – este nevoit să caute alte ieşiri spre un altceva, necunoscut, care în ultimă esenţă, se identifică ca debut, prin contribuţiile ştiinţifice, la marea întrecerea cu sine însuţi.

Numai înţelegerea vibraţiilor "imperceptibilului", utilizând acel conglomerat de imaginaţie care îţi permite să te amplasezi într-o zonă de cunoaştere mai extinsă, face posibilă găsirea formulei secrete care conţine proporţii imense de posibilităţi de interpretare a lucrurilor şi a lumii, pe care înainte le treceai cu vederea.

Leadership: Poţi să construieşti noi drumuri de performanţă cu elementele unei ştiinţe pe care nu o creditezi până la capăt?

Elementele constitutive ale leadershipului, care reflectă o cunoaştere solidă a factorilor activi de inovaţie, pot fi identificate numai în armonia rezultatelor sau în eleganţa unei suite de operaţii din cadrul procesului de cercetare, putând fi puse în aplicare în funcţie de structura operativă a gândirii tale. Eşti în căutarea unor provocări incitante care să-ţi stimuleze pofta de cercetare?

Identificarea acelor legi ale "abisalităților" care depăşesc limitele înţelegerii acceptate de către cei mai mulţi oameni este primul semn că ai ajuns mult mai departe decât credeai, la un nivel de avansat de dezvoltare, ca entitate solitară, nu ca urmare a unei munci, cunoaşteri şi experienţe în colaborare cu alţii.

Asta înseamnă că ai reuşit să construieşti noi drumuri de performanţă cu elementele unei ştiinţe pe care singur ai creditat-o până la capăt cu idei, resurse şi aşteptări nelimitate, şi pe care nu le-ai abandonat pe parcursul procesului de maturizare şi de selecţie aptitudinală. Toate aptitudinile şi calificările tale relevante au fost dobândite de pe urma experienţelor de lucru aplicat cu stricteţe pe terenul dur al ştiinţei.

Cine coboară şi urcă înapoi, de-a lungul subteranelor ştiinţei, ştie că porneşte într-o aventură cu detalii picante. În sensul unei alianţe cu orizonturile şi premizele cunoaşterii, un asemenea om poartă cu sine speranţa să întâlnească, în galerii de multă vreme neumblate, semnele secrete ale autodepăşirii.

Transformarea personală autentică este calea de a te autodepăşi prin imaginaţia cu care creionezi o altă realitate, în care te integrezi ca un tip remarcabil prin capacitatea de a-ţi comunica gândirea sub cele mai diverse forme de exprimare, de a-ţi regândi ideile trecând de la o stare de spirit la alta, acoperindu-ţi propria lege de funcţionare cu numeroase semnificaţii.

Captivitatea omului în spaţiul arid al imperceptibilului semnifică acea stagnare în jurul mediocrităţii, claustrarea în limitele unei cunoaşteri superficiale şi parţiale a specificului uman care nu mai poate servi drept bază esenţială a leadershipului.

Caracterul adânc înnoitor al leadershipului

Utilizează posibilitățile practice și nelimitate ale montajului, astfel încât să ajungi la găsirea și definirea unor noi mijloacele de creație a leadershipului.

Odată înlăturate legile generale dramaturgice din arsenalul regizorului, conținutul este exprimat direct. De aceea scenariul lipsește și metoda de creație este trecerea de la temă, de-a dreptul la foaia de montaj. Eisenstein nu-și propune un film care să ilustreze, printr-o poveste, semnificația grevei. El vrea, cu mijloacele de expresie ale artei, să răspundă la întrebarea: ce este o grevă, cum se organizează ea, care-i sunt premisele, desfășurarea, efectele? De aici necesitatea lipsei de fabulație, de personaje individualizate, ele fiind înlocuite cu noțiuni personificate: organizatorul, muncitorul, spionul, contramaistrul etc… Și tot de aici necesitatea montajului metaforic.

Prin scopurile pe care și le propune, regizorul Eisenstein se proiectează implicit în miezul, în esența problemelor montajului. Așa se explică caracterul adânc înnoitor al montajului Eisensteinian. Așa se explică cum a ajuns Eisenstein la găsirea și definirea mijloacelor esențiale ale filmului modern. *

Leadership: Poți să te proiectezi în miezul a ceea ce reprezintă universul propriei creații, pentru a face cunoscută evoluția ta din punct de vedere al semnificației pe care o atribui expresiei artistice?

Liderul-creator are un rol bine specificat în contextul abordării științei, prin faptul că reușește să construiască imaginea vie a unui univers de infinită varietate. El se proiectează implicit în miezul a ceea ce reprezintă acest univers pentru a face cunoscută evoluția lui. Iar cine încearcă să ajungă în miezul a ceea ce este în neregulă cu viziunea expusă de un lider, în privința unui asemenea univers, constituind în lumea artei un fel de rațiune funcțională, făcându-l mai individualizat, cu siguranță se va lovi de o logică și mecanisme greu de înțeles.

Nu putem vorbi despre leadership dacă nu oferim hrană științei pe care el se sprijină, plasându-l în contextul unei orientări care este, în mod esențial, în relație cu tot ceea ce fost acceptat ca normă de tranziție spre un nivel superior de vizualizare a unei realități care ascunde o poveste. Munca de creație a unui artist, făcând diferența dintre autenticitate și kitsch, este cea mai clară demonstrație a nevoii de a asigura surse stabile de putere și control pentru o mai bună accelerare a dezvoltării și a procesului de schimbare.

Forma pe care o capătă creația ta este dată de montajul pe care îl realizezi. Montajul presupune asamblarea secvențială de piese separate de informații, imagini, perspective și experiențe. Este o modalitate de a-ți scoate în evidență capacitățile de coordonare și producere a elementelor inovative, a activităților specifice de cercetare desfășurate și de difuzare a cunoștințelor. Fără un montaj de calitate care să ridice nivelul eficienței în rezolvarea celor trei probleme fundamentale de leadership: cum, ce și pentru cine produci știință, nu vei putea să faci dovada valorii tale și profesionalismului tău.

Expresia artistică este o revelație a artei dătătoare de spectacol, o revelație a unui adevăr personal transpus într-o poveste, este o îmbinare a unor idei transpuse într-o imagine alcătuită din fapte, sentimente și interpretări. Ea poate avea semnificația pe care regizorul o dă realității pe care o o experimentează el însuși prin emoții, prin cauze și efecte reale diverse.

Forma pe care o capătă creaţia ta poate fi prelucrată într-un mod în care ştiinţa să poată asigura o nouă valoare de întrebuinţare a leadershipului?

Identitatea structurii mai multor modele de reprezentare a cunoştinţelor utilizate în cercetarea ştiinţifică se reduce la o succesiune de elemente de detaliu. Acestea se formează într-o unitate de timp nedeterminată în raport cu reperele existenţei unor forme autentice de creaţie, contribuind la promovarea unui nou stil de artă.

Detaliile şi procedurile de lucru, depinzând de premisele unei noi direcţii de evoluţie a ştiinţei şi de efectele unei noi linii de trend, sunt parte a unei expediţii personale de căutare a unei semnificaţii mai profunde a ceea ce transmiţi, prin implicarea într-un joc de selectare a informaţiilor şi a modului de prelucrare a acestora.

Leadershipul apare ca un complex de intuiţii şi de posibilităţi de explorare a unei realităţi particulare, fiind bazat înainte de toate pe experienţa în lucrul cu elementele de creaţie care au continuitate şi unitate în câmpul efectelor produse.

Creaţia ta poate fi prelucrată într-un mod în care ştiinţa să poată asigura o nouă valoare de întrebuinţare a leadershipului, doar dacă reuşeşti să identifici o modalitate de utilizare a mijloacelor de expresie pentru construirea în prezent a unui „ perfect future ". Câştigarea independenţei în modelarea ştiinţei este posibilă prin caracterul înnoitor a ceea ce ai realizat cu ajutorul unor noi luări de poziţie în ceea ce priveşte definirea unor noi perspective de gândire şi simţire.

O nouă valoare de întrebuinţare a leadershipului constă în procesul de a atinge o realitate superioară prin înlocuirea cu noţiuni personificate a tuturor imaginilor şi faptelor precise care pot reflecta cu mai multă acurateţe intenţiile unui regizor: de a înfăţişa o lume de vis, unde totul devine posibil.

Caracterul adânc înnoitor al leadershipului rezultă din mijloacele de creaţie, transpuse în practică, utilizate în procesul de cucerire a segmentului pe care îl ocupă producţia de noi modele de cercetare ştiinţifică, acceptate şi considerate ca valoare adăugată la un stil diferit de a interacţiona cu noi niveluri de performanţă.

Caracterul favorizează succesul

Menţine-ţi constant caracterul nobil, făcând apel la acele idealuri, valori şi convingeri care îţi conferă stabilitate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni.

Ai auzit de celebrul scriitor Russell H. Conwell? Înainte de a deveni scriitor, el a fost un ofiţer de recrutare extrem de capabil şi, mai apoi, a devenit căpitan al propriei sale campanii. A luat parte la multe bătălii şi a fost ridicat la gradul de locotenent-colonel înainte să aibă loc un eveniment care i-a schimbat viaţa. Grav rănit în timpul unui atac al confederaţilor în munţii Kenesaw, Conwell n-a putut să-şi împiedice ordonanţa să facă o bravă încercare de a-l salva. Din nefericire, încercând să salveze viaţa comandantului său, tânărul şi-a pierdut viaţa. Însă înainte de a muri, i-a vorbit lui Conwell despre credinţa creştină. Această întâmplare a avut un efect profund asupra lui Conwell, încât s-a creştinat.

În cele din urmă, el a devenit un conferenţiar de marcă, abordând o mare varietate de subiecte şi, de asemenea, a fost autorul a 16 cărţi. El a crezut în posibilităţile infinite ale omenirii, viaţa sa constituind o ilustrare a acestei convingeri. Cea mai renumită prelegere a sa, "Hectare de diamante", a fost susţinută de peste 6000 de ori în timpul vieţii sale şi rămâne şi astăzi dovada credinţei pe care el o avea în potenţialul nelimitat al omului.

Leadership: Puterea ta de a face faţa tuturor provocărilor destinului poate să reprezinte modelul adaptativ al conceptului de sine în coordonatele unei viziuni care se bazează pe urmarea sensului vieții?

Oamenii îşi fac adesea o primă impresie (greşită) în legătură cu alţi oameni, în legătură cu credinţele şi valorile lor, punând pe plan secund adevăratele lor convingeri şi întregul lor fel de-a fi. A fost şi cazul lui Russel H. Conwell, a cărui convingeri ferme, dar totuşi atât de limitate, au putut fi schimbate, ce-i drept cu întârziere, la 180 de grade, abia după moartea tânărului care a încercat să-i salveze viaţa.

Te întreb, viitor lider, tu eşti eficient în zonele în care este nevoie de dezvoltare? Sau rătăceşti, asemenea unui om beat, lipsit de simţul direcţiei, în neştire prin viaţă, prin pustiul propriei tale lumi de gânduri, dorinţe, sentimente şi realităţi?

Aceasta este o întrebare dură care cere un răspuns sincer. Dacă răspunsul este da, atunci e necesară o schimbare, o limpezire a gândirii, o înceată (dar fermă) scuturare a întregii tale filozofii, renovând acele zone ale leadershipului tău, cuplate de propriul caracter. Zonele acestea îţi împietresc şi imobilizează preocuparea eficientă în relaţiile interumane, sau pot să îţi diminueze toleranţa la orice tip de influenţe negative.

Leadershipul este ca televiziunea prin cablu, deţinătoare a propriului conţinut. Cu ce îţi înzestrezi leadershipul depinde de structura ta interioară, iar ceea ce generezi, ceea ce furnizezi, ceea ce ajunge la oamenii care te urmează sunt acele "aplicaţii" care permit analiza ta, care integrează tot ceea ce te defineşte ca om, ca prieten, ca profesionist. Cu ajutorul acestor aplicaţii (valori, nevoi, aspiraţii) ei se pot conecta la tine mai uşor. Iar acest lucru îţi permite să înţelegi mai bine unde te afli, de ce ai nevoie şi ce poţi face pentru ei.

Leadership: Poţi să faci o conexiune între acea explozie a timpului care a schimbat drumul unei vieți, şi coordonatele evenimentelor care implică încălcări ale cerinţelor sinelui de a avea liberul arbitru în decizii?

Sunt oamenii de aceeaşi parte a baricadei cu tine? Aşa cum orice modificare a volumului de sânge este sesizată de nişte receptori sensibili la variaţiile de presiune ale sângelui, tot aşa orice modificarea propriei tale structuri de funcţionare este sesizată de majoritatea oamenilor a căror concepţii şi idei despre leadership, bine reglate de sistemul lor de îi determină să fie de aceeaşi parte a baricadei cu tine. Sau, dimpotrivă, îi poate întoarce împotriva ta.

A înţelege diferitele puncte de vedere ale celorlalţi oameni, aşa cum Conwell şi-a accelerat transformarea preluând din filozofia şi concepţiile unui om obişnuit, a unui muribund, abordând cu abilitate o nouă viziune asupra vieţii şi a direcţiei de urmat, este una din cheile leadershipului.

Să te apleci asupra acelor idealuri, filozofii. puncte de vedere şi maniere de abordare a schimbării, cu acceptul celor din jurul tău, aşa cum cercetătorii se apleacă asupra documentelor pentru a le întocmi corect şi complet, şi să tencuieşti propriul tău model de leadership cu un mortar rezistent la orice fel de uzură morală şi emoţională, aceasta ar trebui să fie preocuparea ta cea mai mare.

Înzestrându-ţi fiinţa cu acele energii, cu acele virtuţi care fac posibilă integrarea ta în "jocul" dorit de ceilalţi oameni, încadrarea ta în tipul de personalitate care contribuie la dezvoltarea lor, acest lucru îţi întăreşte rolul de călăuză sigură şi te defineşte ca o persoană compatibilă cu tipul de lider dorit de ei, prin felul de a gândi şi de a acţiona.

Leadership: Caracterul tău poate să descrie un mijloc de a experimenta frecvenţele şi dimensiunile mai înalte ale vieţii, în încercarea sinelui de a schimba modelul de formare al conştiinţei?

Leadershipul este aidoma unei scări: cu cât este mai largă, cu atât este acceptată de un număr mai mare de susţinători care au îmbrăţişat aceleaşi concepţii şi idealuri. Şi cu cât este mai îngustă, cu atât va supravieţui mai puţin, şi se va disipa în uitare.

Faptele de zi cu zi, dacă le cercetezi cu atenţie îţi oferă aspecte noi, nebănuite, ce pot avea o înrâurire deosebită asupra filozofiei proprii şi pot consolida leadershipul tău. Un spirit analitic, pe lângă care evenimentele (aparent banale) nu trec fără o atentă cercetare, îşi întăreşte constant leadershipul şi îşi dezvoltă constant puterea de influenţă asupra celorlalţi.

Este inerent ca leadershipul pe care îl practici să fie orientat (şi acesta este un important factor de optimizare) spre calitate, spre gestionarea şi cimentarea unei relaţii pe termen lung cu oamenii, spre dezvoltare şi extindere a dimensiunii sale. Acest lucru putând fi uşor realizat doar dacă acoperi toate acele "găuri" de ineficienţă sau superficialitate pe care tu, sau subalternii tăi, le-aţi făcut – să vezi, să supraveghezi, să controlezi toate formele existente de regres, sau de eventual risc.

Caracterul omului este strâns legat de menținerea prelungită unei imagini de sine adecvate care poate să servească eficient atingerii scopurilor pe care ţi le-ai propus, sub imperiul unei constrângeri: tot ceea ce te împlineşte este rodul a ceea ce a prins rădăcini în inima ta.

Caracterul favorizează succesul numai atunci când convingerile şi atitudinea ta în diverse situaţii nu sunt în conflict cu circumstanţele care hotărăsc ceea ce ţi se întâmplă. Sau aşa cum preciza cineva pe internet, caracterul reprezintă totalitatea însuşirilor esenţiale şi stabile care se reflectă în valorile pe care le promovezi şi în atitudinea ta în raport cu sine, cu alţii şi cu diferite aspecte ale vieţii.

Caracterul nedeterminat al omului de geniu

Permite-le oamenilor să te definească în funcţie nu doar de performanţele tale excepţionale, cât mai ales în funcţie de felul în care tu însuţi îţi canalizezi "vibraţiile" în viaţa lor.

Pe unii îi surprindea aspectul său: un cap mare, disproporţionat, sau vocea sa neobişnuit de subţire. Pe alţii, regizorul îi hipnotiza de la prima întâlnire. Criticul de cinema, Leon Moussinac descrie prima sa întâlnire cu Serghei Mihailovici Eisenstein, a cărui personalitate l-a "răscolit" cu totul: " Te domina, fizic şi intelectual totodată. Fizic, prin mobilitatea feţei şi a mâinilor, prin puterea bustului pe care se însera volumul masiv al capului, prin strălucirea energiei şi a inteligenţei care emana din toată persoana sa. "

Eisenstein era perfect conştient de uriaşa sa valoare, de geniul său, acelaşi artist care a creat cea mai solidă operă din istoria cinematografiei şi căreia i s-ar potrivi, pe bună dreptate, cuvintele lui Picasso: " Impresioniştii au vrut să înfăţişeze lumea aşa cum o vedeau. Pe mine nu mă atrage asta. Eu vreau să înfăţişez lumea aşa cum o gândesc. "

Întrebat asupra primei impresii pe care i-a făcut-o Eisenstein, istoricul de film american Jay Leyda declara: " Mi-a fost teamă. Eisenstein semăna cu Jupiter, cu un zeu mânios. Încerca totdeauna să te impresioneze ca şi cum ar vrea să-ţi facă un test. Ceea ce, bineînţeles, supăra pe toată lumea. Dar această atitudine a lui Eisenstein era numai o mască. Dacă supravieţuiai, totul mergea bine cu el şi, în ciuda caracterului său foarte complicat, era un om şi un profesor minunat. " *

Leadership: Poţi să elimini neajunsurile de a fi un model de urmat construit după ideea că nu trebuie să fii perfect?

Este posibil să existe un gen de om al extremelor, în acelaşi timp promiţător şi dezamăgitor? Un om care să furnizeze impulsuri de sincronizare a funcţiilor Ego-ului cu valenţe negative, dar care totodată să poată fi structurate şi proiectate pe un fond mai luminos?

Un fel de versiune îmbunătăţită a omului cu aspiraţii spre înalt, cum sunt toţi aceia care nu cer niciodată nimic, dar ştiu să obţină totul, mişcând orice se întâmplă în jurul lor. A omului care utilizează parţial un sistem de conducere automată, direct influenţat de caracteristicile de excepţie care permit individualizarea sau stabilirea unicităţii sale.

Un asemenea om înţelege când ceva nu este în regulă, dar nu acţionează imediat "frâna de urgenţă ". Ci îi lasă pe ceilalţi oameni să-l definească în funcţie nu doar de performanţele sale excepţionale, cât mai ales în funcţie de felul în care el însuşi îşi canalizează "vibraţiile" în viaţa lor.

Aceste vibraţii nu sunt altceva decât o manifestare a spiritului, provocate de încărcătura de convingeri existentă în diferite momente ale vieţii. O depăşire a propriilor limite prin crearea unei inteligenţe superioare, hrănită din cultură, care îi lasă pe ceilalţi fără cuvinte.

Leadership: Eşti o inovaţie sau o lacună a "versiunii" finale a aceluiaşi individ, căruia i se poate încredinţa menirea de a fi un simbol al spiritului de challenger?

În studiul meu asupra dimensiunii umane, combătând incompatibilitatea, preconizată de unii, între diversele versiuni ale aceluiaşi individ, pătrunzând în straturile profunde ale fiinţei sale, urmăresc formarea constantă a resurselor sale de competenţă şi originalitatea lui în a promova anumite concepte vizavi de construcţia ştiinţei.

Şi ce constat la o scară din ce în ce mai mare? Că un asemenea artist care trăieşte viaţa de zi în conformitate cu descoperirile succesive ale gândurilor care-l asaltează, nu poate fi decât solidar cu cei care contribuie în mod continuu la progresul lui, la sporirea ştiinţei sale.

Leadershipul înseamnă să reuşeşti să impresionezi oamenii, fără să-i testezi şi fără ca ei să te testeze pe tine. Dacă poţi. Asta este măiestria de a trezi interese, de a te apropia de ceilalţi, creând un consens, nu condiţionând. Invitându-i pe oameni să te cunoască, chiar şi atunci eşti judecat aspru, chiar şi atunci când nu eşti în vârf de munte, chiar şi atunci când te acompaniezi singur în procesul schimbării.

Inovaţia versiunii tale finale este un efort de a te raporta la un plus de valoare care se resimte în aspectul general pe care îl capătă reputaţia ta. Iar a te lega de o lacună a versiunii tale finale înseamnă să-ţi accepţi tendinţa de a te limita la esenţa fiinţei tale: de a rămâne un artist care a înţeles viaţa şi a receptat-o în creaţiile sale, dar care nu se dedă la a face artă din modul în care îl văd ceilalţi.

Apa lichidă, plasată într-un mediu cu temperatură mai mică de 0 grade se solidifică, trecând în formă cristalină. La fel şi un om iscusit care e plasat chiar într-un mediu neprielnic şi ostil. El reuşeşte să treacă în avantajul de a fi recomandarea ideală pentru un leadership puternic, creând o anumită stare de spirit şi bună dispoziţie, numai prin resursele sale de competenţă şi performanţă - ce acţionează ca o pârghie pentru crearea de influenţă. Dar şi pentru menţinerea echilibrului de putere între aceşti doi poli: unicitatea şi apartenenţa la grup.

Impresia pe care o laşi celor din jur trebuie să fie direct proporţională cu valoarea pe care ţi-o atribui singur într-un context de tipul: "trăiesc şi mă ghidez după calităţile de care sunt perfect conştient că le am".

Caracterul nedeterminat al omului de geniu scoate în evidenţă latura vieții tale interioare care îţi poate păstra mintea curată și deschisă, ferind-o, pe cât posibil, de acea experienţă a neputinţei de a înţelege realităţile înconjurătoare. Unicitatea te ajută să te distingi într-o lume plină de diversitate, determinându-te să fii un model de urmat pentru cei din jur, chiar dacă atitudinea lor faţă de tine este de tipul "mai vedem noi".

Cărarea pierdută într-o verticalitate greu de găsit

Nimic nu e mai de preferat decât ceea ce ai putut să preferi, şi n-ai preferat.

Am întâlnit un om care alerga destul de bine, dominat de obiectivitatea unei personalităţi neatinse de sentimentul zădărniciei. Dar el nu alerga cel mai bine, la fel de bine ca un campion, şi până la urmă a ales să nu mai alerge decât pentru el însuşi, cât poate de bine, fără a se mai compara cu ceilalţi alergători. A continuat să alerge pe orice vreme, liber, mai înţelegător, mai mult în armonie cu sentimentele vieţii, numai să alerge în deplinătatea puterilor trupeşti, în dispoziţiile sale sufleteşti (adesea contradictorii, dar totuşi în raport de condiţionare reciprocă).

Anii au trecut, şi nu se mai întorc. Dar, ceva a rămas bine întipărit în sufletul lui. Dorinţa mult râvnită de a fi un campion, fiindcă orice proces sufletesc se răsfrânge asupra exteriorului şi provoacă sentimente intense, senzaţii diferite, emană putere, caracter, personalitate, pozitivism, conferă un anumit farmec destinului făurit de cei care îşi trăiesc viaţa pentru un vis pus în slujba performanţei.

Şi ori de câte ori el şi-a adaptat atitudinea pentru diferitele trăiri ale spiritului său avântat spre cele sfinte, adâncite în dedicare şi rezultate deosebite pe linia progresului, tot de atâtea ori o şoaptă desprinsă din eter, o chemare din inima unei adieri de presimţire, o rugăciune adusă din divin, i-a prevestit o parte din opera ulterioară a iluminismului. Ca şi când ar fi reuşit să surprindă cele mai impresionante imagini ale unei lumi desprinsă dintr-o matrice cinematografică în formă de lung metraj, în dinamica expresiei unei vieţi reinventate, a unei realităţi originale cristalizată în armonie cu evoluţia universului.

Să ştii să suporţi ce este în afara pistei de alergat, este mai puţin îngrijorător decât simţirea a ceva măreţ care, umplându-te de respect de sine (dar și de precauţie), te aşteaptă dincolo de lumea sigură cu care fusesei obişnuit. Pășești într-o lume pierdută și regăsită în altă parte. Porneşti de la un vis realistic, şi nimereşti în încăperea secretă a livrescului spiritual, decorată cu un portret al eroului cu o mie de feţe și cu simbolismul său care denotă simultan moartea și viața, înțelepciunea și cunoașterea infinită. Treci de la o extremă la alta fără să te întrebi cum s-a produs schimbarea.

Până la urmă, ceea ce contează cu adevărat este atitudinea pe care o ia Eul tău faţă de diferitele trăiri din care se nutrește substanța romanului numit: "Cărarea pierdută într-o verticalitate greu regăsită".

Leadership: Obiectivitatea propriei idei despre tine însuţi se dezvăluie într-o expresie de maximă sublimare artistică, în măsura în care este considerată o coordonată esenţială a acţiunii umane pusă în slujba unei cauze imateriale exterioare?

Referitor la experienţa personală pe care am postat-o aici, atât de bine impregnată în coloratura sentimentului de inevitabilitate a schimbării, cred că este la fel de relevantă ca şi descrierea unui atelier de pictură pentru desfăşurarea unui studiu al vieţii sufleteşti pe care orice artist o trăieşte, atât din punct de vedere spiritual, cât şi material. Îţi ia ceva timp ca să treci de la o cărare laterală la una de mijloc, să treci de la o simplă idee la o uriașă realizare, de la o temă cu un singur fir epic la una care poate reinventa orice folosind tehnici mixte de lucru. Aşa că, răbdare...

Adevărat. Recunosc că am perseverenţa alergătorului de cursă lungă, dar în acelaşi timp sunt apropiat de acea stare de grație a pictorului când se confundă cu Natura și lucrează în ritmul ei, fără să se lase impregnat la nivel afectiv şi inconştient de vreun complicat discurs filosofic. La urma urmei, poate că aparţin de acea preferinţă a pictorului pentru "Celălalt", atent la chemarea divinului - de a căuta o cale pe care toți o pot apuca, dar pe care prea puțini se avântă.

Poate mai bine ar fi să mă las orbit de strălucirea unei stele aflată dincolo de limitele convenţionalului, să îmbrăţişez "desăvârşita desăvârşire a desăvârşirii" pe care exegeţii s-au luptat decenii la rând să o traseze şi să o impună ca pe o regulă de aur a Iluminismului. Şi ce este iluminismul altceva decât asocierea unui om obişnuit cu statutul unei fiinţe însufleţite de impulsul divin (creator), pogorâtă parcă dintr-un corp ceresc, neavând prejudecăţile unei tradiţii nesusţinute de Revelaţie.

S-o spun altfel. Un individ mărunt şi-a revendicat dreptul la proprietate asupra celor mai sfinte dintre ştiinţe, lăsând să domine amintirea unui erou necunoscut din sportul românesc, şi asta dacă e vorba să dau o nouă coloratura sentimentului de sublim. Aşadar, cred că dincolo de fiecare configurare a conexiunii cu marele act al creaţiei universale stă un spirit de luptător specific atletismului. De fapt, alergătorul de cursă lungă s-a instruit, s-a impus, şi în cele din urmă s-a remarcat ca un pictor modern, inovator, capabil să revoluționeze însăşi artele cu manifestare tridimensională, acestea putând roti orice perspectivă şi orice percepţie într-o varietate de direcţii.

Leadership: Poţi să consideri momentele de maximă iluminare spirituală ca pe o trăire a cuvântului lui Dumnezeu ce se dezvăluie prin revelaţia unei treceri de la un stadiu existenţial la altul, de la o ipostază la alta, de la o imagine de sine la alta?

Atât de bine s-au impregnat în mine bazele, valorile şi disciplina atletismului, încât coloratura sentimentului de inevitabilitate a schimbării n-a suferit nicidecum o bruscă „virare" spre petalele unei roze de flăcări, sau spre verdele unei pajişti pe corpul unei corăbii oprite la ţărm.

A existat, într-adevăr, o apropiere între atletism şi pictură. La mijloc era aceeaşi tendinţă de a testa limitele naturii mele, imboldul primar de a le depăşi, provocarea, nebunia, şansa de a-mi autoevalua aptitudinile într-un mod care să nu fie prea izbitor, un act de estompare a prejudecăţilor, o modalitate gratuită de a-mi elibera emoțiile puternice de sub povara unei captivităţi mai mult sau mai puţin evidente.

Pe oamenii vizionari, exemple rare de personalităţi în care se împletesc momentele rare de iluminare spirituală, îi caracterizează curiozitatea de a vedea ce iese dintr-o „comandă" dată spiritului de fineţe ce pune în acord tăietura profesională cu emoţia pură. Dacă atletismul m-a transformat într-un vizionar al ineditului, asta s-a întâmplat fiindcă atinsesem acea treaptă de adoraţiune a eroilor şi a faptelor măreţe, acea treaptă de slujire a idealului de "om nou şi nemuritor", considerând momentele de iluminare ca pe o trăire lăuntrică, chiar dacă pentru antici ele veneau din exterior.

Am abordat foarte serios acest subiect al trecerii de la o stare la alta, de la o nuanţă la alta, de la o etapă la alta, de la o lume la alta, ca într-un final să constat că tot ceea ce explică adevărata semnificaţie a frumosului îşi are rădăcinile într-un fenomen cunoscut, bine stăpânit, într-un cuprins de fioruri, aşteptări nebănuite, vibraţii, frecvenţe, unde, energii, taine, legende, toate acestea fiind confirmate prin examinarea mai îndeaproape a problemei Sinelui. Poate că unele spirite au fost dinainte alese pentru realizarea "Marii Opere" în momentul primordial al expansiunii lui Dumnezeu pe pământ.

Încă o dată se confirmă încercarea omului obişnuit de a fi parte dintr-un izvor invizibil, transcendent şi infinit îmbelşugat, hrănindu-se dintr-un crez mai înalt ce furnizează destinelor de excepţie o influenţă sacră. Da, probabil sunt mai mult decât un om obişnuit, sunt un atlet de performanţă care a făcut performanţă în domeniul artelor vizuale, onorat cu atenţia primită din partea unei cauze imateriale exterioare şi superioare.

Iluminismul este ceea ce ni se dezvăluie prin revelaţia divină şi este confirmat de propria noastră experienţă ca fiind trecerea de la o situaţie la alta, de la un statut la altul, printr-o lărgire a conştiinţei de sine spre dimensiunea unei conştiinţe avangardiste.

Sau, cum spunea cineva pe un website: "Dincolo de învelişul fizic şi vital al lumii, avem nevoie de o conectare conştientă a sufletului nostru cu cel al unei fiinţe de la care poate simţim doar o dispoziţie de intimitate sau prezenţă plină de seriozitate şi demnitate, neavând prejudecăţile unei situaţii anterioare."

Cărarea pierdută într-o verticalitate greu de găsit este o modalitate neprevazută de-a îmbrățișa diferit realitatea care face ca scopul vieţii noastre (şi toate evenimentele care ne ies în cale) să se extindă dincolo de limitele cunoașterii pe care o deţinem la un moment dat. Totodată, desemnează acea înălţare a cugetării spre un complex de tendinţe de emoţii, de senzaţii, care luate separat sau toate la un loc, trecând prin schimbări multiple, formează permanenţa unui Ego metafizic, de dimensiuni nemărginite.

Adaug, tot aici, cuvintele Ioanei Sarah, o bună educatoare de spirit care mi-a urmărit tot timpul devenirea. Ea spunea: "Spiritualitatea e uneori ca un deal stâncos, alteori este precum un ou, este ca un proiect din care se nasc idei şi curg în fiecare zi, este ca un râu ce curge: niciodată nu trece aceeaşi apă peste aceleaşi pietre...Lumea este asemenea unei coloane infinite, impresionează prin destin... Iar rezonanţa cu divinul este asemeni unui templu la care în fiecare zi trebuie să mai adăugăm o cărămidă, altfel se surpă şi pică..."

On Februarie 21, 2009

Aprofundează fiecare nivel al leadershipului ca să-i poţi determina pe oameni să se alinieze convingerilor, idealurilor şi acţiunilor tale.

Vreau în acest articol să continui o idee foarte importantă care surprinde esenţa leadershipului, idee pe care am început-o în articolul "Tainicul atelier al leadershipului".

Pentru cei ce nu au citit articolul meu de pe blog, aş vrea să rezum puţin subiectul. La începutul filmului "The Devils Advocate (1997)", Kevin Lomax, un tânăr avocat foarte ambiţios, reuşeşte să-l scoată nevinovat pe clientul său foarte înstărit (care fusese condamnat pentru dublu viol). Imediat după acest succes, Kevin este recrutat de renumita firmă de avocatură "Milton, Chadwick & Waters".

Iar de aici şi până în Iad n-a fost cale lungă. Soţia lui moare, mama lui moare, iar prietenii lui dispar în chip misterios. Viaţa lui se destramă. De vină era nimeni altul decât tatăl lui adoptiv, John Milton care, în finalul filmului, îi propune să se alăture lui, şi să "servească" păcatul şi pe însuşi diavolul. Dar Kevin, copleşit de amintirea soţiei sale, comite gestul neaşteptat: se sinucide, punând punct acestui pact cu diavolul.

În finalul filmului, evenimentele sunt derulate înapoi, şi îl vedem din nou pe Kevin Lomax, intrând în sala de judecată, buimăcit, unde trebuia să-l apere pe respectivul inculpat acuzat de viol. Aici o întâlneşte pe soţia lui mult iubită, şi datorită revederii, datorită simţămintelor pe care le nutrea pentru ea, decide să nu-şi mai reprezinte clientul, refuzând în acest fel să decadă moral. Dragostea l-a salvat de la un eşec moral.

Leadership: Trebuie să vrei să cedezi ceea ce eşti pentru ceea ce poţi să devii, sau trebuie să te confrunţi cu "păcatul" ca să îți dai seama pentru cine trebuie să te dăruiești?

Care este rolul pe care simţi că-l poţi juca cu adevărat? Rolul unui lider nu trece niciodată neobservat, de aceea el trebuie să decidă dacă poate juca acest rol sau nu. Deci, cea mai mare atribuţie a unui lider este rolul pe care simte că-l poate juca cu adevărat. Dar acest rol trebuie jucat respectând criteriile onestităţii şi a integrităţii, ce definesc caracterul liderului.

Leadershipul are un caracter integrator şi arată dimensiunea spirituală şi etică a liderului. Pentru ca leadershipul să atingă gradul de maturitate, liderul trebuie să garanteze cumva obligaţiile sale, iar comportamentul să nu-i afecteze în niciun fel imaginea de sine. Dar în acelaşi timp turnura pe care o ia leadershipul (dependent şi de alţi factori) nu trebuie să afecteze viaţa lui personală.

Leadershipul este dinamic, şi se modifică în funcţie de relaţiile existente între tine şi ceilalţi oameni. Aşa cum un jucător nu poate fi penalizat pentru ofsaid atunci când are cel puţin doi adversari mai apropiaţi decât el de propria lor linie de poartă – tot aşa şi tu, ca să urci pe scara leadershipului, trebuie să micşorezi riscul de a fi penalizat de ceilalţi oameni atunci când încalci regulamentul şi te abaţi de la normele morale impuse de ei.

Căci da, oamenii dau tonul în ceea ce priveşte alegerea liderului. Deci, este absolut necesar să îţi reglementezi moral şi emoţional relaţia cu ei. Iar atunci când discrepanţele dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni sunt prea mari, este mai bine să renunţi – căci a continua, înseamnă a te bate cu morile de vânt.

Leadership: Performanţa ta este afectată de o însuşire cu care se identifică altcineva şi care te domină prin inducerea unui sentiment de vinovăție care te determină să fii supus și să lași mereu de la tine?

Cum avansezi pe scara leadershipului? (Trebuie să oferi mai mult ca să ajungi la un nivel superior? Cum îţi reglementezi moral şi emoţional relaţia cu oamenii din jurul tău? Cu cât avansezi mai mult în carieră, cu atât mai nesigur este leadershipul tău? Cum îţi afectează emoţiile şi sentimentele performanţa ?

În consecinţă, merită îndreptate eforturile spre consolidarea şi împărtăşirea valorilor care imunizează şi sporesc puterea propriului tău Ego, sugerând apoi oamenilor aplecarea către esenţa bine conturată a circumstanţelor care pot consolida caracterul lor. Felul cum îţi concepi personajul, felul cum îţi interpretezi rolul, cu realism şi implicare, cu echilibru, cu responsabilitate şi luciditate, marchează acea dimensiune a leadershipului tău care permite continuarea procesului de convergenţă la standardul acceptat de cei care trebuie să te urmeze.

Acestea sunt întrebările la care orice lider trebuie să răspundă în faţa propriului "Eu" şi să decidă dacă continuă drumul într-un mod sau altul, sau abandonează.

Felul în care ţi-ai conceput leadershipul, felul în care ţi-ai interpretat până acum rolul de lider - a fost realizat în modul cel mai just? Te loveşti de tendinţa spontană a oamenilor de a accepta un leadership bazat pe onestitate şi moralitate? Navighezi printr-un tunel adânc, care te duce spre nimic? Crezi că este posibil să-i conduci pe oameni fără să te cunoşti pe tine însuţi? Te abaţi de la normele morale şi de deontologie profesională? Cum ţi-ai propus să atingi fericirea prin leadership? Care crezi că este factorul care îţi poate stopa elanul şi te poate demotiva să urci mai sus în ierarhie?

Indiferent de nivelul de conştiinţa la care ajunge un lider, el trebuie să se reîntoarcă mereu la primul nivel de putere: acela de prevenire a propriei victimizări.

Cu cât ajungi mai sus, cu atât este posibil să simţi că e nevoie să revii la primul nivel. Pe măsură ce influenţa ta creşte, s-ar putea să constaţi că oamenii din jurul tău "dispar". Este de la sine înţeles că influenţa nu înseamnă automat şi un nivel calitativ înalt de leadership, ci poate determina renunţarea la valori, şi deci excluderea fericirii. Care trebuie să fie preţul pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti pentru a atinge fericirea prin leadership? Căci, cu cât ajungi mai sus, cu atât este nevoie de mai mult angajament ca să te menţii acolo. Nu ajungi la ceva măreţ dacă oferi foarte puţin, sau dacă te abaţi de la normele morale şi de deontologie profesională. Dar nici nu obţii mare lucru dacă te baţi cu morile de vânt.

Un lucru este valabil pentru liderii care aspiră la un stil sănătos. Nu doar potenţialul lor este evaluat de cei din jur, ci întreaga lor personalitate, întregul lor stil de a se face înţeleşi, de a transmite ceea ce simt, deci, de a empatiza cu cei din jur. Cum se îmbracă într-un anumit moment, cum îşi exprimă sentimentele, gândurile şi opiniile, cum se comportă în diferite circumstanţe, etc. Dar nu mai puţin adevărat este şi faptul că acest stil, chiar dacă este elevat, nu întotdeauna este acceptat şi nu întotdeauna corespunde normelor majorităţii.

A stabili relaţii cu ceilalţi oameni, dar a nu reuşi să te înţelegi pe tine însuţi este ca şi cum ai naviga printr-un tunel adânc, care te duce spre nimic. Practic te afunzi în întunericul propriei tale ignoranţe, limitat de tine însuţi, dar mai ales de lanţurile prejudecăţilor exterioare – îndepărtându-te tot mai mult de acea lumină binefăcătoare care îţi umple sufletul de linişte şi bucurie. Sfat: respectă-ţi îndatoririle faţă de leadershipul tău, reevaluând felul în care îţi percepi propria fiinţă, dar evaluează permanent "statusul" oamenilor pe care-i conduci, cât şi schimbările pozitive obţinute.

Leadershipul este puterea de a vedea cât de departe poţi să ajungi, reevaluând felul în care îţi percepi propria fiinţă din prisma unei vieţi trăite cu sens.

Rolul unui lider în propria lui poveste de viaţă este acela de prezenţă nemuritoare a divinităţii din el însuşi. Mai departe, trebuie reţinut cu orice chip ceea ce spunea Yoga Swami: "Nu te amesteca printre cei care nu au niciun interes real în spiritualitate."

Carly's Song

Singura cale de a accede la acea plăcere a împlinirii pe care doar realizările cu adevărat importante o pot oferi este să te eliberezi de limitele care te ţin prizonierul propriei anxietăţi.

Făceam slalom printre stări, printre remuşcările clipei pe care realul mi le arunca sub forma bătăilor răsunătoare şi accelerate ale inimii, dereglări de ritm, palpitaţii, precum ascultarea necontrolată a unei muzici neselectate, interpretate ca o notă de subsol într-un experiment psihologic timpuriu.

Plină de întrebări, de incertitudini, mă aflam sub presiunea unui fenomen misterios şi complex, aruncată într-un abis care parcă retrasa coordonatele unei creaţii ce deschidea drumurile artei între ideea de voaierism asociat pasiunii pentru lectură, foarte dark, însă nevinovat, şi un voaierism scuturat de încărcătura plăcerilor senzuale.

Nu era de ajuns riscul pe care şi-l asuma farmecul subtil al acestui tip de literatură autoficţională, atentă la nuanţa unei tăceri adânci, acuzatoare, dar perverse și incitante, care adesea anesteziază rușinea unui păcat în imensitatea nopţii.

Mai trebuia să posed şi instrumentele necesare pentru a mă putea descurca în universul ce mi se propunea drept o vrajă pe care nu o înţelegeam, dar pe care o acceptam ca pe una din măreţele forme ale vieţii şi transformării personale. Pentru că însemna o aventură totală şi tainică, din care numai un artist ar fi putut extrage esenţa unei idei arhetipale, a unei fiinţe separate de ceilalţi.

Leadership: Iei în considerare acea stare contrară unei firi statornice, prin definirea expresă a noţiunii de „împrejurare" pe care se întemeiază contestarea valorilor care te recomandă ca artist?

Rareori se poate vorbi despre un roman stilistic inspirat din împăcarea antagonismelor dintre privat şi public, dintre încălcarea intimităţii, codul secret al perversităţii şi ecoul inconştientului fericit, în paradigma modernistă ca fiind unul reușit. Mai ales dacă el nu își asumă o apropiere specială între două lumi diferite.

Îmi era de ajuns să mă privesc în oglindă ca să mă regăsesc într-o lucrare artistică întemeiată de născocirea unei minţi aflate sub inspiraţie faustiană, prin zămislirea unui ritm al polarităţii între iubire şi contrariul ei, între pasiunea unificatoare şi dorinţele multiple, între mistic și raţional, între Cervantes și Nabokov, între care existau un continuum de posibilităţi. Carly don't be sad, Life is crazy, Life is mad, Don't be afraid.

Fiind dăruită întru totul senzualităţii înlănţuirilor de cuvinte, fără de care genul autoficţional nu poate fi înţeles pe deplin, mă testam într-un experiment incognito al gândului obscen născut din aburii suspinelor pentru o fericire eternă. Un ultim acord al fanteziilor şi viselor adolescenţei. Pentru a evidenția regulile stranii are teoriei mele despre rolul miraculosului în efemerul de lângă mine şi încărcându-l cu semnificaţii dincolo de limitele unilateralităţii.

Urlau în cuvintele mele nu doar savoarea unei obscenităţi bine plasate într-un context pasional, combinată cu o copleşitoare spaimă, ci şi necunoscutul noii ipostaze de victimă care-mi măsura capacitatea de a urma orbeşte ceva atât de efemer ca senzaţia de euforie.

Nici Dumnezeu n-ar fi putut curprinde nemărginirea clipei plină de erotismul ce se agita în sufletul meu.

Leadership: Poţi să te plasezi într-un context al posibilității de a te accepta pe de-a întregul, fără să-ţi resimţi propria condiţie sub semnul unei alterităţi vinovate?

Şi datorită acestui farmec efemer mă simţeam urmărită din toate unghiurile unei situaţii, pozitive, negative, complexe, simple, privită din spatele unei oglinzi mişcătoare, reflectând doar presentimente, în noaptea unui joc palpitant care cerea un preludiu al ieşirii din timpul uman şi o seducţie a unui corespondent în planul simţurilor, pe fondul unei temperaturi aparte.

O curiozitate preschimbată într-o estetică a revelaţiei. Căci mă simţeam sechestrată într-o proiecţie a imaginarului artistic, mai presus de ceea ce consideram anterior o schimbare într-un colţ de suflet, în care un ochi magic mă privea necontenit din toate direcţiile posibile. Eyes Wide Shut în ideea de voaierism al unui self-portrait care cere să fie citit în relaţie cu originalul.

Întotdeauna un portret creat în urma unei provocări neaşteptate şi a unei dorinţe perverse, nespuse decât pe-ascuns, la miez de noapte, puse pe seama unui acces de nebunie doar ca să treci dincolo de acel sentiment de vulnerabilitate simţit inconştient, s-ar putea exprima foarte bine printr-un salt în necunoscutul unei suprarealități ipotetice.

Autenticitatea care îmbrăţişează dezvoltarea personală, și mai apoi leadershipul, se stabileşte în funcție de semnificaţia pe care o acorzi valorilor tale într-un test al limitelor și al revoltei care se pun în calea realizării de sine.

Valorile în care crezi sunt date de provocările care te îndeamnă la creaţie, de capacitatea de a fi conştient de sentimentele, senzaţiile tale şi de a le exprima în relaţie cu exteriorul?

Născocirea unei noi expresii artistice este una din virtuțile mele de căpătâi. Grandoarea obscenităţii debordante şi umilinţa unui păcat pe care nu-l poate dezlega nici pocăinţa, se contopesc sub luna roşie a unei disperări care încearcă să-şi esenţializeze motivele ascunse în concordanţă cu lucrarea artistului izolat ce îşi resimte propria condiţie sub semnul unei alterităţi vinovate.

Carly don't be sad. That's your destiny. The only chance. Take it, take it in your hands. Abia acum remarc ce splendid se îmbină lenjeria intimă a literaturii cu tensiunea perversă a momentului înălţător de inspiraţie. Simt că cineva mă atinge, îmi cuprinde şoldurile într-o intensă încărcătură emoţională, mă incită şi mă consumă. Ceva aproape ireal transcende acele trăiri egoiste şi poate un pic materialiste de la vârste mai înaintate.

Singura cale de a accede la acea plăcere a împlinirii pe care doar realizările cu adevărat importante o pot oferi este de a te elibera de limitele care te ţin prizonierul propriei anxietăţi (sau marginalităţi). Scriitorii și artiştii cei mai buni au înțeles foarte bine acest lucru.

Marea împlinire a unui om care experimentează formele de abordare artistică, fie că este vorba despre o abordare imaginativă particulară pentru lucrul vizual, fie că este vorba despre o anume evoluţie opţională a limbajului poetic, este de a a câştiga o nouă înţelegere despre sine şi despre misiunea artistului în mijlocul lumii.

Carly's Song este o mărturisire a păcatului de care suferă artiştii cei mai buni, semn că au și ei sensibilităţile lor, ce se poate formula în felul următor: „Dacă eşti deschis către noi experienţe de viață și noi posibilități de creaţie, nu ai limite în a-ţi elibera dorinţele ascunse”.

Cartea aflată între Borges şi Hauff (II)

Ceea ce formează cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă este esenţa unei trăiri apriorice pe care o întâlneşti mereu în tine însuţi.

Uneori simt că m-am transformat în altcineva, în cineva profund interesat de posibilitatea înnoirii unui orizont spaţial al cunoaşterii, conform valorii de adevăr atribuite unei conştiinţe universale egală cu dimensiunea infinită a lucrării Creatorului. Iar dacă simt afinităţi mai adânci cu pasiunea pentru lectură, pentru scris, pentru creaţie, spunând lucruri esenţiale, deci creând ceva frumos, este pentru că am reuşit să mă raportez la universul scriitoricesc al lui Borges care s-a extins şi s-a ghidat după fusul orar al unui univers paralel în care Wilhelm Hauff este ultima realitate.

Drept urmare, viaţa mea scrisă într-o carte de proză este rezumatul cărţilor celor doi mistici explicat într-o singură carte pe care nicio altă carte, din nicio bibliotecă din lume, nu-l mai cuprinde. Există o credință deşertică în ce privește cărțile secrete ale celor doi mistici, şi pe care a mea carte o nuanţează minunat, cu accente contemporane, cu o suavitate imaginativă, prin înlocuirea unei identităţi cu o altă identitate.

Sunt sigur că niciun deșert nu cuprinde mai mult nisip decât găsești în basmele lui Wilhelm Huaff pe care Borges le-a vorbit în limba arabă cu vântul deșertului, cu specificaţia că fiecare bob de nisip prezent în întinderea deşertului lor este o consecinţă şi o continuare a cărţii mele, o regăsire a mea într-o viaţă trecută, sau o renaştere a mea într-o viaţă viitoare.

Iar dacă mi-aş reciti viața în universul lui Hauff, din care face parte Borges, m-aş regăsi în legenda faimosului călător care și-a scris numele pe nisipul timpului.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea de a influenţa direcţia şi ritmul schimbării unei funcții de tip "search you own self in the end of a new beginning" ca şi consecinţă a posibilităţii tale de a modifica Universul micro şi macro al unui Alter-Ego?

Da, este o mare plăcere să-l recitesc pe Wilhelm Hauff, fiindcă el mă trimite în universul lui Borges din care altădată m-am recunosc ca fiind Hauff. Aşadar, drag cititor, citește-l pe Borges și ai să-l întâlnești pe Wilhelm Hauff. Citește-l pe Hauff și vei păși în 1001 nopți. Iar în 1001 nopți vei fi din nou Borges, în condiţiile specifice ale nisipurilor mişcătoare din cartea mea.

Şi mai trebuie să ştii un lucru, dragul meu cititor, din care eu însumi fac parte. De fiecare dată când marile evenimente prin care te-a dus viaţa vor deveni expresia unor năzuinţe superioare şi de valoare permanentă, într-un fond al universului ce evoluează continuu conform teoriei alterităţii, să ştii că abia atunci vei simţi nevoia de reîntoarcere la simplitatea definirii lucrurilor simple, privite prin ochi de artist.

Alteori, ţi se va întâmpla să simţi că eşti altcineva, aşa cum mi se întâmplă mie adesea, plin de relevanţă, în contextul modelului cauzal al realităţii, atunci când îl citesc pe Borges. Şi, ca orice scriitor adevărat care vorbeşte misticii şi în special oamenilor de ştiinţă, simt că ideile lui Borges aparţin ideilor lui Hauff şi ca însăşi ideile lui Hauff sunt rodul plăsmuirii unei minţi de talia lui Borges.

Iar când vei simţi acest lucru, şi cu siguranţă ţi se va întâmpla acest lucru dacă citeşti cărţile celor doi scriitori, poate vei reuşi să intri în mintea celui care acum scrie aceste rânduri fără de care tu nu ai putea fi tu, ci ai fi un altul care urmează mereu şi mereu un nou ciclu al întrupării şi al metamorfozei. Cine ştie, poate într-o bună zi vei înţelege Misterul Cuvântului Întrupat.

Leadership: Schimbarea modului în care priveşti o situaţie poate schimba modul cum o percepi şi o înţelegi, în măsura în care te raportezi la un moment care nu-ţi aparţine, dar sălăşluieşte în tine?

Vei deveni deşert, vei deveni nisip, vei deveni uşor de modelat în forme compacte de poezie pură, în asociere cu un grad mare de independenţă la un univers ciclic, nestaţionar, şi iar te vei întoarce la punctul de unde ai pornit. Vei face trecerea de la micro la macro, de fiecare dată reenergizat, mai pur, ca să poţi înţelege şi recunoaşte că identitatea sufletului nu moare niciodată, ci este mereu transpusă în cuvinte, în sentimente, în imagini, în numere sau în culori.

Acest aspect este valabil atât pentru tine cât şi pentru cei ce şi-au activat în memorie funcţia de căutare a următorului fragment dintr-o altă carte a deşertului, scrisă de un alt erudit pe nume Mika Waltari:

"De ce am trăit încă nu ştiu. Terminând această ultimă carte, sunt şi mai nedumerit decât atunci când m-am apucat să scriu. Scrisul a fost o mângâiere în toţi aceşti ani, în care am avut doar marea în faţa ochilor mei. Am văzut-o roşie şi neagră, am văzut-o verde ziua, am văzut-o albă noaptea. Am văzut-o albastră uneori, în zilele toride, mai albastră decât pietrele albastre şi sunt deja sătul s-o mai privesc. Marea este prea mare, prea înfricoşătoare şi un om o poate privi toată viaţa fără să se plictisească, fiindcă întotdeauna este altfel. Numai că privind-o, se întristează şi începe să i se învârtă capul de ameţeală. Simt cum inima îmi coboară într-un hău fără fund când privesc marea.

Deşertul este la fel ca marea, este mereu prezent în gândurile mele, în sufletul meu, fiind simbolul care va continua să-mi dea încredere în mine, într-o altă vedere asupra vieţii."

Mi-ai înţeles punctul de vedere, dragă cititorule, din care şi eu fac parte. Căci până aici ţi-am spus totul despre marea cunoaştere, sau Marea Operă Universală, cum o numesc unii. După cum bine ţi-ai dat seama, universul micro şi macro al unui Alter-Ego cuprinde acea formă a întrupării şi a metamorfozei ce poate dura la infinit, dar şi acea poveste pe scurt a unui moment de insight (care încorporează reflecția, inteligența emoțională, conștiința de sine și motivația) trăit printr-o identificare cu însăşi natura ta reversibilă.

Leadershipul este o structură de profunzime ce ține de împletirea miraculoasă între fascinația pentru povestea inventată de mintea omului şi existenţa lui reală supusă unei revizuiri a imaginii care îl reprezintă în altă ipostază.

Cartea aflată între Borges şi Hauff este drumul pe care îl parcurgi de la identitate la alteritate, cu specificaţia că cine eşti şi cine vei fi nu spune mare lucru despre tine, ci despre adeziunea necondiţionată din partea ta la un univers care pare guvernat de hazard, deci, inevitabil, absurd. Acest univers nu este legat de experienţa directă asupra realităţii, ci de un dat aprioric.

Cartea aflată între Borges şi Hauff (I)

Istorisirea unei creaţii de mare întindere universală este expresia unei manifestări artistice care promovează ideea unei arte create după modele deja existente, în conformitate cu experienţa de a fi ceea ce nu eşti, chiar dacă în realitate eşti altcineva.

Mi-am închipuit adesea că sunt o carte însufleţitoare, cuvântătoare şi cugetătoare, scrisă la persoana întâi cu limbajul artei izvorât din atitudinea emotivă a creaţiei aplecate spre taină şi inexplicabil. Și, ştiind că nicio carte nu spune o poveste mai frumoasă decât un personaj care își trăiește povestea în lumea reală, m-am hotărât să-mi imaginez o lume fără sfârşit, perfectă prin echivalenţa dintre trăirea unei realităţi apriorice şi imaginea ei veridică, indicată de tensiunea unei alterităţi fulminante.

Însăşi faptul că eu sunt o carte fără nume, dintr-o lume fără sfârşit, spune multe despre un artist al cărui orizont este diferit de cele ale artiștilor din generația lui. Căci dacă mintea mea ar fi o carte, iar sufletul meu o altă carte, atunci lumea ar avea două cărți care spun în mod diferit aceeași poveste. Iar dacă aş fi o sumă de povesti scrise într-o singură carte, poate că totuşi s-ar găsi cineva care să vadă în fiecare poveste o nouă carte ce promite să recreeze o altă lume. Nesfârşită. Nemăsurată. Artistică. Scânteietoare. Ieşită din tipare.

Iar tu, cititorule drag, din care fac parte eu însumi, te rog să iei în considerare următoarele. Fiecare carte nouă pe care o citești cu atenţie nescăzută, fiind ancorată parcă într-un fond unitar al universului ce evoluează numai prin creaţie şi originalitate, imaginează-ți că face parte din acea unică carte ce îți instruieşte sufletul să-și facă o descriere distinctă.

Și chiar dacă ai citi mai multe cărți, scrise de alţi autori, dacă nu trăiești cu adevărat viața personajelor din această carte unică, atunci nu vei simți niciodată vraja poveștilor fără sfârșit. Cred că, de fapt, important nu este să citești multe cărți, ci să înveți să te integrezi în povestea personajului din cartea ta preferată.

Leadership: Cum îţi justifici alegerea de a trăi un mod autentic de a fi prin raportul ce se stabileşte între momentul privilegiat al reflecţiei despre tine însuţi şi posibilitatea exprimării trăirilor sufleteşti oglindite într-o lume identică cu a ta?

Citind această carte despre mine însumi, îl vei întâlni pe Wilhelm Hauff şi pe Jorge Luis Borges, sub aceeaşi stea care mi-a luminat drumul într-un moment în care-mi pierdusem busola şi navigam în derivă, universul fiindu-mi martor la cât de greu mi-a fost să devin un Creator pe fondul zdruncinat al reflecției despre realitatea ajunsă până într-un strat al inteligenţei carteziene, spectaculare, excesive.

Totul este favorabil până la nivelul profunzimii. Cu timpul¸ în privinţa a ceea ce se socoteşte o experienţă pe care nu pot cunoaste decât apriori, am învățat de la Hauff cum să fiu Borges, fiindcă trăirile mele sufletești erau tot mai încorporate în personajele nemuritoare ale unei realități prudent revelate din perspectiva vieților multiple ale sufletului ce predomină asupra materiei.

După mulţi ani de scris artistic, cu o semnificaţie ce ţine de miraculos, cu acea doză de intimitate care s-ar cuveni să rămână secretă sau accesibilă doar creatorilor, am devenit destul de matur ca să înţeleg că o călătorie într-un mare deşert nu se termină niciodată. Și dacă voi fi mereu parte din sufletul lui Hauff, fiindcă Borges m-a făcut să îndrăgesc nespus fiecare din cele 1001 de nopți, este pentru că viața mea pare să funcționeze după principiul vieților multiple ce se regăsesc numai în zona unui deșert parcă nesfârșit de dincolo de el.

Leadership: Ai putea să realizezi un tablou plin de viaţă fără să te uiţi la o imagine, ci doar să redai ceea ce vezi cu ochii minţii, încât să simţi că în tine se regăsesc mai multe modele de gândire asemănătoare?

Și atât de mult mi-am regăsit sufletul în povestirile lui Hauff și al lui Borges, și atât de mult am călătorit cu ei în zona deșertului, încât am simțit cum un singur fir de nisip ce se cerne în clepsidra timpului este trup din suflul unei trăiri universale și a unei libertăți fără limite. Sufletul este şi el o povestire, dar care se merită repovestită numai prin dedublarea lui în altă dimensiune.

Chiar şi acum, prin mine însumi, în această altă viață care străluceşte în alte vieţi, în aceste rânduri scrise cu suflet, cu simțire, cu căldura deșertului, trăiește același Hauff perpetuat în realitatea vizibilă doar pentru ochiul adevăratului înţelept și clarvăzător, numit Borges. Astfel îmi justific alegerea de a trăi autentic, prin replica scriitoricească ce o dau unei vieţi trăită în altă viaţă.

După cum se vede, mereu amintesc de Borges în cartea mea, fiindcă el îmi aduce aminte de Hauff, și pentru că Hauff îmi amintește de deșertul pe care l-am traversat deghizat în personajele lui Borges. Da. Mi-am imaginat că sunt Borges în timp ce-l citeam pe Hauff. Dar am devenit Hauff fiindcă filosofia mea era înzestrată cu gândirea lui Borges.

Pornind de la acest lucru, voi fi eu însumi Hauff datorită nisipurilor mișcătoare și a vântului deșertului care au îngropat biblioteca imensă a lui Borges, dar au păstrat în neuitare cuvintele de aur: "Timpul trebuie să mai aștepte".

Leadershipul este gândirea ce ţi-o personalizezi prin sugerarea unei realităţi în care îţi manifeşti superioritatea ca spirit, ca trup, ca energie, ca atitudine, dar aşa încât să-ţi doreşti să afli mai multe despre tine.

Cartea aflată între Borges şi Hauff deschide o nouă perspectivă asupra unei realităţi pe care eşti obligat să o analizezi cu minuţiozitatea unui Alter Ego, încât să poţi promova pe viitor gândirea unei noi ontologii a "diferenţei" în încercarea de a fi altcineva.

Cartea cărţilor

On August 27, 2020

N-am nevoie de inspirație din alte cărți. Eu sunt inspirația mea totală.

Am în faţa mea o carte şi un creion. Amândouă se au una pe cealaltă. Dar ochii mei cuprind mai mult înţelesul ascuns al cărţii decât adnotările făcute cu creionul pe carte, în mare parte fiindcă ochii mei reacţionează în mod independent la modalităţile de receptare a obiectului şi a procesului artistic, asta în baza raportului dintre autor şi operă.

Ceea ce văd este ceea ce cartea mă lasă să văd, iar ceea ce cuprind cu mintea, cu sufletul, cu lumină şi cu adevăr, este ceea ce creionul îmi indică ca fiind prioritar pentru percepţia unei imagini care se citeşte mereu altfel, la fiecare lectură.

Experienţele repetate de scriere şi citire mi-au adus constatarea că sunt străbătut de un fluid misterios, invizibil, spiritual, nediluat în timp, care se află într-o mişcare de curgere faţă de orizontala parcurgerii imaginare a unei lumi construite din cuvinte.

Nu-mi trebuie prea multe cuvinte ca să descriu cartea sau creionul. Îmi trebuie doar un cuvânt: viziune. Şi, da, sunt un vizionar pentru că am citit într-o carte ceea ce acum scriu cu creionul, fără să fiu inclus ca personaj în acea carte.

Între pensulă şi stilou există o legătură care se regăseşte în modalitatea de e expedia o scrisoare, mai mult o scrisoare în care găseşti toane, dispoziţie şi stări ce urcă şi coboară în filonul gândurilor. Lucrarea lor este mereu imprevizibilă, la fel şi destinaţia, sentimentele la care ne ridicăm citind sau privind nu au intodeauna o raţiune, povestirea se termină uneori înainte să ne ducem la capăt firul imaginaţiei, culorile îşi aparţin însă mereu unele altora. Şi, bineînţeles, creatorul este un magician care face deseori o călătorie între nevoia de diversitate şi agitaţie, între amintiri şi vise, unele stringente, altele prea limpezi.

Totul devine complicat şi extrem de simplu. Imaginaţia este asemenea unei telegrame trimisă din odaia celui care îmbină scrisul cu pictura ca şi cum ar apăsa pe un buton, câteodată rămâne încremenit în încordarea creaţiei. Tot astfel, realitatea se aşează mereu diferit, uneori în planuri neclare, alteori ca şi cum s-ar desprinde de la o fereastră al cărei geam ne pare cunoscut, uneori roz, alteori albastru şi de multe ori are o culoare pe care nu ştim să o citim foarte bine.

Da, aşa este. Creatorul, în actul lui se vrea în acord cu tine, chiar dacă eşti o prezenţă trecătoare, chiar dacă viaţa este efemeră. Necazurile şi luptele, prin ceea ce creează, pentru un artist stiloul şi pensula sunt precum o curăţire, o dezlegare, el pune toate lucrurile desăvârşite prin talent deasupra cuvintelor, deasupra asfinţitului şi răsăritului...(Ioana Sarah)

Nicicând nu se arată mai bine semnele decât în zilele liniştite, când aparent nimic deosebit nu se întâmplă. Fii cu mare băgare de seamă la tot ce te înconjoară. Fii atent cum bate vântul, fii atent la zborul păsărilor şi fii atent în ce se reflectă forma şi lumina lunii.

Mai ales, învaţă să ştii ce să faci cu ce cunoşti. Nu uita de Dumnezeu nici când vezi, nici când nu vezi. Răul nu se schimbă niciodată.

Fiecare individ când scrie, este ca şi cum ar face parte dintr-un roman în care personajele nu sunt cunoscute, drept dovadă vede şi nu crede, sau crede fără să vadă. Scrisul e un fel de postaş care ajunge uneori la uşa sufletului omului, alteori merge pe căi ocolite, ca atunci când ninge abundent şi se troienesc cărările. Ne strecurăm uneori în scris ca şi cum am alerga pe scări, încât ajungem la o întâlnire altfel neprogramată şi nicidecum aşteptată. Da, scrisul e ca o linişte când toamna cad frunze, fiecare clipă fiind supravegheată de Dumnezeu, e ca o mamă ce stinge lumina atunci când toată lumea e acasă. (Ioana Sarah) -

Am întâlnit pe cineva care alerga bine. Apoi am întâlnit pe altcineva care alerga şi mai bine. Apoi am întâlnit pe cineva care nu alerga deloc, stătea pe o bancă, liniştit, şi privea în zare.

În altă zi m-am aşezat pe o bancă. Am văzut un artist care picta minunat. Am observat apoi şi alţi artişti care pictau mult mai bine ca primul. Dar eu sunt un alergător.

Aici stă înţelegerea pe care o dau gândului din seara asta. Indiferent pe ce pun accent, forma şi conţinutul nu sunt întotdeauna pe acelaşi plan. Voi învăţa să fiu pătruns de o perfectă potrivire între parte şi tot.

Ascult o melodie superbă. O ascult de când eram mic. O voi asculta şi la bătrâneţe. O voi asculta mereu, fiindcă îmi aminteşte de mine, de trecut, de prezent. Şi chiar dacă o voi asculta mereu, o voi face diferit, la fel cum sunt şi eu odată cu trecerea timpului. Diferit.

Melodia are prin excelenţă caracterul unui întreg mişcător, vibrant şi însufleţitor mai ales dacă eu sunt cheia unui întreg univers. Şi, mai ştiu, că fără această melodie universul ar fi fost diferit, fiindcă nici eu nu mai sunt acelaşi.

Numai datorită acestui fapt încă mă mai caut, sperând să mă regăsesc în acele note muzicale purtate de-un suflet predestinat unui destin deosebit. Felul formei de a vedea lumea atârnă tocmai de felul conţinutului care mă face să mă simt eu însumi, eu cel de acum.

Melodia încă mă hipnotizează...iar universul încă mă încurajează să mă las purtat de val.

Privesc noaptea. Sunt în întuneric. Luna este ceva mic şi luminos care vrea să mă primească în lumea ei, dar tot ea mă părăseşte odată cu primul nor, dându-mi binecuvântarea unei speranţe în renaşterea unei conştiinţe elevate. Dar nopţii tomnatice nu-i pasă de lumină, mai debrabă preferă acea stare de amorţire a simţurilor, a spiritului, a sensibilităţii, pentru asigurarea unei uitări de sine şi de alţii.

Lumina lunii devine o alianţă împotriva întunericului şi singurătăţii, un fel de paranteză pătrată pusă în dreptul a două puncte verticale: îndoitul rod al simţurilor şi tulburarea sensibilităţii datorate iluziei de a fi separat de întreg, despărţit de restul lumii, dar apropiat de cele sfinte. S-ar zice că răsuflarea mea în bezna nopţii este renaşterea unui sentiment numit nostalgie, versiunea integrală, necenzurată, a unui gând de pe alt un hotar, dintr-o altă experienţă specifică tinereţii mele. Bineînţeles, asta e o altă poveste.

Aşadar, mă aflu la mijloc, între întunericul dens şi o părticică din povestea unei luminiţe care mă face să cred că orice este posibil. Nu este vorba despre curajul de a străluci în întuneric, ci despre faptul că spiritul meu se lasă atras de negaţia unei origini care ar trebui să fie descoperită. Un lucru complicat căruia încă mă străduiesc să-i deslușesc sensurile.

Luna încă se ascunde în noapte atunci când o fiinţă îşi caută parcă propriile ei temeiuri într-o iluminare a sufletului. Nu mai sunt eu însumi, sunt cel care mă găsesc în afara tuturor.

În fiecare dimineaţă citesc cel puţin o oră. Citesc fără oprire. Îmi încălzesc mintea, sau poate mintea îmi cere să fiu dovada străduinţei omeneşti de a cunoaşte Marele Tot al lumii în planul dualităţii: dintre conţinut şi formă, dintre visul ascuns şi realitatea concretă.

Şi dacă citesc, şi citesc zilnic, ei bine, lucrul acesta este evident în domeniul artei, unde fiecare pagină devine mai mult decât o pagină, devine o etapă precedentă alchimiei, însuşire a limbajului scris cu litere de foc în vocabularul unei limbi universale, înregistrare în scris a unei observații referitoare la o anumită gramatică universală care ar putea constitui un fel de fond comun al tuturor limbilor.

Am decis să văd şi să redau necontenit un întreg bine organizat, cu pulsaţie de poveste de viaţă, între adevăr şi provocare. Iată, deci, cum ajung la acelaşi rezultat: repet o anumită operațiune pe mai multe linii de cod răspândite în lumea cuvintelor, şi îmi dau seama că singurul cod care contează este, prin excelenţă, mirajul unui orizont posibil, dar neperceput decât de inimă.

Ochiul artistului este inima unui loc plin de mistere, iar artistul este un om care descifrează mistere în paşi de cuvinte.

Am alergat în această seară vreo 8 km la stadion, mai cu seamă mi-am păstrat vitalitatea. La final am făcut câteva poze cu prietenii de la alergat. Cumva, am simţit că sunt prins între două lumi, între nu şi da. Mai întâi eram eu însumi, închis în lumea mea, apoi erau ei înşişi, închişi în lumea lor.

N-am putut să nu remarc diferenţa dintre noi, deşi diferenţa era un mic progres în ceea ce priveşte precizia acţiunilor iniţiate, antrenamentul puţin diferit, dar la fel de intens.

În lumea mea se întrunea condiţia obligatorie a unui spirit luminat de idealurile artei, care parcă îşi programase o misiune de îndeplinit, în căutarea unei perspective de creaţie sau de inovaţie. Or în lumea celorlalţi, părea să se facă numai evaluarea performanţei atletice într-un context de împărtășire a cunoştinţelor și oferirea de exemple practice și relevante.

Iată ce am înţeles în această seară. Întotdeauna un artist gândeşte ca un artist chiar şi atunci când practică sportul, concomitent cu actul de a avea o atitudine de loialitate şi performanţă. Aşadar, chiar şi atunci când alergi, nu uita că eşti un artist a cărui practică variază de la filosofie până la roluri de leadership.

Am fost un pic mai devreme în grădina botanică. Soarele lumina totul atât de plăcut, aproape tot atât de plăcut ca vara. Am făcut vreo 3 poze, după care mi s-a dus bateria la telefon. În ansamblu, a fost o întâlnire cu mine însumi, cu soarele, cu natura, peste tot o ușoară îngălbenire de toamnă.

Şi m-am plimbat, am admirat, şi am respirat aer proaspăt. Multă lume. Dar o linişte ciudată se răspândea peste tot în jur, ca o constrângere şi ca o limitare, ca şi când nimeni nu avea voie să converseze. Doar privitul părea obligatoriu. Razele soarelui treceau prin orice gând, prin orice privire, prin orice inimă doritoare să primească energie.

Dacă peste tot a predominat sentimentul de mulțumire sufletească, împăcare cu sinele, asta s-a datorat intelectului artistic şi gustului pentru frumos care şi-au trimis firele senzitive până în constituţia specifică a fiecărui lucru sau a fiecărei fiinţe.

Uneori, arta de a fi un om plăcut se produce ca o conexiune între ceea ce simţi când nu alergi să atragi atenţia şi ceea ce gândeşti despre tine când devine posibil să fii un singuratic în mulţime.

În timpul scurt ce a mai rămas până la sfârsitul anului, atât de multe se vor schimba în domeniul științei. Trebuie doar să știi ce să schimbi.

În timpul scurt ce a rămas, nimeni nu ştie ce se va schimba, omenirea încă se bâlbâie, ce să schimbăm devine greu dacă au fost aruncate toate în aer. Era o vorbă bună, un deştept aruncă o piatră în apă şi zece proşti nu o mai pot scoate. Fiecare poate crede orice şi visa departe, afirmaţiile stau în cuvinte, iar ca să schimbi realitatea e nevoie de fapte, mai ales că faptele bune şi le asumă cei puternici, celelalte sunt exact ca atunci când mergi în parc şi din multă dragoste arunci mâncare pentru porumbei…

În fiecare zi, indiferent de moment, omenirea citeşte şi asimilează informaţie nouă, altfel nu s-ar mai vinde cărţi şi dacă nu s-ar vinde, fiecare ar scrie pentru apropiaţii care ar citi. Ceea ce ar fi un fel de "pomană" la care chemi rude şi cunoştinţe. În domeniul artei rămân opere literare, scrieri care se bucură de multe aprecieri, premii şi aşa mai departe…nu spun de picturi, însă şi ele sunt valoroase prin prisma celor care le achiziţionează, altfel un om poate muri liniştit cu multe lucrări nevalorificate…

Ce face fiecare în plan personal şi în liniştea casei lui are cumva legătură cu arta. Arta este şi atunci când speli vasele, ştiind că în sânul acestei activităţi domină anumite motive directoare, corespunzând diferitelor valori de eficienţă. Poate că arta este atunci când expui sau vinzi lucrări şi oamenii se calcă pe picioare pentru a cumpăra sau le vedea, este ca atunci când tipăreşti cărţi şi ele se vând, lumea le cauta încă… Dar, totodată, arta ţine de numărul oamenilor care îşi aduc aminte de tine chiar şi după ce ai murit: Eminescu, Brâncuşi, Nichita, Labiş, Enescu, Grigorescu, Sadoveanu….aş sta până dimineaţă să enumăr …ce facem noi oamenii simpli este hrănirea sufletului, oricât ne-am da peste cap ! (Ioana Sarah)

Am alergat în această dimineaţă, de la ora 9. Prin pădure, pe dealuri. A fost un traseu minunat, circa 12 km. Am alergat lângă alţi alergători, majoritatea cunoscându-ne foarte bine, mai ales după atâtea antrenamente împreună. De asemenea, au lipsit foarte mulţi alergători din grupul nostru.

A fost o zi normală pentru alergare, noroiul părea foarte alunecos pe alocuri, bruma se încadra şi ea în plan, totul era umed. Dar soarele ne-a făcut cu ochiul la fiecare pas. De la 2 grade a crescut temperatura la 7 grade în numai oră şi jumătate. Toţi ne-am simţit minunat, exact ca atunci când urcam vara muntele în grupuri compacte.

Şi iată ce am învăţat, de această dată. Totul vine de la sine. Forţa fizică, rezistenţa, să fii capabil să alergi foarte mulţi kilometri în amonte, voinţa să nu te dai bătut, acestea sunt doar un minim necesar pe care ţi-l conservă ocazia de a fi parte dintr-o atmosferă de neuitat.

Uneori te pierzi în strădania ta de a fi tu însuți, absorbind în direcţia propriului sistem de valori o trăire profundă, care implică în mod original acea simţire a inimii de a te recunoaşte un altul, distinct, în fiecare din ceilalţi. Ceea ce se remarcă aici este capacitatea conştiinţei de a fi suverană unei Memorii colective, vii, menită să ducă mai departe un sens al continuităţii, al începutului fără sfârşit.

Mesajul şi imaginea spun totul, mai rămâne ca fiecare să treacă prin prisma gândului scris propria-i înţelegere.

M-am plimbat prin parc, fac asta mereu. În seara asta nu era doar linişte, era şi un soi de pace a sufletului a cărei existenţă n-am mai cunoscut-o niciodată, sugerând un anumit mod al conştiinţei mele de a se deschide în faţa unei lumi mai reţinute, mai retrasă din vibraţia generată de aglomeraţia oraşului. Şi am continuat să mă plimb, încet, visător, gânditor, făcând totul dintr-o asumare a condiţiei celui ce şi-a dedicat existenţa universului numit "Eu însumi".

Nu m-am gândit la nimic altceva decât la liniştea atât de grăitoare, pe cât de solitară, pe atât de pătrunzătoare, încât am crezut la un moment dat că fac parte dintr-o anumită secţiune a "Sonatei Lunii", dintr-o stranie lume paralelă, asemănătoare cu o transă hipnotică. Mi se părea că aud o melodie lentă în surdină, cu nişte versuri mângâietoare, totuşi atât de străine de personalitatea mea.

Toamna târzie îmi vorbea prin felul cum priveam totul în jur: rupând câte puţin din înţelegerea mea, fiindcă am încercat să sesizez o emoție care să mă transpună într-o altă lume, fără să simt emoţia unei clipe deosebite. Clipa de a trăi pe deplin aici și acum.

Am înţeles, totuşi, un lucru. Posibilitatea de a mă cufunda în emoţia unei experienţe a tăcerii, într-un parc liniştit, lasă să domine obiectivitatea unei viziuni clare şi integre asupra naturii umane. Un om nu se poate cunoaște mai bine până ce nu-şi întâlneşte completarea firească într-o formă de comunicare cu el însuşi.

Tăcerea este singura expresie de intonaţie a sinelui.

Prefer să fiu eu însumi, mai ales atunci când alerg, ştiind că ceea ce mă face un sportiv mai bun este insistenţa de a nu mă prezenta în postura falsă a unei persoane fără caracter puternic. Şi aşa, am renunţat de mult timp la anumite motive directoare, corespunzând valorilor de mare atracţie, cu pretenţii de exclusivitate, care mi-ar putea evidenţia prea mult calităţile sportive.

Nu sunt un vitezoman, nici vreun simbol al rezistenţei în alergarea la maraton. Momentele în care apar destul de transparent, liber să mă simt în largul meu, în sânul cărora viaţa obişnuită trage cu ochiul numai la tiparul unei forme de auto-exprimare trăită cu puterea văzului artistic, sunt unice prin facultatea mea sufletească de a scrie, de a mă regăsi într-o singură poveste. Povestea mea.

Perfecţiunea este valoarea omului care îşi surprimă tendinţele de diferenţiere.

Încerc să uit de ceea ce nu trebuie să-mi amintesc. Însăşi amintirile sunt uneori o povară, mult mai greu de îndurat decât posibilitatea de a nu mai fi eu însumi un unicat. Căci totul se reduce la nevoia de a uita faptul că nu am fost dintotdeauna cel ce sunt acum, îngrijorându-mă de importanţa acordata unei căutări a ceea ce am vrut dintotdeauna să devin.

O facultate sufletească izolată, căci mi-am asumat multe nereuşite, himere, neîncredere, imagine neclară de sine, atitudine nerealistă. Chiar şi acum sufletul meu face acordul dintre atunci şi acum prin care se distinge intuirea profundă a unei cauze de emancipare, afirmare, răbdare superioară. Nu-i de mirare că de atâtea ori am emis judecăţi prea puţin apreciative cu privire la ceea ce e frumos la mine, la lume, la univers.

Lupta profundă cu mine însumi a fost orgoliul de a-mi controla destinul atunci când sufletul meu se aprinsese de dorinţa de a vedea acel ceva "mai deosebit" în alte persoane, decât la mine.

Probabil, modurile de a vedea acel ceva la care ne uităm zilnic ne sunt oferite la alegere de versiunea unei auto-observări în care sufletul nu este suficient de bine copt încât să iasă din ceaţa groasă a confuziilor... la lumina unei vârste fără amurg.

Şi dacă i-ai spune omului să se schimbe, el tot nu s-ar schimba, în veci. Nici măcar schimbarea nu schimbă omul, ci îl bagă în altă lume, într-o nebuloasă care nu are nimic de-a face cu realitatea.

Astfel este omul care nu are niciun Dumnezeu, este neschimbat, neschimbător și, bineînțeles, considerabil lipsit de caracter. În acest caz, poate e mai drăguţ să ascultăm sfatul lui Marcus Aurelius:

"Nimic nu e mai ruşinos decât prietenia lupului: înainte de orice, fereşte-te de acesta."

Privesc tot timpul înainte, dar uneori uit să privesc de aproape, considerând că tot ceea are de spus depărtarea este mai de folos decât ce are de spus apropierea. În cazul Eului original, situaţia este cu totul alta. Am perfectă dreptate să mă analizez dintr-un punct de vedere neutru, adică fără influenţa vreunei vederi stabilizate în jur, fiindcă nu pun presiune pe sentimentul de a aparţine cuiva.

Gândirea aceasta este foarte îndreptăţită, chiar emancipată de domnia sferei vitale a ideii de contact autentic cu mine însumi. Sinele nu poate ajunge predominant în toate colţurile lumii, înspre vederile unei autorităţi exterioare, într-o vastă producţie de perspective, dar întotdeauna se recunoaşte aproape de profunzimea unei clipe trăită sub inocenţa orientării unitare.

Sinele are calitatea de a fi unul singur. Trebuie să-mi susţin starea de definire a trăitului a cărei intensitate dă valoare existenţei, rezumând fiinţa mea la profunzimea ei originală.

Beau un ceai fierbinte de mentă, la prima infuzie. Nu doar că-l beau, îl şi savurez cu toată fiinţa mea, ca şi când aş introduce în organism un leac misterios care promite viaţa veşnică. Tot acest proces poate desemna o anumită suprapunere între miracolul tinereţii şi devitalizarea sfârşitului, o înlănţuire de gânduri simple între forţa superioară a durabilului şi o reacţie de moment împotriva efemerului.

Cumva, aici şi acum, mă simt nemuritor. Numai ceaiul este de vină, fiindcă îmi arată că păstrează încă un caracter de permanenţă, o orientare în sensul durabilului şi atemporalului, exprimat mai bine printr-o stare de spirit excelentă, un nivel sporit de energie şi un somn mai odihnitor.

Da, chiar şi cei nemuritori îşi mai odihnesc din când în când oboseala de a trăi tot mai mult în prezent.

Însă, în legătură cu aceasta trebuie să accentuez ceva în mod deosebit: puterea ceaiului nu are legături unitare cu tinereţea fără bătrâneţe, ci se raportează la o existenţă care încă se reabilitează prin sorbirea unei conversaţii cu mine însumi.

Asadar, ceaiul mă familiarizează cu un aspect profund al lumii în care mă învârt: tot ce se manifestă în acord cu mine însumi trebuie neapărat să se cufunde în sorbirea unei trăiri care nu se aseamănă cu o alta.

Ceaiul mă face să simt trăirea experienţei unei realităţi care transcende ceea ce este trecător şi care mişcă doar ceea ce nu se vede.

Veneam de la alergat. Multe frunze erau căzute pe bulevard, multe din ele rupte de paşii trecătorilor. Am ridicat o frunză veştedă, am privit-o atent, dar nu cu ochii unui artist, ci mai degrabă cu ochii unui om obişnuit care nu încearcă să descopere o semnificaţie ascunsă în orice lucru din jur.

Şi priveam frunza în timp ce mergeam, în linişte, cu o milă nesfârşită, fără să comunicăm în vreun el, fără să ne știm motivele blândeţii din priviri. Cumva, mă simţeam ca şi când aş fi intrat în underground-ul unei lumi ce se descompune lent, dar inevitabil. Şi frunza, atât cât se pricepea la oameni, mă privea cu nişte ochi goi, ca şi când ar fi văzut în mine propria ei goliciune, dezintegrare.

Şi atunci am înţeles mesajul naturii. În tot ceea ce îmi adâncesc gândurile zace o aparenţă, ceva care este altfel decât pare la prima vedere, o aparenţă care-mi zice hai, deschide-mă, simte-mi prezenţa în neant.

O clipă mi-am întrerupt circuitul sufletului în univers şi am plutit într-o necunoaştere crasă a realităţii, într-o încolăcire moale şi leneşă de simţuri şi raţiune.

Da, şi eu sunt o aparenţă a frunzelor posibil de a fi percepută doar printr-o privire a naturii aruncată asupra limitelor umanului, asupra derivelor existenţiale ale umanului.

Frunzele cad toamna si mereu sunt la fel de frumoase, realitatea are subtitluri si indeplineste mereu ceva in viata noastra, frunzele cad ca intr-o surzenie placuta tot timpul, unele se inalta cand sunt calcate de parca ar fi abisuri. Ele seamana unele cu altele la fel cum seamana picaturile de roua, nu trebuie sa fii artist sa privesti, artistul traieste in veacuri si e de neegalat, noi ceilalti suntem trecatori prin viata. (Ioana Sarah)

Am alergat în această seară aproximativ 10 km. Dar am alergat ca şi când n-aş fi alergat, dovedind că sunt o punte peste timpul unui interviu acordat sufletului meu de a fi pururea acelaşi, statornic în comuniunea lui spirituală cu Dumnezeu. Şi asta pentru că în profunzimea firii mele, a gândurilor mele, a trăirilor mele, se regăseşte acea înţelegere a scriitorului cu cititorul.

Pentru tot ce ai făcut pentru mine, tu, minunat suflet cuprins de cea mai tăinuită mângâiere a unui timp memorabil, îţi datorez o mie de cuvinte de neimaginat, dar totodată îţi datorez o explicaţie: îmi doresc consolidarea sentimentului de apartenenţă la ceva mai mare decât mine însumi.

În lumea esenţelor sufleteşti domină miracolul de a face să coincidă sensul şi fiinţa, acordul dintre formă şi conţinut, gustul independenţei unei vieţi libere.

Tocmai aici este înţelegerea. Oricât aş fi încercat să alerg, cât mai bine şi pe distanţe cât mai lungi, ca de altfel, orice formă aş da unor situaţii de maximă concentrare, frumosul care îmi dezleagă cuvintele încă îmi urmează paşii spre o ţintă necunoscută. Sunt un alergător care îşi alege bine cuvintele înainte de a-şi impulsiona Egoul să creadă în imposibil.

Iar logica alergătorului nu este altceva decât expresia fidelă a principiului identităţii, adică a acordului cu sine însuşi într-un mod deschis, neascuns, într-un infinit fără de care viaţa nu şi-ar simţi rostul. Voi alerga mereu ca să nu mă părăsesc niciodată. Ca să nu mă uit niciodată. Ca să nu rămân niciodată dator în faţa rarităţii de a găsi calea cea bună spre iluminare.

Niciodată nu mă voi descuraja în drumul spre o cât mai posibilă desăvârşire ca om şi ca spirit. Voi alerga tot timpul alături de spiritul meu.

Ascult ENIGMA, fiindcă la mijloc este ceva ce dintotdeauna m-a surprins, m-a inspirat, mi-a oferit acel ceva ce am căutat mereu: un sens acolo unde sensul a devenit brusc absent.

Mai mult ca orice, şi dintotdeauna, am rezonat cu acest proiect spiritual. Tot un român a fost iniţiatorul proiectului Enigma, tot un creator, tot un talent neîntrecut…

Stau pe un scaun, uitându-mă în jur la toate lucrurile din camera mea, inclusiv la cele ce nu se văd cu ochi obişnuiţi, privirea nefiindu-mi alterată de superficalitatea unei lumi guvernată de imagine. Este şi acesta un soi de confort, pentru că pot regla amestecul real şi transparent între banalitate şi nobleţe - în dialogul meu compensator cu inspiraţia de mare ţinută poetică şi artistică.

Cumva, vreau să simt că mă înalţ spre nobleţe, nu să cobor spre banalitate. Dar scaunul mă ţine într-un loc, ca un prizonier al absurdului sau al propriilor nelinişti mistuitoare, fără să pot înainta cu privirea şi cu gândul decât spre cele netrecătoare, ce nu se văd. Şi totuşi, forma lucrurilor redată prin intermediul culorilor şi al semnificaţiilor pe care acestea le au, prin combinarea modelelor şi mărimilor, transmit un mesaj din cele mai vechi timpuri: totul poate fi aranjat şi rearanjat, într-un fel sau altul.

Cu vădita predominanţă a aspectului individualizat de simţul practic al unui designer, a achiziţiona un lucru nou înseamnă să scap de altul. Ar trebui să renunţ la scaun sau la toate celelalte lucruri din jur, ca să îmi regândesc modul în care trăiesc, mai ales modul în care percep fenomenul artistic?

Clar. Trebuie să-mi recunosc subiectivitatea. Deşi totul se învecheşte, se prăfuieşte şi se destramă, eu port în gândul meu, până la epuizare, aceeaşi imagine a personajului narator care, aflat permanent în căutarea absolutului, exagerează cu prea mult text relativul şi particularul, aparentul şi conjuncturalul.

Cartea Creaţiei

Cine înțelege semnificațiile artei și limbajul științei, acela înțelege modul de gândire al lui Dumnezeu.

Citesc o carte, cartea mă citește pe mine, fiindcă ne leagă scrisul, povestea și emoțiile realității pe care o trăim reciproc. Sunt o carte din orice carte, având aceeași esență, înfățișată printr-o accentuare a spiritului pătrunzător. Acordul nostru fiind realizat printr-o privire metafizică ațintită asupra lumii de dincolo de textual.

Uneori stiloul cu care fac adnotări direct pe carte îmi pare că scrie singur. El parcă contribuie la trezirea mea din realitatea cărţii în care îmi integrez sufletul. Pare a fi numitorul comun dintre expresie şi conţinut. Un artist ca mine se identifică cu toate uneltele muncii lui, şi le însuşeşte ca pe un veritabil credo, apoi le integrează în tainele sinelui său.

Stiloul şi pensula formează un întreg ce conţine corp şi suflet, unind viaţa şi moartea prin magia lor de a crea o operă de artă fără egal, dincolo de timp şi spaţiu. Ceea ce face ca stiloul să se exprime prin controlul imaginaţiei constructive, uitând tot ce-a fost spus înaintea lui, este însăşi experienţa vederii pensulei care începe să se mişte după lumină, chiar dacă intensitatea cu care ea aplică culorile este de la palid la roşu aprins.

Bineînţeles, stiloul poate să scrie liber, însufleţitor, simţitor, în numele artei şi al artistului, dar mai întâi el trebuie să meargă tot înainte, rămânând cât mai mult timp în picioare fără să se teamă că ar putea să cadă. Scrisul lui va fi perfecţionat în perioada în care pensula îşi va împlini a doua tinereţe, prin discreţie şi înţelepciune, considerându-se apropiat de cele sfinte, fiind capabil să preia mişcarea pensulei şi să o transforme într-o formă de concretizare a limbajului şi de reliefare a expresiei literare care să supravieţuiască vederilor prea înalte.

În lumea celestă, atât stiloul cât şi pensula trimit raze de lumină sub formă de spirit, influenţând aştrii de la prima la ultima pagină de poveste. Artistul le utilizează pe amândouă ca un act de cinstire a lui Dumnezeu, pentru a-şi desăvârşi realitatea fără să se nege pe sine, ci dublându-se ca fiinţă.

Eu sunt un artist excepţional fiindcă stiloul i-a şoptit pensulei ce să picteze, iar pensula a pictat o mână care scrie singură, negru pe alb, că eu sunt subiectul raţionalităţii creaţiei.

Stiloul îi cere pensulei să nu ţină seama de tiparele unei limbi de o clasică perfecţiune şi rigoare, ci să scoată în evidenţă trăsăturile mâinii care îi conduce cu uşurinţă scrisul către universalitate. Pensula a profitat de acest prilej pentru a spune că dacă stiloul s-ar fi aflat în prim planul tabloului, cuprins de mâna care scrie despre pluralitatea lumilor, atunci arta ar fi fost mai uşor digerabilă.

Or stiloul n-a fost corect informat de sugestiile pensulei de a conferi scrisului o mai mare exactitate în ceea ce priveşte filosofia artei şi a trăirii estetice, în afara oricărei intervenţii divine, aşa încât să facă cu uşurinţă ceea ce era necesar pentru ca un tablou să prindă viaţă prin cuvintele experimentate în prezenţa Creaţiei (izvorâtă din efort şi suflet, din legendă şi adevăr).

Şi astfel artistul, tânărul care descris în cartea lumilor peisajele altor lumi, n-a mai evaluat cu precizie capacitatea stiloului de a transfera imaginația pe hârtie și de a documenta invizibilul cu mereu alte cuvinte, ci a continuat să picteze o oglindă nesfârşită, cu două feţe, ca şi când mâna lui ar fi fost cea care mânuieşte pensula în marea iluzie a realităţii.

Ştiu că stiloul nu va pretinde niciodată că îi aparţine pensulei, dar cu siguranţă va transmite mai departe ceea ce pensula a avut de exprimat în culori vii şi îmbietoare.

Asta înseamnă să fii artist, să fii capabil să tratezi pensula ca fiind autorul unui manuscris secret care descrie, pas cu pas, drumul adevărului parcurs existenţial şi artistic, iar stiloul să-l tratezi ca o manifestare a spiritului acrilic ce se exprimă numai pe şevalet prin modul divin de a crea formele şi imaginile.

Natura cunoaşterii de care face dovadă un artist se află în acord cu gradul lui de receptare a "frumosului sensibil" specific unui trandafir, şi asta datorită modului simţitor de a fi îngerul care cunoaşte alt înger.

Artistul poate cunoaşte cel mai mult "frumosul sensibil", şi poate face ca trandafirul să fie cunoscut şi îndrăgit cel mai mult, cu cât acesta se aseamănă prin natura lui cu un înger.

Deci, materialitatea trebuie exclusă din aria criteriului estetic, prin invocarea simţurilor şi a fiorului mistic, a alterităţii care cultivă ideea împlinirii artistului în relaţia sa responsabilă cu fiinţele naturii, într-un univers divin.

Pentru a surprinde legătura dintre un trandafir şi spiritualitate, s-a folosit un mijlocitor, anume un simbol plin de înţelegere adâncă, Semnul Crucii.

La rândul ei, crucea fiind formată din două drepte dispuse perpendicular, intersectează domeniul artei şi al culturii în punctul în care spiritualitatea şi pictura devin o compoziţie literară.

Poate oare o dreaptă dusă din reprezentările artei să intersecteze o altă dreaptă dusă dintr-o viziune a culorilor în punctul în care simbolul devine o trăire în revelaţie?

Dacă da, atunci mă gândesc la mine ca la un vizionar al spiritului de independenţă în gândire, care străbate cu pensula întreaga idee a Creaţiei, dincolo de cuvinte şi de imagini.

Arta este receptată de omul simţitor în acord cu modul de a fi spiritual. Intenţia simţurilor de a căpăta o formă prin intervenţie divină, necesită o simţire aparte, aferentă compunerii unei picturi gingaşe cu ajutorul unui pensule plină de farmec şi imaginaţie, care sfidează legile timpului şi ale spaţiului.

Aşadar, ca să devii un artist trebuie să fii conectat cu ceea ce este sensibil şi care are capacitatea de a fi surprins într-o pictură a cărei particularitate constă în resurecţia identitară şi spirituală a unei gândiri mistice.

Cel ce simte trebuie perceput ca esenţă a unui obiect perceput prin simţuri, tot aşa cum numai un sfânt percepe prezenţa îngerilor.

Când văd ceva colorat percep culoarea cu raţiunea particulară a unui pictor care îşi plimbă vederea prin grădinile raiului. Pictorul compară trăsăturile fabuloase din portretele personajelor sale cu trăirile unei conştiinţe sensibile, la fel cum raţiunea pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în noi se compară intenţiile universale.

Măiestria pictorului se poate simţi prin intermediul calităţii culorilor percepute în mod esenţial de către alt simţ, acela al comuniunii cu lucrurile sfinte, cum se întâmplă atunci când vezi ceva care poate fi privit mereu altfel.

Mi-am imaginat întotdeauna că sunt un erou al cuvintelor, capabil să favorizeze o viziune artistică aparte. Răspunsul stiloului meu este imediat trebuincios imaginaţiei vizionare, dar totodată se învăluie în umbra misterului, căci seamănă adesea cu o pensulă care, amestecând petele de culoare, capătă echivalenţa mijloacelor de expresie ale poeziei sau ale plasticii (compunerea, valoraţia, stilizarea, generalizarea, etc).

Stiloul trebuie să asigure transpunerea picturală a ceea ce s-ar fi putut exprima tot atât de bine cu ajutorul pensulei puternic influenţată de înfăţişarea unui lucru aflat în desfăşurare, decât a unui obiect finit.

Forţa viziunii mele este modelată în alt spaţiu, dincolo de accesibil, sau accesibil numai privirii care se întâlnește plurivalent cu o realitate mistică. Stiloul meu ştie acest lucru şi îşi condensează misterul scrisului în afară înţelegerii obişnuite, dar în aşa fel încât să surprindă adevărata natură a fiinţei mele, de aici şi de dincolo.

Astfel reuşesc să mă transpun într-un scris sacru, parabolic, alegoric, pliabil pe o realitate artistică, dând stiloului importanţa cuvenită unei pensule care, ocolind legile universale, se deschide în ochiul conştiinţei de dincolo de mine, de dincolo de această lume. Cuvintele mele sunt cerneala unei vieţi care nu se scrie pe hârtie.

Există un fel de a scrie prin care sufletul stiloului poate fi unit cu sufletul unui alt corp sensibil, cum este pensula, căruia îi poate administra o substanţă reală, vie, imaterială sau spirituală şi nemuritoare.

În plus, virtutea acestui suflet este difuzată spre exterior, printr-o formaţiune de simboluri puternice cu ajutorul FLUIDULUI UNIVERSAL, adică prin actul de creaţie, cu ajutorul pensulei. Sufletul nu poate fi atras de materie spre a da viaţă unei forme de exteriorizare a frumosului artistic, dacă stiloul nu conţine virtuţile generative ale unei capodopere: acordurile cromatice, expresivităţi ale limbajului plastic, semnificaţii dătătoare de unitate, claritate şi cursivitate.

Aşadar, dacă m-aş gândi la mine ca la un stilou care străbate prin vârful pensulei un fir de poveste, probabil aş găsi de cuviinţă să îmi analizez condiţia de Creator prin prisma ambiţiei de a exploata virtuţile unei tehnici de mare rafinament: aceea de a crea profunzime acolo unde se decantează toate întâmplările vieții și se proiectează toate idealurile ei.

N-ai cum să te joci cu ştiinţa fără să fii tu însuţi un stilou fermecat transpus într-o pensulă plină de culoare, vizionară, generatoare de fantastic.

Probabil, cea mai remarcabilă şi mai caracteristică manifestare a artei mele este însuşirea stiloului de a simţi mlădierile pensulei în forme de expresie ale suprarealismului, concepute ca o juxtapunere a două realități îndepărtate unite pentru a crea o realitate nouă.

Eficacitatea vizionară care sporeşte puterile iniţiale ale imaginaţiei artistice este dată de puterea unui penson de a scoate în evidenţă eleganța unei pensule care tratează magistral expresiile sufletului meu într-un număr infinit de universuri.

Stiloul meu posedă o conştiinţă cum rar mi-a fost dat să întâlnesc, posedă un spirit evoluat pe care, dacă reuşesc să-l domin, voi putea să pătrund mai adânc în inima universului, tot aşa cum un navigator, având la îndemână o busolă bine calibrată, se avântă tot mai mult în larg ca să descopere ţărmuri noi.

Instrumentul complementar stiloului este pensula cu care artistul se deplasează în lumea culorilor de ulei, având şi ea un spirit pur, lucid şi subtil, capabil să întregească o viziune lucidă, o imagine a spaţiului expusă cronologic pe măsura evoluţiei ştiinţei. Şi stiloul şi pensula, atât de înfrăţite amândouă printr-un limbaj artistic, pot face să curgă sângele pur al inimii în râuri de purpură numai dacă sunt direcţionate de "mâna care conduce hazardul" spre universalitate. Totodată, ele cultivă gustul pentru cultura vizuală, impunând tendinţa spre monumental și grandios.

Cred că aici mă regăsesc şi eu. Asemenea candelei vrăjite din cămăruţa sfântă a alchimiştilor, ochiul bine format al stiloului îşi varsă raza luminoasă asupra unui pergament misterios, uns cu sângele pur al inimii, şi tot atunci pensula fiind luată în posesie de spiritul unui artist al scrisului sacru, va influenţa razele reflectate pe suprafaţa şevaletului ca fiind, totodată, mijlocul de exprimare al sufletului divin.

Merg şi mai departe de atât cu acest raţionament, spunând că artistul ia în posesia sufletului său menirea stiloului de a fermeca minţile născocitoare cu acea curgere neîncetată a sângelui - arzător în cuvintele demiurgice, dar totodată artistul se delectează cu forţa pensulei de a da sensibilitate zbuciumului său sufletesc făcând, precum în cazul magiei, ca razele cristaline ale unui glob de cristal să pătrundă în inima celor care au înţeles arta fermecării şi a farmecelor.

Eu nu sunt doar un artist unic prin exprimarea spaţiului şi a modalităţii în care dau viaţă ideilor. Sunt un stilou însetat după adevăr, acompaniat de o pensulă nedespărţită de esenţele tari ale imaginarului artistic. Sunt o rază a ființei spirituale solare acompaniată de lumina reieşită din antiteza lumilor naturale și cele create de om.

În fiecare dimineață citesc cel puțin o oră.

Cerinţele unui scris frumos sunt date de simţul gustului pentru universul artei pe care stiloul îl trezeşte cu răsufletul lui uniform, gust pe care îl regăsim în simţul tactic al pensulei care cultivă interesul pentru cultura vizuală.

Cine a observat bine, în literatură, la fel ca în pictură, mâna care creionează discret spaţiul poveştii este aceeaşi mână care dă stiloului caracteristica viului de a se transforma la nesfârşit, împingând creaţia mai departe, iar pensulei îi conferă acea fragilă seninătate a viziunii cu care îşi desenează meticulos miraculoasa viaţă trecătoare.

În momentul în care stiloul îşi încălzeşte substanţa expresiei unice, prin imaginaţie, iar pensula îşi arcuieşte mişcarea divină pe suprafaţa şevaletului, atunci mâna care le coordonează pe amândouă, în funcţie de maniera în care este afectat mediul intermediar, are calitatea de a traversa spaţiul a două realităţi artistice: expresivitatea limbajului plastic şi transmiterea creatoare a unor emoţii.

Bineînţeles, un obiect sensibil nu-şi schimbă mâna care-l utilizează, dar întotdeauna este atins de o mână sensibilă la vibraţiile unei profunde şi foarte nuanţate trăiri.

Concluzie: O mână rece va reacţiona totdeauna într-un mod material în contact cu obiectele reci, iar o mână sensibilă va acţiona ca un anestezic sufletesc în contact cu obiectele fragile, sensibile, artistice.

Pentru a defini suprarealismul trebuie să construieşti imaginea unui artist din viitorul unei opere de artă care mişcă prezentul cu plasticitatea unui sentiment spontan de Deja-Vu.

Viitorul, subordonat analizei expresiei imaginilor semnate de o realitate virtuală, mişcă opera de artă a prezentului către plasticitatea unei exprimări autentice, metaforizante într-o partitură a memoriei epice.

Dacă poţi, construieşte-ţi imaginea din sentimentul de libertate pe care îl dă suprarealismul, gândindu-ţi memoria ca o combinare a tututor elementelor artistice predominante într-un timp care se desfăşoară continuu, precum o roată a existenţei cuprinsă în Inelul Universului.

O întreagă strategie de promovare personală este o construcție a imaginii prezentului făcută de un artist al viitorului.

Sunt atâția oameni care au descoperit lucrurile sfinte doar cu ajutorul privirii, dar nu au reușit să le domine cu spiritul. Alții trec mereu nepăsători pe lângă ele, iar cei mai mulți nu știu ce să facă cu ele.

Lucrurile sfinte sunt prea sfinte chiar și pentru sfinții care sfințesc icoanele.

Practic, degeaba ştii să foloseşti cuvântul dacă nu ştii să legi culoarea de o viziune sau de o amintire, încât să atingi subiectul unei Creaţii pline de poveste şi mister.

Tot astfel, talentul unui scriitor se intersectează cu talentul unui pictor în punctul în care stiloul poate imita o pensulă în sensul în care fiecare cuvânt poate să ascundă un sentiment sau poate să păstreze monopolul unei culori pe care o simte ca fiind consecventă în promovarea unei imagini.

Să încercăm să desenăm cu diverse cuvinte un trandafir ale cărui culori întrec prin semnificaţie lizibilitatea unui conţinut bine scris, relavant şi preţios.

În acest caz, formularea cuvintelor trebuie să egaleze mlădierea pensulei, prin gingăşia şi sensibilitatea mâinii sensibile a unui artist care reaprinde scânteia divină din interior şi îşi caută armonia în lirism, în misterul naturii.

Putem spune deci, că desenul este un cuvânt pe care artistul îl exprimă sub formă de culoare cu ajutorul pensulei.

A fi artist înseamnă să pictezi totul în cuvinte, ţinând cont de faptul că orice cuvânt este expresia unei forme de devoţiune faţă de cursivitate, originalitate, inspiraţie, specifică unei personalităţi devenită simbolul unei asumări a naturii "sub specie interioritatis".

Stiloul meu pare să fie condus de imaginaţia mea vizionară şi plurivalentă spre forme de expresie care vestesc imaginea "Renaşterii" într-o lume nouă, înfloritoare. Iar dacă acest lucru se întâmplă la sugestiile pensulei pline de graţie, care are ca scop modelarea unei imagini din altă lume, într-un spaţiu futurist, înseamnă că am îndeplinit o îndatorire creştină.

Probabil, simbolismul de care dă dovadă un bun creştin este calitatea stiloului de a se transpune într-o pensulă care poate da multă culoare într-o compoziţie net suprarealistă.

Un cunoscător ştie să unească un lucru cu materia unui trup, la fel cum pictorul ştie să unească culoarea cu expresia adâncă a unei simţiri adevărate. Ca atare, în artă, modul natural de a fi al unui lucru trebuie înţeles ca un mod fizic de a fi al unei forme.

A şti să receptezi o formă în mod imaterial înseamnă să pui simţirea într-o culoare care nu schimbă starea de folosinţă a lucrului (sau starea lui de repaus), dar îl face să fie diferit.

Mă trezesc în fiecare dimineaţă la aceeaşi oră. Nu ştiu de ce se întâmplă asta, niciodată nu pun alarma să sune. Cred că de vină este soarele care îmi luminează camera cu un surâs atât de larg, încât mă umple de energie. Apoi mă apuc de citit, şi nu mă ridic din pat până ce nu citesc cel puţin o oră.

Trag concluzia următoare: este important să fii luminat ca să te trezeşti, şi trebuie să fii treaz înainte de a fi un om învăţat.

Am învațat din cărți că nu trebuie să citesc mult pentru a scrie bine.

Mai important decât să citești mult, este să scrii cât mai mult.

Artistul talentat nu va fi niciodată un produs al învăţăturii adusă de şcoală. ci va fi un produs al muncii de creaţie.

Talentul înnobilează creaţia dăruită omului de la natură pentru ca el să se întoarcă spre Cauza Eternă.

În mine sălăşluiesc două spirite. Primul este caracterizat de tendinţa spre unitate, celălalt este caracterizat de tendinţa spre multiplicitate. Primul este raţiunea, celălalt este viaţa. Primul linişteşte, celălalt răscoleşte.

În ceea ce priveşte arta, chiar dacă prin aceasta se realizează alteritatea, cred că eu sunt expresia comună a celor două spirite, adică nu sunt altceva decât două concepţii net opuse ale unei fiinţe spirituale aflată într-o călătorie magnifică numită "Ştiinţă Trăirii Prin Celălalt".

Între mine şi aducerea artei la viaţă există o legătură cât se poate de evidentă, atât de evidentă încât stilul pe care l-am adoptat reeditează trăsăturile intime ale Renaşterii.

Însăşi Renaşterea se leagă în bună parte de persistenţa cu care spiritul meu apare la suprafaţă în diferite epoci, îmbrăcând diverse forme de exprimare vizuală.

Stilul meu păstrează un caracter specific permanent.

Să vezi frumosul într-un univers de stele care îşi merită locul în cartea unei vieţi plină de semnificaţie.

Cartea vieţii merită 5 stele dacă are în vedere conceptualizarea frumosului natural.

Scrisul meu vorbeşte despre un personaj încântător care trăieşte în două lumi, cea a lui Hauff şi cea a lui Andersen.

Însăşi scrisul traversează aceste lumi, de la oglindă la reflexie, şi nu se opreşte până ce nu îşi găseşte echilibrul între Piatra Filosofală şi Doctrina Secretă, încât personajul nou conturat pare să aibă calitatea unui creator cuprins de beatitudinea Renaşterii.

Sunt identic cu imboldurile care duc la ceea ce se numeşte în artă: "Frumos Imperceptibil" şi "Reflexie Expansivă".

Citesc o carte scrisă de John Grisham. Important este ca lumea să rămână loială modului meu de a o descrie. Sunt un regizor strălucit.

Voi scrie o carte cu citate celebre. Primul citat: Celebritatea este suma cuvintelor care îmi formează numele. Mai e nevoie să mă prezint?

Citesc o poveste scrisă cu suflet divin. Cuvintele încep să facă parte din mine, din povestea mea, chiar dacă viața mea e diferită de viața celui din poveste.

De vină sunt cuvintele. Ele sunt ipostaze ale manifestării spiritului meu în materia unui univers simultan care se aplică la TOTUL UNU și la Unicul TOTUL ÎN TOT.

Existenţa creaţiei mele este atât de insistent cerută de ştiinţă, încât eu o numesc "Lumină", din punct de vedere spiritual. Prin urmare arta, la fel ca ştiinţa, se manifestă în orice lucru care se diferenţiază prin purificarea făcută în duh de Cauză Eternă.

Numai ochiul atent al unui clarvăzător vede lumina acolo unde ochiul normal percepe doar întunecimea.

Înveți în fiecare zi ceva nou de la oameni, și nu ești niciodată hotărât ce să faci cu ce-ai învățat de la ei.

Mai bine lași totul să se piardă, încât să nu te pierzi tu în vederea satisfacerii curiozității.

Cunoscătorul poate să traverseze substanţa lucrului respectiv la fel cum pensonul traversează fiecare punct al pânzei, cu diferite culori, de la o parte la cealaltă a ramei. Cunoscătorul ia în calcul modul de a fi el însuşi intelectul acelui lucru.

Un cunoscător a dobândit cunoștințele necesare schimbării formei lucrurilor, cu atât mai mult cu cât ştie să observe minuţios diferenţa dintre "esenţa" şi "natura" lor. De fapt, paralela dintre cunoscător şi lucruri trebuie să fie făcută simultan cu distincţia dintre "esenţă" şi "natură".

Eu sunt un cunoscător pentru că esenţa mea se află în natura lucrurilor care îşi schimbă forma datorită obiectului gândirii pe care îl produc eu însumi.

Fiecare personaj al operei mele are simbolul unui atribut spiritual, care rezidă din apariţia periodică a omului în două lumi distincte. O lume a trandafirului, pământească, şi o lume a artistului, plastică.

Trăirea sufletului le uneşte pe amândouă, şi le uneşte prin intermediul conceptului de scriere și gândire, interpretate unitar ca o mişcare vizionară, cristalizată intr-o ştiinţă aparte care atinge toate existenţele.

Stiloul cu care notăm sau scriem, câteodată ne salvează, pentru simplul fapt că după ce scriem frumos strălucim noi înşine în faţa noastră. Scriind recitim propria reflectare în gânduri. Poate că lucrurile pe care nu le-am expus cândva sunt precum o sobă în care ard lemne şi fiind întuneric se desenează pe tavan imagini, gutuile stau la geam şi aşteaptă să fie gustate. Totul are iz de amintiri când scriem...

Este uşor să citeşti în general, unii oameni citesc pe stradă, din simplu motiv: de ce să ai memorie proastă în timpul liber şi bună când împrumuţi cărţi? Explorăm timpul în funcţie de situaţie, el este o carte poştală pe care o trimitem zilnic, mai ales dimineaţa...

În fiecare zi toţi devenim mai simpli şi mai accesibili, vorbele bune pe care le primim sunt asemenea unor scrisori de dragoste, nu avem niciodată forţa să ne lipsim de ele...

O floare spune multe prin parfumul ei, iar dacă nu miroşi parfumul nu înseamnă că nu-ţi place floarea...ci doar că frumuseţea ei este atât de atrăgătoare, că uneori uiţi să mai priveşti înăuntrul ei.

Vanitatea este un copac cu prea multe frunze multicolore, dar cu rădăcini firave.

Învață să crești cu rădăcini puternice, decât colorat.

Arta mea este un capitol independent de genurile frumosului, prin faptul că tot ceea ce altora li se pare frumos, pentru mine este doar o încordare a sentimentului de libertate totală care duce la însuşirea de a fi un Creator.

Nu-i mai puţin adevărat că arta mea se autodefineşte ca o "expresie a sinelui" încărcată cu potenţialul de revelare a unei lumi transfigurată într-o operă de artă.

Calitatea de a fi un Creator emană din atitudinea ta faţă de efectele ştiinţei.

Povestea cea mai lungă a Creaţiei este împlinirea ştiinţei de a fi tu însuţi o ştiinţă.

Nu-ţi poţi lărgi orizontul cunoaşterii fără să priveşti lumea ca o albină ce produce miere din nectar.

Privește-te așa cum te-ar privi o floare: prin ochii unei albine.

La început a fost haosul. Lucrurile începeau să se lege între ele, dar într-un mod destul de alambicat şi chiar straniu. Apoi a urmat ordinea. Lucrurile au început să fie astfel aranjate, măsurate şi interpretate, încât acestea căpătau un sens.

Gândesc că formă finală a scrisului artistic rezultă, în fond, din nuanţele variate ale graţiei cu care faci ca lucrurile să iasă din întuneric la lumină.

Orice dimineaţă este precum zăpada ce cade noaptea când dormim. Ne trezim şi în fiecare zi păşim pe o nouă zi ca pe zăpadă, uneori mai bate vântul şi ne sare zăpadă în fată, alteori este ca şi cum am citi cea mai bună carte din oraş, eventual achiziţionată de la anticariat. În fix acea zi poate cineva citeşte într-un tren o gazetă despre vreme. Poate nu ştie cum să coboare din tren ca să pară că este într-o nuvelă scrisă de Balzac (el dormea la ora 6, se trezea la ora 12 noaptea şi apoi scria cele 18 ore rămase).

A astepta ca totul sa fie perfect, este ca si cand ai pasi cu piciorul drept. A cumpara un bilet la loto e ca si cand ai scrie o scrisoare pe care nu o expediezi niciodata, norocul la jocuri de noroc e noroc chior, ca sa il ai nu trebuie sa ai nevoie de el..

Le urez tuturor elevilor care au început școala să nu învețe nici unul așa cum "am învățat" eu. Totuși, m-ar interesa acel unul singur care seamănă cu mine.

Nu merită să lupți într-un război care nu-și merită victoria.

Mai bine este să obții o victorie, fără să lupți deloc.

Există oameni mari care știu ce vor chiar și atunci când nu au nimic.

Și există oameni de nimic care nu știu ce vor, chiar și atunci când au totul.

Reflectez în fiecare dimineaţă la ziua de ieri. Ce-am scăpat din vedere? De ce s-a întâmplat cutare lucru, şi nu altfel? Care este măsura lucrurilor pe care am pus preţ? etc..

În asta constă procesul gândirii adevărate: să nu renunţi la ceea ce-ai făcut ieri, chiar dacă azi devine mâine. Dă-ţi seama de acest adevăr: nimic nu rămâne neschimbat, sau în aceeaşi stare.

Un catalizator al reflecţiilor ar putea fi acesta: ce vezi acum n-ai să uiţi niciodată.

O stea apune pentru că nu mai este în stare să lumineze.

Universul preferă intensitățile ca să-și înțeleagă mai bine profunzimile.

Un castel care se dărâmă este ca un suflet care se pierde: nu le poţi cunoaşte amândurora motivul pentru care se retrag în uitare, dar poţi simţi sensul profund al solidarităţii lor.

Suprarealismul este libertatea de expresie pe care şi-o acordă cel care creează, deşi este la limita dintre lumea interioară şi lumea exterioară, ea nu poate fi marcată exact, însă pare atât de reală. Chiar este reală dacă începi s-o vezi imaginară. (Ioana Sarah)

Pensula şi stiloul prind suflet într-o încăpere locuită de un om care întotdeauna este nefericit până la confuzie, tot ce redă în exterior creatorul e ca şi cum ar scrie o epistolă. Cine creează ceva e ca şi cum îşi plăteşte singur propria plăcere. Iar cerneala cu care scrie cineva şi culorile unuia care pictează sunt un fel de echilibru, altfel anotimpurile ar fi greu de suportat. (Ioana Sarah)

Unii oameni au înțeles că 2+2=4. Dar ei n-au înțeles de ce, mai înainte de toate, a fost 1+1=2. Și n-au înțeles nici restul matematicii care stă la baza fizicii și chimiei.

Unii oameni înţeleg multe şi nu simt tot atâtea, unii ştiu din matematică că există doar 4 anotimpuri şi pe al cincilea îl inventează ei în câte o toamnă când razele soarelui desenează umbre pe pereţi prin frunzele ce nu se dezlipesc aşa uşor de ramuri, unele înfloresc îngheţate ca o demonstraţie contrar unei legi a fizicii despre atracţia gravitaţională. Nu în ultimul rând unii înţeleg chimia din cuvinte şi o trec pe curat în sentimente, sentimente despre care matematica nu povesteşte. (Ioana Sarah)

Cartea de nisip

On August 28, 2020

Nu încerca să fii altfel decât ești, căci orice lucru diferit nu dă roadele celui ce rămâne același.

Dragă cititorule, am scris aceste rânduri pentru tine, cu multă simţire, cu multă sinceritate, dar şi cu imaginaţie, ca şi când aş fi scris pentru mine doar despre mine, arătând spre un om transpus într-o mulțime de suflete, pentru el străine..şi totuşi nici unul ca el. Rândurile le-am cuprins într-o carte de nisip, pline de cuvinte la fel de pătrunzătoare ca razele soarelui, ca fiind continuarea volumului celebrului Jorge Luis Borges.

În fiecare an, atunci când ajung la Mamaia, pe litoralul românesc, păşesc pe nisipul atât de plin cu scoici care au stat probabil într-un teanc de alte scoici moarte, o bucată bună de timp. Numai copiii le acordă atenţie. Ascult ce au de spus valurile, vântul şi pescăruşii, cu speranţa că voi fi puţin mai înţelept măcar cu o secundă de uimire şi înţelegere spre largul unei mări care se întinde veşnic, şi care pe unii îi devorează pentru o realitate mai dură. Vei observa că ochii mei fug spre un cer colorat în roşu sau portocaliu, atât de nesfârşit ca într-o carte plină de vise ce vorbeşite despre lecţiile vieţii văzute tot timpul de pe alt mal al mării.

Poate te vei regăsi în gândurile mele, poate te vei regăsi în spiritul liber al dialogului dintre nisip şi mare, dialog pe care îl poartă un artist a picturii cu Egoul său, şi astfel poate te vei simţi eliberat din mrejele lumii exterioare şi a grijilor de tot felul. Nu sunt gânduri despre leadership, aşa cum poate ai vrea să găseşti într-un cufăr plin cu idei de afaceri, ci sunt despre viaţa pe care o anumită ştiinţă îşi bazează întreg eşafodajul raţionamentului. Este ştiinţa de a fi tu însuţi un câmp de bătălie pentru doi adversari teribili: omul şi fotograful. Este ştiinţa de a fi un bun ascultător al zbuciumul mării, cu sentimentul că ai ajuns acolo, într-un loc în care regretele, lacrimile, sunt pline de ecourile trecutului, repetate ca o chemare tristă: "Unde eşti? Nu pleca ! "

Şi chiar dacă nu ajungi la mare şi nu vei atinge nisipul pe care păşesc eu, chiar acum, şi nu vei simţi briza unei amintiri, pătrată-n vara minunată, sau briza unei şoapte care îţi promite iubire şi împăcare de sine, sunt sigur că toate gândurile mele, expuse mai jos cu ecoul unei istorii multiseculare, vor ajunge la tine şi îţi vor mângâia sufletul la fel cum a făcut-o Borges în a lui "Carte de nisip".

Departe de mine gândul de a aborda un punct de vedere subiectivist, şi pe această cale relativist. Dimpotrivă, cred că gândurile, în general, au o valabilitate transferabilă: pleacă întotdeauna de la un grăunte de nisip şi ajung într-o mare tot mai transparentă pe măsură ce ajungi să-i cunoşti adierea brizei, tainele, duioşia, sau chiar, durerea.

Nu cred că un scriitor ca Borges a intenționat să reducă subiectivitatea la o simplă oglindă pasivă a lumii obiective. Nici soarele, atunci când încălzește nisipul și domolește valurile, nu își micșorează mărimea ori de câte ori vreun nor încearcă să-i capteze căldura, ci doar atunci când apune. Pentru mine, Borges este nisipul oglindit de soare, privit suficient de profund într-o mare cristalină care își găsește solemnitatea în priveliștea apusului.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o viziune admirabilă asupra a tot ce este în jurul tău, în natură, şi în acelaşi timp să îţi recâştigi puterea asupra vieţii tale în totalitate?

Îmi este atât de ușor să scriu despre artă, încât scrisul mă consideră Eul său exterior.

Toate înțelesurile acestei lumi sunt înțelesurile unor vieți luminate de același soare.

Frumuseţea unui trandafir este redată de culoarea pe care artistul o așterne pe pânză cu penelul său.

O barcă pe uscat, încăpătoare, cu un mic catarg. Arată bine. Uneori, câte un om își face un selfie cu ea. Poate își imaginează că are lângă el vasul în miniatură al lui Columb, și că a descoperit un continent nou după o lungă călătorie.

Desigur, lucrul acesta dă de gândit. Intimitatea oricărui suflet visător se oglindește în frînturile de timp dominate și oprite în loc de mari cuceritori.

Acțiunile mării pot fi animate de valurile variate. Ele sunt de admirat chiar și atunci când construiești castele de nisip la mal, în măsura în care te raportezi la criteriul de "Tot Închegat".

Nisipul nu se lasă dus în larg de valurile mării, el rămâne întotdeauna aproape de țărm.

Strâng din nisip câteva scoici mici, le pun lângă cartea pe care o citesc cu plăcere, privindu-le ca niște pagini lipsă pe care trebuie să le completez cu punctele mele de vedere.

Hotelul la care sunt cazat are culoarea galbenă. Soarele reflectă cel mai bine galbenul.

Nisipul de pe plajă are culoarea gri. Iar lui nu-i pasă de culoarea lui sau de culoarea hotelului la care stau eu. El știe doar atât: "hotelul este făcut din mine, și din apa mării."

Sandalele mele s-au umplut de nisip. Dar nu a bătut deloc vântul, nici copiii nu s-au jucat cu nisipul, nici eu nu am aruncat cu nisip în ei. Pare a fi o enigmă demnă de Sherlock Holmes.

O furnicuță urcă pe piciorul meu, printre firele de nisip care mă acoperă, ca și când ar căuta culoarul secret ce duce în altă lume. Cred că micuța curajoasă se raportează la acțiunea din filmul "Prince of Persia (The sands of time)".

Un moșneag mai înstărit, lângă masa mea la restaurant, era tare entuziasmat aseară deoarece a fost găsit negativ la repetarea testului coronavirus.

Marea nu poate să dea întotdeauna portretul pe care și-l face artistul sieși.

Perfecțiunea mării se observă în finețea care generează textura nisipului.

În timp ce nisipul ne arată ce aduce marea, marea ne arată ce-i lipsește nisipului.

În fața mării care îmbrățișează nisipul, și în fața nisipului care înfrumusețează marea, resimt o anumită plăcere, nu fiindcă le raportez la mine, ci fiindcă sunt așa cum sunt.

Se descarcă bateria telefonului fix atunci când intenționez să-mi fac cel mai expresiv selfie.

O doamnă se plimbă printre şezlonguri repetând întruna: "avem scoici de mare, steluțe".

E drept, scoicile și steluțele ei sunt mai mari și mai frumoase decât cele mici și ciobite din jurul meu, prin nisip.

Citesc o carte despre "logica frumosului". Vântul îmi ciufulește paginile.

Mă simt în largul meu. Nu sunt în largul unei mări care nu e decât rareori limpede, ci în largul unui nisip care și-a pierdut clepsidra.

Observ un om care își aranjează salteaua în toate felurile posibile, în funcție de soare.

Sunt oameni care nu vor comite niciodată păcate. Biserica este religia lor, biblia este crezul lor. Cuvântul lui Dumnezeu este o lege aspră.

Mi-am închipuit uneori că sunt nisipul fierbinte al verii. Mi-am închipuit că sunt marea în furtună, la începutul iernii. Mi-am închipuit că sunt poezia sângelui care face inima să bată cu putere în ritm de romantism.

Dacă mă gândesc mai bine, nicio închipuire nu poate fi ascunsă într-un cufăr, ca apoi cufărul să fie aruncat în mijlocul mării, iar marea să-l aducă la țărm, iar nisipul să-l păstreze intact doar pentru tine.

Dacă crezi că ești stăpân pe o situație, încearcă să înoți până în larg.

Crezi că hazardul este de partea ta? Atunci așteaptă să te salveze un delfin.

Am văzut aseară un tip jerpelit, murdar, vai amarul ei de viață. Dacă totuși îl priveai mai atent, cu ochi curioși care știu să vadă în întuneric, poate ai fi sesizat cele două ghiuluri la mâna stângă, și încă vreo trei inele la mâna dreaptă.

Imi amintesc ce era scris la intrarea unui restaurant cu profil asiatic, citatul lui Ginghis Han:

Ele nu găsesc răspunsul în locul tău, dar te conduc într-o zonă de unde tu poți alege răspunsul din mai multe variante posibile, luate la întâmplare.

Am rugat marea să mă spele cu finețea cu care mă mângâie nisipul.

Nu știu ce VIP își sărbătorea aseară ziua de naștere la un restaurant de pe plajă. Invitați speciali, momente deosebite, entuziasm, artificii, etc.

Dimineața priveam marea cum atinge nisipul. Și-l atingea ca și cum ai atinge o floare catifelată, nu erau valuri, nu era vânt, ci doar o liniște tainică, o căldură firavă.

Marea privește nisipul fără să-l sărăcească pe cel ce dăruiește, și nu îi poate dărui ceea ce deja a primit.

Marea nu poate număra granulele nisipului, dar îi poate simți căldura, năzuințele adânci, imboldul spre căutarea frumosului de poveste, ca și când l-ar cunoaște dintotdeauna.

Marea este o expunere a ideii de frumos, fiindcă cuprinde în ea imaginea nisipului descrisă cu finețe artistică.

Nisipul îmi vorbește cu glasul cu care se exprimă marea: frumusețea mea neîntrecută este naturală și artistică în același timp.

Dacă începi o carte și n-o termini, este ca și când ai întoarce clepsidra înainte de a curge tot nisipul până la capăt.

Dacă Borges căuta nisipul ca să ajungă la mare, eu am găsit nisipul ca o extensie a mării.

Borges a găsit într-un final nisipul ca o amintire a mării, l-a înfășurat în cuvinte dulci și l-a transformat într-o carte.

Eu am găsit nisipul blând ca briza mării, l-am cuprins în căușul mâinilor atât de expresive, l-am făcut să simtă mângâierea lor, mirosul lor delicat și căldura lor, care l-au inundat și i-au înnebunit simțurile.

O fire caldă rămâne o fire caldă. O fire rece rămâne o fire rece.

La cât este de caldă apa mării, îți convine să înoți tot înainte.

Dacă vrei să afli ceva interesant despre nisip, citește-l pe Borges.

Stau sub o umbrelă mare. Umbrela stă pe un nisip nesfârșit, protejându-mă de soarele arzător.

Întreabă nisipul dacă are înțelepciune. Întreabă marea dacă are înțelepciune.

Apoi răspunde tu în locul lor.

Dacă Dumnezeu îți schimbă planurile, este ca să înveți să nu te încrezi în tine, mai mult decât în El.

Când îți întocmești planurile, fă-o cu suflet. Altfel Dumnezeu o să ți le schimbe cu rațiune.

Când privesc în jur, aleg orice lucru la voia întâmplării.

Întreb nisipul dacă totul din jur îi aparține lui. El îmi răspunde că totul aparține mării.

Întreb marea, și ea spune că totul din jur aparține nisipului.

Înțelege-mă, dacă poți, între nisip și mare, și privește-mă ca un lucru luat la voia întâmplării.

Când scrii despre nisip trebuie să îți imaginezi că ești marea.

Oglindește-ți tăcerea în largul meu, spuse marea.

Dacă aș asculta o scoică, probabil aș auzi ecoul distanței dintre mare și amintirea ei.

Cuvintele pline de nisip sunt emoții topite de razele soarelui.

Privesc marea. O barcă se îndepărtează tot mai mult de țărm. Nisipul mă întreabă de ce privesc în depărtare marea, dacă el este atât de aproape de mine.

Oamenii care n-au curaj sunt trădătorii de mâine.

Ma voi întoarce în profunzimea gândurilor tale doar dacă îi oferi nisipului șansa să se plimbe desculț într-o mare nemărginită.

Dacă vrei să simți valurile mării pe pielea ta, nu aștepta până te seci complet pe nisip.

Nisipul așteaptă marea cu brațele deschise să-l răcorească, iar marea de abia îl atinge, că imediat se și retrage în larg.

Infinitul se regăsește într-un simplu grăunte de nisip. Fiindcă fiecare grăunte stă lângă alte grăunțele, formează nisipul, care e lângă mare, și din contopirea lor se fac castele.

Castelele sunt impozante, fiindcă amintesc de nisip și de apă, căci fără ele n-ar fi putut exista nici ele. De aceea castele sunt atât de rar construite la mal, tocmai pentru ca marea să nu le transforme la loc, în nisip.

Observ un om care observă marea de la mal, dar nu intră în ea.

Fii prevăzător. Veghează neîncetat. Bucuria de azi se poate opri la nefericirea de mâine.

Dacă nu accepți șansa atunci când ea îți surâde din plin, apoi va trebui să lupți din greu ca s-o recâștigi.

Tăria cuvintelor tale se va întoarce împotriva curajului tău, la fel cum marea se retrage în larg, iar plajele se măresc.

Sinceritatea și curajul sunt condițiile iertării lui Dumnezeu.

Cerul îți conduce mereu pașii acolo unde e voia lui, și unde e mai potrivit pentru tine.

Caută cu privirea sufletului urmele timpului lăsate pe întinderea nisipului.

Nisipul știe că niciodată timpul nu va fi potrivit ca să adăpostească totul.

Omul face de capul lui totul, crezând totul se va petrece fix după voia sa. Dar uită că peste pământ este voia Cerului, și orice uitare va fi răsplătită cu noi lecții de viață.

La fel pașii pe nisip. Ei nu lasă urme pentru următoarea zi, doar fiindcă vrei tu să lași o urmă.

Oamenii fericiți merg la biserică și se întorc fericiți. Oamenii nefericiți merg la biserică, se întorc tot nefericiți, dar cu speranța unei viitoare fericiri.

Iar deșertul nu-și schimbă nisipul doar pentru că ai făcut o călătorie la piramide și ai văzut Sfinxul.

Nisipul are o calitate ce amintește foarte mult de suflet: este arzător și maleabil în același timp.

Nisipul și marea îi apropie nespus pe oameni, sau îi desparte definitiv.

Întărește-ți spiritul printr-o singură aruncare a privirii în direcția unui deșert care nu își termină niciodată nisipul.

Nisipul, soarele arzător, îmi amintesc de cea mai importantă lecție a deșertului:

"Cea din urmă taină este curajul."

Nisipul te învață că nu știi nimic despre viață. Nu știi nici măcar să lași o urmă pe unde ai trecut. Vântul o va acoperi ziua următoare.

Nisipul denotă o anume liniște, o consimțire a minții. El ascultă totul fără să riposteze.

O singură bătaie de aripi a unui fluture poate să provoace un uragan în cealaltă parte a globului.

Un singur cuvânt, spus la un moment dat, poate schimba hotărâtor traiectoria oricărui destin.

Caută să te înfățișezi înaintea lui Dumnezeu ca un imperfect, chiar dacă ceea ce îți susține puterea de transformare într-un sfânt este perfecțiunea.

Un pescăruş mă priveşte necontenit. Ca pe-o pradă mă priveşte? Oare mă vede ca pe-un peşte? Un peşte mare pe uscat? Ce mai, Un festin de zile mari !

Privesc nisipul. Încerc să cuprind vizual fiecare grăunte de nisip în parte. Încerc să dau nume fiecăruia dintre ei. Încerc să le atribui câte o cifră. Încerc să-i diferenţiez printr-o expresie de bunătate sufletească, de dârzenie și de hotărâre. De ce este unul mai frumos ca celălalt?

Cele mai bune cărți se găsesc la anticariat, la numai 1 ron. Și chiar dacă le-ar citi câțiva interesați, foarte puțini le-ar înțelege cu adevărat.

Fiindcă o carte nu trebuie doar citită, ea trebuie reinventată mereu, cu o altă viziune.

Cartea de nisip, scrisă de mine, dar amintind de Borges, este sinonimă cu noţiunea de valoarea estetică: tot ceea ce este frumos poate fi preţuit numai cu timpul. Şi cum orice timp îşi are cursul lui, aşa cum l-a rânduit Dumnezeu, rezultă că preţul pe care îl dai frumosului din jurul tău este direct proporţional cu ceea ce vezi zilnic la un nisip care nu se udă niciodată, fiind uscat mereu de propria ta putere asupra naturii. Şi tu poţi fi o parte din univers, fiindcă poţi fi un grăunte de nisip care intră în alcătuirea corpurilor cereşti prin care toate lucrurile sunt descrise și însemnate.

Bine spunea cineva: "Să vezi lumea într-un bob de nisip, raiul într-o floare, să ţii infinitul în palmă, şi veşnicia să o trăieşti într-o oră. Aceasta este viaţa ! "

Cartea din parc

Orice lucru are o latură a lui mai expresivă, şi acolo-i taina vieţii lui.

Există lucruri ascunse în adâncurile ochilor mei care nu îndrăznesc să-mi mărturisească nimic, dar aș vrea să le rog să mi se dezvăluie. Să mi se dezvăluie fără reticențe, fără umbre, fără ezitare, împărtășindu-mi adevărul lor cu sinceritate absolută. Fiindcă aşa sunt lucrurile: simple, dar confuze, neprevăzute sau imprevizibile, dincolo de acel Ulaeassio Sahtos Athesancha, o fereastră deschisă către universul artistic, menită parcă să absoarbă culorile și formele dincolo de limitele pânzei.

În timp ce mă plimbam prin parc, liniştit, visător, am observat ceva ciudat pe o bancă parțial ascunsă într-un colţ umbrit. Era o carte veche, un lucru trecut cu vederea de ceilalţi trecători, uma eternidade de solidão se estendeu diante de mim, având coperta uzată și paginile îngălbenite de timp. Nu avea niciun nume scris pe ea, nicio indicație despre autor sau titlu. Stârnindu-mi curiozitatea, pe linia unei reprezentări vizuale simbolice, ceva m-a împins să o ridic, să o deschid, să-i răsfoiesc paginile, precum un pictor care explorează culorile pe paleta sa, în căutarea unei inspirații divine.

Experiența de a descoperi ceva nou, chiar în locuri neașteptate, trezește adesea curiozitatea și inspirația, similar cu felul în care un artist își caută muza. Aidoma unei chemări stranii, ochii mei au fost vrăjiți de această carte veche, pierdută și uitată pe o bancă din parc, paginile ei îngălbenite de vreme fiind mărturii ale trecerii nemiloase a timpului. Era ca și când ar fi trebuit să recreez pictura cea mai veche dintr-un muzeu, așa încât să restitui acea poveste uitată și să-i dau viață din nou în lumina prezentului. Cumva, simțeam că mă conectez cu trecutul într-un mod profund și că port povestea sa înăuntrul meu, ca un paznic al amintirilor pierdute, gata să le aduc din nou la viață prin cuvinte și imaginație.

Leadership: Lupta interioară pe care o porți zilnic, este în esență un act de echilibru între a vedea și a nevedea, într-o căutare constantă a ceva care, deși invizibil, trebuie să se vadă?

Lipseau multe pagini, multe rânduri, dar pe prima pagină pe care mi-am aruncat ochii, fiind de fapt pagina cu numărul 21, stăteau scrise undeva la mijloc următoarele cuvinte ale autorului, cuvinte scrise cu suflet, cu pricepere, cu nostalgie, cu sinceritatea unuia care nu-și ascunde gândurile în spatele cuvintelor, dar totuși le îmbracă în mister:

"O luptă straşnică era viaţa lui. Fiecare dimineață îi aducea o speranță nouă, și fiecare seară o nouă disperare, ca un fel de alternanţă între lumină și întuneric. Veşnic nemulţumit de lucrul lui, răzuind de câte zece ori o pânză, plecând şi întorcându-se de zece ori în acelaşi colţişor de natură, care mereu tot altceva-i spunea din marele mister, şi el mereu întrebând, simţind că dincolo de liniile şi de culorile care se văd, mai e ceva care nu se vede, şi care totuşi trebuie să se vadă. Trebuie. Că aceasta este chemarea unui artist pe lume - să te facă să vezi în vecii vecilor ceea ce natura nu arată decât o singură dată, la fulgerarea unei clipe, o singură dată, în toată necuprinsa şi spăimântătoarea veşnicie a vremii."

Dintr-un oarecare hazard, am recitit cuvintele acestea de mai multe ori, încă o dată şi încă o dată, într-un context figurativ, dar astfel încât să cuprind în sufletul meu emoția vădită a unui călător prin lumi nespuse. O exprimare a bogăției simplificată, sintetizată, redusă la esențe, îmi străpungea imaginaţia cu un soi de claritate transcendentală, făcând ca fiecare cuvânt să vibreze în inima mea ca un ecou divin. Obiectele pierdute, regăsite în locuri neașteptate, pot avea o poveste proprie, invizibilă dar plină de semnificații.

Leadership: O descoperire a unui lucru găsit întâmplător te ghidează spre o apreciere mai profundă a faptului că fiecare moment pe care-l trăiești în prezent se extinde dincolo de ceea ce reflectă oglindirea ta în trecutul altcuiva?

Niciun nume, niciun autor nu străjuia coperta ei uzată. Doar un mister adânc m-a împins să o deschid, să o simt cu mâini de pictor, de parcă aș fi fost chemat de o forță invizibilă să explorez tainele ascunse ale unui univers paralel. În ea, am găsit fragmente dispersate, rânduri neterminate, schițe grăbite, fiecare pagină, ruptă sau nu, fiind o fereastră spre sufletul unui artist ce odinioară și-a vărsat inima și gândurile acolo - dar nu le-a aruncat de-a valma, ca o neglijență, ci le-a dat viață eternă, ca un ecou al nemuririi în sufletul celui ce știe să vadă dincolo de aparențe.

Îndată, mi-am dat seama că fiecare cuvânt era un fir într-un țesut mult mai vast, o rețea de experiențe artistice întinzându-se peste granițele timpului și spațiului.

Am urmat indiciile lăsate de acest suflet pe hârtie, fiecare conducându-mă spre colțuri necunoscute ale lumii artistice, simboluri ascunse, metafore neprevăzute, învățându-mă despre frumusețea complexității vieții. Această întâmplare a lucrului găsit, nu numai că m-a purtat prin colțuri neașteptate ale sufletului de artist, dar mi-a deschis inima și mintea spre înțelegerea că fiecare obiect, fiecare persoană, fiecare moment are o poveste de spus, iar uneori, cele mai mari comori sunt ascunse în cele mai neașteptate şi mai banale locuri.

Dacă găsiți o carte veche, n-o aruncați, căci în ea se poate ascunde un suflet, bun, mărinimos, care a știut că într-o bună zi va fi citită de cineva asemenea-i, cineva care-i va înțelege și prețui mesajul. Şi-l va duce mai departe.

Leadership: În momentele de revelație finală simţi că devii parte dintr-un dialog continuu cu trecutul văzut prin prisma unei realități care transcende imediatul?

Am căutat pe Google cuvintele, le-am găsit. Am găsit și cartea, și scriitorul. Mi-am amintit că am citit-o demult și îmi pare rău că nu am recunoscut-o încă de la început. Și, tot atunci, am dat peste alte cuvinte care parcă m-au făcut să reflectez mai profund la cuvintele de mai devreme:

"Dacă ai pus într-un vers o tresărire a inimii tale, să ştii că, şi peste o mie de ani, cine-l va citi, va simţi în inima lui bătaia inimii tale. Dacă n-ai pus nimic, ce vrei să fie acolo? Aşa e şi cu un tablou."

Mai departe, călătoria printre cuvintele pierdute ale acestei cărţi, regăsite întru totul pe Google, m-a făcut să conștientizez că această carte nu era doar un obiect pierdut, ci un dar deliberat, un mesaj în sticlă aruncat în marea timpului, menit să unească sufletele rătăcitoare. Într-un final revelator, am fost invitat să îmi adaug propriul fragment la această moștenire, înainte de a-i permite să continue călătoria ei, să fie descoperită de următorul explorator al vieții.

Acest episod al descoperirii nu doar că m-a purtat prin meandrele neașteptate ale artei și ale vieții, dar mi-a deschis inima și mintea, învățându-mă că fiecare obiect, fiecare persoană, fiecare moment poartă în sine o poveste ce merită spusă, iar comorile cele mai prețioase sunt adesea cele ascunse în cele mai banale locuri, chiar în faţa ochilor care nu le văd.

La fel ca în artă, exprimarea autentică a sentimentelor în leadership își menține rezonanța și valoarea, trecând testul timpului și inspirând generații. Iar fiecare experiență, vizuală sau personală, este o oportunitate de a învăța și de a transmite mai departe valorile și înțelesurile captate.

Cartea din parc este de fapt obiectul unei vederi care, deși expusă unei incertitudini aparente, reușește să-și păstreze misterul. Așa cum fiecare vedere hrănește ochii cu frumusețea ei distinctă, făcând ca orice inimă să vibreze, tot așa fiecare obiect, persoană sau moment, poartă o lecție valoroasă ce merită explorată și împărtășită.

Cum să câştigi popularitate

Lasă-i pe oameni să intuiască sensurile adânci ale personalităţii tale, întărindu-le încrederea în modelul tău de onoare şi de excelenţă.

De ce era Napoleon Bonaparte atât de îndrăgit de poporul său, şi mai ales de soldaţii săi?

Răspunsul la această întrebare nu o să te surprindă. Succesul lui Napoleon se datorează în primul rând prezenţei lui constante printre oameni. Soldaţii aveau certitudinea că Napoleon va fi alături de ei în toiul luptelor şi că va lupta cot la cot cu ei. Se spune chiar că în acele vremuri nu exista francez care să nu ştie cum arăta împăratul Franţei - atât de popular a devenit Napoleon.

Leadership: Cum te raportezi la efectele de impact cu conţinut semnificativ de clar-obscur?

Reuşita incursiunii tale în mijlocul unui experiment de condiţionare a actului de conducere, în sensul exercitării competentelor care determină naşterea unor efecte de impact, cu conţinut semnificativ de clar-obscur, se datorează în principal (pe spirala schimbărilor multiple de direcţie) asigurării unui capital serios de automotivare.

Conţinutul de clar-obscur, impulsionând capacitatea ta de a te adapta continuu la tot ceea ce este esenţial pentru menţinerea sau iniţierea unor noi poziţii de autoritate, coordonează forţa ta de rezistenţă la înaintare, fără a te ascunde de consecinţele propriilor fapte.

El îşi găseşte înţelesul în starea de spirit pe care ţi-o asumi, senină sau plumburie, raţională sau iraţională, în a-ţi crea condiţiile favorabile pentru a reuşi. În orice demers pe care îl iniţia, Napoleon depindea de sentimentul efectului în atingerea unui scop bine determinat: câştigul şi triumful puterii.

Aici, avem de-a face cu tragismul condiţiei de erou, în care se găsesc legate împrejurările experienței de a spori un prestigiu într-un mod vertiginos, dar anihilat ulterior de tragismul suferinței în care viaţa este percepută ca un exil. Asta înseamnă să te înconjuri o lumină care determină umbră. Napoleon nu a fost în stare să concretizeze cauzele şi efectele hotărârilor sale în întâmplări ce într-adevăr pot să înfioare.

Un lider îşi găsește caracterul final al evoluției personale atunci când îşi pune la îndoială revelația calităților esențiale ce îi asigură superioritatea.

Factorii care fac posibilă propagarea anumitor "imperfecţiuni" cu efect tragic ţin mai mult de natura unei pasiuni debordante, a febrei minţii care îţi micşorează puterea, făcându-te mai slab, mai sensibil, mai nesigur.

Aceste efecte, resimţite printr-o conexiune de mare putere cu evenimentele şi cu procesul de luare a deciziei, mai ales în cazul unei expuneri prelungite la tot felul de strâmtorări (compromisuri, tensiuni, conflicte interioare), modifică presiunea pe care o exerciţi asupra potenţialelor cuceriri. Ceea ce nu este tocmai în avantajul evoluţiei tale.

Necesitatea de a reacţiona imediat la orice formă de voluntară de auto-examinare şi auto-constrângere, dezvoltând cu un ecou tot mai pozitiv un upgrade de putere, sau un upgrade de imagine la nivel conştiinţă a faptelor, este micşorată de utilizarea necorespunzătoare a metodelor de control ale proceselor tale de transformare.

Nivelul tău de onoare şi de excelenţă are de suferit dacă nu reuşeşti să te mobilizezi spre ieşirea din această buclă temporară plină de incoerenţe, contradicţii, confuzii şi nelămuriri - care denaturează sensurile adânci ale personalităţii tale. Sensul este o chestiune de temperament. Să credem că predomină lipsa de sens în ceea ce te priveşte?

Leadership: Poţi să profiţi de acceptul pe care ţi-l dau oamenii, plasându-te sub imperiul emoţiei de a fi prins în mijlocul unei permanente constrângeri pentru "privitul din înalt"?

Înţelegerea cât mai corectă, mai profundă şi mai cuprinzătoare a leadershipul tău este cheia care îţi deschide poarta recunoştinţei oamenilor. Dar mai întâi trebuie să nivelezi terenul care îţi convine cel mai mult pentru a-i câştiga pe oameni de partea ta, trebuie să te încadrezi în acel spaţiu prin care poţi să îţi controlezi în totalitatea aria de influenţă. Poţi marca fundamental calitatea impactului tău doar dacă oamenii vor conştientiza valorile pe care se sprijină personalitatea ta şi dacă îţi vor acorda o importanţă care să nu poată fi contestată.

Tu îţi lărgeşti mijloacele de influenţă profitând din plin de acceptul pe care ţi-l dau oamenii de a fi în fruntea lor?

Privitul din înalt poate fi savurat ca într-o stare de veghe atunci când stabileşti, fără consultarea nimănui, natura şi cauza unor triumfuri conştientizate prin prisma unui apropieri spirituale faţă de o putere cu adevărat glorioasă: acea acumulare de simţire, dincolo de raţiune, care transforma valoarea experienţelor într-o revelaţie a binelui sau raului, a fericirii sau a suferinţei.

Leadership înseamnă să reinventezi modul de a face o schimbare în lume, fără să devii captivul unei conștiințe care nu-şi poate asuma tragedia unei înfrângeri.

Liderii cei mai slabi se „evaporă” cu timpul. Ei apar atât de rar în faţa oamenilor, încât, cu timpul, aceştia pur şi simplu uită de ei. Şi cu cât lipsesc mai mult din „vizor”, cu atât oamenii vor dori să le găsească un înlocuitor. Leadershipul este o competiţie, iar cine nu ştie sau nu poate să-şi creeze o imagine puternică are foarte mari şanse să fie abandonat sau retrogradat, adică să ajungă doar un jucător de rezervă.

Scopul tău este să te menţii tot timpul pe prima poziţie. Nu vei reuşi, însă, să atingi această performanţă dacă nu îţi dezvolţi o personalitate atrăgătoare astfel încât oamenii să fie atraşi de tine ca un magnet. Dacă prin personalitatea ta nu atragi permanent atenţia oamenilor asupra, rămân foarte puţine lucruri de spus.

Îţi faci o onoare din calităţile pe care oamenii le preţuiesc atât de mult la un lider? Cum se aria ta de excelenţă?

Doar vedetele au fani. Ieşi cât mai des în lumina reflectoarelor?

Oamenii cu priză la public sunt aceia care sunt zăriţi cel mai des în mulţime. Ei au o personalitate foarte pregnantă, sunt carismatici, comunicativi, au o atitudine pozitivă şi inspiră multă încredere în ei înşişi, şi par că ţin lucrurile sub control.

Atunci când vorbim despre lideri, respectiv despre leadership, modestia nu-şi are locul. O persoană care nu ştie să se facă remarcată nu poate fi o persoană de încredere, iar oamenii nu vor urma niciodată pe cineva care nu a ştiut să-i câştige de partea lui. Poţi avea o influenţă mare asupra oamenilor numai şi numai dacă ştii să-ţi pui în valoare calităţile şi abilităţile. Ca să ajungi în vârful piramidei valorii străduieşte-te să-ţi găseşti cât mai mulţi susţinători care să-ţi recunoască talentul de lider.

Ar trebui să găseşti o cale de a-ţi proiecta personalitatea în lumina reflectoarelor asemenea vedetelor. Vedetele atrag privirile tuturor atunci când păşesc pe covorul roşu. Vedetele vând cele mai multe servicii şi produse. Vedetele au cei mai mulţi fani. Captează atenţia celor din jur ori de câte ori au ocazia. Acesta este "pasul uriaş" de care depinde şi succesul tău, ca lider.

Îţi faci o onoare din a merita simpatia fanilor tăi? Poţi trăi în inima lor prin intermediul personalităţii tale?

P.S. Este foarte important să fii popular, să-ţi pui mereu la loc de cinste personalitatea, dar dacă nu reuşeşti să schimbi ceva în viaţa oamenilor, dacă nu te implici serios în activităţi menite să rezolve problemele cu care aceştia se confruntă, s-ar putea să ajungi o vedetă prost cotată în sondaje şi să te faci de ruşine.

Lasă-i pe oameni să intuiască sensurile adânci ale personalităţii tale, întărindu-le încrederea în modelul tău de onoare şi de excelenţă.

Câştigul Leadershipului

On Noiembrie 17, 2018

Creaţia cea mai însemnată a oricărui om este visul unei vieţi care are viitor, legat de o amintire ce o va preţui veşnic.

Prin clasa a 6-a am văzut filmul Léon: The Professional (1994). Atunci am învățat prima lecție de leadership. Îți trebuie o armată întreagă din forțele speciale ca să lupți împotriva unui singur PROFESIONIST. Dar numai un suflet de copil va reuși să țină piept puterii sale și să-i domolească drumul.

Mathilda, sufletul acesta plin de întristare şi totodată plin de bărbăţie, această putere inventivă de noi reguli şi provocări, oare ce aspiraţii ascunde în dosul unei impetuoase răzbunări care îi stârneşte toate simţurile, imaginaţia şi libertatea de a alege? Ce anume îşi recunoaşte acest spirit plin de adrenalină şi emoţie în momentul când devine participant direct la evenimentele pe care Léon le abordează printr-o gândire rece, fără Dumnezeu?

Obsesia care reverberează în conştiinţa acestui personaj corespunde unei valori sentimentale, cum este prietenia. Dar corespunde şi unei drame acute, pline de amănunt viu, colorată sobru și exact, care pune față în față zbuciumul unui suflet impresionat de albul din negru, de frumosul din urât, cu vâltoarea alegerilor de tot felul și responsabilităților care decurg din ele.

În clipele de luciditate Mathilda îşi recunoaşte ratarea destinului prielnic, pe care o eludează datorită înţelesului pe care îl dă realităţii pline de contraste: "Is life always this hard, or is it just when you're a kid?" Ea nu se retrage în spaţiul securizant al utopiei, cum ar face-o un observator de tablouri articulate în ficţiune şi poezie, ci pătrunde în misterul unui labirint pshihologic din care nu poţi ieşi decât în momentul în care iei o hotărâre finală, marea provocare a suferinţei regăsindu-se într-un fel de mărturie a "omului din subterană".

Viaţa poate fi judecată cel mai bine din perspectiva omului influenţat de o atracţie intensă, de idealul său din tinereţe, chiar dacă tinereţea i-a fost zdruncinată de limitările unei lumi care nu s-a deschis plenitudinii de comuniune cu Dumnezeu.

Pe de altă parte, Léon devine instabil atunci când este adâncit în întunericul regulilor. Iar această fortăreață greu de cucerit, o adevărată armă de luptă fără permis în faţa legilor civice şi morale, ce regretă el atunci când se vede faţa în faţă cu măreţia altei puteri decât cea fizică, de amploarea posibilităţilor de vindecare a oricăror răni emoţionale? Ce îşi reproşează el fără milă?

Dacă i-am citi gândurile lui Léon, direct asociate cu abilitatea pictorului de a imortaliza un moment unic din viaţa omului, de a bloca în timp ceea ce este pregnant în fața sa, o senzaţie, un fapt, o stare de spirit, iată ce-am afla:

Pot doar să regret că am vrut să renunţ la mediocritatea unei vieţi insuportabile. Nu-mi reproşez că am ucis cu sânge rece, ci îmi reproşez că nu am trăit prin şi pentru alţii ceea ce trebuia să trăiesc prin şi pentru mine. Oare Mathilda este o minune pe care ar trebui să o păstrez întreagă, neprihănită, sau merită să o iubesc ca pe un sceptru interior care mă înnobilează şi mă deosebeşte de restul lumii?

"You're not going to lose me. You've given me a taste for life. I wanna be happy. I want to sleep in a bed, have roots. And you'll never be alone again, Mathilda."

Leadership: Îţi recunoşti ratarea unui destin aflat mai presus de tine însuţi, având acea legitimitate psihologică a învinsului care se simte superior doar fiindcă îşi biruieşte patimile prin suportabilitatea unei răni care se vindecă într-o lacrimă?

Ce s-ar fi întâmplat cu totalitatea umană a lui Léon dacă esenţa lui lăuntrică n-ar fi fost influenţată de acel "cu totul altfel" aparţinând unui nou reper de orientare? Cât de mult l-ar fi apăsat viaţă mediocră, cenuşie, care o ducea în pustietate, dacă n-ar fi avut energia necesară să renunţe la vechiul stil de gândire? S-ar mai fi zbătut pentru libertatea de a se așeza în slujba altcuiva, de a trăi patima slujirii de dragul unei mântuiri mai sublime decât vindecarea de o boală incurabilă?

Remuşcarea este începutul unui drum pe care îl parcurgi cu teama de a nu fi pregătit pentru schimbarea de semnificaţie pe care o dai vieţii. Dacă obiectul sau cauza ce a produs o nelinişte adâncă constituie un fenomen psihic la nivel de conştiinţă de sine, atunci orientarea pe care ţi-o faci în timpul drumului, pricinuită de senzaţii, emoţii şi percepţii, poate avea caracterul unei confesiuni subiective care te absolvă de orice vină, eliberându-te de tensiunile acumulate.

Când ai înaintea ta un deşert plin de mărăcini, ca fapt psihic condiţionat de lipsa unei motivaţii de autodepăşire, te alegi cu împlinirea unui destin prestabilit, care nu poate fi schimbat. Te simţi ca un ostatic reţinut într-o predispoziţie slabă spre visare, ţintuit de-o stare vădită de vulnerabilitate în faţa unei ameninţări numite: "insuportabilitate de sine".

Aici viaţa capătă accente de repetabilitate faţă de o anumită situaţie căreia nu îi poţi oferi răspuns, dar mai ales capătă accente de indignare faţă de deciziile sufleteşti care te-ar fi putut duce într-o direcţie avantajoasă.

Léon este un fenomen psihologic aparte, o captivantă poveste a unui destin cu aură romantică, o laudă caldă pentru gingasia si rabdarea de a se împotrivi uitării pe care i-a aşternut-o sindromul vieţii agitate.

El evadează din deşertul mediocrităţii atât de contorsionate temporal şi îşi confesează viaţa trăită în taină prin ochii unui copil care creşte în aridul mediu al tipologiei sale. Într-o convorbire imaginară cu acest personaj plin de contradicţii, a cărui vitalitate este dată de totalitatea tuturor demersurilor sale periculoase, am putea afla despre posibilitatea părăsirii unei condiţii de om dur, pătruns de sânge rece, în avantajul unei imagini care impresionează prin similaritatea cu raiul păzitor, treapta supremă a existenţei în bine care odată atinsă de suflet nu mai poate fi părăsită.

Leadership: Creaţia ta se individualizează în primul rând prin puterea de a încorpora semnificaţii aparte în faptele obişnuite de viaţă, promovând îmbunătățirea performanței de a fi altcineva faţă de cine eşti cu adevărat?

S-ar zice că omul construit din urmarea păcatelor cele mai grave, acoperit cu pânza de păianjen a criminalităţii, ale cărei fire invizibile - dar puternice - îşi imobilizează prada cu o singură înţepătură de pudoare şi modestie, vrea să evadeze din această existenţă zbuciumată cu ajutorul promisiunilor uitate şi a viselor neîmplinite, printr-o poartă secretă numită: gingăşie, sensibilitate, puritatea copilăriei.

Până la urmă, creaţia omului (bun sau rău) este visul unei vieţi care are viitor, legat de o amintire ce o va preţui veşnic ca pe un diamant şlefuit impecabil ce pulsează energie şi armonie prin strălucirea lui.

O rană sufletească tratabilă, o singură formă de manifestare a conştiinţei curate, o lacrimă plină de înduioşare care se scurge pe obrazul plin de remuşcări ale acestui veritabil Hitman, se revarsă într-o esenţă spirituală pură: "You know, about my money - maybe I could give a little to someone, you know, to help out."

Glasul acesta al trăirilor sale lăuntrice nu ne face să ne gândim la o resemnare plictisită de om ratat, de tristeţe fără orizont, a unuia care se bălăceşte într-o existenţă fără început şi fără de cauză. Ci ne îndeamnă să plecăm urechea spre o rugăciune curată, o rugăciune de luptă împotriva patimilor: "Doamne. struneşte-mi voinţa şi învaţă-mă să mă rog, să sper, să cred, să îndur, să iubesc şi să iert."

Laitmotivul vieţii sale nu-l mai constituie deşertul, semnul profeţirii în pustiu, ci teama de a nu fi devenit opera unui îmblânzitor de cobre, a acestei Mathilda care străluceşte tocmai din veninul surdei sale activităţi de asasin. Brusc, fiara din el nu-şi mai arată colţii, şarpele poate fi amiabil, compromiţător, un iubăreţ distractiv, onorabil, altruist. Iată ce înseamnă să cunoşti iubirea: să te laşi luat de valul unei simţiri care cunoaşte mângâierea unei dulci recunoştinţe, dar care nu cunoaşte încă clocotul frământărilor dramatice.

Cunoscutul antreprenor E. Joseph Cossman, făcea observaţia: "Misiunea noastră în viaţă nu este să-i depăşim pe ceilalţi, ci să ne depăşim pe noi înşine."

Cum te poţi autodepăşi? Încercând să dai forma gândurilor care te lovesc în orice moment, ca fierarul care bate fierul înroşit în foc. Să le atribui un anumit înţeles, mobilizator spre valorificarea acelor părţi din tine aflate în stare de latenţă. În fiecare clipă fii conştient de cine eşti cu adevărat !

Leadershipul este sentimentul pe care îl încerci atunci când cineva îţi răspunde rugăciunilor tale de pocăinţă cu o forţă corespunzătoare şi într-un timp corespunzător: "Eşti mai bun decât simţi că poţi să fii."

Câştigul Leadershipului se obţine odată cu transformarea ta de zi cu zi, se datorează îmbunătățirilor pe care le aduce fiecare perioadă decisivă de tranziţie a vieţii tale. Iar acest câştig se poate duce pe apa sâmbetei dacă nu îţi creezi "un sistem automat de stins incendii", care să asigure spaţiul şi posibilitatea de a te eschiva de la orice încadrări în tipare rigide de gândire. Câștigul Leadershipului promovează îmbunătățirea performanței de a fi altcineva faţă de cine eşti cu adevărat.

Stabileşte-ţi un mod de "a fi" care să regleze conţinutul tău de interes: "Omul din tine" - Ego-ul tău, care, aşa cum am văzut, nu se poate exprima cu uşurinţă în orice tip de situaţie, ci asemenea unui mecanism de răspuns la presiunile sociale îşi poate pierde coordonatele prin izolare.

Ori leadershipul se exercită cu caracter permanent pe teritoriul bine individualizat al omului, asupra destinului său dinamic, a cărui curbă evolutivă îşi are originea în impulsul de a alege, de a iubi. Să credem şi să visăm !

Cât de important este timpul?

On Decembrie 29, 2015

Păstrează-ţi siguranța în marea călătorie a schimbării, limitând rolul dominant al obiectivelor și al insistenţelor de a atinge potenţialul de excelenţă.

Se filma într-o grabă drăcească. Filmări simultane, cu două echipe, prelungirea neobişnuită a zilei de filmare, era posibilă doar pentru că regizorul şi colaboratorii săi apropiaţi se dopau pentru a rezista lipsei de somn - toate acestea, precum şi o bună organizare au permis un ritm de muncă intens.

Serghei Eisenstein îşi monta singur filmul. Înfăşurat în peliculă, controla mereu efectele de montaj la moviolă. Uneori o chema pe Esfir Sub şi îi cerea părerea. O numea "câinele meu de vânătoare", pentru că îi cerea să descopere cu severitate neclarităţile filmului său. Spunea că în acest timp capul îi e atât de plin ce celuloid, încât la simpla menţionare a cuvântului "film" care ajunsese supra-detestat, începe să ameţească nebuneşte. Şi poate că ceva din această ameţeală, ceva din acest vârtej haotic al kilometrilor de film s-a strecurat în însăşi compoziţia filmului.

Graba - şi de această dată - nu îi permite la montaj desăvârşirea structurii filmului. Spectrul acestei goane îl va urmări şi mai târziu. De aceea se va întreba odată cu dureroasă revoltă: "Va veni o epocă în lumea filmului care va înţelege cât de important este timpul?" *

Leadership: Îţi poţi asuma implicarea într-un proces de tip „sens-unic" pe o intrare îngustă care conține "prompturi", fără să depinzi de exigenţele senzaţiei de extenuare nesfârşită?

Concentraţiile foarte ridicate ale experienței și abilitaţilor individuale, supuse unei tentative de a determina fundaţia unei opere ştiinţifice care să conducă la inovare și evoluție în domeniu, eventual prin acumulări de efecte de montaj, indică rolul dominant al obiectivelor și al insistenţelor de a atinge potenţialul de excelenţă.

Acest lucru se produce la nivelul unui fel aparte de a gândi şi de a percepe munca, lumea și legătura dintre ele. Şi te pune întotdeauna pe primul loc în ecuația luării deciziilor cu care îți alimentezi priceperea de a-i învăţa pe alții să evolueze. Cât mai repede. În același ritm cu tine, cu aceeași emoție, energie și speranţă.

Încrederea ta în marea călătorie a schimbării este dată de insistenţele cu care încerci să oprești timpul în loc, implicându-i totodată și pe oamenii din jurul tău. Insistenţa este o căutare penetrantă a ceva ce nimeni nu ştie privind creaţia artistică, este o înlocuire a unei forme de exprimare cu alta care ne apare mai potrivită atunci când începem să înţelegem lucrurile din perspectiva avantajelor ce decurg din exploatarea unei resurse limitate de obţinere a rezultatelor.

Prezenţa timpului în interacțiune cu tot ceea ce încerci să realizezi semnifică uneori implicarea într-un proces de tip „sens-unic" pe o intrare îngustă care conține prompturi. Ceea ce te obligă să păstrezi anumite rezerve în interpretarea unor nivele crescute de aparenţe sau de forța lăuntrică. Vulnerabilitatea fizică și psihică se face simţită pe măsura creșterii temperaturii amestecului dintre dorinţă, entuziasm, dezamăgire, tristeţe.

Dacă este planificată o intrare care conţine prompturi, adică dacă se instalează graba ce trebuie să ducă la desăvârşirea operei, trebuie să salvezi valorile promptului sau să specifici anumite valori implicite. Aceste valori pot fi îndreptate asupra omului însuși, asupra realităţii trăite prin prisma realizărilor, trecându-le prin filtrele unui sistem valoric articulat pe cumpătare și echilibru.

A-ţi asuma implicarea într-un proces de tip „sens-unic" pe o intrare îngustă care conține "prompturi" înseamnă să surprinzi esenţialul unei munci care te solicită intens într-o concepţie de tip "investiţie susţinută de momentul de faţă", angajându-te într-un ansamblu de acţiuni ce ascund elemente de prudenţă, selectivitate şi teama de rezultat.

Cât de important este timpul? este întrebarea pe care şi-o pune orice om al schimbării care ştie ce înseamnă să înregistrezi realizări notabile, şi că fiecare realizare înseamnă o grabă continuă, care uneori seamănă cu o întrecere a cărei favorite sunt adrenalina şi munca în exces.

Închei acest articol cu un citat aparţinând celebrei scriitoare Laura Esquivel: "În viaţă sunt lucruri cărora nu trebuie să le dai importanţă decât dacă schimbă esenţialul."

Esenţial în procesul schimbării nu sunt realizările pe care le obţii în timp cu trudă şi entuziam. Esenţialul eşti tu.

Cât de viu a rămas în amintirile mele !

On Februarie 09, 2013

Viața fiecaruia dintre noi are dimensiunea unui destin care trebuie dus spre împlinire într-un roman al experienţelor profunde, înduioşătoare şi răsunătoare.

Am mers mult, am mers alături, lipiţi unul de altul, ca pe vremuri, când nu voiam să ne despărţim şi n-aveam curajul să ne mărturisim gândul, n-aveam curajul să ne oprim.

Te vindeci vreodată de o mare iubire, mă întrebam. O iubire nouă nu vine peste cea care mocneşte sub propria ei cenuşă şi refuză să moară de tot şi nu te lasă să mori de tot?

În apropierea unui grup de tineri gălăgioşi, Camil mi-a arătat o fată şuie, blondă, cu unduiri de trestie.

- Uite, aşa erai tu. Părul tău mirosea a grâu copt şi a soare.

- Ei sunt generaţia de după război, noi cea dinainte.

- Nu ne despart decât zece ani.

- Ne va despărţi totdeauna războiul.

- Parcă e o replică dintr-o piesă de teatru. Replica peste care cade cortina, mi-a spus Camil.

E dialogul şi replica cu care se încheie romanul Genţiane, o carte pe care nu ştiam că am s-o scriu, pe care Camil n-o va citi, cum nu va citi Scrisorile Agatei către Cirus Hotaru. Le găsisem într-un caiet, caietul pe care mi-l dăduse Camil cu patruzeci de ani în urmă, şi lui îi erau adresate.

S-ar fi recunoscut Camil în Cirus Hotaru? I-ar fi plăcut personajul? S-ar fi înfuriat sau ar fi zâmbit puţin trist, înduioşat, dezabuzat? E o întrebare la care nu pot răspunde.

Când a apărut romanul, murise Camil. Dar cât de viu a rămas în amintirile mele ! Cu câtă forţă trăieşte în personajele, în opera lui ! Şi cât de bine ştia că „existenţa morţii ne obligă să dăm vieţii noastre un sens, pe care moartea să nu i-l poată răpi”.

Leadershipul tău poate fi perceput mai mult ca "exploitation" sau ca "remember" din punct de vedere al unei vieţi care încearcă să te atenţioneze asupra poveştii unui destin implacabil?

Omul trebuie să simtă în orice condiţie că intervenientul este modelatorul destinului său şi că fericirea mult dorită, starea lui pozitivă de a fi, nu poate fi dobândită decât după învingerea tuturor obstacolelor pe care complexa viaţă le aruncă neîncetat asupra lui. În cazul Cellei Serghi, pentru care viaţa a meritat să fie trăită intens prin rememorarea unor amintiri dragi, intervenientul a fost Camil Petrescu, scriitor a cărui operă a marcat-o profund.

Punctul de vedere al scriitorului român Lucian Blaga este valid: "De multe ori e o datorie să vedem în culori mai negre decât e de fapt. Pentru că din această vedere, să izvorască o luptă mai hotărâtă spre bine."

Dar în jocul de lumini şi de umbră a vieţii, predominant nu trebuie să fie negru, şi nici albul, ci mai degrabă un roşu aprins care nu păleşte, ţâşnind cu forţă în fiecare moment, retrăgându-se apoi regulat, după cum răsăritul şi asfinţitul soarelui, momente la fel de frumoase, se întâlnesc şi se completează armonios.

O viaţă care încearcă să te atenţioneze asupra poveştii unui destin implacabil este rezultatul experienţelor unei persoane ce trăieşte în sfera societăţii cu sentimentul de a nu putea face mai mult ca să schimbe ceva din ordinea lucrurilor şi a întâmplărilor.

Leadershipul tău poate fi mai mult perceput ca "exploitation" dacă relaţia ta cu oamenii pe care îi conduci nu este în pierdere, deci dacă este adecvată tipului de rezultat scontat de amândouă părţile. În acest caz, viaţa nu trebuie să apară ca o consecinţă a unei emoţionalităţi mai profunde, asociată cu o anumită vulnerabilitate de tip "frustrare sau o pierdere", ci ca un obiectiv al unor acţiuni de rezistenţă în faţa unui destin potrivnic.

Sau poate fi perceput ca "remember" dacă nu reuşeşti să cultivi virtuţile care conturează pe omul nou, dacă tot ceea ce întreprinzi în folosul unei exteriorizări a personalităţii celor cu care interacţionezi nu se materializează într-o faptă măreaţă. Astfel leadershipul tău devine şters, dispare, sau în cel mai bun caz "împietreşte", stă acolo, aşteaptă fără niciun rezultat un răspuns.

Leadership: Poţi suporta formatul imaginii unui destin văzut ca o consecinţă a unor situaţii de viaţă care îţi suprasolicită Egoul în faţa unor suferinţe ce par greu de depăşit, dar în aşa fel încât interpretarea pe care o dai acelor situaţii să dobândească semnificaţia de act creator?

Zidul care îţi conturează personalitatea începe să se clatine? În tine se dezvoltă forme de protest şi de neîncredere? Constantele tale caracteristice par că se disipează atunci când întâlnesc zona de separare dintre cei doi poli: negativ şi pozitiv? Poţi să evadezi din starea abisal-imuabilă care te încearcă? Poţi să transformi total reactantul X în exces care în cursul reacţiei negative tinde să-ţi epuizeze resursele?

Inetitabil, un leadership încărcat cu vicii ascunse are un impact major asupra tuturor aspectelor implicate în procesul de dezvoltare al oamenilor - resurse, timp, interacţiuni, reacţii, efecte, percepţii, corecturi, determinări, atenţionări, influenţe multiple şi variate, experienţe sociale satisfăcătoare. Un astfel de leadership ajunge tot mai mult să preocupe acel segment de lideri care investesc într-un "teren" care nu se poate vinde, dar de pe care se poate decola spre destinaţia finală: excelenţa. Acest teren este ideal pentru înţelegerea omului ca fiinţă duală, prinsă între două spaţii: cel interior şi cel exterior.

Excelenţa unui om care îşi revine de pe urma efectelor contrarii ale vieţii şi ale destinului său este în strânsă legătură cu proiecţia unei realităţi idealizate peste care timpul nu îşi aşterne uitarea.

Leadershipul, prin prisma modului în care comportamentul afectează bunăstarea individului sau a grupului social, se răsfrânge cu o intensitate mai mare sau mai mică asupra eficacităţii şi tolerabilităţii intervenientului. El, participantul principal la evoluţia omului, are calitatea de a introduce o cerere de adoptare a unor măsuri, măcar provizorii, care să impună reciprocitatea, jocul în doi, gândirea comună, garantând o funcţionalitate a noului său coechipier aflat în diverse stadii ale procesului de reabilitare şi dezvoltare.

Marile schimbări survenite în câmpul vieţii sociale şi personale a omului supus transformării, încă din primele momente când intervenientul concepe propriile sale metode de schimbare, și până la ultima suflare, când armonia dintre factorii conducători ai omului respectiv este tulburată, - pot produce rezultate imediate, utile şi constante, extrem de încurajatoare, satisfăcătoare pentru ambele părţi. Sau, dimpotrivă, pot produce efecte imediate ce devin efemere de-a lungul timpului, chiar dezamăgitoare.

Sarcina cu care se încarcă leadershipul vizează aprofundarea dimensiunii umane în urma producerii consecinţelor experienţelor de viaţă acumulate ca urmare a condiţiei de "trecător" într-o lume care îşi trăieşte bucuriile, dar îşi asumă totodată drama resemnării şi a fatalismului.

Cât de viu a rămas în amintirile mele marchează acea facultate intimă, spirituală a omului de a lega trecutul de prezent, devenind reflecţie pentru a lega acţiunea prezentă de viitor într-o viaţă care îşi cere dreptul la dor, omagiu şi neuitare.

Câteva învățături despre pictură

Viziunea care te scoate din tipare este creaţia care se transformă de la simţire la reprezentare.

Pictorul care vrea să se bucure de cinstire, trebuie într-adevăr să studieze graba și gesturile firești făcute de oameni pe negândite și izvorâte din adâncul simțirii lor – să le însemne pe caietul lor de schițe, și apoi, la timpul lor, să le folosească, aşezând un om într-un același fel, ca să vadă cum îi arată mădularele într-o asemenea atitudine. Acel lucru sau acel chip va avea trăsăturile cele mai distincte și mai precise, care va fi cel mai apropiat de ochi.

Pentru aceasta pictore, punând mâna după ucenic, să concepi un cap văzut de aproape cu pensulări conturate, obţinând și trăsături aspre și crude. Dar nu uita că la orice îndepărtare vei concepe acest chip, oriunde s-ar găsi, el va trebui să fie bine finisat, cu toate că prin îndepărtare, contururile lor se pierd. Caută deci să pictezi astfel încât să apară, un contur fumuriu, mai degrabă decât contururi și profiluri aspre și contrastante.

Se poate zice deci: pentru acea operă de care ochiul se poate apropia, toate părțile din pictură sunt încheiate în amănuntele lor cu cea mai mare sârguinţă. În afară de aceasta, cele dintâi sunt terminate prin contururi apăsate și netede, iar cele mai îndepărtate sunt și ele isprăvite. dar prin contururi mai întunecate – adică mai nedeslușite sau, mai puțin apăsate. În ceea ce privește cele mai îndepărtate părți, să se observe rând pe rând ceea ce s-a spus mai sus, adică: contururile mai puțin vădite, apoi mădularele și în sfârşit tot ce e mai puțin deslușit în chip și culoare.

Vreţi să ştiţi cum a fost cea dintâi pictură? Ei bine, cea dintâi pictură a ieșit dintr-o trăsătură care înconjura umbra omului iscată de soare pe ziduri.

Leadership: Sentimentul care îţi însufleţeşte viziunea poate să se materializeze într-o artă total diferită de imaginea iniţială unde domină arta abstracţiei?

Leonardo Da Vinci avea dreptate când a scris rândurile de mai sus, cu precizarea ca ceea ce prinde contur într-o pictură nu trebuie să se distingă ca un protest împotriva "depărtării", şi nu trebuie să micşoreze reciprocitatea sentimentelor dintre artist şi privitorul tabloului. Deci, viziunea pe care o transmite tabloul trebuie să dovedească o anumită detașare față de alte interpretări, o anumită continuitate faţă de momentul anterior surprins în imagine, deci tabloul trebuie să redea acea profunzime a depărtării caracteristică pentru un peisaj sau un portret ieşit din comun, ceva abstract în culori mai îndrăznețe.

Pe această cale mai trebuie să menţionez ceva. Echilibrul dintre artă şi pictură, mai ales între pensulare şi impregnare, este important dacă vrem să înţelegem viziunea pictorilor din perspectiva acelor ochi care nu dorm niciodată, fiindcă tot timpul visează o altă realitate. Să presupunem acum că arta picturală, privită ca o activitate a ochilor de a sesiza contururi, imagini, forme, particularităţi ale corpului, se constituie ca un fel de transformare a unei figuri în altă figura, pornind de la simţire la reprezentare.

În acest caz trebuie să luăm ca punct de plecare atitudinea omului, în special chipul sau corpul său, fiindcă ochii trădează emoţiile omului, în timp ce corpul trădează gândurile, esența dorințelor proprietarului său. Într-un număr mare în acelaşi tablou, culorile deschise fac ca expresia chipului (prin mimică şi prin forma trăsăturilor faciale) să transmită stări pozitive, în timp ce culorile închise transmit autoritate, așa cum roșul închis te face să pari insistent sau violent. Pe de altă parte, în pictură, corpul omenesc prezintă particularitatea de a abandona referirea imediată la om, care este evidenţiată în cea de „creaţie a omului”.

Arta abstracţiei, care însoţeşte leadershipul pe tot parcursul dezvoltării viziunii, presupune prelucrarea concretului şi transformarea lui într-un produs nou care reflectă trei proprietăţi ale unei senzaţii cromatice: tonul cromatic, saturaţia şi luminozitatea.

Spun asta fiindcă, la fel ca şi în artă, leadershipul trebuie să unească trei elemente principale: capacitatea de a deduce un sens general din câteva înşiruiri particulare, capacitatea de a reduce un obiect sau altul la câteva trăsături esenţiale ale lui sau ale grupului din care face parte, şi încercarea de a-ţi muta privirea de la realitatea exterioară la o aşa-zisă realitate interioară care nu a fost niciodată conturată.

Câteva învățături despre pictură vreau să reţineţi. Mai întâi de toate, aşa cum spunea Edgar Degas, în pictură trebuie să dai impresia de adevăr prin intermediul mijloacelor false.

Apoi, pictura trebuie să conţină şi să transmită gingăşia şi emoţia unor sentimente pozitive şi trebuie să fie "citită" de la stânga la dreapta, nu doar de la dreapta la stânga, ca un fel de jurnal, un fel de invitaţie perpetuă la rememorare, ca un fel de experiment, un exercițiu de gândire, un stimul și o încercare de a transforma gândirea într-un eveniment, o forță cu potențial de transformare și schimbare.

Nu uita o lecţie de leadership valabilă în domeniul artei: prin îndepărtare, “contururile” lor se pierd.

Către noua lui noapte era una fără sfârşit

On Octombrie 30, 2016

Încearcă să induci o forță semnificativă necesară asigurării controlului unei noi direcţii în viață, plasându-te într-o poziţie de mediator: între surprizele vieții și presiunea unei moralităţi excesive.

Mă cuprinsese o nevoie curioasă, plină de freamăt, acea dominantă de a retrăi şederea mea alături de condiţia obligatorie a personalităţii mele creatoare, a naturii mele esenţiale, într-o lume străină în care comunicarea era foarte dificilă. Păream adâncit într-un întuneric total, o beznă a înţelegerii care survolează acea parte a creaţiei pe care o consideram accesibilă tuturor, dar care se dovedea a fi tot mai mult o piedică pentru aceia care nu investiseră suficient de mult timp cu studiul şi practica cabalei.

O nouă poziţionare sub semnul respectului pentru chestiunea originii reticenţei mele vizavi de cunoaşterea superioară mi se oferea sub numele de raţiune pură, ignorată de atâtea ori prin acea convingere a realităţii interioare care te face să crezi că te potrivești în mereu altă situație, implicit în alt loc.

Şi numai această cunoaştere, reflectând aspiraţia către tot ce este inadmisibil de ştiut, se prefigura la orizontul aşteptărilor mele îngrămădite într-un spectaculos salt spre ceea ce filozoful german Karl Jaspers numea Transcendență.

Viaţa unui creator este suma cunoaşterii pe care o expui sincer în faţa unei oglinzi care reflectă perfecţiunea divină. Intrasem într-o fază acută a existenţei, într-un delir enigmatic, când renunţasem la orice speranţă de a mă dedica asumării răspunderii faţă de tot ceea ce mă înconjura. Numai cu scopul de a da de urma unei concepţii de tip "al treilea val" care sfidează viaţa şi moartea, prezentul şi viitorul, veghea şi somnul.

Iar dacă lumea aceasta muritoare pune bazele unei anumite categorii de existenţă, şi dacă definirea existenţei ca temei al lucrurilor ne duce spre o viziune statică a realităţii, atunci probabil aş fi putut să mă pun în ipostaza de iniţiator al unei metafizici a finalităţii between law and nonlaw.

Leadership: Te angajezi în depăşirea sfârşitului unei limitări de perspectivă, într-un context mai larg al dezvoltării prin intermediul noţiunii de „rol" atribuit unui Creator care îşi lasă amprenta inteligenţei la toate nivelele de percepţie ale vieţii?

Cititorule, îţi aminteşti ce alinare îi trimitea Contele de Monte Cristo tânărului acela, Maximilien, care intrase în bezna rătăcirilor lumeşti, când una din toanele destinului l-a făcut să se îndoiască de bunătatea lui Dumnezeu? Către noua lui noapte era una fără sfârşit, alimentată cu mai multă forţă de un sfânt al întunericului luminos:

"Nu spre morţi trebuie să priveşti, Maximilien, ci dincolo - arătându-i cerul. Copile care încă nu ştii ce înseamnă făgăduiala unui om mare, ţi-am spus de douăzeci de ori că în ziua aceea, dacă tot îţi vei mai dori moartea, te voi ajuta să mori ! Adio ! "

Inutil să reproduc combaterea acestui punct de vedere, despre o experienţă de cunoaştere care nu-şi poate asigura frontierele, validă pentru determinarea orientării faţă de o situaţie în cauză ce nu poate fi probată prin orice mijloace de probă admisibile. Contele nu era doar un mare cunoscător în problemele sufletului uman, dobândind o pregnanţă sporită asupra personalităţii multor oameni, ci era şi un creator de evenimente neaşteptate, procedând după metoda perfecţiunii divine, ca un magician care, având puteri speciale, poate săvârşi tot felul de minuni.

Marea cunoaştere este atributul perfecţiunii divine care determină cursul evenimentelor, implicând acea mistică a transcendenţei care nu este altceva decât o reinterpretare a sensului vieţii. Dar care e totodată o experienţă dătătoare de bucurii - bucuria a de a fi parcurs un pas măreţ, dacă nu chiar cel mai important, spre autodevenire, ba chiar de înflorire a personalităţii cu o nevoie vitală: depăşirea sfârşitului unei limitări de perspectivă într-un context mai larg al dezvoltării prin intermediul noţiunii de rol.

Leadership: Îţi poţi duce creaţia la nivel de impact asupra evenimentelor prin facilitarea interacțiunii între momentele declanşatoare de emoţii şi creşterea conectării la esenţa divină?

Un creator are rolul de a-şi duce creaţia la nivel de impact asupra evenimentelor, încât să faciliteze o mai bună interacţiune între momentele declanşatoare de emoţii şi creşterea conectării la esenţa divină. Rolul, în accepţiunea leadershipului care onorează și dezarmează, în ultimă instanță, prin promovarea modalităţii cât mai eficiente de influenţare și dirijare a procesului de formare a personalităţii, îi revine condiţiei prezente de convergenţă, de punct în care se întâlnesc trei tărâmuri diferite:

Un tărâm al extremelor și al contrastelor uluitoare, neatins parcă de trecerea timpului. Un tărâm al cunoaşterii. Și un tărâm al emoţiilor cele mai profunde, copleșitoare prin manifestările experimentate de individul obişnuit.

Un om al superiorităţii este Un Destin și Un Merit. O Cauză și O Consecinţă. De cele mai multe ori el este plasat într-o poziţie de mediator: între surprizele vieții și presiunea unei moralităţi excesive, fiind catalizatorul percepţiei faţă de ceea ce e condamnabil, fiind singura fiinţă cu perspective de detaşare de condiţia imediată şi cu perspective de proiectare a unei anumite învăţări în viitor.

Totodată rolul are ca principal resort acea convingere a realităţii interioare care te face să crezi că te potrivești în mereu altă situație, implicit în alt loc. Conform acestei convingeri, desigur într-o epocă a provocărilor, singurul factor al dezvoltării unei superiorităţi se constituie prin inducerea ideii că tot ceea ce trăiești în exterior este o reflectare a ceea ce nu ai acceptat încă la tine.

Uneori, ca să reușești un transfer de personalitate trebuie să fii mai întâi partea personalităţii respinsă de ceilalți oameni, de care ei trebuie să se ataşeze în timp pentru a-și formula propria teorie a personalității.

Ştim că un creator este de esenţă divină atunci când imensitatea cunoaşterii sale se răsfrânge asupra evenimentelor, încât tot ceea ce se petrece în jur să fie parte dintr-o plăsmuire care ţine loc de realitate.

Dar să nu uităm că o prea mare alterare a realităţii duce la o scădere a moralităţii înţeleasă ca idealitate pură şi inalterabilă, mai presus de accidentalitatea condiţiei de Creator.

Către noua lui noapte era una fără sfârşit sugerează aspiraţia omului către tot ce este inadmisibil de știut, imposibil de atins, dar a cărei intrigă simbolică induce o forță semnificativă necesară asigurării controlului unei noi direcţii în viață.

Caută-mă cu ochii cu care priveşti cealaltă faţă a lumii

Perspectiva unei noi atitudini faţă de totalitatea creaţiei, devine ameţitor de largă dacă ai capacitatea de a-ţi converti latenţele de spiritualitate într-o lume care aşează fondul înaintea formei.

M-am gândit de atâtea ori la mine însumi, visător, în preajma solemnităţii, cu patosul elanului creator, aşa cum m-aş gândi la altcineva mai presus decât mine, aflat la un nivel spiritual mai înalt decât mi-aş fi putut imagina. Cumva, acest lucru însemna să desluşesc acel conţinut de informaţii preţioase, esoterice, din memoria unor faimoşi alchimişti, gândindu-mă că poate acesta este felul meu de a realiza Marea Operă, cu aplicare artistică, literară, dar şi spirituală.

În acest caz, gândirea mea trebuia să recunoască, să adopte, să păstreze acel pattern cognitiv al altor litteratisque hominibus prestigious , încât imaginea mea să se confunde cu imaginea alchimiştilor într-o realitate care rezistă testului timpului. Doar astfel, mi-aş fi putut câştiga dubla existenţă, cu perspectiva unei moşteniri alchimice, cereşti, atemporale. Mai trebuia să investighez cu luciditate expresia unei condiţii mintale cauzatoare de confuzie: "Precum în cer, aşa şi pe pământ."

Şi oare, nu cumva, înglobând în propria-mi fiinţă conţinutul cognitiv al memoriei universale, aş fi putut să apropii imaginea mea de imaginea unei alte laturi a ştiinţei, şi profitând de această ocazie să mă autodepăşesc, chiar să mă auto-poziţionez cu un pas în faţa celorlalţi oameni?

Oare, imaginea fiinţei mele, fiind iluminată de un intelect agent responsabil pentru caracterul esoteric al limbii sanscrite, pătrunsă doar de elita cabaliştilor, ar fi putut îndeplini funcţia de cunoaştere primordială, Quasentio Adhis, sau cunoaşterea de dincolo de eternitate? Da, era posibil, dar numai prin cristalizarea şi codificarea semnificaţiilor lumii oculte, în cuvinte şi structuri verbale caracteristice persoanelor cu nivel înalt de pregătire.

Leadership: Creaţia căreia îi dedici timp de reflecţie poate fi punctul culminant al unei capodopere artistice totale în care o singură imagine poate să constituie versiunea realităţii trăită prin înrudire cu simbolurile cheilor spirituale?

Dar să trudesc pentru Marea Operă, în aşa măsură încât imaginea mea să capete sensul şi personalitatea altei imagini, mai presus de orice închipuire a imaginaţiei, era fără de folos dacă nu luam în considerare cele două chei spirituale importante. Numai omul trecut prin chinurile grele ale creaţiei le poate înţelege, după însemnătatea cuvenită Legilor lui Aziluth:

"Trebuie să renunţi la această lume, pentru a o câştiga pe cealaltă."

"Iar cine va răbda până la sfârşit vă fi mântuit."

Newton a vorbit cu Dee înainte de a lua legătura cu Flamel. Toţi trei au luat legătura cu prezentul, şi l-au numit viitor, chiar dacă totul se întâmpla în trecut. Şi din întâlnirea lor s-a născut o stea, ea însăşi operă a creaţiei universale, care veşnic luminează pe cerul senin al unei lumi situată în planul lui Dumnezeu. O stea convertită într-o imagine fabuloasă, vizibilă doar în privirea interioară a creatorului. Mulţi o văd, dar nu o pot înţelege, şi uită de ea. Alţii o înţeleg, dar nu pot s-o vadă, chiar dacă şi-o imaginează.

Alchimistul o foloseşte ca pe o realitate robustă, imperativ înrudită cu acel „Fie" al creaţiei. El ştie că nimeni nu ajunge să descopere Marea Operă, magica întâlnire cu lumea Reflecţiei in Quintessenza prin condiția inseparabilităţii unui organism istoric-cultural, fără să trudească enorm la ceea ce se numeşte "Spaţiul privilegiat al omniprezenţei divine". Iar asta, deoarece fenomenul transcenderii nu prea corespunde realităţii puternic promovate în breasla oamenilor de rând, şi fiindcă oamenii de rând nu vor să creadă într-o altă realitate.

Leadership: Conţinutul creaţiei tale variază în funcţie de fundalul unor imagini care întregesc profilul unor indivizi capabili să împărtăşească aceeaşi viziune imprimată pe tiparul unei istorii retrăite prin intermediul unei experienţe demiurgice?

Iar Dumnezeu, a mai făcut o lucrare excepţională, o lume nevăzută, o lume a îngerilor. Newton, Dee şi Flamel sunt regi în această lume pentru că au fost mântuiţi, sfinţiţi, pe motiv că au găsit o nouă înţelegere despre relaţia omului cu spaţiul şi cu acţiunea. Ei sunt nemuritori pentru că au răbdat totul până la sfârşit, asumându-şi chinul sisific al creaţiei şi ambiţia demiurgică a re-creaţiei.

Am luat parte la întâlnirea lor, sub auspiciul lui Dumnezeu, bineînţeles, căci numai Creatorul poate să pună la cale o asemenea întâlnire. Nu mi-a venit să cred. Eu am fost cheia acestei întâlniri. Am fost chiar obiect de polemici ale excesului de cunoaştere, în măsura în care deveneam inteligibil în act prin lumina intelectului agent Arhexossief . Poate şi datorită calităţilor mele de scriitor capabil să înţeleagă lucrurile neînchipuite, sau lucrurile auzite în două sau mai multe variante de vorbire, pentru a putea articula şi comunica clar şi coerent adevărul Scripturii, aici pe pământ, la fel ca şi în cer.

La acest nivel, imaginea lumii în care mă învârteam, de la o realitate la alta, era ca o urmă de lumină lăsată de trecerea grațioasă a pașilor unui poet pe nisipul fin al unei limbi care piere, dar spiritul care o transcende nu poate fi atins de moarte. Sincer, pătrunzător, evocator, împărtăşeam prin intermediul manuscrisului meu, atât de preţios, formele accidentale de expresie sau speciile sensibile ale originalului unei capodopere artistice: culorile, linia grafică, simbolurile, perspectiva, unghiurile de vizualizare largi asupra realităţii, etc.

Din moment ce imaginea lumii devenea imaginea unei întâlniri de grad spiritual, căci aceasta era, în fond, o imagine intelectuală intercalată cu asimilarea unor conţinuturi informaţionale excepţionale, însăşi capacitatea mea de a exista atât în obiectul extra-mental, cât şi în mintea unui Trio Intellectus , devenea un soi de orientare spre glorificarea mijlocirii mele ca partener a lui Dumnezeu.

Mă înclin în fata demnităţii şi solemnităţii trecerii la viaţa veşnică, la fel cum s-au înclinat Newton, Dee şi Flamel. Toţi trei sunt martorii ridicării mele la rang de Creator, într-un spaţiu cu mai multe nivele de existenţă, ca participant la un eveniment numit Reashmenthis Levhelyss , sau glorificarea cerului în limba îngerilor.

Leadershipul vizează conţinutul creaţiei ştiinţifice, literare sau artistice, etalat pe fundalul unor imagini care întregesc tiparul unei istorii retrăite prin intermediul unei capodopere spirituale şi providenţiale de tipul: "I am The One Who Changes The Wonder of The World."

Caută-mă cu ochii cu care priveşti cealaltă faţă a lumii dacă vrei să înţelegi perspectiva unei noi abordări a cunoaşterii, confruntate cu marele test al spiritului vremii.

Cunoaşterea aceasta atât de preţioasă, fără sfârşit, poate fi abordată numai prin întâlnirea Creatorului cu Creaţia lui, după lungi eforturi de a-ţi găsi echilibrul între minte, trup şi suflet, în faţa provocării de a vedea magia realităţii augmentate printr-un limbaj subtil ca o transcendenţă spre o altă lume, ideală.

Căutarea de sine

Înţelege-ţi poziţia faţă de ceea ce ajunge a fi considerat „normalitate" în tot ceea ce nu constituie un triumf al valorii omului.

Nu cred că groaza faţă de acea insulă mă va părăsi vreodată cu totul, de cele mai multe ori ea zace undeva în fundul sufletului meu, un simplu nor îndepărtat, o amintire şi o bănuială vagă. Dar sunt momente când micul nor se întinde până ce întunecă întregul cer. Atunci, privesc în jur la semenii mei mici. Şi mă înfricoşez. Văd feţe aspre şi însufleţite, altele întunecate sau ameninţătoare, altele schimbătoare, nesincere. Niciuna care să aibă autoritatea calmă a unei fiinţe raţionale. Simt ca şi cum animalul din ei va trebui să iasă la suprafaţă. Că degradarea celor de pe insulă se va produce din nou, dar pe o scară mai mare.

*Ştiu că aceasta este o închipuire, că aceste aparenţe de bărbaţi şi de femei din jurul meu sunt într-adevăr bărbaţi şi femei, pentru totdeauna, creaturi perfect raţionale, pline de dorinţi omeneşti şi de griji tandre, eliberate din instincte, nefiind sclavii niciunei Legi fantastice – fiinţe cu totul diferite de Oamenii-Animale. Şi, totuşi, fug de ei, de privirile lor curioase, de întrebările şi sprijinul lor, şi doresc să fiu departe de ei. Singur. Doar cu Dumnezeu. **

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi dovedeşti că eşti sincer în ceea ce crezi sau nu crezi, în scopul prevenirii conflictelor mentale care îţi alimentează înstrăinarea de tot şi de toți?

Tot ceea ce îți impui ca mijloc de control al puterii de a preveni degradarea propriei condiţii sociale, se prelucrează de la înălţimea experienţei de a fi pus în relație cu o realitate care doare și te nemulţumeşte. O realitate exprimată prin frica de a fi egal cu o valoare a omului, depăşită de cerinţele unei societăţi aflate într-un continuu proces de ajustare spre un absolut necunoscut, care nu pune în evidenţă rostul propriei tale ființări și existențialități.

Marea răsplată a virtuţii, imboldul de a te opune acelor transformări pe care nu le dorești în viața ta, care contribuie la câştigarea autorității de fiinţă raţional-superioară, este testarea puterii de a accepta dezamăgirea cauzată de ataşamentul faţă de ceea ce reprezintă „Omul Ideal" în sfera firescului şi normalităţii.

Evoluția celui care experimentează „dezamăgirea" izolându-se de ceilalți oameni, abandonându-se mod repetat voinţei divine, are ca resurse de bază două forţe. Profunzimea liniștii sufleteşti şi profunzimea conştiinţei în care toate lucrurile se întâlnesc în aceeaşi unică realitate care stimulează avântul pe nesfârşitul drum al formării personale.

Evoluţia în formarea unei personalităţi autonome înseamnă să recunoști ceea ce se manifestă în tine prin evadarea din realitatea pe care, pricepând-o în esenţa ei, nu poți s-o accepţi.

Dincolo de justeţea oricăror aprecieri făcute între cauzele și efectele schimbărilor care contribuie la mersul vieţii, se distinge acea permanentă nevoie a omului de a-şi asuma propria poveste în contextul curajului de a-şi urma propria cale prin simpla probă a căutării de sine.

Căutarea de sine se poate concentra în următorul mesaj: înţelege-ţi poziţia faţă de ceea ce ajunge a fi considerat „normalitate" în tot ceea ce nu constituie un triumf al valorii omului. Este un proces izolat, sub nicio formă un motiv de mândrie, dar totuși singurul avantaj pentru detaşarea absolut necesară a omului de o lume care elimină omenia din om.

Aceasta este esenţa romanului „Insula Doctorului Moreau” scris de H. G. Wells.

Căutarea

Măreşte miza modelării mentalităţii care te ajută să împlineşti o viziune, prin asumarea atitudinii de intervenție în cursul lucrurilor care merg pe o traiectorie unică.

Aveam în sfârşit posibilitatea să contribui, pas cu pas, din imediata apropiere a unei explicaţii care nu ţinea cont de adevărurile ştiinţei, la naşterea, creşterea şi răspândirea puternicei nevoi de a arăta o altă faţă a lucrurilor decât cea cunoscută de ochii lumii. Nu făceam altceva decât să contopesc în minte mai multe aspecte de sens contrar și să ajung la o concluzie pe care nu o știam înainte, din aceeaşi febrilitate și entuziasm cu care Gandhi a urmărit să arate o nouă cale de acțiune a rasei sale și a religiei ei pe temeiul unor convingeri ancestrale, formulând străvechea ei pasivitate.

Numeroase imperfecţiuni se găseau în expunerile unei alte imagini decât cea reală, în faţa unei teme care aduna și sistematiza cât mai multe referințe, prin acțiunea unui flux intens de schimbări rezultat din influenţa unei stări, unui fenomen sau eveniment mai puţin obişnuit, faţă de care orice argument părea să nu îşi găsească rostul. Toate acestea menţineau într-un fel sau altul structura unei aplicaţii de tip "Test di visione".

Evident, mă complicam într-o căutare care părea să nu-şi aibă rostul, asemenea gnosticului care caută o realitate divină, un regat în această lume, care este doar o umbră iluzorie a unei închipuiri, fără să găsesc o explicaţie plauzibilă asupra celor observate care puteau să declanşeze o schimbare reală.

Ca şi când aş fi fost călăuzit de un adevăr axiomatic, un model sintetic de abordare a cunoaşterii printr-un empirism radical, bazat pe trecerea de la particular la general, de la simplu la compus, obligând la necontenite reflecţii şi analize, la o necontenită explicaţie a ideii de mulţime (0,infinit] din care trebuie să se extragă infinitul pentru a obţine o mulţime cu maxim cel mai mare număr real. Aşa ceva nu era posibil, iar eu exact asta făceam: transformam imposibilul în posibil.

Leadership: Țelul suprem al cunoașterii tale vizează o mai mare stăpânire a convingerilor pe care le reprezinţi la nivel de reflecţie a unei realităţi dincolo de ea înseşi?

Căutarea mea era de fapt legată de dobândirea progresivă a unei cunoaşteri tot mai complexe care să fie o copie conformă cu realitatea unei lumi ieşită din comun, aflată într-o perpetuă schimbare și unde pot avea loc evoluții inovatoare și revoluționare. Convingerile pe care le reprezentam la nivel de reflecţie a unei realităţi dincolo de ea înseşi, constituind ţelul suprem al cunoaşterii mele, aveau ca miză principală o participare mai sensibilă și mai bogată la construcţia unei aventuri pline de suspans, minunat povestită.

Leadershipul este un mod de abordare a cunoaşterii care aşează ideea de proces, schimbare şi dezvoltare în centrul preocupării de căutare a unei noi realităţi, în lumina unei revelaţii care are nevoie de manifestare prin intermediul lucrurilor, faptelor și întâmplărilor.

Atunci când Cristofor Columb a descoperit America, de fapt a determinat apariţia unei noi realităţi, extinzând lumea dincolo de graniţele ştiute până la acea vreme. Când Albert Einstein a formulat teoria relativităţii, el a demonstrat că timpul și distanțele unui eveniment măsurate de doi observatori au, în general, valori diferite, dar se supun totdeauna acelorași legi fizice. Era un punct de vedere cel puţin ieşit din comun, dar mulându-se perfect pe evoluţia realităţii.

Versiunea realităţii la care aderi este dată de căutarea unei cunoaşteri superioare prin experienţa directă a evenimentelor, consolidată de puterea de anticipare a efectelor deciziilor tale şi de rezultatul obtinut prin aplicarea lor.

Un specialist în medicina de urgenţă din Florida, pe nume Alfredo Alvarado, a creat cu mulţi ani în urmă o metodă de deosebire a pacienţilor care puteau avea apendicită de cei a căror durere avea probabil alta cauze. Astfel, folosind scorul lui Alvarado (Mantrels), doctorii îi puteau identifica pe cei care aveau apendicită şi care puteau fi duşi direct în sala de operaţie, separându-i de cei suspecţi de apendicită care trebuiau supravegheaţi.

Orice schimbare este o versiune ameliorată a constărilor pe care le efectuezi vizavi de o realitate care este se prezintă cu totul "străină" la început, dar care se dovedește mai fascinantă și mai copleșitoare decât orice tenebră. Rezultatul experimentării unei analize continue şi a observării atente, realizând pe această cale implicarea într-un fenomen de conductibilitate a instanţelor particulare care definesc elementele din jur (cu valoare de predictie a unui eveniment semnificativ), se constituie într-un fel de separare între armonie şi haos.

Rezultatul acestei experimentări reprezintă nu doar miza unei modelări a mentalităţii, ci şi modelarea structurii corelațiilor dintre variabilele care influenţează producerea fenomenelor lumii.

Leadership: Te simţi dator să găsești o explicaţie a ideii de "mulţime" din care trebuie să extragi o valoare bine definită pentru a obţine un număr real?

În loc să privim înainte spre împlinirea unei viziuni strâns legată de realitatea vieții și a lumii, formulând întrebări ce nu pot fi ignorate, poate ar trebui să observăm modurile în care ea a fost deja împlinită, reglând cu o precizie absolută acele puncte de vedere care nu sunt neapărat opuse, ci complementare.

Ideea de "mulțime" este atribuită lucrurilor particulare care participă la formarea realităţii. În timp ce numărul real reprezintă măsura pe care o ia fiecare lucru atunci când te raportezi la o lume înfăţişată sub aspectul neregularităţilor izbitoare. A extrage o valoare bine definită pentru a obţine un număr real, cu acea febrilitate creativă a aflării noului, înseamnă să aduci un argument în plus privind comportarea lucrurilor în faza de cercetare şi evaluare.

Leadershipul, constituindu-se din acea forță creatoare care contribuie la popularizarea unor anumite idei sau opinii, poate avea ca avantaj posibilitatea de a observa, pas cu pas, din imediata apropiere a unei explicaţii care nu ţine cont neapărat de adevărurile ştiinţei, diverse asemănări și analogii cu lucrurile din jur în experiențe diferite.

Acest proces de observare nu are rolul de a arăta o altă faţă a lucrurilor sau a realităţii decât cea cunoscută de ochii lumii, ci de a răspândi nevoia puternică de a exersa capacitatea de a iniţia și rafina o căutare.

Leadershipul raportat la căutarea unei noi realităţi echivalează cu extinderea conştiinţei spre o mare mai libertate a voinţei şi imaginaţiei, în vederea acumulării unei cunoaşteri menite să-ţi confere statutul de "colonizator" al unei lumi noi.

Căutarea are drept scop principal conştientizarea unei atitudini de intervenție în cursul lucrurilor care merg pe o traiectorie unică, din interiorul unui imaginar care trebuie să înfrunte continuu realitatea.

Căutătorul de stele

On Iunie 12, 2010

Rezultatul final al testului tău de desăvârşire depinde de capacitatea ta de a recunoaşte valoarea pe care o acordă ceilalţi leadershipului tău.

Aveam cred că 12 ani pe vremea aceea, dar cum aş putea să uit prima mea participare la un spectacol de teatru? Era vorba de o piesă specială, în patru acte, destinată în primul rând copiilor. Mărturisesc că mi-a plăcut tare mult.

La sfârşitul spectacolului, după ce cortina a fost trasă, după ce s-au aprins luminile în sală, mama m-a dus în culise pentru că, spunea ea, trebuia neapărat să-l cunosc pe regizorul Baldovin, cel care a pus în scenă spectacolul, care cu multă dăruire şi profesionalism a iniţiat, ani de-a rândul, sute de copii în arta teatrului.

Maestrul Baldovin nu era deloc un om rece şi respingător, cum am crezut iniţial, m-a tratat ca pe copilul lui din prima clipă. Nu ştiu de ce, poate din cauza firii mele foarte curioase şi avide de cunoaştere, m-am simţit îmboldit să-l întreb:

- Maestre, ce faceți dumneavoastră în spatele scenei în timp ce elevii interpretează piesele?

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti o corespondenţă între ce face un regizor în spatele scenei şi performanţa pe care interpretul şi-o revendică fără modestie?

Privirea lui, tare blândă, care îl făcea să pară cel mai bun om din lume, era îndreptată spre mine. M-a privit ca şi când aş fi fost un elev care, arzând de dorinţa de a juca într-o piesă de teatru, de a deveni artist, se interesează dinainte care sunt beneficiile pe care le poate obţine precum şi eventualele obstacole de care se poate lovi. Mi-a răspuns foarte hotărât:

- Privesc, cu sufletul la gură, cum îşi interpretează rolurile elevii mei, pe care i-am selectat cu grijă şi pe care i-am pregătit luni de zile. Asta fac întotdeauna în spatele scenei. Dar de fiecare dată sunt îngrozit că ceva va merge rău. Mi-e teamă ca nu cumva unul dintre elevi să-şi uite replica sau scenariul, ca nu cumva vreunul să se încurce, iar piesa să se transforme în cele din urmă într-un eşec.

Apoi, după o scurtă pauză, maestrul a afişat un zâmbet larg şi, satisfăcut pe deplin, a adăugat:

- Dar, pe de altă parte, cum s-a întâmplat şi în seara aceasta, îi privesc cu o mândrie extraordinară pe elevii mei. Au dat tot ce-am sperat şi au întrecut chiar toate aşteptările – timp de 3 ore, cât a durat spectacolul, ei au colaborat într-o tovărăşie perfectă. Sunt mulţumit de prestaţia lor, de felul în care fiecare s-a descurcat şi şi-a pus în valoare talentul. Sunt mulţumit că am făcut o selecţie bună şi că nu m-am înşelat in privinţa aptitudinii lor. Nu mă pot considera altfel decât un profesor deosebit de fericit.

Liderii îşi măsoară măiestria urmărind spectacolul din spatele scenei !

Maestrul era atât de pătruns de încredere în sine, atât de închis în carapacea convingerii sale atunci când mi-a vorbit, încât am ştiut de îndată că viaţa lui consta numai în a-şi îndruma elevii spre succes, spre un adevărat triumf. Atitudinea lui era aceea a omului care trăieşte, gândeşte şi acţionează pentru un singur ideal: acela de a descoperi tinerele talente şi de a le îndruma - dându-le mereu indicaţii, stimulându-le spontaneitatea, creativitatea şi apetitul pentru teatru, cu scopul de a le dezvolta abilităţile necesare unui artist adevărat.

Privindu-şi elevii cât de bine îşi interpretează rolurile, observând la sfârşitul spectacolului cu câtă pasiune, cu câtă determinare aplaudau spectatorii din sală, ce simţea oare maestrul Baldovin? Mai mult ca sigur simţea că munca lui, sutele de ore pe care le-a petrecut exersând cu elevii, truda adevărată pe care a depus-o luni de zile, au dat roadele mult aşteptate prin prestaţia elevilor săi. Simţea că este un om deosebit, demn de toate laudele. Căci întotdeauna profesorul este evaluat după rezultatele elevilor săi. Altfel spus, cu cât elevii îşi joacă mai bine rolurile, cu atât e mai lăudat „inginerul" minunatului spectacol.

Leadershipul este dreptul regizorului de a modifica după voința lui înțelesul unei piese.

Tu determini evoluţia celor din jurul tău? Sau îi laşi să se ridice singuri la un nivel înalt de performanţă prin propriile lor forţe? Ai puterea să-i determini pe oameni să vadă viziunea ta, s-o implementeze şi să participe la ea? Care este atitudinea ta vizavi de prestaţia lor? Cultivi relaţii reciproc avantajoase? Potenţialul lor de creştere este legat direct de potenţialul tău de a fi strălucit? Ce ai de oferit celorlalţi şi ce aştepţi în schimb de la ei? Sunt ei mulţumiţi de tine? Sau se îndoiesc de îndrumările tale?

Rezultatul final al "testului" tău de desăvârşire depinde de capacitatea ta de a recunoaşte valoarea pe care o acordă ceilalţi leadershipului tău.

Leadership: Îţi foloseşti la maxim potenţialul de a împrumuta adepţilor tăi noi valenţe de afirmare din resursele tale proprii de performanţă?

Liderul cel mai câştigat nu este acela care dispune de o mai mare autonomie şi competenţă, ci acela care împrumută adepţilor săi noi valenţe de afirmare din resursele lui proprii de performanţă.

Este evident că acţiunile consacrate acestei entităţi interioare cu două faţete - de conţinut şi de proces, prezintă elemente unice de identificare a personalităţii. Efectul de însuşire şi de prelucrare a celor mai promiţătoare surse de diferenţiere care ar putea stimula procesul de reinventare şi de punere în valoare a atuurilor, este benefic mai ales atunci când poţi concura individual, din punctul de vedere al rigurozităţii considerentelor de ordin practic, pentru titlul de performer.

Maestrul Baldovin a fost un performer fiindcă a lăsat deschisă portiţa elevilor săi să se autodepăşească prin puterea lor de a se înălţa la nivelul lui. Oferindu-le posibilitatea de a-şi însuşi cunoştinţele rare care se întemeiază numai pe experienţă şi pe principiul comuniunii. El ar putea fi privit nu doar ca un exemplu de urmat, ci mai degrabă ca un transmiţător de energii cu vibraţie înaltă, care pot fi canalizate cu multă înțelepciune spre un stadiu foarte avansat - măiestria.

Maestrul nu le-a putut oferi un dar mai de preţ elevilor săi, decât acela de a le împărtăşi cât mai mult din calităţile sale actoriceşti. A-i face pe micuţii săi artişti mai buni şi mai devotaţi artei teatrale, aceasta era cea mai mare bucurie a lui. Cea mai mare realizare. Cât de fericit, cât de împlinit sufleteşte trebuie să fi fost el când şi-a văzut elevii acoperiţi de zgomotul aplauzelor spectatorilor. După atâtea şi atâtea ore de lucru iată că efortul lui a fost răsplătit pe deplin.

Leadershipul presupune să intervii cu energie în sensurile și semnificațiile piesei astfel încât să determini măsura înălţimii unui rol care te reprezintă şi din care se alimentează tendinţa celorlalţi de a accepta opţiunile de personalizare a actului de creaţie artistică.

Maestrul Baldovin n-a făcut altceva decât să sădească „seminţele" de pe urma cărora să beneficieze toţi elevii săi - mari artişti în devenire. El le-a dat acestora imboldul necesar de a se angaja într-o muncă care cere multă pasiune, îndemânare, creativitate, practică, talent artistic. Căci un artist trebuie să-şi creeze mereu alte stări sufleteşti în funcţie de piesă sau scenariu, deci să aibă capacitatea de a interpreta tot felul de roluri.

Un lider, în orice domeniu, poate fi comparat cu un „Căutător de stele", pentru că succesul lui depinde de cât de bine şi-a selectat oamenii din echipă, şi de cât de bine i-a instruit. Succesul liderului este succesului echipei. Sau altfel spus, succesului unui lider porneşte întotdeauna de la oameni şi depinde de capacitatea lui de a recunoaşte valoarea pe care o acordă ceilalţi leadershipului său.

Ce a reprezentat Griffith in istoria filmului?

On Iulie 19, 2010

Fiecare decizie artistică a unui regizor implică o bucată din identitatea sa creatoare, contribuind la dezvoltarea sintaxei cinematografice.

În primul rând, David Wark Griffith. Realizatorul american despre care Serghei Eisenstein va scrie că a jucat un rol uriaș în dezvoltarea metodei de montaj a filmului sovietic sau, mai precis, ceea ce este mai bun în filmul sovietic a ieșit din "Intolerance".

Ce a reprezentat Griffith în istoria filmului? Mijloacele pe care le-a folosit: prim-planul, alternarea unor acțiuni, mișcarea aparatului, variația în unghiulare etc., fuseseră descoperite înaintea lui. Griffith le-a folosit în mod creator pentru prima oară. Decuparea unei acțiuni, alternarea dramatică a două linii diferite de acțiune prin montajul paralel, crearea prin montaj a unui anume tempo, varietatea unghiularii - toate aceste elemente, care stau la baza limbajului cinematografic, au fost folosite conștient abia de Griffith.

Morfologia existase, dar Griffith a creat sintaxa. Cinematografia a căpătat prin el un limbaj articulat. Școala cinematografică sovietică, și în primul rând Eisenstein, a preluat apoi acest mijloc, transformându-l într-o modalitate de comunicare a unor gânduri și sentimente.

Un model de leadership vizionar implică nu doar descoperirea unor noi mijloace de exprimare, ci și integrarea lor într-o sintaxă coerentă, articulând un limbaj cinematic capabil să transmită gânduri și sentimente.

Contribuția unică a lui Griffith constă în folosirea creatoare și conștientă a tehnicilor cinematografice existente, precum prim-planul și alternarea acțiunilor.

Din acest motiv, variabilitatea unghiurilor de filmare este crucială pentru a asigura o perspectivă optimă a fiecărei scene, sporind astfel impactul vizual și emoțional asupra publicului. În proiectarea scenelor, se folosesc adesea modele paralele de montaj pentru a compara diferite scenarii, din punctul de vedere al impactului vizual și al fluidității narative. Această abordare permite crearea unor filme robuste și eficiente, ancorate într-o structură narativă solidă și coerentă. De exemplu, școala cinematografică sovietică, în special regizorul Eisenstein, a preluat această metodă, transformând-o într-o modalitate de comunicare a unor gânduri și sentimente complexe."

Leadershipul inovator în cinematografie presupune capacitatea de a prelua elemente deja cunoscute și de a le utiliza în mod creator, transformându-le într-o formă de exprimare complexă și profundă.

Ce a reprezentat David Wark Griffith în istoria filmului? A reprezentat părintele limbajului cinematografic articulat, transformând tehnici deja cunoscute precum prim-planul, alternarea acțiunilor și montajul paralel într-o formă de exprimare complexă și coerentă. El a creat sintaxa cinematografică, oferind structură și ritm narațiunii vizuale și deschizând drumul către folosirea montajului ca instrument de transmitere a ideilor și emoțiilor. Prin utilizarea inovatoare a tehnicilor de montaj, Griffith a influențat profund școala cinematografică sovietică, devenind un model de inspirație pentru regizori precum Serghei Eisenstein.

Un regizor adevărat este capabil să transforme filmul într-un limbaj articulat, capabil să comunice idei complexe, prin utilizarea conștientă a tehnicilor de montaj.

Ce anume limitează calitatea influenţei tale?

On Aprilie 01, 2009

Leadershipul se aseamănă cu o aplicaţie web de gestiune care nu trebuie să se blocheze sau să genereze "erori de sistem" ce conduc la întreruperea execuţiei comenzilor sau a unui proces de calcul.

"Ludovic al XIV-lea a fost protectorul scriitorilor Corneille, Moliere, Racine şi al muzicianului Lully. Nu a pus prea mult preţ pe codul moral al acelor vremuri, având numeroase amante. Dar după moartea soţiei lui, în 1683, s-a căsătorit cu o văduvă pioasă, doamna de Maintenon, care l-a încurajat să se aplece mai mult spre religie. Astfel, Ludovic a început să poarte cu el peste tot o cărticică de rugăciuni şi un rozariu. Dezastrele din războaie şi moartea mai multor urmaşi au cauzat multă durere. Monarh absolut, obsedat de grandoare şi lăudat de curteni, Ludovic s-a izolat de oamenii simpli şi la moartea sa, în 1715, când trupul neînsufleţit îi era transportat la St. Denis, mulţimea l-a apostrofat, batjocoritoare." (Brian Mooney - Mari lideri)

Această scurtă relatare a vieţii celebrului monarh, ne aduce în prim plan o singură învăţătură: grandoarea nu este o muncă ce se bazează pe valoarea adăugată adusă atât de către mijloacele de producție, de către capitalul uman. Ci, mai degrabă, este ca o loterie în care trebuie să ai grija cui încredinţezi datele tale. Căci, într-o zi jucătorul care nu a avut destule jetoane pentru a da "call", a tras un loz necâştigător şi şi-a dat astfel viaţa.

Ei bine, poţi influenţa în bine modul în care te percep ceilalţi oameni, doar dacă te ridici la înălţimea idealurilor lor spirituale şi morale, doar dacă nu blochezi încercarea lor de a se adapta unui context nou. Este vorba despre încercarea lor de a se vedea ei înşişi ca fiind cumva parte dintr-un întreg care nu se uzează, iar acţiunile lor, fără de care întregul ar fi întrerupt, trebuie să conducă la o mai mare implicare şi o preocupare mai serioasă pentru ordine, pentru calitate, pentru îndeplinirea obiectivelor.

Din clipa când liderul stabileşte o legătură cu oamenii, şi până când izbuteşte să stabilească raportul exact dintre orizontul lor şi al lui, poate trece un timp destul de lung. Iar lui îi revine cea mai dificilă sarcină în această perioadă de tranziţie spre un nivel mai înalt de performanţă deoarece trebuie să pună în acord interesele lui şi a lor, facilitând transmiterea valorilor şi a idealurilor sale, aducând dovezi de eficienţă a leadershipului său, dezvoltând acea iniţiativă menită să pună în valoare personalitatea sa plină de curaj şi de înţelepciune – acea personalitate care trebuie să ocupe un loc de cinste în viaţa lor şi să-şi extindă cercul influenţei aplicând o strategie de dezvoltare care să dea undă verde iniţiativelor sale.

Leadership: Puterea ta de influenţă este limitată de situaţiile cărora trebuie să le faci faţă prin poziţia importantă pe care o ocupi, deoarece încerci să construieşti firul evenimentelor în ordinea dorită de tine?

Ce anume limitează calitatea influenţei tale? Puterea ta de influenţă este totdeauna limitată. Fiindcă situaţiile cărora trebuie să le faci faţă prin poziţia importantă pe care o ocupi, rămân, practic, nenumărate, ca să nu spun infinite. Oricât ai fi de capabil şi de strălucitor în arta persuasiunii, nu vei putea să imprimi categoric, fără ezitare, fără a-ţi fi contestate deciziile – o finalitate corespunzătoare nivelului tău de aşteptări, şi să construieşti firul evenimentelor în ordinea dorită de tine.

Întotdeauna cineva se va opune, cineva nu te va accepta ca lider. Dar realitatea este că refuzul face parte din arta conducerii, fiind o componentă de bază a formării tale ca om. Leadershipul este dinamic, şi se modifică în funcţie de relaţiile existente între tine şi ceilalţi oameni. Tu la ce nivel de relaţionare te afli cu celelalte persoane din jurul tău?

Ceea ce am observat în general la lideri este că fiecare îşi face propriul set de reguli referitoare la relaţiile pe care le stabileşte. Dar resursele personale şi posibilităţile de a le întreţine sunt, de asemenea, inepuizabile. Cu alte cuvinte, este greu să stabileşti o relaţie, e greu să fii acceptat de oameni, dar odată ce ai reuşit acest lucru, poţi cu uşurinţă să găseşti numeroase moduri de a optimiza şi amplifica dezvoltarea lor.

De aceea, construirea unei atitudini de conştientizare, a unei atitudini care te menţine în contact cu tine însuţi, apoi cu ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să facă parte din obiectivele tuturor orientărilor tale. Este meritul tău acela de a fi sesizat că oamenii au nevoie de tine, de resursele tale de cunoaştere, de credinţă, de încredere. Dar ei trebuie să se bazeze pe ei înşişi după stabilirea relaţiei, ei au nevoie să se simtă creativi, adică în stare să facă faţă oricărei situaţii prin care trec. Si asta numai prin ceea ei ce sunt (şi ar putea fi) în fiecare moment.

Dar pentru asta, mai întâi de toate, ei trebuie să-ţi recunoască poziţia şi să fie dispuşi să accepte să investeşti în ei timp, răbdare şi energie emoţională.

Toate sensurile spre care se îndreaptă oamenii din jur duc la tine, chiar dacă felul cum îţi construieşti atitudinea faţă de sine nu este îndreptată spre împărtăşirea valorilor de care dispune leadershipul tău?

Aşa cum un arbitru trebuie să aplice sancţiuni, cu toată promptitudinea, în spiritul adevăratului fair-play, atunci când partida nu se desfăşoară în limitele regulamentului – tot astfel liderul, ca să mărească încrederea oamenilor şi capacitatea lor de a-l accepta în fruntea lor, trebuie să exprime ceea ce este caracteristic pentru ei – adică trebuie să aplice acea hotărâre, acea soluţie, acea metodă de a le reda şi susţine idealurile (în spiritul adevăratului fair-play) şi de a-i ridica la un nivel mai înalt.

Construirea unei atitudini corecte faţă de sine şi faţă de relaţiile pe care le stabileşti nu este un obiectiv privilegiat, ci necesar. Toate sensurile spre care se îndreaptă oamenii trebuie să ducă la tine. Fiecare mod de gândire pe care ei şi-l formează trebuie mai întâi branşat la gândirea ta, deci trebuie trecut prin "atelierul" leadershipul tău. În consecinţă, merită îndreptate eforturile spre împărtăşirea valorilor de care dispune leadershipul tău, sugerând oamenilor aplecarea către esenţa bine conturată a leadershipului tău.

Dacă împărtăşeşti o viziune propriei tale echipe, şi observi reacţii diferite, din ce cauză crezi că se întâmplă acest lucru? Pentru a te apropia de oameni este necesar ca viziunea ta să fie unanim acceptată, şi astfel toate drumurile lor vor converge către tine. Nu uita că nimeni nu ajunge la ceva măreţ dacă oferă foarte puţin. Nicio echipă nu devine performantă fără ca liderul să facă sacrificii şi fără să dea ce are mai bun.

Leadershipul este reprezentat de lider + oameni, de oameni + lider. Calitatea leadershipului este dependentă de lider şi de oamenii conduşi de el. Iar leadershipul performant este conferit de oameni şi de lider.

Poţi să-i convingi pe oameni să respecte îndatoririle faţă de leadershipul tău, printr-un exemplu personal care aduce în conştiinţa lor povestea fabuloasă a unei viziuni care într-adevăr afectează istoria într o modalitate practică și concretă?

Ai împărtăşit vreodată o viziune propriei tale echipe şi ţi s-a întâmplat să vezi reacţii diferite? Din ce cauză crezi că s-a întâmplat acest lucru? Ca să-i conduci mai eficient pe oameni trebuie să te apropii moral şi emoţional de ei.

Trebuie să obţii mai întâi permisiunea oamenilor de a-i conduce, sau te pui singur în fruntea lor? Răspunsul este destul de evident. Este nevoie de timp, efort şi de angajament pentru a dezvolta relaţii pozitive cu cei din jur, nu poţi să treci direct la un nivel înalt dacă nu ai parcurs celelalte nivele de relaţionare. Poţi menţiona cel puţin o cauză care ar putea împiedica progresul calitativ al leadershipului tău?

Tu cum abordezi o problemă de interes comun? Fiindcă nu te vei putea ridica la un nivel superior, nu vei putea să-ţi măreşti puterea de influenţă dacă oamenii din jur te abandonează, sau dacă nu-ţi acceptă hotărârile. Este ca şi cum ai dactilografia în dublu exemplar un raport important, dar îţi scapă anumite litere – care schimbă sensul frazelor şi înţelesul conţinutului respectiv, ceea ce face ca raportul să fie anulat.

1.Tu generezi erori de claritate în gândire şi acţiune? Sunt oamenii nemulţumiţi de felul cum îţi exprimi convingerile şi felul cum îţi etalezi calităţile? Blochezi orice punte de comunicare cu oamenii, anulând orice punct de vedere al lor?

2.Excluzi orice chestiune de interes comun, care ar putea să-ţi afecteze şi ţie şi lor dezvoltarea? Întâmpini dificultăţi în a le transmite propriile coordonate de acţiune şi de dezvoltare?

3.Conţinutul de valori al leadershipului tău zădărniceşte orice tentativă de a păstra intactă relaţia cu oamenii din jur?

Leadershipul se bazează pe interacţiunea dintre lider şi cei care îl reprezintă, deci se bazează pe interdependenţa şi coeziunea dintre ei. Leadershipul poate fi reprezentat printr-un cerc, în care razele sunt date de interacţiunea dintre lider şi grup – care trebuie să fie dominantă între centrul cercului, unde se situează liderul şi perimetrul cercului format de grup. Exemplul personal, dar şi capacitatea liderului de a stimula performanţele colectivului prin diferite mijloace sunt esenţiale în lupta pentru îndeplinirea scopurilor propuse.

Relaţiile pe care le dezvolţi cu ajutorul influenţei sunt asemenea unei cărţi care costă mai puţin decât patru cărţi de acelaşi fel, cu singura condiţie ca acea carte să fie citită şi recitită cât mai des.

Calitatea influenţei tale poate fi limitată de felul cum îţi exprimi convingerile şi de felul cum îţi etalezi calităţile într-un context în care orice pas poate fi greşit. Nu uita ce-am scris mai sus: ca să măreşti încrederea oamenilor şi capacitatea lor de a te accepta în fruntea lor, trebuie să exprimi ceea ce este caracteristic pentru ei – adică trebuie să aplici acea hotărâre, acea soluţie, acea metodă de a le reda şi susţine idealurile (în spiritul adevăratului fair-play) şi de a-i ridica la un nivel mai înalt.

Ce anume te motivează cu adevărat?

Degeaba înţelegi leadershipul, dacă nu ştii să te foloseşti de esenţa lui.

Eşti eficient în zonele pe care ai nevoie să le înzestrezi? Înzestrarea ta cu acele calităţi care pot face leadershipul să funcţioneze continuu, la maximă capacitate, cere angajare. Cu cât drumul înzestrării tale este mai lung şi mai greu, cu atât va da roade mai bune pe termen lung. Este nevoie de timp şi efort din partea ta, fiindcă însuşirea şi dezvoltarea lor nu se poate deprinde de la alţii. Este ca şi cum te-ai uita la o emisiune despre fitness. Nu-i de-ajuns să-i priveşti pe alţii cum se antrenează, ci trebuie să faci tu însuţi sport pentru a slăbi, nu-i aşa?

Un lider care caută să exceleze în rolul pe care îl are de interpretat în mijlocul oamenilor, nu uită cât de importantă este analiza calităţilor sale prin prisma propriei sale personalităţi, a propriei viziuni, şi prin adoptarea unei atitudini mentale potrivite.

Însă, dorinţa de face performanţă trebuie să fie dublată de adaptabilitate şi acceptarea limitelor impuse de rolul de lider. Orice lider este responsabil de propriul său randament, şi trebuie să accepte consecinţele rezultatelor sale atunci când acestea nu-l ridică la rangul de performer.

Leadershipul vizează anticiparea unei situaţii pe care o construieşti în mintea ta atunci când aştepţi un rezultat, fără să te expui unei "transparenţe" excesive.

Vei putea să stabileşti legături solide cu ceilalţi oameni numai dacă găseşti puncte comune cu ei, numai dacă te concentrezi asupra tuturor aspectelor care prezintă importanţă pentru ei. Vei putea câştiga încrederea oamenilor numai dacă sădeşti în conştiinţa lor interesul tău viu faţă de adevărata ta valoare. Să ştii să te autoevaluezi, să te cunoşti foarte bine, să-ţi anticipezi corect reacţiile şi deciziile este o artă care, mânuită cu îndemânare, poate la rândul ei să-ţi crească potenţialul. Sau, dimpotrivă, poate să ducă la diminuarea încrederii în tine, şi deci la manifestări şi reacţii nedorite.

Ca lider, sau ca viitor lider, nu-ţi vei putea impune calităţile şi experienţa dacă nu adopţi o atitudine constructivă, matură şi responsabilă în momentele când nu mai eşti atât de sigur pe tine. Ceva te împiedică să-ţi dovedeşti excelenţa? Tu adopţi o atitudine constructivă atunci când îţi este pus la grea încercare caracterul?

Culoarul îngust spre culmile desăvârşirii exprimă drumul spre performanţă, presărat şi de bucurii dar şi de obstacole uneori greu de trecut şi care îţi pun la grea încercare tenacitatea, voinţa şi abilităţile. Iar acest "culoar" se poate înfunda şi îţi poate defavoriza imaginea personală dacă nu te schimbi într-un mod pozitiv, sau dacă îţi neglijezi mintea şi sufletul.

Culoarul îngust spre desăvârşire se aseamănă cu acele antrenamente din patinajul artistic când pentru a reuşi executarea unei figuri deosebite, de nota 10, cazi de nenumărate ori, te loveşti, te răneşti chiar. Dar dacă vrei să fii olimpic, nu te dai bătut. Depinde de tine şi de tenacitatea ta să străbaţi acest drum sinuos presărat cu obstacole, să te strecori prin culoarul îngust ce te conduce spre desăvârşire şi să devii un lider.

Esenţa leadershipului este să fii în stare să înţelegi semnificaţia şi consecinţele rezultatelor pe care le poţi obţine în favoarea performanţei personale, dar în planul anticipării unei pierderi cu toate consecinţele sale.

Ceea ce contribuie la prestigiul leadershipului tău este acea finisare a esenţei fiinţei tale care, modelată în timp cu grijă şi fineţe, va contribui la declanşarea unor acţiuni constructive, la impactul pozitiv al sistemului tău de valori. O insuficienţă sau o absenţă a deciziilor care se impun a fi luate în momentele de slăbiciune, poate diminua abilitatea şi dispoziţia de a te ocupa de acele aspecte definitorii ale caracterului tău pe care se sprijină stilul leadershipului tău.

Ca să dai expresie leadershipului pe care îl practici, pentru ca leadershipul să se preteze ideal structurii personalităţii tale, trebuie să îmbini foarte bine elementele "team lider" + "team player", trebuie să îmbini perfect capacităţile mentale cu cele fizice, emoţionalul cu acţiunea, şi totodată motivaţia ta cu rolul pe care îl ai de îndeplinit.

Aşa cum diabetul zaharat este cauzat de o insuficienţă a secreţiei de insulină de către pancreas, tot astfel o abordare greşită a interacţiunii cu oamenii, care depinde direct de forţa ta psihică şi emoţională cât şi de proprietăţile leadershipului tău (precum flexibilitatea şi capacitatea de relaţionare), poate cauza o insuficienţă a funcţiilor de menţinere şi continuă îmbunătăţire a calităţii vieţii profesionale.

Spuneam într-unul din articolele mele că tot ceea ce poate da mai bun un om din el însuşi nu trebuie epuizat, ci valorificat la maximum. Valoarea unui individ înzestrat cu acele calităţi şi particularităţi ideale care îi permit să-şi asigure un rol de referinţă în palmaresul de invidiat al carierei sale - se aseamănă cu un sistem de operare proiectat să funcţioneze la fel, atât pe desktop, cât şi pe telefon sau tabletă.

Fiecare astfel de individ este înzestrat cu un "sistem de operare" care facilitează mai bine progresul propriei evoluţii, prin aprovizionarea permanentă a fluxului de comunicare între trăsăturile, competenţele şi motivaţia sa - trei elemente principale care, conectându-se concomitent, îi optimizează valoarea.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi ajustezi atitudinea după valorile pe care le preţuieşti şi în care crezi, în aşa fel încât să trăieşti în acord cu tine la nivel de circumstanţe în care poţi avea un rezultat neconcludent?

Leadershipul este ca o carte pe care degeaba o citeşti, dacă nu o înţelegi. Şi degeaba o înţelegi, dacă nu ştii să te foloseşti de esenţa ei. Esenţa leadershipului eşti tu. De tine depinde felul cum gândeşti, felul cum reacționezi în fața unei situații, de tine depinde felul cum te evaluează ceilalţi. Depăşirea unui impas (de orice natură, fizică, psihică, emoţională) presupune, desigur, o cât mai profundă autocunoaştere, capacitatea de a conştientiza ce se întâmplă cu tine, sau poate să schimbe contextul în care acţionezi.

Dar după autocunoaştere, pasul următor este schimbarea - adică folosirea tuturor lucrurilor pe care le ştii pentru a te reinventa, pentru a trăi altfel, mai în acord cu tine. Schimbarea este, deci, una personală şi se bazează pe dispoziţia ta în diverse circumstanţe în care eşti pus.

Nu poţi deprinde principiile unui leadership eficient, dacă nu ştii să-ţi ajustezi atitudinea după valorile pe care le preţuieşti şi în care crezi. Orientarea ta accentuează utilitatea unor "reţete" de schimbare a atitudinii, de gestionare a relaţiei dintre fizic, psihic şi emoţional, astfel încât să obţii un echilibru emoţional, astfel încât să ai reacţii potrivite în fiecare situaţie, să îţi poţi controla toate formele de manifestare.

Leadershipul tău va funcţiona şi ca urmare a rezultatelor tale, dar şi în funcţie de echilibrul tău emoţional, fizic şi psihic – care ţine de temperamentul tău. Eşti un om puternic dar care în momentele dificile se pierde, se precipită, nu mai reuşeşte să-şi controleze reacţiile? Sau eşti un tip spontan, asemenea actorului Puiu Călinescu? Ai întotdeauna cele mai potrivite reacţii?

Leadershipul înglobează acea atitudine matură şi responsabilă manifestată în momentele când nu mai eşti atât de sigur pe tine, în încercarea de a da un sens mai înalt menirii tale.

Ce anume te motivează cu adevărat? Să fii desăvârşit într-un domeniu care şi-a pierdut total direcţia, sau să îţi alegi o direcţie în viaţă care să îţi transforme experienţa de muncă relevantă într-o experienţă de învăţare?

Desăvârşirea în orice domeniu se obţine în timp şi depinde în mare măsură de temperamentul tău, de educaţia ta, dar şi de dorinţa ta de a deveni un performer, de a te autodepăşi şi de a da tot ce este mai bun societăţii, oamenilor din jurul tău. Sau preferi să fii un anonim trecător prin viaţă? De tine depinde cum te strecori prin culoarul îngust spre culmile desăvârşirii – culoar presărat cu obstacole pe care mulţi vor să-l străbată, în care mulţi se hazardează să se angajeze, dar numai unii ajung la finiş, acolo unde şi-au propusă de la început să ajungă.

Ce capriciu bizar bântuie sufletul acestui muribund?

Decizia de a te accepta drept un confident discret al oamenilor este o formă de a vedea cum reacţionează ei, de a le cunoaşte limitele şi de a afla până unde pot ei merge fără să le zdruncini convingerile.

- Iată, deci, ce m-a determinat să te consult, continuă Samuel. Ei bine, Julius crede că va muri curînd şi mă tem că are dreptate - şi ar vrea înainte de a muri, să aibă măcar bucuria de a te numi soţia lui.

- Soţia lui? murmură Frederique.

- Da. îţi dai seama ce capriciu bizar bântuie sufletul acestui muribund? Ştiu bine că nu-ţi cere absolut nimic altceva decât să-i continui afecţiunea filială pe care i-o dăruieşti şi acum. Ştiu bine că te va respecta ca pe fiica sa. Dar eu, care te iubesc, eu care am avut şi mi-am exprimat înaintea lui Julius această dorinţă care înseamnă viaţa mea, nu pot îndura uşor ca altcineva, fie şi un prieten pe moarte, să ofere înaintea mea numele său celei care a făgăduit să-l poarte pe al meu.

- Ţi-am făcut o promisiune, da, spuse încet Frédérique şi te asigur că mi-o voi ţine. Sunt a dumitale şi n-aveai nevoie să mă consulţi în privinţa răspunsului către domnul von Eberbach. Refuz categoric orice propunere din partea dumnealui.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să schimbi ceva la modul tău de a te poziționa și de a acționa în contextul de asumare a unei dualităţi (reconciliate cu ea însăşi), încât ceea ce te împlineşte să nu impieteze drepturile şi convingerile celorlalţi?

- Da, eşti un înger, zise Samuel; dar am eu dreptul să abuzez de generozitatea ta şi pot eu răspunde devotamentului tău cu egoismul meu? Trebuie oare ca, în schimbul fericirii mele, două fiinţe să sufere? mai ales când aceste două fiinţe sunt omul pe care-l iubesc ca pe un frate, şi femeia pe care o iubesc mai mult decât ca pe o soră? Nu se cuvine oare să renunţ, evitând riscul de a fi considerat un nemernic, la o fericire care lui i-ar aduce moartea, iar ţie sărăcia?

Se opri o clipă, de parcă s-ar fi străduit să-şi adune forţele necesare unui sacrificiu şi reluă:

- Prietenul meu este pe moarte. Nu mai trăieşte decât pentru această supremă speranţă. A i-o nărui, înseamnă a-i nărui existenţa. O adevărată crimă. Să-i alungi acest gând? Cu neputinţă. Ţine la căsătorie cu încăpăţinarea aceea specifică doar copiilor şi muribunzilor. Prietenia mea se înfruntă cumplit cu dragostea mea. Simt că este aproape un act criminal să respingi unui biet suflet ce se va stinge, fericirea care nu-i face rău nimănui în această lume, dar care l-ar ajuta pe el să plece cu un surâs în lumea cealaltă.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti o altă modalitate de a comunica o realitate, prin apartenenţa la o aceeaşi realitate exprimată diferit?

Gândurile şi necesităţile noastre materiale, dacă se întrepătrund în dezvăluirea formelor de manifestare ale fenomenului "fericire", aşa cum o atestă relaţia celor două personaje din romanul lui Dumas, pot duce la schimbarea atitudinii despre viaţă. Şi nu numai atât. Ideea şi fenomenul schimbării apar în viaţa oamenilor atât în modul de a-şi mărturisi sincer apăsătoarele pasuri ale inimii, cât şi în modul de a aborda o realitate care, chiar dacă doare, chiar dacă provine dintr-o exasperare a sensibilităţii, chiar dacă caută aventura în toate ipostazele ei, creează o personalitate plină de fermitate şi maturitate.

Aici intervine şi fenomenul dualităţii, conflictul dintre real şi latent, un exemplu de opoziție sau contrast între două aspecte ale ceva, un văl ce ți se ridică de pe ochi și înțelegi lumea exact așa cum este ea. Vreau să spun că atunci când îşi destăinuie gândurile, omul este cu adevărat el însuşi, pe când în viaţa de zi cu el este doar o mască care se mândrește cu o compoziție superbă și cu un efect deosebit.

Or aşa cum scria cineva pe o pagină web, "în relaţia de cuplu dualitatea merge până acolo încât partenerul de viaţă simte în permanenţă că nu ştie pe cine are pe lângă el, ceea ce uneori nu este un lucru atât de rău, căci nu te poţi plictisi niciodată, şi ai în permanenţă în faţă o nouă provocare. În principiu, forțele opuse aspiră permanent spre o reconciliere care să le scoată din separare și să le înalțe din nou în unitatea din care au coborât."

Leadershipul oglindeşte imaginea aprinsă în mintea omului stăpân pe instinctele sale, care nu se poate umili când îşi destăinuie gândurile, intenţiile şi sentimentele. Asta îl face unic și determinabil (mai ales în reguli, comportamente și valori), îl face deținător al unei realități care are o dimensiune proprie și particulară.

Ce capriciu bizar bântuie sufletul acestui muribund? Cred că dorinţa de a fi iubit, fără a fi nevoie să te califici pentru a fi acceptat, este un capriciu de care nu vei putea profita la maximum mai târziu așa cum ţi-ai dori, un capriciu de care poţi oricând să te dispensezi dacă observi că ceva nu îţi convine.

Bine sublinia scriitorul Gerard Lele: "Dependenţa este acea nevoie imperioasă de a fi iubit fără niciun moment de slăbiciune sau de absenţă, iubire fără de care individul se îmbolnăveşte, slăbeşte, nu mai trăieşte, nu mai există. Dependentul are mai multă nevoie de a fi iubit decât de a da iubire, iar nevoia îi este insaţiabilă; este ca un sac fără fund care cere fără încetare să fie umplut. Totul se petrece ca şi cum acesta nu s-ar iubi şi i-ar cere celuilalt să-l iubească în locul lui. Revendicările sale riscă să-l epuizeze pe partener."

Ce este dincolo de linia văzutului?

Creația devine un răspuns la chemările sufletului, atunci când fiecare pas pe care îl faci urmează conturul unei viziuni ce transcende materialul.

Mi-am dat seama că singura cale de a face artă este să te cufunzi complet în trăire, printr-un fel de transformare continuă, autoimpusă, cu acțiune purificatoare. Oana Fântânaru, sora mea, este un exemplu de dedicare absolută a artei, întrucât își lasă amprenta personală asupra fiecărui pas, pe măsură ce își depășește limitele, atât fizice, cât și sufletești. Încă mă întreb dacă nu cumva arta, forță neobosită cu care se identifică profund, își revendică biruința asupra întregii ei ființe, înainte ca ea să atingă culmile artei.

Anul acesta a câștigat un loc pe podium la aproape toate semi-maratoanele montane din România. Cu fiecare potecă străbătută, cu fiecare vârf cucerit, pasiunea ei nu doar că se adâncește, ci se reconfigurează, devenind o "revelație continuă" – traseele montane nu mai sunt doar spații de efort fizic, ci sanctuare, locuri de adunare a minții unde își regăsește autenticitatea. Propriu-zis, ea hoinărește între dorința de a învinge limitele fizice și chemarea misterului ce se ascunde în acele locuri sălbatice, explorând nu doar terenul, ci și propriile temeri și aspirații.

Purificarea prin artă necesită abandon total, pentru ca esența să fie descoperită și exprimată, mai ales pe fondul unei curse intense, istovitoare, dar și revelatoare. Munții nu sunt doar simple obiective geografice, ci oglinzi spirituale, fiecare piatră fiind un simbol al obstacolelor ce trebuie depășite. În fiecare moment când se simte "tentată de comoditate", Oana se lasă purtată de dorința de a descoperi ce este dincolo de linia văzutului, asemenea unui explorator care nu se mulțumește doar cu hărțile disponibile, ci vrea să deseneze altele noi cu puterea trupului ei de a se exprima liber, cu mișcări variate, complexe, executate artistic prin armonia dintre forță și grație, prin succesiuni de salturi și întinderi pline de grație, prin fuziunea dintre tehnică și spontaneitate.

Leadership: Poți recunoaște în fiecare efort pe care îl depui un semn divin, o chemare către o dimensiune spirituală superioară, care îți transformă profund ființa într-un receptor al unei revelații mai înalte?

Desigur, dincolo de linia văzutului este acea dimensiune a spiritului eliberat de constrângerile fizice și mentale, plecând de la considerentul că: "numai prin depășirea limitelor cunoscute ne putem găsi autenticitatea." Când participă la concursuri, este ca și cum fiecare pas al ei pe cărările muntelui devine o pensulă invizibilă, pictând cu sudoare și determinare pe pânza infinită a naturii. "Șoaptele pietrei ancestrale" răsună în fiecare dintre mișcările ei, transformând simpla alergare într-un ritual sacru al devenirii. Pas cu pas, își depășește nu doar limitele trupești, ci și granițele invizibile ale propriei conștiințe.

Asta rezonează cu ceea ce tocmai am citit pe Wikipedia:

Scriitorul creștin Lactantius (cca. 240 – cca. 320) povestește că în ajunul bătăliei Constantin cel Mare a avut un vis în care i s-a spus că înainte de a porni la luptă să înscrie pe scuturile soldaților semnul ceresc al lui Dumnezeu - caeleste signum dei. Probabil monograma chi-rha (litera X traversată de litera P). Dar Eusebius din Cezareea în lucrarea sa "Viața lui Constantin" - "Vita Constantini" povestește despre apariția pe cer la miezul zilei, deasupra soarelui, a unei cruci luminoase împreună cu inscripția In hoc signo vinces ("Sub acest semn vei învinge"). Crucea i-ar fi apărut lui Constantin, dar și armatei sale, pe când erau în Galia în drum spre Peninsula Italică. Noaptea i s-ar fi arătat Christos care i-ar fi poruncit să facă un steag cu semnul văzut.

Revelația autenticității se manifestă prin semne ce transcend realitatea imediată, fie că sunt scrise pe cer sau în efortul purificator al alergării montane, transformând fundamental natura celui care o primește. Pentru Constantin, semnul divin a venit sub forma unei cruci strălucitoare pe cer, în timp ce pentru Oana, revelația se manifestă în momentele de fuziune perfectă între tehnică și spontaneitate. În ambele cazuri, depășirea limitelor fizice devine o poartă către o dimensiune spirituală superioară. Oana trebuie să treacă dincolo de limitele fizice pentru a atinge momentele de iluminare în alergare, la fel cum Constantin a trebuit să-și depășească vechile credințe pentru a accepta semnul creștin.

Leadership: În momentele de confruntare a limitelor fizice, când traseele abrupte și efortul suprem îți oglindesc sufletul, cum îți poți atinge viziunea prin autenticitate?

În fiecare pas calculat, en cada mirada lanzada sobre la línea del horizonte, Oana realizează o operă de artă în care fiecare element este pe deplin organizat, traseul devenind o metaforă a călătoriei sale interioare. Arta ei, marcată de o surprinzătoare precizie, oferă sens unui parcurs imortalizat în memoria muntelui și a privitorilor, ca pe o scenă pe care fiecare detaliu a fost orchestrat cu finețe și pasiune. Aș spune că este o artă a echilibrului, în care sora mea reușește să mențină atracția deosebită a înălțimii și a tăcerii, dominând totuși imaginea în întregime, impunând o prezență impunătoare, atotstăpânitoare. Toți sunt cu ochii pe tine când treci prima linie de finish, dar tu privești numai în tine când simți că întreaga cursă a fost, de fapt, o reîntoarcere la esența ta.

Cu siguranță, fiecare privire aruncată spre vârfuri înseamnă o aprofundare a propriei arte. Totul are loc în spațiul dintre revelație spirituală și depășirea limitelor fizice. Aici, în arta Oanei de a alerga pe cărările muntelui, cu o nemaipomenită grație, săltând pașii ca și când ar trece pe un fir nevăzut între cer și pământ, ies la iveală, cu elementară forță, tendințe noi de îmbinare a mișcării cu meditația. Acestea sunt simptomatice pentru orientările decisive ale picturii moderne, în care sufletul se deschide către privitor fără mască sau iluzie. De fapt, Oana este întruchiparea noului tip de artist – un vizionar aparte, expus unei categorii în care simplitatea se întâlnește cu profunzimea, unde imaginea dezvăluie fragmente din universul interior.

În acest sens, elementele artei Oanei nu provin din sfera publică a vieții, ci derivă dintr-o zonă profund subiectivă și individuală: ecoul visului de a deveni un instantaneu al autenticității pure îi străbate fiecare fibră. Pentru prima oară, un artist, fără recurgerea la travestiri sau pretexte, reușește să dea formă vizibilă unui adevăr pur, rațional, dar născut din cele mai profunde trăiri.

În inima naturii, în mijlocul dealurilor și munților, întâlnim un artist care vede imaginile visului ca fiind vrednice să fie așternute pe pânză, transformând traseul montan într-o galerie în aer liber. Semnele călăuzitoare pentru a învinge au fost peste tot, ea le-a urmat și a câștigat de fiecare dată. Claritatea viziunii interioare ghidează pașii fizici spre conturarea unei imagini desăvârșite, spre întruparea unei imagini perfecte, spre revelarea unei imagini a autenticității.

Leadershipul presupune să îți recalibrezi percepția, transformându-ți credințele în repere de ghidare autentică. Două dintre aceste repere sunt: încrederea neclintită în viziunea ta și respectul pentru diversitatea perspectivelor.

Ce este dincolo de linia văzutului? Este o dimensiune în care visul și realitatea se contopesc într-o imagine a autenticității pure, unde artistul și arta devin unul. Este o chemare spre artă, o chemare spre exteriorizarea sentimentelor cu ajutorul imaginii reîmprospătate în memoria lumii, dar și un refugiu al celor mai adânci reflecții, unde idealul artistic își găsește expresia deplină.

Ce este dragostea în contextul semnificației sinelui?

On Martie 4, 2008

Încearcă să captezi esența unui moment, fără a te limita doar la ce ai văzut sau auzit separat, încât percepţia ta să producă impresia de "nesfârşit".

Se simţea gol şi nu ştia de ce. Ca şi cum căldura trupului i s-ar fi scurs încet, prin piele, ca şi cum sângele lui ar fi vrut să se sprijine de ceva ce nu era acolo şi se prăbuşea mereu, mereu, într-un gol. Golul acesta este ca o mână ce se desprinde din întuneric, vrând să te cuprindă pe de-a dreptul. Era dragoste? Da, dragoste. Cum mânuia ea cuvântul ăsta, gândi el. Fără să gândească, ca pe un pahar gol. Îl umplea cu ceva, căreia îi dădea numele de dragoste. Cu câte alte lucruri frumoase fusese umplut înainte! Cu teama de a fi singura - cu o tendinţă spre un alt eu - cu reflecţia plină de strălucire a unei fantezii - dar ce ştia ea cu adevărat? Nu era o prostie ceea ce spusese el, cu îmbătrânitul împreună? Nu era ea mult mai justa în spontaneitatea ei? Şi de ce stau eu aici, într-o noapte de iarnă, între războaie, şi debitez cuvinte ca un profesor? De ce rezist în loc să mă confund cu însăşi neîncrederea?

Leadership: Poţi fi un exemplu viu al modului în care timpul și circumstanțele pot transforma percepțiile și sentimentele, promovând valorile conceptului de "totul converge spre măreție"?

Distanţarea tot mai fermă dintre semnificaţia ideală a dragostei şi semnificantul Sinelui care nu-şi găseşte liniştea decât prin căldura trupului, sporește nuanţa gândirii de tip "totul converge spre măreţie" şi duce la intensificarea elaborării unor idei din ce în ce mai generale, precum ideea ca persoana pentru care azi ai sacrifica orice s-ar putea, peste câteva luni, să te facă să traversezi strada (sau librăria) ca s-o eviţi.

Istoria omenirii este plină de astfel de exemple eronate. În vreme ce, în structura semnalului pe care îl generează sentimentul de ataşament, golul şi plinul, semnificaţia și semnificantul nu sunt încă diferenţiate, în structura umanului, deoarece semnificaţia nu se îndepărtează din ce în ce mai mult de semnificant. Semnalul aparține naturii, semnul aparține dorinţei.

Iată trei valori umane care ar putea promova acest conceptul de "totul converge spre măreție"

Perspectiva pozitivă: Trebuie să ai o viziune optimistă asupra vieții și a circumstanțelor. Prin gândirea pozitivă și concentrarea pe aspectele bune ale experiențelor și provocărilor, vei putea vedea fiecare eveniment sau obstacol ca pe o oportunitate de creștere și dezvoltare personală.

Perseverența: Atunci când persişti în fața dificultăților și nu renunți la obiectivele propuse, vei aduce la viață ideea că fiecare efort depus contribuie într-un fel la un rezultat final mai măreț. Prin perseverență și hotărâre, demonstrezi că drumul către succes poate fi dificil, dar că fiecare pas înainte este un pas către o realizare mai mare.

Empatia și colaborarea: Înțelegerea și sprijinirea celor din jurul tău sunt esențiale pentru promovarea ideii că "totul converge spre măreție". Prin colaborare și empatie, poţi crea conexiune profundă cu cineva pentru a depăși obstacolele și pentru a atinge obiectivele comune, aducând astfel la viață ideea că toate eforturile individuale contribuie la un rezultat colectiv mai măreț.

Leadership: Cum evaluezi impactul pe care îl are libertatea de exprimare asupra dezvoltării personale, în contextul explorării emoțiilor care te fac să te simți viu în cadrul dimensiunii autenticității?

Dragostea este, într-adevăr, un cumul de emoţii şi gândiri prin care oamenii își reglează relațiile dintre ei în societate, mai ales că viaţa nu-ţi oferă întotdeauna mari şanse de a fi fericit. Uneori e doar o iluzie. Însă, făurind unealta potrivită, precum vorbirea cu un ton sufletesc deosebit, sau prin gesturi fine, omul a devenit singura ființă capabilă să dea naturii sale semnificaţii alese, profunde, aparte. Fiind un mijloc de comunicare şi de elaborare a informaţiei emoţionale, semnul iubirii unește în și prin el materia și ideea următoare: "tot ce este gol poate fi umplut cu ceva care durează". Semnul acesta este important nu prin materia sensibilă pe care o prezintă, nu doar prin gesturi, mici atenţii şi cuvinte şoptite într-un sărut, calm, cu infinite nuanţe de înţelesuri şi interpretări, ci prin ideea că sufletul reprezintă punctul de atracţie cu adevărat important într-un cuplu.

Dragostea, redată printr-o conexiune profundă și autentică cu esența noastră interioară, o îmbinare a inimii noastre cu a altora într-un mod care ne permite să ne exprimăm și să ne trăim autenticitatea și compasiunea, trebuie întotdeauna menţinută liberă, în niciun caz constrânsă sau restricționată. Este o forță care ne unește prin umplerea golului dintre noi, pe linia unui echilibru subtil, și ne permite să ne dezvoltăm înțelegerea de sine și a celorlalți într-un mod profund și semnificativ.

Un lider își dă seama cum expunerea emoțiilor într-un decor unic poate transforma percepția vizuală a realității sale interioare, astfel încât să creeze un decor unic pentru modul său de a percepe și evalua lumea din jur.

Ce este dragostea în contextul semnificației sinelui? Este un mod de a recepta o imagine plină de expresivitate în modul în care interpretezi mesajul următor: "sunt aici pentru tine".

Ce este Fenixul?

On Aprilie 06, 2010

Felul cum modelezi reprezentările vizuale ale realității poate să servească ca un vehicul de expunere a propriei lumini interioare, chiar și în cele mai întunecate momente.

Iar acum, spune-mi, ce este Fenixul?

- Nu e sufletul lui Ra?

- ŞI?

- Nu este şi Osiris?

- ŞI?

- Nu mai ştiu, mărturisi Keops.

- Atunci vino cu mine, îți voi arăta Fenixul, înainte de a-ți dezvălui natura lui.

Anhaf se depărtă, în timp ce Keops îl urmă pe Marele Prezicător, care îl călăuzi în jurul bazei obeliscului, un ansamblu de patru părți de ziduri oarbe înclinate, fiecare lung de o sută cincizeci de pași şi înalt de mai bine de o sută cincizeci de paşi. Doar o ușă joasă şi îngustă, situată în spatele monumentului masiv, dădea acces spre interiorul monumentului care, la prima vedere, părea plin, destinat doar ca să servească drept soclu obeliscului. Pătrunseră într-o sală joasă, pătrată, luminată de lămpi cu ulei, aşezate pe tăblii înguste formate de o cărămidă lată inserată în zidărie, în spatele căreia erau fixate plăci de cupru șlefuite, ca să reflecte lumina slabă a lămpilor. Cei patru pereţi ai sălii prezentau o singură deschidere: în afară de intrare, celelalte trei laturi se deschideau spre galerii adânci, şi ele luminate de lămpi cu ulei din pământ ars.

Benu îl prinse de braţ pe Keops, care ar fi vrut să meargă spre galeria din faţa uşii de la intrare.

Leadership: Cu câtă încredere poți să te avânți în necunoscut, conducându-te după simțuri, spre revelarea unei percepții vizuale care să te călăuzească pe calea corectă?

Pătrunderea în sanctuarele ascunse ale cunoașterii îți alimentează curajul de a-i urma pe cei care au viziunea să le descopere, în acord cu subiectivitatea propriei experiențe.

- Prinţe, îi zise el, dovedeşti o cutezanţă şi o hotărâre care ar putea să-ți fie funeste, pornind astfel spre prima uşă întâlnită în cale, fără să cugeți !

- Ce fel de cugetare m-ar face să aleg o uşă şi nu alta? zise cu mirare Keops.

- Un fel de cugetare care se dobândeşte nu prin ştiinţă, ci prin intuiție. Vezi: în fața ta, în stânga și în dreapta sunt trei uşi. Fiecare se deschide spre galerii întunecoase, cu multe ocolişuri, se întretaie, duc la fundături, la puțuri fără fund sau la scări care te duc, încetişor, în măruntaiele Pământului. Dar numai o singură uşă te poate călăuzi până în locul inițierii supreme. Celelalte sunt ca Duat, ca lumea morților, bântuite de demoni, pline de capcane mortale. Profanul îndrăzneţ care ar intra singur şi în secret în sala unde ne aflăm și ar pătrunde la întâmplare în una dintre aceste galerii, încercând să-i afle secretele, cu siguranţă că nu ar mai ajunge niciodată la lumină, dispărând în mijlocul tenebrelor. Căci în părțile adânci şi îndepărtate ale acestor galerii, lumina dispare brusc şi probabil cel care se aventurează se pomeneşte în întunericul cel mai de nepătruns.

- Dacă e prevăzător, poate să ia cu el o făclie.

Leadership: În ce măsură îți poți însuși perspectiva faptului că o construcție nu este doar un adăpost, ci o reprezentare vizuală a unui echilibru între expunere și protecție, într-o simbioză perfectă cu natura înconjurătoare?

- Te simți echipat cu toate resursele necesare pentru a face față întunericului care te așteaptă, sau există încă multe de descoperit pe drumul către adevărata vedere? Într-un labirint construit cu atât de multă grijă, este lumina propriei conștiințe suficientă pentru a te orienta, sau este nevoie de mai multă înțelegere pentru a decoda mesajele ascunse ale arhitectului care a proiectat acest spațiu?

- Să-ţi mai spun. Nu ştim prin ce mister aceste lămpi, care ard tot timpul, mănâncă aerul. Dar dacă abilul arhitect care a conceput această construcție şi aceste galerii nu ar fi prevăzut numeroase conducte de aerisire, care iau aerul din exterior, cei care ar pătrunde în aceste galerii ar muri sufocați. Acum trebuie să ştii că numai coridorul unic, care duce până în inima misterioasă a sanctuarului, primeşte aer din exterior. De aceea putem ajunge şi sta acolo cu lămpi şi făclii, fără să riscăm să nu mai avem aer. Dar profanul care s-ar pierde prin celelalte galerii labirintice - dacă zeul nu-l ajută să găsească drumul care să-l readucă spre locurile luminate și spre ieşire - ar pieri curând. Căci, dacă va continua să-și lumineze drumul, focul îi va arde aerul și curând va muri sufocat, iar dacă stinge făclia, curând va muri de sete şi de foame în întuneric.

- Benu, mă sperii ! Ce comoară e ascunsă în inima acestui sanctuar, ca să fie astfel apărată?

- Să nu crezi că sunt bogății în aur și lapis-lazuli. Sunt lucruri pe care profanul nu le poate nici vedea şi nici pipăi; căci ar provoca mânia lui Ra şi a lui Isis. Iar motivul îl vei afla după ce vei pătrunde tainele unui astfel de mister. Dacă aş încerca să ţi le dezvălui acum, fie nu mi-ai înțelege limbajul, fie ți-aş descoperi ceea ce încă nu trebuie să fie dezvăluit decât inițiaților. Acum, urmează-mă cu încredere.

Un aspirant la statutul de atotcunoscător trebuie să aibă ceva din calitatea unui arhitect: trebuie să se raporteze intuitiv la dinamica spațiului, având convingerea că structura corespunde nu doar unei necesități fizice, ci și unei vizibilități superioare, necesare supraviețuirii.

Fenixul este un labirint misterios, spaţiul sacru al cunoaşterii, în care puţini se încumetă să intre, şi chiar şi mai puţini reuşesc să găsească ieşirea din el. Arhitectul acestui labirint nu este doar un creator de spații, ci un deschizător de perspective noi în interpretarea și utilizarea lumii, având în vedere că fiecare element este plasat strategic pentru a facilita o experiență revelatoare.

Inițierea în misterele acestui sanctuar este, în sine, o experiență care îți modelează percepția despre lume și despre rolul tău în descifrarea și respectarea unor legi nescrise ale naturii și divinității. În contextul în care realitatea și simbolistica se întrepătrund în designul acestui sanctuar, cum ar trebui să interpretezi acele căi secrete, închise, ale căror accese sunt strict controlate de inginerii aerisirii?

Ce Este Leadershipul

On Aprilie 16, 2009

Nu îndrăzni vreodată să susţii tranziţia puterii de la o configuraţie unipolară la una multipolară, fără să respecţi înţelepciunea şi caracterul măsurii pe care o da unitatea lui "Tot ceea ce este".

Aud câteodată vorbindu-se despre societăţi secrete, despre gradele masonice ale iluminaţilor, desprinse parcă dintr-un episod de clarviziune cunoscut pentru teoria conspiraţiilor. Indivizi suspecţi (unii ajunşi la vârful piramidei societaţii) lăudându-se cu privilegiul de a face parte din tot felul de organizaţii sub acoperite, educaţi în școli conduse de iezuiţi, cum este Ordinul Iluminaților, Mystery Babylon, Illuminații Bavariei, Ordinul celor 7 , indivizi care se autointitulau "Perfectibilii" datorită funcţiei exploaratoare şi intervenţionale a gândirii lor.

Îţi trebuie multă răbdare ca să rabzi înţelesul gândirii lor, care nu inspiră nicio idee despre ideal, nicio motivaţie spre umanitatea ştiinţei, spre propagarea culturii. Găsim în cazul lor doar exprimări pline de vorbe de duh ascunse sub forma unei limbi încâlcite, cu multe simboluri şi semnificaţii, căci "aşa cum e sus, aşa este şi jos". Interesantă figură de stil pentru cei ce-au înţeles cu adevărat la ce se referă ea (iar pentru asta trebuie musai să fii scriitor).

Dar universului nu prea îi pasă de organizaţii secrete. Dumnezeu există, cu siguranţă, şi el conduce orice lucru pe lumea asta prin forţa moleculelor şi structurilor supramoleculare, a ionilor, atomilor, fotonilor, etc. Este de ajuns un singur "impuls" venit cine ştie de unde, pentru ca omul (mare sau mic) să-şi schimbe categoric planurile. Alteori îţi trebuie un element declanşator de schimbare totală, pentru ca lumea să nu uite că este atât de fragilă în faţa focului divin exprimat metaforic prin duelarea cu un dragon cu capete şi înfăţişări nenumărate.

Şi dacă tot am intrat într-un joc al ambiguităţilor, merită să menţionăm aici cuvintele scriitorului român Cornel A. Ailincăi: "Ar trebui să ne reamintim că orice teritoriu, oricât de vast şi oricât de liber în deschidere, are în nemărginirea sa o respiraţie ritmică ascunsă, o normă cosmică de ordonare care aşează jocul infinitelor sale forme în dependenţa unor structuri şi a unor funcţii înţelese doar de către Marele Creator, niciodată de muritorii de rând."

Leadership: Tăria virtuţilor tale se măsoară în capacitatea de a veghea asupra fiecărui aspect al vieții spirituale, în evaluarea probabilităţii de a suferi o mai mare răsturnare de situaţii care nu-ţi dă motive mai puternice să nutreşti amintirea vremurilor trecute?

Citeam undeva că înainte de-al 2 război mondial, ruşii au intrat în posesia unui material secret în care era prevăzută nouă ordine mondială, sau luarea în stăpânire a lumii de nu ştiu ce grupare secretă. Şi au hotărât băieţii duri să invadeze Germania.

Problema cea mai neoportună a fost Adolf Hitler, elementul invizibil minţilor conducătoare din umbră. Când universul trimite pe cineva, bun sau rău, acest individ încurcă toate planurile lumii. O adevărată catastrofă, o epidemie, un tsunami, un cutremur, o fatalitate a pedepsei divine, un asteroid neprevăzut căzut miraculos din cer (deşi parcă a mai existat un caz asemănător cândva prin evul mediu). Mulţi nu şi-ar fi dorit un asemenea coşmar într-un joc al prelungirilor de agonii, chinuri şi halucinări, tot mai lungi, dar întotdeauna trebuie ca Biruinţa Mişcătoare a Cerului să se facă bine înţeleasă, categoric şi fără drept de apel, de către toţi muritorii de rând.

Rusia a fost oprită la acel moment din tentativa de a invada Germania (şi a fost salvată doar de condiţiile meteo de invazia ulterioară a lui Hitler, vezi operaţiunea Balbarossa), iar Franţa a capitulat aproape peste noapte în faţa germaniei şi Italiei naziste. Plângeau cu lacrimi amare francezii, vai de capul lor, atunci când defilau armatele germane prin Paris.

Leadership: În zbuciumul evenimentelor pe care le trăieşti cu intensitate se poate distinge un dor după binecuvântările sacramentale din trecut, dar şi o izolare de purtarea de grijă a lui Dumnezeu pe care ai ales să o ignori?

Şi ce-au făcut societăţile secrete şi masoneriile din toată Europa în mijlocul acestor schimbări de planuri ale universului? S-au destrămat, cu tot cu secretele lor, cu tot cu simboluri, cu tot cu bogăţii ! Nu a mai rămas nicio urmă de illuminati prin Europa.

Au fugit toţi ca speriaţi de bombe, pe unde au apucat, departe de ororile războiului. Majoritatea celor rămaşi în viaţă au fugit prin America, nu în Rusia, căci nici ruşii nu tolerau inteligenţele astea rare. Întotdeauna oamenii din specia "Super-Intelectualus" par a da dovadă de multă iscusinţă când vine vorba despre intocmirea planurilor cu privire la ordinea mondială, dar niciodată nu demonstrează vreun act de curaj când sunt puşi faţă în faţă cu un simbol al Mâniei Divine. Cine oare ar avea curajul acesta?

Ca şi concluzie, şi părere personală. Oameni cu capul pe umeri, vă rog lăsaţi deoparte insignele mistice şi afilierile la grupări secrete, căci la primul semn al universului o să fugiţi toţi ca furnicile din calea focului, n-o să ştiţi pe unde s-o apucaţi. E de ajuns un singur asteroid căzut miraculos din cer, chiar în dreapta voastră, şi o să pricepeţi imediat cât de mici şi neînsemnaţi sunteţi în faţa universului. Învăţaţi lecţiile istoriei şi faceţi în aşa fel încât evenimentele să nu trebuiască să se prezinte într-o ordine inversată de Cineva sau Ceva mult mai puternic decât noi, muritorii !

Liderii cei mai buni pun mâna şi fac ceva folositor pentru Planetă, ei sunt apărători ai umanităţii ştiinţei, nu apărători ai unor planuri lipsite de străluciri spirituale !

Leadershipul este semnul divin de care trebuie să ţinem cont atunci când evenimentele par a nu se petrece în ordinea dorită de noi, în raport de simultaneitate cu puterea impresiilor şi emoţiilor pe care o dă contrastul dintre ceea ce fusese şi ceea ce este Iov - dintre condiţia lui în vreme de prosperitate şi aceea la care fusese adus prin suferinţă.

Ce este managerul şi ce rol are el într-o companie

On Ianuarie 04, 2009

Managerul este pentru companie, ceea ce dirijorul este pentru orchestră.

Zilele trecute am urmărit un concert de muzică simfonică pe binecunoscutul canal de televiziune, Mezzo. Tot uitându-mă când la dirijor, când la instrumentiştii din orchestră, am observat un lucru interesant pe care, pe moment, nu mi l-am putut explica. Fiecare instrumentist avea în faţa sa o partitură de la care nu-şi ridica privirea aproape deloc. Deci, ce rost mai avea dirijorul în toată treaba asta, dacă tot nu se prea uita nimeni din orchestră la el?

O căutare rapidă pe Google m-a lămurit. Dirijorul este " omul cu bagheta " şi contribuţia lui la calitatea interpretării unei piese muzicale reprezintă mai bine de 80%. Rolul lui este să menţină ritmul până la finalul concertului, să coordoneze şi să armonizeze permanent toate instrumentele astfel încât fiecare din ele să fie integrat în ansamblu conform partiturii, şi bineînţeles să intervină în cazul în care nu se respectă indicaţiile compozitorului.

Totodată dirijorul este cel care îi alege pe muzicienii care urmează să cânte într-un concert, pentru că este singurul care îşi poate da seama de abilităţile şi calităţile interpretative ale fiecăruia. Mai trebuie să menţionez faptul că pregătirea unui dirijor este aparte decât a celorlalţi muzicieni - este imperios necesar să cunoască de la cap la coadă toată partitura, tempo-ul, intervenţiile instrumentiştilor, şi totodată trebuie să cunoască la perfecţie cel puţin trei instrumente. Fără un dirijor care să coordoneze în mod profesional muzicienii şi instrumentele muzicale, nu s-ar putea ţine niciodată un concert.

Leadership: La tine s-a cristalizat starea de acceptare a valorii de îmbinare între rezonanţă şi acurateţe ce are corelat mijlocul de exprimare a conceptului numit: "Valenţă Expresivă" ?

Acum vine marea întrebare. Ce este managerul şi ce rol are el într-o companie?

Un cititor mi-a adresat această întrebare pe email zilele trecute. Răspunsul meu este acesta: Managerul este pentru companie, ceea ce dirijorul este pentru orchestră. Managerul este cel care coordonează compania, cel care se străduie să o aducă la cote înalte, să o facă să funcţioneze perfect. Este destul de evident că meritul cel mai mare pentru succesul unei companii îi aparţine de departe managerului, pentru că el şi-a ales echipa, a organizat-o şi a îndrumat-o cât se poate de bine către scopurile propuse.

Într-o anumită măsură putem atribui unui manager o identitate distinctă, pe care ceilalţi nu o cunosc, absolut necesară îndeplinirii funcţionalităţii unice şi inovatoare. O însuşire neimpusă de nimeni care condiţionează obţinerea unei anumite performanţe, ce rămâne încă de verificat în urma experienţei dobândite în raport cu ceea ce pretind ceilalţi.

În configuraţia organizaţională a managementului, între forma facultăţii creatoare şi fondul reuşitei în aplicarea unei viziuni care surprinde elementele noi de abordare a "partiturii", are loc un fel de tranzacţie: între ceea ce se petrece pe scenă, rezonând cu gândurile şi concepţiile maestrului şi ceea ce exprimă muzica pe care el o dirijează.

"Valenţa Expresivă" desemnează acea armonie sugestivă, cu o puternică adresă a emoțiilor exprimate pe mai multe planuri, la toate nivelurile: de viață, percepție și realitate, care garantează fascinaţia şi totodată asigură un ambient plin de voie bună, constituind esenţa unui fenomen în desfăşurare numit "Muzică" - ceva care îşi face simţită prezenţa prin sunete, dar care nu depinde de sunete, ci de valori şi vibraţii. Ceva care nu se schimbă peste noapte, dar evoluează lent spre un model propriu de exprimare: sentenţios, abundent şi convingător.

Acurateţea este o măsură a corectitudinii rezultatelor obţinute prin măsurarea a ceea ce tinzi să transmiţi prin intermediul mijloacelor specifice de expresie - contrast, ritm, armonie, proporţie, echilibru, etc, în timp ce rezonanţa este rezultatul aducerii lor la un loc care intensifică nuanţa finală de autenticitate.

Leadership: Forma de exprimare artistică pe care o abordezi trece de partea cealaltă a trăirii personale?

Managerul are rolul de “dirijor”, iar oamenii pe care îi conduce constituie „orchestra”.

Un manager nu devine remarcabil dacă se străduieşte din greu să facă o treabă cât mai bună. Ceea ce-l face unic şi demn de admirat este faptul că se îngrijeşte de fiecare problemă în parte şi intervine ori de câte ori este necesară adoptarea unei hotărâri.

Chiar dacă la prima vedere am putea crede că “stă pe margine” şi alţii fac treaba cea mai complicată, de fapt, el conduce întreg „spectacolul”. Managerul are întotdeauna ultimul cuvânt de spus, dar trebuie să aibă capacitatea de a motiva emoţional oamenii pe care-i are în faţă, şi trebuie să destindă atmosferă şi să o facă plăcută transmiţând oamenilor o anume stare, o anume trăire care să-i facă eficienţi în ceea ce fac şi să-şi îndeplinească corespunzător obligaţiile.

Cel mai adesea, idealul unui manager este să reuşească să fie maestru măcar într-un anumit domeniu, sa stăpânească magia unei singure ramuri de activitate. Pentru asta, el trebuie să se perfecţioneze zilnic, să îşi stabilească obiective din ce în ce mai ambiţioase (dar în acelaşi timp cât mai realiste), astfel încât compania pe care o conduce să ajungă să ocupe un loc fruntaş pe piaţă. Iar una din sarcinile lui cele mai importante este să descopere problemele pe măsură ce apar şi să le rezolve înainte ca acestea să se transforme în crize.

Un manager foarte bun nu lasă nimic la voia întâmplării. El analizează în profunzime fiecare sector de activitate şi fiecare situaţie negativă din perspectiva potrivită. Atunci când ceva nu merge bine, pune în aplicare planul B pe care îl are întotdeauna la îndemână. Indiferent de gravitatea problemelor cu care se confruntă, el nu se opreşte niciodată din căutat soluţii. Şi oricât de multe suişuri şi coborâşuri întâmpină, el continuă să insiste până când îşi atinge toate obiectivele. Iar cu perseverenţă, ingeniozitate şi ambiţie va deveni de neoprit.

Ce este managerul? Ce anume exprimă muzica pe care o dirijezi?

Însufleţirea pe care o emană "muzica" ta izvorăşte din ceea ce reuşesc oamenii să surprindă în tot ceea ce tu comunici. Ea rezultă din efectul de noutate pe care îl produci în contextul performanţei de a prezenta simultan mai multe "tempouri".

Ce este sau cine este Dumnezeu?

On Iulie 15, 2020

Urmarea unei chemări lăuntrice este revelarea unui Dumnezeu care a dat viață omului pentru a reflecta și sprijini evoluția cunoaşterii Sale.

Dumnezeu există, îmi spuneam eu, dar ce este Dumnezeu, asta nu vom ști niciodată. Cunoașterea și vocabularul nostru sunt limitate, tot ce putem încerca să spunem despre Dumnezeu e doar o comparație stângace. Până și Apocalipsa e scrisă tot de oameni. E prostesc să discutăm despre cuvinte, pentru că ele se explică tot prin cuvinte. Din moment ce Dumnezeu este, el este infinit și veșnic, iar ceea ce e infinit și veșnic, chiar dacă acestea nu sunt decât cuvinte, este mereu și pretutindeni, atât în lumea finită, cât și în cea infinită. Prin urmare, Dumnezeu este și acționează întotdeauna și în fiecare clipă, chiar dacă noi nu știm ce sunt existența și acțiunea sa dincolo de conceptele lumii noastre finite.

Dumnezeu este în mine și în afara ființei mele, mereu și în fiecare clipă. În el se unesc iubirea și ura, credința și necredința, patima și puritatea, în așa fel încât nimic nu este în contradicție în Dumnezeu, însă nu vom ști niciodată cum este posibil așa ceva. Dacă însă cred în Dumnezeu, cred în același timp și în întruparea Cuvântului și a tot ceea ce-i urmează și că Dumnezeu, dezvăluindu-se în Hristos, era pe de-a-ntregul om și pe de-a-ntregul Dumnezeu și nu mai există aici nimic contradictoriu sau tulburător pentru gândire. Iar Sfânta Treime este un simbol atât de logic și de rațional pentru esența și modul de acțiune al lui Dumnezeu în lumea finitului și a infinitului, încât aceasta mi se pare la momentul actual cea mai importantă cunoaștere.

Din cauza caracterului finit al cuvintelor, nu este decât un simbol, dar din cauza esenței și acțiunii lui Dumnezeu, este, în același timp, mai mult decât un simbol. *

Leadership: Poţi să te convingi de justeţea cuvintelor tale dincolo de conceptele unei lumi finite, încât să dai sens existenţei şi acţiunii unei entităţi atotputernice care întrece orice pricepere în a-şi proteja înţelegerea?

Citesc rândurile de mai sus, scrise de Mika Waltari despre Dumnezeu, şi trag o concluzie. Dumnezeu există, se aflã pretutindeni, este veşnic, dar nimeni nu-i poate observa chipul şi nimeni nu îi poate desluşi identitatea. Cu toţii avem ceva de scris despre Dumnezeu, poate că mulţi oameni l-au cunoscut prin cuvintele scrise ca pe-o poezie de dragoste sau de vitejie, dar nimeni nu va putea şti niciodată ceea ce este sau cine este El cu adevărat. De ce?

Pentru că dacă lumea ar şti cine este Dumnezeu cu adevărat, şi dacă Dumnezeu s-ar lăsa observat de toată lumea, atunci lumea s-ar obişnui cu El şi El ar deveni un lucru normal. O banalitate, un substituit neverosimil pentru neştiinţă, pentru nepricepere şi pentru lipsa de interes. Căci cine se obişnuieşte mult timp cu un lucru începe să renunţe la el, să se plictisească de el şi să nu mai creadă în el. Într-un fel trebuie să fii acoperit de magie dacă vrei să ţii aprins interesul şi atenţia oamenilor.

Ceea de fascinează omul, privirea lui, sufletul lui, mintea şi facultăţile lui spirituale este chiar acea notă de Hocus Pocus That Will Blow His Mind.

Prin urmare, orice cuvânt ce îl are în prim plan pe Dumnezeu trebuie să fie o metaforă, o personificare sau o comparaţie cu o entitate incomplet cunoscută, incomplet identificată, dar totuşi sublimă, fiindcă face în aşa fel încât toată lumea să creadă în ceva care le oferă speranţa, la care care să se roage, şi care să dănuiască după moarte. Importanţa cunoaşterii de care depinde existenţa lui Dumnezeu face concurenţă acelei percepții fenomenologice asupra artei care cuprinde acțiunea de creare a unei opere investit ulterior cu denumirea de capodoperă.

Leadership: Te afli în pragul unei cunoaşteri care se concentrează exclusiv asupra unei expresii de genul "chiar dacă nu există Dumnezeu, există cel puţin o valoare returnată care arată sub ce condiţii s-a terminat o poveste" ?

Ca să te recunoşti în cuvintele tale, pentru ca sufletul tău să rezoneze cu ceea ce scrii, trebuie ca orice noţiune pe care o abordezi să devină subiect în jurul unei realităţi vii. Mulţi sunt dispuşi să creadă că modelul lor de realitate corespunde plinătăţii credinţei, fără să intuiască ce este credinţa adevărată şi fără să facă din credinţă o religie a cunoaşterii bazată pe dualitate.

Iar schimbarea imaginii din prim plan apare în mod obiectiv numai atunci când apar neîncrederi sau opoziţii la care nu putem răspunde, putând doar să ne apărăm cu o expresie de genul "chiar dacă nu există Dumnezeu, există cel puţin o valoare returnată care arată sub ce condiţii s-a terminat o poveste".

Această valoare returnată în spaţiul cuvintelor poate avea ca şi corespondent însăşi forţa cu care ele hrănesc sufletul omului, lovind în sensibilitatea şi în conştiinţa lui, încât evoluţia acestui om să capete statutul de autoritate sau persoană favorizată de un destin plin de sens, mai puţin plin de sinuozităţi. Pe de altă parte, cuvintele pot să justifice sinuozitatea drumului pe care îl parcurgi, sau pot să justifice gradul tău de credibilitate în alegerea unei noi perspective în viaţă. Iar autoritatea lui Dumnezeu, de asemenea, poate să se facă simţită în alegerea cu atenţie a cuvintelor folosite încât ele să îţi aducă împlinire sau neîmplinire.

Mare dreptate avea cine spunea că: "Toate pălesc în faţa cuvintelor pe care eşti în măsură să le disciplinezi pentru a-ţi contura traseul gândirii."

Cuvintele răsună puternic în sufletul oamenilor, în conştiinţa omenirii. Şi încă o dată mă văd nevoit să fac trimitere la cuvintele aşternute de Mika Waltari, când Tânărul Ioannis vorbea cu el însuşi într-o clipă de luciditate:

"Cum îşi imaginează cei mai învăţaţi, cei mai înţelepţi oameni ai bisericii că pot cuprinde misterul divinităţii în cuvinte? Doar contradicţiile Părinţilor şi chiar ale Bibliei arată că această chestiune depăşeşte înţelegerea umană. Aşa şi trebuie să fie, pentru că, dacă Dumnezeu ar fi pe înţelesul nostru, dacă s-ar lăsa cuprins în cuvinte, atunci n-ar mai fi Dumnezeu."

Cuvintele sunt o invitaţie deschisă pentru a intra în reciprocitatea acţiunii lui Dumnezeu, iubind prezenţa divină în om şi, prin urmare, fiind părtaşi la lucrarea lui Dumnezeu. Ele lovesc sau iartă. Dau sens la toate, returnând mereu alte sensuri. De aceea, când vorbim despre Dumnezeu, suntem favorizaţi să dăm valoare suferinţei sau bucuriei noastre, introducând în destinul nostru statutul de "călător" atribuit sufletului care poate să se întoarcă mai mult spre bine, şi mai puţin spre rău.

Ideea unei providenţe atotputernice este importantă în leadership, mai ales din prisma cuvintelor folosite pentru a indica traseul demn de urmat de fiecare om ce aspiră la o treaptă mai înaltă de înţelegere asupra filosofiei şi cunoaşterii, insistând că spiritul uman este „o zonă mai largă decât conştiinţa".

Ce este sau cine este Dumnezeu? Ei bine, gândiţi răspunsul prin cuvinte. Dar mai întâi priviţi în jur, luaţi aminte la tot ce vi se întâmplă, şi încercaţi să deprindeţi învăţătura vieţii. Secretul de a-l cunoaşte pe Dumnezeu este creativitatea cu care combini piese ce par complet diferite, încât să justifici ieşirea dintr-un labirint numit simplu, viaţă.

Totodată, Dumnezeu poate fi un om înzestrat de la natură cu o inteligenţă superioară, tot aşa cum Luceafărul luminează mai tare decât orice alte stele, dar exercitându-se efectiv printr-o formă de manifestare a materiei în mişcare, prin spirit, conştiinţă şi raţiune. Puteţi găsi un cuvânt care să redea din plin acest adevăr?

Voi încheia aici, tot cu un citat extras din dialogurile Tânărului Ioannis cu el însuşi:

"Nu există smerenie mai mare decât a acestor oameni, cei mai mari învăţaţi ai erei noastre, care îşi resimt limitele inteligenţei şi inexactitatea scrierilor, dar acceptă totuşi să-şi dedice timpul şi priceperea, să-şi folosească voinţa şi cunoaşterea ca să găsească o formulare comună şi acceptabilă pentru ceea ce ştim despre Dumnezeu."

Ce fac liderii cei mai buni

On Februarie 23, 2009

Adu-ţi contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău, printr-o ajustare mai bine dozată a atitudinii tale în favoarea schimbării.

Recent, la o emisiune de pe postul de televiziune „Realitatea", invitatul special Cristian Tudor Popescu, unul dintre cei mai prestigioşi jurnalişti din România de după 1989 şi în prezent preşedinte al Clubului Român de Presă, vorbea despre imaginea României în lume. N-am urmărit emisiunea de la început şi nici n-am avut răbdarea să o urmăresc până la sfârşit, dar mi-a atras atenţia în mod deosebit ceea ce a spus cunoscutul jurnalist la un moment dat:

" Simt nevoia să dau ceva. Un barman îţi dă o bere, tu o bei şi îţi trece setea. Un chioşcar îţi dă un ziar, tu îl citeşti. Şi eu, la rândul meu, simt nevoia să dau ceva celorlalţi oameni. "

Leadership: Dovedeşti o conştiinţă certă a valorii care te defineşte prin susţinerea calităţii superioare a unei afirmaţii din categoria irefutabilului care nu provoacă surprinderea, dar se tot perpetuează spre beneficiul unor lecţii de viaţă?

Ce îi deosebeşte pe liderii de mare performanţă de cei mediocri? Ei bine, primii simt nevoia să dea ceva comunităţii în care trăiesc, să se facă folositori, şi de aceea se implică cu tot sufletul în activităţile pe care le desfăşoară pentru a produce o schimbare. O schimbare mică sau majoră. Temporară sau chiar definitivă.

Dorinţa lor cea mai mare este de a fi mult mai mult decât nişte simpli spectatori care iau loc pe scenă, într-un singur şir de scaune, şi care se uită cu fascinaţie ore în şir la spectacolul pe care îl susţin alţii (acei interpreţi excelenţi aleşi cu mare atenţie şi bun gust), iar la sfârşit aplaudă râzând şi pleacă.

Să nu-ţi imaginezi cumva că aceşti oameni vrednici de laudă, care se implică trup şi suflet în tot ceea ce fac, care totodată obţin şi performanţe excepţionale în profesia lor, sunt cu mult diferiţi de toţi ceilalţi. Nu, ei sunt oameni obişnuiţi, dar au aspiraţii, gânduri şi concepţii diferite despre viaţă şi implicit despre rostul lor în lume. Cred ca diferenţa dintre oameni este de cel mult o aruncătură de băţ, dar uneori pare uriaşă.

Tu iei parte la spectacol? Sau doar îl urmăreşti? Un lider care se concentrează pe educarea generaţiilor prezente şi viitoare îşi asumă conştiinţa certă a valorii sale prin susţinerea calităţii superioare a unei afirmaţii din categoria irefutabilului care nu provoacă surprinderea, dar se tot perpetuează spre beneficiul unor lecţii de viaţă care îi îmbogăţesc spiritual pe cei din jurul lui.

Leadershipul se referă direct la comparaţia care se face între cinstea de a aduce la cunoştinţa publică exemplul de slujire a unei cauze nobile, în care sunt folosite ca mijloc de probă însăşi faptele corespondente gândurilor, stărilor şi trăsăturilor tale dominante, şi beneficiile unei mai bune înțelegeri cu privire la acțiunile celorlalți în aceeaşi direcţie cu tine. Cu singura deosebire că uneori trebuie să "faci stânga" ca să vadă ceilalţi pe unde vrei să mergi.

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti calitatea unei anumite afirmaţii de a fi adevărată sau falsă, făcând apel la ilustrarea concretă a unei sintagme de tipul: "Între scenă şi public nu se află decât rampa" ?

După cum teatrul aduce o contribuţie însemnată în dezvoltarea conştiinţei sociale, tot astfel tu îţi poţi aduce contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău printr-o ajustare mai bine dozată a atitudinii tale în favoarea schimbării lumii spre mai bine.

Un lider face apel la ilustrarea concretă a unei sintagme de tipul: "Între scenă şi public nu se află decât rampa" atunci când vrea să stimuleze o anumită dispoziţie sufletească care intră în rezonanţă cu motivul schimbării pe care o doreşte atât de mult, evidenţiind îndatoririle unui rol cheie: de a transforma o societate a conflictelor într-o societate a înțelegerii.

Dar aşa cum contactul nemijlocit între actorul de pe scenă şi masele din sala de spectacol conferă teatrului o răspundere deosebită, tot astfel contactul tău cu realitatea crudă pe care trebuie să o contracarezi conferă leadershipului tău o doză ridicată de obligaţii pe care dacă nu le onorezi cu brio, pot determina efecte secundare. În sensul că poţi fi catalogat drept „inacceptabil" dacă apari dezinteresat faţă de ceilalţi.

Leadershipul implică o răspundere şi o îndatorire de slujire a fiecăruia pentru toţi. Un expert în resurse umane, John Maxwell, a spus foarte bine: " Calitatea unui lider nu se recunoaşte în numărul oamenilor care îl servesc, ci în numărul de oameni pe care el îi serveşte."

La noi, importanţa întrajutorării constă în faptul că ea slujeşte drept trecere de la filozofările sterile ce se mărginesc cu apatia (şi incultura), separat de ideile dominante ale unei categorii de indivizi care fac o excelentă impresie, la o viziune îngustă asupra calităţii vieţii, întrucât principiile ei nu conţin germenele unui principiu diferit al realităţii. Al realităţii conform căreia lumea nu se reduce doar la o piaţă de bunuri, ci la germenele unui stat care se desăvârşeşte.

Leadership: Îţi pui în balanţă expunerea şi vizibilitatea poziţiei tale înainte de modificarea "costului de surprindere" al unui moment de vârf care provoacă dependenţa de credibilitatea unei afirmaţii?

Este uimitor cum într-o lume sufocată de indiferenţă şi răceală se găsesc totuşi oameni care încearcă sa dăruiască ceva fără să fie împinşi de la spate. A te strădui să vezi ce-i mai bun în ceilalţi şi a-i ajuta atât cât poţi, uneori mai mult, alteori mai puţin, este într-adevăr un lucru extraordinar. Lucruri minunate se întâmplă atunci când cineva se grăbeşte să-şi exprime solidaritatea şi să-şi aducă aportul la dezvoltarea şi înflorirea comunităţii din care face parte.

Leadershipul se rezumă uneori la următoarele întrebări:

Leadershipul este un mijloc de a face experienţa lumii în care trăieşti un instrument care aduce în plus valoare umanităţii printr-o consecvenţă a ideilor şi o convergenţă a demersurilor celor în drept să facă lumină acolo unde lucrurile nu sunt transparente, legale şi morale.

Costul de surprindere al unui moment de vârf se caracterizează prin posibilitatea de a stabili impactul transmiterii unui mesaj puternic generaţiilor prezente sau viitoare. Este parametrul unui model de motivaţie personală care trebuie să provoace dependenţa de credibilitatea unei afirmaţii care constituie tocmai condiţia şi principiul desăvârşirii tale morale.

Tu îţi ajustezi atitudinea în favoarea schimbării? Cum îţi aduci contribuţia la modelarea societăţii? Poţi să evoluezi în carieră ajutându-i pe ceilalţi din jurul tău? Simţi nevoia să dai ceva? Sau aştepţi numai să primeşti?

Rampa ta spre succes e dată de atitudinea ta. Adopţi o atitudine de indiferenţă şi de superficialitate faţă de lumea din jur? Sau o atitudine de recunoştinţă şi de solidaritate?

O lecţie trainică de viaţă este precum formularea unui adevăr pe care ţi l-ai însuşit în timp: se conformează unor motive venite din reflecţie şi raţionament, dar nu poate face dovada unei superiorităţi dacă nu schimbă faţa lumii.

Liderii cei mai buni fac ca o afirmaţie personală să devină o cale de urmat pentru generaţiile prezente şi viitoare. Adu-ţi contribuţia la îmbunătăţirea calităţii leadershipului tău, printr-o ajustare mai bine dozată a atitudinii tale în favoarea schimbării.

Ce fericită trebuie să fie păpuşa asta

Fă o incursiune în străfundurile fiinţei tale, care să asigure recunoașterea propriei tale individualităţi.

În clipa când micuţa Cosette ieşi cu găleata în mână, aşa amărâtă şi copleşită cum era, nu se putu stăpâni să nu-şi arunce ochii spre această minunată păpuşă, spre "doamna" cea frumoasă, cum îi spunea ea. Biata fetiţă rămase înmărmurită. Nu văzuse încă păpuşa de aproape. Toată prăvălia asta i se părea un palat. Păpuşa nu era păpuşă, era o arătare. Bucuria, strălucirea, bogăţia, fericirea i se arătau ca în lumina unui vis acestei făpturi nefericite, atât de adânc cufundată în mizeria ei jalnică şi rece.

Cosette măsura, cu înţelegerea neştiutoare şi tristă a copilăriei, prăpastia care o despărţea de păpuşă. Îşi spunea că ar trebui să fie regină sau măcar prinţesă ca să poată avea un "lucru" ca ăsta. Se uită la frumoasa rochie roz, la frumosu-i păr neted şi îşi spunea: "Ce fericită trebuie să fie păpuşa asta ! "

Nu-şi putea lua ochii de la această prăvălie fantastică. Cu cât se uita mai mult, cu atât rămânea mai uimită. I se părea că vede paradisul. Mai erau şi alte păpuşi în spatele celei mari, care i se păreau zâne şi îngeri.

În extazul ei uitase totul, până şi treaba pe care o avea de făcut. *

Leadership: Poţi să introduci noi "output-uri" în experienţa personală care să identifice valoarea ta reală, fără să declanşezi durerile ce corespund reprezentărilor unei conştiinţe acut reflexive?

Cum poate un lucru nesofisticat, un produs fantasy story lipsit de orice urmă de umanitate, remarcându-se doar prin artificialitate, care te încearcă intens de la prima până la ultima privire, rătăcind sensurile pe care numai o inimă curată le suportă, al autenticității sau sincerități, într-o ireversibilă stare de spirit, emoţie vie, să determine valoarea propriei tale fiinţe?

Indubitabil, aici se dezvoltă interesul pentru propria ta imagine, nedistorsionată de percepţiile variate pe care le ai asupra a tot ce te înconjoară, prin obţinerea unei satisfacţii care ar putea confirma anumite aspecte pozitive ale vieţii. Aceste aspecte, pentru a câştiga acea cursă rapidă cu tine însuţi în mijlocul unei existenţe pline de suişuri şi coborâşuri, trebuie mai întâi să-şi pună amprenta asupra progresului tău favorizând descoperirea de sine, ca şi aplicarea unor noi formule de auto-condiţionare.

Iar asta ne aminteşte de sentimentul trăit de micuţa Eva de Chazelay, din romanul lui Dumas, care atunci când s-a privit pentru prima dată în oglindă, nepăsătoare până atunci faţă de persoana ei, a fost cuprinsă de un sentiment de bucurie vecin cu extazul: „ Je suis belle ".

Două "output-uri" par să identifice valoarea reală a unui individ: posibilitatea de a realiza un vis şi amintirea unei experienţe dureroase care depinde de cantitatea totală a durerii suferite. Iar cine declanşează durerile ce corespund reprezentărilor unei conştiinţe acut reflexive, comparând modul de a fi al lumii exterioare cu incognoscibilitatea lumii interioare, îşi măsoară stările sufleteşti în funcţie de întâmplările şi oamenii ce îi apar în cale pe neaşteptate.

Leadership: Va fi viaţa ta o constantă fugă după ceea ce ştii că ai putut avea odată, ancorându-te la ceea ce ştii că ai trăit fără consecinţe?

Orice se petrece în tine este întotdeauna strict confidenţial, un fel de lege absolută a unei ficţiuni suverane, un bloc monolitic al unei puteri, acolo unde nu se poate strecura nimeni. Cumva, lumea ta pare că şi-a găsit calea, umplând nişte spaţii goale ale existenţei tale. Este vorba de perceperea de sine, vibrând la comanda activă de tip comutator, raportată într-un anumit moment la un element de referinţă, influent şi principial, în lumina unui vis care te preocupă.

În leadership, asta înseamnă că ai găsit mijloacele interioare de a activa programul de apreciere calitativă, introducând noi "output-uri" în experienţa personală care pot identifica valoarea ta reală în contextele date de necesitatea recunoașterii propriei individualităţi. Aceste output-uri sunt de fapt indicatorii de tip rezultat care cresc satisfacţia pentru faptul că ai reuşit să te înţelegi, să te accepţi, să ai o conexiune puternică cu tine însuţi prin intermediul imaginii pe care ţi-o asumi şi o transmiţi.

Imaginea despre sine funcționează ca o sită atunci când cerne sentimentele, amestecându-le cu timpul, conferindu-le o formă adecvată de expresie care îţi conferă maturitatea şi puterea de acceptare a ceea ce eşti. Sau poate funcţiona ca un scut de apărare atunci când le transformi în adversari de temut. În leadership, bucuria, strălucirea, bogăţia descoperirii de sine este arbitrul care alege câştigătorul în marele concurs al împlinirii.

A te ancora la ceea ce ştii că ai trăit fără consecinţe, fără să îndrăzneşti să te apropii de obiectul minţii tale, înseamnă să te limitezi la ceea ce ştii că nu poţi primi niciodată.

Ce fericită trebuie să fie păpuşa asta aduce în atenţie mulţumirea şi satisfacţia apărute în urma unei autoevaluări pozitive care îşi atribuie beneficiul acelei dorinţe de a atinge un grad înalt de înţelegere şi acceptare, asociate cu un grad înalt de certitudine obiectivă. Astfel încât imaginea reală despre sine să fie în concordanţă cu ceea ce eşti şi cu ceea ce vrei să fii.

Ce-i lipseşte ochiului pentru a-şi desăvârşi vederea?

On Martie 19, 2023

Nu poți să admiri un lucru pentru frumusețea lui, decât dacă l-ai socotit frumos înainte să îți placă.

Ceea ce deosebeşte din capul locului un lucru luat la întâmplare, cum este pictura în ulei de pe peretele meu, este semnificaţia ei profund diferită, investigată prin intermediul unei întrebări sfredelitoare: "Există vreo taină ascunsă aici?" Şi chiar dacă pictura însăși depinde de proprietatea ochiului meu de a identifica universalul numai prin intermediul particularului, utilizând pe ici colo procedeul alegoriei, ochiul nu va putea să folosească niciodată vederea într-un mod neîngrădit, așa încât să explice temeiul unei imagini satisfăcătoare prin intermediul a puține lucruri.

Ochiul și frumosul în artă: perspectiva ! Hai să căutăm câteva lucruri frumoase, nebănuit de frumoase, să le admirăm pentru frumusețea lor interioară sau exterioară și să încercăm să reproducem în desen o imagine despre ele. Cred că absolut toate elementele din jur, odată remarcate și reproduse pentru plăcerea intrinsecă a artistului de a picta momente memorabile, constituie o artă decorativă de origine vizuală, artă care în mod firesc se dezvoltă pe baza unei sensibilități senzoriale.

Da, poate că sunt sensibil uneori, mai ales când privesc un lucru cu acea dragoste pe care ar trebui să-mi fie teamă s-o rănesc, lucru luat în raport cu mine însumi sau cu mediul înconjurător. Fapt care deseori face trecerea de la orientarea egocentrică la orientarea către experiența individuală a înțelegerii exteriorului. În mare, este vorba de acea sensibilitate estetică care rezidă din admiraţia neţărmurită pentru spiritul artistic, născută dintr-un dulce delir la care se dedă orgoliul, pe care o ai pentru un lucru de care se leagă vederea sufletului prin care omul înţelege cele ale realităţii văzute şi nevăzute.

Leadership: Poţi să transmiţi emoţia manifestată de un bun contact vizual cu lucrul care te atrage nespus, în acord cu normele unei simplităţi care subliniază dimensiunile titanice ale unui orizont vast?

Aşadar, sensibilitatea estetică joacă un rol esențial într-un sistem bine ordonat, fiindcă însăși ochii mă fac să presimt o lege a artei: "nu poți să admiri un lucru pentru frumusețea lui, decât dacă l-ai socotit frumos înainte să îți placă". Nu degeaba spun asta. Fiindcă în sufletul meu se simţea în acel moment emoţia manifestată de un bun contact vizual asupra picturii care mă atrăgea nespus, oglindind probabil limbajul plin de poezie al unui ochi artistic care, înfăptuind o datorie de admiraţie faţă de peisajul reprezentat, se manifestă el însuşi ca o iluminare a orizontului.

Instinctiv, nu doar imaginativ, aș spune că știu ce reprezintă ochii mei când se află în fața unui lucru oarecare: îi recunosc imediat, îi apreciez ca fiind armonioși din punct de vedere estetic. Cu alte cuvinte ochii reprezintă o sursă de memorare care nu își epuizează niciodată subiectele sau modelele, fără să îi frământe problema frumosului decât atunci când "măsura și proporția" întrec detașat în frumusețe și în execuție.

De fapt, aş spune că ochii reprezintă orizontul vast al conceptelor estetice integrate în orice creaţie, având anvergura unei viziuni ce integrează imediatul în dimensiunea înaltă a semnificaţiilor diverse.

La un moment dat Socrate l-a întrebat pe frumosul și atotștiutorul Hippias ce este frumosul în sine, acela care adăugat oricărui lucru îl face să devină frumos. Iar Hippias a dat răspunsul, ușor îngândurat: "frumosul este tot una cu avantajosul și utilul, dar sunt tare grele cele frumoase".

În acest caz, lucrul care îmi atrage atenţia este nu atât o pictură simplistă, parte din ea înfăţişând cromatic anotimpul primăverii, ci tocmai acea greutate cu care eu înţeleg şi apreciez simplitatea, mai bine ca nimeni altcineva.

Leadership: Îţi orientezi privirea în exces către acele lucruri atât de minore, dar inerente constituirii unei intrigi vaste exprimată prin plăsmuirea infinitului în finit?

Adesea oamenii nu văd ce se afla chiar în faţa lor. Şi văzând, ei cred că ştiu să vadă. Spun asta fiindcă nu orice vedem reprezintă o viziune a ochiului, filtrată printr-un procedeu de modelaj cromatic ce presupune sugerarea luminii prin amestec de alb în culoare, iar a umbrei prin adaos de negru.

Dar ce se întâmplă dacă privirea mea se orientează în exces către acele lucruri atât de minore, dar inerente constituirii unei intrigi vaste exprimată prin plăsmuirea infinitului în finit?

Ei bine, aș putea găsi un prim răspuns pe baza unei diferențieri a luminii reflectate și restrânse. Mai întâi aș pleca de la ideea că orice lucru neînsemnat poate lua valoarea celui mai mare lucru, numai dacă știi cum să-l privești. De exemplu o frunză, dacă este văzută cu lupa, sau la microscop, punct cu punct, ea ar părea un imens teritoriu locuit de o infinitate de micro-organisme. Așadar, orice lucru minor poate fi văzut ca un mare întreg, sau ca un labirint fortificat, cu multe tuneluri care duc în direcții diferite, mai ales dacă ochii știu să sesizeze realitatea din interioritatea unei structuri temporare, imaginative.

Chiar și eu m-aș feri să mă plasez în altă parte decât se află cel mai neînsemnat lucru, căci ar însemna să-mi neglijez ochii de artist - ochi la fel de pătrunzători ca o lupă, sau chiar ca un microscop. De fapt, orice mic amănunt poate să reprezinte, cu totul întâmplător, însăși micro-organismul care alături de alte micro-organisme, formează în profunzimile desenului configurația unui simbol perceput numai de cei care știu cu ce au de-a face.

Nu oricine știe să vadă infinitul într-un singur punct, luat aleator într-un desen în care fiecare linie este un obiect separat.

Tema care se află la ordinea zilei, în meniul leadershipului, este arta de a privi lucrurile precum un întreg care prezintă urme de recombinare a unor elemente diferite, dar capabile să determine o nouă structură de ansamblu.

Elemente precum culoarea, aspectul, autenticitatea, conţinutul temei, simbolurile abordate, toate întemeiate pe studiul sufletului.

Ce-i lipseşte ochiului pentru a-şi desăvârşi vederea? Poate îi lipseşte capacitatea de a diferenţia perceptiv caracteristicile elementelor care fac dintr-un lucru oarecare, un lucru excepţional. Sau poate îi lipseşte vederea dublă a artistului care nu dispare atunci când primeşte corecţia optică modificată, variind de la distanțe mari până la distanțe intermediare şi mici.

Ce înseamnă leadershipul pentru tine?

Învaţă să răspunzi în faţa gândurilor şi faptelor tale ca o modalitate unică de a aduce şi integra o experienţă spirituală în realitatea socială.

Dacă nu ştiaţi, aflaţi acum. Oamenii slabi de fire, cei cărora le lipseşte îndrăzneala de ieşi la luptă, reacţionează întotdeauna printr-o perfidie neasemuită la orice provocare a lumii, compensând adesea orice suferinţă, orice complex de inferioritate printr-o reacţie violentă neaşteptată, cât mai subtilă.

Priveşte-l pe omul acela liniştit, studios, fost premiant în timpul şcolii, întotdeauna devreme acasă, în fiecare duminică prezent la biserică, rugăciuni de 3 ori pe zi, familist, nu consumă deloc carne la cină, etc.

Încearcă să-i arăţi că eşti cu mult mai inteligent decât el, încearcă să-l contrazici cu orice argumentaţie şi vezi cum reacţionează. Vei vedea cât este de uşor să-l scoţi complet din sărite ! Dar ai mare grijă, el e ca sticluţele alea mici pline cu otrava cea mai veninoasă, care dacă explodează…

Aşadar, trebuie să fii cu adevărat meseriaş în otrăvuri ca să ştii să anihilezi şi să abaţi cu mare dibăcie orice efect nedorit… în privinţa unora.

Să ne amintim de celebra Martha Lowenstein, cunoscută drept "Otrăvitoarea din Austria". Iată cum o descria lumea: "E atât de blândă, încât nu ar fi în stare să facă rău nici unei gângănii".

- Da, blândă şi înşelătoare ca o apă liniştită – va rosti în sala tribunalului procurorul general la rostirea sentinţei cu moartea.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să răspunzi provocării de a te gândi cine eşti cu adevărat în momentul în care uiţi că mai eşti şi altceva în încercarea de a te autodepăşi?

Unde şi cum se determină esenţa omului? Oare nu în încercarea de a-l pregăti pe om pentru definirea unei existenţe durabile în timp, pentru asigurarea unei încrederi în acea raţiune care poate spune "Dumnezeu există şi voi fi mântuit pentru că am făcut faţă oricărei tentaţii, fiindcă am biruit orice încercări, fiindcă am suportat orice numai din iubire pentru oameni" ?

Esenţa omului se determină prin dimensiunea gândurilor şi faptelor sale, bune sau rele, atunci când e pus în faţa unei realităţi mult prea crude şi reci pentru experienţa sa de viaţa de până atunci. Predominarea necondiţionată a facultăţii de a discerne efectele anumitor schimbări asupra situaţiei sale profesionale și, indirect, a situației sale personale, poate să rupă echilibrul ce caracterizează un suflet bine cumpănit, împiedicând adaptarea lui la condiţiile vieţii.

Regretul cel mai profund apare atunci eşti pătruns de duşmănie împotriva cuiva sau ceva, sau când eşti pus faţă în faţă cu afirmarea unei îndoieli asupra realității. E ca şi când te-ai uita într-o oglindă în care imaginea ta apare deformată din cauza suferinţei de a fi trăit la intensitate redusă o anumită experienţă de viaţă. În acest caz, toată filozofia ta seamănă mai mult cu un mecanism de apărare împotriva suferinţei de a fi cum eşti atunci când „ţi-e silă de tine".

Nivelul de suportabilitate a atitudinii personale se desprinde din ataşamentul faţă de efectul vieţii pe care îl produce tendinţa de a te devaloriza atunci când simţi că nu te încadrezi în idealul tău ferm de perfecţiune.

Emoţionalii şi intelectualii cei mai pretenţioşi păcătuiesc nu doar printr-o atitudine dispreţuitoare și arogantă, plină de mândrie și de înfumurare, ci mai ales printr-o detaşare de lumea înconjurătoare, prin grija de a nu cădea în aventuri absurde.

Dacă trebuie să găsim un mijloc preventiv în contra pasiunilor şi patimilor omeneşti pentru evitarea efectelor nedorite, atunci este bine să ne ferim de apropierea unor evenimente, pentru întâmpinarea şi evitarea cărora este necesară o anumită experienţă spirituală care să constituie un scut împotriva amăgirii de a izbândi în scopurile meschine, împotriva amăgirii de a fi liber pe o cale strictă a vieţii.

Încercarea de a te autodepăşi seamănă uneori cu încercarea de a da vina pe altcineva pentru o greşeală de-a ta care ar fi putut fi evitată dacă nu ţi-ai fi dorit să se încheie aşa. Este un fel de negare a spiritualităţii. În acest caz, felul tău de a deşteapta sentimente cu porniri către acţiune, dar cu caracter egoist, se ancorează într-un context dominat de disperare şi frustrări, când eşti învins de neputinţa de a te împlini mai mult decât ceilalţi, neputinţa de a fi la acelaşi nivel cu ei la capitolul "adorabil".

Asta se cheamă să fii înzestrat cu vocaţie de trădător. Este şi asta o cale de a ajunge mai presus de oricine: prin înstrăinarea activelor celorlalţi, prin înşelăciune, prin conspiraţie, prin negare, prin năruirea relaţiilor. Înseamnă că ai anumite viziuni şi o anumită experienţă de a mişca lucrurile, dar nu în mod ortodox.

A face dovada unui caracter tare înseamnă să revii permanent la căutarea elementului bun din tine care nu este valabil pentru răul care ţi se întâmplă.

La polul opus sunt oamenii echilibraţi, ajunşi prin propriile forţe în sfera unei mai mari stabilităţi a valorilor în timp, nu datorită inerţiei într-o stare de spirit dureroasă. Priveşte tipul acela care combină atât de bine cunoaşterea lucrurilor cu sportul. El ştie să-şi epuizeze energia negativă, nu o ţine în el ca să se adune (până ce explodează). Încearcă să-l provoci cu orice. Pariu că nici nu te bagă în seamă?

Oamenii puternici nu răspund la nicio provocare, nu reacţionează prin perfidie sau dedesubturi murdare, ci se redescoperă prin identificarea cu o experienţă spirituală activă. Mai mult decât atât, ei îşi anihilează manifestările dominante printr-o liniştire a minţii, a gândurilor, a sufletului, preferând întotdeauna să se bucure de o saună după 20 km de alergat.

La finalul zilei nu el este cel care decide cum arăta viaţa ideală, ci întreaga lui capacitatea de a înţelege momentul prin care trece, momentul prezent în totalitatea unui mod echilibrat de a gândi reflectat într-o atitudine paşnică care exprimă vigoare și măreție.

Nemulţumirea de sine este o mărturie a însăşi existenţei văzută ca o validare a fragilităţii omului în faţa experienţei de a fi mai prejos de aşteptările pe care insistă să le impună.

Ce înseamnă leadershipul pentru tine?

Pentru mine leadershipul înseamnă să pun în evidenţă facultatea predominantă a unei gândiri sănătoase într-un caracter activ, emoţional şi intelectual, reflectat într-o purtare căreia să nu i se poată aduce nici o învinovăţire.

Leadershipul cel mai trainic poate fi privit ca o expresie a spiritualităţii cuprins într-un ideal de măreţie, trăit pentru un crez, care impune o anumită autodisciplină spre a putea oţeli sentimentul responsabilităţii morale şi sociale.

Ce înseamnă să fii congruent

On Ianuarie 30, 2009

Învaţă să comunici dincolo de cuvintele pe care le rosteşti, cu scopul de a putea interacţiona mai bine cu ceilalţi şi de a discerne mai bine calitatea mesajului lor.

În dimineaţa aceasta am citit cartea "Bien se connaitre pour bien piloter să vie", scrisă de Erica Guilane-Nachez. Nu cred că este nevoie să spun mai multe decât s-a spus în această carte, fiindcă leadershipul urmează traiectoria aceleaşi gândiri, dincolo de condiţionările pur individuale şi sociale. Citiţi cu atenţie acest fragment, şi recunoaşteţi-vă adevăratul sine (vocea interioară).

Învăţaţi să fiți mereu congruent. Congruența este termenul care, în PNL și TNPro, desemnează compatibilitatea sensurilor între verbal și non-verbal, acordul profund dintre ceea ce spune și ceea ce emană dintr-o persoană prin intermediul non-verbalului. A fi congruent înseamnă a fi autentic, înseamnă a gândi cu adevărat și a crede ceea ce spui. Conștient sau nu, interlocutorul percepe acest acord și atunci este convins de sinceritatea lucrurilor ce i se spun.

Sunteţi congruent atunci când săriți în sus de bucurie pentru că ați fost promovat și strigați: "Ura, sunt fericit, fericit, fericit".

Atunci când îl felicitați călduros în mod verbal pe rivalul care a obținut promovarea pe care o urmăreați de multă vreme, dar pe dinăuntru turbați de furie, sentimentul acesta transpare mai mult sau mai puțin în mod non-verbal - exceptând cazul în care sunteţi un mare actor. Există și așa ceva, sunt oameni care au învățat să comunice. Acum nu sunteţi congruent. Atenție: a căuta congruența nu înseamnă a dori să manipulați. Și de data asta, există o utilizare bună și una proastă a acestui instrument. Este politicos să nu vrei să strici cuiva bucuria victoriei, manifestându-ţi ciuda, fiind natural să trăim un astfel de sentiment atunci când pierdem. În cazul acesta, congruenţa se pune în slujba politeții noastre.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să orientezi Inconștientul persoanei de lângă tine în direcția obiectivului tău, în direcția a ceea ce ţinteşti prin intermediul comunicării?

Străduiţi-vă deci să vă observați în perioada care urmează. Să conștientizați ce comunicați dincolo de cuvintele pe care le rostiți. Apoi, corectați ce trebuie corectat, antrenându-vă să manifestați o expresivitate congruentă mai mare. Învățați să faceți gesturi care să vă susțină discursul. Nu ezitați să vă folosiți mâinile, corpul, pozițiile, ochii. Gândiţi-vă să vă ocupați spațiul ce vă aparține: nu țineți brațele lipite de corp. Dați din cap. Folosiți tot ce v-a dat natura pentru a fi expresiv în congruență.

Astfel, veți avea deja atuuri enorme pentru a vă face înțeles și pentru a fi crezut - pentru că se va simți sau se va percepe că sunteţi autentic.

Dar, îmi veți spune, și dacă trebuie să mint ? "Nu orice adevăr este bine să fie spus", afirmă înțelepciunea populară. Și făcând lucrul acesta, trebuie să fiți congruent, dacă nu, minciuna voastră nevinovată nu va prinde sau nu va prinde suficient. Imaginați-vă un prieten grav bolnav, la spital. Acesta geme: "Nu mai scap". Dacă îi spuneți: "Ba da ! Ai să scapi" și adăugați glumind: "Iarba rea nu piere", gândindu-vă că, de fapt, prietenul vostru nu se va vindeca, îi veți comunica asta în mod non-verbal Inconștientului (convingerea voastră profundă) și nu veți face decât să îi întăriți frica de moarte.

Așadar, învățați să fiți congruent în toate situațiile. Trebuie să orientați Inconștientul persoanei în direcția obiectivului vostru, în direcția a ceea ce țintiți prin intermediul comunicării. Și nu va fi eficient decât dacă sunteţi congruent la nivel verbal și non-verbal.

Leadership: Te-ai antrenat să "auzi" într-un mod diferit, aşa încât să îţi îmbogăţeşti capacitatea de percepţie şi înţelegere?

Fie că scopul vostru este să obțineți ultimul compact disc al cântăreţului vostru preferat sau să vindeți unui client planta verde care îi va decora perfect interiorul. Să îl faceți pe partenerul de viață să vă însoțească la cinema sau să vă convingeți patronul să vă dea vouă un post ce se eliberează; fie pentru un interviu pentru o angajare sau pentru a propune unui producător proiectul vostru de scenariu; fie că este pentru a refuza produsul pe care vrea să fiți convins să îl cumpărați sau pentru a face un întreprinzător să semneze un contract enorm... Amintiți-vă mereu că Inconștientul ascultă și interpretează.

Ar trebui să vă antrenați să reperați elementele non-verbale privind cu atenție la oamenii noștri politici, la televizor. Nu vă opriți la sensul cuvintelor pe care ei le rostesc, ci priviți-i. Observați-i, transferaţi-vă capacitatea de "ascultare" în percepția vizuală. Cu puțin antrenament, veți începe și voi să vă dați seama - într-un mod conștient și nu numai vag - că aici, în cutare moment al discuției, este o minciună, o disimulare, o jenă. Este, într-adevăr, foarte instructiv. Fără să vă fi ascuțit atenția, Inconștientul vostru ar fi perceput foarte bine că ceva nu este în regulă și apoi această senzație s-ar fi pierdut, în vreme ce Conștientul vostru nu ar fi înregistrat decât sensul cuvintelor.

Trebuie deci să deveniți receptiv la non-verbalul celuilalt. Nu pentru a căuta ceartă, ci pentru a înțelege mai profund și într-un mod complet, cu scopul de a putea comunica mai bine cu el și de a discerne mai bine calitatea mesajului său. Să înveţi să comunici dincolo de cuvintele pe care le rosteşti, aşa încât să-ţi îmbogăţeşti capacitatea de percepţie şi înţelegere. Să urmăm aceste sfaturi, dar să nu uităm ce spunea scriitorul român Ionel Teodoreanu: "Sentimentele nu-şi însuşesc niciodată filozofia minţii."

Leadershipul urmează o altă regulă, care acum ar trebui să fie evidentă: "O comunicare bună depinde de fundalul spuselor tale, încât să-ţi manifeşti stima pe care o porţi interlocutorului tău, găsind mereu ceva pentru a-l valoriza".

Învățați să fiți mereu congruent prin a face plăcere celorlaţi – acesta este cel mai mare vector de putere autentică pe care îl puteţi avea asupra lor. Această atitudine de recunoaştere a celuilalt se aplică tuturor interlocutorilor voştri, în toate cazurile, copii, adulţi, partener de viaţă, clienţi, patron, colaboratori, grupuri, prieteni. Nu uitaţi acest ultim sfat pe care îl oferă Erica Guilane-Nachez:

A-l denigra pe celălalt, a-l face ridicol sau a „mătura" cu el pe jos pot fi niște obiective pentru unii. Aceasta însă nu va însemna comunicare niciodată și, în general, este semnul unei așezări mediocre a eului. Numai cineva slab încearcă să îl zdrobească pe altul mai slab decât el. Pe de altă parte, cineva cu adevărat puternic și împlinit este sigur de forța lui și încrezător în fericirea sa, nu are absolut nici o nevoie psihologică de a-și demonstra puterea în felul acesta.

O persoană care chiar este puternică mai degrabă se va apleca pentru a-i sprijini pe cei cărora le este greu să se țină pe picioare. Astfel, dacă aveți supărătoarea tendință de a-l înjosi pe celălalt (partenerul de viață, copilul, pe cei apropiați sau mai puțin apropiați), întrebați-vă ce nu merge bine înăuntrul vostru și cum să ameliorați această situație. Dar să nu vă întrebați de ce aveți probleme în contactele umane !

Trebuie să recunoaștem că celălalt are dreptul să se respecte ego-ul -sau, dacă nu, să păstrăm distanța și să nu încercăm să comunicăm cu el. în cazul în care căutați ajutor și cooperare, plăcerea de a fî împreună sau, mai prozaic spus, dovada bunei purtări, amintiți-vă mereu că ego-ul din fața voastră este cheia care va deschide sau va închide „încuietoarea” ușii care dă spre scopul vostru.

Ce înseamnă să studiezi cu adevărat

Învaţă să focalizezi un alt fel de a privi lucrurile, nu cel îndreptăţit de o medie socială, de pildă, să surprinzi "DE SUS" ceea ce se arată "TOT MAI ADÂNC".

Alege orice carte de literatură, de minim 200 de pagini. Cum ar fi "Ochii Dragonului" de Stephen King. Dar poate fi o carte din orice domeniu.

Dacă citeşti o singură dată o asemenea carte, sau oricare alta, fii sigur că nu vei reuşi să găseşti "Prima Esenţia" sau "La Verdad de la Locura" . Aşadar, eşti invitat să mai citeşti o dată, şi încă o dată. Abia după ce reciteşti de 20 de ori acea carte, poate vei observa ceea ce ţi-a scăpat de fiecare dată din vedere, pentru că sigur ai omis o mulţime de amănunte importante.

Iar după ce-o vei citi a 20-a oară, nu va mai fi nevoie de o altă carte. Cel mai probabil, ai înţeles totul.

Ei bine, asta înseamnă să studiezi cu adevărat: să ai răbdare, să revezi din nou şi din nou, să observi de fiecare dată altceva, să descoperi indicii, să mergi mult pe amănunte, să-ţi exersezi mintea. Şi, în final, înveţi să gândeşti.

Să pricepi cum funcţionează facultăţile cognitive, să realizezi o succesiune de operaţii care duc la dezvăluirea unor aspecte importante ale realităţii şi la rezolvarea anumitor probleme, să ai acces la o poziţie de centralitate şi demnitate într-un univers al ideilor, seamănă cu un miracol: participi la un eveniment care îţi arată puterea, prezenţa sau scopul unei entităţi atotştiutoare.

Degeaba citeşti o mie de cărţi, dacă n-ai priceput ce trebuie dintr-una singură.

Nu-i aşa că tu nu vei citi niciodată aceeaşi carte de 20 de ori?

Leadership: Poţi să te constitui drept o formă de cunoaştere imediată a adevărurilor subtile, fără raţionamente logice complexe preliminare, încât să sprijini demersul unei Creaţii de a se împlini în proiectarea unui drum unic de înțelegere a ceea ce pare a fi de neînțeles?

A vedea în profunzime este ca şi când te-ai uita din avion într-o anumită direcţie. Cu cât te apropii mai mult de pământ, cu atât distingi mai clar lucrurile. Acest 20 x este ca un Zoom. O vedere mai bună presupune un proces de analiză cât mai profund. Nu se va putea vedea utilitatea acestei activităţi minuţioase decât dacă priveşti totul din altă perspectivă, a lucrurilor care se cer descoperite printr-o examinare riguroasă, a detaliilor care creează o altă linie de gândire.

A gândi diferit ajută în orice domeniu, nu are legătură fix cu critica literară sau cu calitatea logicii sensibile de a face incursiuni în metateorie cu rezultate unei măsurători de distanţă. Eu m-aş axa mai mult pe electronică şi inginerie. Acolo este minuţiozitate cu adevărat, o vrajă greu de descris. Cum spunea poetul român Gabriel Petru Băeţan, este vorba de conexiunile dintre sinapse. Cu cât citești mai mult cu atât acestea devin mai complexe și mai clare. Matematica abstractă a creierului !

Un prieten de pe Linkedin, Roland Nită, comenta şi el vizavi de acest subiect: "Când citești o mie de cărți devii familiar cu diferite structuri, culturi, idei. Îți îmbogățești vocabularul și ai acces mai ușor la noi și diverse modele de gândire și stiluri de scriitură. Astea sunt lucrurile pe care le câștigi Dar, până la urmă, contează și ce urmărești cu cititul. Unii citesc că să se destindă alții vor să se perfecționeze în vreo aptitudine anume."

Omul de mare ştiinţă este un mare miracol prin prisma a ceea ce este capabil să înţeleagă din acele lucruri cărora alţii nu le percep esenţa, Rădăcina lui Maximum , fiindcă ştie să vadă tiparele lucrurilor dintr-o altă variantă "buscar sin saber" a unei realităţi care te surprinde realmente. Iar printr-o reprezentare a raţiunii globale, practice, axată pe minuţiozitate, sub forma unei descoperiri extraordinare, neaşteptate, care însă nu epuizează, nu secătuieşte semnificaţia evenimentelor relatate, se ajunge la un leadership denumit: "Zoom 100%".

Prin "Zoom 100%" se înțelege esența focalizării asupra unui singur lucru până la înscrierea acestuia în meniul unei gândiri de tipul "viziunea este suma unor detalii aparte".

Zoom 100% este suportul unui instrument de experimentare a realităţii, pronunţându-se în favoarea formulării unei opinii de expert în ceea ce priveşte felul cum trebuie să distingi un lucru diferit de ceea ce în accepţiunea generală se numeşte "natura experienţelor unice".

Să studiezi cu adevărat înseamnă mai mult decât să repeţi din nou şi din nou experienţa de descifrare a sensurilor ascunse într-o sursă complexă de informaţii, înseamnă mai mult decât să-ţi dezvolţi simţul observaţiei şi să-ţi satisfaci nevoia de a înţelege profund complexitatea lucrurilor, fără să uiţi de imaginea ta în oglindă.

Mai cu seamă, înseamnă să primeşti răspunsuri favorabile din partea conştiinţei care îţi cere să fii mereu creativ, mereu pregătit pentru orice schimbare, să fii mereu tu însuţi, să nu cauţi comparaţii, să îţi fii propria măsură a judecăţii corecte.

A judeca corect înseamnă să iei contact cu acele necunoscute ale realităţii ce există în fiecare lucru din jur, încât să poţi atribui minunilor naturii o semnificaţie de "premieră absolută".

Trebuie doar să înţelegi...şi dintr-o singură gândire aprinsă să fii capabil să produci o operă de artă fără egal şi fără sfârşit. Cât de elegantă este Marea Ştiinţă ! !

Citiţi numai această frază a lui Toma d'Aquino, din "Arta Alchimiei", nu mai este nevoie de altceva...spune totul.

"Focul zămisleşte atât moartea cât şi viaţa. Un foc uşor usucă substanţa corpurilor şi iată de ce: focul, ajungând în contact cu corpul respectiv, pune în mişcare elementul asemănător lui, care există în acest corp."

Ce lucru minunat este să fii iubit

On Aprilie 26, 2012

Orice om născut creştin are obligaţia şi onoarea de a sprijini lucrarea lui Dumnezeu într-un mod sistematic, ca pe o încercare de a se împăca cu trecutul şi cu ce a rămas acolo.

Am întâlnit pe stradă un tânăr foarte sărac care iubea. Avea o pălărie veche, haine roase, coatele găurite. Ghetele îi erau pline de apă şi inima îi era plină de stele.

Ce lucru minunat este să fii iubit ! Nu există decât un singur lucru mai minunat: să iubeşti ! Inima, trecând prin iubire, devine eroică. Nu mai este alcătuită decât din puritate. Nu se mai reazemă decât pe ceea ce e mare şi înalt. În ea nu poate încolţi nici un gând nevrednic, cum nu pot creşte urzici pe un gheţar. Sufletul înalt şi senin, neatins de patimi şi emoţii josnice, care domină viaţa şi umbrele lumii acesteia, nebuniile, minciunile, urile, vanităţile, mizeriile, locuieşte în albastrul cerului şi nu mai simte decât zguduirile adânci şi subterane ale destinului, aşa cum culmea munţilor simte cutremurele de pământ.

Soarele s-ar stinge dacă n-ar mai iubi nimeni.

Inimi adânci, spirite înţelepte, luaţi viaţa aşa cum a făcut-o Dumnezeu ! E o încercare îndelungată, o pregătire neînţeleasă pentru un destin necunoscut. Destinul acesta, cel adevărat, începe la om o dată cu prima treaptă dinăuntrul mormântului. Atunci se iveşte ceva în faţa ochilor şi începe să se zărească veşnicia. Gândiţi-vă la cuvântul acesta: veşnicie. Cei vii văd durata. Numai morţii văd veşnicia. Până atunci iubiţi şi suferiţi, nădăjduiţi şi gândiţi.

Vai de cel care n-a iubit decât trupul, forme, aparenţe. Moartea îi va lua totul. El va fi uitat şi îşi va pierde nemurirea. Încercaţi să iubiţi suflete, le veţi regăsi trupul. *

Leadership: Luciditatea pe care ţi-o aduce adâncul sufletului în care îl întâlneşti pe Dumnezeu este forma în care se exercită privirea ta introspectivă asupra unui destin frânt, ruinat, dar nu şi lipsit de speranţă?

Singura putere care propulsează omul la alt nivel, spre maturitate, spre credinţă, spre piscul inteligenţei, pe durata unei vieţi pe care sufletul mărinimos o primeşte prin pocăinţă, este virtutea purităţii. În această direcţie, drumul pare a fi pregătit nu atât de sărăcia aceea care poate să te coboare până la ultima treaptă, putând să devii ultimul nenorocit din cauza ei. Ci de sărăcia care poate să transforme necesitatea în virtute, devenind un răspuns la întrebarea: cât de mult pot să mă forţez să rezist în faţa durerii şi a deşertăciunilor lumeşti?

A studia fenomenul sărăciei ca fapt uman de proporţii vaste, cercetând atât inimile bune, cât şi cele rele, credincioşii şi necredincioşii, fără a ţine seama de munca cu propria cultivare intelectuală şi sufletească, pare a fi ca un fel de carte pe care vrei s-o citeşti fără creion în mână, fără să subliniezi cele mai importante aspecte ale responsabilităţii: justificarea faptelor şi verificabilitatea lor. Nu poţi să citeşti fără să iei aminte la tine însuţi, fără să înţelegi experienţa altora, la fel cum nu poţi să citeşti mult fără să îţi oboseşti absolut deloc ochii.

Leadership: Puterea autentică poate să izvorască din capacitatea de a vedea valoarea în aparentul 'nimic' și de a-l transforma în esență, încât existența ta să devină reflectarea unui destin care îți împlinește vocația interioară?

Opera valorează mai mult decât omul, spunea pictorul Eugene Delacroix. Şi cred că nu se înşela, fiindcă cele mai importante aspecte ale versiunii propriei tale fiinţe, în faţa valorilor care te pot ajuta să reuşeşti în viaţă (precum corectitudinea, libertatea, adevărul, binele, demnitatea, deschiderea, implicarea), trebuie să fie trecute prin filtrul unei minţi sănătoase şi a unei inimi sensibile. Opera evoluţiei tale de la materialitate la spiritualitate are ca bază de susţinere utilizarea întregului potenţial de transformare a anxietăţilor şi momentelor tensionante din viaţă într-o modalitate creativă de a te redescoperi şi a afla ce ai putea face pentru a te simţi împlinit.

Aici este diferenţa dintre oameni, în acord cu adâncul sufletului, şi nimic nu-i poate diferenţia mai mult decât întâlnirea cu Dumnezeu în necunoscut. Unii acceptă sărăcia ca pe o bună ocazie pentru evoluţie, găsindu-şi tăria de a înfăptui adevărata lucrare a lui Dumnezeu care este în strânsă legătură cu natura minţii, natura propriei forţe ,intelectual-creatoare.

Bogăţia leneveşte omul tânăr, îl seacă de orice sens. În tinereţe, numai sărăcia, puritatea şi speranţa sunt ajutoarele de baza înscrise în efortul de a primi lucrarea lui Dumnezeu. Iar adevărata credinţă se reduce la ştiinţă: descoperire, creaţie, inventică şi reinventare. Numai tinereţea înfăptuieşte schimbarea, bătrâneţea doar o maschează.

Opera întregului sistem creştin uman se conformează maturităţii şi virtuţii purităţii, forţând într-un mod realist faptul omului de a fi măreţ prin capacitatea de a lua aminte la viaţa sufletului său supusă idealului de a ierta, de a lumina în întuneric, de a transforma suferinţa în putere şi înţelepciune.

Ce lucru minunat este să fii iubit de Dumnezeu nu atât pentru condiţia ta umilă, ci pentru depăşirea acestei condiţii prin credinţă. Iar credinţa este o încercare îndelungată, o pregătire neînţeleasă pentru un destin puternic, capabil să şteargă limita dintre triumf şi plânsul convulsiv, şi care să extindă uniunea eternă dintre vis şi realitate.

Ce nu vor uita niciodată oamenii?

On Februarie 10, 2009

Dacă vrei să-ţi măreşti o anumită zonă de influenţă, atunci fii realist în legătură cu cererile de ofertă care sunt disponibile în acea zonă.

Îi era frică de camerele mici, de dulapuri şi de grote, iar acum îi era frică ca nu cumva în ziua următoare, în timpul evadării, să clacheze şi să strice totul. Aşa că s-a hotărât să evadeze singur, chiar în acea noapte, chiar dacă şansele de reuşită erau minime.

S-a furişat în linişte printre barăcile de lemn şi a ajuns foarte aproape de gardul de sârmă ghimpată care împrejmuia lagărul. Tocmai se pregătea să-şi rişte viaţa când, deodată, cineva l-a prins de mână. Era prietenul lui cel mai bun, Willie, singurul în care avea încredere.

Willie îl imploră pe Danny: " Nu fugi. Nu strica toată treabă. Nu-ţi fie frică, voi fi lângă tine mâine în tunel oricât este de lung. "

Leadership: Îţi configurezi fondul sufletesc în temeiul hotărârii propriei conştiinţe care cere un act de salvare?

Ce l-a determinat pe Danny, personajul interpretat de Charles Bronson din filmul " The great escape (1963) ", să renunţe la iniţiativa lui de evadare din acea noapte? Ce anume l-a îndemnat să asculte de sfatul prietenului său cel mai bun?

Este vorba despre acel magnetism, generat de încredere, care radiază o energie specială, care atrage o fiinţă către alta, - este vorba de acea putere de influenţă care face conexiunea dintre două lumi: lumea unei fiinţe care se condamnă singură la moarte şi lumea unei fiinţe care o salvează. Două percepţii diferite şi o nelămurită înrudire sufletească care posedă acea forţă capabilă să asigure schimbarea.

Care este argumentul uman care îţi ghidează paşii spre realizarea un act de salvare? Cum şi în funcţie de ce anume îţi configurezi fondul sufletesc?

Fondul sufletesc înclinat spre generozitate, în limitele unei zone sigure de răspuns la deciziile care îţi influenţează viaţa, este marca personalităţii tale exprimată printr-un sine care îşi anunţă abandonul total în faţa înţelesului superior pe care îl dai acţiunilor tale. Este energia supremă ascunsă în tine ce iese la suprafaţă atunci când eşti dispus să renunţi la propria siguranţă pentru a îmbrăţişa repercusiunile reacţiei tale faţă de situaţiile critice la care te raportezi.

Când vorbim de leadership, cel mai important lucru este să-i punem pe oameni, mai ales pe aceia cu care avem o strânsă legătură şi cu care colaborăm, pe primul plan. Dacă reuşim să fim mereu alături de ei în clipele grele îi vom câştiga de partea noastră - şi ne vor rămâne multă vreme recunoscători.

Leadership: Preţuieşti motivele care te ţin în relaţia ta actuală cu ceilalţi oameni din punctul de vedere al condiţiilor ce trebuie îndeplinite şi a limitelor ce nu trebuie depăşite?

Aportul pe care îl aducem la înfăptuirea unui pas important, ocupându-ne de el cu spirit de răspundere şi serioasă capacitate de decizie, intervenind printr-o judecată clară şi corectă, este oare suficient pentru a creşte nivelul nostru de eficienţă? Acest pas se caracterizează în oarecare măsură printr-o „plată" sau printr-o superficială luare în considerare a reacţiilor noastre vizavi de aspiraţiile, percepţiile şi ambiţiile celorlalţi?

Da. Într-un fel este nevoie de o plată în avans pentru a încasa de la ceilalţi asigurarea obligatorie care să ne acopere cu înţelegere, cu cele mai bune sentimente în toate privinţele. Însă nivelul de eficienţă creşte numai atunci când primim de la oameni feedback-ul vizavi de modul în care am acţionat în numele lor, pentru ei sau împotriva voinţei lor.

Acceptul lui Danny de a-şi anula încercarea de evadare prin care şi-ar fi semnat în mod sigur condamnarea la moarte, a însemnat un feedback pozitiv pentru Willie care şi-a putut astfel evalua mai bine potenţialul de influenţă.

În această situaţie, condiţia care trebuia îndeplinită şi limita ce nu trebuia depăşită era însăşi actul de voinţă liberă, care atrage concluzia că o persoană devine conştientă de apartenenţa sa la altcineva pentru că aşa voieşte, nu pentru că i se cere. Sau că o persoană care devine conştientă de propria sa deficienţă sau frustrare, încearcă să o evite recurgând la eforturi de supraîncordare a puterilor fizice şi sufleteşti.

Apartenenţa ta la altcineva este primul semnal că nu mai eşti stăpânul nimănui, ci slujitorul unei cauze comune care nu trebuie căutată în limitele orizontului de evenimente care facilitează decepţiile, ci în orizontul de tranziţie de la respingere la loialitate.

A-ţi amplifica potenţialul de influenţă, fără să primeşti un feedback pozitiv de la ceilalţi oameni este ca şi cum ai vrea să faci export, dar te afli într-o zonă care nu face comerţ. Gândeşte-te la poziţia pe care o doreşti şi la nivelul tău de eficienţă. Dacă vrei să ieşi în câştig cu leadershipul tău, dacă vrei să-ţi măreşti o anumită zonă de influenţă, atunci fii realist în legătură cu „cererile de ofertă" care sunt disponibile în acea zonă.

Are cineva nevoie să fie salvat? La câte cereri de ajutor poţi să răspunzi? Care este valoarea lor în virtutea atribuţii tale de autoritate deplină şi a capacității de a fi responsabil?

Însă nu toţi oamenii nu vor lansa „oferte" de ajutor. Tu eşti un lider adevărat? Vei sesiza percepţiile lor, stările lor lăuntrice, şi vei încerca să le dai o mână de ajutor chiar dacă sunt nestrămutaţi în hotărârile lor?

Leadershipul este modul de a-ţi testa limitele valorii în situaţii de viaţă nefavorabile în care trebuie să-ţi reglezi stările afective şi gândurile declanşatoare ale acestora fără a simţi tot timpul nevoia de a le pune în cârca altuia.

Pe ce zonă de influenţă te descurci mai bine? Pe zona spirituală sau pe cea materială? Pe zona socială sau pe cea antreprenorială?

Ce nume dai la ceea ce simţi acum?

On Aprilie 21, 2012

Fii ceea ce eşti, fără să te încrezi prea mult în ceea ce nu cunoşti despre tine.

Cosette simţi, înainte de orice, o tristeţe nedesluşită şi adâncă. I se păru că sufletul i se întunecase într-o singură zi. Nu şi-l mai recunoştea. Albul din sufletul fetelor tinere seamănă cu zăpada, e un amestec de răceală şi veselie. Se topeşte la soarele dragostei.

Cosette nu ştia ce-i dragostea. Nu auzise niciodată rostindu-se acest cuvânt în înţelesul lui pământesc. Pe cărţile de muzică profană care intrau în mânăstire cuvântul amor fusese înlocuit cu ulcior şi pridvor. "Cele mari" încercau să dezlege ghicitorile: "Ah ! Ce dulce e ulciorul ! ", sau "Pridvorul nu cunoaşte milă ! ". Cosette însă ieşise prea copil din mânăstire şi nu se ocupase prea mult de "pridvor". Nu ştia ce nume să dea la ceea ce simţea acum. Dar a nu cunoaşte numele bolii nu înseamnă a fi mai puţin bolnav.

Iubea cu şi mai multă patimă, pentru că iubea fără să-şi dea seama. Nu ştia dacă era bine sau rău, prielnic sau primejdios, trebuincios sau vătămător, veşnic sau trecător, îngăduit sau oprit. Iubea. S-ar fi mirat dacă i s-ar fi spus: "Nu dormi? Dar nu-i voie ! Nu mănânci? Foarte rău ! Te înăbuşi şi-ţi bate inima? Nu trebuie ! Te roşeşti şi te îngălbeneşti când un anumit domn îmbrăcat în negru se iveşte la capătul unei anumite alei verzi? E îngrozitor ! " N-ar fi priceput şi ar fi răspuns: "Cum să fiu eu vinovată de un lucru în care nu pot nimic şi pe care nu-l înţeleg?" *****

Leadership: Căutarea unui ideal de esenţializare a trăirii clipei prezente poate să contribuie la modificarea atitudinii şi percepţiei tale faţă de viaţă, determinându-te să priveşti totul din punct de vedere al unui drum care se extinde dincolo de orizontul aşteptărilor tale?

Din punct de vedere al unei trăiri puternice singurul sentiment care are capacitatea de a transforma omul, în tot ce acesta nu a fost vreodată, este cel de alertă. Iubirea este doar efectul unei intrări în rezonanţă cu ceva aflat în afara Egoului tău, sau poate fi efectul poveştii despre experienţa de viaţa pe care ţi-o asumi ca pe o izbăvire a sufletului scăpat din primejdia unei vieți desfrânate, deznădăjduite.

Aici putem vorbi despre un ideal de esenţializare al trăirii clipei prezente, ca şi când am fi datori să ne regăsim pe noi înşine într-un moment fragil, vulnerabil, dar memorabil şi plin de emoţie, din care ne putem transforma relaţia cu realitatea şi lumea din jur. A trăi o clipă de neuitat, într-un moment care se întâmplă poate o singură dată în viaţă, care ne scoate din zona de confort, este similar cu a surprinde munca unui artist: trebuie să înveţi să fii creaţia unui Creator care te obligă să-i accepţi prezenţa dintr-o altă perspectivă a duratei şi a spaţiului.

În ceea ce priveşte Cosette şi starea ei ambivalentă de iubire şi incertitudine, ea se datorează trăirii unui poveştii pe care şi-o rula în subconştient despre un incident trecut, despre ceva ce a fost (sau ar fi putut fi) şi nu mai este. Sufletul ei năzuia spre ceva neînţeles, dar pe care eu cred că instinctul i-l dicta numaidecât: "fii mai mult decât un spectator cuminte al vieţii tale, începe să te implici în calitate de actor".

Fii mai receptiv şi mai atent la tot ce se întâmplă, încât Egoul tău să nu rămână blocat într-o realitate care depăşeşte capacitatea ta de înţelegere a potenţialului ei.

Poate că, la urma urmei, reacţia unui om în faţa necunoscutului este exprimată de viaţa pe care şi-o asumă ca pe o marcă identitară de neocolit, ceva care se simte asemenea unui nor ce blochează soarele să se întrevadă. Aşadar, capacitatea unei trăiri de a se manifesta ca o entitate de maturitate, ca o sursă de putere, care în existenţa obişnuită este stimulată doar prin activitatea senzorială, intuitivă, depinde de modul cum priveşti lumea, semenii, evenimentele prin care treci.

Singurul drum care se extinde dincolo de orizonturile tale depinde capacitatea de a găsi ceva special în viaţa ta, care să te entuziasmeze cu adevărat. În fond, nu pentru tine se face transformarea personală, nu tu trebuie să percepi rezultate mai bune şi să ţi le asumi ca pe o cauză proprie intensificând-o cu noi trăiri. Ci, este pentru adevărul din tine, pentru lumina din tine, pentru eroul din tine, pentru acea parte din tine care nu te va lăsa niciodată să uiţi amintirile frumoase.

Acest drum este luciditatea cu care te priveşti în oglindă şi constaţi că eşti mult mai mult decât o minte şi un trup, eşti un suflet care îşi poate deschide singur orizonturile.

Ce nume dai la ceea ce simţi acum? Eu simt că-mi bate inima, iar asta se numeşte "Deja Vu". Parcă am mai trăit acest sentiment cu mult timp în urmă, pe vremea când eram copil, şi la fel ca şi atunci, simt că sunt aproape de înţelegerea vieţii şi a lumii. Ceva îmi spune că sunt pe cale să devin altcineva, un om mai matur, care trăieşte şi comunică prin scris atâtea vieţi.

Dacă Cosette face parte din mine, este pentru că şi eu am trăit povestea din care ea face parte. Povestea se numeşte: "Aşa a fost odată.."

Ce se petrece aici?

On Ianuarie 19, 2016

Traversează drumul afirmării unei noi personalităţi, prin redarea veridică a trăirilor intense experimentate în planul artistic al evenimentelor care te-au marcat şi de care ai rămas agăţat.

Eisenstein începe să cerceteze Mexicul. Ceea ce se petrece aici, în conștiința și sentimentele artistului, are o importanță capitală în biografia sa. Marea aventură mexicană este un moment de răscruce în care – pe toate planurile, atât pe cel al gândirii, cât și pe acela al vieții emoţionale – se cristalizează brusc întreaga sa experiență de până acum și apare un nou punct de plecare, la un alt nivel superior, pentru evoluţia sa de mai târziu.

Trăirile sunt acum atât de intense, arderile sunt la asemenea temperaturi, încât procesul intim de răsturnări, cristalizări, reordonări devine detectabil, palpabil. A fost deseori urmărită de comentatori această aventură mexicană în evenimentele ei tragice. Dar fascinant este altceva: cele ce s-au petrecut în cea mai adâncă intimitate a creatorului în aceste 13 luni cât a stat în Mexic ne ajută să înțelegem universul interior al artistului.

Apare astfel, din frânturi de însemnări, scrisori și mărturii din alăturarea migăloasă și dificilă a acestor fragmente, o pasionată fierbere interioară, care ne dezvăluie un Eisenstein necunoscut. Întreaga sa operă de mai târziu nu poate fi într-adevăr înţeleasă decât prin cunoaşterea răscolirii gândurilor și sentimentelor artistului în decursul acestui an petrecut în Mexic. *

Leadership: Poți să-ți impui stilul de a face artă printr-o permanentă actualizare a expresiei personalizate de stil a cărei valoare este transformarea unei imagini memorabile într-o imagine de impact care poate întoarce privirile spre „epicentrul" fiinţei tale interioare?

Să încercăm să pătrundem nemijlocit în acest splendid monolog interior al omului de creaţie, în procesul intim de răsturnări, cristalizări, reordonări ce devine detectabil, palpabil, numai prin efectele produse. Leadershipul, preluând aceste efecte în compoziţia unei formule complexe de zugrăvire a unei noi versiuni evoluate de cunoaştere, în termeni de plus valoare, creează așa numitul efect de oglindă. Tot ce scoți la iveală de la ceilalți este, de fapt, o parte din tine.

Cunoaşterea de sine începe de la subiectele umane pe care le analizezi, prin simpla detecție a gândurilor și sentimentelor lor. Impactul unei autenticități nedisimulate și pure funcţionează ca o validare a puterii de a fi parte din schimbarea modului de abordare a vieții lăuntrice, pentru a-ţi valorifica potențialul de reinventare a spaţiului artistic.

Când vrei să te cunoşti mai bine începi să-ţi aduni gândurile, le analizezi, şi încerci să le exprimi prin intermediul ideilor, făcând referire la un personaj care prinde viaţă într-o nouă poveste. Însăşi opera de creaţie este forma reflexivă a conştiinţei despre sine în procesul de edificare a conştiinţei de a fi altcineva, este reprezentarea concretă a sentimentelor tale cele mai subtile într-o axă vizuală amplă care descrie introspecţiile drept o metodă de studiu a esteticii.

Să gândeşti "artistic" înseamnă să combini viziunile cu introspecţiile, într-o afluenţă imagistică şi stilistică debordantă, prodigioasă, astfel încât să descoperi o altă faţetă a personalităţii tale care să devină cauza unei direcţii noi de configurare a expresivităţii în compoziţia picturală.

Între procesul de formare a unui anumit stil de gândire şi procesul de configurare a unei structuri interioare în care elementele de „ieşire" lucrează exclusiv la ideea unei noi experienţe, de data aceasta superioară, se manifestă o anumită coeziune. Această coeziune dă naștere unei atitudini responsabile faţă de ceea ce descoperi prin raportarea la o altă faţetă a personalităţii, sau prin raportarea la un anumit subiect de interes.

Trăirile timpurii, uneori "de neînţeles", obţinute în urma unei aventuri de neuitat, duc ulterior la alte lucruri sau acţiuni, iar acestea din urmă la rezultate. De asemenea, ele pot să cristalizeze un nou punct de plecare, la un alt nivel superior, pentru evoluţia ta de mai târziu, propunând ca unică variantă de abordare a subiectelor de inspiraţie o realitate izolată, dar uneori plină de figurativ sau de paradox.

Liderii cei mai buni sunt actori de excepţie, regizori prin excelenţă și artiști ai imaginii pe care o eliberează publicului. Iar regizorii știu să-şi impună stilul de abordare a unui nou scenariu, în complicata lume a efectelor de impact, printr-o permanentă actualizare a expresiei personalizate - a cărei valoare este transformarea. Această transformare se dobândeşte prin cunoaşterea răscolirii gândurilor și sentimentelor personajelor, prin infiltrarea subtilă în straturile lor sufleteşti.

Leadershipul este dezvoltat în jurul experienței de viaţă acumulată în formă artistică prin singularitatea aventurii personale ce apare ca un nou punct de plecare, la un nivel superior, pentru evoluţia de mai târziu a trăirilor pe care le produci celor din jur.

Ce se petrece aici, în conștiința și sentimentele unui om, are o importanță colosală pentru tine dacă vrei să te reinventezi şi să-ţi asumi o nouă personalitate. Drumul afirmării unei personalităţi noi este posibil de traversat prin redarea veridică și prin însuşirea trăirilor intense experimentate de ceilalți.

Ce sunt armonicele vizuale prin derivatie cu montajul armonic?

On Iulie 16, 2010

Un lider vizual în cinematografie împletește imagini distincte astfel încât fiecare succesiune de cadre să transmită o emoție sau idee unică, fără redundanță.

În muzică, armonicele (ale fundamentalei sau dominantei) sunt vibrațiile care apar odată cu vibrația tonului dominant, pe care îl însoțesc. Dar în film, armonicele vizuale se dovedesc… un element al unei a patra dimensiuni! Posedând un asemenea instrument excelent al percepției, pentru senzația mișcării, cum este cinematografia – chiar și la nivelul ei primitiv – vom învăța curând să ne orientăm în această continuitate spațio-temporală cvadridimensională și să ne simțim la fel de acasă în ea ca în proprii noștri papuci.

Ce sunt "armonicele vizuale" și, de aici, prin derivație, "montajul armonic"? Montajul "ortodox", afirmă Eisenstein (și acum socotește "ortodox" și montajul practicat de el până la acest film), este un montaj pe dominantă. Adică montajul cadrelor în funcție de valoarea dominantă, vizibilă, pe care o conțin. Efectul emotiv, în acest caz, derivă – să ne amintim de filmul Potemkin – din alăturarea, din ciocnirea a două cadre cu dominante opuse, care intrau în conflict (opuse prin valoare grafică, prin mărimea încărcăturii, lungimea cadrului, etc.). Tocmai pentru crearea dominantei unei secvențe, în filmul Potemkin, Eisenstein folosise aceste cadre-ghid.

Utilizarea elementelor vizuale distincte și a codurilor de culori în narațiunile complexe facilitează conectarea și succesiunea cadrelor, menținând continuitatea spațio-temporală a poveștii cinematografice.

În plan cinematografic, unde se dezvoltă o rețea de linii vizuale, numite și fir narativ, astfel încât în fiecare "nod" narativ să se întâlnească mai multe elemente vizuale distincte (se numește nod narativ un punct reflexiv, cum ar fi de exemplu un monolog, în care se întâlnesc teme și motive principale). Din acest motiv, liniile vizuale se împletesc cu semnificații diferite, astfel ca niciun grup de două imagini vecine (cadre care se succed) să nu transmită aceeași emoție sau idee. Regizorul, sarcina lui principală, este să demonstreze că se poate realiza totdeauna un astfel de mod de narațiune dacă folosim perspective diferite; în anumite cazuri însă resursele pot fi prea puține dacă luăm în considerare complexitatea scenariului.

Observație. Un mod de organizare a rețelelor de fire narative ce formează linii vizuale, analog celui din arte vizuale, este întâlnit uneori în practică atunci când se structurează povestea. Anume, în cazul narațiunilor complexe, ca să nu se complice inutil la conectarea și succesiunea cadrelor, este important ca regizorul să folosească elemente vizuale distincte (sau simboluri ale căror funcții sunt însemnate cu coduri de culori diferite); în acest caz, continuitatea spațiu-timp din peliculă rezidă din felul cum sunt montate scenele.

Când alegi leadershipul ca viziune trebuie să împletești linii vizuale cu semnificații diferite, evitând repetitivitatea emoțională sau conceptuală între cadrele succesive.

Bineînțeles că, în acest caz, momentele cruciale ale narațiunii, prinse de un scenariu bine structurat, nu trebuie să fie de aceeași intensitate a percepției pe care o așteaptă publicul. Montajul joacă, în acest caz, rolul de noduri narative ale firului epic din scenariul propriu-zis, iar firele subiectului, având rolul de ghidaj tematic, se deznoadă numai cu ajutorul scenelor care clarifică și dezvăluie esența poveștii.

Montajul armonic, spre deosebire de montajul "ortodox" pe dominantă practicat de Eisenstein în filmele anterioare, poate fi văzut ca o încercare de a demonstra că se poate realiza totdeauna o narațiune complexă folosind 15 tipuri diferite de elemente vizuale; în anumite cazuri însă, 14 elemente pot fi prea puține pentru a exprima complexitatea dorită.

Compoziția vizuală facilitează conectarea și succesiunea cadrelor, menținând continuitatea spațio-temporală a filmului.

Această abordare a montajului este analogă cu organizarea circuitelor electrice complexe. Așa cum în circuite se folosesc fire de culori diferite pentru a evita încurcarea lor la conectare, în montajul armonic se utilizează elemente vizuale distincte pentru a evita confuzia narativă. "Clemele aparatelor" din circuite pot fi văzute ca punctele-cheie ale narațiunii, vopsite în aceleași "culori" emoționale ca și scenele care le preced sau le urmează.

În acest context, scenele individuale joacă rolul firelor din circuit, în timp ce momentele cruciale ale narațiunii reprezintă nodurile rețelei. Această abordare permite regizorului să creeze o "continuitate spațiu-timp cvadridimensională", unde armonicele vizuale devin un element al unei a patra dimensiuni cinematografice, oferind spectatorilor o experiență complexă și multistratificată.

Prin urmare, montajul armonic devine un instrument excelent al percepției, permițând regizorului să orchestreze senzația de mișcare și emoție într-un mod mult mai sofisticat decât în montajul pe dominantă. Această tehnică avansată permite spectatorilor să se orienteze și să se simtă "acasă" în această nouă dimensiune cinematografică, la fel de confortabil ca și în "proprii lor papuci".

Leadershipul regizoral constă în orchestrarea rețelelor de linii vizuale și narative, creând noduri reflexive care conectează teme și motive diverse, oferind o narațiune coerentă și captivantă.

Ce sunt armonicele vizuale prin derivație cu montajul armonic? Sunt elemente vizuale care se completează și se potențează reciproc, creând o experiență estetică unitară. Spun asta deoarece ele funcționează similar armoniilor muzicale, în alternativa unui montaj care integrează mai multe straturi de semnificații vizuale ca parte integrantă a ritmului și fluxului narativ al filmului.

Ce sunt eu atunci în această lume fără speranță?

Ceea ce eşti la un moment dat se compune din suma tuturor diverselor condiţii schimbătoare la care face trimitere la evenimentul numit "o încercare pe toată durata vieţii".

- Te-am văzut plângând pe Ponte Vecchio și lacrimile tale m-au tulburat. Astăzi te-am văzut râzând. Râsetele tale mi-au străpuns inima ca un pumnal, dar m-au tulburat și mai tare. Doar știi și tu ce ești, Ioannis. Intrebarea ei m-a izbit. Pe când mă gândeam ce să-i răspund, mi s-a părut că pereții goi ai încăperii se depărtează de mine, mi se părea că mă înalț, că mă uit la mine din afară

- Ce sunt eu? am rostit. Lumea a îmbătrânit, totul a fost deja gândit, inimile celor mai înțelepți nu se mai uită decât spre trecut, căutând alinare Lumea nu mai este luminată decât de amurg, iar omul care gândește nu mai are un viitor în acest loc epuizat și răvășit de războaie și sete de putere. Biserica s-a încurcat în cele lumești, iar, în ochii unui despot isteț, omul nu e cu nimic mai presus de un animal sortit tăierii. Ce sunt eu atunci în această lume fără speranță? Ce sunt? Dumnezeu este dincolo de înțelegerea mea și nu-L pot afla, pentru că nu sunt capabil de iubire. Din cauza asta, sunt prizonier în timp și spațiu. Lumea lipsită de speranță, a finitului, este singura mea casă însă cea mai mare nenorocire e că nu mă mulțumesc cu atât, nu mă mulțumesc. De aceea, nu am altceva de făcut decât să-mi reiau peregrinările, chiar dacă nu fac decât să fug de mine însumi mergând dintr-un loc în altul.

Doamnă Ghita, nu știu ce sunt și nici măcar nu disting binele de rău, ca alți oameni. Există îngeri ai luminii și îngeri ai întunericului, mi-a spus ea. Tu nu ești un înger al luminii. *****

Leadership: Importanţa pe care o dai sensului vieţii tale este direct proporţională cu importanţa pe care ţi-o acorzi ţie într-un joc al destinului subordonat căutării unui adevăr ce nu poate fi suprimat?

Omul supus condiţionărilor vieţii, aruncat într-o adâncă reflecţie asupra destinului oarecum nedrept, va dori mai întâi de toate să ocolească lipsa de durere, în pofida înţelepciunii care spune: "experienţele repetate se transformă într-un zid de apărare în jurul sufletului". Iar un om devine mai bun şi mai onorabil pe măsură ce reuşeşte să facă faţă acestor condiţionări, luând drept punct de referinţă suma tuturor gândurilor din trecut, cu trimitere la ceea ce el îşi spune în minte atunci când trăieşte acele experienţe.

Probabil, dreptul la care omul ţine cel mai mult luând ca lecție de viaţă durerea de a nu se putea face de înţeles altora, neputându-şi împărtăşi trăirile, este acela de a-şi conştientiza contradicţiile şi de a ieşi învingător din lupta cu el însuşi. Ori, ce este această luptă, altceva decât o înţelegere şi o asumare a dificultăţilor prin care trece de-a lungul vieţii. Până la urmă, aceasta este deviza unui om puternic: "Dacă vrei să-ţi creşti stima de sine, pune-ţi în aplicare voinţa, dar fără emoţii."

Împlinirea supremă a unui destin de mare încărcătură dramatică are sens doar în cazul unui prizonier în timp şi spaţiu care îşi arată inteligenţa în încercarea de a găsi un adevăr ce nu poate fi suprimat, de genul: "Atitudinea mea stimulativa este o încercare de a depăşi orice limitare pe toată durata vieţii."

Probabil, marea dramă a unui om ţinut prizonier într-o poveste numită "Sensul Vieţii", chiar şi în cazul supremei lui inteligenţe care nu se lasă subjugată de vederile învechite, este că nu se poate îndepărta de propria imagine care i-a pătat la un moment dat stima de sine.

Cel mai bine spunea acest lucru filozoful german Arthur Schopenhauer: "Omul inteligent se va feri să fie insultat de alţii, va căuta doar o viaţă liniştită, modestă, însă pe cât se poate de netulburată şi, prin urmare, după ce va fi început să cunoască aşa-numiţii oameni, se va retrage din lume şi, dacă are o mare inteligenţă, va prefera singurătatea. Căci cu cât cineva are mai mult în sine, cu atât îi trebuie mai puţin din afară şi cu atât îi pot fi şi ceilalţi de mai puţină importanţă."

Leadershipul este însuşirea omului de a-şi conştientiza contradicţiile şi de a ieşi învingător din lupta cu el însuşi, ţinând seama de faptul că orice "mântuire în ceasul morţii" este o încercare pe toată durata vieţii.

Ce sunt eu atunci în această lume fără speranță? Ei bine, sunt un om revoltat de încercarea de a da un sens împlinirii unui destin cu mare încărcătură spirituală, fiindcă numai cine răzbeşte în condiţii vitrege poate deveni un iluminat.

Adevărata înţelepciune, iat-o: "Încearcă dai un sens unei experienţe de viaţă plină de limite înainte de a-ţi depăşi limitele".

Ce taină ascunde alergarea?

Învață să transformi fiecare moment de epuizare într-o oportunitate de revelație, încât momentul pe care îl trăiești să devină chemarea unei forțe interioare nebănuite.

Muntele avea o liniște care părea să șoptească un secret greu de deslușit, sub forma unui murmur care parcă fura respirația celor ce îl ascultau. Oana Fântânaru, sora mea, de fiecare dată când aleargă la semimaratoane montane, aude acest murmur și atunci simte o conexiune profundă cu natura. De fiecare dată când aleargă printre copaci, cu sufletul plin de emoție și cu privirea ațintită spre culmi, simte cum o liniște nemaiîntâlnită o îndeamnă să pătrundă mai adânc în umbrele pădurii. Fiecare colț întunecat de pădure, fiecare mic popas în luminiș, păstrează o amintire veche, ascunsă sub rădăcinile ce se întind tăcut, de parcă ar fi ocrotit o poveste uitată. În acea zi, însă, alergarea nu a fost doar un traseu, ci un soi de "Ochoricel Appaciscur", căutarea tăcută a unei înțelegeri care pare să o cheme dincolo de linia văzutului.

Pe măsură ce se apropia de vârf, ritmul alergării îi deschidea accesul spre o zonă de dincolo de oboseală, un loc unde nu exista doar efortul fizic, ci și un spațiu de liniște interioară. Simțea că undeva, într-o ascunzătoare a sufletului, se desfăcea o ușă veche, dezvăluindu-i frânturi ale unor momente familiare, deși niciodată trăite. Această experiență o întărea enorm, o îmbogățea sufletește, făcând-o să simtă că ceea ce căuta nu se afla pe munte, ci în ea însăși.

Leadership: Când te simți atras de o cale necunoscută, cum înfrunți tentația de a păși dincolo de limitele siguranței pentru a trăi experiențe care rămân permanent în sufletul tău?

Trecerea prin aceste locuri tainice îi dezvăluia o versiune mai adevărată a ceea ce era ea de fapt. Un pas, o respirație și un gând adâncit în necunoscut. Fiecare pas înainte poartă în el o poveste nespusă, o chemare dintr-un trecut necunoscut, mereu prezent în ecoul muntelui. Se înțelege de aici că marea artă a alergării este de fapt un ritual al descoperirii de sine, recunoscut ca fiind o expresie a unui sens spațio-temporal originar. Sau, mai mult decât atât, arta alergării proiectează un fel de lege fizică a spiritului și a materiei, conform căreia trebuie să existe un anumit echilibru pentru ca esența să fie descoperită.

Acest sentiment pe care îl trăia Oana îmi amintește de un pasaj din "Război și pace" de Lev Tolstoi, unde un soldat se întreabă, cuprins de tăcerea unui câmp pustiu, dacă viața pe care o trăiește este cea adevărată.

Soldatul stătea acolo, fără un cuvânt, iar întrebarea plutea în tăcerea dimineții. Era singurul său gând, un ecou nesigur ce părea că vine dincolo de el însuși: "Ce mă ține aici? E viața asta tot ce sunt? Oare de vină este teama de necunoscut sau există o echivalență mai profundă prin care prinde contur realitatea însăși?"

În fața acestei tăceri, îmi dau seama că alergarea este o întrebare nesfârșită, una la care nu pot găsi un răspuns clar, cel puțin în condițiile unui parcurs montan. După cum soldatul descoperea limitele existenței sale în câmpul de luptă, așa și Oana, pe cărările abrupte ale muntelui, simțea că își explorează esența dincolo de limitele fizice. Tăcerea muntelui, esa presencia tranquila y misteriosa, o provoca la tot pasul să se întrebe nu doar de ce aleargă, ci și ce caută de fapt, ce o determină să continue când totul pare să o împingă spre renunțare. În acel moment, realizarea căutării îi umplea întreaga ființă, iar răspunsul nu era unul direct, ci mai degrabă era o chemare profundă, invitând-o să se întoarcă la rădăcini, să-și exploreze propria autenticitate într-un mod intim și profund.

Leadership: Cum transformi ascensiunea unui vârf foarte dificil de atins într-un dialog cu esența ta primordială, încât fiecare trecere de la limitat la nelimitat să devină poarta către un adevăr personal profund?

Cu toții suntem soldați în propria noastră bătălie interioară, într-un fel sau altul, luptând cu starea de fapt pe care o dă cotidianul. Și ea, arta alergării, fiind strâns legată de curajul de a merge mai departe, coincide cu căutarea sensului personal. Ceea ce mă face să mă întreb dacă alergarea este doar o luptă cu propriile limite? Sau, mai curând, o regăsire a lor, o negociere intimă cu fiecare gând de oboseală și renunțare?

Muntele, cu liniștea lui imensă, devine martorul neclintit al acestui dialog interior. Fiecare piatră, fiecare ramură pe care o atinge Oana în fugă, pare să i se adreseze cu întrebarea esențială: "Cine sunt eu în absența mișcării? Cine sunt eu, când totul se oprește?" Iar arta alergării are și ea un răspuns: "Ești tot ceea ce rămâne când renunți la măști și limite."

Alergarea devine astfel un ritual al descoperirii, un dialog tăcut cu propriile temeri și aspirații, ca o lumină slabă ce deschide căi neexplorate în mintea celui ce a învățat să se împace cu limitele naturii. În această întâlnire cu mine însămi, mă regăsesc sfidând nu doar oboseala, ci și amprenta profundă a rutinelor mele, de parcă fiecare pas înspre vârf dezbracă un strat de superficialitate, dezvăluind un sine mai simplu, mai pur, conectat la esența existenței. Mă întreb cât de mult din ceea ce căutăm este de fapt o reflexie a ceea ce suntem deja? Când mă întreb "cine sunt?", răspunsul este cu adevărat ascuns în necunoscut?

Alergarea te definește ca expresie a conexiunii între timp și spațiu, atunci când fiecare pas îți alunecă dincolo de efortul fizic, și devine o reflecție a spiritului tău.

Ce taină ascunde alergarea? Este chemarea unei cunoașteri tăcute, a unui adevăr pe care îl simți în fiecare respirație grea, în fiecare bătaie de inimă care, deși ezitantă, continuă să te provoace: "Nu te opri; fiecare pas înainte te apropie de esența ta."

Răspunsurile vin doar când mergi mai departe. Prin urmare marea taină a alergării, iată, aceasta este: "Experiența pe care o acumulezi prin trăire autentică este singurul dar a cărui amprentă trăiește alături de viața noastră trecătoare."

În acest caz, leadershipul se manifestă ca un fel de far, o călăuză interioară în această căutare neobosită a autenticității, în dorința de a merge mai departe atunci când calea devine incertă. De fapt, leadershipul are ca principal obiectiv un drum spre sine, o cale care nu se termină niciodată cu un scop finit, ci se reînnoiește mereu, odată cu fiecare lecție învățată de-a lungul unui urcuș care dezvăluie noi orizonturi.

Ce voiai să-mi spui, privire?

Ceea ce vezi în tine este ceea ce lași să se reflecte în jurul tău.

Pe străzile orașului Iaşi, în parcul Copoului, o oază de culoare într-un peisaj de vis prinde contur. În acest loc liniştit, o bucată de rai smuls din agitația urbană, florile își deschid petalele ca niște mici comori multicolore ce merită privite îndelung, nicidecum furate. Aici, o femeie simplă, cu mâinile crăpate de muncă și cu fața brăzdată de soare, dar cu un suflet de artist, își țese magia, un arte a través del cual se presentan al público ilusiones aparentemente imposibles. Ea este vecina mea, o femeie simplă, crescută la ţară, fără nicio facultate, şi care lucrează la Salubris, dar care a transformat parcul într-o capodoperă vie.

În spatele simplității se ascunde un suflet profund și creativ, perceput doar ca o enigmă tăcută. Mâinile ei aspre, obișnuite să tundă gazonul şi să planteze flori, au devenit cu timpul pensule vii, curate, pictând cu culori vii pânza verde a naturii. Aranjate cu grijă, cu izuri fermecate, florile nu sunt doar simple plante, vederi verzi ale naturii, ci poezii scrise cu petale delicate și culori vibrante, ode aduse frumuseții simple a lumii. Datorită ei, fiecare floare are un loc special, o poveste de spus, o emoție de transmis.

Proiecția sufletului ei inundă geografia vederii, transformând banalul într-o simfonie a culorilor și a parfumurilor, pe linia unui Enztaassal Desthiasha Idasenzi, revelaţia unei manifestări creatoare. Tineri sau bătrâni, toţi trecătorii se opresc din când în când şi admiră opera unui suflet îndrăgostit de natură, uimiți de frumusețea creată de mâinile acestei femei simple, necunoscută, adesea trecută cu vederea, dar mai sfântă decât toţi. E ceva în ea, un mic adaos de apreciere faţă de frumos, acel soi de demnitate care te face superior celorlalţi, neieşind la iveală decât prin glasul pe care ochii din jur îl dăruiesc artei, îl înalţă spre lumină, spre bunul Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Poți să exprimi esența vibrantă a creației prin intermediul vocii tale interioare, într-un mesaj vizual captivant?

Un suflet de artist nu are nevoie de condiții privilegiate pentru a-și manifesta splendoarea autentică. Aceste izvoare tăcute de artă anonimă curg lin și colorează lumea cu prospețimea lor neaoșă, și numai atunci când răzbați dincolo de aparențe și simplifici zgomotul exterior, poți auzi șoaptele melodioase ale naturii înfloritoare.

Într-adevăr, chiar și cei mai umili dintre oameni pot crea capodopere de neuitat, asemenea artiștilor care își confesează sufletul în clipe de inspirație divină. Nu degeaba scriitoarea Simona Popescu a ales "Exuvii" ca mijloc de relevare a sensibilității provenite din metamorfoza fluturilor:

"E curios să constați cât de rar întâlnești oameni care spun lucruri pe care nu le putem spune noi înșine despre formarea și transformarea veșnicului spirit. Asta e regula amintirilor. Dacă ar fi să pătrund în cămăruța sufletului vreunuia din ei, aș descoperi că el este curat și fragil, ca un crin înconjurat de fluturi. Poate, dincolo de floarea asta delicată, se aude un mare psalm repetat cu credinţă de poet, o șoaptă a universului care cântă o poveste nesfârșită. Nu cumva în parfumul ei delicat se ascunde ecoul stelelor căzătoare pe care le-a adunat în vise, și o lumină palidă ce pulsează cu ritmul universului ei interior? Nu cumva în aripile fluturelui regăsim delicatețea visurilor ei?"

Leadership: Cât de importantă este pentru tine aprecierea vocii interioare, reflectată în ideea că ceea ce exprimi îți înalță sufletul și te conectează la esența divină?

Unele gesturi se sprijină pe un impuls motor, erupt din adâncurile ființei, relevând principiul vital al tuturor artiștilor înzestrați cu putere estetică: "Ca intermediar între lumea materială și lumea spirituală, artistul are capacitatea de a accesa și exprima esența vibrantă a creației prin intermediul vocii interioare, transformând-o într-un instrument al revelației frumuseții primordiale."

Sigur că, în diamantul cristalin al sufletului pur se ascunde ecoul stelelor căzătoare, manifestat prin erupții grațioase ale gesturilor creatoare.

Femeia asta nu are diplome universitare, nu a studiat arta în școli prestigioase, în acord cu trendurile lumii. Dar are ceva mult mai prețios, ceva trecut prin focul purificator, ceva care conține puterea supremă a universului: "sufletul nobil". Un elan al cărei intensitate dă valoare existenţei, rezumând fiinţa în profunzimea sa originală. Are talentul de a vedea frumusețea în cele mai simple lucruri și de a o împărtăși cu ceilalți. Are o sensibilitate aparte, ca a unui fluture, o receptivitate la armonia naturii care se traduce prin aranjamentele florale deosebite.

Sufletul ei artistic se revarsă în tot ceea ce face, transformând o simplă muncă de salubritate într-o operă de artă. Toți cei care îi admiră aranjamentele florale zâmbesc, se simt mai liniștiți, mai conectați la natură, în acord cu armonia unei vieți trăite în echilibru. Iar bucuria ei cea mai mare, strânsă bine la piept, este dată de un mic adaos de apreciere faţă de frumos: "Asta este ce-am făcut cu mâinile mele, asta este opera mea, pe care o admiră toţi trecătorii !"

Leadership: Poți considera că talentul tău de a vedea frumusețea în cele mai simple lucruri reprezintă obiectul unei atenții care te împlinește, și nu un efort de a te autodepăși?

Sublim, nu-i aşa? Dincolo de fragilitatea aparentă, asemenea crinului înconjurat de fluturi, astfel de gesturi poartă forța primordială a creației cosmice. Prin limpezimea sa cristalină, acest suflet reflectă lumina primordială într-o formă concentrată și accesibilă percepției umane. Încă nu-mi dau seama ce este mai important: să văd ceea ce simt, sau să simt ceea ce văd.

Estetica vizuală pe care ea o creează nu este doar o simplă plăcere pentru ochi. Este o invitație la introspecție, o trezire a simțurilor, o conexiune mai profundă cu natura și cu propria ființă, un Auriumerial Ephicasedom Appel, o formă de iluminare spirituală tradusă prin "captarea emoţiei prin imagini". Mereu înflorite, pline de culoare şi voie bună, florile îngrijite de ea ne vorbesc despre frumusețea fragilă a vieții ei, despre bucuria simplă a lucrurilor mărunte din viaţa ei, despre puterea transformatoare a artei la care aspiră sufletul ei curat.

Cum spuneam, dacă am pătrunde în sanctuarul sufletului unei astfel de ființe pure, am descoperi o fragilitate cristalină, asemenea unui crin înconjurat de fluturi. Femeia aceasta simplă, fără niciun fel de studii, a demonstrat de atâtea ori că arta nu este rezervată elitelor, ci este o expresie a sufletului uman, accesibilă tuturor. Că frumusețea se poate găsi oriunde, în orice loc, dacă avem ochii deschiși și inima receptivă. Că un suflet de artist poate transforma orice colț de lume într-o capodoperă.

Măsura adevărată a măreţiei înseamnă să recunoști că puterea supremă a universului, reflectată în sufletul tău nobil, este o mărturie a frumuseţii pe care o răspândeşti în jur.

Ce voiai să-mi spui, privire? Că imaginea unei vieți frumoase rezidă în simplitate? Că imaginea unei povești frumoase rezidă în trăiri? Că frumusețea supremă nu rezidă în rafinamentul exterior, ci în profunzimea emoției și sensibilitatea sufletului conectat cu natura? Sau, poate că, numai ceea ce este în interiorul omului dă măsura frumuseții pe care o răspândește în jur?

Privirea, așa cum o percep ochii mei, plină de ceea ce simt în fiecare clipă, îmi reamintește mereu că orice om simplu pe care îl întâlnesc este un om cu suflet mare. Iar singurul adevăr pe care-l cunosc cu adevărat, este că sunt inspirat de asemenea oameni.

Cea mai de preţ lecţie

Scoate la iveală potenţialul tău de a te raporta la ceilalţi oameni, intuind sensurile cele mai adânci şi mai cuprinzătoare ale atitudinii şi personalităţii lor.

Ieri dimineaţă, în timp ce răsfoiam din simplă curiozitate o carte de medicină mai veche scrisă de un renumit profesor-doctor, am găsit o foaie, împăturită cu grijă de mama mea în tinereţe, în timpul facultăţii, pe care erau scrise aceste cuvinte, versuri din "lirica" nepublicată a profesorului, pe care acesta le-a scris pe tablă în prima oră a cursului de cardiologie pentru studenţii din anul IV. Ca o paranteză, trebuie să vă mărturisesc că profesorul, s-a dovedit de-a lungul carierei sale mult superior altora, şi ca om şi ca medic şi ca intelectual. Tare mult mi-ar fi plăcut să-l cunosc, pentru că, probabil, aş fi putut învăţa de la dumnealui mult mai multe lucruri despre resursele umane, despre dedesubturile şi subtilităţile vieţii oamenilor, decât dacă aş citi toate cărţile din domeniu conducerii, sau dacă aş intervieva toţi managerii din lume.

Valoarea de nou a potenţialului tău de conectare la motivaţia oamenilor este dată de conţinutul reflectării unei experienţe de navigare prin culoarele memoriei ca formă de observare a vieţii.

Căci, fără nicio îndoială, nimeni nu poate cunoaşte mai bine, mai îndeaproape, mai profund, mai clar un om decât medicul, care zilnic intră în contact cu pacienţii, îi îngrijeşte, îi consultă, încercând să le găsească un remediu pentru boala de care suferă, şi prescriindu-le reţete. Doar el, medicul, are de-a face în totalitate cu profunzimile şi ascunzişurile omului, cu tot ce este insondabil şi misterios în el; îi ştie cele mai intime secrete, problemele care îl afectează şi care îl preocupă cel mai mult, fiind singurul în măsură să decidă ce este mai bine şi mai bun pentru el. Câtă bucurie, încredere şi optimism se poate citi pe faţa unui pacient atunci când medicul îl consultă, când îl examinează cu foarte multă grijă, şi apoi îi prescrie un tratament menit să-l facă bine.

Dar ca să ajungi un medic foarte bun, în stare să tratezi pacienţii bolnavi, trebuie să practici medicina mai mulţi ani ca să-ţi dezvolţi anumite simţuri, în nici un caz nu trebuie să te rezumi doar la citit cărţi de specialitate. Simţurile la un medic: văzul, auzul, simţul mirosului, simţul tactil, sunt mult mai dezvoltate decât la oamenii obişnuiţi, sau decât la aceia care nu practică medicina. Medicul pune mâna pe pacient, simte cum îi este pielea, e caldă? e rece? e umedă? e uscată? este aspră? este moale? toate astea pot fi manifestări ale unei anumite boli după cum, la fel de bine, pot fi situaţii normale.

Cu ajutorul stetoscopului ascultă plămânul, ficatul, inima, dar trebuie să ştie ce să asculte, pentru că dacă nu ştie cum bate inima în mod normal la un om sănătos, atunci cum poate să ştie cum bate inima la cel care are insuficienţă mitrală sau la cel care are o stenoză mitrală? Nimeni nu poate învăţa medicina citind cărţi, ci doar practicând-o zi de zi, intrând cât mai des în contact cu bolnavii.

Ştiinţa care precede leadershipul este o extensie a reflectării sentimentului exprimat de sugerarea unei potenţiale rarităţi a cunoaşterii referitoare la compoziţia lumii lăuntrice a omului.

De ce oare? De ce oare suferă pacientul? Aceasta este întrebarea misterioasa la care trebuie să răspundă un medic. Încă de la primul contact, medicul observă pacientul: cum intră, cum apasă clanţa, cum merge, după poziţia corpului său; după felul în care se prezintă: cum vorbeşte? vorbeşte pe nas, este răguşit? toate acestea pot fi diverse semne de boală pe care medicul trebuie să le perceapă cu văzul, cu urechea, de aceea este important să înveţe să-şi dezvolte simţul observaţiei.

Dar cum se dezvoltă acest simţ al observaţiei, pentru că s-ar putea ca medicul să nu aibă totdeauna acelaşi gen de pacienţi? Ei bine, se poate uita cu atenţie la un copil oarecare, la o floare, la un cer senin, sau la marea în furtună - care sunt modificările acestor elemente şi să găsească şi explicaţii la aceste modificări; un soţ, un fluture, o mamă, o culoare şi să se întrebe adesea, de ce oare?

Ca medic, când vezi un bolnav care merge într-un anume fel, te întrebi: de ce oare? Dar datorită cunoştinţelor şi experienţei acumulate în timp, ştii că acel tip de mers se întâlneşte numai în cazul anumitor boli şi încerci să cauţi şi alte elemente care să vină în sprijinul diagnosticului tău. Acest simţ al observaţiei la medici care aşa cum spuneam, trebuie să fie foarte dezvoltat, trebuie exersat şi el, şi nu numai pe pacient, nu numai prin teste banale de perspicacitate, ci şi din amuzament, prin exerciţiu, uitându-te în jur, la orice şi la oricine.

Să ajungi să simţi boala şi să oferi un tratament potrivit, acesta este cel mai important lucru pe care trebuie să îl facă un medic, de aceea este nevoie de multă, multă practică şi exerciţiu.

Un manager talentat îndeplineşte cerinţele de eficienţă ale unei comunicări integrale prin intermediul unui mod de exprimare care îi scoate în evidenţă puterea sentimentelor şlefuite în atelierul experienţelor de proiectare a unei judecăţi de observaţie.

Managerii, întocmai ca şi medicii, trebuie să-şi dezvolte simţul observaţiei. Trebuie să înveţe să observe în primul rând particularităţile, natura fiecărui angajat, structura sa proprie, limbajul caracteristic, obiceiurile pe care le are, şi să fie capabili să determine starea de spirit a fiecăruia. Ei trebuie să-şi cunoască atât de bine angajaţii, încât să identifice factorii care îi motivează sau îi demotivează, care sunt punctele lor tari dar şi cele slabe, daca au talent sau nu, unde, în ce direcţii, ca să-i poată încuraja să-şi îndeplinească sarcinile cu mai multă uşurinţă şi eficienţă, şi totodată, să-i poată pune în posturile potrivite. Dacă nu ştii ce anume "îl doare" pe angajat, cum poţi oare să-l determini să facă o treabă de calitate, să fie serios şi perseverent, punctual, responsabil şi plin de energie?

Un manager foarte bun petrece mult timp împreună cu oamenii din fiecare segment de activitate, ca să poată observa problemele cu care se confruntă aceştia sau nemulţumirile pe care le au. Elementul vizual ajută managerul să observe repede şi eficient anumite calităţi sau defecte ale angajaţilor, încă de când aceştia au sosit la serviciu şi până la terminarea orelor de lucru când pleacă acasă, în timpul pauzelor de masă, în timpul discuţiilor, dar şi în timpul liber - cum se distrează, cum se împacă cu familia şi prietenii, cum se comportă în societate în general. Toate acestea sunt semne de care trebuie să ţină seama un manager, pentru ca priceperea lui faţă în lucrul cu oameni să se dezvolte.

Daca managerul observă că un angajat a început brusc să nu-şi mai facă treaba ca lumea şi că nu mai are o prezenţă regulată la slujbă, trebuie să se întrebe: de ce oare? Este din cauza job-ului, din cauza stresului şi a muncii istovitoare, are probleme familiale, s-a certat cu colegii, este nemulţumit din cauza salariului, oare este bolnav, suferă de ceva? Cum pot să-l ajut, ce trebuie să fac ca să schimb situaţia aceasta?

Leadershipul este o privire de ansamblu asupra sensului vieţii din perspectiva unei investigaţii concrete a valorii pe care se cuvine să o acorzi aspectelor ce se află în rezonanţă cu nivelul experienţei tale.

Concluzie: Ca manager trebuie să îţi direcţionezi eforturile spre îndeplinirea obiectivelor semnificative, dar în acelaşi timp trebuie să fii atent la ce se întâmplă în jurul tău. Deschide bine ochii, iar atunci când ceva nu merge bine, când situaţia devine presanta, când angajaţii nu mai sunt la fel de productivi, întreabă-te: "De ce oare?" Apoi încearcă să găseşti soluţiile cele mai sigure, mai potrivite şi mai avantajoase.

Scoate la iveală potenţialul tău de a te raporta la oameni, intuind sensurile cele mai adânci şi mai cuprinzătoare ale atitudinii şi personalităţii lor.

Cea mai preţioasă resursă a liderilor

On Ianuarie 13, 2009

Asigură-ţi potenţialul de a fi un lider strălucit, manifestându-ţi în mod autentic recunoştinţa faţă de timpul tău.

Când omul de rând se întoarce seara de la serviciu, vrea linişte şi pace. Îşi pune la încălzit mâncarea, se aşează confortabil în faţa televizorului pentru a urmări ştirile şi îşi bea berea câştigată cu trudă în timpul celor 10 ore de muncă. Timpul trece, ştirile de pe toate canalele de televiziune s-au terminat. Înainte de culcare omul de rând se relaxează jumătate de oră citind ziarul. Încet, încet, i se închid ochii. Stinge veioza, îşi trage plapuma peste el şi se culcă, dar nu înainte de a se consola: "Mâine va fi o zi nemaipomenită".

Iar ziua următoare istoria se repetă, aria performanţei sale rămânând aceleaşi, neschimbată, mediocră sau chiar slabă.

Faci din leadership o formă permanentă de coerenţă a existenţei care te pune faţă în faţă cu răspunderea de a împinge lucrurile până dincolo de limitele impuse de ceea ce este rutinier?

Dacă eşti un admirator al artei, atunci probabil ştii că atunci când un sculptor reprezintă mişcarea în creaţiile sale, ea nu apare dezlănţuită, ci ca o formă permanentă a existenţei.

Ca să fii un lider de primă mărime, trebuie sa fii capabil să desfăşori o muncă de conducere de înaltă clasă. Poţi face acest lucru schimbându-ţi gândirea şi acţiunile, reprezentându-ţi eficient propriul tău fel de a fi pe axa vieţii tale. Colaborarea ta cu timpul, cu practica, cu puterea ta de muncă, cu potenţialul tău de leadership, trebuie să capete o formă permanentă a existenţei.

Liderii nu sunt ca oamenii de rând. Ei fac mereu schimbări ca să iasă din rutină. Timpul este cea mai importantă resursă pe care o au la dispoziţie şi pe care trebuie să o folosească eficient în favoarea instruirii lor, pentru consolidarea statutului lor profesional.

Napoleon Bonaparte, considerat a fi unul dintre cei mai mari comandanţi militari din istorie, avea obiceiul de a se aşeza primul la masă, care era servită, bineînţeles într-un tempo rapid şi rareori stătea mai mult de 20 de minute. Odată chiar a afirmat: "Timpul nu aşteaptă, iar zilele sunt cât nişte ani."

Fii sigur că lui Napoleon timpul nu-i ajungea pentru câte putea face. El ştia foarte bine că va putea să-şi clădească un viitor strălucit, glorios şi prosper numai dacă reuşeşte să câştige timpul de partea lui. Încă de mic îşi cultivase obiceiul productiv de a citi cărţile din biblioteca şcolii. Şi a citit, a citit cu nesaţ, uneori cu voce tare, dar întotdeauna cu foarte mare atenţie, învăţând din fiecare carte câte ceva. De multe ori nu dormea - medita la învăţămintele zilei, şi se spune că muncea cu atâta patimă încât acest lucru îl resimţea pe propria persoană.

Leadership: Poţi să sădeşti un arbore pentru viitor în circumstanţele unei cauze determinate de impactul bunurilor vieţii care te includ într-o altă categorie socială?

În timpul şederii sale la Gothaab, pe coasta apuseană a Groenlandei, marele explorator şi om de ştiinţă Fridtjof Nansen a studiat traiul şi caracterul eschimoşilor şi a scris şi o carte despre ei.

Unul din cele mai importante lucruri pe care le-a scris a fost: „ Bunurile vieţii sunt repartizate în mod inegal. Sunt oameni pentru care este de-ajuns să fi sădit în tinereţe un arbore de pâine, ca să fie puşi la adăpost de greutăţi o dată pentru totdeauna, în vreme ce alţii sunt nevoiţi să trudească din greu o viaţă întreagă pentru a-i smulge naturii vrăjmaşe doar nişte biete fărâmituri cu care să-şi ţină zilele. "

Acel „arbore de pâine" este o metaforă care exprimă foarte bine particularităţile esenţiale ale procesului de dezvoltare. Trebuie să sădeşti ceva de calitate care să te întreţină o viaţă întreagă, şi nu să culegi firimituri care să-ţi ţină zilele.

Categoria socială în care se autoinclude un lider este cea de grădinar al miracolelor, al hotărârilor şi înfăptuirilor constructive zilnice fie ele cât de mici. Peisagiştii sunt cei care se consumă admirând doar ce-i trecător, fără să se integreze cu drept de apel în nicio iniţiativă de mare amploare.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să gândeşti BIG din perspectiva unei valori obţinută din nimic, așa încât să transformi "nimicul" într-o lecție de viață valoroasă?

Cine gândeşte BIG din perspectiva unei valori obţinută din nimic ori este un magician de mare ambiţie, ori este un trântor prin excelenţă.

Din nimic nu poţi obţine ceva, decât dacă devine o lecţie de viaţă. Aşa cum spunea cineva, nimicul este o producție care conține tot ce e necesar, dar din care poţi să te lipseşti de orice. Totodată este o iluzie din care poți ieși doar observând, analizând critic și gândind.

Timpul folosit în mod util îţi va putea deschide uşile spre performanţă şi succes. O alegere înţeleaptă este să utilizezi timpul citind cele mai noi cărţi şi reviste din domeniul în care îţi desfăşori activitatea. O alegere neinspirată este să pierzi timpul uitându-te la televizor, plimbându-te de pe un canal pe altul, sau citind ziarele locale.

Nu ştiu care sunt alegerile pe care le vei face în viaţă, dar ştiu un singur lucru: dacă nu faci alegerile potrivite nu vei deveni niciodată mai productiv. Iar dacă vrei să devii un bun profesionist şi dacă vreţi într-adevăr să ai un viitor mai bun, mai generos şi plin de perspective, trebuie să câştigi timpul de partea ta, să-l preţuieşti şi să-l foloseşti cât mai eficient.

Cum te pregătești pentru a valorifica fiecare secundă ca pe o oportunitate unică, ținând cont că timpul pierdut nu poate fi recuperat? Cum plănuiești să-ți îmbunătățești capacitatea de a răspunde rapid și eficient în situații dificile, prin gestionarea inteligentă a timpului?

Cea mai prețioasă resursă a liderilor este timpul, deoarece spre deosebire de alte resurse, timpul nu poate fi recuperat sau înlocuit odată pierdut. Fiecare secundă trecută este o oportunitate care nu se va mai întoarce, făcând gestionarea eficientă a timpului crucială pentru succes. În momentele de criză, capacitatea de a răspunde rapid și eficient este crucială. Liderii care au investit timp în pregătire și dezvoltarea de scenarii de contingență sunt mai bine echipați pentru a naviga prin situații dificile.

Tu sădeşti ceva de calitate, sau culegi firimituri care să-ţi ţină zilele?

Cea mai rentabilă investiţie

On Ianuarie 22, 2009

Lasă-te condus de o conştiinţă de sine mai înaltă, urmărind neîncetat pulsul propriei tale integrităţi.

Un amic mi-a spus de curând povestea unui mare afacerist, să-i spunem Marius, care a delapidat de la compania la care era director adjunct o sumă foarte mare de bani pe care apoi a investit-o în afacerea lui personală. Cu alte cuvinte, Marius s-a făcut proprietar pe banii companiei la care îşi desfăşura activitatea. Şi, pentru că era foarte abil, a reuşit o bună bucată de vreme să nu fie descoperit. Însă, investiţiile pe care le-a făcut în interes personal n-au dat rezultatele scontate şi în final s-a trezit plin de datorii.

Managerul companiei a sesizat până la urmă lipsa unor sume mari de bani ce au fost sustrase din fondurile companiei şi că, cu totul „întâmplător", au ajuns în conturile directorului adjunct. Nu a durat mult până ce Marius a fost demis din funcţie şi acuzat de furt calificat.

Este foarte important ce a spus managerul companiei după demiterea directorului adjunct din funcţie:

- Marius a fost într-o situaţie financiară dificilă, era plin de datorii şi de aceea s-a folosit de banii companiei mele. N-a venit niciodată să se consulte cu mine sau să-mi ceară ajutorul. Aşa că mi-am pierdut încrederea în el definitiv şi n-am avut de ales, a trebuit să-l demit imediat din funcţie şi să-l denunţ autorităţilor."

Leadership: Foloseşti realitatea exterioară numai ca un pretext pentru a realiza deformările proprii?

Cineva remarca: „ Dacă oglinda conştiinţei e strâmbă în structura ei, lumea apare în ea ca o realitate diformă, pocită, aşa ca în oglinzile de proastă calitate, ori în cele construite strâmb anume, ca într-unele panorame. Sunt şi conştiinţe care nu pot oglindi şi folosesc realitatea exterioară numai ca un pretext pentru a realiza deformările lor proprii. "

Prea mulţi dintre cei care ocupă funcţii importante uită de propria lor conştiinţă, săvârşind fapte antisociale. Ei nu-şi păstrează inima curată, ferindu-se de ispita propriilor dorinţe şi orgolii - ci continuă să se vadă într-o lumină bună şi favorabilă, având impresia că sunt mai mult decât sunt şi că îşi pot permite cam orice.

Conştiinţa lor este strâmbă, deformată, stabilită de pofte incontrolabile. Ei nu se pot ghida după nişte reguli sau orientări care corespund unei etici bine definite, bazate pe respect şi integritate şi care să pună accentul pe profesionalism. Conştiinţa lor foloseşte realitatea exterioară numai ca un pretext pentru a realiza "deformările" lor proprii.

Deformările ce decurg dintr-o receptare eronată a imaginii de om devotat "eticii și echității, încât să nu pară rupte dintr-o suspiciune la adresa a tot ce înseamnă "abuz", au ca punct de referință forme ale disperării, ale aroganței extreme, ale eşecului sau ale lipsei de perspectivă.

Leadership: Cum poți să rămâi ancorat în realitate și să eviți crearea unei false conștiințe atunci când aspiri să fii mai mult decât crezi că ești?

Când încerci să fii mai mult decât ceea ce crezi că eşti, rişti să nu mai gândeşti reactiv la ce se întâmplă în jurul tău şi îţi creezi o falsă conştiinţă conformă cu propriile interese, adică menţinerea puterii sub aripa unui destin alambicat şi sumbru.

A te lăsa condus de o conştiinţă de sine mai înaltă şi a-ţi respecta îndatoririle morale pe care trebuie să le îndeplineşti faţă de societate, este ca şi cum ai fi însărcinat cu o misiune de urmărire: trebuie să urmăreşti pulsul propriei tale integrităţi şi să stai cu ochii pe tine şi pe tot ce faci oricât timp va fi nevoie. Dacă o iei pe calea strâmbă, pulsul integrităţii tale va scădea – iar efectele negative vor veni de la sine.

În leadership sunt de preţ numai acele valori şi convingeri, al căror „cristal perfect" reflectă lumea ta interioară aşa cum e ea, şi nu deformată de defectele şi insuficienţele propriei tale conştiinţe.

Leadership: Îţi urmezi cele mai îndrăzneţe obiective, deşi îţi menţii tot timpul conştiinţa identificată cu un sine dublu?

Avalanşa de dumnezei vine şi trece. Unii oamenii îşi creează impresia jenantă că sunt mult mai mult decât sunt în realitate, adică mici dumnezei pe pământ care nu pot da niciodată greş şi de aceea nu îşi potolesc niciodată pofta de a face numai ce vor ei fără să ţină cont de nimeni şi de nimic, uitând complet de responsabilităţile pe care le au. Această impresie este însă crunt zdruncinată atunci când lucrurile iau o întorsătură nefavorabilă. În final, ambiţia lor de a se ridica mai presus de condiţia lor şi de a obţine tot mai mari beneficii (deseori pe căi ilicite) – abuzând de funcţia lui, se poate transforma în lacrimi şi regrete.

La fel cum bufniţa nu vede ziua şi corbul nu poate vedea noaptea, nici noi nu vom putea să realizăm mai mult decât ne este dat. Nu putem păcăli forţele şi legile divine. Nu suntem dumnezei. Şi nu avem dreptul să ocolim etica justei măsuri – manipulând în scopuri personale pe oricine, abuzând de funcţia pe care o deţinem.

Eşecul în oglinda conştiinţei are ca reper o izolare într-un sine gol, ce îşi pierde interesul faţă de viaţă, sau într-un sine istovit de atâtea valori şi repere ce par răsturnate definitiv. Încrederea într-un sine dublu, ţine de imanență, având legătură cu fericirea, plenitudinea și desăvârșirea, și altul ținând de sensibilitate, vulnerabil și fragil.

A fi responsabil pentru un sine captiv în menghina multiplicităţii înseamnă să accepţi situaţia prezentă indiferent de obstacolul cu care te confrunţi şi totodată să refuzi ceea ce crezi că nu poţi duce până la capăt în condiţiile restricţiilor vieţii.

Cea mai rentabilă investiţie a unui lider este cinstea. Este cea mai sigură cale de a păstra relaţia intactă cu ceilalţi oameni, cu şefii, cu colegii, cu prietenii. Dacă vei fi mereu cinstit, serios şi cumpătat, lucrurile se vor mişca într-o direcţie pozitivă şi vei avea numai de câştigat. Iar în cazul în care ocupi o funcţie de conducere, nu-i poţi trăda pe cei care au investit încredere în tine. Dimpotrivă, arată-le tuturor că eşti de încredere, că dai mai mult decât primeşti - că contribui prin cooperarea ta într-o mare măsură la succesul comun.

Nu vei putea niciodată să construieşti relaţii sigure dacă trădezi încrederea celorlalţi oameni, dacă nu îi tratezi cu respect, şi dacă nu le dovedeşti mai întâi de toate că eşti cinstit şi serios. Lasă-te condus de o conştiinţă de sine mai înaltă, urmărind neîncetat pulsul propriei tale integrităţi.

Izolarea de sine se produce atunci când îţi asumi un succes care consfințește eșecul.

Ceea ce este esențial rămâne invizibil pentru ochi

On Noiembrie 26, 2024

Creatorul este acel mister care împletește existența, făcându-se nevăzut acolo unde totul pare vizibil.

Sunt peste tot și nicăieri. Sunt prezent și, în același timp, total nevăzut. Cutreier lumea cu pași ușori, ca și cum pământul ar respira odată cu mine, într-un dialog nerostit al existenței. Lanul de porumb, auriu acum, se întinde ca un covor de lumină vie, fiecare spic purtând în sine un strop din energia pământului. Pașii mei îl traversează încet, iar palma mea mângâie spicele într-un ritual al reîntoarcerii către esența pământului, către origini. Este ca și cum fiecare atingere ar deveni o amprentă în memoria universului. Tocmai în acest moment senin și atemporal, aerul cald de toamnă târzie îmi poartă gândurile către momente trecute. Între aceste amintiri, simt că fiecare clipă este mai mult decât ceea ce pare la suprafață.

Timpul, acest sculptor invizibil al existenței mele, se simte diferit aici, prin asocierea sa cu ritmul naturii și al eternității. Fiecare secundă devine un fragment de lumină care îmi hrănește sufletul, un „Endyexhium Irraetriss Cerneienoh" – acel ceva care transcende cuvintele și devine parte din esența mea. În această călătorie, totul pare să se dizolve într-un prezent continuu, lanul de porumb devenind un spațiu în care timpul își pierde marginile, reflectând ideea că „prezentul este singura realitate care contează". În această atmosferă plină de intimitate, încep să înțeleg că nu este nevoie să caut frumusețea – ea este deja aici, vizibilă, dar ascunsă în detalii care așteaptă să fie descoperite prin atenție și contemplare.

Natura mă privește cu blândețe, așa cum Creatorul își găsește liniștea. Iarba și cerul par să șoptească un „te recunoaștem" tăcut, într-o dinamică subtilă, ca un ecou al propriei mele căutări. Mai departe, pașii fericiți mă poartă spre inima orașului. Trenulețul din roata imensă de distracție își urmează cercul, iar inimile fericite din el bat parcă la unison cu a mea. Cei din trenuleț îmi fac cu mâna, da, mi se pare că toți mă văd de sus, de parcă am fi parte din același vis. Și poate că suntem.

Leadership: Cât de mult te definește reprezentarea introspectivă când accepți trăirile povestite ca esență a unei creații continue?

Într-o balansare perfect nuanțată de culori vii, mă strecor ca un suflet nevăzut printre momente trecătoare, încercând să trăiesc fiecare clipă a altora ca și cum ar fi a mea. Trăiesc mereu între rememorarea acestor momente și vis, între creație și realitate, acolo unde orice simbol poartă un adevăr ascuns – un frutto che va raccolto solo a piena maturazione.

Ce poate fi mai intens, mai misterios, decât să te pierzi în căutarea de sine?

O vitrină strălucitoare mă dezvăluie unui vânzător care îmi zâmbește. Nu știu dacă mă cunoaște sau doar recunoaște o privire care caută ceva, declanșând o conexiune spontană, ca între două fragmente ale aceluiași puzzle. Totuși, printre toți acești oameni, printre toate imaginile care vin și pleacă, încă îmi caut reflexia. Imaginea de dincolo de aparențe. Acea esență care mă definește dincolo de vizibil. Este o virtute să te cunoști pe deplin, să îți modelezi sinele într-un act demiurgic. Totuși, îmi caut un sens mai înalt, acel ceva care pare să se unească cu sclipirea Creatorului, transformând originile în imagini, și trăirile într-o capodoperă a sufletului.

Leadership: Cum poate un moment aparent banal să devină esența unui întreg univers interior, atunci când devii conștient de eternitatea ascunsă în fiecare secundă care trece?

Dar Creatorul are și El un dor, pesemne același dor mistuitor de care suferea personajul din romanul Arcul de Triumf al lui Erich Maria Remarque:

„Ea-i luă paharul din mână și bău. Era foarte frumoasă și simți că-i este dragă. Nu era frumoasă, așa cum e frumoasă o statuie sau un tablou. Avea frumusețea unei livezi prin care adie vântul. Era ca și viața din ea, și care făcuse din ea ceea ce era, o formase prin întâlnirea misterioasă a două celule, din nimicnicia unui pântec. Era aceeași enigmă de neînțeles, ca și la sămânța care conține un arbore întreg, pietrificat, microscopic, predestinat, încă de pe acum — coroana, fructele și ploaia de flori din diminețile de aprilie — și asta într-o noapte de dragoste și din întâlnirea unei bucăți de lut din care răsare o față, umeri și ochi, și tocmai acei ochi și acei umeri, după ce-au rătăcit aiurea, printre milioanele de oameni din lume, să stea într-o noapte de noiembrie pe Pont de l'Alma, la Paris, și să vină spre tine…"

Ochiul surprinde detalii pe care sufletul le transformă în amintiri eterne. Pe măsură ce mă apropii de orizont, o întrebare îmi trece prin minte: ce energie mă poate conecta la aceste momente trecătoare, făcându-le parte din eternitate? Apoi, alte întrebări îmi asaltează gândurile. Sunt eu doar un trecător printre trecători? Sau sunt punctul fix al unui univers ce refuză să se oprească? Pesemne, în tăcerea naturii găsesc răspunsuri la întrebările pe care nici nu le-am formulat încă.

Leadership: Dacă emoțiile tale ar deveni universuri, cum ar putea ele redefini poveștile nevăzute din jurul tău astfel încât să coincidă cu autenticitatea propriei viziuni?

Universul este o scenă, iar fiecare secundă joacă rolul unui mesager tăcut al sensului pe care eu îl atribui ființei mele. Creatorul privește și El, prin ochii mei, tot ceea ce este cuprins în infinitatea clipei, lăsând să se petreacă totul ca și când timpul ar fi suspendat între vis și realitate.

Pe faleza mării, valurile dansează într-un ritm hipnotic, iar soarele își reflectă lumina în spuma lor, creând o simfonie vizuală. Un tânăr acrobat sfidează gravitația cu fiecare salt, iar mișcările sale sunt poezie scrisă pe cerul albastru. Trecătorii privesc fascinați, iar liniștea lor spune mai multe decât orice cuvinte. Privesc și eu, simțind că fiecare salt al său îmi dă libertatea pe care o pot regăsi doar dacă am curajul de a mă desprinde de limitări.

Dintr-o dată, cuvintele lui Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, din Micul Prinț, îmi răsar în minte*: „Ceea ce este esențial este invizibil pentru ochi."* Abia acum îmi dau seama că momentele pe care le trăiesc nu sunt doar imagini, ci simboluri ale unei libertăți mai profunde, ascunse în cotidian. Viața este o oglindă a sufletului, iar frumusețea ei devine vizibilă doar celor care își deschid inima către detaliile trecute cu vederea de ochii care nu știu să privească. Între vis și realitate, între lumină și întuneric, descoperim că nu suntem doar observatori, ci creatori ai propriilor noastre povești.

Salturile acrobatului par să unească cerul cu pământul, iar privirile trecătorilor se transformă în reflexii ale propriei lor căutări. Briza mării îmi mângâie fața, iar pentru o clipă simt că fac parte din acest ciclu universal de interconexiuni și renaștere. Un bătrân cu o înghețată în mână stă la umbra unei benzinării, iar privirea lui emană o liniște adâncă. Este ca și cum timpul s-ar fi oprit pentru el, oferindu-i o clipă de eternitate. Într-un alt colț, un vânzător îmi zâmbește prin vitrina unui magazin, iar gestul său simplu îmi transmite un mesaj tăcut: micile conexiuni cu ceilalți dau sens existenței noastre.

Leadership: Într-o eternitate în care revederea și pierderea se împletesc armonios, cum îți poți redefini rolul de creator în fața efemerității?

Chipurile oamenilor, fie ele zâmbitoare sau mirate, îmi oferă răspunsuri fără întrebări. Sunt ei oglinda mea, sau eu sunt oglinda lor? Poate că toate acestea fac parte dintr-o viață minunată, un spectacol continuu al micilor momente care, împreună, devin eternitate. Până la urmă, Creatorul rămâne acel mister care împletește existența, făcându-se nevăzut acolo unde totul pare vizibil.

În această căutare perpetuă a descoperirii sinelui prin oglinda lumii, fiecare clipă devine o celebrare a miracolului existenței. Asemenea unui echilibru fragil între solitudine și apartenență, între nostalgie și speranță, viața se desfășoară într-o succesiune de momente magice. Acestea îmi reamintesc că sunt, în același timp, singur și profund conectat cu tot ce mă înconjoară. Fiecare moment este o reflexie subtilă între ceea ce este vizibil și ceea ce rămâne neînțeles, conturând un univers de emoții infinite.

Încă mai cred în puterea creației dincolo de orice limite impuse. Pe această cale, îmi asum rolul unui creator care îmbrățișează cu pasiune orice formă de oglindire, unind trăirile universale într-un act de regăsire și înțelegere. Dumnezeu este și El aici, în momentul pe care îl trăiesc. La fel ca mine, El privește totul ca pe o revedere, dar trăiește mereu, fără moarte. Mi-ar plăcea să pot cuprinde infinitul, în chip de Dumnezeu, ca să-mi pot aminti mereu de mine – cel care s-a pierdut și s-a regăsit în frumusețea vieții…

A transforma introspecția în mărturie creatoare înseamnă să redefinești rolul tău de creator, păstrând clipele veșnic vii în amintire și îmbogățindu-le cu propria viziune asupra lumii.

Ceea ce este esențial rămâne invizibil pentru ochi, mai ales când adevărul se dezvăluie în tăcere, prin corespondență cu un creator care își conturează opera, dincolo de limitele percepției obișnuite. Spun asta în condițiile în care aparențele devin înșelătoare, făcând loc unui proces de introspecție profundă, plecând de la considerentul că esența lucrurilor nu poate fi redusă la ceea ce se vede. Ci la ceea ce simți atunci când ceea ce vezi devine o extensie vie a unei opere de artă.

Ceea ce frapează ochiul, este ceea ce numai el vede

Dezvoltă-ţi un mod de percepţie a realităţii interne a creaţiei pe care o experimentezi în mod concret, forţându-ţi ochii să vadă dincolo de ceea ce se vede în mod direct.

Se zvoneşte că oceanul ascunde în adâncurile lui, tainice, necuprinse, negrăite, cele mai sublime vederi ale simboliştilor, vederi ale sufletului curăţit şi luminos extins dincolo de orice simţ. Iar adâncurile acestui ocean, ale cărui comori stau ascunse printre marile recifuri de coral, pot scoate la iveală traducerea unei creaţii singulare. Este o lume enigmatică, un spaţiu al creaţiei conceput ca un plin atribuit unei profunzimi figurate. Şi tocmai aici îşi are originea privirea ochilor mei stăruitori, atotcuprinzători, şi neîntrecuţi povestitori, singura călăuză care îmi imploră mintea să-şi extindă orizonturile.

Pe scheletul marilor legende care au susţinut credinţa într-un Erhutasfienta (lăcaşul împărăţiei lui Poseidon, delimitând posesiunile lui Hades) s-au sedimentat amprentele unor poveşti captivante, traduse parţial în pictură numai de artişti ca Jim Warren, motive pline de glorie, ideale pentru clipe de rătăcire sau de dor, făcute să mă ajute în trecerea pragului către mine însumi şi către dimensiunea mea eroică.

Şi uite că, pe fundul oceanului, materia a devenit în sfârşit solidă.

Încă o dată mi-am pus la încercare imaginaţia, dezvăluind orizonturile unei creaţii impresionante prin vastitate şi diversitate. Numai pictorul de mare talent poate să dea clasă multor consacrați ai simbolisticii oculte (de o complexitate nemaiîntâlnită), atât prin originalitatea compozițională a viziunilor sale, deloc conformiste și comode, cât mai ales prin acea decodificare a mesajului vizual, indisolubil prin raportare la valentele subiectivităţii: "Nu poţi fi sigur de ceea ce vezi, auzi, înţelegi".

Leadership: Opera ta poate să dezvăluie orizonturile unei creaţii impresionante prin vastitate şi diversitate, dincolo de impactul pe care îl revendică imaginea din prim planul atenţiei tale?

Oceanul limbilor principale din lumea artei îşi are însă valurile lui, fiind capabil să alăture toate valenţele simbolisticii ce ţin de receptivitate şi deschidere. Şi totuşi, pentru a reprezenta un moment artistic nu ai nevoie în mod nemijlocit de imaginea valurilor care izbesc țărmul, fiindcă acesta este un fenomen complex și complicat de realizat chiar și în arta poetică a simbolismului.

Nu-i de mirare că este greu să ajungi la o compoziție artistică, luând în considerare acest fenomen care are nevoie mai mult decât de forme, culori și expresivitate, pentru a avea în toate cazurile un caracter întâmplător.

Iar dacă în acest moment imaginea din prim planul atenţiei mele este o ilustrare a valurilor înalte pe o mare nesigură, acest lucru se datorează faptului că ochii mei, deschişi, expuşi în mod direct luminozităţii, pot să vorbească şi să dezvăluie atâtea taine, atâtea frumuseţi, atâtea stări sufleteşti pe care orizontul meu creator subconştient le imprimă demersului artistic. Şi, toate acestea, urmează să le resimtă privitorul tablourilor mele într-un chip fabulos.

Firul acestui fenomen se ascunde cu măiestrie în ghemul unui artificiu artistic (iluzia optică de spaţiu infinit), lăsând fără explicație o mulțime de cazuri care reapar la orizontul imaginației. Se observă, deci, că realitatea internă a creaţiei mele, în sensul explorării adâncurilor tainice ale oceanului, vizează sporirea efectului de mister şi obscur, pulsând din fiecare centimetru pătrat de pânză.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să făureşti o creaţie durabilă pe un fond vizual alcătuit preponderent din compunerea şi alăturarea mai multor secţiuni alternante sau contrastante, dar unitare prin viziunea de ansamblu?

Această sinteză dintre lumina soarelui și clarobscurul ascuns în valuri, produsă în cazul unui mediu relativ transparent, cuprinde cea mai mare preponderență a particularului în artă: realitatea este produsă de acel ceva în care ambele cazuri sunt una.

În principiu, s-ar spune că în artă surprindem o imagine dublă: vedem valurile lovindu-se de țărm, în același timp vedem cum lumina creează luciul deasupra valurilor. Iar ceea ce ochii mei conturează într-o imagine, datorită efectului refracției, cum ar fi imaginea unui curcubeu în direcția discului solar, nu suferă nicio modificare dacă este transpus într-un alt spațiu, relativ întunecat.

De fapt, ochii mei deplasează subiectul imaginii în așa fel încât aceasta să fie văzută concomitent cu alta. Imaginea apare felurit colorată pe margine, mai ales dacă spațiul luminos se află paralel cu fundalul vizibil al unui curcubeu de reflexie, asemenea unei oglinzi, astfel suprafața apei reflectând lumina din curcubeu înapoi în cer, intensificând în special culoarea albastru-verzui a valurilor.

Vedere corectă - acţiune corectă. Atenţie corectă - reprezentare fidelă. Deci, a vedea corect înseamnă a distinge diferenţa dintre nuanţe, evitând vederile considerate "juste", nu şi profunzimile relevate în chip intuitiv şi în figuri pline de viaţă. În artă, trebuie să descoperi elementele pe care le constituie privitul şi să descoperi cauzele care le-au generat multiplicarea lor în plan senzitiv, prin folosirea mai curând a observaţiei şi experimentului, decât prin zborul imaginaţiei.

O viziune bine conturată trebuie să asigure reprezentarea fidelă a unei imagini care, imprimându-se în mod deosebit în imaginaţie, poate fi utilizată ca fundal al acţiunilor ce pun în evidenţă personalitatea şi capacităţile tale artistice, dar şi capacităţile de adaptare la variaţiile mediului înconjurător.

Ceea ce frapează ochiul, este ceea ce numai el vede. Şi ce-au văzut ochii mei, azi? Au văzut oceanul cu ale lui valuri înspumate, care au schimbat percepții și au creat noi peisaje şi priveliști. Ochii mei se jucau atât de frumos cu sclipirile orbitoare ale valurilor, dar şi cu scânteierile vapoarelor care se încrucişau în zare. Alături de valuri, gândurile mele au călătorit mii și mii de mile, fără să le înţeleg întru totul sensul sau profunzimea.

Şi mi-am amintit că viața, cu ale ei valuri pline de neprevăzut, m-a dus forțat în altă direcție decât cea spre care am pornit. Niciun om nu ajunge un artist desăvârşit până ce nu a cunoscut senzaţia unică de dezorientare care vine dintr-o emoţie involuntară, ca atunci când stai într-un peisaj de acuarelă terminat doar pe jumătate.

Este şi aceasta o realitate internă a creaţiei mele, fiindcă toate emoţiile mele cuprinse în dimensiunea spaţiului şi timpului pe care oceanul a comprimat-o într-o singură clipă de iluminare, au aşteptat pur şi simplu să fie descoperite...

Ceea ce vezi în depărtare multiplică ceea ce vezi de aproape

Cel mai obişnuit parcurs pe care îl ai de străbătut nu duce lipsă de oglindiri care însufleţesc vizibilul într-un colaj interactiv de imagini ce-şi caută întregul în adâncurile memoriei.

Mi-am închipuit întotdeauna marea, strălucind în bătaia soarelui, ca fiind un fel de cadru analitic vizual, globalist, abstract, nediferenţiat, conceput parcă să creeze un joc al formelor și culorilor din spargerea valurilor care lovesc domol ţărmul în zilele călduroase de vară. Aşa se face că un moment esenţial al gândirii creatoare, cel puțin parțial, transmis prin mărturia unui martor ocular, devine parte integrantă din imaginaţia simbolică instaurată în faţa ostenelii de a urmări demonstraţia unei legi universale a cauzalităţii: "ceea ce vezi te poate fura în câteva clipe, şi te poate duce în largul mării".

Şi mă privea cu ochi albaştri de pisică. Atât era de frumoasă marea, surprinsă de ochii mei ca într-un tablou de vis, pictat în vechea tehnică egipteană a encausticii. Şi se uita la mine într-un fel de repaus vizual, scrutând chinul meu de a suporta canicula de după-amiază, şi-mi vorbea cu o voce de bluesman care, cucerindu-mă cu totul, mă purta peste lume într-un vârtej ameţitor:

– Nicu, devii din ce în ce mai tăcut, la fel ca mine: încontinuu neliniştit la suprafaţă, tăcut şi de o imensă forţă în adâncuri. Hai, încearcă să zâmbeşti. Mi-ai promis cândva, la mijloc de veşnicie, într-o realitate narativă, că oricât ar fi de greu, ne vom regăsi şi oricât de multe bariere vor fi înaintea noastră, vom răzbi. Nu suport bărbaţii care îşi încalcă promisiunile, la fel cum nu suport visătorii care tânjesc, aşa, ca-ntr-o difuză amintire, spre alte lumi care aici ar părea ireale, dar sunt cât se poate de adevărate.

Leadership: Eşti dublat de o reflexie care adaugă intensitate conținutului de emoții exprimate de tine în întregul parcurs pe care îl ai de străbătut până la momentul imaginării tale într-o altă ipostază?

Ceea ce vezi în depărtare multiplică ceea ce vezi, de aproape, ca într-o fotografie. Exact aşa se petreceau lucrurile pe litoral, în timpul verii. Privind-o cu ochi de "nu mă uita", marea părea să aibă pretenţia unei frumuseţi unice, chiar avea acea vastitate din conturul viselor mele în care cuprindeam dintr-o privire aproape tot globul terestru, un fel de extensiune de peisaj într-un tablou al progreselor minţii de artist, făcând ca fiecare val să aducă la ţărm o nouă vedere, din altă lume. Așa cum este lumea recifurilor de corali care limpezesc și dau o culoare intensă mării.

Şi oricât de des aş revedea aceste imagini pe ecranul minţii mele, cuprinzându-le într-o retortă a fuziunii dintre vechi şi nou, sub semnul posibilului şi al verosimilului, şi oricât de tare mi-ar plăcea rolul de privitor al naturii, tot n-aş putea să înţeleg marea decât în spaţiul compensativ al iluziei, al fantasticului şi al fanteziei. Este limpede că imaginea mării vine să lumineze imaginea mea, creând astfel un fel de determinism transversal între sentimentul de liniște sufletească şi acea puritate a spiritului întruchipată într-o imagine fizică.

O nouă ipostază îmi oferea prilejul de a exprima admiraţia pentru ceea ce reprezintă marea: ipostaza de simbol al eternităţii. Adâncul tainic al Eternităţii se deschidea în faţa privirii mele uimite...

Am recunoscut o idee asemănătoare într-o carte a lui Paul Auster. Personajul se afla într-o perpetuă căutare a identităţii pierdute. La un moment dat, Quinn s-a uitat la fotografia care surprindea chipul privitorului său, de parcă ar fi sperat să-i vină vreo inspiraţie bruscă, la vreun neaşteptat torent subteran de informaţii care să-l ajute să-l înţeleagă pe acel om. Dar poza nu îi spuse nimic. Nu părea decât fotografia unui om obişnuit. O studie încă un moment şi ajunse la concluzia că persoana aceea ar fi putut fi oricine, la fel de bine cum ar fi putut să fie chiar el însuşi.

Leadership: Poţi să te cuprinzi pe tine însuţi într-o imagine care oglindeşte ideea de "retrăire a unor vechi reacții emoționale", într-o conectare durabilă şi sigură cu obiectul privirii tale?

La fel şi în privinţa mea, dar într-o conectare durabilă şi sigură cu marea. Căci m-am recunoscut oglindit în imaginea în care m-am privit mereu pe mine însumi, cu privirea depărtării care-l absoarbe pe privitor în ochiul energiei ei devoratoare, cu intensitatea senzaţiei infinitului, a unei depărtări ce se pierde fără a se risipi. Asemenea unui artist care trăieşte spiritual, mi-am dat seama că nu mă pot cuprinde pe mine însumi decât într-o imagine care oglindeşte în ea cerul şi soarele. Şi chiar asta face marea: joacă rolul unei oglindiri contemplative, rod al unor emoţii timide, care reflectă lumina caldă și transparențe subtile, ea fiind percepută în mod inefabil în propriul meu univers ca o raritate a amintirilor ce rămân vii în suflet.

Tot de atâtea ori, având farmecul unei imagini 100% naturală, dar părând ireală atunci când este prelucrată într-o manieră mitică sau poetică, marea m-a privit cu îngândurare, cu melancolie, cu o seninătate a viziunii parcă aspaţială, sigură de efectele de atmosferă ale tabloului ei de vis. Dar, tot de atâtea ori, m-a privit cu acea atenţie sporită a pictorului care vrea să sugereze ingeniosul joc de tuşe libere, în diverse tonuri de verde şi albastru-ciel.

Este limpede că în privinţa coloristicii, prefer tonalităţile diluate, adică un alt mod de interpretare a nuanţelor, în baza cărora se disting culorile schimbătoare ale mării, absolut fantastice, care te încântă prin impresia puternică pe care ţi-o lasă imaginea de ansamblu: uimire, fermecare, vrajă.

Leadership: Capacitatea ta de oglindire în obiectul privirii tale îţi permite să trăieşti experiențele pe care le generează transformarea ta într-un reper de unicitate angrenat în redarea unui conținut de imaginar care îţi îngăduie să livrezi "percepţie şi sinceritate"?

Am început o nouă viaţă. Neavând încotro, privesc şi acum marea aşa cum mă priveşte ea pe mine în contextul în care par mult prea tânăr pentru ca ea să aibă încredere în mine, cum că aveam să-i port de grijă în mod firesc. Îmi doresc, totuşi, să-i justific cumva această încredere, s-o fac să nu şi-o piardă niciodată, dar asta ar însemna să mai trăiesc odată viaţa în care eu am fost marea, iar marea a fost nisip. Căci nu te poţi supăra pe cineva care a fost totuna cu tine, într-o viaţă şi în alt timp în care creatorul suprem, cu ajutorul răbdării, smulgând câte un atom din stelele sau din mări, atomi de metale - de aur, fier, smarald - a făcut ca fiecare lucru să fie complementar altuia.

Nu cred că este o cale mai sigură de a-mi dovedi că demult am fost o mare brăzdată de valuri, mai întins decât marea care eşti tu, decât printr-un transfer al afecţiunii, dezvăluind în mare taină, cu o relativă obiectivitate, o imagine pe care o voi păstra mereu în suflet. Fiindcă nu a fost ceva trecător pe care memoria timpului îl îngroapă ca pe un anonim. Şi mi-aş mai dori ceva: să simt c-am fost eu însumi vraja mării pe care o oferă peisajele de la apusul soarelui şi valurile numai bune pentru surfing.

Or, poate că aceste lucruri au prea puţin de-a face cu cuvintele, atât de puţin, de fapt, încât mi se pare inutil să încerc să le aştern într-un mod prea savuros. Căci, pe măsură ce te avânţi printre valurile albastre ale mării, cuvintele nu mai sunt cuvinte, ci doar un cod straniu de tăceri. Ele te fac să străluceşti singur în larg...

Leadershipul se poate produce în expansiunea fenomenului de "oglindire în propria fiinţă", atunci când ceea ce marchează tot cursul existenţei tale este dat de percepţia multisenzorială: emoţii şi amintiri, conturate într-un nucleu narativ-subiectiv, care scriu istoria personală.

Ceea ce vezi în depărtare multiplică ceea ce vezi de aproape, mai ales dacă iau în considerare ideea că marea şi valurile ei, soarele încălzind nisipul, sunt doar nişte reflexii ale unei realităţi de rang superior care există independent de subiectul gânditor, dar care în acelaşi timp devin obiectivare a infinitului în finitul deschis spre infinit.

Iar atâta timp cât ele vor exista, voi exista şi eu, căci am demonstrat că sunt reflexia imaginii lor, într-un hiperplan ce are o singură valoare proprie: de **+ ∞

Cel ce ştie să vadă îşi observă bine vederea

On Iunie 01, 2023

Ca să înţelegi semnificaţia unei imagini artistice trebuie să vezi în ea un univers în expansiune care îşi asumă profunzimile unui creator inegalabil.

În această dimineaţă am primit un tablou viu-colorat, cadou din partea unui pictor debutant. Plin de naturaleţe, reprezentând dinamismul timpului în lumina unui apus de soare superb, tabloul pare că vorbeşte de la sine cu acea delicateţe a stărilor ambigue, regăsite în intimitatea unor jurnale de călătorie. Ca să-l înţelegi trebuie să vezi înăuntrul lucrurilor, să-l vezi curat ca integritate artistică, cu un înţeles înclinat spre visare, spre meditaţie, să găseşti în el acea linişte sufletească care promite a deveni contagioasă. Să vezi în el starea unei fiinţe care s-a purificat într-atât, care şi-a dezvoltat într-atât capacitatea intelectuală şi puterea perceptivă, încât a reuşit să se ridice până la regiunile sublime ale spiritului care animă universul.

Aveam în faţa ochilor mei o etapă inevitabilă dintr-o psihoterapie reuşită, resimţită ca un efect al eliberării sufletului ce se manifestă în stare de veghe, un popas necesar dintr-o călătorie mai lungă, o imagine izvorâtă dintr-o vitalitate puternică şi nestăpânită, dintr-o viaţă în comuniune cu Dumnezeu. Tabloul reprezintă un univers în expansiune. Fireşte, l-am privit în lumina sufletului curat, cu ochii minţii liniştitoare, liberă de orice constrângere, care, în contact cu fragilitatea unei întâlniri real-imaginare devine cu mult mai preţios decât zece mii de ochi trupeşti, mai avântat de un rafinament plastic extrem.

La rândul său, tabloul mă privea din perspectiva unei călătorii din veac în veac, cu acea forţă subtilă care trece de la un suflet la altul, acordându-se prin extensie la un plan metafizic, la o realitate despre care nu se poate vorbi decât în şoaptă, ceva ce se află în relaţie cu un plan filozofic secundar. Îţi mulțumesc, scump tablou, fiindcă m-ai privit cu ochii sufletului, mângâindu-mi gândurile cu duioşia unui pelerin care îşi poartă în desagă opera de-o viaţă, fiindcă mi-ai redat forţa privirii de care are nevoie ochiul ca să vadă dincolo de limitele spaţiului şi timpului.

Leadership: Îţi dai seama ce simte faţă de tine o operă de artă care-ţi fură atenţia ochilor cu acea simplă trăire desfăşurată în absenţa creatorului ei?

Făcându-mă să conştientizez faptul de a avea ceea ce eu numesc viziune, opera artistului pare îndreptăţită să creadă că nu e departe momentul în care eu însumi voi face parte din lumea ei. Şi nu doar din lumea ei, a unei libertăţi nelimitate, ci şi din lumea unei conştiinţe care și-a dorit să creeze cât mai mult frumos un spaţiu în care să viseze, având ocazia de a călători prin intermediul artei în orice colţ al lumii. Încă mă întreb ce simte faţă de mine o operă de artă care-mi fura atenţia ochilor cu acea simplă trăire desfăşurată în absenţa creatorului ei.

Și, de ce nu? Ochiul nu este rodul unei acțiuni care amintește de contemplația artistică, fiind mai evident în procesul de conștientizare a obiectelor din jur, esențiale în relația artelor plastice cu natura, dar mai ales în relaţie cu o realitate care te absoarbe într-un vârtej amețitor din care nu mai există scăpare. Ci, ca un drog sintetic care modifică starea de spirit și percepția, vederea ochiului (nefiind mascată de banalitatea cotidiană) derivă mai ales din libera desfășurare a activității spirituale potrivit cercetării frumosului ca material universal de reprezentare a simbolurilor cerești.

Nu-i aşa că mă defineşte subtilitatea? Subtilitatea unei legături stranii între metaforă şi observaţia întemeiată pe exigenţele acuităţii spiritului artistic, legătură care invadează intimitatea unei poveşti mereu tinere, ce n-are capăt. Hotărât lucru, numai cu ochii pot pătrunde în intimitatea unei lumi despre care am doar o vagă idee, şi asta doar dacă vederea este axată pe dualitatea ideal-real, unde aparenţa unei viziuni nonfocalizate este completată de imaginaţie. Din acest motiv se poate deduce o cale simplă de examinare a vederii, deschizând spaţiul profunzimilor unei lumi ce îşi orânduieşte sensul în adâncul sufletului meu.

Leadership: Poţi să descrii o emoţie capabilă să genereze o imagine de fundal, tratând-o cu o superioritate pe care te străduiești să o ascunzi de văzul lumii?

Tabloul este totul în faţa ochilor mei. Vreau să spun că avansarea vederii nu reprezintă decât o recunoaștere firească a meritelor pe care le dobândesc ochii printr-o îmbogăţire a perspectivelor şi a înţelegerii faţă de partea vizibilă a realității, nu și față de partea adâncă a creațiilor pe care le reflectă realitatea tabloului. Iar în virtutea acestor merite, precum meritul aparenței de a nu fi întotdeauna adevăr, sau înfățișarea adevărului drept condiție a aparenței, ele revenind progresiv în centrul atenției, face ca artistul să pretindă în mod absolut existența iluziei pentru ca arta să-și extindă granițele și să-și schimbe stilul.

Tabloul înfăţişează idilic un peisaj de vară, cu un soare care nu apune, ci doar coboara la orizont. Şi în acest peisaj care mă absoarbe într-un soi de suspans nedeslușit, dincolo de extensia unui Triuleraos Agnal Zaitaznes, o extensie a unui prezent liber, detaşat de trecut, faţetele realităţii capătă noi dimensiuni și intensități.

Numaidecât, simt cum sunt privit de o viziune cuprinzătoare cu acea expresie de atenție a ochilor care se întorc spre interior înainte de ricoşa spre centrul unei înfloriri incredibile a experienţei vizuale. Însăşi ochii au focusul principal pe puterea mea de a îndura orice mesaj sufletesc, fiindcă tabloul pare că-mi vorbeşte pe seama cuvintelor lui Alexandru Vlahuţă ce îl caracterizau pe pictorul Nicolae Grigorescu:

"Dacă te-ai uitat bine la lucrurile lui, care, de ce le priveşti, de ce-s mai frumoase (semnul operei adevărate), dacă ţi-ai umplut sufletul de ele, târziu, când eşti în mijlocul naturii şi vezi aieve podoabele ei, atunci zici: "Parcă-i un Grigorescu". El a creat o lume tipică. A lui şi-a tuturora. Aceasta-i puterea Artei. Şi secretul ei acesta e. Toate curg. Ea le opreşte cu privirea, alege lamura lor şi o toarnă în tipare eterne. Un adaos la opera vie şi pururea noua a lui Dumnezeu."

Una din particularităţile imortalizării omului prin artă este aceasta: să ştii să te opreşti cu privirea asupra unei imagini care, lăsându-te fără cuvinte, te face să simţi că trăieşti într-o lume care se roteşte în jurul tău, dar care se ascunde tot mai mult de ochii altora.

Cel ce ştie să vadă îşi observă bine vederea înainte să se integreze spiritual într-un tablou intitulat "Dincolo de căpătul lumii", fiindcă a vedea înseamnă, în primul rând, a face distincţie între semnificaţia subiectivă si semnificaţia obiectivă.

Ca să înţelegi semnificaţia unei imagini artistice trebuie să vezi în ea un univers în expansiune care îşi asumă profunzimile unui creator inegalabil. Iar leadershipul este efectul de tip "pururea nou" pe care îl produce o creaţie extinsă spre un nou orizont.

Cel din urmă status al unui condamnat

Maximizează-ţi potenţialul de a te raporta la oamenii din jur, fără să încalci linia continuă a propriei tale măreţii.

Prin anii '90, „ Lionheart ” a făcut mare vâlvă printre iubitorii de filme de acţiune. Pe scurt, Lyon Gaultier dezertează din Legiunea Străină şi ajunge în Statele Unite ale Americii. Îl găseşte pe fratele său între viaţă şi moarte şi pe soţia acestuia, fără banii necesari pentru a-şi vindeca soţul şi pentru a-şi îngriji copilul. Pentru a o ajuta el se implică în luptele ilegale, la îndemnul şi sub îndrumarea lui Joshua, cu care leagă o prietenie strânsă.

Spre finalul filmului, Lyon îl are ca ultim adversar pe Attila, un luptător straşnic, cu o statură impresionantă, care nu fusese niciodată înfrânt. Lyon, în ciuda tuturor eforturilor, nu reuşea să-i facă faţă. Trimis de două ori la podea, părea înfrânt definitiv.

Totul părea pierdut mai ales după ce Joshua îi risipi orice speranţă spunându-i:

- Lyon, nu merită ! Rămâi naibii jos ! Omul ăsta te va ucide ! Am făcut o afacere, vom împărţi totul aşa cum am promis... Lyon, ascultă-mă, am pariat totul pe Attila !

Iar aceste cuvinte impunătoare, dureroase, această ştire cutremurătoare – percepută de Lyon mai mult ca o ofensă adusă cumva performanţelor sale – venită din partea celui care îi datora întreaga încredere, loialitate şi ascultare, au avut un efect contrar, stimulându-i energia interioară şi resursele fizice.

Un strigăt venit din străfundul inimii „NUUUU” a declanşat în Lyon acea furie, acea reacţie de respingere a oricăror îngrădiri. Acumulând într-o singură clipă o ură, o sete imensă de a învinge, ca şi cum ar fi absorbit toată energia şi toate resursele omeneşti posibile, Lyon se ridică pentru a treia oară de la podea şi îi aplică lovitura de graţie lui Attila, urmată de alte câteva lovituri hotărâtoare. Marele titan a fost înfrânt.

Accesul la realităţile cele mai dureroase este condiţionat de modul cum percepi înfrângerea de pe scara propriilor limite şi în funcţie de modul cum îţi defineşti victoria în cadrul unei imagini de sine vag definite.

Dacă nu te poţi apropia aşa cum se cuvine de o infrangere deplina, atunci nu îţi vei putea da seama de valoarea ei. Deoarece infrangerea propovaduieste înlocuirea orgolioasă a unei credinţe cu o alta , dand nastere unei minti si unei trairi complet autonome, nu numai îndepărtate de Dumnezeu, ci chiar excluzându-L.

Se poate întâmpla ca în aprecierea propriului model de leadership să te orientezi după nişte valori, idealuri sau principii care să nu satisfacă corect statutul tău sau al celorlalţi oameni, şi astfel să omiţi „punctele de semnalizare” care îţi indică poziţia ta faţă de ei.

Aceste puncte de semnalizare nu sunt altceva decât o succesiune de trăiri, reacţii, decizii, gânduri, experienţe – corelate între ele, care optimizează procesul tău de transformare în ansamblul lui, fiind vorba mai mult de un proces determinist – care îţi condiţionează accesul la realităţile interioare ale celor din jur.

Leadership: Demonstrezi contrariul unui bine prin rezultatul unui pariu egoist?

Condamnatul îşi aşteaptă sentinţa. După lupta împotriva lui Attila, cei doi prieteni Lyon (învingătorul), şi Joshua (care pariase împotriva lui), se întâlnesc faţă în faţă. Abia în această clipă de supremă sinceritate, de grea încercare pentru amândoi - de împăcare interioară pentru Joshua, de iertare şi de înţelegere pentru Lyon - se poate vedea cel mai bine profunzimea propriu zisă a leadershipului, ca o constantă a dezvoltării şi transformării caracterului uman.

Figura lui Joshua pierdu expresia dură şi deveni tristă, ca şi cum un for superior l-ar fi găsit vinovat şi condamnat pentru înaltă trădare. Lăsându-şi ochii în jos cu acea încetineală caracteristică oamenilor ce îşi ascund gândurile negre, cuprins de o remuşcare mută, mistuit parcă de aceeaşi vină pe care Iuda o avea faţă de sine după ce l-a trădat pe Hristos, făcându-şi curaj, îi spuse lui Lyon care îl privea cu emoţie:

- Într-adevăr ai o inimă mare, Lionheart. Să n-o pierzi, pentru că nu o vei recapăta niciodată.

Iar aceste ultime cuvinte fură pronunţate aşa de încet, aşa de timid, încât Lyon păru mişcat. În clipa când Joshua, copleşit de ruşine, dădu să se îndepărteze, Lyon, cu lacrimi în ochi, îi puse mâna pe umăr şi-l îmbrăţişă ca pe cel mai bun prieten, absolvindu-l astfel de orice vină. Ce învinuiri putea oare să-i aducă? Căci Joshua procedase fără credinţă, dar în spiritul prieteniei la urma urmei; căci dacă într-adevăr el ar fi pierdut, singurul său câştig ar fi venit de pe urma pariului greşit.

Leadership: Îţi testezi potenţialul de transformare a obligaţiei de revizuire a atitudinii faţă de alţii printr-o declaraţie de vinovăţie, de indiferenţă sau de regret?

Condamnatul n-a fost renegat, ci iertat şi acceptat în continuare ca cel mai bun prieten. Iată adevărata esenţă a omului care îmbrăţişează leadershipul, care face apel la reconciliere chiar şi atunci când ceilalţi îl dezamăgesc prin lipsa de loialitate şi angajament, care reuşeşte să scoată la lumină latura lor emoţională.

Victor Hugo şi Honoré de Balzac, au spus la un moment dat: „ Trebuie să cobori mai adânc când e vorba de adâncimea unei răni. "

Trebuie să înţelegem că oamenii sunt mari numai datorită valorii lor interioare, şi nu datorită poziţiei pe care o ocupă din întâmplare. Este dovada adevăratei măreţii să reuşeşti să te conectezi la resursele emoţionale ale celor care ţi-au dispreţuit credinţa şi să remediezi orice fel de neconcordanţă între trăirile tale şi ale lor. Eşecul sau succesul în leadership nu depind de cauze extrinseci, ci de ceea ce este în ea însăşi fiinţa noastră.

Maximizează-ţi potenţialul de a te raporta la oamenii din jur, fără să încalci linia continuă a propriei tale măreţii.

A fi tolerant înseamnă să priveşti lucrurile din perspectiva psihologică a potenţialului de transformare a unei situaţii de conflict într-o recunoştinţă faţă de adevărurile unei realităţi mai înalte care ţi se revelează. De exemplu, realitatea că poţi să demonstrezi contrariul unui bine prin rezultatul unui pariu egoist.

Cel din urmă status al unui condamnat relevă poziţia pe care o ocupă un individ în leadershipul tău şi felul în care reuşeşte să se împace cu sine însuşi după ce îşi scoate la iveală adevărată faţă şi adevăratele valori.

În îndrumarea oamenilor trebuie să te orientezi după felul cum ei acţionează, dar şi în funcţie de factorii decizionali care au contribuit la transformarea lor. Aşa cum un scriitor transmite ceea ce simte prin cuvinte, tot aşa şi tu, transmiţi ceea ce eşti cu adevărat făcând apel la leadership, la profunzimea propriilor tale trăiri - şi mai exact la doza de măreţie care îţi punctează evoluţia.

Leadershipul poate fi promovat şi optimizat numai de acea categorie de indivizi care sunt dispuşi să accepte compromisuri în situaţii delicate. Adică de aceia care stopează orice fel de orgolii şi resentimente, regrupându-şi forţele, trăirile, valorile în jurul unor principii şi abordări bine conturate, astfel încât să se poate încadra în dimensiunea leadershipului de bună calitate.

Cel mai greu este să vezi ce se află chiar în fața ta

On Martie 17, 2023

Felul cum vezi lucrurile nu este felul cum sunt ele, ci felul cum eşti tu, de fapt.

Privesc cu atenţie scaunul meu ergonomic, înainte să mă aşez la birou. Oare ce ar crede el despre mine dacă ar avea senzaţii şi emoţii implicate în legile sensibilităţii? De regulă, aceste dispoziţii sunt întâlnite mai ales la pictori, şi resimţite ca un har, ca o energie divină necreată. Iar ochii nu pot să înfățișeze gândurile oamenilor prin intermediul figurilor sau a lucrurilor, numai o mână de artist reușește asta ghidându-se după conceptul: "lucrul reprezentat vizual într-o imagine coerentă înseamnă altceva decât este cu adevărat el însuși".

Bine, mă aşez pe scaun. Dar imediat privirea mi se îndreaptă asupra tabloului aflat pe peretele din faţa biroului. Alt lucru care, benevol, îmi umple privirea cu frumosul unui peisaj de primăvară, făcând loc trăirilor care au avut loc cu mult timp în urmă, rămânând doar ale mele. Las trăirile acestea să se manifeste ca nişte spirite intermediare, în entuziasmul care parcă mă determină să cercetez cu atenţie natura şi adâncurile a tot ce mă înconjoară.

După cum se observă, impresiile cauzate de lucruri, dar mai ales gândurile despre senzaţii caracterizate prin profunzime, putând fi mai greu explicate prin cuvinte, constituie sursa ideilor care fac dintr-un artist un bun observator al lucrurilor din jur, chiar şi atunci când alte activităţi îi distrag atenţia.

Evident, realismul de care dau dovadă printr-un fel de a fi, printr-o stare de spirit exuberantă şi printr-o mulţime de cuvinte, legând semnificaţia fiecărui gând de vreun lucru exterior, am ajuns să-mi evaluez vederea după principiul: "Felul cum văd lucrurile nu este felul cum sunt ele, ci felul cum sunt eu, de fapt."

Leadership: Lucrul asupra căruia te concentrezi aduce experienţe noi de reprezentare a vizualului printr-o predominanţă a emoţiilor asupra realităţii pe care o produce pendularea între simbol şi semnificaţie?

Îmi pun o întrebare: în ce măsură are nevoie ochiul de vedere ca să poată pătrunde în realitatea unui tablou bazat pe semnificații simbolice și în mijlocul căruia, prin raporturi vagi cu psihologia, sunt sugerate jocuri felurite de pe scena vieții?

Într-o măsură mai mică sau mai mare, în funcție de imaginea al cărei obiect nu doar că semnifică ideea, ci este ea însăși. Fără a-și pierde semnificația, imaginea ochiului este o imagine simbolică prin faptul că se concretizează atât în oglindire, cât și în realitate, dar mai ales în mod independent din punct de vedere subiectiv.

Evident, ceea ce se repetă în văzul ochiului de artist, dobândind semnificația de imagine simbolică și devenind formă de expresie a ideii de "fapt izolat", este tocmai acea posibilitate năstrușnică de a descoperi ceva extrem de profund într-o realitate capabilă să reprezinte formele unei lumi superioare ce intenționează să fie amprenta absolutului. Căci atât scaunul, cât şi tabloul, ca rezultat imediat al acţiunii stimulilor asupra organelor de simţ, sunt însoţite fiecare de o dispoziţie şi o coloratură afectivă generoasă, făcând ca pasiunea mea faţă de artă să rămână constantă şi să accentueze tot mai mult acel Wasotelas Otasojiteyi Relatheanek, frumosul îmbrăţişat de trăirile interioare.

Vai, asta mi-a scăpat din vedere. Nu am crezut niciodată că ochiul poate fi sentimental. Căci pe măsură ce admiram totul din jur, privirea parcă îmi cerea să-mi întorc capul spre anumite puncte de real interes peste care nu puteam să trec cu vederea. Degeaba mă străduiam să impun stăpânire asupra ochilor mei, degeaba încercam să uit lucrurile care mi-au sărit în ochi. Ceva îmi cerea, o putere stranie mă îndemna să-mi aduc aminte că am privit cu mare curiozitate, ca o întrecere între mari vizionari, zecile sau sutele de demonstrații pe care frumosul le așterne înaintea celor care recunosc bunul gust atunci când acesta apare în calea lor.

Leadership: Spiritul tău creativ poate să cuprindă laolaltă lucrurile din jur ca pe niște cazuri particulare de intervenție a logicii într-un "dinamism care își conservă sensibilitatea" ?

În Othello, celebra operă a lui Shakespeare, există două admirabile scene în care Iago îi insuflă maurului toată otrava geloziei, din ură, deoarece l-a promovat pe Cassio la gradul de locotenent, deși nu se remarcase printr-un niciun fapt de arme. Înfăptuind această crimă, subjugând cu o abilitate feroce sufletul lui Othello, Iago procedează astfel încât să lase impresia că-i face un serviciu, iar Othello îi mulţumeşte lovind pătimaş cu pumnalul pe care acesta i-l dă.

În această scenă pumnalul este lucrul ce mi-a atras îndeosebi atenţia, reprezentând un simbol al momentelor mai dure și chiar al unei părți întunecate din sufletul omului, având o problematică morală aflată la vedere. Aşadar, ceea ce exprimă lucrul, prin simbol, este tocmai ceea ce determină hotărâtor atitudinea mea faţă de artă, percepută nu ca o luminozitate orbitoare care distruge individul istoric, ci ca o realitate mult mai imediată care suportă consecinţele unei trăiri acute şi invadatoare.

Shakespeare a fost un artist sensibil la orice se întâmplă în preajma lui, fiindcă a ştiut să transforme trăirile în simbol, evident cu ajutorul lucrurilor. Nu întâmplător ochiul subtil al artistului, chiar dacă se înfățișează ca fiind de sine stătător, fapt ce aparține doar de o aparență a normalității, reprezintă unitatea dispoziției pe care o produce în sine puterea luminii de a anima ființele și lucrurile. Dar subtilitatea ochiului este, în acelaşi timp, și o consecință a luptei pe care lumina o duce cu umbra.

Ideea este următoarea. Cu cât ochiul înclină mai mult spre culoare, în spectrul unei lumini aparte proiectată pe verticala pânzei, cu atât posesorul său direct este mai însuflețit de dorința de a epata, trecând granița realității fizice. Deci el poate să confere o semnificație aparte tabloului lumii. Dar cu cât ochiul tău înclină mai mult spre profunzimea simbolurilor scoase la iveală din întunericul suferinţei şi al luptei interioare, cu atât este mai uşor să-ţi adaptezi vederea la zona reacţiilor, a emoţiilor şi a simţurilor.

De data aceasta leadershipul, aflat sub semnul modalităţii de raportare la imagine, ia în stăpânire legătura dintre lucruri şi emoţii, cu precizarea că ceea ce vezi din apropiere n-o să aibă întotdeauna deschidere către vederea la distanţă.

În acest caz, imaginea în care îţi oglindeşti sinele este o descriere a lucrului aflat în preajma ta, ba chiar în faţa ta !

Nu-i aşa? Pare de mirare că ochii ar putea să invoce agitaţia psihică alături de alte elemente dispuse în armonie, în așa măsură încât spiritul artistic să le cuprindă laolaltă ca pe niște cazuri particulare de intervenție a logicii într-un "dinamism care își conservă sensibilitatea". Adesea lucrurile sunt dominate de un anumit dinamism în care relațiile de antagonism sunt mai puţin vizibile, ceea ce le conferă acestora un aspect mai pronunțat de materialitate.

Cel mai greu este să vezi ce se află chiar în fața ta. Spun asta fiindcă de multe ori vedem, dar nu conştientizăm valoarea a ceea ce vedem. Sau, aşa cum bine spunea cineva, detaliul este cel care îmbogăţeşte clipa, cel care poate schimba lumea: şi el îşi găseşte obârşia numai în lăuntrul nostru, apoi este reflectat în exterior sub forma lucrurilor.

Cel mai greu este să vezi ceea ce este în faţa ochilor tăi

On Ianuarie 11, 2023

O imagine de o uimitoare expresivitate nu este veşnică dacă nu îţi aminteşti de limitele ei şi dacă nu o amplifici cu profunzimea trăirilor tale.

Am construit un loc în care sufletul meu nobil, curat, vibrând a credinţă, îşi regăseşte calmul şi ordinea de care are nevoie ca să se simtă deplin mulţumit. Este şi asta un fel de artă a celor ce aspiră să slujească unui ţel mai înalt decât măruntele griji cotidiene, să facă o pauză şi să simtă cu adevărat liber. De fapt, simt că aici trăiesc în contextul unei ambianţe dominate de spiritul Renaşterii aflate la limita unor decoruri identificate sub denumirea de Terhivanthimi (proiecţiile unei realități exagerate, stridente).

Şi nicicând nu voi sluji mai bine arta decât punându-mi ochii la încercare: să văd tot ce este mai frumos într-un mod în care imaginea capătă un sens artistic.

Aici, pe malul mării, unde nisipul fin se învecinează cu marea deschisă, sub un cer în care nuanţele se împletesc într-un joc ameţitor, mi-am construit un colţ de rai, un prag prin care păşesc în timp ca să mă reîntâlnesc. Şi numai aici pot să absorb din ochi interiorul aceleaşi picturi expresioniste, înrobite într-o singură temă extrem de actuală "Bijuterii cromatice maritime", o dată cu trecerea de la peisaj la mesaj, de la trecut, la prezent şi viitor.

Cumva, familiaritatea mea cu această temă, fiind una recurentă în spaţiul unui realism expresiv în care câmpul vizual al unei psihologii "deschise în afară" vine să identifice personajul cu latura sa lăuntrică, îmi dă speranţe într-o lume a consumului de aparenţe. Marea va fi întotdeauna vederea mea deschisă spre un orizont al unui spirit incomensurabil de pur, un orizont al Fiinţei mai profund decât orice obiect al tranzitivităţii acesteia.

Leadership: Poţi să imortalizezi o imagine într-un mod în care ea să capete un sens artistic în lumina unei viziuni fără limite, astfel încât să realizezi o corelaţie între continuitate şi permanenţă?

Locul în care mă reîntorc reflectă subiectul unei lucrări artistice, alcătuită din mai multe părți independente, care descrie natura în toată splendoarea ei. Pe această cale, utilizez lumina şi culorile pentru a reda viziunea mea proprie asupra corelaţiei între continuitate şi permanentă. În varianta ochilor mei marea își cere nisipul înapoi, dar nu fără un preţ: să fie agitată şi să aducă alge la mal, ceea ce disturbă viziunea unei frumuseţi pure, naturale.

Desigur, continuitatea este cea care mi-a dat sentimentul de a fi parte a unei mari intinderi: marea, de ea îmi agăţ mereu gândurile şi visele cele mai frumoase. Dar permanenţa înseamnă să fac parte din mare ca fiind o extindere a ei, ca un fel de conștiință exprimată prin intermediul simbolurilor celor mai încărcate cu putere emoţională.

Din păcate, n-am văzut Marea Neagră de doi ani, şi de atunci parcă a trecut o veşnicie. Motivul care domină întregul decor nu are nici precedente de tipul unei punţi peste anii îndelungaţi ce s-au scurs de când nu ne-am văzut, nici relaţii cu alte lacune ale memoriei din afara spaţiului cromatic şi plastic, dintr-o virtualitate care mă depăşeşte şi planează dominator asupra unei dimensiuni aspaţiale, psihice.

Mai degrabă, are legătură cu un soi de eternitate care își întregește treptat forţele şi îşi organizează unitatea în timpul prezent. Aici se nimereşte foarte bine un fragment din "Maşina Timpului", de H.G.Wells, când personajul principal îşi mărturisea apartenenţa la o trăire dincolo de timp:

"Mi se părea că încerc mai curând tristeţea dintr-un vis, decât o pierdere reală. Dar, în dimineaţa aceea mă simţeam din nou absolut singur, teribil de singur. Mi-am reamintit de locul unde m-am regăsit de atâtea ori, de liniştea pe care o aveam acolo, de unii oameni, şi, o dată cu aceste imagini, m-a năpădit un dor dureros. Acolo unde mi-am mutat de atâtea ori sufletul, căci doar acolo mă regăseam. Iar acestei stări perfecte de melancolie îi lipsea ceva pentru a ajunge un mecanism perfect şi anume, permanenţa absolută. Mă mâhnea gândul că visul intelectului meu fusese atât de scurt..."

Leadership: Imaginea care îţi creează o stare sufletească deosebită se focalizează pe dobândirea demersului obiectiv de a reașeza pe un loc firesc un fapt de viață adesea trecut cu vederea?

Miza construcțiilor longevive în artă, înălțate din pasiunea sufletească, căreia i se adaugă sârguința eforturilor depuse în direcţia ilustrării anumitor concepte, este dobândirea demersului obiectiv de a reașeza pe un loc firesc un fapt de viață adesea trecut cu vederea, readucând în conștiința nevoia de împlinire sufletească.

Deci, accentul e pus pe ansamblul de valori estetice (armonia, lucrul frumos, sublimul, echilibrul) referitoare la conţinutul de imagini care ating sufletul pentru că inspiră emoții puternice, te înduioșează, te încurajează sau chiar te fac să priveşti viața cu alți ochi. Desigur, unele imagini pot spune o poveste întreagă, fără niciun cuvânt.

Oare tot ce am văzut în locul meu preferat nu aş fi putut vedea oricând? Fiindcă ochii trebuie antrenați să vadă dincolo de actul vederii și al experimentării, ajungând la un nivel mai avansat de aprofundare a percepției unei realități înregistrate ca amintire. Iar când liniile realității nu sunt mereu paralele, evitând pe cât posibil orice repetiție a formelor pe care le iau lucrurile din jur, atunci nici unghiurile de văz ale ochilor nu au același grad, tocmai pentru că diversitatea se obține prin atribuirea unor semnificații simbolice formelor însăși.

Da. Marea îşi închipuie că nisipul face parte din cuprinsul ei, pe când nisipul consideră că marea este o entitate vie care, în mod perpetuu, creează, susţine şi regenerează viaţa. Aşadar, cine este tentat să zăbovească în perimetrul unei singure realități care cuprinde simbolul infinitului, ca atare putând să cuprindă prezența statornică a tuturor creațiilor naturii într-o singură imagine, va trebui să se mulțumească cu absența aparentă a "formei absolute" care nu se distinge nici de particular, nici de general.

Leadershipul se poate compara cu domeniul artei atunci când adoptă ca reper de reprezentare a timpului și ca loc esențial al memoriei, acele trăiri care nu sunt limitate de partea pieritoare a omului.

Tu ai capacitatea de a exprima trăiri care pot induce altora asemenea trăiri?

Cel mai greu este să vezi ceea ce este în faţa ochilor tăi. Mai cu seamă, este greu să vezi marea şi nisipul, sub un cer în care nuanţele se împletesc într-un joc ameţitor, dacă nu eşti bine instruit în domeniul artei, şi mai ales dacă imaginile întipărite în memorie nu readuc în conștiința ta nevoia de împlinire sufletească.

Numai în domeniul artei poți descoperi ceva nou în fiecare moment din zi. Nu uita că limitele unei imagini sunt date de capacitatea ochilor tăi de a observa fundalul ei, rezoluţia ei, trăsăturile ei, reflexiile ei, efectele ei şi mesajele pe care ea le transmite.

Cele 11 legi ale creaţiei

On Februarie 18, 2023

Îndreaptă-ţi atenţia spre ceea ce te concentrezi, fără să ieşi din autoritatea propriei viziuni.

M-am confruntat de curând cu o anume inerție, o anume pasivitate în nuanţarea ideilor trebuincioase unei lucrări ample, ceva care mă făcea să mă închid în mine însumi, fiindu-mi din ce în ce mai greu să comunic ceea ce simt sau vreau. Practic, mă aflam într-o stare de încordare şi iritare nervoasă, ca şi când m-aş fi trezit faţă în faţă cu un alt absolut: trecerea într-o altă dimensiune a personalităţii mele în care simţirea, pusă în stare de comuniune cu iraţionalul activ, dar disciplinat de "rezonabil", părea cumva diluată de sentimentul obscur al unei ofense de nesuferit.

Da, scrisul seamănă cu o șaradă plină de mistere pentru ochiul profan, adesea fiind strâns legat de o stare de slăbiciune, o stare de aşteptare a ideilor bune, egală cu o stare de melancolie sau de singurătate, încât rişti să te închizi în tine însuţi şi să te izolezi de toată lumea, ajungi chiar să te temi de orice relaţii cu oamenii. Sau, cum spunea cineva pe un blog personal: "Nici nu vreau să mai ştiu de ocupaţiile zilnice. Toate îmi impresionează neplăcut nervii şi aşa destul de zdruncinaţi. Nimeni însă nu-mi împărtăşeşte tristeţea."

Memoraţi aceste legi. Le-am scris în primul rând pentru mine, ca să nu fiu dominat şi zdruncinat de tristeţea lipsei de inspiraţie care mă însingurează foarte tare în momentele de creaţie. Ştiu că pare absurd, dar chiar şi un creator bun trece prin perioade albe, când totul pare lipsit de semnificaţie şi de direcţie. Sper ca aceste legi să vă îndrume către o singurătate "productivă", nu către o distanţare de voia bună, de arătatul avânt titanic.

Leadership: Creaţia ta reuşeşte să emoţioneze prin intermediul unui moment plin de forţă, luând în considerare finitudinea unei lumi închise între macrocosm şi microcosm?

A fi un creator desăvârşit, presupune un efort greu de îndurat, ca un frig cumplit care îţi mănâncă din oase, îţi intră în organe prin fiecare părticică de piele lăsată liberă şi îţi consumă toată energia. Este un greu pe care doar cei cu un real potenţial spiritual pot să-l transforme în putericie, un drum lung pe care îl parcurg doar maratoniştii excepţionali - aceia care nu-şi încheie cursa la linia de final.

Ia seama: ceea ce scrii poate fi analog unei lumi închise între macrocosm şi microcosm, adică între ceea ce își doresc ceilalţi şi ceea ce simţi tu. Aşadar, păstrarea unui echilibru între ceea ce cred şi vor ceilalţi, şi ceea ce crezi şi vrei tu să evidenţiezi, este esenţială pentru găsirea unei finalităţi a textului care ar trebui intuită şi anticipată.

Leadership: Obiectul creaţiei tale se poate camufla într-o "privire din-afară" prin prisma noţiunii de similaritate afectivă cuprinsă denotaţie, conotaţie şi simbol?

În spaţiul şi timpul creaţiei, unde ştiinţa se amestecă cu planul emoţional, se relevă nu numai diviziunile textului sau remarcile autorului, ci şi intensitatea însăşi cu care se desfăşoară o acţiune ieşită din comun, un eveniment aleator care pune în mister toată suflarea omului, apoi se consumă în intriga povestirii şi în semnificaţia morală a acesteia. Viteza de derulare a replicilor şi prezenţa unui moment culminant pot să amplifice senzaţia de irealitate, replicile neaşteptate, pantomima vioaie şi inteligentă, fizionomia şi alura personajului aflându-se într-un raport de similaritate esenţială.

În temeiul acestei similarităţi, după cum observa scriitoarea Cotorcea Livia, cuvântul poate înlocui gestul, iar gestul suplineşte cuvântul, amândouă aceste semne înscriindu-se într-un personaj care, în evoluţia lui, se manifestă ca un cuvânt sau ca un gest mimic, adică se reduce la pecete (sens fundamental) şi dezvoltă această pecete în conotaţii.

Un reper de primă importanţă în stabilirea specificului textului scris, sub îndrumarea unei gândiri care se gândeşte pe sine, ni-l oferă afirmaţia conform căreia modul în care îţi conturezi ideile se naşte din etalarea unei intenţionalităţi clare, emoţionale, transformatoare, o intenţionalitate de conştiinţă şi adevăr orientată în lucrul contemplat.

De exemplu, o informaţie importantă, în calitatea sa de subiect al unui enunţ, poate să conţină implicit o întâmplare ieşită din comun şi, prin aceasta, devine "ochiul" unui personaj. Această întâmplare, cum ar specifica un poet care vede, se vede şi este văzut scriind, reprezintă pecetea personajului şi apare ca o condiţie a oricărei acţiuni a lui.

Pentru a surprinde leadershipul în complexitatea şi în dinamismul lui, trebuie să recurgi la un procedeu inedit de aducere în prim plan a unei experienţe personale mai vaste, prin intermediul unei creaţii care interpretează viziunea unei noi laturi a expresiei „a aduce plus valoare”.

Cele 11 legi ale creaţiei sunt trebuincioase realizării unei lucrări originale care deschide oamenilor drumul către lumea academică și intelectuală. Ele pot fi tratate ca o combinație între ambiția de mărire a propriei valori şi de apreciere socială, de creștere a prestigiului, și ocazia de a descrie o realitate personală a cărei relevanță este, în imaginea de ansamblu, hotărâtor majoră.

Etalarea unei palete vaste a nivelelor de lectură, scrisul poartă pecetea unei creaţii originale, a unei individualităţi bine conturate, fiind resimţită ca etalare a unei palete vaste a nivelelor de cultură. Şi tot scrisul, ca pretext al unei intenţionalităţi stabile, îndreptată în sensul unei realităţi sensibile care ar închipui una nesensibilă, devine temeiul funcţiei portante a personajului povestitor, precum şi germenele unei intrigi organizate, concise, precise.

Se spune că arta este nemuritoare, că printr-o creaţie artistică îţi câştigi locul în eternitate. Aşadar, creaţia unui scriitor, ca nucleu narativ al textului real sau simbolic, nu trebuie întreruptă în continuitatea ei de prezenţa unitară pe care o realizează personajul cheie, prezenţă marcată uneori prin izolare, fapt care impune cuvântul şi liniştea dintre cuvinte.

Cele două feţe ale sufletului

On Decembrie 01, 2010

Modelează-ţi sufletul cu atenţie, finisând latura bună din tine şi nelăsând să intervină cea întunecată.

În celebra carte "Secretele Succesului" , scriitorul Dale Carnegie povesteşte o întâmplare din viaţa lui Abraham Lincoln.

În noaptea de 4 iulie, 1863, în timpul Bătăliei de la Gettysburg, generalul Lee şi armata lui învinsă, şi-a început retragerea spre sud sub o ploaie torenţială. Ajunşi la Potomac s-au împotmolit din cauza fluviului care ieşise din matcă şi nu putea fi traversat. Lee era prins în capcană.

Abraham Lincoln a înţeles perfect. Aceasta era marea şi unica ocazie pe care o aşteptase atâta timp, de a captura armata lui Lee şi de a pune capăt războiului. Plin de speranţă, i-a ordonat generalului George Gordon Meade, omul său de nădejde, să-l atace imediat pe Lee. Însă Meade a făcut exact contrariul: a şovăit, a amânat, a refuzat să-l atace pe Lee, găsind tot felul de scuze, iar în cele din urmă apele s-au retras, iar Lee, împreună cu restul armatei sale, a reuşit să traverseze Potomacul.

Furios la culme, foarte dezamăgit fiindcă Meade nu a avut curajul să-i aplice lui Lee lovitura de graţie şi să-l înfrângă definitiv, deşi îl avea în mână, Lincoln a redactat aceasta scrisoare către Meade:

"Nu cred că sunteţi conştient de consecinţele dezastrului produs de fuga lui Lee. Îl aveam în mâini şi capturarea lui, asociată cu recentele noastre victorii, ar fi încheiat războiul. În condiţiile de faţă conflictul se va prelungi pe un termen nedefinit. Dacă nu aţi fost capabili să-l atacaţi pe Lee lunea trecută, când nu eraţi expuşi la riscuri, cum aţi putea să faceţi această ispravă la sudul râului unde nu puteţi transporta decât o mica parte – nu mai mult de două treimi – din forţele de care dispuneaţi atunci? N-ar fi înţelept să pretind şi nu voi pretinde că veţi avea succes acum. V-aţi irosit şansa şi acest eşec m-a marcat puternic."

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi direcţionezi gândurile după sentimentele pe care le trăieşti în momentele de încercare, încât să atragi evenimentele pe care le vei experimenta într-un context de tip "reper al caracterului" ?

Marele scriitor argentinian Jorge Luis Borges a spus odată un mare adevăr: "Ceea ce rostim nu seamănă întotdeauna cu noi înşine." Generalul Meade n-a văzut niciodată această scrisoare, fiindcă, se pare, Lincoln nu a expediat-o niciodată. Scrisoarea a fost găsită printre documentele lui după moarte.

Probabil, înainte să expedieze scrisoarea, Lincoln s-a uitat în oglindă, s-a pus faţă în faţă cu el însuşi, cu cel care era el cu adevărat, cu propriile sentimente şi valori, şi s-a gândit cu grijă dacă este bine, sau nu, să spună tot ce avea pe suflet.

Punându-se pentru o clipă în locul generalului Meade, privind lucrurile din perspectiva acestuia – a unui om timid care trecuse prin atâtea bătălii şi văzuse atâta moarte în faţa ochilor, a cărui timpane fuseseră străpunse de urletele şi zbieretele răniţilor şi muribunzilor - şi ascultându-şi inima cu adevărat, Lincoln a decis în final să nu-şi descarce supărarea, păstrând scrisoarea în biroul său.

Pentru o clipă Lincoln şi-a văzut cele două feţe ascunse ale sufletului său: cea bună şi cea rea. Putea să-l judece cu asprime pe Meade după faptele sale şi să-l mustre, rănindu-i astfel sentimentele – ceea ce l-ar fi obligat să părăsească armata. Însă Lincoln, fiind înzestrat cu o mare putere empatică, a ţinut cont mai mult de partea bună a sufletului său, punând la socoteală simţămintele generalului său.

Lincoln a reuşit să-şi dezvăluie îngerii şi demonii în faţa oglinzii - latura buna a sufletului său şi latura întunecată. Însă nu a permis laturei sale negative să influenţeze buna funcţionare a leadershipului său. Există un interval între stimul şi răspuns, iar cheia către un leadership eficient este felul în care folosim acel interval, şi dacă optăm spre decizia cea mai bună.

Leadership: Ai curajul să renunţi la orice încercare de a-ţi înfrânge pornirile, fără să deformezi imaginea clarităţii cu care îţi percepi greşelile din spaţiul ostil al regretelor?

Te dedici cu tot sufletul remedierii defectelor tale de caracter care nu-i lasă pe oameni să evolueze spre a fi noi modele de urmat?

Dacă eşti un lider foarte bun, atunci te vei dedica cu tot sufletul remedierii defectelor caracterului tău. Aşa cum un sculptor stăpânit de o puternică patimă creatoare îşi modelează figura cu gesturi subtile, calculate, foarte stăpânite, şi se opreşte să finiseze orice detaliu, tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi modelezi propriul suflet cu atenţie, ascultându-ţi glasul interior, cu o mare răbdare, "finisând" latura bună din tine şi nelăsând să intervină cea întunecată. Nu lăsa niciodată emoţiile negative să câştige teren în faţa propriei tale conştiinţe.

Crezi că ştii totul despre oameni? Greşeşti dacă crezi asta. De fapt, s-ar putea să nu ştii nimic despre ei. Însă, daca îţi doreşti din tot sufletul şi ai îndeajunsă răbdare, vei reuşi să priveşti lucrurile din perspectiva lor. Iar acesta este primul lucru pe care trebuie să-l faci pentru ca leadershipul tău să funcţioneze mai bine: să-ţi schimbi atitudinea şi gândirea, analizând orice situaţie prin prisma celorlalţi.

Va exista o permanentă stare de pândă între tine şi oamenii din jurul tău. Iar dacă te asemeni cu acei lideri severi care, cu un fel de satisfacţie răutăcioasă îşi descarcă supărarea pe fiecare persoană care nu reuşeşte să execute ordinele sale cu sfinţenie, te vei pune într-o lumină destul de proastă. Deschide-ţi sufletul înainte să judeci oamenii după faptele lor, înainte să le zdruncini încrederea în ei înşişi. Trebuie să existe în tine o urmă de blândeţe şi de empatie, nu-i aşa?

În leadership descoperim o abundenţă nebănuită a situaţiilor în care se aplică deformarea sau supradimensionarea unui fragment din caracterului omului care atentează la coloană vertebrală a obligaţiei de a fi martorul principal la drama propriei sale însingurări sau înstrăinări.

Cele două feţe ale sufletului sunt, în esenţă, legate de aspectul tău interior, nevăzut celorlalţi, dar care la un moment dat iese la lumină. Ele sunt coordonatele care te definesc ca persoană, respectiv ca lider, care îţi descriu caracterul, trăsăturile tale frumoase sau întunecate, şi care contribuie la succesul tău pe termen mediu şi lung. Însă cele două feţe ale sufletului tău se vor lupta permanent, una se va lupta să înţeleagă simţămintele celorlalţi oameni, cealaltă să le ignore. Trăsăturile tale dominante vor fi cele care vor influenţa deciziile pe care le vei lua.

Concluzie: Se spune că toţi suntem alcătuiţi dintr-o componentă Ying şi una Yang care permanent ar trebui să fie în echilibru. Dar sunt momente când una din ele este dominantă. Dacă ne lăsăm dominaţi de una din ele, riscăm să eşuăm în deciziile noastre.

Fă permanent efortul de a-ţi cunoaşte cele două componente ale sufletului, mai ales pe cele legate de aspectele negative pentru a le putea corecta, deoarece ele pot uneori determina luarea unor decizii cu efecte catastrofale. Nu uita că liderii cei mai buni se dedică cu tot sufletul remedierii defectelor legate de caracterul lor.

Cele două identităţi ale lui Eisenstein

On August 13, 2014

Descoperă noi perspective de gestionare a leadershipului, analizând proporţia dintre cele două constante ale valorii sale.

Biografului nu-i sunt permise pronosticurile, totuşi sunt sigur că odată, în moştenirea literară a lui Serghei Eisenstein, se va găsi confesiunea confirmând acestea. Munca sa la realizarea următoarelor filme nu face decât să confirme o atare ipoteza. Până atunci notăm contradicţiile şi încercăm să descoperim în labirintul lor un mecanism de creaţie care se va perpetua: ideea. Abstracţia generează totdeauna la el succesiunea vulcanică a soluţiilor artistice care apoi, la analiza severă, se dovedesc a fi fost riguros ordonate după legi imuabile.

Să nu uităm însă că legea lăuntrică a operei de artă o creează nu esteticianul, ci artistul. În acest sens exista un continuu conflict, sub masca unei perfecte înţelegeri, între Einsestein-creatorul şi Eisenstein-esteticianul. Cel de-al doilea se străduieşte, cu invidie, să-i smulgă meritele primului. *****

Leadership: Stilul tău de a combina mai multe perspective de abordare a unui subiect de actualitate se întregeşte prin calitatea de a fi autentic sub aspectul condiţiilor de valabilitate şi de fond ale unei opere care se vrea a fi forma unei singure arte?

Leadershipul trebuie să fie util şi totodată atrăgător ca să aducă rezultate pe măsură aşteptărilor, iar aici vorbim despre o combinaţie a tuturor variantelor de realizare a unei creaţii de mare valoare şi popularitate. Din păcate, nu tot ceea ce este atrăgător are în mod necesar valoare educativă, constructivă şi mobilizatoare.

Leadershipul se întregeşte mai degrabă prin calitatea de a fi autentic sub aspectul condiţiilor de valabilitate şi de fond ale unui motto pe care îl putem ataşa şi aici: "unitate în diversitate", conform criteriilor de evaluare a performanţei în ceea ce priveşte aprofundarea cunoaşterii unui subiect care răspunde unui interes practic. Dar se întregeşte şi prin capacitatea de a transforma o idee în realitatea unor concepte binecunoscute, dar repovestite în alt sistem de referinţă.

Referindu-ne mai ales la, condiţiile de valabilitate ale unei opere de arta, ele pot fi îndeplinite prin ceea ce realizezi prin prisma unor noi abordări a temelor artistice, în timp ce condiţiile de fond pot fi îndeplinite printr-un proces de lărgire a conţinutului ideatic şi de generalizare a valorilor pe care le cultivi.

Subiectele pot surprinde o vedere de ansamblu, de la înălţime, o perspectivă mult mai spectaculoasă asupra lumii, asupra vieţii, asupra evenimentelor, asupra personajelor, riguos înfăţişate prin meritul artistului de a disloca arta din perimetrul viziunilor plastice, orientând-o către epic, către literatură, către o înţelegere a realităţii care îl caracterizează pe om într-o anumită treaptă a evoluţiei intelectuale sau spirituale.

O operă care se vrea a fi forma unei singure arte nu se naşte din dispoziţia de a te concentra asupra încercării de a obţine o promovare sau o reacţie pozitivă din partea altor persoane, ci din capacitatea de a fi autentic în ceea ce vrei să te reprezinte ca stil şi personalitate în controversa dintre estetică şi durabilitate.

Un regizor foarte bun este acela care ştie să construiască un scenariu după acea vestită maximă enunţată de Coco Chanel: "Nu trăiești decât o singură dată. Ai putea să fii și amuzant, cu ocazia aceasta."

Pentru a urca pe culmile performanţei va trebui să te autoevaluezi regulat, mai întâi prin prisma creatorului care îşi exprimă idealurile prin originalitate, în scopul producerii unui nou tipar de gândire, punând o parte din sine în fiecare element al activităţii de cercetare. Apoi prin prisma unui promotor de „produs atractiv" care, chiar şi în perioade mai puţin faste, stimulează prin imaginea de brand, prin pozitivitatea lui, prin sensul pe care îl atribuie realităţii, prin mesajul de efect pe care îl transmite, prin sugestie, prin abilitatea de a se integra în diverse medii, prin puterea de a înfrumuseţa funcţionalul, fără a-l compromite.

Dacă nu vrei ca leadershipul să devină un obstacol în calea procesului de dezvoltare, atunci analizează proporţia dintre cele două constante ale valorii sale: estetica şi durabilitatea. Observă convergenţa lor în raport cu produsul finit, analizând bogăţia de sensuri ale mesajului pe care îl promovezi în ceea ce priveşte stilul şi de trendul de creştere pe care îl traversezi.

Estetica este ceea ce se vede într-o imagine plină de viaţă. Durabilitatea este ceea ce se constituie într-o adevărată geografie a interiorităţii care conduce într-o singură direcție, cea a spiritualităţii creaţiei.

Aşa cum o pictură se poate remarca prin profunzimea expresiei realiste, leadershipul - ca produs al gândiri tale - trebuie să se remarce prin puternica lui individualitate. Leadershipul este un bun ce trebuie individualizat prin măsurarea, compararea şi cuantificarea celor două elemente variabile: „artă creativă" sau „creaţie estetică".

Creatorul şi Esteticianul sunt două feţe ale aceleiaşi monede, sunt două aspecte ale aceleiaşi existenţe, ale aceleiaşi energii, dar care se deosebesc prin faptul că primul se concentrează asupra mixului optim de "context" şi "conţinut", al doilea se concentrează asupra aprecierilor pozitive prin intermediul generării efectelor vizuale de înaltă calitate.

Cele două identităţi ale lui Eisenstein evidenţiază dualismul creatorului de performanţă în leadership care trebuie să se distingă şi prin originalitate estetică, dar mai ales prin creativitate bazată pe elemente ştiinţifice cu valoare aplicativă şi transformatoare.

Cele două proeminenţe ale leadershipului

On Septembrie 25, 2016

Trezeşte "revolta" celor din jur, dovedindu-le totodată superioritatea ta în întinderea şi adâncimea gândirii.

Personalitatea sa era cuceritoare. Îi plăcea să-i facă pe ceilalţi să râdă, dovedindu-le însă totodată superioritatea lui în întinderea şi adâncimea gândirii. Fantezia sa extraordinară şi pasiunea profundă pentru inovaţie în creaţie îi fascinau pe cei care l-au cunoscut atunci. Sunt trăsături ce i-au rămas proprii până la sfârşitul vieţii.

Îi domina pe cei din jur. Un prim contact cu el trezea revolta interlocutorului. Cei ce aveau tăria de a ajunge să-l cunoască îndeaproape erau cuceriţi de farmecul lui. În fond nu era vorba de infatuare. Cunoscându-şi perfect valoarea, relaţia sa cu cei din jur pornea de la această premisă devenită fapt obiectiv. Pentru geniul său, intuit şi descoperit de minţile luminate încă din acea vreme ca un fapt, numele său devenise un superlativ al puterii creatoare.

*O ştia şi nu o ascundea ruşinat. Accepta aceasta lucid şi obiectiv. Pe mulţi faptul însuşi îi irita. Şi pare că nici atunci, nici mai târziu vreodată, Eisenstein nu menaja şi nu ţinea seama de această iritare. Dimpotrivă. **

Leadership: Poți să pretinzi respect prin imaginea afişată de funcţia „Defying”, fără să afişezi altă imagine prin accesarea link-ului „Follow Me”?

Plecând de la zicala „ Fii tu însuţi și o să afli cine ți-e prieten ”, în cazul trecerii de la faza de autoevaluare la cea de dezvoltare, se poate ajunge la cazul de exploatare a percepţiilor celorlalți prin maximizarea valorii propriei ființe. Care duce la ipostaza de dependent de o anumită atmosferă de splendoare, de o anumită emoție pe care o poți controla în scopul evidenţierii trăsăturilor tale dominante.

Imaginea unui lider trebuie să îmbrăţişeze statutul de "superlativ al puterii creatoare", încât oamenii să fie uimiţi de vastitatea unei gândiri ieşite din comun, să fie atât fascinaţi cât şi înspăimântaţi, încât să se creeze o situaţie de alarmă. Este singura situaţie care atrage cel mai mult atenţia.

Trebuie ca imaginea ta să se substituie unui mod de alcătuire a structurii de personalitate care permite adaptarea la orice fel de presiuni exterioare, fără ca prin aceasta să-ţi periclitezi latura cea mai de sus a identităţii. Strădania maximă este de a fi un om înrădăcinat profund în solul superiorităţii, în întinderea şi adâncimea gândirii.

Superioritatea este, uneori, modalitatea de a-ți demonstra valoarea prin prisma fascinaţiei pe care o manifeşti faţă de contrariul aşteptărilor lumii.

În acest caz, preocuparea ta trebuie să cristalizeze îndrăzneala supremă de a-ți menține impactul, această formă de deplinătate care nu lasă loc de regrete, fără a căuta explicaţii şi argumente în funcţie de noile schimbări ale realităţii celor din jur. Trăsăturile care îţi rămân proprii până la sfârşitul vieţii trebuie să denote o anumită viziune despre tine, o anumită imagine, o anumită părere, cum că indiferent ce faci – faci fiindcă este pe placul tău, nu pe placul altora, şi că este în folosul ştiinţei, nu în folosul unei persoane care are nevoie de ajutor ca să se afirme.

Un lider știe să se prezinte în ipostaza de „băiat plin de sine”, şi nu o ascunde ruşinat. Acceptă aceasta lucid şi obiectiv. Pe mulţi faptul însuşi îi irită. Dar el nu menajează şi nu ţine seama de această iritare. Dimpotrivă.

Astfel devii un superlativ al puterii creatoare. Să creezi din tine o imagine neobişnuită, să pretinzi respect prin imaginea afişată de funcţia „Defying”, fără să afişezi altă imagine prin accesarea link-ului „Follow Me”, trezind adesea revolta interlocutorului și cu toate acestea el să fie cucerit, asta echivalează cu un salt în gol de la înălțime care nu-ți „rupe picioarele” la impact.

Dimpotrivă, uneori te transformă într-un om superior, încrezător şi înzestrat cu multe daruri de la Dumnezeu. Trebuie să fii un caz excepţional.

A trezi revolta celor din jur înseamnă să demonstrezi că posezi o abilitate pe care nimeni altcineva nu o are, şi că această abilitate funcţionează la capacitate maximă fără să i se impună anumite măsuri şi fără să fie afectată de vreo pasiune egoistă.

Cele două proeminenţe ale leadershipului sunt reprezentate de două tipuri de personalităţi distincte: una care trezește revolta celor din jur și alta care își cunoaşte perfect valoarea, relaţia sa cu cei din jur pornind de la această premisă devenită fapt obiectiv.

Cercul care închide toate sensurile

Adaugă o imensă semnificaţie leadershipului tău, fără să pierzi din vedere idealul de om desăvârşit pe care îl poartă în suflet ceilalţi oameni.

Vreau să încep acest articol prin a povesti despre un moment istoric, care îl are în centrul acţiunii pe faimosul general rus Alexander Suvorov. Victoriile atât de scump dobândite la Trebia, Novi şi Cassano stinsese entuziasmul armatei sale. Avangarda nu mai voia să pornească spre Franţa. Suvorov se adresă soldaţilor săi, dar nimeni nu-i dădu ascultare. Totul părea pierdut. Nu şi dacă ar fi întrebuinţat vreun mijloc puternic de a-i readuce la supunere pe răzvrătiţi.

Suvorov luă opt sergenţi şi le ordonă să sape o groapă. După 10 minute groapa era gata, spre marea mirare a întregii armate care se strânse în cerc, căţărându-se pe cele două dealuri care mărgineau drumul.

Atunci, Suvorov descălecă, îşi rupse sabia şi o aruncă în groapă; îşi smulse epoleţii, unul după altul şi îi aruncă în groapă; apoi îşi luă decoraţiile ce-i acopereau pieptul şi le azvârli peste sabie şi epoleţi. În sfârşit dezbrăcându-se până la piele, se culcă el însuşi în groapă, strigând cu glas tare:

- Acoperiţi-mă cu pământ şi lăsaţi aici pe generalul vostru ! Nu mai sunteţi copiii mei, nu vă mai sunt părinte; nu-mi rămâne decât să mor !

La aceste cuvinte, rostite cu un glas atât de puternic încât fuseseră auzite de toată armata, soldaţii ruşi săriră în groapă plângând, şi ridicară pe general în braţe, rugându-l să-i ierte şi să-i ducă în luptă împotriva inamicului.

- Aşa da ! Strigă apoi Suvorov, îmi recunosc copiii. Contra inamicului ! Contra inamicului !

Leadership: Poziţia pe care o deţii se bazează pe o putere de convingere care reflectă teama ta de a pierde ceva care este important pentru tine, mai ales dacă nu eşti sigur ce simt ceilalţi din jur?

Un lider nu renunţă niciodată la poziţia pe care o deţine. Când vrei să întăreşti relaţiile cu cei pe care îi conduci, nu renunţa niciodată la poziţia pe care o deţii. Suvorov nu a renunţat la poziţia lui. Ci i-a determinat pe soldaţii săi să creadă în el, i-a convins prin puterea de sugestie, prin voinţa sa, că poziţia lui este cheia reuşitei în acel moment dificil.

Un lider care nu se bazează pe puterea sa de convingere, care nu ştie să-şi păstreze poziţia pe care o deţine, este ca un pilot de curse aflat în competiţia vieţii lui, a cărui maşină rămâne fără combustibil. Odată ce ai construit relaţii cu oamenii şi ai trecut la un nivel superior de performanţă, nu abandona şi nu neglija niciodată aceste relaţii.

Leadershipul este ca un cerc care închide toate sensurile de urmat ale celorlalţi oameni – drumurile sunt de la centru sau la periferie, şi invers. Spun asta fiindcă singura cale de a-i câştiga pe oameni de partea ta este să le anulezi orice nedumerire faţă de modul tău de a-ţi atinge scopurile şi să-i îndrepţi, prin voinţa ta, prin credinţă, prin puterea de convingere şi sugestie, prin punerea în valoare a potenţialului lor - spre o singură direcţie, cea dorită de tine.

Indicatorul spre o direcţie de urmat este dat de exemplul personal care reflectă cel mai bine poziţia ta de lider. Trebuie să fii un model pentru oameni, să conferi o înţelegere superioară a esenţei leadershipului tău. Iar eu cred că atitudinea ta faţă de opiniile, aşteptările şi perspectivele oamenilor determină ataşamentul lor faţă de tine. Dacă îi laşi pe oameni să câştige teren în faţa leadershipului tău, înseamnă că nivelul tău de influenţă este superficial. Adaugă o imensă semnificaţie leadershipului tău, fără să pierzi din vedere idealul de om desăvârşit pe care îl poartă în suflet ceilalţi oameni.

Leadership: Oamenii reacţionează plin de curaj în faţa dinamicii propriei tale naturi deterministe reflectată în conştiinţa istorică, sau eşti ca "o roată care se învârteşte singură" pe calea imprevizibila ce se deschide înaintea ta?

Cum îi îndrumi pe oameni în direcţia aleasă de tine? Care sunt paşii pe care trebuie să-i faci pentru a le influenţa în mod pozitiv sensul lor de deplasare? (Cum le poţi influenţa perspectivele de dezvoltare? Nu uita că elementul care are cel mai mare impact pentru performanţa ta este nivelul de leadership la care te afli în relaţie cu fiecare persoană în parte. De aceea te întreb: cum reacţionează oamenii la schimbarea impusă de tine?

Nu poţi să fii acceptat ca lider dacă oamenii nu te înţeleg, nu-i aşa? Oamenii nu pot să-ţi acorde un minim de încredere dacă nu ai o oarecare înrâurire asupra existenţei lor, asupra voinţei lor, asupra judecăţii lor, asupra comportamentului lor, dacă viziunea ta nu corespunde valorilor după care ei se ghidează în drumul către performanţă şi succes. Judecă, deci, bine valorile după care se ghidează oamenii înainte de a face pasul care te apropie de ei.

Dă o şansă leadershipului tău dacă vrei să-ţi menţii poziţia mai mult timp. Pentru asta trebuie să pătrunzi în lumea interioară a celorlalţi oameni, să te apropii moral şi emoţional de ei, să citeşti cele mai adânci sentimente ale lor, etalându-le semnificaţia misiunii, importanţa ei şi motivele pentru care ei trebuie să se implice în continuare, cu un avânt tot mai mare. Atitudinea şi capacitatea ta de a te adapta la fiecare situaţie în parte este cheia întregului proces de finisare a leadershipului tău.

Leadershipul este ceea ce te face să te simţi puternic şi urmat de ceilalţi oameni, atunci când timpul istoriei se hrăneşte cu luarea deciziilor tale.

Cercul care închide toate sensurile relevă de fapt mobilizarea celorlalţi oameni spre acţiune, spre rezultate bune, spre o realitate în care viața nu se mai rezumă la „a supraviețui", ci la a contribui la atingerea unui scop măreţ capabil să facă istorie. Toţi cei care urmează liderul în mod loial (până la capăt) închid cerul încrederii pe care se bazează liderul, simţindu-se obligaţi să acţionezi în numele unei cauze care înlătură de multe ori caracterul pedepsibil al unei fapte.

Cercul inimilor surde

On August 11, 2011

Nu contează ce etalezi în faţa ochilor celorlalţi, ci ceea ce semeni în inima lor.

Vă amintiţi filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ”? La un moment dat Bill Parrish, fondatorul şi preşedintele corporaţiei Parrish Communications, se adresează celor 14 membri ai comitetului director, adunaţi în sala de consiliu, nerăbdători să primească confirmarea lui Bill în privinţa ofertei generoase a lui John Bontecu de a achiziţiona compania.

- M-a interesat să-l cunosc pe John, ieri. Impresionant, cred…Dar, m-a pus pe gânduri. Eu am început afacerea asta pentru că asta îmi doream s-o fac. Ştiam că nu voi deveni un mare scriitor, dar, de asemenea, ştiam că viaţa nu înseamnă doar să cumperi un lucru cu un dolar pentru a-l vinde cu doi. Voiam să realizez ceva la un standard foarte înalt. Voiam să transmit ştiri lumii. Şi voiam să le transmit aşa cum sunt.

Bill a captat atenţia celor aflaţi în sală, astfel încât toţi îl ascultară nu doar cu mintea, ci şi cu inima. Însă, gândurile sale erau foarte diferite de cele ale membrilor consiliului. Aceştia, intuind că Bill nu va accepta propunerea lui Bontecu, nu păreau să fie în totalitate de acord cu el.

Leadership: Venitul personalizat al compoziţiei oratorice pe care o iau în considerare oamenii din jur creşte sau se reduce sub presiunea contextului caracterizat de costul strălucirii cu care ţi-ai afirmat nota originală a personalităţii tale?

Un lucru important trebuie să reţii. De obicei, a le vorbi oamenilor despre propriile tale idealuri e ca şi cum ai striga cuvintele într-o fântână goală. Acolo cel puţin ecoul îţi răspunde. În general nimeni nu este impresionat de ce spui tu dacă interesele tale nu corespund cu ale lor.

În cazul lui Bill, lucrurile au stat cu totul altfel. În final aproape toţi membrii comitetului director au salutat decizia sa şi au acceptat-o, fiindcă el a reuşit să le inducă acea stare de alertă fundamentată pe o raţiune temeinică şi pe nişte valori personale care contau foarte mult pentru ei. Atunci, cu toţii au înţeles perfect ce îl caracterizează pe Bill.

Ceea ce se înscrie într-un avânt oarecum autojustificativ de forţă sau de recunoştinţă faţă de ce ai mai bun în tine nu este viziunea care leagă „salvarea" lumii de vreun dezastru oarecare, ci gustul subtil al valorilor spirituale stimulat de concepţia despre rolul personal în evoluţia unei formule de origine creştină: încearcă să generezi sentimentul pe care te aştepţi să îl ai după ce îţi atingi obiectivele !

Dar aportul cel mai important al percepţiei tale faţă de tine însuţi în raport cu lumea din jur, subordonată anumitor realităţi şi principii care îţi permit să păşeşti înainte spre o treaptă mai înaltă de înțelepciune, este poate acela privitor la ştergerea graniţelor dintre prezenţă şi conştiinţă.

Prezența este ceea ce te recomandă ca specialist, ca parte a unui proces de îmbunătăţire constantă a performanţelor. Iar conștiința este ceea ce te recomandă ca judecător al faptelor pe care se întemeiază convingerile de nezdruncinat de la care se pleacă în abordarea oricărei diferenţieri valorice, căpătând valenţe de catalizator al tendinţelor de exteriorizare prin destănuirea unor lucruri profunde despre tine.

Să aduci la cunoştinţa oamenilor ce se întâmplă înainte de a se întâmpla este o promisiune a reuşitei dezvăluită încă incomplet, adică fără ajutorul unei revelaţii de mare încărcătură afectivă şi spirituală.

Înainte ca valorile tale să fie acceptate, precum cunoaşterea şi valorizarea trecutului, trebuie să proiectezi în conştiinţa oamenilor condiţiile şi lecţiile reuşitei profesionale, trendul unor împliniri de excepţie, prin dorinţa de afirmare a profunzimii care cere să fii super-onest în ceea ce exprimi faţă de ceilalţi.

Oamenii nu te vor sprijini dacă nu îmbraci mereu acea haină fără pată a personalităţii tale care se distinge prin calităţi unice, extraordinare, pe care ei să le admire la tine.

Nu contează ce etalezi în faţa ochilor celorlalţi, nu contează ce idealuri măreţe ai. Ci contează numai ce semeni în inima lor. Dovada caracterului tău bun şi puternic stă în capacitatea ta de a rezona cu ceilalţi, de a te raporta aşteptărilor lor, de a corespunde cu modelul de lider pe care îl doresc ei cu adevărat. Nu-i de-ajuns să le zgudui din temelii toate îndoielile şi „De ce-urile", trebuie să primeşti şi confirmarea lor în ceea ce priveşte transformarea ta în persoana pe care ei o consideră potrivită idealurilor lor.

Captarea atenţiei oamenilor începe cu felul în care te autopercepi din punct de vedere al modului cum te raportezi la experienţele trecutului - care impulsionează spre transformarea atitudinii faţă de viaţă sau spre extinderea conştiinţei de îndatorire spirituală.

Cercul inimilor surde simbolizează consecinţa unei abordări neconvingătoare a liderului care nu s-a străduit sau nu a putut să ajungă la sentimentele oamenilor. Simbolizează acea lipsă de consens sau de concordanţă a sentimentelor ce stau la baza raţiunii, fără de care uneori nu ai şanse de câştig.

Din "cercul inimilor surde" fac parte toţi acei oameni care nu cred în tine şi nu te sprijină în deciziile tale fiindcă nu te cunosc îndeajuns de bine. Ca să convingi oamenii să te susţină în deciziile pe care le iei, mai întâi trebuie să rezonezi cu ceea ce simt ei.

Aşa după cum „somnul raţiunii naşte monştri" (Francisco de Goya), tot aşa raţiunea pură fără sentimente nu poate exista.

Străduieşte-te să ajungi în adâncurile sufletelor pe care le conduci. Nu e suficient să etalezi o perspectivă ce corespunde cu viziunea şi interesele tale personale, ci în primul rând e necesar să sădeşti în sufletul lor credinţa că îi dirijezi în folosul lor.

Cercul

On Martie 21, 2016

Învaţă să te reprezinţi într-un context al formei tale concrete de autoexprimare, de-a lungul timpului, în relația dintre unităţile fundamentale identitare „Origini și Consecinţe".

Am făcut tot ce mi-a stat în puteri să ţin departe de ochii lumii această latură personală, ca un alchimist tăcut şi discret, nedivulgând nimănui rezultatele experienţelor mele de viaţă, între istoricul unei clipe de singurătate şi setea mistuitoare de eternitate. Fără a-mi da seama de fapt că limitele realităţii (pe care o numeam "tărâmul gândurilor") erau ceea ce mă definea şi în lipsa lor rămânea doar un spaţiu gol, un produs mistic al închipuirii, un loc fără ieşire din coma profundă numită viaţă.

Omul e doar o moleculă de ADN circular distinct, o uniune strânsă de carbon, hidrogen şi oxigen, combinat cu energie vie, mergând în direcția a ceea ce este numit suflet, o iluzie perpetuată doar de credinţa în ceva care se înălţă mai presus de pământ şi se ridică la veşnicie. Iată latura mea personală: un contrasens în care totul se citeşte invers, de la efemer înspre etern, în funcţie de stările diferite ale Ego-ului.

Leadershipul este hotarul dintre ceea ce îţi este dat să trăieşti prin puterea gândurilor şi ceea ce îţi este dat să accepţi ca şi compromis din tensiunea luptei dusă între caracterul nobil al faptelor de viaţă şi conştiinţa unei fragilităţi esenţiale în manevrarea realităţii.

Credincios mie însumi, sufletul se lua la trântă cu destinul, prilejuind întâlnirea dintre "un altcumva în fiecare acum" şi "mereu voi fi al altei clipe" . Acest asasin orb al trecerii spre plinătate, spre veşnica aventură a căutării libertăţii de a săvârşi tainica legătură cu viaţa prin intermediul puterii Nelămuritului, îmi permitea, ca adevărată esență, măsurarea concomitentă a tot ceea ce înseamnă lumea. Cu o deplină convingere în ceva care se stinge şi se aprinde de la sine, călcam pe urmele regăsite ale materiei misterioase şi preţioase manifestate încă de la Origini până la Consecinţe.

Câteodată mi se întuneca totul în faţa ochilor şi trebuia să mă feresc de lumina zilei, iar atunci se întâmpla imprevizibilul. Magia, strict selectivă, îşi îndeplinea îndatoririle de comandă. Oboseala, melancolia, dorinţele, ezitările, toate se revărsau în capul meu asemenea unei tornade pline de amintiri şi senzaţii năucitoare, clocotind totodată într-o patimă a visului, a euforiei, a iubirii, pe care, cu puţină îndrăzneală, am putut-o stăpâni, dar în felul în care alchimistul găseşte materia şi o pregăteşte de sacrificiu.

La urma urmelor, ce vrei de la mine, tu cel care mânuieşti mai bine ca oricine principiul şi sfârşitul material a tot ce se cunoaşte?

Leadership: Te limitezi doar la controlul atitudinii ce se exprimă în moduri mai mult sau mai puțin semnificative, sau la partea de conţinut pe care planifici să-l afişezi în lume?

Doctorul Nicolaus Cusanus, din opera scriitorului finlandez Mika Waltari, voia să demonstreze că lumea mărginită şi nemărginită, finitul şi infinitul se întâlnesc. A început cu un exemplu matematic. Dacă în interiorul unui cerc se înscrie un poligon, căruia i se măreşte din ce în ce mai mult numărul de laturi, până ce ajunge la un număr infinit de laturi, atât de mici încât nu mai au aproape nicio dimensiune, atunci poligonul se va atinge în toate punctele cu cercul şi va deveni cerc.

Cam aşa se putea exprima şi ideea din spatele raţiunii mele de a reformula coordonatele gândirii despre condiţia mea de "creator de gânduri într-o poveste fără sfârşit". Pasiunea mea nebunească pentru modelarea laturii personale, printr-un al cincilea element, asociat între clipa de eternitate pe care o trăiam şi potolirea dorului după un spaţiu înălţător căruia să-i aparţin multă vreme, demn de un infinit "acum", era o dovadă clară că începeam să privesc lumea din perspectiva unei abordări neliniare a fenomenelor şi proceselor.

Partea de conţinut pe care eu am încercat să o afişez în lume prin puterea de a transpune gândurile cele mai abstracte în cuvinte, sesizând şi acea parte a realităţii care deseori rămâne inaccesibilă celor din jur, surprinde acea căutare obsedantă a autenticităţii şi integralităţii fiinţei mele care se doreşte a fi lucidă în fiecare clipă a existenţei. Am învăţat să mă raportez la ceea de fac, la ceea de văd la mine însumi, la ceea ce am în palmares, la ceea ce mă binedispune, mult mai mult decât la ceea ce mi se întâmplă în viaţă sau care mă poate marca în vreun fel.

Leadership: Îţi rânduieşti bine gândurile în scopul formării unei viziuni autentice despre propria persoană astfel încât să capeţi acces la o altfel de percepţie vizavi de temporalitatea unei conştiinţe elevate?

Eram circumscris unui cerc care se învârtea fără oprire în jurul propriului centru, repetându-se la nesfârşit. Fără să-mi dau seama, ceva îşi disputa supremaţia asupra mea. Atotcuprinzătorul sau Nesemnificativul?

Viziunea autentică despre propria mea persoană, supusă unui oarecare test de respect faţă de ceea ce mă motiva lăuntric, era confirmată implicit de nebunia experimentală a unei tăceri care se socotea drept răspunsul minţii mele la situaţiile de viaţă cu care mă confruntam zi de zi. De fapt, începeam să mă gândesc la mine ca la un personaj ce-şi joacă rolul în lumea narată a unui text menit a transmite un mesaj subtil, aparţinând scriitorului Ioan Romoşan: "Măreţia omului stă în disperarea lucidităţii sale acceptată şi depăşită de însăşi luciditatea sa."

În acest caz, sfera propriei tale funcţionalităţi nu se limitează doar la controlul atitudinii ce se exprimă în moduri mai mult sau mai puţin semnificative de schimbare a realităţii, numită de obicei personalizare a experienţei de gestionare a gândurilor, ci mai cu seamă la partea de conţinut pe care planifici să-l afişezi în lume, în relația dintre unităţile fundamentale identitare „Origini și Consecinţe".

Originea reprezintă punctul în care te uiți în jur și nu știi unde te afli, fiind debusolat de lipsa experienței în reprezentarea ordinii în gânduri și acțiuni. Iar consecinţele sunt rezultatul încercării de a te încadra în ipostaza omului statornic în dificila sa menire, cu riscul de a te îndrepta spre realitatea unui timp care puţin câte puţin se goleşte de viitorul său.

Temporalitatea unei conştiinţe elevate este pusă în evidenţă de subiectivitatea cu care omul s-a obişnuit să-şi observe gândurile.

El tinde să-şi împărtăşească povestea, emoţiile, oricând sau oricui, cu precizarea că ceea ce îl eliberează de orice tensiune şi îl motivează cu adevărat este însăşi acea fiinţă supremă care trece prin stări intermediare spre forma sa perfectă, absolută, de gândire şi de manifestare.

Cercul evidenţiază repetarea tuturor acelor gânduri obsesive pe care omul le rulează în fundal neîncetat, modelându-şi astfel latura ascunsă, până când ea devine centrul tuturor puterilor sale fireşti.

Funcţia de autenticitate, independentă de orice sursă de reprezentare a omului într-un context al formei sale concrete de-a lungul timpului, are nevoie de o platformă de sprijin care să-l facă mult mai stăpân pe propriile crezuri şi, automat, să-i garanteze o anumită acoperire pe termen lung.

Eşti gazda propriilor tale crezuri, plasându-te la un anumit nivel de conștiință corespondent cu acea latură personală pe care ceilalți nu o văd. Leadershipul se desprinde din modul cum percepi lumea și viața, faţă în faţă cu tine. Important este felul cum te vezi în funcție de stările diferite ale Ego-ului, între istoricul unei clipe de singurătate şi setea mistuitoare de eternitate.

Cerşetorul care dă de pomană

Găseşte motivaţia care să te facă să fii ceea ce eşti cu adevărat, pentru ca evoluţia fondului tău sufletesc să nu fie oprită sau stopată temporar.

Trăiau cu multă chibzuială, făcând zilnic puţin foc, ca nişte oameni foarte strâmtoraţi. Jean Valjean nu înlocuise nici una din mobilele pe care le găsise acolo la început; pusese numai să se facă o uşă plină în locul uşii cu geam de la odăiţa Cosettei. Nimeni nu putea intui că, de fapt, el era acelaşi Monsieur Madeleine foarte înstărit, care îşi ascundea identitatea. Şi revenise la acea mică parte a omului care, de fapt, era. Modestia neexploatată de trecerea anilor se cerea recuperată.

Continua să poarte redingota lui galbenă, pantalonii negri şi pălăria uzată. Lumea de pe stradă îl credea sărac. Se întâmpla uneori ca vreo femeie milostivă să se întoarcă şi să-i dea de pomană. Jean Valjean primea şi se pleca până la pământ. Alteori se întâmpla să-i iasă înainte vreun nenorocit care cerşea. Atunci, se uita de jur împrejur ca să nu-l vadă nimeni, se apropia de cerşetor pe furiş şi-i strecura în mână o monedă, adesea chiar o monedă de argint, apoi se depărta de el grăbit. Lucrul acesta putea să-i aducă neplăceri. În cartier lumea începuse să-l cunoască sub numele de "cerşetorul care dă de pomană". *

Leadership: Eşti un caz distinct de negociere dintre un asigurator şi un asigurat, din perspectiva experienţei de a fi trăit o rană de umilinţă în faţa unei situaţii dramatice care te ajuta să evoluezi spiritual şi să-ţi izbăveşti sufletul?

Fiecare lider, mânat de imboldul de a-şi schimba stilul de viaţă, spre găsirea unui equilibrio între funcţionalitate şi context, între puterea interioară şi responsabilităţile funcţiei sale, este un caz distinct de negociere dintre un asigurator şi un asigurat, cuvenindu-se a fi tratat ca atare ca pe o temă a cărei soluţie stă în conştiinţa omului, nu în afara ei.

Pe de o parte îţi asiguri necesarul de independenţă, pe de altă parte dobândeşti o altă viziune asupra vieţii. Asiguratorul este sinonim cu sentimentul nesăbuit al unui destin implacabil, în timp ce asiguratul poate fi corelat cu lupta permanentă împotriva realităţii unei lumi decăzute, dominată de suferinţă şi materialism, sau cu lupta memoriei împotriva uitării.

A evolua spiritual spre o conştiinţă superioară, spre un grad mai mare de înţelepciune, înseamnă să îţi arăţi dărnicia în situaţia unei remuşcări care poate să dea un sens nou lumii tale interioare.

Şi nu doar atât, mai trebuie totuşi să-ţi arăţi dărnicia în faţa unei priviri retrospective spre ceea ce ţi-a fost dat să vezi, să auzi, chiar în lipsa unor argumente cărora nu le identifici nici filonul legal, nici o logică de necontrazis. Credinţa este meditaţia asupra unui trecut care te urmăreşte aidoma unui blestem, din care trebuie să rezulte concluzii în sensul celor susţinute de o conştiinţă curată, înnoită, din care trebuie să înveţi ce înseamnă mila, ce înseamnă să fii blând, sincer, iubitor, cinstit, împăciuitor.

Să ajungi la tine însuţi, uneori luptând chiar împotriva dorinţei de putere şi mărire, descoperind în matematica lumii abstracte pe care o trăieşti, ghidate de propriile ei ecuaţii, o problemă de afectivitate decât de logică, sub înrâurirea mijloacelor de asigurare a unui echilibru între intern şi extern. Asta este mai mult decât o mângâiere aducătoare de gânduri curate, ci un mod absolut cuceritor în care redai simţirile tale celorlalţi.

De la ştiinţa de a valorifica virtuţile care te înconjoară ca o aură de siguranţă de sine, până la arta de a te accepta printre ceilalţi ca un oaspete printre gazde, recunoaşterea neîntreruptă a frumosului joacă un rol important în maniera de a te dezvolta şi de a te defini mai bine, de a descoperi noi lucruri despre alţii, despre lume. Leadershipul devine o capodoperă a cărei compoziţie, inspirată poate dintr-un rezumat al trecutului, îl arată pe om în deplinătatea calităţilor sale de fond. A măreţiei care le este dată celorlalţi să o admire la el clipă de clipă şi chiar să o sprijine.

Leadership: Situaţia din care se naşte superioritatea ta este o îmbunătăţire rapidă a experienţei de accesare a variabilei "check your perceptions about what life is meant to be in a miraculous way" pe care o pui la dispoziţia sufletului lumii?

Nu-i de ajuns să trăieşti în concordanţă cu legile aspre ale leadershipului, mai trebuie să presari şi puţină linişte pe dinăuntru şi în afara propriei fiinţe. Viaţa simbolizată într-un mod miraculos poate fi percepută ca un triumf împotriva tuturor neajunsurilor, păcatelor şi patimilor lumii, triumf care te cuprinde atunci când păşeşti pe urmele trecutului care te bântuie şi pe care vrei să-l uiţi, astfel încât să rezonezi şi să te identifici cu cel care poate suferi, nu doar cu cel care învinge.

După cum creierul este programat să absoarbă orice model sau structură a realităţii pe care o observă şi o investighează, tot astfel omul, supus normelor privind calitatea leadershipului, este programat să se cupleze pentru un interval lung de timp la reţeaua de energie sufletească care se dezvoltă în perfectă armonie cu viaţa şi mediul înconjurător.

Elementele esenţiale ale leadershipului sunt scânteierile de înţelepciune provenite din experienţa unei vieţi în care suferinţa a copleşit adesea momentele de fericire.

Marele scriitor, Victor Hugo, îndemna: " Să aruncăm jos vechea tencuială care ascunde faţada casei. Nu există alte reguli, nici modele. "

Ca să îndeplineşti condiţiile artei de a conduce, aruncând peste acele goliciuni ale fiinţei tale vălul unor simţăminte care nu au nimic de a face cu ştiinţa, ci cu manifestările tale în contextul societăţii care te urcă la un nivel de rezonanţă compatibil cu dimensiunea umană a angajamentelor existenţiale, trebuie să te apropii tot mai mult de ceea ce eşti cu adevărat. De omul care găseşte înţelepciune şi capătă pricepere profundă de faptul că altceva decât partea materială îl completează şi îi aduce echilibrul. Cartea vieţii se poate deschide fără chei, doar printr-o simplă scanare a fiinţei.

Leadershipul este recunoştinţa de a fi trăit o experienţă de suferinţă în pragul unei situaţii în care simţi că te înclini prea mult în faţa superiorităţii poziţiei tale, sau când simţi că eşti legat sau prea dependent de forma perfectă a unei vieţi care se merită trăită cu adevărat.

Cerşetorul care dă de pomană se referă la aspectele specific umane ale leadershipului, dominat de legi specifice. Leadershipul trebuie "îmbrăcat" de umanism, ca în toate celelalte domenii, bazându-se în principal pe o lege nescrisă: să dai, nu numai să ştii să ceri.

Cheia care deschide toate porţile

On Ianuarie 11, 2010

Transmite-le oamenilor ce ai în minte şi în suflet, fără să diminuezi conţinutul de adevăr pe care se sprijină leadershipul autentic.

Cuvintele frumoase rostite de cineva sunt ca nişte sunete plăcute în urechile oamenilor. Ele au o valoare neînchipuit de mare şi reuşesc de cele mai multe ori să le influenţeze acestora mintea şi hotărârile.

Pe o scenă improvizată, candidatul la președinție se apropie cu paşi mari de microfon, pentru a-şi ţine ultimul discurs. Îşi frământă mintea, cumpăneşte în tot felul un singur gând: cum să reînvie cât mai rapid încrederea oamenilor, a viitorilor alegători. Pentru a-şi impune autoritatea, pentru ca mesajul său idealist să fie înţeles şi luat în seamă, este imperios necesar să atingă coarda cea mai sensibilă din sufletul oamenilor. O ultimă întâlnire cu ei este fără îndoială un prilej de inspiraţie. Căci numai în momentele hotărâtoare, când e nevoit să pună în joc toate resursele fiinţei sale, el devine mai creativ şi mai original. Abia acum, în ultima clipă, când toată lumea e numai ochi şi urechi la vorbele lui, el are parte de acea inspiraţie unică care-i încălzeşte inima şi-l motivează să ţină un discurs cu totul şi cu totul excepţional.

Adevărul, uneori dureros, este ca un bumerang şi se poate întoarce împotriva celui ce-l cunoaşte. Conştient de acest lucru, candidatul la preşedinţie nu-şi poate permite să afirme lucruri mincinoase sau prea „comerciale", ci lucruri cât mai credibile, cât mai precise şi cât mai realizabile. Dar care bineînţeles să nu-i ştirbească personalitatea şi şansele de a fi ales. Mesajul său, ca să electrizeze mulţimea, trebuie să fie cel al faptelor împlinite.

Leadership: Îţi justifici deciziile sau alegerile în virtutea unei raţiuni care îşi câştigă atributul de dominanţă prin validarea "Apelului la credinţă"?

Un singur lucru îl poate salva de la o înfrângere pe candidatul la preşedinţie: să provoace la timp un declic în gândirea oamenilor. Să arate ce însuşiri extraordinare sunt ascunse în el: fermitate absolută, voinţa de fier, curaj neînfricat, dar mai ales credinţa. Şi dintr-o dată forţele lui se adună într-o adevărată energie vitală: „ Sunt un om cu frica de Dumnezeu ".

Aceasta afirmaţie făcută într-un mod artistic, cu vocea înecată în lacrimi, cu o privire în cer şi una în pământ, ajunge până la inimile celor mai mulţi oameni, adânc se implantează în sufletul lor, sunt sensibilizaţi, mişcaţi într-un chip cu totul deosebit.

O astfel de afirmaţie, care întotdeauna are priză la public, nu-l obligă la nimic pe candidat şi îi deschide toate porţile. Astfel se dezvinovăţeşte de orice păcat, se absolvă de orice vină, determinându-i pe oameni să creadă că nimic rău nu se află în sufletul său, că tot ceea ce face este numai pentru binele lor şi – cel mai important - întru slava lui Dumnezeu. Fără îndoială, în concepţia celor mai mulţi oameni, cel care trăieşte cu frica de Dumnezeu, trebuie că este numaidecât cinstit, muncitor, ambiţios, generos, sincer şi nevinovat. Dumnezeu este Cel care îi va călăuzi paşii şi îl va îndruma, şi astfel el – noul conducător - va înfăptui imposibilul.

Orice mijloc de a seduce oamenii este, în momentele de cumpănă, îngăduit şi justificat. Cu acea fulgerătoare genialitate care izbucneşte în toiul unei primejdii de moarte, conducătorul îşi făureşte planul. Un plan care nu trebuie să dea greş. Un plan prin care să încerce să câştige încrederea şi bunăvoinţa tuturor. Şi, din fericire, nu e atât de greu de construit. Pentru că oamenii se încred mai mult în vorbele unuia care pretinde că trăieşte cu frica lui Dumnezeu, decât în ceea ce se află de fapt ascuns şi neştiut de nimeni. Aşa e, oamenii pot fi câştigaţi uşor dacă conducătorul este îndeajuns de abil şi face apel la credinţă.

Leadership: Ceea ce transmiţi fundamentează un "game mind" care înalţă un întreg munte de prejudecăţi asupra caracteristicilor tale?

Legătura strânsă existentă între nivelul de experienţă şi structura ansamblului de privilegii de tip "Rating" - pentru realizarea căruia se folosesc idei izvorâte din chintesenţa ta, din formele de conştiinţă pe care sistemul propriu de decizie le întreţine şi le întăreşte prin comunicare - apare cel mai clar şi mai pregnant acolo unde atenţia este maximă, acolo unde se caută efectul de autenticitate.

Nivelul de leadership creşte conform tendinţei de a cosmetiza acest efect de autenticitate în beneficiul imaginii personale, transmiţând oamenilor o anumită informaţie – care este mai apoi transformată într-o stare de spirit.

Într-o penetrabilă analiză a progresiei autenticităţii care plasează informaţia în trăire şi sentiment, se pun foarte bine în lumină câteva din "piesele" tale de fond, ilustrând, în demonstraţia unei orientări spre leadership, tocmai acea latură a moralităţii din registrele valorii personale - prin care se remarcă capacităţile de redefinire a standardului de percepţie a informaţiei transmise. Aceste piese de fond reprezintă arii neexplorate din tine care se întrepătrund şi se consolidează reciproc sub impactul unei gândiri fecundatoare ce tinde să demonstreze mult-clamata ta superioritate.

Oricum ar sta lucrurile în alte privinţe, însăşi interdependenţa lider-adepţi, prin intermediul informaţiei transmise, scoate în evidenţă, paradoxal, o anume inteligenţă a trăirilor din care unii gustă reflecţii, îndemnuri, valori, motivaţii. Acestea sunt puncte de referinţă pentru învăţarea din experienţa liderului şi pentru valorizarea unei gândiri sau viziuni care fundamentează convingerile adepţilor în timp.

Eşecul sau succesul în leadership apare ca fiind generat de diferenţele dintre informaţia pe care o propagi şi atitudinea celor care absorb informaţia.

Cineva sfătuia pe web: "Gândeşte-te că tot ce transmiţi ca informaţie fundamentează un "game mind" care poate înălţa sau prăbuşi un întreg munte de prejudecăţi asupra caracteristicilor tale."

Prin discurs activezi "cookie-urile", acele fragmente de suspiciuni sau confirmări - folosite de indivizi pentru a stoca informații despre tine, gestionându-le în contextul propriilor lor conştiinţe, vieţi şi interese personale.

Leadership: În care jumătate de teren te găseşti?

Orice conducător abil a învăţat să se prefacă. Să fie şiret ca o vulpe. Să joace teatru. Şi să spună mereu şi mereu ceea ce le place oamenilor să audă, indiferent că este sau nu adevărat, indiferent dacă el crede sau nu în ceea ce spune. Încrederea se construieşte în timp, dar se poate câştiga rapid dacă conducătorul îşi creează o reputaţie bună, invocând întotdeauna numele Domnului, si apelând la valori precum: adevărul, cinstea, onoarea. Doar astfel îi poate sensibiliza pe oameni şi îi poate câştiga de partea sa.

Aşa cum un jucător de fotbal nu poate fi penalizat pentru ofsaid când se găseşte în propria lui jumătate de teren, tot aşa nici tu nu poţi fi penalizat de către oameni dacă leadershipul tău se regăseşte în perimetrul de adevăr pe care ei îl conştientizează şi îl acceptă.

Pe de altă parte, dacă eşti surprins în ofsaid, chiar dacă ai înscris un gol şi ai ridicat mulţimea în picioare de bucurie, toate şansele tale de a ridica în poziţia de lider vor fi anulate, şi vei fi sancţionat cu un cartonaş roşu care te scoate definitiv din partida numită leadership.

Transmite-le oamenilor ce ai în minte şi în suflet, fără să diminuezi conţinutul de adevăr pe care se sprijină leadershipul autentic.

Cheia care deschide toate porţile este, de fapt, modalitatea prin care un viitor lider ajunge să-i determine pe oameni să-l aleagă şi sa-l susţină. Ea nu este o cheie universal valabilă pentru toate categoriile de oameni, ci trebuie permanent "ajustată" în funcţie de nivelul educativ şi chiar de prejudecăţile categoriilor respective.

Chemare la lumea neştiută a ştiinţei (II)

On Iunie 21, 2013

Învaţă să măsori rezultatele ştiinţei tale în funcţie de resursele pe care le deţii, încât să adaugi profunzime creaţiei care te inspiră să-ţi pui în evidenţă autenticitatea.

În cartea "Lumini în retortă", scritorul român M. Solomon, ne aduce la cunoştinţă încercarea de a înţelege esenţa însăşi a naturii nesfârşite, prin transformările şi variabilitatea fenomenelor ei puternic impregnate în lumina unei înţelegeri mature a descoperirilor ştiinţifice. Fragment:

"Doctrina filosofică a daoismului arată că viaţa naturii şi a oamenilor nu se supune voinţei cerului, ci legii universale, DAO, care aduce ordine în haosul lucrurilor. În lume nu există nimic permanent, totul e în mişcare şi dezvoltare, apariţie şi pieire, totul se transformă şi la un anumit punct al dezvoltării devine contrariul său.

Focul, elementul primar primar în rădăcina lumii, îl regăsim în cugetarea lui Heraclit din Efes. Marele filosof grec scria că lumea este singurul lucru dintre toate care nu a fost creat de niciun zeu, de niciun om, ci a fost, este şi va fi un veşnic foc viu, aprinzându-se după anumite legi şi stingându-se după anumite legi. Iar gândirea lui nu se opreşte la arătarea rădăcinii lucrurilor. El susţine veşnica şi neîncetata lor mişcare şi prefacere (pantă rei = toate curg) şi arată cauza acestor prefaceri. Ea se găseşte în lupta contrariilor. Lupta este izvorul a tot ce există."

Leadership: Îţi stă în putință să-ţi aduci contribuția la realizarea şi desăvârşirea Marii Opere, cu privire la faptul că tot ceea ce se oferă voluntar în aflarea secretelor este mult mai important decât dezvăluirea lor?

Ştiinţa cea mai valoroasă nu a fost niciodată la vedere, ci a slăvit o altă năzuinţă a omului în înţelesurile, în nuanţele, în sensurile subtile şi în tainele ei adânci. Ea a fost şi încă mai este aspru condamnată de profanii care nu se pot depăşi pe sine, care nu pot depăşi limitele cunoştinţelor contemporane, incapabili să sesizeze acul în carul cu fân nici după numeroase şi minuţioase căutări.

Nu degeaba scria Cornelius Agrippa: "Numai pentru voi, fii ai doctrinei şi ai învăţăturii, am scris această operă. Cercetaţi atent cartea, concentraţi-vă asupra acelei intenţii pe care am presărat-o şi am strecurat-o în mai multe locuri; ceea ce am lăsat să rămână ascuns într-un loc, am arătat în alt loc, ca să poată fi înţeles de înţelepciunea voastră." El ştia prea bine că doar cei mai harnici şi mai perseverenţi oameni, bine integraţi în culisele fascinante ale cercetării ştiinţifice, vor putea să-şi aducă contribuţia la realizarea şi desăvârşirea Marii Opere. Nu este privilegiul oricui să ajungă atât de departe cu facultatea cunoaşterii mistice.

Cei aleşi, cei puţini, aceia care au atins nivelul maxim de cunoaştere, care au reuşit extragerea apei din piatră, pentru ca ea să devină strălucitoare şi preţioasă, ei consideră această ştiinţă mai mult un limbaj de asamblare independent al unor piese mari şi grele care îmbină funcţia utilitară cu cea artistică.

De aici şi zicala: "A face artă." A descoperi un limbaj care să nu producă decât efecte pozitive la nivel de societate, nu doar la nivel de profitabilitate în rândul companiilor, cuprinzând idei, viziuni şi o porţiune însemnată de imaginaţie, a cărui marjă asiguratorie a valorii să fie cât mai mare. Este cel mai greu lucru pe care îl poate face un lider.

Leadership: Eşti pregatit să pleci în căutarea secretelor ascunse - perfect corelate cu un drum necunoscut pe care dacă îl alegi te conduce în toate direcţiile, unele pe care nici nu le bănuieşti?

Să ne amintim de acel mirific cânt al lui Ulise, simbol al umanităţii mereu însetate de cunoaştere, dornică să străbată drumuri necunoscute pentru a şti. El constituie un îndemn spre înfiinţarea sau reinventarea direcţiei învingătoare. Numai profanii se orientează într-o direcţie deja determinată, bătătorită, consacrată de precedentele tentative de atingere a unui real de mult imaginat şi epuizat.

Leadershipul este produsul unei gândiri care operează pe porţiunile nelimitate ale ştiinţei şi emoţiei. Leadershipul, ca să depăşească limitele obişnuitului, deci ca să iasă din tiparele mediocrului, trebuie să forţeze puţin nota şi să-şi facă un alt sens de mers, prin intervenţiile unei ştiinţe noi, inepuizabile în idei, resurse, în producerea de combustibil vital transformării informaţiei şi cunoştinţelor spre afirmarea unei creaţii unice.

Toate acele elemente simple, armonioase prin structura lor sistematică de integrare în alternanţa de "rodire", trebuie să se lege unele de altele formând un întreg, care să coordoneze prin metode precise fiecare părticică a transformării. A pleca în căutarea secretelor ascunse înseamnă să mergi pe un drum necunoscut care te duce în toate direcţiile, unele pe care nici nu le bănuieşti. Una din aceste direcţii este dată de viziunea unei creaţii (şi a schimbării care o produce în lume) din care nu lipseşte trăirea unei experienţe de "luptă a contrariilor" sau temeiul "de arătare a rădăcinii lucrurilor".

Marea Operă este conexiunea care se stabileşte între trăirea unei experienţe de "luptă a contrariilor" şi identificarea unui temei "de arătare a rădăcinii lucrurilor".

Chemare la lumea neştiută a ştiinţei evidenţiază dorinţa creatorului de a stabili o relaţie de durată între ceea ce “este” şi ceea ce “ar trebui să fie” abordarea unei idei desprinsă din imaginar, care pe neaşteptate poate deveni reală.

Chemare la lumea neştiută a ştiinţei (I)

Optimizează-ţi stilul de a face artă, fără să uiţi nicio clipă de existenţa acelui tâlc ascuns care te face să simţi că exişti.

Eram convins că există un tâlc ascuns, de neatins şi inaccesibil celor neiniţiaţi în arta ştiinţei. Capacitatea mea nelimitată de a reconstitui, dincolo de traseul ascendent al propriilor mele cercetări, un nou orizont intelectual, un spaţiu benefic de manifestare a interesului tot mai sporit faţă de lucrurile ascunse, tindea categoric spre cote incredibile. Arta de a practica Marea Ştiinţă posedă potenţialul de a fi formulată prin referire la experienţa de a te adânci într-o neîncetată căutare de răspunsuri, într-o lume grea, terifiantă, care dă în vileag obsesii, temeri şi precare încercări de a schimba efectele della creazione di laboratorio , lucrând cu cauzele ei.

Eram pe cale să inventez un nou limbaj. O alegorie cu semnificaţie deosebită care saluta noi ipoteze de interpretare a realităţii şi ficţiunii, punând sub semnul întrebării existenţa umană, în construcţia scenică a unei lumi neştiute. Un limbaj menit să dea glas, în sfârşit, lucrurilor pe care le aveam de spus. Peliculele de inspiraţie se mişcau haotic în mintea mea, se comprimau formând miezul unui nou mesaj.

Extragerea apei din piatră, pentru ca ea să devină strălucitoare şi preţioasă. Era o operaţiune alchimică complexă şi consuma foarte mult timp. Căci, în permanenţă, noi reacţii de tip backward interveneau în procesul de accelerare a materialului de cercetare, îngreunând tot mai tare eforturile mele.

Conceptele actuale şi interpretările inerţiale conduceau, de-a lungul unui singur ciclu de "fabricaţie", la numeroase situări greşite şi erori generalizate, la identificări eronate şi la viziuni incerte. Mă pierdeam pe căile încâlcite ale unor legi stranii de probabilitate şi improbabilitate.

Leadership: Tendinţa particulară a conştiinţei tale de-şi lărgi limitele poate să atingă cea mai profundă expresie a unei arte care, de milenii încoace, se află în căutarea a ceea ce o definește și o singularizează?

Din neant smulgeam sfârşitul, ca să reconstitui începutul. Cuvintele mele nu mai corespundeau lumii cunoscute, ci unor lumi necunoscute în acest moment. Descoperisem oare limbajul străvechi care stătea la baza alchimiei? Toate lucrurile cu care interacţionam, gândurile care dezactivau realitatea şi o trimiteau într-o stare de nedeterminare, simţurile care se smulgeau parcă din adâncurile fiinţei mele, aflată în continuă devenire – posedau o activitate ridicată, asemenea unor catalizatori cu proprietăţi excepţionale ai unor reacţii subiective, neaşteptate.

Toate acele elemente simple, armonioase prin structura lor sistematică de integrare în absolut, se legau unele de altele formând un întreg. Care precedă, ca gândire ordonatoare, ca plan ideal, o existenţă particulară a conştiinţei. Şi numai acest întreg determina stilul meu de a face artă, de a desena nori sau raze de soare acolo unde nu există supunere în faţa realului.

Probabil, tâlcul ascuns care mă face să exist ca om de ştiinţă, prin referire la o artă care de sute ani continuă să fascineze prin însăşi faptul că este superioară, se poate formula în felul următor: "Tot ceea ce strângi prin observaţie, asimilare de informaţii, experimentare şi autoanaliză, trebuie să ia forma unui limbaj care decodează formele complexe și mereu dinamice ale Naturii." Iată deci că arta de a practica marea ştiinţă îşi are rădăcinile într-un cadrul de comuniune sufletească, unde îmi împart tristeţile şi bucuriile cu soarele şi luna, cu pomii şi florile, cu totul din jur.

Ceea ce defineşte şi singularizează arta practicării Marii Ştiinţe este capacitatea omului de a anticipa noutatea pe care o conţine informaţia divulgată prin inserarea ei într-un complex de viaţă supraindividual: cosmic, biologic, social sau spiritual.

Păream predestinat, autoconvins de capacitatea mea, să transmit toată cunoaşterea şi experienţa dobândite în timp, celor care vor acorda importanţă acestor înţepături accentuate de ireal şi fantastic, pregătindu-i să acceadă la lumea neştiută a ştiinţei.

Căci, este evident, aveam o îngăduinţă rară faţă de lucrurile neştiutoare. Legănam în minte imposibilul, iar imposibilul îmi legăna mintea iscoditoare. Dincolo de linia maiestuoasă a orizontului se desluşeau siluetele unor noi sensuri, construite cu o elegantă desăvârşită. Cine oare mă putea împiedica să cad în zona de gândire preconștientă?

Leadership: Ştiinţa pe care ţi-o dă informaţia cea mai complexă impune o profundă disciplină a conştiinţei: de a te desprinde de rezultatele propriilor investigaţii şi a le vedea, până la urmă, ca pe ceva străin de firea ta?

Te pierzi pe căile încâlcite ale unor legi stranii? Legeni în minte imposibilul, iar imposibilul îţi leagănă mintea iscoditoare? Eşti pe cale să inventezi un nou limbaj?

Pe alocuri pus sub semnul întrebării, leadershipul joacă un rol extrem de important în formarea ta, în special în a-ţi crea diverse conexiuni pentru viitor cu ajutorul acelei ştiinţe mai presus de orice aşteptări, pe care doar puţini o pot cuprinde. Şi care e atât de nesigură în rezultatele ei pentru profani. Aceştia din urmă sunt incapabil să se orienteze singuri prin labirintul cunoaşterii de alt gen, nepricepându-se să restabilească ordinea corectă a resurselor ei în folosirea uzuală. Lor nici măcar nu li se aminteşte de existenţa unui secret, deşi el există.

Aşa cum corăbiile îndură vânturile, tot aşa omul centrat pe o abordare corectă a leadershipului trebuie să îndure ştiinţa complexă, supremă, care posedă într-adevăr calitatea de ştiinţă, manifestându-se cu precădere în acea regiune neexplorată nici măcar de cei mai înrăiţi devoratori de cunoaştere.

Leadershipul, ca să devină mai mult decât o simplă curea de transmisie între profan şi performer, trebuie să fie mai degrabă echivalentul unei mutări în decursul partidei în care "inaccesibilul" joacă un rol extrem de important. Dar atenţie, tot ceea ce integrezi în ştiinţa ta se poate transforma într-un adversar redutabil dacă nu reuşeşti să o stăpâneşti ca pe o proiecţie a conştiinţei tale spre planul spiritual.

Căci întotdeauna numai omul care îşi extinde capacitatea de a reconstitui, dincolo de traseul ascendent al propriilor sale cercetări, un nou orizont intelectual, un spaţiu benefic de manifestare a interesului tot mai sporit faţă de toate lucrurile ascunse, numai acesta tinde categoric spre cote maxime, şi numai acesta poate atinge pragul superior al ştiinţei.

Modul de gândire dominant care oglindeşte leadershipul are ca scop posibilitatea de a-ţi însuşi o mare ştiinţă prin semnificaţia pe care o dai conceptelor şi trăirilor din care se articulează fiinţa ta interioară, în termeni de "mod existenţial de abordare a unei realităţi nebănuite".

Chemare la lumea neştiută a ştiinţei are ca punct central deschiderea spre o perspectivă exterioară acelei gândiri care nu-ţi asigură o dezvoltare prielnică. Dacă vrei să înţelegi leadershipul, optimizează-ţi stilul de a face artă, optimizează-ţi o nouă ştiinţă fără să uiţi nicio clipă de existenţa acelui tâlc ascuns care te face să simţi că exişti.

Foloseşte-te de uneltele reflectării învăţate de la marii maeştri. Stai cu ochii aţintiţi spre ceruri, situează-ţi gândirea mai sus de normalul acceptat. Lasă întregul din tine să funcţioneze la o rezoluţie mult mai mare.

Chemarea perpetuă a ştiinţei pentru înţelegerea ştiinţei

On Martie 05, 2021

Felul în care înţelegi legătura dintre artă şi creaţie este o reflectare a predestinării tale spre unirea cu gândirea demiurgică.

Am învăţat să fac un singur lucru foarte bine: să mă joc cu ştiinţa, cu ştiinţa mea, nu cu ştiinţa altora, şi să o trăiesc cu un pic mai multă perspectivă şi înţelegere, să o simt precum mângâierea fină a clapelor de pian oferită de un virtuoz capabil să îmbine magistral inteligenţa cu intuiţia, talentul excepţional cu fantezia, fără să abuzeze prea mult de posibilităţile sale de captare a publicului.

Or jocul acesta distractiv cu ştiinţa, impecabil, interminabil, teribil de satisfăcător, acest indice de sensibilitate a lucrurilor subtile, deliciul unei adevărate aventuri trăite şi surprinse artistic, este înrudit sau coincide enorm de mult cu semnificaţia inerentă a unui subiect de pictură ce se remarcă prin expunerea unei singure culori într-un singur interior.

De la sunetele delicate la virtuozitate, de la paletă la masa de scris, este o distanţă măsurată prin desăvârşitul acord dintre frumusețea originară, nemișcată și nepieritoare a unei opere de artă, şi formele multiplului mișcător a unui spectacol fără vârstă, numit: Semertahma (Unitatea de viziune într-o multiplicitate de stiluri).

Bineînţeles că, dacă cineva mi-ar cere să determin valoarea a ceea ce fac, şi asta e foarte greu de arătat pentru că uneori eu însumi nu-mi dau seama de valoarea celor realizate, aş înclina balanţa atenţiei spre adoptarea acordului dintre o vioară Stradivarius și un violonist excepțional, mai mult decât acordul dintre dinamica inerentă a frumosului şi mişcarea unei pensule menită să dea culoare unei vieţi ce vibrează continuu într-o altă lume sau în altă realitate.

Leadership: Poţi efectua o instalare a gândirii selective prin crearea unei stări de sugestibilitate a minţii care să-ţi dea posibilitatea să accesezi realitatea unei viziuni chemată să se impună în faţa relaţiei dintre vocaţie şi predestinare?

Şi dacă tot vorbesc despre ştiinţa care m-a ajutat să-mi conştientizez vocaţia şi predestinarea, cuprinsă între pictură şi muzică, deci o ştiinţă localizată dincolo de cuvinte, incluzând o viziune evolutivă asupra variabilele de stare a intensității câmpurilor energetice ale Universului, din care Dumnezeu nu poate fi exclus, atunci voi spune că orice tentativă de acces la o nouă conştiinţă de sine este o încercare a intelectului meu de a se ridica deasupra minţii lumeşti, prin infailibilitate, către Dumnezeu.

Mai trebuie spus că nicio ştiinţă nu trebuie să fie motivată de expunerea unei singure realităţi. Ci prin expunerea unei teme care izvorăşte din realităţile unei lumi inaccesibile "muritorilor de rând", adică din realităţile unei linii a timpului scurs indirect printr-un Frutessebitus , un fel de continuum între materie şi spirit ce devine prin latenţă un test de sensibilitate a limbajului plastic, unitar, avangardist.

Viziunea mea este omul devenit Creator. Vocaţia mea este să ofer o experienţă unică de cunoaştere zonei de preocupare artistică. Iar predestinarea mea este obligaţia de a oferi creaţiei dreptul de a se face cunoscută şi promovată prin mijloace artistice. În sfârşit, gândirea demiurgică care îmi reanimă sufletul, ordonându-mi mersul prin labirintul vieţii, cuprinde mijlocirea unei imagini sau a unei idei care încearcă prin sensibil să pătrundă în inteligibil.

Leadership: Poţi să subordonezi realitatea exterioară unei viziuni proprii, să o constrângi să se supună ritmicii tale interioare și să o recompui într-o imagine capabilă să exploreze dialogul între tine și univers?

Citeam în nu ştiu ce carte despre Goethe spunând despre culori că iau naştere din interacţiunea lumină-întuneric. El numea culorile "accidente ale luminii" ce iau naştere atunci când lumina, croindu-şi drum prin mediile fizice, îşi pierde puritatea virginală, absorbită şi reflectată parţial. Tot din acea carte reiese că Goethe a pornit în studierea culorii de la înţelegerea mecanismului percepţiei vizuale ca moment fundamental al existenţei umane, constituit într-un real proces de cunoaştere a formelor, de structurare a culorii şi de explorare a spaţialităţii sale.

Aşadar, dacă trebuie să mă raportez la ştiinţă, şi mereu mă voi raporta la ştiinţă, şi nu la orice ştiinţă, ci la ştiinţa pe care eu o numesc "Opera Fereastră", atunci trebuie să conştientizez faptul că tot ceea ce face din această lume una a frumuseţii are la bază puterea universului cromatic şi limbajul muzical (perceput ca formă de expresie artistică asociată cu un efect transcendental).

În acest caz aş opta pentru muzică ca pentru o formă de exprimare a creaţiei printr-o combinaţie neobişnuită a sunetelor, dispuse mai mult sau mai puțin arbitrar, după anumite reguli estetice, într-o ordine conformă cerinţelor practice ale celui mai valoros pictor. Iar în ceea ce priveşte pictura, evoluând ca o reflectare profundă şi sinceră asupra stării emoţionale a privitorului în cel mai plăcut mod posibil, aş înclina balanţa în favoarea unei forme de expresie mai intuitive, asemănătoare cu expresivitatea sugestivă a unei muzici care intonează "Pink - The Color Of Love" în interpretarea lui Yakuro.

Iată deci, esenţialul: până când nu voi cunoaşte adevărata plăcere în perceperea artei, din care însăşi viaţa îmi soarbe din ochi toate întâmplările, paşii, resursele de sacralitate, nu voi putea cunoaşte nici adevărata măsură a experienţei de a fi tangent cu nemărginirea.

Marea forţa a ştiinţei este acea revelaţie a conştiinţei de sine (idealistă) obţinută prin intermediul actului de creaţie care promovează solidaritatea şi consubstanţialitatea omului cu universul.

Chemarea perpetuă a ştiinţei pentru înţelegerea ştiinţei este o invitaţie din partea omului investit cu statutul de creator la desăvârşirea operei pe care nimeni altcineva n-a apucat s-o realizeze: acţiunea demiurgică a unui univers în devenire.

Cu alte cuvinte, omul poate ajunge un creator desăvârşit numai dacă arta lui este o lucrare ce aparţine universului infinit perceput ca o reflexie a universului său interior.

Chiar dacă vezi, priveşte bine ce vezi !

On Februarie 13, 2024

Ceea ce vezi este parte a unui Sine care transcende timpul și spațiul, exprimându-se prin interacțiunea sa continuă cu universul.

Mi-am desăvârşit o vedere menită parcă să absoarbă culorile și forme dincolo de pânză, în prezenţa unui orizont vast, cum este marea albastră, limpede, care parcă adaugă culori vibrante la un tablou unic. Aproape că nu-mi amintesc vreun moment, nu a existat nici măcar o fărâmă de realitate la care să nu-mi concentrez privirea, cu un fel de consistenţă fermă, în care să nu fi lucrat la un tablou, portret sau orice altceva legat de lumea vizuală.

Şi încă trăiesc acele momente, cu dor, cu melancolie, cu un fel de Shinyos Ostriaursum, cu un fel de nostalgie a prezentului, a clipei care nu se mai întoarce, a stărilor pe care nu le voi mai trăi la fel. Mi-e greu s-o recomand, dar orice amintire a mării este o fărâmă de realitate de care ar trebui să fim cu toții conștienți, fiindcă marea, simbolul unei persistențe succesive, are un fel aparte de a se manifesta ca sursă infinită de inspirație deoarece oferă mereu noi forme, culori și mișcări care pot fi reinterpretate și transpuse în artă.

Şi, poate cel mai important lucru despre mare, aşa cum este ea, plină de viaţă, plină de spectacol, plină de visele celor ce-o privesc, este faptul că ea transmite sentimente și stări, un soi de Ahelarios Esdras Ontagasantri, revelarea sinelui prin grandoarea divină. Căci există în cuprinderea ei nesfârşita acea armonie între suflet și univers, între cele două lumi, cea materială și cea spirituală. La o adică, trebuie să fii cu adevărat un artist ca să înţelegi asta: "Tot ceea ce cuprinzi cu ochii se transformă într-o parte a experienței tale, adâncind conexiunea ta cu lumea din jur."

Leadership: Poţi să experimentezi un orizont nesfârşit din prisma unui "Sine" multiplicat în oglinzile timpului, în măsura în care realitatea ta permanentă se reflectă în sfera creațiilor artistice?

Fiecare detaliu perceput prin încercarea de a cuprinde un orizont nesfârşit devine o parte importantă din povestea mea, o invitație la explorare, o pânză nelimitată pe care îmi pot exprima nestingherit creativitatea, înfățișându-se ca fragmente bine determinate ale unei picturi în continuă desfășurare. Această observație atentă și contemplativă, desprinsă din adaosul meu de perspective, îmi oferă o mai mare înțelegere a lumii și a sinelui în relație cu marea, deoarece momentele mele pe malul mării par să maximizeze arta contemplării.

Mai mult decât atât. Prin intermediul acestei conștientizări crescute, extinsă spre nemăsurat, din care eu însumi trebuie să mă alimentez ca să mă pot transforma într-un vizionar, îmi pot îmbogăți percepția asupra vieții și pot trăi cu mai multă prezență și profunzime în exprimarea artei. Cu alte cuvinte, felul cum îmi exprim ideile şi sentimentele în faţa a ceea ce creez, dincolo de forme şi culori, depinde de ceea ce transpun în limbaj artistic.

Este precum în viziunea aia a lui Borges: "O durată infinită a precedat naşterea mea; ce am fost eu în tot acest timp? În sens metafizic, s-ar putea răspunde astfel: "Eu am fost întotdeauna eu; cu alte cuvinte, toţi cei care au spus eu în tot acest timp nu erau alţii decât eu".

Deci, ce este artistul care experimentează un orizont nesfârşit? Artistul este un "Eu" multiplicat în oglinzile timpului, în măsura în care realitatea lui permanentă se reflectă în creațiile sale. Iar dacă visez la un tablou unic pe care să-l creez singur, doar privind marea în vastitatea ei, nu-mi rămâne decât să răstorn raportul dintre uman şi divin, într-o vie confruntare cu estetica, încât să obţin identitatea unui EU care se confundă cu infinitul.

Leadership: Cum te vezi reflectat într-o lucrare de artă, experimentând în același timp o viziune vastă a creației și o simțire profundă a conexiunii cu universul?

Te-ai gândit vreodată la puterea imaginilor de a te transpune într-o lume a creației, în timp ce reflectezi asupra modului în care te raportezi la realitate și la univers? De exemplu, în romanul lui Aben-Abubeker Abentofail, Isteţul, Fiul celui Deştept, este mulțumit să mănânce fructele și peştii abundenți de pe insula lui. Dar este mereu preocupat să nu se piardă nicio specie, aşa încât universul să nu rămână împuţinat din cauza lui.

Fiecare observă cu atenție lumea din jur și o interpretează în felul lui. În timp ce Isteţul este responsabil pentru conservarea naturii, pictorul este emoționat de frumusețea ei, cu precizarea că nimic nu trebuie să-i scape din vedere în timpul scurt alocat contemplării mării. Iar dacă marea ar fi în locul meu, şi m-ar privi ca pe un creator desăvârşit a cărui existență nu poate fi negată în fața măreției întregii creații, probabil ar fi mai încântată să reflecte la aceste cuvinte: "Ceea ce pictorul vede cu ochii, creatorul simte cu sufletul, iar tabloul devine oglinda transcendentă a existenței."

Pictura este o artă a culorilor, a formelor și a luminii evidenţiate cu suflet într-un tablou care pare să captureze marea în toată splendoarea și misterul ei. Şi ea poate exprima o varietate de emoții, idei și concepte, dar poate fi într-adevăr profundă doar dacă universul se îmbogățește cu un Sine care contemplă și transpune esența sa în fiecare pensulă și fiecare nuanță. Aşadar, când privesc marea, când mă gândesc la toate misterele care se ascund în adâncurile ei, nu sunt sunt doar captivat de frumusețea ei și de modul în care mă poate face să mă simt, ci realmente simt că sunt parte dintr-o vastă pictură a universului. Tocmai prin această conștientizare, eu însumi devin o experiență profundă care evidențiază conexiunea cu natura.

Percepția unui Creator despre modul în care se regăsește într-o lucrare de artă este aceea că devine el însuși o parte a operei, exprimându-și esența și viziunea în fiecare aspect al creației.

Chiar dacă vezi, priveşte bine ce vezi, căci singura modalitate de a da viață unei opere de artă este să-ți conturezi un Sine care a existat în trecut și va exista în viitor, interconectat într-o relație directă cu vastitatea universului.

Chintesenţa gândurilor bântuitoare

Asigură-ţi o individualitate distinctă, redefinindu-ţi forţa de a evolua prin raportarea exclusivă la tipul de gândire care face legătura dintre cauză şi efect.

Nu voiam ca cineva să-mi cunoască gândurile şi întrebările care mi se amestecau în cap atunci când vorbeam cu mine însumi. Unele dintre ele nu erau tocmai bine curăţate de reziduurile solide ale punctelor de vedere adoptate în trecutul plin de compromisuri şi capitulări. Pe care credeam că l-am părăsit definitiv. Era un monolog tăcut, dincolo de rigorile epistemologice ale unor adevăruri pe care ştiinţa cea mai înaltă nu le putea descoperi.

Această deschidere spre găsirea răspunsurilor la toate întrebările pe care mi le puneam, amploarea intensă şi stranie de adevăruri care se producea în sfera gândurilor pe care le ascultam repetitiv, şi faţă de care aveam deseori anumite reţineri, devenise o obsesie. O obsesie magnifică, care însă presupunea mari conflicte interioare. O fixaţie de care nu mai puteam scăpa, dar de care puteam profita din plin. O preocupare intensă faţă de elementele permanente ale existenţei mele, disimulată în spatele scepticismului privind fortificarea unor noi tendinţe de "design interior".

Să găsesc răspunsuri neînchipuite şi să înţeleg anumite reacţii. Să calculez efectele acestor reacţii prin relaţii de bilanţ optim, în funcţie de profit şi pierdere, nu era o îndatorire deloc uşoară. Căci indiferent dacă reacţiile decurgeau direct sau prin etape intermediare, efectele erau întotdeauna aceleaşi. Iar valoarea efectelor se putea determina experimental doar prin metode de observare indirectă, şi se putea stabili prin calcul aplicând legile subconştientului.

Puterea de a stăpâni lumea gândurilor este definită ca rezultat al comparaţiei pe care o faci între o realitate care se zbate între "o veghere asupra a ceea ce te face special" şi o realitate care te obligă la "confruntarea cu tine însuţi".

Era o muncă foarte solicitantă, de autocunoaştere şi dezvoltare personală. Iar dacă nu m-aş fi lăsat intimidat de opreliştile gândurilor neorganizate care îmi tot umblau orbeşte prin cap, ca nişte străini cu ochii legaţi din a căror activitate nu înţelegeam o boabă, poate că aş fi putut obţine cheia către o serie de descoperiri de mare importanţă.

Din gânduri extrăgeam chintesenţa care mă definea, sublimă, exactă şi focalizată, de ştiinţă şi neştiinţă, ce nu putea fi recunoscută şi acceptată decât treptat. Acea chintesenţă de mesaje trimise din partea unui creator către un critic. Îmi asiguram astfel o anumită individualitate, care îşi redefinea perpetuu forţa de a evolua prin raportarea exclusivă la timpul prezent. Dar şi prin raportarea la tipul de gândire care făcea legătura dintre cauze şi efecte. Să o reneg decât să o recunosc?

Cred că Umberto Eco avea în vedere o personalitate ca a mea atunci când scria: "Omul acesta deosebit trebuie pus deasupra unui vast labirint, într-un punct foarte înălțat, de unde să-i fie cu putință a cuprinde în același timp știința și artele principale; să vadă dintr-o privire obiectele, speculațiile lui și operațiile pe care le poate face asupra acestor obiecte; să distingă ramurile generale ale cunoștințelor omenești, punctele ce se separă sau le apropie, și să întrevadă uneori chiar și căile secrete ce le reapropie. Gândurile sale sunt trecerea spre un nou model de gestionare a ştiinţei."

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi o apropiere de zona de expansiune a propriei personalităţi dincolo de barierele convenţionalului, încât să amplifici o emoţie asupra a ceea ce te stăpâneşte prin forţa gândurilor?

Încerci să regăseşti răspunsuri neînchipuite şi să înţelegi reacţiile care conduc la transformarea ta? Manifeşti o preocupare intensă faţă de elementele permanente ale existenţei tale? Te laşi intimidat de opreliştile gândurilor neorganizate?

Cucerirea şi mărirea treptată a avantajului cu caracter decisiv asupra propriei tale dezvoltări, care poate avea o mare înrâurire asupra leadershipului, este rezultatul precis al unei "dezbateri" interioare. Ceea ce mă stăpânea prin forţa gândurilor, transformându-se într-o emoţie de tipul "sunt mai mult decât am devenit", putea fi pus pe seama unei informații care îmi apărea în minte și care îmi solicita atenția pentru a se dezvolta, ca un fel de forţă subtilă de a mă raporta la imensitatea unei culturi a libertăţii interioare, la ştiinţa de a mă supraestima prin ceea ce simt şi înţeleg despre mine însumi.

Dacă îţi propui să condamni prezentul şi gândirea căreia îi accepţi invitaţia de a prelua asupra sa efectele negative sau pozitive ale producerii unui anumit complex de inferioritate sau superioritate, şi dacă nu ai în vedere legătura dintre cauză şi efect, atunci vei trăi profund o existenţă mediocră.

Puterea de a stăpâni lumea gândurilor este răspunsul conştiinţei tale la situațiile de viaţă cu care te confrunţi zi de zi, printr-o reflectare asupra frământărilor curiozităţii intelectuale care te caracterizează.

Oratorul profesionist John Fuhrman, care a abordat foarte des tema "Ghinda şi stejarul", spunea la un moment dat: " Dacă rezultatul pe care îl obţii este suficient de însemnat, atunci vei trăi o viaţă mai bună decât te-ai fi aşteptat vreodată. " Aceasta este o variantă a unui soi de lege nescrisă care prevede ceea ce este permis şi ceea ce nu este permis de propria răspundere să faci atunci când încerci să te raportezi exclusiv la tipul de gândire care face legătura dintre cauze şi efecte.

Iar ceea ce te poate salva de la o rătăcire la alta, izbutind desăvârşit să trasezi echivalenţe între gânduri şi întrebări, fireşti pentru orice om cu mintea deschisă, este găsirea chintesenţei care te defineşte, sublimă, exactă şi focalizată, de ştiinţă şi neştiinţă, ce nu poate fi recunoscută şi acceptată decât treptat.

Dacă uiţi ce vrei, dacă uiţi cine eşti şi ce vrei să fii, atunci leadershipul tău se va disipa până la dispariţie. Aceasta este consecinţa acceptării unei gândiri moleşitoare însuşite fără o prealabilă evaluare a "hotarului" ce-ţi aparţine, deci prin ignorarea volitivă a efectelor secundare.

Curiozitatea intelectuală vizează deschiderea ta faţă de tot ceea ce eşti într-un context de tipul "Nu-mi dau pace gândurile mele care vin de-a valma uneori". Prin urmare, ai grijă în ce direcţie îţi îndrepţi gândurile şi cum formează ele realitatea din fundalul destinului tău.

Leadershipul tău îşi respectă acordul prin care s-a angajat să contribuie la conturarea sau păstrarea unei individualităţi supusă înţelegerii unei existenţe care ar părea banală dacă nu ar fi bântuită de mereu alte noi faţete?

Cert este ca prezentul, dar şi viitorul care se anunţă "incomod" pentru minţile cărora nu le prieşte cunoaşterea de sine şi care cad frecvent în plasa conflictelor interioare, este şi va fi lipsit de elementele unei personalităţi marcante. Această categorie de indivizi nu va mai găsi o reflectare efectivă a sublimului emanat de propria lor existenţă.

Iar leadershipul, în contrast cu gândirea de prost gust care distrage atenţia de la acea preocupare intensă faţă de elementele permanente ale existenţei tale, nu-şi va putea respecta acordul prin care s-a angajat să contribuie la conturarea sau păstrarea individualităţii.

Performanţa vine din aprofundarea înţelesului pe care îl dai naturii şi existenţei tale, din dorinţa de a trece dincolo de barierele convenţionalului. Dacă vrei să realizezi o apropiere de acea zonă de expansiune a propriei personalităţi, dincolo de barierele convenţionalului, atunci asigură-ţi o individualitate distinctă, redefinindu-ţi forţa de a evolua prin raportarea exclusivă la tipul de gândire care face legătura dintre cauze şi efecte.

Înţelegerea unei existenţe care ar părea banală dacă nu ar fi bântuită de mereu alte noi faţete se ancorează într-un agent cauzal de tendinţă lăuntrică în ceea ce priveşte îndrăzneala de a râvni la o împlinire de ordin emoţional şi intelectual, dar care se lasă greu descifrat. Acest agent cauzal poate fi o realitate exterioară oarecare, un conţinut informaţional specific (noţiuni, date, expoerienţe, imagini), sau poate sugera o anumită finalizare a ideilor printr-o schimbare bruscă a construcției logice.

În leadership trebuie luate în considerare două faţete ale existenţei: menirea de a te substitui unei mentalităţi care nu-şi epuizează formele de exprimare şi obligaţia de a trata realitatea ca pe o formă de luare aminte faţă de tot ceea ce eşti într-un exerciţiu de autenticitate.

Chintesenţa gândurilor bântuitoare izvorăşte din acea dorinţă arzătoare de autoperfecţionare continuă, de evaluare permanentă a evoluţiei proprii şi a leadershipului tău marcat de elementele unei perfecţionări tot mai puternice. Din acea dorinţă capabilă şi adaptabilă la schimbările inerente şi permanente ale prezentului şi viitorului.

Ciclul de viaţă al leadershipului

Încearcă să surprinzi esenţa mai adâncă a ceea ce reprezinţi într-o structură de caracter particulară, încât să poţi scoate la iveală piesele care formează puzzle-ul excepţionalităţii tale.

Vă rog să citiţi cu atenţie povestea următoare, ca şi când ar fi povestea voastră de viaţă din care îşi trage seva istoria devenirii voastră ca om de mare caracter. Pentru a scăpa de orice grea interpretare (sau decodificare) pe care o poate furniza înţelesul acestei povestiri, a cărui protagonist este cuprins între artă şi utlitate, trebuie să ţinem seama de izolarea factorilor "viciu" sau "moft" pe care adesea suntem tentaţi să le asociem cu eşecul.

Povestea spune că ar fi existat odată un muzeu cu o podea din plăci de marmură, ce avea o statuie imensă în mijlocul culoarului, tot din marmură. Oameni din toată lumea veneau la acel muzeu doar ca să admire acea minunată statuie. Dar într-o noapte, una din plăcile de marmură a început să vorbească cu statuia de marmură.

Placa de marmură: "Nu este corect, pur şi simplu nu este corect ! De ce toată lumea de pe glob vine aici şi mă calcă în picioare doar ca să te admire pe tine? Nu e corect ! "

Statuia de marmură răspunse: "Draga mea, îţi aduci aminte că provenim din exact aceeaşi carieră?"

Placa de marmură: "Desigur, de aia simt că este incorect. Provenim din aceeaşi carieră şi totuşi beneficiem de un tratament total diferit acum. Nu e corect ! " şi a început să plângă.

Statuia de marmură: "Îţi mai aminteşti ziua în care Creatorul a încercat să lucreze la tine, dar tu ai opus rezistenţă?"

Placa de marmură: "Da, desigur. Îl urăsc pe tipul ală. Cum a putut să pună uneltele alea pe mine? M-a durut foarte tare."

Statuia de marmură: "Aşa e. Nu a putut să lucreze deloc la tine, deoarece ai opus rezistenţă".

Placa de marmură: "Şi ce-i cu asta?"

Statuia de marmură: "Atunci când Creatorul a decis să renunţe a lucra la tine, şi să lucreze la mine, am ştiut imediat că voi fi diferită în final. Nu am opus rezistenţă, ci am îndurat uneltele multă vreme, numai ca să mă modeleze".

Placa de marmură: "mmmm".

Statuia de marmură: "Draga mea, există un preţ pentru orice în viaţă. Dacă tu ai decis să renunţi la jumătatea drumului, nu îi poţi acuza pe cei care te calcă în picioare."

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dezvolţi tendinţa de a fi diferit de ceilalţi oameni astfel încât experienţa care te consacră drept "celebritate" să poată face faţă dăltuirii şi modelarii unei opere de artă valoroase?

Sarcina de a determina mărimea potrivită unei anumite virtuţi şi plasarea unei noi lucrări de artă în centrul unei filosofii de viaţă bine ticluite, poate uneori să pară descurajantă în cazul unui om care nu se ştie creator sau artist. Prin virtuţi înţelegându-se acele fundamente ale caracterului care determină, în mare măsură, formarea unei personalități echilibrate, vom putea să punem mai uşor în lumină înclinaţia omului spre succes şi celebritate.

Nu ne putem referi la un om oarecare aşa cum ne-am referi la un artist, căutând în fond anumite trăsături excepţionale, decât dacă facem din acel om un slujitor al lui Dumnezeu (sau o unealtă a providenţei) menit să-şi extindă libertatea de manifestare într-un cadru restrâns de receptare a harului divin, mai exact în urma unei experienţe de viaţă dure, dar educative.

Când ne gândim la om ca la un artist, trebuie să avem în vedere modul în care el este dispus să se raporteze la Dumnezeu, fiindcă ceea ce face dintr-un om un microcosmos, măsura tuturor lucrurilor și imaginea lui Dumnezeu, depinde de felul cum îşi cristalizează în minte şi în suflet înţelepciunea faptelor, fără a-şi aşeza convingerile în teorii.

A-l cunoaşte pe Dumnezeu, înseamnă să te cunoşti pe tine atunci când eşti supus probei de caracter, fără să aperi o stare de fapt care exprimă un grad mare de abatere de la obişnuit.

Iată deci, că nevoia de a înţelege pe deplin mesajul "Statuii din marmură", are ca prin considerent nevoia de a crede în Dumnezeu şi de a răspândi înţelepciunea lui grandioasă, care are la baza proba de caracter. Nu-i vorba de durerea pe care omul trebuie să o îndure până la un anumit punct, luând contact cu voinţa unei intervenţii divine, nu-i vorba de rezistenţă sau de perseverenţă, ci este vorba despre modalitatea în care percepi acel: "până unde trebuie să evoluez ca să pot să-mi clădesc un caracter puternic şi nobil?"

Bine scria cineva pe o pagină web: "Conţinutul caracterului se exprimă într-o multitudine de trăsături de caracter: disciplină, stăpânirea de sine sau orientarea caracterului (capacitatea persoanei de a selecta influenţele externe, naturale sau socio-culturale, şi de a răspunde la ele prin reacţii atitudinal comportamentale."

Tendinţa de a fi diferit de ceilalţi oameni depinde de modalitatea în care îţi construieşti caracterul cu privire la intenţia lui Dumnezeu de a face din tine o operă de artă, sau măcar să te facă să-ţi dai seama cum te poţi înălţa deasupra întregii lumi cu onoare, demnitate şi mândrie.

Practic, nobleţea face front comun cu "apa vie" a lui Dumnezeu, cu acea curăţire a caracterului prin stăruinţă şi consecvenţă, dus la un nivel de desăvârșire care va primi lauda: “Bine, rob bun”. Nevoia de a înţelege pe deplin pe Dumnezeu reiese din seria demersurilor tale de a trăi mai presus de înfrângere.

Leadershipul vizează îndeplinirea idealului de "A Servi Mai Presus de Sine" prin adoptarea unei formule de luciditate profundă de care se foloseşte omul de mare caracter pentru a-şi egala însuşirile sale cu cele ale Creatorului: "Priveşte tot timpul la puterea lui Dumnezeu şi vei uita de slăbiciunile tale."

Ciclului de viaţă al leadershipului se desfăşoară din momentul în care îţi dai seama că de unul singur nu-ţi poţi să te ridici mai presus de tine, la nivel de "Operă de artă", iar unica ta şansă este să-ţi pui la încercare credinţa care crede că Dumnezeu există şi că El este Unul

Care răsplăteşte.

Cine a răpit omului darul perfecţiunii?

On Martie 10, 2009

Fii mai presus decât ceilalţi, aducând mărturii solide în sprijinul superioarelor calităţi ce-ţi definesc personalitatea.

– Ce ar putea spune marele William Harvey despre acest sânge negricios? se întreba anatomistul Johann Schreck, în timp ce diseca cadavrul unei fete care murise din cauza unei boli de ficat. El învăţase să disece cadavre pe vremea când era student la Padova, activitate absolut necesară pentru perfecţionarea sa.

Timpul trecea încet în mica încăpere subterană, căldura devenea insuportabilă. În timp ce mânuia cu grijă penseta la extremităţile subţiri, încerca să-şi alunge gândurile care îi năpădeau mintea. Ultimele zile fuseseră grele pentru el, se mira cum de încă îşi mai putea exercita meseria. Cu numai câteva zile în urmă trecuse prin testul la care, inchizitorii, îi supuseră pe toţi marii savanţi. Doar câţiva scăpaseră cu viaţă.

Leadership: Eşti îndeajuns de hotărât să susţii explorările viitoare în sfera propriilor competenţe profesionale, asigurând propriei intenţionalităţi posibilitatea de a dobândi o conotaţie pozitivă?

– Este adevărat că practicaţi activităţi care coincid fără drept de apel cu acelea declarate eretice? îl întrebase un dominican, având un zâmbet ambiguu.

Schreck, ştia că dacă nu reuşeşte să combată cu argumente probate, bine documentate, toate acuzaţiile ce i se aduc pe nedrept, va avea aceeaşi soartă ca cea a lui Fulgenzio Loffredo, sau ca a celorlalţi oameni de elită ale căror idei, convingeri şi practici se opuneau gândirii acceptate, recunoscute şi impuse de părinţii inchiziţiei. Practic, ei îl acuzau că aparţinea sectei hematicilor, adică a celor care se hrănesc cu carne de animale golite de sânge. Numai cei care aparţineau religiei ebraice scăpau rigorilor Inchiziţiei.

Încercând să înţeleagă unde vrea să ajungă dominicanul, Schreck şi-a făcut un foarte rapid raţionament care a durat timp de o secundă şi care i-a pus pe buze răspunsul adecvat. Trebuia să nege acuzaţiile, dar să rămână pe terenul ales de dominican şi să-l combată eficient.

– Monseniore, nu am prejudecăţi despre sânge. Pentru mine are valoare ceea ce a arătat Hristos şi ne-a fost transmis cu iubire de Sfântul Ioan, în capitolul al VI al Evangheliei sale: „Cine îmi mănâncă trupul şi îmi bea sângele are viaţă veşnică, iar eu îl voi învia în ultima zi; fiindcă trupul meu este adevărata hrană, iar sângele meu este băutura adevărată… Eu primesc trupul şi sângele lui Hristos prin euharistie. Particip regulat, ca şi dumneavoastră, la acest act sublim de canibalism."

Inchizitorul a rămas surprins de răspunsul lui Schreck, fiindcă toţi cei cărora le adresase această acuzaţie o negaseră fără să o argumenteze. *

Leadership: Poţi demonstra că gradul de justificare a unei convingeri convingătoare, în baza unor factori de risc, este o indicație a adevărului ce poate fi obținut prin ancorarea experienţială a unei practici unitare?

Nimeni în afară de tine însuţi nu-ţi cunoaşte mai bine potenţialul. Pentru ca greutatea leadershipului tău să crească trebuie, mai întâi de toate, să izbuteşti să înăbuşi orice influenţă negativă şi descurajantă, şi să te protejezi împotriva efectelor nocive ale unei gândiri care fac posibilă incriminarea ta.

Fii stăpân pe gândurile tale, pe judecata ta, pe faptele tale, căci oamenii a căror înţelegere este condiţionată în mare măsură de nişte valori, credinţe şi practici nesănătoase, incorecte sau condamnabile, ar face orice ca să destabilizeze trăsăturile caracterului tău şi să-ţi diminueze performanţele, incriminându-te pentru orice neglijenţă pe care o manifeşti. Poţi deveni o victimă uşoară pentru orice scăpare a sistemului personal de valori pe care se situează întreaga ta existenţă. Astfel de indivizi te compară în raport cu propriile lor convingeri, concepţii şi interese, iar dacă eşti pe aceeaşi lungime cu ei, atunci vei fi întotdeauna dirijat după voinţa lor, te vei pierde în labirintul lor de intrigi şi speculaţii ingenioase.

Aşa cum sănătatea fizică şi psihică se diminuează accelerat sub presiunea stresului, tot aşa starea ta existenţială se va agrava datorită împânzirii minţii tale cu frânturi de realitate corespunzătoare regulilor, principiilor şi practicilor celor care vor să-şi creeze propriul lor statut dictatorial.

Ca să te debarasezi de indivizii care îşi alimentează leadershipul cu o motivaţie intrinsecă crescută de a-şi impune propriile idei şi valori, trebuie să combaţi cu isteţime toate opiniile şi punctele lor de vedere, aducând argumente solide în sprijinul superioarelor calităţi care îţi definesc personalitatea şi care scot în evidenţă modul tău de gândire bine pus la punct.

Influenţele negative pe care le exercită ceilalţi asupra ta pot dispărea la fel de uşor precum urmele de tălpi întipărite pe nisip pe care le şterge vântul, dacă prin gândirea ta, prin atitudinea ta, prin ideile tale şi prin faptele tale dovedeşti o măreţie extraordinară. Dacă personalitatea ta este dominată de nişte valori sau convingeri profunde, daca îţi zugrăveşti ideile şi convingerile iscusit, tot aşa cum păianjenul îşi brodează cu multa iscusinţă miraculoasa-i pânză, atunci leadershipul tău va câştiga o mare însemnătate, iar tu vei câştiga teren în faţa celorlalţi.

Adevărului ce poate fi obținut prin ancorarea experienţială a unei practici unitare - corespunde formulării unei concluzii proprii cu referire la relaţia dintre ceea ce poţi realiza de unul singur şi ceea ce nu este permis să faci cunoscut în rândul neofiţilor.

Cine a răpit omului darul perfecţiunii oglindeşte o realitate care ne priveşte pe noi toţi. Anume, că dacă vom fi responsabili de personalitatea noastră şi dacă vom avea puterea să ne împotrivim influenţelor negative din afara noastră, cu siguranţă vom dobândi o măreţie şi o însemnătate care ne va apropia de perfecţiune.

Pe de altă parte, dacă ne vom lăsa angrenaţi în jocul individual al celorlalţi, şi dacă ne vom lăsa călăuziţi de ei, vom ajunge să funcţionăm (să gândim şi să acţionăm) în dezacord cu propriile noastre convingeri şi valori morale – ceea ce ne va îngrădi tendinţa spre perfecţiunea caracterului nostru.

Concluzie: O personalitate puternică, clădită pe principii şi valori deosebite, va putea să reziste prin puterea gândirii la influenţele externe parazitare create de grupuri mai mici sau mai mari de oameni uniţi de false idei ce servesc unor interese ascunse. O astfel de personalitate târâtă pe nisipurile mişcătoare ale acestora, va reuşi întotdeauna să-i bată cu propriile lor arme şi să supravieţuiască sporindu-şi renumele, valoarea şi puterea.

Demolarea unor „construcţii" şubrede aidoma celora realizate din cărţile de joc, sau a unui castel de nisip, o poate face numai o astfel de personalitate căreia nimic nu-i poate răpi darul perfecţiunii bazate pe soliditatea principiilor şi valorilor sădite în timp.

Cine citeşte dincolo de cuvinte descoperă trăiri din propria sa existenţă

On Septembrie 18, 2022

Încearcă să înţelegi latura psihologică a acestor manifestări care se opun realităţii în care te împing gândurile, fără să fii nevoit să-ţi divulgi convingerile şi trăirile.

Aş zice că cine citește dincolo de cuvinte descoperă trăiri din propria ta existență. Alții nici măcar cu cuvintele luate în serios nu sunt capabili să exprime o idee personală. Iar tu, drag cititor, faptul că citeşti ce postez pe blog nu înseamnă că şi înţelegi totul, nici măcar simbolismul intim, relaţional, dintre eul liric şi universul poetic de care se înconjoară un scriitor ca mine. În loc să mă citeşti pe mine, puteai în timpul acesta să citeşti alte cărţi, căci la oamenii ca mine e mai greu de înţeles ceva.

Da, Nicu. Nu e vorba doar de scris, ci şi de realitate. Îţi propun ca atunci când ne vom vedea să discutăm următorul subiect: când oamenii dragi te dezamăgesc. Până la urmă, este şi acesta un simbolism misterios, fără a cădea în incoerenţe suprarealiste, un fel de cristal în care se reflectă întregul univers al unei fiinţe străine ţie, parcă coborâtă din imaginarul unui trecut puțin cunoscut care s-a îmbinat cu imaginarul unui viitor aproape ilizibil. Da, mi-ar plăcea să-ţi aud părerea vizavi de cum vezi tu o stare nocivă provocată de dezamăgire. Am trecut prin aşa ceva recent. O să-ţi povestesc în mare despre ce este vorba.

Sper că nu de mine este vorba în această strădanie a ta de a intui măcar o parte din latura mea ascunsă. Dar, dacă tot vrei să-ţi spun ce cred, atunci sunt de părere că orice stare trece de la sine dacă ieși din ciclul "cred doar ceea ce citesc". Fiindcă atunci când citeşti începi să-ţi construieşti un mic univers din lucrurile în care nu credeai cu adevărat, un univers din care e posibil să nu-ți mai dorești să evadezi. Nu mai spun că dacă te închizi în tine, e mai rău ca orice, este un fel de bogăţie ce nu este indispensabilă pentru a avea o viaţă ce merită de fie trăită. Ca şi când ai fi stăpânul castelului aflat pe pământul căpcăunului, deci sub influenţa unui spirit înşelător. Cu timpul vei începe să iei "chipul" unei somnolenţe malefice care sufocă orice şi pe oricine cuprinde în raza ei.

Leadership: Mărturisirile tale pot să vorbească despre o „viziune" a realităţii în care totul se regăseşte simultan în toate părţile sale, în încercarea de a exterioriza nişte gânduri sau emoţii care nu depind de controlul tău?

Drag cititor. Se vede că ești o fire sensibilă. Orice neînsemnată chestie o pui la suflet, ca un spirit independent care-şi diminuează resursele de lumină până când rodirea sa poetică ajunge să fie limitată de capacitatea restrânsă a imaginarului substanţial. Misterul în care te învălui, atunci când îmi citeşti scrierile, mă îndeamnă să presupun că în spatele laturii tale sensibile, stă cel puţin un gând ascuns, un gând ascuns într-o lună opacă ce orbitează în jurul unui baricentru gravitaţional destabilizator: aşa numitul: "imperativ ipotetic".

Iar gândurile tale sunt controlate de măsura în care îmi citeşti scrierile, fiindcă tot ce ştii despre mine, absolut fiecare amănunt, fiecare detaliu privind extinderea realităţii, ştii din ceea ce scriu eu despre mine. Altfel, n-ai fi ştiut absolut nimic, iar eu aş fi rămas doar un scriitor care nu îşi mărturiseşte rolul de arbitru al adevărului şi al realităţii în atenţia cititorilor săi.

Uneori, tinzi să te joci cu psihologia, dar nu-i bun nici lucrul ăsta. Devii o fire tot mai încurcată. Prea multe ecuații, prea multe necunoscute, prea multe teste, prea multă intrigă. Toate astea sugrumă spiritul, ca un vuiet produs de o cădere îndepărtată de apă. Începi să vezi în orice lucru minor un adevărat coşmar. Iar în această fază, dacă te laşi prea mult în voia laturii tale creative, îţi vei pierde puterea de a vedea ceea ce nu se vede, Inervitesys

Syratriques , experienţa sufletului în afara bucuriei. Nu ştiu ce să zic. Poate că experienţa sufletului tău în lumea materială nu a acumulat suficientă energie pentru a face un salt peste propria-ţi umbră formată din prejudecăţi şi temeri. De aceea, este vital să petreci un timp singur, pentru a înţelege emoţiile care apar, fără a răni inutil pe ceilalţi.

Dacă continui astfel, citindu-mi scrierile cu nesaţ, dar fără să te înţelegi pe tine însuţi, cred că îţi vei încheia această călătorie en el mundo de los libros , în micul univers al unui om pe cât de puternic, pe atât de fragil. Şi, te asigur că nu există niciun Aleph în adâncul acestui univers, ci doar un imens haos întunecat şi rece, un disconfort exogen dezvoltat în absenţa unei iluminări naturale suficiente, o iluzie, sau mai bine zis o trăire foarte scurtă venită din altă lume, din altă dimensiune. Asta îţi doreşti? Să fii doar un strop de întuneric în lungul meridian al delirului, să te bucuri doar de nefiinţă şi tăcere?

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să imortalizezi momentul transpunerii tale într-o poveste pe care nu ţi-o poţi închipui cu adevărat decât atunci când o trăieşti ca pe o putere ce scoate la iveală partea suspicioasă a naturii tale?

Vrei să ştii un lucru interesant? Citeam despre asta într-o carte de Borges. Cică credincioşii care vin la moscheea Amr din Cairo ştiu foarte bine că universul se află în interiorul uneia dintre coloanele de piatră ce înconjoară curtea centrală. Bineînţeles, nimeni nu poate să vadă acest univers, dar dacă îţi lipeşti urechea de coloanele de piatră începi să auzi după un timp un zumzet stăruitor.

Şi tu te afli în acelaşi gen de situaţie. Eul tău se află în interiorul unui univers plin cu pietre preţioase, dar tot mai grele, care înconjurându-te cu o lumină orbitoare îţi dau o aură falsă de om citit, o aură boemă şi excentrică în acelaşi timp. Iar spiritul tău de cercetător nu reuşeşte să găsească peste tot în acest Univers, în natură, în pietre, în frunze și în praf, mesajele sublime - pregătite cu grijă de un scriitor atât de fin ca mine.

Şi cine este de vină aici: cititorul care îşi caută imensitatea de experienţe (altele decât ale lui), sau scriitorul care îşi lasă în felul acesta personajul să înfrunte imediatul şi contingentul? Rareori se întâmplă ca un scriitor atât de înzestrat ca mine să-și contureze un univers aparte, să-și șlefuiască obsesiile în afara realităţii cu o asemenea credință, atât de multă vreme, într-un gen atât de mult admirat de cititorii săi.

Întrebare: de ce este important să imortalizezi momentul transpunerii tale într-o poveste care parcă te atrage să o cuprinzi, dar ale cărei detalii nu pot fi atinse? Iată de ce. Pentru că este singura cale de a te conecta cu intuiţia ta. Iar drumul către conexiunea cu intuiţia ta se deschide conectându-te la mine, cu emoţiile şi gândurile mele.

Leadershipul vizează modul în care se pune opoziţia dintre instinctul de dominaţie şi instinctul de apărare, aşa încât să rezulte o tendinţă de convergenţă dintre atitudine, convingere şi empatie.

Iar această convergenţă trebuie să fie echivalentul receptării unei perspective de înnobilare sufletească.

Cine citeşte dincolo de cuvinte descoperă trăiri din propria-i existenţă, cu precizarea că felul în care gândeşti şi simţi despre tine însuţi, incluzând credinţele şi aşteptările tale despre felul cum este altcineva, determină ceea ce se numeşte "ataşament", principalul obiect al aprecierii obiective.

Cine deţine puterea

On Ianuarie 02, 2009

De ce unii oameni nu văd marile oportunităţi care se află chiar în faţa ochilor lor şi nu se ocupă de ele?

Un motiv pentru care unii oameni ezită să facă un pas înainte spre viitor, spre progres, spre perfecţiune, este că, în primul rând le este teamă de schimbare, apoi că nu ştiu să observe sau refuză să recunoască şansele de reuşită care se ivesc în fiecare zi. Şi omit sau evită să se gândească la consecinţele pe termen lung care decurg din deciziile lor.

Ieri, în drum spre casă, m-am oprit la un anticariat. De obicei la anticariat cărţile sunt mai ieftine, şi dacă mai ştii şi să negociezi, ai şansa să obţii orice la jumătate de preţ. De data aceasta, însă, am achiziţionat trei cărţi aproape pe gratis. Aceste trei cărţi, care erau într-o stare perfectă, sunt de la editura Brandbuilders Grup, şi ştiam că sunt foarte scumpe. Imediat când am ajuns acasă, am verificat pe site-ul editurii preţul real al cărţilor, şi am descoperit că fiecare din ele depăşea 70 de lei. Mai exact, toate cele trei cărţi fac în total 260 de lei. Dar ştii cu cât le-am achiziţionat? Eşti pregătit?

30 de lei. Ai auzit bine. Doar 30 de lei.

Unde este greşeala în toată treaba asta, şi a cui e vina? Evident, a vânzătorului. În primul rând el nu a ştiut absolut deloc să negocieze, apoi nu a ştiut care sunt pe piaţa preţurile reale ale acelor trei cărţi. Şi uite aşa, încet, încet, falimentul bate la uşă. Da, cred că este foarte adevărat. Unii oamenii sunt egoişti, leneşi, neinformaţi şi nerăbdători.

Leadership: Îţi defineşti orientarea specifică spre receptarea unei opere de artă, fără să ţii cont de valoarea propriu-zisă a conţinutului ei?

Să recunoaştem, dacă vânzătorul de la anticariat ar fi ştiut care este valoarea reală a celor trei cărţi, le-ar fi vândut la un preţ atât de mic? Fii sigur că eram dispus să scot din buzunar rapid 150 de lei, pentru că tot eram în câştig decât dacă le cumpărăm din librării sau direct de la editură.

Dar acum urmează partea cea mai dureroasă. Când am plecat, vânzătorul "negocia" cu un alt client preţul de vânzare al unei cărţi. "Îmi pare rău, nu pot să v-o dau cu 4 lei. Cel puţin cu 6 lei."

Ironic, nu-i aşa? Ar fi putut obţine foarte uşor de la mine 150 de lei, şi acuma el se tocmea pentru 2 lei.

O operă de artă pe care trebuie să o valorizezi este o forţă exterioară pe care nu toată lumea o bănuieşte, mai ales când aparţine hotărârii tale de a sluji mizei ei. Dacă e aşa cum se spune, că adevărata faţă a unei cărţi este una multiplă, rezultată din suma tălmăcirii ei în toate limbile, atunci valoarea ei literară este un indicator al calităţii conţinutului pe care tu îl utilizezi şi îl revelezi prin prisma abundenţei de idei şi proiecte cu care ieşi în evidenţă.

Leadership: Poţi să produci un efect de tip "imboldul de a obţine mai mult" prin amplificarea valorii unui activ în raport cu preţul de raft, revelându-i durata de valabilitate prin intermediul subtilităţii esenţei sale care rămâne mereu aceeaşi?

Toţi oamenii fac alegeri proaste din când în când. Dar pe unii îi deşteaptă, nu îi prostesc de-a binelea. Pentru oamenii de vârf, această scuturare este un avertisment că trebuie să-şi schimbe modul de gândire, modul de acţiune. Pe de altă parte, oamenii de rând ignoră şocurile şi nu renunţă la modul tradiţional de gândire.

Oamenii neinformaţi plătesc un preţ mai mare.

Informaţia reprezintă, mai ales în ziua de azi, un mare avantaj. Iar oamenii de vârf ştiu mai bine ca oricine care este valoarea informaţiei, de aceea sunt mereu la curent cu noutăţile din domeniul în care îşi desfăşoară activitatea. De fapt, sunt atât de preocupaţi de viitorul lor încât mai bine de cinci ore pe zi îşi alocă timp pentru a-şi actualiza cunoştinţele. Uneori nu le mai ajunge timpul pentru alte activităţi extra job, atât sunt de preocupaţi cu dezvoltarea lor personală şi profesională. Partea bună este ca oamenii de vârf se află totdeauna pe cele mai înalte trepte ale succesului. Un efort continuu şi susţinut este întotdeauna răsplătit, nu-i aşa?

Leadershipul urmează următoarea instrucțiune care conţine eticheta unei perspective de business pe termen lung: "amplifică valoarea unui activ prin valoarea totală a activului în circulație ! "

Activul care trebuie să se aprecieze mereu cu măcar 50% poate fi reprezentat de un anumit lucru, de însuşirile lui sau de conţinutul pe care îl distribuie, având mare priză la public. Depinde de tine cum îi creşti eficienţa sau importanţa prin intermediul acelui "know-how" care să-i permită o diferenţiere foarte clară faţă produsele celorlalţi furnizori din piaţa ta.

Să ne reîntoarcem puţin la vânzătorul de la anticariat care are posibilitatea să se documenteze în fiecare zi oricât de mult doreşte, despre orice lucru din orice domeniu, pentru că sigur nu duce lipsa de cărţi. Totuşi el preferă să stea pe bancă, să fumeze liniştit şi să privească trecătorii. De unde să ştie el oare cât valorează în librării cărţile pe care le vinde? Şi de unde să ştie cum să negocieze, cum să obţină un preţ cât mai avantajos, dacă cărţile de negociere stau pe jos, chiar lângă el, dar el nu le citeşte niciodată?

În fiecare zi unii oameni învaţă ceva nou, însă pentru alţii, nimic nu-i nou sub soare. Şansele de a face carieră, de a ajunge departe, sunt la îndemâna tuturor, dar unii sunt prea egoişti şi mult prea “ocupaţi” ca să profite de ele. Sper din tot sufletul ca măcar acest articol să-l citească unii comercianţi, şi să înveţe ceva preţios. Anume ca “cine deţine informaţia, deţine puterea”.

Conform Wikipedia, Know-How este un termen preluat din limba engleză, care desemnează cunoștințe specifice, deținute de o persoană fizică sau de o întreprindere, asupra unui produs sau procedeu de fabricație.

Leadershipul este know-how-ul care face diferenţa dintre valoarea oportunităţii de a îmbunătăţi un rezultat şi valoarea constantei de a livra calităţile lucrului pe care îl deţii.

Cine nu merită să fie şef

On Aprilie 29, 2009

Asigură o coerenţă întregului proces de schimbare dorit, fără să te orientezi pe o hartă uzată.

A crezut că dacă este absolventă a două facultăţi, că dacă şi-a luat doctoratul şi deţine un titlu didactic, nimeni nu-i va cere vreodată socoteală şi nu o va putea lua la bani mărunţi. S-a înşelat amarnic !

Nu-i uşor să conduci un laborator clinic. Ar fi absolut absurd să credem că oricine deţine competenţele necesare în acest sens. În primul rând un şef de laborator trebuie să fie prezent la datorie pe tot parcursul programului de lucru stabilit de reglementările în vigoare, pentru a putea să răspundă la toate solicitările managerului general al spitalului. Trebuie să aibă cât de cât experienţă în a conduce măcar o secţie, sau măcar un sector de activitate, deci o experienţă de conducere trebuie neapărat să aibă.

Totodată, un şef de laborator are obligaţia să evalueze performanţele profesionale ale personalului aflat în subordinea directă, conform structurii organizatorice şi fişei postului, şi să contribuie la realizarea şi menţinerea în laborator a unei atmosfere de colaborare, calm şi competiţie fair-play. Şi, nu în ultimul rând, este imperios necesar ca şeful de laborator să participe la toate şedinţele în care se discută problemele legate de activitatea curentă a laboratorului sau a unităţii (policlinică, spital) pe care o deserveşte.

Toate aceste sarcini care trebuiau îndeplinite repetitiv au fost însă prea "absurde" pentru o şefă de laborator care, mizând pe faptul că este absolventă a două facultăţi şi deţine un titlu didactic, îşi va putea permite să facă ce vrea. Prin urmare nu şi-a luat în serios atribuţiile care îi revin, nu s-a implicat în problemele laboratorului, în problemele stringente cerute de conducerea spitalului (probleme legate de organizare, de achiziţii, raportări statistice, etc), nu a participat aproape niciodată la şedinţe – să ofere lămuriri cu privire la analizele efectuate, la problemele laboratorului, asta pe lângă faptul că mergea la serviciu şi pleca când dorea ea, fără să dea nimănui niciun fel de explicaţie.

Ce altceva nu mai făcea? Ei bine, mai nimic, întocmai ca orice persoană peste măsură de înfumurată şi arogantă. În final, managerii spitalului au luat cea mai inspirată decizie, singura posibilă: demiterea imediată din funcţie a şefei de laborator şi înlocuirea ei.

Leadership: Navighezi într-o zonă necunoscută pentru a demostra că abilităţile tale importante se pot recunoaşte în prezenţa reprezentării unei valori cheie care te defineşte?

Dacă navighezi într-o zonă care nu este acoperită de nicio hartă ai toate şansele să nu găseşti niciodată ceea ce cauţi. Iar dacă nu ajungi la destinaţia stabilită, înseamnă că nu ai realizat nimic. O zonă necunoscută este un ultim bun rămas scris cu creionul într-un memoriu care nu va fi publicat niciodată. Prestigiul zonei pe care o reprezinţi sporeşte imaginea afacerii tale şi a viitorului tău.

Şeful de laborator este ca un căpitan de vas care are toate şansele să nu găsească niciodată drumul spre adevărata performanţă dacă îşi pune nădejdea într-un echipaj slab instruit. E ca şi cum ar naviga la voia întâmplării, după cum se nimereşte, ghidându-se după principiul „ o hartă nu foloseşte la nimic. "

Ca şef de laborator trebuie să ştii exact ce task-uri ai de îndeplinit, atât pe termen lung cât şi pe termen scurt, şi care îţi sunt responsabilităţile. Este greu să coordonezi activitatea oamenilor dintr-un laborator mai ales dacă aceştia sunt fie puţini, iar numărul de analize este foarte mare, fie dacă aceştia sunt aproape de pensionare şi nu mai au niciun interes să se perfecţioneze.

Valoarea cheie care il defineste pe lider este reprezentata prin descoperirea unei zone de competenţă pe care o poate controla numai prin stabilirea unor măsuri privind prevenirea şi limitarea efectelor de abdicare de la puterea personală.

În alte cazuri, este greu să coordonezi activitatea acelor persoane chiar şi suficient de bine pregătite care însă nu doresc să fie coordonate, nu doresc să existe un şef (adică o conducere unică), ci preferă ca fiecare să se auto-conducă, să facă de fapt ce le trece lor prin cap, preferă să existe un "balamuc". Este, deci, o mare responsabilitate să fii şef de laborator când te confrunţi cu situaţii problematice care necesită abordări foarte variate. Iar în aceste condiţii este foarte greu să-ţi îndeplineşti atribuţiile de serviciu cu seriozitate şi profesionalism, cu succes şi cu zâmbetul pe buze.

A analiza harta leadershipului înseamnă să studiezi fiecare element al său care îţi poate veni în ajutor şi care îţi poate asigura succesul, şi să extragi cât mai multe informaţii despre teritoriul pe care intenţionezi să îţi exerciţi influenţa. În leadership nu poţi să te orientezi pe o hartă uzată şi să continui să te deplasezi urmărind indicaţiile prezentate de aceasta. Mai întâi trebuie să trasezi tu însuţi o hartă care să îi delimiteze pe membrii cei mai preţioşi ai echipajului, de acei impostori care pretind a fi mai mult decât sunt.

Leadership: Imaginea perfectă a profesiei tale corespunde cu redefinirea zonei de aplicabilitate a unei însuşiri care nu aduce nicio contribuţie în direcţia realizării concordanţei dintre exigenţa dorinţei de perfecţionare şi virtutea de a te comporta disciplinat în mijlocul dezordinei?

Un manager de spital nu-şi poate asuma riscul de a păstra la conducerea unui laborator clinic, unde zilnic se internează numeroşi bolnavi ce necesită numeroase investigaţii, o persoană înceată, lentă, incapabilă să-şi respecte obligaţiile prevăzute în contractul de muncă, şi pe deasupra, şi cu "nasul pe sus".

Iată ce a spus managerul spitalului după ce a demis-o din funcţie pe şefa de laborator: " Indiferent de gradele şi meritele obţinute, dacă şeful de laborator nu-şi face treaba ca lumea, va fi înlocuit din funcţie fără discuţie. " Ferm şi categoric ! Ăsta da management de calitate !

Aşadar, în desfăşurarea demersurilor tale trebuie să urmăreşti în mod sistematic felul cum se înfăţişează componentele constitutive ale hărţii pe care o foloseşti pentru atingerea performanţei. Trebuie sa scoţi la iveală latura ascunsă a oamenilor, în funcţie de fluiditatea calităţilor şi aptitudinilor lor. A te orienta pe o hartă uzată, înseamnă să le dai oamenilor autoritatea de face abstracţie de viziunea ta, înseamnă să-i laşi să facă ce vor ei.

Leadershipul este o călătorie din care ai șanse mari să revii ca un erou, știind că faci ceva în plus din perspectiva creării unei noi imagini a specializării pe care o abordezi în relaţia cu ceilalţi.

Concluzie: Când vine vorba de succesul unei organizaţii, a unei instituţii, managerii cei mai iscusiţi vor ţine cont de profesionalismul, seriozitatea şi performanţele de care dau dovada angajaţii şi şefii de serviciu, şi nu de meritele lor teoretice. De fapt managerii nici nu vor avea de ales, dacă doresc ca organizaţia să meargă: vor trebui să se gândească de doua ori înainte de a avansa pe cineva într-un post de conducere.

Citate şi maxime despre leadership

On Iunie 08, 2009

Sir Winston Churchill scria: "Este bine ca un om neinstruit sa lectureze carti cu citate. Citatele, cand ti se intiparesc in minte, iti stimuleaza gandirea. Ele te fac de asemenea curios, indemnandu-te sa ii citesti pe autori pentru a afla cat mai multe."

Citatul nr 29: Neculai I. Fantanaru
Oamenii care nu au personalitate ascultă mai mult de alţii, decât de ei înşişi.

Citatul nr 39: Neculai I. Fantanaru
Ce înseamnă leadership? Leadershipul este mai întâi o probă de echilibru, apoi o probă de evaluare. Nu poţi fi întrecut la "mersul pe sârmă", cât timp nimeni altcineva nu exersează "mersul pe sârmă".

Clarobscurul vibrant al orizontului finit

On Aprilie 16, 2014

Temperează-ţi înclinaţiile spre „constructivism", extinzându-ţi realitatea spre acea totalitate a viziunii acceptate de viaţă ca pe o ştiinţă coordonatoare a gândirii corecte.

Păream a fi condiţionat de acea înnoitoare viziune care aștepta de prea de mult timp să mi se dezvăluie, căreia numai manifestarea unei utopii susţinute de sensurile unei misterioase nevoi interioare îi putea indica exact forma, anvergura şi valoarea. Era ca şi când ar fi trebuit să savurez un tabou şi alte studii de istorie a artei dintr-o privire aruncată în culisele unei despărțiri previzibile de o lume socotită învechită, sau mai bine zis din dorinţa unei eliberări din temniţa unei realităţi greşit şi limitat înţelese.

Insistent, încercam să răsucesc fiecare umbră şi fiecare lumină într-o spirală aparentă care cobora în sensul invers acelor de ceas şi apoi urca spre infinit. Spirala le conţinea pe toate cele de sub mine, de deasupra mea, din cer şi de pe pământ, dinaintea mea şi dindărătul meu.

Aproape întotdeauna, orbit de acea fantezie care probează unitatea de profunzime a viziunii, am ignorat sfatul înţelept al făuritorilor de lumi: " Nu poţi cuprinde totul dacă sufletul ţi-e gol. Du-te să vezi lumea, iar înapoi de vei veni, porţile deschise tu le vei găsi. "

Nu eram deloc mândru de ignoranţa mea, dar mă purtam de parcă ignoranţa asta ar fi avut tot farmecul meu. Căci misterul aparte, atmosfera nedefinită care mă îndepărta de mine însumi, sporea senzaţia de spaţiu magic într-un loc în care imersiunea în lumea virtuală crea acel inefabil, acea nevoie de apartenenţă la o conştiinţă mult mai cuprinzătoare, mai armonioasă, dar ambiguă şi confuză în acelaşi timp.

Misterul era extras din minereul personalităţii mele în scopul validării unor legi universale care întăreau efectul de barieră exercitat de clarobscurul vibrant al unui orizont finit.

Leadership: Posezi acea convingere a excelenţei de a fi mai mult decât o alternativă la abordarea evolutivă a ştiinţei vieţii, impusă prin forţa de convingere a expresivităţii în argumentarea unor noi perspective de abordare a realităţii?

Omul, participantul prim la actul de creaţie a lumii noi, prin unificarea vizibilului cu intangibilul, poate să găsească sprijinul viziunii idealiste despre viaţă pentru a depăşi contradicţiile inerente privitoare la absenţa unei reînnoiri totale. În acest caz, reacţia lui în faţa experienţei vieţii nu devine o banală luare de poziţie, ci o constantă preocupare sortită dezvoltării ce depăşeşte categoria " Debug Your Mind ", contribuind la salvarea zonei de leadership, apartenentă la un sistem de valori care nu este compromis de nevoile imaginare.

Liderul este un artist al jocurilor de lumini şi umbre, îmbinând în mod cauzal toate aspectele vieţii, care nu-i fac neapărat o imagine bună sau proastă, ci una relativ coerentă asupra a ceea ce el va deveni. Există, desigur, numeroase contradicţii între ştiinţa vieţii şi atmosfera nedefinită pe care o creează lumea cunoaşterii revelatoare: prima este dominată de explicabil, a doua de inefabil.

Prima îl stăpâneşte pe lider, aducându-l în ipostaza de a-şi regândi rostul şi identitatea, a doua îl domină şi îl depăşeşte prin raportarea la un personaj simbolic şi de-a dreptul imaginar, pus în situaţia de a suporta realitatea, reversul unor efecte produse pe diferite paliere ale fiinţei. Şi totodată de a da o serie de răspunsuri la întrebări de tipul: Cu ce mijloace? În ce condiţii? Pe ce canale?

Leadership: Funcţia ta de creaţie se concretizează într-un ansamblu de variabile care păstrează impresia de oglindire într-un detaliu al unei macrostructuri de manifestare a expresivităţii?

Clarobscurul constituie o parte a identităţii liderului construite "local", prin interacţiunea cu mediul de interes, în contexte semnificative rezervate libertăţii de creaţie în diverse maniere. Această libertate, după cum spunea un scriitor anonim, nu este un lucru pe care ţi-l dă cineva, ci un lucru pe care ţi-l dai singur. Şi el devine un "accesoriu" care dă o notă aparte leadershipului prin faptul că dă ocazia liderului să se testeze diferit, probând unitatea de profunzime a viziunii despre viaţă în situaţii în care nu este întru de acord cu termenii şi condiţiile ei de înţelegere şi utilizare.

Se poate spune că posezi acea convingere a excelenţei de a fi mai mult decât o alternativă la abordarea evolutivă a ştiinţei vieţii, atunci când, recunoscându-ţi propria ignoranţă cu privire la identitatea ta, încerci să îţi stăpâneşti nevoia interioară sau tentaţia de a-ţi extinde aria de cuprindere a unei ştiinţe individualizate, în folosul unei mai bune înţelegeri a vieţii.

O macrostructură de manifestare a expresivităţii în hotarele existenţei personale cuprinde toate acele mişcări artistice care exprimă o ruptură de nivel în modul de a percepe şi a reprezenta realitatea, negând orice prejudecăţi, astfel încât să creezi senzaţia unei alte prezenţe, unei alte persoane, unui univers paralel în care te regăseşti perfect.

Leadershipul se produce ca un reflex al calităţii de care dispune un "Creator de lumi" atunci când tehnica întâlneşte arta, rezultând într-un ansamblu de elemente ce se îmbină în unghiuri și perspective noi de a privi realitatea.

Clarobscurul vibrant al orizontului finit evidenţiază limitele leadershipului prin multitudinea de aspecte ale vieţii care pot fi incluse într-un ghid orientativ în dificila sarcină a evaluării tale, ca om care este condiţionat de o viziune puternică.

Oricât de performant devine leadershipul, există ceva necunoscut şi imprevizibil dincolo de care nu poţi acţiona, sau orice acţiune poate avea consecinţe neaşteptate.

Claudius Petit, coautor al faptei artistice

On August 08, 2008

Răsplata pe care o primești pentru munca ta este sacrificiul pe care îl plătești pe altarul evoluției, în schimbul unei moșteniri durabile.

"Şi apoi, ce contează omul luat de unul singur? - se întrebă Van Gogh. În viitor - scria el fratelui său Theo - va exista o artă care va trebui să fie atât de frumoasă, atât de tânără, încât, chiar de ar fi să o jertfim, propria noastră tinereţe, ea ne va dărui în schimb o linişte plină de seninătate. Chiar dacă nu izbutesc să mă afirm, tot sunt înclinat să cred că ceea ce m-am străduit să realizez va fi dus mai departe. Poate nu imediat, dar important este să nu fiu singurul care cred în acest adevăr."

La care adevăr se gândea oare, Van Gogh? Care adevăr ar trebui să-i unească pe oameni, care adevăr ar trebui să-i mobilizeze, făcându-i să uite de finitudinea lor biologică, să existe într-un sens fundamental? Un adevăr care e destul să fie râvnit, cu ardoare, pentru a putea fi atins. Un adevăr care să acționeze divin, ca forță motrice a vieţii. Acest adevăr acceptă nenumărate nume, reductibile poate în final, la unul singur: puterea omului de a transforma cârja în aripă. Acest adevăr îşi găseşte, din când în când, slujitori devotați.

"Il faut achever l'église Saint-Pierre de Firminy-Vert" — iată anunțul pe care îl putem întâlni în presa franceză din ultima vreme. Mai sunt necesare patru milioane de franci pentru a finaliza ultima lucrare a lui Le Corbusier. Apelul este lansat, cu multă vigoare, de Claudius Petit, fost ministru al reconstrucției şi urbanismului, primar al orașului Firminy-Vert.

Leadership: Te-ai gândit cum ar fi să cobori în arenă, nu ca un simplu spectator, ci ca un jucător activ, unde regulile nu sunt ale tale, ci ale divinității?

Admirator şi susținător al lui Le Corbusier, Claudius Petit și-a legat numele şi de alte lucrări ale marelui arhitect: Unitatea de locuit de la Marsilia, pe care, în calitate de ministru, a inaugurat-o triumfal în anul 1952, Casa tineretului și LE CORBUSIER: Unitatea de locuit de la Marsilia, inaugurată sărbătorește de ministerul reconstrucției, Claudius Petit a culturii şi Unitatea de locuit de la Firminy Vert, pe care le-a încurajat şi le-a realizat în calitate de primar al oraşului.

Claudius Petit este un om politic, dar un om politic care, încurajând arta, luptând pentru ea, devine, într-un anumit fel, coautor al faptei artistice. El nu se mulţumeşte şi controleze din afară jocul, ci coboară în arenă, jucând jocul. Apreciem în Claudius Petit nu pe arbitru, ci pe jucător, nu pe cel care este jucat de propriul său rol, ci pe cel care-şi joacă jocul. Care joc? - se poate întreba. Jocul creaţiei, singurul joc serios, jocul al cărui preţ este condiţia umană, jocul în care banul nu e un scop, ci un mijloc, jocul ale cărui reguli nu sunt stabilite de om, ci de Dumnezeu, jocul care, jucat până la capăt, te răsplăteşte cu o pulbere de vis cosmic. Jocul acesta, Claudius Petit l-a înţeles, l-a încurajat şi l-a jucat el însuși.

Leadership: Crezi că ai putea să te desprinzi de eticheta de "domn NU", devenind un participant activ în lumea artei, punând în joc nu doar opere, ci și o parte din esența ta?

Claudius Petit nu e acel funcționar blazat, așezat continuu, ca un baraj fatidic, împotriva operei, acel personaj mediocru care crede că omul e făcut să se târască, acel "alienat al sentimentului" de care vorbea Leon-Paul Fargue, în faţa căruia dacă «ţâşneşti spre cer îl faci cardiac», acel domn "NU" pe care din păcate, Le Corbusier l-a întâlnit atât de des. Claudius Petit este un jucător, adică un om serios. "Il n'y a que ceux qui jouent qui soient des types sérieux" spunea Le Corbusier, dar, continuă el, afirmaţie paradoxală dar profundă: "Les alpinistes, les rugbymen et les joueurs de cartes, et les joueurs de roulette sont des fumistes, car ils ne jouent pas..."

Viaţa trimite, continuu, jucători în arenă. Puţin sunt însă cei care acceptă să lupte. Curajos, cu loialitate, punând în joc bunul lor cel mai de preţ: condiția umană, în toată complexitatea ei. Un pictor pune în arenă un tablou. Un sculptor, o sculptură. Un arhitect, o clădire. Ele sunt instrumentele lor de luptă. Dar în timp ce primii o pot face, de obicei, singuri, arhitectul, el singur, nu-şi poate realiza lucrarea. El are nevoie, dincolo de înțelegere şi de încredere, de ajutor.

Leadership: Poți contribui la crearea unei opere colective în care fiecare, realizând sau privind, își vede năzuinţele încununate sublim, depășindu-și astfel limitele individuale?

Arhitectura este o operă colectivă. În ea se întâlnesc, cei care, în termeni comuni se numesc: proiectantul, constructorul și beneficiarul. Dar acești termeni sunt simplificatori, pentru că până la urmă, beneficiarul lucrării nu este doar cel care o folosește, ci şi cel care, realizând-o sau privind-o, își găsește pentru o clipă năzuinţele încununate sublim.

A fost o vreme când omul era simultan proiectantul, constructorul și beneficiarul propriei sale lucrări. A fost, poate, o epocă fericită. Dar azi lucrurile stau cu totul altfel. De cele mai multe ori cei trei factori sunt complet diferiți, interesele lor sunt diferite și singurul lucru care îi unește este contractul de muncă, care stabileşte obligaţiile și drepturile fiecăreia din părți. Aşa azi, se nasc într-un număr exagerat de mare, construcții nesemnificative, lipsite de valoare. Dacă însă cei trei factori înțeleg că interesul lor este comun, că lucrarea care îi solicită poate reprezenta un instrument de salvare a condiţiei umane, un instrument unic pentru ei toţi, că năzuinţele lor cele mai adânci sunt aceleași, că scopul lor ultim este același și anume instaurarea poeziei, aici şi acum, pe pământ, atunci omul, eliberat de superficială constrângere a contractului de muncă, își va putea dobândi puritatea originară. Atunci, gestul său, fapta sa, vor putea dobândi esenţiala nobleţe fără de care demnitatea umană nu poate fi concepută.

Leadership: În momentele tale de introspecție, recunoști cum năzuințele tale se încununează sublim prin prisma muncii depuse și contribuției celorlalţi la edificarea ei?

Arhitectul aruncă sămânţa, dar ea trebuie să încolţească şi să rodească, iar lucrul acesta, nu este posibil decât în anumite condiţii, pe care, deseori, nu le pot asigura decât oamenii politici, adică "les agents agissants d'une société" cum spunea Le Corbusier. Arhitectura trebuie înălțată. Trebuie confruntată cu spaţiul, cu timpul, cu lumina, cu oamenii. Ea trebuie trăită, nu numai desenată. Ea trăiește în dimensiuni. Ea este semnată de unul, dar trăită de toți. Poate de acea arhitectura reprezintă atât de bine viaţa cetății.

Claudius Petit poate fi comparat cu acel agricultor cinstit și afectuos care se apleacă cu devoţiune peste sămânţa care trebuie să devină rod. Trebuie, pentru că o construcţie de mare valoare este o mare sărbătoare. Nimic nu poate scuza absența sărbătorii. Viaţa cea mai săracă are sărbătorile ei. Dar construcţia de valoare reprezintă esenţa, simbolul, aspiraţia, identitatea vieţii. Această sărbătoare merită toate sacrificiile.

Salutăm gestul lui Claudius Petit și aşteptăm alături de el ca biserica Saint-Pierre să adune, ca cea de la Ronchamp, pelerini veniţi să omagieze o nouă manifestare a puterilor spirituale. În acest final de secol și de mileniu avem nevoie de acel optimism robust care îl caracteriza pe Le Corbusier. Prin Claudius Petit, marele arhitect, sfidând mizerabila conştiinciozitate a timpului, continuă să ne trimită încurajări. "Il faut achever l'eglise Saint-Pierre de Firminy-Vert".

Leadershipul stă sub semnul unei prevederi: "Chiar dacă nu izbutesc să mă afirm, tot sunt înclinat să cred că ceea ce m-am străduit să realizez va fi dus mai departe".

Claudius Petit, coautor al faptei artistice, este beneficiarul lucrării, devenind conștient de rolul său în menținerea și promovarea esențialei nobleți umane. El ne-a lăsat ca moştenire spirituală următoarea prevedere: "Demnitatea umană poate fi consolidată prin opere care reflectă năzuinţele tale cele mai adânci, chiar și în absența unui contract de muncă explicit."

Clipa ce-ţi decide soarta (II)

On Iulie 17, 2010

Demonstrează-ţi încrederea în ştiinţa de a acţiona, fără să îngădui convingerilor tale să se alinieze unei false realităţi.

În camera unde zăcea corpul fetei ardea slab o lampă agăţată pe tavan. Necunoscutul arătă spre pat, îl rugă pe doctor să-şi facă repede datoria, şi ieşi pe uşă ca să nu asiste la operaţie. Zaleukos îşi scoase cuţitele, privi fata, al cărui chip era nespus de frumos. Apoi, ca să termine mai repede această grea misiune, cu cel mai ascuţit cuţit îi tăie gâtul dintr-o mişcare.

Dar ce groază ! Moarta a deschis ochii şi i-a închis apoi îndată cu un suspin adânc. Abia atunci Zaleukos şi-a dat seama de fapta lui diabolică, el era ucigaşul ei. Nu încăpea îndoială că fata murise abia atunci, din pricina rănii pe care el i-o provocase.

Dacă ai citit „ Povestea Mâinii Tăiate ", a scriitorului Wilhelm Hauff, precis îţi aminteşti restul povestirii. Zaleukos a fost găsit vinovat, i s-a tăiat mâna stângă şi a fost surghiunit pe vecie. Restul vieţii şi l-a trăit plin de amărăciune, cu amintirea în suflet a înfiorătoarei fapte comise.

Leadership: Îţi dozezi atitudinea şi convingerile cu o alarmă care nu poate fi auzită decât în situaţia îndeplinirii unei sarcini urgente?

Iată o acţiune nedemnă de un medic. Dacă Zaleukos ar fi fost un medic adevărat, şi nu s-ar fi lăsat momit de recompensele enorme, lucrurile ar fi stat altfel. El ar fi trebuit să cerceteze atent simptomele fetei, dar nu s-a preocupat câtuşi de puţin de ele. Fata, deşi era adormită, oare nu respira? Oare nu-i bătea inima? Oare nu era caldă la atingere? Ba da, cu siguranţă, dar el, nefăcându-i nicio examinare minuţioasă, aşa cum era normal să procedeze, a trecut nepăsător peste aceste indicii vitale. Abia în momentul în care fata, sfâşiată de durere, şi-a dat ultimul suflu de viaţă, i-a sunat clopoţelul, când era deja prea târziu.

Recompensele grabnice sunt în concordanţă cu valoarea pe care omul şi-o acordă în situaţia unei eventuale sarcini urgente pe care o are îndeplinit într-un context de genul: "nu mi se pare relevant" . Lucrurile şi fenomenele ce atrag de regulă atenţia omului variază după predispoziţiile înnăscute, după deprinderile profesonale şi în funcţie de cât de repede îşi adânceşte mintea într-o direcţie nouă.

Diferenţa dintre un medic bun şi unul rău este că primul nu se încrede niciodată în aparenţe, şi întotdeauna examinează totul cu atenţie, în timp ce al doilea, convins că ştie totul, este superficial. Atât prin profesie, cât şi prin instinct, medicul trebuie să fie cel mai curios om din lume, şi să fie capabil să pătrundă cu mintea şi cu sufletul în starea fizică sau psihică a pacientului.

Alarma care nu poate fi auzită decât în situaţia îndeplinirii unei sarcini urgente este dată de posibilitatea aprofundării unui mister care se complică din ce în ce mai mult pe măsură ce accepţi provocările unei realităţi mai profunde.

Leadership: Poţi să te conectezi la acele frecvenţe de vibraţie care pot să contureze imaginea reală a ceea ce eşti?

Realitatea exterioară îţi reflectă realitatea interioară. O imensă asemănare între două lumi distincte sau între două faţete ale aceleiaşi realităţi, fiecare cu propriile momente de cumpănă, priveşte modalitatea ta de a gândi, de a simţi şi de a trăi într-o continuă renegare a capacităţilor de a te diferenţia de ceilalţi oameni.

Toate experienţele pe care le trăieşti vin ca urmare a rezonanţei fiinţei tale cu acele frecvenţe de vibraţie care îţi modelează convingerile în mod pozitiv sau negativ. Înţelegerea acestor frecvenţe, redescoperite prin lentila magică a obiectivităţii, luând în calcul ipotezele unei erori a realităţii prezente, creează premisele unei confruntări între ceea ce eşti şi iluzia a ceea poţi deveni, limitând sau extinzând formele de răspundere morală.

Cineva spunea bine: "Acolo unde omul ajunge la o apreciere morală mai complexă a unei situaţii, el nu face altceva decât să raţioneze ghidat de aceste impulsuri de natură afectivă ale conştiinţei sale".

Raţiunea pe care o manifeşti în retragere sau în expansiune, poate fi chiar un efect al carenţei propriei tale identităţi - care tinde spre rigiditate, deformându-se peste o anumită limită. Prin ignorarea perspectivei de profunzime care nu poate garanta "integritatea protecţiei diferenţiale" (orice lucru rău care ţi se întâmplă este din vina ta, reducându-se doar la suferinţă), te îndepărtezi din rolurile de decizie, sporind posibilitatea de a face compromisuri mai mari şi mai grave.

A fi un om al păcatului înseamnă să experimentezi sentimentul înăbușitor de a privi viaţa prin ochii unei victime a propriilor tale alegeri !

Inaptitudinea conştiinţei de a percepe cum trebuie realitatea pe care nu o poţi contesta, te descalifică ca om de mare răspundere.

Se poate vorbi despre leadership atunci când omul se analizează mai pe larg, investighează realitatea şi reflectează la condiţia sa de făptura limitată, expusă incertitudinii existenţiale sau morale. Stabilind nivelul lucidităţii sale intransigente, el poate sesiza opoziţia între felul cum reacţionează la stimulii exteriori şi felul în cum reacţionează la aflarea adevărului - "cine sunt cu adevărat?". Aici valorile sale esenţiale îi pot fi de folos în crearea unei perspective de transformare pozitivă.

Pe scurt, îţi poţi crea un fundament interior stabil după ce conturezi imaginea mentală şi reală a ceea ce eşti. Acest lucru poate să reducă sau să amplifice ambiguitatea identităţii tale.

Leadership: Rişti să faci o încercare de descifrare a misterului care poate deschide noi perspective, fără să interpretezi semnele relaţiei care se stabileşte între "NEŞTIUT" şi "NEAŞTEPTAT" ?

În loc să-şi intre în rol, asumându-şi calitatea de medic, deci a unui om ce se cade să fie cât mai curios, care chibzuieşte bine înainte de a trage o concluzie, care nu se limitează la ceea ce ştie sau la ceea ce a constatat, Zaleukos a acţionat ca şi cum ar fi fost pus pe pilot automat, ca şi cum altcineva ar fi luat decizia în locul său. Ceea ce, aşa cum am văzut, a reprezentat o mare greşeală.

Dacă s-ar fi deconectat la timp, dacă s-ar fi eliberat din încătuşarea acelui impuls material, şi al ideilor preconcepute prin apăsarea butonului de „oprire”, lucrurile ar fi stat cu totul altfel. Te deconectezi la timp de la pilotul automat care it

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te transformi într-o persoană care își găseşte o însemnătate secretă din a trăi într-o continuă acuzație?

Ca lider, ceea ce faci are întotdeauna consecinţe. La fel cum o singură clipă de neatenţie i-a decis soarta doctorului Zaleukos, nimicindu-i tot viitorul, şi ţie, o singură clipă care îţi întuneca mintea şi judecata îţi poate periclita serios cariera.

Cu cât te situezi mai sus în ierarhie, cu atât mai mulţi oameni depind de tine. Iar dacă nu eşti capabil să te conectezi mereu la adevărata realitate, ci te laşi dus de val, sau nu-ţi conştientizezi constant şi îndelungat limitele, şi mai ales dacă nu te pui la adăpost de orice tentaţie, vei plăti un preţ mare.

Concluzie: Toată viaţa suntem puşi în situaţia de a lua decizii. Dacă ele au fost bune sau nu, ne demonstrează consecinţele. Important, mai ales pentru un lider, este să nu ia decizii pripite fără o cercetare prealabilă amănunţită, deoarece consecinţele pot fi atât de nefaste încât se pot repercuta pe întreaga sa viaţă.

Demonstrează-ţi încrederea în ştiinţa ta de a acţiona, fără să îngădui convingerilor tale să se alinieze unei false realităţi.

Clipa ce-ţi decide soarta (I)

Câştigă o înţelegere mai bună asupra a ceea ce nu cunoşti, astfel încât să fii mult mai selectiv în ceea ce trebuie să decizi.

După mai bine de trei ani de studii la Paris, timp în care a învăţat tot ce trebuie să ştie un doctor iscusit, tânărul Zaleukos s-a hotărât să-şi caute rostul în lume. În fiecare oraş în care ajungea, dădea de veste tuturor printr-o hârtie scrisă că este doctor şi că a lecuit multe beteşuguri – şi într-adevăr, balsamurile şi leacurile sale au fost eficiente şi i-au adus mulţi bani. Dar nu numai din medicină scotea bani, ci şi din negoţ.

Până la urmă a poposit în oraşul Florenţa, din Italia. Fiind istovit de atâta umblet, se hotărî să zăbovească mai mult acolo. Îşi deschise o prăvălie în partea oraşului numită Santa Croce şi dădu de veste îndată oamenilor despre serviciile sale de vraci pe care le oferea. Chiar din primele zile îşi câştigase faima de doctor şi de bun vânzător de leacuri.

Leadership: Intervenţia ta la loviturile destinului depinde de dimensionarea sarcinii care te pune pe gânduri în raport cu posibilitățile reale ale celui desemnat prin "anonimat" să ofere aceste răspunsuri?

Destinat să joace un rol important într-o afacere bizară. Într-o seară, înainte să închidă prăvălia, găsi un bileţel în care era scris să vină la miezul nopţii pe podul numit Ponte Vecchio. Crezând că cineva vrea să-l cheme în taină la vreun bolnav, lucru care i se întâmplase adeseori, Zaleukos se duse fără să bănuiască nimic necurat. Acolo se întâlni cu un domn misterios, care într-adevăr avea mare nevoie de ajutorul său ca medic, dar nu pentru un om viu, ci pentru un mort.

În schimbul a patru sute de ţechini (o grămadă de aur la acea vreme), Zaleukos acceptă propunerea cu totul ciudată a misteriosului domn cu mantie roşie. După spusele acestuia, sora lui muri pe neaşteptate din pricina unei boli incurabile, iar, conform obiceiului din ţara sa, rudelor sale trebuia să le lase trupul ei, dar tatălui său trebuia să-i trimită capul fetei sale, ca s-o mai vadă o dată.

Deşi obiceiul acesta de a tăia capetele celor dragi care au murit i se păru îngrozitor, Zaleukos acceptă propunerea acestuia, mai ales că se pricepea la îmbălsămarea morţilor. *

Leadership: Poţi să satisfaci o căutare imposibilă a adevărului, despre care crezi în mod eronat că trebuie acceptat pe deplin?

Adevărul reprezintă un spaţiu neutru de alocare a semnificaţiilor experienţei trăite în mod obiectiv, variind între două extreme - acum şi după - care nu se exclud automat, ci mai degrabă se potenţează reciproc, producând o continuitate formidabilă în actul de formare personală. Este foarte probabil că ceea ce trăieşti în mod real să devină un facilitator calităţii crescute a proiecţiilor de viitor. Dar, trecând cu vederea contextul în care te confrunţi cu situaţii ambigue, este la fel de probabil că ceea ce eşti în clipa prezentă să nu mai fii şi în clipa următoare.

Adevărul a ceea ce eşti în fiecare clipă a existenţei are o construcţie interesantă, înscriindu-se în tendinţa implicită de a aduce o mică contribuţie la anumite cauze în care crezi, dar pe care bateria conştiinţei încărcată cu o supra-tensiune - sub formă de oscilaţii de stări - este în stare să le disipeze. După indicaţia aceasta, personalitatea ta se reflectă mai degrabă în ceea ce accepţi ca fiind adevărat atunci când respingi ipoteza nulă: “cele două medii nu diferă”. Adică ceea ce te aştepţi să se întâmple şi ceea ce se întâmplă de fapt, în spatele a ceea ce cunoşti.

Una dintre marile dovezi a valorii tale este abilitatea de a recunoaște partea negativă a unei situaţii înainte ca ea să devină un criteriu incert al adevărului care te reprezintă. Poţi ajunge la o apreciere morală mai complexă a unei situaţii numai dacă raţionezi ghidat de impulsurile de comandă ale conştiinţei proprii. Iar asta este de fapt o unealtă a leadershipului orientat care o anume stare a Eului, sau mai bine zis către o direcţie nouă de clarificare a facultăţii judecăţii şi a discernământului care te ajută să cerni adevăratele valori, chiar dacă eşti constrâns din exterior de o noutate absolută.

Valoarea care caracterizează un om depinde de dimensiunea faptelor pe care este dispus să le săvârşească sub tutela conştiinţei care încearcă să-i ţină în frâu avântul spre misterul unei lumi necunoscute.

Numai o deşteptare petrecută în tovărăşia unei acceptări de sine în misiuni de profundă semnificaţie, poate să emane acea profundă înţelegere a unei experienţei autentice. Căci ambiguitatea unei situaţii, care te face nesatisfăcut de ceea ai la dispoziţie pentru a înţelege implicaţiile ei, în condiţiile în care adevărul inconvenabil nu începe să ocupe un spaţiu lărgit de influenţă, marchează o înclinaţie spre acea introspecţie care îţi permite să sesizezi greşelile şi erorile de previziune.

Clipa ce-ţi decide soarta vizează abordarea din interior a unei situaţii reale care se impune cu o „autoritate” indiscutabilă, şi pe care nu o poţi înţelege pe deplin.

Satisfacerea unei căutări imposibile a adevărului, despre care crezi în mod eronat că trebuie acceptat pe deplin, este relevant pentru percepţia unei anumite interdependenţe de tipul mesaj-feedback - din direcţia unei realităţi inadecvate raţiunii pe care se bazează identitatea ta. Singurul glas care răsună salvator peste neplăcuta stare pe care ţi-o creează indecizia sau confuzia este conştiinţa care poate fi extinsă la acțiunile sau gândurile din trecut, amintindu-ţi astfel să fii stăpân pe ceea ce crezi că eşti, pe ceea ce simţi, pe ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul tău, pe ceea ce decizi.

Clopoţelul de Alarmă

On Aprilie 06, 2009

Creşte-ţi substanţial sursa valorii personale, accesând acele fonduri interioare serioase care susţin echilibrul propriei tale fiinţe.

Numai Kevin Lomax era în stare să recunoască acest mare adevăr: dacă jocul jucat de sine diferă de jocul celorlalţi, atunci riscul de a se „accidenta" va creşte considerabil în momentul când nu va îndeplini în mod corespunzător regulile impuse de aceştia.

De fapt, Kevin era cel mai nou angajat la firma de avocatură "Milton, Chadwick & Waters". Şi singurul care a avut deosebita „onoare" de a-l cunoaşte mai bine pe managerul ei, John Milton. Acesta din urmă, ca un magician obişnuit să exploateze credulitatea şi naivitatea celor din jurul său, şi profitând de calităţile lor, îşi ducea la îndeplinire planul josnic: de a-si exercita influenţa negativă asupra sufletelor lor, punându-şi amprenta asupra întregii lor existenţe.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul „ The Devil's Advocate (1997) " , atunci sigur îţi aminteşti pasul cel mai important, şi cel mai dificil, pe care l-a făcut Kevin pentru a scăpa de influenţa nefastă a „Diavolului", în persoana lui John Milton. El şi-a urmat sentimentele adevărate, făcând abstracţie de propriile nevoi şi de statutul pe care îl dobândise în momentul când a încheiat contractul cu Milton.

Cu alte cuvinte, Kevin a câştigat lupta împotriva diavolului dintr-un punct de vedere superior, printr-o acţiune intelectuală voită: a ales să existe numai în planul absolutului, adică să cauzeze o ruptură în continuitatea fiinţei sale, o ruptură în dimensiunea spaţiu-timp, o ruptură în succesiunea evenimentelor credibile, şi o altă ruptură în ordinea semnificat-semnificativ.

Leadership: Poţi să faci din lupta pe care o duci contra "forţei care te stăpâneşte" un act al afirmării de sine, în care există o latură reală şi una ideală?

Cred că filmul vrea să scoată în evidenţă un lucru foarte important. Şi anume că fiecare dintre noi are două opţiuni privind conturarea propriei personalităţi, binele şi răul, eticul sau neeticul. Opţiunea noastră depinde de o multitudine de factori educativi, culturali, sociali, etc. Decizia finală o ia însă fiecare dintre noi, judecătorul suprem fiind conştiinţa noastră.

Pe parcursul vieţii noastre putem să alunecăm pe o pantă periculoasă lăsându-ne manipulaţi voluntar sau involuntar de alţii (tehnicile de manipulare fiind multiple), de interese meschine, dar de fiecare dată judecătorul suprem aflat permanent în stare de veghe, trebuie să sune „clopoţelul de alarmă" şi să ne ajute să revenim la un normalul autoimpus şi liber acceptat. Dacă alunecăm pe o pantă periculoasă, urcuşul nu este imposibil, însă uneori este foarte greu. Dar niciodată nu e prea târziu...

Ca să întruneşti toate calităţile specifice unui lider, veghează neîncetat asupra propriului tău univers interior, asupra propriului tău mod de gândire, asupra propriului tău „arbitru" - care te poate elimina din meciul cu propriul destin, cu propria ta fiinţă. Învaţă mai întâi să acorzi răbdare lucrurilor spirituale, urmează-ţi sentimentele adevărate, conştient de ceea ce se petrece în jurul tău şi de riscurile pe care le implică alinierea ta la practicile celorlalţi, altfel rişti să-ţi răneşti propriul „Eu", ceea ce te va durea foarte tare.

A cauza o ruptură în continuitatea fiinţei sale înseamnă să te desprinzi de ceea ce cândva părea atât de promițător, să te desprinzi de ceea ce îşi doresc ceilalţi pentru tine, şi să permiţi inimii să se liniştească. Pe de altă parte, a cauza o ruptură în ordinea semnificat-semnificativ înseamnă să nu cedezi presiunii răului asupra ta, să lupţi împotriva răului cu mijloacele binelui, încât ceea ce te individualizează să fie ceea ce te aştepţi să găseşti la tine când încă nu ţi-ai vindecat "rănile" rămase: acea sensibilitate care încearcă să se ascundă în spatele unei durităţi impuse.

Actul afirmării de sine cuprinde o latură reală şi una ideală. Latura reală este dată de felul în care te expui unei situaţii noi din care trebuie să ieşi, să te descoperi, să te autodepăşeşti şi din care să răspândeşti binecuvântare. Iar latura ideală este dată de ceea ce te face să trăieşti cu conştiinţa curată, este vorba de libertatea de a alege este ceea ce te face să fii un om asumat.

Clopoţelul de alarmă este elementul hotărâtor care determină succesul sau eşecul tău pe plan personal şi profesional. Rolul lui este de a te „trezi" atunci când simţurile tale de orientare în viaţa profesională adorm sau sunt înşelate, şi de a te atenţiona că e momentul să deosebeşti binele de rău, ceea ce ştii de ceea ce nu ştii despre ceilalţi oameni din jurul tău.

Aşa cum aparatul de măsurare a tensiunii controlează ritmul şi pulsaţiile sângelui, tot aşa sistemul tău interior de apărare împotriva influenţelor negative controlează ritmul vieţii tale şi pulsul leadershipului tău. Ca să ajungi la starea de împlinire de sine, ai nevoie de fonduri interioare serioase care să-ţi susţină echilibrul, care să-ţi crească substanţial potenţialul de om şi de lider - sursa valorii tale personale, şi care, în acelaşi timp, să-ţi asigure un anumit nivel ridicat de protecţie împotriva „coroziunii" tale spirituale.

Concluzie: O personalitate bine conturată şi bazată pe principii etice va avea totdeauna un sistem de alarmă sensibil care va intra în alertă ori de câte ori vă apărea pericolul de abatere de la drumul drept. El, „clopoţelul de alarmă" se formează concomitent cu personalitatea noastră şi e în legătură directă cu calea pe care am consimţit să mergem.

Clopotul de sticlă al lui Empedocle

On Decembrie 29, 2008

Adu-i pe oameni la pragul apropierii de un nou adevăr, înălţându-te deasupra gândirii obişnuite care nu izbuteşte să se afirme.

Gânditorii greci nu aveau la îndemână rezultatele observaţiilor şi experienţelor precise, care s-au putut face mult mai târziu, nu aveau la îndemână materialul de fapte şi observaţii pe care s-a întemeiat descoperirea legilor naturii în veacurile al XVI-lea, al XVII-lea şi până în zilele noastre. Dar ei încercau totuşi să-şi explice natura pe baza observaţiilor făcute în călătoriile lor, în atelierele meşteşugarilor, în mine, în procesul viu al producţiei. Unii făceau chiar experienţe pentru a dovedi adevărul susţinerii lor.

Astfel, de pildă, Anaxagora şi Empedocle au dovedit prin experienţe natura materială a aerului. Empedocle a făcut experienţe cu un clopot de sticlă, arătând că apa poate intra într-un vas numai când este îndepărtat aerul.

Filosoful sicilian Empedocle (490-430 i.e.n) susţinea că "rădăcinile" lumii, rădăcinile materiei, sunt: pământul, apa, aerul şi focul, adică un solid, un lichid, un gaz şi o substanţă mai rară decât gazul. Şi iată cum se demonstra această teorie. Dacă, de pildă, arde un lemn verde, vezi focul, care se înfăţişează ochiului prin propria-i lumină. Fumul dispare prefăcându-se în aer. La capetele lemnului musteşte apă, iar cenuşa rămasă are toate însuşirile pământului.

Empedocle susţinea că prin unirea celor patru elemente în diferite proporţii se poate explica toată nesfârşită felurime a substanţelor cunoscute omului, aşa cum prin meşteşugita combinare a patru culori poţi obţine toate nuanţele posibile. De aici până la teoria atomistă primitivă nu era decât un pas. *

Leadership: Slujind unei ştiinţe care îţi extinde conștiința și capacitatea de a experimenta noi trenduri de gândire, este o modalitate de expresie a ceea ce te preocupă să devină parte din tine, ceva neclar, care trebuie descoperit şi activat?

Poţi fugi de obligaţia de a găsi noi variante de răspuns la întrebările aparent fără răspuns? Cât de profundă este interpretarea pe care o dai necunoscutelor care gravitează în jurul unui singur punct de vedere? Ce conotaţii capătă cunoaşterea ta atunci când iei în considerare apariţia ambiguităţilor?

Ce se întâmplă cu leadershipul rezultat dintr-o cunoaştere reală, profundă, obiectivă a realităţii care în goana după senzaţional ajunge să depăşească puterea de înţelegere şi de acceptare a celorlalţi oameni? Ei bine, se ajunge la o situaţie win-loss, în care tu câştigi şi ceilalţi au de pierdut. Ştiinţa este ceea ce tu descoperi prin gândire şi cercetare, dar cu care restul lumii nu este neapărat de acord.

Ceea ce trebuie să descoperi şi să activezi la tine prin extinderea ştiinţei şi a gândirii este încercarea de a avea un ecou în rândul celorlalţi oameni, este modalitatea de a te aduce în viitor, de a-ţi face cunoscută aspiraţia de poziționare într-un spaţiu de creaţie tot mai competitiv necesar dezvoltării lumii.

A veni cu un nou punct de vedere în domeniul ştiinţei este ca şi cum ai impune oamenilor din jurul tău nişte valori false şi străine, lipsite de substanţă şi contradictorii. Evident, aceştia se vor raporta la ştiinţa ta şi la propria lor condiţie existenţială, dar într-un mod fals. Se vor vedea pe ei înşişi într-o lumină care nu îi reprezintă, dându-le de gândit dacă sunt sau nu sunt "defecţi" în ceea ce priveşte calităţile lor. Fiindcă a te profila tu însuţi ca ştiinţă presupune să te plasezi deasupra minţilor înguste ale vremii.

Pline de observaţiuni, producţiile folositoare de resurse şi eforturi necesare pentru promovarea ştiinţei proprii, care proliferează pe trunchiul unor concepţii şi mentalităţi avansate, pe treptele de evoluţie ale societăţii, domină realmente în ceea ce priveşte gradul de apropiere sau depărtare faţă de restul oamenilor. Iar materia primă pe care se fundamentează ştiinţa proprie, se regenerează şi se asamblează în soluţii sau într-o mulţime de adevăruri absolute, care la rândul lor se pierd în negura vremurilor dacă nu sunt general acceptate – chiar şi de profani.

Virtuţile unicat ale ştiinţei tale pot fi implementate în afara graniţelor de origine ale leadershipului?

Oricât de bine ar fi văzută ştiinţa ta în materie de leadership, selectarea şi includerea ei într-un context amplu de reconstruire a gândirii celorlalţi oameni, care trebuie să depindă în principal de modul în care aceştia se integrează în armonia elementelor definitorii unui anumit tip de gândire, se poate realiza după imbolduri apropiate voinţei tale. Şi nu după o înţeleaptă adâncire în conştiinţa lor, aşa cum ar fi firesc.

Virtuţile unicat ale ştiinţei tale nu pot fi implementate în afara graniţelor de origine ale leadershipului dacă roadele lor se coc mai repede decât pot ceilalţi oameni să le strângă. Degeaba eşti cuprins de aceea minunată, Evrika, când afli ceva nou, exclusiv, dacă nu are impact major asupra creşterii nivelului lor de performanţe.

Virtuţi precum inteligenţa, viziunea, înţelegerea, creativitatea, obiectivitatea şi perseverenţa nu sunt destinate unei confirmări divine prin om, adică nu te înălţă la nivel de Dumnezeu în mijlocul lumii, dar sunt destinate unei existențe de sine care se desfăşoară obiectiv în spaţiu şi timp. Tu trebuie să fii spiritul de challenger în care se reflectă această proiectare a trecutului şi prezentului în viitor.

Ştiinţa trebuie văzută ca un gest de credinţă într-o minune pe care o aştepţi de la Dumnezeu, nu doar ca un gest de deschidere faţă de experienţele noi de creaţie şi descoperire.

Dacă ştiinţa pe care o practici prezintă totuşi o rezistenţă foarte mare în rândul celorlalţi oameni, înseamnă că este plină de subtilităţi care trebuiesc prelucrate, interpretate şi împărtăşite într-un stil convenţional, mai simplu.

Prin urmare, succesul leadershipului depinde de cât de bine este făcut să respecte cerinţele specifice oamenilor cu un bagaj de cunoştinţe mediu. Din această cauză, acceptarea unui potenţial credibil de dezvoltare prin intervenţiile unei ştiinţe alese, este decisă de ceilalţi oameni. Luând în consideraţie în principal criteriile funcţionale (de exemplu cât de bine se poate aplica în existenţa lor) şi nu criteriile de creativitate sau superioritate.

Graniţele de origine ale leadershipului, adică legăturile cu acţiunile şi prestaţiile tale anterioare, trebuiesc actualizate cu simţământul unei semnificaţii supreme atribuite propriei valori din ajutorul oferit omenirii nu doar prin intermediul descoperirilor şi al creaţiei, ci prin semnalizarea disponibilităţii de a te simţi complet în ceea ce experimentezi clipă de clipă. Fii tu însuţi în propriul univers, fii autentic, nu trebuie să copiezi ce a făcut altcineva aflat în aceeaşi situaţie.

Leadershipul este nota de merit pe care şi-o câştigă ştiinţa în lupta cu un prezent ce nu mai are răbdare să devină trecut şi se cere cunoscut printr-o strategie de cuprindere a evenimentelor, faptelor şi urmărilor acestora într-o formă accesibilă şi atractivă tuturor oamenilor.

Clopotul de sticlă al lui Empedocle pune în evidenţă acea muncă de gândire şi creaţie prin care se ajunge la un rezultat gata de a fi pus pe seama „credinţei în credinţă" sau pe seama unei cunoaşteri care să ofere în acelaşi timp necesitatea şi noutatea de a demonstra un punct de vedere unic asupra anumitor fenomene sau experienţe personale.

Construieşte-ţi o viziune asupra Omului pe care îl întruchipezi care să depindă de rezultatul raţiunii şi de deplina cunoaştere a consecinţelor manifestărilor negative de caracter pe care nu le poţi combate.

Convingătoare, vocea senatoarei Ruth Martin transmite şi inoculează o trăire improvizată, bazată pe ideea că bunăvoinţa este calea spre bine, spre însănătoşire, spre izbăvire. Această emoţie predominantă trebuie să accelereze o paralizie temporară, să amorţească centrii nervoşi şi să menţină stabilitatea elementelor pozitive de care Buffalo Bill trebuie să se ancoreze. Astfel, ea încearcă să diminueze consecinţele negative ale instabilităţii psihice ce influenţează puternic evoluţia acestuia.

Agentul FBI, Clarice Starling observă imediat intenționalitatea din spatele vocii. " E deşteaptă. Iisuse, e chiar deşteaptă. Îi repetă numele. Dacă Buffalo Bill o va privi pe Catherine ca pe o persoană şi nu ca pe un obiect, îi va fi mai greu să o ucidă. "

Leadership: Îţi poţi asigura accesul la o nouă profunzime a sentimentelor care te poate ajuta să devii mai generos, fără să cazi în capcana unui pseudo-efect de "silence" în care omul se preaslăveşte pe sine însuşi în locul lui Dumnezeu?

Dar oare imposibilul poate deveni posibil? Ca un vulcan cufundat multă vreme într-un somn adânc, Buffalo Bill va da oare prilej Ego-ului său pozitiv să se manifeste deschis, printr-o faptă bună? Sau va răbufni cu mai multă violenţă din inerţia inoculată de greutatea sufletească a acestor cuvinte chibzuite şi deterministe?

Pentru ca individul acesta obscur să se lepede de păcatele sale cu ajutorul unei contritio , printr-o căinţă desăvârşită, nu e de ajuns să fie străpuns din plin de acea tensiune alimentată cu energie pozitivă concentrată, liniştitoare. Trebuie ca afecţiunea din dosul acestor cuvinte să-i pătrundă în sânge şi să influenţeze ritmul de circulaţie al acestuia, asemenea unui regulator. Şi, numaidecât, să furnizeze acel combustibil purificat care să-i alimenteze puternic sensibilitatea, asigurând o temperatură constantă manifestărilor sale.

Mental, Buffalo Bill se luptă cu o cobră neagră, cu influenţa veninoasă a propriilor sale raţionamente, dar îi lipseşte constanta de echilibru. El nu poate atinge acea stare de stabilitate totală corespunzătoare unei funcţionalități sociale considerate normale. Ştie că poate fi un om bun şi generos, dar îşi refuză cu încăpăţânare acest lux, fiindcă veninul ce-l poartă în gene este mult prea concentrat. În continuare, îşi menţine atitudinea fermă şi rece, fără să suporte greutatea vreunei remuşcări, fără măcar să clipească la vederea chipului marcat de suferinţă al senatoarei Ruth Martin.

Cobra Neagră este un animal care încearcă să-și hipnotizeze prada, să-i pătrundă în adâncul sufletului, iar dacă nu reuşeşte, trebuie cel puţin să simtă acea plăcere eliberatoare care este în acelaşi timp cea mai pură, cea mai înălţătoare şi cea mai intensă, provenind, cred, de la contemplarea unei transformări de esență a omului (manifestată prin intermediul unei priviri pline de îngrijorare şi durere).

Leadership: Eşti prins în angrenajul închiderii în sine a viciilor, sub aspectul unei exacerbări a vanităţii care în preajma puterii absolute se simte onorată să-şi continue opera?

O demonstraţie pe viu a resurselor nebănuite ale omului, fondată, oricât ar părea de paradoxal, pe plan psihologic şi spiritual, reflectă uimitoarea putere a minţii. Şi, totodată, cât de departe se ajunge traversând meandrele unui drum îngust, prin luarea unor decizii mărunte, la o poziţie considerată neatacabilă pe termen scurt, dar fără nicio şansă de supravieţuire pe termen lung.

Ceea ne face să aprofundăm cu mai mult simţ de răspundere leadershipul, este constanta de "a fi" a omului care îşi demonstrează calităţile şi adevăratul potenţial prin renunţarea la dependenţa de provocări care îi pun la încercare vanitatea. În baza unor raţionamente greşite, chiar aberante, eşti tentat să denigrezi sau să negi valorile unanim acceptate.

Toate aceste mutări de conectare indirectă la un alt gen de viziune, printr-o imagine întreţinută de sine care dă fiori în loc să inspire respect, fac trecerea către o mentalitate conflictuală, mai puţin îndreptată spre dialog și cooperare. În final, vraja stârnită de modul cum omul interpretează realitatea şi se raportează la ea, înlesneşte transferul de acreditare de sine în zona gândirii reci, lipsită de emoţie.

Vanitatea are ca efect primordial menţinerea unei stări de aşteptare sau de neimplicare într-o situaţie critică în care ai obligaţia să intervii, mai ales dacă eşti responsabil de urmările ei. Ireparabil, omul capătă astfel un oarecare grad de rezistenţă împotriva eventualelor influenţe şi distrugeri de ordin extern, dar pe de altă parte face dovadă de o superficialitate morală care-i copleşeşte propria fiinţă, răsturnând acele raţionamente ce nu-i pot susţine evoluţia pe plan profesional şi social.

Prin alterarea naturii sale, prin adoptarea unei realităţi bolnave, omul, prins în angrenajul închiderii în sine a viciilor (acele manifestări aberante constatate de Jung drept caracteristice infecţiei psihice a timpului nostru) îşi duce singur viaţa spre suferinţă, angoasă şi în cele din urmă spre deşertăciune.

Leadership: Iei în considerare reperul unei orientări spirituale atunci când devii imun la "durerea" cu care se confruntă oamenii din jurul tău, conform intenţiilor de a te arăta vulnerabil la sentimentul care ţi se transmite înapoi?

Individul care îşi asumă rolul de promotor al schimbării mentalităţii nu poate face trecerea de la o mentalitate conflictuală la una îndreptată spre dialog și cooperare - dacă mai întâi nu este alimentat cu energie pozitivă concentrată, liniştitoare. El poate deveni indestructibil din punct de vedere moral numai dacă supravieţuieşte tuturor proceselor de transformare atât la nivel individual, cât şi la nivel colectiv.

O renegare a propriei naturi, prin instalarea unor blocaje mentale sau indispoziţii emoţionale extinse prea mult, anunţă începutul anihilării propriei identităţii, o nimicire a propriei fiinţe la nivel psihologic şi social.

Carl Gustav Jung, fondatorul psihologiei analitice, a observat omul în cadrul tratamentului psihic. Crizele de personalitate şi identitate, ce aveau loc în cadrul unui proces continuu de autoobservare şi autocorecţie, duceau în mod inevitabil la confruntarea pacientului cu umbra sa, cu acea jumătate întunecată a sufletului său de care s-a debarasat prin proiecţii sau reprezentări de pozitivităţi negabile şi negativităţi la rândul lor negabile. Practic, omul poate fi influenţat de stări alternative de personalitate care creează premisele unui raţionament nepotrivit.

A lua în considerare reperul unei orientări spirituale înseamnă să te debarasezi de toate viciile pe care le adăposteşti tine, astfel încât să nu devii robul pornirilor şi simţirilor, nemodelate destul de educaţie, cultură, experienţă şi de înţelegerea realităţii, ce pot provoca răul în jurul tău. Acest reper este reprezentat de acea parte incoruptibilă a conştiinţei care se opune ignoranţei, rea voinţei sau actului deliberat de abuz de putere, certificând inocenţa căii pe care o urmezi în viaţă.

Singurul mod de a dobândi acea constantă de echilibru de care ai atâta nevoie pentru a-ţi trasa clar drumul de urmat şi a pentru avea convingerea că viitorul e pe mâini bune, este să te lupţi cu „cobra neagră", cu influenţa veninoasă a propriilor tale raţionamente şi percepţii.

Principalul motiv pentru eşecul leadershipului tău se datorează faptului că nu-ţi recunoşti manifestările de egoism, intimidare şi vanitate care însoţesc abuzul de putere capabil să îngrădească dreptul la alegere al celorlalţi oameni?

Cobra neagră desemnează acel Alter-Ego, duşmănos şi tendenţios, ce influenţează negativ gândurile, raţionamentele şi modalităţile de acţiune. Suntem toţi o combinaţie de alb şi negru, de bine şi rău, proporţia dintre ele depinzând de cei doi parametri ce pot fi oricând resetaţi: puterea de expunere la noi experienţe şi provocări, şi modul cum reacţionăm la ele.

Coincidenţa perfectă dintre imagine şi sunet

Pentru două pricini îmi este atât de dragă arta: schimbarea perspectivei și lărgirea viziunii.

Prokofiev îl socoate pe regizorul Serghei Eisenstein un fin muzician tocmai pentru că remarcă caracterul simfonic al construcţiilor sale de montaj, înţelegerea nuanţată a fenomenului muzical. Eisenstein, care în numeroase rânduri remarca nepriceperea sa în muzică, scria totuşi odată: "Cred că numai dintr-o întâmplare nu sunt compozitor. Deoarece nimic nu mă pasionează mai mult decât problemele compoziţionale." Iar Prokofiev, compozitor strălucit, ţine seama de părerile muzicale ale regizorului, i se întâmplă să refacă şi de şase ori muzica unui fragment şi când o dată introduce nişte teme compuse mai demult, reface apoi muzica la cererea lui Eisenstein care "nu a lăsat să i se strecoare potcoave vechi."

Când începe Prokofiev, regizorul îşi adaptează montajul la muzică, după un mecanism aparte. În primul rând trebuie să-şi închipuie foarte viu, să vadă limpede întreg materialul plastic disponibil pentru acea scenă. Apoi trebuie să caute coincidenţa perfectă dintre o imagine precisă şi un anume fragment al muzicii. Caută coincidenţa dintre "factura obiectului sau peisajului" cu timpul unui pasaj muzical, o consonanţă intimă ce nu se poate explica raţional, dintre un fragment muzical şi un fragment din imagine. Nu este chiar atât de simplu, pentru că în această fază fragmentele de imagini sunt în haos şi ordonarea lor, după structura precisă a muzicii, îl împinge să sară de la un capăt al filmului la altul, pentru a ghici care alăturare de fragmente va corespunde unei anumite fraze muzicale". *****

Leadership: Eşti îndeajuns de hotărât să cauţi coincidenţă perfectă dintre o imagine precisă şi un anume fragment dintr-un act sensibil de comunicare a emoţiilor, la îmbinarea dintre ceea ce se ascunde și ceea ce se arată?

Ce-am învăţat de aici? Că numai într-un context de reprezentare a Creaţiei artistice, prin asigurarea imaginii unor subiecte de mare anvergură şi de mare relevanţă pentru lumea contemporană, vei putea să sesizezi diferenţa dintre ceea ce gândeşti şi ceea ce generezi prin intermediul sentimentelor şi a intuiţiei tale. Mai mult decât atât, luând în considerare viziunea unei realităţi surprinzătoare apărute în orizontul fenomenal artistic, căutând coincidenţa dintre "factura obiectului sau peisajului" vei putea să exprimi în mod remarcabil o senzaţie de renaştere, de trezire la viaţă cu ajutorul imaginilor sugestive.

Cum se ajunge la coincidenţa dintre "factura obiectului sau peisajului"? Cred că printr-o conjugare a imaginilor care surprind o abstracțiune, printr-un mister de natură istorică sau spirituală, printr-o proiecţie a unei idei despre devenire prin intermediul emoţiei, printr-o proiecţie a unei realităţi care scapă capacităţii obişnuite de percepţie.

În arta regiei de film contează să adaptezi montajul la o revelaţie a cunoaşterii, a iluminării, a idealului şi frumosului, ca dovadă a unor valori spirituale înalte. Contează să creezi o atmosferă creativă, plină de emoţii şi surprize, doar cu ajutorul unor elemente simple şi în doar câteva secunde.

Apoi, fragmentul din orice imagine pe care o expui lumii întregi trebuie să surprindă stările unor oameni ajunşi în situaţii extreme, deci încearcă să faci apel nu doar la arta privirii, ci şi la arta de a gândi cu sunete, cu elemente senzoriale, încât să aduci spectatorii într-un punct în care sunt total deschiși și apţi să înţeleagă mai bine legătura dintre simbolism şi realism, dintre vechi şi nou, dintre static şi dinamic.

Leadership: Poţi să exprimi în mod practic şi flexibil conceptul personalizării unui subiect foarte puțin prezent în sfera publică care să păstreze ideea fundamentală a unei noi forme de difuzare a unui mesaj sau a unei învăţături?

De reţinut următorul aspect. De multe ori regizorii recurg la îmbinarea dintre ceea ce se aşteaptă să se întâmple cu personajele şi ce anume apare pe parcursul vieţii oamenilor în realitate, pentru a putea să exprime emoţiile vizual, artistic. Aşadar, regizorii practică conştientizarea unei intenţii dramaturgice de a dezvolta scenariii de film până la nivel fabulos, promovând arta gestionării impresiei pe care o produce actul de responsabilitate al criticului față de valoarea creatorilor. Deci, prin intermediul creaţiei este necesar să facem apel la trăirea și exprimarea artistică liberă, accentuând mai bine ideea de sincronicitate între fapt şi fantezie, între ceea ce este şi ceea ce e posibil, între ce ar putea fi adevărat din ceea este aşa de fapt.

O lărgire a viziunii despre arta se produce odată cu folosirea muzicii ca factor dinamic al acţiunii (plastica mişcării), sau ca factor de dirijare temporală a mişcărilor şi de educaţie cultural estetică, în special ca factor de înălţare spirituală sau ca instrument de prevestire a unei lumi ce are să vină, Iar dacă este adevărat ce spunea cântăreaţă Diana Saveanu, că muzica este un limbaj care te lasă să transmiți mult mai ușor ceea ce simți, atunci imaginea care este proiectată folosind acest limbaj trebuie să aibă şi un nivel metaforic, o rezoluţie ridicată a scenelor capturate (evidențiind obiecte și detalii importante) pentru a anunţa o nouă abordare a subiectelor și o nouă expresie a realității vieții.

Schimbarea perspectivei în artă se produce ca formă de exprimare a trăirilor şi credinţelor oamenilor, cu ajutorul unui limbaj prin care ai ocazia să exprimi la superlativ o anumită idee, dincolo de imagini, dincolo de cuvinte şi gesturi, dincolo de aparenţe.

Coincidenţa perfectă dintre imagine şi sunet se obţine atunci când viziunea pe care o proiectezi despre Creaţie şi Artă îşi exercită forţa de a străbate timpul, de a străbate lumi diferite cu ajutorul unui limbaj prin care îţi comunici ideile, sentimentele, experienţa de viaţă.

Colecţionarul de secrete

On Iulie 04, 2010

Fii mai presus decât cei pe care îi conduci, folosindu-te de latura cea mai puternică a leadershipului tău.

Îmi place să susţin spectacole. De magie. Am studiat încă de mic arta de a folosi scena, am învăţat secretul captării atenţiei publicului cât şi modalitatea de a-i intra în graţii, cu un spectacol unic prin decorurile şi costumele alese cu foarte multa inspiraţie, uneori terifiante, autentice şi foarte expresive. Mai ales, prin iluziile create cu abilitate, menite să sporească misterul şi curiozitatea fiecărui spectator.

Aşa am reuşit să ajung în vârful ierarhiei în profesia mea, pur şi simplu printr-o excelentă prezentare. Când oamenii îmi urmăresc spectacolul sunt de-a dreptul orbiţi de cele văzute, sunt uluiţi de iluziile impresionante pe care le execut cu atâta măiestrie. Puterea. A devenit realitate.

Sunt un om misterios, iar secretele sunt o parte intrinsecă a activităţii mele. Multă lume doreşte să le afle. Chiar şi alţi magicieni. Însă secretele sunt lucruri pe care trebuie să le cauţi ca să le afli. Sunt lucruri pe care trebuie să le răsuceşti pe toate feţele, daca vrei să izbuteşti să le reproduci.

Leadership: Ajungi să te împiedici de indiciile care îţi stau în faţă, fiindcă te-ai obişnuit să le observi cu colţul ochiului?

Este nevoie de o mare putere pentru a vedea dincolo de iluzii, către un adevăr mai profund pe care îl poţi sau nu înţelege. Este nevoie de o mare putere de concentrare pentru a înţelege mecanismul de realizare a iluziilor, mecanism care constituie de fapt unul dintre secretele mele cel mai bine păstrate. Iar la fel ca orice magician talentat, care-şi respectă meseria, nu-mi voi dezvălui niciodată secretele.

Uneori am senzaţia că sunt deţinătorul unei puteri deosebite – ale resurselor nelimitate ale magiei, ale întunericului şi luminii, în stare să transform orice în avantajul meu, orice lucru banal în energii pure. Poate din cauza faptului că multă lume se dă peste cap să afle cum reuşesc să creez iluziile, şi numai eu singur cunosc răspunsul.

Oamenii ajung să se împiedice de indiciile care le stau în faţă, deoarece s-au obişnuit să le observe cu colţul ochiului, sau mai exact nu sunt deloc atenţi la trucul din spatele imaginii mele. Evident, atuul meu este că am ştiut să păstrez totdeauna o anumită inaccesibilitate bazată o interpretare forţată a unei reprezentări de tipul întreg şi real, un absolut care se manifestă prin intermediul virtuţii de a fi un bun mânuitor al clişeelor hipnotizante.

Leadership: Modelul tău de discreție are în vedere faptul că pentru a fi identificabil, fenomenul "puterii" trebuie să fie perceput prin evoluția formelor sale de regularitate?

Se fac din ce în ce mai des afirmaţii referitoare la „puterile" mele teribile. Dar, cu toate acestea, voi continua să nu spun nimănui nimic, voi păstra tăcerea. Îmi voi juca în continuare rolul de magician, ţinându-mi ascunse secretele şi lăsându-i pe ceilalţi să moară de curiozitate. Cu niciun preţ nu-mi voi dezvălui latura vulnerabilă. Astfel voi fi întotdeauna mai presus decât toţi, şi-i voi impresiona prin măiestria mea.

Cu secretele mele voi putea cuceri lumea. Ca un adevărat artist, mă voi dărui artei iluzionismului cu toată fiinţa. Îi voi putea fascina pe oameni la nesfârşit revărsându-mi harul aparte asupra lor, şi, precum un băieţandru sfidător dornic să se avânte în luptă, voi ignora toate simţămintele lor.

Dar pentru asta trebuie să mă transform mereu într-o altă fiinţă, să capăt mereu o altă înfăţişare, să creez mereu alte formule, alte situaţii, să generez mereu alte metafore, să întruchipez mereu alte personaje, să creez mereu alte axiome pentru ca puterea mea de influenţă şi persuasiune să nu dispară niciodată. Îmi voi păstra secretele foarte bine. Le voi păstra şi voi abuza ele cu regularitate. Mă voi folosi de ele pentru idealul meu personal. Îmi place să simţ că deţin ceea ce le lipseşte cu desăvârşire celorlalţi: strălucirea.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi ceea ce crezi cu adevărat despre tine și despre realitatea în care te învârţi, urmărind existenţa ordonată a unei rupturi de emoţiile pe care le promovezi?

La ultimul spectacol observasem, sau îmi închipuisem că observ, o vagă încordare în atitudinea câtorva spectatori, de parca în mintea lor stăruia un gând nedorit, dar supărător. Aveam senzaţia că vor să afle ce zace în sufletul meu, să-mi smulgă cu forţa secretele pe care nu vreau să le împărtăşesc nimănui. Dar nu era asta.

Cât de orb şi de ignorant am fost până atunci. Am fost mai degrabă atent la obţinerea rezultatelor spectaculoase şi mai puţin la felul în care se simt oamenii. Realitatea era alta, aceea că nu toată lumea adoră iluziile mele. De acest adevăr nu pot fugi, nu pot să mă ascund. Secretele mele nu au valoare dacă lumea nu adoră spectacolul meu.

Leadership: Situațiile pe care le traversezi prin obligaţia de a nu divulga conţinutul propriei creaţii, corespund stării de fond a lumi în care te afli atunci când îţi vezi reflexia propriei imperfecţiuni?

La fel ca un magician, un om care se vrea stăpân pe situaţie are în vedere două lucruri: primul, să-şi ascundă secretele astfel încât oamenii să nu-şi piardă interesul faţă de el. Al doilea, să colecţioneze cât mai multe secrete, astfel încât puterea lui de influenţă să crească, şi cu atât „reprezentaţiile” sale să fie mai reuşite.

Acesta este marele adevăr pe care nimeni nu-l recunoaşte, pe care toată lumea omite să-l menţioneze: liderii sunt, dintr-un anumit punct de vedere, magicieni. Absolut toţi liderii au secretele lor, bine păstrate. Iar cu cât ştiu să se folosească mai bine de secretele lor, cu atât este mai reuşit „spectacolul” pe care-l susţin. Un lider fără secrete este precum o găină care nu face ouă, şi care „cotcodăceşte” a neputinţă.

Unicul gând care-l obsedează pe un lider este să nu rămână singur, neurmat de nimeni. Poate spune cineva că nu este aşa? De aceea intenţia lui nobilă este ca lucrurile să fie făcute eficient şi bine.

Există un risc de care liderul, la fel ca orice magician, se teme: ca nu cumva să aducă "spectacolul" până la ceea ce şi-a imaginat că va fi punctul culminant, dar spectatorii să se dovedească neimpresionaţi, aplaudând lipsiţi de entuziasm. Iar acest lucru reprezintă un semnal de alarmă. Înseamnă că eficacitatea lui a început să se estompeze.

Lumea unui magician este unitatea de măsură a informaţiei care rămâne ascunsă.

Starea de fond a acestei lumi, când el îşi vede reflexia propriei imperfecţiuni, este indicatorul unei situaţii de criză ce poate corespunde cu dificultatea în concentrare, retragerea în sine, închiderea emoţională, evitarea activităţilor amicale şi izolarea socială.

Concluzie: Fiecare profesionist ca şi fiecare lider îşi are secretele lui, secrete care sunt de fapt rodul muncii şi experienţei lui de ani de zile şi, desigur, nu există vreo motivaţie ca aceste secrete să fie împărtăşite celorlalţi. Se poate afirma totuşi că ele constituie „puterea" liderului, iar ea este dorită cu orice preţ de alţii care nu vor renunţa niciodată să „preia" această putere, chiar şi pe căi sau cu mijloace neortodoxe.

Secretele reprezintă de fapt structura cea mai eficientă a leadershipului, constituie latura cea mai puternică a unui lider. Dacă vrei să fii mai presus decât toţi şi să-ţi păstrezi puterea de influenţă, transformă-ţi leadershipul într-un veritabil spectacol folosindu-ţi cunoştinţele şi capacităţile într-un mod constructiv.

P.S. Liderii sunt veritabili colecţionari de secrete pe care trebuie să le păstreze cu străşnicie şi să se folosească de ele în mod util.

Colecţionarul de suflete

On Aprilie 17, 2010

Consolidează terenul propriei tale măreţii, astfel încât să te racordezi la realitatea convingerilor celor din jur.

Primăvara veni iute. Fram , care ajunsese la 83°20' latitudine nordică, era acum înconjurat de întinderi mari de gheaţă. Nansen, căpitanul vasului, căruia de mult i se născuse dorinţa de a încerca să atingă Polul Nord pe sănii trase de câini, convocă într-o seară întregul echipaj pentru a-i comunica importanţa noii misiuni pe care trebuie să o ducă la îndeplinire cu orice preţ, în numele ştiinţei. Toţi îl ascultară încordaţi. După ce îşi făcu cunoscut în detaliu planul, Nansen anunţă că numai o singură persoană poate să pornească în această călătorie cu el. Dar cine să fie aceea persoană? Căci toţi cei doisprezece subordonaţi ai săi, care îl iubeau şi îl respectau cu ardoare, se oferiră voluntari.

Decis încă de mult, Nansen făcu următorul anunţ:

- M-am gândit să-l iau ca tovarăş de drum pe Johansen, omul potrivit din toate punctele de vedere. Este un schior excelent şi este fără egal în ceea ce priveşte rezistenţa.

Apoi privirea pătrunzătoare a lui Nansen, care avea puterea să transmită oricui o doză importantă de curaj, se îndreptă spre Johansen pe care îl preveni:

- Înainte de a te hotărî la un asemenea pas, gândeşte-te bine Johansen ! Cântăreşte lucrurile o zi, două, şi numai după aceea să-mi dai răspunsul definitiv.

Dar nici bine nu apucase Nansen să termine ce avea de spus că Johansen, considerând o mare cinste alegerea propriei persoane, i-a răspuns cu înflăcărare:

- Nu e nevoie să mă mai gândesc căpitane, te voi urma oriunde !

Leadership: La chemarea ta se învrednicesc oamenii de onoarea de a fi alături de tine?

Un om a cărui singură preocupare este să te mulţumească şi să-ţi dea ascultare, este un suflet pe care îl stăpâneşti cu desăvârşire. Dar unui om care te-a cuprins în generosul său suflet îi eşti dator să-l preţuieşti şi să-l călăuzeşti spre împlinirea dorinţelor comune.

Se întâmplă rar, remarca odată scriitorul Alexandre Dumas, ca un lucru dorit cu înflăcărare să nu fie apărat cu înflăcărare de cei ce vor să-l capete.

Nespusa bucurie care l-a însufleţit pe Johansen a fost mai grăitoare decât orice vorbe şi, dublată de un optimism debordant în ceea ce priveşte viitorul, l-a îndemnat să se avânte cu mult curaj într-o aventură în care ar fi putut muri în fiecare clipă, ucis de urşi polari, de gerul cumplit sau de inaniţie. Nici că-şi putea găsi Nansen un tovarăş mai bun, fiindcă în expediţia pe schiuri de la Polul Nord, Johansen s-a dovedit a fi de mare ajutor.

Acceptând degrabă propunerea lui Nansen, fără să mai stea pe gânduri, Johansen a vrut să-i arate acestuia că doreşte din tot sufletul să fie ajutorul lui numărul unu, mâna lui dreaptă, omul cel mai de încredere, exprimându-şi astfel admiraţia şi respectul deosebit pe care îl nutrea pentru el. Cu ce nerăbdare şi cu ce mândrie a aşteptat Johansen acest moment, momentul hotărâtor în care îşi putea dovedi devotamentul.

Leadershipul este chemarea spre aventură pe care o emană omul însufleţit de unica hotărâre de a lupta până la capăt pentru concretizarea unei idei nebuneşti.

Cum oare să nu fie cuprins de emoţii puternice când, dintr-un echipaj foarte experimentat, din atâţia oameni curajoşi care erau gata să treacă, cum se spune, prin foc şi apă pentru conducătorul lor, numai unul singur, el, Johansen, a fost ales să-i fie tovarăş de drum lui Nansen?

Un singur lucru poate spori stima şi respectul adânc al oamenilor pentru liderul lor, şi anume onoarea de a fi alături de el într-un moment foarte important.

Oare ce influenţă ciudată îi aduce pe oameni în starea în care ar accepta să se avânte în necunoscut, chiar spre moarte, cu o patimă năprasnică? Căci atunci când te afli nopţi întregi, zile de-a rândul, luni întregi într-un ţinut izolat, azvârlit în neant, poţi fi cuprins de o groază teribilă din care să nu poţi să-ţi mai revii după ce priveşti îndelung împrejurimile nesfârşite de gheţari şi zăpadă. Totuşi o forţă misterioasă l-a îndemnat pe Johansen să participe la această misiune fără precedent, aceea de a atinge Polul Nord pe schiuri doar în doi oameni.

Leadership: Îţi creezi șansa de a fi mai aproape de acel "plus unu" care se mulează pe ceea ce ești și simți în condiţiile de posibilitate a unei conştiinţe bazată pe experienţa anilor petrecuţi în cursul misiunilor?

Nevoia unei alternative la stilul de leadership abordat, prin care oamenii să-şi dea seama de caracterul puternic al liderului lor, am regăsit-o însă numai la oameni maturi şi extrem de realişti, care pot să facă viraje extreme în orice fel de circumstanţe.

Nu există vârstă, limite sau termene pentru a face saltul în gol, în necunoscut, ci există doar deschiderea în faţa propriei noastre măreţii, permiţând în acelaşi timp ridicarea celorlalţi la o nouă conştiinţă de "a fi" necondiţionată, liberă, pură, care să balanseze orice inegalitate de statut. Conştiinţa este "unealta" care le oferă oamenilor pe care îi conduci o imagine de ansamblu asupra propriilor lor forţe de ataşament şi relaţionare, singura care le permite sau nu le permite să se poziţioneze în aceeaşi direcţie de mers cu tine.

Sunt oamenii tăi ghidaţi de acea unealtă care indică "înainte" sau "înapoi"?

Înainte să porneşti într-o direcţie nouă consolidează terenul propriei tale măreţii, astfel încât să te racordezi la realitatea convingerilor celor din jur.

Când încerci să stabilești un record neaşteptat trebuie să iei în calcul potenţialul de ghidare al planurilor de acţiune ce stă în spatele fiecărui contracandidat al tău.

Nemăsurata admiraţie pe care o nutresc oamenii pentru conducătorul lor îi determină să-şi adune tot curajul şi să-l urmeze până la capăt cu o înflăcărare nestăvilită. Johansen n-a uitat niciodată ce curaj sublim a dovedit Nansen atunci când a străbătut pe schiuri primul Groenlanda, ţara aspră, necercetată până atunci, stabilind un record nebănuit. N-a uitat niciodată faptul că doisprezece ani în şir Nansen a ieşit învingător în concursurile de mare fond, că a fost campion al lumii la patinaj viteză, fiind acoperit de glorie şi onoruri.

Fără nicio îndoială Johansen ar fi fost în stare să-şi dea chiar şi viaţa pentru Nansen, într-atâta recunoştinţa lui simţea nevoia de a izbucni, şi de aceea a acceptat fără şovăială să-l urmeze în lunga şi primejdioasa călătorie spre Polul Nord. Căci un om a cărui merite sunt bine cunoscute de toată lumea, care a căpătat un renume atât de strălucit nu poate fi decât un om înzestrat cu mari calităţi, un om puternic care poate să treacă peste orice bariere, care e în stare să depăşească orice limite.

Colecționarul de suflete este liderul care îşi atrage lângă el numai pe acei oameni interesaţi de aceeaşi lume ca el, o lume a finalităților și a efectelor așteptate.

Un lider trebuie să-şi aleagă cu grijă „ajutorul" sau „ajutoarele", ceea ce se poate realiza doar printr-o cunoaştere îndelungată, o colaborare permanentă şi implicit prin cunoaşterea eurilor cu personalitate puternică care-l înconjoară. Prin urmare, liderul trebuie să fie un veritabil „colecţionar de suflete" prin selectarea şi recrutarea cu atenţie a oamenilor şi cunoaşterea lor profundă.

Iar cu cât oamenii vor fi mai atraşi de personalitatea liderului, de ideile şi planurile sale, cu atât liderul va avea o mai mare influenţă asupra lor şi cu atât ei se vor mobiliza mai bine în vederea atingerii scopurilor comune.

Colecţionarul de tablouri

On Ianuarie 04, 2012

Integrează în leadershipul tău un plus de măreţie, consolidând tot ceea ce este esenţial la tine.

Spre sfârşitul filmului " Pretty Woman (1990) ", multimiliardarul Edward Lewis, al cărui singur "dar" erau legăturile imposibile, îi propune lui Vivian Ward (dama de companie pe care o plătise să-şi petreacă săptămâna cu el) să mai rămână o noapte. Dar de ce ar accepta ea această propunere? De ce să-şi facă în continuare iluzii? Oricum trebuiau să se despartă definitiv. Aşa că îi respinge propunerea:

- Uite Edward, mi-ai făcut o ofertă tare bună. Şi în urmă cu câteva luni aş fi acceptat, nici o problemă. Dar acum totul e diferit şi tu ai schimbat asta. Şi nu o poţi schimba înapoi. Vreau mai mult...

În timp ce-şi făcea bagajul, în gândul ei, Vivian parcă îşi spunea: " Da, vreau mai mult ! Căci te iubesc ! Căci tu eşti pentru mine mai frumos, mai bun şi mai mare decât toate fiinţele ! Aş vrea să împart toată viaţa fericirea cu tine. Doar cu tine. Nu vreau să te pierd, însă ştiu că trebuie să stric clipele de supremă fericire pe care mi le-ai oferit, pe care Dumnezeu mi le-a dat în schimbul rugilor mele necontenite ."

Dar a fost doar o clipă. Trebuie să fiu puternică şi să fac acest pas. Şi să uit de tine, de generozitatea şi bunul tău gust – care mi-au inundat întreaga fiinţă; să uit de toate supărările, să uit de mine însămi, să uit de tot ce mi-a îngăduit viaţa cât am fost a ta – da, a ta şi numai a ta; să nu îmi mai leg inima de nicio speranţă, să uit că m-am simţit o clipă cea mai frumoasă şi mai admirată femeie din lume, să uit că ai fost totul pentru mine şi să te şterg definitiv de pe lista dorinţelor mele. Şi să mă transform iarăşi în ce-am fost, într-o biată prostituată, şi să mă reîntorc la o viaţă fără emoţii, fără sentimente, fără conţinut."

Leadership: Îţi acorzi timpul necesar pentru a-ţi consolida imaginea de sine aparţinând unei singurătăţi totale care strigă neîncetat conştiinţei să renunţi la mândria de a nu datora nimănui nimic?

Un lider manifestă tot interesul faţă de leadership dacă realizările şi succesele sale reflectă cât mai cuprinzător propriile sale competenţe. În lumina a ceea ce este el cu adevărat şi a ceea va deveni, el îşi pune toate însuşirile, toate resursele, toate cunoştinţele în slujba unui tip de leadership care militează în primul rând pentru bunăstarea lui.

Multimiliardarul Edward Lewis era un astfel de lider. El practica un leadership realist, bazat pe politici prudente, pe eficienţă, pe principii de leadership şi pe strategii, pe abordări pragmatice, pe prognoze - pe modul în care era el de fapt, tipic unui businessman adevărat. Însă pentru asta nimeni nu i-a premiat vreodată valorile !

Căci, atunci când vine vorba de valori, Lewis era asemenea un constructor excelent care ridică şi edifică o mulţime de clădiri, dar care nu-şi găseşte niciodată timpul necesar să-şi consolideze propria lui casă. El integrase în leadershipul său numai acele valori care îi susţineau performanţa managerială optimă, însă aceste valori nu aveau vibraţia potrivită pentru a răspunde anumitor circumstanţe prin emoţii. În cuvinte mai simple, el nu avea niciun ideal sentimental.

Mândria de a nu datora nimănui nimic, împreună cu grija excesivă faţă de propria imagine, schiţează conturul unei pasiuni puternice faţă de ceea ce îţi impune datoria de loialitate faţă de carieră, sub puterea nevoii de a fi în prim planul atenției publice. Astfel eşti constrâns să pui un preţ mai mic pe acea regiune de influenţă a existenţei care nu este la vedere şi care intră sub puterea de a trăi în starea de acceptare a valorilor spiritual-morale care fac din tine o fiinţă excepţională.

Să simţi gustul subtil al valorilor spiritual-morale, precum armonia, devotamentul, generozitatea, înţelegerea, răbdarea, înseamnă să faci din viaţă o lecţie deschisă plină de învăţăminte despre ceea ce se poate întâmpla atunci când principiul precauţiei sau al echilibrului este trecut cu vederea.

Leadership: Obţii un rezultat pozitiv de pe urma investigării propriei tale firi în conţinutul unei "pagini" pe care ai părăsit-o?

Ca lider, Lewis ar fi trebuit să pună temelia structurii sale emoţionale, să facă munca de restaurare propriu-zisă a trăirilor sale sufleteşti, accentuând sentimentele sale caracteristice. Această investigare şi evaluare graduală a firii sale l-ar fi ajutat să se apropie atent de leadershipul de calitate – care are integrat nişte elemente emoţionale cu potenţial deosebit.

Valorile tale merită premiate? Eşti capabil, prin leadershipul tău, să cuprinzi intensitatea şi dimensiunea umană? Poţi să percepi impulsul interior al celorlalţi oameni - tot aşa cum doctorul percepe prin senzaţii tactile tensiunea arterială sau cea musculară a pacienţilor?

Nu cred că vei reuşi să stabileşti şi să menţii legăturile cu ceilalţi oameni dacă nu strângi laolaltă toate acele forţe emoţionale dinăuntrul tău care pot acţiona pozitiv asupra lor. Dacă le izolezi, dacă le ignori nu vei putea să întinzi punţi între aspiraţiile tale şi ale lor – vei rămâne doar un colecţionar zgârcit între tablourile sale, uitându-se ţintă la ele cu o poftă nesățioasă aproape tot timpul. Astfel se va deschide în propriul tău destin acea prăpastie ameninţătoare care te va despărţi de tot ceea ce este cu adevărat esenţial la un lider: forţa sufletească.

Dacă într-o zi suferi de plictiseală, când zilele tale bune nu mai reprezintă decât "o invenţie a unei minţi eliberată de atașamente", sau dacă eşti caracterizat de o perpetuă nemulțumire și de un zbucium continuu pentru a atinge noi dimensiuni în performanță, atunci fă un efort şi imită o clepsidră: învaţă să măsori trecerea timpului o dată cu fiecare întoarcere de pagină a vieții. Pagină pe care tocmai ai părăsit-o.

Primul pas spre o schimbare radicală este să accepţi că acel "raţional" cu care măsori toate cele dimprejurul tău este foarte limitat în faţa posibilităţilor de a le valorifica.

Colecţionarul de tablouri scoate în evidenţă punctele tale forte sau punctele tale slabe. Depinde de cât de mult te ataşezi de "arta" pe care o admiri şi în care îţi investeşti valorile. Arta care te defineşte reflectă mai mult însuşirile tale manageriale sau emoţionale?

Îi tratezi pe oameni ca pe nişte tablouri cu valoare diferită? Sau ca pe nişte tablouri extrem de valoroase care îţi încântă şi îţi încălzesc sufletul? Sau ţi-a propus să fii atât de zgârcit încât să-i tratezi ca pe nişte tablouri care nu exprimă nimic?

Reperul de suflet al "colecţionarului" Edward Lewis a fost Vivian. La tine e nevoie de un "reper" care să-ţi cultive respectul faţă de valorile morale pe care se sprijină leadershipul de calitate?

Mare dreptate avea cine a spus că: "Singurul inamic al raţiunii eşti tu însuţi. Pentru a fi raţional trebuie să câştigi lupta cu tine."

Concluzie: Un lider trebuie să îmbine armonios "elementele tehnice" ale leadershipului cu elementele ce ţin de aspectele sentimentale ce apar ca urmare a relaţiilor interumane. Un lider căruia îi lipseşte măreţia nu este altceva decât un colecţionar de "euri", a căror valoare nu le cunoaşte şi nici nu le pune în valoare. A gândi strict tehnic nu-ţi aduce niciun beneficiu, dar valorificând resursele umane poţi continua ceea ce ai început, iar succesul va fi de partea ta.

Columbo - întruchiparea omului integru moral și vizionar în idei

Detaliile subtile pot să dezvăluie esența ta autentică, capturând subtilitățile și nuanțele care alcătuiesc vulnerabilitatea unui adevăr ascuns.

În lumina tulbure a crimei, locotenentul Columbo se dovedește a fi farul neclintit al dreptății, un detectiv excepțional care nu cunoaște frica în confruntarea cu cei mai puternici. În episodul "A Friend in Deed", superiorul lui încearcă să-l clintească, să-l manipuleze, dar Columbo rămâne imun, înarmat cu o devotare neclintită față de adevăr și dreptate.

Când descoperă că însuşi Mark Halperin, cel mai înalt superior din poliţie este criminalul, Columbo nu se lasă descurajat. Dimpotrivă, ingeniozitatea și hotărârea sa cresc încă și mai mult. Într-o mișcare îndrăzneață, el plasează o capcană iscusită, folosindu-se de un apartament închiriat și de propria-i abilitate de a anticipa mișcările adversarului. Îi aruncă superiorului său momeala, făcându-l să creadă că este apartamentul unui fost puşcăriaş care era anchetat pentru aceste crime pe care, de fapt, nu el le-a comis. Ca să-şi spele urma, Mark Halperin avea de gând să aducă în faţa judecăţii un om care avea cazier, dar acesta nu era deloc autorul crimelor.

Leadership: Poţi să îmbunătăţeşti contextul de improvizaţie în acţiunile tale, evidențiind simultaneitatea dintre conţinutul propriei conştiinţe și forma viziunii în procesul de susţinere a adevărului?

Invitând superiorul în biroul său, Columbo dezvăluie subtil o adresă falsă, aruncându-l în lumea fictivă a fostului pușcăriaș, în încercarea sa de a-și proteja secretul întunecat. Însă, maestrul în manipulare, Columbo a plănuit fiecare detaliu cu atenție meticuloasă.

Iar când Mark Halperin împreună cu echipa de poliţişti iau cu asalt apartamentul, şi plasează dovezi incriminatorii false în cameră, Columbo îi dovedeşte că el nu putea şti adresa criminalului decât din foile sale de pe birou, care de fapt erau special aranjate şi puse la vedere. Deci, aşa s-a întâmplat că dovezile incriminatorii au fost plasate în apartamentul închiriat pe numele lui Columbo, deci era ilogic să se găsească acolo acele dovezi, decât dacă nu cumva Mark Halperin, însuşi le-a plasat intenţionat crezând că este adresa fostului puşcăriaş.

Leadership: Poţi să dai valoare detaliilor care pot să reprezinte o probă a adevărului obiectiv, încât viziunea ta să fie acceptată ca un fel de oglindă a unui sine mai înalt?

Oricum, ideea este următoarea: dacă vrei să îţi demonstrezi calităţile de bun detectiv, mai întâi trebuie să inspectezi bine locul crimei. Să vezi ce anume nu se încadrează în "normal". La locul crimei, Columbo aduce lumină asupra detaliilor aparent insignifiante, găsind anormalități subtile care sfidează logica. Amprentele lipsă de pe telefonul victimei care a răspuns la două apeluri, devin cheia decriptării întregii poveşti. Un detectiv autentic nu trece cu vederea astfel de detalii, iar Columbo, prin abilitățile sale și etica impecabilă, reușește să aducă adevărul la suprafață.

S-o spun altfel. Lucrurile erau aşezate prea ciudat în camera în care s-a înfăptuit crima, iar elementul definitoriu, ieşit din comun, era faptul că nu existau deloc amprente pe telefon, deşi victima primise 2 apeluri la care totuşi a răspuns. Nu ai cum să vorbeşti la telefonul din casa ta, fără să laşi amprente, decât dacă nu cumva criminalul se afla deja în casă, a vorbit el la telefon, apoi a şters amprentele.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi valorifici întregul potenţial, încât vulnerabilitatea unui adevăr să dezvăluie fragilitatea și sinceritatea asociată cu expunerea ta la percepţia celorlalţi?

În acest caz, Columbo a folosit mai multe elemente de criminologie pentru a-și construi cazul. În primul rând, a inspectat cu atenție locul crimei, observând că lucrurile erau aşezate prea ciudat. În al doilea rând, a studiat relația dintre victimă și criminal, bănuind că cei doi aveau o legătură. În al treilea rând, a folosit o şaradă pentru a-l atrage pe criminal într-o capcană.

În lumea complexă a criminalității și a manipulării, Columbo rămâne o figură incomparabilă, un simbol al onoarei și corectitudinii. Prin acțiunile sale, el ne învață că adevărul poate fi obținut numai prin perseverență, inteligenţă și respectarea eticii, indiferent cât de întunecată ar fi umbra crimei. Sau, cum spunea scriitorul Arthur Phillips:

"Când îi înţelegi, oamenii nu te pot surprinde, să ştii. Temeiurile lor sunt uneori ascunse, dar nu sunt prea multe. Oamenii sunt cărţi deschise, odată ce-ai învăţat să citeşti. Acest lucru e în acelaşi timp un blestem şi o încântare, dar este un rezultat inevitabil atunci când eşti un cercetător fidel al naturii umane, ceea ce orice detectiv bun este, cu certitudine."

Un sine mai înalt la care ajungi prin dispoziția de a te dedica reprezentării unui ideal, de a găsi întotdeauna adevărul, face parte din structura omului care respectă legile eticii. În acest caz, viziunea ta devine o oglindă a sinelui, reflectând complexitatea și profunzimea trăirilor tale, oferind o perspectivă autentică și unică asupra realității.

Leadershipul se referă la anticiparea realității care explorează vulnerabilitatea oamenilor la schimbarea pe care o declanşează aflarea adevărului.

Columbo este întruchiparea omului integru moral și vizionar în idei. El nu acceptă compromisuri, nu face niciodată abat de la regulile justiţiei, nu acceptă falsitatea şi lipsa de integritate. Aşadar, mesajul lui este următorul: "să nu te piezi niciodată în realitatea celorlalţi oameni, ci să rămâi autentic."

Come Undone (II)

On Octombrie 22, 2017

Frumosul ține de felul în care te poziționezi față de momentele cele mai enigmatice ale vieții, în raport cu asumarea ipostazelor de-a lungul ei.

Îmi încarc cu minute imaginarul de necesitatea prezenței unei puternice legături între cauze şi efecte, clipe ce par că-şi tot amână sosirile, în anumite etape ale unui ciclu de viață cu multiple interpretări, față de planul longitudinal al inimii mele. Caut parcă să-l desincronizez dintr-o rațiune devenită obsedantă, să-l imortalizez într-un simbolism cu vaste implicații tradus printr-un consum intens de trăiri, ca fiind un impuls pentru o nouă stare de spirit.

Cu toate acestea, încep să alunec tot mai mult într-un soi de ceață, un fenomen straniu de origine necunoscută, can not forgive from falling apart , în mintea mea făcându-şi loc un scenariu de Stephen King asumat. Să-mi imaginez că sunt în altă parte, rațiunea continuând să „zguduie" ce a fost ieri. La o adică, felul în care mă simt, până la felul în care îmi accesez norocul în acțiunile viitoare, dincolo de starea de veghe, este o formă de artă, o nebunie pe care mi-o pot permite şi de care nu mă pot sătura. „ Hey child, stay wilder than the wind, And blow me into cry."

Cu însuflețire, mă reped asupra celor ce nu se grăiesc, dar se aud în taină, o închipuire ce nu trebuie încurajată, ca şi când memoria mea ar sedimenta ce mai rămâne din ecourile unei vieți abandonate, mai mult decât mi se cuvine să cuprind cu toată puterea inspirației şi a visului, ca o stare specială ce poate apărea oricând, oriunde şi oricât.

Ca şi când aș încerca să mă depărtez de cele lumești, cunoscute, dureroase, pe cât de semnificative pe atât de dificil de evaluat, sufocând, distrugând, amenințând orice tentativă de a ieși de sub umbrela roșie a incertitudinii și a regretelor suportabile. Dintr-o frică nejustificată față de viață, o slăbiciune de care trebuie să scap, o uimire pe care nu știu cum s-o înțeleg, de disperare pătrunsă în oase, devenită una cu măduva oaselor. Care pentru mine este un drum singuratic.

Leadership: Respingi acțiunea în virtutea de a aduce în fața minții nişte nuanțe pe care nici o altă unealtă, în afara cuvintelor, nu le poate naște?

Cum să deznod o mărturie tăcută, sprijinită pe atâtea nelămuriri, griji și îndoieli, fără să o fac iarăși ghem? O oglindire în altcineva, o căutare a identității între o lume reală şi una virtuală, ar putea oare să alunge descurajanta inerție care mă aneantizează?

Aș prefera o sinceritate golită de artificiu, ca în cazul scriitorului ce dă cuvântului viu puterea de întruchipare, să mă expun inteligent unei râniri mai blânde, aşa cum sunt eu, ascultător şi supus în fața marilor mistere ale artei, în care sensul profund al cuvântului înseamnă a schimba geografia unei forme de existență ce îşi relevă importanța în fixarea unui anumit stil. De personalitate, de gândire, de acțiune, de leadership.

Când încerc să ard până la capăt atâta tăcere, prin spirit şi printr-un cod scris, fără să mă consum de-a binelea, iau aminte la reafirmarea potențialului de schimbare şi a impactului pe care îl pot avea acțiunile bine gândite în viziunea lui Malcom Gladwell, autorul celebrei cărți „The Tipping Point": Privește lumea care ţi se pune în cale. Poate că ţi se pare că este un loc nemișcat, implacabil. Nu este aşa. Cu un minim de efort - la locul şi în momentul oportun - totul poate fi răsturnat.

Lecția punctului critic din bezna tăcerii în care mă cufund de-a binelea, o parte din centrul universului meu zbuciumat, este că dacă nu provoci schimbarea, sfârșești prin a o suporta.

Leadership: Poți să controlezi ceea ce constați despre tine, fără a avea așteptări prea mari din partea "frumosului" care neavând concept pentru plăcere devine exclusiv afectare interioară?

Pentru întâia oară, o picătură din sângele mândriei de a fi proprietarul unui "immaculate dream", se prelinge pe marginea unei poezii care anunță resemnarea în fața lui TREBUIE , trying to stay blind to the hope and fear outside . Încât nici logica, nici inteligența, ci doar misterul unui gând nedescifrat până la capăt poate pricepe realitatea ultimă a confruntării dintre condiția de prizonier într-un "Something unreal" şi experienţa unui "Lost, in a snow filled sky".

Oricând aș putea să mă pun pe primul loc în fața adevărurilor scoase la iveală de acest experiment izolat, afectat de propria-mi plasare în spatele unei stări febrile inexplicabile, de conflict între experiența anterioară şi necunoscutul cu care mă confrunt, ce în aparență este o stare de semiconștiență în care tind să cred că dorm, o halucinație care trebuie acceptată cu calm.

Pentru un sculptor precum a fost Lorenzo Bernini, frumosul căpăta un sens al sinelui. El găsea că însușirea cea mai de preț a unui artist nu este de a face clădiri frumoase şi comode, ci de a inventa felurite chipuri în a se sluji de puțin, de părţile rele şi neadaptate necesităţii, de a face lucruri frumoase, în aşa fel încât acest neajuns să devină folositor într-o asemenea măsură încât, de n-ar fi existat, ar fi trebuit inventat.

E mai bine să nu-ți reproșezi nicio vină când în viața ta intervine ceva incomod, apropiat de realitatea cea mai secretă a lucrurilor, de realitatea cea mai profundă a slujirii unei stări din care bucuria puținului dispare. Durerea focului interior și a propriului exil luându-i locul. Frumosul se îngăduie oricărei priviri reflexive spre sine, dar se interzice unei stări de istovire care nu e nici somn, nici vis, nici veghe, care doar te descurajează, făcându-te să uiți până şi că exiști.

Frumosul în artă ține de permanentizarea revelării unei realități profunde în termeni pozitivi, de felul în care te poziționezi față de momentele cele mai adânci și mai enigmatice ale vieții în raport cu asumarea ipostazelor de-a lungul ei: de creator neîntrecut și de prizonier al propriilor gânduri și emoții.

Come Undone se instalează atunci când ai de ales între intensitatea trăirilor și expresia lor, singura rezultantă fiind arta, acea minune unică a creației pe care o numim „o rană veșnic deschisă” sau „o experiență de sine” neîntreruptă, deosebit de intensă, excesivă. Din care poate să rezulte o varietate de conținut, disponibil pentru vizualizare dintr-un precedent compozițional numit: „Avântul spre cunoaştere și originalitate”.

Come Undone (I)

On Octombrie 15, 2017

Când inspirația te sugrumă, nu-ți mai rămâne altceva de făcut decât s-o deznozi.

Am observat că în timpul zilei mă cuprinde o stare de neliniște intensă, însoțită de o provocare incitantă de a citi de toate, o dorință acerbă de a mă informa cu privire la orice variații neașteptate între dorul de adevăr și teama de a nu-l lăsa să mă năruie. Pot să anticipez tendințe ulterioare de viață într-un clarobscur mistic-ispititor, cu aceeași grijă apăsătoare cu care artistul încearcă să împace tensiunea dintre conținutul pe care îl are de redat şi forma estetică a creației sale.

Neliniştea mea este chinul artistului de a defini un orizont de cunoaştere, deschis şi practic, prin prisma unei creaţii care amestecă voit registrul miraculosului cu cel al supranaturalului. Iar singurul termen care pare că lipseşte în vederea unei exprimări depline este culoarea, sau mai precis acea expresie a culorii în stare să se constituie ca pură esență picturală. Aici, simt din toată ființa mea o nedumerire, însoțită de o stranie durere datorată unui fior al îngrijorării, imaginarul meu izvorând parcă dintr-un adânc plin cu atâtea secrete. Pe care nu mi-l cunosc, pe care nu-l pot cuprinde în disperata aventură a autocunoașterii, dar care scapă răsunător şi hotărât un singur răspuns : "I've been waiting for you ! "

Nădăjduiesc că voi găsi altă ocazie să mă revanșez pentru cauza acestui loc întunecos, haos, pustiire, abis, căruia mă îndatorez cu o "rată" lunară.

Când inspirația te sugrumă, ca un laț strâns fără milă în jurul gâtului, aruncându-te într-o spirală periculoasă de incertitudine, înlocuind tendința detestării sau chiar a urii de sine; când te trezești prins în îngrozitoarea plasă a nebuniei de a insista, de a căuta şi mai asiduu o scăpare, o eliberare de suferință, o evadare din iadul roșu al disperării, nu-ţi mai rămâne altceva de făcut decât s-o deznozi, să te desprinzi din sentimentul acut al negației clipei. „Who do you need, who do you love, When you come undone?"

Words, playing me deja vu , pentru o dovadă a identității dintre Tot şi Nimic, sugerând o consumare a forței, o înfrânare de energie fizică, dar într-o perfectă comuniune cu universul, pe care sufletul o zugrăvește într-un avânt al sublimului efemer, ajungând fără greș acolo unde este îndreptată: spre centrul sferei curiozității pline de teama pentru ce va urma.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o ai în minte, despre ceea ce trăiești în relație directă cu actul creației, o poți exprima în realitatea unei experiențe care te înmoaie pur şi simplu, dar te face să te simți viu?

Nimeni nu poate ceda în fața a ceea ce înseamnă prăbușire, retragere în derută, alunecare în abis, din ceea ce înțelegerea omenească ar fi ispitită să socotească drept o atentă delimitare de ceea ce nu poate fi împărtășit, global sau în detalii. Dar poți exprima oricând o emoție, o anumită dispoziție, care te convinge pe tine însuți de un anumit fapt. „Is it something real?"

Mă gândesc să scap de o corvoadă sau obligație care scobește totul în mine treptat, pe lungimea de undă a conștiinței grevată de anumite interdicții, în dependență de situația şi circumstanțele unei bizare combinații de "breath and anxiety". Cel puțin în felul în care privesc realitatea, că dincolo de ea sunt eu, un Creator de trăiri și senzații care, întrebuințând şi integrând o multiplicitate de nuanțe, valori şi experiențe, reușește să facă compromisul cu propriul conținut. Cu gândurile cele mai adânci și mai incomode. Ca efect dominant aruncându-se fie în obsesii, fie în ruină.

Altă explicație nu poate fi pentru această situație ciudată, ca un experiment izolat afectat de hazard, ce pare un atribuit al confuziei sau epuizării, îngrijorării şi neliniștii, căci cu ele se mistuie şi artistul care s-a făcut rob al păcatului de a fi înțeles cât de important este curajul de a fi sincer în artă, chiar dacă sinceritatea este dureroasă, adesea pedepsită. "I swear I've heard it before."

Aici cititorul are ocazia să reflecte pe marginea propriei raportări la cele mai noi abordări ale condiţiei omului, de a fi o ființă care trăiește în sprijinul unei activări de înaltă frecvență, menită să-i conecteze personalitatea la sinele înalt. Vulnerabil în imaginea pe care o experimentează ca răspuns în fața unor situații de fapt produse în taină, dar cu efecte de lumini şi umbre, to the hope and fear outside.

Leadership: Ești capabil să concepi creația perfectă care să reprezinte o autoafirmare ce nu conține negația propriei condiții căzute în ascunsul unei lumi ajunsă la limitele ei?

Stările reacționale care răspund unor situații pur psihice, intim legate de conținutul unor probe de apăsare sufletească, creează incertitudinii în măsura în care mergi pe ideea că oricum n-o să găseşti nimic acolo unde cândva era totul. Ispășirea prin teama unor fapte imaginare de care îți este teamă, fiindcă lucrurile ascunse se pot oricând revela, chiar dacă ele nu se divulgă, se află în vecinătatea naivei sincerități a deznădejdii.

După fiecare oglindire în tabloul încărcat cu umbre al imaginii mele, într-un cadru de tip „Black Experience", nu mai pot să-mi actualizez starea și s-o îmbunătățesc într-o nuanță de autenticitate.

Aici, trebuie mentionat faptul că nu sunt departe de o poveste plina de fictiune. Este adevărat că o autoafirmare în domeniul artei este o angajare efectivă într-un univers simbolizat, ca şi când ai vrea să cucereşti totul, de parcă ai avea timp să stăpâneşti totul. Dar, tot la fel de adevărat este că în artă, cel care se avântă prea mult în ficţiune, rătăcind ca într-o transă, printr-un labirint al mărturisirilor emoţionante, incredibile, neaşteptate, trebuie să-şi asume negaţia propriei condiţii căzute în ascunsul unei lumi ajunsă la limitele ei.

Negația propriei condiții căzute în ascunsul unei lumi ajunsă la limitele ei este o afirmare răsturnată, o caracteristică şi o condiţie a contactului cu o lume imaginară care te împiedica să vezi lucrurile aşa cum sunt şi, adesea, poate duce la anxietate sau depresie.

Manifestarea unei stări de anxietate este consecința raportării mele la statutul de creator, înscriindu-se pe drumul modelării realității care mă consumă, pe parcursul căruia îmi edific și consolidez relația dintre ceea ce îmi este intim și ceea ce se află în lumea exterioară.

Creatorul, cel puțin în felul în care privesc și îmi accept nebunia de a nega ceea ce există deja în ființa mea, cu care am mândria de a fi deja deprins, este omul care știe cât costă o operă ascunsă şi nefinalizată.

Leadershipul este asemănător actului de creație care îți pune la încercare ingeniozitatea, calitățile, acceptarea şi stăpânirea de sine: mai întâi trebuie să-ți evaluezi starea de spirit, apoi să dezgropi din tine niște adevăruri ascunse și la final trebuie să-ți asociezi imaginea cu tot ceea ce oamenii trebuie să știe despre tine.

Actul de creaţie săvârşit într-un voiaj al regăsirii de sine este un cumul al încercărilor artistului de a se defini pe sine, dar şi de a redefini un orizont de aşteptare a cărei vastitate nu trebuie să-i rănească orgoliul de a fi mai presus de înţelegerea celorlalţi oameni.

Come Undone este stadiul final al explorării de sine, când simți că totul capătă proporțiile unei experiențe menită să pună în lumină acea stare de neliniște proprie artistului care se destăinuie în fața creației sale : „Nu mai pot să-mi actualizez starea și s-o îmbunătățesc într-o nuanță de autenticitate.”

Come Vorrei

On August 28, 2019

Povestea din spatele epicului vieţii este tabloul unei lumi ghicite, interpretate, dar puţin cunoscute, la care trebuie să-i adaugi mereu câte ceva.

Cu mult timp în urmă, o grădină plină de trandafiri mi-a câştigat interesul total. Forţa cu care trandafirii se întrupează în individual, în multe concepţii lumeşti, în ceea ce se numeşte "stare de bine", este construită în jurul unui demers de modelare a sinelui, între adevăr şi lucruri trecătoare. Aici am descoperit prima dată fascinaţia florilor, a peisajului natural şi a artei aleasă cu grijă şi fineţe, de care te simţi atras cu acea curiozitate de artist menită să observe în fiecare detaliu o nouă reprezentaţie a realităţii bazată pe o formulă cu extract emoţional: „E prea puţin din tot ce-ar trebui spus."

Dar e destul de trist în viaţă să nu ai cu cine te plimba într-un asemenea colţ de rai, ideal pentru un plus de însufleţire, atunci când din fiecare clipă, aducătoare de pace, cu implicaţii profunde, se poate fructifica talentul artistului de a face posibilă atingerea absolutului şi intrarea într-o altă fază a procesului de creaţie. Percepţia unei persoane, sau ce gândeşte ea, este o receptare curată a valorilor spiritului pur, a existenţei vulnerabile obligate să se reinventeze prin forţa ei supremă: iubirea, pe care la un moment dat Leonard Cohen o recunoştea ca fiind o bucată din inima omului de mare caracter.

Acum, când scriu toate astea, nu pot decât să întâmpin acel moment de vulnerabilitate emoţională, ca într-un vis pe care continui să-l trăiesc tăcut, cu nobleţe, cu graţie, prin aducerea aminte a încântărilor nespuse și a frumuseților închipuite, în mijlocul unui tablou înscris în dimensiunile unui roşu intens care transcede cu ușurință între stări, gânduri, lumină divină şi concepte difuze.

Amintirile încă mă bântuie, mă consolează cu vorbe, cu impuls creator, cu gândire în imagini, ridicându-mă cu delicateţe, cu nobleţe, cu mândrie, în înaltul unei pretinse dezveliri a sufletului. Dar ele niciodată nu mă îndestulează cu un conţinut de 100% forţă expresivă. Fiindcă ceea ce revine în amintire, ce se lasă regăsit în orice timp este probabil trist, dureros şi deziluzionant, la fel ca îmbrăţişarea unei mame pe care vrei s-o prelungeşti în mod repetat, dar nu o mai simţi niciodată venind.

Leadership: Poţi să măreşti impactul dintre ceea ce te face să simţi una cu sufletul altei fiinţe şi ceea ce prezinţi lumii prin filtrul similarităţii cu un element fundamental al ambianţei tale vizuale?

Acest moment al amintirii aşa zis nemuritoare, fără de seamăn, captivant şi înduioşător totodată, completat cu rafinament cromatic şi stimulat cu o nouă înflorire a trandafirilor, este intens luminat prin subtila plăcere a unei companii plăcute, spre cinstirea unei calităţi emoţionale cu care se investeşte culoarea roşie: pasiunea de a trăi prin dăruire de sine, prin sinceritate, prin împlinire estetică şi prin poveştile altora. Ci sono giorni in cui non dormo e penso a te…

Incontestabil. M-am lăsat cucerit de noutatea întâlnirii pe care mi-a oferit-o un alt soi de intervenţie estetică, un alt sortiment de însufleţire a minţii şi a sufletului, care te absoarbe cu totul, fără scăpare, într-un vârtej al atracţiilor de frumos, al tentaţiilor irezistibile, al senzaţiilor de puternic afect într-un univers pe care îl numesc cu atât de mult drag: Universul Meu. Trandafirii au farmecul de a aduce lângă tine acei oameni cu totul deosebiţi, de care nu te poţi despărţi. Come vorrei che tu mi amassi a modo mio..

Pentru o fată tânără şi dezinvoltă ca ea, trandafirii îşi fac destoinic datoria de a transmite ceea ce cuvintele, de multe ori, nu reuşesc, facilitând intrarea într-o lume fără hotare, într-o lume care nu se sfârșește nicăieri. Ea era parcă descoperirea mea dintr-o altă viaţă, un mod spontan de transcendere a ştiutului, îmbogăţind permanent conţinutul perceput cu unul imaginat prin forţa de a exprima în imagine şi culoare o lume interioară complexă. Come vorrei che questo amore che va via...

Leadership: Conţinutul redat de imaginea creaţiei tale poate fi perceput ca semn al superiorităţii în transmiterea unei game variate de emoţii, în funcţie de ceea ce doreşti să experimentezi printr-o demonstraţie de încredere în valoarea actului artistic propus?

Conţinutul redat de imaginea creaţiei mele, trandafirul văzut ca protagonist al unei poveşti de viaţă autentice, poate fi perceput ca semn al superiorităţii în transmiterea unei game variate de emoţii numai atunci când fac apel la ideea seducătoare de eleganţă atemporală, prezentată în mod inedit în jurul unui subiect sensibil, de factură romantică şi artistică în acelaşi timp.

Astfel, induc o anumită percepţie pozitivă despre mine, o anumită doză de sensibilitate, ceea ce mă plasează deasupra ariilor de interes material şi mă transformă într-un izvor al expresivităţii care nu-şi găseşte egal în lume, mai ales pe tema leadershipului.

Mi-a zâmbit. I-am oferit un trandafir Double-Delight în semn de respect adus puterii ei de a captiva atenţia, de a provoca imaginaţia, de a transmite stări, prin îmbinarea dintre o poetică vie a visării şi o versiune deghizată a gestului de acoperire a gurii, ca atunci când eşti luat prin surprindere. Senza parole . Nicio rezistenţă din partea ei.

Privit cu ochiul admiraţiei pentru frumos, trandafirul face trecerea de la instinct la sentiment.

Era blândă şi iubitoare, înzestrată cu abilitatea de a privi dincolo de înfăţişarea celui care o ţine prizonieră în tabloul emoţionant, înălţător, sugestiv, al unei lumi ghicite. Varianta „îmblânzită" a expresionismului. Frumuseţea ei părea să aibă acea calitate a operei de artă care te face să înţelegi ceea ce îţi este ambiguu, să dezlegi marele mister al autonomiei limbajului artistic într-un mod care îţi face plăcere. Senza cadere in una nuova gelosia ...

Să fii al nimănui, să nu aparţii nici unei sfere a picturii, să trăieşti ca un exilat, este un sentiment al naibii de dureros. Trebuia să mă adresez inimii, asemenea unui artist ce descoperă atingerea delicată a naturii. Pe această fiinţă atât de drăguţă, politicoasă, frumoasă, sinceră, spirituală și unică pe această lume, n-o voi uita niciodată. La fel cum nici ea nu va uita vreodată de mine, căci trandafirii au creat deja acea experienţă subtilă a bunei dispoziţii, transformată într-un sentiment de căldură care te hrăneşte constant cu magia unei illusione di un bell'aspetto per sempre.

Am avut ocazia de a ne revedea, cu totul întâmplător, într-un moment plin de sinceritate şi tandreţe, anticipând estetica celor trei criterii ale împlinirii umane: farmecul de a fi empatic, graţia de a da sens vieţii şi forţa de a merge înainte. Ne-am amintit de prima noastră întâlnire, şi ne-am comportat întocmai ca nişte trandafiri care înfloresc tot anul. Parfumul lor puternic şi cuceritor, atât de dulce, pur şi senzual, putea fi simţit doar printr-o frumoasă alăturare de cuvinte: "nobleţea sufletului şi eleganţa gesturilor mărunte".

Valoarea actului artistic propus de un iubitor de frumos poate fi exprimată prin atenţia acordată unei clipe de sinceritate din care este posibil să renască acea atitudine de înrudire cu natura, dar mai ales acea atitudine de spirit, umilă faţă de grandoarea creaţiei numită " Starmi Vicino ".

Come Vorrei aduce în prim plan instinctul de a conserva momentul, starea și sentimentele unui artist care refuză să înstrăineze tabloul pe care îl consideră încă neterminat, găsind mereu câte ceva de adăugat la el.

În numele iubirii şi al artei, exprimate prin roşul trandafirilor, important este să nu te gândeşti niciodată cât anume va persista constanta numită "acum", ci să permanentizezi acea stare de non-separare pe care prima întâlnire o strecoară mai degrabă într-o proiecție astrală, decât în plan fizic, în tabloul unei lumi ghicite, interpretate, dar puţin cunoscute, la care trebuie să-i adaugi mereu câte ceva...

Comoara care-şi urmează posesorul oriunde

On Martie 27, 2022

Imaginea cu care îţi mulţumeşti sufletul, este imaginea cu care te prezinţi în faţa lumii.

Învăţătura a deschis drumul afirmării mele în artă, răspunzând pasiunilor puternice care îmi bucurau sufletul, mai mult decât suma tuturor celorlalte activităţi care doar trebuiau făcute doar de decor. Acum, ea pare o rouă pentru suflet, o forţă de a trece peste momentele dificile în viaţă, sublima manifestare a unei energii latente care nu-şi pierde continuitatea în relaţiile dintre oameni şi natură şi tot ce mă înconjoară. Adevărata învăţătura are ca pivot de direcţie însăşi relaţia dintre obiectele separate, decontextualizate, dar din care se poate elimina întâmplătorul, incoerenţa.

Şi n-am regretat niciodată că am cumpărat la un preţ de bun (în raport cu ce oferă) acest bilet de călătorie către viitor, către schimbare şi inovare, mai ales fiindcă vedeam schimbarea ca pe un moment de emancipare supremă. Pe deasupra, simplitatea și veridicitatea cu care am reuşit să îmi prezint arta în lumini și umbre, cu calități de plasticitate şi supleţe, sub forma unei ilustraţii fidele a rațiunii ce-mi călăuzea dimensiunea spirituală, au fost uşor-uşor ridicate la rang de principii ale designului. Este acelaşi principiu al identificării mele cu Marea Operă.

Nu oricine reuşeşte performanţa de a se raporta la un întreg mişcător, nepieritor, aflat într-o continuă dezvoltare şi expansiune, un întreg care te provoacă să te descoperi în timp ce redescoperi spațiul în care trăiești. Acelaşi întreg, definind prin prezenţa lui elementele unui tablou misterios în care se întâlnesc atât imagini vizuale cât şi numeroase metafore selectate cu minuţiozitate, îmbracă totul cu energia aceea pură, vie, stimulatoare, pe care doar în natură o poți găsi.

Leadership: Ce ai putea adăuga la tabloul unei existenţe care pendulează între iluzia unei normalităţi care este aproape uitată de cei mari, şi producerea unei realităţi care foloseşte materia şi o transfigurează?

Nu oricine este dispus să transforme un fir de iarbă într-un design bazat pe o viziune holistică, făcut pe măsura abordării unei tematici mai vaste şi mai serioase, cum este acea limbă sfântă care „leagă, prin sânge, pământul de popor". Şi, tot la fel, nu oricine reuşeşte să mute la propriu și la figurat, într-un simbolism poetic cuceritor, printr-un realism psihologic debordant, spectacolul unei vieţi obişnuite într-o carte de mare valoare care poate provoca, susţine şi chiar schimba perspectiva legată de modul în care este gândită, pentru viitor, geometria unei imagini care se repetă în diferite momente ale altor vieţi.

Chiar şi în plan fictiv, mă urmăresc cuvintele lui Oliver Wendell Holmes: "ceea ce pare umbra nopţii într-o minte se transformăîn rochiţa rândunicii în cealaltă minte".

Este şi motivul pentru care suprarealismul, inserţiile narative şi estetica aflată la limita ficţiunii, au prins un chip bine conturat în scrierile mele capabile să facă uz de reprezentări plastice. În aceeaşi măsură, interacțiunea dintre idealul estetic, judecata estetică, sentimentele şi convingerile esteticei, încă formează întregul învăţăturii mele.

Da. Cunoaşterea artei este imaginea cu care îmi place să mă descriu pe drumurile sufletului. Dar iată un alt motiv pentru care marea învăţătură, cu ale ei enigme cuprinse într-un simbolism îndrăzneţ, poetic, cuceritor, descrisă ca fiind un fel de viziune trinitariană. Fără să declanşeze o fugă fantastică de realitate, ea poate fi obţinută doar de cei puţini, nu de cei mulţi, de cei cu adevărat merituoşi, nu de parveniţi sau cei puşi pe parvenire. Cuvintele următoare, scrise de Gian Paolo Lomazzo cu multe secole în urmă, sunt grăitoare în acest sens.

Leadership: Este propria artă în stare să te asiste în sublima manifestare a unei imagini care îţi urmăreşte potenţialul ce merită cultivat continuu, fără să cadă în deznădejde sau în ridicolul de a "nu da bine" ?

"Nici strădaniile necontenite, nici învățătura îndelungată, nici ascuțimea minții, nici lecturile temeinice sau lecțiile de teologie, nici ajutorul astrologiei, nici figurile geometrice sau razele perspectivei, nici asemănările cu muzica, nici proporțiile aritmetice, ridicările arhitectonice, modelarea figurilor, mărturiile istorice sau născocirile poetice, nici exemplele de anatomie, nici înțelegerea trăirilor, în sfârşit, nici cunoștințele sau demonstrațiile filozofice nu vor putea face ca un om care nu s-a născut pentru a fi pictor să ajungă vreodată la o oarecare măiestrie în această artă, dacă n-a fost adică înzestrat încă din leagăn și din fașă cu darul invențiunii și cu harul picturii.

Căci numai acesta leagă și îmbină între ele cu o nespusă grație toate lucrurile amintite mai sus, cel care are din naștere acest dar. Şi, dimpotrivă, cel născut fără acest dar, oricât ar fi de respectat în meserie pentru meșteșugul și învățătura lui, nu va izbuti niciodată în lucrările sale să scape de acea lipsă de grație care le face nesuferite oricui le privește. Cât de adevărat este lucrul acesta atât pentru unii, cât și pentru ceilalți, se vede limpede la aceia care, nefiind născuți pentru a fi pictori, se apucă să muncească și să învețe imitând manierele altora, pe care nu-i pot ajunge însă cu nici un preț, nici pe departe.

Pe când ceilalți, care parcă s-au născut și au fost făcuți pentru pictură, îmbinând harul și însușirile înnăscute cu ceva învățătură și cunoștințe din disciplinele amintite, izbutesc din plin tot ce vor să facă, deși în maniere diferite, după felul talentului lor așa cum am arătat îndeajuns mai înainte."

Învăţătura care face cinste leadershipului este aceasta: cel ce are în el credinţa numită ştiinţă, va face din orice lucru o extensie a gândirii pe care numai arta o aduce evoluţiei umane.

Comoara care-şi urmează posesorul oriunde este acea învăţătură care încă din vechime i-a fost cunoscută lui Enoh, căutând să-şi facă drum printre mulţimea de bolovani care imită piatra naturală, dar nu se vor putea ridica niciodată la rang de diamant. Marea ştiinţă este busola unei vederi care nu încetează să se reinventeze.

Chiar şi acum mă simt vinovat că n-am dus propria-mi artă la acel nivel de desăvârşire unde critica devine o impietate, dar unde sufletul bun ajunge să fie purtătorul calităților artistice: expresivitate, profunzime şi sensibilitate. Ceea ce-mi dă, totuşi, o speranţă (care-mi încălzeşte pictura într-un spaţiu al expresivităţii scriitoriceşti), făcând ca însușirile mele să fie încărcate de tensiunea ideilor creatoare, este faptul că îmbinându-mi harul cu profunde cunoștințe din alte domenii, am reuşit să duc o ştiinţă numită leadership la rang de artă.

Companionul credincios al domnului Finch

On Martie 22, 2013

Încearcă să recunoşti la timp esenţa adevăratei tale naturi, pentru a nu estompa definitiv starea de spirit a celor cu care interacţionezi.

De această dată vreau să vi-l prezint pe domnul Gavin Finch, din filmul " Flawless (2007) ". El se ocupă cu ancheta în cazul dispariţiei diamantelor din London Diamond Corporation, numărul unu în lume de la acea vreme pe acest sector de business.

Ori de câte ori îl întâlnim pe domnul Finch, acest profesionist lipsit de orice urmă de "ţesut moale", suntem cu totul învăluiţi de intoleranţă şi lipsiţi de orice stimuli pozitivi care ar putea să ne mobilizeze reacţiile. Suntem introduşi în atmosfera lui ca într-o încăpere întunecoasă, bine ferecată, în care este sesizabilă doar o formă vagă, relativă de existenţă.

În perimetrul de desfăşurare a anchetei domnului Finch, fiecare individ este tratat ca un potenţial infractor. Din loc în loc patrulează această formă de simţire foarte rară, a cărei proprietăţi izolante îşi cresc densitatea şi se înăspresc ca după o descărcare electrică. O formă de mişcare zigzagată care pune în gardă orice angajat al companiei. Orice suflare sănătoasă din companie se risipeşte la fel de repede ca trecerea nopţii.

Abia cu încetul ne obişnuim cu această formă de deontologie profesională dusă până la paroxism. Căci domnul Finch este parcă înadins învăluit într-o oarecare obscuritate, nu poate fi descris decât prin nişte contururi umbrite care estompează starea de spirit a tuturor celor cu care interacţionează.

Leadershipul are ca principal determinant o situaţie particulară care nu este determinată în mod univoc prin prisma unui tipic situaţional, ci de posibilitatea unei turnuri a situaţiei dinspre "Dezamăgirea Egoului" spre "Învingerea Egoului".

Dar finalul filmului aduce în prim plan un alt atribut unic al domnului Finch, dezvăluind latura ascunsă a personalităţii sale. Când suspectul numărul unu, Laura Quinn, printr-un joc de planuri şi contraplanuri găseşte diamantele, domnul Finch este atins de cele sfinte, de radiaţia luminoasă a propriei şi adevăratei sale naturi.

Un erou al lui Alexandre Dumas nu se înşela când a spus: " Trufia bietei noastre firi omeneşti face ca fiecare să se creadă mai nefericit decât un alt nefericit care plânge şi geme alături de el. "

La vederea lacrimilor însoţite de sentimentul de vină al Laurei Quinn, ceva în el se luminează, refuză să se mai conformeze spaţiului umbrit. Sentimentul acesta luminos este scos în evidenţă de expresia chipului său, înmărmurit ca la vederea zeiţei bunătăţii care îl atinge cu bagheta însufleţitoare, transmiţându-i şi lui din forţa ei de acţiune. Această lumină vie aruncată spre el completează ceea ce nu se vede, golul său lăuntric.

Egoul care te face să judeci şi să simţi o anumită emoţie atunci când te afli în faţa unei situaţii destul de încurcate este un "must have" al momentului acordării unei iertări necondiţionate.

Când Laura Quinn încearcă să-şi recunoască vina, abia atunci manifestarea acestui Mefisto transformat în înger se vede cel mai bine, desfăşurându-se în marea lui splendoare. Căldura emoţională pe care ea o radiază aproape că îi umezeşte şi lui ochii, masca rigidităţii sufleteşti cade de pe chipul său - şi abia în acest moment imaginea lui este vrednic de a fi reţinută. Finch nu mai este poliţistul dur şi rece, ci mai degrabă un om înţelegător, milostiv, al cărui Ego se bazează pe atenţia venită din partea sincerităţii femeii îndurerate, găsind relevanţă în gesturile mărunte.

Inima lui se deschide. Ca nişte ghiocei grăbiţi, părţile cele mai ascunse ale fiinţei sale vor să iasă la lumină şi să împrăştie esenţă cu iz primăvăratic. Subtilul fluid sufletesc ce stăruie adânc în el începe să răzbată, să radieze ca dintr-o adâncă întunecime. Căci el nu poate să rămână total credincios naturii sale dominant-negative, ci este nevoit să dea contur nou sferei sale de acţiune care este tangentă în punctul lui maxim de transformare.

Toate în viaţă par când noi, când vechi, împletite într-o singură strună: myself . Omul şi-a întâlnit adevăratul sine.

Leadership: Acceptul tău de a fi egalul celorlalţi pe plan emoţional este privit ca o obligaţie morală, sau ca o alegere spre "corectează-ţi propria devenire greşită" într-un context de vulnerabilitate a caracterului numit "seninătate" ?

Seninătatea" de care depinde caracterul unui om de mare calitate se manifestă printr-o afecţiune puternică sau printr-o nevoie acerbă de a salva pe cineva, o puternică dorință de a forma și menține legături de ataşament.

Ţii seama de acei stimuli pozitivi care ar putea să-ţi activeze transformarea? Leadershipul tău este strâns legat de o formă de deontologie profesională dusă până la paroxism? Personalitatea ta poate fi descrisă doar prin nişte contururi umbrite? Personalitatea ta estompează starea de spirit a celor cu care interacţionezi?

Mi-a rămas întipărit în minte ceea ce spunea la un moment dat scriitorul francez Honore de Balzac: " Oamenii mari au mai des decât se crede nevoie de cei mai mici ca ei. "

Una din principalele condiţii impuse de leadership, aceea de a dobândi calităţile unui om cu adevărat mare, este să dai frâu liber laturii ascunse a personalităţii tale, să strângi propriul bagaj de trăsături pozitive, astfel încât să anulezi orice efectele negative pe care tu însuţi le vei suporta conştient. "

Această idee poate fi exprimată prin expresia: " ţine câinele departe de acei stimuli care îţi pot declanşa lătratul ". Dacă leadershipul tău suferă o pierdere grea, acest lucru se datorează companionului tău lăuntric care îngreunează direct sau indirect buna calitate a relaţiilor cu ceilalţi - forţa chemării înflăcărare de a spune "Da" oricăror excese de putere, hotărârea de a-ţi nega convingerile care îţi pot asigura stabilitatea şi continuitatea pe plan profesional şi social, dar şi pe plan personal.

A-ţi datora ţie însuţi sinceritate şi asumare deplină a rolului de bun ascunltator şi înţelegător în orice situaţie conflictuală, are ca substrat încercarea de-a transforma vulnerabilitatea propriului caracter într-o sursă de putere.

Leadershipul este dat de concepţia despre tine pe care ţi-o propui să te reprezinte pe plan profesional, stânjenitoare sau agreabilă. Caută în lumina propriei tale înţelepciuni toate resursele necesare care să-ţi dea forţa să acţionezi în concordanţă cu "replicile" pe care le primeşti din interiorul propriei tale inimi. Spune stop oricăror excese. Lasă părţile cele mai ascunse ale fiinţei tale să iasă la lumină şi să împrăştie esenţă cu iz primăvăratic. Dă contur nou sferei tale de acţiune care este tangentă în punctul tău maxim de transformare.

Cât timp poţi să rămâi total credincios naturii tale negative? Poţi să-ţi condiţionezi câinele să se oprească din lătrat, sau îl încurajezi să latre la fiecare trecător?

Leadership: Efortul tău de a fi înțelegător merită depus pentru că este foarte posibil să fie interpretat ca o dovadă de nevinovăţie în faţă provocării numite: "un impuls de moment pus sub semnul condiţionării de mare intensitate emoţională"?

Decât acceptarea unei dominanţe negative asupra personalităţii, propun ceva mai "light": ieşirea din această monotonie provincială îndreptată împotriva sinelui care stă şi la baza unui leadership ineficient. Sau chiar distrugerea ei completă, contribuind direct la formarea acelei "forţe de stânga" - oamenii pe care îi preţuieşti, cu care te-ai putea coaliza pentru a salva puţinul de lumină ce-a mai rămas în tine.

Cineva mărturisea pe Facebook: " Am învăţat că adevăratele comori ale unui om nu sunt cele din casa lui, ci acelea din sufletul lui. "

Atunci când te măsori cu ceilalţi oameni în încercarea de a te situa cumva mai presus decât ei, devii tot mai sărac, ceva se revoltă împotriva ta, ceva se rupe din tine instantaneu, ca la apăsarea unui buton. Iar atunci când pierzi o parte din tine, pierzi şi o parte din înrâurirea pe care ai putea s-o ai asupra lor.

Leadershipul scoate în evidenţă experienţa de a te examina din punct de vedere al unei atitudini care face diferenţa între ceea ce trăieşti prin consecinţele alegerilor tale şi ceea ce trăieşti prin prisma unui sentiment de apartenenţă la o cauză nobilă.

Companionul credincios al domnului Finch scoate în evidenţă efectul acceptării unei dominanţe negative asupra personalităţii, având ca rezultat dezaprobarea propriei persoane şi a propriei identităţi, care poate atrage după sine eşecul. Contribuţia pe care o aduci la realizarea temeliei felului tău de a fi, se reflectă în vieţile celorlalţi de lângă tine.

Te laşi robit de influenţa nefastă a laturii tale negative din perimetrul unui spaţiu umbrit? Cu ce completezi ceea ce nu se vede (golul tău lăuntric) pentru a-ţi ridica stima de sine? Rămâi total credincios naturii tale negative?

Încearcă să recunoşti la timp esenţa adevăratei tale naturi, pentru a nu estompa definitiv starea de spirit a celor cu care interacţionezi.

Compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului (II)

On Iunie 07, 2013

Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a transmite cât mai fidel şi mai autentic ceea ce simţi în relaţie cu experienţa vieţii, fără să te pierzi în desişul unei lumi din care nu mai poţi să evadezi.

Eram prins în deznădejdea unei clipe fără răspuns în faţa întrebărilor vieţii, o clipă de inefabil în care totul îmi părea străin, fiind dominat parcă de un impuls slab către un vis poetic bine definit, către o viaţă imaginară care nu-şi avea rostul decât într-o scriere dramatică fără prea mare relevanţă în faţa eternităţii. Divorţul dintre om şi viaţă, sentimentul absurdului căpătând tot mai mult teren, este o piedică pusă de soartă în faţa cuvintelor de care se agaţă curcubeul cunoaşterii fără memorie, fără amintire, fără speranţă.

Se vede de aici cât este de adevărat faptul că nu poţi să strângi în căuşul mâinii niciun prilej de exersare a cunoaşterii, indiferent de caracterul acţiunilor pe care le realizezi în viaţa de zi cu zi. Cu cât ştii mai mult, cu atât e mai mare supărarea şi lipsa de încredere în sensul vieţii, făcând ca singura mulţumire care te mai poate ţine în suspans, care îţi mai poate da un motiv de a continua lupta cu tine însuţi, reversul scrisului frumos, este să te pui în ipostaza unui Santiago, din romanul Bătrânul şi Marea : să te laşi condus de dorința de a-ţi afirma propria valoare, ca justificare a existenței.

În sfârşit, simţeam că valoarea unicităţii mele putea fi deprinsă chiar cu lucruri care, la început mi-au fost neplăcute, refugiul în realitatea lăuntrică, în prezentul etern al conştiinţei, putând fi mai bine înţeles din perspectiva unei lumi pe muchia haosului, între a fi singur într-o barcă şi a mă lupta îndârjit cu amărăciunea incertitudinilor. Nu era nimeni lângă mine, nu avea cine să mă susţină în niciun demers. De ce continui să-mi bântui gândurile cu tot felul de himere? De ce continui să rămân într-o relație oarbă cu viaţă?

Este adevărat că orice clipă de care mă agăţam reprezenta consecinţa condiţiei mele de convergenţă într-un punct A, în care se întâlneau doua tărâmuri diferite: dispoziţia de a mă uita la ceva ce mi se părea total anapoda şi dispoziţia de a mă investiga conform algoritmului specific vârstei și factorilor deprimanţi la care eram expus. Dar viaţa nu este întotdeauna o sferă de cristal care te traspune în lumea poveştilor, ea cere o întreagă melancolie a trecutului, goluri în suflet, o furie asupra omenirii, o separare de normalul unor trebuinţe fireşti.

Poţi să optimizezi accesul la zona leadershipului mergând pe potecile neînţelesului unei clipe de rătăcire disperată care, alunecând într-un context general, da impresia că s-a desprins din propria fiinţă?

O clipă de rătăcire seamănă cu o călătorie într-un loc necunoscut, orice acţiune sau gând lăsând o urmă care leagă cine ești de cine ai fost. În acest loc nu cunoşti pe nimeni, doar imaginaţia constituie un factor potentator de putere şi speranţă. Contextul general al evoluţiei tale în acest loc depinde de modul cum îţi gestionezi trăirile şi de modul cum îţi exprimi aceste trăiri printr-o activitate autentică (cum este scrisul).

Cercetarea ta, care ar trebui să aibă ca scop descoperirea unor noi câmpuri de extracţie a înţelesurilor ascunse în mecanismul care face posibilă sporirea ştiinţei, deci care vizează relevarea unor noi puncte de vedere şi a unor noi adevăruri care s-ar putea dovedi vitale pentru viitorul leadershipului, trebuie să aibă ca rezultat un "produs" care să te reprezinte şi să-ţi ofere avantajul de a-ţi personaliza rankingul.

Optimizează accesul la zona leadershipului mergând pe potecile neînţelesului. Reformulează criteriile de judecată cu care operezi, adoptă un sistem de gândire diferit de sistemul de gândire dominant, dezvoltă în permanenţă noi scheme, noi variante de răspunsuri la cât mai multe posibile întrebări fără răspuns.

Valuri de noi înţelesuri, realităţi şi perspective trebuie să-ţi inunde malul minţii, altfel ştiinţa nu te va putea reprezenta fidel, în culorile ei alternante, drept un inovator.

Adică ai face bine să cugeţi la ce ai făcut până acum şi, mai ales, la ce ai de făcut de acum înainte, pentru a putea să dai viaţa unei materii mai subtile şi mai valoroase, unor abordări mai sofisticate care să-ţi permită o autonomie mai mare de funcţionare.

Nu uita că cine nu este capabil să dea viaţă în fiecare zi unei noi construcţii aparte, sau unei viziuni cu totul diferite, în domeniul său de activitate, acela nu are dreptul şi puterea de a se numi profesionist.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea să lărgeşti cadrul de înţelegere şi de cuprindere a unei noi lumi care din punct de vedere literar îţi poate confirma participarea interioară la construirea unei noi identităţi?

În romanul "Perpetuum Mobile", scriitorul român Artur Silveştri, trecea prin acelaşi gol al vieţii ca şi mine, dar el îşi linişte a sufletul prin puterea cuvintelor adunate într-un jurnal care spera să fie citit după moartea sa:

"Tot înaintând, fără să cred, totuşi, că voi avea ceva mai mult decât nişte exerciţii de cabinet ce vor sluji cândva, poate niciodată, am băgat de seamă că, într-un anumit fel, între toate aceste propoziţii, adunate sumar în ceva nedefinit, se bănuiau câteva conţinuturi obsedante. Era, deci, o carte, adică o construcţie neîntâmplătoare adunată - în forma ce o puteam doar întrevedea - după anumite potriveli între gânduri, cuvinte şi idei."

Mult mai interesante, nu numai prin relevanţa lor, ci şi prin logica pe care îşi bazează verdictul, sunt răspunsurile la contestaţiile privitoare la abaterile tale de la drumul principal al existenţei tale în timp.

Forţa cu care sunt puse în valoare cunoştinţele extrem de adânci pe care le-ai acumulat despre leadership, sau despre orice alt domeniu de interes, determină rezultatul luptei pentru cucerirea deplină a sinelui, dar şi acea continuă activitate pentru cucerirea unei noi lumi de sensuri şi revelaţii.

Întemeiată ca o reacție împotriva orientării într-un stadiu al profundei înţelegeri ce nu implică oprirea alimentării vieţii cu noi sensuri şi esenţe multiple, introducerea unui nou motiv de credinţă şi satisfacţie prin intermediul unui joc al imaginaţiei, fără a-ţi pierde reperele în contextul încercărilor de a explica realităţile lumii, are drept scop o nouă ajustare calitativă a abordărilor extrinseci ale operei literare.

Construirea unei noi identităţi personale din punct de vedere literar ţine de modificarea factorilor şi aspectelor dilematice ale vieţii interioare prin intermediul mijloacelor poetice care potenţează înţelesul răscolitor al unei gândiri creatoare în relaţie cu limbajul unei esențialități spirituale.

Astfel, merită amintit ce spunea esteticianul Georg Lukacs: "Realistul de tip nou devine un specialist, un virtuos al expresiei literare a cărui specialitate este descrierea vieţii."

Compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului este o combinaţie de trăiri şi gânduri care induc în eroare prin înţelesul pe care îl ascunde personalitatea ta, pornind de la rătăcirea ta de-o clipă într-un labirint al ideilor şi elementelor inutile puse în text doar de dragul de a crea o altă realitate, şi terminând cu încercarea de aflare a sensului tău de a fi pe lume.

Compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului (I)

On Iunie 07, 2013

Adu ultima cărămidă la construcţia ştiinţei tale, scoţând la iveală necunoscutul din materia care se coagulează în jurul unui set de adevăruri nebănuite.

Am părăsit camera cu o senzaţie nelămurită şi ciudată, ca şi cum raţiunea îmi era subordonată unor impulsuri de comandă care generau o anumită presiune asupra minţii mele. Căci ajunsesem să cunosc marea taină, iar ea răsuna ca un avertisment, ca o bubuitură de tun, tot mai stăruitor. Purtarea pe umeri a unei măreţii devenite povară, înţelesul lumii, scopul vieţii, măsura tuturor lucrurilor, deveneau tot mai anevoioase.

O autoritate străină de modelul meu de gândire îmi direcţiona paşii, voinţa, abandonul. Nu credeam că mă voi mai întoarce niciodată în micul meu laborator, în care îmi alimentam ştiinţa cu noi analize.

Dar munca mea de-o viaţă, cercetările mele care aveau ca scop descoperirea unor noi câmpuri de extracţie a înţelesurilor ascunse în mecanismul care controlează trecerea timpului, observaţiile mele din decursul atâtor ani – totul a fost degeaba? Un gând mă pistona neîncetat: " N-ai terminat încă ! " şi mă atenţiona cu insistenţă: " Ai face bine să mai cugeţi la ce ai făcut până acum şi, mai ales, la ce ai de făcut de acum înainte ! "

În egală măsură, dar nu neapărat într-o anumită ordine, trebuie să-mi exprim recunoştinţa pentru acest capăt de drum. Căci am dat peste un nou început, am găsit un alt traseu de legătură cu poteca ce urcă spre vârful ştiinţei, cu firul de bază care duce spre adevărata cunoaştere. Un nou spaţiu se delimita într-o permanentă absorbţie de ceva necunoscut. O lume nouă renăştea, cu mai multă raţiune, cu mai multă convingere ca altădată.

Leadership: Poţi să extinzi graniţele capacităţii tale de a vedea orizontul unei noi ştiinţe, fixându-ţi coordonatele de gândire în jurul nevoii de a te redefini prin prisma înţelesurilor care îţi scapă?

Biologul englez, Rupert Sheldrake, a avansat ideea unor câmpuri de tipul "câmp formator" sau "câmp generator", câmpuri morfice, care aveau rolul de a menţine cunoaşterea oricăror fenomene, nu doar din lumea vie, ci şi din cea minerală sau chiar cuantică.

În sfârşit mi s-a adus ultima cărămidă pentru construcţia mea ştiinţifică. Aş putea încheia şirul cercetărilor mele printr-un adaos de forme şi efecte, printr-un artificiu de percepţie. Crearea unor câmpuri multi-valoare, de tipul "câmp formator" sau "câmp generator", din care să rezulte înţelesul şi subînţelesul lucrurilor, era, deci, posibilă.

Împins de un curent şi de un elan puternic, frământat de acea pătrunzătoare nevoie, de-a dreptul cuceritoare, de a sesiza semnificativul din lucrurile nesemnificative, mă adânceam, fără oprire, într-o stare tot mai acută de creaţie. Mai întâi de toate, ştiinţa reprezintă răspunsul la întrebările unei materii care se sustrage constant unei reducţii logice.

Fără restricţii, căutam să atribui noi valori, minime şi maxime, unor noţiuni neştiute, dar esenţiale. Căutam să atribui noi înţelesuri, mai subtile, unei cunoaşteri apriorice. Şi, sub acţiunea unui catalizator corespunzător, încercam să scot la iveală necunoscutul din materia care se coagulase în jurul unui set de adevăruri nebănuite, axiomatice şi inadmisibile, care încolţeau mereu în alte forme.

Orice înţeles care putea să-mi scape era corelativ cu obligaţia de a aplica ceva din filozofia de viaţă pe care o promovam în mod tainic ca pe-o virtute a unei teorii noi, ca pe-o destinaţie nouă a creativităţii. Chiar dacă susţineam cu o dăruire extremă noi puncte de vedere care se conturau în cadrul cercetărilor mele. Este evident faptul că mă implicam într-un joc extrem de laborios, captivant şi surprinzător prin capacitatea sa de a reconstitui un nou orizont intelectual.

Un joc în care gândurile despre compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului, a inexplicabilului şi inexistentului, puteau lăsa loc la noi interpretări, construind temelia unei noi ordini şi unei noi valorificări a inepuizabilului lor conţinut.

Leadership: Îţi pui ştiinţa înaintea tututor exigenţelor tale în materie de diversitate, ca o carte deschisă în care se vede clar orice semn de întrebare, dar nu şi contextul utilizării lor multiple?

O autoritate străină de modelul tău de gândire îţi direcţionează toţi paşii? Cugeţi la ce ai făcut până acum şi, mai ales, la ce ai de făcut de acum înainte? Eşti strâns legat de acel gigantic efort intelectual de a da noi valori unor înţelesuri subtile? Poţi să construieşti temelia unei noi ordini care să asigure o valorificare superioară a ştiinţei tale?

Înainte de a analiza de unde vine supradimensionarea unor merite, competenţe, sau diminuarea drastică a altora, din motive care ţin de specificul evoluţiei tale, trebuie să colectezi datele relevante pentru evaluarea a ceea ce te atrage in secret, dar greu de acceptat.

Dacă ştiinţa ta nu este alimentată constant cu noi elemente care să-i sporească valoarea, dacă munca ta de-o viaţă, dacă observaţiile tale din decursul atâtor ani nu se concretizează într-un bun care să figureze ca garanţie pentru calitatea pe care o va oferi leadershipul practicat, atunci cel mai probabil "rankingul" pe care ţi-l vor acorda ceilalţi va fi slăbuţ.

Ceea ce vine în completarea ştiinţei tale, şi se reflectă în oglinda leadershipului, sunt amănuntele care alcătuiesc mozaicul de preferinţe şi practici, cu constantele lor menite să asigure protejarea identităţii tale. Însăşi cercetarea bine gândită, aplicabilă în faţa celor două instanţe - a separării sau a fuziunii cu un real care nu poate fi negat - constituie motorul ştiinţei, factorul decisiv al progresului tău.

Numai un model nou de gândire poate să-ţi comande şi să-ţi direcţioneze paşii spre zone de perspective mai largi şi mai stabile, înlesnind legătura dintre "necunoscut" şi leadership. Necunoscutul este ceea ce te atrage, fără să ştii exact de ce, dar care îţi intră în obişnuinţa de a te vedea mereu cu alţi ochi.

Contextul utilizării multiple a semnelor de întrebare pe care te ţi le ridici vizavi de înţelesul lumii, scopul vieţii sau măsura tuturor lucrurilor, ţine de felul cum aduni informaţii despre lume (văzută ca un spaţiu necunoscut) şi de felul cum percepi experienţa de sine născută din logica strâmtă a lui "aici şi acum".

Compoziţia în timp a neînţelesului trasează îndemnul de a cugeta şi a găsi tâlcul prezentului, pornind de la cunoaşterea şi analiza trecutului. Acest proces se poate desfăşura abordând şi căi indirecte, ocolitoare, mai lungi şi mai laborioase, pe parcursul cărora poţi găsi elemente noi, omise printr-o abordare directă.

Concentrarea privirii într-un vis de inspiraţie divină

On Iunie 30, 2020

Marea Ştiinţă este măsura obiectivă a unui suflet care îşi etalează trupul într-o suprarealitate.

Pe parcursul vieţii mele, încântătoare, intensă, receptivă la subtilităţile artei, am fost binecuvântat să pot observa şi experimenta puterea divină a fiinţei mele interioare, din perspectiva unei priviri aruncate de-a lungul unei estetici a fanteziei, a iluminismului, a metaforei care necesită o privire modelată numai de sufletele cu valori spirituale înalte pentru a fi înţeleasă cu adevărat. Este o mândrie, nu o corvoadă să te ştii înălţător prin expresia artei pe care ţi-o aruncă în faţă sentimentul apropierii de fiecare tușă a pensulei și a lecturării ei minuţioase printre detalii impresioniste.

Iar drumul artei mele a fost, este şi va fi secretul unei priviri expresive şi luminoase, aruncată într-un vis care îşi redescoperă realitatea mereu într-o altă lume, făcută din cuvinte, dar trăind după regulile unei continuităţi a ceea ce aş vrea să numesc "Culoarea unei pânze de suflet înstinsă spre luminosul mâine" . Mai ales expresivitatea înstinsului unei mâini care poate apuca roadele alese ale artei şi ale ştiinţei, se redescoperă din privirile aruncate de artist în adâncul unui suflet a cărui realitate, plină de culori fermecătoare, este luminată de o formă de imaginaţie involuntară făcută să trăiască sentimentul înălţător al unei poveşti captivante, scrisă în genul lui Borges.

Un întreg arsenal al imaginarului inundă vederea artistului care îşi înmoaie pensula în suflet şi îşi pictează natura proprie în picturi pline de viaţă. Cred c-am ştiut să văd ceea ce puţini pot vedea, într-un vis cu multe conotaţii mistice, şi am văzut un soare, o floare a soarelui, un câmp plin de flori care completează orice design de grădină, culorile lor diverse, încântătoare, verdele ierbii, albastrul mării. Toate erau trecute prin filtrul unei priviri atente, dar blânde, aflată dincolo de cuvintele rostite de un scriitor înzestrat cu conştiinţă de pictor.

Leadership: Fondul tău sufletesc este strâns legat de arta cu care artistul se pricepe să păstreze asemănarea şi, totodată, să înfrumuseţeze originalul unei imagini despre sine care îl scoate din temporalitate, proiectându-l în eternitate?

Romanul unei creaţii lirice şi artistice ia naştere într-un univers inedit, mişcător, expresiv, unde două suflete devin unul singur, fiecare atrăgându-se până la unirea totală, a dorinţelor, a gândurilor, a emoţiilor. Orice frumuseţe a naturii îmi devine asemănare. Fireşte, pentru un scriitor ca mine, cu mână de artist suprarealist, orice parte a naturii devine un vis de mare însemnătate în perimetrul unei rostiri sufleteşti, neprihănite, dar impunătoare, care face ca o pânză de pictură, grunduită corespunzător cu miez de noapte, cu sclipiri de diamante, să fie expresiv percepută cu ajutorul unui conţinut simbolic şi vizual, ca o eliberare, o nevoie absolută de serenitate.

Pictura îmi este tot la fel de dragă precum stiloul, amandouă mă transpun într-o lume nouă cu arome fantastice. Iar dacă am avut mereu două vieţi încântătoare, caracteristice unei creaţii pline de bun gust, receptive la frumos, este pentru că arta mi-a schimbat orizontul într-un moment în care visul, cuprins într-o stare imparţială de reflectare a naturii, nu s-a lăsat bruiat de nelinişţea lumii în care mă socoteam al nimănui.

Şi dacă marele Creator a scris într-un vis universal povestea acestor două vieţi legate printr-un act de conversiune simbolică, cu vraja unei lumini miraculos încorporate picturii, tocmai pe terenul puterii de revigorare a acestei combinaţii de Roşu-Galben, asta se datorează puterii mele de a crede într-un fel de oracol, bine interpretat, care mi-a prevestit nemurirea într-un soi de transă.

O transă care m-a separat de viaţa celorlalţi, ajutându-mă să evadez din temporalitate, să mă detaşez, să mă reevaluez în termen de mii de ani, ca un act de realizare a unui echilibru între viziune, virtuozitate şi mister. Şi eu am fost o floare, un soare, o sclipire în noapte, prin contact cu estetica eului creator şi a creaţiei raportată la angajarea efectivă într-un univers simbolizat, perceput în materie picturală. Am fost Borges, dar am fost şi Leonardo DaVinci, îndeplinid rolul de călător între universuri, între cer şi pământ, între milenii - memorii, amintiri, jurnale, şi toate astea cu un singur stilou care încă se comportă ca o pensulă autentică.

Arta este starea fizică a omului transpusă într-o dimensiune a profunzimilor sufletului.

Numai Creatorul îmi este martor la cât de greu mi-a fost să devin un Creator, asemenea Lui, într-un vis în care florile iau locul cuvintelor prin întreaga înfăţişare a unei creaţii vechi, reînnoită pe ideea că un conţinut supranatural este din principiu miraculos şi previne conştiinţa receptorului asupra unei semnificaţii specifice a privirii. Privindu-te diferit, te priveşti acelaşi, dar într-un vis care se repetă, distingându-se prin originalitatea cu care artistul, stăpânind tehnica pensulaţiei, abordează conceptul unui suflet nemuritor prin organizarea unei întâlniri virtuale, aparte, cu marele Demiurg.

În manieră intrinsecă, studiul unei opere de artă poate să personalizeze adâncirea sensului unei existențe subordonate puterii visului. Iar aici se cuvine să-i fac loc celebrului scriitor, Jorge Luis Borges, să intre pe teritoriul spiritului meu pentru a scoate la iveală forma esenţială a ceea ce mi se întâmplă la nivel de subconştient:

"Câteodată mă bate gândul că orice viaţă omenească, oricât de încâlcită şi bogată ar fi, constă în realitate dintr-un singur moment: momentul în care omul îşi dă seama pentru totdeauna cine este. Începând de la acea revelaţie cu neputinţă de precizat pe care am încercat s-o intuiesc, personajul Carriego din povestea mea este însăşi doctorul Carriego din lumea reală. Tot astfel, începând de la cartea despre Carriego, scriitorul Borges care m-a şlefuit cu adevărat este acelaşi Borges, omul raţional dintr-un vis numit viaţă."

Legea fundamentală a ştiinţei care îmbină arta cu spiritualitatea, invocată şi promovată de iluminaţi, este să te metamorfozezi într-o ființă liminală care există parțial într-o dimensiune, parțial în alta.

Concentrarea privirii într-un vis de inspiraţie divină s-ar putea reduce la o formă de imaginație care presupune transportarea sinelui într-o altă persoană, încât să te poţi regăsi la un nivel mai profund de reconsiderare a artei din punctul de vedere al apropierii de o existenţă potenţială care se exprimă prin substanţă şi energie.

Condiţionările Leadershipului

On Martie 30, 2017

Raţiunea omului de a-şi demonstra dreptul la existenţă se împlineşte atunci când el îşi atribuie un scop mai înalt acolo unde nu este vorba decât de o consecinţă.

Totul din mine cerea un răspuns veridic, o comparaţie îndrumătoare între o lume vizibilă prin spectrul larg al medicinii şi o lume invizibilă prin spectrul neelucidat al unui fenomen biologic, demn de un science-fiction, numit Zombies, cu ameninţări mai sofisticate şi mai diversificate ce-mi complicau enorm viaţa. Asta, în măsura în care nu-mi puteam manifesta scepticismul faţă de evenimentele stranii, superioare distincţiei dintre bine şi rău.

Moartea era prezentă peste tot în jurul meu, şi era o consecinţă a incapacităţii de a interpreta un cumul de erori si efecte colaterale.

S-ar putea spune că esenţa cea mai profundă care mă ţinea într-o constantă stare de alertă, ca un fluid misterios deplasându-se prin efectul pulsaţiilor alternative la care eram supus, născute din jocul de-a geneticianul, era o nouă realitate a relaţiei experienţă-modelare a contextelor de răspândire a virusului - condiţie necesară progresului cunoaşterii. Toată treaba asta m-a costat un dezechilibru de ordin emoţional, care încă mai persistă.

Iată un indiciu preţios. Calitatea mea principală, a omului care își depășește limitele printr-o victorie asupra potențialul vătămător al realităţii, era aceea de a nu mă închide în mine, într-un imens cufăr al singurătăţii. Negreşit, şansa mea de a supravieţui unei lupte fără izbânzi din care învingători nu au cum să iasă, era un răspuns la recomandarea unui ecou care estompa starea de slăbiciune și de neputință. Parcă pentru a face în ciudă oricăror atacuri violente ale virusului, menţinute de tăcerea îndoielilor care împiedicau orice reacţie eroică.

Într-un timp relativ scurt, am ajuns la o stare de forță trecând prin tulburătoarele întrebări pe care evoluţia medicinii şi prodigioasa dezvoltare a virusului le ridicau în faţa mea. Aceasta s-a putut realiza numai consacrându-mă într-un rol pozitiv. Ceva îmi stârnea continuu interesul în manifestarea neputinţei de a mă împotrivi unui necunoscut care e însuși viitorul, asemenea unui Arsene Lupin încercând să se elibereze din strânsoarea soartei nefavorabile. Ceva care insista să mă convingă de propria-mi valoare luând mărunțișuri cu împrumut.

Leadership: Ești atât de plin de adrenalină încât să ataci menirea estetică a vieții pentru a-i atribui un scop mai înalt?

Am atacat menirea estetică a vieții plină de bucurii printr-o prevalenţă a experienței de a aparține unei lumi ce eşuează, ca să-i pot atribui un scop mai înalt: acela de a săvârşi o minune. Astfel, eu însumi trebuia să servesc nu ca o explicație plauzibilă a unor fenomene mereu incerte, independente de voința mea, ci ca o logică ce se înscria perfect în ecuaţia necesităţii de a spune „NU" oricărei experiențe prealabile a morții.

Mai cu seamă, am făcut dovada unui leadership axat pe aspectul experienţei ce are rezonanţă concomitent în ambele taine, viața și moartea, oriunde mergeam și indiferent de ce mi se întâmpla. În acest sens, adevărata măsură a leadershipului era tăria de a înfrunta o forță superioară pe care toată lumea o neglija, și pe care numai eu am folosit-o pentru a-mi amplifica capacitatea de a mă adapta unor situații noi: supravieţuirea.

Numai un maestru al întorsăturilor neprevăzute, numai un singur număr câştigător printre atâtea consecinţe fataliste ale unei presupuse apocalipse, numai un proiect unic la nivel mondial putea să se impună decisiv. Numai un sistem de informaţie inedit, dat de diferenţa între dinamica determinată a condiţiilor de răspândire virale şi baza de referinţă a condiţiilor de izolare a focarelor de infecţie, putea oarecum să domolească insistenţele răului de a conduce haosul lumii.

Opera unui adevărat artist în ale navigării prin oceanul de emoţii şi necunoscut se înscrie, dincolo de abstract, în structurile stării finale de acceptare a unui rol pozitiv în gigantica mutaţie de experiențe pe care le aduce legătura viaţă-moarte.

Metafizicianul francez Dom Deschamps a refuzat ideea unui Dumnezeu calificabil, căruia i-a substituit neantul ca imanenţă a Totului Universal. În realitatea mea nu se putea prevedea modelul de neutralizare al virusului ca unic mijloc de incubaţie. Şi asta cu atât mai mult cu cât totul părea supus unei forţe al cărei efect era identic cu cel al neantului: o formă de manifestare infecţioasă în jurul unei dimensiuni care nu se putea detecta endoscopic sau radiologic.

Cred că viaţa şi moartea nu sunt expresii ale apartenenţei la o ordine divină, ci expresii ale unei energii misterioase şi nemăsurabile care reglementează întregul lanţ trofic al unei noi puteri. Şi poate că această putere trebuie acceptată, respectată, recunoscută ca o abordare unică a patologiei numită ură, antipatie, repulsie faţă de ignoranţă și mediocritate.

Condiţionările Leadershipului sunt date de gradul de desăvârşire al omului în atmosfera unor timpuri care îi întind răbdarea la limita cunoaşterii experimentale, și de raţiunea omului de a-şi demonstra dreptul la existență în faţa contrastului dintre nesiguranţa vieţii trecătoare şi elementul activ, stimulator.

Gradul de desăvârşire al omului aparţine numai unei existenţe care se dovedeşte plină de incertitudini, pândită de groaznice primejdii, dar aventuroasă. Iar raţiunea omului de a-şi demonstra dreptul la existență se împlineşte atunci când el îşi atribuie un scop mai înalt acolo unde nu este vorba decât de o consecinţă.

Confesiunile unui alchimist incurabil

On Februarie 18, 2018

Împrietenește-te cu știința atât de mult, încât ea să facă totul în locul tău.

Încă din adolescență înțelesesem cât de naiv este să dai un sens evenimentelor clasificându-le drept „coincidențe", cu atât mai mult cu cât atenția îmi era concentrată asupra lucrurilor ce prezentau interes numai din perspectiva valorii pe care le-o atribuiam la nivel simbolic.

Totul se întâmpla într-un anume fel, enigmatic ca într-o ghicitoare a lui Borges, fiindcă lucrurile, alături de pasiunea de a le întoarce pe toate fețele, constituiau o încercare de a găsi planul ascuns al providenței, o formă subtilă de a face ca banalitățile vieții să fie semnificative chiar şi în contexte de genul: "nu mi s-a părut relevant".

Cu vădită satisfacţie, accesam lucrurile ca nişte uşi deschise spre o lume imperiu, tratându-le cu acea meticulozitate obsesivă întâlnită numai la cei născuţi cu predispoziţie pentru artă şi livresc, tot aşa cum vestitul Talleyrand îşi rearanja cărţile din bibliotecă: le aşeza la loc, le lăsa ca să le ia din nou, le cerceta ca şi cum ar fi fost vii şi acest exerciţiu, dând gândirii sale adâncimea experienţei de veacuri, împrumuta scrierilor o eleganţă de care autorii lor erau adesea lipsiţi.

Desigur nu puteam să ignor faptul că esenţa lor se putea oricând modifica, în felul în care artistul diluează vopselele pentru a obţine o altă nuanţă, o dată cu încercarea de a le încadra într-un mysterium magnum , într-o imagine cu mai multe teme derivate din ştiinţă, cu privirea înălţată către un punct invizibil numit: ficţiune.

Dacă alchimia este o lume renăscută prin aplicarea metodei comparațiilor, atunci eu eram artistul care picta simbolistica ei doar cu propriul sânge. Ştiinţa e un fel de magie care se regăseşte în lucrurile simple, dar tot atât de nevăzute ochiului normal.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi sensul atribuit creaţiei pe care o experimentezi prin raportare la lucrurile care îţi definesc autenticitatea, situate în opoziţie cu cerinţele stricte ale certitudinii?

Se poate observa că enigma era o parte din ceea ce mă definea drept o persoană discretă, mai ales când nimeni nu putea să mă înţeleagă dincolo de imaginea întoarsă a aceleaşi perspective de receptare a artei. Imaginarul izvorând din obligaţia de a deschide o fereastră de anticipare a lumii cereşti, care începe cu Aleph şi se termină cu Reflexul Invizibilului , era o convenţie necesară unui scop simbolic. Şi, prin aceasta, să-mi permit încercarea de a mă înălţa deasupra înţelegerii omeneşti.

Sensul creaţiei mele era justificat şi orientat spre Dumnezeu tocmai prin faptul că lumea fanteziei mele, prin multiplicarea formelor de expresie, nu avea sfârşit.

Uneori, mă simţeam prizonier în mijlocul investigaţiei unor informaţii tăinuite, o confuzie plăcută a resturilor de certitudini, un contrast subtil între fantezia debordantă şi felul în care lucrurile sunt cu adevărat. Încât nu ştiam ce e real şi ce se întâmplă. De parcă aş fi fost închis eu însumi în cutia Pandorei, fără a mă putea lega de speranţa numită "sintetizarea plauzibilului" care m-ar fi putut oricând elibera.

Asta îmi amintește de cuvintele scriitorului american William Shannon: "O persoană cu credință adevărată călătorește, nu fără dificultate, spre inima misterului. O astfel de persoană, își croiește drum prin întunericul din propriul său mister până când descoperă că propriul său mister şi taina lui Dumnezeu fuzionează într-o unică realitate, care este singură realitate."

Dar această realitate este similară neputinţei care te încearcă atunci când constaţi un adevăr de care nu te poţi apropia, pe care nu-l vrea nimeni, pe care nu-l pot răsturna excepţiile, deoarece îşi păstrează aceeaşi valoare astăzi ca şi în trecut. Prins în vârtejul unui inepuizabil „joc al formelor", până la reprezentarea lui într-o determinare materială care denaturează însăşi înţelegerea mesajului şi duce la grave erori de interpretare, eşti în sfârşit constrâns să apelezi la plauzibil.

Leadership: Ştii ce ar trebui făcut şi cum ar trebui făcut ca să ajungi să te redefineşti în direcția în care creaţia ţi se dezvăluie ca o chemare spre cele tăinuite?

Să te joci cu materia, să faci artă din elementele ei constitutive, este ca şi cum ai mulțumi diavolului pentru incandescenţa iadului obţinută într-un transformator de energie nucleară, personalizată de colajul suprarealist al unor exprimări preţioase, pline de un tâlc care scapă auditoriului, prin utilizarea unor conectori argumentativi în planul semnificațiilor şi al contrastelor de concepții.

Cine nu ştie să producă perfecţiunea unei simbioze artistice din orice formă a materiei în planul expresiei, acela nu este un alchimist veritabil.

Nicolas Flamel, creatorul Pietrei Filosofale, a primit într-o zi vizita unui nobil pe nume Cramoisy, ce fusese trimis de rege pentru a afla secretele ascunse în spatele averii sale. Acesta află că de fapt taina marii averi îşi are temeiul în realizarea nemuririi, ce poate fi cucerită numai prin triumful spiritului asupra materiei, prin transmutarea a ceea ce este omenesc în ceea ce este divin. Înainte să părăsească locuinţa, i s-a pus în vedere un singur aspect: să păstreze secretul !

Un om care se redefineşte în direcția în care creaţia i se dezvăluie ca o chemare spre cele tăinuite, este absorbit de aşa zisa ştiinţă a plenitudinii ce aparţine unei cauzalităţi ascunse, plecând de la interpretarea unor observaţii izolate şi mai ales de la o serie de analogii.

Să fii alchimist înseamnă să te împrieteneşti cu ştiinţa atât de mult, încât ea să facă totul în locul tău. Dar pentru asta trebuie îndeplinită prima condiţie a Pietrei Filosofale: direcţia în care mergi să fie presărată cu abundență de înțelesuri ascunse și subtile sugestii, elaborate cu o mare sensibilitate și forță creatoare, pentru ca secretul să nu-şi piardă niciodată puterea.

Secretul leadershipului, la fel ca în cazul alchimiei, sta în lărgirea orizontului de interpretare şi aplicare a cunoaşterii. Altfel spus, activează-ţi funcţia de creaţie şi afirmare personală ca produs al unei cauzalităţi omniprezente !

Confesiunile unui alchimist incurabil se opresc la o singură axiomă: Dacă te consideri stăpânul absolut al unei ştiinţe, înseamnă că ţi-ai exprimat certitudinea că poţi atinge Absolutul respectând o condiţie primordială: de a nu revela adevărata faţă a lucrurilor.

Confesiunile unui dependent de artă

On Ianuarie 17, 2018

Dă o expresie profundă conținutului pe care îl creezi, arătând drumul spre ceea ce îţi este propriu.

Mi-a fost dat să ating desăvârșirea, conceptul de mărturisire a adevărului ca mod de viață, pedepsită fulgerător prin reformularea succintă a convingerilor care constituiau premise indispensabile ale inteligibilităţii, către cultivarea misterului şi primirea unor inițieri cu rol benefic în evoluţia spirituală personală.

Misterul, chipul invizibil al realităţii de care mă loveam, instrumentul de muncă intelectuală ce se putea personaliza în nenumărate feluri, asemenea corzilor unei viori care are ecou în toate firimiturile universului, se adâncea într-un proces al transformărilor identitare cu un final greu de prognozat.

În mod predominant, îmi plăcea ideea de a folosi începutul şi sfârşitul unei acţiuni pentru a manipula o realitate care nu există și a găsi alte conotații decât o simplă reflecție a unui moment de genialitate, pentru a câştiga cu orice preţ o partidă numai de mine ştiută împotriva unui Ego care pusese prea multe măști peste suflet.

Un creator autentic își asumă datoria față de adevăr și valori superioare, permițând o conversiune de profunzime care poate avea ecou în conștiința universală.

Acceptând posibilitatea construirii unui tablou al desăvârşirii, într-un tempo exagerat la extrem, sub pretextul cinstirii unei înţelegeri clare a adevărului şi datoriei faţă de Dumnezeu, devenea plauzibilă o schimbare de sine majoră, o conversiune de profunzime, o transfigurare magică a unei situaţii care în viaţa de zi cu zi putea să nu pară la fel de interesantă. Nu ştiam, însă, că această manifestare de răspuns la tot ce mă apăsa avea să aibă un deosebit ecou în conştiinţa universală.

Nu mă refer la o umplere de sine cu imagini sugestive şi cu scrieri într-o limbă diferenţiată în oarecare măsură pe zone dialectale, remarcabile prin profunzimea expresiei realiste a unei respiraţii largi în spaţiul vast al compoziţiilor de mari sensibilitate ale artei.

Ci la o completare a motivelor posibile cărora le imprimasem o vibraţie inconfundabilă, mai ales prin puternica lor individualizare, printr-o schimbare de ordin mental, înscriindu-mă astfel în fondul cel mai înaintat al consumului de utilitate şi sens acordat formelor intelectului în labirintul cuvântului pur.

Leadership: Pentru a pune în valoare un conţinut plin de semnificaţie îţi îndrepţi atenţia asupra unei forme de comunicare ce apare modelată într-o lumină viu proiectată asupra virtuţilor artistice?

Motivele de ordin superior şi motivele de ordin practic imediat, precum abandonul total într-un succes personal sau calitatea unei viziuni care se ridică mult deasupra clişeelor şi prejudecăţilor vremii, aveau o evoluţie similară universului din care face parte conceptul artistului de a crea prin prisma unei realităţi puţin denaturată.

Pe atunci nu ştiam că în această manifestare de artă şi suflet există totodată o coincidență între asemănări şi presupuneri ce creează o lume iluzorie, complet falsă, dar în care eu credeam cu tărie şi încăpăţânare. Ele erau concentrate în expresia atât de sugestivă redată numai de un pictor, a unui sentiment care convinge prin percepţia pe care ţi-o formezi faţă de imaginea unicat, nerepetitivă, care e "imprimată" direct pe hârtie şi rămâne fixată acolo cu ajutorul gândurilor de final ale unui erou însingurat, dar nu şi înfrânt.

Cea mai importantă virtute artistică este colajul: procedeu artistic care constă în compunerea unui tablou prin lipirea laolaltă a unor elemente eterogene. Scrisul e o imagine a desăvârşirii ce se află în spatele oricărui proces de receptare a creaţiei artistice din elemente fine şi diferite. Explodând, ele avansează spre un model de originalitate care este extrem de compatibil cu o viziune ce oferă ideilor novatoare posibilitatea de a lua formă şi de a se materializa.

Leadership: Răspunzi pe deplin unei perspective de receptare şi interpretare a realităţii racordată la sensurile unei opere care impresionează nu numai prin ineditul mărturisirilor, a imaginilor cuprinzătoare, dar şi prin consecvenţa cu tine însuţi?

Din "Pendulul lui Foucault" am reţinut că lumea este plină de corespondenţe minunate, de asemănări subtile. Trebuie să le pătrunzi şi să ieşi satisfăcut din odaia lor, să te laşi pătruns de ele cu ajutorul visului, al oracolului, al magiei, care îţi îngăduie să acţionezi asupra naturii şi a forţelor ei punând în mişcare asemănătorul prin asemănător.

Cuvintele se duc singure în căutarea Cuiva, manifestându-se în expresii de care ai putea avea nevoie atunci când concepi o lucrare colosală de tip Fine-Art. Prin judecarea logică a unei situaţii se ajunge la anumite concluzii sau puncte de vedere care, la rândul lor, pot provocat reacţii la nivel emoţional.

Bineînţeles, calitatea activităţii cognitive care produce cea mai fertilă orientare a fiinţei mele, prefăcută într-un mister aparte, aproape uneori imposibil de dezlegat, se face semnalată pe lungimea de undă a curiozităţii. Totodată, ea produce o formă de comunicare prin redescoperirea importanţei limbajului artistic, o pendulare între contrarii, o permanentă ambivalență, fundamentându-se între reflexul trăirilor de moment şi pulsiunile estetice, nemărturisite, ce ţin de cerinţele celei mai înalte forme a firii mele: puterea de creaţie.

Adăugate pe scara ascensională de la realitate la sentiment, asigurând trecerea de la reprezentarea figurativă a realităţii, la exprimarea esenţei lucrurilor care reînnoiesc în mod revoluţionar limbajul plastic, toate acestea se potrivesc spaţiului de producţie al unor noi forme de generare a valorii de unicat atribuită scrisului.

Consecvenţa cu tine însuţi se impune ca regulă de bază în desăvârşirea unei opere atunci când la exprimarea esenţei lucrurilor contribuie expresia sufletului actualizat în planul logicii sau tumultul de sentimente care te încearcă ori de câte ori vrei să schimbi "backgroundul" unei imagini.

Orice NIMIC se poate transforma într-o CAPODOPERĂ doar cu ajutorul scrisului, în aceeaşi măsură cum figura centrală a unui tablou întregeşte şi întăreşte emoţia pe care o produce imaginea în ansamblul ei.

Încearcă să cauţi o anumită stare sub învelişul cuvintelor, un mod pe care să tinzi să-l exploatezi prin prisma vizuală, marcată îndeosebi de filmul alb-negru al unei vieţi care se consideră sclipitoare prin tocmai această forţă de concentrare într-o singură figură a unor idei cuprinzătoare ce accentuează sentimentul verticalităţii lucrării.

Confesiunile unui dependent de artă se situează într-un echilibru fragil, între parcurgerea drumului pe care îl deschide atingerea desăvârşirii şi imaginea sinelui care coincide într-o proporție foarte mare cu acea realitate a diversităţii în unitate.

Confruntarea titanilor

On Ianuarie 15, 2013

Conferă consistenţă şi flexibilitate leadershipului tău, depăşind barierele convenţionale autoimpuse.

Tot timpul am fost convins că nimic nu controlează mai mult Omul , esenţial şi definitoriu, în afara genelor sale, în afara naturii sale predominante, decât acţiunile sale, ale cărui urmări nu le poate prevedea.

Fie şi numai din acest punct de vedere, un acru şi gratuit concept al fărâmei mele de existenţă, aş fi putut ceda irezistibilei tentaţii de a trăi, derutant, ironic şi sec, un alt timp, o altă realitate. Tranziţia spre o etapă absurdă a cunoaşterii de sine, degradantă, care mă putea arunca pur şi simplu într-o veritabilă disperare.

Singura lumină a existenţei mele era mai mult secundară "luminii primordiale". Modul meu de a accepta viaţa de zi cu zi contrasta parcă cu nevoia crescândă, aproape maniacă, de a trăi ceva diferit şi de a acţiona conform reprezentării unor legi antagonice. O amăgitoare ipostază pe care nu mi-o imaginasem, dar pe care trebuia să mi-o asum cu acelaşi sentiment de vinovăţie pe care îl poartă în suflet un judecător care îşi asumă nişte prerogative care nu intră în competenţa lui.

Mă izbeam necontenit de dificultăţi la care nu mă aşteptam, o ambiguitate întreţinută de contradicţii spontane. Provocată pe de o parte de o stare de nehotărâre cauzată de un proces de schimbare care nu a fost dus până la capăt, iar pe de altă parte de existenţa opoziției dintre curajul de a mă privi în faţă, voinţa a mă desprinde de individualism, putinţa de a-mi deschide ochii, inima, perspectivele de viaţă spre varii orizonturi.

Într-un cuvânt, eram tentat să rivalizez cu autoritatea mea proprie.

Leadership: Eşti tentat să te raportezi la imaginea oglindită în miezul experienţei de a te întâlni pe tine însuţi în varianta reprezentării unei realităţi privilegiate exprimată în termenii de "unitate contradictorie"?

Existenţa mea era deformată, fragmentată asemenea unui nor care încet îşi schimbă forma, de câteva încercări de reabilitare proprii. Părea că niciuna nu putea fi dusă până la capăt. Practic, învăţasem să mă privesc ca pe o unitate contradictorie: chiar dacă nu voiam să mă accept ca pe un nonconformist incurabil, eram totuşi obligat să o fac.

Mă simţeam năuc, ca acel negustor care, întorcându-se dintr-un pelerinaj făcut la Mecca, se opreşte lângă o fântână. După ce mănâncă nişte curmale, aruncă sâmburii în aer – iar unul din sâmburi ucide pe fiul invizibil al unui duh aerian. Când află de crima lui – consecinţa unei acţiuni necalculate, toate regretele îi năpădesc fiinţa.

Mă izolasem într-un spaţiu stăpânit de frământări, temeri şi regrete.

Ceva ciudat îmi stârnea curiozitatea în direcţii din ce în ce mai multe, fără a satisface nici una din ele pe deplin. Ar fi trebuit să adopt o poziţie fermă, reformatoare, pozitivă, salvatoare. Să nu săvârşesc un act ale cărui urmări nu le pot prevedea. Într-o anumită măsură era un refuz tacit de a mă decupla de la orice frustrare care se aduna ca o tensiune internă, impunându-mi tot mai multe oprelişti – care dacă nu era tratată ajungea să devină tipar şi în cele din urmă trăsătură de personalitate.

Însă, exact pe dos se situau lucrurile. Adoptasem o poziţie neclară, instabilă şi umilă, care îmi dădea de înţeles că sunt de acord cu ceea ce îmi ordona "autoritatea" din mine, acest organ de comandă care îmi influenţa felul de a fi. Această putere sfidătoare, acest Javert lăuntric, nestăvilit de o datorie neîndurată, poliţienească, care stătea la pândă până mă surprindea cu garda jos, - în loc să mă sprijine, mă tulbura în cel mai profund mod posibil.

Eram pus la zid de propria mea personalitate, de firea mea absolut contradictorie, de propria mea încremenire într-un anumit stadiu al evoluţiei. Un grad minim de flexibilitate, şi aş fi putut să mă regăsesc, aş fi putut să înţeleg ce-i cu mine, ce vreau, de ce procedez în felul în care o fac, de ce simt așa cum simt, de ce încă mai sunt o insulă ascunsă în mijlocul unei mări furtunoase.

Leadership: Ești nevoit să proiectezi o nouă traiectorie a personalităţii tale în varianta angajării într-o acţiune temerară de răsturnare a aparenţelor care devin permanente pe linia unei minţi obosite de o realitate aflată puţin mai departe de vederile ei?

Cedezi tentaţiei de a trăi derutant o altă realitate? Tranziţia ta spre etapă deplină a cunoaşterii de sine cauzează o anumită doză de frustrare? Modul meu de a accepta viaţa de zi cu zi contrastează cu nevoia crescândă de a trăi ceva diferit? Acţionezi conform reprezentării unor legi antagonice?

Înţelegerea propriei realităţi, cu tot ceea ce reprezintă ea în drumul tău spre desăvârşirea personală, se poate dovedi a fi o mare povară, un proces ireversibil care nu poate curge decât într-o singură direcţie: spre involuţie. Această înţelegere definitorie a ceea ce eşti şi a ceea ce reprezinţi în trecerea spre o treaptă superioară de dezvoltare, poate avea efect secundar – ea poate restrânge orizontul aşteptărilor cu care priveşti viitorul, limitând orice cale de acces spre excelenţă.

Nu poţi să-ţi trăieşti viaţa în leadership decât mergând înainte, înţelegând mai bine cu ce fel de persoana ai de a face – propriul tău Eu. Dar acest Eu, ca un munte care stârneşte o avalanşă pe neanunţate, îţi poate redirecţiona atenţia asupra unor defecte pe care nu ţi le accepţi, asupra unei realităţi degradante, bazată pe o cunoaştere de sine inferioară. O explozie în personalitatea ta pe care n-o poţi stăpâni, care te poate arunca pur şi simplu într-o veritabilă disperare.

Leadership: Cum rivalizezi cu autoritatea ta proprie de pe poziţia unui om dezorientat care își suspendă celelalte simțuri ale orientării din perspectiva unei existenţe care se refuză privirii curioase a unui follower, închizându-se în sine?

În romanul " Gambitul calului ", scriitorul american William Faulkner exprimă o părere: " Ca să afli cum va dormi călăreţul la noapte, întreabă calul. "

Și oamenii puternici, dar mai ales ei, sunt la un moment dat vulnerabili. Şi tu vei fi la un moment dat pus în postura călăreţului, învăluit într-o ceaţă densă, unde nimic nu se vede. Expus în faţa unei stări de confuzie, care îţi şopteşte într-una: "nu ştiu ce să fac, nu ştiu ce să simt, nu ştiu cum să mă descurc cu situaţia asta" . Însoţit de o impresie falsă creată de o realitate dură, asemenea unei fiinţe neştiutoare pe care simţi nevoia să o protejezi.

Pe de o parte, prezenţa constantă din viaţa ta va fi întotdeauna "Calul" - piesa de şah unică prin modul de a se deplasa, desemnând necesitatea, nădejdea de eliberare din această stare, o oglindă perfectă a modului cum tratezi cu tine însuţi – cu autoritatea ta proprie care restrânge orizonturile. “Calul” te previne, îţi furnizează acel grad minim de flexibilitate, de a te regăsi. Nu există reţeta mai bună pentru reuşită, decât transpunerea ta într-o realitate favorabilă.

Dar pe de altă parte vei fi expus acelei puteri sfidătoare, tendinţei de a te lăsa integrat în capriciile şi modele unei gândiri nefaste – te vei afla sub autoritatea acelui Javert lăuntric, care stă la pândă până când te surprinde cu garda jos, tulburându-ţi existenţa în cel mai profund mod posibil.

Dacă adopţi o poziţie neclară, instabilă şi umilă, vei da de înţeles că eşti de acord cu ceea ce îţi ordonă această autoritate din tine, acest “ organ de comandă ” care îţi influenţează felul de a fi, personalitatea, şi deci stilul de leadership pe care îl practici.

Un follower este acea stare care te face să-ţi câştigi sau să-ţi pierzi motivarea, care te cuprinde dintr-o dată și pe care nu prea știi cum să o apuci și mai ales de unde, în funcţie de realitatea pe care o pretinzi a fi singura opţiune de acceptare a sensului vieţii.

Schimbările pozitive care au loc în stilul tău de a conduce, se produc mai întâi la nivel central, în structura ta de personalitate. Fă leadershipul tău valoros, adaugă-ţi permanent un plus de valoare, de energie şi putere.

Luptă-te constant cu tine însuţi, cu acea parte din tine pe care n-o poţi birui uşor, cu Javert. Depăşeşte aspectele contradictorii ale propriului tău Eu. Evită orice încremenire într-un anumit stadiu al evoluţiei. Nu este de aceea lipsit de importanţă ce credem, mai exact spus: ce aşteptăm azi de la viitor, pentru formele concrete în care el se va realiza mâine.

Eşti cuprins de un sentiment de vinovăţie fabricat de o amăgitoare ipostază, de o stare de nehotărâre datorată unui proces de schimbare care nu a fost dus până la capăt? Eşti tentat să rivalizezi cu autoritatea ta proprie?

Leadershipul este ceea ce-ţi impui ţie însuţi ca sens al vieţii care trece dincolo de conţinutul gândurilor, într-o realitate al cărei conţinut nu vei putea niciodată să-l cuprinzi complet.

Confruntarea titanilor desemnează acea luptă permanentă dintre cele două laturi din tine însuţi – o latură care te surprinde cu garda jos, care te face să te vezi cu ochi critici, denaturându-ţi personalitatea; şi una care te avantajează, aducându-ţi o mulţumire specială. O luptă dintre doi titani, din care iese un singur învingător: leadershipul.

Consideraţii despre dimensiunea cheie a leadershipului

On Noiembrie 22, 2013

Leadershipul este trecerea ta de la statutul de "personaj scăpat din imaginaţia unui romancier" la o imagine a puterii reflectate în oglinda unei existenţe constituită ca un vârf al virtuţilor.

Scriitorul român, Anton Dumitriu face trimitere la un moment dat la opera lui Miguel de Cervantes, făcând pe scurt un rezumat al poveştii în care apare Don Quijote:

"Vom spune că experienţele trăite de recipiendări în iniţierile autentice erau tot atât de neverosimile pentru bunul simţ, pe cât de nebuneşti apar acelea ale cavalerului cervantesc. În prima călătorie, don Quijote este iniţiat la han şi armat cavaler. În a doua călătorie, cavalerul face experienţa aerului, în bătălia cu morile de vânt. În sfârşit, în a treia călătorie, el face experienţa tuturor experienţelor.

Mai rămâne un singur lucru esenţial, pentru ca schema în care se desfăşoară acţiunile lui Don Quijote să fie exact aceea iniţiatică: scopul pe care îl urmăreşte cavalerul. Acesta ni-l dezvăluie însuşi Don Quijote adresându-se lui Sancho Panza:

Prietene Sancho, află că m-am născut din voinţa cerurilor în vârsta asta de fier în care trăim, ca să pot reînvia la vremea ei vârsta de aur, sau vârsta aurită cum i se zice de obicei. Eu sunt cel căruia i-au fost destinate primejdiile, faptele mari, isprăvile de vitejie, eu sunt, mai spun odată, cel care trebuie să reînvie pe cavalerii "Mesei Rotunde".

Nu există niciun dubiu asupra idealului urmărit de Don Quijote: este acela al cavalerului rătăcitor, de a căuta Graal-ul, adică de a căuta să ajungă la starea originală a omului reprezentată de epoca de aur." *****

Leadership: Acţiunile tale se ancorează într-un ideal foarte îndrăzneţ, pe drumurile destinului pierdute în orizontul unei vieţi pe care nu vei reuşi să o prinzi niciodată din urmă?

Leadershipul cel mai puternic este o aventură pe cont propriu, dar şi un risc asumat. Este rezolvarea unei ecuaţii dintr-un număr nelimitat de necunoscute. Este rezultatul explorării unei noi cunoaşteri vitale, a unei filosofii personale despre sensul vieţii, care te seduce cu multă aventură, prin extragerea şi reprezentarea unei realităţi dintr-o lume dezlănţuită, după ce ţi-ai confruntat propriile reacţii şi credinţe.

Hotărârea de a-ţi pleda personal convingerile şi cauza, fără să funcţionezi în rutina unei gândiri care te determină să ajungi în permanenţă la concluzii negative, te ajută să faci schimbări de ansamblu, să măreşti efectele reinventării sale, să le permanentizezi. Dar trebuie să gândeşti şi să anticipezi efectele fiecărei mutări pe care o faci, căreia să-i atribui tot mereu un alt înţeles, ca într-o ecuaţie cu mai multe necunoscute din care trebuie să extragi "adevărul", un sens pe care, mai întâi de toate, îl poţi atribui propriei tale existenţe.

Să fii mesager al unui destin revelator de noi semnificaţii înseamnă să te consideri câştigător într-o întrecere cu tine însuţi, în care ai şansa să reînvii imaginea unui erou care săvârşeşte o ispravă măreaţă.

Formulele de leadership ieftin, arta accesibilă tuturor prin intermediul programelor şi instrumentelor de dezvoltare personală, au obsedat ani de-a rândul indivizii din toate categoriile sociale. Aproape la toate seminariile, în aproape toate cărţile se extinde termenul de "schimbare" prin filtrul a trei condiţii: muncă, suflet şi creativitate. Dar nimeni nu tratează în profunzime ideea de "reprezentare a unei realităţi dintr-o lume dezlănţuită" , iar tocmai de aici se pot extrage cele mai multe învăţături despre modul cum trebuie să te raportezi la ceea ce este important de făcut în lume, deci a avea o cultură a implicării civice, a participării la ceea ce trebuie făcut pentru a schimba în bine societatea.

Cum poate deveni leadershipul ieftin? Prin propuneri de extindere a sensului atribuit unei vieţi lipsită de provocări, fără ideal, fără implicaţii profunde, fără viitor. Se propun soluţii care, ulterior experimentate, se dovedesc, deseori, nerentabile: aplicarea unor metode, cumva consacrate, ca nişte obiectele de larg consum, urmând ca fiecare individ să posede acasă aceste obiecte care pot îndeplini o funcţie utilă. Analizându-le, ei pot descoperi mereu ceva nou, dar incomod sau neconcludent.

Rezultatul? O minte încinsă de idei efemere. O gândire întortocheată, îndreptată în general spre absoluturi, inspirând prea puţină încredere, ce te determină să ajungi în permanenţă la concluzii greşite şi la rezultate nesatisfăcătoare. Astfel intri într-o zonă strict delimitată, din care nu mai poţi să ieşi.

La fel cum pictorul observă profund expresia fizionomiei modelului, fixând apoi pe pânză un ansamblu de trăsături care nu sunt decât expresia momentului – tot astfel şi dezvoltarea leadershipului se bazează pe un proces de auto-observare, de auto-inventare, de interpretare a percepţiilor care au impact asupra fiinţei tale. Leadershipul, privit din perspectiva efectelor unei realităţi greu de crezut, fixează după o amănunţită analiză a sinelui în relaţie cu situaţiile de moment în care te pui, un set de trăsături de caracter care te distinge de oamenii din "linia a doua".

Orizontul unei vieţi pe care nu vei reuşi să o prinzi niciodată din urmă este supus unui destin pe care te simţi întru câtva dator să-l împlineşti prin asumarea condiţiei de substituit al unei neînvinse meniri: de a te elibera de rigorile evenimentelor ce par a avea loc numai într-o poveste.

Iar un erou care săvârşeşte o ispravă măreaţă, constând în revelarea unei cunoaşteri mai atente despre sine însuşi şi despre lume, este un exemplu al virtuţilor cele mai înalte: de a fi amănuntul împrejurărilor care favorizează o anumită alegere şi de a fi determinatul conştiinţei care condiţionează percepţia asupra vieţii.

Consideraţii despre dimensiunea cheie a leadershipului sunt necesare atunci când se caută a descrie parcursul omului de-a lungul unei călătorii care începe cu dezordinea unei lumi fără busolă, ostilă şi indiferentă, trecând mai apoi de la regăsirea de sine la regăsirea condiţiei umane într-un context de învăţare experienţială, plin de virtuţi.

Constellation Of Tatyana

On Mai 29, 2018

Când stai de vorbă cu tine însuţi se văd limpede însuşirile fiecărui lucru la care meditezi.

A trebuit să mă uit cu atenţie în direcţia unei convingeri exprimate în limbaj estetic, despre pluralitatea lumilor contopite într-un univers paralel, poetic în măsura în care reflecta figura unui spirit creator şi vizionar. Astfel, mi-am găsit puterea să rătăcesc ca o stea căzătoare în somnul unui gând pur, urzit în jurul unor legi seculare, doar ca să înţeleg ce înseamnă preţul unei versiuni infinit-dimensionale a teoremei de inversare a polilor unei scrieri misterioase, de peste timpuri adunată în temeiul unei strânse uniuni cu marele Tot.

După cum planetele posedă o filosofie perfectă a întregului din care vrând-nevrând facem şi noi parte, tot astfel înaintarea mea într-un vis fără margini poseda eternitatea materiei strânsă într-un singur moment numit „resurecţie a lirismului".

Era ca un fel de promisiune adusă nemărginirii de dincolo de graniţele acestei lumi, originalul artistic fiind împlinit din unghiul insistenţei unei raţiuni care se îndepărtează de simţurile momentului pentru a deveni o aventură totală şi tainică într-o dimensiune fantastică. Nu bănuiam că necunoscutul acesta al unei suprarealităţi ipotetice, fermecătoare şi nefirească, tulbure ca un amurg sub cerul decolorat de reflexul aurorei boreale, generând o nelinişte mai adâncă decât împărăţia morţii, va fi o lecţie de pictură în culorile unei poveşti unice.

Pentru prima oară ochii mei întâlniră privirea unui haos organizat, desenat ca într-un tablou de Lynette Cook, uimind prin triada gri-cenuşiu-negru, culorile ocultului şi întortocheatului, ajungând să mă stăpânească prin amestecul impur cu albul unei singure pagini fără margini. Preţ de câteva secunde astrale m-am simţit încadrat în cuprinsul descrierii cu care Victor Hugo îşi caracteriza la un moment dat personajul:

"Jean Valjean tresărea în adâncul fiinţei sale. Nu vedea nimic, nu ştia nimic şi, cu toate acestea cerceta cu atenţie încăpăţânată întunericul care-l învăluise fără voia lui, ca şi cum ar fi simţit că de o parte se năştea ceva nou şi mai bun în el, de altă parte se năruia cu totul."

Leadership: Esenţa operei tale provine în mod paradoxal din asocierea unei realităţi ocultate cu reflectarea sa într-o formă artistică care ajunge să plonjeze într-un extaz al profunzimilor spiritului?

Deprinderea artei este parte a unui joc metaforic al încifrării şi descifrării sufletului de la om către lume prin intermediul cromaticii şi al aspectului compoziţional, putând fi prezentată într-un admirabil joc al perspectivelor, de la apropiat la depărtat, de la terestru la cosmic. Cunoaşterea ei este un proces complex de conştiinţă, care provoacă emoţii, impresii, sentimente şi idei în cadrul practicilor de percepţie, reprezentare, interpretare şi creaţie.

Când peisajul din jur ţi se dezvăluie întunecat şi cenuşiu, deşi ferestrele conştiinţei strălucesc de culoare şi lumină, când "Cerul lui Saturn" creat din lumina primei inteligenţe se întâlneşte cu viitorul simbolizat de o mască tristă şi una veselă, înţelegi că de fapt la originea acestui mare Tot se află istoria unei vieţi rătăcitoare într-un labirint care conduce la nefiinţă.

Universul este o povestire cromatică desfăşurată pe firul unei vieţi rătăcitoare, unde sufletul aflat între nimic şi un simplu atom încearcă să-şi suporte nesfârşirea, ca într-un glob colorat uluitor de diferit faţă de peisajul sumbru care-l înconjoară.

Fiindcă mă angajasem la determinarea unei legi divine pe durata medie a unui vis, cu ochii deschişi, într-un imaginar simbolizat prin culorile alb şi negru ale unui spaţiu restrictiv, unde evadarea devenea o formă de misticism, n-am sesizat cât de mult mă îndepărtasem de mine, de împlinire, de fericire, pentru a gusta o mică parte din viaţa unui sistem solar în care toate cele şapte planete ale sale aveau dimensiuni similare cu Terra.

De fapt, căutam o adevărată epopee a spiritului uman pornit la asaltul enigmelor universului, o valoare ştiinţifică de unicat asumată prin dinamismul decurs din expresia stimulată a culorii numite "Glow în the dark".

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi încadrezi conştiinţa în limitele fixe ale unui tablou care îşi poate redimensiona conţinutul printr-o fină modelare a intensităţii cu care îţi exprimi obsesia pentru zonele mai puţin sau deloc umblate?

Esenţa operei mele se alimenta mai mult dintr-o realitate ocultată, adică greu de imaginat, poate doar intuită, fiind capabilă să facă timpul să circule în direcţia trăirilor cele mai profunde pe care mi le pot revela „Precum în cer, aşa şi pe pământ”, prin prisma raportului de apartenenţă la un mediu spaţial-artistict distinct. Aceste trăiri săgetate prin gânduri tindeau spre o reînnoire spirituală a lumii, spre o regăsire a esenţelor umanului ameninţat cu degradarea.

O călătorie iniţiatică în inima unei lumi fantastice şi tăcute, pe fondul unui dialog cu lucrurile aparent imposibile, o singură simţire încremenită în nemurire, m-a făcut să devin personajul principal al unei monografii dedicate straniei împărăţii a lui Dumnezeu. Diferenţa de nivel existenţial la nivel de paralelism dimensional era lăsat doar în seama perspectivei de lectură a unei infinităţi de lecturi anterioare posibile, identificate printr-un demers subiectiv creator.

Să mi se ierte greşeala de a fi îndrăznit o asemenea comparaţie, dar îmi era la îndemâna subiectul unui desen suprarealist, plăsmuit între miracol şi miraj. O putere magică mi-a orbit ochii, dacă nu vedeam ce chip minunat, ce ochi strălucitori şi ce trup înfiorător putea să coloreze o anumită porţiune dintr-o sferă cerească exact delimitată, The Constellation of Tatyana.

Aproape sigur, eram în stare să-mi încadrez conştiinţa în limitele fixe ale unui tablou care îşi putea redimensiona conţinutul printr-o fină schimbare a intensităţii cu care îmi exprimam obsesia pentru zonele mai puţin sau deloc umblate, acolo unde omul tot speră, de câteva milenii, să afle dacă cineva, acolo sus, există ca entitate fizică, nu doar spirituală.

Singurul meu Dumnezeu este limbajul alchimic al universului, carnea vie a unei gândiri care se străduieşte să dezvăluie totul a priori.

Leadership: Dimensiunea realităţii tale se constituie în nişte evenimente care se doresc a fi tot atâtea momente de reevaluare a unei creativităţi ce poate fi descifrată prin destinul şi opera unei minţi superioare pe care a dat-o universul?

Cauza unei închipuiri poetice, percepută metaforic ca refugiu în faţa responsabilităţilor mele de fiinţă universală, îşi îndreaptă atenţia în primul rând asupra materiei vii dintr-un sistem solar care luminează o dată în plus transgresiunea limitelor între spaţiul existenţial şi cel fictiv. Cine ştie să facă din litere un cuvânt important de spus în evenimentele răsunătoare, de asemenea ştie să facă dintr-o stea oarecare un univers fără margini într-un ceas fără timp.

Cu vădită strângere de inimă, mărturisirea mea îşi încheie aici călătoria, printre atomii unui timp care se cere recuperat în nemurire, dar imperios trăit într-o lume muritoare. Spectrul unui ghid astral mă învăluie ca o adiere venită de departe ce trece prin conștiința universală şi se întoarce într-un punct fix, amintit uneori în cuprinsul tainic al acestei lumi sub numele de Cyrano de Bergerac:

"Când stai de vorbă cu tine însuţi se văd limpede însuşirile fiecărui lucru la care meditezi. Apărând sau dispărând, ele înfăţişează celui care priveşte nu un şir de cuvinte, ci o istorie în imagini a tuturor gândurilor sale."

Forţa expresivă a picturii suprarealiste vizează însuşirea realităţii artistului de a da viaţă unui univers paralel în care nemurirea este posibilă atâta timp cât ea devine expresia apartenenţei spirituale la un Tot unitar: înţelegerea de sine.

Constellation Of Tatyana este revelaţia unei imanenţe divine din timpul unui vis care se cere împlinit la nivel artistic, părând atât de real încât adesea te confunzi cu un rol pe care numai universul ţi-l poate da. Acela de a mijloci o legătură – evident de ordin spiritual – între efemer şi infinit, prin delicatețea unei descrieri lirice.

Continuarea ultimei păpuşi

Lasă-te condus de tot ceea ce poţi să fii, indiferent de contextul în care te afli şi în care se produce schimbarea, urmându-ţi emoţiile cele mai puternice.

Surorile Eponine şi Azelma nu se uitau la Cosette, la acest copil sărac, tâmpit, strâns de pe drumuri, care în loc să se joace, trebuia întotdeauna să muncească pentru doamna Thenardier. Ele două aveau o păpuşă pe care o învârteau şi o suceau pe genunchi, cu tot felul de ciripiri vesele. Din timp în timp, Cosette îşi ridica ochii de pe împletitură şi cu un aer lugubru le privea cum se jucau.

Deşi păpuşa surorilor Thenardier era foarte veche, ponosită şi spartă pe alocuri, Cosettei i se părea, cu toate astea, minunată, pentru că nu avusese în viaţa ei o păpuşă – o păpuşă adevărată – ca să folosim expresia pe care o vor percepe toţi copiii. Pe când Eponine şi Azelma înfăşau păpuşa, Cosette de asemenea îşi înfăşa săbiuţa. După ce isprăvi, şi-o culcă pe braţ şi-i cântă încetişor, ca s-o adoarmă.

Asemenea păsărilor care îşi fac cuib cu orice, copiii îşi fac o păpuşă din orice. Păpuşa e una din nevoile cele mai mari şi totodată unul din cele mai încântătoare instincte ale copilăriei unei femei. Tot viitorul e aici, în a îngriji, a înveşmânta, a găti, a îmbrăca, a dezbrăca, a îmbrăca din nou, a învăţa, a certa niţel, a legăna, a dezmierda, a adormi şi a-şi închipui că un lucru oarecare e cineva. Tot visând şi gândind, croind mici veşminte şi scutece, cosând rochiţe, bluze, pieptăraşe, copilul se preschimbă în fetiţă, fetiţa în fată, fata în femeie. Primul copil e continuarea ultimei păpuşi.

Aşadar, Cosette îşi făcuse o păpuşă din săbiuţă. Ce lucru sublim e nădejdea la un copil care n-a cunoscut niciodată altceva decât deznădejdea. *

Leadership: Îţi poţi extinde influenţa asupra acelor experienţe de viaţă care permit conştientizarea procesului evolutiv în care te afli, fără să devii parte a unei singure dorinţe?

Ambiţia de a crea lucruri memorabile şi de a ţine seama de aportul lor la prezent şi viitor, respectând îndârjirea şi recunoscând voinţa omului de a-şi prioritiza nevoile emoţionale, merită un vot de fidelitate de la lumea din jur, o notă de zece din partea marelui juriu existenţial. Însă dorinţa de a fi dependent de un lucru, indiferent care ar fi acel lucru, jonglează cu capacitatea conştiinţei de a fi diferit de restul lumii, ceea ce nu atrage doar aprecieri şi osanale, fiindcă omul devine sclavul unui vis care nu necesită o gândire și o înțelegere specială asupra lumii înconjurătoare.

Putem să considerăm acest eveniment şi sub alt punct de vedere. De exemplu, sub infinita varietate a emoţiilor şi gândurilor, omul, dependent de spiritul său tânăr, îşi păstrează poziţia pentru o apreciere, însoţită de "sporuri" de productivitate, care contează mai mult decât o mie de cuvinte, fie ele scrise sau vorbite. Păpuşa nu este doar un obiect al dorinţei, o aspiraţie spre fericire, o motivaţie a propriei lupte pentru o existenţă plină de sens, ci devine o manifestate a virtuţii de a fi generos cu semenii, de a-i înțelege și ajuta, de a da dovadă de omenie și bunăcuviință.

Dar ce se întâmplă când eşti întâmpinat de o experienţă care îţi domină imaginaţia şi visele pentru totdeauna, transformând personalitatea ta în sclavul unei singure dorinţe? Pe de o parte acest fapt poate exclude munca anterioară, studiul riguros de mai înainte asupra valorilor care constituie „osatura etică” a personalităţii tale.

Odată ce-ţi împlineşti o dorinţă şi devii sclavul ei, personalitatea ta se va percepe sub alt punct de vedere: caracteristicile ei principale, care le dorim observate în calităţile liderului, urmează a fi anulate prin prisma autosuficienţei. E ca atunci când atingi un înalt grad de bogăţie, de control absolut al tuturor resurselor, încât începi să-ţi închipui că eşti stăpânul lumii. Unui care domneşte printr-o autoritate plină de sine, dar fără credibilitate.

Leadership: Referinţele exterioare cu care îţi completezi virtuţile sau prejudecăţile corespund manifestării nevoii tale ascunse de a te simţi superior în faţa unui început de viaţă care idealizează o sursă fictivă de satisfacţie cu puţine şanse de supravieţuire?

Ceea ce depozitezi înăuntrul propriei tale fiinţe, în special acel sublim fior de odinioară care răstoarnă multe în curba timpului, dacă nu chiar orice normă de raţiune existentă, desăvârşind ceea ce e bun şi frumos în tine, se va regăsi în tot ceea ce vei înfăptui în postura de lider.

Numai conştientizând dimensiunea identităţii care te încearcă atunci când te trezeşti în situaţii încărcate de dramatism sau de o atmosferă sumbră, numai dacă îţi aduni toate emoţiile din interior şi le laşi să se manifeste în intregime, vei putea să clinteşti în loc îndurarea şi acceptarea unei vieţi fără orizont.

Aşadar, un singur factor poate înlătura propria ta valoare, reducând la neant leadershipul şi de despuindu-l de orice formă de uman: deznădejdea de a crede în propriile sentimente, renegarea trecutului, înfrânarea copilului din tine.

Ceea ce favorizează manifestările individului, justificate în raport cu îndatoririle specifice ale liderilor plini de luciditatea unor perspective înalte, sunt acele evenimente sau conjuncturi care permit conştientizarea procesului evolutiv în care se află.

Pornind de la munca cu sine însuşi pentru a regăsi dimensiunea propriei fiinţe, continuând până la efortul depus pentru a da tot ce are mai bun din el, liderul va putea să-şi finiseze “produsul” intern numit: conştiinţă. Şi să-l personalizeze cu noi valenţe de exprimare şi de înţelegere a lumii, cu interpretări ale realităţii dintr-o altă perspectivă, cu roluri care îi pun în valoare frumuseţea interioară şi dau valoare celorlalţi.

Leadershipul contribuie la conturarea unei perspective mai înalte asupra lucrurilor receptate printr-o conştiinţă lucidă, dar nu îşi poate justifica efectele atunci când obiectul dorinţelor tale devine extensia unei imagini de sine plină de afecţiune care nu urmează alte ceriterii decât cele estetice şi artificiale.

Continuarea ultimei păpuşi scoate în evidenţă realitatea acelor evenimente din trecut care îşi pun amprenta asupra evoluţiei tale ca lider, din ce în ce mai “uman”, în beneficiul propriu, al celorlalţi, al lumii în care trăieşti, raportându-te la nădejdea pe care ai purtat-o mereu în tine însuţi: de a fi liber, de a trăi după propriile tale reguli, de a-ţi urma visurile, de a fi stăpânul propriei tale vieţi.

 Notă: Victor Hugo - Mizerabilii;

Continuitatea dintre "a şti" şi "a simţi"

On Octombrie 17, 2011

Descoperă esenţa propriei tale fiinţe, trecându-ţi sentimentele prin filtrul sufletesc al celorlalţi oameni.

Am să fac din nou referire la filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ", pentru a dovedi cu prisosinţă un lucru important.

Susan Parrish, fiica miliardarului William Parrish, privindu-l pe Joe Black cu acea inocenţă dezarmantă a omului care nu-şi cunoaşte aproapele, îi mărturiseşte acestuia cu o adâncă nesiguranţă:

- Iubesc un bărbat care nu ştiu cine e, unde pleacă sau când... Eşti altcineva... Mi-e teamă, Joe.

- Ţi-e teamă de ce ai putea afla? Să nu-ţi fie... Nu are importanţă cine sunt.

Dar în adâncul sufletului ei ştia că Joe nu spunea adevărul. Căci se simţea o undă de amărăciune în glasul lui, ca o durere fără sfârşit, golit de orice energie, de orice încărcătură spirituală.

Uitându-se la ea cu durere în ochi, simţind frământările ei lăuntrice, Joe îi răspunde cu o voce îndurerată, ca şi cum ar fi fost ultimele sale cuvinte:

- Îţi promit... Îţi promit, Susan, că vei avea întotdeauna ceea ce ai găsit în acea cafenea.

În finalul filmului, Prinţul Întunericului, în persoana lui Joe Black, părăseşte această lume, dar nu înainte de a-şi îndeplini promisiunea: îl readuce la viaţă pe adevăratul Joe, cel pe care Susan îl cunoscuse la cafenea şi de care se îndrăgostise enorm.

Leadership: Valoarea imaginii personale este dată de estetica construirii unui ataşament autentic faţă de răspunsul căutării tale la altceva decât ce meriţi?

Fără îndoială adevărul despre tine se reflectă în propria ta atitudine, care la rândul ei este dictată de propria ta conştiinţă. Conştientizarea faptului că nu eşti sigur de calităţile tale şi că eşti îngrijorat de consecinţele pe care le-ai putea atrage asupra ta dacă nu te dovedeşti a fi pe placul celorlalţi, sau dacă deciziile pe care le iei contrazic propriile tale convingeri - se exteriorizează printr-o nesiguranţă care este percepută de cei ce te înconjoară.

Un om care pătrunde, mereu sub o altă înfăţişare, în viaţa celorlalţi, în cele din urmă îşi pierde din calitate, îşi renegă esenţa. Sentimentele lui, chiar dacă sunt intense, devin contradictorii în lumina celorlalţi oameni. E ca şi cum ai goni neîntrerupt prin viaţă, fără să trăieşti cu adevărat, fără să culegi roadele maturităţii, fără să dobândeşti virtuţile cele mai alese, pierzându-ţi astfel coordonatele după care poate fi înţeleasă propria ta existenţă. Roadele „rătăcirii" tale se vor dovedi a fi triste.

Adevărata ta personalitate este ca o pânză de apă care se subţiază pe măsură ce trece timpul, pe măsură ce oamenii ajung să te cunoască mai bine, până ce dispare. Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să fie în armonie cu valorile şi dorinţele lor, încearcă să te apropii mai mult de motivul pentru care ei te acceptă în cercul lor - altfel rişti ca legătura ta cu ei să se evapore.

Estetica construirii unui ataşament faţă de cineva, fără a putea neglija un moment anterior de recuperare a ceva ce s-a pierdut cândva, este subordonată disponibilităţii de a te angrena într-un duet sublim dintre însemnătate şi acceptare ce se anunţă spectaculos prin decorul în care îţi plasezi "povestea".

Leadership: Există o concordanţă între atitudinea ta şi adevăratul tău fond sufletesc din perspectiva realităţii care nu e nimic altceva decât o conformitate a ficţiunii?

Aşa cum între bătăile inimii şi respiraţie există o concordanţă bine determinată, tot aşa trebuie să existe o concordanţă între atitudinea ta şi adevăratul tău fond sufletesc pe care se întemeiază conştiinţa ta.

Cu toţii suntem purtători ai unor trăsături individualizate. Un personaj care străbate – acelaşi drum, dar mereu în altă ipostază - întreaga viaţă, riscă să-şi piardă credibilitatea. Dacă trăsăturile tale nu coincid cu valorile celor din jur, sau dacă firea ta îţi contrazice gândirea şi convingerile, atunci eşti pe cale să pierzi din capitalul de încredere pe care ţi-l acordă ei.

După cum organismul se susţine şi se mobilizează el însuşi pentru a se „răfui" singur cu boala lui, tot aşa şi tu, ca să accelerezi evoluţia ta personală trebuie să ştii să te „răfuieşti" singur cu sistemul tău susceptibil, cu valorile nesănătoase şi cu trăsăturile negative de personalitate care îţi pot afecta relaţiile cu ceilalţi.

Cercetează-ţi întreaga fiinţă şi meditează bine asupra ei. Străduieşte-te mai întâi să găseşti în tine ceea ce cauţi la ceilalţi. Descoperă esenţa propriei tale fiinţe, trecându-ţi sentimentele prin filtrul sufletesc al celorlalţi oameni.

Esenţa fiinţei tale este partea dificilă a meritului de a fi acceptat de ceilalţi drept o versiune cu totul diferită de realitate în locul celei pe care vrei s-o păstrezi pentru tine.

Continuitatea dintre "a şti" şi "a simţi" scoate în evidenţă capacitatea oamenilor de a evolua prin prisma propriilor lor percepţii, atât din punct de vedere mental cât şi din punct de vedere emoţional. Întotdeauna va exista o continuitate între ceea ce cunoşti despre ceilalţi oameni, şi ceea ce simţi pentru ei. De raportul care se stabileşte între aceste două entităţi depinde modul în care ei se vor conecta la tine.

Concluzie: Cunoaşterea oamenilor este un proces bazat pe un algoritm stabilit şi aplicat voluntar sau involuntar, de fiecare dintre noi. Pentru un lider este foarte important să-şi cunoască oamenii cu care lucrează şi trebuie să aibă abilităţi deosebite în acest sens. Desigur, această „muncă" îi este uşurată dacă a început procesul de cunoaştere cu sine însuşi, ajungând „să simtă" şi apoi „să ştie" cu certitudine ceea ce nu merge, sau ceea ce nu se potriveşte.

Dezvoltarea acestui al 7-lea simţ va contribui la perfecţionarea cunoaşterii şi la îmbunătăţirea relaţiilor interumane.

Continuitatea operei de artă

On Octombrie 09, 2021

Mesajul pe care îl evidenţiază un artist în opera personală îmbracă ipostaza ideală a unei vaste întinderi care cuprinde spaţiul dintre sine şi componentele lumii înconjurătoare.

Sunt la mare. Am la îndemână toate motivele care mă împing să transform o imagine de vis într-un mesaj de suflet, unde imaginea este dată de un număr nelimitat de puncte dispuse longitudinal, proiectate pe un plan pictural, abia dorindu-se a fi surprinse de privirea artistului care ştie să completeze caracterul fragmentar al momentului. În această imagine, pe care artistul o numeşte Ritrovhanyn , materia cuprinsă în natura lucrurilor, recunoaştem nisipul pe care urmează să-l colorez într-un stil diferit faţă de cum colorez de obicei.

Fiecare fir de nisip, la fel ca fiecare stea de pe cer, este o amintire dintr-o speranţă, sau un drum sinuos desfăşurat în cadrul unei instanţe reprezentată de Eul conştient, toate desfăşurându-se în spaţiul unei insule încântătoare. De fapt, nisipul mă introduce alene în spaţiul unei libertăţi depline, după cum se poate constata, în spaţiul unei viziuni metafizice moderne. Şi tocmai în aceste argumente se prezintă o versiune a artei transgresive, ignorând sau dispreţuind adevărul că ea nu poate fi exclusă niciodată.

Chiar acum, îmi trece prin minte imaginea unui Ulise care ar avea şansa să se întoarcă în Ithaca cu condiţia să creadă că insula se află în sine şi o poate descoperi. Exact asta îmi aminteşte nisipul în angajamentul său faţă de artă, immaginando ciò che non possiamo copiare , în căutarea unei înţelepciuni abstracte sau urmărind idealuri spirituale: el îmi aminteşte că trebuie să mă caut pe mine însumi într-un loc apropiat, dar care pare ireal de îndepărtat, într-un desen cu multe nuanţe diferite, dar totuşi atât de la fel.

Leadership: Creaţia ta se formează din suprapunerea a două lumi reprezentate în moduri diferite, dar lăsând posibilitatea fie a receptării lor simultane, fie a relaţionării lor cu sinele tău?

Privesc în zare, departe, fără să clipesc, căutând acea liniște pe care nu întotdeauna o găsesc în sinele meu, înspre cele care privilegiază exprimarea scrisă. Încerc să construiesc din elemente disparate o totalitate elegantă. Nisipul se înțelege de minune cu scoicile, unul fără celălalt nu s-ar putea închipui plaja din Mamaia. Două lumi inseparabile, dar distincte. Deci, materia și forma sunt în cel mai înalt grad inseparabile sub influența reprezentării lor în sfera realității pe care o observ.

Este un merit să ştim asta. Forma trebuie să fie în același grad afectată de latura conținutului pe care îl conține un fenomen izolat, precum algele pe care valurile le aduc la mal tocmai din larg, după o furtună. Astfel, ce trebuie să trecem în prim plan ca să izbutim o construcție artistică?

Mai întâi de toate trebuie să considerăm marea drept "Cauza Prima", fiindcă ea conține materia: nisipul, scoicile și algele. Apoi trebuie să trecem nisipul, scoicile și algele pe plan uman, pe plan de "gânditori" provenind din vârste diferite ale istoriei. De asemenea, trebuie să avem în vedere momentul prezent al trăirii vieții interioare, și nu pe cel trecut al legăturii cu Cauzalitatea.

Așadar, sunt îndemnat să cred că acela care nu a cunoscut acest delir al căutării scormonitoare de legături între spirit și materie, aceluia îi va lipsi totdeauna ceva din înțelegerea artei. Fiindcă a fi artist înseamnă să vezi nisipul în relaţie cu scoicile, aşa încât marea să le cuprindă pe amândouă într-un timp dat al cărui iz romantic străbate neted veacul până la mine cu acea continuitate a trăirilor și a receptării unei opere de artă.

Leadershipul este apropiat de artă, în sensul în care tot ceea ce vezi în jur înseamnă, de fapt, focalizarea asupra unui singur aspect şi generalizarea lui prin metonimie.

Iar dacă metonimia este o figură de stil care constă în înlocuirea unui termen prin altul cu care se află în raport de continuitate, atunci ideea de artă se poate raporta mai mult la unitatea opusă, aceea a plăsmuirii particularului în universal. Astfel, creaţia mea devine simbolul unei lumi ce se împlineşte prin raportarea la un alt tip de existenţă, una bazată pe cele două elemente definitorii ale artei: dualitatea şi prezentul continuu.

Continuitatea operei de artă se observă în orice element din natură care îl completează pe altul, apoi pe altul, şi pe altul, printr-o complementaritate care particularizează profilul identitar al mentalului în care trăieşte artistul din mine. Aşadar, artistul trăieşte prin ceea ce el particularizează ca proiecţie identitară în procesul observării elementelor complementare care completează acea creaţie materială întemeiată pe folosirea celor mai flexibile forţe ale spiritului: imaginaţia şi încorporarea imaginaţiei în compoziţia materiei vii.

Nu uitaţi să vă încarcaţi mintea cu simţul artistic.

Conţinutul leadershipului

On Aprilie 13, 2008

Trăieşte rolul pe care ţi-l asumi, fără să te detaşezi de propriu tău Eu.

Tot ce spunea Paracelsus, era adevărat, vedeam toate acestea cu ochii mei. Trebuie să mărturisesc însă că acest nou mod de a vindeca îmi era cu totul străin. Îmi amintesc de un tânăr prinț de la Curtea noastră, Viconte de Gaunt, fratele Prințului de Episuoy, dintr-o casă nobilă foarte înaltă, era atât de bolnav de gută, încât stătea numai pe o parte, chinuit și deformat de durere.

Butler mi-a luat apoi mâna și m-a întrebat:

- Vrei să îl vindec pe acel tânăr? îl voi vindeca de dragul tău.

I-am explicat apoi că situația este puțin mai complicată, pentru că tânărul nobil este foarte încăpățânat și ar prefera să moară înainte de a lua orice leac.

- Fie voia lui, mi-a răspuns el, nu vreau nimic altceva decât ca el să atingă cu limba în fiecare dimineață această mică piatră. După trei săptămâni trebuie să își spele rănile dureroase cu propria sa urină, după care va fi vindecat și va putea merge sănătos. Mergi la el și spune-i toate acestea.

După aceea, bucuros, m-am întors la Bruxelles și i-am zis prințului totul, iar el a răspuns:

- Du-te și spune-i lui Butler că dacă mă va însănătoși, îi voi da tot ceea ce dorește. Întreabă-l care este prețul lui și eu voi plăti.

Când i-am spus acestea lui Butler, în ziua următoare, el s-a mâniat foarte tare și a zis:

- Prințul tău este nebun sau fără minte, fapt pentru care nu îl voi ajuta niciodată - eu nu am nevoie de banii lui și nici nu îi sunt inferior. *

Leadership: Poţi depăşi nevoia de a te poziţiona deasupra celorlalţi, de-a te compara cu ei şi de a aştepta ca ei sau anumite evenimente din exterior să îţi satisfacă mândria de a te fi realizat în ceva anume?

Modul tău de a te simţi superior sau inferior ţine de nivelul experienţei de viaţă a celorlalţi oameni şi de modul cum se arată ei dispuşi să ţi-o împărtăşească, luând în considerare acea formă a conștiinței lor necesară pentru a cunoaște și a practica cu adevărat modestia și noblețea inimii. Iar singura entitate exterioară care te influenţează pozitiv sau negativ, pe care o putem cataloga drept "acces restricţionat la ambele tărâmuri ale gândirii", este dată de încercările celorlalţi de a te schimba cu forţa.

Să luăm ca exemplu un doctor. Cine însănătoşeşte un om o face nu doar fiindcă dispune de anumite cunoştinţe specializate într-un domeniu greu de stăpânit, ci pentru că el vede lucrurile cu totul altfel decât ceilalţi oameni, de la nivelul experienţei de viaţă - până la nivelul de gânduri. Cine vrea să schimbe percepţia oamenilor despre faptele sale, trebuie mai întâi să ia în calcul decizia de a se apropia de sursa unei realizări care va dura mult timp, ca de exemplu “vindecările sau miracolele”.

Fiecare decizie pe care o iei, este o contribuţie la dezvoltarea lumii, afectând cursul evenimentelor, deci în mijlocul oricărei situaţii stă o decizie care surprinde prin ceea ce faci, trăiri, emoții, stări dintre cele mai profunde, dar şi prin ceea ce imaginezi, descoperi și aduci în prim plan (o realitate vie cu totul nouă).

Când un doctor vindecă un pacient, în primul rând se stimează pe sine şi se apreciază la adevărata valoare, fiindcă cel ce slujeşte o meserie grea slujeşte totodată şi lui însuşi ca fiinţă spiritual-sufletească, ca unuia ce este infinit în sine, ca triumf al unei ordini a lucrurilor, a unei lumi în care componentele decurg unele din altele într-o ţesătură de interdependenţe.

din acest punct de vedere, mândria de a te fi realizat în ceva anume se distinge prin operația de cunoaștere pe care o desfășori în procesul de exercitare a influenţei, aşa încât ceea ce posezi ca potenţialitate de deţinere a informaţiei de calitate să ajungă la cunoaşterea tuturor oamenilor printr-o diversitate de acţiuni, perspective şi manifestări de voinţă.

Rolul unui lider este de a coexista ca atitudine şi ca disponibilitate de a schimba lucrurile în interiorul aceluiaşi tablou, ducând la o unificare elementele de ordin diferit (sentimentul, cunoaşterea şi efortul, timpul, costurile şi calitatea), printr-o înlănţuire subtilă a întâmplărilor.

Conţinutul leadershipului este dat de aceste elemente diferite ca natură, poziţie sau rol, dar care laolaltă formează un întreg numit "ORIZONT", graţie căruia se poate ajunge, prin forţa lucrurilor, la o înţelegere superioară şi profundă a lumii, mai ales la perceperea noţiunii de "Valoare a Propriei Fiinţe".

Conturul unui ochi plin de propria privire

On Iunie 16, 2020

Priveşte-te bine, aşa cum eşti, ca într-o oglindă în care te vezi altcineva pe care nimeni nu-l poate copia.

Mă privesc neîncetat într-o oglindă magică, însufleţitoare, plină de recunoştinţă pentru estetica reflectată de modestia unui chip luminos, blând, îmbietor, atât de firesc încât oricine mi-ar vedea reflexia ar spune că am ceva din aspectul unui trandafir nobil care se înalţă deasupra tuturor celor lumeşti, mai ales în arta simţirii şi mijlocirii naturii umane. Sincretismul unei fiinţe unice angrenează totul din lumea înconjurătoare, chiar şi atunci când ea se consideră "măsura tuturor lucrurilor" cuprinsă în frumuseţea imediată a unui singur trandafir.

Şi mă privesc cu ochi de artist, galant, emblematic, mereu diferit, încât uneori surprind o altă faţă a aceluiaşi trandafir prin estetica unui filosof care se apleacă asupra vieţii sale ca asupra unui destin străin, căutând conturul care i-ar putea fixa imaginea în nemurire. Iar când totuşi dă cu ochii de adevăratul său chip îşi aminteşte că a trăit în alte vieţi aceeaşi criză identitară. E uşor pentru un artist să trăiască o lume divină într-o dimensiune a tuturor frumuseţilor naturii.

Glasuri tot mai insistente îmi sună în minte, comori fără sfârşit îmi umplu imaginaţia, o descărcare a sentimentului de admiraţie pentru frumos se produce în culori vii pe pânza moale a unui şevalet antic. Din nou, simt mângâierea unui vis care îşi creează realitatea în oglinda destinelor încrucişate la răspântia dintre moarte şi mântuire, dintre nemurire şi iluminare, fiind străbătut de dorința de a avea tot ce e mai bun din ambele lumi, cea artistică şi ştiinţifică, cea privată şi cea publică.

În acest fel îmi asigur reflexia în oglindă, prin asociere cu un rod al naturii. Uneori este mai bine să te introduci imaginar în lumea plină de secrete a unui trandafir, cu generozitatea unei gazde care reuşeşte să-şi depăşească propriile aşteptări, încât visul care te apropie de un destin înălţător să devină realitate în planul reflexiei unei conexiuni aparte cu pulsul naturii, cu energia ei, cu simplitatea ei, cu conştiinţa ei.

Leadership: Creaţia pe care o experimentezi în mod concret facilitează înţelegerea profundă a unei stări şi a unei viziuni care transcende realitatea, aproape imposibil de definit din perspectiva unei singure forme de expresie artistică?

Arta deschide o fereastră spectaculoasă spre acea realitate în care viața nu se rezumă la "a supraviețui", ci la încercarea de a fi diferit, ceva plin de multe semnificaţii spirituale, fiind mai mult decât un simplu impuls artistic primitiv. Dacă aş putea vedea în mod clar miracolul unei manifestări artistice de nivel vizual, sub delicateţea şi modestia unui chip luminos, într-o compoziţie capabilă să treacă testul timpului, întreaga mea viaţă ar deveni o mărturisire de credinţă din ansamblul stărilor sufleteşti care se împlinesc numai pe suprafaţa pânzei pictate cu multă măiestrie.

Artistul sunt eu, iar trandafirul este omagiul artistului adus înaltului idealism al creaţiei lui literare. Cu privirea aţintită spre obiectivitatea viguroasă a unei fiinţe care este în acelaşi timp trup şi suflet, desfăşurată înaintea unei lumi mult mai măreţe, cu generozitatea simplă cu care trandafirul continuă să mă facă părtaş la înălţimi divine, îmi iau răgazul de a mă autodefini prin termenul Mainshiryerra , drept promisiunea unei fericiri pur imaginare, iluzorii.

O singură formă artistică îmi defineşte arta şi personalitatea: revelaţia unei existenţe ce depăşeşte corporalitatea şi materialul. Sunt un artist ori de câte ori mă preschimb într-un trandafir, delicat şi înălţător ca un gând bun adresat visului de a fi cât mai natural în trăire şi în simţire. Abia atunci mi se par relevante cuvintele scriitoarei Simona Popescu, care spunea în romanul "Juventus":

"Aş fi vrut să scriu despre vârstele de-atâtea feluri prin care am trecut până acum fără să-mi dau seama, despre cele ce ne apropie sau ne despart de ceea ce suntem; despre neputinţa de-a vorbi despre tine însuţi ca despre o fiinţă unitară, despre oroarea că-n orice timp prezent nu eşti, de fapt, decât un intermediar, un precursor; despre dezgustătoarea idee că vei ajunge odată să fii propria ta rudă îndepărtată; despre umilinţa de a nu şti cine eşti şi ce vei fi; şi despre groaza că ai putea şti ce eşti şi ce vei fi şi până cât îţi este dat a trăi."

Leadership: Poţi să te priveşti într-o oglindă şi să te recunoşti în moduri complet noi de a fi, în urma formulării unei noi viziuni despre artă şi creaţie care poate fi transmisă mai departe?

Altfel sunt artiştii, ca nişte ancore obligatorii de acostare la realitatea lucrurilor reflectate într-o altă dimensiune a existenţei unde Dumnezeu, nesfârşitul creator al tuturor lucrurilor, este oglindit ca fiind destinul unei arte înălţătoare exprimată sub forma unui gând transpus în planul naturii. Ei îşi revendică dreptul de a trăi liber, în pace, tot mai distinct, numărul altor lumi şi Universuri, cu atât mai mult cât nivelul spiritualităţii care le uneşte visurile, idealurile, destinele, se determină prin enumerarea unor comparaţii cu valoare metaforică care alcătuiesc portretul „poetic" al unei opere literare.

Când scriu aceste rânduri atât de delectante, receptive la frumos, la poezia unei lumi calme şi sublime care se înscrie în universul unei picturi capabile să vorbească sufletului într-un limbaj universal, sunt cuprins de emoţia pe care o încearcă alături de mine trandafirul "Double Delight" - evoluat într-o entitate de vibraţie reflexivă numită "Neputinţa de a fi un fapt oarecare".

Artistul este mai mult decât un om, mai mult decât un tărâm oarecare, mai mult decât un rod al naturii, este carapacea unui suflet eliberat de patimi, scufundat în taina unei lumi imaginare.

Oare cât de mult ştie trandafirul despre mine, despre mine pus între ceilalţi oameni, despre mine cel ce sunt altcineva atunci când sunt înconjurat de culori; despre mine, acelaşi eu în altă lume, mult mai fantastică decât ar putea inspira orice imaginație? Şi dacă el mi-ar cunoaşte trecutul, comparându-mă cu trecutul lumii întregi, cu istoria unei lumi care se repetă, cu lumea unei fiinţe atipice care este totodată una cu Dumnezeu în deplinătatea atributelor sale, ar putea oare el să se recunoască în mine drept un Creator al unei picturi liniştite, echilibrate?

Dragă cititorule. Dacă se întâmplă să întâlneşti un trandafir care îţi zâmbeşte exact ca într-o oglindă în care te poţi vedea pe tine însuţi, zâmbeşte-i şi tu lui la fel ca atunci când te priveşti pe tine însuţi în ipostaza unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei. Viziunea mea este o imagine proiectată în viitor a modului în care va arăta lumea mea, apropiată de acea lume a spiritului care trăieşte în toate şi în orice din jur.

Leadershipul trebuie să fie receptat ca o oglindă în care te uiţi cu maximum de sinceritate la tine însuţi, ceea ce vezi fiind realitatea unei transformări de vis, subordonată unei viziuni care decupează în planul lumii o perspectivă singulară: opera unui Creator Absolut.

Conturul unui ochi plin de propria privire poate fi considerat complet atunci când este realizat de un artist al cărui destin întrupează spiritul şi esenţa unui trandafir surprins într-un moment de căutare a frumosului în orice fragment de viaţă ieşit din sânul naturii.

Convulsia unei supreme conştiinţe

On Septembrie 30, 2013

Raţionează şi trăieşte mereu în spiritul dialogului cu tine însuţi, încât să asiguri dezvoltarea valorilor morale pozitive care nu fac dintr-un Sine o unitate a Multiplicităţii.

Totul capătă alt sens într-un sumbru univers paralel în care stăruie paradoxul, înlocuitor al inacceptabilului devenit parametru de tip referinţă în cazul unei fiinţe fără inimă, cu conştiinţa şubredă. Compromiţătoare, rezultanta a două forţe concurente, a răului şi a binelui, se transformă iremediabil într-o singură forţă dominantă de sens contrar conştiinţei curate care nu acceptă retrogradarea spre o treaptă inferioară.

Machiavelică, forţa aceasta care se opune oricărui sentiment de omenie, oricărui principiu moral, oricărei reflecţii nobile, susţine actualizarea rapidă a elementelor de reacţie în procesul de deformare a realităţii şi a suportului mental. Fără nicio împotrivire, ea stimulează apariţia unui dinamism total, dus la extrem. Măreşte temperatura corpului la o anumită valoare, apoi rămâne oscilantă în jurul acestei valori, încordând musculatura şi intensificând circulaţia sangvină.

Gândurile lui Hannibal Lecter nu emit semnale de avertizare, ci creează doar aparenţa unei normalităţi, a unei stări de sine stătătoare. El îşi găseşte scăparea în tabăra oştirii sale, în simţurile, calităţile, imaginaţia, raţiunea şi reflexele sale de scorpion care înţeapă subtil, dar mortal. Ar ucide fără milă orice fiinţă care stă în calea libertăţii lui, sau care încearcă să-i pătrundă mintea diabolică.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi descoperi toate faţetele personalităţii tale în jurul unei viziuni extrasă din efectele eforturilor de a afla noi adevăruri despre tine însuţi, încât să-ţi schimbi total imaginea pe care o vezi despre tine?

Ciudat, Hannibal pare că trăieşte într-o convulsie a concentrării intense asupra sinelui, reproiectând frecvent structura complexă a inteligenţei minţii sale, susţinută de cablurile de alimentare continuă cu energii înalte. Am spune despre el că suferă de personalitate multiplă, un fel de experienţă de apropiere de un Alter Ego dezumanizat, fiindcă mintea lui consumă trei feluri de imagini: o imagine a unui om fragil, o imagine a unei continue reconstruiri a sinelui, o imagine a unei persoane bolnave şi o imagine a unei personalităţi supradotate.

El pare în anumite momente a fi prins sub puterea unei stări adverse, a unui gând nestăpânit, ţâşnit din strânsura conştiinţei asemenea unei torpile scăpate de sub control. Ai zice că raţionează şi trăieşte în spiritul dialogului cu el însuşi, cu entitatea definitorie a caracterului său. Care anulează întreg efortul şi puterea spiritului de a conştientiza valorile pozitive. Aidoma unui automobil care goneşte neregulamentar pe şosea, această entitate sumbră îşi concentrează câmpul de acţiune pe o axă necorespunzătoare reabilitării complete a infrastructurii morale.

Dar până şi monstrul poate fi cuprins de spaima acelui simţământ groaznic, ascuţit ca un cuţit de ghilotină. Pare cumva dominat de licărul cald de lumină care încă persistă în conştiinţa lui, de cugetul viu care îl leagă de tot ceea ce mai este încă omenesc în el. Exteriorul se contopeşte cu interiorul, în care totul pare că evoluează într-o agonie continuă.

Oare când voi trăi în deplină împăcare cu mine însumi, cu conştiinţa împăcată a omului virtuos şi curat, iubit de Dumnezeu?

Leadership: Te afli în contrast cu un Ego supus presiunilor din exterior, în corespondenţă cu o perspectivă despre viaţă care ia în calcul nevoia de definire a unei identităţi care se amestecă cu o altă identitate?

O complexă configuraţie a personalităţii omului, în raport cu leadershipul de calitate care beneficiază de avantajul apropierii de o zonă profundă, neexploatată la potenţial maxim şi dirijată la un nivel de maturitate, se cere întrevăzută pe viitor din perspectiva experienţelor de sine. Omul, supus propriei sale raţiuni, maturizat mai mult pe baza unei producţii de stimuli puternici şi a unor provocări neîncetate, îşi joacă rolul de pârghie pentru o dezvoltare personală durabilă. Sau, din contra, pentru o involuţie a sinelui.

Liderul nu trebuie să fie un om aflat în contrast cu propriului sine, purtat de fluxul şi refluxul unei lumi care vine şi al unei lumi care pleacă. Acest lucru reflectă lipsa de apartenenţă la o conştiinţă solidă, la un eu sănătos, deci lipsa de conflicte interioare. Dacă omul nu ştie pe ce traseu să o ia ca să poată face în siguranţă şi eficient trecerea spre o perspectivă mai bună, nu spre un teritoriu bântuit de duhul nefiinţei, al deşertăciunii şi al nonvalorii, atunci rezultatele acumulate prin dezvoltarea leadershipului, efectuate concomitent cu aplicarea reală a măsurilor pentru păstrarea identităţii, se vor schimba spre rău şi se vor menţine sub limita rentabilitate impusă de leadership.

O identitate care se amestecă cu o altă identitate este natura extinsă a unei gândiri care se învârte în jurului unului, depărtându-se de sine şi apropiindu-se în acelaşi timp de el, este rodul experienţei de a fi acelaşi om, dar sub altă înfăţişare, sub alt comportament sau poziţie privilegiată. Deschiderea sau închiderea sinelui într-o altă realitate, într-un sumbru univers paralel în care stăruie paradoxul, înlocuitor al inacceptabilului devenit parametru de tip referinţă, devine mai mult o problemă decât o soluţie, o aşteptare plină de incertitudini, o opţiune viabilă pentru schimbare. Dar nu şi în beneficiu personal.

Leadership: Cum te poziţionezi într-un context de tipul "Dacă te vei adânci în tine, vei ajunge în nimicul tău ! " , faţă de o viziune care merge mai departe de sentimentul unei extremităţi intelectuale acute?

Nelăsându-te dus de valul uitării de sine, analizând consecinţele deosebit de importante ale elaborării unui acord nou cu tine însuţi prin care să devii acţionar majoritar al unei deveniri intelectuale înnoitoare, care creează şi nu distruge sensul vieţii şi libertăţii responsabile, vei evita să fii prins sub puterea unei stări adverse. A gândurilor nestăpânite, încărcate negativ, ţâşnite din strânsura conştiinţei alterate de diverşi factori limitativi.

A raţiona şi a trăi mereu în spiritul dialogului cu tine însuţi, adică a căuta să depăşeşti blocajele (între tine şi oameni sau experienţe) urmărind implicaţiile morale ale actelor tale, vei putea, într-o oarecare măsură, să asiguri creşterea valorilor morale pozitive. Care la rândul lor contribuie la împăcarea cu tine însuţi, ajutându-te să trăieşti cu conştiinţa împăcată a omului virtuos care ştie să-şi regleze corect "temperatura" minţii în acele circumstanţe negative care nu servesc cel mai bine nevoilor sale spirituale.

Cineva spunea: " Dacă te vei adânci în tine, vei ajunge în nimicul tău. " Asta denotă o inflexibilitate şi o stagnare a omului într-un punct critic. Supus unei rutine a gândirii care caută în permanenţă confruntarea cu o realitate supărătoare şi nedorită, el este obligat să-şi redefinească cu mai multă precizie şi nuanţare relaţia cu el însuşi.

Tu ai ajuns în stadiul în care simţi că nu poţi depăşi pragul reconcilierii cu tine însuţi? Ai curajul să te adânceşti în tine, să urmăreşti implicaţiile revoluţionare şi evolutive ale propriei tale naturi, să eviţi acea cădere în golul fiinţei tale?

O viziune care merge mai departe de sentimentul unei extremităţi intelectuale acute este o imagine mentală cuprinsă între formarea unei stime de sine foarte ridicate şi nevoia de a reprezenta, după bunul plac, o autoritate și un simț puternic de superioritate.

Convulsia unei supreme conştiinţe desemnează acea putere ce izvorăşte din noi înşine, generată de o gândire pozitivă care cunoaşte exact limitele normalului unanim acceptat. Înseamnă o regrupare a “detaşamentelor armate” în vederea unui atac decisiv asupra haosului apărut în noi înşine sau în exteriorul nostru.

Convulsiile unei lumi în veşnică schimbare

On Aprilie 10, 2019

Îndrăzneşte să fii ceea ce te defineşte cu adevărat atunci când nu eşti altcineva.

Lumea pe care o frecventam, datorită lui Camil, mi se părea suspectă, stridentă, imorală. Femeile în mijlocul cărora el trăia purtau uneori etichete onorabile şi totuşi erau de vânzare. Iar cumpărători se găseau. La ce preţ? Asta era singura întrebare şi ceea ce le deosebea. Preţurile variau, nu după frumuseţea femeii, ci după posibilităţile lor de a rezista nevoilor vieţii. Nu înţelegeam scrupulele lui, a acestui scriitor atât de seducător prin vraja artei cuvintelor sale, prin vraja propriei fiinţe care provocase o bruscă rupere de ritm în cotidianul meu.

Pe Camil nu-l mira pasiunea pe care o puneam în tot ce susţineam, cuvintele mari şi convingerea că am totdeauna dreptate. Voiam să îl impresionez, dar trebuia să-i admit toată nepăsarea pe care o arăta faţă de alţii inferiori lui, faţă de mine care voiam în adâncul inimii mele să fiu ca el, căci aproape îl idolatrizam şi îi copiam mare parte din gândire. Voiam să fiu asemeni lui, asemenea unui zeu care rosteşte cuvinte de argint, pe care nimeni nu-l poate combate prin nicio folosire dreaptă a raţiunii împrumutate din experienţă.

Viaţa mea devenea tot mai palpitantă. Greu de crezut, dar eram tot mai adâncită într-o realitate care se ridica deasupra oricăror neajunsuri, deasupra oricăror concepte despre bine şi rău, deasupra oricăror examene de conştiinţă, demonstrând prin aceasta că suma valorilor mele se încadrau în pulberea săracă a vanităţii extreme, a făţărniciei şi a instinctelor deşarte, beneficiind de acea discreţie a privilegiaţilor la fel de dulce ca un parfum luminos şi seducător cu un miros persistent care durează. *

Leadership: Esti pregătit sa asimilezi ideea de "slăbiciune dureroasă" cu etajul cel mai de sus al unei imagini care declanşează sentimentul unei puteri de neînvins?

E întocmai cazul lui Camil. Convins că poartă în el energia atomului şi că, odată eliberată această energie se va mişca lumea din loc cu 180 de grade, era prea lucid ca să-şi ia obligaţii cărora nu le putea face faţă şi să mă lase în drum. Prea egoist că să renunţe la mine, prea gelos că să lase liberă altuia calea.

Da, îmi doream şi eu o viaţă văzută de sus, cu cele mai intense preocupări, dar mai mult o trăiam de jos, din cel mai adânc abis. Ceva mă obliga totuşi să merg mai departe, dar fără să ştiu încotro. Cu certitudine, eram răpusă de acelaşi sentiment de disconfort şi nelinişte pe care îl descria Tolstoi în Jurnalul său. "Am resimţit aproape fizic imoralitatea nebună a luxului celor puternici şi bogaţi, sărăcia şi opresiunea săracilor. Sufăr aproape din cauza conştiinţei participării la această nebunie şi acest rău."

Şi cred că la fel de bine mi se potriveşte ceea ce Jean Garnier spunea despre fostul său elev şi prieten: "Albert Camus nu se înşela asupra valorilor propriilor sale puteri, el era printr-o excepţie deosebit de rară judecătorul exact al valorii sale. Trebuia în schimb să se facă recunoscut de alţii. Iar poziţia sa de plecare era atât de umilă, încât trebuia să se afirme cu riscul de a fi strivit."

Leadership: Singura cale de a-ţi păstra o poziţie de autoritate în faţa tuturor încercărilor vieţii este să câştigi controlul asupra a ceea ce înseamnă să fii mesager al unui destin inexorabil fără Dumnezeu?

A-ţi păstra o poziţie de autoritate în faţa încercărilor vieţii este o cale de a te menţine sau de a-ţi găsi locul într-o lume extrem de dură. Înseamnă să faci faţă unei vieţi care te tratează cu spatele, semănând cu o formă de ataşament faţă de efectul unei operaţiuni psihologice de a-ţi păstra calmul în orice situații, cu răbdare de oțel. Iar dacă te simţi abandonat de Dumnezeu atunci când destinul te încearcă şi nu ştii ce să faci, poţi lăsa impresia înşelătoare că deţii o viziune care depăşeşte cadrul vieţii, ca atunci când conduci o maşină într-o direcţie clară, dar nu ştii unde s-o parchezi.

Camil, personajul lui Cella Serghi nu doar că se face vinovat de nepuţinţa de a se desprinde de ataşamentul faţă de plăcerile vieţii. Nu doar că talentul unic de scriitor i-a înceţoşat toate orizonturile, dar adevărata lui nefericire stă în splendoarea căreia nimeni nu i-a găsit un leac în mijlocul tuturor evenimentelor care îl asaltează tumultuos. El ştie perfect cum să-şi mascheze durerea sufletească, ştie să convingă pe toată lumea că sensul vieţii este puterea de a se împlini prin dorinţe nemăsurate, dar nu reuşeşte să-şi anihileze mândria de a se purta ca un om de rang înalt, ca o personalitate aflată cu mult deasupra tagmei sale.

La rândul ei, Cella Serghi îşi face din personalitatea ei o declaraţie de unicitate în temeiul legăturii dintre a fi mai presus de oricine şi impactul psihosocial al durerii de a nu fi înţeleasă de nimeni. De fapt, unicitatea ei seamănă cu imaginea lui Dumnezeu care îngăduie lucruri şi fapte nedrepte, care iartă cam orice păcat, care ar favoriza o persoană în detrimentul alteia, care se dezvăluie în armonia a tot ceea ce există. Dar acest Dumnezeu aşteaptă mai multe de la ea decât poate ea duce. EL aşteaptă ca ea să renunţe la acel Alter Ego care aproape îi substituie întreaga fiinţă stând la marginea universului.

Leadership: Ești conştient de adevărata măsură a sufletului tău înainte de a lua ca model împlinirea celorlalţi, prin raportare la traiectoria unui destin care își conturează prematur finalitatea?

Să fii mesager al unui destin inexorabil fără Dumnezeu înseamnă să te consideri câştigător într-o întrecere cu lumea, dar în care nu-ţi poţi testa limitele deoarece eşti supus provocării de a te confrunta cu propriile temeri şi reproşuri. Acest lucru ar echivala cu raportarea ta la traiectoria unui destin care își conturează prematur finalitatea, adică nu mai eşti omul capabil să-şi justifice esenţa propriilor manifestări, ci eşti prizonerul unor anxietăţi şi îndoieli care te macină până la epuizare, până la erodare, până la nepăsare, până la dezgust.

Să nu fii niciodată mai mult decât poţi duce la nivel de elită, altfel rişti să te pierzi în vârtejul deșertăciunii lumești, iar în această vâltoare nu mai rămâne loc pentru vreun simțământ înalt. Această constatare provine din intentia de a păstra cuvântul "umanism" neatins de efectele experientelor de vârf şi ale condiţionării pe care ţi-o impune exemplu de împlinire al altora.

Gândirea liderului este gândirea fiinţei care îşi oferă timp pentru a se echilibra în viaţa personală, gata oricând să se menţină în autenticitatea unei confesiuni, ambiţionând să exprime discursiv mai bine ceea ce poate face intrarea într-o realitate care se împotmoleşte în propriile limite, sau într-una care prinde aripi tot mai îndrăznețe faţă de voia Domnului.

A fi educat în spiritul responsabilităţii sporite faţă de glasul conştiinţei înseamnă să răspunzi provocării de a te gândi cine eşti cu adevărat în momentul în care simţi că eşti altcineva.

Convulsiile unei lumi în veşnică schimbare afirmă importanţa unui sentiment motivat de efemeritatea unei vieţi care te urcă şi te coboară, „hăituindu-te", cu convingerea că poţi fi Dumnezeu, dar că în acelaşi timp poţi fi o judecată a Lui care culmineaza cu naşterea tragediei vieţii.

Copila mea, de ce ești singura fără lumânare aprinsă?

On Octombrie 25, 2010

În fiecare final se ascunde un nou început, nevăzut încă de ochiul uman.

Am găsit această poveste emoţională într-un carneţel pierdut pe stradă, în timp ce mă întorceam spre casă. O voi împărtăşi cu voi, nu doar fiindcă este plină de învăţăminte, ci pentru ca realmente te atinge la suflet.

Într-o zi nefastă, în timp ce traversa strada, o mașină a lovit puternic o fetiță, care și-a pierdut viața pe loc. Avea numai 5 anișori, împliniți fix în ziua accidentului.

La nici 20 minute, un reprezentant al Poliției, s-a prezentat la ușa părinților acesteia, anunțându-i despre nenorocire. Mama fetiței a rămas traumatizată și lipsită de orice speranţă. Nu există durere mai mare pe Pământ.

De la moartea fetiței, ani de zile, aceasta nu a putut dormi aproape deloc, visând-o în permanență și plângând până la leșin. Într-o zi, ațipind, a visat un înger care i-a spus: "Nu mai plânge !"

Auzind asta, mămica l-a întrebat: "Pot să stau de vorbă cu ea sau să o văd măcar odată?"

Îngerul îi răspunde: "Vrei să o vezi? Atunci îngerul o ia de mână pe femeie și o urcă în cer."

Leadership: Trebuie să privești dincolo de realitate ca să poți întrezări perspectiva unei noi lumi, chiar dacă ceea ce te ţine în loc este visul?

Ajunși în cer, o poartă s-a deschis larg , unde mii de copii stăteau cu lumânări în mână, formau un întreg drum.

Văzând asta, mămica îl întreabă pe înger: "Cine sunt ei?"

Ei sunt copiii care ajuns zilnic în Rai, îi răspunde îngerul, îndată.

- Fiica mea, este printre ei ?

- Uită-te atentă, ce este acolo în zare...

Un copil venea în fugă. Radia de bucurie de parcă își întâlnea mama după zeci de ani..

Leadership: Poţi să adopţi o perspectivă care valorizează curajul de a explora dincolo de cunoscut, chiar și atunci când ceea ce îţi este familiar te reține?

Văzând-o, mama se înveseli de moment.. dar în câteva secunde căzu în genunchi și izbucni din nou în lacrimi. Fiica ei, era singura care nu avea o lumânare aprinsă și nici fața nu îi era luminată.

Dar fetița se apropie din ce în ce mai mult și își strânse mama în brațe ca pentru ultima dată !

- Copila mea, de ce ești singura fără lumânare aprinsă? întreabă mama printre lacrimi.

- Mămică scumpă, te rog, nu mai plânge ! Uite, eu îmi aprind lumânarea în fiecare seară, la fel ca ceilalți copii, dar lacrimile tale, o sting ! De aceea, lumânarea mea este mai tot timpul stinsă, iar eu sunt obligată să rămân tot timpul în întuneric.

Morala este următoarea. Nu plânge tot timpul după omul pierdut, fie el tată, frate, soț sau copil. Lasă-l să se odihnească în pace, nu-ți chinui într-una viața, pentru că nu se va întoarce, indiferent de situație. În schimb, poți păstra vie, amintirea acelui om, amintindu-ți de el cu drag și zâmbind în amintirea lui. Este o poveste tristă dar sper să învățați ceva din ea. Amin ! Povestea trebuie să trezească amintiri în sufletul fiecărui om care a pierdut pe cineva drag !

Leadershipul poate să prezinte însemnătate prin următorul punct de sprijin: "Eliberarea vine când îmbrățișăm amintirile, nu când ne lăsăm înghițiți de durere".

Copila mea, de ce ești singura fără lumânare aprinsă? este întrebarea la care puţini ştiu să răspundă, şi chiar şi mai puţini ar avea curajul să se confrunte cu adevărul ei. Tot ce pot spune este că amintirea celor dragi nu trebuie să fie o sursă de durere, ci un far călăuzitor spre pacea interioară şi că lacrimile de astăzi pot stinge lumina de mâine. Deci, să învățăm să zâmbim amintirilor pentru a păstra flacăra vie.

Coridorul ambiguu al orientării

On Octombrie 20, 2010

Acceptă realitatea înainte de a te concentra asupra lucrurilor pe care crezi că le cunoşti.

Leadership: Tu te concentrezi asupra realităţii oamenilor înainte de te concentra asupra ta nevoilor tale? Sau te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce nu ştii că poţi afla?

În cadrul celor mai bune relaţii cu oamenii trebuie să te concentrezi pe ceea ce au ei de oferit, nu pe ceea ce vrei tu să obţii de la ei. Realitatea este de multe ori înşelătoare, îţi diminuează abilitatea de a te concentra asupra lucrurilor evidente care sunt înaintea ta – pe care numai ceilalţi oameni le cunosc bine. Cu alte cuvinte, mai întâi dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a crede în potenţialul lor adaptându-te la realitatea creată de ei, şi apoi analizează câtă încredere poţi să le acorzi astfel ca ei să accepte propriile tale orientări şi direcţii.

Liantul care te uneşte de ceilalţi oameni este ca un coridor cu două sensuri – un sens care duce spre adevărul pe care bazează gândirea şi acţiunile lor (dictându-le ritmul în care se dezvoltă), şi un sens care duce spre inima realităţii tale – care uneori stă în calea accesului către adevărul pe care îl percep şi îl transmit ei.

A nu percepe judecata şi punctele de vedere ale celorlalţi oameni e ca şi cum te-ai cufunda în umbră pe măsură ce înaintezi printr-un coridor necunoscut şi nu ştii la ce să te aştepţi. Ajungi în ipostaza aceluia care nu reuşeşte să înţeleagă logica evenimentelor.

Unul dintre cele mai importante lucruri pe care trebuie să le faci atunci când interacţionezi cu oamenii este să te apropii de acea realitate care te plasează aproape de rădăcinile leadershipului lor. Aşa cum un aparat foto trebuie să convingă printr-o calitate a imaginii constantă, tot astfel tu trebuie să observi potenţialul oamenilor de a genera aşteptările tale ca să convingi prin acea calitate constantă a ta de a descoperi esenţa înţelegerii lor.

Leadershipul înseamnă să accepţi realitatea care dă sens şi beneficii oamenilor, înainte de a te concentra asupra lucrurilor pe care crezi că le cunoşti despre treburile lor, în tratarea unor cazuri de tipul: "too small to be considered".

Coridorul ambiguu al orientării aduce în atenţie percepţia pe care trebuie să ţi-o conturezi astfel încât să reflecte atât realitatea ta cât şi realitatea celorlalţi oameni. Când vei ajunge să percepi "în avans", adică să intuieşti lucrurile pe care nu le cunoşti despre oameni şi acţiunile lor, atunci te vei putea încrede în ştiinţa ta de a conduce.

Concluzie: Oricât de bun este un lider, performanţele leadershipului său depind de oamenii care îl înconjoară. Căutând înţelesul concepţiilor şi acţiunilor lor, aflând ceea ce îi motivează sau demotivează în acceptarea direcţiei şi metodelor noi ce se cer pentru atingerea ţelului comun – nu vei bâjbâi în obscuritate ci vei găsi calea adecvată de implementare a leadershipului tău.

Cosa Sei

Leadershipul este miracolul unei creaţii care poate oricând să se angajeze în explicarea legăturii dintre ceea ce se rămâne neschimbat în timp şi ceea ce survine ca o îmbogăţire a experienţei concretului transpusă într-o viziune suprarealistă.

De fiecare dată când mă aflu în prezenţa trandafirilor, pe care de atâtea ori îi contemplă scriitorii ca pe un spectacol de storytelling, pe care artiştii îi ridică la rang de muză a celei mai perfecte creaţii a lui Dumnezeu, reuşesc cu mult aplomb, cu spirit de interpretare simbolică a naturii, con quella finezza di dettagli , să mă pun în ipostaza de a trăi experienţa unei rezonanţe karmice, a unei stări de grație ce unește inimile prin iubire. Chiar şi trandafirii simt nevoia de a vorbi, cu glas tăinuit, prin cuvintele ivite din mângâierea duioasă a unei dulci recunoştinţe pentru o privire veşnic creatoare.

Arta este prezentă acolo unde trandafirii îşi scot la iveală întreaga forţă coloristică, străpungând voit sufletul privitorului cu înţelesul pe care îl dă expresivitatea unei realităţi captate în viaţa pânzei de artist, lucrată cu mâini harnice. Viaţa misterioasă a vechilor portrete, viaţa din marea carte a naturii, expresia materială a unor fixaţii estetice sau culturale, trecute prin pensula fină, moale şi catifelată a creatorului de multi-universuri, certifică potenţialul cu care am fost investit încă de la naştere: harul de a fi un dar pentru multitudinea faţelor creaţiei.

Leadership: Care este caracteristica tabloului încadrat în povestea vieţii tale care poate să devină manifestare a posibilităţi de trecere la o formă de exprimare a emoţiilor cele mai vii, în scop de definire a autenticităţii bazată pe impresia de improvizaţie?

Iată o domnişoară plină de naturaleţe în încâlcitul labirint al cărărilor parcului, pe care eleganţa manierelor o laudă ca pe o admiratoare a lucrurilor simple, o visătoare a unei lumi ideale. Este fermecătoare prin atractivitatea şi misterul pe care îl degajă cu graţie, ca un fel de confirmare a delicateţii emoţiilor care plutesc într-un spaţiu infinit. Iată ce-mi place cel mai mult la ea: este singură. Non lo sai neanche tu cosa sei. Se înroşeşte mai zdravăn ca un trandafir atunci când simte prezenţa cuiva în preajma ei. Coloritul pronunţat al buzelor sale care schiţează un zâmbet firav, oferă totuşi spaţiu de manevră celui ce ştie să sesizeze o ocazie atunci când ea apare:

- Iertaţi-mă, domnişoară, se vede că vă plac mult trandafirii, probabil sunteţi pictoriţă, nu-i aşa?

Zâmbetul discret, privirea plină de farmec, şi răspunsul ei pe un ton cald, sunt primul semn de bun augur orientat spre a dezvolta un dialog deschis şi perceptiv, complementar cu spațiul din jur, devenind mișcare, gest, interpretare a unei opere de artă. Caracteristica tabloului pe care nimeni nu-l poate descifra în acest context este că se poate personaliza în funcţie de preferinţele pentru tematica ideii de "Why Not Otherwise?"

- Nu, nu sunt pictoriţă. Mi-ar fi plăcut să fiu, poate mai demult, dar am mers pe alt drum. Din păcate. Crezi că am pierdut ceva important din vedere?

Leadership: Până unde îţi urmezi pasiunea de a crea experienţe și de a creiona amintiri, în scopul transmiterii unei imagini vizuale care are potenţialul de a cauza o reacţie de uimire la adresa realităţii care se încăpăţânează să reziste provocărilor prezentului?

În romanul "Exuvii", scriitoarea Simona Popescu mă ajută să fac posibilă interpretarea trandafirului prin conştiinţa unei identităţi atent definite, ogni istante anche adesso così, prin simplitatea suprapusă unei aparente fragilităţi de ordin confesional, prin măiestria care transformă stările emoţionale în atitudini de rezonanţă estetică:

"Este o prezenţă necunoscută, necunoscându-se. La ea descoperi frumuseţea despre care nu se poate vorbi, frumuseţea mutului, a nemuritorului. E frumuseţea celui care nu se iubeşte pe sine, pentru că nu cunoaşte acest fel de iubire, frumuseţea celui care nu ştie ce e frumuseţea. E frumuseţea celui indiferent, ochii ei te privesc fix, până când te intimidează, dar în alt fel decât te-ar intimida o privire străină. Te înfruntă privirea aceea care este şi nu este a ta. Te îndepărtezi, te mai uiţi odată, cu coada ochiului, şi vezi mereu pe altcineva în acelaşi om."

Trandafirul este impulsul unei inspiraţii de moment, martorul unei creaţii de mare originalitate transformată în iubire. Senza te, io cosa farei? Pentru prima oară în viaţa mea am ştiut că nu sunt întâmplătoare conjuncturile în care poţi face comparaţii sau asemănări. Eram alături de cineva pentru care trandafirul înseamnă, pe linia subţire a melancoliei, identificarea cu altă fiinţă asemănătoare mie, plină de căldură şi frumos, făcând posibilă iubirea obsesivă dintre muză şi artist, dintre simţul estetic şi forţa copleşitoare a amintirii. Sei qualcosa di più !

Cumva, mi se părea că experimentez o senzaţie de déjà vu în mijlocul unui tablou al cărei poveste uimitoare, plină de farmec şi senzualitate, se întinde din veşnicie în veşnicie, atât eram de emoţionat, cu un efect atât de sublim asupra inimii şi a spiritului, ca atunci când te afli în faţa unui secret care face presiuni spre a fi comunicat în orice parte a lumii numai prin limbajul simbolic, expresiv, nonverbal. Starmi vicino !

Pasiunea mea e arta, frumosul de a descrie asemănarea între ceea ce mi se întâmplă şi intensitatea culorii roşii. O urmez până la ultima tuşă de pensulă, până la intersecţia cu metafora primordialităţii, ştiinţa aparte a expresivităţii unde conceptele se unesc şi formează un limbaj figurativ. E mi ricordi cosa perderei nel perderti !

Leadership: Cum îţi prezinţi creaţia din punct de vedere al ideii de "experienţă de dincolo de prima vedere", atunci când trăieşti sentimentul sinelui ca pe un loc al întâlnirii cu imaginea ta în oglindă?

E mi fai innamorare di te. Era ceva sensibil la ea care serveşte la a-mi aminti ceva diferit despre mine însumi, tocmai faptul că ceea ce conduce viaţa artistului spre a putea judeca destul de exact opera lui de artă este fascinaţia pentru condiţia de "erou discret" al unei poveşti de iubire. Alla fine, puoi incontrare migliaia di persone senza che nessuna di queste attiri la tua attentione. E poi incontri la persona giusta e tutto cambia.

Ne-am plimbat cu drag, între dialoguri şi zâmbete, în această zonă a frumuseţii naturii. Lumea nu era atentă la noi, noi nu eram atenţi la restul lumii. Trăiam clipa de faţă prin absorbţie de imagini, prin reciprocitatea privirilor furişe şi prin jocul gesturilor mărunte. Vorbeam despre toate lucrurile posibile, luna şi soarele nu lipseau din versiunea realităţii noastre. Nimeni nu socoteşte timpul atunci când mintea începe să viseze, nimeni nu realizează o coordonare sui-generis între perceput, real şi imaginar atunci când trebuie să câştige afecţiunea persoanei dragi.

Cu recunoştinţă pentru împliniri, speranţă pentru viitor, trandafirii ne priveau cu admirație și ne salutau cu zâmbetul pe buze, ca şi şi când ar fi trăit ei însăşi povestea noastră, atât de simplă, atât de înduioşătoare, atât de bine închegată. Păreau că se apleacă în faţa noastră în semn de respect adus vieţii prin iubire, în cuprinsul unui joc metaforic al elementelor naturii, de culori, sunete şi miresme, în ceea ce priveşte spaţialitatea inerentă imaginii artistice pictate cu o tendinţă de monumentalitate.

Leadership: Intensitatea expresiei pe care o conţine creaţia ta se manifestă ca urmare a unui transfer metaforic de semnificaţie favorizat în mare măsură de vecinătăţile nevoii de aliniere la un alt context de construire a imaginii de "dublu al sinelui"?

Tot plimbându-ne alene, într-o dulce strângere de mâini, mi-am amintit de un fragment din Neverending Story, o comparaţie pe care trandafirul o împărtăşeşte prin capacitatea de a-şi conserva forma pentru o lungă durată de timp. Semnificaţia ascunsă a trandafirului iese în evidenţă la contactul cu privirea creatoare a unirii dintre experienţa tratării figurii umane din profilul unei simbolistici mistice, cu ideea existenţei unui univers metaforic, spaţio-temporal. Eu şi ea. Eram ca cei doi sfincşi ce străjuiesc Poarta Marii Enigme.

"Privirea unui sfinx e ceva cu totul şi cu totul diferit de privirea oricărei fiinţe. Toţi ceilalţi ne însuşim ceva atunci când privim. Vedem lumea. Un sfinx nu vede însă nimic. Într-un anumit sens, e orb. În schimb, ochii lui radiază ceva. Şi ştiţi ce radiază privirea unui sfinx? Toate enigmele lumii. De aceea cei doi sfincşi se privesc încontinuu unul pe celălalt. Căci privirea unui sfinx nu poate fi suportată decât de un alt sfinx. Iar acum imaginează-ţi ce păţeşte cel ce îndrăzneşte să pătrundă în schimbul de priviri al celor doi. Încremeneşte pe loc şi nu se poate mişca până ce n-a rezolvat toate enigmele lumii ! "

De aici se obţine o imagine de ansamblu asupra tentaţiei de a contopi două conştiinţe pure într-una singură, prin incitarea imaginaţiei unui artist care împărtăşeşte celorlalţi, printr-o palpitare de suflet, o lume delicată, misterioasă, deschisă unei percepţii de tip sinestezic în contextul unui moment de reflecţie profundă. Cel puţin în cazul meu, raportul dintre activitatea de creaţie şi savurarea operelor de artă apare ca deziderat de a fi în vecinătatea unei forme de exprimare artistică prin comparaţii, prin metafore, prin simboluri.

Aşadar, expresia pe care o conţine creaţia mea este o revelaţie a existenţei trăită într-un univers paralel, în scena uimitoare a unei poveşti onirice de care nu mă voi putea niciodată despărţi, de care îmi voi aminti cu plăcere peste ani.

Marea capodoperă a artei are ca punct central imaginea pe care ţi-o doreşti imortalizată într-un tablou de mare rafinament, despre o poveste dorită ca şi cum ar fi reală, atunci când trăieşti sentimentul unităţii de stil şi de bun gust ca pe un loc al întâlnirii cu tine însuţi într-o altă fiinţă.

Cosa Sei este denumirea unui tablou a cărui temă este acea parte a naturii care ne încântă cu eleganţă, prin gama de culori variate şi vibrante, inspirată dintr-o poveste care nu se scrie decât la capătul unei experienţe de Déjà-Vu.

Coşmarul răscolitor al omului în devenire

On Martie 28, 2013

Arată ceea ce crezi că înseamnă puterea, fără să aluneci într-o spirală descendentă.

"Aşteptaţi ! Încă ceva, vreau să-l felicitaţi pe noul nostru director care sperăm că o să rezolve lucrurile, domnul Peter Bowland."

Toată lumea aplaudă. Dar vai, ce turnură surprinzătoare pentru Laura Quinn ! Ce fatalitate ! Ce coşmar ! Intolerabil anunţ ! Ce nădejde deşartă şi amăgitoare, care nu se vede, dar care vibrează ca un imens gong, ameninţător şi profetic, depăşind orice măsură. O forţă necunoscută o leagă parcă cu lanţuri grele de stâlpul infamiei, într-un spaţiu restrâns, atipic, neconvenţional. Rigidă, dezaprobatoare, Laura îi strânge totuşi din complezenţă mâna celui care a fost numit în locul ei director.

În clipa aceasta răscolitoare, care nu încetează să-şi exercite copleşitor presiunea asupra Laurei Quinn, ne este dezvăluită una din cele mai memorabile experienţe, dar greu de suportat, din viaţa ei. Această demnă formă de existenţă prin care respiră nenumărate celule vii, este preschimbata într-un mecanism rigid şi foarte rezistent la şocuri. O fiinţă blândă, cu toate sentimentele şi aspiraţiile care o definesc, transformată într-un sistem unic, strict, riguros, plin de reguli şi proceduri.

Este prima parte din procesul de defragmentare completă a unui întreg. O călătorie mult mai respingătoare şi mai dificil de întreprins, ca urmare a unei decizii izbitoare.

Viaţa închinată în slujba unei aspiraţii greu de înfăptuit, pierderea exagerată a încrederii, durerea nemăsurată cauzată de un întreg şir de frustrări, supărări, ratări, neîmpliniri, o aduc pe Laura Quinn într-un punct negativ. Trezind în ea porniri care dormitau latent, un elan sufletesc nemaiîntâlnit, dorinţa unei judecăţi finale şi a unei răzbunări în numele nedreptăţilor resimţite adânc.

De aici încolo se naşte o întreagă intrigă, într-o partidă de şah cu reguli total necunoscute. Căci luându-i omului orice libertate de exprimare, tăindu-i orice speranţă pentru o viitoare carieră strălucită, nu faci decât să-i stimulezi capacităţile ascunse, dar în defavoarea ta.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi sentimentele la amintirea a ceea ce ai fost, în contrast cu ceea ce ai devenit, fără să denaturezi imaginea şi profilul personalităţii tale?

Dacă Jean Valjean, personajul lui Victor Hugo, păstra sfeşnicele de argint ca să-şi aducă aminte întotdeauna de unde pornise, Laura Quinn, îşi intensifică demersurile de răzbunare în direcţia cea mai periculoasă cu putinţă, păstrând totuşi în suflet durerea convertirii sale.

Cu o seriozitate demonică şi cu o chibzuinţă sistematică cu adevărat grandioasă, Laura Quinn porneşte la înfăptuirea planului ei îndrăzneţ - răzbunarea tacită, în defavoarea celor ce i-au pricinuit suferinţa. Şi astfel, neputincioşi în faţa razei de acţiune a reginei nedescoperite, capetele încoronate ale companiei încep să cadă ca nişte pioni, unul câte unul, într-o chinuitoare partidă de şah fără remiză.

Laura câştigă bătălia. Dar nouă lumină în care vede totul, nu mai este utilizată ca stimulator al creşterii energiei, al producţiei de materie primă pentru tot ceea ce altădată însemna răzbunare. Nouă lumină care o învăluie este obturată de amintirea a ceea ce a fost, în contrast cu ceea ce a devenit. În principiu, această forţă interioară, nevoiaşă, flamandă, se manifestă asupra fiinţei ajunsă - prin suferinţă - la maturitate.

Căci întotdeauna după o luptă crâncenă cu tine însuţi, caracterul devine o piatră de încercare, un exod dificil de suportat. Dirijarea luminii în concordanţă cu cerinţele sufletului, pentru producţia de stimuli pozitivi, se face în acest caz printr-o descărcare de mare tensiune, printr-un singur flash.

Ceaţa s-a risipit, permiţând astfel un nou răsărit. Ceva în sufletul Laurei s-a reaprins. Ceva a inspirat-o să vadă mai departe de acele impenetrabile ziduri de marmură pe care le-a ridicat în jurul ei. Rezultatul a întrecut orice aşteptări: " It's a remarkable world out there... "

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să intri în pielea unui personaj care se extinde dincolo de cadrul evenimentelor pe care înţelegerea ta le interpretează pline de durere şi fără sens?

Există o forţă necunoscută care te leagă cu lanţuri grele de un stâlp al infamiei? Care este factorul care o produce? Poţi elimina din existenţa ta acele neîmpliniri care te aduc într-un punct negativ al existenţei tale? Arde în tine dorinţa unei judecăţi finale şi a unei răzbunări în numele nedreptăţilor resimţite adânc?

Construirea unei realităţi dotate cu utilajul necesar schimbării, cu materialele necesare unei deveniri anume, dând direcţii noi de urmat, ca promisiune a împlinirii prin evoluţie şi maturitate - este primul pas către salvarea de la faliment. Acest lucru este valabil pentru toţi liderii, indiferent pe cine conduc şi ce realizează.

Pe plan profesional sau individual, contralovitura - de fapt un pretext pentru a-i elimina pe cei responsabili de deciziile luate în defavoarea ta - este o problemă discutabilă şi uneori poate fi întemeiată, ca în cazul Laurei Quinn din filmul " Flawless (2007) ".

Intenţia de a arăta cu degetul spre unul sau mai mulţi vinovaţi de un leadership precar, nevoia de a deschide ochii la o lume nouă în care să te regăseşti, te aduce în situaţia de a-ţi juca fără greş rolul în "pelicula" care îţi pune în valoare aptitudinile. Peliculă care însă evidenţiază deprecierea fondului tău de dezvoltare. Încet, încet te îndepărtezi de la propria ta fiinţă, de scopul real pe care trebuie să-l atingi în timp.

Surprindem aici una din treptele cele mai solide ale devenirii omului prin manifestarea fiinţei sale tratată cu dispreţ de o altă autoritate, supusă unei determinări fantastice, sub imperiul nevoii de a controla factorii nefavorabili care îi condiţionează regresul, cu scopul de a se integrată în lumea dorită de ea.

Asta înseamnă, în termeni mai puţin populari, să te extinzi dincolo de cadrul tău de valoare - să abuzezi de spaţiul de manevră de care dispui pentru a implementa un alt viitor, un alt mod tactic şi un nou stil de joc. Aceasta este prima parte din procesul de defragmentare a întregului care te defineşte ca om, o călătorie mult mai respingătoare şi mai dificil de întreprins ca urmare a unei decizii izbitoare.

Leadership: Eşti constrâns să arunci vina asupra realităţii sociale pentru efectul stării tale, fără să prejudiciezi întrucâtva acea inteligenţă a vieţii pe care o conţine capacitatea actorului de a fi deplin stăpân pe ceea ce face?

Ovidiu Niculescu spunea la un moment dat: "Actorul este un atlet al sentimentelor și trebuie să fie pregătit interior pentru orice. Personal nu am căutat, poate că și aici am fost norocos, când am simțit puternic în mine că trebuie să joc un rol, l-am jucat, l-am studiat, m-am documentat, am muncit, mi-am asumat, m-am emoționat, m-am transformat, am empatizat și am transmis mai departe în public emoțiile mele. Uneori am reușit, alteori nu, dar omul și mai ales actorul cât trăiește învață."

A fi un actor de prim rang în dinamica unor cauzalităţi multiple (care îţi determină major concepţiile despre viaţă, micşorându-ţi nivelul de autocontrol), te îndepărtează deseori de adevăratul sens al leadershipului. La răscrucea dintre două etape, să joci cu distincţie un repertoriu străin de tot ceea ce te caracterizează cu adevărat, este un capriciu scump, însufleţind scenarii firave de viitor în care joci doar un rol de figurant.

Oratorul profesionist, John Euhrman, a sesizat acest viciu: " Acesta este momentul când aluneci într-o spirală descendentă. Pentru a arăta ceea ce crezi tu că înseamnă puterea, vei demonstra încăpăţânare şi egoism. Dar astfel vei schimba tocmai procesul care ar fi schimbat starea ta de fapt. "

Starea ta naturală, tot ceea ce te ţine permanent pe linia de plutire, se va schimba în cazul în care spaţiul de manevră este redus datorită prezenţei zidurilor şi gardurilor pe care tu însuşi le întăreşti pe zi ce trece. Şi rămâi închis, păstrându-te doar pentru propria-ţi persoană, până când se va produce maturizarea, începutul adevăratei reforme. Când în locul acceptării a ceea ce ai fost, se va instala acel nou mod benefic de a fi.

Leadershipul tău acceptă efectele care apar în afara sferei tale de retuşare a evenimentelor vieţii, fără a afecta tranziţia ta de la rolul de spectator la cel de actor? Această tranziţie modifică într-o măsură mai mare sau mai mică, mediul proxim în care trăieşti?

Coşmarul răscolitor al omului în devenire scoate în evidenţă acea modificare imprevizibilă de personalitate şi rezultatul ei, acea stare incomodă de a fi care îţi permite să acţionezi deosebit de eficient o scurtă perioadă de timp, urmată apoi de o sesiune de autoevaluare care poate genera maturizarea sau deteriorarea ta ca om.

Examinează-te cu umilinţă pe tine însuţi înainte de a arăta cu degetul spre alţii. Şi vezi cine eşti cu adevărat, vezi dacă nu te transformi la rândul tău într-un om de calitatea a doua. Poţi să pledezi în orice moment nevinovat?

"Învierea" ta, folosind unele materii prime precum răzbunarea, ura, pedeapsa, în defavoarea celor care nu ţi-au susţinut eforturile sau nu te-au preţuit la adevărata ta valoare, poate fi de scurtă durată. În cele din urmă partea cea mai vătămata poţi fi chiar tu.

Dacă vrei să te ridici deasupra celorlalţi şi să-ţi dovedeşti adevărată valoare, arată ceea ce crezi tu că înseamnă puterea, fără să aluneci într-o spirală descendentă, fără să fii supus oprobiului personal sau public, adică fără să te legi cu lanţuri grele de un stâlp al infamiei.

Crearea unei arte revoluţionare fără compromisuri

On Iunie 15, 2014

Propune-ţi să introduci o gândire sistemică şi perfecţionată în leadership, prin găsirea şi aplicarea procedeului inedit pentru abordarea temelor revoluţionare.

Eisenstein îşi propune aşadar, într-o primă viziune, câteva obiective precise. Printre acestea se numără încercarea unui atac frontal împotriva filmului burghez şi a influenţelor acestuia pentru crearea unei "arte revoluţionare fără compromisuri", în domeniul filmului. Apoi artistul îşi propune să introducă gândirea materialist-dialectică în film, să-i găsească un echivalent cinematografic, să "pună în legătură reciproca indisolubilă", dialectica şi mijloacele de expresie ale cinematografiei.

Încercarea este desigur temerară, ea prefigurează, de fapt, viitoarele sale idei mai clare, despre filmul intelectual. Eisenstein îşi propune, în fond, găsirea procedeului formal inedit pentru abordarea temelor revoluţionare. "Greva", ca şi celelalte filme ale seriei, urma să explice „tehnica luptei" revoluţionare. Eisenstein urmăreşte expunerea cinematografică a unei idei. Tema nu trebuie să capete o expresie subliniată, în forma unei povestiri, care să transfere ideea în domeniul fabulaţiei, pentru a o face înţeleasă. Tema urmează să fie comunicată nemijlocit. *****

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi o distribuţie a cunoaşterii şi inovaţiei pe teritoriul unei ştiinţe care îndrăzneşte să se pună de-a curmezişul tendinţelor momentului?

Cea mai mare reuşită a unui artist şi pasul înainte făcut de el, fără a lua în calcul subiectivitatea unei anumite epoci, le vedem în faptul că întotdeauna lucrurile şi farmecul formei lor sunt dezvăluite cu o independenţă spirituală care permite raportarea la fenomenele lumii exterioare. Artistul nu depinde de elementul pe care se străduieşte cu atâta energie să-l dezvolte în expunerea lucrării sale plasând sunetul, lumina şi întunericul în centrul ei, ci de crearea capacităţii nemijlocite de a recepta impresiile din realitate şi de a le reproduce prin intermediul fanteziei în imagini artistice.

Leadershipul are la bază elementele şi legile unei ştiinţe vaste, axate pe cunoaşterea corespunzătoare a observaţiilor preliminare prin care se solicită anumite modificări de gândire în funcţie de modul de gestionare a resurselor de creativitate pentru depăşirea şi dominarea „imposibilului". De aceea marii artişti ai schimbării se concentrează pe găsirea unor noi forme de expresie a idealurilor, îndrăzneţe din punct de vedere a viziunii care decupează în planul lumii o perspectivă singulară a viitorului şi a configurării sale, în contextul complexităţii actuale.

Expresia desăvârşită a unei arte noi este o îndelungată istorie a găsirii procedeului formal inedit pentru abordarea unei teme revoluţionare !

Arta este o sumă de combinaţii, mijloace de analiză şi creaţie, stabilite de cele mai multe individual, adică venite din partea unui singur creator care mijloceşte trecerea de la o formulă nouă de găsire a temelor de cercetare care răspund nevoilor progresului, la o formulă de asigurare şi îmbunătăţire a calităţii de "bun propriu" a produsului finit.

De aceea expunerea unei idei este o condiţie absolută a intabulării unei construcţii noi de gândire. O condiţie a abordării, asigurării şi popularizării unei teme revoluţionare de compunere a artei.

Tendinţele momentului sunt punerea accentului pe tot ceea ce este natural, conform factorului emoţional de a ţine pasul cu sentimentul unei satisfacţii imediate la care se renunţă în schimbul unei speranţe viitoare ce s-ar obţine o nouă variantă a realităţii. Dacă ştiinţa ta îndrăzneşte să se pună de-a curmezişul acestor tendinţe ale momentului, atunci probabil tema ta nu va lua atât forma unei povestiri, cât forma unei confruntări între libertatea de conștiință și nevoia coeziunii sociale.

Leadersip: Contribui la dezvoltarea artei tale prin definirea unei forme superioare de autonomie specifică spaţiului de creaţie?

Latura cea mai interesantă a leadershipului, care permite să supui, în concepţia proprie, imperiul unei ştiinţe bogate în conţinut (dată de caracterul producţiilor de viziuni, unde mai multe puzzle-uri de potrivire a mijloacelor de expresie sunt rezolvate), se focalizează exclusiv pe acumularea de idealuri, reguli şi principii general acceptate, cu privire la definirea unei noi forme de autonomie specifică spaţiului de creaţie.

Acest spaţiu îţi facilitează accesul catalizat la un nivel mai înalt de cunoaştere, îţi creează instrumentele cu care să înglobezi suma de calităţi şi capacităţi obţinute prin învăţare şi prin aplicarea a ceea ce ai învăţat, prin însuşirea unor noi deprinderi intelectuale, dar mai ales prin încercări continue de a atribui valoare descoperirilor tale.

Iar produsele proprii de creaţie trebuiesc înzestrate cu o seamă de calităţi exemplare pentru a putea fi socotite adaptative sau inovatoare. Exprimarea unor anumite teme ale gândirii prin intermediul experienţelor, a formelor şi principiilor de construire a mijloacelor de expresie, folosesc la redarea conținutului de valoare al unei descoperiri. A unei „opere de artă".

Te preocupi permanent de dezvoltarea acelor teme de natură fundamentală care prezintă un bun potenţial de a oferi rezultate originale?

Autonomia în artă reprezintă mijlocul de a da viaţă unei teme care să nu sufere de pe urma nici unei constrângeri sau îngrădiri, având posibilitatea de a se situa deasupra oricărei morale.

Crearea unei arte revoluţionare fără compromisuri ia în considerare apariţia unor noi artişti şi a unor forţe de schimbare specifice oricărui tip de leadership, în stadiu în care ştiinţa ia avânt. Iar responsabilitatea pentru "personalizarea" ei devine o binecuvântare, pentru că efortul pe care îl presupune aduce cu el bucuria de a te conecta la energia unui act de creație izvorât din pasiunea pentru învățare. Pentru explorarea unor noi frontiere ale utilizării cunoaşterii.

Crearea unui univers autentic prin recrutarea personajelor din realitate

Adaptarea la mediul în care se caută actorii facilitează identificarea persoanelor potrivite pentru roluri.

Începu din nou căutarea de modele, pentru că în concepţia sa întreg filmul trebuia să fie "tipaj". Maxim Strauch, principalul însărcinat şi de data aceasta cu găsirea lor, bătea în căutările sale străzile, cârciumile, azilurile de noapte. Se adapta totdeauna mediului. Pentru a recruta şomerii, se îmbraca la fel cu ei, umbla neras şi le vorbea pe limba lor pentru a-i convinge. Pe demnitarii care trebuiau să apară în film îi căuta printre funcţionari. Era greu să-i convingă pe fiecare. Dacă reuşea, un asistent îl fotografia pe cel ales, îi întocmea o fisă. Un caiet gros, ilustrat astfel, a fost rezultatul acestei căutări îndelungate. Eisenstein îl consulta, îl adnota, făcând astfel o primă triere.

Cei reţinuţi erau chemaţi de regizor. Uneori se entuziasma pentru o fată, dar barba pe care omul o purta îl deranja. Îi cerea să se radă. Dar lucrul nu era posibil fără încuviinţarea prealabilă a soţiei acestuia şi atunci...căutarea anevoioasă a modelelor continua. Până şi colaboratorii săi apropiaţi au fost folosiţi în acest scop şi astfel Tisse a apărut în "Octombrie" ca ofiţer german.

Leadership: În parcursul tău creativ, ce catalizator al unei profunde introspecții te-ar ajuta să construiești un personaj emblematic, care să depășească inevitabilitatea destinului?

Cea mai mare dificultate era găsirea bineînţeles în film. Ideea actorului era eliminată din capul locului de către Eisenstein care dorea prezenţa unui om cu asemănare reală şi nu contrafăcută prin machiaj, ceea ce, socotea, ar fi contribuit la nefirescul apariţiei. Alter-Ego-ul lui Lenin a fost căutat multă vreme în numeroase oraşe, în fabrici, instituţii, pe străzi. În sfârşit fu găsit în persoana unui ins numit Nikandrov. Nu avea nimic din Lenin, decât trăsăturile feţei, care nu-i puteau ascunde însă goliciunea interioară, primitivismul intelectului. Fu învăţat să meargă ca Lenin, să se mişte ca el şi dresajul merse până la a i se impune gesturile caracteristice ale lui Lenin.

Aşadar, în universul autentic al producției de film, recrutarea personajelor din realitate necesită o selecție riguroasă, asemeni organizării unei echipe pentru proiecte de automatizare. Fiecare tipologie fotografică de personaj trebuie să posede trăsături specifice pentru a se integra în viziunea regizorului, întregul film fiind, în esență, o orchestrare minuțioasă. Ca și managerii de proiecte, regizorii de film trebuie să facă o recrutare atentă și să asigure adaptarea fiecărui individ la mediul creat. O producție reușită depinde de colaborare și sincronizare, deoarece fiecare personaj contribuie la îndeplinirea unei viziuni cinematografice unitare.

Leadership: Cum poate adaptarea abordării la mediul în care se găsesc personajele reale să contribuie la colectarea unor informații relevante pentru viziunea ta artistică?

Când creezi un univers autentic în film și recrutezi personaje din realitate, definirea clară a tipologiilor este crucială. Mai întâi, ghidează echipa în colectarea datelor relevante și în designul artistic al personajelor. După ce identifici conceptul principal, e nevoie să împarți personajele în categorii: cele pregătite să joace imediat (training set), cele care necesită ajustări și instruire (development set), și cele folosite pentru a evalua rezultatul final (test set).

În procesul de recrutare a personajelor reale, Maxim Strauch își adapta mereu abordarea la mediul lor, colectând fotografii și informații pentru ca regizorul să aibă o reprezentare cât mai fidelă a tipologiei. Personajele fotografiate necesitau adesea o triere suplimentară, iar Eisenstein se asigura că rezultatul final reflectă un univers autentic, asemănător cu realitatea.

Pentru ca filmul să aibă succes, tipologiile trebuie să fie reprezentative pentru distribuția din viața reală, altfel performanța actorilor nu va fi naturală. La fel cum în "machine learning" datele trebuie să fie reprezentative pentru distribuția reală, în film prezența unui om cu asemănare reală, și nu contrafăcută prin machiaj, contribuie la autenticitatea apariției sale în film.

Adaptarea la mediul fiecărui personaj ajută la obținerea unei reprezentări cât mai fidele în scenariu, pentru ca publicul să se poată conecta mai bine cu povestea și personajele.

Crearea unui univers autentic prin recrutarea personajelor din realitate este foarte importantă deoarece adaugă profunzime și credibilitate poveștii, oferind publicului o experiență mai imersivă și mai veridică. Mai mult decât atât, ajută la evidențierea nuanțelor culturale, sociale și istorice ale fiecărui personaj, conferind filmului un caracter distinct și memorabil.

Creează o viziune nouă asupra viitorului

On Aprilie 24, 2009

Conturează-ţi viziunea astfel încât drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelent.

La un moment dat, în filmul "Slumdog Millionaire (2008)" , cei doi fraţi, Salim şi Jamal, se reîntâlnesc după o lungă perioadă de timp la etajul superior al unei clădiri în construcţie. În timp ce vorbeau despre trecutul lor şi admirau de la înălţime priveliştea din acea parte a oraşului, Salim, îi arată în zare lui Jamal o anumită zonă şi îi spune:

- Aceea era mahalaua noastră. Poţi să-ţi imaginezi asta? Trăiam chiar acolo frate, îţi aminteşti? Acum sunt numai afaceri. India se află în centrul lumii acum, iar eu, eu sunt în centrul ei.

Triumful în leadership este reflectarea spontană şi cât mai fidelă a imaginii interioare pe care ţi-o creezi în procesul de evoluţie spre atingerea nivelului de "centru" al lumii pe care vrei să o reprezinţi.

Viitorul se naşte azi, dar se arată mâine. Şi nu se arată întotdeauna aşa cum ne aşteptăm noi să fie, aşa cum înţelegem să-l întâmpinăm şi să-l prefigurăm. Totuşi, aşa cum observa cineva, prezentul este acela care circumscrie orizontul aşteptărilor cu care privim viitorul.

Capacitatea ta de a te proiecta în viitor şi de a vizualiza ceea ce îţi pregăteşte acesta se aseamănă cu un chiriaş care caută o nouă locuinţă. Dar, odată ce îşi găseşte locuinţa ce-i poate asigura un anume confort, refuză să plătească chiria.

Viziunea începe cu drumul pe care îl parcurgi în căutarea „locuinţei" – a acelui loc din viitor care îţi permite să reduci distanţa de la ceea ce te face să te simţi dispreţuit şi dezorientat, la ceea ce te face să te simţi împlinit. Dar dacă refuzi să plăteşti „chiria" pentru şederea ta în acel loc, atunci viitorul nu va putea învinge trecutul plin de eşecuri şi nu-ţi va mai putea găzdui aşteptările cele mai optimiste - iar în acest caz te vei întoarce de unde ai plecat, sau te vei afla mereu pe drumuri ca un etern călător.

Singura experienţă la înălţime pe care merită să o încerci şi pe care ţi-o poţi permite aparţine mediului care ţi-a educat modelul de percepţie a lumii.

Drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă are particularitatea de a fi dotat cu o valoare excepţională, "contorizată" la valoarea unei locuinţe care de multe ori nu-ţi aparţine ţie, ci tuturor celor ce au contribuit la ridicarea ei. Iar reuşita ta se caracterizează printr-o extraordinară luare în considerare a "costului" găzduirii tale într-un mediu stabil pe perioada formării tale.

Leadershipul presupune să-ţi conturezi viziunea astfel încât indiferent de bugetul de care dispui şi de cât de încăpător vrei să fie acest spaţiu de locuit, să optezi doar spre tendinţele de extindere a propriei autonomii.

Viitorul începe şi evoluează în funcţie de cum reuşeşti să depăşeşti limitele de cost stabilite şi măsurate permanent de rezultale obţinute pe fiecare metru pătrat al spaţiului comun dintre preferinţele tale de investiţii şi experienţa ta de "chiriaş".

Ia în considerare ritmul tău de evoluţie fără să reduci costurile formării şi dezvoltării tale în timp.

Un lider trebuie să fie capabil să prefigureze viitorul mai întâi pentru sine, ca apoi să poată să expună clar şi pe înţelesul tuturor scopul final, opţiunile posibile şi modalităţile cele mai bune de aplicare şi de rezolvare a planurilor şi proiectelor de viitor, în vederea îmbunătăţirii activităţilor companiei şi inclusiv a vieţii oamenilor.

Nu-i de-ajuns să propui obiective pentru a fi realizate, trebuie să fie capabil să intuieşti ce schimbări se vor petrece în mediul de afaceri şi să fii în stare să influenţeze acele schimbări în folosul companiei, nu în detrimentul ei. Şi, de asemenea, trebuie să fii în stare să schimbi din mers strategia companiei atunci când lucrurile iau o întorsătură nefavorabilă. Ca lider trebuie să fii un veritabil "pivot" al schimbării.

Leadership: Trăieşti miracolul unei viziuni care scoate în evidenţă faptul că schimbările pot fi implementate în cadrul unei realităţi care îşi popularizează oferta printr-un mesaj de tipul: "Decizie Finală" ?

Cine nu-şi schimbă viziunea asupra viitorului şi direcţia în care se îndreaptă va rămâne veşnic spectator la un spectacol ieftin şi neprofesional.

Decizia finală care practic presupune alegerea unei alternative de exploatare a propriei autonomii din mai multe alternative posibile, în ceea ce priveşte modul de îndeplinire a viitorului, poate fi privită prin prisma a ceea ce vei deveni, nu prin prisma a ce eşti în prezent. Această decizie dă coerenţă unei minţi care gândeşte în ritmul unei lumi percepută de la înălţimea priveliştii unei călătorii aproape fantastice, iniţiatice într-un imaginar al orizontalității, sinonim unui drum spre marginile orizontului, un imaginar al ascensiunii și unul al coborârii.

Fără îndoială Brian Tracy nu s-a înşelat atunci când a afirmat: " Zi de zi, ce alegi, ce gândeşti şi ce faci este ce vei deveni. " Ceea ce ne imaginăm este ceea ce vedem, iar ceea ce vedem este ceea ce vom deveni. Cu alte cuvinte, viitorul nostru depinde de felul în care ni-l imaginăm.

În filmul "Slumdog Millionaire (2008)" , de care povesteam la început, întreprinzătorii care au văzut o oportunitate în a da o altă destinaţie acelei mahalale - prin transformarea ei într-o zonă rezidenţială, de birouri, au avut numai de câştigat. Ei au aspirat către un viitor diferit de cel pe care şi l-au imaginat localnicii.

Leadershipul se naşte atunci când priveşti în jos de la înălţimea la care călătoriei tale îi atribui un sens unic, dincolo de tine, mai presus de ceea ce dă lumea aceasta.

Cine va avea o viziune clară asupra viitorului şi va munci din greu, va reuşi să o transforme în realitate. Pe de altă parte, cei care nu au o viziune clară asupra viitorului vor ajunge probabil să fie la fel de stupefiaţi precum Salim la vederea schimbării: "Îţi vine să crezi? Poţi să-ţi imaginezi asta? ..."

Tu eşti capabil să percepi schimbarea înainte ca ea să se producă? Ai capacitatea de a te proiecta în viitor şi de a vizualiza ceea ce îţi pregăteşte acesta? Îţi conturezi viziunea astfel încât drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelent?

Creaţi relaţii avantajoase

On Februarie 09, 2009

Păstrează-ţi procentajul de credibilitate, fără să-ţi transformi impulsurile de reglare a capacităţii de relaţionare cu ceilalţi oameni într-o tensiune autodistrugătoare.

Sătul de promisiunile nerespectate ale angajaţilor de la o firmă de calculatoare, un tânăr în vârstă de 28 de ani şi-a luat inima în dinţi şi s-a dus ca din puşcă la sediul companiei unde, după multe insistenţe, un funcţionar l-a condus în biroul managerului general:

- De două săptămâni aştept domnule să mi se trimită laptopul care l-am comandat pe internet şi pentru care am plătit online cu cardul, şi nici până azi nu l-am primit.

Managerul, deranjat de "tupeul" tânărului nemulţumit, i-a răspuns:

- Este problema dumneavoastră. Vă rog să vă adresaţi departamentului de producţie, pentru că nu la mine se rezolvă aceste probleme. A cincea uşa pe stânga. O zi bună !

Leadership: Îţi testezi coeficientul de succes în funcţie de modul cum creezi o experienţă memorabilă în nuanţe negative pentru ceilalţi, în cadrul unui exemplu suplimentar al principiului "fiecare pentru el"?

Un punct slab şi un factor de risc. Modul în care managerul l-a tratat pe clientul respectiv reprezintă un punct slab şi chiar un factor de risc pentru compania pe care o conduce. Căci este nevoie doar de un client nemulţumit care să facă publicitate negativă serviciilor pe care le oferă compania, pe forumurile de discuţii de pe internet sau în ziarele locale, şi iată cum compania pierde o mulţime de clienţi.

De fapt, să fim sinceri, problema cea mai mare nu este a clientului, cât a managerului care nu a luat măsurile ce se cuvin şi nu a dorit să se implice în rezolvarea problemei, ştiind probabil că subordonaţii săi nu-şi fac treaba ca lumea. Problema cu adevărat serioasă este a managerului când, după ce companiei sale i s-a făcut o reclamă negativă, se micşorează brusc numărul de clienţi. Şi este într-adevăr o mare problemă dacă într-un final compania ajunge să dea faliment... pornind de la un singur client nemulţumit.

Leadershipul spre care se îndreaptă minţile focalizate întotdeauna pe profit, din orice se îmbină cu o abordare construcţia şi echilibrată chiar şi în relaţiile cu posibilii rivali, reprezintă modul cum te prezinţi într-o situaţie cu totul penibilă din care evadarea o constituie temelia caracterului tău: integritate, etică şi fermitate morală.

Caracterul este uşa care se deschide cu acea cheie care îi face pe oameni să creadă că sunt excepţia de la orice principiu care îi alienează şi îi forţează să fie altceva decât sunt.

Leadership: Renumele tău are valoare doar dacă este căpătat pentru ceva măreț, sau şi atunci când este diminuat la stadiu de corectare a unei abateri de la propriile standarde şi principii?

Atitudinea adoptată de tine în situaţiile limită stabileşte diferenţa dintre valoarea maximă şi cea minimă a leadershipului tău. Cu cât atitudinea ta deviază de la normele stabilite de propriul statut profesional, cu atât mai intens va fi procesul de eroziune care afectează relaţia cu ceilalţi.

Micşorarea valorii leadershipului tău este rezultatul unui proces de eroziune a performanţelor proprii care nu mai corespund acelor "şabloane" pe care ţi le-ai creat - esenţiale pentru fi acceptate de ceilalţi. E ca şi cum ţi-au făuri o mască fantastică şi ai folosi-o ori de câte ori nu ştii cum să rezolvi o problemă pentru a-ţi redirecţiona adevărata identitate. Resursele tale lăuntrice rămân tot acolo, dar sunt ghidate într-o altă direcţie – şi astfel atitudinea are de suferit.

Dacă vrei să-ţi păstrezi procentajul de credibilitate, nu-ţi transforma impulsurile de reglare a capacităţii de relaţionare cu ceilalţi oameni într-o "tensiune" autodistrugătoare.

Aşa cum un aparat de fotografiat digital oferă posibilitatea transformării imaginilor RAW în JPEG, tot astfel gradul de rezistenţă a leadershipului tău trebuie să-ţi ofere posibilitatea de a-ţi schimba atitudinea - fără să încalci graniţele care te despart de ceilalţi oameni. Cu alte cuvinte trebuie să te încadrezi în graniţele lor de certitudine, ajustându-ţi atitudinea în funcţie de evoluţia leadershipului tău, dar şi în funcţie cerinţele lor.

Renunţă la o atitudine dură, căci aceasta nu poate fi tolerată mult timp. O asemenea atitudine nu numai că nu te ajută cu nimic, dar în timp îţi compromite credibilitatea şi te slăbeşte în interior.

Leadership: Adopţi o atitudine de superioritate care îşi contrazice esenţa printr-o manifestare a conduitei profesionale care nu are valoare decât dacă este făcută publică printr-o comparaţie cu ce aşteaptă lumea despre tine?

Analizând cele două categorii umane, prin prisma a două tipuri de personalităţi: una care ştie să-şi promoveze şi să-şi vândă produsul prin atitudinea ei, şi una refractară la orice dojană sau opinie contrară, şi mergând pe acea linie a principialităţii până la ultima consecinţă, observăm o evoluție a percepției sensului leadershipului, într-o manieră mai puţin echitabilă.

Avem de-a face, deci, cu o evoluție alertă, dar regresivă în termenii conștientizării acelor aspecte necorespunzătoare aflate în sfera de influenţă a liderului, evaluate pe deplin de ceilalţi oameni, ce trebuie oprite înainte de a aduce leadershipul în pragul unui blocaj.

Iar în plan secund avem de a face cu o evoluție improprie a omului-mască. Deși evoluat pe plan profesional, acest gen de lider rămâne încremenit într-o imobilitate nepăsătoare vizavi de impasul în care ajung ceilalţi indivizi care depind de el, dar numai atâta vreme cât tine cortina ridicată - atâta vreme cât compania pe care o conduce nu este pusă în faţa unei dileme de business.

Dar în timp, datorită unui asemenea lider impulsiv, vom asista categoric la o involuție, la o distanțare față de conştientizarea fenomenului de profunzime numit solidaritate , fără de care companiei îi va fi greu să se menţină în picioare.

Cum interceptezi o minge pasată de adversari: printr-o deposedare forţată sau printr-o intercepţie de succes? La nivel de leadership, acest lucru se poate interpreta în felul următor. Ori de câte ori clientul se întoarce la tine nemulţumit, nu-l lipsi de dreptul său de a-ţi contesta credibilitatea. Fii deschis oricărei forme noi de colaborare, oricărei variante de compromis fără să îţi alterezi personalitatea, imaginea şi relaţia cu leadershipul de calitate care este "însufleţit" doar de prezenţa unei legături strânse de tip: "Ei - Tu".

Leadership: Contribui la activarea reacţiei de răspuns din partea celorlalţi printr-o atitudine de înţelegere a unui mod de a câştiga respect care presupune dependenţa de o imagine care se schimbă treptat în altă imagine?

Cum ai fi procedat tu dacă ai fi fost în locul managerului? Dacă eşti într-adevăr un bun profesionist, ai fi ascultat nemulţumirile clientului. Apoi probabil te-ai fi scuzat în faţa acestuia (chiar dacă eşti manager) şi te-ai fi implicat personal în rezolvarea problemei, conştient fiind că dacă vei reuşi să-i câştigi admiraţia şi respectul, el o să apeleze şi a doua oară la serviciile tale şi, probabil, va povesti şi altor prieteni despre modul frumos în care l-ai servit.

Ceea ce vreau să spun este că dacă îţi oferi ajutorul şi eşti cooperant cu toţi clienţii vei putea crea o relaţie amicală, avantajoasă de ambele părţi, în timp ce o atitudine rece, neimplicarea sau indiferenţa, nu îţi poate aduce niciun fel de beneficiu. Trebuie să fii un artist care să ştie să asculte şi apoi să vii în întâmpinarea lor. Indiferent câte departamente există în compania ta, un client care doreşte cu orice preţ să îţi vorbească, înseamnă care are un motiv destul de serios. Şi aminte-ţi faptul că clienţii au întotdeauna dreptate. Şi orice problemă a clientului este de fapt problema ta.

Păstrează-ţi procentajul de credibilitate, fără să-ţi transformi impulsurile de reglare a capacităţii tale de relaţionare cu ceilalţi oameni într-o tensiune autodistrugătoare.

O imagine care se schimbă treptat în altă imagine vizează o atitudine înşelătoare care se manifestă printr-o deschidere aleasă faţă de semeni, dar care în realitate nu preţuieşte decât părerea de rău atribuită unei ignoranţe care nu poate fi iertată.

Creaţia maestrului Eisenstein

Încearcă să găseşti modalitatea potrivită pentru realizarea unei noi ştiinţe, în sensul posibilităţii adaptării acesteia la necesităţile de abordare a unor noi perspective de leadership.

Caracterul revoluţionar al filmului "Crucişătorul Potemkin" - în sensul revoluţionarii mijloacelor de expresie – constă înainte de toate în descoperirea şi desăvârşirea unui limbaj cinematografic, care stă la baza întregii evoluţii a cinematografiei de atunci şi până în zilele noastre.

Din procedeul tehnic, ca mijloc de obţinere a unor efecte, montajul devine la Eisenstein un limbaj. Marele regizor descoperă că gândirea în montaj nu poate fi separată de gândirea în general, în ansamblul ei. El constată că se repetă aici un fenomen din istoria limbii: oamenii îşi exprimau la început gândurile nu în fraze, ci în câte un singur cuvânt. Dar aceste cuvinte reprezentau, în fapt, forme primare ale frazei.

Eisenstein a găsit modalitatea unui limbaj cinematografic, în sensul posibilităţii exprimării unei noţiuni, a unui gând. El a dovedit că se poate realiza o suită de imagini astfel încât să provoace o mişcare afectivă care, la rândul ei, să dea naştere unor idei. Mişcarea trece de la imagine la sentiment şi de la sentiment la teză. În acest sens a descoperit Eisenstein un limbaj specific cinematografic. *****

Leadership: Înţelegi ce se află în contextul ştiinţei din spatele asamblării unor elemente realizate în paralel, prin comparaţie cu mijlocul de obţinere a unor efecte de imagine care pot să indice o poveste?

Un lider rămâne fidel propriei sale viziuni şi propriei sale munci de creaţie, fie că realizează individual sau în parteneriat o nouă versiune a aplicaţiei de tipul " Remodeling the future ", la care nu oricine are acces. Mai mult decât ocazional, el îşi orientează gândirea spre găsirea elementelor de transmitere a unei cunoaşteri avansate. Aceste elemente sunt realizate în paralel cu dezvoltarea produsului de bază, numit "montaj", în sensul revoluţionării mijloacelor de construcţie a unei anumite direcţii de evoluţie.

Finalizarea propriei munci de creaţie se face cu asamblarea unor elemente realizate în paralel, precum costul, durata, calitatea, numărul de activităţi, complexitatea, faimosul „ return on investment " şi capacitatea de "livrare" a produsului ştiinţific. Mijlocul de obţinere a unor efecte de imagine care pot să indice o poveste ţine mai mult de felul cum foloseşti mijoacele de expresie în interpretarea unui sentiment, a unei noţiuni, a unei gândiri, astfel încât să obţii o nouă variantă de scenariu care să exprime realitatea, chiar cu riscul de a păcăli pe oricine.

În afara ştiinţei din spatele asamblării unor elemente realizate în paralel se află cultul virtuţii, susţinerea unor cauze în care crezi, dar în special munca de update a mijloacelor de transmitere a creaţiilor. Rezultatul leadershipului este fundamentat pe dorinţa de a oferi lumii nu doar un nou produs ştiinţific de calitate, ci şi un mesaj plin de putere, în sensul posibilităţii exprimării unei noţiuni, a unui gând.

Leadership: Înţelegi deosebirea dintre opţiunile "reply" şi "forward" din spatele unei imagini care are putere de convingere prin redarea unui sentiment de continuitate cu un exterior revelator?

Deosebirea dintre opţiunile " reply " şi " forward " constă tocmai în această finalizare a muncii, care nu are alt scop şi sens decât acela de a lăsa ceva în urmă şi de a trece într-o etapă superioară de evoluţie, prin conștientizarea importanței dobândirii unui statut superior datorat aprofundării cunoaşterii.

În leadership, opţiunea " reply " se referă la răspunsul cu instrucţiuni multiple pe care îl transmiţi participanţilor la progres prin intermediul ştiinţei pe care o cultivi şi o reprezinţi. Acest răspuns înglobează anumite variabile observate sau descoperite pe parcurs, de tip formal, care determină o anumită concepţie despre construcţia ştiinţei, ce poate influenţa calitatea produsului finit.

În timp ce opţiunea " forward ", suportată doar la nivel înalt de leadership, se referă la direcţia pe care o iau descoperirile tale, măsurate în termeni de obţinere a unor efecte superioare în ceea ce priveşte calitatea profesională şi recunoaşterea dobândită în urma evoluţiei ştiinţei tale.

Această opţiune, ca indicator de caracterizare a relaţiei dintre activităţile gândirii, ideile cheie şi eventualele ei erori, după concretizarea căutărilor de "sens" şi "cunoaştere", are avantajul de a transmite o mai mare încredere în viitor prin mesajul plin de forţă: " omul să se reconecteze în mod autentic la ceea ce caută şi la ceea ce are însemnătate pentru evoluţia sa ."

O imagine poate avea putere de convingere prin redarea unui sentiment de continuitate cu un exterior revelator dacă elementele care o formează satisfac relaţia "realitate = poveste" din care izvorăşte un nou concept de producţie artistică.

Creaţia maestrului Eisenstein orientează spre un drum particular şi individual în găsirea unor mijloace de expresie adecvate care să fie înţelese de toţi oamenii, pentru ca răspunsul la cerinţele lor de performanţă să fie educativ şi mobilizant.

Creaţia mentală a unui spirit nemărginit

On Decembrie 04, 2020

Încearcă să-ţi cultivi virtuţile artistice în simplitatea sufletului de mare puritate şi lirism, raportându-te la forma de exteriorizare a unui conţinut spiritual profund.

Am avut timp să asimilez cunoaşterea cea mai aleasă, acceptând din mers surplusul de intensitate aproape ireală a sentimentului de spaţialitate a dialogului cu Dumnezeu, un univers de lumină, culori pastelate, geometrii absolute. Şi am intuit că această cunoaştere era hotărâtă să nu se simtă îndatorată faţă de mine pentru faptul că am deprins arta de a transforma orice creaţie în opere de artă unice şi exclusive.

Încă o dată, m-am simţit prins între structura sufletească ultrasensibilă a eului empiric şi adevărul care domină intelectul altui nivel de realitate, afiliat cu altă origine a timpului. Poate că eram prizonierul unei lumi mult prea mici pentru a-mi împlini toate idealurile, prizonierul unei lumi pe dos. Pentru întreaga lume începeam să cred că nu mai exist decât ca un fel de trecere cu vederea peste cele ce se întâmplau zilnic, peste cele ce vor veni şi peste cele ce se petreceau în misterul lăuntric al fiecărei făpturi.

Marea cunoaştere reclamă cu prisosinţă meritul artistului de a eterniza, într-un mod sui generis, ceea ce este efemer.

Cu mirare, cu un fel de mândrie ascunsă, cu un fel de respect adus curiozităţii nobile a artistului care ridică materia la înălţimea spiritului, simţeam că trăiesc prin excelenţă într-un alt timp aceeaşi inexplicabilă poveste iconică, acelaşi defect de imagine "reparat" iar şi iar, ca şi când cineva mi-ar fi permis să adaug o picătură de rouă sub cerul limpede al unei amintiri din altă lume. Mai caut şi acum o explicaţie a acestui fenomen.

Leadership: Poţi să găseşti un mod puternic de a-ţi exprima sentimentele pentru tot ceea ce experimentezi în câmpul Creaţiei, râvnind la o simultaneitate a trăirii lumii prin acumulare de alte ipostaze?

Mă gândesc că arta cea mai expresivă este o posibilitate de a mă recunoaşte în imaginile de pe pânză, iar cunoaşterea ce o urmează este mixtul culorilor ce prind viaţă într-un experiment Google Color Picker, de unde şi expunerea unei forme de expresie într-un sigur punct de percepţie a realităţii externe. Or trandafirul din dreapta mea, pe care de atâtea ori l-am simţit ca pe o prezenţă divină, şi neavând alt termen mai bun pentru a simboliza un profundo misterio , îmi este martor că am încercat să schimb nuanţa culorilor pe care naratorul le pulverizează peste vorbe, să simt că ceea ce trăiesc reprezintă o normalitate, şi nimic mai mult.

Predominant aici este şi ideea că sufletul vivant al trandafirului îşi transmite virtuţile lirice spre clipele de reverie ale pictorului, spre contemplarea lucrărilor sale, şi le transmite mai departe cu ajutorul pensulei în fiecare interpretare a relaţiei dintre ştiinţă şi religie, bineînţeles cu posibilitatea transcenderii lumii sensibile şi în deprinderea cu gândirea abstractă. Fără să mă preocup de compoziţie, de tuşă, de lumină, ca în pictura clasică, fără să folosesc în vreun fel unitatea eului ca posibilitate de descifrare a unităţii lumii, am recurs la actul de creaţie ca la o iluzie a firescului suprapusă oricărei manifestări de ordin mistic.

Prin urmare, mă simt nevoit să revin spectaculos într-o realitate în care nu există o graniţă între figurativ şi simbolic. În acest sens, două ipostaze mă determină să cred în necesitatea demersului de evaluare a impactului cunoaşterii în domeniul artei: ipostaza de creator şi de muză, în acelaşi timp, într-un univers suprarealist.

Eu însumi sunt o meditaţie despre vocaţia creatoare, despre împlinirea prin pictură şi literatură, dar totodată sunt o insuflare divină de artă în diversitatea unei lirici cu largi deschideri spre nou.

Leadership: Poţi să intervii asupra conţinutului unei opere de artă, găsindu-i echivalența sensibilă în etapa de dezvoltare a ideii de "Totalitate a Sinelui" ?

Cine ştie să întrebuinţeze virtutea trandafirului, de a crea şi de a recrea universul prin imaginaţie, vrăjind mişcarea pensulei pe un tablou creat de logosul divin, făcând posibilă expresia unei vieţi oglindite în alte vieţi, şi dacă acelaşi om va rosti o invocaţie a planurilor superioare folosind cuvântul misterios "Adherteress" (unitatea eului creator), atunci el va facilita înţelegerea dintre două lumi distincte.

Din acest punct de vedere, ca simbol al unei treceri netede de la o etapă de creaţie la alta, am reuşit să înţeleg că ceea ce se „vede" este doar o picătură într-un infinit al universului.

O altă virtute a trandafirului, aceea de a fi mereu în pas cu realitatea prezentului, trebuie să protejeze dreptul moral al artistului de a divulga orice detalii ale operei sale cu imagini de dincolo de suflet, cu imagini de dincolo de imagini, cu imagini de dincolo de cuvinte, aşa încât procedeul reproducerii unui mesaj de mare profunzime metafizică să se dovedească cât mai sensibil, cât mai de perspectivă şi să se extindă în alte contexte de cultură.

Ideea de totalitate a sinelui este atribuită artistului care ştie să creeze şi să recreeze universul prin imaginaţie, aşa încât partea de conştiinţă care îi permite să întâlnească Creatorul să atingă dimensiunea infinită a fiinţei sale.

Iar aici intervine "Renaşterea", sau forma de exteriorizare a unui conţinut spiritual profund, care se poate realiza prin intermediul unui exponent al lumii sensibile (trandafirul) menit să facă legătura cu Creatorul printr-o operă de artă hărăzită a servi ca model de perfecţiune, sau ca temei al înnoirii omului.

Creaţia mentală a unui spirit nemărginit se conformează înnoirii legăturii dintre om şi natură, dintre emoții, imaginație şi genialitate. Numai printr-o operă de artă exemplară, concepută cu putere și realizată cu mare talent, își exprimă Creatorul emoțiile, sentimentele, experiențele, cunoscându-se pe sine în tot ce are bun sau rău, frumos său urât, valoros sau non-valoros.

Creaţia omului în complexitatea lui

On Mai 14, 2014

Orientează-ţi gândirea spre obiective de dezvoltare superioare, îndepărtându-te de acea uniformitate în gândire care îţi limitează statutul de vizionar.

Ceva necunoscut se mişca silenţios în umbră, ca un curent care circulă când într-un sens, când în altul. A cărui intensitate creştea, descreştea, producând nişte efecte vizibile. Apoi îşi schimba sensul, creştea şi descreştea din nou, pentru ca mai departe ciclul să se repete o bună bucată de timp. Era sufletul unui om prins între existenţă şi inexistenţă, o unificare între subiectivitate şi obiectivitate care îmi depăşea înţelegerea, prejudiciindu-mi grav statusul.

Această vedenie surprinzătoare să fi fost doar un singur lucru, efectul de repartizare neuniformă a unui curent ce străbătea masivul conductor, izolat în spaţiul închis: conştiinţa? Martorul acesta incomod din mine părea să mă atenţioneze asupra unui fapt ilogic, lipsit de temeiuri obişnuite, dezvăluind ceva din lumea mistică a fantasticului, exercitând un sens de mare subtilitate.

Eu însumi eram creaţia acestei apariţii inedite, a fiinţei totale, însufleţite de viul grai al exprimării în imagini. Obscura origine a binelui şi a răului, a inefabilului şi a profunzimii care se fereşte să fie confundată cu interioritatea. Un pic mai mult decât sfârşitul unui ciclu de interacţiuni cu neobişnuitul pe care îl trăiam prin cunoaşterea obişnuitului. O mândrie exagerată care dacă nu-şi găsea o exprimare în realitate, răbufnea în latura imaginară.

Reprezentarea acesta ireală şi reală în acelaşi timp, era adusă în apropierea conştiinţei de către inconştient, stabilind şi provocând un soi de fascinaţie halucinantă care justifica viziunea unei înalte revelaţii - aparţinând în exclusivitate acelei părţi din mine care admitea posibilitatea pătrunderii şi înţelegerii complexităţii mele.

Leadership: Îţi asiguri utilitatea gândirii revelatoare în folosul dezvoltării propriei identităţi desprinsă parcă dintr-un scenariu al cărui regizor experimentează subiectiv o realitate care se poate împotmoli oricând în propriile ei limite?

Utilitatea gândirii revelatoare pusă în folosul dezvoltării propriei identităţi se poate manifesta în funcţie de modalitatea în care realitatea se determină ca o împărtăşire a unei creaţii geniale care a evoluat de la factura realistă a exprimării unor teme de inspiraţie spre descifrarea treptată a sensurilor unei parabole misterioase.

Această creaţie poate fi exploatată doar de persoanele autorizate de tine prin pofta de poveste pe care o strecori în sufletul lor.

Cred, fără a se comite o exagerare, luând în calcul evoluţia procesului de reînnoire a angajării tale în modul de construire a realităţii, că dacă nu întrevezi o evadare din normal, dacă nu eşti animat de o ţâşnire din obişnuitul omenesc, atunci nu-ţi vei putea asigura utilitatea gândirii în folosul dezvoltării propriei identităţi. Această gândire este bazată in principal pe revelaţii privind apectele ascunse ale personalităţii tale, pe trăirea propriilor sentimente, pe diverse forme de auto-cunoaştere verificate experimental.

O realitate care se poate împotmoli oricând în propriile ei limite corespunde reprezentării unei lumi din care, când încerci s-o descrii diferit, simţi că nu faci parte din ea.

Poziţia ta în sfera normalului, marcată esenţial de o palidă strălucire intelectuală sau de o forţă îmbătrânită de prelucrare a realului care nu mai poate asigura stimularea activităţii de creaţie, rupe acea ingeniozitate care îţi dă posibilitatea să te integrezi într-o lume mai vastă şi mai avansată de explorat.

E lumea propriului Sine care-şi adună apele, urcând spre noi izvoare, a unui sine care se experimentează subiectiv pe el însuși. Puterea mentalului de a intra în jocul unei noi forme de exprimare a ceea ce trăieşti cu atâta intensitate, prin care îţi îmbunătăţeşti capacitatea de inovare în sfera ştiinţei, în încercarea de a avea acces la noi adevăruri fundamentale despre viaţă.

Un vizionar este un om care îşi creează realitatea luând în considerare factorul "concluzie" al unei reflecţii asupra propriei vieţi, misiuni şi deveniri, într-un context de istorisire mai larg şi mai interesant care anunţă un nou mod de a vedea lumea.

Leadership: Laşi loc neobişnuitului să se strecoare şi să se instaleze în perimetrul propriei interiorităţi, considerând viziunea unei înalte revelaţii drept un mod de a fi al lumii din afară?

Leadershipul nu ar trebui să lase loc obişnuitului să se strecoare şi să se instaleze în perimetrul propriei interiorităţi, înghițind cu indiferenţă paşii transformării tale spre un statut superior, concordant cu nivelul de aspiraţii. Tot mai pregnant, leadershipul devine manifestarea unei forţe de pătrundere a complexităţii omului, care determină sfârşitul unui ciclu de interacţiuni cu neobişnuitul trăit prin cunoaşterea obişnuitului. În viitor, leadershipul va transpune în realitate amestecul dintre trecut şi prezent, dintre banal şi inedit.

Neobişnuitul poate fi considerat o plăsmuire a minţii care are toate şansele să devină realitate, iar când el se instalează în perimetrul propriei interiorităţi înseamnă că tu însuţi devii parte dintr-o poveste care este fascinantă de la un capăt la altul. Omul nou trebuie să fie "încărcat" cu acea valoare de sine care se pliază cel mai bine unei realităţi mai complexe, alcătuite din variante palpitante ale obişnuitului şi neobişnuitului ce pot sprijini trecerea sa spre un nivel superior de conştiinţă. Şi ulterior, spre un nivel de superior de inovaţie în ştiinţă.

După cum bine preciza cineva pe o pagină web, " Omul mileniului III trebuie să aibă cunoştinţele necesare care să îi asigure acea mobilitate, supleţe în gândire, ingeniozitate, care conduc în ultimă instanţă la crearea valorilor incontestabile, durabile în orice domeniu de activitate. "

Viziunea unei înalte revelaţii poate fi văzută drept un mod de a fi al lumii din afară atunci când realitatea pe care ţi-ai imaginat-o devine o copie a unei imagini care e capabilă să emoţioneze prin puterea ei de atracţie şi să motiveze către acţiune.

Creaţia omului în complexitatea lui vizează capacitatea liderului, supusă unui autocontrol ferm, de a crea ceva inedit, dar susţinut de realităţile obiective. Ceva ce presupune în primul rând o mobilitate a gândirii în sensul adoptării şi aplicării în mod rapid a "necunoscutului", prin muncă intelectuală individuală, în scopul conturării unei identităţi care poate transmite ideea de nou.

Creatorul de iluzii

On Noiembrie 17, 2009

Sporeşte-ţi puterea de convingere şi de influenţă, fără să cazi în capcana iluziilor pe care le creezi.

Păstrez cu grijă în bibliotecă o carte foarte veche, a cărei învelitoare trainică din fibră de palmier este cusută cu aţă roşie. Ţin foarte mult la ea. Este singura mea legătură cu autorul ei, un om care va rămâne veşnic în inima fiecărei persoane care a fost prezentă la spectacolele sale, în slăbiciunea şi în puterea fiecăreia dintre ele. Nu ştiu prea multe lucruri despre el. Pentru că nu a povestit niciodată nimic despre sine sau despre trecutul său. Şi a descurajat orice tentativă de incursiune în viaţa lui. Nu am reuşit nici măcar să-i aflu numele, puţini cred că îl cunosc, pentru că a dorit şi a ştiut să-şi păstreze secretă toată existenţa.

Prin misterul pe care îl ascunde se deosebeşte de toată lumea, şi cred că asta îl face de neuitat. Dar cu toate acestea eu, singurul care are o amintire de la el, ştiu cum i-ar plăcea să-l numească lumea: „ Creatorul de iluzii ".

În sală luminile erau stinse. În stânga şi în dreapta scenei, pe nişte piedestaluri mici, ardeau patru făclii cu o flacără alb-portocalie. Scena părea goală. Tăcerea încă domnea. Apoi, în fundal, a început să se audă încet o muzică stranie. Aproape la comandă, au început să răsune tobele care măreau suspansul. Şi deodată, ca de nicăieri, a apărut EL. O mască, în stil veneţian, foarte frumos lucrată, îi ascundea faţa. Pelerina neagră cu glugă şi costumul lui negru, care întreţineau misterul, îi dădeau însă un aer nobiliar.

A început spectacolul. S-a ridicat încet în aer. Mă fascina modul în care îşi vântura pelerina de la stânga la dreapta, de parcă ea ar fi fost cea care îl ajuta să se ridice de la sol. Totul începuse să mi se pară ireal. Era altfel decât toţi ceilalţi iluzionişti pe care îi văzusem la televizor. Persoana lui mi se părea compusă din două părţi distincte: una vizibilă, cealaltă invizibilă, probabil din cauza întunericului care domnea în sală. Nu-mi puteam da seama dacă jocul lui superb interpretat ascundea într-adevăr magie sau escrocherie. Uneori apărea, alteori dispărea. Dar îşi juca rolul impecabil. Cu siguranţă vedea prin mine şi ceilalţi spectatori, ştia ce gândim şi ştia să se prefacă. Mă simţeam cumva în centrul celei mai extraordinare fantasmagorii ale unui iluzionist original. Transmitea o emoţie şi o stare cu totul deosebită.

Pe tot parcursul spectacolului am fost foarte atent. Speram, probabil la fel ca şi ceilalţi spectatori, să-i descopăr trucurile. Nu-mi ajungeau gesturile şi manevrele pe care le făcea, ci simţeam nevoia să-mi explic, să descopăr ce se ascunde îndărătul lor. Dar n-am reuşit. Toate secretele sale, toate iluziile pe care le-a creat pe parcursul celor două ore de spectacol nu vor fi niciodată ştiute de nimeni. În afară de EL - Creatorul de Iluzii.

Leadership: Blochezi sau deblochezi potenţialul oamenilor de reproducere a unei experienţe care nu iartă nici cele mai mici scăpări?

Noţiunea de "iluzie", încrederea oarbă într-o autoritate cu rol de aplicare a unei ştiinţe avansate, are conţinuturi diferite de la un sistem de gândire la altul. Iată doar câteva din sensurile cele mai uzuale pe care le poate căpăta leadershipul supus unei exigenţe de forma şi fond.

Mai întâi, abandonarea precoce a identităţii reale care separă cele două tipuri de conţinut: unul care deranjează prin caracterul enigmatic şi unul accesibil care impresionează şi atrage. În acest caz spaţiul destinat actului de transmitere a unui mesaj inspiraţional şi mobilizator, maximizând pasiunea pentru performanţă, este separat printr-o barieră invizibilă de spaţiul de echilibru care dă substanţă demersului de simplificare a procesului de înţelegere şi exploatare a "misterelor" - adică a gândirii superioare care se articulează pe o realitate greu de justificat, pe axa unei ştiinţe foarte sofisticate.

Apoi, decalajul între potenţialul oamenilor de reproducere a unei experienţe care nu iartă nici cele mai mici scăpări şi rezultatele pe care ei le pot genera în urma impactului cu o explozie de asociaţii, comparaţii, echivalenţe, analogii, aprecieri de valoare, pozitive sau negative, necesare oglindirii critice care precedă etapa de evoluţie.

Leadership: Stabileşti un mod de relaţionare original, dar care nu funcţionează în virtutea unei imagini de sine coerente?

Când vine vorba de iluzie, ne gândim la părăsirea zonei de confort şi intrarea într-o zonă supranaturală, fără o simplă analiză a modului în care sunt alocate resursele limitate de realizare a unei unităţi particulare de "produs", de a cărui valoare oamenii să se poată folosi cu prisosinţă. Să amintim că leadershipul este un produs al ştiinţei, al eticii, al culturii şi al practicii.

Tipul de orientare al indivizilor obişnuiţi, în funcţie de calitatea produsului oferit de lider, după începerea şi după terminarea spectacolului numit "Eu sunt ceea nu sunt" sau "Eu ştiu ceea ce voi nu cunoaşteţi" , apare ca o formă de eşec profesional, conducând, încet dar sigur, la anxietate. Un fel de trădare, o anulare a principiilor reciprocităţii.

Practic, oamenii de rând, spectatorii, sunt "striviţi" de autoritatea unei entităţi superioare, greu de evaluat. Ei vor interioriza fără comentarii un mod de relaţionare original, dar care nu funcţionează în virtutea imaginii de succes a propriei lor persoane. Ei vor accepta cu convingere "fatalitatea" insuccesului şi-l vor reproduce aiurea în situaţii în care se cere conştientizarea nevoilor celorlalţi.

Leadership: Minunea creaţiei pe care o trăiesc oamenii din jurul tău îşi găseşte expresia cea mai pregnantă în forma pe care o stabileşte revelaţia unui fals profund al lumii tale?

Marele secret al unui iluzionist este că ştie să abată atenţia publicului, după ce în prealabil a stabilit o legătură cu el. La fel cum unii poeţi moderni reuşesc să prindă zece sensuri cu un singur simbol, el reuşeşte să redirecţioneze atenţia publicului cu o singură mişcare. Am ajuns să înţeleg de ce într-un spectacol de iluzionism reuşit totul se desfăşoară cum trebuie. Pentru că iluzionistul este un perfecţionist. Nimic n-ar ieşi perfect dacă el nu s-ar strădui să facă totul perfect. Nu este uşor să treci de la o tehnică la alta. Nu-i uşor să-i azvârli pe spectatori dintr-o lume concretă, obiectivă, într-una a iluziilor.

Iluzionismul implică un număr foarte mare de materiale, lucru în echipă şi un efort imens. Tot ce poate fi cuprins şi detectat prin simţurile omului, trebuie modificat în aşa fel încât să nu poată fi perceput.

Totul trebuie să pară real într-un astfel de spectacol. Totul trebuie să fie convingător. Trebuie să fie clar. Atât de clar încât misterul să fie şi mai mare. Chiar dacă spectatorii încearcă să găsească o explicaţie plauzibilă, ea nu trebuie găsită. A observa nu este o chestiune de opţiune. Publicul nu trebuie să perceapă realitatea, ci ceva care nu există. Realitatea este completată de diverse sunete, mirosuri, sentimente sau chiar elemente fizice, pentru ca iluzionistul să poată să abată atenţia şi percepţiile publicului. Nu este vorba de a face trucuri, ci de a duce audienţa în altă parte, ca să suspenzi ceea ce crede.

Imaginea de sine este modul cum te vezi într-o realitate absolută și imuabilă, inaccesibilă cunoașterii raţionale, în care tot ceea ce emani şi emiţi ţi se întoarce înapoi.

Leadership: Poţi pretinde să te dezvolţi ca "artist al scenei" fără să îndrăzneşti o comparaţie cu ceea ce încă mai ai de învăţat de la ceea ce funcţionează, decât de la ceea ce eşuează?

Iluzioniştii sunt si ei oameni. Au temeri, au pasiuni, dorinţe şi idealuri. Dar şi-au dezvoltat anumite cunoştinţe şi abilităţi pe care oamenii de rând nu le posedă.

Liderii, la fel ca iluzioniştii, şi-au dezvoltat anumite cunoştinţe şi abilităţi pe care puţini le au. Şi ştiu foarte bine să se folosească de ele pentru a-şi asigura ascensiunea şi pentru a-şi impune supremaţia. Însă greşeala cea mai mare pe care o poate face un lider este ca, după ce le redirecţionează atenţia oamenilor impunându-le propria lui realitate, să-i duca într-o direcţie eronată.

Nu-i nimic rău în a te juca de-a iluzionistul, în a intra în mintea oamenilor şi a le capta atenţia, ci dimpotrivă, este indicat să le stârneşti mereu interesul. Însă oamenii nu pot fi hrăniţi cu "iluzii deşarte". Acesta este cel mai important lucru de care trebuie să ţină cont un bun lider.

Un lider chiar dacă este înzestrat cu un rar talent de iluzionist, nu poate abuza de poziţia lui ca să facă trucuri. Leadershipul, chiar dacă presupune influenţarea oamenilor, nu este un spectacol de iluzionism în care trebuie să întreţii iluzia fantasticului. Un lider foarte bun nu îşi poate permite să se joace de-a "hocus pocus" când vine vorba de soarta oamenilor. Şi nu se poate baza pe iluzii optice create de dibăcia şi de rapiditatea gesturilor sale, de agerimea mâinilor sale.

Creatorul de iluzii este artistul care prin întreaga sa imaginaţie şi dexteritate se consacră acelor lucruri pe care viaţa i le toarnă în suflet. Nu este omul care păstrează tainele activităţii sale doar pentru succesul personal din motive de egoism, ci este omul care face din adevărurile ascunse un joc unic, un act de control, o chestiune impredictibilă şi puternic emoţională din care se poate extrage o nouă perspectivă de abordare a artei şi o nouă perspectivă de afirmare.

Leadershipul, aşa cum bine preciza cineva, este un proces prin care o persoană stabileşte un scop sau o direcţie pentru una sau mai multe persoane, şi-i determină să acţioneze împreună cu competenţă în vederea realizării lor.

Un lider care nu este capabil să distingă realitatea de iluzie îşi va pierde în timp credibilitatea. Iar dacă „spectacolul” pe care îl realizează nu iese în conformitate cu aşteptările oamenilor, cariera lui s-ar putea să se transforme într-un adevărat fiasco.

Concluzie: Un lider trebuie să pornească de la elementele obiective existente, să conceapă strategii şi modalităţi de abordare concrete, realizabile, căci numai astfel va atrage susţinători. Însă dacă cei pe care îi cooptează vor descoperi că nu deţine decât un băţ ordinar numit „ baghetă magică ”, aşa zisul lider foarte curând va eşua lamentabil, părăsit fiind de toţi. Iar el, dezamăgit, se va simţi ca un pai plutind pe ape mari.

Sporeşte-ţi puterea de convingere şi de influenţă, fără să cazi în capcana iluziilor pe care le creezi.

Creatorul lumilor paralele

On Octombrie 13, 2020

Este suficient să parcurgi o poveste cu viaţă, despre viaţă, ca să găseşti o infinită plăcere în actul de a trăi sublim o altă viaţă.

Mi-am găsit dublura spirituală într-un simbol asociat cu perfecţiunea, ştiind că ceea ce se vede cu ochiul liber este imaginea unei evadări într-o altă lume, privită şi simţită mai intens la nivel intertextual, ca Unitate Imuabilă. Trandafirul, căci el este asociat cel mai bine artei de a transfigura şi spiritualiza creaţia în integralitatea sa, mi-a spus la un moment dat: "Eu vin din nişte timpuri în care nu era nevoie de stilou pentru a deprinde o înţelegere mai limpede a unei întregii acţiuni, ci doar de o pensulă croită din reflexul primar al esenţei unice."

Bineînţeles, virtutea de a fi mai aproape de starea pură a Creatorului nu trebuie să lipsească din uniunea expresiei artistice cu modalitatea de organizare a compoziţiei plastice. Roşu + galben = Oranj. Iar stiloul cu care scriu aceste cuvinte, la fel ca şi pensula cu care pictez realitatea lumii mele, sunt doar instrumente situate în acelaşi plan, al construcţiei artistice. Distanţa de la unul la celălalt se poate măsura cu ajutorul unui cuvânt care denotă calitatea pensulei de a întinde culoarea pe un plan superior în raport cu descriptivul.

Dacă vrem să găsim acest cuvânt şi să-l transpunem într-o construcţie artistică, trebuie mai întâi să folosim stiloul şi pensula în acelaşi scop: de a măsura lungimea şi lăţimea florii de trandafir, pusă într-un cerc unificator a cărui circumferinţă este pretutindeni şi al cărui centru e nicăieri. Eu am găsit acest cuvânt viu, autonom, însufleţitor, numindu-l Axisturenthis , tradus prin "viaţa de dincolo de oglinda acestei lumi", şi i-am adăugat o constatare: orice modificare i-aş aduce în timp, el va putea fi corelat mereu cu starea dublă a unei persoane, de a trăi şi de a fi una cu Creatorul Ordinii Universale.

Leadership: O raportare adecvată la integralitatea creaţiei pe care o traversezi spiritual te face să recunoşti imaginea "Omului Nou" din punct de vedere a corespondenţei dintre expresivitate şi abstractizare?

Cred că mă cunosc destul de bine, iar trandafirul îmi confirmă nivelul cunoaşterii atunci când îşi apleacă tulpina în faţa mea, cu referire la faptul că oricum mi-aş exprima sentimentele în cuvinte, ele vor reprezenta o manifestare a planului divin. Eu sunt un artist pentru că acel singur cuvânt care mă defineşte total, prin stil şi prin bun gust, prin starea de emoţie pe care o creez, se desprinde din "arta din spatele artei", şi numai culoarea pensulei poate să egaleze lizibilitatea conţinutului pe care îl transmit şi îl împletesc cu Reflexul Primar al Esenţei Unice.

Aşadar, creaţia unui artist este cuvântul scris cu un stilou de la Adam, în formă de alegorie, compus în maniera uimitoare a unei pensule de a aşterne culoarea pe un plan superior în raport cu descriptivul, şi de a o evidenţia în plan spiritual prin declanşarea pulsiunii lăuntrice şi captarea ei în formă artistică.

În privinţa aceasta, lăuntricul este legitim într-o creaţie artistică numai dacă pivotează în jurul unui plan superior de existenţă a materiei, într-o lume a cuvintelor în a căror structură descriptivă se evidenţiază pensula şi stiloul în raport cu forma lor magică de a genera noi şi noi interpretări ale relației omului cu natura.

Aceleaşi două pensule fac ca scrisul artistic să treacă printr-un plan divin, purtând însemnul trandafirului, aflat în imediata vecinătate a corespondenţei dintre arte - cea plastică şi cea literară. Pe această cale, voi încerca să definesc "integralitatea creaţiei" drept o întâlnire a două voinţe (ştiinţa şi arta), o combinaţie între gândirea liberă şi subtilitatea interpretării generoase, însă neabuzive, a unei imagini care îţi poate modela armonios sufletul.

Actul de manifestare a expresivităţii se exercită într-un cadru de spirit care reuneşte subiectul şi artistul, făcându-i să se integreze în artă şi în "Imaginea Creată", asemenea legăturii dintre un personaj al lumii narate şi un personaj al trăirilor subiective.

Prin urmare, expresivitatea este exprimarea unei poziţii subiective faţă de anumite entităţi vizual-plastice, în timp ce abstractizarea, legată indisolubil de limbaj, este o simplificare a realităţii complexe prin modelarea simbolurilor şi semnificaţiilor aferente acestora.

În mod cu totul şi cu totul firesc, proprietatea fundamentală de amplasare a doua pensule în imaginea pe care o dă pictorul naturii, este de a indica stiloului planul relaţiei dintre două personaje: un personaj al lumii narate şi un personaj al trăirilor subiective eferent experienţei unirii creaţiei cu Dumnezeu. În aceeaşi măsură, exercițiul continuu al scrisului realizat printr-o abordare artistică, legată de dualitatea unei dimensiuni abstracte, mă poartă cu gândul la ce spunea Jorge Luis Borges despre poetul argentinian Evaristo Carriego:

"Pe când Carriego se cufundase în cugetări de mare pregnanţă, demne a fi memorate, s-a petrecut ceva. Orice. Ceva ce nu vom putea să recuperăm, ceva al cărui înţeles îl cunoaştem, dar nu-i cunoaştem forma, ceva cotidian şi obişnuit şi namaisurprins până atunci, care i-a dezvăluit lui Carriego că universul (care ne este dat în întregime în orice clipă, în orice loc, nu numai în operele lui Dumas) era şi el acolo, în acea împrejurare prezentă, în Palermo, 1904.

Un acord sfâşietor de chitară, un şir neregulat de case scunde zărite la fereastră. Intraţi într-o asemenea casa, aici se află zeii, le-a spus Heraclit din Efes celor care l-au găsit încălzindu-se la focul din bucătărie.

Câteodată mă bate gândul că orice viaţă omenească, oricât de încâlcită şi bogată ar fi, constă în realitate dintr-un singur moment; momentul în care omul îşi dă seamă o dată pentru totdeauna cine este."

Ca să înţelegem actul de creaţie în viziunea Iluminismului, trebuie mai întâi să ne recunoaştem drept creatori ai unei lumi în care orice viaţă, împletită de-a lungul altor vieţi, este o corespondenţă între realitate şi reprezentarea actului de a picta o poveste devenită (ulterior) realitate.

Creatorul lumilor paralele ştie că este suficient să parcurgi o poveste cu viaţă, despre viaţă, ca să găseşti o infinită plăcere în actul de a trăi o altă viaţă. Ca să te numeşti Creator, trebuie să-ţi defineşti şi să-ţi desenezi realitatea reflecţiei tale într-o altă lume în care viaţa, asemenea altor vieţi de dincolo de experienţa artei care te înălţă spre absolut, este o metaforă revelatoare care semnifică ideea cunoaşterii metafizice.

Creatorul posedat de ideea capodoperei sale

Concepe o creaţie care să-şi tragă seva din fluxul primar al ideilor de bază care te călăuzesc, încât să pui stăpânire pe ceea ce te defineşte.

Eisenstein vorbeşte – deocamdată în generalităţi – despre bucuria de a avea la îndemână un scenariu foarte bun, îl cucereşte simplitatea lui şi declară că filmul său va fi unul despre copii şi adulţi, pentru adulţi şi copii. Cel ce cunoaşte însă antecedentele nu se poate lăsa amăgit de linearitatea acestui start.

Filmele sale, devenind construcţii complicate, cunosc totdeauna în desfăşurarea lor o arborescenţă crescută violent, dar organic din substanţa ideii iniţiale. Este parcă erupţia vegetală din Mexicul tropical, multitudinea luxuriantă a ideilor inundând întreaga arie a creaţiei, trăgându-se seva din fluxul primar al ideii de bază. Există totdeauna în creaţia lui Eisenstein această violenţă explozivă a inspiraţiei, care pune stăpânire pe tot, se amplifică în cascade, un gând cheamă alte zeci, într-o reacţie în lanţ aparent nestăvilită şi parcă universală, care însă se ordonează cu rigoare pe liniile directoare ale unei concepţii matematic precise ale unor preocupări perene şi riguros urmărite.

Cu atât mai ciudat fenomenul, dacă ştim – şi o ştim ! - că acest creator, posedat parcă exclusiv de ideea filmului, are totdeauna puterea – şi nevoia – să urmărească paralel şi alte idei, diferite: abstracţiuni teoretice sau pur şi simplu alte proiecte de film. *

Leadership: Te serveşti de liniaritatea unui start care se concentrează mai mult pe încercarea de a dezvolta aşa numita „autonomie profesională"?

Dacă încerci să îţi croieşti drum pe lângă concepţia ireproşabilă, conform căreia leadershipul posedă un anume fel de unitate, bazată nu doar pe cunoaştere, ci şi pe responsabilitatea de a fi tu însuţi în tot ce faci şi gândeşti, în orice moment al procesului de ascensiune, te vei lovi de o serie de întrebări şi temeri. Căci întotdeauna decizia de a construi o capodoperă de artă, pusă în slujba progresului, implică o anumită violenţă explozivă a inspiraţiei, care pune stăpânire pe tot ceea ce încerci să scoţi în evidenţă.

Şi tocmai datorită acestui aspect, verificat deseori în practică, putem vorbi despre leadership ca despre o nevoie de a modela arta prin încadrarea experimentală a ceea ce săvârşeşti, într-o nouă formă de percepere a ceea ce vrei să oferi. Dar mai ales a ceea este relevant în aplicarea gândirii. Ne distanţăm un pic de această ipoteză şi presupunem că arta este un fel de „restaurare" a omului, venind în întâmpinarea unei viziuni aparte, care arată devotamentul pentru ceea ce îl defineşte, punând stăpânire pe ceea ce pare iniţial explozie de bucurie şi viaţă.

Startul pe care îl dai în dezvoltarea leadershipului este asigurat de bucuria de a avea la îndemână un mod mai simplu şi mai consecvent de a construi noi repere de stil şi performanţă. Simplitatea este o adevărată explozie de bucurie. Dar acest start nu poate fi activat înainte de îndeplinirea condiţiei de bază: apărarea autonomiei profesionale împotriva mediocrităţii (pe care o poţi învinge doar cu valoarea incontestabilă a unei gândiri ştiinţifice).

Ideea care dă orientarea creaţiei este o emanaţie a inspiraţiei ce se manifestă sub forma impulsului care străbate distanţa de la abstracţiunile teoretice până la formele artistice de manifestare a simţămintelor de uimire faţă de tot ce-ai realizat.

Liderul este un creator, posedat parcă exclusiv de ideea creaţiei sale, având totdeauna puterea şi nevoia să urmărească paralel şi alte idei, diferite: abstracţiuni teoretice sau pur şi simplu alte proiecte de cercetare. Dacă lucrurile stau aşa, atunci se pune întrebarea: îl ajută arta să recepteze şi să înţeleagă modelele mai cuprinzătoare de adaptare profesională la noi cerinţe de transformare personală?

În general cred că da, dar nu în felul în care îl presupune actul creaţiei şi valorizarea personală. Există totdeauna în acest act o violenţă explozivă a inspiraţiei, care pune stăpânire pe tot, inclusiv pe ceea ce numim „artă". În acest caz leadershipul devine o construcţie complicată, cunoscând totdeauna o anumită variaţie în configurarea structurii sale.

Leadershipul se axează pe încercarea de a-ţi dezvolta o gândire care depăşeşte limitele gândirii tradiţionale, prin actul creaţiei, prin forţa creaţiei ştiinţifice dusă până la obţinerea unui rezultat definitoriu pentru ceea ce devii.

Nevoia de a urmări paralel şi alte idei decât cele proprii denotă deschiderea către cunoaştere, o anumită o sofisticare a gusturilor pentru nou, o binevenită sete de expresie, o anumită doză de interes faţă de ceea ce gândesc ceilalţi. Nu poţi să amesteci două înţelesuri diferite fără să obţii un al treilea înţeles mult mai apropiat de inventarea unei arte a interpretării şi transformării.

Autonomia profesională este dată de însăşi puterea creaţiei de a exista şi de a produce efecte pe liniile directoare ale unei concepţii matematic precise ale unor preocupări perene şi riguros urmărite, precum cele artistice, ideatice, culturale.

Ceea ce te defineşte este viziunea unei creaţii bogate şi fundamentate în raport cu durata, acţiunile şi rezultatele proiectului tău de inovare?

Creatorul posedat de ideea capodoperei sale este liderul care pune în plan profesional ceva cu totul personal, având puterea de a se depăşi pe el însuşi, multiplicându-şi în mod creator sferele de cunoaştere.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să capete o valoare şi un înţeles mai extins, dacă vrei să pui stăpânire pe ceea ce te defineşte, atunci concepe o creaţie care să-şi tragă seva din fluxul primar al ideilor de bază care te călăuzesc. Aceste idei reprezintă saltul de la etapa extensivă la cea intensivă care impune schimbarea modelului de gândire şi a modului în care îţi exprimi viziunea.

Credeţi că vă iubesc şi că puteţi avea încredere în mine?

On Februarie 20, 2009

Ceea ce face ca o afecțiune să fie sinceră și durabilă, privită ca o legătură între visător şi făcător, depinde de un pact nescris prin care îţi împărtăşeşti frumusețea, durerea, bucuria și tristețea.

Venisem la Paris înaintea dumneavoastră, hotărâtă de astă dată să vă văd, să vă apropii şi să verific efectul pe care l-ar putea avea asupra dumneavoastră, această asemănare care ştiam că există între mine şi femeia pe care o pierduserăţi.

- Ah ! ştiaţi şi lucrurile astea, doamnă, zise contele.

- Am crezut la început că am reuşit, continuă Olympia. Cel puţin mă făcuseţi să cred că reînviasem, în dumneavoastră, amintirea bietei moarte. Vă reîntorceam spre prima iubire, ca să vă reîntineresc sufletul, ca să-l purific şi pentru a face să iasă din el toate aceste frivole şi mărunte galanterii care uzurpaseră atâta vreme locul sentimentelor sincere şi profunde. Redeveneaţi, puţin câte puţin, omul pe care-l dorisem, acela care fuseserăţi, poate, înaintea existenţei frenetice şi uşuratice de la Viena.

Dar, în clipa când credeam că mi-am realizat visul, viaţa Vienei a revenit brusc să vă acapareze prin persoana acestei prinţese al cărei amant aţi fost. Oh ! în seara când s-a jucat opera "Muta din Portici", când v-am văzut intrând în loja dumneavoastră cu femeia aceea arogantă, depravată, obraznică, am simţit că frivolitatea şi plăcerile stăpânesc pentru totdeauna bărbatul pe care l-au înhăţat odată. Ultimul meu vis se spulberase, şi am procedat la Paris, aşa cum procedasem şi la Viena, în aceleaşi împrejurări: am fugit din nou, domnule, şi, doborâtă de durere, am plecat la Veneţia.

Ei bine!, vă întreb din nou, credeţi că vă iubesc şi că puteţi avea încredere în mine?

Leadership: Poţi să regândeşti actul de a reactiva o amintire care a fost uitată, fără să sugerezi că îţi dorești validare și asigurare din partea interlocutorului?

Peste tot regăsim amintiri, pârghii de inspirație, de la simplele întâmplări, evenimente, la diverse lucruri par a se fi răspândit în mod natural în mintea noastră, îndepărtându-se de realitatea unui prezent care se scurge infinit de lent, unde şoaptele de "rămas bun" sunt atât de încete încât devin inutile. Amintirile îşi schimbă stăpânii la fiecare secundă a durerii, îşi schimbă ceea ce ţi-a bucurat sufletul la un moment dat, cu riscul de a te copleşi mai târziu, atunci când valurile de durere se retrag, cerând o scurtă pauză.

Vântul călduț al amintirilor bate permanent, dar în rafale domoale, la fel de cald și plăcut ca în orice colţ al propriei treceri de la dorinţele raţiunii la cele ale sufletului.

În contextul dat, "reînvierea unei amintiri", mărturia provenită din adâncul sufletului și a conștiințe umane, urmărește scopul autocunoașterii rezultate din introspecţie, sugerând faptul că vorbitorul încearcă cu tot dinadinsul să aducă înapoi în minte sau să reînvie amintirea unei persoane care nu mai este prezentă, probabil cu scopul de a menține o legătură cu ea sau de a-i onora cum se cuvine prezenţa.

Este şi asta o formă de leadership, fiindcă "reînvierea unei amintiri" comunică de fapt nişte stări de sprit bine definite, nişte atitudini de viaţă relevante, care creează contextul unei transformări de sine autentice. Liderul este un sine în perpetuă dezvoltare, un sine modelat de amintiri de neuitat, care ajunge să se reverse asupra persoanelor din jur, dincolo de ceea de a fost rostit prin împletirea amintirilor și experiențelor sale.

Leadershipul constituie cadrul de acțiune prin care se dezvoltă echilibru între rădăcinile sufletului și rațiune. Este un cadru de acţiune prin care se consolidează un pact nescris între simţire şi viaţa, între credinţă şi faptă, facilitând comunicarea, inspirând încredere și oferind direcție și orientare în cadrul relației dintre cineva care trăiește cu amintiri și cineva care poartă cu sine acea amintire.

Credeţi că vă iubesc şi că puteţi avea încredere în mine? Este o întrebare la care şi dumneavoastră trebuie să răspundeţi, ori de câte ori vă raportaţi la o viaţă care merită să fie retrăită, repovestită, o viaţă în care viitorul şi trecutul îşi schimbă locurile.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, nu trebuie să priveşti treptele urcuşului ca nişte stări care pot fi lăsate în urmă, ci ca nişte stări permanente.

Credibilitatea în leadership

On Octombrie 16, 2007

Desăvârşeşte-ţi menirea de lider, modelând materialul brut din care este constituită fiinţa ta.

În ultimele zile, o ştire a făcut înconjurul ţării noastre. A fost scos la iveală faptul că un oficial de rang înalt, mai exact un politician, a fost acuzat de plagiat. Revista "Nature" aprecia că jumătate din lucrarea scrisă de respectivul politician ar fi fost copiată cuvânt cu cuvânt din diferite surse. Între timp, oameni de specialitate care au luat la puricat lucrarea au majorat procentul de plagiat, până la aproximativ 80% din volum.

Respectivul politician a respins categoric acuzaţiile, susţinând că este vorba doar de o greşeală de citare. "Scuzele acestea sunt penibile, ridicole", a afirmat Alexandru Toma Pătraşcu, membru fondator Asociaţia Secular-Umanistă din România (ASUR), absolvent MBA la Open University UK. Este imposibil ca un absolvent de facultate şi un doctorand să nu cunoască regulile de citare, declară specialiştii.

În mod normal, atunci când preiei un paragraf dintr-un autor, pui ghilimele şi nişte note. Notele, fie că sunt în subsolul paginii, fie la finalul lucrării, îţi indică exact autorul, lucrarea, editura şi anul de apariţie, plus pagina la care se găseşte fragmentul respectiv. Ambele metode sunt valabile.

Dacă nu se face acest lucru, înseamnă că ai furat creaţia, proprietatea intelectuală a altcuiva, iar asta este deja infracţiune şi se pedepseşte şi cu închisoarea, de la 3 luni la 5 ani.

Leadership: Reacţia sinelui tău la lume şi la legile implacabile ale finitudinii este controlată de mereu acelaşi orgoliu capricios, acela de a-ţi ascunde neştiinţa?

Eşti un detectiv care încearcă să afle adevărul? Atunci când intenţionezi să-i cunoşti pe oameni, încearcă să-i observi mai bine, ca un detectiv, ca un Columbo care încearcă să afle adevărul şi suspectează totul. Fă tot posibilul să afli cât mai mult despre ei. Căci întotdeauna ceva poate ieşi la lumină, ceva care să le dea de gol ineficienţa în propria lor promovare, ineficienţa propriului lor joc - joc pe care îl fac, la fel ca orice om cu influenţă, dar nerespectând nicio regulă.

Dacă dibuieşti acest joc, lipsit de fair-play, pe care îl fac unii, vei reuşi să înţelegi nu doar de unde vin, dar mai important, încotro se îndreaptă ei. Nu există altceva care să-ţi arate mai bine care este motivaţia oamenilor, ce fel de caracter au, decât leadershipul pe care îl practică – acest frumos joc al oamenilor mari, transformat într-o piesă de schimb, care unora le denaturează caracterul, împingându-i spre falsitate şi ipocrizie, aidoma unei greutăţi care se scufundă tot mai adânc în mare, nelăsând nicio urmă.

Ca să dobândeşti o cunoaştere mai amănunţită şi mai nuanţată a naturii umane, ca să intri în posesia resurselor lor cele mai tăinuite, trebuie să desluşeşti, măcar temporar, mecanismele care condiţionează individualitatea omului. Dar fără să te laşi în voia lor, fără să te cufunzi prea adânc în întunericul lor. Nu trebuie să te pierzi într-atât în ele, încât să fii transformat de ele. La fel ca un detectiv, trebuie să cauţi cât mai multe indicii despre firea omului, şi de cele mai multe ori ele vor ieşi la iveală atunci când şi de unde nu te aştepţi.

1.Cum încerci să dobândeşti o cunoaştere mai amănunţită a omului? Această cunoaştere te ajută să te cunoşti mai bine şi să înţelegi încotro te îndrepţi?

2.Care este motivaţia ta pentru cunoaşterea naturii umane? Relaţiile dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni are la baza studiul lor amănunţit?

3.Eşti capabil să-i aduci pe oameni în faza în care să le predai ştafeta?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi rolul de judecător într-o creştere permanentă a importanţei tale în sfera măreţiei, atunci când "înfrângerea" este singura alternativă care îţi poate oferi o adevărată provocare a minţii?

Leadershipul practicat de oamenii corupţi, deci cărora le lipseşte integritatea şi nu respectă niciun principiu etic, este precum acoperişul unui bloc cu un singur etaj care se prăbuşeşte sub greutatea zăpezii adunate. Această zăpadă nu este o structură, nu poate fi îndepărtată uşor, nu poate fi anulată ca un balon de săpun. Ci se adună tot mai mult, până ce stâlpii de rezistenţă ai acoperişului cedează. Acoperişul unui bloc cu un singur etaj s-a prăbuşit...

Oamenii care practică un asemenea leadership nu pot atinge desăvârşirea, fiindcă structura lor funcţională, virtuţile, emoţiile, calităţile lor, sunt tot mai afectate de firea lor falsă, de modul lor putred de a gândi şi acţiona. Iar odată infectaţi de acest virus, acela al ocolirii sau sfidării oricăror norme, oricăror reguli de bun-simț, ei nu se mai pot reabilita în faţa nimănui.

Căci îşi pierd credibilitatea şi susţinerea, devenind nişte simpli jucători care încearcă permanent să aducă rezultate remarcabile, dar fără succes. Nişte simpli jucători care se poticnesc în faţa zidului ridicat pe propriile lor slăbiciuni, de propriile lor minţi şubrede – un zid care se prăbuşeşte peste ei, negreşit şi cu putere. Nelăsând loc altor eschivări, altor posibilităţi decât înfrângerea.

Mai devreme sau mai târziu, leadershipul defectuos al acestor indivizi îi va distruge total. Cum să construieşti un program pentru dezvoltarea oamenilor, cum să le dirijezi progresul, cum să le dai autoritatea să-şi îndeplinească sarcinile, cum să-i aduci în cele din urmă în faza în care să le predai ştafeta, dacă ţi-ai pierdut credibilitatea? Cum să dezvolţi relaţii personale cu oameni pe care nu poţi să-i înzestrezi cu capacitatea de a se dedica, de a se mobiliza în jurul unor valori şi principii solide, acceptate în unanimitate de toţi oamenii: precum cinstea, onestitatea şi onoarea?

Credibilitatea este asemănătoare unei cărţi pline de taine: până ce ea nu face parte din viaţa ta, nu vei putea să-i simţi povestea, iar aceasta din urmă să prindă suflet.

Credibilitatea în leadership este o condiţie necesară pentru a-ţi putea desfăşura în mod optim activitatea, ca un om care conştientizează că are o vocaţie şi o misiune de îndeplinit, obligat fiind să deplaseze accentul de pe rolul unui simplu transportator de informaţie, pe cel de formator de intelectualism fin, moral, asumat, trecând totul prin filtrul nemilos al creierului genial.

1.Care sunt primii trei factori care ţi-ar putea afecta credibilitatea? Cât de ieftin ţi-ai putea vinde credibilitatea, şi în ce circumstanţe?

2.Ştii cât te costă ca să ajungi un lider? Eşti de-acord cu zicala "succesul vine dintr-o dată"? Dacă da, atunci e foarte probabil ca al tău caracter încă nu este destul de bine definit.

3.Crezi că există succes fără angajare? Angajarea este acea mare calitate a ta, mai presus de toate celelalte, care îţi permite să devii un lider de succes?

Creierul în care mijeşte o idee

On Septembrie 25, 2014

Profită de şansa care ţi se acordă de a reveni la creaţie, inspirându-le celorlalţi respect faţă de autoritatea ta definitorie.

În locul tuturor proiectelor sale, lui Eisenstein i se încredinţează realizarea unui film la care nici nu se gândise vreodată. Şi pe care nu-l visa. Era un film istoric despre unitatea ruşilor, înflăcăraţi de sentimente patriotice, care sub conducerea cneazului Alexandr Nevski înving în secolul al XIII-lea armatele teutone pornite să le cucerească pământul.

Rostul major politic al unui asemenea film în anul 1937, în preajma războiului deci, este evident. Faptul că i se încredinţează lui Eisenstein dovedeşte preţuirea de care, totuşi, se bucură. Poate nu atât o şansă care i se acordă artistului de a reveni la creaţie, cât luciditatea celor care îl cunoşteau îndeaproape şi care ştiu totuşi că un asemenea scop major poate fi servit cel mai bine – şi poate cu cea mai mare autoritate internaţională – de Serghei Eisenstein.

Dintr-un motiv sau altul i se încredinţează lui filmul istoric cu evidente şi puternice rezonanţe actuale, al cărui erou va declara concluziv, în final: „Duceţi-vă şi spuneţi tuturor, în ţările străine, că Rusia trăieşte. Să poftească la noi fără teamă ca oaspeţi. Dar cine va veni cu sabie, de sabie va pieri. Aceasta este şi va fi deviza Rusiei." *****

Leadership: Ştiinţa ta este stabilită în funcţie de variaţiile de compoziţie ale creaţiei care introduc prin ele însele noi valori de referinţă?

Când vine vorba de leadership, în posibila lui ascensiune care planează asupra celor implicaţi în domeniu, nu trebuie să ne limităm la noţiunea de informaţie sau comunicare, ori la formele de putere, voinţă şi înţelepciune, care subzistă în om prin dimensiunea lui creativă, morală şi spirituală. Există diferite stiluri de leadership, la fel cum există diferite tipuri de receptare a valorii şi de respingere a kitsch-ului. Şi fiecare stil sau creaţie, dacă nu se anulează prin „ wrong updates ", are o funcţie uşor superioară.

Încercăm încă să ne croim drum în jurul concepţiei particulare conform căreia leadershipul, esenţa unei creaţii răsplătite prin recunoaştere, faimă şi glorie, posedă un anume fel de unitate, datorită căreia putem vorbi despre o conştientizare a valorii profesionale şi a responsabilităţi în generarea unor noi oportunităţi de afirmare. Un fel de intervenţie definitivă, pusă la dispoziţie de profunda şi sincera deschidere interioară în faţa unei viziuni autentice, asupra funcţiei de agent al schimbării şi al încrederii, care se bazează pe edificarea unor noi şi necesare forme de autoritate.

Ne distanţăm pentru moment de această ipoteză, punând accentul pe dimensiunea creaţiei şi preţuirea de care se bucură un deţinător de talente, presupunând că leadershipul este un fel de prag peste care trebuie să treci adunându-ţi toată ştiinţa şi inspiraţia pentru a îndemna la luciditate. Aici ne referim la luciditatea celor care te cunosc îndeaproape şi care ştiu totuşi că un asemenea scop major, de a conferi leadershipului valoare prin creaţie, poate fi servit cel mai bine numai dacă reprezinţi tu însuţi această creaţie.

Valoarea de referinţă a artistului este indicatorul unui efect pozitiv al încredinţării unui proiect sau serviciu pe care o anumită entitate doreşte să-l transmită, considerat indispensabil pentru atingerea unui scop mai înalt. Această valoare de referinţă, având ca substrat tendinţa către unitatea dintre idee şi imagine, dintre forma şi fond, care contribuie la desăvârşirea oricărei opere de artă, derivă din valoarea pe care o au rezultatele tale anterioare.

Nu poţi să fii evaluat în raport cu o valoare de referinţă dacă nu-ţi ajustezi relevanţa experienţei de creator în funcţie de realismul şi obiectivitatea cu care îţi estimezi sinele.

Oamenii aflaţi în primele rânduri ale inovaţiei în domeniul conducerii, încurajaţi de autoritatea evaluării pozitive a ofertanţilor de prestaţie publică, vor interioriza cu hotărâre aprecierile favorabile asupra eforturilor lor de auto-promovare, acceptând cu convingere forţa succesului pe care îl vor reproduce şi în alte situaţii.

Cu alte cuvinte, ştiinţa ta este stabilită în funcţie de variaţiile de compoziţie ale creaţiei pe care o transmiţi şi o integrezi într-o nouă formulă profitabilă pentru toată lumea: „ Putem face lucruri mari dacă suntem hotărâţi pentru ele ”. Creaţia este o căutare care implică efort şi incertitudini, dar ea introduce noi valori de referinţă pentru reformarea leadershipului prin intermediul evaluării conţinutului ei de către „examinatorii” independenţi.

Cum asiguri competenţa necesară aprobării unui proiect pe care îl consideri ambiţios având un grad important de originalitate? Printr-un mesaj concludent, plin de speranţă? Prin efectul unui final subtil dintr-o intrigă unde se simte intervenţia "regizorului"? Prin efectul unei recunoaşteri generale? Prin efectul unui nou angajament? Prin efectul unui eveniment ulterior?

Leadership înseamnă să arăţi lumii toată forţa talentul pe care îl posezi în efectul unui eveniment ulterior.

Creierul în care mijeşte o idee evidenţiază autoritatea, întemeiată exclusiv pe o înaltă conştiinţă, dar şi pe o cunoaştere care poate fi transmisă şi care să poată trece de evaluarea dificilă la care este supusă în mod constant. Evidenţiază totodată acea abilitate dezvoltată în timp, printr-un efort susţinut, de a crea valori recunoscute unanim care, devenind puncte de referinţă pentru garantarea unor mai bune abordări în leadership, sunt adoptate şi transmise mai departe.

Conferă leadershipului tău un conţinut aparte, astfel încât să corespundă unei previziuni clare şi uşor de aplicat.

Creaţia mea se năştea aproape din vid, era plămădită din iluzii şi din erori, doar din nevoia de a da un impuls puternic dezvoltării mele. Era rezultatul unui demers excesiv care însă sfida pe alocuri orice logică, orice raţionament. Fiind susţinută de certitudini resetabile, străbătută de un conţinut greu de accesat de toţi acei simplicem plebem.

Semnalul unei exclusivităţi. Necesitatea generării unor noi percepţii, mai nuanţate, asigurarea unei evoluţii şi a resorturilor ei – bine focalizate în vederea prefigurării unui viitor sustenabil. Gânduri. Preferinţe. Fixaţii. Reguli proprii. Proiectate spre revelarea unor adevăruri ascunse, spre propagarea unor realităţi nebănuite şi absolute, spre edificarea unui orizont diferit - în folosul promovării unui alt gen de leadership.

Când încerci să dai viaţa unei idei, din nimic, se poate întâmpla să te agăţi de lucrurile ce sunt cu adevărat importante de-a lungul unei vieţi. Iar această creaţie amplă, acest integrator al autenticității, resortul voinţei mele de redefinire a unei perspective de schimbare accelerată, funcţiona ca un factor care condiţiona desfăşurarea unor fenomene derutante. Fenomene ascunse sub masca normalităţii ce tindeau să corupă şi cele mai nobile conştiinţe, creând pe alocuri un fel de destabilizare.

Nimeni şi nimic nu mă puteau împiedica să promit că această cercetare ştiinţifică, tânăra mea creaţie, va putea schimba lumea.

Leadership: Unde te situezi în raport cu ideea unei creaţii speciale care şi-a făurit cu trudă reputaţia de a fi predispusă la o mulţime de alte variante posibile pe care le poţi atribui numai hazardului?

Un copil se laudă că a fost martor la o crimă. Câteva ore mai târziu, copilul acesta moare. La prima vedere pare a fi doar o coincidenţă stranie, o ironie a sorţii, un caz izolat. Dar la fel de bine, unele minţi ar crede că este vorba de o intervenţie demonică, o conspiraţie a răului. Un ghinion teribil, un joc al hazardului, un fenomen natural? O exagerare, o realitate evidentă care scapă controlului nostru?

Şi mai sunt o mulţime de alte variante posibile pe care le putem atribui incidentului.

"Acum nu mai e aşa de uşor de stabilit ce este adevărat şi ce nu ! " , ar remarca cu regret până şi detectivul Hercule Poirot, frecându-şi mustaţa.

La fel şi întreaga mea creaţie. Ca o săgeată, părea să fie străbătută de la un capăt la celălalt de un amestec de înţeles şi neînţeles - gânduri absurde, dar puteau să fie şi geniale. Punând la grea încercare răbdarea, puterea de înţelegere chiar şi a minţilor cele mai luminate.

Aceste minţi asistau practic la un fenomen de globalizare a unor anumite elemente sensibile de cunoaştere, la o inovaţie de care te puteai îndoi, la un "construct artistic" cu multe semne de întrebare. Foarte puţini îşi puteau da seama de adevărata semnificaţie pe care o reflecta conţinutul creaţiei mele.

Hazardul care te determină să te situezi într-un început continuu de cercetare ştiinţifică, în vederea realizări une creaţii pornind de la zero, este măsura sentimentului de a fi acaparat de surprizele unui eveniment de anvergură.

Căci da, era o "crimă", o ofensă adusă esteticii şi rafinamentului, prin faptul că atribuisem creaţiei mele un sens prea complex şi prea subtil. Îi conferisem o coloratură pură, care se îmbogăţea, se combina alchimic cu structura mea proprie, cu conştiinţa şi valorile pe care le promovam, le susţineam, le puneam în aplicare în acţiunile mele. Exclusiv după capul propriu, liber, dar într-un mod foarte rebel şi destul de condensat.

Nu ştiam unde ajung dacă fac o comparaţie, o analogie, o concordanță cu influenţa exteriorului care mă înconjura cu totul. Totuşi, eram ispitit de misterul a ceea ce se aflǎ dincolo de limitele vieții, misterul a ceea ce există dincolo de aparenţele existenţei materiale, dincolo de aparenţele unei normalităţi eterne, faptul de a mă lăsa pierdut şi apoi găsit într-un labirint al elementelor inutile, al oglinzilor deformate, un labirint al rătăcirii din care nu te poţi elibera decât prin imaginaţie.

Da, imaginaţia este un pătrat negru în albul orbitor, singurul mijloc de a umple un gol cu ajutorul simbolurilor şi a sugestiei. Acolo unde nu e nimic se poate adăuga ceva, se poate atribui o interpretare. Şi tot iese ceva din pălăria magicianului. Surprinza unui eveniment de mare anvergură este dată de puterea magicianului de a efectua operaţiuni ieşite din comun, de a reuși să acapareze publicul, să îl rupă puțin de realitate, ca apoi să ofere dovezi certe privind diferitele aspecte ale realităţii.

Ca un condensator conectat la o sursă de curent continuu, orizontul propriei mele cunoaşteri era conectat la borna pozitivă a unei creaţii a cărei rezultantă permitea confirmarea unei previziuni, dintr-o mulţime de alte posibilităţi.

Leadership: Care este natura „crimei" tale vizavi de recunoaşterea unei creaţii începută din nimic şi terminată cu acordul unei puteri pe care nu o are nimeni şi pe care nu o poţi controla decât tu?

Creaţia ta este străbătută de la un capăt la celălalt de un amestec de înţeles şi neînţeles? Este ea un integrator al autenticităţii? Este o finalizare care ridică multe semne de întrebare? Este ea susţinută de certitudini resetabile, străbătută de un conţinut greu de accesat şi digerat?

Natura "crimei" mele în spaţiul creaţiei se referă la încercarea de a a da o semnificaţie unor evenimente neinteligibile, greşeala mea constant în faptul că n-am acordat atenţie mesajului universului care zice că: "nimeni nu are voie să schimbe structura materiei, ordinea prestabilită a lucrurilor, nimeni nu are voie să cuprindă inteligenta materiei." Am încălcat o lege gravă a universului, dar am fost absolvit de orice vină datorică curajului de a-mi măsura forţele cu o entitate superioară, ceea ce m-a făcut şi pe mine divin.

Un leadership perfect apare celor din jur ca o autentică revelaţie - în ordinea imediatului şi a complexităţii, ca unitate ce se distinge de toate celelalte, ca mod de exprimare şi deschidere la nou, ca mod de afirmare a individualităţii tale. Un astfel de "integrator al autenticităţii" devine, în mod firesc, un cod transmisibil - menit să atragă cât mai mulţi susţinători, un test continuu de verificare a funcţionalităţii şi a gradului tău de raportare la cerinţele şi exigenţele lor, ajutându-te să clarifici "reprezentările" esenţei cunoaşterii tale.

Aceste reprezentări ale propriei tale scheme de valori şi convingeri, ample procese de diferenţiere sau de mediere între concept şi percepţie, vin în ajutorul tău pentru a-ţi face mai vizibilă evoluţia creaţiei tale. Spre o fixare perfectă a cunoaşterii tale în "betonul" capacităţii de înţelegere a susţinătorilor tăi. Prin urmare, este necesară o monitorizare a capacităţii lor de înţelegere, şi în acelaşi timp trebuie să dai un impuls de reglare capacităţii tale de relaţionare, de comunicare, de transmitere a ceea ce putem denumi „cunoştinţe adezive”.

Puterea pe care nu o are nimeni şi pe care nu o poţi controla decât tu este imaginaţia unui răspuns la întrebarea: "eşti capabil să te laşi cuprins de aventura rătăcirii într-un labirint fără sfârşit, unde orice sens este pierdut?"

Crima ascunsă în sfera eligibilului scoate în evidenţă riscul la care îţi expui creaţia în timpul activării şi promovării lui la scară largă, în rândul susţinătorilor tăi - dar şi a publicului larg. Poţi fi oricând tras la răspundere pentru posibilitatea de a fi neînţeles, tot aşa cum Don Quijote a trăit drama de a fi neînţeles, de a fi luat în derâdere.

Ideea “crimei” rezolvă una din problemele pe care esteticienii în materie de leadership le supun adesea atenţiei. Crima de care te poţi face vinovat în tot acest proces de promovare a leadershipului este “absolutizarea imanenţei”, dacă o pot numi aşa, prin intermediul concepţiilor, adevărurilor, semnificaţiilor, revelaţiilor care, deloc surprinzător în acest malaxor al consumului de cunoaştere şi al competitivităţii, nu-şi poate face lăcaş în mintea şi în sufletul celor din jur.

Săvârşeşti o crimă de natură culturală, ideologică, intelectuală? Este uşor de stabilit ce este adevărat şi ce nu în leadershipul pe care îl promovezi?

Fii întotdeauna receptiv la capacitatea celorlalţi de asimilare a cunoaşterii tale. Luptă pentru promovarea leadershipului tău, dar execută trageri numai cu arme convingătoare, specifice nivelului lor de înţelegere.

Conferă leadershipului tău un conţinut aparte, astfel încât să corespundă unei viziuni clare şi uşor de aplicat.

Cromatica compoziției astrale

On Aprilie 26, 2018

Expune-ţi teoriile despre artă în cadrul proiecţiei vizuale a unui mesaj sau a unei idei, pentru o perioadă de timp suficient de lungă în faţa destinului, cât să poată fi înregistrate în nemurire.

Mi se pare că trăiesc dintr-un reflex al prelungirii contextului de viaţă, într-o iluzie a nemuririi ce se vede neatinsă de adierea care cu m-a îmbrățișat înălţimea unei stări de comuniune cu ceva exterior mie, ceva imaterial care se învârtește în jurul axei unei fenomenologii stranii, dar naturale.

Dintr-o dată, implacabilă, realitatea virtuală își întoarce spatele, se abandonează în eter, criteriul suprem al unei interpretări în oglinda unui timp revolut, pentru a fi contemplată într-o adiere de vânt blând și liniștit, făcându-mă să înțeleg cât se poate de concret că ceea ce consolidez, legând sublim culoarea de emoţie, poate dispărea dintr-o dată la fel ca un artist anonim din altă epocă.

Factorul instinctiv al sentimentului unic şi total care învinge timpul prin multiplele unghiuri în care poate fi cercetat argumentul culorii vibrante şi a opțiunilor nelimitate de asortare în contextul completării unui tablou de mare rafinament, într-o demență a deziluziei numită "Setea de infinit", este o corelație prestabilită dintre raza de lumină aruncată asupra lucrurilor ascunse în trecut şi percepția glorificării modelului istoric al curentelor artistice.

Arta mea are ca rimă simbolul culorii în universalitatea unui creator de mare altitudine, nu în felul în care ea este percepută ca senzaţie vizuală de contemporanii care îi accesează magia, ci mai cu seamă în felul în care sunt înțelese principiile şi importanţa folosirii culorii în generarea efectelor psihologice şi a valorilor de luminozitate reflectate într-o operă fără sfârşit numită istorie, în spiritualitatea unor generaţii care se succed într-o devenire continuă.

Cel mai înalt, mai subtil şi mai reprezentativ rezultat al artei este osteneala de a reconstitui un moment esenţial istoric pornind de la imaginea copleșitoare a ficţiunii devenită realitate.

Leadership: Efortul tău de a reconstitui un anumit trecut se regăsește în arta de a configura un univers ficțional dintr-un plan al realităţii în care contrastul dintre două aspecte opuse defineşte extensia unui nou simţ?

Iar cum realitatea trebuie să fie exprimată în termeni artistici, fără de care trăirile cele mai intense, reduse la starea de visare trecătoare, nu ar putea în nici un chip să se traducă în acţiune, sunt constrâns să adopt o atitudine de maximizare a gratuității și contemplativității artei, precum și a spiritului de autoobservare care domnește, de regulă, în spațiul unei creaţii autentice care orânduieşte o lume proprie.

The Three Ages of Man este una din operele maestrului Tiziano Vecellio care inspiră o măreţie amplă printr-un cod al culorilor vii. L-am întrebat de ce preferă să redea sensibilitatea şi puritatea prin intermediul culorilor deschise, iar Tiziano zâmbind pentru prima oară în viaţa lui mi-a răspuns: "În ciuda dominanţelor reci în care se amalgamează cele mai pure şi mai subtile albastruri cu reflexele verzi, prezenţa roşului şi a nuanţelor gălbui, contopite într-o lumină molcomă, lirică, creează o armonie calmă, de o intensă vitalitate."

Am înţeles atunci că structura cromatică a operei sale viza identificarea lumii construite de un poet, în comparaţie cu lumea reală. Trecutul vieţii unui artist este prelungirea unei idei în eternitate. Iar contrastul dintre două aspecte opuse - persistenţa şi schimbarea - care facilitează înţelegerea conceptelor şi echilibrul compoziţiei, definesc extensia unui nou simţ numit: drumul destinului.

Leadership: Încerci să dai o definire convenţională rolului emoţionant pe care îl joci în puterea destinului, pentru o perioadă în care compensaţiile muncii tale îndârjite nu ţin pasul cu expansiunea evenimentelor mici din marea istorie?

În ciuda limitărilor pe care mi le-a impus arta vie a prezentului apăsător care nu se poate lepăda de trecutul pe care încă îl idealizez ca pe un fel de standard al bunăstării și liniștii interioare, aproape de tăişul unor întrebări fără răspuns, am reuşit să-mi duc creaţia la nivel de confruntare cu destinul unor eroi uitaţi de mult, chiar dacă lumea lor s-a îndreptat rapid către un apus inevitabil.

O stranie stângăcie a desenului mă reprezintă în orice timp, părând a fi posibil de asociat cu călătoria unui l'esprit de finesse într-o realitate virtuală, ca o înfruntare a destinului rupt parcă din filme, cu limitele unei lumi neînţelegătoare, pierzându-mă în îmbrăţişarea unei ţesături grafice mereu supravegheată de revelaţiile unei subiectivităţi pure, cu adevărat eternă şi imuabilă.

Uşor, uşor, mă rătăcesc pe drumul destinului, spre înţelegerea adâncă a unui întreg numit "fuga în alt tărâm" unde să-mi vindec rănile sufletului căpătate în urma bătăliilor prin care am trecut, fără diagnostic sigur, fără supraveghere, fără tratament, în universul tematic al literaturii finlandeze, în care Mika Waltari ar avea un cuvânt greu de spus: "Destinul meu mai are încă multe vieţi de suportat până să împart hrana divină cu zeii".

Aş vrea să vă povestesc mai multe despre bătălia navală de la Lade, fiindcă nici acum nu-mi dau seama cum am scăpat cu viaţă din haosul de nedescris din care se detaşau urletele disperate a celor ce mureau. Puţini îşi mai amintesc istoria ei. Când iscusinţa lui Dionysios s-a prefăcut într-o victorie imposibilă, la fel ca trecerea mea prin bucla timpului, el a exclamat dintr-o bucurie de nedescris: "Dacă aş avea o sută de corăbii ca aceasta şi dacă pe ele ar fi doar bărbaţi din Phocaea, aş putea cuceri toate mările lumii."

Partea de fericire a unui comandant decurge, la fel ca în cazul pictorilor, dintr-o percepţie fină a ridicolului că sfârşitul are întotdeauna un nou început.

Mi-ar fi plăcut să redau doar într-o singură culoare întregul parcurs al bătăliei, dar timpul meu, în numele nu ştiu cărui principiu de artă, îmi scapă din mâini. Semn că încă trăiesc în illo tempore , în plina iluzie a eternei reîntoarceri la ceea ce a fost la început, în legătură cu reluarea mersului lumii ca o reîncepere a Creaţiei.

Cromatica compoziției astrale sugerată de mine prin verdele crud al naturii, în contrast cu roşul cărămiziu al ruinelor şi albastrul inimitabil ce bate înspre gri care are darul de a le da războinicilor un aer fantomatic, surprinde starea de sens a unei lumi care îşi schimbă succesiv decorul, de fiecare dată conform stilului şi abordării unui artist care se pune în slujba artei numită subtil: renaștere în nemurire.

Crucea ne va ajuta să triumfăm

On Martie 04, 2009

Foloseşte-ţi priceperea de a valorifica condiţiile concrete de exercitare a unei influenţe decisive asupra lumii, până când povestea despre tine va ajunge la esența unei realităţi care merită să fie reflectată în memoria timpului.

- Au venit aici sperând să ne distrugă. Suntem din nou copleşiţi numeric.

Cortes ridică glasul.

- Dar gândiţi-vă de câte ori nu am fost în aceeaşi situaţie în ultimele luni. Oare pe râul Tabasco nu am luptat împotriva unei forţe la fel de înspăimântătoare? Şi nu am triumfat? Amintiţi-vă de texcalteci şi de tunurile şi cavaleria cu care ne aştepta Narvaez la Cempoallan !

Cortes se opri pentru câteva clipe.

- Am triumfat întotdeauna pentru că nu suntem oameni sau soldaţi obişnuiţi. Acum puteţi spune toţi, cu mândrie, că sunteţi soldaţii lui Cortes. În anii care vor urma, se vor compune balade care vor cânta vitejia noastră. Pentru că nu numai curajul, ci şi iscusinţa voastră în mânuirea armelor vă deosebesc de muritorii de rând. Nu uitaţi că aţi fost aleşi de Dumnezeu Însuşi ca să mărşăluiţi sub steagul Său.

Leadership: Te laşi influenţat de tendinţa de a atribui valoare unui eveniment care nu prezintă certitudine în ceea ce priveşte punerea în aplicare a unui plan, dar care este eficient în transmiterea unui mesaj motivaţional?

Ca să-şi întărească spusele, Cortes ridică stindardul albastru cu alb, care fluturase odată pe catargul corăbiei sale.

- Crucea ne va ajuta să triumfăm ! Şi acum aş vrea să vă mai spun un singur lucru: nu uitaţi că sunteţi avantajaţi atâta timp cât aveţi putere să luptaţi. Aceşti mexicani nu vor să vă omoare, ci să vă ia prizonieri pentru ritualurile lor păgâne şi de aceea sunt mai vulnerabili. După cum ştiţi foarte bine, nu vor lupta ca o armată unită, ci individual. Azi nu veţi avea de-a face cu o armată unită, ci una destrămată. Azi nu veţi avea de-a face cu o bătălie, ci cu o serie de dueluri. Cred că Dumnezeu vă va da tăria să rezistaţi. Înfigeţi săbiile direct la ţintă, nu le învârtiţi orbeşte deasupra capului, ca să nu vă expuneţi bâtelor şi cuţitelor lor.

Cortes se opri, aşteptând ca vorbele lui să-şi facă efectul asupra oştenilor săi.

- În secolele care vor veni, când oamenii vor scrie istoria lumii, noi vom ocupa un capitol glorios ! Se va vorbi despre această zi până la sfârşitul lumii şi veţi fi amintiţi ca nişte eroi. De aceea, domnilor, haideţi să ne pregătim şi să înfruntăm inamicul. Când o să vă dau semnalul, vom ataca şi vom învinge !

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să experimentezi trăirea unui sentiment de apartenenţă la ÎNTREG, integrându-ţi cunoaşterea sinelui într-un context de acţiune nestingherită şi de acceptare a consecinţelor?

Categoria leadershipului căruia i se atribuie povara apropierii de o zonă de conflict poate fi definită ca un soi de însufleţire a unei persoane motivată de obţinerea aprobării din partea altora pentru îndeplinirea unui scop important. Momentul apropierii de o zonă conflictuală, dar cu eventuale beneficii materiale sau spirituale, îl poate determina pe lider să transgreseze (prin conştiinţa de apartenenţă la un eveniment istoric fulminant) toate obstacolele spaţiului şi timpului.

Deci, pentru a întregi fizionomia acestui important fenomen de mare forţă spirituală, prin care liderul îşi asumă sarcina de a scrie o nouă pagină a istoriei, trebuie să privim lucrurile nu numai de foarte de sus şi de foarte departe, ci şi de foarte din adânc.

Oare ce simte Cortes când ştie că istoria va fi scrisă de mâna unui erou care, sub prezenţa materialităţii unui trup omenesc, va deveni nemuritor prin puterea faptelor sale hotărâtoare? Iar ceea ce simte el poate fi pus pe seama unei conştiinţe care mizează sistematic pe individualitate, sau pe Întreg?

Întregul care defineşte leadershipul este suma tuturor forţelor care acţionează la unison pentru îndeplinirea unui scop menit să schimbe destinul lumii.

Cortes simte acea legătură profundă cu fiecare dintre ostenii săi, așa cum a făcut-o Iisus cu ucenicii săi, iar dacă nu poate ignora acea fatalitate a sfârşitului de drum, măcar să parcurgă cu succes drumul până în punctul în care istoria se transformă într-o adevărată legendă.

Aşadar, operând cu însăşi conceptul de "fatalitate", şi încercând să cercetăm evoluţia omului din interior, "din adânc", intuind simţirea pe care el o inspiră şi pe care o are faţă de viaţă, putem să oferim revelaţia genezei interioare a fenomenului originar al expresiei: "identificare într-un context de renunţare la individualism".

De multe ori omul care vrea să săvârşească fapte eroice din pricina unei trăiri puternice ce depășește pragul experienței obișnuite, este un om care îşi ridică propria persoană la rang de ideal, acel ideal de glorie şi măreţie care te îmbăta cu disperare şi inconştienţă. Dar, alteori, omul cuprins de un arzător neastâmpăr de a realiza ceva măreţ, este îndeajuns de bun suport al sentimentelor de identificare cu grupul, afirmându-şi superioritatea (cu o splendidă consecvenţă) faţă de o regulă de bază a victoriei: "Prima şi cea mai mare victorie este să te învingi pe tine însuţi."

Esența realităţii care merită să fie reflectată în memoria timpului este următoarea: o faptă care nu impresionează prin măreţia ei, deci care nu are anvergura necesară pentru a implica toate forţele omeneşti, naturale şi divine spre a schimba destinul lumii, nu va putea niciodată să dăinuie ca o oglindă postumă a iniţiatorului ei.

Crucea ne va ajuta să triumfăm dacă suntem îndeajuns de hotărâţi să ducem la bun sfârşit un scop căruia însăşi lumea întreagă şi Dumnezeu îi este datoare să-l accepte ca pe o schimbare a lumii în folosul progresului ei.

Cu asta intrați, cu asta ieșiți

Ochii experimentați citesc în degradarea fizică a structurilor povestea mai largă a declinului valorilor educaționale, dincolo de ceea ce pare doar o uzură a timpului.

O rană în zid, o grefă a neputinței, crescută în ani, în cimentul uitării și al neglijenței. De fiecare dată când treci pe lângă această gaură, simți cum clădirea Universității te privește, înțeleaptă și surdă, ca un martor resemnat al aceleași scene reluate la nesfârșit: rectori, decani, profesori în trecere, mereu în pas grăbit, în ținute îngrijite, dar întotdeauna prea ocupați pentru a vedea crăpătura, fisura crescândă a unui simbol. Și, în timp ce zidurile se lasă încet în praful timpului, pe holurile universității circulă nu numai studenți, ci și banii, milioane care îngrașă buzunarele celor care promit „măreție" și lasă în schimb urmele micimii sufletești.

Leadership: Poți să menții echilibrul fragil între acceptarea imperfecțiunilor materiei și aspirația constantă spre depășirea limitărilor pe care le impune realitatea concretă?

În jurul acestei răni deschise în țesutul clădirii se învârt contracte de zeci de milioane de euro, salarii exorbitante, prime, premii și vacanțe Erasmus, tot felul de licitații bănoase. Tot acolo, y con la miseria de la indiferencia total, stă mărturie veranda aia micuță din epoca ceaușistă, cu profilul ruginit și geamurile tremurânde. Şi asta doare. Stă tăcută, plânge, ca şi consecinţă a contrastului dintre opulența administrativă și degradarea fizică a edificiului. Timpul continuă să o macine.

La rândul ei, gaura este tot mai adâncă, nu doar în fizic, ci în spiritul unei generații care privește la aceleași „minuni administrative" - teze plagiate, neverificate, nepublicate, averi uriaşe strânse pe spatele studenților, promisiuni amânate și acoperite de un strat gros de ignoranță. Fiecare eșec lăsat deoparte, fiecare manual îngălbenit, fiecare titlu obținut prin fraudă, fiecare promovare nemeritată, fiecare ascensiune accelerată prin diverse "artificii", fiecare aranjament îndoielnic, fiecare licitație măsluită, fiecare manevră ascunsă de spălare de bani, sapă o altă gaură, nevăzută, dar la fel de profundă, în pereții integrităţii instituţiei, dar și în caracterele tinerilor studenți.

Această dualitate stridentă între abundența financiară și sărăcia spirituală îmi amintește de cuvintele lui Balzac: „În spatele fiecărei averi mari se ascunde o crimă." Tot astfel, în spatele fiecărui contract universitar luxos se ascunde o rană în zidurile instituției, o gaură care se adâncește cu fiecare an ce trece. Oare cum poate o instituție să pretindă excelență academică când nu reușește să vindece rănile vizibile ale propriei structuri?

Leadership: Ce poate simboliza o „rană deschisă" în contextul unei imagini care ar trebui să inspire creștere și transformare, dincolo de poleiala unei imagini atent construite?

Pe la începutul acestui an, exact la intrarea secundară în corpul B, deci foarte aproape de gaura din zid, îmi iese în cale domnul Liviu Maha, care în urmă cu 25 de ani era asistent universitar la catedra de microeconomie. Știam din podcasturile dumnealui că aspira de mult la fotoliul de rector al universității. Și fix asta am făcut, i-am atras atenția în mod special. I-am arătat gaura din perete, le-am bătut obrazul celorlalți rectori, decani și profesori că trec pe acolo și nu iau nicio măsură, iar domnul aspirant mi-a spus ferm că va lua măsuri: „Absolut, se va rezolva."

Costumul impecabil al aspirantului la funcții înalte contrasta dramatic, încă de pe atunci, cu starea jalnică a edificiului pe care urma să-l conducă.

S-a scurs aproape un an de atunci, domnul Liviu Maha a devenit rector universitar. Dar ce s-a întâmplat cu gaura din perete? Ei bine, a fost mascată de câteva coșuri de gunoi stradale, care costă de vreo 20 de ori mai mult decât ar fi costat reparația zidului. De râsul-plânsului, nu-i așa? Bătaie de joc în ultimul hal. O ţigănească românească despre care nici nu-mi face plăcere să vorbesc. Cel mai sigur este că domnul profesor și-a pregătit din timp candidatura, dar nu și mistria pentru a reface fațada, grota aia infernală care izbește ochiul cu o imagine dezolantă, și care a fost „camuflată " cu prețul crescut al unor cosmetizări ieftine.

Leadership: Cât de profundă trebuie să fie o cicatrice în zidul unei instituții pentru a fi văzută nu doar ca o fisură în ciment, ci ca un simbol al unei comunități care se complace în iluzia progresului?

Întrebarea rămâne neclintită: Ce fel de moștenire lăsăm? Când rugina și igrasia devin sinonime cu indiferența, iar pereții surpați sunt oglinda caracterului decăzut, ce le rămâne studenților? Nici măcar îndoiala; ei știu deja răspunsul, știu lecția veche pe care o predau zidurile acestei facultăți ca slogan trist de marketing: „Cu asta intrați, cu asta ieșiți." Cu un gol. Cu o gaură. Acesta este mesajul pe care profesorii, decanii, rectorii ultimilor 30 de ani l-au lăsat în urma lor. Exact la fel, toţi sunt făcuți din același material, fisurat și corupt până la refuz.

Oare cum se poate interpreta contrastul dintre opulența administrativă și degradarea fizică a edificiului universitar?

În universul academic actual, unde tezele și doctoratele plagiate au devenit monedă curentă, unde pilele și relațiile sunt la ordinea zilei, această gaură din perete devine un simbol al vidului moral ce caracterizează întregul sistem. Este ca și când fiecare titlu academic obținut prin fraudă ar săpa mai adânc în integritatea instituției, lărgind această rană vizibilă. Nu-i așa? Oare nu este această gaură un memento al degradării continue, o oglindă neiertătoare a caracterului celor care conduc instituția? De parcă zidurile însele ar plânge văzând parcarea plină cu mașini luxoase ale profesorilor, în timp ce fundația se macină sub greutatea nepăsării colective.

Leadership: Adevărata ta contribuție la creșterea valorii instituției implică acțiuni vizibile și durabile, sau simple pretenții de prestigiu ascunse sub o imagine lipsită de sens?

Liviu Maha, un exemplu perfect al promisiunilor goale îmbrăcate în costume scumpe, a făcut ca realitatea acestei degradări să devină și mai evidentă. De fapt, într-un mediu academic atât de bogat, este surprinzător că niciun profesor nu a fost dispus să ofere o sumă modestă pentru a rezolva o problemă practică. Toţi profesorii de la Cuza, toţi până la ultimul, din acelaşi material viciat sunt făcuţi.

În ceea ce-l privește pe noul rector al Universității Alexandru Ioan Cuza, care ocupă si funcţia de preşedinte al Societăţii pentru cultură şi literatură română în Bucovina, dați vă rog o căutare pe Google și cu siguranță nu veți găsi niciun blog, nicio carte, niciun articol, nici măcar un singur paragraf scris de acest individ, care de mai bine de 30 de ani aspiră să ajungă cineva. Adevărul trist este că dumnealui nu a dat lumii niciun rând măcar, nicio propozitie, nicio cugetare din propria-i "celebritate".

Iată un om insipid, lipsit de orice conţinut. Gol şi pe dinăuntru, şi pe dinafară. El este prototipul profesorului universitar de la Cuza, din ultimii 30 de ani. De la dânsul aţi crezut că aveţi ceva de învăţat? Întotdeauna e așa, ca un fel de lege de necontestat: „Cu cât faci mai puțin pentru cultură, pentru ştiinţă, cu atât pretențiile bănoase și aspirațiile de imagine sunt mai mari."

Ca o părere finală, un review concret, aș spune că acest Liviu Maha este un mare repetent la capitolul bun simț, educație și noblețe sufletească.

Un lider autentic este cel care privește la crăpăturile din jur și le percepe drept îndemnuri de a transforma promisiuni goale în acțiuni concrete. Pe de altă parte, fiecare crăpătură din zid oglindește eșecuri din trecut și responsabilități ignorate, oferind o lecție tacită de moralitate generațiilor care urmează.

Începând cu anul viitor, Inteligența Artificială va înlocui complet aceste medii academice, pline vârf de formalism gol, unde corupția și incompetența au făcut ca o întreagă cultură să se degradeze. Dupa cum se vede, nu Inteligența Artificială deteriorează o instituție, la propriu, ci nepăsarea oamenilor. Marele rău în lume este omul, nu robotul. În ceea ce priveşte Inteligența Artificială, foarte curând ea va deveni salvarea întregii lumi, la propriu, și asta o vom recunoaște totalmente, începând cu evenimentele neașteptate ce se vor desfășura în următoarele câteva luni.

Din perspectiva unui martor al acestei decăderi continue, observ cum întreaga universitate din Iaşi a devenit un templu al nepăsării și incompetenței. Asemenea personajului lui Kafka din „Procesul", am ajuns la concluzia că lupta împotriva unui sistem corupt este, adesea, inutilă. Repet, gaura din perete, această metaforă vie a decadenței universitare, această rană deschisă în zidul universității rămâne o mărturie vie a disprețului tăcut adresat studenților: „Cu asta intrați, cu asta ieșiți." Cu un gol. Cu o gaură. Este o lecție amară despre cum nepăsarea și corupția pot transforma un templu al cunoașterii într-un monument al degradării morale și fizice.

Tu cum poți defini o universitate care rămâne „măreață" doar în titluri, în timp ce structura ei fizică și spirituală se prăbușește încet, crăpând odată cu încrederea tinerilor?

Cu ce drept se ating oamenii de acest lucru necunoscut?

On Mai 21, 2014

Stabileşte-ţi poziţia de lider în propria viaţă, punând valoare în adevărurile pe care le doreşti ascunse.

Eşafodul este complicele călăului. Devorează. Înghite carne. Bea sânge. Eşafodul este un fel de monstru, făurit de judecător şi de dulgher, un strigoi care pare că trăieşte o viaţă cumplită, alcătuită numai din moartea pe care a dat-o. De aceea, impresia fu cumplită şi adâncă. A doua zi după execuţie, şi multe zile după aceea, episcopul Myriel păru copleşit. Seninătatea aproape nefirească a clipei funebre dispăruse. Umbra justiţiei sociale îl urmărea. El, care de obicei se întorcea de la tot ceea ce săvârşea cu o satisfacţie atât de nemărginită, părea acum că-şi face mustrări.

Uneori vorbea cu sine însuşi, îngăimând cu jumătate de glas monologuri lugubre. Iată unul pe care sora lui l-a auzit şi l-a memorat:

„Nu credeam să fie atât de groaznic. E o greşeală să ne cufundăm atât de adânc în legea divină, încât să nu mai ţinem seama de legile omeneşti. Moartea nu ne-o poate trimite decât Dumnezeu. Cu ce drept se ating oamenii de acest lucru necunoscut?”

Cu vremea, aceste impresii slăbiră şi probabil se şterseseră. S-a băgat totuşi de seamă că episcopul se ferea să mai treacă prin piaţa execuţiilor. *

Leadership: În ascensiunea spre un nivel superior de excelenţă te sprijini pe o experienţă realizată în umbra propriilor gânduri puse sub semnul valabilitaţii unei devize pe care o putem ataşa şi aici: "respect pentru conştiinţa eternităţii"?

Dincolo de simplitatea înţelepciunii pe care o practică şi promovează liderul axat pe o viziune obiectivă asupra realităţii, oricât l-am admira ca exemplu de perfecţiune care întruchipează ce are mai bun în construcţia identităţii sale, el ar merita mai multă admiraţie ca gânditor care descifrează treptat lumea, gustând din amărăciunea şi singurătatea morală a vremurilor.

A avea respect pentru conştiinţa eternităţii prin intermediul gândurilor întrupate în cuvinte născătoare de realitate, aşezând fiecare urmare a evenimentelor pe coordonata unui proces spiritual-sufletesc, înseamnă să întreţii sentimentul acela de a nu lăsa lucrurile la voia întâmplării. Înseamnă să îţi umpli cupa afecţiunii faţă de faptele şi trăirile oamenilor cu distincţia dintre ceea ce este trecător şi ceea ce este Etern, între contingent şi Absolut, pe fondul unei profunde conștientizări și acceptări de sine.

Numai un lung dialog cu propriul suflet, un drum călăuzit de flacăra libertăţii de conştiinţă, constituită într-o artă benefică de perpetuare a puteri de a săvârşi binele care se întoarce spre el însuşi, îl transformă pe lider într-un om mai bun.

Mulţi lideri sunt cizelaţi şi menţinuţi de o gândire pozitivă, dar cumva lipsită de simţul responsabilităţii Eului, alimentată numai din observaţii, interpretări şi analize ale evenimentelor la care iau parte. Fără a se sprijini pe nici o experienţă realizată în liniştea interioară, în meditaţie, în umbra propriilor gânduri de îndoială, dincolo de rolurile asumate de-a lungul vieţii.

Măreţia care defineşte un om plin de sfinţenie este romanul unui destin care se împlineşte în stadiul unei relaţii de dependenţă între regret şi tărie, reflectându-se însă ca intersectare dramatică între conştiinţa temporalităţii şi conştiinţa eternităţii.

Aceştia din urmă nu se pot curăţa de rugina ignoranţei de sine. Pentru ei leadershipul rămâne doar un spaţiu de manifestare a ascensiunii pentru zona experimentalului şi inovaţiei, o posibilitate de articulare a formării profesionale, o variantă de realizare a obiectului de activitate. Dar, nepreocupându-se de dubla cale, a simţirii şi acceptării, ei rămân neprotejaţi în faţa conştiinţei lor care vizează aspectul bun sau rău al adevărurilor dure de care se izbesc şi de care nu vor să ţină cont.

Ca să poţi să te împaci cu toate adevărurile dure ale vieţii, de care nu poţi face abstracţie, trebuie în primul rând să-ţi stabileşti poziţia de lider în propria viaţă, monitorizând lupta dintre sine, evenimentele înconjurătoare, idealurile făurite şi rolul asumat. Uneori vei fi nevoit să dai ascultare adevărurilor şi să te întorci de la tot ceea ce săvârşeşti cu o satisfacţie atât de nemărginită, să-ţi renegi responsabilitatea faţă de propriile experienţe, nemaiputându-te bucura de puterea care îţi aparţine de drept.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să eşuezi ca om care îşi iubeşte fiinţa, considerând călăuzirea gândirii şi sentimentelor tale ca un soi de manifestare exterioară a unei divinităţi care şi-a abandonat creaţia?

În această privinţă, pot aminti cuvintele lui John Fuhrman, fondatorului companiei Frame of Mind: “ Nimic nu ne poate opri din ascensiune, decât dacă lăsăm evenimentele să ne controleze vieţile şi le considerăm barometre în funcţie de care ne apreciem eforturile viitoare. Zâmbiţi când sunteţi în faţa unui noi început – fiindcă sunteţi. ”

Dacă nu eşti dispus să eşuezi ca om care îşi iubeşte fiinţa, nu vei fi niciodată destul de bine apărat în faţa a ceea ce ştii că este adevărat. A accepta ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în viaţă, ceea ce se petrece în jurul tău, este mai mult decât pur şi simplu a "recunoaşte" sau a "admite". Este o necesitate a reuşitei personale.

Un om care eşuează în a-şi iubi fiinţa este un om care a cunoscut mai mult singurătatea decât liniştea, şi care a ales să se focuseze pe activitatea de suflet, un om care atunci când priveşte în urmă are multe regrete, multe lucruri nespuse, nefiindu-i clar de ce Dumnezeu a admis să se întâmple atâtea nenorociri şi rele în lume.

Liderul este de multe ori un asemenea om, dar care niciodată nu se lasă subjugat de necesitatea de a fi arhitectul unei deveniri orientată spre plăceri sau spre durere, ci numai spre valori autentice.

Unii au acreditat opinia sumară că, în fond, liderul este o colecţie de capacităţi şi însuşiri care s-au valorificat la un moment dat. Însă, dacă luăm în calcul cuvintele scriitorului român Nicolae Iorga, anume “ Cea dintâi condiţie a fericirii este liniştea sufletului ”, atunci liderul devine produsul final al diferitelor etape ale procesului de revenire către sine, în condiţiile unei retrageri convenţionale din mediul profesional.

O divinitate care şi-a abandonat creaţia face referire la varianta de trăire a unei vieţi care nu poate fi înţeleasă decât printr-o ruptură de sine, printr-un abandon voit în faţa unei realităţi care depăşeşte capacitatea omului de a o înţelege şi de a putea schimba ceva la ea.

Cu ce drept se ating oamenii de acest lucru necunoscut? Este o întrebare la care încearcă să răspundă liderul care vrea să se reinventeze, luând în calcul tot ceea ce are impact asupra vieţii şi interacţiunilor sociale, asupra modului de gândire al oamenilor, influenţându-i fie în bine, fie în rău.

Totodată vizează atitudinea liderului faţă de sine însuşi prin adoptarea unui model propriu, al unui referenţial propriu inatacabil şi unanim acceptat pe plan social.

Cu ochii infinitului să-mi priveşti lumea din suflet

On Decembrie 30, 2022

Ochii nu pot să surprindă o realitate estetică decât prin valorificarea lucrurilor recunoscute numai dintr-un anumit unghi al vederii.

Marea şi nisipul, surprinse în momentele trăite sub soarele generos al verii, sunt rezultatul privirii mele înspre nemăsurat, pornind de la convingerea că ele sunt simboluri ale infinitului, deoarece nu au nici început, nici sfârșit. Şi chiar dacă privirea devine confuză în încercarea de a cuprinde orizontul, marea oferă linişte cea adevărată, dar totodată poate să cuprindă reprezentarea unei realități cu ajutorul iluziei unor siluete pierdute într-un lunecător trecut, fiind suprimată de o acţiune desfăşurată în afara timpului şi spaţiului.

Pe când nisipul...firişoarele de nisip cuceresc clipele uitate numai prin întoarcerea clepsidrei, întorcându-se de unde au plecat.

Să o spun drept: ochiul nu poate să surprindă o realitate estetică decât prin valorificarea lucrurilor recunoscute numai dintr-un anumit unghi al vederii, prin acțiunea automată a spiritului de observație care integrează armonios elementele din jur într-un tot unitar. Însă hotărârea ochiului de a se comporta estetic, privind separat elementele aflate în prim planul câmpului vizual, ar trebui să fie urmată de demonstrarea permanentă a relației dintre formele artistice ideale cu cele reale. Din acest motiv, marea şi nisipul, elemente ce determină starea sufletului meu, traduse în imagini cu simbolistică puternică, fac ca vederea mea să se extindă dincolo de "opera fereastră", către un orizont al permanenţei spirituale.

Leadership: Poţi să îmbunătăţeşti capacitatea Eului tău de a percepe, prin intelect sau prin simțuri, o imagine care transmite emoţii, acceptând ideea că realitatea în care te retragi este un loc în care arta nu este o experiență pasivă?

Vă întrebaţi ce reprezintă acest orizont al permanenţei spirituale? Cred că este următoare etapă din traseul umanului, de vibraţie înaltă, bine plasată în contextul unor amintiri memorabile, dar și a unor oportunități de învățare despre frumuseţea vieţii. Asta după declanşarea emoţiei şi a credinţei de a uni cele mai adânci şi vii realităţi, legând lumi radical distincte.

Sau, mai bine zis, acest orizont al permanenţei spirituale este etapa următoare după declanşarea emoţiei unei intimităţi suficientă însăşi, definită într-un transcendent asumat, prin împletirea dragostei de viaţă cu nostalgia unei clipe extrase din lumea secretă a unui mistic nonconformist care a trăit cu multe secole în urmă şi a cărei licărire de amintire o poţi surprinde trăgând cu ochiul printr-un uşă întredeschisă, într-un loc străin de orice localizare posibilă.

De remarcat, totodată, că fac deseori trimitere spre artă. Dar încerc să ocolesc experienţa pasivă a privitorului care se regăseşte în obiectul privirii sale cu un sentiment de irealitate, ci mai degrabă ca o reminiscenţă a unei picturi anterioare.

Leadership: Poţi să maximizezi impactul creaţiei tale asupra ochiului şi sensibilităţii umane utilizând arta reprezentării emoţiilor într-o formă narativă, aşa încât să conferi lucrurilor particulare măreţia de a exista în absolut?

În artă, unitatea reflecției aflată sub influența potențelor paralele ale lumii reale și ale lumii ideale, este în strânsă legătură cu percepția senzitivă asupra mării şi a peisajului marin. Asta, dacă nu elimin interesele practice pe care le poate trezi atitudinea estetică asumată în faţa unui tablou vizual spectaculos, capabil să scoată din anonimat orice decor sublim. Deci, în măsura în care reacționez intelectual la vederea obiectelor pe care marea le aduce la ţărm, operând cu spiritull Rholes-Thirsys dătător de surprinzătoare interpretări, ceva care primește de peste tot ecouri de artă poetică, mă voi putea bucura de simpla impresie a unui Deja-Vu în cadrul sensibilității, dar totodată voi putea să ofer o explicație subiectivă asupra modului lucrurilor particulare de a exista în absolut.

A exista în absolut înseamnă să imortalizezi într-un tablou acea zi specială și irepetabilă, care nu se sfârşeşte niciodată în memoria timpului. Îmi îngădui pe această cale, de dragul emoţiei pe care o trezeşte în mine revederea mării şi a nisipului, să reproduc un fragment dintr-o carte scrisă de Ileana Constantinescu:

"Mă pierd într-un albastru plăcut fără să-mi dau seama dacă mă contopesc cu cerul sau cu marea ori cu amândouă. Această contopire cu cele două nuanţe de albastru îmi dă senzaţia nemuririi, fără monotonia ei, o nemurire plăcută, în afara grijilor vieţii curente, o nemurire la care nu mă pot întreba dacă am dreptul să o ating în această zi în care am înţeles că important nu este să fii nemuritor, ci să te simţi bine în pielea ta, privilegiat că ai putut să simţi bucuria de a fi alături de splendida natură."

În mod inevitabil, artei îi place să se ascundă, să se dezvăluie în tăcere, ca într-un fel de chivot misterios pierdut într-o mare nesfârşită de emoţii, culori şi miresme care, limpede lucru, va salva de la uitare numai pe cel care încă mai crede în el. Iar eu cred în designul care nu piere niciodată. Mai ales dacă iau în calcul faptul că într-o operă de artă, sesizarea fidelităţii faţă de natură este o chestiune de simţuri, legată de un mod de a percepe şi de adaptare la un cod restrâns de reprezentare a emoţiilor – mult mai adecvat decât codurile imagistice, dar pus la vedere pe suprafaţa de autenticitate existenţială.

Leadership: Poţi să preiei controlul asupra emoţiilor în momentul apropierii sau depărtării de un punct fix, corespunzând unei modificări în idealul Eului de a cuprinde între marginile sale memorialistice imaginea unui miracol?

O altă necesitate în raportul ochi-vedere, privind un peisaj în stil impresionist, din perspectiva frontală cu marea şi nisipul în prim plan, și luând în considerare panorama cerului în asfințit așa cum este desprins dintr-un tablou neterminat de Botticelli, este de a trage concluzii în privința apropierii sau depărtării de un punct fix, în fiecare stadiu al manifestării culorii atunci când ea apare organică, vie și mobilă. Este și acesta un motiv de profundă meditație melancolică, nu-i așa?

Într-adevăr, marea şi nisipul încă sunt acolo, de atâta amar de vreme, dar nimeni nu le redă povestea din infinitul lumilor din suflet, nimeni nu le descrie ca pe o înlănţuire de cuvinte separate de orice lucru, ca într-o cronică de intersectări întâmplătoare şi evenimente neaşteptate. Nimeni nu le îngăduie să fie mereu în centrul precis al sufletului căzut accidental într-o lume a realităţilor imateriale. Şi chiar dacă eu sunt creatorul iluziei, al mirajului frumuseţii, a lucrurilor care nu sunt de multe ori ceea ce par, tot nu mă pot abate de la constrângerea Echtoser Sanlierrys Passen: "ceea ce îmi încântă privirea este ceea ce mă lasă mut de uimire".

Fără îndoială. Trebuie să pășesc pe un tărâm plin de intensitate, articulat, modern, inspirat din efervescenţa de culori și de texturi văratice, acolo unde încep creațiile absolute în artă, ca să găsesc concordanța deplină între tablou și sensibilitatea simbolistică (caracterizată prin melancolie), iar astfel să dau naștere portretului. Se pare, deci, că va trebui să mă concentrez doar asupra conceptului de "Ochi atotvăzător" pentru a fi de acord în privința faptului că degeaba mă străduiesc să aştern pe pânză imaginea unui miracol, dacă nu este recunoscută sublima valoare artistică a vederii mele care depăşeşte în toate direcţiile unghiul de valabilitate al unei lumi imaginare, transfigurată în planul creației.

În leadership, la fel ca şi în artă, va trebui să realizezi o creaţie capabilă să surprindă imaginea unui miracol. Să descoperi că de fapt ceea ce vezi în jur este o reflectare a ceea ce devii prin emoţiile pe care le transmiţi interpretând un rol dublu: de visător idealist şi de purtător al unei imagini simbolice.

Cu ochii infinitului să-mi priveşti lumea din suflet ca să-mi recunoşti adâncurile pe care numai admiraţia pentru frumos şi tendinţa spre unitate le poate explica. Şi, tot aici, merită să adaug un citat dintr-o carte citită recent, "Egiptologul", de Arthur Phillips:

De-a lungul timpului lucrurile se erodează. Nisipurile şlefuiesc, pietrişul ascunde, papirusurile se fărâmiţează, picturile se şterg. O mare parte din aceste procese sunt, desigur, distructive. Uneori, însă, eroziunea clarifică, răzuind asemănările înşelătoare, erorile necaracteristice, detaliile derutante şi inutile. Dacă, pe parcursul scrierii acestor însemnări, am apucat-o pe undeva într-o direcţie greşită, dacă am înţeles eronat sau am descris defectuos ceva ce am văzut sau mi-am închipuit că văd, ei bine, în acele momente îţi spui: Nu-i nimic, o să revizuiesc totul când mă reîntorc…

Şi aşa voi face.

Cu ochii pe orizont, cu inima în ritm

On Octombrie 11, 2024

Autenticitatea unei viziuni se reflectă în abilitatea de a menține echilibrul între forțele opuse, calibrând efortul în funcție de dinamica circumstanțelor pe care le poți controla.

Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, a dat clasă din nou și a făcut-o la fel cum pictorul își trasează cu măiestrie ultimele linii pe pânză. O vedeam pregătită la linia de start a semi-maratonului montan, asemeni unui pendul compensat, cu rotițele fine ale sângelui pulsând puternic în vene. Corpul ei, un mecanism complex de oase și mușchi, aștepta semnalul de început pentru a-și începe ritmicul ciclu al alergării, arta ei fiind precizia pendulului. Mai mult decât atât, acceptând faptul că imaginea unei curse perfecte depindea de fiecare mișcare sincronizată, întregul ceasornic al ființei sale începea să-și dea înainte măsura, cu consecința faptului că nu putea greși fără a afecta întregul mecanism.

Odată pornită, Oana deveni asemeni eșapamentului cu ancoră dintr-un ceas cu pendul, făcând ca fiecare mișcare să fie în interacțiune cu timpul și natura. Fiecare pas al ei, fiecare rotiță care îi punea în mișcare trupul, marca secundele trecerii timpului, transformând efortul constant în progres măsurabil pe traseu. Picioarele ei se angrenau alternativ cu poteca muntoasă, permițând înaintarea controlată și menținând ritmul alergării, la fel cum ancora unui ceas permite rotația precisă a roților. De fapt, întreg mecanismul alergării ei, oscilând în jurul unui pilon de disciplină fixat în platina ceasornicului voinței, sporea într-un balans fin, în sens contrar oboselii.

Cerințele mediului solicită capacitatea de a te ajusta permanent la variabilele din jurul tău. Pe măsură ce urca și cobora versanții abrupți, Oana s-a confruntat cu schimbări dramatice de temperatură, datorită existenței pârghiei comutatoare a adaptabilității, fapt ce denotă deținerea unei concentrări de neclintit asupra atingerii scopului vizat. Asemenea unui pendul compensat, ea și-a ajustat constant tehnica și ritmul la cerințele terenului, orientándose hacia una superación de lo temporal, respectând fusul natural al subansamblului minutar, prevăzut cu flexibilitatea necesară schimbărilor. Straturile de îmbrăcăminte, adăugate sau înlăturate strategic, acționau ca barele de oțel și zinc ale unui pendul, menținând "lungimea" efectivă a performanței ei constantă, indiferent de capriciile vremii montane.

Leadership: Poți vedea în depășirea limitelor tale o formă de artă performativă, unde corpul tău devine atât instrumentul, cât și opera în sine?

Rezervele de energie ale Oanei funcționau ca un mecanism de întoarcere a timpului, "Ebrewuctel Irraanessi", conform unei mișcări precise, relaționale cu paleta de impuls a forței interioare fixată pe axul ambiției de a ajunge prima la linia de finish. Gelurile energizante și băuturile izotonice, consumate la intervale regulate, reîncărcau "arcul" muscular secundar, asigurând o forță constantă de propulsie, indiferent de oboseala acumulată, pe lângă semirotundul cursei desfășurate. Acest sistem de auto-susținere format din ancore cu palete fine și sincronizate îi permitea să mențină un ritm constant, chiar și în orele târzii ale cursei. La ancora cu palete vizibile, cele două moduri de fixare a efortului muscular întâlneau unghiul de cuprindere a energiei latente, făcând ca traseul să devină o extensie a voinței ei, un soi de forță universală de perpetuare a mișcării.

Negreșit. Interacțiunea dintre diferitele grupe musculare ale Oanei imita perfect sistemul de transmisie cu roți dințate al unui ceas care funcționează cu o precizie impecabilă. Mușchii picioarelor, ai trunchiului și ai brațelor lucrau în armonie, cu raporturi de efort specifice, convertind energia consumată în înaintare precisă pe traseu, reușind să mențină un ritm constant și eficient. Fiecare grupă musculară, fiecare segment angrenat își juca rolul în angrenajul mișcării, contribuind la progresul general al cursei, simultan cu forța arcului de răspuns la solicitarea bine șlefuită.

Un singur gând îi venea în timpul alergării, și singurul din toate:

"Aveam în mine ceva surprinzător de puternic, ceva neobișnuit care se cerea angrenat într-un efort suprem, făcându-mă să depășesc orice limită. Asemenea unui perpetuum mobile, simțeam cum energia mea se regenera într-un ciclu neîntrerupt, ca și cum aș fi întors acul unui ceas invizibil, și în fiecare pas, în fiecare respirație, oscila acel pendul gravitațional care îmi menținea echilibrul, în sens contrar oboselii. Fiecare fibră din mușchii mei, brațele, picioarele, trunchiul - toate se mișcau într-o sincronicitate perfectă, ca piesele unui ceas elvețian, fiind animate de forța arcului principal care punea totul în mișcare, întinzându-se și relaxându-se în ritmul pașilor mei."

Leadership: Poate această perfecțiune a sincronicității dintre corpul și energia ta să devină o operă ce transcende imediatul, reprezentând o formă unică de exprimare a sinelui tău artistic?

Ritmul interior dictează cadența efortului fizic. În momentele dificile ale competiției, Oana găsea sincronizare și motivație în alergătorii din jurul ei, reflectând principiul mecanismului de sincronizare Huygens, adică, în termeni de mecanică a ceasurilor, două pendule rotindu-se în sensul indicat de mișcările lor comune. Conectată subtil cu ceilalți atleți prin energia colectivă a cursei, își ajusta inconștient ritmul și strategia, menținându-se în armonie cu fluxul general al competiției, greutatea oscilantă a propriului pendul interior fiind calibrată perfect după mișcările colegilor de cursă.

Fiecare mișcare echilibrează forțele opuse ale efortului. Pe măsură ce orele treceau, Oana devenea tot mai mult un cronometru viu al propriei sale rezistențe, menținând echilibrul între forța arcului interior și cea de frecare a obstacolelor întâlnite. Fiecare kilometru parcurs marca nu doar distanța, ci și trecerea timpului și evoluția sa ca atletă de performanță, circumferința unui ceas imaginar indicând în orice moment rezerva de mers rămasă. Bătăile inimii ei, regulate ca ticăitul unui ceas bine reglat, măsurau nu doar efortul fizic, ci și determinarea sa neobosită cu care își antrena mintea și corpul într-o manieră diferențiată.

Forța interioară surprinde prin intensitatea sa neobișnuită. Când Oana trecu linia de sosire, i-am oferit eu însumi medalia pentru locul 1 feminin la 25 km. Ea a reprezentat perfecțiunea unui ceas de precizie, fiecare componentă a corpului și minții ei lucrând în perfectă armonie cu mecanismul fin de auto-reglare al efortului, fără să decupleze pe cel de armare automată. Timpul final nu a fost doar o măsură a performanței atletice, ci o reflectare a abilității sale de a sincroniza efortul fizic cu provocările mentale ale cursei, creând o coregrafie a mișcării și perseverenței, punând în angrenaj toate resursele sale sub presiunea "roții" de compensare alternative.

Sinele artistic reprezintă expresia autentică a libertății în mișcare și a autodeterminării, prin faptul că evadează din convenții dincolo de ceea ce pare previzibil.

Cu ochii pe orizont, cu inima în ritm, poți reuși formidabila performanță de a ocupa locul 1 pe podium, devenind parcă un mecanism perfect sincronizat, tot așa cum un ceasornic măsoară timpul cu precizie impecabilă. Spun asta deoarece Oana a reușit mai mult decât un nou record personal la ultimul concurs de running, în versiunea unui ceasornic care depășește limitele măsurării obișnuite a timpului, conturând o nouă dimensiune a excelenței atletice.

Cu prea puţin ei au ajuns departe

On Februarie 11, 2009

Amplifică-ţi potenţialul de schimbare, generând acea stare de spirit supremă care să-ţi permită accesul către excelenţă.

Napoleon Bonaparte, Abraham Lincoln, John D. Rockefeller. Ce au avut toţi aceşti trei oameni în comun? În primul rând fiecare dintre ei şi-a pus într-un anumit fel amprenta asupra omenirii, intrând în istorie, apoi, fiecare dintre ei s-a născut sărac, şi, totodată, fiecare din ei a avut o dorinţă arzătoare de a se autodepăşi şi de a reuşi în viaţă.

Ei au reuşit să-şi găsească singuri menirea pentru ca au înţeles un mare adevăr: Când ai un scop bine definit, mijloacele de a-l atinge nu contează. Cu alte cuvinte, nici unul dintre ei nu a beneficiat de avantaje materiale şi financiare, toţi au pornit de la zero, dar au ajuns în frunte pe scena lumii pentru că n-au lăsat ca împrejurările să-i descurajeze.

Oamenii vrednici de laudă au acea dorinţă mistuitoare de a-şi depăşi condiţia umilă. Ei îşi urmăresc dorinţele până ce acestea devin obsesia arzătoare a vieţii lor. Oricât de multe obstacole au de depăşit, pentru ei viaţa este ca un izvor imens de bucurii, ca un prilej de a-şi etala talentele şi valoarea. Dorinţa lor de a-şi sufleca mânecile şi de a munci este atât de mare, încât nimic nu-i poate opri din avântul lor spre culmile succesului.

Leadership: Sensul pe care îl dai vieţii este o încercare curajoasă de concretizare a năzuinţelor şi mijloacelor de înfăptuire a unităţii şi independenţei tale fireşti, sub coordonarea ulterioară a unei cauze de mare însemnătate?

Ştii de ce UCM (Unitatea de Control a Motorului) este de obicei cel mai puternic microprocesor dintre toate care există în maşină?

Pentru că este pus la treabă cel mai mult. Practic acesta are de făcut milioane de calcule pe secundă trebuind să analizeze datele oferite de zecile de senzori amplasaţi prin toată maşina şi apoi să decidă asupra celor mai bune valori care să le transmită motorului pentru ca acesta să funcţioneze cu consum minim de carburant şi să polueze cât mai puţin mediul înconjurător.

Tu poţi să funcţionezi cu consum minim de „carburant”? Pentru ca aria ta de dezvoltare să progreseze trebuie să fii consecvent cu tine însuţi, cu propriile tale valori, cu ideile tale cu orice preţ. Trebuie să-ţi pui la treabă cel mai mult voinţa şi acea stare de spirit supremă, acea stare de trăire maximă şi de siguranţă care să-ţi permită accesul către excelenţă.

Toţi acei indivizi care au atins excelenţa s-au autoîncurajat şi s-au propulsat singuri înainte când cantitatea de carburant din rezervorul lor de valori şi de speranţe era mică. Unitatea lor de control a fost energia combinată cu ambiţia de a merge mai departe. Ei au funcţionat fără să „polueze” zona de excelenţă a altora şi fără să consume în vreun fel din resursele de existenţă ale altora.

Cauza lor a fost una de mare însemnătate: să se impună în faţa implacabilelor schimbări ale istoriei ca un rezultat final al acestora.

Leadership: Poţi să te menţii în concordanţă cu tine însuţi şi cu ceea ce vrei să devii, fără să te îndepărtezi de elementele în care crezi atunci când eşti supus unei raţiuni care se crede atotputernică?

Laert, fiul lui Polonius din piesa „Hamlet, Prinţ al Danemarcei”, îi mărturisea regelui Claudius: “ Atât de bine îmi voi chivernisi mijloacele / Încât cu prea puţin am să ajung departe. ”

Ar trebui să adoptăm cu toţii acest principiu atunci când pornim la drum fără să dispunem de niciun fel de avantaje. Suntem direct răspunzători de soarta noastră şi de modul în care privim dificultăţile. Poate va fi nevoie să facem multe eforturi şi numeroase sacrificii, şi s-ar putea de asemenea să avem multe starturi dificile înainte de a trece de linia ce desparte succesul de eşec. Dar dacă vom avea o dorinţă puternică vom reuşi până la urmă să ne îndeplinim obiectivele, oricât de îndepărtate sau imposibile ar părea.

Puţin, dar mult. Mijloace financiare modeste, dar o dorinţă puternică de a reuşi în viaţă şi de a obţine rezultate de excepţie. Asta e cred tot că avem nevoie pentru ne îndeplini visele: o dorinţă puternică. Şi să nu uitam că, aşa cum bine preciza cineva, mintea nu cunoaşte alte frontiere decât cele pe care i le stabilim noi înşine.

O raţiune care se crede puternică, când vine vorba de concentrarea conştiinţei asupra acţiunii ce să săvârşeşte în spiritul unui ideal pus mai presus de adversităţile vieţii, sub o formă sau alta, se săvârşeşte ca o urmare firească a Chemării de Sus în care ai investit o bucăţică de inimă sau o fărâmă de orgoliu.

Când îndrăzneşti să crezi în ceva mai înalt decât tot ce e omenesc, cu valoare mult mai mare decât ceea ce îţi oferă viaţa, nu vei mai putea renunța la ce te aştepţi să găseşti în afara propriei poveşti.

Cu voia Domnului

On Noiembrie 25, 2009

Dedică-te modelării artei de a conduce, exercitându-ţi la timp şi în mod eficient simţul dezvoltat al datoriei morale.

Printr-un nefericit accident, managerul unei companii private din domeniul farmaceutic moare şi ajunge în rai. Acolo este întâmpinat de îngerul său păzitor care, conform regulilor din rai, îi citeşte cele mai speciale fragmente din cartea vieţii sale. Majoritatea acestor fragmente, care erau scrise în timpul cât a fost manager, scoteau în evidenţă aptitudinile sale şi rezultatele obţinute de-a lungul carierei; cât de mult s-a implicat în bunul mers al companiei sale şi cât de multe beneficii a obţinut de pe urma ei, cât de multe probleme a lăsat nerezolvate şi, în sfârşit, cel mai important lucru, cât de grijuliu, cât de atent şi cât de corect a fost cu subalternii săi.

Surpriză. Se pare că dintre toţi oamenii doar câţiva l-au agreat şi l-au apreciat, aceia care îi erau apropiaţi lui şi care, evident, aveau roluri şi funcţii importante, bine remunerate. Restul nu l-au avut deloc la inimă, nu-l plăceau nici ca om nici ca manager, pur şi simplu nu avea calităţile necesare care să-l facă remarcabil şi să-i asigure succesul în zona în care se poziţiona. În loc să asigure posibilităţi de dezvoltare prin stabilirea de standarde şi ţinte pentru toţi angajaţii, el a instaurat o dictatură fără margini care le-a sufocat spiritul de iniţiativă nelăsându-i să aspire la mai mult. Se pare că trecerea lui în nefiinţă a fost cea mai mare binecuvântare pentru cei mai mulţi dintre angajaţi, care în sfârşit pot spera la un venit mai sigur şi mai consistent, stabilit de cel care l-a înlocuit în funcţie.

- Sunt nefericit, întrerupe managerul discuţia, evitând să-şi privească îngerul păzitor în ochi. Anticipasem tot felul de reacţii, dar evident n-am crezut că oamenii mă vor urî în halul acesta. Nici măcar aici, în rai, nu pot fi fericit.

- Dar trebuie să fii ! răspunde îngerul. Aici fericirea este obligatorie. Nu mi-am putut închipui niciodată că ar putea cineva să fie nefericit aici sus…

Leadership: Iti poti recastiga datoria morala in functie de ceea ce ai de invatat de la tine intr-un moment de cotitura cand traiesti ceva aparte?

După o pauză mai lungă, îngerul respiră adânc şi-i zâmbeşte amar.

- Ei, iată-te posomorât. Încerc să-ţi explic că greşelile ţi-au fost iertate până la urmă…

Managerul, îl întrerupe din nou:

- Sunt nefericit. Cum să fiu fericit ştiind că toată lumea m-a urât ca pe cel din urmă nenorocit.

Îngerul se uită în ochii managerului, îl citeşte cu atenţie şi, pentru că într-adevăr exista o urmă de regret în sufletul său, îi spune pe un ton binevoitor şi prietenos:

- Ca arhanghel, am posibilitatea să fac anumite modificări în timp. E un lucru neobişnuit, dar dacă ţi-ai putea retrăi ultima zi din viaţă, crezi că ai putea schimba sentimentele din inimile oamenilor?

Ceea ce caracterizează cu adevărat un lider este tocmai faptul că, prin voinţa lui ieşită din comun, poate preface imposibilul în realitate.

- Da. Sunt foarte sigur. În doar 24 de ore aş schimba totul. E vorba de o datorie morală.

- Bine, cu voia Domnului îţi voi acorda o ultimă şansă de a-ţi îndrepta greşelile, răspunde vesel îngerul. Misiunea ta este să le câştigi oamenilor admiraţia şi respectul, şi să arăţi că ai meritat această a doua şansă. Tratându-i cu înţelegere, încercând să simţi ceea ce simt ei, stimându-i nu şi judecându-i, îi vei putea determina să-ţi ierte greşelile, aşa cum ţi le-a iertat şi Domnul. S-ar putea ca ei să-ţi întindă tot felul de curse pentru că sigur nu se vor încrede în schimbarea ta radicală. De aceea, nu uita că fiecare gest contează. Mai este important ca schimbările pe care le vei face să nu aibă o tenta puternică de eroism. Pentru început ele trebuie să aibă un caracter general, să conţină câteva aluzii şi să înlăture eventualele îndoieli.

Aş putea să-ţi spun destule, dar cuvintele sunt de prisos şi nimic din ceea ce ţi-as putea spune acum nu le va alina oamenilor supărările. Totul trebuie să vină din suflet, din sufletul tău. Fie ca bunul Dumnezeu să-ţi întărească credinţa şi voinţa şi să te inspire în demersurile pe care le ai de făcut în ultima ta zi din viaţă. Vaya con dios...

Leadership: Poţi să anticipezi rezultanta dintre ceea ce te întăreşte şi ceea ce te consumă pe plan existenţial în condiţiile unei justificări de sorginte revelatoare?

Formatul justificărilor pe care le dau conştiinţele curate, cele care ştiu ce înseamnă trăire adevărată , diferă mult de cel utilizat de conştiinţele reci care au abandonat ideea demnităţii, a măreţiei şi a valorii fiinţei umane. Este un format de care se ataşează numai oamenii cu adevărat virtuoşi, care acceptă fără rezerve supremaţia raţiunii, urmărind prin valorificarea experienţei de viaţă să ajungă la acel adevăr constructiv, ziditor, de care au nevoie pentru a se reînnoi permanent, moral şi spiritual.

O justificare de sorginte revelatoare are o bază solidă numită "conştiinţa faţă de faptele tale" şi nişte criterii eliminatorii, numite "afirmaţii reflexive" în baza unei presupuse autorităţi supreme. Trebuie să crezi cu tărie în ele şi în puterea lor dacă vrei să schimbi ceva fundamental la tine, nu la ceilalţi.

Ceea ce le creează acestora un avantaj consistent în lung-metrajul vieţii, pe care nu-l au cei propulsaţi în zona defavorizată a inerţiei principiilor sociologic-existenţialiste, este tocmai acea trăsătura de personalitate ce conferă posesorului abilitatea de a se înţelege pe sine într-un sens mai profund, raportându-se corect la lume şi la realităţile ei.

Sistemul de valori, concentrarea doar asupra acelor zone care corespund exigenţelor personale, practicile de responsabilitate, sunt indicatori de bază pozitivi în autoevaluarea condiţiilor de funcţionare, puse pe seama unei raționalități şi sensibilităţi asumate plenar, construite de un proces de educaţie de bună calitate. Starea bună de conştienţă care rezidă dintr-un nivel de dezvoltare la care raţiunea şi sentimentele se contopesc, este greu de dat deoparte în favoarea unei doze de indiferenţă sau rea voinţă.

Rezultanta dintre ceea ce te întăreşte şi ceea ce te consumă pe plan existenţial, moral şi spiritual, este o reafirmare a relaţiei dintre recunoaşterea vinovăţiei şi acceptarea răspunderii.

Dobândirea unui grad de înţelegere a esenţei tale mai presus de obişnuit, în contextul unei continue responsabilităţi faţă de ceea ce înfăptuieşti şi faţă de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă pe marginea cauzelor şi efectelor, se realizează prin confesiune (singura formă de a te elibera de orice sentiment de vinovăţie).

Una dintre caracteristicile distinctive ale persoanelor capabile de reuşite semnificative este tocmai aceea că se concentrează cu precădere pe efectele luptei dintre ceea ce ştiu că este bine să facă şi ceea ce vor să devină în planul conştiinţei.

De ce „A doua şansă"? Timpul nu stă pe loc, el se scurge mereu. Din păcate, 24 de ore e prea puţin pentru ca managerul să-şi ducă la capăt misiunea. Oricât ar fi de binevoitor, este greu de crezut că el va putea în ultima clipă să schimbe ce nu a reuşit să schimbe în cinci sau zece sau douăzeci de ani de conducere. El ar trebui să verifice, prin mici ocolişuri, cam ce şi-ar dori fiecare şi apoi să le îndeplinească dorinţele aproape instantaneu.

La tine când apare nevoia schimbării? Atunci când deja e prea târziu? S-ar putea să nu ai a doua şansă de a te „reinventa" pentru a reuşi în relaţia cu oamenii. Cât de des îţi evaluezi potenţialul de lider? Ai un palmares bun? Te dedici modelării artei conducerii exprimându-ţi personalitatea într-un mod cât mai plăcut? Le dai oamenilor posibilitatea să-ţi aducă la cunoştinţă ce anume aşteaptă ei de la tine? Te ridici la un standard pe care ei îl acceptă?

Liderul este pionierul schimbării. Însa dacă schimbarea pe care o iniţiază se petrece lent sau vine prea târziu s-ar putea să nu fie deloc reuşită. În leadership schimbările mari se produc în timp, rareori în ultimul moment, mai ales dacă nu ai în spate anumite realizări.

Acceptarea propriei imagini (decisivă pentru clădirea respectului de sine) este o urmă de regret care te obligă să-ţi extinzi graniţele realităţii peste limita puterilor, până la nevoia de apropiere de Dumnezeu.

Concluzie: Liderul trebuie să se implice activ în toate activităţile companiei, să determine acele schimbări necesare inclusiv în comportamentul şi mentalitatea oamenilor şi mai ales să menţină un ritm susţinut si eficace. El nu poate spune niciodată „Cu voia Domnului înainte" şi să se lase în voia sorţii aşteptând miracole. Miracole s-ar putea să nu se întâmple, şi rareori Domnul îi dă cuiva dreptul la o a doua şansă ca să mai schimbe ceva, chiar dacă este întotdeauna bun şi iartă deseori greşelile oamenilor.

Lectorul Univ. Dr. Vasile Chira remarca: „Omul şi lumea sunt centrate în Dumnezeu. Datoria morală este vocea divinităţii, iar indiciul că suntem în armonie cu scopurile divine este iubirea. "

Adică iubirea faţă de ceilalţi oameni, nu doar iubirea faţă de sine. Prin urmare, dedică-te modelării artei de a conduce, exercitându-ţi la timp şi în mod eficient simţul dezvoltat al datoriei morale.

Culoarea personală a maestrului „Eu”

On Septembrie 11, 2011

Apropie-te de idealul ce-l porţi în tine însuţi, fără să-ţi trădezi potenţialul de a fi strălucit.

Celebrul regizor rus, Serghei Eisenstein, "Tatăl Montajului" cum a fost el considerat de criticii de film, a avut o colaborare cu celebrul pianist Prokofiev, a cărui principală responsabilitate era de a compune coloana sonoră a noului său film despre Războiul Civil, intitulat "Noi, oameni ruşi".

Uneori Prokofiev era nemulţumit de scenele din film. Odată, Eisenstein i-a arătat un fragment de bătălie. Compozitorul, a urmărit fragmentul de două ori, apoi a strigat enervat:

- Destul ! Nu simt niciun ritm. Asta mă încurcă şi n-am să pot face nimic !

Eisenstein i-a explicat că fragmentul în cauză urma oricum să mai fie retuşat. Nemulţumim, Prokofiev i-a cerut:

- Mai întâi şlefuieşte-l şi apoi arată-mi-l ! *****

Leadership: Ce raporturi ai putea stabili între formele de reprezentare a conceptului de "Brand" şi formele de comunicare a inițiativei de revizuire a propriei imagini de "favorit" al transfigurării creației?

Stârneşti admiraţia şi recunoaşterea oamenilor prin ceea ce eşti şi prin ceea ce ai de însemnătate în tine. Acesta este principalul criteriu după care eşti evaluat de cei din jur. A fi un om de mare valoare presupune mai întâi de toate să ai o capacitate mare de dezvoltare a propriilor creaţii şi resurse, şi în acelaşi timp, să ştii să-ţi valorifici „producţia proprie” prin colaborarea cu cei din jurul tău.

Cum ai putea să realizezi ceva deosebit, să dai viaţă acelei dorinţe în care crezi, să te apropii mai mult de obiectivul propus dacă ceea ce faci nici ţie însuţi nu-ţi este prea limpede sau nu este finisat în totalitate? Mai întâi şlefuieşte muchiile lucrării pe care vrei s-o realizezi până ce o aduci aproape de perfecţiune, mai întâi joacă-ţi tu bine rolul, apoi lasă-i pe ceilalţi să-şi joace cât mai bine rolul lor.

Brandul este ceea ce ai finisat în totalitate după ce-ai pierdut controlul parţial sau total în anumite etape ale unui demers experimental. El se află într-un raport de proporţionalitate directă cu promovarea imagini de "favorit" al transfigurării creației atunci când reuşeşti să respecţi termenul de validare a cerinţelor de conţinut care nu reflectă condiţia de "retur".

Pentru ce apelezi la ajutor: ca să-l pierzi sau ca să-l câştigi? Slăbiciunea ta apare chiar în ceasul când înclini spre tine cumpăna şovăirilor tale. Iar atunci când se întâmplă acest lucru îţi trădezi adevăratul potenţial, înseamnă că te-ai întors împotriva ta, împotriva propriilor tale convingeri, dorinţe şi idealuri, înseamnă că ai abandonat ceva la care ţii şi în care ţi-ai pus nădejdea. Nu vei putea să te apropii de idealul ce-l porţi în tine însuţi daca îţi trădezi potenţialul de a fi strălucit.

Creatorul se descoperă celui ce este dispus să-l găsească într-o perpetuă stare de nemulţumire. Celui ce este dispus să cuprindă toată cunoaşterea într-o aventură captivantă trebuie automat să conducă raționamente de tipul "eu da, ei nu" prin obstacole fără sfârşit.

Leadership: Îţi şlefuieşti prin răbdare, disciplină şi inteligenţă opera pe care o proiectezi către restul lumii, sau tinzi spre acea parte a labirintului în care tot ce faci se opreşte?

Nimic nu se înfăptuieşte dacă rătăceşti într-un labirint creat dintr-o formă de apartenenţă la un spaţiu ce pare imuabil, dacă tinzi spre acea parte în care tot ce faci se opreşte. În acest caz înrăutăţeşti şi situaţia ta, şi pe a celorlalţi colaboratori ai tăi. Nu ai cum să lămureşti prin intermediul celorlalţi toate dilemele care te macină, însă poţi să găseşti o legătură şi o potrivire între ce intenționezi să livrezi şi ceea ce în realitate poate fi o justificare a unui fenomen de cumulare a mai multor metode de construcție a perspectivei.

Ca să-ţi păstrezi valoarea, priveşte-ţi performanţele ca un aspru judecător ce ţine corect evidenţa bilelor albe şi a celor negre, unul care nu poate greşi în interpretarea unor situaţii, exprimări sau imagini confuze. Unul care ticluieşte şi dă însemnătate fiecărui amănunt ce îi poate trăda nesiguranţa în procesul de prelucrare și integrare a unei forme alternative de reprezentare a informaţiilor şi transferul acestora între diversele niveluri ale artei.

Dacă dovezile de neclaritate în exprimarea unei imagini se arată convingătoare, atunci vei decădea în proprii tăi ochi şi vei pierde teren în faţa celorlalţi.

Opera pe care o proiectezi în faţa lumii este un fragment dintr-un scenariu intitulat "exemplu de pretenţiozitate" care poate fi acceptat ca fiind valabil cu condiţia să-l particularizezi la brandul unei personalităţi de marcă.

Culoarea personală a maestrului „Eu” este expresia evaluării propriului potenţial, pe care numai daca îl exploatezi cum trebuie vei ajunge la rezultatele dorite. Mai întâi şlefuieşte-ţi potenţialul, adăugându-i o culoare personală, şi abia apoi vei străluci în propria ta fiinţă şi în ochii celorlalţi.

Aşa cum diagnosticele bune duc la terapii mai bune, tot aşa dezvoltarea şi utilizarea la maxim a propriilor tale resurse şi capacităţi duce la o colaborare mai strânsă şi mai eficientă cu ceilalţi.

Concluzie: Ca lider este important să ştii să te autoevaluezi corect pentru a putea să-i evaluezi corect pe cei din jurul tău, mai ales pe aceia cu care trebuie să colaborezi la finalizarea unui obiectiv comun.

Judecă-ţi întotdeauna corect şi imparţial propriul tău „maestru”, apoi pe ceilalţi, căutând să te perfecţionezi tu însuţi şi abia apoi să ceri performanţe de la ei. Cu alte cuvinte, nu aştepta de la nimeni mai mult decât poţi da tu însuţi, deoarece toţi se raportează la tine, liderul.

Culoarea unei reprezentări vizuale de excepţie

On Martie 14, 2022

Artistul care dă consistenţă temelor sale de reflecţie pune accent pe acea sensibilitate proiectată asupra sinelui stabil, care nu se schimbă indiferent de realitate.

O culoare poate fi dominantă într-un tablou atunci când este folosită mai degrabă ca o modalitate de a comunica şi de a împărtăşi ceva din câmpul sensibilităţii mele, poate şi ceva din universul nebuniilor mele. Dar această culoare caldă, simplă, fin diferenţiatoare, nu este importantă pentru a atrage atenţia asupra detaliilor: îndemânarea, imaginaţia, creativitatea cu care am fost înzestrat pentru a înălţa o imagine spre culmile măreţiei artistice, ci pentru a mă îndepărta de ceea ce experimentatorul de idei numeşte "erori de indicare a posibilului cunoaşterii".

Mereu lipsea ceva din căutările mele: contactul cu mine însumi, cu forţa de expresie, contactul profund cu acea energie plină de sentiment care îşi poate elibera puterea prin împărtăşirea unei transfigurări sufleteşti. Iar asta se întâmpla pentru că eram doar un experimentator de peisaj care lucra mult în aer liber, înzestrat cu cea mai sensibilă parte a unui suflet sărac, dar nu eram şi un explorator pur-sânge care exersează suficient artele transparenţei unei metafore atotcuprinzătoare.

Cât despre culoare, aşa cum este ea exprimată în câmpul compoziţiilor mele de factură expresionist-abstractă, se pliază în mod admirabil pe sensibilitatea şi receptivitatea manifestată faţă de trăirile celor din jur, conform unui Shatapsettian Synnem (o primă întâlnire a intelectului cu Lumina cea mare). Este de ajuns să o redau în lumina evocării unui moment de tipul "Cine ar fi crezut?" a pentru a definitiva o experienţă de individualizare a sinelui.

Niciodată un om nu se va putea numi artist fără să-şi găsească propria culoare care să-i completeze frumusețea și să-i sublinieze, de exemplu, trăsăturile puternice de caracter cu care l-a răsplătit generos natura.

Leadership: Poţi să evidenţiezi expresia sinelui tău ideal sub forma relativă a unei creaţii experimentată în "ascunsul" unei lumi care înfăţişează realitatea prin surprinderea esenţei non-materiale a unui creator desăvârşit?

Ca o reflexie a soarelui vizibilă de pe pământ, culoarea de chihlimbar îmi redă vizibilitatea în spaţiul reflexiei unei formule de emancipare în ceea ce priveşte stilul de exprimare. Tocmai datorită acestui stil am încercat, de atâtea ori, să mă fac remarcat prin pensulaţii subtile și jocuri cromatice vibrate. Ceea ce scria Simona Popescu în romanul "Exuvii" vine ca un fel de completare a acestei culori, sinonimă cu emoţia expresiei ce o exprimă chipul meu în câmpul imaginii unui artist care are un talent deosebit şi poate să exprime plastic ceea ce se poate face prin intermediul artei:

"Auzeam culoarea, şi ea avea sunetul foşnetului. Mă lăţeam peste verde, eram o şuviţă de verde închis peste catifeaua de verde pal ca al omizii. Eram un fir pe care tocmai îl croşeta o tanti într-o vestuţă de lână. Eram firul şi mă încolăceam în ochiuri. O igliţă, nişte andrele făceau din mine un model gros sau o spumă de dantelă. Şi tot aşa… "

Tot la fel, în centrul imaginii înscrisă în creaţia mea, pe care o descriu în cuvintele cele mai liniştite, vibrante şi luminoase, se regăseşte acea sensibilitate cu care se armonizează valorile cromatice și dialogul dintre lucruri şi suflet. Cum oare să pătrund sensul profund al individualităţii mele reflectată într-o imagine stilizată a reîntâlnirii cu mine însumi, dacă nu ştiu să redau culoarea unei reprezentări vizuale debordând de concreteţe, a curgerii vieţii de la suprafaţa unei frământări a sufletului?

Esenţa non-materială a unui creator desăvârşit purcede din dezvoltarea unei reprezentări vizuale în al cărei prim plan se situează întruchiparea sufletului său, surprins prin alăturarea unor culori care îşi menţin intensitatea în timp.

Iar leadershipul are aceeaşi calitate pe care o au culorile din creaţia mea: este de o mare puritate, chiar şi atunci când se amestecă cu diferite fragmente ale vieţii mele particulare.

Culoarea unei reprezentări vizuale de excepţie, desemnată prin expresia sinelui ideal, poate fi caracterizată prin: tonalitate (ambianța cromatică specifică unui tablou), luminozitate (intensitate) şi saturaţie (puritate).

Aici fac referire la o tehnică ton-pe-ton ce nu ține cont de umbrirea intermediară în care este situat un personaj sau altul din creaţiile mele, ci mai degrabă ţine cont de necesitatea facilitării unei reprezentări vizuale unde realul este complet dezgolit de ornamente inutile, aşa cum este esenţa unui obiect care are o singură culoare (de exemplu o frunză verde).

Această tehnică pune accent pe sensibilitatea care se răsfrânge asupra sinelui stabil, care nu se schimbă indiferent de realitate.

Cum a procedat Cal Rhodes

On Martie 21, 2009

Măreşte-ţi puterea de influenţă unindu-i pe oameni în spiritul acelor principii care corespund concepţiilor tale solide despre leadership.

Am să revin din nou la filmul „ Uncommon Valor (1983) ", deoarece este foarte important să ştii acest lucru.

Colonelul în rezervă, Cal Rhodes, reuşeşte să strângă şi să formeze o echipă de comando pentru primejdioasa misiune de recuperare a prizonierilor dintr-un lagăr din Vietnam. Cine ar fi crezut că omul ăsta, trecut de a doua tinereţe, ar fi putut să izbutească în vrerea lui?

Un lider priceput şi un antrenament sistematic dau întotdeauna roade. Fără nicio îndoială, reuşita misiunii s-a datorat devotamentului nestrămutat al lui Cal Rhodes faţă de conceptul de muncă în echipă. El a ştiut cum să-şi ţină închegată echipa, a ştiut cum să-i strunească pe oameni, cum să-i unească şi să-i apropie de el în spiritul principiilor care corespundeau concepţiilor sale solide despre leadership. Nişte principii care au delimitat fiecare fază a ciclului evoluţiei tuturor acţiunilor lor pe tot parcursul perioadei de antrenament, şi pe tot parcursul misiunii.

Iar principiul numărul unu pe care l-a avut în vedere Cal presupunea faptul că onestitatea, loialitatea şi curajul sunt fundamentale şi stau la baza colaborării eficiente dintre membrii unui grup.

Leadership: Temperamentul pe care îl manifeşti în zona de acţiune a indicatorului "drum îngustat" poate să marcheze un compromis între ceea ce înseamnă maximizarea valorii de sine şi atitudinea de subestimare a propriilor decizii?

Aşa cum alegerea aparaturii potrivite este extrem de importantă pentru un fotograf - tot aşa alegerea şi implementarea unor principii bazate pe o anumită ordine, pe un anumit echilibru, care să orienteze şi să imprime un anumit sens procesului de aliniere la obiectivele propuse, la regulile impuse, precum şi la propriile valori, este de o importanţă deosebită pentru tine şi leadershipul tău.

A-i conduce pe oameni, dar fără să induci în mod conştient şi sistematic în mintea lor o anumită direcţie care să-i ajute să înţeleagă pe deplin rolul lor în cadrul echipei şi să se integreze mai bine în ea, este ca şi cum ai planta seminţe la întâmplare: ele răsar de regulă acolo unde te aştepţi mai puţin, acolo unde nu trebuie. Reţine că indicatorul "drum îngustat" se referă la modul în care nu funcţionează în practică strategia ta de stabilire a egalităţii între ceea ce se petrece sub influenţa ta şi ce se petrece în interiorul oamenilor.

Tot aşa stau lucrurile cu conflictele şi divergenţele: ele răsar de regulă atunci când te aştepţi mai puţin, exact acolo unde nu este cazul, dacă oamenilor nu le este împărtăşită o viziune care să oglindească principiile tale şi care să-i capteze şi să le susţină interesele. Un lider are conştiinţa clară a valorii de întrebuinţare a influenţei sale. Iar un lider care îşi subestimează propriile decizii este un lider care îşi subapreciază capacităţile de conducere, în special capacitatea de a reacţiona la gândurile şi sentimentele celorlalţi în situaţii spontane.

Capacitatea ta de a le câştiga încrederea şi respectul oamenilor are legătură cu plantarea cât mai eficientă în mintea şi în sufletul lor a acelor „seminţe" de echitate şi respect care să le trezească interesul, care să le dea energie, cutezanţă şi zel, şi care să le stimuleze dorinţa de a se implica cu mai multă responsabilitate şi eficacitate în sprijinirea echipei, în funcţie de planurile şi necesităţile tale.

Maximizarea valorii de sine presupune o creştere a nivelului tău de instruire, cunoştinţe, know-how, precum şi o creştere a gradului tău de implicare în activităţi de team buliding care pot să împlinească idealul unei echivalenţe între măreţia de a te simţi în control şi controlul măreţiei de a fi simţitor.

Cum a procedat Cal Rhodes trebuie să procedezi şi tu dacă vrei ca echipa ta să funcţioneze la maximă capacitate. Sădind în oameni înţelegerea cea mai deplină a muncii şi valorii lor în cadrul echipei prin intermediul unor principii care să le netezească potecile spre o mai bună colaborare, îi condiţionezi să devină mai buni, mai eficienţi, şi să se implice mai mult, să ajute echipa să se dezvolte şi să aibă rezultate.

Dacă, însă, în membrii echipei tale nu încolţeşte înţelegerea acelor aspecte cruciale care definesc echipa, ce ţin de respectarea anumitor principii călăuzitoare ce au la bază respectul, încrederea, onoarea, loialitatea - înseamnă că puterea ta de influenţă este mică, iar principiile pe care ţi-ai construit leadershipul nu au o forţă reală, nu au o valoare funcţională şi nu au nimic în comun cu profesionalismul.

Concluzie: În leadership este nevoie de ordine şi disciplină, de respect reciproc şi de stabilirea unor principii de acţiune comune care să fie respectate de toţi, de lider şi de membrii echipei sale. Desigur, totdeauna liderul rămâne modelul după care se orientează toţi cei din echipă. De acest model depinde reuşita echipei.

Cum să alegi un curs de leadership

On Decembrie 24, 2008

Un curs de leadership, la fel ca şi un test de confirmare a unui diagnostic medical, ar trebui judecat după un singur criteriu infailibil: rezultatele. Cu alte cuvinte, dacă îl motivează sau nu pe participant să treacă la acţiune.

Cine ar trebui să participe:

- toţi aceia care vor să dobândească cunoştinţe avansate de leadership;

Cum devine cineva Eisenstein?

On Februarie 07, 2014

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-un "Private Open Space", formându-ţi o viziune care să creeze condiţiile unor descoperiri de mare valoare.

Prima viziune asupra filmului „Greva” a creat condiţiile descoperirilor artistice de importanţă istorică hotărâtoare, care au făcut nemuritor numele lui Serghei Eisenstein. Conceperea acestei prime viziuni - pe care cei din jur o priveau cu zâmbetul amuzat-indulgent - a însemnat un element esenţial al fenomenului cuprins în întrebarea: cum devine cineva Eisenstein?

*În mecanismul fenomenului convieţuiesc deopotrivă un talent exploziv, care sparge legi existente, creându-și-le pe ale sale proprii, cât şi o gândire intensă, lucidă, de rară acuitate. Trăsătura esenţială a acestui mare regizor este înflăcărarea pe care o modelează înţelepciunea. El e omul care îşi construieşte o imagine de ansamblu, pentru ca abia apoi să treacă la găsirea diverselor situaţii în care se manifestă această imagine. **

Leadership: Ce însemnătate poţi da unei creaţii care este ea însăşi rezultatul unei înţelegeri coordonate de o complexitate de factori cu influenţe de intensitate diferite?

Nu poţi obţine o victorie semnificativă în lupta cu creaţia, raportându-te la ansamblul realităţii înconjurătoare care deseori devine o opreliște în calea idealurilor, decât printr-o lărgire a conştiinţei de sine, urmată de o schimbare fundamentală în modul de abordare a viziunii şi conţinutului ei. Acestea din urmă ies la lumină, conform unei anumite ordini a formelor de exprimare ale creaţie, doar în momentul în care, având ceva de spus şi de transmis, te angajezi într-o autodepăşire permanentă.

Însemnătatea unei creaţii este dată de influenţa pe care ea o are asupra evoluţiei unui domeniu de activitate, astfel încât să fie considerată o adevărată deschizătoare de drumuri, dar şi de semnătura personală pe care o ataşezi ei astfel încât să fie considerată o artă plină de spirit, plină de complexitate și diversitate.

Este greu de stabilit ce anume ne apropie mai mult de secretul creaţiei: marea concordanţă cu normele de eficienţă sau uşoara abatere faţă de ele. Dar autodepăşirea, trecerea spre o nouă fază a experienţei de muncă, prin care sunt acumulate practicile şi cunoştinţele alternative, aduce în marea ecuaţie a leadershipului noi variabile de optimizat, susţinând maturizarea intelectuală care permite creaţiei să se integreze mai bine în zona de progres personal, delimitată de diverse repere de tipul "suficient" sau "insuficient".

Leadership: Tu poţi să construieşti o imagine de ansamblu, pentru ca abia apoi să treci la găsirea diverselor situaţii în care se manifestă această imagine?

Viziunea este parte a actului de creaţie, căci pune la dispoziţia a ceea ce numim „lumea viitorului”, noi resurse de accesare a „ineditului”, fondând o cunoaştere independentă de orice altă autoritate. Activată în contextul unei raţionalităţi care are tendinţa se opune regulilor şi de a le încălca, viziunea creează condiţiile descoperirilor artistice de importanţă hotărâtoare, care pot face nemuritor numele şi prestanţa liderului-artist.

Leadershipul nu este un spaţiu neutru de interacţiune cu procesul de creaţie, ci este un „Very Large Open Space” în care ai oportunitatea de a-ţi expune propriile convingeri, spărgând legile şi regulile existente, raportându-te la ansamblul realităţii resurselor de muncă (care deseori devine o oprelişte în calea perfecţionării).

Creaţia la care se raportează „leadershipul" este ea însăşi rezultatul unei înţelegeri coordonate de o complexitate de factori cu influenţe de intensitate diferite, cum ar fi descoperirile şi consecinţele lor. Dacă descoperirile nu oferă garanţia unei imagini personale şi profesionale, solide şi autentice, în contextul unui nou set de obiective de dezvoltare durabilă, atunci leadershipul va fi catalogat drept un „counter-trend" slab şi nu va avea o însemnătate de prim rang în cadrul procesului de schimbare.

Leadershipul este imaginea unei creaţii ce izvorăşte din însemnătatea pe care o dai gândirii ce face din creaţie o reflectare a competențelor tale la cel mai înalt nivel.

Cum devine cineva Eisenstein? se referă la munca de creaţie pe care o depune liderul, cu înflăcărarea pe care o modelează înţelepciunea, spre căpătarea unei bogate experienţe în domeniu şi a unei bune funcţionari în condiţii de performanţă ridicate. Liderul care îşi construieşte o viziune, pentru ca abia apoi să treacă la găsirea diverselor situaţii în care se manifestă această viziune, este numaidecât condus de sentimentul de căutare a punctului de lansare a propriei gândiri ştiinţifice.

Cum este concepută o scenă memorabilă dintr-un film?

On Iunie 5, 2011

Expresiile vizuale ale filmului captează realitatea ca pe o viziune simbolică a ideilor, unde sugestivitatea și profunzimea imaginii creează o percepție continuă a transformării imediat percepute.

Separatorul de lapte este și el un simbol mecanic al fertilității, și în acest sens este concepută scena memorabilă în care țăranii îl înconjoară pentru a urmări cum va apărea prima picătură de unt. Și de această dată, picătura își va crește amploarea dramatică, să zicem așa, iar șuvoaiele de lichid alb nu vor picura doar din țeava separatorului, ci vor țâșni în jerbe din fântâni arteziene simbolice.

Eisenstein își concepe tot filmul organizat în jurul acestor simboluri, pe care le opune simbolurilor înapoierii. Astfel, scena separatorului de lapte se opune unei secvențe păstrate din vechea formă: procesiunea religioasă disperată a țăranilor pentru invocarea ploii în timpul unei secete.

Leadership: Poţi să reconciliezi simbolurile inovării cu cele ale trecutului, încât contrastul lor să contribuie la construirea unui discurs vizual cu impact social?

Liniile și șuvoaiele de lichid alb, ce țâșnesc din separatorul de lapte în scena memorabilă a filmului, amintesc de principiile sistemelor avansate de irigație, unde o picătură se transformă rapid într-un flux generos. Ca și în distribuția apei pentru menținerea fertilității, Eisenstein folosește simbolul mecanic al separatorului pentru a reda ideea fertilității în rândul țăranilor, prin jeturile albe ce capătă amploare dramatică.

Întregul său film este organizat ca un sistem de irigație simbolică, unde fluxul de lapte oferă un contrast puternic față de seceta și disperarea din procesiunea religioasă a țăranilor care invocă ploaia. Simbolurile fertilității moderne sunt astfel juxtapuse simbolurilor tradiționale, iar jerbele de lapte devin expresii vizuale ale unui nou început, o sursă de "apă vie" care sugerează o renaștere în mijlocul secetei.

Asemenea unui sistem hidraulic complex, simbolurile fertilității se manifestă prin presiunea dramatică a momentului când prima picătură de lichid își face apariția. Separatorul, acest dispozitiv memorabil de control al transformării, distribuie energia simbolică precum o rețea de conducte arteziene. În această scenă, țeava nu doar picură, ci proiectează jerbe albe sub presiune, maximizând impactul vizual al momentului. Opunându-se procesiunilor disperate și religioase din vremuri de secetă, acest sistem modern de simboluri concepe fertilitatea într-un mod mai eficient. Țâșnirea dramatică a untului devine astfel o manifestare controlată a abundenței, în contrast cu invocarea primitivă a ploii. Întregul film se organizează în jurul acestor dispozitive simbolice care transformă vechile ritualuri în expresii ale progresului, asemenea trecerii de la irigația primitivă la sistemele moderne de distribuție a apei.

O creație cinematografică de excepție este organizată ca un sistem de irigație simbolică, în care sugestivitatea și subtilitatea contrastului conduc la o revelație interioară și la o imagine vibrantă a renașterii spiritului artistic.

Cum este concepută o scenă memorabilă dintr-un film? Ei bine, este concepută ca un punct focal al narativului, un moment care rămâne imprimat în mintea spectatorului. Este o secvență care, printr-o combinație de elemente vizuale, sonore și narative, reușește să emoționeze, să captiveze și să transmită un mesaj puternic.

Elementele care contribuie la crearea unei scene memorabile includ:

Leadershipul valorifică tensiunea dintre ritualul tradițional și inovația tehnică, în relație cu potențialul transformator al momentului prezent.

Cum este concepută o scenă memorabilă dintr-un film? Prin îmbinarea simbolurilor sugestive cu o regie vizuală captivantă, capabilă să evoce emoții profunde și să transmită idei complexe prin imagini puternice. Astfel, mesajul artistic poate să fie clar transmis, dincolo de bariera limbajului sau a culturii, printr-un limbaj vizual universal care rezonează profund cu spectatorul.

Cum îţi demonstrezi măreţia?

On Noiembrie 11, 2009

Evaluează-ţi personalitatea înainte de a-ţi transmite viziunea, făcând apel la modelul unei conştiinţe neînfrânte de puterea prezentului.

Preşedintele american John Fitzgerald Kennedy a fost omul care a făcut ziua de 26 iunie de neuitat. El a vizitat Berlinul. Aproximativ 120.000 de berlinezi s-au adunat în faţa Primăriei din Schöneberg, pentru a asculta discursul preşedintelui. Ei s-au adunat în piaţă înainte ca el să sosească, şi când în cele din urmă a ajuns pe podium, l-au ovaţionat şi aplaudat timp de câteva minute.

Kennedy şi-a început discursul spunând: "Libertatea are multe dificultăţi şi democraţia nu este perfectă. Dar noi nu a trebuit niciodată să ridicăm un zid pentru a baricada poporul înăuntru." Într-un discurs plin de zel, preşedintele a spus că Berlinul de Vest a fost un simbol al libertăţii într-o lume ameninţată de Războiul Rece. În final a rostit următoarele cuvinte, ajunse celebre: "Toţi oamenii liberi, oriunde s-ar afla, sunt cetăţeni ai Berlinului, şi de aceea, ca un om liber, mă mândresc cu cuvintele: "Sunt un Berlinez".

Înainte de a oferi oamenilor o direcţie, trebuie să fii obiectiv cu tine însuţi. Un lider adevărat nu aleargă după mijloace noi şi improprii de a-şi transmite viziunea, el n-are nevoie să atragă atenţia cu tot dinadinsul prin inedit şi originalitate.

Trebuie să existe o permanentă verificare interioară căreia să i te se conformezi tu însuţi – şi în funcţie de rezultatul ei să fii capabil şi dispus să schimbi ceea ce nu este în ordine. Această verificare, efectuată cu seriozitate, are ca scop unic şi exclusiv transformarea şi desăvârşirea propriului potenţial de conducere, este singurul mijloc prin care se poate dobândi acea formă concretă de realizare a sinelui. Liderul are nevoie de un răspuns, de o reacţie mai ales în perioada de dezvoltare. Abilitatea lui de a se evalua constituie puterea lui cea mai mare.

Leadership: Poţi să te apropii de oameni regăsindu-ţi forţa interioară în vieţile lor, ceea ce te recomandă ca o condiţie indispensabilă a depăşirii fazei de lărgire a orizontului pe care nu îl poţi cuprinde decât de la o anumită înălţime?

Admir ceea ce spunea actorul de comedie Danny Thomas: "Fiecare dintre noi s-a născut cu un rost, dar nu toţi descoperim acel rost. Succesul în viaţa nu are nici o legătură cu ceea ce câştigi sau realizezi pentru tine. Ci înseamnă ceea ce faci pentru alţii." Cred că exact acelaşi lucru l-a spus, indirect, şi John Fitzgerald Kennedy atunci când s-a adresat berlinezilor. "Sunt un Berlinez"a mărturisit cu o bucurie a întregii fiinţe pe care cei aproximativ 120.000 de oameni adunaţi în faţa Primăriei din Schöneberg au primit-o ca pe un surprinzător dar. Cu alte cuvinte, Kennedy şi-a descoperit rostul – acest lucru a făcut să crească şi contribuţia berlinezilor faţă de el şi faţă de naţiunea pe care o conducea.

Aşadar, vezi tu, înainte să cultivi simpatie trebuie să-ţi lărgeşti limitele propriului orizont. Trebuie să te vezi ca făcând parte dintr-o comunitate, trebuie să contribui la reconstrucţia mentalităţii şi valorilor celor din jur. Una din marile minuni ale leadershipului este că forţa ta interioară şi regăsirea ta în vieţile oamenilor te apropie de ei. Deşi americanii nu erau priviţi prea bine la acea vreme de către germani, berlinezii au ajuns să-l perceapă pe Kennedy ca pe un membru al familiei cu rang mai înalt, nu ca pe un agresor.

Prin discursul său, John Fitzgerald Kennedy a dovedit că este la înălţime. Practic el a dovedit că o gândire bazată pe acceptarea existenţei unei experienţe concrete a vieţii poate să ducă la decizii mult mai avantajoase şi mult mai potrivite situaţiei.

1.Tu faci apel la emoţii pentru a le însufleţi oamenilor existenţa?

2.Inspiri sentimente pozitive în cei pe care îi conduci? (nu uita că toţi ochii se întorc spre tine, aşteptând reacţia ta care funcţionează ca o călăuză emoţională. Prin mesajul pe care îl transmiţi, oferi oamenilor o cale de a interpreta semnificaţia evenimentelor şi, astfel, de a reacţiona emoţional la ele.) Trebuie să conştientizezi faptul că modul în care comunici, stilul şi comportamentul tău afectează starea de spirit a oamenilor din jur.

3.Tu oare reuşeşti sau eşuezi în canalizarea emoţiilor oamenilor în direcţia potrivită?

Leadership: Poţi să faci apel la o realitate ce se construieşte şi reconstruieşte mereu la nivelul unei conştiinţe colective, încât să pui în prim plan consecinţele unor acţiuni greu de prevăzut?

Omul care a făcut 26 iunie scoate în evidenţă angajarea ta în îndeplinirea cerinţelor celorlalţi: o slabă angajare va duce la o raliere slabă; o angajare fermă duce la o raliere a unui număr mare de adepţi şi susţinători.

Felul în care Kennedy s-a raportat la berlinezi a avut drept rezultat anularea unei eventuale evaluări negative care i-ar fi putut scădea popularitatea. Acest lucru este bine să nu-l treci niciodată cu vederea. Căci aşa cum echilibrul şi calmul reconfortant al naturii sunt deseori spulberate de catastrofele violente (seisme, inundaţii, incendii, etc.), tot aşa potenţialul tău de lider, care este evaluat tocmai prin raportul pe care îl stabileşti cu cei din jur, poate scădea enorm dacă mijlocul prin care îţi exprimi personalitatea, angajamentele, preţuirea faţă de oameni nu se aliniază cu stările tale interioare.

Consecinţa este generarea unei confuzii majore şi compromiterea unui mediu propice de creare a relaţiilor de cooperare pe termen lung. Sau, în cuvinte mai simple, oamenii nu îţi vor putea accepta viziunea dacă nu reuşeşti mai întâi de toate să dovedeşti că eşti înzestrat cu potenţial de lider – adică dacă nu reuşeşti să descifrezi tot ceea ce au oamenii nevoie, să le influenţezi în mod pozitiv emoţiile, căutând să-ţi demonstrezi pe căi sigure şi limpezi adevărata ta afecţiune.

Demonstrează-ţi măreţia, reglându-ţi potenţialul de leadership în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a înţelege şi controla simţămintele celorlalţi. Fă dovada faptului că leadershipul pe care îl promovezi îţi exprimă propriile valori, altfel nu vei reuşi să-ţi pui în evidenţă abilităţile cele mai relevante şi mai utile. Exprimă prin intermediul leadershipului tău arta de a influenţa în bine gândirea, comportamentul şi mentalitatea celorlalţi - o artă care să se alinieze cu stările tale interioare, care să reflecte ideile, gândurile şi sentimentele tale. Sau mai simplu spus, o artă prin care să stimulezi îmbunătăţirea continuă şi eficientă.

Poţi face dovada faptului că leadershipul pe care îl promovezi îţi exprimă propriile valori, altfel încât să-ţi pui în evidenţă abilităţile cele mai relevante şi mai utile pentru viitor - în mijlocul unui prezent care fie nu poate, fie nu vrea să vadă viitorul?

1. Îţi îndeplineşti bine rolul de ghid emoţional? Dispoziţia ta afectivă şi tonul pe care îl foloseşti în relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni, ce impact are asupra lor?

2. Tu cum îţi demonstrezi măreţia?

3. Îţi reglezi potenţialul în funcţie de capacitatea ta de a înţelege şi controla sentimentele celorlalţi?

4.Oferi oamenilor sentimentul clarităţii şi direcţiei? Reuşeşti să creezi un climat emoţional care încurajează şi cultivă loialitatea şi încrederea?

Sper din tot sufletul ca răspunsurile tale la aceste întrebări să-ţi lărgească limitele propriului orizont. Ca să contribui la reconstrucţia mentalităţii şi valorilor celor din jur, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi inteligenţa emoţională - prin autoeducare, prin conştientizarea de sine, autodisciplină şi empatie.

Orizontul unui observator situat la înălțime este dat de puterea liderului de a da sens și valoare acţiunilor lui, încât prezentul trăit să fie oglinda în care ceilalţi oameni se vor recunoaşte mai târziu drept continuatorii unui lung șir de înaintași.

Măreţia ţi-o demonstrezi prin angajamentul pe care ţi-l iei ca să fii "prezentul continuu" dintr-un prezent în care lucrurile se mişcă. Sau, aşa cum spunea scriitorul francezAntoine de Saint-Exupery: "A construi viitorul înseamnă a construi prezentul; înseamnă naşterea unei dorinţe valabilă astăzi."

Cum poate deveni leadershipul ieftin

Învaţă cum să-ţi gestionezi şi cum să-ţi manifeşti identitatea, luptând cât mai mult pentru a ţi-o menţine nealterată.

Prezentul şi viitorul aparţin celor care acceptă frumuseţea absolută a creaţiei. S-a terminat cu vremea tocilarilor ! Şi să vă spun de ce. Pe vremea părinţilor, bunicilor şi străbunicilor noştri exista acea formă de intelectuali (foştii tocilari), care din dorinţa de a impresiona o fată sau de a urca pe o treaptă ierarhică superioară, foloseau orice prilej de a-şi etala minunatele şi vastele cunoştinţe despre orice.

"Ce băiat isteţ ! Cât de multe ştie ! " Aplauze, premii. Nu ai vrea să fii şef aici la noi în întreprindere, nu vrei un post de profesor? Adică, se vede că ştii atâtea, eşti bazat. Un om cult, super hero ! Din ăştia ca tine avem noi nevoie. Restul oamenilor la săpat şanţuri...

Chiar şi azi mai întâlneşti câte un asemenea geniu lansând (ca la examenul de licenţă) întrebări de genul: "Ştii tu cine a pictat cutare tablou? Ştii tu când a apărut prima cale ferată din România? Ştii ce spunea cutare scriitor în cutare carte? Ştii tu când s-a născut Napoleon? Adica, ştii tu...câte biblioteci am vizitat eu?"

Leadership: Poţi să accepţi faptul că te confrunţi cu limitele propriei tale importanțe în ceea ce priveşte modul în care te raportezi la experienţele din viaţa ta care se cer reformulate printr-un impuls de tip "Ego-Vulnerabil"?

Dar oare vă puteţi da seama ce se întâmplă în sufletul acestui atotcunoscător? Vă daţi voi seama cât de tare îi bate inima de bucurie când el ştie ceva şi altul nu ştie? Mândria aia că el a citit, că poate arăta lumii că e super inteligent, că a ajuns profesor, mai târziu rector, o minte genială. Acaparează toată atenţia, lumea din jur îl priveşte ca pe un simbol al excelenţei. Vai, un adevărat univers al cunoaşterii !

Dar la capitolul Creaţie şi Descoperire, acest tip de personalitate este un mare ZERO. NIHIL. Adevărata ştiinţă n-a auzit niciodată de el, la fel cum nici el n-a aflat nicidecum sensul vieţii din spatele teoriei (memorată cu scopul de a epata). Acesta este sindromul papagalului. Înseamnă te dai mare repetând tot ce ai auzit, tot ce-ai aflat, dar fără să realizezi nicio schimbare pe plan ştiintific şi profesional.

Importanţa pe care ţi-o acorzi este ca o pictură reprodusă din plăcerea de a ţine o pensulă în mână, dar nu şi pentru a realiza o capodoperă. Este o mare diferenţă între a ști bine despre ce e vorba şi a te cizela într-un domeniu complex. Degeaba vrei să pari mai mult decât eşti dacă îţi lipseşte talentul de a crea şi dacă nu eşti înzestrat cu un simţ artistic deosebit. Nu vei putea niciodată să te eliberezi de suferinţa de a nu avea credibilitate, suferinţa de a nu aparţine unei elite de iniţiaţi în domeniu, predestinați să fie diferiți de restul oamenilor.

Ceva te îndeamnă să treci la acţiune, dar fără să deţii armele potrivite pentru a câştiga lupta cu tine însuţi. Iar când vei da nas în nas cu adevăraţii artişti te vei simţi prins în capcană, pus la încercare sau vulnerabil, ştiind bine că nu vei putea să păcăleşti pe nimeni ţinând o pensulă în mână şi valind teorii deja existente.

Rezultatele practice îţi reflectă caracterul, nu vorbele. Impulsul de tip "Ego-Vulnerabil" nu te va motiva niciodată să creezi, chiar dacă vrei să te simţi special, ci te va trezi definitiv la realitate: talentul de a picta nu e acelaşi lucru cu memorarea teoriei pure.

Leadership: Este posibil ca în realitate să urmezi o schimbare totală de direcţie în ceea ce priveşte modul în care te percep ceilalţi, luând în considerare faptul că ceea ce încerci să-ţi impui ca normalitate este de fapt o dereglare comportamentală?

Poţi recunoaşte faptul că ceea ce te face excepţional este diferit de ceea ce îl face pe altul excepţional şi că îţi petreci timpul ocupându-te de lucrurile ce nu ţi se potrivesc? Dacă da, atunci comportamentul tău merită mai multă atenţie. Uneori, comportamentul este suma trăirilor capabile să te pună cu tot sufletul în slujba unui ideal care te depăşeşte ca posibilitate de realizare.

Marea schimbare, începutul anilor 2000, adică sfârşitul lumii vechi şi începutul lumii noi (spirituale), coincide cu apariţia şi propagarea continuă a internetului. Iar internetul acumulează zilnic de zece ori mai multe informaţii decât adăpostesc toate bibliotecile din lume. Numai în România apar zilnic circa 1,1 milioane de pagini noi pe internet provenite din blog-uri, scanări, presă, etc.

La fiecare secundă au loc cinci sau chiar mai multe descoperiri în fiecare domeniu, tot la fiecare secundă cineva în lume deschide uşa către o creaţie nouă. Pur şi simplu nu mai faci faţă bombardamentului de informaţii, nu mai ai timp să acumulezi prea multă cunoaştere teoretică. Iar practica te omoară definitiv şi sigur.

Pe vremuri stăteai ore întregi într-o bibliotecă ca să găseşti o informaţie, acum găseşti într-o clipă ce informaţie vrei căutând pe internet. Oare cum credeţi că va arăta viitorul? Nu mai poţi impresiona pe nimeni cu vastele tale cunoştinţe, căci aproape toate informaţiile pe care le deţii se regăsesc pe internet. Cine are nevoie de o informaţie ştie unde să o găsească, fără să fie nevoie de tine. Internetul este creierul, centrul universului la care se poate conecta oricine din orice parte a globului.

Singurul lucru pentru care vei putea să fii admirat este puterera ta creativă de a genera noi tendinţe într-un domeniu, de a descoperi noi orizonturi de evoluţie, încât să fii protagonistul schimbării de viziune pe care se construiesc temeliile lumii.

Cărţile vechi şi cele noi sunt scanate în ritm rapid şi apar cu nemiluita pe internet. Există nenumărate platforme de digital reading precum Scribd, Wattpad, Issuu, Slideshare, Yumpu, google books, archive.org, sau researchgate.net. Este vorba despre RAPIDITATE, pur şi simplu nu mai ai timp de aprofundare îndelungată !

S-a terminat cu tocilăria. Nu mai poţi impresiona pe nimeni cu vastele tale cunoştinţe. Vrea cineva o informaţie, o află imediat fără ajutorul tău. Totul de pe internet. Degeaba ai citit o mie de cărţi. În prezent şi în viitor singurul lucru prin care se va măsura valoarea unui om va fi prin prisma creaţiei şi a descoperirilor sale.

Vrei să te întorci în trecut sau să te adaptezi la prezent şi viitor?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi asumi un rol practic în dinamica progresului prin confirmarea unor adevăruri la care alţii nu se gândesc şi prin configurarea acelor realităţi pe nimeni nu le bănuieşte?

Empiriştii secolului XX susţineau că o cunoaştere prin raţiunea pură a existenţei este iluzorie. Pe măsură ce un domeniu se maturizează, oamenii încetează să se mai intereseze de el şi migrează spre alte domenii.

Nu poţi aduce o schimbare radicală în felul de a gândi, în felul de a percepe lumea, decât asumându-ţi un rol practic în dinamica progresului, doar dacă reuşeşti să confirmi adevăruri la care alţii nu se gândesc şi să configurezi acele realităţi pe nimeni nu le bănuieşte. Asta înseamnă să câştigi teren, să îţi impui autoritatea la nivel de regizor şi scenarist.

De exemplu, o realitate pe care nimeni nu o bănuieşte poate fi exprimată prin intermediul unui tablou care înfăţişează în culori vii suferinţa omenească pe marginea neîncrederii în sine la impactul cu o dorinţă, pe care raţiunea şi voinţa o refuză. Iar a confirma un adevăr la care nimeni nu se gândeşte înseamnă să te referi la tine ca la o creaţie eternă prin intermediul a ceea ce simte sufletul tău în privinţa chestiunii care îi interesează pe ceilalţi oameni.

Tot ceea ce îţi imaginezi trebuie creat. Si prin tot ceea ce creezi trebuie să scoţi în evidenţă noi însuşiri ale realităţii. Acest proces este o extindere mai complexă a modului de a face ştiinţă, o fază de dezvoltare a unei noi interfeţe de leadership accesibilă numai minților înclinate spre nemărginit.

Urmăreşte trendul de repoziţionare a modului de a vedea lucrurile – să încerci să prinzi acea linie a întrebărilor fără răspuns care pot conferi credibilitate unei lumi aparte.

Viitorul este o ficţiune a Eului care îşi negociază mereu coerenţa.

Leadershipul poate deveni ieftin prin identitatea falsă pe care încerci s-o vinzi lumii la chemarea dorinţei de a impresiona cât mai mult posibil, deci prin concepţia falsă pe care si-o formează ceilalţi oameni despre realitatea ta.

Cum promovezi imaginea companiei tale?

On Aprilie 03, 2009

Începe să dezvolţi imaginea brandului tău, experimentând o nouă provocare numită "începutul unei lumi noi" sau "sfârşitul definitiv al unei lumi vechi".

Honolulu, locul unde aproape fiecare om tânjeşte să meargă în vacanţă. Dacă n-ai fost niciodată acolo nu ştii ce-ai pierdut. Este paradisul pe pământ, sau cel puţin asta vei auzi în stânga şi-n dreapta, de la cei care au fost acolo sau care, la rândul lor, au auzit vorbindu-se despre acest loc. Dar oare cum a reuşit Honolulu să ajungă o insulă atât de renumită şi atât de frecventată de turiştii din toate colţurile lumii?

Într-un mod ciudat, Honolulu face ceea ce fac toate vedetele din lume şi toate companiile care se respectă: ştie să-şi vândă imaginea. Şi încă o face bine, prin intermediul radioului, televizorului şi a cinematografului. Reclamele şi mesajele publicitare care nu încetează să apară peste tot, înfăţişează locuri de vis precum plaja cu nisip alb şi fin, palmieri cu flori superbe de diferite forme şi culori, hoteluri cu piscine, restaurante, baruri, pool bar, cafenele etc, toate întreţinute cu multă grijă. Ce mai, aproape că te-am convins să mergi şi tu în vacanţa de vară în Honolulu, nu-i aşa?

Leadership: Poţi să surprinzi imaginea cea mai atrăgătoare dintr-un întreg care a primit autentificare suplimentară dintr-o interpretare diferită a conţinutului său?

A dezvolta o companie şi a o duce pe culmile gloriei nu este uşor, şi deci nu se poate realiza peste noapte. Este nevoie de multă muncă, de perseverenţă, răbdare şi uneori de foarte mulţi bani, dar merită tot efortul depus. Însă nu sacrificiile şi munca reprezintă marele impediment, ci faptul că trebuie să faci faţă concurenţei pieţei interne dar şi externe şi să te menţii la un nivel cât mai ridicat.

A-ţi menţine compania la un nivel cât mai ridicat este ca şi cum ai aştepta startul într-o cursă de maraton. Până să auzi pocnetul de pistol, în clipa aceia de aşteptare arunci o privire la ceilalţi concurenţi, încerci să le evaluezi capacităţile şi limitele. Te compari cu ei şi încerci să intuieşti dacă le eşti superior sau nu. Însă tocmai acest scurt moment de consfătuire personală se poate transforma într-un fiasco. Căci îţi poţi anula încrederea în tine, atitudinea ta pozitivă să se diminueze. Iar pe parcursul cursei să nu mai fii capabil să dai totul din tine.

Aici se vădeşte ceea ce numim performanţă. Ca să-ţi duci compania cât mai departe trebuie să fii un performer care nu-şi anulează niciodată încrederea în sine atunci când îşi măsoară forţele cu alţii, când îi este pusă la încercare tăria de a accepta rezultatul final, oricare ar fi acesta.

Aici nu e vorba doar de marketing, ci de acea gândire strategică combinată cu planul emoţional, e vorba de modelul de leadership folosit şi de situaţiile în care eşti tentat să adopţi un stil alternativ.

A surprinde imaginea cea mai atrăgătoare dintr-un întreg care a primit autentificare suplimentară dintr-o interpretare diferită a conţinutului său, înseamnă de fapt să intuieşti calitatea şi facilităţile unei zone de interes (turism, divertisment, cultură, realizarea de produse, etc) care nu are nevoie de intervenţii recurente ca să devină accesibilă pentru toate buzunarele.

Leadershipul tău trebuie să fie cât mai spontan, dar şi cât mai cuprinzător, nici ceţos, nici orientat numai spre detalii nesemnificative, căci triumful tău este reflectarea desigur spontană, dar cât mai fidelă, a imaginii interioare pe care ţi-o creezi în procesul de evoluţie. Totul începe de la răspunsul pe care îl dai la întrebarea: „ Cine eşti tu cu adevărat"?

Tu îţi anulezi încrederea în tine atunci când îţi măsori forţele cu alţii? Îţi creezi o imagine pozitivă despre tine în încercarea de a ajunge în fruntea clasamentului? Cum se măsoară performanţa ta şi care sunt factorii care îţi pot împiedica evoluţia? Eşti un învingător sau un învins?

Leadership: Poţi să obţii recunoaşterea unei zone de interes existente prin intermediul efectului de dublare a unei valori de referinţă obţinut printr-o creştere a reputaţiei imaginii promovate faţă de ofertele similare?

Oferind servicii şi produse de o calitate foarte bună, la preţuri competitive, care să se adreseze unui public ţintă anume, este doar primul pas pe care trebuie să-l faci după ce începe cursa. Pentru a fi învingătoare, o companie trebuie să ştie să-şi vândă imaginea atât în ţară cât şi peste hotare. Cu cât este mai cunoscută, cu cât brandul ei este mai puternic, cu atât îi creşte rankingul pe piaţă şi devine mai profitabilă. Un produs sau un serviciu este cu atât mai stabil pe piaţa financiară cu cât brandul companiei este mai renumit.

Fireşte, intenţia oricărui manager este de a-şi duce compania la un nivel cât mai înalt, dacă se poate pe poziţia de lider de piaţă pe un anumit segment de activitate. Compania sa trebuie să menţină o relaţie cât mai bună cu clienţii astfel încât să-şi promoveze o imagine cât mai favorabilă. O cale foarte simplă şi eficace în acest sens este de a apela permanent la mass-media şi internet astfel încât să-şi facă cunoscute serviciile şi produsele pe piaţă şi, în acelaşi timp, să rămână permanent în mintea a cât mai multor persoane.

Punctul forte al unei companii nu stă numai în serviciile de calitate pe care le oferă clienţilor ci şi în imaginea pe care şi-o creează şi pe care o vinde permanent peste tot. De exemplu în oraşul Iaşi există câteva zeci de firme care efectuează servicii profesioniste de multiplicări xerox, legătorie şi tehnoredactare. Toate oferă aceeaşi calitate excepţională a serviciilor la un preţ foarte mic, însă doar una dintre ele deţine cota cea mai mare de piaţă, şi asta pentru că, numai ea investeşte masiv în campanii de publicitate şi marketing. Oriunde te duci întâlneşti un banner cu logo-ul companiei. Permanent posturile de radio şi televiziune locale îi fac reclamă. Ăsta da marketing eficient.

Poţi creşte reputaţia imaginii tale promovate faţă de ofertele similare de pe piaţă printr-un istoric măreţ al scopului şi al experienţei acumulate în domeniu, dar totodată printr-o modalitate vizuală a trăsăturilor definitorii ale unui fenomen de tipul acurateţe faţă de aşteptări , intitulat "dincolo de tot ce ai experimentat până acum."

Leadership înseamnă să construieşti un brand care să inspire targetul prin valoarea ideaticã a imaginii şi promovarea ei activă într-un eveniment care schimbă istoria, imprimând o nouă direcție a brandului: Lumea Nouă.

Concluzie: O companie nu poate ajunge la un nivel de dezvoltare ridicat dacă nu atrage atenţia, dacă nu ştie să-şi atragă clienţii şi să-i fidelizeze, de aceea este atât de important să-şi creeze o imagine puternică. Prin urmare, dacă doreşti ca firma ta să prospere, trebuie fii cât mai inventiv şi implică-te mai mult în promovarea imaginii ei.

Cum să livrezi leadershipul

Leadershipul este mai întâi o chestiune interioară de cucerit, apoi este o chestiune exterioară de depăşit.

În celebra carte "De la idee la bani", scriitorul Napoleon Hill povesteşte istoria unui miner care a renunţat la prospecţiuni după luni de muncă asiduă, în condiţiile în care ajunsese la numai un metru de filonul de aur. Chiar dacă aurul a fost descoperit de altcineva, omul a învăţat acea lecţie de viaţă. Şi de atunci nu a mai abandonat. A aplicat lecţia în tot restul vieţii, atingând în cele din urmă succesul.

Eu rămân la convingerea că leadershipul este mai întâi de toate o chestiune interioară de cucerit, o chestiune de ordin spiritual accesibilă omului care reuşeşte, în lumina propriilor sale convingeri şi în spiritul propriilor sale valori, să se autodepăşească. Deci, numai printr-un dificil proces de autocunoaştere şi de dezvoltare personală vei putea să transcenzi limitările propriei tale fiinţei, în beneficiul celorlalţi, şi astfel să accezi la un nivel înalt de spiritualitate.

Mai mult decât atât. Ştiinţa conducerii trebuie să strălucească prin aplicarea unor idei noi, rămânând adânc ancorată într-un model de dezvoltare axat pe Eul fiecăruia, fără să se "încurce" în dificultatea de a discerne între adevăr şi falsitate. De structura şi calitatea fiinţei tale depinde în primul rând calitatea şi sănătatea leadershipului tău.

Dacă ştiinţa conducerii nu produce progrese evidente, bazate pe o combinaţie între scop şi trăiri, pe o seamă de alte valori cu mai mare înrâurire asupra oamenilor: cum sunt armonia, puritatea, sinceritatea, empatia, bunul simţ, dragostea de viaţă, spiritul de echipă, ori cele bazate pe principii etice şi virtuţi precum adevărul, solidaritatea, cooperarea, respectarea drepturilor omului, atunci liderul nu se va putea ridica la nivelul cerinţelor şi exigenţelor la care îl supun oamenii şi împrejurările.

Leadership: Evoluţia ta se traduce printr-o îmbogăţire care se învecinează cu efectul produs de depăşirea limitelor proprii, sau printr-o descoperire a sinelui care se teme să recunoască că e „restant" la capitolul experienţe de viaţă?

Sistemul de valori pe care ţi l-ai creat conferă o aură deosebită leadershipului tău. Convinge-i pe oameni să te însoţească în căutarea ta de a te înţelege şi a avea relaţii bune cu fiecare dintre ei. Nu uita că primeşti de la oameni în funcţie de cât ai investit în ei. Şi nu uita că leadershipul nu se aplică atunci când lucrurile rămân la fel, ci numai atunci când devii eficient în a dărui celorlalţi din jurul tău tot ceea ce ai mai bun din tine. Oamenii te însoţesc în căutarea sinelui?

Prin personalitatea ta, care este în relaţie directă cu Eul tău, cu felul tău de a fi, de a acţiona şi de a gândi, trebuie să-i convingi pe ceilalţi oameni că poţi să demarezi schimbarea şi să facilitezi însăşi dezvoltarea lor. Iar pentru asta trebuie să-ţi reglezi ştiinţa conducerii astfel încât să-ţi uşurezi procesul de promovare a valorilor tale cele mai înalte. A realiza acest lucru este o artă pe care dacă ţi-o însuşeşti, dacă ajungi să o controlezi şi să o faci să lucreze în avantajul tău, atunci fără îndoială drumul tău către atingerea excelenţei va fi tot mai uşor, şi totodată plin de progrese.

Tu întâmpini dificultăţi în a te raporta la circumstanţele unei cauze? Sistemul de valori pe care ţi l-ai creat conferă o aură deosebită leadershipului tău? Simţi că trăieşti degeaba, sau ţi-ai pus toată viaţa în slujba oamenilor? Ai tendinţa de a fi mai mult independent?

Leadership: Poţi reprezenta modelul propriului destin în coordonatele unei viziuni care ia în considerare factorul "putere", încât rezultatul final să poată fi verificat, validat şi aplicat printr-o luptă împotriva sinelui tău mai slab?

Leadershipul intră în joc atunci când oamenii te urmează pentru ceea ce eşti, pentru ceea ce reprezinţi, pentru felul cum rezonezi cu ei, prin abordarea cât mai simplă şi pragmatică, foarte concentrată şi responsabilă. Criteriul fundamental, just şi adecvat după care oamenii îţi analizează "arta", constituie şi un indiciu al propriei tale lumi interioare, a punctelor tale tari, sau dimpotrivă, a slăbiciunilor.

Pentru ca relaţia ta cu oamenii să se dezvolte armonios, să evolueze într-o manieră benefică, într-o direcţie pozitivă, mai întâi asigură-te că reprezinţi ceva pentru ei.

"Oamenii te urmează fiindcă ştii să te raportezi la ei" - acesta este criteriul precumpănitor după care eşti calificat drept om de echipă, înzestrat cu o inteligenţă emoţională care funcţionează, sau dimpotrivă, poţi fi descalificat şi obligat să rămâi "în urmă", dacă nu te dedici în întregime atingerii şi menţinerii unui nivel înalt de maturitate profesională şi emoţională.

Ca lider, tu te adresezi în primul rând sentimentelor oamenilor. Dacă leadershipul tău este lipsit de fond, deci dacă tu nu eşti înzestrat cu o putere emoţională care să asigure acea motivare, acea nevoie a oamenilor de a te susţine, de a se solidariza cu tine - înseamnă că tu însuţi nu ai reuşit să inspiri acele sentimente şi emoţii dătătoare de bucurie, de împlinire, de forţă interioară - lucru care nu le permite acestora să se dezvolte pe niciun plan.

Leadership: Una din provocările sinelui tău este să te situezi deasupra circumstanţelor care particularizează trăitul vieţii ca vibraţie a unei clipe de rătăcire, sau trăitul vieţii ca urmare a unui timp în care se pecetluiesc aleșii?

Oamenii nu sar nicio etapă de examinare. Un lider care nu aprofundează fiecare nivel al leadershipului, care nu reuşeşte să-i determine pe oameni să se alinieze convingerilor şi acţiunilor sale – se va afla într-o situaţie asemănătoare cu a unui pacient care se prezintă cu dureri abdominale la doctor, iar doctorul îl duce la tomograf, sărind complet peste examinarea fizică. Când vine vorba de leadership, oamenii sunt mai presus decât orice doctor, ei nu sar nicio etapă de examinare: mai întâi te evaluează, îţi oferă timp pentru a-ţi dovedi calităţile, şi abia apoi hotărăsc dacă să te accepte sau nu în fruntea lor.

Numai acel lider care şi-a pus problema găsirii unui numitor comun cu oamenii - prin care să-şi dovedească măreţia, calităţile, prin care să-şi desăvârşească "arta", numai acel lider care este familiarizat cu legile conducerii şi ştie să le aplice în folosul celorlalţi. Deci, numai acela care înţelege conceptul de "sharing" îşi va putea dovedi cu uşurinţă eficienţa în zona de influenţa pe care o administrează.

Te încadrezi în criteriile de eligibilitate impuse de "entitatea finanţatoare"?

Pe de altă parte, acel lider care nu se va încadra în criteriile de eligibilitate impuse de "entitatea finanţatoare" (oamenii), acel lider care nu are puterea şi dorinţa să pătrundă în adâncul sufletului lor, să ajungă la fibrele care compun întreaga lor structură emoţională şi să genereze acel impuls fin, intens, care să-i provoace, care să-i energizeze, care să-i facă să-şi dorească să devină mai buni - acela nu va putea să adauge niciodată o imensă semnificaţie leadershipului.

Sistemul de valori creat de fiecare dintre noi este diferit. Treapta cea mai înaltă a scării valorilor unora poate să se situeze mult sub nivelul scării valorilor altora sau să depăşească scara valorilor lor. În general progresul impune "adăugarea" de trepte noi oricărei scări a valorilor. Rolul tău, ca lider, este şi acela de a contribui la înălţimea scării valorilor tuturora conform cerinţelor din prezent şi din viitor. Dacă reuşeşti să convingi oamenii să se conformeze acestui deziderat, atunci te poţi declara fericit chiar dacă pentru această muncă de Sisif nu eşti răsplătit material, dar astfel vei reuşi să realizezi ţelul comun.

Leadershipul se observă în felul cum îţi găseşti resursele interioare pentru a scoate la iveală o lecţie de viaţă: "Eşecul te îmbogăţeşte. Greşelile sunt o parte a datoriilor pe care trebuie să le plătim pentru o viaţă trăită din plin."

Leadershipul poate fi livrat prin creşterea uşurinţei cu care poţi duce greul în viaţă. În acest sens, este bine să ţinem cont de vorbele atletei americane Allyson Felix:

"Cea mai importantă lecţie pe care trebuie să o învăţăm este să ne bizuim pe Dumnezeu în orice împrejurare. De multe ori trecem prin diverse încercări şi urmărirea planului lui Dumnezeu pare să fie lipsită de orice sens. Dumnezeu ne veghează însă mereu şi nu nu va părăsi niciodată."

Cum se începe un război mondial?

Ceea ce vezi nu este întotdeauna realitatea în întregime, căci percepția ta este supusă iluziilor și distorsiunilor datorate propriilor tale prejudecăți și limitări.

Totul e legat de Putere, întotdeauna banii vorbesc. Cu cât ai mai mult teritoriu, cu atât ai acces la mai multe resurse de valoare. Odinioară, ţara care avea mai mult aur era mai puternică, percepută ca un soi de Ebecaiffic Udulusha Ikelovski, sublimul unei culturi vibrante și cu spirit înălțător. Într-o vreme, aurul era cel ce conferea putere, așa cum un artist conferă pânzei sale viață și emoție. Dar acum, petrolul nu mai este profitabil, a început să se epuizeze, resursele se schimbă din nou, în timp ce mașinile au devenit electrice. Iar arta a devenit un kitch.

În acest context neașteptat, extinderea teritorială este importantă pentru beneficiile economice aduse de turism, hoteluri, marile lanțuri de magazine și industria tehnologică, etc. Importanţa tehnologică subliniază o reevaluare a ceea ce constituie bogăția și succesul, în detrimentul. Cu alte cuvinte, aproape toți oamenii preferă să cumpere un iPhone sau să călătorească, comparativ cu puținii care investesc în aur, pe linia unui singur adevăr: "Experiențele și tehnologia sunt noul aur al epocii moderne."

Leadership: În ce fel resursele de care dispui, percepute ca o recompensă a viziunii conform căreia limitele sunt doar iluzii, influențează expansiunea valorii tale?

Așa că s-au împărțit piețele și teritoriile, precum se împart hărțile în mâinile cuceritorilor, dar cu o oarecare delicatețe strategică. China s-a extins mai mult decât toți, până în Africa, unde a acaparat mult teritoriu, ghidându-se după zicala "ce iei, e bun luat". În tot acest timp, más allá de las expectativas optimistas, industria cinematografică de la Hollywood nu mai produce bani, iar preţul petrolului scade zilnic. Aşa că conducătorii americani, artişti în arta declanşării războaielor, au încercat să-şi extindă teritoriul până în Ucraina, ceea ce i-a bineînţeles i-a supărat pe Ruşi, cam tare.

Arta războiului nu e artă, dacă nu e făcută cu arma. Printr-o ofensivă bine organizată, rușii au ripostat drastic și amenințător, ca niște vânători în căutarea sufletului. Arta răboiului trebuie dusă până la capăt cu sacrificii omeneşti, spălate cu sânge de martiri. Îi înţelegem şi pe ei, nu-i aşa? Vouă v-ar plăcea să vină un investitor lacom, să cumpere toate casele din jurul vostru, ştiind că mai devreme sau mai târziu veţi fi şi voi cumpăraţi?

Bun, după aproape doi ani de război, America împreună cu Nato şi cu tehnologia lor de ultimă oră, au înţeles că sunt net inferiori ruşilor, pe orice diagonală tehnologică, pierzând miliarde de dolari prin furnizarea de armament. În tot acest timp, ruşii împreună cu partenerii chinezi au speculat foarte bine strategia americană, slab aleasă, ghidându-se după zicala: "Prost nu-i cel ce cere, prost e cel ce dă." Cu cât Americanii dau din bugetul lor mai mulţi bani pentru apărarea Ucrainei, cu atât câştigă mai mult China pe plan financiar.

Să mai spună cineva ca ruşii sunt săraci, sau că n-au resurse. Deocamdată au decimat Ucraina, şi nu mai au mult până aceasta devine teritoriul lor.

Leadership: În ce fel o tragedie iminentă, ca o dovadă a inevitabilității destinului, poate să reconfigureze principalele coordonate ale evoluţiei tale?

Văzând acest lucru, Americanii abandonează războiul cu Ucraina, şi mai încearcă o carte, un alt scenariu de extindere, un alt joc murdar, un alt război, ca şi când pericolul decăderii i-ar fi pus faţă în faţă cu o ultimă şansă.

Prietenul cel mai bun, Israelul, este un stat înconjurat de niște musulmani săraci care nu se înțeleg nici măcar între ei, darămite să mai și colaboreze. Dacă acele teritorii ar deveni parte din Israel, ar fi o posibilitate frumoasă pentru America de a se dezvolta masiv. Totuși, lăcomia magnaților de a acapara teritorii este vârful de lance al conflictelor geopolitice. Invadatorii nu au luat în calcul partea spirituală, o virtute pe care o posedă o entitate cerească, una necesidad importante y humana: atunci când toţi musulmanii din lume se vor uni, iar arabii vor deveni un singur stat, dorindu-şi pământul Israel înapoi.

Deci, de la un război dintre două ţări, desfăşurându-se local, s-a extins în mai multe ţări, urmând un scenariu apocaliptic. În curând vor riposta alte ţări precum Iran, Turcia, Irak, etc, fiindcă nici aceste state nu vor dori să-i aibă ca vecini pe Americani, care să-i cumpere mai apoi şi pe ei. Cine acceptă să fie sclavi, sunt tocmai europenii, care prin intermediul Nato, au devenit mănuşa păpuşarului care i se potriveşte perfect.

Aşadar, se extinde războiul încet, fără mare tărăboi, deocamdată. Peste câteva săptămâni, sau câteva luni, se va întâmpla o tragedie. Atunci se va schimba totul...

Leadershipul este virtutea care deschide posibilitatea de a controla un teritoriu, fără să-l cucerești cu arma sau cu forța, ci doar printr-un soi de influență spirituală.

În concluzie, o tragedie iminentă poate transforma complet traiectoria destinului unei persoane, redefinind scopul, relațiile și percepția asupra siguranței. Aceste schimbări pot aduce o nouă perspectivă asupra vieții și pot deschide calea către o existență mai profundă și mai autentică. Aici se întrezăresc trei coordonate ale evoluţiei omului: "scopul și direcția vieții, percepția asupra siguranței și stabilității, relațiile și conexiunile umane".

Cum se începe un război mondial? Simplu. Prin lăcomia și lipsa de credință a oamenilor, adică prin extinderea teritoriilor și prin manipularea resurselor și influențelor geopolitice cu scopul îmbogăţirii.

Un eveniment tragic, cum ar fi războiul mondial, poate determina o reevaluare a priorităților omenirii. Ceva ce părea nesemnificativ înainte, poate părea esenţial acum, iar noi scopuri, poate mai profunde și mai semnificative, pot apărea. Oamenii vor urma un drum mai altruist, dedicându-se cauzelor sociale sau spirituale.

Sentimentul de siguranță poate fi profund zguduit. Orice persoană poate deveni mai conștientă de fragilitatea vieții și a circumstanțelor, ceea ce poate duce la un nou nivel de precauție, dar și la o apreciere mai mare pentru momentele de liniște și bucurie. Această conștientizare poate conduce la schimbări în modul în care persoana abordează riscurile și oportunitățile.

Cum se nasc faptele mari

On Ianuarie 25, 2009

Pune-ţi la încercare performanţele, fără să practici un leadership opus oricăror forme de excelenţă.

Ai urmărit partea a patra a filmului „Indiana Jones"? Este un film excepţional pe care ţi-l recomand cu toată încrederea. O replică din film mi-a atras în mod special atenţia. La un moment dat, Indiana Jones împreună cu fiul său intră accidental cu motocicleta într-o bibliotecă şi se răstoarnă.

Înainte de a se urca din nou pe motocicletă şi de a-şi continua drumul, un student îl recunoaşte pe Indiana (care era profesorul său favorit) şi îl întreabă ceva legat de un anumit model de cultură a lui Hardgrove.

Fiindcă nu avea deloc timp de pierdut, Indiana Jones îi răspunde pe fugă studentului foarte preocupat cu studiul:

- Lasă-l pe Hardgrove... Pentru a putea deveni un bun arheolog, trebuie să ieşi din bibliotecă !

Leadership: Hotărârea de a nu mai repeta aceeaşi acţiune fără sens se continuă cu prezenţa unei dualităţi între natura ta firească şi natura ta nevoită?

Natura firească a omului este o continuă perfecţionare prin educaţie, prin acceptarea valorilor ştiinţei şi ale tehnicii, prin cultivarea spiritul inventiv şi aplicativ, prin folosirea eficientă a cunoaşterii, prin afirmarea originalităţii, prin promovarea unicităţii şi a noului.

În timp ce natura nevoită a omului are ca element constitutiv drumul parcurs de la cultivarea propriei persoane drept rădăcină a orice altceva, până la consumul de cunoaştere şi exploatarea rezultatelor schimburilor de experienţă într-un context de evoluţie.

Leadershipului de calitate i se opune în mod logic şi firesc tot ceea ce poţi ignora prin cunoaştere. Cunoaşterea îţi furnizează o doză importantă de imaginaţie, îţi dă un imbold de performanţă, îţi dă libertate de gândire, dar în acelaşi timp îţi poate îngrădi libertatea de mişcare şi iniţiativele. Dacă cunoaşterea nu este folosită la capacitate maximă, dacă este lipsită de o aplicativitate practică – atunci este tot atât de inacceptabilă în leadership cum este un laptop fără tastatură pentru un informatician.

Acest tip de cunoaştere – inactivă, mai mult de design - poate conduce la o falsificare a realităţii, la îngrădirea abilităţilor tale practice de care nu eşti pe deplin conştient sau pe care nu le-ai pus la încercare. Şi dacă îţi faci o mândrie din această cunoaştere statică, aşa cum câte un începător de arte marţiale pretinde să fie admirat pentru faptul că îşi educă mintea şi voinţa, care e însă totdeauna mult subiectiv din punct de vedere al performanţei – s-ar putea să te trezeşti fără un punct de sprijin, s-ar putea ca reuşitele tale să se transforme într-un şir lung de amăgiri.

Leadership: Îţi modelezi evoluţia iniţiativelor tale, ghidându-te după condiţiile necesare percepţiei clarvăzătoare asupra modului cum să te abaţi de la "cursul firesc al evenimentelor"?

Te poţi abate de la cursul firesc al evenimentelor doar dacă încetezi să te afunzi într-o cunoaştere care se desfăşoară strict în elementele estompate ale visului sau ale iluziilor. Percepţia clarvăzătoare îţi poate trasa o direcţie adevărată de afirmare personală, te ajută să reacţionezi într-un anumit mod anumit contra tendinţelor de izolare într-o realitate virtuală, numai dacă întreţii procesul de identificare şi de integrare a tuturor informaţiilor primite cu ajutorul simţurilor, intuititei, interpretărilor de situaţii.

Cunoaşterea adevărată este ceea ce poţi percepe cu ajutorul simţurilor prin intermediul a ceea ce îţi oferă experienţele trăite la limită.

Cunoaşterea fără o bază morală şi fără o atitudine practică conduce la un leadership formalist, dacă putem spune aşa (sub orice formă a lui, de la concret la abstract, de la ceva palpabil la ceva aparent); este o problemă de responsabilitate până la urmă, căci astfel apare ca un leadership nerealist, mediocru, opus oricăror forme de excelenţă.

A dispune de multă cunoaştere fără a o utiliza în mod corespunzător în practică este ca şi cum te-ai închide într-un cocon. Doar capul îţi mai rămâne afară. Picioarele, mâinile, inima îţi sunt îngropate, inutilizabile. Cu ochii închişi, te arunci în hibernare – un fel de formă de viaţă suspendată despre care ştii că s-ar putea prelungi la nesfârşit.

Ai curajul să-ţi evaluezi nivelul de excelenţă punându-ţi în practică cunoaşterea? Sau îţi suspenzi leadershipul din funcţia de bază pe care trebuie s-o îndeplinească?

Leadership: Refuzul de a acționa în virtutea caracteristicilor tale înnăscute, are ca rezultat "predarea" ta în captivitatea unei mentalități care este compatibilă cu ideea de finitudine?

Teoria se asimilează numai prin practică. Îţi sugerez să urmezi şi tu sfatul lui Indiana Jones: treci la acţiune, nu pierde vremea inutil stând numai cu nasul în cărţi. Nu vei putea niciodată să ajungi un lider adevărat, nu vei reuşi niciodată să realizezi fapte măreţe, demne de atenţia şi admiraţia tuturor oamenilor, dacă nu eşti dispus să îţi petreci o mare parte din timp pe teren. Din cărţi poţi afla nespus de multe lucruri, poţi asimila numeroase cunoştinţe - însă rezultatele le poţi obţine numai prin punerea lor în practică.

Gândeşte-te la orice realizare celebră înfăptuită de un singur individ sau de un grup de indivizi. De exemplu la piramida lui Kheops. Nu trebuie să te documentezi prea mult ca să realizezi că, pentru a se putea construi acest monument rămas pentru eternitate, a fost nevoie de mai mult decât de cunoştinţe tehnice solide. A fost nevoie de punerea în practică a cunoştinţelor teoretice, a planurilor concepute minuţios de către specialişti. De altfel, nicio operă valoroasă nu ar fi putut fi vreodată realizată dacă artiştii s-ar fi rezumat doar la asimilarea cunoştinţelor.

Leadershipul este o punere în practică a ideilor, atitudinilor, competenţelor şi comportamentelor care fac din tine acea fiinţă complexă care ştie să transforme felurite nuanţe ale unei revelaţii de tipul "eşti ceea ce te face măreţ sau infim" într-un singur tot numit: "ansamblu integrat de cunoştinţe."

Punerea în practică a cunoştinţelor îţi oferă cea mai bună ocazie de a-ţi transforma leadershipul într-o capodoperă, într-o comoară nepreţuită. Însă cu cât obiectivele tale sunt mai ambiţioase, cu atât va fi nevoie de mai multă practică susţinută. Prin urmare, implică-te cu mai multă convingere în rolul activ si esenţial pe care îl ai în sprijinirea leadershipului pe care îl practici, dacă vrei într-adevăr ca el să evolueze. Îţi vei putea îndeplini obiectivele numai dacă vei fi dispus să te implici cu mai mult sârg în munca practică din teren.

Despre finitudine, filozoful francez Jean-Luc Nancy scria că ea se dă gîndirii în primul rînd ca limită. "Limita este capătul, extremitatea dincolo de care nu mai există nimic – nimic, cel puțin din lucrul sau din ființarea la limita cărora s-a ajuns. Limita este capătul în măsura în care ea pune capăt, în care sancționează o încheiere care este totodată o încetare și o întrerupere dacă nimic nu vine să justifice de drept survenirea acestui sfârşit."

O mentalitate poate fi compatibilă cu ideea de finitudine atunci când nu poate să preia controlul asupra principalului avantaj competitiv: de a avea acces la informaţie şi a şti cum să utilizeze informaţia care să-i permită să efectueze adaptările necesare evoluţiei sale.

Îndrăzneşti să părăseşti zona de confort? Napoleon Bonaparte, care a petrecut o lungă perioadă de timp pe câmpul de luptă, spunea: " Nu ajunge să-i cunoşti pe oameni din cărţi ca să-i studiezi, trebuie să trăieşti cu ei. "

Succesul lui Napoleon s-a datorat în mare parte punerii în practică a cunoştinţelor dobândite, a ideilor valoroase obţinute din cărţile vremurilor de atunci. Dar studierea cărţilor n-a însemnat pentru el decât punctul de plecare pentru dezvoltarea abilităţilor şi competenţelor de lider. Căci pentru a câştiga o bătălie el a trebuit să părăsească zona de confort şi să lupte de multe ori în prima linie cu infanteria.

Napoleon n-ar fi putut câştiga în veci o bătălie şi n-ar fi putut ajunge niciodată un geniu militar dacă ar fi rămas doar cu... teoria.

Pune-ţi la încercare performanţele fără să practici un leadership nerealist, opus oricăror forme de excelenţă.

Cum se obţine succesul

On Februarie 13, 2009

Menţine o constantă loialitate faţă de rădăcinile tale cele mai adânci, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete o valabilitate extinsă.

Celebrul conducător Ginghis Han a crescut într-o lume ostilă; în copilărie a asistat la uciderea tatălui său, a stat în captivitate mai bine de cinci ani, s-a confruntat cu ameninţarea foametei şi a bolilor, soţia sa, pe care o iubea nespus de mult a fost răpită. A fost singur pe drumuri străine mulţi ani.

Dar toate aceste greutăţi nu l-au dărâmat nici fizic nici psihic, ci i-au călit caracterul. Ginghis Han a pus bazele unei naţiuni mongole unite, a introdus ţinerea de scripte, a încurajat învăţătura şi a inventat schimbul de informaţii secrete, inedit la acea dată.

Leadership: Cât de strâns legat eşti de rădăcinile tale spirituale încât să poţi realiza o schimbare la nivel global printr-un act de voinţă liberă?

Leadershipul lui Ginghis Han cutremură prin caracterul lui realist, foarte dur. Felul cum el vedea lumea a găsit un atât de imens răsunet în acea perioadă tulbure, tocmai fiindcă stările sale sufleteşti, pe care a reuşit să şi le controleze cu stricteţe, împreună cu viziunea lui largă şi îndrăzneaţă, au avut o anumită obiectivitate. Leadershipul său a căpătat astfel o valabilitate extinsă, strâns legată de rădăcinile sale spirituale, întreţinută de convingerile sale puternice.

Practic el a făcut o călătorie spre o realitate alternativă de cea care i-a fost impusă de condiţiile vremii. O călătorie spre propria lui fiinţă, spre propria lui dezvoltare spirituală, dând astfel tonul unei realităţi personale persistente care a reprezentat tocmai miza destinului său. Rugile sale de om predestinat unei dominații absolute erau adresate unui Dumnezeu care nu încetează să trezească, să purifice, să transfigureze o lume de mult apusă. Care judecă, dar şi consumă contrariile cu unitatea Lui transcendentă.

Atitudinea lui curajoasă în faţa unei realităţi dureroase care îi depăşea oarecum puterea de înţelegere, punându-i la zid capacităţile de acceptare a unui destin improbabil – i-a solicitat interesul pentru scopurile sale şi pentru modalitatea în care le putea atinge, menţinându-i o constantă loialitate faţă de rădăcinile sale cele mai adânci, faţă de orizontul în care el însuşi s-a aşezat pentru a-şi construi şi întări propria lui „ontologie".

Leadership: Tu accepţi să rămâi captiv într-o realitate ostilă, fără să te ridici la înălţimea pe care Dumnezeu a pregătit-o şi a hotărât-o pentru toţi cei care îşi propun să recreeze o întreagă lume?

Pune-te pentru o clipă în ipostaza unei regine de termite care zace în celula regală a muşuroiului. Eşti captiv în propria existenţă, incapabil să-ţi mişti voinţa, fiind ţintuit sub propria greutate spirituală. Nu vei putea niciodată să evadezi din această cavernă, să reuşeşti să te târăşti afară prin pasajele înguste de piatră şi prin tunele decât dacă accepţi să-ţi schimbi convingerile, dacă îţi depăşeşti dimensiunea Ego-ului pe care l-ai creat în subconştient.

Salvarea lui Ginghis Han a însemnat o despărţire de realitatea ostilă care îl înconjura şi-l ţinea prizonier în conştiinţa neputinţei. A fost o dovadă de progres şi eficienţă, de deschidere faţă de un alt plan spiritual, printr-o apropiere mai strânsă de propriile trăiri sufleteşti, de acele elemente ale unei realităţi benefice care îi conferea leadershipului său strălucire, profunzime şi creştere.

Cel mai cunoscut citat aparţinând lui Ginghis Han sună în felul următor: "Eu sunt pedeapsa lui Dumnezeu pentru voi. Dacă nu aţi fi comis păcate atât de mari, Dumnezeu nu ar fi trimis o asemenea pedeapsă asupra voastră."

Accepţi să rămâi prizonier într-o lume întunecată şi neplăcută, în care opţiunile personale lipsesc? Sau încerci să găseşti codul de intrare într-o realitate paralelă – benefică ţie? Poţi să faci saltul spre o nouă etapă de dezvoltare, spre o nouă viziune, dinamică, activă, transformatoare?

Singurul sistem de ghidare al minții în direcția țelurilor cele mai importante are ca element declanşator eliberarea de suferinţă, o eliberare totală care vine odată cu trăirea experienţei a ceea ce Eşti cu Adevărat dincolo de limita resemnării și asumării fatalității.

Abilitatea de a conduce nu se dezvoltă peste noapte, ci în timp. Vremurile grele în care a trăit şi toate suferinţele îndurate au avut rolul de a-l întări în credinţă pe Ginghis Han, l-au călit, l-au cizelat şi l-au pregătit pentru ceea ce urma să înfăptuiască. Timpul şi obstacolele pe care le-a întâmpinat i-au dezvăluit talentele ascunse, oferindu-i un scop în viaţă. Şi a meritat. Ginghis Han a devenit un mare conducător, probabil cel mai mare cuceritor din toate timpurile, chiar mai mare decât Alexandru cel Mare din punct de vedere al teritoriilor cucerite.

Unii oameni au, ca şi plantele, însuşiri ascunse pe care de multe ori numai împrejurările grele le scot la iveală. Succesul în conducere nu se poate obţine decât cu răbdare şi nădejde. Poate de aceea foarte mulţi oameni nu ajung în posturi înalte de conducere, pentru că se grăbesc să urce în vârful piramidei fără să fie îndeajuns de căliţi din punct de vedere profesional pentru a face faţă provocărilor şi problemelor.

Nu-ţi vei putea duce la capăt misiunea dacă nu eşti răbdător, dacă nu dai timp caracterului tău să se formeze. Răsplata va fi fără margini doar dacă vei fi suficient de bine pregătit moral şi spiritual şi îndeajuns de îndrăzneţ pentru a face pasul spre măreţie.

Menţine o constantă loialitate faţă de rădăcinile tale cele mai adânci, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete o valabilitate extinsă.

Realitatea pe care trebuie să ţi-o asumi este că singura modalitate de a te desprinde din strânsoarea neputinţei de a răzbi într-o lume rece şi vitregă este să-ţi găseşti un motiv bun pentru a-ţi alimenta şi mai mult înverşunarea în credinţa ta.

Cum se obţine succesul? Prin sacrificiul de a te pierde înainte de a te regăsi. Mai întâi te vei încurca prin iţele neîncrederii, abandonului, resemnării, apoi îţi vei găsi un motiv raţional să te schimbi prin stimularea unei realităţi totale de acţiune.

Cum te poziţionezi faţă de schimbare?

On Ianuarie 10, 2009

Învaţă să ceri de la tine însuţi mult mai mult decât înainte, refuzând normele de referinţă ale circumstanţelor cauzei care te determină să fii altcineva.

Sixin i-a spus lui Caotang: "Natura i-a înzestrat pe oameni cu sinceritate şi bunăvoinţă. Dacă încerci să-i forţezi, aceştia nu vor rezista mult timp. O persoană care are putere, dar nu este rezistentă, va fi tratată cu dispreţ şi va fi sfidată de către oamenii josnici.

În acelaşi fel, adevărul şi minciuna, binele şi răul le avem de la natură şi nici unul nu poate fi schimbat. Numai oamenii cu o fire echilibrată, care pot comunica cu cei înţelepţi, dar nu numai, merită numele de profesor." (Thomas Cleary - Lecţii Zen)

Leadershipul dictează mersul lucrurilor, până la un punct – punctul în care dai greş, atunci când răul pune stăpânire pe tine mai mult decât te poate proteja binele. Numai integritatea menţine mersul lucrurilor pe drumul cel bun, în ciuda nenumăratelor distrageri. Iar a accepta făţiş încălcarea adevărului, este ca şi cum ai trece dintr-o încăpere întunecoasă în alta şi mai întunecoasă, apoi într-alta, şi tot aşa până ce întunericul devine tot mai negru, tot mai dens, iar lumina dătătoare de înţelepciune şi tărie de caracter dispare complet din hăţişurile minţii tale.

Cu ce îţi înzestrezi leadershipul pentru a uşura acceptarea schimbării? Bine spunea cineva pe internet: "Lumea va continua să oglindească ceea ce refuzi să accepţi şi să transformi la tine însuţi, până în clipa când vei restabili contactul cu părţile negate sau necunoscute ale fiinţei tale."

Practic, circumstanţele cauzei care te determină să fii altcineva sunt date de acele raporturi dintre elemente ce contravin oricărei logici şi normelor recunoscute de cinste şi bun-simţ. În timp ce normele de referinţă ale circumstanţelor care favorizează manifestarea unei cauze sau alta, ţin de natura ta spirituală care receptează morala (învăţătura vieţii) şi de contextul în care îţi vindeci şabloanele emoţionale care te ţin blocat sau care te încurcă în dezvoltarea ta.

Leadership: Poţi să numeşti factorul cu cel mai mare impact asupra formării unei noi percepţii de sine, în contextul unei modificări a circumstanţelor în care te găseşti şi a felului în care răspunzi la tot ce se întâmpla în jurul tău ?

Schimbarea şi adaptarea permanentă la provocările vieţii este un proces în care liderul are rolul esenţial. În primul rând el trebuie să fie bine ancorat în realitatea obiectivă şi trebuie să posede acele capacităţi de intuire a viitorului şi de evaluare a consecinţelor viitoare are faptelor prezentului. Acceptarea schimbării – proces uneori îndelungat - presupune o creştere a puterii de influenţă a liderului asupra oamenilor, şi totodată depinde de abilităţile lui în ceea ce priveşte cunoaşterea oamenilor şi, de ce nu, chiar manipularea lor.

Factorul de mare impact este disponibilitatea ta de a te implica şi de a face paşii necesari într-o anumită direcţie, fără să forţezi limitele vitezei pe care o suportă discernământul tău. Schimbarea nu se poate impune cu forţa şi chiar dacă acest lucru aparent este posibil, este o schimbare de suprafaţă şi nu de esenţă. Atunci când un lider reuşeşte să inducă în fiecare om modificarea modului de gândire şi de acţiune, atunci apare spontan dorinţa lăuntrică de schimbare a lui.

Schimbarea pe care o impui este una de suprafaţă sau de esenţă? Cum modifici modul de gândire şi de acţiune al celor din jur? Le împărtăşeşti scopul tău şi îi ajuţi să îl atingă pe al lor? Cum îi faci părtaşi la visul tău? Ai dorinţa să faci ceva mai mult pentru ei decât pentru tine? Care este acea mare calitate a ta, care o admiră ceilalţi din jur şi care le permite acestora să devină lideri de succes? Le spui oamenilor ce înseamnă cu adevărat să fii un lider?

Foarte important de subliniat aici: ştiu oamenii cât îi va costa să devină lideri? Dacă nu ştiu ce-i aşteaptă, atunci nu poţi şti cât de mult se vor angaja în acele activităţi în care ei înşişi se percep ca fiind eficienţi, competenţi.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi condiţionezi acţiunile să urmeze calea unei noi experienţe pline de discernământ ce are ca punct de referinţă echilibrul între ceea ce încerci să "forţezi" şi ceea ce "rezistă" timp îndelungat?

Nu forţa materialul să se modeleze după voinţa ta, ci lasă-ţi voinţa să se modeleze după context, şi după reperul de discernământ pe care nu vrei să-l ştergi din evidenţele tale. Sculptorii aleg rocile cele mai potrivite pentru operele lor viitoare, roci care sunt departe de a fi perfecte, ci au defecte vizibile şi defecte ascunse. Măiestria sculptorului va reuşi să anihileze defectele vizibile, dar nu şi pe cele ascunse.

Liderii cei mai iscusiţi caută şi ei să-şi desăvârşească menirea, modelând materialul brut din care este constituită fiinţă umană, asigurând dezvoltarea ei prin educaţie şi prin transmiterea propriilor valori şi standarde. Liderii au de modelat adulţi cu un "bagaj" de valori, standarde şi sentimente diferite, dar gata formate. Măiestria liderului constă în descoperirea acelor "părţi" bune, unele în stare nativă, altele apărute pe parcursul vieţii, din sufletul lor, după care trebuie să înceapă procesul de remodelare şi reeducare. Aceasta fiind adevărata "piatră de încercare" pentru un lider, căci educarea adulţilor este o muncă grea pentru care trebuie să dispui de tenacitate, disponibilitate şi metode adecvate.

Liderul trebuie să fie un model pentru ceilalţi. Un model de gândire, de comportament şi de acţiune care să se încadreze în "normalul" unanim acceptat. Totodată liderul, la rândul lui, generează modele de urmat contribuind la dezvoltarea unei culturi organizaţionale sănătoase.

Leadership: Impactul tău asupra unei succesiuni de schimbări radicale este unul de suprafaţă sau unul de profunzime, luând în considerare cazul când trebuie să te orientezi către o zonă compatibilă cu experienţa unei identităţi unitare?

Eşti pregătit să preiei ştafeta? John Maxwell făcea o precizare care merită subliniată: "Dacă ştii pe cine ai în vedere pentru înzestrare şi în ce scop o faci, eşti pregătit să începi. Etapele care urmează te introduc în întregul proces. Se începe cu stabilirea unei relaţii cu potenţialii tăi lideri. Pornind de la această bază, poţi construi un program pentru dezvoltarea lor, le poţi dirija progresul, le poţi da autoritatea să îşi îndeplinească sarcinile şi îi poţi aduce în cele din urmă în faza în care să le predai ştafeta."

Iar eu te întreb, viitor lider: "Eşti pregătit să predai ştafeta?" Dacă nu, atunci cel mai probabil înseamnă că nu ai promovat o gândire şi un comportament care să ajute la recunoaşterea adevăratelor tale valori. Înseamnă, înainte de orice, că impactul tău este unul de suprafaţă, şi nu de profunzime.

Nu uita că leadershipul începe cu omul din tine, al cărui comportament trebuie să fie uşor de acceptat şi de înţeles, deci coerent, îndreptat spre satisfacerea necesităţilor individuale sau ale celorlalţi oameni, în nici într-un caz cu poziţia pe care o ocupi. Leadershipul începe, întotdeauna, cu modul tău de gândire – singurul care te ajută să înaintezi pe terenul abrupt al schimbărilor care se petrec cu repeziciune, singurul care poate atrage aprobarea sau dispreţul, simpatia sau antipatia celorlalţi oameni.

Poţi excela în vremuri de tranziţie? Te dezvolţi în aşa fel încât să devii un lider eficient, chiar şi în timpuri grele? Faci în aşa fel încât ţelurile tale să fie realizabile? Care este modelul de gândire care te poate ajuta cel mai mult în situaţii dificile? Cum îţi răsplăteşti progresele proprii? Ai putea trăi cu experienţa eşecului?

Experienţa unei identităţi unitare presupune luarea în considerare a mai multor calităţi şi virtuţi care împreună pot să producă o schimbare de proporţii, dar care nu trebuie să omită controlul conştiinţei asupra oricărui stimul sau factor extern.

Cum te poziţionezi faţă de schimbare: printr-un check-in al Sinelui care să te ajute să distingi Binele de Rău, sau prin revenirea la condiţia iniţială (de ignoranţă sau credinţă falsă) ?

Progresul dirijabil al leadershipului marchează schimbările impuse de lider, fără forţă, în vederea atingerii obiectivelor propuse. După cum poliţistul care dirijează circulaţia poate face semn cu braţul ca vehiculul să avanseze, să depăşească, să treacă prin faţa ori prin spatele său, să-l ocolească prin partea stânga sau dreapta, iar pietonii să traverseze drumul ori să se oprească – tot aşa şi liderul, ca să poată adăuga valoare leadershipului, trebuie să dirijeze comportamentul, inclusiv eforturile, în scopul de a stabili şi dezvolta relaţii armonioase cu toate persoanele din jur.

Cum transformi un Theodor Dreiser într-un Emile Zola?

On August 7, 2011

Eliminarea redundanțelor narative în analiza monologului interior poate facilita o înțelegere mai profundă a structurilor fundamentale ale conștiinței.

Pentru regizorul rus Serghei Eisenstein, interesul constă tocmai în clarificarea crimei ca rezultat al relațiilor sociale și al influențelor societății asupra personajului Clyde Griffith. Problema lui Eisenstein este să transforme un Theodor Dreiser într-un Emile Zola, oferind o perspectivă naturalistă asupra tragediei. Îl fascinează jocul fatalității – o temă obsesivă în opera sa. Este o forță mecanică, implacabilă, care de data aceasta ia forma mașinăriei juridice. Justiția devine un sistem inexorabil ce îl macină pe Clyde, sfărâmându-l între roțile sale și întorcând împotriva lui fiecare element pe care l-a construit pentru a se ridica și a se salva.

Împreună cu Ivor Montagu, Eisenstein începe o muncă uriașă de adaptare. Elimină stufozitatea romanului, reinterpretând anumite fapte și adâncind analiza psihologică a lui Clyde, mai ales în scena din barcă. Inventează noi situații, mută interesul procesului juridic către problemele electorale, schimbă traiectoria unor personaje și elimină complet altele. Mai mult, aplică pentru prima dată ideile sale despre monologul interior, care devine un procedeu cinematografic esențial: aparatul de filmat pătrunde în sufletul și gândirea personajului Clyde, dezvăluind structurile fundamentale ale conștiinței sale.

Eisenstein este fascinat de soluțiile găsite, declarând: „Forma monologului interior s-a născut. Chiar și literatura este mai lipsită de puteri în acest domeniu decât filmul.

Leadership: Ce impact au interacțiunile sociale asupra personalității și deciziilor tale, având în vedere că fiecare element contribuie la un echilibru tragic final?

În analiza socială a crimei, fiecare element contribuie la fatalitatea destinului lui Clyde. Fiecare caracteristică a personajului este modelată de interacțiunile sociale din jur, iar rezultatul final este un echilibru tragic impus de mecanisme juridice care acționează implacabil, dincolo de controlul lui individual. Justiția, asemenea unei mașinării complexe, pune în mișcare roți și pârghii care sfărâmă psihologic individul, forțându-l să devină o victimă a propriei ambiții.

La Eisenstein, interesul constă în clarificarea crimei ca un rezultat inevitabil al interacțiunilor sociale, asemenea modului în care funcționează un sistem complex, unde fiecare element este modelat de forțele externe. Fatalitatea care îl fascinează devine o forță mecanică implacabilă, asemănătoare unei mașinării de jurisprudență care îl macină inexorabil pe Clyde Griffith, "sfărâmându-l sub roțile ei automate" și punând în mișcare pârghii ce întorc împotriva lui fiecare element pe care acesta l-a construit pentru a se ridica.

Cum spuneam, impreună cu Ivor Montagu, Eisenstein începe o muncă de decorticare a detaliilor, eliminând redundanțele romanului și adâncind analiza psihologică a lui Clyde. Asemenea unui inginer care studiază mecanismele unui sistem complex, Eisenstein restructurează narațiunea, mutând centrul de greutate al procesului asupra aspectelor sociale și electorale, aplicând pentru prima dată monologul interior ca metodă cinematografică. În acest mod, Eisenstein dezvăluie nu doar circumstanțele exterioare, ci și structurile interne care determină destinul personajului.

Leadershipul vizionar implică reconstrucția narativă a realității pentru relevarea adevărurilor profunde, conectând destinul individual la contextul social care îl modelează.

Cum transformi un Theodor Dreiser într-un Emile Zola? Clarificând conexiunile sociale și intensificând analiza cauzalității faptelor. Esența naturalismului zolist constă în evidențierea relației dintre individ și societate, iar Eisenstein urmărește să accentueze conflictul dintre Clyde și lumea care îl înconjoară. Din acest motiv, eliminarea redundanțelor și aprofundarea psihologiei personajelor creează o adaptare cinematografică ambițioasă, îmbogățită de o corelație puternică cu contextul social și emoțional al personajelor.

Cum vă place

On Aprilie 11, 2016

Anunţă ceva nou, dar nu-ţi lua sarcina de a-l şi spune.

Voiam să-mi fac o idee vagă despre ceva anume, înainte de a-l cuprinde, într-un soi de proces de reinventare a unui spaţiu marginalizat. De parcă aş fi fost încuiat într-o cameră din care puteam să evadez doar după un anumit timp, în general o oră, timp în care trebuia să încerc să-mi reiau cursul normal al vieţii.

Faptul acesta ciudat, oarecum amestecat, învălmăşit cu gândul asupra situaţiei atipice în care mă aflam, îmi oferea aproape un motiv temeinic de a lua în considerare, în mod serios, opţiunea de a reveni unde eram înainte. Într-o pură coincidenţă cu un interval de incertitudine care anunţa ceva nou.

Nimeni nu caută să exprime ceva care poate la fel de bine să însemne altceva, chiar dacă prin relaţia sa cu ştiinţa, aderând la un alt model de gândire, ar putea foarte uşor să-l conceapă în afara graniţelor acceptabilului. Straniu, asta te pune pe gânduri. Înseamnă o rupere constantă de reperul finit "stay where you are" şi integrarea într-o constantă de transformare, greu de acceptat, numită "găseşte înainte de a căuta".

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi găseşti desăvârşirea în funcție de apartenenţa la o creaţie dobândită pe parcursul căutării adevărurilor neştiute despre tine?

Cu alte cuvinte, eram căutătorul unor semnificaţii ascunse atribuite lucrurilor care mă înconjurau dintr-o lume în care mă regăseam perfect, pe care o uitasem, şi pe care numai scrisul mi-o reamintise. Nu ştiam exact ce subiect să abordez, nu ştiam cu ce să încep, căutam răspunsuri la întrebări atipice, făceam tot felul de conexiuni între diferite fapte şi evenimente, dar totul părea a fi mai mult un prilej de a experimenta dimensiunea spaţiului unei lumi fără sens.

Când vrei să spui ceva mai întâi începi cu o observaţie, de exemplu "Casa aceea are culoarea verde". Dar adevărata provocare este să descoperi ce anume se află în casă, fără să-i cunoşti interiorul. Aici este cheia întregii viziuni şi creaţii ce intră într-un joc de cuvinte încrucişate, un joc de-a baba oarbă, deoarece aici se cristalizează toate motivele esenţiale ale reuşitei în activitatea literară. Trebuie să te transpui în pielea celui care locuieşte în casa respectivă, gândindu-te la el aşa cum te gândeşti la tine.

Ceea ce nu ştiam despre mine, dar pe care trebuia să-l includ într-o realitate literară, era ca o compunere de tipul "ce aş face dacă aş locui într-o casă căreia nu i-am trecut niciodată pragul?" Cuvintele ducelui de Richelieu adresate marchizului de Chauvelin rămân şi acum întipărite în memoria mea: "Am anunţat ceva nou, e adevărat. Dar nu-mi iau sarcina de a-l şi spune."

Este şi aici un fel de măiestrie, fiind în acord cu existenţa unei logici care încearcă să prindă sensul unui orizont neaşteptat, o logică care este nu atât a raţiunii, cât a sentimentului, a fanteziei, a inducerii curiozităţii, într-o lume a jocului de-a „Cum vă place".

Prilejul de a controla cursul acestui joc îndoielnic, culminând prin însăşi explicarea lui alături de o formă aparte de receptivitate, întrea atâtea criterii străine de logică, interpretate după felul în care cunoaşterea se raporta la mine, mi se oferea ori de câte ori încercam să descopăr un aspect nou al personalităţii mele.

Leadership: Ceea ce oamenilor li se pare că tu le oferi, este de fapt ceea ce ei înşişi trebuie să descopere într-un cadru al realităţii pe care o caută gândirea ta?

Întotdeauna omul care își pune la încercare capacitatea de a exprima ceva abstract, recurge la un anumit grad de exagerare. Evoluţia lui se produce în momentul când realizează că el însuși determină totul, sub presiunea internă a genialităţii de a contribui la schiţarea decorului a ceva greu de aflat, dar al cărui referinţă pătrunde adânc în conştiinţa celorlalţi ca fiind o caracteristică a noului. Şi, totodată, o caracteristică a propriei lor naturi.

Pentru ca oamenii să acorde interes contextului extins al „noului", ei trebuie să-şi facă o idee vagă despre ceva anume, înainte de a-l cuprinde. Ceea ce lor li se pare că tu le oferi, este de fapt ceea ce ei înşişi trebuie să descopere într-un cadru al realităţii pe care o caută gândirea ta. Acesta este principiul ce stă la baza artei scriitoriceşti şi a persuasiunii, constituind expresia unui proces de extindere a ceea ce percep oamenii odată cu intrarea într-o lume a jocului de-a „Cum vă place".

Singurul cadru al realităţii pe care o cauta gândirea mea era efectul de cultură, un fragment dintr-o scriere în cadrul căruia se găsea un cuvânt, o expresie, un pasaj interesant despre o întâlnire cu acea parte din mine dornică să cunoască lumi noi.

Şocul experienței „noului" rămâne unul hotărâtor, constând într-o amânare sau chiar anulare a judecăţii. Fără un răspuns clar, fără un mesaj ușor de înțeles, omul se pierde în spaţiile vagi ale unor utopii de alternanţă, insondabilul devenind pentru el o realitate ascunsă. Efectul este unul reușit, neaşteptat de puternic, deoarece se instalează senzația de a afla mai multe.

Cel care mânuieşte arta scriitoricească şi arta persuasiunii se ghidează deseori după următorul principiu: „Anunţă ceva nou, dar nu-ţi lua sarcina de a-l şi spune ! "

Cu alte cuvinte, lasă-i pe oameni să fie cu adevărat campioni, să descopere ce li se potriveşte, să pătrundă esenţa spuselor tale în funcţie de natura lor. Campionii se ghidează în viaţă după următorii termeni: Vreau ! Știu ! Pot !

Leadership: Imaginea ineditului pe care îl plasezi în centrul atenţiei, devine partea care îi întregeşte pe oamenii care îţi pot prelungi realitatea datorită contactului menţinut cu ceea ce se ascunde în interiorul tău?

Un scriitor bun este un practicant nemaipomenit al persuasiunii, străduindu-se să te convingă tot timpul de adevărurile și autenticitatea ideilor sale. El știe cum gândește fiecare cititor al său: „Ceva lipsește din această ecuație, dar ca să aflu trebuie musai să mă încadrez în ea."

Un scriitor va încerca mai întâi să sporească percepţia lipsei tale de control, prin introducerea efectului de aglomerare de elemente care să-ţi consume sau să-ți îngrădească spaţiul de înțelegere. Pentru ca tu - cititorul - să intri mai adânc în subiect, în miezul lucrurilor, și să te străduieşti să descoperi un sens care să te anime şi care să te facă să alegi ceva de folos, în concordanţă cu logica interioară a desfăşurării tale în joc.

Prin apelul la ceea ce nu se cunoaşte, sau nu este foarte clar exprimat, se generează în oameni impulsul de revoltă împotriva propriilor reguli. Măsura și imaginea ineditului care trebuie înfruntat devenind „partea care îi întregeşte". Cititorii trebuie să se autoincludă de la bun început în harta realităţii tale, în interiorul a ceea ce exprimi, iar în timp ce menţin contactul cu ţine ei trebuie să valideze orice spui printr-o reacţie de tipul: "Asta e ceea ce vreau să cred" sau "Asta e ceea ce simt despre asta".

Leadershipul este percepţia pe care o ai despre ceea ce trebuie să incluzi sau să elimini dintr-o realitate care poate fi oricând contestată.

Cum vă place indică reperele unei perspective de definire a ineditului, în lipsa unor concepte integratoare în contextul căruia a fost plasat. Ineditul este ceea ce exprimi prin scris care devine constatare neaşteptată şi o noţiune atrăgătoare a creaţiei literare menită să cadă sub incidenţa verosimilului, fără a stârni vii controverse în rândul criticilor.

Succesul tău ca scriitor și ca lider depinde de felul cum oamenii gestionează mesajele pe care le primesc în virtutea unei logici inanalizabile și în limitele pe care le impune experiența introducerii noului - ceva care uneori lasă să se vadă puţin, dar din care se extrage mult mai mult.

Cunoscătorul misterelor şi maestrul labirinturilor

On Noiembrie 14, 2013

Caută să priveşti din alt unghi misiunea descoperitorului din tine, ca să poţi accede la o nouă înţelegere a relaţiei dintre leadership şi ştiinţă.

Gânduri dezlănţuite îmi umpleau mintea lucidă, conştientul devenind o ramură a trăirilor complexe. Totul se stingea înaintea ochilor, mărturia vie a dezorientării profunde care provoca halucinaţii puternice şi înfricoşătoare, deformând imaginea realului. Căci o parte nesupravegheată din mine, un personaj nou din mintea mea se înălţase nestingherit atât de mult în sferele transfigurării şi iluminării încât aproape că aş fi putut cuprinde toate legile existente pe acest pământ.

Îmi împlineam transformarea într-un spaţiu de libertate, printr-o trecere dincolo de neputinţă. Prin adoptarea unei forme noi, distincte şi particulare de " a fi " care ajungea în contexte care nu îmi erau familiare. De parcă toţi demonii din capul meu, închişi într-o viziune dincolo de intelect, concretizată în imagini pline de vitalitate ale unui viitor inevitabil, ar fi fost legaţi de o forţă invizibilă care îmi paraliza voinţa de a-mi da seama ce se întâmplă.

Ieşirea din labirint se face cu firul Ariadnei, simbolizând o minte ageră și spirit artistic, chiar dacă te simţi abandonat de lume, lovit sau nedreptăţit de o realitate mai presus de înţelegerea ta.

Într-un anumit fel, devenisem prizonierul propriilor mele iluzii, cine știe de ce este asta bine sau de ce este rău, orice eroare cognitivă sau perceptivă reprezentând o problemă de comunicare între pofta de a transgresa convenţionalul şi deprinderile de povestire a unui fragment contrastant din viaţa trăită în profunzimea unui scriitor care se izolează în anonimat.

Negreşit, această taină a imprevizibilului mă înconjura în permanenţă, tulburându-mi mintea, suspendand-o într-un real fortificat. Pătrunderea în labirintul contrariilor, îmbrăţişarea neştiutului, recreerea gândului care avea magia explorării inconştientului şi a eliberării de reguli fixe, mă puneau în dificultate. Căci începeam să descopăr fenomene pe lângă care trecusem cu nepăsare. Neîndoios, aventura în care pornisem, a cunoaşterii şi exploatării energiei subtile a aproximaţiilor, îmi orbea ochii - neobişnuiţi cu elementele de contrast care-mi distrăgeau atenţia.

Leadership: Îţi întăreşti înţelegerea depre tine însuţi în interiorul unei cunoaşteri care se dezvoltă prin construcţia conceptului de "narator care elucidează mistere în orizontul căutării unei lumi inteligibile" ?

Între ceea ce aşteptam de la o mare experienţă şi ceea ce reprezenta în realitate acea experienţă exista o legătură de sens invers, un imens sparge-val care tăia drumul al cărui capăt nu-l vedeam.

Două entităţi se găseau într-o relaţie one-to-one opţională la ambele capete ale firului care mă lega de un nou aspect al ştiinţei mele. Anume, o entitate identificabilă doar în câmpul fanteziei. Şi o entitate a cărei existenţă distinctă şi independentă, inclusiv prin expresia ei sugestivă, era în afara oricărei contestaţii şi constrângeri a prezentului. Oh, Doamne, ce mi-a fost dat să îndur?

Maşina minţii mele se deplasa spre un spaţiu privat, neconvenţional. Precum acei normans care, pierduţi în ceaţă, îşi duceau navele fantomatice spre nopţile fără zori din lumile hiperboreene, navigând mereu spre Apus, descoperind insule şi pământuri necunoscute. Iar în acest spaţiu privat, dând glas sentimentului unanim de comuniune cu viitorul prin posibil, toate elementele se adunau şi erau focusate pe ceea ce conta cu adevărat.

Probabil fenomenul, uluitor de nou, mă bântuia doar pentru că am vrut să ating esenţa cunoaşterii ezoterice. Deci, să acced la starea de om fenomenal. Iar setea de a mă plasa mental într-un viitor inaccesibil, într-un spaţiu al materiei subtile căruia numai savanţii îi puteau da viaţă, proiectându-mă în infinit, era semnul unei satisfacţii a recunoaşterii eforturilor enorme de dezvoltare.

Dar, dacă este adevărat ce spunea cineva, că dintr-o neputincioasă invaliditate vine nevoia transfigurării şi emergenţa unui imaginar fantasmatic, atunci eu eram produsul unei reacţii întârziate a dezorientării produse de forma mascată a unei tensiuni interne. Generate de încercarea disperată de a mă propulsa spre un nivel superior de evoluţie.

Leadership: Poţi să separi elementele constitutive ale relaţiei dintre cele două entităţi care generează întregul evoluţiei tale, fără să te adânceşti într-un cadru narativ în care firul principal al acţiunii e înlocuit de toate firele unei intrigi complexe?

Considerând că leadershipul poate fi identificat cu activitatea de asigurare a unei forme de povestire personală, cu aplicarea criteriului relevanţei la producţia de "accesorii" necesare saltului calitativ iminent spre receptarea noilor orizonturi de gândire, vom putea despuia orice raţiune care nu este aprinsă de sclipirea perfecţiunii unui scenariu care condiţionează înţelegerea vieţii. Sau, mai degrabă, de satisfacţia recunoaşterii eforturilor enorme de autodezvoltare.

A te adânci într-un cadru narativ în care firul principal al acţiunii e înlocuit de toate firele unei intrigi complexe înseamnă să scoţi la iveală dintr-un întreg de elemente interpretative acea singură opţiune de redare a unei realităţi concrete care permite cititorilor să se concentreze mai bine asupra fenomenului "A life that finds its focus".

Dar ce anume stăruie în sensul unei asemenea mişcări de ingeniozitate, în sensul tendinţelor de du-te-vino , relativizat, spre un bloc al cunoaşterii care nu este chiar atât de aproape de Arcul de Triumf al excelenţei în cercetarea ştiinţifică?

Ei bine, promovarea creşterii ponderii utilizării, în contexte nefamiliare, unor viziuni dincolo de intelect, concretizate în imagini pline de vitalitate ale unui viitor inevitabil. Aceasta este partea esenţială din procesul de atingere al unui real satisfăcător, asigurând eficient o formă de progres.

Leadership: Urmezi firul principal al unei acţiuni ce se ţese în jurul eroului unei scrieri care permite să fie recunoscută ca fiind a cuiva pus în situaţia de a se întreba: "Oare nu este prea abstract şi prea banal subiectul acesta?"

Orice desăvârşire absolută cuprinde în sine totalitatea posibilităţilor de combinare a elementelor reale şi imaginare, valorificate în sprijinul propriilor ipoteze şi demersuri de cercetare. Aplicând mecanismul opţiunii de a avea orizontul profesional cât mai larg, construind ramificaţiile unui arbore al viitorului, imagine utilizată cu predilecţie atunci când cauţi să reproduci în realitate vreo schemă nouă de gândire, vei putea domina orice neajunsuri de ordin ştiinţific care derivă în mod fundamental din cele două premise majore esenţiale: " pot " şi " nu pot ".

Două entităţi generează "întregul" evoluţiei tale. Una a prelucrării informaţiilor complexe, cealaltă a finisării perfecte a suprafeţei de cunoaştere care îţi reduce continuu limitările.

Dacă separi elementele constitutive ale relaţiei dintre ele, deci dacă pui ştiinţa sub semnul particularului sau a ambiguităţii, atunci nu vei reuşi niciodată să te autodepăşeşti şi să te convingi că a merge înainte este direcţia bună. Vrei să ai întotdeauna parte de noi provocări sau să pui în ecuaţia cercetării aceleaşi banalităţi?

Firul principal al unei acţiuni ce se ţese în jurul eroului unei scrieri de mare originalitate se răsuceşte în jurul ştiinţei de a crea o realitate transformată într-o intrigă cu totul neaşteptată care te ademeneşte să o parcurgi până la sfârşit.

Acţiunea este determinată de şirul povestirii constituită ca sursă de inspiraţie pentru înţelegerea reformatoare a unei mentalităţi distincte.

Cunoscătorul misterelor şi maestrul labirinturilor sunt două ipostaze ale naratorului care are curajul să se avânte spre experienţele de constituire a unei intrigi ce presupune o suită de peripeţii şi momente emoţionante, împletind toate acele elemente valoroase şi neştiute care fac din el însuşi o povestire.

Caută să priveşti din alt unghi această misiune a descoperitorului din tine. Lasă-te dominat de putinţa de a accede la o nouă înţelegere a lucrurilor, a relaţiei dintre leadership şi ştiinţă.

Numai cel ce navighează în spaţiul privat al materiei subtile va putea să creeze fundaţia indirectă a unei infrastructuri ce permite valorizarea particularului şi care conservă independenţa şi existenţa individuală a celor create întru dezvoltarea leadershipului.

Cutremur în topul performanţelor

On Octombrie 19, 2010

Descoperă resursele care fac echipa ta să funcţioneze sinergic, crescând nivelul calitativ al performanţelor tale.

"CUTREMUR la United după DEZASTRUL cu City ! Antrenorul scoţian de fotbal, Sir Alex Ferguson, dă afară din echipă doi SUPERJUCĂTORI ! "

Aşa suna un titlu de pe prima pagină a gazetelor de sport de la sfârşitul lunii octombrie. Presa engleză a scris că managerul lui Manchester United a decis să-i scoată din echipă în următoarele meciuri pe Ferdinand şi Evra, doi dintre cei mai importanţi jucători din istoria recentă a clubului de pe Old Traffrod.

Sir Alex Ferguson a fost nemulţumit de evoluţia celor doi, şi intenţiona să-i înlocuiască încă din etapa viitoare. Locul lor urmând a fi luat de Brazilianul Fabio, care va intra pe stânga, şi de Smalling care va trece în centru. [1]

Leadership: Imaginea ta permite manifestarea unei acțiuni concepută în acord cu obsesia unei reuşite fără margini, prin aceasta dorind manifestarea unei atenții speciale față de ceea ce te face să simţi o stare de armonie interioară?

În acordul dintre jucători, antrenor şi manager bate inima echipei. Inima echipei este ca o baterie care se încarcă şi se menţine la capacitate maximă atâta vreme cât există o sursă de energie solară.

Leadershipul intră în scenă atunci când oamenii lucrează împreună, când se completează unul pe celălalt, când se ajută reciproc cu sfaturi, cu încurajări, cu idei, când au încredere unii în alţii şi se comporta natural - fără teamă, fără emoţii sau complexe, fără răutate. De aceea este important să ne ocupăm de modul în care putem să generăm încrederea în rândul colegilor noştri şi să câştigăm credibilitatea lor.

Centrul unităţii vitale ale unei echipe rezidă din amestecul foarte fin (şi echilibrat) de încredere, respect, susţinere şi profesionalism. Odată ce acest amestec se întăreşte complet, echipa îşi poate propune performanţe mai bune şi îşi poate atinge mult mai uşor obiectivele.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi menţii poziţia de lider prin crearea unei interacţiuni cu dublu sens (feedback) care se propagă mai întâi în mediul de recunoştinţa din imediata ta apropiere, apoi mai departe spre un mediu al sentimentului de superioritate?

Într-o companie, ca şi într-o echipă de fotbal, fiecare are rolul său, bine stabilit. Fiecare persoană trebuie să-şi îndeplinească sarcinile ce-i revin la timp, cu foarte multă conştiinciozitate, responsabilitate şi rigurozitate. Iar asta nu înseamnă nicidecum să imiţi munca sau să alergi inutil dintr-un birou în altul toată ziua încercând să atragi simpatii şi să te faci plăcut de toată lumea.

Dacă sarcinile pe care le-ai primit nu sunt finalizate de fiecare dată la timp sau nu sunt de calitate, n-ai să reuşeşti în veci să câştigi încrederea colegilor şi superiorilor. Dimpotrivă, vei fi văzut ca un amator sau mai rău, ca un incompetent, şi nu ca un profesionist, aşa cum este de aşteptat.

Exact ca la fotbal, degeaba alergi mult şi repede dintr-o parte în alta a terenului, degeaba ceri pase şi centrări. Dacă alergi tot timpul pe lângă minge şi nu îţi aduci în nici un fel contribuţia, atunci nu eşti folositor echipei din care faci parte. În cele din urmă echipa îşi va căuta un înlocuitor, iar tu vei fi exclus din ea, fără regrete, fără ruşine şi fără prea multe explicaţii.

Asta este realitatea, nu putem să negăm acest lucru. Nimeni nu doreşte să aibă în echipa un "jucător" slab, pentru că el poate periclita soarta oricărui meci. Din cauza unei greşeli, toată echipa are de suferit. E drept, şi nu există niciun dubiu în privinţa acestui lucru, orice echipă unită îşi asumă responsabilitatea fiecărei acţiuni, şi e normal ca dacă pierde, să nu fie vina doar a unui singur jucător, ci a întregii echipe.

Leadership: Cum demonstrezi că deciziile tale sunt cele mai corecte, dacă tu însuţi nu-ţi acorzi dreptul de a greşi, mai ales într-un context de tipul: "I Am What I Am in one of the worst moments of the show" ?

Dar când, mereu şi mereu, echipa are de suferit din pricina aceluiaşi jucător, lucrurile se schimbă radical. Toţi nervii se varsă pe el - care greşeşte cel mai des, care pare să nu fie omul potrivit la locul potrivit. Principiile colegialităţii, ale devotamentului, ale onoarei, ale respectului reciproc, ale încrederii - după care se ghidează întreaga echipă, se "suspendă" în cazul persoanei pe care toţi o arată cu degetul.

Orice echipă de fotbal, la fel ca orice companie, doreşte să ocupe un loc fruntaş în clasament. Colegii şi superiorii sunt de cele mai multe ori îngăduitori cu tine - te ajută, îţi oferă sprijin moral şi financiar, şi posibilitatea avansării; te tratează cu respect şi încredere, te încurajează - cu speranţa că îţi vei aduce aportul la rezultatele (pozitive) ale echipei / companiei.

Chiar şi aşa, dacă nu le demonstrezi că eşti persoana potrivită pentru postul în care ai fost încadrat, dacă nu demonstrezi că eşti serios şi că reprezinţi o valoare care merită păstrată, că eşti într-adevăr o persoană extraordinară, atunci te poţi aştepta în fiecare moment să primeşti vestea cea proastă; să ţi se spună, prietenos, că de azi înainte eşti liber să-ţi cauţi o altă echipă, una mai pe măsura ta.

Descoperă resursele care fac echipa ta să funcţioneze sinergic, crescând nivelul calitativ al performanţelor tale.

Leadershipul este imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre tine, într-un context de tipul "push past the limits that you think you have", în eventualitatea unui impact cu acea stimulare reputaţională de care ai nevoie ca să învingi orice emoţii negative.

Cutremur în topul performanţelor scoate în evidenţă starea de slăbiciune a întregii echipe, atunci când se rupe relaţia dintre jucători, antrenor şi manager. Este momentul când performanţa întregii echipe se diminuează în mod neaşteptat, periclitând viitorul ei.

"Cutremurul în topul performanţelor" apare în urma unei evaluări interne sau externe a personalului. Când se produce acest cutremur? Atunci când apar eşecurile, atunci când rezultatele echipei sunt nesatisfăcătoare şi se face o reevaluare a personalului stabilindu-se care sunt punctele slabe ale acesteia. Se înţelege că un manager / un lider, trebuie să facă o evaluare corectă şi în comparaţie cu nişte criterii standardizate, dar în acelaşi timp evaluarea este şi un instrument de încurajare pentru a creşte motivaţia.

Atunci când se constată că efectul este contrar şi nu este însoţit de creşterea performanţei, este util a se face o reevaluare în companie cu referenţialul şi nu pe progresele minore ale fiecărui angajat. Atunci când nu sunt bine înţelese "schimburile de calificative", de la foarte bine la slab, sau doar satisfăcător, evenimentul este perceput ca un cutremur apărut din senin fără să se gândească cineva ce a generat acest cutremur: nepăsarea, indiferenţa, aroganţa, automulţumirea, etc.

Cuvântul

Încearcă să introduci un model al subiectului de interes în arta de a te pune în valoare, astfel încât leadershipul să depăşească faza de idee.

Nu este nimic rău în a te complica cu neîncetate salturi peste ascunzişurile rămase neînchipuite, să intri pe uşa din spate a misterului, porţiunea aceasta de conductor omogen care pune în legătură sufletul cu ştiinţa, din care erup toate înţelesurile artei. Şi să încerci să surprinzi imaginativ secunda infinitului. Dar în urechile omului, construite parcă după modelul unui câmp energetic care absoarbe orice fluid dătător de inspiraţie, în secunda aceea în care se odihneşte timpul, răsună fără încetare un cuvânt străbătut de unde înalte de determinare.

Acest singular cuvânt „Pot”, care controlează întreaga ţesătură a universului, care îşi are locul în sufletul lumii, reînnoit pe neaşteptate cu noi semnificaţii, cuvântul acesta la originea căruia se putea constata o diferenţă de potenţial logic, vibra în adâncul gândurilor mele ca o lovitură de ciocan. El îmi întărea convingerea nemaiîncercată că pot pregăti specia umană pentru impactul cu propriile-mi idei şi viziuni.

Un scris cursiv şi îngrijit nu putea solicita nicio favoare de la această formă vitală de energie, dar îi întărea şansele de a se impune ca o necesitate imperioasă, ca o operă cu adevărat unică, ca uma conquista emocionante , ca o realitate de ordinul evidenţei. Cuvântul acesta nu era doar un strop de spirit activat într-un moment de timp şi într-un anumit loc, ci o materie vie, organizată după tiparul unei forme-gând ce menţinea constantă intensitatea puterii mele de creaţie şi previzionare, chiar dacă ajungea până în contexte nefamiliare.

Prin punerea în contrast a cunoaşterii ce îşi avea sursa în anumite curente şi stăviliri secrete, în atracţii şi respingeri informaţionale, percepeam acest cuvânt ca pe o lumânare care arde în întuneric şi luminează un întreg labirint de întrebări şi înţelesuri. Îl simţeam cu acea parte din corp numită inimă ce năzuia spre idealuri măreţe, dominată de puternice strigăte de mulţumiri - „Bravo” - singura suflare ce conţinea germenii unui nou sens al existenţei.

Leadership: Este timpul să te foloseşti de un spațiu de descoperire şi stimulare a vitalităţii, inaccesibil cunoaşterii bazate pe experienţă?

Cineva spunea că Descartes nu ne-a învăţat doar să ne îndoim, ci să şi rezolvăm ecuaţii. Ei bine, cuvântul care te caracterizează cel mai bine, care te poate ridica la cea mai înaltă perfecţiune, introducând un model al subiectului de interes în arta de a te pune în valoare, intră într-o ecuaţie de tip ireversibil. Şi descrie evoluţia în timp a unei funcţii de creştere a probabilităţii de a te manifesta ca o ființă inspirată, cu un nou nivel de gândire.

Vitalitatea este reflectată de intensitatea proceselor legate de viață care susţin o anumită percepţie a redevenirii, a "reînvierii" tuturor lucrurilor, inclusiv a ta. Vitalitatea pe care o răspândesc în jur cuvintele scrise sau spuse, formate din unirea unor idei, dorinţe sau perspective, pe linia formei în care codifici reprezentarea ta despre o anume realitate, accentuează caracterul a ceea ce este viu în fiinţa ta, în memorie, în imaginaţie, asigurând relaţia dintre lumea reală şi un univers paralel.

Este timpul să te foloseşti de acest spațiu de descoperire şi stimulare a vitalităţii, deseori inaccesibil cunoaşterii bazate pe experienţă, şi să arăţi într-o formulă nouă de exprimare cum va lua parte această constantă la fenomenul de redefinire personală?

Cuvântul este darul unei exprimări care se cizelează în singurătate, este termenul aşteptat al unei mari aventuri prin care se dezvoltă virtuţile corespunzătoare unui obiectiv major, mai apoi împărtăşite nu ca un fel de „obiect de inventar", ci ca un fel de coordonare a luptei dintre David și Goliat, un dialog surd între putere şi opoziţie, în aşa fel încât să ai o răspundere foarte clară a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat înainte de a te preschimba într-un „unicat".

Modalitatea principală prin care comunici cu cei din jur este o preschimbare a cuvintelor care întrupează gândurile tale cele mai adânci şi mai scumpe, o preschimbare totală a felului în care doreşti să îţi construieşti viaţa alături de ceea ce vezi, imaginezi, simţi, auzi şi faci.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să depăşească acea fază de idee, reuşind să îşi apropie cumva dimensiunea ştiinţifică de arta de a te pune în valoare, cu toate impulsurile sale fundamentale de creştere, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi dezvălui identitatea printr-un simbol al reînnoiri, al implicării, al focului, al gândirii, al sentimentului – exprimat printr-un cuvânt care să declanşeze în tine o dorinţă profundă de schimbare şi de transformare pe toate planurile.

Cuvântul, când este riguros definit are, fireşte, o rezonanţă în subconştient, în bine sau în rău, şi creează o punte de legătură cu leadershipul prin forţa sa de constrângere pe baza convingerii şi voinţei de a acţiona. Într-adevăr, unitatea acestui concept abstract realizat pe baza activității practice intuitive, îşi justifică întru totul validitatea în marşul triumfal al progresului personal.

Or, de la cuvânt, alunecarea spre o schimbare totală, spre un nou statut, spre o putere de nezdruncinat, este tentantă, motivantă. Şi adeseori constituirea precum şi definirea caracteristicilor acestui cuvânt porneşte de la cadrul oferit de către dialogul cu propria ta interioritate, cu propriul cuget, cu propriul suflet, cu propria-ţi conştiinţă. Cuvântul este o piesă de puzzle ce trebuie finalizată într-o manieră diferită de abordare a potenţialului experienţial.

Arta de a te pune în valoare începe cu ceea ce gândeşti despre ceea ce simţi atunci când priveşti lumea din perspectiva unei realităţi refuzată sau neluată în calcul de ceilalţi.

Cuvântul produce un fel de freamăt undeva în interiorul corpului, care creşte pulsul inimii, îţi aduce satisfacţie, încredere şi îţi stimulează imunitatea împotriva a ceea ce nu-ţi face bine. Sensul pe care îl dai cuvântului poate să deschidă anumite uşi sau să închidă altele, dar preferabil este să urmarească generalizarea experienţei pozitive.

Merită memorat ceea ce afirma un personaj dintr-un frumos roman al scriitorului român Ion Moja: „ Luaţi seama la înţelesul cuvintelor rostite - importante pietre de poticnire pentru mintea unora - căci iată, ochii mi se însufleţesc din nou, inima mi se încălzeşte şi bate iar. Luaţi seama, căci mă faceţi să cred în lucruri supranaturale. "

Ai găsit cuvântul care te defineşte în totalitate, care reprezintă un model al subiectului tău de interes şi care te poate pune în valoare?

Cum rezonează pentru tine cuvintele hotărâtoare „Trebuie" şi „Pot"?

Cuvinte semnificative spuse din perspectiva unei frunze (II)

On Februarie 27, 2021

Modifică-ţi convingerile care îţi guvernează universul interior, fără să te opreşti din a experimenta realitatea pe care nu ai văzut-o până acum.

Vă spuneam în articolul precedent că în timp ce mă plimbam în drum spre casă, o frunză s-a aşezat înaintea picioarelor mele, şi ea s-a oprit acolo ca şi când ar fi fost atrasă de un magnet mai puternic ca pământul, fiindcă nu s-a mişcat nici după ce am lovit-o cu piciorul. Stătea ţeapănă acolo, ca un cui, aşa că n-am insistat s-o mişc din locul ei. Gândurile îmi erau răvăşite de o voce dinăuntrul meu care repeta întruna, întruna, întruna: „Încearcă să nu rămâi indiferent faţă de evenimentele care te-au luat prin surprindere".

Un alt argument ce poate fi invocat în favoarea acestei interpretări a gândurilor poate fi dedus din însăşi structura dublă a procesului de observare a frunzei: mai întâi faptul că ea există ca un fel de circularitate în dinamica relaţiei dintre spirit şi natură, apoi faptul că ea există ca un fel de revers al unei situații în care absurdul se insinuează tot mai mult în viaţa de zi cu zi.

A fost un moment cu dublă însemnătate. Căci atunci când frunza mi s-a aşezat brusc înainte, nevrând să se mişte din loc nici măcar la încercarea mea de a-i da cu piciorul, am simţit că experimentez amărăciunea exilului voluntar într-un tărâm al nimănui, într-un peisaj sumbru și dezolant, acceptat cu mândria acelui spirit pur care nu se vrea supus nici străinului din mine, nici apropiatului din mine, fapt ce m-ar fi putut face să ajung pe culmile disperării.

Toruşi, frunza mi-a adus noutăţi despre măsura în care necesitățile interne sunt (sau nu sunt) satisfăcute pe plan emoţional, spiritual, intelectual sau social.

Leadership: Poţi distinge reflectarea unei imagini exterioare ţie în forma trăirii subiective a efectelor acţiunii unui stimul de impact provenit dintr-un mediu care nu este întotdeauna predictibil?

Este oare timpul să mă schimb? Voi putea suporta pe viitor căderea frunzei la picioarele mele ca un moment distinct şi ulterior creaţiei, sau ca un semn rău prevestitor?

Frunza pare fragilă la prima vedere, crezi că o poţi strivi cu un gest mărunt. Cu toate astea ea nu face crize, nu se opune, nu-şi joacă rolul de victimă, nu are accese caracteristice bolii în care unii par absenți de realitatea înconjurătoare. Se lasă influențată, nu cucerită. Se lasă dusă de valul purtării tale, se lasă studiată, se lasă pierdută în gândurile celui ce-o priveşte, dar nu se lasă convinsă uşor de încercările tale de apreciere a realităţii.

Vorbele scriitorului Mesa Selimovic, din romanul „Dervişul şi Moartea", îmi fac din nou cu ochiul:

"Păşeam dintr-un întuneric în altul, nici formă nici loc, pentru că nu vedeam nimic şi eram preocupat numai de mine, preocupat de închipuiri în care se pierdea şi ceea ce aş fi putut să recunosc. Schimbam întunericul, ştiam asta pentru că mă mişcam, şi pentru că timpul trecea, deşi nu simţeam cum trece."

La fel şi eu, îmi frământam gândurile cu acel stoicism al atitudinii de neînfrânt în faţa unei furtuni existenţiale închipuite, căci frunza aceea prăpădită, tremurândă, dar dârză în hotărârea ei de a nu se mişca din loc, îmi inspira o singură viziune: transformarea vieţii în scena unei opere de Caravaggio. Ea îmi inspira o lipsă de strălucire în acel ceva viu şi vibrant al devenirii mele, ca și cum aş mai fi trecut de câteva ori prin asta și nu aş avea alte aşteptări de la viaţă.

Într-adevăr, există o nelinişte care-l caracterizează pe orice creator niciodată mulţumit de propria-i operă, o reacţie imprevizibilă la recepţionarea unei noi faţete din mozaicul amplei experienţe de înţelegere a unei alte dimensiuni a fiinţei sale. O stare de agitaţie, de frământare, de neastâmpăr. Până la urmă, cred că unele sindroame de sine stătătoare, cu asocieri din viaţa de zi cu zi, păstrează forma măturată a frunzei de-a lungul unei perioade mai lungi de timp.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să schimbi modul de percepţie al fiecărui moment din viaţa ta prin efectuarea unei examinări de sine care îţi permite personalizarea formei de simetrie faţă de ceva care îţi scapă din vedere?

Un aspect este clar. Efectul de educare a caracterului meu rezultă din specificul situaţiei cu care m-am confruntat, anulându-mi calităţile de atotcunoscător, anulându-mi o parte din fericiri, o parte din tristeţi, o parte din dileme, aşa încât n-am mai sperat să mă cunosc la fel de bine cum credeam.

De fapt, ceva mi-a scăpat din vedere: esenţa evenimentului consumat, cerinţa impunătoare a conştiinţei de a crea reprezentarea interioară a exteriorului. Frunza mi-a dat a înţelege că orice caracter poate fi reprezentat prin asocierea lui cu o pretinsă experienţă de maturizare din care nu lipsesc dilemele sau dezamăgirile, dar nici ideea că fac parte dintr-un experiment numit îndoială, neputinţă interioară sau determinism echivoc.

Chiar atunci. Am simţit ceva din contextul specific unei psihologii a creatorului care îşi judecă greşelile din propria creaţie, izolându-se de realitatea celor din jur. Poate că acest fapt stă sub constrângerii necesităţii implacabile de a mă transpune într-o reprezentare a spiritului antropomorfizat al naturii, în forma unei trăiri subiective intense şi plenare ce reflectă relația mea cu lumea înconjurătoare.

Mai degrabă, frunza reflectă o lume îngustă, care le absoarbe pe toate celelalte. Contactul cu ea a îndoit lumina într-un artist al metamorfozelor, a anulat preocuparea mea de a nu mai greși şi mi-a întărit strădania spre îndreptare. Totodată, frunza a schimbat intenţiile omului care priveşte dincolo de aparenţa unei lumi cunoscute, a inversat realităţii pe care creierul său a construit-o pe baza unor opoziţii faţă de tot ceea ce este integrat în graniţele normalităţii.

Aşadar, frunza este o ancoră ce ţine timpul în loc, este o decupare a propriei mele imagini dintr-o realitate şi, apoi, transpusă într-o altă realitate. Este o incursiune duioasă și plină de învăţăminte prin viața, prin povestea, cariera și sufletul unui artist. Este un simbol al regretului, al restricţiilor de tot felul, care se transformă într-un simbol al speranței, fiindcă mi-a arătat că pot fi un om diferit de cel ce-am fost, cu alte percepţii despre mine, despre viaţă, despre pasiunea de a surprinde emoţii din orice fleac.

Leadershipul este rezultatul unui cumul de experiențe din care trebuie neapărat să te îmbogăţeşti sufleteşte, să tragi nişte concluzii, meditând la ce li se întâmplă cu acea calitate a Creatorului de a se manifesta în tot şi în toate.

Cuvintele semnificative spuse din perspectiva unei frunze se pot forma şi lega între ele printr-o reflecţie asupra sinelui care face rezumatul esenţei învăţăturii din care trebuie să reţinem: nimic nu se întâmplă fără un motiv.

Cuvinte semnificative spuse din perspectiva unei frunze (I)

On Februarie 25, 2021

Încearcă să dai sens unei experienţe de viaţa plină de învăţăminte, înainte de a-ţi extinde perspectivele existenţei spre folosul unei înţelegeri mai exacte a evoluţiei tale.

Întotdeauna când mă plimb prin oraş, mai ales noaptea, deci atunci când este mai liniştit oraşul, observ lucrurile cele mai interesante care se petrec sub privirea ochiului, într-o analiză a tendinței de întrepătrundere a umbrelor şi tainelor de nepătruns. Însăşi liniştea este interesantă, mai puţin atunci când lucrurile ies în evidenţă, ci mai curând atunci când noaptea îşi recunoaşte vina de a fi sfetnic bun în faţa gloriei unui clar de lună.

Şi iată de ce spun asta, fiindcă dacă n-aş spune-o ar însemna să păstrez pentru mine gândul cu care noaptea îşi îmbracă întunecimile, cu dinamica inerentă a unui pendul care oscilează între înainte şi înapoi, între ceva care se petrece chiar sub ochii mai şi ceva care se învârte continuu în viaţa mea, dar trece mereu neobservat în liniştea unui clar de lună.

Şi uite aşa, în timp ce mergeam, o frunză s-a aşezat înaintea picioarelor mele, profitând de un moment de când mintea-mi stătea să explodeze, când gândurile-mi alergau ca nebunele în toate direcțiile. Nu ştiu ce vânt a pus-o acolo, căci nu era niciun copac prin apropierea mea imediată. Şi ea s-a oprit acolo, ca şi când ar fi fost atrasă de un magnet mai puternic ca pământul, fiindcă nu s-a mişcat nici după ce am lovit-o cu piciorul. Stătea ţeapănă acolo, ca un cui, aşa că n-am insistat s-o mişc din locul ei.

Pesemne, aşa este şi cu oamenii. Unii apar în viaţa ta fără să te aştepţi la prezenţa lor, sunt aşa de mici şi neînsemnaţi, dar ei stau acolo ca nişte frunze cărora nu ştii cum să le răspunzi, nici măcar nu ştii cum să le abordezi. Dar vezi bine că frunzele astea sunt mult depăşite de vreme, şi-au păstrat un pic din culoarea aia tomnatică care anunţă posibilitatea dezintegrării lor odată cu răcirea vremii.

Leadership: Tendinţa personalităţii tale este de a atribui valoare de cunoaştere unor clipe întâlnite aleator, cu ajutorul cărora ai fi de acord să fuzionezi în calitate de „altă persoană" ?

Da, toţi suntem oameni, şi la un moment dat fiecare din noi suntem ca nişte frunze în viaţa altora. Dar oricât de frunze am fi noi pentru alţii, şi oricât de frunze ar fi alţii pentru noi, să nu uităm nicio clipă că orice frunză, chiar şi una complet uscată, se poate transforma într-o unealtă de înțelegere a propriilor experienţe şi trăiri.

Încă ceva. Ceea ce simţi că te reprezintă cu adevărat este uneori ceea ce simţi că ai lovit cu piciorul, dar nu s-a mişcat din loc. Iar ceea ce simţi că te apasă şi te domină într-un mod greu de descris în cuvinte, poate fi momentul când îţi dai seama că ceva mic şi neînsemnat a fost mult mai stabil şi mai dur ca tine.

Iar eu n-am avut de ales, m-am simţit complet altcineva, asemănându-mă probabil cu un uriaş legat la ochi care se împiedică de propria-i putere în drumul spre căutarea răspunsurilor la întrebarea: „Ce sunt și de ce fac ceea ce fac ?"

Leadership: Poţi să aduci o îmbunătăţire semnificativă a percepţiei de sine ca rezultat al gestionării unui moment de maximă luciditate, atunci când îţi dai seama că ai devenit un om al altor lumi?

Aşadar, să reflectăm la fiecare detaliu pe care viaţa ni-l aşterne în cale, ca să ne descoperim mai înţelegători cu noi înşine. De aceea, îl înţeleg prea bine pe scriitorul Mesa Selimovic atunci când a scris în romanul „Dervişul şi moartea" următoarele:

„Uşor. Este timp pentru toate, mi l-am dat mie însumi, iar pe firul judecăţii vor fi înfăţişări şi mărturii, n-am să le ocolesc, şi voi putea la urmă să-mi rostesc singur osânda, căci numai despre mine este vorba şi despre nimeni altul, numai despre mine. Deodată lumea a ajuns o taină pentru mine, şi eu pentru lume. Ne-am aşezat faţă în faţă şi ne-am privim cu uimire, nu ne mai cunoaştem, nu ne mai înţelegeam."

Chiar şi lumea scriitorilor, la fel ca lumea artiştilor, la fel ca lumea oamenilor de rând, este uneori concentrată în universul unei frunze ce face parte din categoria picturilor cu peisaje care te lasă fără cuvinte, făcându-te să te minunezi de cât de multe gânduri trebuie să investeşti într-un singur moment (dat de o imagine tratată amplu, figural) doar ca să-ţi înţelegi mai bine firea, reacţiile, nivelul fizic, mental, emoţional şi sufletesc.

Iar dacă într-un singur moment de maximă luciditate eu însumi am devenit un om al altor lumi, mai întâi pe plan artistic, apoi pe plan de poveste, în cele din urmă pe plan de trăire (prin contemplarea sensibilului şi a concretului), se datorează faptului că în mine stă acea putere pe care nimeni altcineva nu o are: puterea de a recunoaşte o lecţie a vieţii atunci când o experimentez în mod simultan pe mai multe planuri ale fiinţei mele. În primul rând pe plan sufletesc şi în planul conştiinţei.

Evoluţia ta în cadrul leadershipui depinde de felul cum getionezi momentele care te surprind şi te îndeamnă să-ţi schimbi percepţia de sine.

Percepţia de sine cea mai puternică este rezultatul atitudinii şi mentalităţii tale ce se manifestă în comportamentele şi acţiunile distincte care depind de un eveniment întâmplător constituit într-o lecţie de viaţă din care ieşi mai înţelept.

Cuvintele semnificative spuse din perspectiva unei frunze redau de fapt acele stări sufleteşti fugitive sau impresii legate între ele prin relaţii dominante între om şi natură, cu specificaţia că orice lucru minor îţi iese în cale se manifestă de fapt pentru a te determina să fii mai concentrat şi mai conştient de lucrurile frumoase care te înconjoară, de timpul prezent.

Cuvintele se explică tot prin cuvinte

On Aprilie 16, 2020

Învaţă să dai sens faptelor şi vieţii tale prin experienţele de materializare ale gândurilor care respectă luminăţia şi îndrumarea forţei divine a Logosului.

Cât de diferit fusesem în tinerețe, când rătăceam și singurul meu adevăr erau Dumnezeul din mine și moartea ! Atunci mă bucuram de apa proaspătă și nu mă legam de ispitele trupești. Analizându-mă în lumina verzuie și lugubră a capelei, știam în inima mea că nu mă simt vinovat doar din cauză că devenisem sclavul simțurilor. Nici din cauza îndoielilor mele. Refuzul meu de a recunoaște binele și răul era și el mărunt. Motivul era mai profund. Dumnezeu este, îmi spuneam eu, dar ce este Dumnezeu, asta nu vom ști niciodată. Cunoașterea și vocabularul nostru sunt limitate, tot ce putem încerca să spunem despre Dumnezeu e doar o comparație stângace. Până și Apocalipsa e scrisă tot de oameni. E prostesc să discutăm despre cuvinte, pentru că ele se explică tot prin cuvinte. Din moment ce Dumnezeu este, el este infinit și veșnic, iar ceea ce e infinit și veșnic, chiar dacă acestea nu sunt decât cuvinte, este mereu și pretutindeni, atât în lumea finită, cât și în cea infinită. Prin urmare, Dumnezeu este și acționează întotdeauna și în fiecare clipă, chiar dacă noi nu știm ce sunt existența și acțiunea sa dincolo de conceptele lumii noastre finite.

Dumnezeu este în mine și în afara ființei mele mereu și în fiecare clipă. În el se unesc iubirea și ura, credința și necredința, patima și puritatea, în așa fel încât nimic nu este în contradicție în Dumnezeu, însă nu vom ști niciodată cum este posibil așa ceva. Dacă însă cred în Dumnezeu, cred în același timp și în întruparea Cuvântului și a tot ceea ce-i urmează și că Dumnezeu, dezvăluindu-se în Hristos, era pe de-a-ntregul om și pe de-a-ntregul Dumnezeu și nu mai există aici nimic contradictoriu sau tulburător pentru gândire, iar Sfânta Treime este un simbol atât de logic și de rațional pentru esența și modul de acțiune al lui Dumnezeu în lumea finitului și a infinitului, încât aceasta mi se pare la momentul actual cea mai importantă cunoaștere. Din cauza caracterului finit al cuvintelor, nu este decât un simbol, dar din cauza esenței și acțiunii lui Dumnezeu, este, în același timp, mai mult decât un simbol. *

Leadership: Ai puterea să devii altcineva decât crezi că eşti, gândindu-te la tine ca la cineva care se compară cu măreţia lui Dumnezeu din punct de vedere a ceea ce se aşteaptă să găsească într-o variantă de "realitate abstractă" ?

Tot ceea de gândim, spunem în fel şi chip, chiar dacă cuvintele sunt acoperite de o mistică a gândirii paradoxale, este strâns legat de felul cum vedem realitatea pe care o trăim: ca o formă de informaţie trebuincioasă pentru a deprinde o anumită învăţătura, sau ca o lumină pe care Dumnezeu a pus-o în inima oricui ca să i se recunoască existenţa. Ori, ca să descoperim valoarea relaţiei cu Dumnezeu avem nevoie de un instrument purificator, aducător de sens şi de inspiraţie la nivel de "cercetează tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă", iar acest instrument este cuvântul scris.

Pentru a răspunde la întrebarea "ce este cuvântul?", mai întâi încearcă să interpretezi experienţele prin care treci, filtrează-le prin procesul gândirii, apoi încearcă să le găseşti un sens în cărţile care te inspiră. Cu siguranţă există o legătură intimă între existenţă şi acţiunile tale, între sentimente şi raţiune, fiindcă nimic nu este întâmplător pe lume. Chiar citind cu atenţie (chiar şi aceste rânduri) poţi întrevedea un răspuns la ceea ce te interesează să afli. Întotdeauna cuvintele, puse într-o anumită ordine, după o anumită logică, creează o semnificaţie care te face să conştientizezi pârghiile acestui experiment numit "viaţă".

Dumnezeu este şi el pe aici pe undeva, chiar dacă nu-l vede nimeni. El lasă la îndemâna tuturor nişte dovezi ale existenţei sale, detalii foarte mărunte, şi este bine să luăm în considerare existenţa unei fiinţe umane foarte avansate care, folosindu-şi 100% capacităţile minţii şi ale sufletului, a găsit mijlocul de a comunica cu elementele universului, punându-le chiar într-o relaţie strânsă cu dimensiunea cauzalităţii.

Citind multe cărţi vei permite minţii tale să recunoască mai multe tipare diferite de gândire, iar toate tiparele de gândire ale tuturor oamenilor formează un univers pe care mintea nu îl poate percepe decât prin legea cauză-efect. Deci eşti captiv într-un timp în care Dumnezeu este peste tot, dar mereu în altă formă, în altă întruchipare.

Măreţia lui Dumnezeu se afla în împărăţia cuvintelor, fiindcă ele sunt calea către gândire, filozofie şi înţelepciune, ştiind că tot ceea ce spun ele, în diverse moduri, se adună într-un univers din care răsare povestea numită "viaţă".

Dar mult mai important decât cititul este scrisul. Identificând relevanţa cuvintelor cheie pe care le incluzi în profilul tău de artist, prin diferite legături, poţi forma mereu alte tipare de gândire. Ceea ce ţi se întâmplă în viaţă este rezultatul utilizării acestor tipare, chiar dacă ele sunt invizibile pentru cei care respectă principiul „nimic mai mult". Iar universul, ca limbaj al cuvintelor, poate fi desluşit numai de un vrăjitor al cuvintelor care a imaginat o lume şi o realitate proprie. Deci, ca să înţelegi universul şi planetele şi sistemul solar, mai întâi învăţă să scrii şi să faci tablouri din cuvinte, să faci muzică din cuvinte, şi, în sfârşit, să faci tu parte din cuvinte.

Cuvântul reprezintă prima mişcare a Puterii Creatoare, sau întruparea gândului. Dacă vei ajunge să stăpâneşti ordinea şi sensul cuvintelor, analizându-le în lumea finitului și a infinitului, vei învăţa să explici totul în termeni de "principala modalitate de transmitere a sentimentelor sau a trăirilor", sau vei putea să explici totul în termeni de: forme, culori și materiale. Deci, fii harnic în stăpânirea cuvintelor, fii conştient de puterea lor, fii impecabil în folosirea lor, aşa încât să te apropii de Dumnezeu prin forţa gândurilor exprimate într-o operă numită: "Expresia Sufletului".

Leadershipul este puterea creatoare din care purcede orice manifestare a cultului personalităţii, alături de care putem face alegeri înțelepte care vor trece testul timpului. Această putere creatoare, cuvântul, simbolizează manifestarea inteligenţei în limbaj, în natura fiinţelor şi în creaţia continuă a universului.

Cuvintele se explică tot prin cuvinte mai ales dacă ele fac parte dintr-un limbaj universal care, dintr-o reprezentare în alta, dintr-o formă în alta, fac ca mişcările accelerate ale minţii şi sufletului, îndreptate spre cercetarea celor din afară, să se producă ca dublură a unei realităţi uşor de controlat.

Dă totul din tine, fără reţineri

On Ianuarie 20, 2009

Demonstrează o continuă fidelitate faţă de competenţele destinate să contribuie la însuşirea acelei forme de disciplină care poate asigura funcţionarea ta optimă.

Un atlet de performanţă, deţinător al titlului "World Strong Man" , intră în sala de bodybuilding, se dezbracă, îşi face încălzirea şi trece rapid la treaba. Pare hotărât să le arate tuturor celor din jur de ce este în stare. Are un corp lucrat cu atenţie, fiecare muşchi este dăltuit aparte, şlefuit. Munceşte din răsputeri, bicepşi, tricepşi, deltoizi, coapse, etc. Se vede că nu este el omul care să se lase mai prejos de aşteptările sale.

De două sau trei ori pe săptămână atletul intră în sala de bodybuilding cu bucurie şi mult entuziasm, şi de fiecare dată dă totul din el pentru a-şi dezvolta masa musculară. Căci în funcţie de antrenamentele pe care le face zi de zi, în funcţie de forţa pe care o realizează prin intermediul lor va putea să genereze o mai bună funcţionare care îl va ajuta să stabilească un record mondial.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să extinzi circumstanţele unei forme de răspuns la necesitatea abordării evaluării performanţei tale, conform unei consecutivităţi ce poartă în sine un algoritm de tip "win by the slightest amount of difference"?

Performanţa trebuie în primul rând înţeleasă, susţinută şi apoi valorificată. În acest scop, trebuie să-ţi iei sarcina de a demonstra o continuă fidelitate faţă de propriile tale competenţe - cu caracter evolutiv, măsurabil, toate destinate să aducă o contribuţie cât mai consistentă la însuşirea acelei forme de disciplină care să-ţi coordoneze întreg spectrul de activităţi necesar funcţionării tale cât mai eficiente.

O casă care zace şubredă pe piloni de lemn, este gata să se rostogolească în apele în creştere. Când ea este măturată de ape, eşti nevoit să pleci în căutarea pământului uscat.

Prea mulţi indivizi, în drumul lor spre performanţă, se comportă şi acţionează ca nişte naufragiaţi în căutare de noi pământuri – nu au convingeri puternice, nu au o personalitate individuală, sunt lipsiţi de orice consecvenţă în atitudine. Iar aceste „minusuri" din contul performanţei lor, dincolo de orice îndoială, duc la o degradare mai ridicată, mai profundă a fibrei lor profesionale. Rezultatele lor slabe sunt rezultatul unei suprasolicitări, a unei uzuri, a unei extenuări a acelor segmente din sistemul lor funcţional care nu mai transmite nici un fel de energie.

A fi în stare să extinzi circumstanţele unei forme de răspuns la necesitatea abordării evaluării performanţei tale, înseamnă să trăieşti cu rezultatele extraordinare pe care le obtiii în situaţia de a fi primul care a înţeles fenomenul "câştigă cu cea mai mică cantitate de diferenţă". Practic, voinţa pe care o dovedeşti că să înregistrezi un rezultat mai bun este exact acel aport de energie utilizat la limitarea unor pierderi pe care le suporţi prin încălzirea muşchilor.

Leadership: Ceea ce te diferenţiază de ceilalţi atleţi este valorificarea rezultatelor pe care ţi-o acorzi prin aplicabilitatea cauzalităţii la voinţa înregistrată în contul unei fiinţe supreme?

Consecvenţa este o parte crucială a procesului tău de evoluţie, ea menţine motorul tău de performanţă. Dacă ea nu devine o parte a vieţii tale, atunci ea este la fel de şubredă ca o casă care zace şubredă pe piloni de lemn, gata să se rostogolească în apele în creştere.

Aşa cum creierul tău recepţionează sute de milioane de informaţii prin intermediul simţurilor, organelor şi nervilor, prelucrează acest informaţii şi trimite milioane de comenzi simultan – tot aşa, în drumul spre performanţă trebuie să selecţionezi exact acei stimuli care te motivează pozitiv, acei stimuli care funcţionează spre a te informa asupra statutului tău de performer. Vei avea nevoie de aceşti stimuli - care să te determine să începi o anumită activitate şi totodată să te poată susţine până în momentul finalizării ei.

Aplicabilitatea cauzalităţii la voinţa înregistrată în contul unei finţe supreme, presupune să-ţi acorzi nişte merite din postura unui Sisif sortit să urce un deal împingând veșnic o stâncă uriașă. Dar de fiecare dată cu mai mult avânt decât ultima dată, cu mai multă pasiune, astfel asumându-ne riscuri din ce în ce mai mari.

Leadership: Precede schimbarea în lumea exterioară privirea ta interioară focalizată asupra obiectivelor atunci când acuitatea vizuală mentală îți crește odată cu practica constantă a autoreflecției?

Punctul de inflexiune al oricărei evoluții reprezintă adesea momentul cel mai solicitant. Cu toate acestea, odată ce ai stabilit pulsul productivității personale într-o manieră sustenabilă și armonioasă, vei avea capacitatea de a aborda orice provocări ce solicită resursele interioare, indiferent de complexitatea lor aparentă la un moment dat.

Filozoful grec Socrate insista: " Pentru a mişca lumea trebuie mai întâi să ne mişcăm noi înşine. " Sună corect, nu-i aşa? Începutul este întotdeauna cel mai greu. Dar odată ce ţi-ai format un ritm de muncă susţinut şi echilibrat vei putea duce la îndeplinire orice sarcini, oricât de grele ar părea la un moment dat.

Dorinţa nu este suficientă ca să realizezi tot ceea ce ţi-ai propus şi nu te poate ajuta prea mult să treci peste acele hopuri limitatoare de performanţă. Iar intenţiile bune nu vor avea niciodată puterea de a-ţi pune în mişcare întreg spectrul evoluţiei tale. Singura cale de a deveni mai bun în ceea ce faci este să te hotărăşti să duci până la capăt tot ce ai început.

Un lider îşi testează materialul din care este plămădit, indiferent de corecturile anterioare, până ce sunt neutralizate toate aspectele negative sau lipsite de rezistenţă ale practicii pe care o pune în aplicare.

"Dă totul din tine, fără reţineri" este deviza celor care tind spre marea performanţă. Toţi cei care dau dovadă de iniţiativă şi muncesc din greu vor fi întotdeauna răsplătiţi. Talentul fără un efort continuu şi de durată nu este suficient. Cine vrea să devină un performer de elită trebuie să-şi dezvolte la maxim potenţialul existent.

Mă simt nevoit să închei acest articol cu un citat aparţinând filozofului maghiar Georg Lukacs: "Angajat într-o acţiune extremă, eroul îşi urmează până la capăt calea pe care ceilalţi păşesc numai şovăitori, gata de compromisuri."

Dacă ar fi fost vorba de iubire, v-aş fi înţeles

On Decembrie 07, 2012

Învaţă să-ţi creşti imaginea de sine chiar şi atunci când cunoştinţele despre sine cuprind specificul identităţii altcuiva.

Dar ce v-am refuzat eu, Olympia?

- Dacă vă veţi încăpăţâna să mă opriţi să cânt în faţa prietenilor dumneavoastră, sau să-mi interziceţi să apar pe scena vreunui teatru - căci nu sunt, slavă Domnului, sub tutela dumneavoastră - mă voi angaja fără semnătura dumneavoastră. Credeţi, cumva, că n-am ghicit că dumneavoastră sunteţi acela care aţi împiedicat pe ascuns angajarea mea la teatrul Italienesc? Mă credeţi, oare, atât de naivă ca să-mi închipui că un teatru poate respinge o cântăreaţă ca mine, care se oferă pentru nimic? Cât v-a costat lucrul acesta? Cred că destul de mult, nu-i aşa? Cel puţin, daţi această satisfacţie amorului meu propriu, mărturisind că, pentru a mă împiedica pe mine să cânt, aţi cheltuit mai mult decât ar fi trebuit pentru a-i da posibilitatea alteia să se afirme.

Pe buzele lordului Drummond răsări un surâs imperceptibil.

- Mărturisiţi, deci, continuă Olympia. Atunci pentru ce am venit la Paris? Concertele, pentru mine, nu pot înlocui teatrul, pasiunea, arta, viaţa ! Chiar la balul costumat al ducesei de Berry, unde aţi avut minunata bunăvoinţă să mă lăsaţi să apar mascată, am simţit că nu era teatrul. Deci, vă repet, trebuie să vă împăcaţi cu situaţia, nu-mi place să mă supun fanteziilor dumneavoastră. Sunteţi nobil şi bogat, aveţi capricii. Este plăcerea dumneavoastră să aveţi o cântăreaţă, care să nu existe decât pentru dumneavoastră, care să nu cânte decât pentru dumneavoastră. Dacă ar fi fost vorba de iubire, v-aş fi înţeles. Dar dumneavoastră nu mă iubiţi, mulţumesc Domnului ! Nu mi-aţi făcut niciodată nicio declaraţie. Iar dacă mi-aţi fi făcut, n-aţi mai fi fost astăzi la mine. Femeia, şi lucrul acesta mi-a plăcut mai întâi la dumneavoastră, nu există pentru dumneavoastră. N-o cunoaşteţi decât pe cântăreaţă. Nu sunteţi gelos pe chipul meu, pe persoana mea, pe mine. Mă chinuiţi adesea obligându-mă să cinez împreună cu prietenii dumneavoastră, cu condiţia de a nu cânta.

Am auzit povestindu-se despre unii milionari care au avut uriaşul egoism de a închiria într-o seară toate locurile unei săli de spectacol, pentru plăcerea de a-şi rezerva reprezentaţia doar pentru ei. În ceea ce vă priveşte, egoismul dumneavoastră este şi mai cumplit: nu doar o reprezentaţie, ci toate reprezentaţiile aţi vrea să vă aparţină. Mă confiscaţi. Dar pentru aceasta, aveţi nevoie de consimţământul meu, şi eu vi-l retrag. *****

Leadership: Felul în care simţi despre tine însuţi se datorează experienţei de viaţă care începe cu intensitatea emoţiei pe care ţi-o transmite cineva într-o împrejurare mai presus de voinţa ta?

Felul în care o persoană simte despre sine, transformând momentul într-unul şi mai memorabil, se datorează de fapt experienţei de viaţă care începe cu intensitatea emoţiei pe care ţi-o transmite cineva într-o împrejurare mai presus de voinţa ta. Deci, să luăm seama ce transmite momentul simţirii, când voinţa ta este mai degrabă împlinirea voinţei altcuiva, transformând raportul dintre memorabil şi subtil într-un joc de influenţă a cărui miză este umilinţa, scăderea credibilităţii, ruşinea, defăimarea.

Ceea ce ne izbeşte mai mult nu este atât ironia suverană a destinului pe care trebuie să o respectăm dacă nu vrem să trecem prin momente mult mai grele, cât dureroasa facultate de a surprinde dincolo de aparenţele vizibile ale oamenilor fiinţa lor ascunsă. De aici poate să înceapă acea pace cu tine însuţi, indiferent de presiunea pe care o exercită alţii asupra ta, ca o concretizare a experienţei de a nu fi recunoscut de ceilalţi ca fiind slab. Or intensitatea emoţiei pe care o manifeşti faţă de evenimentele individuale ale unei experienţe care a gustat din înfrângerea morală, trebuie să fie gestionata în aşa fel încât să-ţi fie recunoscute meritele, valoarea şi faptele bune.

Adevărata înţelepciune pe care o deprinzi nu este un sprint pe finalul vieții, ci un maraton de-o viață a cărui miză nu este locul întâi, ci faptul de a rezista până la capăt fără să-ţi vinzi sufletul. Iar dacă îţi deschizi sufletul prea mult, s-ar putea că aşteptările mari să-ţi trădeze inima. Şi, drept rezultat, cei ce rămân închişi, cei care se ofilesc şi se autodistrug sunt tocmai cei cărora nu le sunt recunoscute trăirile afective. Intensitatea emoţiei cu care tratezi o veste bună sau o situaţie neaşteptată depinde de împrejurarea care îţi poate spulbera ocaziile de a fi bun, de a fi generos, de a fi evaluat la adevărata ta valoare.

Dacă vrei să înveţi ceva nou despre leadership, atunci învaţă să-ţi creşti imaginea de sine chiar şi atunci când cunoştinţele despre sine cuprind specificul identităţii altcuiva. Cu alte cuvinte, specificul identităţii altor oameni (cuprinzând caracterul, atitudinea, mentalitatea lor) va deveni o parte din tine de îndată ce le acorzi cea mai mică susţinere. Nimeni nu se poate apăra de influenţa altora, dar ceea ce tu poţi face este să lupţi pentru a nu-ţi schilodi sufletul. Deci, nu-ţi deschide sufletul în faţa oricui !

În leadership, se cultivă "emoţia măsurată" a unui anume mod de a fi în lume. Vorbim aici de emoţia pe care aştepţi să o conduci spre a-i influenţa pe ceilalţi oameni, fără să faci din tine însuţi o cutie de rezonanță pentru poveștile lor triste.

Dacă ar fi fost vorba de iubire, v-aş fi înţeles. Dar de multe ori, în viaţă nu este vorba de iubire, ci de un soi de interes lipsit de apreciere care nu lărgeşte sfera adevărului pe care se pot construi ulterior demersuri acționabile la nivel individual. Asta face sufletul înţelept: să nu-ţi înalţi aşteptările prea sus, pentru că majoritatea oamenilor nu vor ajunge la măreţie. Iar ceea ce îl face pe om mai înţelept este să nu-şi lege sufletul de cele prezente, dar nici să nu facă din cugetul său o patimă adâncă.

Dacă filmul se rupe, rezultă o proiecție îngrozitoare

On Ianuarie 14, 2010

Ceea ce aştepţi să se întâmple depinde în mare măsură de ceea urmează să vezi.

În ciuda grabei, filmul nu era încă gata în ziua de 21 decembrie. Regizorul Serghei Eisenstein mai monta încă ultimele bobine când la "Teatrul Mare" prezentarea filmului „Crucişătorului Potemkin” începuse. Bobinele, pe măsura ce se finisau, erau duse cu motocicleta lui Alexandrov. Dar și acum, în aceste condiții, căutările continuau. Întâlnirea cu escadra este compusă din bucăți de peliculă foarte scurte. Eisenstein încerca, pe rând, câteva variante de montaj. Pentru a nu se pierde vremea, în aceste încercări nu lipsea pelicula cu clasica acetonă, ci cu propria-i saliva. O variantă după alta este desfăcută.

Abia după ce le definitivează, le preda asistenţilor pentru a fi lipite. Dar, ajuns la ultima bobină, în grabă, uită să o mai dea. Zecile de bucăți de peliculă, lipite cu salivă doar, sunt introduse în cutie și Eisenstein se urcă cu acea cutie în motocicleta lui Alexandrov. Foşnesc cu disperare. În Piața Roșie motocicleta se poticneşte. O pană. Cei doi aleargă jumătate de kilometru până la Balşoi. Ajung la timp.

Izbânda supremă care îți validează leadershipul constă în capacitatea de a transmuta efortul și temerile într-un triumf emoționant al artei?

Pe vremea aceea între fiecare bobină se făcea pauză, se aprindea lumina în sală. Ultima pauză a durat 20 de minute. În sfârșit, bobina e încărcată și proiecţia ultimei părți a filmului începe. Eisenstein nu intră în sală. Nu are răbdare. Se plimba agitat prin coridoare. Sunt goale. Probabil că și paznicii au intrat în sală. Aude succesiunea de aplauze. Furtunoase. Ca niște explozii. Ghidându-se după ele, urmărește în gând derularea filmului.

Și deodată îl inundă o transpiraţie rece. Își amintește că secvența care urmează acum în proiecţie este cea pe care a uitat să o lipească. Îl cuprinde groaza. Filmul se va rupe, bucățile de peliculă se vor împrăştia. Totul se va termina îngrozitor în această sală solemnă, care găzduieşte pentru prima oară un spectacol cinematografic. Cuprins de o cumplită disperare, aleargă fără rost prin coridoare. Dar se întâmplă o minune. Filmul se termină cu bine (ulterior la masa de montaj, va mai privi o dată îngrozit bucăţelele de peliculă pe care nimic nu le mai ținea lipite). Ovaţii. Eisenstein este stăruitor chemat pe scenă. Apare împreună cu Tisse și Alexandrov. Publicul se ridica în picioare, orchestra se ridică și ea și bate cu arcuşurile în instrumente. Un triumf.

Leadership: Creația căreia îi conferi autenticitate are puterea să înfrunte momente de teamă și disperare, pentru ca triumful final să fie cu atât mai glorios?

Procesul de proiecție a unui film este esențial pentru prezentarea unei opere cinematografice și implică mai multe etape distincte. La început, între fiecare bobină se face o pauză în care se aprinde lumina în sală, iar filmul este pregătit pentru continuare. Această pauză este urmată de încărcarea bobinei, proiecția efectivă și vizionarea secvențelor. În timpul acestor etape, secvențele de film se aliniază, se derulează și sunt prezentate în mod continuu publicului.

În cazul în care apar erori, precum lipsa unei secvențe, filmul se poate rupe, rezultând într-o proiecție îngrozitoare. Fiecare etapă a proiecției este crucială pentru asigurarea unei prezentări corecte a materialului cinematografic. La finalul procesului, ovațiile din partea publicului confirmă succesul proiecției, similar modului în care citocineza finalizează diviziunea celulară cu succes. Eisenstein, stăruitor chemat pe scenă, se bucură de un triumf alături de echipa sa, la fel cum o diviziune celulară corectă asigură sănătatea și funcționarea corectă a organismului.

Leadershipul se manifestă prin prezentarea unei creații a cărei proiecție artistică se derulează în direcția transformării și inovării culturale.

Dacă filmul se rupe, rezultă o proiecție îngrozitoare, deoarece regizorul nu și-a putut împlini viziunea artistică. Mai mult decât atât, această întrerupere subminează experiența spectatorilor, spulberând iluzia creată și distrugând impactul emoțional dorit. Dar intotdeauna, de o regulă trebuie să ţinem cont:

"Ceea ce aştepţi să se întâmple depinde în mare măsură de ceea urmează să vezi."

Dacă ştii să priveşti, ochiul îţi spune multe

On August 13, 2024

Ceea ce vezi când privești înlăuntrul tău este ceea ce arta revelează în exterior.

În penumbra atelierului său, unde umbrele trecutului se luptă cu lumina prezentului într-o "Xenthoria Ulmivent", se conturează o viziune integratoare a existenței, o fuziune între realitatea fizică și transcendența spirituală. Artistul contemplă tăcerea veacurilor. Le dă o oarecare însemnătate, altfel decât o simplă înregistrare a timpului, ci ca o prelungire a necesității de a explora necunoscutul. Numele său a fost șoptit prin ere sub diverse măști şi chipuri: alchimist, fizician, magician. Dar, în toate întrupările sale, o constantă a rămas neschimbată: setea arzătoare de cunoaștere, acel "Epedysasis Harrexhium", chemarea eternă a depășirii de sine.

Ceva din el mărturisea o profunzime a spiritului creator:

Închizând ochii, mă scufund în adâncurile ființei mele, sorbind încet, cu satisfacție, întinderea din sufletul meu nemuritor. Aici, într-un spațiu al liniștii absolute, descopăr un univers infinit, plin de mistere și frumusețe, de parcă aș fi în mijlocul unei revelații cosmice ce își așteaptă dezvăluirea în fața ochilor minții. Cu fiecare respirație, triumfătoare prin puterea transformatoare pe care o aduce, simt cum granițele dintre realitate și imaginație se estompează, iar arta devine o punte către această lume interioară. Prea bine, în sanctuarul conștiinței mele, găsesc răspunsurile la întrebările care mă frământă și o pace profundă pe care nu o găsesc nicăieri altundeva. Dumnezeu este cel care mă călăuzește spre armonia creaţiei.

În lanțul valoric al existenței, fiecare experiență devine o lecție, fiecare întrebare devine o poartă spre noi dimensiuni ale înțelegerii profunde a creației. Sigur că, aplicarea principiilor creației în viața cotidiană, are menirea de a transcende limitele percepției obișnuite. Asta poate însemna că, dincolo de orice obstacol aparent, stă o revelație neașteptată: „conștiința colectivă facilitează comunicarea între toate elementele creației". Revelația divină devine astfel o sincronizare neuronală la scară universală, în care fiecare ființă contribuie la potenţialul de acţiune al întregului cosmos.

Leadership: Arta pe care o creezi, transfigurând realitatea cotidiană sub impulsul cunoașterii, poate fi considerată o expresie de reală simțire artistică menită să scoată în evidență valoarea sinelui tău?

- Cum pot fi sigur că ceea ce creez are valoare? l-am întrebat pe Dumnezeu în timp ce reflectam la esența profundă a operei mele.

Dumnezeu mi-a răspuns: "Valoarea artei nu se măsoară după standardele lumii. O operă de artă are valoare atunci când rezonează cu cel puțin o altă persoană, când îi atinge sufletul. Tu nu pictezi pentru mine, ci pentru oameni.

- Dar dacă nimeni nu-mi înțelege arta? am continuat cu îndoială în glas.

Dumnezeu: "Chiar și cele mai mari opere de artă au fost adesea neînțelese în timpul vieții creatorilor lor. Important este că tu ai creat-o cu pasiune și sinceritate. Lasă timpul să judece. Privirea interioară a artistului se manifestă în fiecare trăsătură de penel, vizibilă în profunzimea expresiei artistice."

În cazul meu, trecutul și prezentul sunt pictate ca un tablou viu al lui Salvador Dali, unde timpul se topește și realitatea se îndoaie sub greutatea cunoașterii pe care o poate înțelege doar Dumnezeu. Fiecare linie, fiecare nuanță, fiecare umbră, trasează povestea unui veac uitat, fiecare formă fiind o enigmă descifrată în privinţa identităţii ascunse a lui Dumnezeu.

Leadership: În fața luptei eterne împotriva măsurii timpului, îți poți percepe creația drept o forță primordială care transcende ordinea prestabilită a existenței și limitele realității imediat percepute?

În stânga picturii mele, o figură împinge un pendul uriaș, într-o luptă eternă împotriva măsurii timpului, refuzând să se supună ordinii prestabilite. Aceasta este o manifestare a mea într-una din viețile mele anterioare, când manipulam elementele naturii, încercând să transform plumbul în aur, să descifrez codurile ascunse în stele și să înving timpul însuși. Creația este o forță primordială a universului, în timp ce arta transcende limitele realității percepute.

Privirea a încercat să penetreze vălul timpului, accesând vieți și experiențe anterioare. În acest context, cuvintele lui Jorge Luis Borges din "Biblioteca Babel" sar ca de nicăieri în mintea mea:

"Universul (pe care alții îl numesc Biblioteca) se compune dintr-un număr indefinit, și poate infinit, de galerii hexagonale. În centrul fiecărui hexagon se află un puț de ventilație înconjurat de o balustradă joasă. Din orice hexagon se văd etajele inferioare și superioare, interminabil."

Asemenea bibliotecii infinite a lui Borges, viețile mele multiple formează o serie infinită de experiențe și cunoștințe, fiecare reprezentând o nouă galerie în biblioteca valorică a existenței mele. Pictura este o modalitate de a descifra misterele universului, iar ochii spectatorului sunt invitați să vadă dincolo de realitatea imediată a picturii mele. Iar dacă perspectiva vizuală oscilează între elementele concrete și abstracte ale compoziției mele, atingând stadiul de transcendență artistică, atunci percepția conștientă a spectatorului este provocată să depășească limitele realității obișnuite.

Leadershipul penetrează vălul timpului prin viziunea artistică, accesând o infinitate de experiențe și cunoștințe care invită la depășirea limitelor obișnuite ale realității.

Dacă ştii să priveşti, ochiul îţi spune multe despre realitatea interioară și exterioară, ştiind că fiecare operă reflectă esența profundă a sufletului tău. Mai mult decât atât, creația artistică este o oglindă a universului interior al creatorului, atunci când sinele tău transcende limitele conștiinței obișnuite. Trebuie doar să te abandonezi fluxului creativ al universului.

Dacă treci tu linia, o trec şi eu

On Aprilie 16, 2009

Întăreşte „imunitatea" leadershipului tău dezvoltându-ţi acele abilităţi care te ajută să-ţi evaluezi corect şi obiectiv personalul.

Nicio emoţie, nicio trăire nu părea să-i străbată mintea şi sufletul acestui om lipsit de scrupule, bun manipulator, condus de o puternică dorinţă de succes, a cărui ambiţie teribilă de a-şi atinge ţelurile nu avea limite. Bill îl cercetă pe Drew fără să clipească, de parcă se aşteptase să vadă o urmă de îngrijorare pe chipul său, sau nesiguranţă, sau şovăială cel puţin, sau măcar vreo părere de rău. Nimic. Drew părea nepăsător, şi sigur pe el, mândru că a reuşit să-i sfideze autoritatea marelui Bill Parrish, fondatorul şi preşedintele corporaţiei Parrish Communications.

Practic, Drew voia să devină preşedintele companiei, dar pentru aceasta trebuia să-l dea la o parte pe actualul preşedinte. Dar totul s-a schimbat atunci când a intervenit Joe Black, „agentul de la fisc", care mirosise implicarea lui Drew în afaceri ilegale, şi adunase dovezi care îl puteau încrimina pe acesta. Dintr-un om sigur pe sine şi curajos, Drew deveni brusc palid la faţă. Era pierdut, şi ştia asta. Era chiar pasibil de pedeapsă penală.

- Îţi oferim un târg Drew, ca să nu ajungi la puşcărie, îi spuse Bill Parrish. Mărturiseşte Comitetului Director toate detaliile implicării tale în această afacere ilegală, iar apoi depune-ţi demisia.

Leadership: Pentru a obţine un „DA" de la cineva este absolut necesar să îi schimbi percepţia despre ceea ce sinele tău superior ştie despre tine şi doreste ca şi ceilalţi să afle?

Filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) " ne arată de fapt în ce măsură ne implicăm în viaţa personală şi profesională. Şi, mai ales, ce se întâmplă atunci când uităm care este traseul pe care trebuie să-l urmăm pentru ca viaţa noastră să fie una plină de sens şi de bucurii.

Greşeala cea mai mare a lui Bill Parrish, din cauza căreia era să regrete enorm, a fost că nu a ştiut să-şi aprecieze corect colaboratorii. A fost nepăsător şi indiferent faţă de percepţiile pe care le aveau aceştia faţă de el însuşi. Ca lider, el trebuia să fie abil în a judeca corect intenţiile celor din jurul său. Însă pe el nu l-a îngrijorat nimic la oamenii săi, nu s-a îndoit nicio clipă de propriile percepţii, aparent bine fundamentate, asupra lor. Şi din această cauză a fost la un pas de a-şi pierde compania.

Percepţiile pe care le ai despre oameni închid cercul sistemului de susţinere a convingerilor proprii. Percepţiile sunt ca un gard protector care îţi înconjoară subconştientul şi care îţi protejează valorile şi principiile după care te ghidezi în viaţă. Percepţiile dau măsura realităţii pe care o trăieşti, pe care o doreşti, pe care o propovăduieşti, ele reprezintă mecanismul care îţi generează încrederea, entuziasmul şi motivarea ca să funcţionezi la capacitate maximă.

Sinele superior al lui Bill Parrish era o unitate de conținut sub formă de imagine, idei, convingeri, aspiraţii şi credinţă. Dar Bill îşi punea toată nădejdea nu doar în instinctul său, ci şi în dreptatea practicilor sale, în dreptatea unei cauze nobile sau în corectitudinea judecăţii sale strălucite pe care o aplica în orice situaţii. Problema acestui sine superior este că nu ştia să găsească preţuirea oamenilor în numele viitorului companiei şi credea că depinde de alţii pentru a găsi un puternic stimulent al performanţei.

Leadership: Schimbările intervenite în viaţa ta în ultimele luni ţi-au marcat convingerile despre ceea ce vrei să devii, dat fiind faptul că ceea ce te face superior nu-i face fericiţi şi pe alţii?

Acest cerc care îţi susţine convingerile proprii, care îţi înconjoară întregul sistem de valori, se poate fisura şi chiar se poate rupe dacă nu îţi întăreşti mereu „imunitatea" leadershipului tău. Pentru ca puntea dintre prezentul şi viitorul tău, care-ţi asigură succesul, să se cimenteze, este absolut necesar să-ţi dezvolţi acele abilităţi de a-ţi evalua corect şi obiectiv personalul, acele abilităţi care te ajută să identifici adevăratele lor intenţii şi sentimente, şi să încerci să împiedici orice fel de abuzuri şi „lovituri sub centură".

Aşa cum o cultură corporatistă orientată către client constituie adeseori factorul cheie ce permite companiilor performante să acorde prioritate intereselor clienţilor atunci când acestea se confruntă cu presiuni din partea concurenţilor – tot aşa o gândire eficientă, bazată pe intuiţie şi pe raţionament îţi permite să acorzi prioritate acelor aspecte şi elemente care îţi umbresc leadershipul atunci când unul sau mai mulţi dintre subordonaţii tăi se îndepărtează de la criteriile de integritate pe care trebuie să le respecte.

Leadershipul este un elogiu adus timpului trecut, atunci cand ceea ce te-a propulsat in topul preferintelor oamenilor s-a inrudit cu acele convingeri care au inceput cu "Eu sunt - la nivel de superioritate" si au continuat cu "Eu sunt - la nivel de valoare."

Dacă treci tu linia, o trec şi eu este o expresie care indică schimbarea bruscă a atitudinii tale în momentul în care sesizezi o neconcordanţă între principiile corecte şi bine conturate care-ţi caracterizează personalitatea şi leadershipul - şi valorile lipsite de consistentă morală după care se ghidează subalternii tăi.

Eşecul este ca un simţământ apăsător pe care-l poţi îndura cu greu, ca o frământare căreia nu-i poţi găsi pricina, ca un joc ordinar care te poate face să pierzi tot ce-ai construit, tot ce-ai strâns o viaţă întreagă. Orice om, orice lider îşi schimbă viziunea, gândirea şi atitudinea atunci când eşecul îi bate la uşă din pricina propriilor sale slăbiciuni. Cine cade în capcana de a presupune că nu poate fi trădat de proprii săi subalterni, mai devreme sau mai târziu riscă să aibă o mare surpriză.

Fii prevăzător, dragă lider. Întăreşte „imunitatea" leadershipului tău dezvoltându-ţi acele abilităţi care te ajută să-ţi evaluezi corect şi obiectiv subalternii, ca să nu te trezeşti cu o surpriză neplăcută.

Concluzie: Un personaj de roman spunea odată: „În spatele cuvintelor dumitale se ascund gânduri criminale..." ceea ce însemna că a desluşit în cuvintele şi comportamentul interlocutorului său intenţiile acestuia, altele decât cele potrivite cu rangul şi poziţia pe care pretindea că le are. Este o dovadă că sunt oameni care ascund intenţii şi fapte reprobabile.

Astfel de oameni au existat şi vor exista întotdeauna. Prin urmare, ca lider trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi şi această abilitate de a cunoaşte oamenii care te înconjoară, să depistezi în timp util intenţiile lor reprobabile, „loviturile sub centură" pe care le pregătesc cu scopul de a se pune pe ei înşişi în evidenţă, de a prospera material, sau pur şi simplu din dorinţa de a face rău.

Prin această abilitate îţi întăreşti „imunitatea" leadershipului tău, îţi întăreşti poziţia ta în care ai ajuns şi te-ai menţinut fiind susţinut de oamenii corecţi. Învaţă modalităţile de a-i determina pe oamenii lipsiţi de scrupule să se demaşte singuri în faţa tuturor şi sancţionează-i aspru, după cum merită.

Dansul armonios al influenţei

On Iunie 29, 2011

Dezvăluie oamenilor esenţa a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat, ca să le deschizi calea de a se armoniza cu tine în emoţii şi în gândire.

În articolul „Doctorul Misterios” povesteam despre priceputul doctor Jacques Mérey şi despre sărmana copilă, Eva, care suferea de idioţie din naştere. Nimeni nu-i dădea vreo şansă de recuperare acestei făpturi umane, a cărei capacităţi mentale erau foarte reduse. Însă, datorită priceperii lui Jacques de a pătrunde în „tărâmul închis” al existenţei ei şi de a-i smulge toate stricăciunile lăuntrice, în cele din urmă ea se face bine.

Acest formidabil doctor, înzestrat cu o capacitate extraordinară de înţelegere a naturii umane, reuşeşte printr-o terapie adecvată s-o modeleze treptat pe Eva, să-i înlăture rezistenţa pe care o opunea mintea ei, să-i întărească spiritul plăpând eliminându-i toate temerile. Reuşeşte să-i îmbogăţească sentimentele într-un mediu favorabil, să-i orienteze gândirea prin acel haos în care se chinuia să supravieţuiască creându-i o anumită personalitate, un anumit fel de a reacţiona şi de a se comporta, în aşa fel încât să fie în concordanţă cu aşteptările tuturor.

Leadership: Desăvârşirea "creaţiei" tale poartă semnificaţiile unui sentiment copleşitor izvorât din simţirea prezenţei unui Sine mai înalt care dezleagă înţelesurile ascunse ale propriului drum în viaţă?

Reuşita doctorului s-a datorat în special efortului său constant de a-i redirecţiona fetei toate resursele interioare, toate energiile, toate capacităţile ei mentale şi emoţionale spre exterior. Eva trebuia să fie coordonată spre o coerenţă în gândire, în decizii, în exprimare şi comunicare, iar acest lucru nu se putea realiza decât printr-o atentă şi devotată colaborare între ei.

Într-adevăr, Jacques Mérey a dat dovadă de un leadership autentic, care nu trebuie pus la îndoială; un leadership care se bazează pe puterea exemplului, a consolidării relaţiilor interumane şi a perseverenţei. Pentru ca s-o aducă la o stare de normalitate pe micuţa Eva, el s-a îngrijit în mod special de simţurile ei, a ştiut să se strecoare în lumea de gânduri pe care ea nu le putea stăpâni ori concretiza, să le pună în ordine şi să le dezvolte permanent.

Iar, la rândul ei, Eva s-a conectat la sentimentele şi trăirile doctorului. Ea a simţit afecţiunea lui, a simţit că cineva îi vrea binele. Şi, ca urmare, ea şi-a deschis sufletul în faţa lui. Practic, Jacques Mérey i-a dezvăluit fetei esenţa a ceea ce era el cu adevărat – un om cu o nobleţe sufletească deosebită, a cărui bunătate nu cunoştea limite – deschizându-i astfel calea de a se armoniza cu el în emoţii şi gândire. Cu cât eşti mai legat de oameni, cu atât ei se vor simţi mai liberi să-şi exprime emoţiile.

Afecţiunea, prin însăşi actul creaţiei care implică faptul că un final potrivit care trebuie atins, îi lasă omului posibilitatea liberii alegeri, ca pe o însuşire ce îl face unic: de a auzi apelul Sufletului, al Spiritului de trezire la Viaţa adevărată. Altfel spus, afecţiunea este răspunsul la ceea ce percepem dincolo de aparenţele relaţionale, materiale, palpabile ale vieţii, din care voi reproduce esența: suntem datori să nu uităm ce-am fost şi ce-am învăţat să fim.

Leadership: Sensul existenţei tale îl aşază pe “omul pierdut” în relaţie cu o formă de adoraţie şi gratitudine faţă de o putere fără margini, pe traseul unei experienţe care reuneşte curiozitatea şi dorinţa de a încerca ceva nou?

Sensul existenţei tale este acela de a da curaj tuturor de a-şi descoperi potenţialul, indiferent de circumstanţele care au implicaţii asupra gradului în care o persoană este valorizată/acceptată în societate?

Atribuţiile unui lider sunt astfel folosite pentru ca întreaga scara ascensională de atitudini, de la erori la contradicţii, de la durere la mângâierea pe care o poate da conştiinţa propriei sale valori, să dea ocazia unei reflecţii asupra consecinţelor intrării în incapacitatea de a se face înţeles. Sau asupra modului de a se simţi "viu" prin ceilalţi.

Poţi să creezi noi modele de leadership prin aplicarea unui set de comenzi la nivel emoţional? Prin aplicarea unui set de comenzi la nivel emoţional liderul îşi orientează mai uşor şi mai departe influenţa asupra indivizilor, căutând astfel să răspundă chemării de a-şi manifesta necondiţionat, şi în acelaşi timp determinat, empatia, compasiunea şi generozitatea.

În viitor, arta de a-ţi redirecţiona resursele cele mai de preţ, puterea interioară şi motivaţia de a gândi pozitiv, mai ales spre acei indivizi care nu şi-au format "spaţiul de viaţă" (aflându-se mereu în incapacitatea de a se adapta la noile cerinţe de dezvoltare), este folosită nu atât în chip de preţuire, cât mai ales pentru realizarea raportului dintre identitate şi alteritate.

Pentru a comunica anumite idei, stări, sentimente, convingeri, într-o modalitate accesibilă tuturor, sensurile leadershipului trebuiesc căutate cu perseverenţă într-un strat mai profund, delimitate de acea explorare a cunoaşterii care nu prezintă sensibilitate. Permiţând o anumită stabilitate a frecvenţelor de rezonanţă în jurul probabilităţii omului de a se manifesta prin conştiinţă.

"Viul" pe care îl conţine modul tău concret de manifestare, alături de poziţie, situaţie şi opţiune personală, este împlinirea chemării omului de a-şi manifesta necondiţionat şi în acelaşi timp determinat, empatia, compasiunea şi generozitatea.

Liderul din viitor va căuta să-şi aducă contribuţia la crearea unei noi identităţi până la punctul în care receptivitatea oamenilor la influenţa sa este maximalizată (punctul în care devine extraordinar de alert la schimbările petrecute în sfera vieţii lor particulare), dar fără a încorda prea mult resorturile fiinţei lor în direcţia anularii identităţii lor. Identitatea trebuie păstrată, sau îmbunătăţită, dar niciodată alterată.

Ca lider, te ocupi de stimularea comportamentului oamenilor şi de receptivitatea pe care o întâmpini din partea tuturor celor care au înţeles esenţa demersurilor tale. Când oamenii neperformanţi sau "limitaţi de barierele vieţii" au ajuns la o stare de normalitate datorită influenţei tale, atunci vor începe să se formeze noi modele, noi structuri sau configuraţii de leadership.

Leadership: Creşte-ţi constant numărul de "bile albe", pentru realizarea unei depline înţelegeri reciproce !

Dezvăluie oamenilor adevărata natură a caracterului tău, oferă-le posibilitatea de a-şi îmbunătăţi imaginea despre tine prin sentimentele calde, optimiste pe care le degaji. Modelează-te după idealul pe care ei îl poartă în suflet, ridică-te la înălţimea aşteptărilor lor oferindu-le posibilitatea de a reflecta asupra personalităţii tale, asupra propriilor tale convingeri, gânduri şi sentimente. Dar pentru asta trebuie să pătrunzi în natura lor reală, în universul lor interior, să te strecori în lumea lor de gânduri şi să-i acaparezi prin entuziasm şi bucurie.

Aşa cum o pictură a cărei tonalităţi dominate de galben, portocaliu şi roşu dă senzaţia de căldură - tot aşa personalitatea şi caracterul tău, daca sunt dominate de nişte trăsături frumoase şi bine conturate, vor degaja acea căldură sufletească care-i va atrage pe oameni spre tine. Trebuie să-ţi creşti constant numărul de "bile albe" pentru ca ei să te accepte în sufletul lor, dându-le prilejul, în acelaşi timp, să afle despre adevărata ta natură interioară.

Bilele albe sunt create de acea combinaţie unică între puterea interioară de a ști că poți construi din oameni mici - oameni mari cu valori morale înalte, şi acea dimensiune a misiunii pe care tu însuţi o descoperi prin experienţele şi trăirile pe care le înfrunţi.

Dansul armonios al influenţei

Influenţa se aseamănă în anumite privinţe cu un dans, în care o persoană conduce iar cealaltă îl urmează. Este un dans în care atenţia şi grija faţă de partener sunt foarte importante. Este un dans care solicită şi dezvoltă abilităţile de relaţionare între oameni şi care este în acelaşi timp controlat, dar şi intens.

Ca să faci un pas hotărâtor în direcţia unei depline înţelegeri trebuie să devii acel „partener" pe care oamenii să se poată baza, care să le conducă emoţiile, idealurile, gândurile, acţiunile pe ritmul propriilor paşi – pe ritmul propriilor judecăţi sănătoase şi corecte. Trebuie să le întăreşti oamenilor spiritul prin „mişcări" bine coordonate, pline de armonie, de ritm, de energie şi extrem de expresive, redându-le plinătatea vieţii şi dinamismul lor interior.

Dansul magicianului (II)

On Aprilie 13, 2010

Menţine-te la înălţimea propriilor tale performanţe, sporind cât mai mult acea parte a potenţialului tău de a fi superior celorlalţi şi propriei tale fiinţe.

Paşii încep să zboare pe ritmurile melodiei. Demonstrând că este o fire slabă şi stângace, Diego reuşeşte să iasă din vizorul nemilosului colonel Huerta, făcându-l să creadă că el este cel care conduce dansul, urmându-i ritmul şi lăsându-l să ia iniţiativa. Apoi, dovedind în chip indiscutabil o măiestrie psihologică exemplară, îşi îmbracă persoana cu un fel de aură magică, sporindu-şi autoritatea prin sugestia misterului. Devine: Zorro.

Înveşmântat tot numai în negru ca un erou al lui Alexandre Dumas, şi ascunzându-şi chipul în spatele unei măşti, el îşi călăuzeşte paşii spre alt gen de dans, un dans care magnetizează mulţimile de oameni, un dans plin de pasiune, rapid şi fascinant, interpretat cu mişcări largi, pline de eleganţă, cu înălţări şi coborâri, cu ruperi de ritm, un dans care se caracterizează prin forţă şi agilitate, care creşte tensiunea în rândul spectatorilor şi-i scoate în evidenţă caracterul puternic.

Câtă vâlvă, cât entuziasm frenetic. Credinţa în magia personalităţii sale, în puterea sa de vrajă, devine pentru oameni un fel de izbândă, o binecuvântare, iar el însuşi e privit ca un sfânt, salvatorul mult aşteptat. Când el, Zorro, îşi face apariţia, oamenii, plini de recunoştinţă, cu mândrie şi respect, îşi întrerup toate activităţile numai pentru a admira spectacolul oferit de acesta. Nimeni, nicicând n-a obţinut un succes atât de rapid şi de senzaţional. Toată lumea se pune în unanimitate, cu hotărâre, de partea salvatorului ei.

Leadership: Poţi să dai un sens mai profund acţiunilor tale, acceptând faptul că imaginea altcuiva reprezintă mai mult decât abilitățile tale?

Numai un singur om priveşte de departe cu neclintită neîncredere toată această agitaţie magică: colonelul Huerta. Cine este Zorro? Cine este această fantomă primejdioasă? Cine are curajul să lumineze mintea oamenilor? Ce-l mână pe acest salvator, smuls din patul său asemeni unui înger înaripat, deasupra tuturor primejdiilor? Dar – cruntă fatalitate ! Zorro este chiar guvernatorul, bufonul cel trist şi însingurat, mistuit mereu de propria sa neputinţă de a-şi manifesta voinţa.

Cuprins de furie la aflarea adevărului, nerăbdător cum sunt oamenii mânaţi doar de propriile interese, Huerta încearcă să-l omoare pe Zorro pentru a-şi dovedi odată pentru totdeauna supremaţia. Spectacolul se desfăşoară sub privirile tuturor localnicilor. Acest ultim dans, în care forţele binelui se luptă cu forţele răului, va decide învingătorul. Lupta se încinge. Şi în final binele triumfă.

A da un sens mai profund acţiunilor tale, odată parcurse toate etapele evaluării rezultatelor obţinute anterior, înseamnă să introduci o diferenţiere sub aspectul experienţelor emoţionale între ipoteza recurgerii la o identitate fictivă de om faimos şi cea a utilizării frauduloase a identităţii aparţinând altei persoanei, doar pentru a-ţi construi o imagine de sine pozitivă.

Leadershipul tău pendulează în mod negativ între explorarea potenţialului de a fi superior şi confruntarea cu tine însuţi, până în momentul în care depășești teama de „ce ar putea spune ceilalţi" dacă ar afla cine eşti cu adevărat?

A arunca înainte un întreg arsenal de mişcări, tehnici, poziţii, într-o reprezentaţie excepţională de dans şi teatru, spre a obţine cele mai bune rezultate, dezvăluie atât defectul care te poate ruina (dependenţa de a fi în prim plan), cât şi calitatea care te poate îmbogăţi (dependenţa de a te simţi valoros).

Leadershipul este afectat în mod negativ de prestanţa ta atunci când evenimentele de tip determinism devin incontrolabile, te iau pe nepregătite şi trebuie să te laşi copleşit de faptul că ceea ce te poate opri din avântul tău nu e altceva decât teama de „ce ar putea spune ceilalţi" dacă ar afla cine eşti cu adevărat.

Dacă nu vrei ca leadershipul să penduleze în mod negativ între explorarea potenţialului de a fi superior şi confruntarea cu tine însuţi, atunci personalizează-ţi călăuza interioară prin ruperea legăturii dintre sinele superior şi cel inferior. Primul te ridică dar te şi coboară, al doilea nu admite decât raţiunea şi nu îţi asigură participarea la spectacolul promovării valorii proprii.

E o certitudine. Fără a avea un susţinător de mare calibru, de pildă puterea de a te împotrivi unei autorităţi care refuză să se alinieze convingerilor tale, actul în sine - dansul printre fortăreţele atenţiei, printre scopuri şi obiective greu de atins, printre obligaţii şi prestaţii blindate de o valoare măreaţă, nu vei putea deveni decât un facilitator al accederii spre singurătatea înălţimilor.

Totuşi, improvizând propriile legi de construcţie a scenei de spectacol, pe paşii de dans ai aparenţelor şi efectelor de umbră, de care te faci direct răspunzător, vei putea să-ţi asiguri o protecţie împotriva propriilor tale slăbiciuni.

Leadership: Dorința de a da un "Zoom" devenirii tale vine din sfera reprezentărilor călăuzitoare de tipul principiilor restrictive, chiar şi în condiţii de "vizibilitate scăzută"?

Leadershipul este un dans care nu se execută în doi oameni aflaţi pe aceeaşi poziţie de duşmani. Doi lideri nu pot dansa împreună acelaşi vals, în acelaşi spectacol, şi totodată să iasă amândoi pe locul întâi. Unul trebuie să piardă, trebuie să fie descalificat. Prin urmare, cu cât stilul de „dans" al unuia este mai performant, cu cât îşi execută mai bine paşii, cu atât este mai bun, cu atât are mai mulţi susţinători şi mai mulţi admiratori, în detrimentul celuilalt, mai slab.

Leadershipul este o competiţie în care fiecare om puternic vrea să ajungă pe locul întâi. Ca să dai o temelie trainică puterii tale, trebuie să-ţi ascunzi intenţiile şi să intuieşti următorul pas al oponentului tău. Încearcă să întrevezi de departe obstacolele, construieşte-ţi o strategie foarte bună şi foloseşte-te, ca un înţelept, de avantajul timpului.

Vizibilitatea Scăzută, din multitudinea variantelor care favorizează apariţia situaţiilor neprevăzute, are ca element declanşator promovarea ta în lume sub o altă identitate, pentru a înlesni o integrabilitate sporită a impactului intervenţiilor tale în vieţile altora. Ea se prezintă sub următoarea formula: "Fii întotdeauna la vedere, fără să-ţi afişezi statutul de putere şi autoritate."

Singura cale de a învinge un adversar viclean, este să fii mult mai viclean ca el. Asta este realitatea pe care trebuie să o accepţi: în leadership ori eşti puternic, ori eşti slab. Iar a fi puternic înseamnă să te foloseşti atât de forţă cât şi de vicleşug, indiferent că eşti de partea Binelui sau a Răului.

Însă, principiile sunt mai puternice decât intrigile, răsturnările de situaţie, manevrele de diversiune sau jocurile de putere. Aşa încât, va trebui să analizezi factorii care înlesnesc producerea unui răspuns în sensul mesajului pe care-l scoţi în lume, vizavi de ceea ce vrei să întreprinzi într-un context de tipul: "Nu te lăsa prins de forma şi aparenţele unei provocări".

Adevărata menire pe care trebuie să ţi-o asumi este o căutare a sensului faptelor trăite şi a evenimentelor care te obligă la promovarea unei imagini reale şi corecte despre tine, prin intermediul unor situaţii în care te simţi valoros.

Concluzie: Ca lider înţelept trebuie să întrezăreşti partea nevăzuta şi neştiută a lucrurilor, respectiv a adversarilor. Nu întotdeauna ce este vizibil etalat în ochii tuturor constituie realitatea. Există întotdeauna elemente bine ascunse pe care trebuie să le afli, acestea constituind de cele mai multe ori asul din propria-ţi mânecă.

Ca să-ţi creşti potenţialul de lider la maximul, mai întâi asigură-i imunitate. Cum? Creând un "dans" de leadership cât mai special şi cât mai reuşit !

Dansul magicianului (I)

On Aprilie 13, 2010

Valorifică-ţi leadershipul în sensul interpretării a ceea ce vrei să devii, intrând în relaţie cu acea autoritate definitorie care are puterea de a controla particularul.

În sfârşit, după mulţi ani, s-au reîntâlnit. Miquel tocmai fusese numit guvernator în Noul Aragon, o provincie nouă în care trebuia să ştie să conducă, în timp ce Don Diego de la Vega, prietenul său de nădejde, devenise un spadasin de excepţie, poate chiar cel mai bun spadasin din lume.

Miquel avea planuri mari, visa să întemeieze o lume nouă, bazată pe dreptate şi egalitate. Dar toate visele sale s-au spulberat când, chiar în noaptea reîntâlnirii lor, a fost atacat de către asasinii colonelul Huerta, un om corupt, fără scrupule, care dorea cu orice chip să conducă el Noul Aragon.

Diego nu a avut timp să-şi salveze prietenul, dar înainte ca acesta să-şi dea ultima suflare, i-a jurat că va împlini toate principiile şi idealurile în care credea. Aşa că şi-a adăpostit personalitatea sub un pseudonim: Zorro.

Leadership: Îţi asumi compromisul în determinarea caracteristicilor de personalitate pe care le manevrezi, arătându-te limitat şi deficitar tocmai în ceea ce înţelege din perspectiva unei lărgiri de influenţă?

Fiorul primului dans. Zis şi făcut. Ca un bun psiholog, folosindu-se de numele şi de titlul prietenului său, Diego se proclamă guvernator imediat ce ajunge în Noul Aragon. Iar pentru a înlătura orice bănuială şi pentru a preveni orice posibil atentat la viaţa lui, el ia înfăţişarea unui om foarte sensibil, mereu împiedicat, peste măsură de fricos şi emotiv, afişând peste tot o stângăcie nemaiîntâlnită.

La fel ca un dansator începător de passo doble care cu o stângăcie ridicolă învaţă primii paşi, într-adevăr anevoioşi, şi execută încet, cu teamă şi neatenţie toate mişcările, Diego, oriunde s-ar afla, aproape clipă de clipă, cere indicaţii cât mai exacte, are permanent nevoie de îndrumare, stârneşte când râsul, când plânsul prin atitudinea sa necontrolată şi nesigură, constituind astfel pentru toţi cei de la curte un personaj novice, incapabil şi lipsit de interes.

Aşa cum bine plănuise, Diego apare mai degrabă drept un bufon care încearcă să distreze lumea, nicidecum un răzbunător cu sabia scoasă. Dar, indirect, tot acest joc avea ca scop extinderea sferei sale de influenţă. Zorro şi-a câştigat reputaţia mai întâi prin exploatarea slăbiciunii pe care a arătat-o lumii, apoi prin asigurarea condiţiei de originalitate în impunerea propriilor reguli.

Leadership: Te laşi prins în limitele unui spaţiu destul de îngust de manevrare a rolului tău, ca o prelungire a necesității de a nu te da bătut în lupta cu tine însuţi?

Dacă un nucleu de gândire şi planificare a acţiunilor este bombardat de o mulţime de constrângeri şi provocări dificile, dar interesante în acelaşi timp, singurul mod de a le face faţă este de a le bloca în afara zonei de siguranţă. Sau, altfel spus, prin manifestarea acelei înalte virtuţi numite de scriitorul român, Nicolae Iorga: “capacitate de a ieşi de sub ocupaţie".

Leadershipul nu poate să constituie, decât cu mari excepţii, un model de solidaritate şi colaborare într-un cadru puternic competiţional, dacă eşti prins în limitele unui spaţiu destul de îngust de manevrare a rolului tău. Ci, întotdeauna, leadershipul pare mai degrabă a fi reordonat şi recizelat de-a lungul unui context variat de situaţii şi experienţe, exprimat cu ajutorul unei structuri de gândire care îl pune pe om în multiple ipostaze.

Rolul pe care ţi-l asumi trebuie să fie o prelungire a necesității de a nu te da bătut în lupta cu tine însuţi atunci când îţi sunt impuse acele limite de risc calculate prin regula: "e mai uşor să accepţi răutăţile altora, decât să-ţi impui bunătatea ta".

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti „particularul" în jocul transformărilor de personalitate, utilizând o probabilitate de „apariţie" surprinzătoare în mijlocul multiplelor tale căi de acţiune?

Una din ipostazele liderului, este cea de "dansator-actor", intrând în rolul celui care îşi lasă amprenta într-un mod plăcut, făcându-se remarcat cu uşurinţă în procesul de aplicare a propriilor sale legi de funcţionare.

Un asemenea om utilizează o probabilitate de „apariţie" surprinzătoare în mijlocul multiplelor tale căi de acţiune pentru a maximiza impactul corespunzător asupra obiectivelor, căutându-şi echilibrul în absenţa limitelor sale, riscându-şi viaţa în faţa unei puteri enorme. Puterea de a face faţă acelei autorităţi opresive, cu o conotaţie negativă, numite "predestinare", mai mult prin explorarea adâncă a „particularului".

Particularul este ceea ce rămâne după traversarea unui spaţiu populat cu limite. Este rezultatul a ceea ce faci cu fiecare pas al construcţiei de noi identităţi şi de noi stiluri de leadership (bazate pe sărituri, răsuciri, piruete, combinaţii de competenţe, schimbări de scenarii, scheme complexe de acţiune şi planuri ascunse). Şi el va depinde într-o anumită măsură de jocul special al transformărilor de personalitate.

Leadershipul este un joc al minţii şi gândiri, în sensul interpretării a ceea ce vrei să devii, pe care cu dibăcie îl poţi înscrie in cartea vieţii şi a realizărilor tale, în care tu eşti jucătorul principal.

Dansul magicianului exprimă ceea ce vrei să fii în concordanţă cu leadershipul, intrând în relaţie cu o autoritate definitorie. Această autoritate, coincizând cu gradul de responsabilitate pe care ţi-l asumi, trebuie să-ţi dea tot timpul ascultare şi, mai ales, trebuie să aibă puteri de suspendare sau îngrădire a accesului celorlalţi în spaţiul propriu de progres pe calea transformării de sine.

Dansul, ca mijloc de expresie creativă, exprimă ceea ce vrei să fii în concordanță cu actul de influență strategică al unei figuri emblematice a misterului, intrând în relație cu o putere recunoscută și cu esența clarificatoare a leadershipului.

Dar tabloul, cât ar costa?

On Februarie 20, 2014

Descoperă ceea ce se potriveşte cu adevărat propriei tale personalităţi, printr-o raportare la elementele componente ale realităţi asupra căreia te focalizezi.

„Dar tabloul, cât ar costa? M-am întrebat. Să presupunem că aş fi cumpărat acel tablou? Eşti nebun, mi-am zis. Doar nu mori după tablouri în general. Era destul de adevărat. Dar voiam acel tablou. Mi-ar fi plăcut să fie al meu. Mi-ar fi plăcut să pot să-l atârn pe un perete, să stau şi să-l admir cât aş fi vrut, ştiind că îl posed. În întregime.

Eu ! Cumpărând tablouri. Părea ceva nebunesc. M-am uitat la tabloul acela din nou. Şi din nou. Şi din nou. Era diferit faţă de celelalte. Dorinţa de a avea acel tablou nu se justifica şi oricum nu-mi permiteam, pesemne, preţul. Eram, totuşi, în bani în perioada respectivă. Era scump, dar merita.” *****

Leadership: Eşti deschis în privinţa explorării unei noi zone de identificare a ceea ce contează cu adevărat pentru reconfigurarea ta în relaţia dintre ceea ce îţi justifică nevoia de a încerca ceva diferit şi disponibilitatea ta de a învesti în ceva costisitor?

Cea mai bună cale de a înţelege leadershipul, printr-o raportare la elementele componente ale mediul extern care acţionează indirect asupra întregii tale fiinţe, este de a-ţi focaliza atenţia asupra a ceva anume care prezintă interes pentru formarea ta ca om. Sau, mai bine zis, de a selecta informaţiile relevante pentru conţinutul propriei tale interiorităţi, care să sporească acea satisfacţie de a te simţi împlinit fiindcă ai reuşit să pui accent pe un lucru cu care te poţi mândri atât personal, cât poate şi în faţa celorlalţi.

Să ajuţi leadershipul să se dezvolte din punct de vedere al capacităţii de utiliza concomitent multiple surse de interes, de inspiraţie şi de motivaţie, care să cuprindă inclusiv estimarea proprie a posibilităţilor de ascensiune spre un alt nivel de abordare a lucrurilor, este o cerinţă fundamentală pentru a deveni mai deschis în privinţa experienţelor noi de autocunoaştere. De explorare a perimetrelor existenţiale şi profesionale, dotate cu noi resurse de automodelare a personalităţii.

Între nevoia de a încerca ceva diferit şi disponibilitatea de a înveşti în ceva costisitor există un raport de continuitate de la întreg la parte, contribuind la crearea unui personaj de accentuată complexitate.

Mai întâi eşti un om a cărui valoare personală este exprimată prin raportare la un produs, prin comparaţie cu un preţ care continua să crească. Apoi, eşti un om a cărui existenţă se confundă cu arta, prin recunoştinţa faţă de profunzimea unei creaţii, faţă de nevoia imperativă de schimbare a perspectivei, dar şi faţă de aspiraţia către stabilitatea formei, chiar şi cu preţul sacrificării farmecului particular al lumii.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti recunoştinţa faţă de ceea ce ne vine dintr-o anumită direcţie, apreciind valoarea unui unicat care nu îşi propune să ajungă în producţia de serie?

Tabloul reprezintă un lucru de valoare de care nu te poţi dispensa, numai în cazul în care el însuşi reflectă valoarea unei experienţe creatoare, pe deplin grăitoare atât prin mesaj cât mai ales prin părţile ei de lumină. Este posibil să nu recunoaştem imediat valoarea unei asemenea experienţe, ci doar atunci când privim în urmă şi retrăim amintirile pe care ni le-a lăsat.

Valoarea unei experienţe creatoare se maximizează doar dacă în mintea celor pe care vrem să-i influenţăm se creează o anumită fidelizare faţă de un brand, o dependenţă de lucrul bine făcut, exprimate prin următoarea formulare: „Mi-a plăcut chestia asta şi o recomand tututor".

Însăşi faptul de a te axa pe lucrurile care te poziţionează într-o lumină favorabilă în faţa autorităţii tale personale, sporind-o prin plăcerea de a savura o experienţă inedită, de tipul " îmi pot permite o mică desfătare " este o provocare care îţi pune la încercare capacitatea de a te apropia de ceea ce îţi lipseşte, de ceea ce te interesează cu adevărat. Şi care poate să devină o parte din tine. O pasiune. O temelie solidă pentru formarea unui caracter stabil şi permanent "în viaţă", care asigură o mai uşoară gestionare a resurselor leadershipului.

Motivaţiile tale ascunse te vor pune în faţa unui tablou cu multe încurcături. Vei începe să explorezi o nouă latură a designului tău interior, dublând anumite impulsuri interioare, anumite plăceri sau nevoi, cu decizii care să susţină solidaritatea faţă de propriile tale convingeri şi valori.

Dacă nu vrei să te trezeşti în situaţia de a fi prins în mijlocul unei degringolade de ordin valoric la nivelul personalităţii, va trebui să le deznozi şi să le clarifici, înainte de a intra în "turbulenţele" de ordin material pe care leadershipul le produce deseori.

Leadershipul este tabloul acela la care te uiţi din nou şi din nou. Şi din nou. E diferit faţă de celelalte. Chiar dacă dorinţa de a avea acest tablou nu se justifică, trebuie să-ţi permiţi preţul de a-l recomanda celorlaţi ca pe un însoţitor perfect al meseriei de artist, ca pe un reper de neevitat în crearea imaginii personale şi un excelent instrument de lucru pentru aprofundarea conținuturilor de gândire şi de natură emoţională pe care tebuie să le parcurgă ceilalţi.

Dar tabloul, cât ar costa? aduce în prim plan acea nevoie imperioasă de autoevaluare permanentă a inventarului tău de piese şi accesorii ce adună laolaltă o mare varietate de configuraţii propriei tale fiinţe. Aceste configuraţi pot avea un grad de dezordine mai ridicat, cuprinse între plăcerea de a gândi şi gândirea plăcerii.

Iar aceste configuraţii au ca rol conştientizarea valorilor personale, găsind în tine noi resurse de stimulare a interesului pentru alcătuirea unui nou tip de personalitate – care se acceptă pe sine, se înţelege pe sine şi se autodepăşeşte prin puterea de a-şi întreţine corespunzător nevoile şi dorinţele.

Darul maestrului Durer

On Aprilie 28, 2010

Manifestă-ţi necontenit respectul faţă de leadershipului tău, onorându-ţi rolul printr-o mentalitate sănătoasă şi prin iscusinţa ta de a însufleţi spirite.

Nici pentru Mikael, nici pentru prietenul său Antti nu se sfârşiseră încă necazurile. Trecuseră prin multe împreună, avuseseră parte de multe suferinţe. Dar într-o zi, în călătoria lor, au poposit în oraşul Nürnberg, unde l-au cunoscut pe maestrul Dürer, un bărbat cu mare faimă, un desenator desăvârşit, iar pe deasupra un om de o înaltă erudiţie, căruia până şi prinţii căutau să-i intre în graţii. În ciuda faptului că avea o aparentă simplitate în vorba domoală, îi domina pe cei din jurul lui prin inteligenţă, talent şi cunoştinţe.

Aproape o zi întreagă Mikael a stat de vorbă cu maestrul Dürer care i-a povestit despre toată învăţătura acumulată, despre filozofia sa de viaţă, despre viziunea sa. La despărţire maestrul i-a dăruit trei gravuri, pe care le-a autentificat cu semnătura sa, alături de care i-a scris numele său. I-a mai dat şi o scrisoare de recomandare pentru pictorul Tiţian, sfătuindu-l să-l viziteze atunci când va ajunge la Veneţia. Şi, în sfârşit, cu o bucurie care-l uimi pe tânăr, maestrul îi spuse, înainte de a-şi lua rămas bun:

- Mikael, tu ai ochi care pot înţelege mesajul artei, e un dar pe care l-ai primit de la Dumnezeu şi pe care ar trebui să nu-l neglijezi niciodată, ci să-l dezvolţi ori de câte ori ţi se iveşte prilejul.

Leadership: Experienţa pe care ţi-o oferă lărgirea orizontului din perspectiva mesajului care îţi aprinde mintea, îţi îngăduie să treci în fugă peste un sumar de competenţe care se diversifică, indiferent ce pui în el?

Sfatul maestrului Dürer a contat mult, făcându-l pe Mikael să înţeleagă de ce e mai bine să privească lucrurile din jur cu mai mult interes, cu mai multă atenţie, cu dăruire şi bucurie, la fel ca un artist adevărat. De atunci Mikael a început să privească totul în jur cu alţi ochi. Viaţa lui a devenit mai bogată când a început să aprecieze frumuseţea formelor, a proporţiilor şi culorilor, şi frumuseţea lucrurilor din jur.

Dar marele dar pe care Mikael l-a primit de la maestrul Dürer, pe care l-a preţuit ca pe un om extraordinar, a constat în aceea că i-a deschis o perspectivă nouă asupra vieţii, asupra lucrurilor importante şi definitorii pentru existenţa lui, asupra lumii, asupra viitorului, transmiţându-i o stare de linişte interioară. Practic l-a învăţat să trieze ceea ce este cu adevărat important de ştiut şi de înţeles pentru evoluţia lui, de ceea ce poate fi lăsat deoparte.

Însă competenţele lui Mikael în ceea ce priveşte contribuţia la dezvoltarea propriu-zisă a artei s-au redus doar la realizarea unei corespondenţe cu viaţa, nu printr-o concepţie proprie asupra practicii şi nu printr-o abordare creativă a practicii. Iar, gradul de realizare efectivă a unei opere de artă se poate evalua doar printr-o atentă observare şi îmbunătăţire a practicii acesteia.

Leadership: Alegi să parcurgi un drum al iniţierii în artă printr-o repetată asumare a tuturor valorilor autentice ale cunoaşterii care îţi permit să receptezi o călăuzire în viaţă?

Întâmplare sau providenţă? Mikael a avut prilejul să cunoască un excepţional artist pe care întâmplarea i l-a scos în cale şi pe care nu a mai avut prilejul de a-l revedea vreodată. Căci, aşa cum un pacient aflat în suferinţă are nevoie de un doctor foarte bun care să-i facă o analiză, să-i zică de ce boală suferă şi apoi să-l trateze corespunzător - tot aşa Mikael, a cărui viaţă se cufunda de ceva vreme într-o stare profundă de apatie şi depresie, din cauza atâtor necazuri prin care trecuse, avea mare nevoie de cineva care să-i acorde sprijin moral şi sufletesc şi care să-l scoată din starea în care se afla.

Dürer era un vizionar, un deschizător de drumuri, un mentor desăvârşit care, cu interes şi o încredere deplină, care a fost în stare să-i deschidă ochii lui Mikael către un orizont mai larg, sporindu-i în acelaşi timp acea poftă de viaţă trecută prin sita cunoaşterii.

Leadership: Îţi utilizezi la maxim potenţialul de a trezi în cei superiori ţie măsura valorii lor individuale?

Poţi să realizezi selecţia unui anumit tip de intervenţie în viaţa altora prin integrarea unei noi vibraţii spirituale şi intelectuale, prin filtrarea calităţilor care confirmă o mai complexă maturitate în a privi lucrurile?

Începi să atragi oarece fonduri de inspiraţie atunci când măsori distanţa dintre centrele celor două baze "ştiinţă" şi "orizont" , sprijinindu-te pe ceea ce îţi este propus ca formă nouă de suport. Acesta este lucrul pe care îl faci întotdeauna când realizezi o anumită finalitate, la o asemenea scară, a modelării personalităţii - care include învăţarea, instruirea, educarea şi dezvoltarea personală prin extinderea reţelei proprii de coordonate.

Este vorba, mai întâi, de acele coordonate care te ajută să-ţi construieşti o nouă imagine, imitând trăsăturile de caracter ale unui model de urmat. Apoi, acele coordonate care îţi atestă o certă maturizare, nu tocmai fixe, ci modificându-se din mers, o maturizare care se împotriveşte oricăror condiţionări, delimitând o nouă versiune a ceea ce cunoşti despre tine. Şi un set de coordonate de poziţionare într-o postură unică, avantajoasă, de atacant, care îţi permite să aplici o accelerație corespunzătoare a transformării tale atunci când te afli în faţa unui nou început.

Iar maturitatea în modul în care cei superiori ţie îşi fac cunoscută experiența, asumându-şi responsabilitatea pentru rolul și acțiunile lor, ar trebui să fie o „strategie" a potenţialului tău de a trezi în ei măsura valorii lor individuale.

Leadership: Porneşti modul "user" pentru a activa opţiunea "Intelligent Sensor" cu scopul de a controla efectele unor convingeri care nu suportă modificări?

Unul dintre modurile de a obţine o mai bună deblocare de pe o poziţie de inferioritate, foarte aproape de ceea ce numim un amestec de amatorism şi autosuficienţă, constă în implicarea unui mentor care să te înveţe să triezi ceea ce este cu adevărat important să înţelegi şi să ai în vedere pentru evoluţia ta, de ceea ce poate fi lăsat deoparte. Dar depinde de puterea ta de absorbţie a completărilor ce ţi-au fost aduse pe parcurs pentru a finaliza extensia unei deveniri în spaţiul concretului. În plus, trebuie să te asiguri că eşti capabil şi dispus să plăteşti pentru participarea unei gândiri superioare la propria ta realizare de sine.

Modul "user" se referă la capacitatea de a te integra într-un proces de absorbţie a cunoaşterii superioare fără a-ţi pierde originalitatea, independenţa gândirii, aşteptând în acelaşi timp o confirmare a modului în care eşti perceput de ceilalţi.

Iar a activa opţiunea "Intelligent Sensor" cu scopul de a controla efectele unor convingeri care nu suportă modificări, înseamnă să accentuezi acea tendinţă de repoziţionare în relaţia cu minţile mult mai evoluate decât tine, preluând cu multă chibzuinţă şi determinare (examinând obiecţiile ridicate şi acceptând criticile constructive) orice fel de înţelegeri care îţi completează stilul de gândire şi personalitatea.

Leadership: Facilitezi accesarea unei noi dimensiuni a vieţii comparându-te cu acea versiune de realitate cu care şi-au construit alţii valoarea?

Decât o mentalitate ieftină, mai bine una sănătoasă. Maestrul Dürer era, pe lângă un artist desăvârşit, un om cu o conduită morală ireproşabilă, un om cu idealuri înalte, foarte cultivat, foarte talentat, şi cu multă bunăvoinţă, care a redeşteptat în Mikael, într-un timp foarte scurt, setea de cunoaştere, setea de viaţă, ajutându-l să se descotorosească de o mare parte din imperfecţiunile pe care le avea.

Folosindu-se de darul neaşteptat, nesperat, uluitor al maestrului, acela de a vedea viaţa mai mult în culori decât numai în alb şi negru, de a aprecia frumuseţea lucrurilor din jur, Mikael şi-a recâştigat optimismul şi voinţa de altădată, păstrându-şi în inimă un strop de speranţă privind viitorul lui destul de incert.

Nu poţi vedea lumea întreagă dacă orizontul îţi este limitat la lărgimea unei străzi. În orice clipă poţi învăţa ceva nou cu condiţia să vrei şi să ai pe cineva alături de tine care să te sprijine emoţional şi care să-ţi dea sfaturi atunci când ai nevoie, mai ales când treci prin momente grele, mai ales atunci când nu înţelegi anumite lucruri sau nu te poţi hotărî în privinţa unei direcţii de urmat.

Un astfel de om, un mentor, trebuie să fie numaidecât o persoană extraordinară, o fire luminată, măreaţă prin gândirea sa individuală, cu o putere de convingere uluitoare, de la care poţi învăţa cu mult interes şi bucurie să priveşti totul cu ochi buni şi cu multă încredere. Iar cu înflăcărarea pe care o pune un om în toate, şi ţinând seama de lucrurile cu adevărat importante, să-ţi stabileşti nişte scopuri înalte şi, cu putere în suflet, să cauţi să le atingi.

Realitatea cu care îşi construiesc oamenii mari valoarea este o versiune a artei de a face din ei înşişi o creaţie.

Darul maestrului Dürer nu este altceva decât o uşă deschisă spre o altă perspectivă, spre un alt fel de viitor la care poţi ajunge urmând alte căi, uneori mai puţin bătătorite, iar alteori necunoscute şi neştiute de nimeni. Este foarte util să-ţi găseşti un mentor care să-ţi deschidă această uşă spre un viitor alternativ, poate mai bun, şi, la fel, este foarte important să ştii să asculţi şi să înţelegi tâlcul cuvintelor acestui mentor.

Numai un om care, printr-o mentalitate sănătoasă şi prin iscusinţa sa reuşeşte să însufleţească spirite şi să schimbe destine, numai acel om are aptitudini reale de lider.

Datoria mea este să te ascult şi să fac tot ce va depinde de mine

On August 24, 2010

Ţine cont de calităţile cu care îţi amplifici mândria de a fi "alesul cunoaşterii", apreciindu-le în măsura în care îţi afişezi şi îţi controlezi atitudinea şi valorile în faţa celorlalţi.

Samuel citi pe faţa ei tot ceea ce resimţea, şi avu o clipă de descurajare.

- Teamă ! fie, zise el ridicându-se, mândru şi aproape frumos. Teamă ! Pentru că nu semăn cu unii din acei trecători uşuratici, care n-au în cap nici o idee, ci doar buzunarul burduşit; pentru că am gândit, pentru că am trăit, pentru că port pe chipul meu amprenta faptelor mele şi a tuturor lucrurilor pe care le-am văzut; pentru că, în loc să depun la picioarele tale o pungă de bani ca să ie cumpăr, vin cu o minte încercată, cu un suflet călit în toate apele vieţii, un rezervor plin de cunoştinţe acumulate şi de experienţă.

Şi totuşi, ce-ar trebui să atragă mai mult şi să impresioneze o femeie inteligentă? O inimă slabă şi puerilă care i se dăruie prosteşte în pragul vieţii, pentru că este prima ce i-a răsărit în cale, sau un suflet bărbătesc care a cunoscut totul, a cântărit totul, puterea, ştiinţa, geniul şi care, din tot ceea ce există pe lume, n-o vrea decât pe ea, n-o caută decât pe ea, n-o acceptă decât pe ea? Bogăţia şi puterea sunt pentru a-ţi fi dăruite, pentru a te merita. Te-am ridicat atât de sus în ochii mei, încât aş vrea să am munţi de aur ca să urc deasupra şi să ajung la înălţimea ta. Aşa te iubesc eu. Mi se pare că eu singur nu preţuiesc nimic pentru tine şi că pentru a te egala, ar trebui să posed tot aurul din lume.

Totuşi, te asigur că nu sunt un om chiar de dispreţuit. Am încercat şi am făcut lucruri care îţi vor apărea poate măreţe, dacă ţi le-aş povesti. Am avut în creierul meu, şi poate că mai am şi acum planuri de schimbare a chipului Europei. Ei bine ! toate astea ţi le dăruiesc ţie. Totul iţi aparţine. Valoarea mea, tot ceea ce am fost, tot ce voi fi, sunt ale tale; cu atât mai mult cu cât, sunt convins, nu pot fi nimic fără tine. Te implor, nu mă dispreţui. Alte femei m-au dispreţuit, le-am zdrobit. Dar pe tine te iubesc, n-o să te distrug; aş muri. Fii bună cu mine. îţi jur că nu-ţi propun un soţ fără valoare. Plec la picioarele tale o frunte care l-a înfruntat în faţă pe Napoleon. Fii bună. Vrei?

Leadership: Amprenta faptelor tale poate să întărească emoţional modelul propriilor nevoi de creştere a stimei de sine, luând în considerare mărturia unei smerite vieţi de "truditor al minţii" ?

Această înflăcărare aprigă şi nemăsurată stingherea şi tulbura din ce în ce mai mult sufletul candid al fetei. Naiva copilă se simţea apăsată de această iubire, ca o biată pasăre asupra căreia s-ar fi lăsat brusc umbra marilor aripi de vultur.

- Dar, prietene, zise ea consternată, iartă-mă dacă nu ştiu cum să-ţi răspund. Mă aşteptam atât de puţin la cele ce mi-ai spus. Vezi cât sunt de emoţionată. Nu-ţi pot răspunde nimic, decât că nu exist decât datorită dumitale, şi că, în consecinţă, viaţa mea îţi aparţine. Fă ce crezi cu ea.

- E-adevărat? exclamă Samuel plin de fericire.

- Da, reluă Frederique; datoria mea este să te ascult şi să fac tot ce va depinde de mine ca să fii fericit.

Mărturia unei smerite vieţi de "truditor al minţii" se referă la conştientizarea distanţei dintre inteligenţă şi docilitate în dragoste, accentuând în acelaşi timp senzaţia că aparţii acestora.

Ceea ce voia Samuel era doar să pună cât de cât stăpânire pe acest suflet şi pe această viaţă. Apoi va avea el grijă să se ocupe de rest şi să transforme încetul cu încetul docilitatea în dragoste. Supunerea Fredericăi îl făcu, deci, aproape la fel de fericit ca în urma unui consimţământ.

- Îmi vorbeşti cu blândeţe, dar eşti tristă, adăugă el totuşi. Gândeşte-te, copilă. Există două lucruri în căsătorie, bărbatul şi poziţia sa socială. în ceea ce priveşte poziţia, mă angajez să ţi-o fac splendidă şi înaltă, depăşindu-ţi visele....

- Oh ! nu mă gândesc la poziţie, zise Frederique.

- La soţ atunci, reluă blând Samuel. Uite, draga mea copilă, zise el cu un efort, viaţa ta este atât de pură şi atât de simplă, nu-i mare lucru s-o îmbogăţim. N-ai ieşit deloc în lume şi n-ai văzut încă pe nimeni... Ba da, l-ai văzut, totuşi, pe tânărul acela timp de un sfert de oră. Frederique, aş fi atât de nenorocit dacă tot ceea ce a putut el să-ţi spună într-un sfert de ceas, cântăreşte mai greu decât tot ceea ce am făcut eu pentru tine timp de şaptesprezece ani !

Ei bine, ce concluzie tragem de aici? Că leadershipul se sprijină pe doi stâlpi trainici care se completează reciproc: calitatea de a fi umil şi calitatea de a fi superior, mai ales printr-o anumită apartenenţă la o stare de linişte şi pace, de împăcare cu sinele. Or aşa cum Dante a întrezărit importanța universală a Poeziei Sacre, afirmând că „a pus în mâini atât cerul, cât și pământul", tot aşa un lider trebuie să întrezărească importanţa împlinirii de sine prin contopirea altor două calităţi de bază (reprezentând două feţe ale aceleaşi realităţi): înţelegerea trăirilor celuilalt şi abilitatea de a controla impulsuri şi imbolduri deviante, la care bineînţeles se adaugă blândeţea nesfârşită.

Leadershipul are ca şi constantă de referinţă înţelegerea compoziţiei emoţionale a oamenilor cu care intri în contact, tratându-i în funcţie de starea de spirit şi nevoile lor de apropiere, luând în considerare sentimentele lor de vulnerabilitate şi nesiguranţă atunci când iei o decizie.

Datoria mea este să te ascult şi să fac tot ce va depinde de mine, mai ales când ştiu că adevărata mea putere este experienţa cunoaşterii şi empatia de care am dat dovadă ori de câte ori am încercat să construiesc relaţii. Iar când trebuie să mă identific cu alte persoane, cum ar fi oamenii importanţi din viaţa mea, încerc să dau o interpretare a Eu-lui celor din jur, după propriul Eu.

David

Găseşte acel ceva din tine care te face unic şi strălucitor, asemenea artistului care abandonează canoanele rigide ale epocii în favoarea realizării unei sculpturi pline de viață.

O schimbare în structura propriei mele personalităţi se producea atunci când încercam să-mi găsesc transparenţa într-o imagine de mare ambiguitate, încât să surprind aparenţa a ceea ce eram de fapt, Ein Dual-Fokus-Phänomen cum spun germanii. Aşadar, trebuia să iau în considerare ipoteza existenţei unei situaţii enigmatice. Eram produsul faptului de a nu aparţine nimănui, de a exista într-un cadru al dilatării gândurilor, fără aglomeraţii urbane, în proximitatea născocirilor şi ideilor felurite, într-o armonie perfectă cu mie însumi. Percepeam doar nuanţele unui Sound of Silence.

Pe măsură ce totul se mişca mult mai încet în jurul meu, dar neîntrerupt ca polarităţile opuse ale unui magnet care se atrag, mi-am menţinut disponibilitatea de a fi în relaţie cu ceva mai presus de mine, mai curând un partener puternic, ca fiind ceva de care depindeam constant. Ceva mă atrăgea şi mă respingea în acelaşi timp. Imaginea care tindea să-mi alunece de sub ochi, căreia numai arta i-ar fi putut găsi o legătură directă cu temele ficţiunii, părea să aibă ca suport un fenomen de uitare şi chiar de negare a esenţei unei conversaţii cu un spirit înalt.

Singurătatea este calea de a-ţi găsi acel ceva din tine care te face unic şi strălucitor, asemenea artistului care abandonează canoanele rigide ale epocii în favoarea realizării unei sculpturi pline de viaţă, pentru a se adânci în lumea sufletească a propriului său Masterpiece , copia lui cea mai fidelă. O reprezentare extrem de naturală şi expresivă care nu vorbeşte, nu relaţionează, dar simbolizează perfecţiunea.

Leadership: Poţi să abordezi arta din perspectiva a ceea ce îţi imaginezi că se găseşte de partea cealaltă a Eului tău, ca un artificiu de comunicare a unui conţinut estetic care încântă privirea, mintea şi sufletul?

Gândirea dobândeşte originalitate doar atunci când întâlneşte necunoscutul unei priviri aruncate în oglindă. De partea cealaltă a Eului meu părea să existe un spirit de artist mai puţin preocupat de interacţiunea dintre psihismul individual şi stimulările lumii înconjurătoare, un spirit de aventură şi necunoscut care mă făcea mereu să vreau mai mult de la experienţa "out of sight".

Încetul cu încetul am început să simt acea forţă propulsivă spre un mod de gândire fictiv, în urma căruia trăiam gustul marilor descoperiri de dincolo de limitele propriei mele fiinţe, devenind ulterior autorul lumii în care exista doar arta, unde totul era David, scutul protector, cunoaşterea, învăţarea. Aici nu exista tristeţe, nici bucurie, ci doar o singură lege - fii atât cât poţi să fii peste limitele unanim acceptate ale normalităţii.

Incitant, mă simţeam captiv într-o altă dimensiune, ca o creaţie a lui Michelangelo inserată în universul fantezist al lui Stephen Hawking sau Jason Diablo, nimerindu-mă într-un cadru pe care nu l-ar imagina nici măcar un adept al futurismului. Ritmul de metamorfozare într-un model de aparenţă, într-o lume modernă, simbolizând o expresie a perfecţiunii, era noua ordine impusă formei artei mele.

Leadership: Poți să conferi potenţialului tău de lider proprietatea de a fi "artistic", prin dezvoltarea capacităţii de a-ţi manifesta individualitatea într-o lume unde primează David?

O lume făurită printr-o aflare-de-sine de ordin perceptiv poate să confere leadershipului valoarea de „sistem închis", unde doar tu te poţi înţelege şi unde simţi că poți să realizezi o depăşire spectaculoasă, transformându-te într-o imagine de sine stătătoare: David. Mai simplu spus, David este o aproximare a imaginii tale originale, dar cu un număr mai mare de nivele de detalii, cu raportare la elementele esenţiale din care eşti compus.

Dar dacă privim cu obiectivitate, în sensul conturării a două părţi distincte, o parte atribuită capacităţii conştiente de receptare a sinelui unic și o parte atribuită disponibilităţii de a fi în relaţie cu ceva mai presus de tine, atunci vom constata o extindere a personalitţii şi o imagine pe care atitudinea o confirm. Aici David decurge nu numai din faptul că elementele puse în relaţie amorsează circuitul de comunicare a unei finalităţi estetice armonios personalizate şi schimburile de vederi de la înălţime, ci din fondul unui proces imaginativ în care te autosurprinzi drept personaj principal al unei poveşti care îşi aşteaptă autorul.

Leadershipul nu anunță percepţia gustului marilor descoperiri de dincolo de limitele propriei tale ființe, dar corespunde cu imaginea pe care ți-o făureşti în prezenţa unei realităţi estetice în care se ţes ingenios acordurile dintre ceea ce vrei să fii, să pari şi ceea ce poţi dobândi prin propriile strădanii. Prin cunoaştere, învăţare, și reprezentarea lor într-un tot unitar.

Aşadar, David poate fi o modalitate de a transcende realitatea, de a privi dincolo de ea, încurajând folosirea unor elemente reale pentru a crea o nouă lume, noi situaţii care nu se suprapun şi nu se confundă cu realitatea. În leadershipul artistic cel mai mult contează noţiunea esteticii cu care îţi descrii personajul de la înălţimea unei inteligenţe superioare care dictează un sens nou al realităţii şi al vieţii în materie de imagine care unifică experienţa obiectivă de cea subiectivă.

Viaţa este capodopera pe care o concepi înainte de a te fi surprins în ipostaza de artist.

La vârsta de 64 de ani, regele Louis al-XV-lea i-a mărturisit doctorului Lamartiniere durerea ce-l frământa, pe care nu o mai putea suporta, căruia numai el însuşi îi putea găsi leacul:

"Nu vreau imortalitatea pe care oamenii aceştia ar putea să mi-o dea, fiindcă ar trebui s-o plătesc prea scump, în lumea asta pieritoare şi poate chiar şi în cealaltă. Vreau doar să-mi prelungesc viaţa cât mai mult s-ar putea. Vreau ca în această viaţă să intre, pe cât posibil, cât mai multe din lucrările pe care le iubesc şi pentru asta nu mă voi adresa nici poeţilor, nici filozofilor, nici războinicilor..."

Lăsând să se înţeleagă că însăşi existența lui era o capodoperă începută de mult, dar căreia îi lipsea vraja, nuanţele unui stimul, pentru a fi finalizată.

Ideea principală a muncii omului cu el însuși, în ecuația unei dezvoltări care favorizează leadershipul printr-un act de creație specială, poate fi redată în formula:" Viaţa este capodopera pe care o concepi înainte de a te fi surprins în ipostaza de artist ".

În descrierea acestei formule s-a şi constituit vraja - o înlănţuire de metamorfoze și ipostaze, în care se amestecă eternele „reîntoarceri" la tine însuţi, surprinzând raportul dintre esenţialitatea și intensitatea ce există în spațiul care îți aparține, în lumea aparentă.

Leadershipul este capodopera căreia îi dai viaţă din însăşi viaţa unui corp căruia nu-i aparţii decât parţial prin actul redării unei semnificaţii metafizice, unei lumi interioare mult mai coerente și mai substanțiale decât cea iniţială.

David este conștiința de sine care îl face pe om să fie „cineva”, este valoarea ce iese din raporturile tale cu experienţa personală şi subiectivă, este partea finală a operei de convertire la tine însuţi.

Şi în omul din tine stă cuibărit un David care abia așteaptă să fie transformat în operă de artă, copia ta cea mai fidelă, o reprezentare extrem de naturală şi expresivă care poate nu vorbeşte, nu relaţionează, dar simbolizează perfecţiunea.

De acea parte a oglinzii pe care n-o vedem

Artistul unei lumi nemărginite se concentrează asupra unei imagini mici, apoi repetă zilnic un tipar de observare a aceleaşi imagini cu o altă abstractizare, adică dintr-o observare lăuntrică.

Ţin în mână o oglindă. Şi ştiţi ce înseamnă asta? Înseamnă că nu trebuie să ţin în mână două oglinzi ca să văd ceea ce pot să văd foarte bine cu una singură. Şi chiar şi oglinda, aşa cum este ea, micuţă, înobilată, idealizată, nu are nevoie de doi oameni care să-şi oglindească chipul în ea pentru a-şi da seama cât de folositoare este ea întregii lumi. Căci dacă un singur om se priveşte în ea, şi se vede altfel decât ceilalţi, atunci toate celelalte oglinzi din lume vor fi invidioase pe ea.

Astfel, cu toată aparenta unitate de vederi a tuturor oglinzilor, îmi asum un alt temei de admiraţie faţă de strălucirea oglinzii pe care o ţin acum în mână, cu efectele ei minunate de imagine. Oare cum să mă văd în ea dacă aş încerca să explorez acea parte a oglinzii pe care n-o văd?

Încă stărui să consider că tot ceea ce observ la mine însumi, conform artei de a utiliza reflexia oglinzii ca pe o sursă de uimire şi de admiraţie, aşa cum este ea exprimată în câmpul compoziţiilor artistice, reprezintă produsul capacităţii universale a ochiului minţii de a atinge harul celor sfinte.

Vai, şi dacă aş putea să mă oglindesc în sufletul ei, în bucuria ei, s-o văd cum mă priveşte atunci când o privesc cu ochii care nu au vârstă, poate aş reuşi să fructific şansa dilatării spaţiu-timpului. În cazul de faţă, reflexia echivalează cu contemplarea, unificatoare şi îndumnezeitoare, izvorâtă dintr-un Axprissteken – o chemare pentru ceea ce nu are voce și totuși care vorbește în tot ceea ce este, o cale care duce la realizarea momentului prezent, la anihilarea oricărei cauzalități.

Leadership: Poţi să asiguri o mai bună "vizibilitate" propriului tău sui-generis, indiferent de unghiul în care îţi plasezi Eul pe partea de mijloc a unei imagini care conduce prin "sensibil" la o estimare transparentă a realităţii?

Şi ori de câte ori mă oglindesc în micuţa oglindă, privind-o cu ochii cu care ea ştie să se privească pe sine, îmi reconfirm disponibilitatea pentru un dialog cu mine însumi. Şi îmi spun doar atât: aici totul trăieşte, totul respiră şi doreşte, ca într-un poem al luminii şi al frumuseţii pe care extazul optic îl poartă în zbor alături de îngeri. Nu, nu mă refer la acea calitate a oglinzii de a reflecta pur şi simplu, ci la acea trăsătură caracteristică ce a început să se dezvolte în ea: interpretarea conştientă a tot ceea ce aude din partea interlocutorilor ei.

Ascultând atent monologurile celui ce se oglindeşte în ea, nu spune nimic. Oglinda este încă sub efectul unei experiențe foarte puternice, sub efectul tăcerii. Va veni timpul – gândeşte ea în cumplita-i tăcere – când voi reflecta adânc la toate astea, şi dacă îmi voi însuşi ADAB-ul (ştiinţa care cuprinde toată filozofia lumii), n-am să mă mulţumesc să le aflu din reflexia celorlalţi, ci chiar din gura lor.

De fapt, aşa mi-am început eu monologul, făcând o paralelă cu munca artistului, plină de un sentiment de fericire, tinerețe și libertate: am investit cunoaştere şi afecte în anumite configurații materiale, vizuale, încât să-mi creez un dublu al meu.

În acest joc al aproximărilor unui loc ideal de "conversaţie" cu opera oglinzii, acest Enoizaerhos : revelație a ceva extraordinar care își așteaptă destinul misterios, pot să mă acordez la vocea universului. Vorbindu-mi ca unui sfânt, privindu-mă prin focarul care întreţine mereu vie mişcarea artistică, cu o intensitate aproape de nesuportat ce conduce la o „dilatare a ochiului minţii", oglinzii i-a mai rămas un as în mânecă: poate să cuprindă frumosul cerului de vară cu privirea ei solară.

Leadership: Imaginea obţinută printr-o autoreflexie sinceră poate să scoată la iveală expresia creativității tale individuale, cât și o necesitate pentru extinderea unei vederi dincolo de convingerile care te limitează?

S-o spun altfel. Oglinda mă priveşte aşa cum priveşte şi cerul, printr-o gamă întreagă de nuanţe, dar mai ales printr-o iluzie optică perfectă, deci prin tehnica de perspectivă forțată, încât să creeze modele sau imagini ascunse. Când mă priveşte, cu acea privire piezişă, încercând să mascheze uimirea şi poate, gândul nerostit, i se pare că vede un fizician care se înalţă deasupra lumii pe care o descrie printr-un plan de coordonate cu un sistem optic pentru redarea unei imagini ce pare ireală, creând iluzia tridimensionalităţii. Paradoxul fizicianului se regăseşte astfel transpus, atunci când mintea umană caută să-şi înţeleagă din interior propria funcţionare.

De aceea, expresia creativităţii mele individuale este trecerea de la un mediu la altul, de la o realitate la alta. Se referă la influenţa pe care o imagine o are asupra sensibilităţii mele, având receptare pe plan artistic numai când privitorul imaginii mele încearcă prin sensibil să pătrundă în inteligibil.

Cred că oglinda mă recunoaşte ca fiind "Omul Luminilor", imaginea oglindită a reprezentării lumii pe care o elaborează doar un fizician ca Newton. Conform unui secret ascuns în Cufărul lui Newton, acest Om al Luminilor crede că se poate cunoaşte aşa cum crede că poate cunoaşte lumea. Dar, ferecat în limitele sale, el lasă deoparte tot ce scapă conştiinţei sale. Cu toate acestea, numai oglinda poate determina cât de echilibrată este percepția unei imagini duble, la fel cum astronomii pot determina masa, vârsta, compoziţia chimică şi multe alte proprietăţi ale unei stele prin observarea mişcării sale prin spaţiu.

Privindu-mă în oglindă, pătrunzând cu privirea într-o lume care se extinde virtual dincolo de cadrul timpului şi spaţiului, am putut să văd o imagine reflectată a înţelepciunii divinităţii şi a filozofiei Paradisului, formată din lumina emisă sau împrăștiată de acestea și reflectată de oglindă spre ochii care au nevoie de ea. Acest efect dă iluzia că eu însumi exist în spatele oglinzii sau (uneori) în fața acesteia, drept un indicator optic suplimentar pentru a arăta o anumită stea sau o constelaţie, concomitent cu orientarea mea în această lume pământeană.

În leadership ne vom lovi mereu de acest aspect: inspiraţia vine din interiorul sau exteriorul artistului în funcţie de relaţia pe care o are cu sinele, cu lumea ireală şi cu propria-i lume reală.

De acea parte a oglinzii pe care n-o vedem m-am aflat eu însumi înainte de a scrie acest articol. Dovedind o capacitate de înţelegere a logicii pe care nu o mai posedă nimeni, oglinda mi-a destăinuit ultima dorinţă, înainte de a-mi reflecta nu doar chipul, ci doar sufletul, mereu tânăr şi visător:

"Aş vrea să învăţ să fiu ca tine. Aş vrea să fiu irisul ochilor tăi. Să văd ceea ce numai tu poţi să vezi la tine când te oglindeşti în mine."

De cealaltă parte a înălţimii

On Martie 08, 2015

Pune în lucrare puterea ta de penetrare a „Răului" şi a „Binelui", ţinând seama de acea particularitate a conştiinţei care poartă torţa obligaţiei de raportare la un context mai larg.

Ajunseseră la înălţimea de la Villejuif. De pe acest platou se zărea Parisul. Noaptea scânteia de stele. La un semn al mâinii lui, trăsura se depărtă câţiva paşi. Atunci Monte Cristo privi cuptorul acesta unde se topiseră, se răsuciseră şi se modelaseră toate gândurile ce se năpustiseră din hăul clocotitor ca să frământe o lume. Apoi, pe când îşi aţintise privirea puternică asupra Babilonului acestuia care îi face să viseze pe poeţii religioşi ca şi pe materialiştii ironici, el murmură înclinându-şi capul şi împreunându-şi mâinile ca pentru rugăciune:

- Cetate uriaşă ! Cred că duhul lui Dumnezeu mă adusese aici şi acum mă ia, triumfător. Taina prezenţei mele între zidurile tale i-am încredinţat-o lui Dumnezeu. El singur mi-a putut citi în inimă. Numai el ştie că plec fără ură şi fără trufie, dar nu fără păreri de rău. Numai el ştie că n-am folosit nici pentru mine, nici pentru scopuri zadarnice, puterea pe care mi-a încredinţat-o. Cetate uriaşă ! În sânul tău fremătător am găsit ce căutam. Ca un miner nerăbdător ţi-am răscolit măruntaiele ca să scot răul la iveală. Acum opera mea e îndeplinită, misiunea mea este sfârşită. Acum tu nu-mi mai poţi oferi nici bucurii şi nici dureri. Adio, Paris ! Adio !

Privirea lui se mai plimbă un timp peste câmpia netedă, nesfârşită, asemenea privirii unui duh al nopţii. Apoi, trecându-şi mâna pe frunte, Monte Cristo se urcă din nou în trăsura care se închise în urma lui şi pieri curând într-un vârtej de praf, de cealaltă parte a înălţimii... *****

Leadership: Respecţi acel punct de reper prin care el însuşi îţi dictează ce ai de făcut, concomitent cu efortul de a menţine un echilibru între ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi reacţia ta la aceasta?

Există în cadrul convenţiei dintre vederile morale şi realizarea de sine, în măsura în care omul se sustrage înşelătoarei surpări ce poate să afecteze în profunzime temelia destinului său, o relaţie strânsă între regrete, învăţăminte şi uitare. Această relaţie, ce se dezvoltă specific la un anumit moment de timp faţă de o anumită cauză, zdruncină din temelii acel reper de „ ahead ", relevându-i omului certitudinea de a se situa corect în perspectiva lărgirii orizontului de viaţă, fără a se îndepărta de menirea sa.

Înainte de a stabili baza evaluării poziţiei tale de putere trebuie să te raportezi la un anumit nivel de reprezentativitate sub aspectul îndeplinirii unui rol de mare importanţă în procesul de evoluţie a dimensiunii tale de "entitate de natură spirituală". Aceasta este controlată de către o entitate separată mai mare care îşi trăieşte propria viaţă, independentă şi separată de vieţile diverşilor indivizi.

În cadrul "înălţimii" pe care o ai de atins, înţelegând prin aceasta maximul de putere şi virtuţi pe care le poţi atinge într-o viaţă limitată, făcându-te să-ţi uiţi trecutul şi amintirile dureroase, eşti constrâns să acţionezi pe cont propriu în numele unui ideal nobil, în numele lui acel "cum ar trebui să fiu"?

Începi să contribui la atingerea înălţimii învăţând să ţii cont de ceea ce există în interiorul tău prin raportare la ceea ce ţi s-a întâmplat, într-un elogiu adus artei de a te preschimba într-un uriaş triumf al Binelui care, chiar dacă prin absurd, nu poate fi înfrânt. Acest bine se reconstituie din ceea ce te-a rănit cu adevarat, acceptând situatia de a nu te împotrivi loviturilor soarte, ca într-o dragoste pe care o regreţi, dar pregătind astfel scena pentru o altă alegere, pentru o „explozie" ulterioară care să-ţi garanteze un impact maxim, uşor fatalist.

Punctul de reper prin care el însuşi îţi dictează ce ai de făcut este o revelaţie a naturii spirituale care te trece de partea lui Dumnezeu. Aşa cum bine preciza cineva pe internet, darul cel mai mare al lui Dumnezeu, crearea după chipul şi asemănarea Sa, adică subiectivarea omului în personalul "EU", îl pune pe om în analogie cu Fiinţa lui Dumnezeu.

Miracolul unei noi vieţi este întruchiparea simbolică a arhetipului sinelui care poate fi idealizat suplinind eșecurile experiențelor şi convingerilor anterioare. Iar Dumnezeu este calea de a te regăsi într-un plan al mai cuprinzător vieţii spirituale.

Şi numai ţinând seama de acea particularitate a conştiinţei care poartă torţa unei obligaţii de raportare la un context mai larg, punând în lucrare puterea ta de penetrare a „Răului" şi a „Binelui", fără a te agăţa de preconcepţii, vei putea să ajungi la acea calitate a gândirii de a percepe măreţia, încât nu doar să exişti în creaţia lui Dumnezeu, dar şi să creşti în planul Său.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, putem distinge două criterii după care îl putem judeca: gradul de însemnătate al liderului, adică amplificarea propriului său ecou astfel încât să dea roade prelungi în timp, susceptibil să genereze fortuit anumite inconvenienţe ce îi pot determina pe unii să nu îi acorde recomandarea "Foarte Bun". Şi gradul de binefacere sau de „Rău necesar", adică măsura în care este apt să contribuie la dezvoltarea celorlalţi indivizi – la anularea superficialităţii lor în cugetare şi simţire, şi plasarea lor pe o traiectorie de non-coliziune cu adevăratele valori.

Eşti în adevăr sau nu, după cum respecţi acel punct de reper prin care el însuşi îţi dictează ce ai de făcut. Acest punct de reper, binevenit, meritat şi echitabil, chiar dacă necesită o remarcă critică, este reprezentat de ceea ce transmiţi, de ceea ce eşti, de ceea ce crezi despre Dumnezeu, despre scopul Vieții tale și despre Sufletul tău.

Când un actor mare îşi uită rolul, întreaga piesă cade. Leadershipul reclamă ca lege fundamentală a propriei sale exigenţe o recunoaştere clară a distincţiei între misiune şi rol care să ajute la refacerea clarităţii „strălucirii" individului obişnuit - a putinţei de a fi generos, capabil de sentimente înalte - chiar cu preţul părăsirii lui.

A te îndepărta de cineva sau ceva este o experienţă necesară pentru o bună propagare a undei numită "iertare", chiar dacă este dureroasă de ambele părţi.

Sufletul poate deschide realitatea intuitivă a ceea ce reprezinți de fapt într-un cadru mai larg de continuare a vieţii, prin raportare la o normă supraumană: "cineva te priveşte întotdeauna de la înălţime".

De cealaltă parte a înălţimii se află omul care a trecut prin toate etapele evoluţiei pentru a ajunge la un statut superior, dar care este nevoit să abandoneze mijlocul, factorul prin care s-a format, astfel încât să iasă dintr-o altă încercare numită „remuşcare".

De departe vezi aproape

Ceea ce te împinge înainte este ceea ce te inspiră atunci când te confrunți cu momentele de îndoială, dincolo de orizontul vizibil.

Era trecut de ora 21:30. Mă întorceam de la concursul de running Ciucaș Trail. Conduceam pe un drum întunecat, lumina farurilor tăind încet ceața care începea să se așeze. Mașina era tăcută, atât de liniștită, dar totul în jur părea plin de energia unui semimaraton care nu s-a terminat. Fiind la volan, mâinile mele ghidau cu precizie direcția, totuși mintea-mi plutea departe, departe, spre muntele care mi-a testat limitele dimineaţa devreme. Sora mea era în dreapta mea, făcuse o cursă splendidă. Un loc 4 feminin conquistado com muita dificuldade îi energiza spiritul cu acea bucurie tăcută, pentru că întotdeauna victoriile mici sunt cele mai prețioase.

Energia competiției persistă în liniștea unei călătorii individuale. Drumul și muntele se contopiseră într-o singură entitate „Ahaiiakzan Iculumimex", o provocare tăcută care îmi testa limitele atât fizice, cât și mentale. Fiecare cotitură, fiecare pas, fiecare respirație părea un ecou al unei călătorii mult mai profunde, un fel de introspecție care nu mă lăsa indiferent. Conducând prin ceață, printre atâtea umbre invizibile, de parcă abisul nevăzut îmi șoptea secrete neînțelese, păream să mă găsesc între două lumi: cea a mașinii, a tehnologiei tăcute, și cea a naturii, a neprevăzutului și a ritmului impus de propriul suflet.

Leadership: Experiența ta individuală în contextul acțiunii poate să creeze un moment prin care reușita devine o mărturie a forței tale interioare, manifestându-se ca o continuitate între efortul fizic și cel mental?

Sora mea avea dreptate – „muntele te conduce", spunea ea, și exact cum nu poți controla tot ce ți se întâmplă acolo, la fel și acum, în momentul când șofezi, drumul are propria sa voință, propriul său ritm. Tu ești doar un pasager, ghidat de încredere și instinct, la fel cum în alergare urmezi calea necunoscută. Este ca și cum orice ai face, ai fi doar o reflecție a unei provocări infinite dintre tine și necunoscut. La fel ca ieri, în fiecare pas înainte stă pericolul, dar și revelația. Nu există certitudine, doar mișcarea constantă, întrepătrunderea ta cu drumul.

Când conduci prin noapte, fiecare umbră neclară cere ochilor să vadă dincolo de limitările fizice. Sora mea a continuat conversația, vocea ei devenind ca un ecou, asemenea unui val de gânduri nerostite: „Alergătorul de ieri și șoferul de azi nu sunt diferiți. Amândoi pășesc pe un teren care le vorbește, care le testează hotărârea și le dezvăluie calea, dar doar celor pregătiți să asculte. E ca și cum tu nu ai alege drumul, ci el te-a ales pe tine."

Privirea trece prin ceața drumului, căutând un orizont clar. În acel moment, înțelegerile păreau să fie scrise în ceață, iar sunetul motorului era ca un puls al destinului meu, adiacent unui soi de liniște care mă învăluia, mă provoca să reflectez profund. Drumul nu este doar fizic, este simbolul fiecărei alegeri. Fiecare risc pe care ţi-l asumi este ghidat de un ritm invizibil, indiferent că ești la volan sau alergător montan.

Leadership: Poate experiența de a fi „tu și cu tine" în timpul unui moment de introspecție profundă să se traducă în auto-cunoaștere, ținând cont că această dualitate implică o relație intrinsecă între controlul precis și adaptabilitatea spontană?

Simțeam cum fiecare viraj al drumului devenea o pensulă în mâinile unui artist nevăzut, pictând pe pânza sufletului meu un tablou al incertitudinii și al revelației. Mă simțeam asemenea unui Van Gogh în fața șevaletului vieții, unde fiecare tușă de culoare – fie ea o decizie de a vira la stânga sau la dreapta – era simultan un act de creație și de abandon. În acest vernisaj al existenței, eram atât artistul, cât și opera, prins într-un drum al autodescoperirii, unde granițele dintre control și haos, dintre cunoscut și mister, se estompau ca într-un tablou impresionist. Și în această fuziune a omului cu drumul, a prezentului cu viitorul necunoscut, simțeam cum mă transform într-o capodoperă vie, pulsând în armonie cu ritmul universal al vieții.

În alte momente, mă simțeam ca un sculptor care modelează lutul, drumul modelându-mă încet și constant, fiecare cotitură fiind o daltă care ciopleşte din blocul brut al eului meu o formă nouă, necunoscută.

La un moment dat, maşina a trecut printr-un tunel, iar sunetul motorului se amplifica tot mai mult, reverberând în jur. Oarecum, am simţit ecoul pașilor mei printre stâncile abrupte din timpul concursului. Știi, Oana, încă îmi amintesc senzația de dimineață, când picioarele atingeau pământul arid, fiecare pas fiind o luptă între voință și oboseală.

Sora mea zâmbi ușor, continuând pe un ton aproape șoptit: „Poate că nici nu conduci tu mașina azi. Poate că, de fapt, drumul te conduce. La fel cum muntele te-a ghidat ieri, la fel cum fiecare pas te-a dus mai departe fără să știi cu adevărat unde vei ajunge, doar că aveai încredere în tine."

Conducând prin noapte, fiecare umbră neclară cere ochilor să vadă dincolo de limitările fizice. Mă uitam înainte, drumul șerpuia în față, similar cu acele poteci nesfârșite din timpul concursului. Condusul cu mașina nu este doar o călătorie fizică. „Alergătorul de ieri și șoferul de azi sunt unul și același," spunea sora mea încet, aproape mistic. „Amândoi caută direcția, dar în cele din urmă, este drumul care te alege. Tu trebuie doar să fii gata."

Cuvintele ei au rămas suspendate în aer, așa cum lumina farurilor rămâne suspendată în ceață. Eram încă acolo, alergând, conducând. Dar întotdeauna urmărind ceva ce nu poate fi văzut clar. Doar simțit...

Adevărata măiestrie în leadership constă în a recunoaște că nu tu controlezi calea, ci ești ghidat de ea, adaptându-te la ritmul provocărilor pe care le presupune schimbarea constantă.

De departe vezi aproape ori de câte ori experiența de explorare se îmbină cu experiența de introspecție, fiindcă doar atunci reușești să înțelegi cu adevărat atât lumea exterioară, cât și pe cea interioară. Mai precis, atunci când experiența de explorare se îmbină cu cea de introspecție, îți dai seama că fiecare pas înainte în lumea exterioară reflectă o descoperire interioară profundă, iar adevărata claritate vine din această conexiune.

De la simplu la complex... şi înapoi

On August 29, 2016

Învaţă cum să te cunoşti mai bine, experimentând gândirea şi inteligenţa pe baza ideii de contribuţie la reînnoirea vieţii.

Trebuia să găsesc o metodă de demascare a acelor laturi ale vieţii pe care nimeni altcineva nu le putea accepta, construite din înalturile unei uitări care nu va fi uitată la rândul ei de amintirea uitării, cu ajutorul cărora să simplific contururile de fluctuaţie între două fenomene. Un fenomen de adaptare la regulile unei situaţii prin care trebuia să mă pun de acord cu restul lumii şi un fenomen de alternanţă, de o complexitate imensă şi cu responsabilitate aparte: tendinţa de a mă ascunde, de a fugi, de a trece neobservat printre oameni.

În aceste circumstanţe, opţiunea First Rule din submeniul "Cum pot fi găsit" nu permitea selectarea valorii True din opţiunea "What If", ci din nou se executa apelul recursiv "Stay Close" la o progresie de la simplu la complex și înapoi, de la știință la artă, cum spun savanţii. Asta decidea soarta incursiunii mele într-o realitate aparte, în nivelurile de viabilitate ale unei psihologii abisale.

Fantasticul era tot atât de necesar cum este sclipirea în peisajul monoton de toamnă, demonstrând unitatea dintre răspunsul la întrebările pe care constant mi le puneam şi executarea unui algoritm de recunoaştere a ignoranţei faţă de sinele adevărat, la care eram bineînţeles supus, decât pentru a prezice viitorul intrării mele într-o buclă a logicii multivalente.

Leadership: Creaţia care te inspiră cel mai mult poate să fie urmarea firească a ceea ce experimentezi într-o viaţă trăită în alt spaţiu şi alt timp, cu posibilitatea de a dobândi o nouă virtute?

Viaţa, pentru a putea fi înţeleasă pe deplin, despre cele ce formează experienţa trăirii, trebuie să te arunce într-o uitare totală, dar asumată, făcută pe trei sferturi din amarul unui tip de înfrângere, unui trai sortit deşertăciunii, din apelarea unei funcţii cu o singură variabilă: "Tu însuţi", dându-i valoarea argumentelor dintr-un Array asociativ. Prin aceasta, îmi vine în minte un fragment dintr-o operă semnată Jorge Luis Borges:

"A furat o comoară şi apoi a înţeles că pentru el aceasta nu era esenţială. Esenţial era ca Abenjacan să dispară. A simulat că este Abenjacan, l-a ucis pe Abenjacan şi, în cele din urmă, a fost Abenjacan.

- Da, confirmă Dunraven. A fost un hoinar care, înainte de a deveni nimeni prin moarte, avea să-şi aducă aminte că odată, cândva, a fost rege şi că s-a prefăcut a fi rege."

Și eu, asemenea, mă hrăneam dintr-un sfert de îndoială, cuprinzând trăirile cele mai fine în proporţii uriaşe, căutând stăruitor o metodă de exprimare plastică a tendinţelor principale ale realităţii gândurilor, ale percepţiilor faţă de experienţele pe care le derulam în captivitatea minţii, prin recurgere la trecut şi prin imaginaţie la viitor. Am înţeles că viaţa mea era asemenea personajelor din alte opere, din alte timpuri, din alte lumi, şi pentru asta trebuia să-mi ghidez viaţa după conceptul de alteritate.

Virtutea de a te potrivi cu imaginea altcuiva, încât să devii una cu acea persoană, aceasta este de fapt ideea din spatele conceptului de alteritate. Numai selectând valorile variabilei

"End" poţi obţine avizul de a te cunoaşte mai bine, construit pe tema recurentă a uitării. Și numai cu răbdare poţi intra în posesia cheii primare care identifică în mod unic fiecare înregistrare a entităţii numită „călătorie”.

Leadership: Slujeşti pe deplin libertatea de a te manifesta în totalitatea ta, prin extinderea conceptului de inteligenţă reflexivă la nivel de proiecţie a unei creaţii care tinde spre un scop mai înalt?

Romanul „Maşina timpului” al lui Wells nu este doar un răspuns dat existenţei care reconfigurează jocul intim al fiinţei care se întreabă - înspăimântată, îngrijorată sau calmă - "Ce urmează în viitor"? Ci este răspunsul unui glas pe care nu-l aude oricine, o chemare care implică o limită. Aşa cum precizează autorul, sunt unii care nu sunt în stare să vadă prăpastia ce-i desparte pe oamenii muncii de exploratorii din societatea modernă, să înţeleagă că ea se lărgeşte mereu.

Momentul de seamă când te întorci de unde ai plecat, slujind pe deplin libertatea de a te manifesta în totalitatea ta pe care ai avut-o, și pe care singur ți-ai compromis-o prin captivitatea statutului existenţial, unul dificil: must have more control of science , este o parte a traiectoriei ascendente pe care o creezi prin îmbinarea elementelor definitorii: capacitatea de a te orienta prin ce este iluzie și capacitatea de a te orienta prin ce este adevăr.

Adevărul este ceea ce vezi nou la tine din perspectiva unui Alter-Ego. Adevărul este pactul cu tine însuți, susţinut în încercările îndrăzneţe de a te analiza din prisma nevoii de justificare a devenirii, prin ataşamentul faţă de dimensiunile tot mai largi ale ştiinţei, care te stimulează intelectual. Fiindcă nu este de ajuns să trăiești din emoții, din perfecţiunea frumuseţii interioare și exterioare, dintr-un spațiu al existenţei, vindecat, complet şi întreg. Aceasta este intensitatea începutului de drum, care nu te va duce decât la jumătatea călătoriei.

O inteligenţă reflexivă este proiecţia unei creaţii care tinde spre un scop mai înalt: de a te vedea mai mult decât eşti, din perspectiva unui Ego care, însetat de propria importanţă, şi-a îmbogăţit memoria cu un vast material inspiraţional cules din memoria unor vieţi fictive.

Iluzia este ceea ce rămâne după ce anumite părţi din adevăr a fost modificat şi pus pe seama îndoielii. Omul cel mai raţional este capabil să realizeze o extindere a înţelesului conceptului de inteligenţă şi popularizarea acestuia în propria lui viață, fără a depinde de tendinţele principale ale realităţii gândurilor, ale percepţiilor faţă de experienţele pe care le trăiește în captivitatea minţii, prin memorie la trecut şi prin imaginaţie la viitor.

El nu se lasă acaparat de gânduri, nu se lăsa furat de ele, tocmai de aceea atitudinea şi gândurile sale sunt necunoscute celorlalţi. Se încrede numai în sinceritatea situaţiilor, în date precise, în formele adevărului exercitat asupra interacţiunii sale cu practica.

Ştiinţa este puterea necesară luminării drumului, alegerii și parcurgerii lui. Dar calea va fi uşurată dacă gândești în funcție de răspunsul la întrebările pe care ţi le pui prin executarea unui algoritm de recunoaştere a ignoranţei faţă de sine, la care eşti constant supus.

Omul rațional este afectat, devorat de ignoranţa de a nu vedea decât faţeta realităţii care îi convine, trăgând concluzii după fiecare experienţă de viaţă, faţă de fiecare opţiune pierdută sau câştigată. El este martorul înfrângerii sale, care îl poate transforma dintr-o persoană obișnuită într-un om al destinului potrivnic.

Pe de altă parte, omul care nu își suportă orientarea ca pe un chin, omul care învinge raţiunea prin sentiment, întotdeauna experimentează gândirea și inteligenţa pe baza ideii de contribuție la reînnoirea vieții.

Viaţa ta poate fi reînnoită prin puterea creaţiei, la rândul ei exprimată printr-un stabilizator al stării de spirit: "Ceea ce experimentezi în faţa unei oglinzi face ca efectul de oglindă să-şi mărească intensitatea."

Ai grijă în cine îţi oglindeşti chipul, sufletul şi trăirile.

De la simplu la complex... şi înapoi este traseul evolutiv pe care îl urmăm cu toţii în încercarea de a descoperi adevărul de bază al condiţiei umane: cunoaşterea nu se poate despărţi de condiţiile de constatare ale valabilităţii existenţei, iar fundamentul existenței - conștiința - se poate atinge doar prin emoție și sentiment.

De o parte şi de alta a leadershipului

On Iunie 12, 2016

Rămâi devotat progresului ştiinţei şi creaţiei, în contextul unei poziții care să prezinte egalitate faţă de restul lumii.

Încercam să dau de urma unei imagini făurite de un pictor care ştie să descopere farmecul unor anonime colţuri de natură, astfel încât să mă văd apropiat de o ştiinţă mai vastă, diferită de „ştiinţa limbajului". A afla taina contactului misterios dintre logica excepţiei de la regulă şi generarea modelelor de gândire de care nimeni nu ştia, însemna să acopăr toate combinaţiile posibile ale unui proces de evoluţie care ar fi putut să constituie un temei suficient pentru prelungirea orientării cunoaşterii, într-o dimensiune complexă a fiinţei mele: spre superioritate.

Uneori nu mă mai recunoşteam. Păream a fi un precum un sculptor care încearcă să redea o figură dintr-o bucată de piatră neşlefuită, găsită la întâmplare pe un pământ arid. Fără îndoială, eram foarte inventiv, dar practica invenţiilor consta în a face vizibil ceea ce era invizibil pentru celelalte minţi, rivale şi bănuitoare, care încercau să-mi înţeleagă raţionamentele. Prin eforturile de a ajunge la o capacitate mare de expansiune a admisibilului, se întrezărea un pas colosal către un orizont fascinant.

Orice suprafaţă de amplasare a unui concept într-o perspectivă artistică, întemeiată pe o gândire care poate pune oricând virgulă acolo unde alţii pun punct, simbolizează un spaţiu de creaţie pentru că, aşa cum am observat în faimoasa lume a picturilor de tipul "3D Ilussions", culoarea se reduce la o constrângere vizuală a esteticii societăţii urbane, molipsită de cotidianul agitat şi limitat.

În asemenea caz, mă simţeam privilegiat de aportul remarcabil pe care îl puteam aduce unei arte a vieţii care surprinde numai operaţia de prelucrare a unor imagini cu conţinut de realitate virtuală, constând în identificarea unor legături între ceea ce rămâne neschimbat în timp şi ceea ce se modifică prin limbajul lucrurilor. Arta unui pictor este vederea de aproape a unei legături între obiectul unei evoluţii continue şi obiectul unei viziuni intelectuale.

Superioritatea unei creaţii constă în atenţia pe care o acorzi amplasării viziunii despre o realitate care te copleşeşte într-o demonstraţie de măiestrie în mânuirea tuturor virtuţilor ştiinţei.

După cum Racine nădăjduia prin mijlocirea piesei "Phèdre" să împace tragedia cu un număr de persoane celebre prin pietatea şi doctrina lor, tot astfel mă adânceam şi eu într-un nivel de producţie a cunoaşterii încercând să împac două forţe antagonice: Eu însumi şi Restul lumii.

Aceasta era tragedia mea, tragedia unei ascensiuni fulminante şi neiertătoare, ca o scufundare într-o apă mai grea decât plumbul, din care trebuia să reiasă adâncimea propriei persoane, virtuțile cele mai înalte, mai ales nemărginita putere de a mă ridica la suprafață. Şi apoi, deasupra tuturor.

Nu puteam trece cu vederea îndatoririle unei minţi conducătoare, deschizătoare de drumuri, după îndemnul "Fă tot ce îţi stă în putinţă pentru ca tranziţia ta spre superioritate să fie cât mai uşoară".

În acest scop, am început prin a face un fel de extras dintr-o alternanţă a celor două forţe: Eu și Restul Lumii, combinând elemente ale ambelor credinţe, pe care le foloseam în identificarea nepotrivirilor şi a cauzelor de risc ce mă puteau împiedica să culeg roadele muncii de creaţie.

Dar unui adevărat artist îi mai rămâne să facă o demonstraţie de măiestrie în mânuirea tuturor virtuţilor ştiinţei, cele mai importante fiind sinceritatea cu care îşi manifestă adeziunea faţă de un subiect de dezbatere publică şi deschiderea în faţa voinţei lui Dumnezeu, de a recunoaşte în tot, mai ales în destinele vitrege ale vieţii, posibilitatea de a da rod pentru eternitate.

Leadership: În demersurile tale de revendicare a capodoperei creaţiei pe care o regizează ştiinţa viitorului optezi pentru tendinţa către unitatea dintre „expansiunea admisibilului" și „prelungirea orientării cunoaşterii spre superioritate" ?

Ştiinţa viitorului în ce priveşte actul creaţiei este legată de tehnologiile 3D şi 4D, de asta trebuia să fiu sigur înainte de a-mi prezenta referinţele vizavi de modul de a trasa coordonatele unei noi dezvoltări a limbajului artistic. Nu ştiu care este poziţia altora faţă de modul meu de a privi arta viitorului, dar poziţia mea faţă de orientarea într-un spaţiu de expresie care nu se potriveşte cu evoluţia este aceea de a fi un slujitor pentru o turmă care ascultă orbeşte, fără să se întrebe de ce se schimbă mereu direcția.

Dincolo de toate legile şi judecăţile pe care le facem în privința unor potriviri de mod, de loc, de timp, de idei, de situații în care suntem obligaţi să acordăm prioritate convenţiilor unei lumi tot mai agresive care încearcă să-și impună limitele, poate ar trebui să căutăm şi să găsim un sens acestora în contextul vieţii pe care o trăim. Cu precădere în contextul unei poziții care ne diferenţiază favorabil de restul lumii, prezentând în acelaşi timp egalitate.

Totuşi, în ciuda înrudirii anumitor credinţe, care ne face să ne considerăm egal cu ceilalți, există în fiecare din cei devotaţi progresului un element aparte, lăuntric, original, pe care trebuie neapărat să-l sesizăm şi să-l scoatem în evidenţă dacă vrem să colorăm tabloul unei reușite, evadarea dintr-un cotidian apăsător. Cu riscul de a părea infideli lumii.

Acest element, prin însăşi natura lui diferenţiabil, această particularitate specială exprimată ca unic conţinut al leadershipului, în contextul unei necesităţi acute de afirmare ca jucător competitiv şi dinamic într-o lume aflată într-o continuă reconfigurare, este reprezentat de tendinţa către unitatea dintre „expansiunea admisibilului" și „prelungirea orientării cunoaşterii" spre superioritate.

Ştiinţa care generează o gândire unică este o mărturie a convingerii profunde cu care se manifestă acea caracteristică a minţii de a transforma orice conţinut al cunoaşterii şi chiar al vieţii într-un obiect de artă, proiectându-l în faţa ochilor ca pe o lume inedită.

Admisibilul, pus în legătură cu multe lucruri, este un triumf al creaţiei, putând fi desemnat şi conceptualizat ca prezenţă a unui rezultatul pozitiv aşteptat. El situează creaţia pe culmea cea mai înaltă a arcului existenţial și profesional, ca intensificare a dorinței omului de a-şi pune cunoaşterea la dispoziţia lumii, în slujba societăţii, dând un exemplu bun prin modul de a se raporta la sine însuşi şi de a se înţelege în posibilităţile sale de a fi.

Azi, tot mai des, exemplul de creator este redus la caracteristici secunde, datorită reprezentanţilor tumultuoşi ai lumii a căror punct central de interes nu este originalitatea, nu calitatea sau durabilitatea unei creaţii, ci doar posibilitatea de a se vinde, indiferent de efecte.

În această ecuaţie intervine rolul de artist pus în ipostaza de lider. Acest rol este jucat tot mai des din două ipostaze: transmițătorul și receptorul.

Transmiţătorul este omul care susţine expansiunea admisibilului, constituind într-adevăr o calitate a autorității în domeniu. El nu dezvăluie neapărat modul cum trebuie să se efectueze ceva, cum ar fi o operă de creație, ci oferă repere despre ce anume se efectuează ca formă de promovare personală. Transmiţătorul se apropie fundamental de ideea consumului de valoare ca obiect al conştiinţei.

În timp ce Receptorul alocă aceste repere pentru a activa resursele de a face creație, în încercarea de a evidenţia esenţialul din conţinutul artei sale.

Creaţia pe care o asociezi unei imagini din care trebuie să te inspiri ca să trasezi un orizont de predictibilitate în care ştiinţa ar putea atinge performanţele unei descoperiri epocale, are ca prima formă de manifestare înfăptuirea unui miracol numit "limbaj universal" ce transcende orice barierele culturale.

De o parte şi de alta a leadershipului, orientat spre progres și inovaţie, se află unitatea dintre „expansiunea admisibilului" și „prelungirea orientării cunoaşterii spre superioritate", urmate de cele două ipostaze: transmițător și receptor. Un artist pus în ipostaza de lider trebuie să fie la înălţime în amândouă ipostazele.

Prelungirea orientării cunoaşterii spre superioritate poate fi atribuită încercării de a împăca două forţe antagonice: Tu însuţi şi Restul lumii, într-o ecuație în care rezultatul cel mai bun poate fi obținut doar dacă reușești să identifici nepotrivirile şi cauzele de risc ce te pot împiedica să culegi roadele muncii de creație.

Una din piedicile care te împiedică să culegi roadele muncii de creație este să obţii elementul noului, fără să percepi sensul dezvoltării lumii. Riscul cel mai mare este să-ţi creezi propriul stil de gândire şi de creaţie, evitând trendurile acestor vremuri prin originalitate.

De parcă aş dori să nu fiu decât privire

Felul în care experimentezi lumea influențează felul în care înțelegi profunzimea creației artistice.

Încă mă mişcă peisajul specific litoralului vestic al Greciei, fapt ce mă transformă într-un contemplator al frumuseții naturii și al istoriei bogate a acestei regiuni. Cu pasiune, ochii mă urmează pretutindeni, aşa încât lumea din jur devine magică, soarele amplificând senzaţia de căldură şi culoare. Fiecare detaliu devine o pictură vie, reflexul unei poetici vizuale, un fragment limitat dintr-o creație multilaterală care străbate sufletul și inspiră inimile celor care o privesc.

Mai mult decât atât. Ochii artistului ştiu să vadă, ca într-o apă limpede, fiecare nuanță, fiecare detaliu, tot ceea ce iese la suprafață într-o imagine artistică: acea lumină interioară, de mult ştearsă de o viaţă comună, lipsită de întâmplări extraordinare. Căci la nivelul simbolurilor și metaforelor, încercând să păstreze înțelesurile profunde și să comunice emoții și idei durabile, pictura trebuie să se păstreze perenă la orice nivel de strălucire, pentru a elimina oboseala ochilor cuprinşi de mirajul culorilor şi formelor.

Până la urmă, a vedea este o artă care mă ajută să înțeleg straturile înțelepte ale lumii, subtilitățile dincolo de aparențe, cu toate că uneori simt că sunt aruncat într-un soi de vârtej, o mică tornadă care alienează, superficializează realitatea, creează false modele de frumusețe, ridicând la niveluri inaccesibile nişte provocări de înțelegere și apreciere a picturii. Degeaba sunt un artist dacă ochii mei, atât de sensibili, focalizaţi spre orizontul îndepărtat al posibilităţilor nelimitate, nu sunt convinşi de faptul că lumea este un loc frumos, sau dacă nu acord atenţie detaliilor subtile care dezvăluie frumusețea și profunzimea vieții.

Leadership: Felul tău de a privi poate să influențeze profunzimea și semnificația unei frânturi a imaginilor naturii, astfel încât emoțiile reflectate în interiorul tău să amplifice senzația de conexiune cu lumea înconjurătoare?

Plimbându-mă pe malul mării, privind totul cu contemplaţie, mi-am dat seama că frumosul din jur este o rostire a imaginilor naturii, un izvor infinit de emoții pentru sufletele pătrunse de frumusețea unei lumi miraculoase, reflectate în ochii sufletului, devenind dansul etern al gândurilor înțelepciunii. Cuvintele se preling subtil pe pânza timpului, încapsulând în ele mii de povești neînțelese de ochii trecătorilor.

Pe parcursul acestor experienţe de explorare artistică ochii mei par a se converti într-un abis, o adâncime neexplorată a conexiunii cu oamenii care ascunde numeroase secrete, fapt ce îl poate transpune pe privitor într-o "falie a realului, exact ca într-un fragment scris în jurnalul lui Marin Mincu:

"Eu existam pentru că existau ochii aceia ce mă aşteptau ca să mă răpească, să mă transporte brusc în alt spaţiu, într-o falie a realului ce se deschidea între noi şi pe care o simţeam doar noi, unde corpurile noastre nu existau decât ca ceva imaterial. Era o stare de transparenţă prin care noi pluteam stângaci în căutarea acelei forme care să ne reprezinte în entitatea pură a ceea ce se vede înăuntrul pupilelor larg deschise spre o lume misterioasă, interzisă şi invizibilă pentru ceilalţi."

Leadership: Poți prelua controlul asupra evenimentelor într-un mod care închide vizualizarea detaliilor naturii din fundal?

Privind cu ochi de artist la nisipurile fine și la valurile care se sparg cu delicatețe pe malul mării, într-un soi de sinfonía de la naturaleza, llenando el aire con su sonido hipnótico y reconfortante, îmi vine în minte o scenă tensionată din filmul "Zece negri mititei", devenită o paletă vie de contrast, unde natura și misterul uman se întâlnesc într-o privire atentă la detalii.

Într-adevăr, ochii unui artist, focusați pe detalii, pot surprinde frumusețea naturii, dar și intriga unei scene plină de suspans, unde fiecare gest și fiecare element ascuns dezvăluie un mister de nedescifrat.

În "Zece negri mititei" de Agatha Christie, există o scenă captivantă în care judecătorul Wargrave își înscenează moartea, iar toți ceilalți îl cred cu adevărat mort, şi asta pentru că niciunul nu ştie să vadă realitatea ascunsă sub privirile lor. Pe parcursul acestei secvențe, putem imagina ochii unui artist observând fiecare detaliu tensionat al acestui moment dramatic, surprinzând subtilitățile din această scenă: expresiile faciale, calmul privirii, lumina şi umbra, detaliile decorului, paleta de culori, spaţiul negativ. În special, aranjamentul mult prea perfect pe care "mortul" l-a lăsat în urma lui, putea fi perceput ca un indiciu crucial pentru un artist observator.

Adevărul ascuns scapă ochilor neantrenați. La fel se întâmplă dacă ești pe o plajă plină de oameni, dar îți scapă diversitatea infinit colorată a experienţelor vizuale, bogăția inefabilă a conexiunilor sufleteşti, continua revărsare a detaliilor naturii care te înconjoară. Cu siguranţă, cine nu știe să vadă realitatea ascunsă sub ochii săi, chiar dacă aceasta se desfășoară în fața lui în mod clar și evident, acela nu va putea niciodată să aprecieze profunzimea lumii pictate cu atâta migală de un artist.

Leadershipul urmărește să depășească modul de prezentare al realității, ținând cont de faptul că explorarea profundă a conexiunilor umane și a frumuseții subtile din jur poate să inspire și să ghideze încrederea și direcția pentru cei conduși de o viziune artistică.

Artistul, fiind capabil să înțeleagă semnificația simbolică a unei scene din viaţa reală, poate să vadă mai mult decât o simplă reprezentare a evenimentelor, ci să interpreteze și să transmită emoțiile (și tensiunea) prin intermediul artei. Astfel, viziunea artistică adaugă o dimensiune mai profundă și interpretativă scenelor și evenimentelor dintr-o poveste în care ceea ce se vede cu ochiul liber poate fi doar suprafața, dar nu și profunzimea, subtilitățile și semnificațiile care se dezvăluie doar sub atenta privire a unui alchimist al detaliilor.

De fiecare dată când mă raportez la lumea înconjurătoare mă simt de parcă aș dori să nu fiu decât privirea pătrunzătoare a unui artist, să înțeleg că în spatele fiecărei aparențe se ascunde un univers nesfârșit de bogat în nuanțe și semnificații.

Încercând să descopăr straturile ascunse ale acestei lumi, să mă adâncesc în tainele ei și să simt vibrația subtilă a conexiunilor dintre tot ceea ce există, am reuşit de multe ori să captez frumusețea lumii, sporind senzația de admirație și uimire în fața unei picturi care îmi dezvăluie adâncimea și complexitatea fiecărui detaliu.

Simt că sunt un artist, ținând cont de moartea pe care mi-o voi regiza într-o bună zi, știind că natura îmi va oferi ultimul și cel mai profund tablou, iar eu voi fi pictorul acestui moment transcendental.

De Stellis Infinnio

"Artistul trebuie să ştie să scoată la suprafaţă fiinţa din interiorul materiei şi să fie unealta care dă la iveală însăşi esenţa sa superioară, într-o existenţă cu adevărat vizibilă."

Perspectiva conceptului de creaţie a reprezentat dintotdeauna reperul principal al modului cum trebuie să lucrez în domeniul artistic, aşa încât să obţin prin mijloacele unei vederi rafinate, mai profunde, mai nuanţate, ideea uimitoare a unei duble finitudini: între posibil şi real, între temporal şi etern. Nu a fost uşor, nu a fost nici greu, nu a fost nici haos şi nici direcţie lipsită de rost. În mod cu totul surprinzător, o forţă necunoscută, văzută ca simbol al libertăţii, lăsându-se explicată printr-o intenţia dublată de un ataşament pronunţat şi inegalabil faţă de diversitate, m-a obligat cumva să-mi plasez compoziţiile în perimetrul de consolidare al unui dublu al meu.

Ca o chemare profetică, în înţelesul cel mai înalt, ceva m-a îndemnat să mă aplec cu sârguinţă asupra celor ce nu se încadrează în ordinea normală a drumului parcurs de alţii, o cale atât de rătăcitoare care seamănă întrucâtva cu labirinturile sinuoase, fără ieşire, sau prea imaginative, create de Simone Noseda Pinto. "Acces interzis" am scris pe aceste labirinturi, un avânt spre ce este necunoscut fiindu-mi călăuză dreaptă, um percurso único e obrigatório imposto por Deus, cu condiţia ca ceea ce exprim prin creaţie să fie direct proporţional cu firea mea intuitivă şi deschisă emoţional spre multiple valenţe spirituale.

Am simţit, am văzut, am auzit, am putut discerne între ce este banal şi spectacular, între memoria falsă şi vis, reuşind într-un final (pe calea obişnuinţei unei unei vederi interioare care preceda vederea exterioară) să devin partizanul obţinerii superlativului din cotidian. Labirinturile confruntărilor artistice pe care le conţine acest soi de consens, ca şi contribuţia mea la subiectul unei experienţe de rivalizare cu acel monopol apăsător, rece şi insensibil al academismului care priveşte realitatea ca pe ceva neschimbător, nu s-au proiectat nici măcar în aria temporală a creierului meu, ci s-au înscris într-un Arethesintesha (un design ajustabil pentru multiple direcţii de iluminare).

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să facă posibilă definirea unei imagini capabilă să realizeze un join între o vedere care include "măsura superlativului" şi promisiunea unei revelaţii care transcende aparenţele lucrurilor, inclusiv impresiile evaluatoare asupra lumii?

Şi, contrar aşteptărilor, lăsând la o parte dedesubturile care pot fi discutate şi aprobate numai de falşii specialiştii ai perspectivei, hoţi plini de subterfugii şi identităţi false, m-am îndepărtat uşor-uşor de cele neconforme cu starea reală. Cu bună ştiinţă, m-am lăsat încântat de toate fleacurile şi mărunţişurile vieţii din care, cu chibzuinţa unui arheolog pe jumătate alchimist, am extras rădăcina opacă a lucrurilor asemănătoare şi substanţa spaţio-temporală a lucrurilor distincte. Tot aşa am reuşit ca, dintr-un singur lucru, dintr-o singură compoziție proprie, să creez alte lucruri complet diferite, cu valenţe de-a dreptul expresioniste.

Cine contemplă realitatea, poate transcende aparenţele lucrurilor şi poate să vadă latura lor ascunsă. În conformitate cu acest aspect, şi luând seamă la tot ce se petrece în jur, mi-am definit opera ca pe-o formă alcătuită din părţi disparate, dar puse cap la cap într-o imagine apropiată de felul cum priveau vechii Conchistadori orizontul îndepărtat. Am numit-o simplu: "De Stellis Infinnio" , ceea ce se poate traduce prin "superlativul divin extras din toată splendoarea lucrurilor simple".

Mai presus decât toţi am strălucit întru smerenie, cu purtările gândirii alese care ştie să aleagă o cale de mijloc între atractivitate şi exhaustivitate, fără să mă las amăgit de umbre trecătoare şi anodine, clarobscur al zădărniciei în a recunoaşte o operă de artă fără valoare sau o existenţă fără sens. Contrar aşteptărilor, am reuşit să spun despre fiecare lucru în parte o poveste care îl face unic, o lungime de undă luminoasă şi caldă, o anumită formă literară şi artistică în conformitate cu natura şi îndeletnicirea cugetării subtile, metafizice, seducătoare, cu fanteziile şi cu ideile frumoase despre viaţă şi artă.

Leadership: Poţi să produci cu ajutorul viziunii o transformare interioară eliberatoare, cu condiția să răspunzi în faţa conștiinței de metafizician care îţi asigură expansiunea ființei într-o cauză de tipul "FRAGILE" ?

Pentru aceasta, şi numai pentru aceasta, m-am învrednicit a purta în braţele mele izvorul unei artei vechi de când lumea, numită Kabbalah, dar în acelaşi timp am făcut dovada unei psihologii artistice complexe prin alegerea unei armonii analoage proporţiilor, texturilor şi culorilor nu doar în cadrul aceluiaşi strat, ci în contextul întregii imagini rezultate prin suprapunerea de linii, simboluri, teme, motive, şi a tuşelor de culoare ce produc anumite senzaţii.

Fără reproducerea vreunei capodopere, arta m-a ajutat să mă ataşez de o existenţă fragilă care se păstrează în memoria unui timp mereu prezent.

Ceea ce scria Simona Popescu în romanul "Exuvii" vine ca un fel de completare a acestei artei admisă în termeni de confissão de confissões de care, încă şi acum, mă simt vinovat că n-am dus-o la acel nivel de desăvârşire unde critica devine o impietate, dar unde sufletul bun ajunge să fie purtătorul calităților artistice: expresivitate, profunzime şi sensibilitate.

"Simt lumea din jurul meu: transparenţe, pâlpâiri de culori, ambiguităţi, întrepătrunderi, oscilaţii, sunet multiplu, difuz, dezordine bogată, învălmăşire de forme şi materii, irizaţii, parfumuri venind de peste tot şi de niciunde, cotropitoare. O lume vagă, fluidă, în fireasca prelungire a fiinţei mele, a corpului meu viu, gânditor. Toate lucrurile astea nu s-au pierdut şi nu ţin de trecut, de trecutul ireversibil, de...amintiri din copilărie. Ele au rămas în mine, în simultaneitatea mea concretă."

În artă, măsura superlativului este unicul grad de comparaţie (între viziune şi percepţie, între lucruri şi situaţii) care intră în sfera povestirii unei realităţi originale menită să transcendă ceea este trecător, putând fi cunoscută doar pe calea sufletului.

De unde vii, orbule?

Stabileşte-ţi nişte rigori de creştere şi de evoluţie în timp, valorificându-te prin acea transformare a cărei reprezentare este experienţa asumată.

Am cunoscut un om şi mai nefericit decât tine, Maximilien. Ascultă-mă – spuse Monte Cristo – şi fixează-ţi o clipă atenţia asupra spuselor mele. Am cunoscut un om care, ca şi dumneata, îşi întemeiase toate nădejdile de fericire pe o femeie. Omul acela era tânăr, avea un tată bătrân şi-l iubea, avea o logodnică şi o adora. Trebuia să se însoare cu ea, când, pe neaşteptate, una dintre toanele destinului care ne-ar putea face să ne îndoim de bunătatea lui Dumnezeu – dacă Dumnezeu nu ni s-ar arăta mai târziu destăinuind-ne că pentru el totul este un mijloc de a conduce la unitatea sa nemărginită – i-a răpit pe neaşteptate, iubita, viitorul, pe care-l visa şi-l credea al său, apoi l-a aruncat în fundul unei temniţe. Căci orbul de el nu putea citi decât în prezent.

Din temniţă poţi scăpa peste opt zile, peste o lună, peste un an. El a rămas acolo paisprezece ani, glăsui Monte Cristo, punând mâna pe umărul lui Maximilien. Şi pe el, în aceşti paisprezece ani, l-a cuprins de multe ori deznădejdea. Şi el, ca şi dumneata, crezându-se cel mai nefericit om din lume, a vrut să-şi ia viaţa. Şi ce-a făcut?

În clipa de pe urmă Dumnezeu i s-a arătat printr-un mijloc omenesc. Căci Dumnezeu nu mai face minuni. Poate că la început de tot, fiindcă ochilor acoperiţi de lacrimi le trebuie timp ca să se deschidă pe deplin, el n-a înţeles milostenia nemărginită a Domnului.

Dar mai apoi, a avut răbdare şi a aşteptat. Iar într-o zi el a ieşit ca prin minune din mormânt, schimbat la faţă, puternic, superior tuturor celorlalţi, aproape ca un zeu. *

Leadership: Încerci o deviere de la normele unei experienţe limitative, stabilindu-ţi singur valoarea prin transformarea unui INPUT banal într-un OUTPUT superior?

Înainte ca omul cu aspiraţii înalte să întemeieze ceva anume pentru el însuşi, indiferent că este vorba de un rol important sau o poveste mare, pregătind un salt în timp spre un nivel de superioritate pe care mulţi nu-l pot atinge, el ar trebui să-şi împartă existenţa între patru sisteme compatibile, interfaţate la anumite compromisuri de depăşire a condiţiei sale actuale.

Însă aceste sisteme nu pot fi manevrate, controlate, citite inteligent de la distanţă, precum datele comunicate prin staţii wireless, deoarece omul tinde de obicei să nege ceea ce nu poate fi prevăzut.

Aceste patru sisteme, în raport cu leadershipul, sunt Supravegheare, Direcţia, Maturizarea şi Iluminarea . Ele se pot extinde prin instalarea unor rigori de evaluare a valorii personale ca model de verticalitate şi a unor imperative de tip „Creşti, Progresezi, Înţelegi, Devii" , ce pot acţiona noi trape de siguranţă pentru canalizarea gândurilor şi a minţii, facilitând inserţia unei imagini a ceea ce vei deveni.

Actul autentic prin care omul îşi modulează toate atitudinile sufleteşti, elementul individualizator care concentrează gândurile şi sentimentele, tulburând pacea sufletului său, devine un soi de carte de vizită a unei personalităţi care se contaminează cu acele virtuţi de caracter, adunate într-un tot unitar, aplicate unei deveniri extinse. Dar o devenire care este deschisă rezistenţei, flexibilităţii şi abilităţii omului de a se percepe pe sine ca o entitate separată și autonomă, capabilă de a se manifesta şi valorifica prin transformarea ei – într-o formă a superiorităţii.

Leadership: Convingerile tale care se datorează apropierii de experienţa atingerii unui nou statut permit pătrunderea unui "INPUT" dinspre lume sau a unui "OUTPUT" dinspre realităţile sinelui?

Leadershipul cel mai valoros şi mai solid se deprinde odată cu intrarea în acel joc superior al vieţii, setat să declanşeze experienţe generatoare de căderi în gol sau ridicări la înălţimi. Dar în care trebuie să controlezi o minge grea, forţa şi direcţia ei de orientare, pe un teren accidentat, învăluit într-o pâclă de posibilităţi veşnic schimbătoare, fără să ai la dispoziţie mijloacele de a avansa.

Un pretendent la statutul de lider îşi supraveghează atent inclinaţiile spre un fel de gândire de perspectivă, găsind o direcţie de dezvoltare care să-l facă o persoană puternică. El se creează pe sine însuşi ca artist al vieţii – nu ca un spectator, apoi se transformă într-un om superior a cărui artă de a se implica în spectacolul lumii se raportează la un fenomen de cunoaştere mai amplu.

Inputul dinspre lume este ceea ce obţii atunci când ceilalţi oameni îşi exprimă respectul şi afecţiunea faţă de tine, în timp ce Outputul este răspunsul tău la modul în care ei înşişi îşi pot genera "răniri şi dureri" în momentul cristalizării conştiinţei de sine care face dovada unei anumite vinovății.

Gravitatea de care este în stare omul nu este de a crede într-un Dumnezeu care face întotdeauna dreptate, ci de a vedea mereu un zid surpându-se înaintea lui, numit: "minune".

De unde vii, orbule? desemnează acea trecere a omului de la un statut existenţial la altul, sfidând rigorile si regulile restrictive ale unui destin potrivnic. Cerinţele de a te integra în contextul unei vieţi şi a unei lumi determinate în mare măsură de soartă, făcând apel la toate inclinaţiile sufleteşti, modifică forma pe care o ia valabilitatea devenirii tale, ca un mod de testare a voinţei şi determinării.

De unde vine acest sentiment?

On Iulie 14, 2020

Autocontrolul este controlul pe care ţi-l asigură responsabilitatea de a rămâne fidel propriei fiinţe într-un moment de mare slăbiciune şi îndoială.

Mă simțeam de parcă eram pe mare, undeva foarte departe de țărm. Totul mi se părea distant și ireal. Mi-am apucat mâna și am strâns-o, îmi părea străină. M-am întrebat înspăimântat dacă nu cumva mă îmbolnăvesc însă frica mea avea și ceva ireal, nesemnificativ, pentru că brusc nu mi-a mai păsat dacă trăiesc sau mor. Mă lăsasem oare legat lent, pe nesimțite de lanțuri invizibile? Mă luptam pentru salariul meu, mă mândream cu titlul de scrib, discutam doct cuvinte grecești, mă întorceam în fiecare seară în același pat, prețuiam mâncarea și-mi hrăneam orgoliul cu privirile furișe ale fetelor. Mă îmbătam adesea, îi urmam pe camarazii mei în bordeluri, mă culcam cu femei fără să am mai multe remușcări decât alții. Nu lipseam de la slujbă, mă împărtășeam, îmi spovedeam smerit păcatele și primeam iertare. Nu eram nici mai vinovat, nici mai inocent decât alții.

Și, totuși, mă simțeam teribil de vinovat. De unde venea acest sentiment? Cât de diferit fusesem în tinerețe, când rătăceam și singurul meu adevăr erau Dumnezeul din mine și moartea. Atunci mă bucuram de apa proaspătă și nu mă legam de ispitele trupești. Analizându-mă în lumina verzuie și lugubră a capelei, știam în inima mea că nu mă simt vinovat doar din cauză că devenisem sclavul simțurilor. Nici din cauza îndoielilor mele. Refuzul meu de a recunoaște binele și răul era și el mărunt. Motivul era mai profund. *

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi analizezi sentimentele prin acceptul de a recunoaște binele și răul din existenţa unei fiinţe care se proiectează într-o depărtare tăcută şi fumurie, numită: "ispăşire" ?

Destăinuirile omului se formează atunci când el simte ceva ne la locul lui, dinăuntrul întregii sale existenţe, ceva care îl chinuieşte nu neapărat prin realismul dramatic al aşteptărilor sale, ci poate printr-un regret menit să-l elibereze de povara unor nopţi albe. Starea lui este declanșată de împletirea unor amintiri despre anumite întâmplări pe care destinul i le-a scos în cale parcă pentru a-i prefigura destinaţia spre care se îndreaptă.

Tu iei în considerare particularităţile destinaţiei spre care te îndrepţi? Care sunt aceste particularităţi? Au legătură ele cu valorile vieţii care priveşte spre trecut?

Pustiul propriului monolog: aici îţi simţi toate adevărurile inimii, fiindcă ceea ce este scos în prim plan atunci când îţi scrii povestea vieţii este un acord cu realitatea, confirmarea propriilor idei despre sine şi despre lume într-o revărsare de doruri, de frici, de neîmpliniri, frustrări, regrete care reflectă ascultarea de vocea conştiinţei. La o imagine de sine sărăcită de conţinut se raliază propriului răgaz de gândire, în contextul unei îndoieli cu privire la necesitatea sufletului de a se ţine de fapte, de a accepta realitatea numai după o prealabilă verificare a ei în concret.

Sentimentele omului sunt cauza îndoielilor sale, în timp ce îndoielile pot să apară în situaţia interacţiunii dintre ceea ce eşti pregătit să înţelegi despre tine şi ceea ce nu eşti pregătit să suporţi de la viaţă. Despre pregătirile tale pentru viaţă nu trebuie să înţelegi mare lucru, decât că situaţiile care te pun în dificultate sunt cauza îndoielilor care îţi macină conştiinţa. De ce oare timpul trăit numai cu tine însuţi are darul de a te apăra în faţa conştiinţei, în faţa vitregiilor vieţi - dintre care cea mai mare este să încerci să te suporţi învins de propriile aşteptări şi dorinţe?

Ispăşirea este calitatea omului de a se menţine treaz în sfera conştiinţei, cu o pondere atât de mare a emoţionalului în decizia de a dezvolta ce e mai bun într-o poveste despre dualitatea sufletului omenesc: între plus infinitul bucuriei şi minus infinitul întristări, între fiinţa care imaginează şi fiinţa morală.

De unde vine acest sentiment? Ei bine sentimentul de vinovăţie vine din cauza îndoielilor care te frământă conţinu vizavi de ceea ce nu eşti capabil să controlezi. Şi ce altceva nu poate controla omul decât distanţa dintre real şi ireal, dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să pari a fi, din disperarea speranţei de a fi şi nu doar de a exista.

Uneori este bine să nu ai aşteptări prea mari de la tine însuţi, mai ales dacă aşteptările tale nu sunt realiste.

Dead or Alive

On Decembrie 15, 2015

Fii deschis la ceea ce doreşte să se manifeste prin tine, fără să ştirbeşti nădejdea ce ţi-o pui în ceva care se comprimă cu ajutorul inacceptabilului.

Mă dovedeam refractar la o cerinţă faţă de care, la urma urmelor, aveam nişte obligaţii majore – înscrise în reţeta posibilă a trecerii dincolo de alte uşi. Şi de alte încăperi. Antecamere ale iadului. Spaţii echipate cu adaosuri de adevăruri şi îndoieli, cu atât mai închise cu cât gândurile-mi atinse de răceala vremii planau asupra chimiei alternanţelor dintre adormire şi trezire, răsunând în capul meu ca un stimul care acţionează asupra unui anumit câmp receptor.

Păream mai mult mort decât viu. Ca şi când întreaga mea fiinţă ar fi fost lovită de cea mai otrăvită săgeată, numită generic "Judecata de apoi", a cărei toxine paralizându-mi instantaneu simţurile, direct din inimă până în creier, mă lăsau fără glas. Fără energie. Fără putere. „I was feeling lost / Waiting to be found."

Fără să ştirbesc nădejdea ce mi-o pusesem în ceva care se comprima cu ajutorul irealului şi, deci, al inacceptabilului, am hotărât să aştept amurgul. Aşa cum era el plăsmuit de imaginaţia-mi secată de puteri, mergând desculţă fără urmă de paşi alături de altcineva-ul din mine, nu fără a da crezare cu încetul, graţie înfierbânţelii pişcătoare ce-mi încingea tâmplele, acelei voci necunoscute care-mi şoptea hotărâtor: "Help me to arise".

Amăgitor, ca o jucărie luată de vânt, mă transpuneam în pielea unui înger care îşi clătină auzul – te-aş fi aşteptat oriunde, printre morţi sau printre vii ! – ce-i drept, cu unele opinteli. Dar ispitit, totuşi, de-o anumită curiozitate: "Cum ar fi fost dacă n-aş fi existat?"

Leadership: Poţi să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care caută în mod constant să te facă altcineva, în cazul sforţărilor atât de constant amplificate de deschiderea ta în faţa provocării a te privi ca deţinător al unei vieţi de poveste?

În interiorul castelului Helmnar, David – câştigătorul întrecerilor pe Hakon, ajunse în faţa unui perete care nu avea nicio uşă. Simţea totuşi că există o forţă necunoscută dincolo de perete, ca şi când exista cineva dornic să se întâlnească cu el. Urmându-şi instinctul, întinse mâna pe perete şi-l pipăi de-a lungul. O uşă invizibilă, mascată printr-o vrajă, crea imaginea unui perete adevărat. Uşa se deschise îndată. David păşi înăuntrul camerei, în mijlocul căreia văzu o oglindă uriaşă, în care se vedea ca în ceaţă. Cum ajunse în faţa ei, ceaţa se risipi. O voce închisă în oglindă se făcu auzită. "Ajută-mă să ies de aici ! "

Omul interpus unei realităţi cu totul altfel, prizonierul acelei matrice care-l făcea să creadă că se afla în Eden sau Infern – ar trebui să i-o spun acum, cât încă suntem în relaţie – acest generator de efecte invers celor scontate, mai măreţ decât cerul şi marea care se întrepătrund continuu în imaginaţia viului, era mai curând atras de această poveste ce putea fi adevărată.

Mişcat de implicaţiile unei puteri fără margini, de scânteia personalităţii care îl face altfel decât ceilalţi, putea el oare să profite de pe urma acesteia la maximum? Inacceptabilul pe care trebuia să-l suporte însemna de fapt să se prefacă străin de lumea pe care o trăia şi să-şi plăsmuiască o realitate în care să nu se simtă claustrat.

Leadership: Spui NU compromisului dintre tendinţele contrare ale vieţii, refuzând „tăcerea" care îţi descoperă temerile ascunse?

A spune NU compromisului dintre tendinţele contrare ale vieţii, ca egoism-altruism, izolare-asociere sau individualism-solidaritate, înseamnă uneori să accepţi termenii realităţii cu o anumită reţinere, ca şi când n-ai exista decât ca aparenţă.

Putem înţelege leadershipul, codificat prin prisma imaginii unui om care a spus NU compromisului dintre două tendinţe contrare ale vieţii, refuzând „tăcerea" care îi descoperă temeri ascunse, dacă abordăm cu o atitudine proactivă acea latură a existenţei prin care se urmăreşte formarea şi dezvoltarea caracterului. Tăcerea este o amplificare a unei stări de incertitudine din care nu mai poţi ieşi, este rezultatul unei autosugestii care se întinde cu mult peste imboldul conştient iniţial, izvorând din incapacitatea de a-ţi da lecţii de viaţă într-o realitate fără orizont.

Iar tăcerea e adesea similară cu uitarea de sine, fiindcă nu mai ştii la ce aspecte să acorzi cea mai mare atenţie. Tendinţa omului de a se pierde în uitare, contrapusă tendinţei de a ieşi din carapacea solitudinii, adică supunerea lui la o manevră de mers înapoi, joacă un rol important în crearea acelei premise a regulii conform căreia „cine poate mult, poate şi mai mult".

Cu alte cuvinte, odată cu intrarea într-o stare de negativă, omul poate trăi de asemenea o fărâmă de măreţie, oferind un înţeles mai larg convorbirii cu el însuşi în scopul obţinerii unui progres de tipul „chiar dacă totul stă împotriva mea, trebuie să mă autodepăşesc".

Leadership: Accesibilitatea ta produce o deschidere către o potenţialitate de realizat prin conştiinţă, în calitate de simbol al plenitudinii existenţei, fără să se remodeleze la apelul unei transpuneri într-o lume care îşi reneagă tot mai mult temeliile?

Citeam de curând pe marketingprofitabil.ro următorul lucru: „Visele par a fi surprinse într-o reclamă care curge printre nori sau zboară printre poveşti, cu vocea care însoţeşte călătoria magică, până la trezire."

Ei bine, această voce aparţine omului interpus unei realităţi cu totul altfel, prizonierul acelei matrice care-l face să creadă că se află în alt loc decât cel scontat de fondul existenţei cu care conştiinţa sa are o tangenţă.

Puterea care conferă unitate fluxului conştiinţei, provenind din probabilitatea de a ieşi din acest spaţiu al tăcerii şi pustiului, marchează însemnătatea acordată persoanei ce a depăşit stadiul unei stări de slăbiciune pentru a se regăsi pe sine într-un soi de perpetuum mobile cu combustie strict cugetătoare şi modelatoare. A te regăsi înseamnă să te ridici deasupra realităţii cazuale a unei lumi ostile, deasupra legilor unei lumi neînţelese, punându-te în sluba unui ideal care ţine de sens şi de irepetabilitate în limitele condiţiei de trecător prin viaţă.

Succesul personal nu rezidă atât din concepţia celorlalţi asupra ta, ci mai mult din concepţia ta asupra modului de a înţelege lumea ta interioară şi de a trăi prin ea.

Calitatea individului de a se remodela la apelul unei transpuneri într-o lume care îşi reneagă tot mai mult temeliile datorită rătăcirilor ei într-un decor tot mai absurd, se afirmă cât mai deplin în încercarea de a prezenta ca acceptabil inacceptabilul sau ca revoltător normalul.

Calea cea mai bună de a te adapta într-o astfel de lume nu este să o renegi, ci să-i accepţi provocările şi regulile prin prisma faptului că eşti singurul ei supravieţuitor, singurul ei fundament, singurul ei salvator, singurul ei poet, singurul ei creator.

Dead or Alive evidenţiază variaţiunile unei lumi surprinse în tunelul tranziţiei spre un alt model de om, apropiat de o putere mai mare de sine, provenită din existenta unor personaje instantanee pe care el însuşi le creează şi le inserează în propria lume.

Oamenii de mare caracter sunt înscrişi permanent într-o existenţă a morţii şi a învierii. El reuşesc mereu să facă un salt spectaculos peste propria lor umbră deoarece sunt deschişi la ceea ce doreşte să se manifeste prin ei, fără să ştirbească nădejdea ce şi-o pun în ceva ce se comprimă cu ajutorul inacceptabilului.

Prin tine se manifestă altcineva, un Alter-Ego? O forţă mult mai mare decât emoţiile şi sentimentele iniţiale la care viaţa te-a supus?

Ce este un performer

On Ianuarie 25, 2009

Ce este un performer?

„Performer” (# One who performs for, or entertains, an audience) este un cuvânt împrumutat, însă nu se referă strict la activitatea sportivă sau la actorie, după cum este folosit de obicei.

"to perform" = a realiza o performanță (deci, prin extrapolare, sau prin analogie, se poate spune că "performer" este individul care obţine / realizează / aduce performanţe.)

Mă voi limita strict la acest sens.

Leadership : Performer

A fi un performer în gestionarea resurselor umane înseamnă să îmbini leadershipul cu caracterul tău propriu, înseamnă să îmbini cunoştinţele cu personalitatea care te defineşte – în folosul tău, dar şi în folosul celorlalţi oameni.

Performer este omul care, nesupus influenţelor străine, aprinde lumina speranţei şi bucuriei în sufletul oamenilor, prin puterea lui de a le schimba percepţiile - ajutându-i să obţină rezultate concrete în sfera dezvoltării lor personale.

Performerul identifică nevoile de înzestrare ale oamenilor din jur, selectează calităţile lor cele mai pregnante care sunt necesare pentru a-şi schimba statutul, caracterul, personalitatea.

Performer este liderul care promovează schimbarea celor de lângă el prin însăşi natura sa, prin felul său de a fi, prin ideologia sa, izolând sau neutralizând orice element non-integrabil în arhitectura propriei lor fiinţe.

Liderul este omul care poate face performanţă prin şlefuirea materiei din care e compusă fiinţa umană. Este cel care reuşeşte să elimine petele întunecate ale gândirii, ale înţelegerii şi simţirii - nerentabile – din mulţimea de Ego-uri, tratându-le cu decizii înţelepte şi noi orientări de cea mai bună calitate.

Întrebare:

Eşti gata să selectezi oamenii cei mai de calitate, să-i înzestrezi cu tot ce au nevoie pentru a fi performeri pe termen lung?

Delicate

On Octombrie 15, 2019

Un artist grandios ţinteşte spre realizarea unei viziuni ce se îmbină permanent cu inteligenţa unei filosofii derivate din propria-i gândire despre tot ceea ce-l înconjoară.

Cunosc bine trandafirii, în divina lor splendoare, delicate like peace, cum se clătină înaintea celor buni şi celor răi, înaintea ochilor care privesc dincolo de prezentul evenimentelor pe care încerc, cu migală şi inspiraţie, să le transform în revelaţia unei trăiri tainice. Un amestec grandios de real şi imaginabil, de melancolie şi voluptate. Fiecare trandafir mă înnobiliază ca rezultat final al unei creaţii divine, ca o uma obra artística em miniatura , o piesă de puzzle ce-mi întregeşte personalitatea într-o ipostază a seducţiei alterităţii, sofisticate şi neconsumate.

Când pregătesc trandafirii pentru pictură mă simt ca şi când aş fi prezent într-o altă geografie culturală, într-o lume care mă face să trăiesc cu altă identitate, în alt mediu. Într-un loc unde artiştii cei mai de seamă, aleşi dinainte de pronia cerească, îşi ordonează plastic trăirile cu un caracter ocult, prin prisma unui ochi sensibil şi matur, delicate like words , format să găsească, pe cât posibil, un corespondent în spaţiul realităţii subiective.

Cea mai preţioasă lucrare a unui artist e un soi de vizualizare a unei imagini din altă viaţă, din altă realitate. Poate de aceea am încredere în ceea ce văd atunci când simt prezenţa plină de graţie a trandafirului, parfumul lui dulce, romantic, atât de rar, delicate like snow , irezistibil ca un vals al trăirilor intense, neinfluenţate de circumstanţele aglomerărilor urbane, fără ca efemeritatea existenței umane, plină de sacrificiu și suferință, să ajungă până la mine.

Locul lui rămâne destinat amintirii unui personaj de o complexitate atât de mare, plin de simboluri şi enigme, un artiste d'improvisation , încât, decriptându-l, poate da impresia că e vorba de o persoană diferită.

Leadership: Imboldul de a-ţi înţelege mai bine individualitatea te face să sondezi profunzimile reacţiei tale emoţionale în faţa senzaţiei de frumos, căutând indicii pentru a sugera că unicul sens al artei este de a trăi o confesiune plină de nauraleţe şi sensibilitate?

Tradafirul reprezintă un indiciu al conştientizării autonomiei expresive a mijloacelor de limbaj vizual, tratat prin conceptul de conoscenza divina sau prin conceptul de „libertate de gândire şi exprimare", reperabil în toate activitățile cu caracter plastic. Apoi, el este o prelungire a năzuințelor mele, a frumuseții sufletului şi a gândului bun ce mă însoţeşte permanent în călătoria spre atingerea unui ideal al vieţii pasionale, transformat într-o filosofie a expresiei artistice desăvârșite.

Miranda Grey, personajul din opera lui John Fowles, împărtăşea aceleaşi trăiri profunde ca mine, tot atât de intense ca ale unui trandafir, crescând şansele unei poveşti de viaţă autentice atunci când mărturisea, delicate like breeze :

„Probabil că mi-am dorit întotdeauna să cred în aceste lucruri. De fapt, credeam oarecum vag în ele chiar înainte de a-l întâlni. Dar el m-a făcut să cred efectiv în ele. Gândul la el mă face să mă simt vinovată când încalc aceste reguli. Iar dacă m-a determinat să le cred, asta înseamnă că el este cel care a creat cea mai mare parte din noul din mine.

Ca un desen. Nu poţi da mişcare unei linii peste care tot revii cu linioare mici. Linia constă în însăşi îndrăzneala cu care e trasă, străpungerea ei fiind posibilă doar prin vibraţiile unei sensibilităţi artistice, poetice, senzuale."

Leadership: Cum gestionezi opera de scrutare a unei identităţii coerente, a Unului din multiplul conştiinţei de sine, gândită solidar cu sensul unei constante de tip „model de referinţă"?

Imaginea trandafirului face parte din memoria tuturor oamenilor, întruchipând la scară mică măreţia nesfârşită a Creatorului, crezând în acea doină a sufletelor pe care poveştile o numesc iubire pură, delicately planned , într-un anumit sens făcându-se mai bine cunoscut după felul cum se exprimă: prin acea tăcere profundă din care pot ţâşni semnificaţii mai puţin poluate de situaţii pasagere şi de susceptibilităţi rănite ale epocii.

Nu-ţi poţi imagina o tăcere atât de rară, so delicately breathe , decât printr-o reacţie de adoraţie în faţa spectacolului naturii, nu prin intelectualizare, ci prin liricizare, devorându-i semnificaţia cu ochii măriţi de uimire în faţa puterii depline pe care un artist o are asupra vorbelor cele mai alese.

Mă hotărăsc să-l schiţez pe pânza de pictură, un sentiment care nu este deloc confortabil, fiindcă mă simt prins într-un spaţiu al erotismului pur, a delicate advance , ca şi când aş atinge trupul dezbrăcat al unei femei ce te cuprinde cu mâinile blânde după gât, îți face cald în piept şi te priveşte cu acea însufleţire a creaţiunii: arta de a nu fi un om comun, ci unul extraordinar. Delicate like a touch , îi simt toate nuanţele de sentiment, toate subtilităţile şi profunzimile, ca pe nişte vorbe frumoase, şoptite la ureche artistului pur, iubit cu cea mai lungă poezie de dor, printr-o experienţă dedicată pasiunii şi valorilor care se păstrează în timp.

Astfel mă deschid în faţa noii realităţi, plină de săruturi pasionale şi atingeri fine: ca o petală de vis extrasă dintr-un fragment dintr-o mie şi una de nopţi, legănându-se în dans de fluture pe aripile unei nevoi esenţiale de a aparţine unei singure identităţi cu aspect tineresc, senzuale şi romantice, de a avea conştiinţa rădăcinilor sale.

Iubirea este actul de sacrificiu în creaţie, arta de a aparţine în totalitate unei singure persoane pe care trandafirul o acceptă ca pe un egal, ca pe un Dumnezeu sau măcar ca o parte a Lui.

Leadership: Manifeşti dăruire în atingerea unui ideal al vieţii pasionale, de transmitere a unor trăiri însuflețitoare, prin asociere cu ipostaza superioară a unei fiinţe posedată de imaginea estetică şi deschisă către o lume a misterului?

Vladimir Nabokov îmi citea gândurile, îmi intuia tentaţia plină de bun gust, cea care îţi promite o experienţă de vis pe care ţi-o doreşti cu ardoare, atunci când scria despre Lolita, prin comparaţie cu simbolistica trandafirului surprins într-un moment de extaz mistic:

"Curbura spatelui ei, pielea ca orezul, săruturile ei apăsate, laguroase, de porumbiţă, m-au împiedicat să comit vreo prostie. Nu-i adevărat că aptitudinile artistice sunt caracteristici sexuale secundare, aşa cum au afirmat anumiţi şarlatani şi şamani. Lucrurile stau exact invers: sexul este nervul artei."

O femeie dezbrăcată nu trebuie înţeleasă strict sexual, ca o dovadă a slăbiciunii sufletului pus în situaţia tentantă de a se lăsa în voie, abbandonarsi alla disperazione , doar pentru a deveni un instrument de valorificare a frumuseţii. Mai curând, ea trebuie asociată cu ipostaza superioară a fiinţei dăruită cu puterea seducţiei, în scopul promovării unei arte cât mai rafinate, perfecte, longevive.

Iar în acord cu semnificația trandafirului, la donna nuda devine simbolul unei identificări cu rolul de agregator de conţinuturi, fie prin aparenţă sau printr-o apropiere de tip magic, prin delicateţea şi sensibilitatea rezonanţei pe care o are frumuseţea ei în inima şi în mintea oricărui artist.

Imaginea estetică este un soi de fereastră spre ceva mult mai cuprinzător decât experienţa de creaţie, este o fereastră spre semnificaţia ascunsă a unei Dive (futuriste).

Pentru a aprecia utilitatea artei şi a educaţiei artistice este necesar să-ţi dezvolţi capacitatea de diferenţiere între ceea ce te încântă prin perfecţiunea creaţiei şi ceea ce nu este decât o închipuire foarte uşor de contrazis, dar care îţi împacă sufletul prin dreptul de a îmbrăţişa frumuseţea ce ia forma unei muze.

Delicate este copia fidelă a unei opere de artă care începe să ia formă odată cu descrierea unei frumuseţi a naturii, se continuă cu reprezentarea particularităţilor universului feminin şi se încheie cu formularea unei filosofii a vieţii, văzută din perspectiva unei lecturi personale, cu valenţe subiective.

Depărtarea din ochii care caută apropierea

On August 28, 2021

A-ţi contura o viziune înseamnă să susţii o percepţie încrucişată: a unui eveniment fals perceput, cu adevărul pe care urmează să-l cunoşti abia mai târziu.

În fața ochilor mei, în depărtare, apare un punct. Este un om în largul mării, despre care nu pot să-mi dau seama dacă înoată sau se îneacă. Și cum nu observ niciun salvamar sau vreo barcă de salvare, aș zice că cel mai indicat și mai înțelept lucru este ca omul respectiv să dea din mâini și din picioare, altfel nicio rugăciune nu-l mai aduce înapoi la mal. Doar dacă nu cumva intenționează să ajungă, înotând, la Bulgari. Mai știi…

Caracterul inteligibil pe care îl poate avea această observație, nu o poate priva deloc de adevărul următor: atunci când privești bine ce se întâmplă în jur, realizezi că fiecare lucru se manifestă ca întreg, iar întregul însuși poate fi apanajul unui singur individ.

Bine spunea Wilhelm Hauff, cel mai ușor este să scrii despre ceea ce vezi, decât să îți imaginezi un fapt interesant pe care, mai apoi, să-l integrezi într-o poveste. Dar Wilhelm Hauff nu a scris despre artă, nici despre mare.

Căci a vorbi despre artă și despre mare înseamnă să surprinzi elementul lor comun, materia organică din care se naște totul: ideea de infinit și raportarea la destin, în virtutea realității. Orice este materie în infinit, mai ales când vorbim despre nașterea unei realităţi care presupune să ne raportăm la o idee intrată în domeniul artistic, în virtutea unui plan de viziune ce dezvăluie un destin unic.

Căci orice destin aparţine, mai întâi de toate unui cadru simbolic, iar în celălalt caz pe de-a întregul figurat. Alteori, în artă trebuie să surprinzi totalitatea realului printr-o modificare corespunzătoare a particularităţii pe care o dă o reprezentare imaginară.

Leadership: Viziunea ta ar putea să invite la o percepţie clară asupra unei relaţii de cauzalitate, dacă ar poseda un grad de coerenţă superior realităţii?

Când omul ajunge în largul mării, fie înotând, fie împins de curenții marini, el este guvernat de necesitatea de a fi în centrul atenției, tocmai pentru a putea fi salvat în caz de pericol. El nu mai este un element oarecare, ci un fapt deosebit de important. Nu mai este un limbaj tăcut și fără context, ci un organ de convingere care își dezvăluie aproape ostentativ prezența.

În artă, acest lucru poate fi tradus astfel: acolo unde există un spațiu gol, natura îl umple. Acolo unde nu sesizăm decât partea vizibilă a unei acţiuni fără perspectivă, apare dintr-o dată expresia deosebit de profundă a unei aşteptări mari. O aşteptare peste măsură, într-o nimica toată. Aşa se explică faptul că atunci când vorbim despre cauzalitate, vorbim de o realitate care nu poate fi pur și simplu oprită, ci de o realitate care poate transforma omul din orice fel de circumstanţe.

Deci, în cazul de faţă, am putea avea două vieţi paralele, întreţesute, prinse una într-alta: un înotător profesionist şi un om aflat la un pas de a se îneca. Putem avea şi două medii echivalente: un mediu al dârzeniei în lupta cu apele, sau un mediu al disperării şi al dezolării. Depinde de pretenţia ta de a face dintr-un relativ un absolut, fapt care în artă are o pondere însemnată.

Dintr-o dată, o întâmplare devine însemnată pentru că în largul mării "individualul" care se face tot mai mult remarcat, predomină prin eludarea a tot ce este vast și nelimitat. Deci, în artă, surprinzătorul este dat de acel punct care devine mult mai însemnat ca întregul. Finitul devine mai important decât infinitul.

Numaidecât, dacă vrei să te numești artist, trebuie să găsești un mod de simbolizare a unuia prin celălalt.

Iar dacă vrei să înţelegi leadershipul prin prisma artei, trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi o viziune care să contribuie la înțelegerea mai profundă a unei situaţii pentru care nu există un interes spontan.

Depărtarea din ochii care caută apropierea vizează acea măsură a vederii pe care o aştepţi de regulă de la un artist care poate aborda orice dimensiuni ale creaţiei, contopind elementele ce însuflețesc ființa, poezia și fotografia. Prin acest mod de a vedea el are posibilitatea să privească dincolo de materie, de ceea ce se crede a fi "banalitate", aducând în prim plan o nouă formă de expresie – creația artistică.

Sau după cum bine spunea scriitorul Mircea Opriță, pentru aceasta trebuie să descoperi noi sensuri ale fragmentelor vagi ale realităţii, cu o consistenţă aproape dureros dezminţită de faptul că nimic nu se leagă într-o imagine completă sau într-un şir de reprezentări coerente.

Desăvârşiri ale celor antecedente

Îndreaptă-ţi atenţia spre artă, dezvoltându-ţi încrederea în a folosi tendinţa de întoarcere la o existenţă şi o experienţă predestinate unei glorii veşnice.

Urmărind datele care au fost făcute, descoperi cât de disparat revine în imaginaţia realizatorului fiecare scenă. În perioade diferite, la intervale mari de timp apar, în contemplarea unuia sau altuia dintre episoade idei noi, desăvârşiri ale celor antecedente.

De pildă, scena din catedrală, când Ivan anunţă că va fi de acum înainte "cel Groaznic", se schiţează în desene creionate în februarie, în martie, apoi în mai şi în noiembrie 1942, deci - numai din ce am putut cunoaşte - în decursul unui interval de aproape un an.

"Ivan cel Groaznic" se naşte vulcanic, ca un fenomen primar, cu o forţă eruptivă neînfrânată prin nimic de realizator. Încetul cu încetul contururile viitorului film încep să se arate, se ordonează materialul produs dezordonat de imaginaţie, se grupează totul pe liniile directoare ale viitorului scenariu.

*Studiile din timpul elaborării filmului converg şi ele în aceeaşi direcţie. Eisenstein cercetează până şi poziţiile caracteristice ale mâinilor şi ale degetelor din picturile lui El Greco. **

Leadership: Poţi să te integrezi într-o existenţă trăită în trecut cu scopul de a experimenta „omul-nou" din perspectiva unei compoziţii vizuale care descrie perfect situaţia în care opera eclipsează realitatea?

Crearea unei compoziţii în artă este un proces asemănător descoperirii unei destinaţii foarte apreciate ce merită a fi explorată prin resurse limitate, folosind o realitate în care rodeşte un subiect plin de implicaţii existenţiale ce pot afecta un cunoscător al artei. Mă refer la perspectiva unei compoziţii vizuale care descrie perfect situaţia în care opera eclipsează realitatea prin faptul că modelul atenţiei generale capătă nuanţa de "versiune a unei lumi mai vaste."

Consider că ceea ce lipseşte şi trebuie construit în termenii unei desăvârşiri a compoziţiei de inspiraţie şi creativitate, cu cele necesare slujirii idealului unui pretins „om nou", este deschiderea, familiarizarea şi încrederea în a folosi tendinţa de întoarcere la o existenţă predestinată unei glorii veşnice".

Omul-Nou este simbolul omului-vechi căruia i se adaugă acea prestanţă de neuitat, specifică artistului care îşi resimte propria condiţie sub semnul unei alterităţi armonioase, căutate și mereu invocate.

Leadershipul, în traiectoria unei mişcări de schimbare în profunda evoluție a unei noi gândiri, este o tendinţă de modificare a percepţiei vizavi de „omul nou" pe care vrei să-l creezi din reconstituiri ale unor modele și valori pierdute sau uitate. Deci o percepţie care se formează numai din ce ai putut cunoaște într-un anumit interval de timp.

Schimbarea de sine poate să aibă loc într-un context de acceptare a unei viziuni care depinde de un mod de gândire desprins dintr-o examinare atentă a unei imagini, contopit în elemente ale limbajului pictural, obligând la a considera de actualitate tendinţa de a te identifica cu „noul om”.

Acest „nou om” trebuie să inducă ideea de forţă eruptivă neînfrânata, de sursă de reorientare a propriei mentalităţi în direcția unei geografii a experienței unui perpetuu inovator care analizează efectele distanţei dintre mai multe perioade de timp asupra ordinii propriilor convingeri și a preferinţelor pentru versiunea sa de mâine.

Trebuie să trăieşti experienţa de a fi cuprins de ceva care e mai puternic decât tine, pentru a fi pregătit să te integrezi într-o realitate care face diferenţa dintre un destin frânt şi o imagine de excepţie.

Un lider trăieşte tot timpul experienţa de a fi „între” culturi şi spaţii de viaţă distincte, dar care comunică între ele prin valorificarea unor părţi din activele trecutului.

Leadershipul este un caz de import al unor preferințe de comunicare și răspândire a unui anumit tip de conţinut, dincolo de imaginea unui ideal de viaţă şi de perfecţiune. Cu alte cuvinte, încrederea într-o existență anterioară presupune să fii în contact cu tendinţa de actualizare a propriei tale fiinţe.

Desăvârşiri ale celor antecedente ţin de încurajarea unor startup-uri a unor idei noi creative, prin creşterea nivelului de asumare a încrederii în a folosi tendinţa de întoarcere la o existenţă si o experienţă de conducere predestinate unei glorii veşnice.

Am vrea astfel să mărim sfera de înțelegere a procesului de a naviga continuu spre alte perioade, deci îmbogăţită prin studierea altor personalităţi din alte epoci, readucând și incluzând în actualitate anumite standarde de evaluare a elementelor de cultură precum idei, valori, atitudini și convingeri şi implementarea lor într-o nouă devenire.

Deschide ochii. Şi închide-i…

Creatorul este un artist fiindcă ştie să privească un spaţiu vast cu ochii cu care ştie să-şi privească în suflet sentimentul contopirii totale cu infinitul.

Ceea ce se întâmplă cu ochii mei, limpezi, îndrăzneţi, pătrunzători, este ceea ce se întâmplă cu marea atunci când mă adresez ei cu povestea mea de viaţă: ochii devin simbolul central într-o pictură care nu este neapărat descriptivă, ci evocatoare și profund poetică. Iată, aşadar, o senzaţie de satisfacţie în raport cu mediul, o senzaţie de linişte şi siguranţă. Alteori, când marea se frământă, vânturi puternice suflând asupra-i, încep să mă confrunt cu o senzaţie de nisip în ochi, făcând ca întreaga pictură a lumii mele, dezvoltându-se în funcţie de timpuri, să capete o tonalitate mai închisă sau mai rece.

Se poate oare ignora asta? Ochii mi se mişcă în toate direcţiile, în mod firesc, maşinal, instinctiv, fără ca marea să ştie ce anume urmăresc ei atunci când valurile devin plăceri ale privirii. Şi mă întreb: este firesc oare să-mi las ochii să privească o imagine care se adresează şi auzului, nu doar vizualului, printr-o estetică a culorilor efervescente şi vii pe care sunt aşezate emoţiile generate de neliniştea mării, privind frământările mării identificată cu propria-mi fiinţă?

Mângâieri ale ochilor, o parte a unei arte interpretative mai largi, direcţionată spre un spectru mai larg de sensibilitate, forţe de sugestie a amintirilor de neuitat, iată ce sunt aceste imagini pe care încep să le înţeleg mai bine doar privind marea, cu ale ei valuri care, uneori, mă cufundă în uitare. Şi, de felul ei, marea neagră este foarte friguroasă, mai ales iarna, orice suferinţe şi neajunsuri găsind în ea o mare putere de rezistenţă.

O oarecare indiscreţie mă face să o întreb de ce este sărată? Şi marea mi-ar răspunde: "sunt sărată din cauza lacrimilor pe care le vărs pentru toţi cei care nu au curajul să pătrundă în necunoscut pentru a mă cunoaşte."

Leadership: Poţi să scoţi în evidenţă esenţa unei dinamici a viului dată de asocierea ta cu variatele reprezentări ale unui spaţiu marcat de vastitate ce reflectă particularul unei poveşti cu implicaţii emoţionale?

În timp ce priveam marea cu ochi de artist, cu respect, cu înclinaţie către un spaţiu al misterului şi al nemuririi, nu puteam să nu aud glasul blajin pornit ori din înalturile cerului, ori din adâncurile pământului, sau poate era acel glas izvorât din adâncul conştiinţei mele confesionale. Şi el mi-a poruncit: "Închide ochii şi lasă-te purtat de o poveste".

Am închis ochii şi mi-am ascultat vocea. O furtună atemporală părea să mă tragă înapoi. Nu mă interesa să văd nimic, dar mi-am văzut toată viaţa, şi ea dorea să mă audă. Apoi, glasul mi-a poruncit din nou: "Deschide ochii şi trezeşte-ţi simţurile ! "

Când am deschis ochii, brusc mi-am recăpătat vederea cu care artistul trebuie să se identifice înainte de a reda lumina şi umbra în desen. Un clar-obscur îmi încercuia latura vizionară. Se făcuse linişte, o linişte crepusculară. Apoi spiritul frumuseţii mării, tăinuit într-un decor dominat de întinderi maiestuoase, mi-a vorbit ca unui personaj întrupat din opera lui Mika Waltari, aflat în concordanţă cu lumea lui Dionysios:

"Eu te urmez cu plăcere. Te voi urma atât de mult cât va fi posibil. Dar pe care drum vom merge după ce vom părăsi aceste mări, nu avem de unde să ştim, fiindcă nimeni nu-şi cunoaşte dinainte destinul. De aceea nu am curajul să-i sfidez pe zeii nemuritori ridicând mâna ca să fiu de acord cu ceva la fel de nesigur şi de imprevizibil ca toate celelalte lucruri de pe pământ."

Simţind un fior care-mi cutreieră trupul, am închis din nou ochii, şi din alăturarea spiritului de artist - cu spiritul antic al mării, au apărut o serie de imagini tranzitorii, precum un mozaic de puzzle în mişcare, plin de culori apărute accidental.

O voce din ceruri, egală cu un glas blajin izvorât din adâncuri întunecate, m-a întâmpinat din nou, dar de data aceasta cu acel ecou al cântecului de sirenă. Şi mi-a spus pentru ultima oară: "un artist care nu-i cuprins de inspiraţie impersonală, nu va putea niciodată să privească marea ce-şi schimbă culorile în funcţie de vreme."

Apoi, am deschis ochii şi am povestit uimit ceea ce am văzut...

Leadershipul este inspiraţia de care trebuie să ţii cont atunci când îţi construieşti viziunea despre un model de realitate care te împinge spre creaţie, chiar şi atunci când realitatea imediată o ia înaintea impulsului de amplificare a unei emoţii pe o durată temporară.

Deschide ochii. Şi închide-i... Acesta este mesajul unui artist care ştie să dea vieţii sale un plus de imaginaţie izvorâtă dintr-o nesfârşită tandreţe a memoriei, simţind forma, proporțiile unei mari întinderi, și reflectând cu succes acest lucru pe o bucată de pânză. Or aici intervine infinitul: dialogul continuu între ceea ce se întâmplă în exteriorul tău şi ceea ce se întâmplă în mintea ta.

Marea simbolizează infinitul, timpul, eternitatea - cuprinse cu ochii, cu sufletul, cu mintea....

Descrierea vieţii artistului în limbajul culorii

On Ianuarie 16, 2010

Viziunea este un monolog marcat de introspecție profundă, într-un decor care dezvăluie mistere și simboluri ascunse ale existenței.

Culorile se ordonează, de-a lungul filmului, în acelaşi joc dramatic pe care-l urmăresc întâmplările. Roşul sângelui apare, ca tema dramatică, în tot filmul: monologul tarului Boris este incandescent prin roşu care stropeşte cadrele în diferitele lor detalii. Viziunea lui Puşkin se naşte din roşul flacărilor căminului. Previziunea sinistră continua tot printr-o sugestie a culorii, prim pata de sânge a flacării ce izbucneşte din nou străluceşte în reflexe pe cască jandarmului. Apoi, în "Requiem", tema roşie a sângelui pătrunde prin cozorocul chipiului lui Dantes. La moartea lui Puşkin, pată roşie, de sânge, apare nu pe zăpadă, ci într-o splendidă metafora, pe cer, prin cercul roşu însângerat al soarelui.

Cromaticii fiecărui episod îi urmează linia şi structura dramatică. Întâi poetul se mişca în peisaje prăfuite, palide, în culori pastelate. Se cufunda în diversitatea de culori stridente care reînvie cromatica unui Brullow, a acuarelelor orientale de la începutul secolului al XIX-lea, al îmbrăcăminţii viu colorate orientale. Motivul cenuşiu de un albastru palid al viscolului şi al diavolilor - anticipând muzical şi vizual viitorul duel - al mantiei de zăpadă, sunt cuprinse în clinchetul clopoţeilor când Puşkin e dus în surghiun spre Mihailovskoe. Urmează o rapsodie cromatică. Acuarela. O gamă fină. Ulei. Săturat. Din nou o gamă fină, lirica. O gravură alb-negru, cu o pată de culoare. După furtună de zăpadă, înscrisă cu o pensulă groasă de culoare în flacără din cămin, urmează perioada maturităţii creatoare.

O grafică neagră pronunţata pe albeaţa fondului. Negrul cu grafica de dungi de lumină şi pete din final. Apoi, în acelaşi sens rezolvate, scenele următoare din viaţa poetului, până la duel, la moarte, la albul zăpezii marcat de siluetele negre ale copacilor. Aflăm aici descrierea vieţii poetului în limbajul culorii.

Leadership: Prin utilizarea elementelor vizuale dramatice, poţi să evidenţiezi episoadele intense din viața ta, oferind astfel o interpretare vizuală a temelor și întâmplărilor tale?

Culorile joacă un rol dramatic în evidențierea diferitelor episoade din existența unui creator, de aceea creaţia lui accentuează dramatic temele și întâmplările sale. Roșul, simbolizând sânge și flăcări, apare în momentele de intensitate maximă, cum ar fi moartea și duelul. De exemplu, sângele și flăcările sunt metafore vizuale puternice care reflectă stările emoționale și evenimentele semnificative din viața sa. În momentele de viscol și furtună, culorile palide și gri reflectă stările de neliniște și pregătirea pentru confruntările inevitabile. La moartea poetului, pată roșie apare simbolic pe cer, sugerând o metaforă profundă a trecerii sale. Peisajele albe ale zăpezii, marcate de siluetele negre ale copacilor, adaugă o notă de dramatism final. În același fel, viața poetului se desfășoară ca o rapsodie cromatică, fiecare culoare aducând un strat suplimentar de semnificație și emoție.

În artă, culorile sunt esențiale pentru decodarea experiențelor umane, funcţionând ca un limbaj metaforic pentru transmiterea semnificațiilor. Aşadar, viața poetului este și o rapsodie cromatică vibrantă, fiecare culoare aducând straturi suplimentare de semnificație, la fel cum o interfață bine concepută folosește culori pentru a evidenția elemente interactive. De la culorile pastelate ale începuturilor la paletele orientale stridente, de la acuarelele fine la uleiurile săturate, existența sa capătă nuanțe care se succed ca niște scheme de culori personalizate pentru vizualizarea codului vieții.

Leadership: În ce măsură stimulii pot reflecta momentele de maximă intensitate emoțională, sugerând o conexiune profundă între realitatea trăirilor tale și reprezentarea artistică a acestora?

Fiecare nuanță din viața omului contribuie la înțelegerea profundă a existenței sale, ca şi creator. Cu alte cuvinte, ceea ce te inspiră într-un rol de creator, amplifică emoțiile și relevă straturi ascunse ale realității care te fascinează. Întreaga desfășurare a vieții poetului poate fi percepută ca un cod vizual complex, în care fiecare culoare joacă un rol bine definit în transmiterea semnificațiilor, la fel cum culorile într-un program facilitează navigarea și înțelegerea. Culorile devin aici un limbaj metaforic esențial pentru decodarea profundă a experiențelor umane.

Culorile palide și gri reflectă stările de neliniște și pregătirea pentru confruntările inevitabile. Iar peisajele pastelate și nuanțele gri creează o atmosferă de așteptare și introspecție, sugerând momentele de calm aparent înaintea furtunii. Aceste culori conferă o tonalitate melancolică și resemnată, în care poetul își contemplă soarta și inevitabilele confruntări care îl așteaptă. Paleta de culori reflectă stările sufletești complexe, pendulând între speranță și deznădejde, între vis și realitate. Aşadar, peisajul reprezintă imaginea unui întreg alcătuit din elemente dinamice fiecare având propria expresie şi propriul rol în contextul general.

Poate imaginea unui întreg alcătuit din elemente dinamice să adauge la finalul creaţiei tale o notă de optimism, reflectând astfel o viziune artistică asupra vieții tale?

Descrierea vieţii artistului în limbajul culorii poate să indice în ce măsură elementele vizuale pot să îți ofere o reprezentare vizuală unitară a trăirilor tale interioare, aducând un strat suplimentar de semnificație și emoție. Tu poți percepe echilibrul între realitate și interpretarea artistică prin simbolismul culorilor folosite în momentele de maximă intensitate emoțională?

Desenatorul realităţilor paralele

On Decembrie 30, 2014

Asumă-ţi o poziţie realistă pentru transmiterea revelaţiilor, bazându-te pe capacitatea de percepţie a valorii adăugate propriei experienţe.

Era fără nicio îndoială o filosofie fecundă, un episod tainic din jocul ambiguu al imaginarului lărgit, o coeziune între sens şi non-sens prin care puteam gândi o altă lume. Un univers clădit după legile unei raţiuni extinse, determinate de trainica dependenţă dintre deformare şi forţa deformatoare a contextului spaţial în care erau plasate obiectele şi fiinţele. Intensificând energiile degajate în interacţiunile lor. Chiar dacă păreau ireale, distante, artificiale, fără culoare, fără viaţă.

Inovaţia gândurilor ineluctabile, ca o tăietură în limitele raţiunii care se voia deţinătoarea adevărurilor de necombătut, se baza în primul rând pe influenţele catalizatorilor de rafinare a materiei de sine stătătoare. Ciudat. Totul căpăta un soi de materialitate densă, care umplea acel gol de semnificaţie numit self-knowledge şi crea întregul lanţ de dependenţe. Sugerând mişcarea eliberatoare a unei părţi din mine care mă îndemna să înţeleg şi să mă apropii de ceea ce alchimiştii numeau „contopirea totală a spiritualului cu materialul".

Ordinea în care se înlănţuiau ipotezele mele la conţinutul de referinţă al teoriilor ştiinţifice bazate pe previziune, datorită marii complexităţi a fenomenelor de coeziune între idei şi modul de a le transpune în imagine, în care regăseam forţa vie a fraternităţii cosmice, se putea modifica numai prin punerea în balanţă a mai multor paliere de ficţiune. Ele se întretăiau şi se multiplicau ingenios în felul cum razele soarelui se contopesc cu cele ale amurgurilor îndepărtate, dând naştere unei noi perspective, unei noi realităţi.

Aveam în mine acea senzaţie ciudată că aşteptam să mi se întâmple ceva. Implicit, eram tulburat de acea parte a valorii de sine care provenea dintr-o percepţie înaltă a spiritualului, sau mai degrabă din fundătura unei percepţii marginale a unei noi realităţi. Nici nu ştiu cum să mă exprim mai bine. Dar de un singur lucru eram sigur: „ Lucrurile existau. Realizarea lor era în mine, aşa cum propria mea realizare era în ele. "

Poţi să integrezi în sfera leadershipului diferenţele şi similitudinile dintre viziunile provenind din două câmpuri diferite: a filosofiei științei și a conştiinţei de sine?

În leadership, foarte important pentru investigarea şi înţelegerea procesului de percepţie a valorii adăugate printr-o reprezentare subiectivă a realităţii, este arta de a explora ficţiunile şi utopiile - proprii omului particular. Iar o mai corectă apreciere a complexităţii omului focusat pe gândirea viitorului se poate face prin examinarea filosofiei lui, produsă prin fuziunea dintre ştiinţă şi previziune.

Provocările stimulatoare sunt oferite de însăşi coloana vertebrală a gândirii imaginative, pentru a crea un context de manifestare a propriei personalităţi şi terminând cu reflectarea acestei personalităţi în alegerea unei dezvoltări viitoare. Filosofia ştiinţei se bazează pe relaţia dintre ceea ce găseşti relevant despre un ansamblu coerent de noţiuni, idei, teorii şi doctrine, de reflectări specializate în planul gândirii, şi ceea ce crezi despre o anumită realitate mai presus de lume, sau care de multe ori este ignorată.

Autoritatea în leadership poate fi atribuită de regulă unui singur „proprietar", creator al unor noi teorii şi concepţii, înzestrat cu capacitatea de a substanţia lucrurile şi realitatea însăşi, în diferite contexte, după firea lui individuală. Conştiinţa te îndeamnă să accepţi o anumită realitate, tu fiind creatorul ei, atunci când Eul tău devine partea cea mai expusă din configuraţia ei definitivă.

Ne referim la omul care ştie să-şi personalizeze ştiinţa după legile unei raţiuni mai extinse, capabil să transforme materia vie în principiu explicativ al tuturor lucrurilor – un învăţat care a depăşit orice bariere pentru a putea fi el însuşi, un om capabil să umple acel gol de semnificaţie, numit cunoaştere de sine, şi să creeze un întreg lanţ de dependenţe între regulile de modelare a realităţii, pe care de obicei o numim experienţă.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dezvolţi înţelegerea despre o anumită cugetare prin analizarea trăsăturilor ei formale, fără să distingi între fapte, date raționale și interpretări de valoare?

Cineva spunea într-un articol pe internet: „ Există o ştiinţă de tip obişnuit, prin cunoaşterea exactă a lucrurilor. Şi există una de tip mai ridicat, prin cunoaşterea lor în idee, adică o cunoaştere nu doar exactă, ci şi adevărată."

Liderul viitorului se va forma nu atât prin depăşirea unei limite a cunoaşterii, prin colectarea informaţiilor direct din zona obiectivului propus, cât mai degrabă prin potrivirea probabilităţilor de autodepăşire, atribuite experienţei individuale de a se forma, aproape nelimitat, dând un sens vieţii sale dincolo de existenţa propriu-zisă.

El va dori să ajungă la o nouă înţelegere, mai înaltă, a revelaţiilor de conştiinţă, a adevărurilor născocite chiar de el însuşi, prin intermediul puterii subiective de a percepe în mod diferit realitatea, de a sesiza alternative la natura realităţii pe care vrea să o trăiască şi să o transmită cu îndrăzneală.

Lucrurile trebuie să se înlănţuie, să se compare, să se separe până ce capătă un nou contur, să fie modelate şi dotate cu sensuri până ce prind viaţă. O viaţă care să semnifice propria ta depăşire. Asta va fi esenţa dezvoltării durabile.

Iar această dezvoltare presupune să integrezi în sfera leadershipului diferenţele şi similitudinile dintre viziunile provenind din două câmpuri diferite: a filosofiei științei și a conştiinţei de sine. Ele se determină şi se acţionează reciproc prin relaţiile stabilite de viziune, prin punerea în balanţă a mai multor paliere de ficţiune.

Prin acumularea de experienţă, conştiinţa este capabilă să pună în concordanţă o artă şi o ştiinţă care, împreună, să exploreze orizontul spiritual al individului până la constatarea unei realităţi aparte - ca mai apoi el să fie evaluat în funcţie de dinamicitatea şi complexitatea ei, în funcţie de cerinţele ei şi în funcţie de susţinătorii ei.

O cugetare din care reiese o nouă realitate vizează activitatea Eului de a dobândi cunoaşterea cea mai înaltă specifică acelei experienţe de găsire a semnificaţiei unei proiecţii imaginative care să constituie revelaţia unei lumi sublime.

Desenatorul realităţilor paralele poate fi liderul care doreşte să ajungă la o nouă înţelegere, mai înaltă, a revelaţiilor de conştiinţă, a adevărurilor născocite chiar de el însuşi. Un asemenea om, care foloseşte toată puterea experienţei pentru a se autodepăşi, se ghidează întotdeauna după regula: „ Lucrurile există. Realizarea lor este în mine, aşa cum propria mea realizare este în ele. "

Despre

Dacă e vorba să mă descriu, probabil trei cuvinte mă caracterizează în totalitate: perseverenţă, curiozitate şi entuziasm. Şi cred că de aici a început totul.

Mă mândresc cu atributele artei pe care o propun spre a fi aprofundată de tine, cititorule, dar nu atât pentru meritele unei învăţături aparte, ci mai mult fiindcă am avut sădită în mine viziunea omului de ştiinţă care ştie să schimbe criteriile cu adevărat spirituale, profunde, ale unei lumi care ieri era ceva, o lume pe care începând de azi n-o vei mai recunoaşte.

A nu gândi în termeni de Creaţie şi Creator, şi a nu face distincţia între kitsch şi artă, sunt criteriile închiderii unei lumi în ea însăşi, într-o searbădă şi irelevantă etalare a ideilor, viziunilor, a libertăţii de expresie, percepute adesea drept lucruri fără însemnătate, gata oricând să fie îngropate într-un mormânt superficial pe care, cel mai probabil, un scriitor ca Mika Waltari l-ar asemăna cu o carte de nisip care nu se savurează decât prin uitare.

Leadership: Semnificaţia pe care o atribui asocierii tale cu o activitate intelectuală superioară poate fi înţeleasă ca efort al unui Creator de excepţie de a-şi exprima viziunea în spaţiul unei relaţii cu menirea de a fi mai mult decât Legendar?

Iată un principiu demn de Victor Hugo: "Nimic nu se naşte fără rădăcini, nimic nu se măsoară fără amplificare." În primul rând îmi sunt recunoscător mie însumi pentru cărţile cu conţinut divers pe care destinul mi le-a scos în cale încă dinainte de a mă fi gândit la viitorul meu, tot aşa cum albinele rămân recunoscătoare fenomenelor naturii pentru polenul diverselor flori care ajunge pe stigmatul altor flori constituind o polenizare încrucişată menită a susţine un întreg ecosistem.

E o mândrie dreaptă, nu trufie din partea mea. Nu doar că mi-am însuşit atributele unui deţinător de cunoştinţe alese, altceva decât rezultatul unei gândiri care se laudă cu faptul că „a trăit tot ce a spus", fiindcă e mai importantă acţiunea decât teoria, dar m-am raportat la mine ca la opera unui pictor care transpune pe pânză imaginile create de mintea unui scriitor care îşi trăieşte viaţa într-o poveste de carte faimoasă şi mare şi grea, volum uriaş străjuit de viziunea unui om de ştiinţă.

Rezultatele sunt pe măsură. Cele peste 1200 de articole şi cele 6 cărţi pe care le-am scris până în prezent, webinariile ajutătoare, precum şi programul de membership bine structurat, reprezintă, desigur, dovada că deţin un bagaj serios de cunoştinţe.

În mod considerabil, dacă universul mi-a hărăzit un destin de legendă, o destinaţie pe care arta şi-o asumă prin curajul de a nu renunţa la onorurile unei puteri absolute, a puterii de a construi o idee grandioasă printr-o imagine sincretică, atunci literatura pe care o pun la dispoziţie constă într-o analiză a alterităţii: sunt şi pictor, şi arhitect, şi magician.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi valorizezi reuşitele proprii în contextul unei influenţe care se alătură evenimentelor regulate care fac din viaţa ta opera unui creator de progres, inducând o remodelare a tuturor componentelor de bază asociate unei lumi care se vrea a fi superioară celorlalte variante ale ei?

Când te afli în preajma unui destin exemplar, cu puternice valenţe spirituale, trebuie să accepţi o altă variantă a sensului vieţii şi al lumii în care trăieşti. După cum dorinţa cea mai mare a unui pictor este să creeze o compoziţie puternică, plină de lumină şi de emoţie, tot astfel dorinţa mea cea mai mare este să construiesc un edificiu, care sper să nu se prăbuşească niciodată. Acest edificiu adăposteşte o bună parte din cunoştinţele mele, se îmbogăţeşte zilnic, şi cred că merită vizitat de toţi aceia care doresc să-şi îmbunătăţească performanţele.

O condiţie în plus a unei fiinţe plină de semnificaţie este aceea de a se lăsa în voia unei viziuni menită să se reflecte în evoluţia administrării sferei ştiinţei şi inovării, nu doar să exagereze în transmiterea aprecierii calităţii unei vieţi pline de bucurie şi fericire. Aşa cum dorinţa lui Henry Ford a fost ca fiecare om de rând să poată să-si permită un automobil, aşa cum dorinţa lui Bill Gates a fost ca fiecare om să-şi permită să aibă pe birou un computer personal, tot astfel dorinţa mea este ca fiecare om să înţeleagă conceptul de leadership şi aspectele sale ascunse.

Leadership: Te inspiri în crearea propriei unicităţi din contextul unui setup de cauze şi efecte, neluate în calcul decât în ciuda unui destin tulburător şi a aparentei sale fragilităţi, când trebuie să rămâi complex şi curajos în alegerile tale?

Părinţilor mei le reproşez faptul că n-au învăţat nimic din această viaţă, destinul nu le-a hărăzit dramul de înţelepciune specific celor care au înţeles, în esenţă, regulile unei lumi care trebuie să se schimbe în permanenţă până la a deveni perfectă. De fapt, n-am învăţat absolut nimic de la părinţii mei, deşi au deţinut amândoi funcţii importante de conducere. E o certitudine: am fost dintotdeauna un autodidact şi n-am plecat capul în faţa sfaturilor oamenilor optuzi, deloc deschişi spre marea ştiinţă, spre creaţie, spre progres.

Plăcerile vieţii sunt pentru oamenii care nu fac nimic, iar sacrificiile sunt pentru cei care îşi demonstrează măreţia. Unii s-au născut doar pentru a fi uitaţi, şterşi complet din cartea vieţii, alţii s-au adaptat la condiţiile cele mai nefavorabile ale vieţii pentru a schimba o întreagă lume şi pentru a-şi câştiga, probabil, nemurirea. A fi genial înseamnă să nu dai ascultare orbeşte cerinţelor părinţilor tăi.

Când vine vorba de leadership, ca şi în alte domenii, totul porneşte de la ceea ce ştii şi de la ceea ce faci cu ceea ce ştii. Chiar dacă ai talent, trebuie să ţi-l exersezi zilnic tot aşa cum un jucător de baschet exersează în fiecare zi loviturile la coş pentru ca progresele lui să fie vizibile.

Dacă nu ai talent sau abilităţi de lider, vestea bună e că poţi fi un om excepţional dacă reuşeşti să-i ajuţi pe alţii, chiar şi într-o mică măsură, să se dezvolte pe plan uman sau profesional. Cine ştie, poate că o informaţie venită de la mine îţi va folosi ca să-i ajuţi pe ceilalţi din jurul tău.

Fii cinstit, iar eu voi fi cinstit cu tine

Destăinuirea unei simţiri care te lasă fără cuvinte

On Ianuarie 03, 2021

Dezvoltă-ţi facultatea sufletului de a percepe lucrurile nemateriale, încât să lărgeşti orizonturile unei creații care impresionează prin realitatea unei existenţe de dincolo de fiinţă.

Există momente când simt că sunt în deplină armonie cu natura, mai exact cu expresia unei bogate game de sentimente pe care mi le insuflă trandafirul Double Delight , unit în mod atât de firesc cu mine prin tot ce e imaginabil, dar legitim într-o creaţie artistică.

Nu-mi pot ascunde uimirea la vederea acestei imagini a frumuseţii, ea neajungând niciodată să se demodeze, dar mă confrunt cu nerăbdarea de a fi răbdător care mai curând se transformă în obsesie, posesivitate, compulsie. Această formă de viaţă de care m-am legat cu har divin, înmiresmată de parfumul sferelor de extracte naturale ce garantează un puternic efect de desfătare a simţurilor şi a minţii, un fel de trăsătură caracteristică a fenomenalităţii afective, se dezvoltă şi se întăreşte prin conlucrarea artistului cu acea conştiinţă a încărcăturii spirituale care adesea, cu nuanţă de lumină discretă, mă pune înaintea marilor mistere ale experienţei de ideaţie.

Trandafirul este doar instrumentul unei apropieri de credinţă, perceput ca o minune a creaţiei spontane, libere, de o remarcabilă originalitate, folosit pentru transcenderea propriei mele naturi, sau ca o transcendere a omului spre Dumnezeu și o coborâre a lui Dumnezeu în materie. Aşadar, trebuie să caut înăuntrul trandafirului răspunsul la întrebarea: "cine sunt și ce vreau de la artă", fiind stăpânit de potenţialitatea unei priviri prospective îndreptată spre fenomenele sufleteşti ale revelaţiei divine, hrănită din substanţa sufletească a pământului.

Un "must see" devine rapid un "must have", dar cu binecuvântata trimitere spre romanul "Dune", al lui Frank Herbert, unde stă scris negru pe alb: "The person who experiences greatness must have a feeling for the myth he is in."

Leadership: Poţi să consideri creația ta drept o fenomenalitate a spiritului aflat în contemplarea unei imagini a revelaţiei divine, situându-te totodată pe un nivel de la care obiectul contemplării poate fi proiectat doar în abstract?

Pe măsură ce admiraţia pe care o simte artistul pentru natură se transformă în obsesie, căci asta înseamnă să-şi nege interesul pentru marile lupte ale vieţii, adevărată valoare a înţelepciunii de dincolo de Ego, el devine o altă persoană, mai puţin sociabilă, dar capabilă să descopere o serie de secrete preţioase. Simbolul trandafirului este un asemenea secret, pe care cu bună ştiinţă mi-l asum ca pe o datorie faţă de lucrarea lui Dumnezeu.

Până la urmă, este vorba despre o simţire a propriei fiinţe în afirmarea voinţei de a plăsmui o imagine a naturii divine, prin corespondenţă cu imaginea unei persoane întrupate într-o floare delicată, dar totodată impunătoare, înflorind până în deşertul celor o mie şi una de nopţi şi atingând sublimul într-o perspectivă semiotică a lui Umberto Eco. Ea a dispărut într-o misiune de salvare a cuvântului sfânt, din corpusul biblic, dar a revenit în atenţia pictorului Jean-Baptiste Robie încă dinainte ca el să-şi redescopere spiritualitatea şi credinţa.

Pustietatea se va veseli și va înflori ca trandafirul. De aici decurge facultatea sufletului care percepe aspectele lumii nemateriale aflate în afara experienței plastice dobândite în cadrul activităţilor de artă.

Căci, simt permanent prezenţa a ceva diferit de mine, mai impunător şi mai rafinat, abstract de orice raport cauzal corespunzător realităţii, ceva faţă de care ştiu să reacţionez numai prin predominanţa unui fenomen exterior care acţionează dintr-o necesitate interioară. Un trandafir poate fi atât de uimitor încât nicio fotografie nu știe să-i facă dreptate pe măsura timpului care nu-i uită migala de a fi deificat.

Leadership: Creaţia ta procesează acel nivel de artă la care "obiectul contemplării" include conştientizarea unei lumi superioare, întrucât l-ai putea proiecta în ipostaza de subiect al unei compoziţii care întruchipează ideea nemuririi?

Am făcut bine că m-am înconjurat de universul florilor printr-o interpretare a simbolurilor care preced dimensiunea ludică a desenului. La momentul sublim al admirării trandafirului, în contextul metafizicii cu care îmi delectez în intimitate sufletul, simţurile, privirea, mintea, contribuie calitatea pictorului de a încerca să-şi imagineze realitatea altfel decât pare la prima vedere, într-un exercițiu de îmbinare a compoziţiei naturii statice cu portretul unei convertiri la Divinitate.

Aici trebuie neapărat să iau în calcul rostirea memorabilă a unei istorisiri ieşite din comun, semnate John Fowles în romanul "Omida":

"Cumpărasem întâmplător portretul în creion şi acuarelă al unei tinere. Nu avea semnătura pictorului, însă într-un colţ se găsea o însemare cu cerneală care, pare-se, spunea în italiană - 16 iulie 1683. Datarea precisă mă mulţumi la început la fel de mult ca şi desenul în sine, care de fapt nu e cu nimic deosebit.

Totuşi, ceva din chipul prelung al tinerei demult dispărute, ceva din ochii ei, o prezenţă vie inexplicabilă, un refuz al morţii, ajunsese să mă obsedeze încetul cu încetul. Se prea poate ca tocmai acest refuz al morţii să o fi legat pe femeia reală de o alta pe care o admir nespus de multă vreme şi care apare mai târziu în istorisire."

Pe bună dreptate. Dacă în tot ceea ce mă înconjoară există o voce ce nu foloseşte cuvinte ca să-şi exprime trăirile ascunse, dacă în tot ceea ce mă impulsionează există putinţa de a uni frumosul cu adevărul de dincolo de cuvinte, şi dacă s-ar găsi măcar câteva cuvinte care să-mi stăpânească cugetul şi simţirea când asupra mea vor veni împrejurări neaşteptate, aceste cuvinte vor fi auzite doar de vibraţiile unei voci interioare: "Istorisirea artei se condimentează cu faptul neaşteptat, cu credinţa în nemurire."

Iată, cât de puternic este simbolul trandafirului…

O compoziţie care întrupează ideea nemuririi trebuie să întregească înţelegerea realităţii imaginată ca o trecere dintre două lumi care prin esenţa lor sunt opuse, dar această uniune dă naştere unui univers gigantic.

Destăinuirea unei simţiri care te lasă fără cuvinte ar fi cu siguranţă subiect de „destine prinse în intersectarea închisă şi ameţitoare a altor lumi", conturând perfect portretul artistului talentat care, având posibilitatea de a-şi exprima admiraţia pentru artă, se transformă el însuşi în eroul pe care îl adoră atât de mult în creaţiile sale.

Vă puteţi închipui că, astfel, am îmbrăcat diverse forme de viaţă într-un univers extensiv.

Destăinuirile unei priviri pline de culoare

On August 04, 2020

Ochii care îşi lărgesc privirea înspre sfera divinului sunt obiectul inspiraţiei unui artist care îşi extinde câmpul creaţiei în toate direcţiile.

Scriu ca să-mi liniştesc sufletul într-o conversaţie cu peisajele vrăjite ale naturii, cu florile, cu iarba, cu soarele blând, cu vântul lin, cu cerul senin, cu pietrele de izvor. Toate acestea se dovedesc fragile la întâlnirea artei cu ştiinţa, în prezenţa unui concept atent conturat, puternic de libertate, exprimat prin termenul Pritemisunyach (cea mai minunată beatitudine pe care omul o poate simţi). Personificarea fiecărei splendori a naturii, analiza creaţiei în sine, dorinţa de a mă regăsi într-o compoziţie realistă disponibilă într-o gamă diversificată de culori, au făcut din spontaneitatea creatoare a vieţii mele un punct de referinţă pentru reperele unei existenţe fascinante.

Alteori, mi-am dorit să mă cunosc altfel decât sunt, să mă simt altfel decât fantastic, să mă recunosc într-o oglindă cu faţa dublă, fiind alături de liniştea care compune (în cinstea naturii) cele mai frumoase poezii, astfel lăsând artei mele posibilitatea de a se face simţită la nivel spiritual, într-o lucrare mirifică a Creaţiei. Cu alte cuvinte, mi-am dorit să schimb obişnuitul cu extraordinarul într-un peisaj plin de lirism, plăsmuit din visuri dulci, care să-mi poarte imaginaţia pe culmi nebănuite, peste limitele puterii de a înţelege viaţa.

Am văzut de departe ceea ce trebuia să văd de aproape, fiindcă am văzut cu alţi ochi decât o făceam în trecut, cu privirea îndreptată asupra muncii pictorului şi a imaginii alcătuite de stratul pictural. Acest pictor deosebit ar fi vrut parcă să concretizeze puterea captivantă a sentimentului înalt într-o nemurire naturală a sufletului. Nu ştiu încă dacă privirea mea este atât de ageră încât să perceapă diferenţa dintre incursiunea în lumea artei şi incursiunea în tainele naturii, din moment ce diferenţa este atât de mică între o victorie convingătoare a frumosului în lumea bântuită de inteligența artificială şi miracolul unui mesaj divin ce trebuie ocrotit.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi destinul unei creaţii care se păstrează nealterată în contextul unei manifestări a sinelui imuabil, astfel încât să faci din arta ta expresia unei aventuri a sufletului trecut printr-o memorie tainică a naturii?

Trandafirul din dreapta mea mă priveşte ca un martor al sentimentelor mele de preţuire faţă de întregul unei vieţi din altă viaţă. El dă glas gândurilor şi emoţiilor mele. Ceva din mine se conformează laturii sale artistice şi spirituale. Mereu îmi pune la încercare cealaltă faţă a mea, ca şi când ar fi dorit să stabilesc identitatea eternă a omului cu el însuşi în împărăţia unui univers care depășește imaginația oricui. Cumva, el are o mare prestanţă în faţa lucrării artistice, a ascultătorului, a privitorului, a creatorului care netezeşte cu gândul şi cu sufletul, apoi cu fiecare mişcare a pensulei, sensul uman al sacrului.

Iar interacţiunea mea cu trandafirul este reciprocă între două corpuri. Corpul uman se transformă în trupul lui Hristos, în timp ce artisticul se combină cu "Proprietatea Albă a Sângelui Ispăşirii". Poate că eu însumi sunt un corp divin, fiindcă sufletul îmi este divin, şi fiindcă natura se combină cu arta mea într-un plan divin: Elestoracthiss (comuniunea spirituală a omului cu Dumnezeu).

Transformarea trupului lui Hristos în plan artistic, printr-o percepţie poetică a naturii, de unde şi comuniunea dintre Sine şi Altul, face ca rostul vieţii mele să capete semnificaţia unei creaţii ce figurează sublim în declaraţia de exprimare a esteticii pe care o furnizează acel efect mistic de reînnoire, de renaştere, acea stare de revelaţie interioară în care descoperim că putem fi altcineva.

Demult, o parte din sufletul trandafirului s-a reflectat în mine, acea parte fiind menită să-mi aline trupul, durerile, să-mi tempereze pofta de măreţie, de lux şi de putere. Ceva din lumina ochilor mei a fost asimilată de razele puterii sale spirituale de a transcende și transfigura realitatea.

Artistul este un sfânt pentru că îşi duce creaţia la nivel de artă atemporală, atât în plan fizic cât şi în plan spiritual. El trăieşte în două lumi apropiate, rezonând la nivel sufletesc, ca şi când ar trăi un moment de libertate absolută într-un spaţiu nelimitat.

Omul atins de harul divin este un artist, un creator căruia i se atribuie ori i se impută meritele Mântuitorului nostru Iisus Hristos, care prin intermediul simbolisticii capătă semnificaţia de "nobleţe", "exaltare", "superioritate", "eminenţă", "elevaţie", "putere". Trandafirul îi furnizează aritistului puterea de a se exprima cu însufleţire, cu talent, cu un pronunţat rafinament, comparabil cu puterea lui Iisus de a săvârşi minuni în numele unei ştiinţe care preia proprietăţile ştiinţei naturii.

Numai prin intermediul artei pot simţi chemarea trandafirului, şi totodată să te simţi absolut, divin. Este o călătorie fără finalizare în căutarea altei lumi, în care parcă se îngână o rugăminte care conţine cuvântul "asemănare". Sigur avea dreptate cine spunea că: "Arta autentică ne transpune aproape instantaneu într-un plan divin, producând în conştiinţa noastră o stare de universalizare şi unificare, descoperind astfel plini de încântare splendorile dumnezeieşti."

Am învăţat că este greu să pricepi arta, cu atât mai mult cu cât ea se traduce prin simbol, prin întruparea naturii umane într-un trandafir roşu, de culoarea sângelui. Iar dacă ceea ce am învăţat m-a ajutat să mă transform în altcineva, cu puteri divine, asta se datorează faptului că am ascultat cu atenţie glasul artei spirituale care îmi şopteşte adesea: "Construieşte-ţi o viziune admirabilă asupra a tot ce e în natură, în timp ce îţi recâştigi puterea asupra vieţii tale în totalitate."

Punctul de plecare al unei demonstraţii de aptitudini artistice extraordinare este ceea ce simţi că eşti la nivelul unei conştiinţe care se dezvăluie prin revelarea orizontului specific spiritului divin.

Destăinuirile unei priviri pline de culoare reunesc toate ideile şi cunoştinţele tale despre artă trecute prin filtrul unui simbolism care începe de la lumea minunată a naturii şi se continuă cu aducerea lui Hristos şi a învăţăturii Sale în mijlocul unei perspective inedite de înţelegere şi reinterpretare dualistă a Creaţiei.

Destination Reality

Încearcă să te redefineşti, incluzându-te într-un proces continuu de validare a unei realităţi care cere să fie trăită ca pentru prima oară.

Aş face mai bine să nu vorbesc despre mine, cel care se generalizează prin simplificare. Ci despre vraja nemărturisită care mă stăpâneşte cu insistenţă, de încântarea de a fi captivul unui Think Twice , între alternanţele negative şi cele pozitive ale unei simţiri mereu în alertă. Vădit, mă situez de-a lungul unui circuit de stimulare a forţelor de interacţiune dintre trei capacităţi: a vedea, a cunoaşte şi a accepta faptul că lucrurile nu sunt întotdeauna ce par a fi.

O vrajă sporită printr-un amestec subtil de adevăr şi neadevăr, cu ajutorul expresiei rezultate dintr-un Destination Reality , dintr-un soi de autentic care îşi caută adâncul, din neostenita căutare a unui sens călăuzitor ce există numai între formele de autoevaluare şi control a raţiunii adunate unificator în mine însumi.

Recunoaşteţi în mine sufletul unui scriitor care vede mult prea clar lumea imaginară, pentru a juca un rol important în lumea reală, asemenea unei Chloe Saunders care aproape se pierde în nebunie contemplând fantomele pe care şi le făureşte?

Leadership: Eşti capabil să dezvolţi o gamă largă de efecte manifestate în trăirile pe care le experimentezi prin plasarea unei noi perspective de viaţă în atmosfera unei lumi speciale?

A mă încrede în această vrajă este similar încercării de a găsi fără greş toate adevărurile raţionale cu care se mândreşte ştiinţa, de a mă situa acolo unde feelings become notes . Probabil este cea mai intimă şi mai preţioasă însuşire a funcţionării mele în cadrul acelei etape evolutive ce instituie posibilitatea transformării mele în altcineva. Now you must open your mind.

Aproape nu cutez să cuprind această vrajă de neoprit, suma curenţilor de intensitate a unei puteri de asimilare a instantaneului înscris în formula: Today is a long time , când pomenesc de acele senzaţii de extensivitate ce duc la neutralizarea oricăror banalităţi cotidiene - izvorâte parcă dintr-un soi de cauză pierdută. It's not a dream.

Fie că în felul acesta se exprimă schimbarea în bine şi totală a caracterului meu. Fie că mă pierd în vârtejul unei forţe de rezistenţă care are şi o contra-forță, ca în cazul regelui Lear a cărui raţiune se destramă puţin câte puţin sub şocul trădărilor extraordinare. Fapt este că reuşesc să păstrez un "îmi pasă" în faţa acestei splendori numite "Myself". Câtă pace şi linişte răsare din acest sentiment de afinitate profundă !

Efectele manifestate în trăirile pe care le experimentez prin plasarea unei noi perspective de viaţă în atmosfera unei lumi speciale, rezidă din coorespondenţa între faptele observate şi remarcile pe care acestea mi le sugerează.

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi o nouă tendinţă în stabilirea standardelor estetice ale prezentului prin afişarea unei imagini cât mai naturale despre propria persoană raportată la o anumită coerenţă a asumării existenţiale?

Când te găseşti de partea unei convingeri preferenţiale de tip: „Mi-aş dori ca lucrurile să fie privite realist”, având ca element generator al unui nou trend de măsurare a dezvoltării recunoaşterea unei stări de fapt care impune confruntarea cu tine însuţi, practic interacţionezi cu două persoane: una văzătoare şi cealaltă nevăzătoare.

Destinaţia ta nu mai este accederea la o nouă realitate a cărei vrajă conţine convenienţele unei lumi revelate ca un univers complex miniatural, ci mai degrabă reuşita conturării unei noi concepţii despre prezentul pe care îl trăieşti prin toate sentimentele şi gândurile adunate într-o viaţă.

Leadershipul se organizează în jurul şi datorită acestor două persoane din care eşti constituit, astfel încât să deţii un grad de ordine ridicat al lumii obiective şi prin aceasta o cantitate mare de informaţie trebuincioasă cunoaşterii prezentului pe care trebuie să-l imortalizezi (nu doar să-l depăşeşti) dacă vrei ca viitorul să se schimbe.

Prezentul este o treaptă în căutarea unei teorii mai cuprinzătoare asupra viziunii vieţii. Iar instantaneul este o parte a prezentului asupra căruia trebuie să-ţi focalizezi întreaga gândire, în care trebuie să-ţi adânceşti cunoaşterea pentru a putea accede la o realitate pe care altfel n-o poţi înţelege. Trebuie să te deschizi şi să te prezinţi responsabil în faţa puterii instantaneului. Fapt ce conferă o anumită individualitate procesului de concepere a unei noi experienţe de a fi.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi personalizezi raportarea la o destinaţie nedezvăluită, îmbrăţişând ceea ce se iveşte prin intermediul unui „Today is a long time”?

Instantaneul pune în valoare ceea ce eşti atunci când în lumea minţii tale se iveşte o privelişte surprinzătoare, dată de posibilitatea transformării tale în altcineva. Altfel spus, gândirea ta este în desfăşurare, dar îi trebuie doar o clipă pentru a se concentra într-un nou rol – de generator de senzaţii de extensivitate ce duc la neutralizarea oricăror banalităţi cotidiene. Capacitatea gândirii de a se înălţa la noţiuni cu conţinuturi mai mari, depinde şi de capacitatea ta de a fixa, de a surprinde instantaneul.

Instantaneul se poate exprima printr-un „Today is a long time”, problemă specifică de localizare a unei noi poziţii de a fi inclus decât de a exclus dintr-un proces continuu de validare a unei realităţi care cere să fie trăită ca pentru prima oară. Este momentul redefinirii tale.

Leadershipul are ca şi cauză de producere a unui nou model de gândire şi autodepăşire posibilitatea de a-ţi personaliza raportarea la o destinaţie nedezvăluită, îmbrăţişând ceea ce se iveşte prin intermediul unui „Today is a long time”. Tu poţi să devii altcineva prin imortalizarea prezentului, prin valorificarea unui moment efemer aflat la limita conştientizării?

Verificarea a ceea ce vrei să realizezi prin mijlocirea propriilor cugetări deduse din captarea instantaneului, ce are ca element constitutiv o sumă a convingerilor că exişti printr-un amestec subtil de adevăruri şi neadevăruri, este indispensabilă unei bune funcţionari în condiţii de confuzie.

A dezvolta o nouă tendinţă în stabilirea standardelor estetice ale prezentului înseamnă să redai prin cugetări interesante şi prin cuvinte cât mai alese frumuseţea unui anumit moment, fără să-ţi suprapui trăirile şi gândurile peste imaginile surprinse de alţii într-o lume care caută în mod constant să te facă altcineva.

Destination Reality aduce în prim plan acel proces de stocare a instantaneului în evoluţia omului care e chemată să ia locul aceleia care a fost în mod esenţial zdruncinată de condiţia inferioară: „Nu pot să fiu altcineva”. Este un construct personal care izvorăşte din neostenita căutare a unui sens călăuzitor ce există numai între formele de autoevaluare şi control a raţiunii adunate unificator în tine însuţi.

Destinul cenuşiu al sufletelor părăsite

On Iulie 12, 2011

Deschide poarta care îţi oferă acces permanent la respectul şi stima oamenilor, fără să trădezi principiile călăuzitoare ale leadershipului tău.

- Hank, vom fi milionari ! spuseră într-un singur glas muncitorii aflaţi în preajma sondei de petrol. Haide, Hank, trebuie să ne dai dreptul de a lua propriile noastre decizii.

Ştiind că situaţia în care se găseau, orele valorau cât zilele şi că nu poate tărăgăna deciziile prin lungi şi interminabile discuţii, Hank Anderson, maistrul de foraj, responsabilul echipei, le răspunde pe un ton categoric:

- Luaţi-vă lucrurile şi pregătiţi-vă de plecare în jumătate de oră. Vulcanul ăla poate erupe oricând. E prea periculos să rămânem aici, cu sau fără petrol.

Aruncându-i priviri încărcate de cel mai profund dispreţ, muncitorii cerură dreptul de a lua propriile lor decizii, invocând motive serioase de a rămâne acolo şi de a-şi continua munca.

Leadership: Te înarmezi cu obligaţia respectării unei condiţii care te defineşte ca mijlocitor al destinelor, pe care trebuie să ţi-o impui cu fermitate atunci când îţi este testată loialitatea faţă de principiile tale?

Ai văzut filmul „ When Time Ran Out (1980) ”? Îţi aminteşti ce a făcut Hank în această situaţie? A acceptat. Exact. A consimţit şi le-a dat dreptul de a decide privind continuarea muncii lor, făcând abstracţie de propriile opinii. Şi-a permis să încalce principiile după care un lider îşi ghidează toate deciziile şi acţiunile, şi-a permis să abdice de la modelul solid de leadership care l-a adoptat până atunci. În loc să profite de autoritatea care o avea şi să ia toate măsurile pentru a înfrâna orice urmă de rezistenţă din partea membrilor echipei sale, Hank le-a susţinut indirect intenţia acceptând ca ei să-şi desfăşoare mai departe activitatea.

Care a fost consecinţa deciziei lui Hank? Toţi muncitorii au murit în urma erupţiei vulcanului. E vorba despre atitudinea pe care o ai faţă de viaţă, care te defineşte ca om şi nu lucrurile rele sau bune care ţi se întâmplă. Acesta este horoscopul destinului pe care îl parcurgi într-un top al evenimentelor: calculează numărul victimelor pe care le reprezinţi în funcţie de latura propriei condiţionări care te trage în jos.

Aş putea spune, cu dezamăgire, că indirect Hank s-a făcut vinovat de moartea lor. Căci practic a uitat de ei, desconsiderându-şi astfel rolul de lider. Atunci când ai o responsabilitate şi nu ţi-o asumi, atunci când depinde de tine soarta unor oameni şi nu iei cele mai bune decizii în favoarea lor, atunci cu siguranţă tu eşti singurul vinovat de ceea ce li se întâmplă. Întreaga lor gamă de convingeri şi dorinţe nu justifică devierea ta de la obligaţiile care îţi revin prin natura funcţiei. Trădarea propriilor principii în favoarea dorinţelor oamenilor nu are scuză.

Condiţionarea pe care ţi-o impune nota profundă a evenimentelor, pentru a demonstra că ai dreptate în ceea ce susţii, poate fi privită din punctul de vedere al memoriei la care apelezi atunci când nu mai poţi accepta împăcarea cu tine însuţi. Te simţi copleşit de ceea ce ţi s-a întâmplat, eşti limitat în extinderea conştiinţei curate şi în acţiunile pe care le poţi face. Prin urmare, capacitatea fundamentală care joacă un rol vital în funcţionarea socială, emoţională şi cognitivă, constituie o consecinţă a condiţionării determinismului cu care eşti înzestrat.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să plăteşti sumele asigurate de pecetea destinului dacă evenimentul pe care l-ai anunţat s-a datorat unei variabile de tipul "întoarcere la persoana întâi" pe care nu eşti pregătit să o declari nulă?

Predai armele care fac din tine un adevărat lider? Tu îi laşi pe oameni să facă ce vor ei? Îi laşi pe ei să hotărască în locul tău? Când trebuie să accepţi tu condiţiile lor? Şi când trebuie să accepte ei condiţiile tale?

Leadershipul nu este realizabil din "materiale" ieftine, nu este fabricat după tehnologii capabile să determine reducerea preţului de cost al ceea ce putem numi prodotto finito , care este dat de clădirea unei atitudini de acceptare şi acordarea şanselor egale la viaţă. Este incompatibilă aspiraţia de a produce un impact puternic cu ideea de a te închide într-un turn de fildeş în care crezi că eşti singurul capabil să înfrunte o realitate cu totul nouă, în care nimeni nu prezintă încredere, iar soarta oamenilor să depindă numai de capacitatea lor de a se reorienta.

Din momentul în care cedezi în faţa voinţei membrilor echipei tale, din momentul în care pui sentimentele înaintea raţiunii, din momentul în care accepţi fără rezerve condiţiile şi cererile lor - din acel moment nu te mai poţi considera un lider. Ţi-ai pierdut puterea de influenţă. Căci, indirect îţi recunoşti neputinţa de a te impune în faţa lor, indirect îţi depui armele şi capitulezi.

Poţi fi sigur că oamenii vor fi înclinaţi de aici înainte să-ţi încalce toate hotărârile, nu se vor mai conforma şi nu vor mai respecta instrucţiunile primite din partea ta, nu-ţi vor mai da niciodată aceeaşi ascultare, pentru că le-ai permis să-ţi găsească punctul slab.

O poartă se poate deschide în faţa ta, dar se poate şi închide în urma ta. Dacă accepţi capitularea, poarta care ţi-a oferit acces permanent la respectul şi stima oamenilor se va închide, şi nu o vei mai putea niciodată deschide. Fă tot posibilul să înfrânezi rezistenţa oamenilor la schimbare, sădind în minţile şi inimile lor intenţiile tale neîndoielnice de a acţiona în favoarea lor.

Se poate spune că leadershipul conţine o variabilă de tipul "întoarcere la persoana întâi" pe care nu eşti pregătit să o declari nulă, cu precădere atunci când consecinţele evenimentelor sunt iremediabile şi eşti singurul în măsură să decizi cum vrei să fie viaţa ta şi a celorlalţi.

A te întoarce la persoana întâi înseamnă să-ţi asumi faptul că nu eşti un supererou care poate face orice, oricând, oricât, oricum, chiar dacă în tine există acel ceva care te motivează să faci un pas mare, care există pentru a duce la capăt un proiect complex scris cu litere de foc: "destin".

Destinul cenuşiu al sufletelor părăsite indică semnalul care anunţă sfârşitul carierei tale, când oamenii au avut de pierdut şi de suferit din cauza ta. Desemnează clipa cea mai grea din viaţa ta - când ies la iveală adevăratele tale defecte, când îţi sunt contestate calităţile de lider, când ai deviat de la traseul de bază al leadershipului şi ai căzut la cel mai mic nivel de încredere, când te-ai făcut vinovat de lipsa asumării responsabilităţilor.

Aşa cum un costum bine ales pune în valoare diferite calităţi ale celui care îl poartă - tot aşa o capacitate de decizie foarte bună, combinată cu o atitudine responsabilă, pun în valoare un caracter puternic. Ca lider, îţi va fi întotdeauna testat caracterul, şi în funcţie de cum îţi "administrezi" forţa decizională, vei suporta şi consecinţele.

Destul loc în care să-ţi adăpostești mintea

On Decembrie 26, 2017

Găseşte-ţi loc în ansamblul realităţii așa cum artistul își găsește loc în spațiul imaginaţiei.

Lumea mi se revela ca o absurditate de care eram sigur că nu voi fi capabil s-o controlez, suportând-o prin faptul că mă îndreptăţea la o nădejde pe care trebuia s-o păstrez chiar şi atunci când logica era pusă sub semnul întrebării. Raportul cauzal dintre antecedent şi consecvent, rămânând valid în contextul pluralităţii posibilităţilor de angajament faţă de o cauză ce există numai undeva în viitor, se concentra asupra unei realităţi greu de pătruns. Neîndoios, începeam să trăiesc senzaţia unui blocaj, a unei captivităţi din care nu puteam ieşi.

Decât cu preţul unei eventuale eliminări treptate din toate sferele de conţinut ale absurdului, accesibile mie prin două înfrângeri: pierderea încrederii în sine şi pierderea încrederii în ceilalţi, mai bine era să trăiesc cu o certitudine în care păream cu totul angrenat: că dacă nu voi lua o decizie fermă în privinţa artei de a crea o lume din nimic nu voi reuşi niciodată să slujesc o misiune imposibilă, cum ar fi căutarea permanentă a unei relaţii personale cu Dumnezeu.

Mă hotărâsem să descopăr acea călăuzire care să mă poarte spre cele lăsate în urmă, acel ceva care să-mi schimbe total viziunea, o percepţie lucidă a totalităţii şi a particularului ca parte organică a ansamblului. Poate și pentru că, în mare parte, ea apărea drept o repetiţie în alb şi negru a aceloraşi obsesii tematice pe care le întâlnisem doar în opera picturală a lui Salvador Dali. Astfel, aveam privilegiul de a mă vedea în ipostaza unui artist ce construieşte deliberat un scenariu potrivit pentru un spaţiu fără sfârşit, plin de întrebări filosofice despre zei, creatori şi dumnezei.

Practic, îmi anulam abandonul în fața posibilității de a mă exprima ca individ oarecare, unul care încearcă să lămurească în zadar o chestiune de inteligenţă, mai ales în limitele epurării materiale cu care operează desenul unei lumi noi, sinceritatea dintr-o artă fără compromisuri. Totul se datora chinului de a încerca o săritură peste o construcţie din gheaţă cum este realitatea unei lumi create împotriva legilor minţii mele, similară cu credinţa într-un Creator distinct de creaţia sa.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi descoperi locul în lume explorând însuşirea ideilor de efect pentru reprezentarea realităţii, prin proiectarea sinelui în creaţiile imaginate?

În astfel de cazuri începi să-ţi cercetezi cu atenţie atitudinile şi convingerile, în lumina unei flăcări ce se stinge în tine, dar creează o anumită disponibilitate, te sensibilizează, îţi invoca trăiri, îţi deschide ochii, pregătindu-te pentru un drum care duce spre o pârtie alternativă: începutul unei noi etape de viaţă. Just follow your own way / Don't give up and use the chance.

În momentul în care individualitatea omului se spulberă în contact cu puterea de fascinaţie a misterului creaţiei - viaţa şi chinurile devenirii, ni se revelează vidul transcendent al minţii în care se izolează visătorul, ca atunci când te afli faţă în faţă cu un nou început. Potenţialul meu de a surprinde o altă latură a concepţiei despre lume sau a surprinde ceva la care chiar nu m-am aşteptat, la acestea adăugându-se o stranie stângăcie a desenului numit „capătul deschis al tunelului", susţinea obsesia tematică a tuturor scrierilor mele.

A fi neglijat de inspiraţia divină este un soi de reproducere fidelă a realităţii lumii văzută de un artist care se află în opera sa, se contopeşte în ea şi totuşi, personal, stă departe de ea în temeiul unei concepţii apreciată drept eronată, despre existenţa prinsă în mrejele obsesiilor trecătoare. Aceasta este boala gândirii de a cere mai mult de la tine decât poţi să obţii.

O creație imaginată indică prezenţa simbolică a unei alte realităţi în care eşti numai tu şi Dumnezeu într-un dialog constant şi într-o lucrare pe care puţini reuşesc să o trăiască în viaţa de zi cu zi.

În cadrul relaţiilor dintre realitate şi lumea pusă sub semnul întrebării, care contrazic logica comună, se află însă, vii şi cu aceeaşi putere de sugestie, toate gândurile, revelaţiile şi proiecţiile simbolice pe care le conţine şi acum arta mea. Ele trimit spre un "The Path of Enigmas" a lui Salvador Dali, care parcă exprimă acea parte a experienţei extrasă din lucruri, semnificaţii şi valori, asupra căreia există un consens avansat, sugerand posibilitatea conexiunilor la orice distanţă cu un spaţiu fără margini.

Toate acestea fiind atribuite unei lecţii de evaluare a incertitudinii în care eram angrenat, care cedând locul unei lumi cu întrebări şi căutări, cu provocări şi anxietăţi, îmi punea în vedere refuzul de a accepta realitatea aşa cum este.

Locul meu în lume era același ca al unui artist în spațiul imaginaţiei: trebuia să revelez totodată geometria secretă a formei și a fondului, a umbrei și a luminii, dar cu riscul de a mă pierde în îmbrăţişarea unei povești de viață neverosimile.

A fi original înseamnă să-ți urmezi calea de a experimenta viața în domeniul artei, fără să excluzi sentimentul absurdului din rezultatele căutării unei viziuni noi asupra realităţii.

Destul loc în care să-ţi adăposteşti mintea există acolo unde încerci să-ţi explici logic anumite lucruri sau să găseşti tot felul de nepotriviri între ficţiune şi realitate, între artă și viață, fără să renunți la plăcerea vizionării unei picturi abstracte.

Detaşează-te de vechile metode

On Februarie 02, 2009

Clarifică-ţi ideile şi validează-ţi ipotezele cu privire la efectele benefice sau nocive ale leadershipului pe care îl practici, prin prisma influenţei exercitate asupra celorlalţi.

Închipuie-ţi următorul scenariu:

Anul 1940. Pe străzile Berlinului, o familie formată din soţ, soţie şi doi copii în vârstă de trei şi respectiv patru ani, se grăbesc spre casă.

Aproape că ajung în faţa casei lor când cinci indivizi îmbrăcaţi în pardesie negre se năpustesc rapid asupra lor. Meinhard simte o lovitură în ceafă şi îşi pierde instantaneu cunoştinţa.

Cinci ore mai târziu se trezeşte ghemuit, dezbrăcat, într-un balon de sticlă incasabilă, într-o cameră întunecoasă de mici dimensiuni. Dezorientat se uită în jur, încercând să-şi dea seama unde se află şi cum poate să iasă de acolo. Apoi privirile i se îndreaptă discret în stânga camerei, când un domn înalt şi bine făcut aprinsese lumina.

"Ascultă-mă cu atenţie şi nu scoate nici un cuvânt ! Nu vei afla niciodată cine sunt eu şi nici unde te afli. Familia ta este în siguranţă, deocamdată. Dacă vrei să-ţi mai vezi soţia şi copiii va trebui să ne ajuţi. Sarcina ta este să te gândeşti şi ne spui ce anume a cauzat explozia de pe submarinul U778 înainte ca acesta să fie scufundat în apele irlandeze. În stânga ta se afla un dosar cu toate informaţiile legate de submarin şi ultimele transmisiuni pe care le-au făcut membrii echipajului.

Ai la dispoziţie 48 de ore până se va consuma oxigenul din balonul de sticla incasabilă în care te afli. Dacă nu ne oferi un răspuns credibil şi concret în tot acest timp, nu numai că vei muri sufocat, dar îţi vom omorî toată familia."

Leadership: Tu îi ajuţi pe oameni să gândească liber, sau îi forţezi să-şi împingă limitele cât mai departe?

A gândi înseamnă să aduci la suprafaţă tot ce e mai bun din tine ca să îmbunătăţeşti produsul finit numit: "Ideal de Perfecţiune". Pe de altă parte, a face pe cineva să gândească, impunând o anumită stricteţe în acest sens, este o îngustare a perspectivei asupra potenţialului de transformare al omului într-un performer de elită.

Aceasta poate semnifica o situaţie de eşec temporar, datorat fie unei dezvoltări direcţionate eronat, gândită din capul locului în funcţie de un model marginal de leadership. Fie dificultăţilor de adaptare la exigenţele date de acumulările de putere, fie problemelor individuale de natură etică.

Merită oare modelul tău de leadership să fie luat ca exemplu? Modelul tău îi formează pe oameni sau le pune la încercare tăria sufletească şi mentală te a te accepta la conducerea lor? Ce se poate spune despre calitatea caracterului tău?

Eşecul în leadership apare atunci când gândirea omului intră în apartenenţa unei instanţe de decizie superioară ce condiţionează însăşi constituirea unei situaţii-sugestie. Aşa cum am mai arătat, cei care se ocupă de influenţă prin intermediul comunicării, încearcă să dozeze cu grijă factorii favorizanţi ai aparitiei situaţiilor-sugestie şi ai inducerii răspunsului sugerat.

Sugestia reprezintă influența exercitată asupra voinței cuiva, care declanşează reacţii spontane. Într-adevăr, înainte să obligi un om să te ajute, mai important este să favorizezi conceperea unei urgenţe reale care să faciliteze apariţia răspunsului la ceea ce cauţi. Omul nu trebuie obligat să coopereze, ci trebuie să i se alimenteze sentimentul de apartenenţă la o cauză care contează în primul rând pentru el.

Leadership: Poţi să modifici efectul care produce transformarea omului în contrariul lui, reducând în mod necesar influenţa premiselor şi cauzelor care au generat anularea oricăror forme de rezistenţă?

Gândeşte-te bine ce lider vrei sa devii, pentru că oamenii îţi vor stabili calea. Oamenii sunt cei care îţi adaugă valoare, care te ajută să atingi un nivel înalt de performanţă prin puterea lor de a pătrunde esenţa leadershipului tău şi de a-ţi accepta convingerile. Dar ce exemplu poţi fi tu dacă principala trăsătură ce îţi caracterizează stilul de conducere este umbrită de nişte valori nocive?

Efectul care produce transformarea omului în contrariul lui este mai degrabă un rezultat al constrângerii de a servi unui scop sau unei comenzi peste care stăpân este cel care recunoaşte modul în care te afectează o anumită situaţie.

Contrariul care se luptă permanent în tine, între ceea ce alegi să faci în mod conștient și ceea ce cumva trebuie să faci automat, este un produs finit numit imagine de sine negativă care te face să-ţi scadă motivaţia sau chiar o anihilează prin lipsa încrederii în forţele proprii. Contrariul este o îngustare a perspectivei ce implică anularea oricaror poziţii de putere într-o situaţie de tip "confruntare", unde ceea ce primeşti şi dai este condiţionat de evenimente de tip determinism din care nu poţi alege.

Dacă doreşti să ajungi un lider foarte bun, atunci ajută-i pe oameni să gândească liber, motivează-i să găsească soluţii la orice fel de probleme, dar fără să-i constrângi în nici un fel. Dacă promovezi metode subversive de convingere şi manipulare, dacă îi forţezi pe oameni să facă ceea ce nu se simt confortabili să facă, mai ales într-un mediu în care talentul lor nu poate înflori, atunci e clar că modelul tău de leadership nu aduce nici un fel de beneficiu.

Ai un plan de dezvoltare a leadershipului tău, printr-o schimbare pozitivă de sine? Clarifică-ţi ideile şi validează-ţi ipotezele cu privire la efectele benefice sau nocive ale leadershipului pe care îl practici, prin prisma influenţei exercitate asupra celorlalţi.

Premisele şi cauzele care generează anularea oricăror forme de rezistenţă de care trebuie să dai dovadă sunt determinate de ceea ce ţi se pretinde de crezi într-un context de îngrijorare, din care se naşte înţelegerea vinovăţiei faţă de tine însuţi, faţă de o anumită faptă sau faţă de un anumit factor existenţial.

În fotbal, jocul echilibrat înseamnă a realiza o justă repartizare de forţe, atât între compartimentele echipei, cât şi în vederea contracarării oricărei acţiuni a adversarului.

Leadershipul poate fi un „joc" echilibrat doar dacă realizezi o repartizare corespunzătoare a sferei tale de influenţă, care să ocrotească sănătatea şi integritatea ta. Responsabilitatea ta majoră este să fii un model pentru arta de a relaţiona cu ceilalţi oameni, şi un model de caracter. În vederea optimizării performanţelor proprii se impune o mai atentă analiză a resurselor umane pe care le ai în subordine.

Înainte să demonstrezi un punct de vedere care să fie adoptat de ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să creezi un efect de domino din elementele care practic ascund realitatea.

O crima misterioasă care avusese loc pe un vas de croazieră a stârnit panica între pasageri. Toate indiciile duceau spre o singură persoană, totuşi detectivul Columbo era convins că altcineva era de fapt criminalul. Cineva atât de şiret care a reuşit să trimită pe toată lumea pe o pistă greşită, şi care a ştiut să-şi ascundă urmele foarte bine. Aşa că, încăpăţânat până la Dumnezeu, Columbo a continuat cercetările: a investigat de mai multe ori locul crimei, şi-a alcătuit mai multe scenarii plauzibile, a pus o mulţime de întrebări tuturor pasagerilor. Ce mai, a devenit o pacoste pentru călătorii care doreau să-şi continue distracţia !

Observând deranjul pe care l-a produs Columbo peste tot în jurul lui, căpitanul vasului i s-a adresat pe un ton foarte serios: " Locotenente, de ce te încăpăţânezi să continui ancheta? Criminalul a fost prins. Mâine, autorităţile competente vor lua măsurile care se impun. Insist să nu mai deranjezi oamenii de pe vas ! "

Crezi că a reuşit căpitanul vasului să-l convingă pe Columbo să înceteze cercetările? Ei bine, nu. Columbo şi-a continuat ancheta şi până la urmă a descoperit cine era adevăratul criminal.

Leadership: Ţi-ai propus să cercetezi un fapt care pare neverosimil prin aprofundarea unei zone a punctelor de vedere exprimate prin intermediul unei descrieri insuficient detaliată asupra realităţii?

Uneori leadershipul se dimensionează în funcţie de următorul aspect: "Când lucrezi întotdeauna conform unor motive, iar aceste motive se schimbă, sau când intervin altele noi pe lângă cele anterioare, atunci şi hotărârea şi acţiunea ta se schimbă."

Astfel, leadershipul are valoare de perspicacitate şi particularizare, fiindcă eşti tentat să despici firul în patru şi să-ţi impui punctul de vedere fără drept de apel, mai ales dacă vine vorba de escaladarea unui adevăr care transcende raţiunea logică.

Dacă te pricepi la maşini, atunci ştii că rolul Unităţii de Control a Motorului (prescurtat ECU sau UCM) este de a comanda cantitatea de combustibil care intră în camerele de ardere. UCM primeşte aceste date de la senzorii amplasaţi în motor şi le foloseşte ca parametri de intrare în ecuaţiile pe care le are de rezolvat pentru a produce valorile de ieşire care vor comanda mecanismele de control ale motorului: injectoare, pompe, bujii.

La fel şi în cazul tău. Potenţialul tău este dat de acel „senzor" foarte activ din interiorul tău care măsoară felul în care percepi circumstanţele, modul în care gândeşti, simţi şi acţionezi - care dacă e reglat şi îngrijit cum trebuie creşte nivelul de încredere şi eficienţă, încărcându-te cu un elan si un entuziasm intens. Acest senzor creşte presiunea potenţialului tău în funcţie de tipul de personalitate pe care îl ai, în funcţie de pregătirea ta şi de disponibilitatea ta de a te implica în miezul tuturor problemelor care privesc cariera ta.

Pentru a da un randament maxim în activităţile pe care le întreprinzi trebuie să sporeşti controlul asupra funcţionării propriului tău „motor" de evaluare a configuraţiei realităţii pe care o găseşti străină - care îţi poate garanta performanţe mai bune şi putere mai mare de manifestare a aptitudinilor profesionale. Ştii să reglezi cum trebuie senzorul de detectare şi configurare a unei realităţi străine ţie?

Leadership: Poţi să produci un efect de domino asupra aspectelor care conduc la obţinerea unor rezultate pline de însemnătate, dintr-un fapt care pare a se desprinde din observațiile pe care le păstrezi doar pentru tine?

Efectul de domino presupune atingerea unei piese care angrenează alte piese într-o cădere continuă până la ultima. Este efectul cumulativ produs atunci când un eveniment declanșează un lanț de evenimente similare. Această abordare necesită de asemenea ca tu să ai o imagine de ansamblu asupra acţiunii, proceselor şi lucrurilor aflate într-o desfăşurare unitară şi continuă, în condiţiile în care identifici resursa principală a unei acţiuni viitoare.

Înainte să demonstrezi un punct de vedere care să fie adoptat de ceilalţi oameni trebuie să creezi un efect de domino din elementele care practic ascund realitatea.

Pentru ca impactul tău cu excelenţa (în domeniul în care îţi desfăşori activitatea) să se producă într-un ritm rapid şi controlabil, fără să afecteze esenţa valorii tale şi integrativitatea sistemului tău de funcţionare, trebuie să adopţi o atitudine de învingător. Trebuie să te implici în propriul tău rol de investigator. Adică, trebuie să te transformi într-un Columbo, să îţi întăreşti capacitatea de a produce un efect de optimizare a acelor procese care conduc la obţinerea unor rezultate pozitive, nu false.

Cum te implici în eficientizarea acestui rol?

Priceperea ta excelentă într-o zonă de activitate şi atitudinea formează acea pârghie care transmite energia propulsoare necesară atingerii unei performanţe superioare. Înainte să demarezi o carieră care să-ţi deschidă perspective noi este foarte important să îţi defineşti o atitudine de investigator de realităţi şi ipoteze.

Leadership: Eşti interesat de contextul descoperirii unei "piese" care verifică posibilitatea obţinerii unei reacţii în lanţ controlate, prin crearea unui spațiul privat care devine resursa unei acțiuni viitoare?

Probabil deviza lui Columbo a fost dintotdeauna: “ Nu voi da niciodată, dar niciodată înapoi, până când nu descopăr adevărul. ” Acesta este genul de mentalitate pe care trebuie să-l adopţi şi tu atunci când te confrunţi cu o problemă dificilă. Trebuie să fii deosebit de perseverent, chiar încăpăţânat, pentru a putea găsi soluţia optimă. Iar dacă vei fi îndeajuns de hotărât să mergi până la capăt în ciuda tuturor piedicilor pe care le întâmpini, cu siguranţă vei găsi o rezolvare care să te mulţumească.

Ce-ar fi fost dacă Columbo ar fi abandonat acel caz complicat şi ar fi lăsat în grija autorităţilor finalizarea anchetei? Ai ghicit. Şi-ar fi pierdut reputaţia. Toţi colegii săi de serviciu nu ar mai fi avut încredere în el şi nu ar mai fi apelat aşa des la ajutorul său. Cu alte cuvinte, Columbo ar fi devenit un ofiţer de poliţie obişnuit, un simplu detectiv de la care nimeni nu ar mai fi aşteptat prea multe.

Este atât de penibil să îţi pierzi reputaţia şi alţii, mai puţin talentaţi decât tine, să te depăşească prin eforturi susţinute. De aceea este atât de important să îţi păstrezi spiritul viu şi să fii mereu în alertă. Fiind mereu pregătit să acţionezi cu hotărâre în orice situaţie, străduieşte-te să găseşti soluţii mai eficace înaintea celorlalţi. Menţine-te pe poziţii favorabile. Fii încăpăţânat şi perseverent în eforturile tale pentru a-ţi atinge obiectivele propuse.

Un spaţiu privat care devine resursa unei acţiuni viitoare reprezintă fondul mentalităţii bazată pe soluţii, văzând o rezolvare în fiecare problemă şi o posibilitate în fiecare imposibilitate. Această mentalitate nu găseşte suport în realitatea exterioară, ci numai în percepţia interioară formată din contextul mai larg al interpretării unei părţi esenţiale ale revelaţiilor care încorporează semnificaţiile unor indicii de natură aparente care răstoarnă orice verdicte.

Dimensiunea deplină a rolului care îţi favorizează reputaţia de detectiv este dată de percepţia formată din contextul mai larg al zonei de explorare a realităţii ascunse în care "oprirea" nu este interzisă.

Asta ţi-a scăpat din vedere, nu-i aşa?

On Mai 07, 2014

Transformă-ţi leadershipul într-un instrument de verificare a realităţii, fără să încerci să scoţi la iveală adevărata valoare a oamenilor în funcţie de aşteptările tale.

Dacă vedem un stejar că este înclinat într-o parte, asta înseamnă că n-are rădăcini puternice? Această întrebare, stârnind o confortabilă stare de spirit, îmi aminteşte de filmul acela vechi de comedie, cu "Şcoala de hoţi".

Instructorul obişnuia să testeze încă din prima zi dibăcia elevilor săi. De fiecare dată când intervieva pe cineva, el lăsa pe masă o bancnotă de 50 dolari. Pleca câteva minute şi la întoarcere observa că bancnota încă era acolo. "Îmi pare rău pentru tine, nu eşti bun de meseria asta. Ar fi trebuit să... Ştii ce-ar fi făcut un hoţ adevărat, nu?"

Dar, stupoare ! Bancnota era tot acolo. Fiecare dintre elevi furase cu totul altceva de pe masă. Unul furase pachetul de ţigări, altul un măr, altul o floare din vază, altul o brichetă, etc. Prin urmare, cine a fost cel păcălit?

La testul final, când fiecare elev a trebuit să-şi dovedească în viaţa reală "calităţile", profesorul a ajuns la concluzia că niciodată lucrurile nu se vor aşeza după voia lui. Ceea ce se aştepţi să se întâmple, nu se va întâmpla decât întotdeauna altfel.

Leadership: Experienţa ta permite să fie încadrată în nişte parametri stricţi de îndeplinit, de o viziune dincolo de realitatea vizibilă?

Construim scenarii, punem la punct strategii, testăm tot felul de judecăţi, tragem concluzii despre oameni. Eronate. Contribuind totodată la amplificarea curentului de dezaprobare faţă de aceia care, în cazul leadershipului, îndrăznesc să avanseze spre un nivel superior de performanţă.

De ce? Fiindcă nu "simţim" adevărul, fiindcă nu vedem dincolo de ce ceea ce ne aşteptăm să facă oamenii, dincolo de cortina rigorii de a domina o realitate autoimpusă.

Când experienţa nu permite să fie încadrată în nişte parametri stricţi de îndeplinit, de o viziune dincolo de realitatea vizibilă, atunci viziunea însăşi este şubredă, nu experienţa.

De la prima până la ultima ta intervenţie în spaţiul de formare şi evaluare al oamenilor, poţi fi străbătut de un spirit potrivnic, de un stil ofensiv de leadership, constituind unul din elementele principale care provoacă o anumită frustrare în rândul oamenilor, determinându-i să se închidă în ei înşişi şi să coboare stacheta aşteptărilor excesiv de înalte.

Nu încerca cu orice preţ să testezi un om, căci adevărata lui valoare nu va ieşi întotdeauna la iveală în funcţie de aşteptările tale. Extraordinarul nu este niciodată evident, nu sare niciodată în ochi, nu este rezultatul unor legi proprii de construcţie a realităţii dorite. El se află întotdeauna acolo unde nu-l cauţi, acolo unde nici măcar nu te-ai gândit.

Leadership: Experienţa pe care ţi-o măsori prin abilităţile dobândite este o formă de a te supune unei realităţi exterioare care îţi dictează propria judecată şi onoare?

O viziune dincolo de realitatea vizibilă aparţine de obicei unei voinţe care judecă totul prin realizarea corespondenţei dintre ceea ce corespunde idealului de perfecțiune şi ceea ce corespunde unei exigențe a vieții practice greu de îndeplinit, mai ales dacă este arbitrară și contorsionată.

Asta ţi-a scăpat din vedere, nu-i aşa? Scoate în evidenţă acea latură a experienţei tale pe care o ignori datorită învelişului de stricteţe care acoperă ipostazele acelei viziuni ce completează realitatea adevărată.

Blestemul care te ameninţă

On Aprilie 14, 2009

Fii un deschizător de drumuri, dar fără să cazi în plasa blestemului de a te îndrepta înspre nemăsurat.

Atât de pasionat de surf, campionul şi-a îmbrăcat echipamentul specific unui surfer adevărat, şi-a luat placa de surf şi s-a aruncat vitejeşte în apă cu gândul de a traversa oceanul. Dorinţa lui cea mai mare era aceea de a realiza o fapta măreaţă, astfel încât să ajungă celebru.

Oceanul era liniştit şi limpede, valurile erau acceptabile, temperatura aerului era pozitivă, aşa că a putut să înainteze fără probleme. Dar pe măsură ce avansa în larg, oceanul devenea tot mai agitat, valurile erau din ce în ce mai mari, mai iuţi şi mai tumultuoase, vântul bătea din toate părţile cu intensitate. În ciuda vremii care s-a înrăutăţit vizibil, el nu s-a înspăimântat ci şi-a continuat drumul. Nu era prima dată când practica surfingul pe o astfel de vreme şi, pentru că avea experienţă, a crezut că îşi va putea menţine echilibrul necesar de care avea nevoie pentru a face faţă valurilor tot mai capricioase.

Apoi, deodată, totul s-a schimbat. Furtuna care începuse, s-a înteţit simţitor, surferul nu s-a mai putut lupta cu valurile, s-a dezechilibrat, a căzut de pe placa de surf şi nu a mai avut puterea de a se redresa. S-a înecat în călătoria spre celebritate.

Leadership: Eşti conştient de conexiunea ta cu tot ce te înconjoară atunci când intră în joc intenţia de exteriorizare a manifestării de voinţă?

Toate ambiţiile noastre se pot destrăma dacă nu punem suflet în tot ceea ce facem. Indiferent de genul de activitate pe care o prestăm, dacă suntem foarte pricepuţi şi talentaţi vom avea numai de câştigat. Însă atunci când mizăm pe o singură carte este bine să cumpănim de două ori înainte de a face pasul decisiv.

Dobândirea succesului personal este pentru unii o misiune contra cronometru – vor să ajungă la linia de final cât mai repede, dar fără să ţină cont de regulile jocului sau de gradul de periculozitate la care se expun. Nu trăim într-o junglă justă sau mai puţin justă, trăim într-o lume guvernată de reguli, de raţiune şi principii pe care trebuie să le respectăm. Iar dacă nu ţinem cont de ele vom avea numai de pierdut.

Exteriorizarea manifestării de voinţă, la stilul unei aventurări în necunoscut, este de obicei făcută cu intenţia de a demonstra un punct de vedere referitor la capacitatea de a duce la bun sfârşit un anumit scop.

Dar când ne gândim la o asemenea dovadă de curaj dus până la extrem ne vine în minte elementul psihic de natură vizuală: cum arată un om care stăpâneşte autocontrolul?

Cel mai probabil, un asemenea om este limitat doar la impresiile din afară, privindu-le cu mare interes. Este nesupus, încăpățânat, recalcitrant, lipsit de receptivitate, care opune rezistență influențelor străine, ghidându-se numai după zicala "dacă nu rişti, nu câştigi".

Leadership: Te expui pericolului de a-ţi pierde discernământul în contextul în care schimbarea de atitudine este singura constantă de identificare personală?

În cartea "Amurgul Gândurilor" , scriitorul Emil Cioran făcea o afirmaţie extraordinară: "Blestemul este o provocare nemăsurată şi el creşte în tărie cu cât se îndreaptă înspre nemăsurat."

Cred că oamenii cei mai experimentaţi într-un domeniu sunt mai expuşi pericolului de a-şi pierde discernământul. Şi asta din pricina faptului că au o încredere prea mare în forţele proprii şi în reuşită, excluzând orice posibilitate de eşec. Puţini reuşesc să-şi menţină echilibrul în apele tulburi în care înoată uneori. Iar valurile nenorocului abia aşteaptă să-i lovească pe cei plini de trufie care trăiesc într-o lume care nu face distincţie între realitate şi ficţiune.

Foarte mulţi dintre aceştia se delimitează de tendinţa de exteriorizare a reflecţiilor asupra propriilor experienţe, mai cu seamă în procesul formării unei perspective de înţelegere a importanţei personale în momentele de solicitare a conştiinţei din apropierea punctului de impact. Ei sunt cei care nu iau în calcul avertismentele din partea unor evenimente de maximă importanţă pentru ascensiunea lor.

Eşti un deschizător de drumuri? Nu există companii neserioase, ci numai companii conduse de lideri ineficienţi care iau toate deciziile de capul lor fără să se consulte cu nimeni şi fără să le pese de altcineva decât de ei înşişi şi de viitorul lor. Astfel de lideri nu sunt deschizători de drumuri nici pentru cei din jur nici pentru ei înşişi. De fapt, într-un fel se sabotează singuri în carieră şi în viaţă, spre bucuria celorlalte firme concurente de pe piaţă.

În dorinţa lor de a-şi arăta "superioritatea", ei iau decizii pripite fără să analizeze cu atenţie pasul ce urmează să-l facă, şi în final nu obţin nimic, la fel ca surferul care a vrut să traverseze oceanul pe o placă de lemn. Şi iarăşi spun, iraţional.

Nu poţi să ajungi undeva fără să şti că unde vrei să ajungi poate fi finalul cursei al cărui singur record îl constituie încălcarea dreptului la respectarea vieţii.

Concluzie: Cu orice chip, trebuie să eviţi să cazi în plasa blestemului de a te îndrepta înspre nemăsurat. Acţiunile pe care dorim să le întreprindem trebuie să fie urmarea unui studiu clar şi fiabil punând în balanţă câştigul şi pierderea. Este drept că dacă nu vom risca nu vom câştiga, dar dacă vom risca cu cap vom avea mai multe şanse să ieşim în câştig.

Combustibilul unui creator care înfrânează haosul

On Iulie 02, 2012

Găseşte calea spre adevărata esenţă a fiinţei umane, ca să sporeşti profunzimea şi calitatea Eu-lui tău.

Două constante se reflectau imperios în viaţa mea, fără să le pot separa: ceea ce sunt, de ceea ce pot deveni. Ca un om înflăcărat de un ideal de neatins, m-am lansat într-o aventură incitantă, neverosimilă. În care aveam să mă confrunt cu taine de nepătruns, indescifrabile prin varietatea sensurilor care se împleteau simultan, lăsând loc la tot felul de interpretări. Cu orizonturi şi semnificaţii mult mai adânci decât cele ale lumii reale, raţionale, pe care o credeam perfectă, şi în braţele căreia îmi cuibăream toate speranţele, toate visurile, toate resursele vitale.

Să fi fost o patimă absurdă a nebuniei?

Căzusem într-o extremă şubredă, total nepotrivită constituţiei mele umane, intelectuale, emoţionale. Un dezacord total cu mine însumi, între îngerii şi demonii care brăzdau cu lumini şi umbre universul meu interior, se născuse subit, manifestându-se în forma cea mai acută, forţată, a unor aspiraţii intangibile. Un proces de judecată a unui ideal utopic?

Ceva ce nu avea o finalitate concretă. Ceva ce nu putea fi destăinuit, fiindcă nu putea fi explicat. Ceva care se definea neîncetat, care se stingea şi aprindea, ca o lampă. Aici era răspunsul !

Ceva care se forma, care se modifica, care căpăta un alt cuprins, dând viaţă altor elemente supuse unei presiuni mecanice externe, tot mai intense, generând o tensiune continuă, filtrată cu posibilitatea de a fi reglată între anumite limite. Ceva care trăia şi murea, ca un motor ce necesită o întreţinere corespunzătoare, un câmp de energie universală care îmi putea limita sau lărgi capacitatea de a fi altcineva.

Expediţia de explorare a celor mai inaccesibile zone umane, începea. O întreagă gamă de aspecte, nuanţe, reflecţii, tipuri de relaţii, o lume necunoscută prin forma şi dimensiunile ei, se deschidea tot mai mult în faţa mea. O lume care te ridică sau te coboară, care te poate încătuşa şi poseda în fiecare clipă, ţinutul îndepărtat al unei realităţi superioare, situat dincolo de orice înţelegere umană finită, se contura la orizont.

Cinste acestei entităţi necuvântătoare, magia, care îşi desfăcea, măiastră, graniţele de adevăr în faţa voinţei mele !

Leadership: Ceea ce este provocator pentru a obține accesul la ceea ce nu cunoaşte nimeni, are putinţa de a fi accesat cu mai multă ușurință pe măsură ce îţi modifici proiecţia asupra imaginii care te reprezintă?

Tendinţa generală în leadership, această ştiinţă relevantă prin prisma influenţei ei, care priveşte înainte de toate natura umană, nu este spre diferenţiere, spre diversitate, ci mai degrabă spre omogenitate. Trebuie să uneşti toate acele părţi din tine care te definesc, şi să le aduci la un numitor comun, pentru a putea fi acceptate de toată lumea.

Este o condamnare categorică a leadershipului, a concepţiilor sau obiectivelor idealiste pe care le susţii, să încerci să maximalizezi sau să minimalizezi însemnătatea manifestărilor interiorităţii unei lumi fără exterior, fără să cunoşti îndeaproape aspectele majore ale realiăţii care asigură o imagine corectă şi fidelă a omului.

Magia leadershipului, labirintul puternic luminat de razele cele mai intense şi mai sănătoase ale ştiinţei de a înţelege fiinţa umană, are la bază un acord total cu tine însuţi, cu exploratorul din tine, întru identificarea şi întreţinerea acelor mecanisme declanşatoare de energii vitale, purtătoare de valori şi virtuţi nebănuite ce stau condensate sub o formă latentă.

Procesul de trezire a conștiinței şi a valorilor care remodelează fiinţa umană constituie, de fapt, premisa necesară şi obligatorie a unei dezvoltări eficiente, definitorie pentru conturarea trăsăturilor personale.

Imaginea care te reprezintă într-un spaţiu cu orizonturi şi semnificaţii mult mai adânci decât cele ale lumii reale, lăsând puterea de sine să-şi exprime nestigherită voinţa, este o îndepărtare de la regulile une societăţi rigide, în căutarea unor expresii şi trăiri revelatorii cu scopul de a-ţi redefini personalitatea.

Leadership: Aprecierea pe care ţi-o acorzi se face în funcţie de gradul de poziţionare faţă de ceea ce este superior înţelegerii obişnuite, în ecuaţia tendinţei de a produce un nou conţinut de realitate?

Ceva se schimbase la mine, de parcă aş fi făcut un legământ care unea viaţa cu universul. Două forţe se manifestau simultan, îmbinându-se şi echilibrându-se reciproc, ca nişte culori de curcubeu care vibrau şi parcă se despărţeau, şi se amestecau iarăşi într-o unitate desăvârşită. O voinţă divină şi voinţa mea, se contopeau, depăşeau orice închipuire, orice limită a raţiunii, devenind una singură, une seule force de connexion . Mă minunam câte emoţii şi întâmplări se îngrămădiseră în atât de puţin timp şi spaţiu.

Asemenea lui Epimeteu, care deschizând Cutia Pandorei a eliberat toate relele din interiorul ei, ca mai apoi, înfricoşat, grăbindu-se să închidă capacul, n-a observat că singurul lucru care rămăsese pe fundul cutiei era “Speranța” - eu m-am avântat în sferele înalte ale concepţiei omului despre lume, cultivând o nouă înțelegere a “activelor” din care este constituit el, supunând existenţa lui unor norme speciale. Dar fără să conştientizez că singurul lucru care trebuia analizat era tabloul, imaginea de ansamblu a întregii zone raţionale a universului, prin prisma manifestărilor de sine.

Împins de firea curioasă, am reuşit cumva să deschid poarta care făcea legătura cu Universul. Dar am plătit un preţ mare. Fără să observ, am căzut în ispită. Am început să mă transform tot mai mult într-un ostaş al ştiinţei, apărătorul exaltat al alchimiei, un Merlin obligat să desluşească semnificaţia luptei dintre bine şi rău la care era supusă fiinţa umană.

Sufeream tot mai mult de o mare povară. Trebuia să păstrez intactă “Cutia Pandorei”, să protejez cele mai însemnate taine ale fiinţei, ale vieţii, ale universului. Ca un creator care înfrânează haosul. Ca un magician, susţinător al unui mod superior de gândire.

Eram unicul autor al propriului meu destin.

Leadership: Cum vezi imaginea de ansamblu a zonei de înţelegere a naturii omului din nevoia de a fi unicul autor al destinului său?

Cunoaşterea oamenilor, proces în care te-ai aventurat ca lider, este esenţială în leadership. Cunoaşterea profundă a acestora, a relaţiilor dintre ei, a motivaţiilor individuale şi comune, presupune o analiză minuţioasă a naturii umane, o cercetare realistă şi mai ales prospectivă, a acestei forţe a maselor de oameni care te pot propulsa sau te pot destabiliza, ca lider.

Aşa cum chimistul distilează cu răbdare substanţe eterice din plante şi flori, tot astfel şi tu, ca să deschizi poarta care se găseşte la frontiera dintre tine şi ceilalţi oameni, trebuie să analizezi "tabloul", imaginea de ansamblu a întregii zone raţionale a omului, prin prisma manifestărilor sale. Apoi să încerci schimbi percepţiile care contribuie la formarea lui şi să le cuplezi la convingerile tale.

Leadershipul trebuie să se reflecte în straturile superioare ale entităţii numite "om". Prin urmare, ca să te ridici la înălţimea potenţialului tău de lider, mai întâi cultivă o nouă înţelegere a "activelor" din care este constituită fiinţa umană, pornind de la elementele pe care se bazează întreaga ei "construcţie".

Păstrează ferecată Cutia Pandorei, căci o dată deschisă, haosul va pune stăpânire în tot ceea ce ai creat în calitate de lider, iar pilonul principal pe care se sprijină întreaga ta dezvoltare se va prăbuşi.

A fi unicul autor al destinului omului înseamnă să te rezumi la a-ţi crea o lume din care dispar cuvintele "EI" sau "LOR", înlocuindu-le cu stimuli de tipul: "Eu sunt sunt singurul conţinut de realitate pe placul tuturor".

Combustibilul unui creator care înfrânează haosul reflectă poziţia personală adoptată faţă de cunoaşterea oamenilor în viaţa reală. Ca să avansezi în leadership trebuie să stimulezi conexiunile profunde ale unei perfecte autocunoaşteri, să evidenţiezi plusurile acelor părţi ale sinelui care alcătuiesc unitatea fiinţei tale.

Găseşte calea spre adevărata esenţă a fiinţei umane, ca să sporeşti profunzimea şi calitatea Eu-lui tău.

Amplifică-ţi nivelul de performanţă, activând acea opţiune utilă din modul tău de operare care îţi permite să obţii rezultate de mare efect.

Au pierit fiindcă nu au acţionat la timp.

În timpul unei expediţii în deşertul australian, un pluton format din 60 de militari a fost atacat din toate părţile de inamic. Comandantul le-a ordonat degrabă soldaţilor să se pună în poziţie de luptă. Aliniaţi în poziţie de tragere şi înarmaţi până-n dinţi, soldaţii aşteptau cu teamă ordinul de atac din partea comandantului lor.

Un glonţ l-a rănit mortal pe comandant chiar înainte să ordone atacul. Toţi soldaţii au fost măcelăriţi în timp ce aşteptau ordinul.

Liderul nu este o imagine care stă cuminte în propria ramă, arătând sobru şi impunând o anumită seriozitate în interpretare. Ci este o imagine care stă în spatele unei transformări strategice: de la statutul de muritor la o idee care nu poate fi ucisă.

Dacă îţi place să te plimbi cu bicicleta atunci ştii că cu cât pedalezi mai repede cu atât îţi poţi menţine echilibrul stabil. Dacă stai pe loc echilibrul tău se clatină serios.

A acţiona eficient înseamnă deseori să „pedalezi" cât mai repede. A acţiona rapid e deseori mult mai important decât dacă continui să creezi strategii sau dacă aştepţi momentul oportun de a te pune în valoare.

Prezenţa unui lider stă în raport direct cu gradul de concentrare a atenţiei în direcţia analizei riscurilor, cu o egală intensitate de conştiinţă îndreptată spre exercitarea atribuţiilor sale prin săvârşirea actelor de curaj şi eroism.

De regulă sentimentul de încordare si nevoia de a acţiona urgent te pot transforma într-un veritabil magnet pentru eşec – căci ele îţi fragmentează capacitatea de performanţă făcându-te să uiţi să te preocupi de toate detaliile importante care te pot susţine în demersurile pe care le întreprinzi.

Această fragmentare a capacităţilor proprii îşi pune amprenta asupra modului tău de funcţionare. Însă ea nu împiedică evoluţia ta, dimpotrivă, dacă este pozitivă poate favoriza apariţia succesului şi premisele unei dezvoltări durabile. Ea este menită să activeze în al tău modus operandi acea opţiune utilă care îţi permite să obţii rezultate, care îţi permite să te focalizezi asupra cuceririi unor teritorii virgine din domeniul tău de activitate.

Leadership: Îţi faci simţită prezenţa prin adoptarea unei priviri ce analizează totul din perspectiva consecințelor pe care le anticipezi într-o manieră ferită de riscuri?

Capacitatea de performanţă vizează toate trăsăturile fundamentale ale omului care sunt constante în timp, cu privire la scenele trăite prin prisma demersurilor şi înţelegerii reprezentării lor pe linia conştiinţei, fiind răspunzător de patternurile stabile de răspunsuri la situaţiile pe care le-a putut schimba în folosul unei identităţi colective.

Fragmentarea capacităţilor proprii, care presupune o anumită reprezentare despre tine pe temeiul unor însuşiri specifice colectivităţii în care trăieşti, este un proces de rupere spontană a legăturii dintre existenţa realităţii şi percepţia asupra ei, dintre ceea ce te inspiră şi ceea ce produci, dintre ceea ce vezi din spatele cortinei și ceea ce este pe scenă.

Aceste capacităţi, aproape eliminate în avans în procesul de planificare a propriului parcurs, sunt următoarele: capacitatea de a face deducţii cu privire la conţinutul comunicării unui pronostic, capacitatea de iniţiativă, spiritul întreprinzător, simţul răspunderii, perseverenţa până la finalizarea misiunii, capacitatea de a gândi problemele din diferite unghiuri, capacitatea de a acţiona în faţa schimbării, capacitatea de a anticipa cursul evenimentelor.

Leadership: Eşti conştient că prin mijloacele necesare concretizării obiectivelor propuse poţi determina manifestarea autorităţii unei autenticităţi care poate convinge chiar înainte de a lămuri?

Ideea de fi întotdeauna primul care „atacă”, este ideea de bază a negociatorului japonez. La şah, jucătorul care începe partida, albul, are întotdeauna un avantaj mai mare prin faptul că a făcut primul pas, prima mutare. Şi aşa cum am precizat puţin mai înainte, într-o bătălie, armata care deschide prima focul ar trebui să nu-i lase inamicului posibilitatea de a riposta.

Tot aşa, la proba de viteză, atletul care are startul cel mai bun de cele mai multe ori câştigă. O fracţiune de secundă poate face diferenţa între a fi sau a nu fi campion. Iar dacă nu ştii, de foarte multe ori studenţii care termină facultatea cu mediile cele mai mari, reuşesc să se angajeze în companiile de renume fără să se mai prezinte la interviu. Doar printr-o simplă recomandare. Aşadar, a ocupa primele poziţii, a fi printre cei mai buni, poate să-ţi ofere multe avantaje în timp.

În orice companie angajaţii cei mai valoroşi - care vin tot timpul cu idei noi, care sunt mai activi, care se implică permanent în rezolvarea problemelor sunt întotdeauna apreciaţi de manageri. De aceea sunt plătiţi mult mai bine şi sunt promovaţi mai rapid în funcţii superioare decât aceia care nu se dovedesc suficient de productivi.

Învaţă să creezi acea magie a predestinării care să-i determine pe oameni să se alinieze convingerilor, idealurilor şi acţiunilor tale într-un context de tipul: "singura greutate pe care nu o simţim, dar o trăim, este aerul, gloria şi istoria".

Acţionează eficient. „Pedalează” cât mai repede. Fii mereu cu un pas înaintea celorlalţi. Fii întotdeauna primul în domeniul în care activezi. Găseşte primul soluţiile cele mai bune la problemele ivite. Decide chiar azi că vei deveni persoana cea mai valoroasă din companie.

Dacă nu vrei să-ţi diminuezi unicitatea, amplifică-ţi nivelul de performanţă activând acea opţiune utilă din modul tău de operare care îţi permite să obţii rezultate cu efect spontan şi de durată.

Fii un model de eficacitate pentru arta de a conduce, creând acea legătură specială între oameni care să corespundă standardelor tale de excelenţă.

Două echipe de arheologi au plecat în Egipt cu un singur scop: de a descoperi o structură funerară a poporului egiptean. Amândouă echipele deţineau anumite informaţii precum că structura funerară se afla într-o anumită zonă, într-un perimetru de 640 de metri. Dar amândouă echipele au ajuns în acelaşi timp la faţa locului şi au început să se certe care dintre ele este mai îndreptăţită să efectueze săpăturile.

Unul dintre arheologii şefi ai uneia dintre echipe a intervenit şi a rezolvat problema.

- Perimetru este destul de mare şi guvernul egiptean ne-a lăsat doar două săptămâni la dispoziţie pentru a explora această porţiune de teren. Dacă dorim să descoperim ceva în acest scurt timp, va trebui să lucrăm împreună iar pentru asta trebuie să învăţăm să împărţim totul între noi.

Până la urmă cele două echipe de arheologi şi-au împărţit aria de căutare, şi amândouă au descoperit lucruri interesante.

Leadership: Îţi poţi amplifica potenţialul de a face lucrurile să se întâmple, pe măsura valorii de schimb pe care o acţiune o posedă la un moment dat?

Se poate afirma că există o valoare de tip "unitate" chiar acolo unde aparent ea s-ar părea că nu e aplicabilă, atunci când indiscutabil se declanşează un proces de rezonanţă care conduce la o amplificare a importanţei efectelor obţinute printr-un efort comun şi care pot fi cuantificate.

Potenţialul de a face lucrurile să se întâmple este o viziune care oferă ideilor noi posibilitatea de a lua formă şi de a se materializa printr-o acţiune sinergică care atrage atenţia prin anularea deosebirilor şi diferenţelor dintre oameni.

Aşadar, valorii de schimb pe care o acţiune de voluntariat o posedă la un moment dat i se poate atribui calitatea oamenilor de nu lucra contra voinţei lor la structura unui proiect de amploare, luând în considerare faptul că utilitatea unei cauze comune este aceea care face din modelul dinamicii de grup o obligaţie de rezultat prospectiv şi o valoare de referinţă a "premiului" final.

Acolo unde este evidentă unitatea oameni-muncă, adică acolo unde există pretenţii de cinste, de a face performanţă şi dorinţa de a construi ceva durabil (căci în munca de echipă totul se bazează pe aceste trei elemente), acolo unde se realizează o ordine a priorităţilor şi îmbunătăţirilor asupra cărora trebuie să treacă împreună – încurajarea asigurării cooperării trebuie să atingă potenţialul maxim, trebuie să fie superior realizată şi să dea o notă pronunţată de autenticitate – adică să producă simultan o putere activă, o energie capabilă să asigure productivitatea.

A nu reuşi să creezi acea legătură specială între oameni, astfel încât ei să se dezvolte conform aşteptărilor tale şi să evolueze pentru a fi mai optimi, deci conform standardelor tale de excelenţă, e ca şi cum ai încerca să ajungi cu bicicleta până la un punct îndepărtat pedalând în gol. Ca să ajungi cu bicicleta undeva trebuie să dai din pedale, în timp ce ceilalţi oameni te urmează.

Leadership: Legătura pe care o creezi între oameni corespunde standardelor tale de excelenţă, luând în considerare preţul final al unui beneficiu care nu oferă nicio distincţie între valoarea de investiţie şi valoarea de bilanţ a activelor nemateriale?

A câştiga este o deprindere. Ca şi a pierde. Depinde numai de tine cum îţi construieşti echipa. Poţi să îţi faci prieteni şi să înfrunţi orice greutăţi cu mai multă uşurinţă, sau poţi să îţi impui o atitudine neconstructivă şi să te încăpăţânezi să faci totul de unul singur. Este alegerea ta.

Lucrând cu alte persoane şi arătându-le că eşti interesat să continui lucrul cu ei, le câştigi respectul. Câştigându-le respectul îi determini să se implice cu mai multă energie şi seriozitate în activităţile pe care le organizezi. Acesta este punctul în care trebuie să-i aduci pe oameni: să pună suflet în munca lor şi să fie mândri de asta. Iar în cazul în care ceva nu merge bine, fă tot posibilul să eviţi disputele şi caută o soluţie comună.

Preţul final al unui beneficiu care nu oferă nicio distincţie între valoarea de investiţie şi valoarea de bilanţ a activelor nemateriale este însăşi plăcerea de a face parte dintr-un întreg de care depind părţile sale componente, un întreg care fără tine s-ar putea să nu mai funcţioneze la fel de bine. Devii lider numai prin abilitatea de a genera fenomenul "all for one and one for all".

Ca lider, datoria ta este să stabileşti o legătură cât mai strânsă între membrii echipei, să creezi acea atitudine cooperantă care să-i determine să presteze o muncă de calitate, să se implice pe deplin în atingerea obiectivelor comune. Prin urmare, dacă eşti managerul unei companii şi vrei să îţi atingi obiectivele propuse va trebui să îţi întemeiezi o echipă care să lucreze eficient, ca un tot unitar.

Fii un model de eficacitate pentru arta de a conduce, creând acea legătură specială între oameni care să corespundă standardelor tale de excelenţă. Învaţă să contribui la buna funcţionare a echipei tale punând la dispoziţie o infrastructură complexă de leadership şi excelente facilităţi de colaborare.

Leadershipul este ceea ce aduni laolaltă după ce ai terminat o anumită activitate, care poate fi reprezentat printr-un vector numit "sentimentul însemnătăţii nemăsurate".

Investeşte în excelenţă

On Aprilie 11, 2009

Pune-ţi în valoare capacităţile de cercetător până ce reuşeşti să scoţi aur viu de pe urma resurselor de cunoaştere de care dispui şi a atuurilor tale intelectuale.

Dintotdeauna oamenii au încercat să îşi imagineze cum va arăta viitorul. Care va fi situaţia lor financiară, cum vor sta cu sănătatea, în ce măsură îşi vor atinge obiectivele, oare va fi mai bine sau mai rău? Este ceva natural să te gândeşti la viitorul tău, să speri la ceva mai bun în viaţă, să încerci să faci lucrurile mai bine, să cauţi, să cerni, să calculezi, astfel încât să te îndrepţi numai către ceva mai bun şi să te pui într-o lumină cât mai favorabilă.

Nu-i aşa? Întotdeauna ne putem imagina un viitor mai fericit, mai luminos şi mai sănătos. Dar oare care sunt şansele reale că viitorul să urmeze calea pe care ne-o dorim noi?

Să spunem că eşti un cercetător în domeniul medicamentelor care îşi iubeşte meseria şi îşi dă tot interesul pentru a veni în sprijinul bolnavilor de SIDA. Zi de zi, ani de zile ai încercat să găseşti un tratament eficient pentru persoanele infectate cu HIV. Din păcate n-ai descoperit nimic concret. Toate încercările tale de găsire a unui medicament eficace au dat greş.

Şi deodată, într-o zi, un alt ton, de această dată al biruinţei: " Am reuşit ! Am găsit leacul ! ". Şi uite aşa, într-o clipă, ai devenit unul dintre cei mai faimoşi oameni din lume, şi putred de bogat.

Leadership: Încerci să descoperi noi modalităţi de percepţie a propriei eficienţe, influenţând apariţia anumitor efecte de revitalizare a zonei tale de profunzime?

Mulţi indivizi îşi ignoră propria lor valoare şi se împotmolesc fără soluţie în actul de judecată, în procesul de căutare a acelor căi de îmbunătăţire a performanţelor proprii, pe drumul către excelenţă. Din acest motiv, capacitatea de a face o cercetare de calitate în rândul factorilor care pot garanta nivelul optim de creare a rezultatelor, este foarte necesară.

Adevăratul lider, şi în aceeaşi măsură, artist cu viziune, este dominat de preocuparea pentru trecerea către un model de leadership inovativ. El încearcă să intuiască mai clar unitatea şi interacţiunea unor fenomene sau structuri ale realităţii prin extinderea unor categorii de factori preponderenţi care pot să influenţeze apariţia anumitor efecte de revitalizare a zonei sale de profunzime.

Leadership: Crezi că dezvoltarea graduală a capacităților tale poate deveni un imperativ al formării ce transformă efemerul în etern, conferind astfel o valoare unică fiecărei etape de evoluție în fluxul vieții?

Prin experimente, în sensul adăugării unor noi ipoteze suplimentare de cercetare a modalităţilor de interacţiune cu propriile realizări, căutând să descopere noi modalităţi de percepţie a propriei eficienţe în materie de exerciţiu intelectual, el poate să-şi asigure o funcţionare optimă, fără blocaje, şi un randament superior.

Coordonarea acelor activităţi de cercetare care pot să genereze un impact pozitiv asupra rezultatelor şi performanţelor individuale, urmărind dezvoltarea graduală a capacităţii de însuşire a elementelor de competenţă care, compuse, pot conduce la o inovaţie funcţională în leadership, este o cerinţă a evoluţiei. Aceste elemente sunt: capacitatea de a vedea lucrurile din perspectiva posibilităţilor de câştig şi capacitatea de a comunica conţinutul tău de valoare prin forma pe care o dai năzuinţelor tale.

Iar o activitate continuă de căutare a noi posibilităţi de valorificare personală depinde în mare măsură de metodele de auto-analiză şi auto-evaluare cunoştinţelor utilizate in procesul de creaţie.

Zona de profunzime a artei de a te individualiza, constituind fondul vieţii interne din care se plăsmuiesc visurile şi idealurile, îşi câştigă particularitatea de a fi chintesența succesului atunci când emani o fascinaţie aparte pentru însemnătatea curiozităţii cu care priveşti lumea.

Cu alte cuvinte, dacă vrei să te ridici la înălţimea pretenţiilor leadershipului de calitate este important să manifeşti o preocupare intensă pentru cunoaşterea lumii şi a cerinţelor ei. Gândeşte cât mai înalt şi încearcă să înţelegi mai bine cercetătorul" din tine. Adică să-ţi dezvolţi potenţialul creator până ce reuşeşti, asemenea unul alchimist, să scoţi aur viu de pe urma resurselor de cunoaştere şi a atuurilor intelectuale de care dispui.

Tu vrei să simţi că ai realizat ceva folositor, ceva care contează? Vrei desăvârşire? Vrei ca munca pe care o faci să fie importantă? Vrei să se cunoască ce ai făcut?

Dacă da, atunci creează-ţi propriul tău „laborator de cercetare" în care să-ţi pui în valoare toate calităţile. Laboratorul este acel spaţiu în care îţi exersezi abilităţile, în care ai libertatea de a experimenta, de a te căuta pe tine. Este un instrument menit să accentueze procesul tău de evoluţie şi să te aducă mai aproape de cariera la care visezi.

Fiecare om care „străluceşte" într-un domeniu are propriul laborator de cercetare a acelor forme generatoare de performanţă şi calitate - care influenţează în mod direct starea lui de funcţionare. Excelenţa este direct proporţionată cu rezultatele cunoaşterii de sine şi ale realizării tale intelectuale.

Leadership: Poţi să te valorifici prin capacitatea de a semnifica, adică de a sesiza şi de a comunica un sens nou al Eului şi al Lumii prin raportarea la o direcţie care se caută şi care se „cumpără"?

Înţelegi de ce unii oameni obţin rezultate mai presus de orice aşteptări? Pentru că ei acţionează în loc să se uite pe fereastră. Oamenii excelenţi nu aşteaptă să le pice din cer un seif gigantic plin cu bani, ci îşi hotărăsc singuri performanţa prin tot ceea ce fac, prin muncă, seriozitate şi stăruinţă. Desigur eşecurile nu-i ocolesc mai puţin decât pe ceilalţi oameni. Dar pentru ei toate aceste obstacole reprezintă un pas înainte spre succes.

Fără nicio îndoială, cel care munceşte mai mult şi cu eficienţă mai mare, care investeşte timp în idei productive - îşi sporeşte şansele de a fi strălucit. Dacă îţi propui drept ţel să fii unul dintre cei mai buni "jucători" din domeniul tău de activitate, probabilitatea de a-ţi atinge scopurile, de a-ţi transforma viziunea în realitate este mult mai mare. Din păcate lucrurile vor sta exact invers dacă nu excelezi în nimic.

Aşadar investeşte în excelenţă, fă tot ce poţi ca să ajungi excepţional de bun din punct de vedere profesional în domeniul în care activezi. Astfel, probabilitatea de a-ţi atinge obiectivele şi de a avea un viitor mai luminos este mult mai mare.

Leadership: Cum te vezi într-o cunoaştere care se numeşte "descoperire" sau "experienţa de a fi altcineva?

Investeşte în excelenţă ori de câte ori vrei să atingi succesul. Cum îţi sporeşti probabilitatea de a atinge excelenţa? Pune-ţi în valoare capacităţile de cercetător până ce reuşeşti să scoţi aur viu de pe urma resurselor de cunoaştere de care dispui şi a atuurilor tale intelectuale.

O direcţie care se caută şi care se „cumpără", găsind susţinere în plan material şi profesional, reflectă modalitatea de exteriorizare a voinţei făcută cu intenţia de a crea o nouă perspectivă asupra lumii prin intermediul unui imbold numit "Cunoaşterea unui om cu totul altul".

Dovedeşte fermitate critică în aprecierea formelor şi direcţiei dezvoltării de sine, fără să te sustragi autorităţii numită "forţă de interpretare a creaţiei".
